Ickes Offers Resignation To President

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7 (AP)—Secretary Ickes submitted his resignation to President Roosevelt today offering to step out of his interior department post when and if the White House chooses to accept it.

Ickes told his press conference he rejoiced in Mr. Roosevelt's reelection and in offering to resign a free hand to give the President a cabinet change.

Ickes acted similarly after the President's reelection in 1936, as is customary, but not all his colleagues in the cabinet followed suit.

He said he believed that all presidential appointive officials should do as he had.

"I for one," Ickes said, "believe the President should be left free at the beginning of a new administration to reshuffle, recreate or do anything he pleases with his official family, especially in view of the mighty task ahead of him."

Only three of the President's original 1933 cabinet remain—Ickes and Secretaries Hull and Perkins. There seemed little likelihood that Hull would leave his post at the state department. In circumstances similar to Hull's, with regard to holding jobs of especially current importance, are Secretaries Stimson and Knox.

Secretary Morgenthau gave reporters today a possible indication he expected to remain at the treasury when he spoke of plans he had for asking the next congress for another increase in the national debt limit.

Secretary of Commerce Jones, it was said, probably would not have gone to the trouble of waiting for congress to enact special legislation for him to hold that job as well as the federal loan administrator's, had he regarded the secretaryship as a post of brief tenure.

There was conjecture Secretary Perkins, whose regime at the labor department coincided with the AFL-CIO split, and there was nothing definite about the future for Agriculture Secretary Wickard, Postmaster General Walker and Attorney General Jackson.

He asserted that Sir Dudley Pound, first sea lord, was "not the man he was."

Long noted for his outspoken comment, Bower participated in a short debate on the sinking of the aircraft carrier Glorious with loss of 1,204 men in the Norwegian campaign.

He charged that he was shunted to an "inferior" appointment in the navy after writing to First Lord of the Admiralty A. C. Alexander that "grave concern was felt among many responsible members of the naval staff at the conduct of operations in Norway" and also in connection with loss of the Glorious.

He declared that the war was not being fought to set up Alexander "as a little pinhead Himmeler with a tinpot staff."

Contracts Awarded In Orange Program

ORANGE, Nov. 7 (AP)—Sub-contract in connection with the new building program here were let today to the Atlantic Gulf and Pacific company of Houston and to Spence and Howe of Port Arthur.

The Houston concern was given the contract for dredging 3,000,000 cubic yards of material from the bed of the Sabine river channel near the shipyard site where 12 destroyers will be constructed.

The Port Arthur company was awarded a contract for driving foundation pilings for the first two permanent shipyard structures. The sub-contracts were let by the Bechtel-McCone-Parsons corporation.

I Heard . . .

That Alfred Franklin Myers, son of Mrs. Evelyn Myers, has enlisted in the United States Marine corps and is en route to San Diego, Calif., for training. He is a Pampa High school graduate.

One hundred per cent cooperation was reported by the Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce finance committee on the first day of its drive to secure finances for its annual Santa Day celebration to be observed December 7 this year. The drive opened with a breakfast yesterday morning.

"We didn't have a single turn down yesterday," Finance Chairman B. Altman reported today. "I hope workers can finish the drive by tomorrow night."

Money secured by subscription from merchants is used to finance the entire Santa Day celebration and not just for street and home decorations and prizes. It was pointed out today by General Chairman Charlie Lamka. The money is used to purchase and hang street decorations, not already on hand; purchase a "candy" to give the children after the parade; pictures to be shown at local theaters free to kids coming to the city; to feed band members coming here for the parade, and other expenses.

Chairman Lamka announced two new committees today. The publicity committee is composed of Jimmie Dodge and Wayne Phelps and the decorations committee of D. L. Parker, chairman, Jimmy Myers, Steve Matthews and Art Carver.

Poppy Funds Go To Disabled And Needy Veterans

Approximately 50,000 poppies are being made each week by disabled ex-service men, patients in U. S. Veterans' hospitals throughout the country, in preparation for the nineteenth annual Buddy Poppy sale of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, according to Jim Sturgeon, who is in charge of arrangements for the local sale, which will be held on Saturday, Nov. 9.

"All Buddy Poppies distributed by the V. F. W. are made by disabled and needy ex-service men in government hospitals."

"The Veterans of Foreign Wars inaugurated this method of manufacture some years ago, with the cooperation of the United States Veterans' administration and the sale is devoted to welfare and relief work for ex-service men and their families, including an allotment to our National Home for widows and orphans of ex-service men."

"Buddy Poppy" is the name chosen by the men themselves. Each flower carries a copyrighted green label which guarantees to the public that these poppies were fashioned by the hands of disabled veterans. The entire proceeds of the sale are devoted to welfare and relief work for ex-service men and their families, including an allotment to our National Home for widows and orphans of ex-service men."

"The white house has annually endorsed the sale of poppies as conducted by the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the U. S. It is also endorsed by the General Federation of Women's Clubs and by state federations; William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor; fraternal organizations, religious leaders, and business and professional associations."

Three Charged In Garage Theft Case

Pampa police yesterday identified three tires as the ones that had been taken from the Schneider hotel garage recently.

Three men have been charged in alleged connection with the case, following their arrest by county officers.

The men are listed on records of the sheriff's department as Charlie Guyton, Major Henderson, both negroes, and a white man, who gave his name as Tom White, Poston Metal company employee.

Guyton is being held in county jail on a charge of theft. Henderson was released on a theft charge after posting bond, but was later re-arrested and is being held for investigation. White was released on posting $1,000 bond.

County officers said three five-gallon cans of oil and six gallons of gasoline were known to have been taken from the garage. Guyton and Henderson had been employed at the place, according to a deputy.

Mexican Minister Resigns Position

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 7 (AP)—General Eduardo Ray, 63-year-old minister of foreign affairs, said today he is "retiring to private life for good" on Dec. 1, when President Cardenas' term expires.

Main problems General Ray has had to face during his six-year tenure of office, have been the controversies arising from the expropriation of foreign oil companies and American owned land.

TRAIN-LOAD OF CATTLE SHIPPED FROM HOOVER

The Top O' Texas is still cow country—when you get away from the oil wells and the wheat lands. And they still ship train-loads of cattle away from this community, but not as often as they did 40 and 50 years ago. The above pictures are scenes made when a train-load of cattle were shipped last week from Hoover. The 1,600 cattle were driven overland from the Tex-Mex ranch north of town to Hoover which is about eight miles northeast of Pampa on the Santa Fe. The center picture shows the cowboys herding about 100 head into the Hoover stockyards. The cowhands loaded about 100 head at a time, cutting out that number each time from the main herd which was held in the pasture about a half-mile from the corrals shown above. The upper picture shows the two-year-olds going up the chute to the cattle car. Lower photo shows part of the cattle in the stockyards. The cattle were sold by the Tex-Mex ranch, owned by Frank Kell, Wichita Falls capitalist, to Gene Mullen who shipped them to Harmony, Okla., in the Osage country to the feeding pens. W. M. Kemp, father of Albert Kemp, former Harvester football star, is foreman of the Tex-Mex ranch. The brand of the ranch is Bar K. Few cattle are ever shipped from Pampa any more, on account of the difficulty encountered in driving the cattle to the stockyards. Most ranchers drive their cattle to Hoover and ship from there, and they eliminate traffic and highway problems.

TUNEFUL HIT TO BE REPEATED TONIGHT

Kiwanis Revue Wins Big Crowd's Cheers

By BROWNWOOD EMERSON

Babies squall, alarm clocks ring, pistol shots are fired—all adding to the unexpected merriment in the Pampa Kiwanis club's Top O' Texas Revue, which was staged last night at the Pampa High school auditorium. The show will be repeated at the same place at 8 o'clock tonight.

Full of more surprises than a political campaign, as colorful as a Hollywood premiere, and sparkling with humor, melody and beauty, the revue amply vindicated advance claims of originality.

Nothing like it has ever been seen before in Pampa. That's a broad claim, but one easily proved. For it is most certainly not a minstrel, not a play, not an operetta, but a brand-new, streamlined, All-Pampa musical show.

That most certainly does not mean a dull repetition of routine songs and dances. There's plenty of songs and dancing galore, but there is something more—crisp, humorous lines, brilliant stage settings and lighting effects, a production that does not lag a single second, and zips along at a rapid pace.

Despite the fast action, there's no hodge-podge arrangement, for each part of the show fits into the other as neatly as a glove.

Smooth Production

A crowd that filled more than two-thirds of the auditorium last night did not have a bored moment during the opening western scene down to the patriotic finale.

Songs for the entire show were composed by Ken Bennett, who directed the revue. Another criterion of the excellent quality of the production and adding to the originality of the show is the fact that never before has a local audience heard all-new songs, written by a local man, for a local production.

In the western scene the songs are "I Love the Life of a Cowboy," "There's A Light Shining Bright in Texas Tonight," "Now Every Cowboy has a Sweetheart," and the tuneless, chanting of "I've Been Riding in the Range All Day."

"Don't You Think So, Mr. Mendlesohn, Why Certainly, Mr. Bach" is the humor melody of the production. In the second scene, "The Star Gazer."

In the third scene, the romantic side is centered, with two soloists, a dance solo, and a dance group participating in "Out of the Darkness."

"Maid from Mars," with a song, and a dancer featured, adds a mystical touch to the show, which is followed by the glamour of "Looking Through the Window," in which beautifully dressed girls step forth from a very real looking window on the stage.

Tex DeWeese ably emceed the show. Dances are directed by Vivian Barson, light effects by Kenneth Carman, and stage settings by Jim Edwards.

Christmas Presents Destroyed By Fire

GOOSE CREEK, Nov. 7 (AP)—Santa Claus has 39 days left in which to replace $60,000 worth of Christmas presents, destroyed by fire in a store here today.

Members of the fire departments of Goose Creek, Baytown, Pelly and LaPorte battled the flames for an hour and a half before controlling them.

Besides the stock loss, damage to the building and fixtures totaled an estimated $40,000.

Italy Sends Two Million Dollars To Mexican Minister

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 7 (AP)—Reliable reports of a mysterious shipment of $2,000,000 in United States currency by diplomatic pouch to the Italian legation here stirred speculation in diplomatic circles today.

The pouch was seized and opened by custom authorities yesterday when they halted a special courier bearing it from the Italian embassy in Washington. After the examination, the pouch was returned to the courier.

Count Alberto Marchetti, Italian minister, protested to the foreign office and received an official apology. The government said an "inexperienced" official had been responsible.

At the Italian legation it was explained the money had been brought here to meet the legation's routine expenditures and to pay the wages of sailors on several Italian vessels now refueling in Mexican ports.

Flynn Also Predicts
NEW YORK, Nov. 7 (AP)—As a political prognosticator, Edward J. Flynn is the equal of former Democratic national chairman, James A. Farley, who predicted that President Roosevelt would carry 46 states in the 1936 election.

In his pre-election forecast, Flynn gave the Republicans a maximum of nine states—and that's what they won. However, he slightly underestimated Wendell Willkie's electoral vote. He said it would be 56; it was 53.

Armistice Theme Of Rotary Program

Armistice day was the theme of the Pampa Rotary club's program at the club's regular weekly luncheon at noon Wednesday.

Dr. S. H. Condon, head of the department of government at West Texas State college, Canyon, was the principal speaker. In his talk, he defined Armistice day as not one of commemoration of a victory, but commemoration of an act.

Experiences of his attending his first Rotary meeting, held at sea on a trans-Atlantic liner, were told by the Rev. Spencer T. Austin of Duncan, Okla.

Attendance at the luncheon was 44, including the following guests: Olin E. Hinkle, Rev. Sam A. Thomas, Dr. Condon, all of Canyon, and the visiting Rotarians: the Rev. Augustus, Mrs. Elsie Hutchinson of Dallas; the Rev. Robert E. Bohn and L. N. Atchison, both of Pampa.

The Consolidated PBY patrol bombers have a gasoline capacity of 1,700 gallons and a range of 4,000 miles.

THOROUGHLY PRACTICAL APRON

PATTERN 8824

Slip this apron on over your head; feel it settle itself comfortably so that the straps won't slip off the shoulder, no matter what you do; tie the sash bows in the back—and you'll know that you have on a practically perfect overall. And besides all its useful virtues, it's a pretty thing to look at—slim at the waist, just enough flaring at the skirt, with bright outline of ric-rac. Of course you can't slip it on and enjoy it until you send for the pattern (No. 8824) and make it. But that's easy. You can finish it in a few hours.

As a matter of fact, you'll make it many, many times—not only for yourself but to give away, and to sell at church and club bazaars. Folks dot percale, checked gingham, flowered calico and plain chambray are nice apron cottons.

Pattern No. 8824 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18, 20; 42, 44, and 46. Size 16 requires 2 1/2 yards of 35-inch material without nap; 7 1/4 yards of ric-rac braid.

For a PATTERN of this attractive model send 15c IN COIN, YOUR NAME, ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER and SIZE TO The Pampa News Today's Pattern Service, 211 W. Wacker Drive, Chicago, Ill.

Have you seen the new Fall and Winter Fashion Book? Better send for it right away. You can plan your whole wardrobe from it, from morning frocks to formal ones. You can sew your own, with these simple, carefully planned patterns! Have more clothes—more individual clothes—and save money besides! Pattern, 15c; Pattern Book, 15c. One Pattern and Pattern Book, ordered together, 25c.

Audrey Fowler Named Delegate To B-PW Meet

At the monthly executive board meeting of Business and Professional Women's club this week in the city club rooms, Audrey Fowler was named delegate to the South Central Regional conference which will be held in New Orleans on November 9, 10, and 11.

At the executive session Opal Wright, health chairman, discussed a program to be given later in the year with a guest speaker and pictures on cancer control. The health committee will have a monthly recreational night on the third Thursday.

Attending the meeting were Ruth Walstead, Mildred Lafferty, Mary Fleming, Madge Rusk, Madeline Murray, Lillian McNutt, Julia Kelley, Dalton Hall, Opal Wright, Lillian Jordan, Jess Bumpass, Mabel Goe, Audrey Fowler, Vera Lard, Mildred Overall, Ruba McConnell, and Letha Northrup.

Guests To Speak At Winter Meetings Of Girl Scouts

CANADIAN, Nov. 7.—Mrs. Logan Owens, sponsoring the local Girl Scouts, has planned for a guest speaker for each monthly meeting of the girls during the winter months.

A number of one of adult clubs in Canadian will be asked to meet with the Girl Scouts and discuss some question important to them. Some of these topics will be "Character-building," "What Constitutes Good Grooming," and "Choice of a Career."

Next summer the usual camping, hiking, and outdoor activities will be resumed.

Men drivers outnumber women drivers by about three to one.

Here's Real Relief For NOSES THAT CLOG, DRY UP AFTER DARK

3-PURPOSE MEDICINE
How much better you feel when you clear your nose of transient congestion with V-a-tro-nol. V-a-tro-nol does 3 important things: (1) shrinks swollen membranes; (2) soothes irritation; (3) helps flush nasal passages, clearing clogging mucus, relieving transient congestion. It makes breathing easier, invites sleep.

If a cold threatens, V-a-tro-nol used at first sniff or a sneeze helps prevent colds developing.

Two Members Of Parent Education Group Hostesses

Mrs. M. E. Lamb and Mrs. Joe Tooley were hostesses to the American Association of University Women's Parent Education group this week at a meeting in the city club rooms.

Roll call included answers to the question, "Should we choose our children's friends?" followed by the introduction of guests.

The guest speaker, Mrs. H. H. Hicks, was introduced by the president, Mrs. Carleton Nance. Mrs. Hicks spoke on the subject, "We the Parents," in which she discussed the responsibilities of parenthood and the importance of a good home influence in developing desirable character traits and good health in children.

She stated that it is the inherent right of every child to be happy and healthy and that parents need to have a better understanding of their children in order to cope with their problems.

Nursery for the children was held at Rice's Kiddie Kollege.

Refreshments were served to the following members and guests: Misses Glen Barnes, Wiley Day, W. A. Rankin, J. K. Coats, V. P. Shelton, Robert H. Sanford, Frank D. Smith, Robert Smellage, Tom Dean, Raymond Herring, R. P. Blefeldt, Dick Rhoades, J. A. Meek, J. T. Scarberry, Carleton Nance, H. H. Hicks, and R. H. Nenstiel.

Woman's Club Has Program On History Of Music In Texas

SPECIAL TO THE NEWS

ANALAN, Nov. 7.—Mrs. Fernman Williams was hostess at the regular meeting of the Woman's club in the parlors of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union building this week.

The club voted to take charge of the apron booth at the annual WCTU bazaar in December, each member contributing an apron to sell and members in turn assisting during the two-day bazaar.

Club also voted to take part in the seventh tea at Permanent Headquarters in Austin next week. This is a courtesy to the candidate, Mrs. J. W. Walker of Plainview, for president of the Texas Federation of Women's clubs.

The program was a lesson on History of Music in Texas, based on the book by Dr. Leta M. Spell, prominent in music circles in Austin and whose work includes teaching, composing, collecting of Southern folk lore for an Eastern publisher, and the year 1937 spent in South America in intensive study of the music of Latin America.

The speaker used the divisions as given in the book, 1. The Period of Dissemination, 2. Absorption From A Foreign Field, 3. The Period of Amalgamation, 4. Beginnings of Creative Work.

Various pieces of music typical of the different periods to Texas history were rendered, Mrs. E. N. Matthews, soloist, Mesdames R. N. Matthews and R. M. Hobdy, duet, Mesdames Pitt and Matthews, duet, Mrs. W. A. Fite, accompanist.

Valse Serenade, a piano number by David Guico, was interpreted by Mrs. Bill Flewelling.

Mrs. Mary Henson, Mrs. John Payne, and Mrs. W. A. Merrill were guests.

White candles were placed at each end of the table. Bouquets of chrysanthemums were arranged throughout the room.

Members of the society are: Martha Jo Freeman, Everist Bednorz, Merle Johnson, Mildred Haggerty, Aladen Werth, Angeline Urban-cyk, Mary Elizabeth New, Donna Newton, Frances Lamb, and the six initiates. Miss Claudia Everly is the sponsor.

Guests present were Messrs. and Mesdames Glenn F. Davis, M. B. Pickens, V. G. Werth, Ben Urban-cyk, J. H. Lamb, C. E. Beene, F. L. Haiduk, and J. P. Weatherall; Mesdames A. L. Johnson, John Dar-nell, D. C. Banks, J. C. Freeman, Earl New, B. R. Moore, J. E. Moore, W. J. Haggerty, and B. R. Weeks.

Misses Virginia Martin, Gladys Holley, and Odessie Howell; and Messrs. Allen Stecker, De Vere Walker, and Wendell Cain.

Order Numbers Expected To Be Posted Today

Sending out questionnaires to selectees in Gray county will not be done until a check is made of order numbers, entered on the 36-page master list received here.

It was expected that the check would be completed today, after which the order numbers would be posted and a list released to the newspapers.

Date of the first call is November 10-26. Gray county's quota is seven. Collingsworth, 3, Denley and Carson counties, two each. The state quota is 1,573.

Questionnaires have been filled out and returned by eight of the nine volunteers applying at the local office.

After questionnaires are sent out, the next job of the board employees will be to start the classification record. This will show all that has been done on registrant's case.

An additional list of registrants released today, makes the total number of Gray county selectees, 3,383. These are as follows, address Pampa, unless otherwise noted:

3365—Joseph Elly Manos.
3366—Clinton Maurice Evans.
3367—Lloyd Alvin Hancock.
3368—James Gordon McConnell.
3369—Clifford Marion Canon.
3370—Charles Laughlin Decker, McLean.
3371—William Walter Morris, McLean.
3372—Beauford Abraham Norris.
3373—Joe Land Bowden, Kingsmill.
3374—Spencer Allen Matlock.
3375—Clarence Clay Hayter, McLean.
3376—Dennis Ray Lowe.
3377—John Postwick Leland, McCaney.
3378—Cullen Hartwell May, Strawn.
3379—Edward Madison Rabun.
3380—Lloyd Robert Carmichael.
3381—Ernest Landon Hammill, Jr., Adrian.
3382—Frank Edward Sullins.
3383—Day Ernest Holloway, Newlin.

tripped their bomb racks almost directly above crowds of thousands standing in the streets to watch the dogfights overhead.

Other Nazi raiders scattered bombs over a wide area from the south coast of England to Scotland.

From the sound of some of the raiders' motors, British observers said they were sure the Italians were taking an increasingly large part in the assaults upon Britain.

Although some persons were killed and injured in London, and a number of homes and apartment houses were destroyed, the British government said damage and casualties were not in general large.

Earlier this morning German long range guns on the French coast opened up and shelled the Dover area for more than two hours.

Soviet Russia, celebrating the 23rd anniversary of the Bolshevik revolution, reaffirmed a policy of armed neutrality, Russia, which in the past 14 months has gained territory from six neighbors, was reported unofficially in Turkey to have withdrawn some troops from the Turkish border as a goodwill gesture.

Hitler's high command reported heavy aerial blows against the British merchant marine, including:

1. An attack on a British convoy 300 miles west of Ireland, in which three 6,000-ton freighters were so severely damaged that "their loss must be reckoned with."

2. An 8,000-ton merchantman hit amidships and sunk off the Orkney Islands, another freighter bombed off Britain's east coast, and still another in Kinloch Castle harbor, on Scotland's west coast.

3. Damaging attacks on the shipping ports of Southampton and Liverpool, as well as Birmingham, Coventry, Great Driffield and Leningrad.

Long-range RAF bombers retaliated by attacking the Berlin suburb of Spandau, the London air ministry reported while other RAF bombs were dropped on "a concentration of shipping" at Cuxhaven, Germany, and on a convoy of ships off Den Helder, Holland.

Jerry Boston Buys Grocery Department Of Piggly Wiggly

Purchase of the grocery department of Piggly Wiggly by Jerry Boston from his brother, Carl Boston, was announced today.

The purchaser was connected with the store here during 1929, 1930, and 1931. He returns to Pampa from Perryton where he owned and operated the Rite Way grocery and market.

A complete line of fresh fruits and vegetables has been added and the grocery department of the Pampa store has been completely restocked.

Plans for Armistice day for a new building will be discussed when Kerley-Crossman post of the American Legion holds its regular meeting at 8 o'clock tonight at the American Legion hall.

Fred Pollard, who underwent a dangerous eye operation at Amarillo, recently, was released yesterday from Worley hospital. The eye is recovering satisfactorily.

Plans for a cooperative poultry market in Gray county were discussed at a meeting held this morning in the county court room.

County Farm Agent Ralph E. Thomas and Mrs. Julia E. Kelley, Gray county home demonstration agent, led the discussion.

Altha Mae Duren of Pampa, WTSO sophomore, recently attended the annual meeting of Texas Home Economics Association of College clubs, in Lubbock.

Condition of little Kay Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wilson, was reported improved at her home today.

Vincent Morine, operator at the local Western Union office for the past seven months, left yesterday for Washington where he has accepted a civil service appointment as clerk in the war department.

Hal Lucas, owner of the Pampa Coca-Cola Bottling works, flew to New York today to attend a conference of Coca-Cola company operators. He will return Monday in time to take charge of the annual Red Cross roll call of which he is general chairman. Before leaving he urged workers to complete their "big gifts" campaign by Saturday.

City officials were notified yesterday by William Hatcher that new sidewalks had been destroyed on North Main street.

Stocks Rise After Normal Auction

NEW YORK, Nov. 7. (AP)—Industrial shares, particularly steels, rose heavily along with such staples as wheat and cotton in today's markets. In the wake of Secretary Morgenthau's announcement in Washington he would ask congress for a sharp boost in the debt limit.

U. S. Steel rose nearly $5 a share to a new high for the year at $72, while Bethlehem steel advanced nearly as much. Stocks up $1 to $4 included General Motors, Chrysler, Sears, United Aircraft, American Telephone, Westinghouse, DuPont, Allied Chemical and others.

In the New York Cotton Exchange, prices surged up as much as $1 a bale, while in Chicago, wheat rose more than 3 cents a bushel.

The upswing in the stock market in many instances more than repaid the losses of yesterday's post election selling wave, which had caused the sharpest average decline for any day since last May.

Officers Elected By Back 4-H Girls

SPECIAL TO THE NEWS
BAGE, Nov. 7.—Back 4-H club girls met Tuesday afternoon at the school house for the election of officers.

Those named were Ruby Lee Ray, president; Frankie Pay Wilhelm, vice-president; Lou Juana Roberts, secretary; Earlene Rustance, song leader; Lavoy Farris, poultry demonstrator; Lou Juana Roberts, reporter and bedroom demonstrator.

Mrs. Melton Carpenter was chosen sponsor and Mrs. Ray, assistant sponsor.

Five club girls and four visitors were present.

130 Red Cross First Aid Certificates Issued To Pampans

More than 130 first aid certificates have been issued to people of Pampa during the past year.

There is a class in progress at the present time. In the Pampa chapter Don Conley is chairman and Tom Eckend is co-chairman of first aid.

"With the nation's defense program swinging into high gear, the American Red Cross is training the largest number of 'first aiders' in history," Hal Lucas, roll call chairman, reported.

"Increased employment in hazardous national defense industries and mobilization of home defense units is exerting the heaviest demand for first aid training. More than a score of organizations now forming home defense units have requested Red Cross assistance in the training of volunteers for emergency service, it was pointed out. Airplane factories, police and fire departments, oil companies and carbon black industries also have come to the Red Cross for additional instructors in first aid."

Last year, Red Cross trained more than 94,000 persons in life saving and water safety. Classes have been taught in Pampa during the past summer by Jack Carter and John

National Guardsmen Offered Class Work At Daniel Baker

Daniel Baker college, Brownwood, will offer college work of standard credit to national guardsmen stationed at Camp Bowie, Brownwood.

The classes will be held at night and will not interfere in any way with the training program at Camp Bowie.

Many men in school at the present time will welcome this news that their college or university careers can be continued even while they are in the year's military training program. The classes are especially designed for those going into training at the Brownwood center. Any year of college work may be taken and the official curriculum will be announced after final approval is received from the war department at Washington.

The request stated the pipe line company would fund 79,000 barrels short of commitments which included supplying contractors building Texas roads, the highway commission and the federal government, all laying asphalt in cooperation with the national defense program.

"We should not in any way hinder defense program projects," Thompson said, "and I urge my fellow commissioners to join me in granting this exemption."

Phillips Ready To Meet Rangers At Perryton

SPECIAL TO THE NEWS
PHILLIPS, Nov. 7.—The Phillips Blackhaws, conference leaders, are prepared to meet the Perryton Rangers in a game Friday afternoon, beginning at 2:30 p. m., at Perryton. Phillips won their claim to fame as a result of defeating their leading contenders for the conference title, Panhandle, in a fray last week which ended 14-6, Phillips on top.

The Blackhaws, under the tutelage of Coach "Che" Walker, have been drilling on the usual fundamentals all this week. They have been playing the Rangers' plays and scrimmaging among themselves. Although no element of over-confidence has been noted, the coach has made every effort to keep the boys mindful of the fact that both their remaining opponents are good ball clubs. Perryton's record is not impressive, but the Rangers are the type of team to do the unpredictable—that is to say, they are in a mighty good spot to make Friday's game an "upset."

Perryton, through bad breaks, has

Easy Pleasant Way TO LOSE FAT

How would you like to lose ten or more pounds in a month and at the same time feel better than you have for years?

How would you like to lose your double chin and your too-prominent hips and at the same time feel more youthful and be more attractive?

How would you like to get your weight down to normal and at the same time develop that urge for activity that makes work a pleasure?

Get on the scales today and see how much you weigh; then get a bottle of Kruschen Salts which will last 4 weeks and is inexpensive—only one-half teaspoonful in a glass of hot water before breakfast every morning—cut out pastry and fatty meats—go light on potatoes, butter, cream and sugar. When you have finished this first bottle, weigh yourself again.

Start today girls to get a more graceful, charming, slender figure. Leading druggists all over America sell Kruschen Salts—plain or new effervescent—pleasant, sparkling. Try one bottle—if not supremely satisfied money back.

Zavalla Or Zavala, They Are Both In Texas, One A County, One A Town

(By The Associated Press)
AUSTIN, Nov. 7.—Splitting hairs: Officially, the name of the southwest Texas county is spelled Z-av-a-l-l-a but the Angellina county town of the same name is spelled Z-a-v-a-l-a and if they ever get together on the spelling no one knows when it will be.

HAPPY RELIEF FROM PAINFUL BACKACHE

Many of those gnawing, nagging, painful backaches people blame on colds or strains are often caused by tired kidneys—and may be relieved when treated in the right way.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up rights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

The current name of the county was designated by the legislature some years ago by removing one of the 'l's. Wags refer to the session as one which "took the l out of Zavalla."

Rep. Otis Lock of Zavalla (town) says folks are after him to bring its spelling into conformity with that of the county but apparently it is a matter for congress to settle because the U. S. Postal directory specifies a double-l.

The figurative language of R. L. Bobbitt, member of the state highway commission, threw a recent commission hearing into mild consternation.

You could have shoved Bobbitt over with a feather when a certain delegation informed him the commission promised them a road several months ago but had neglected the commitment.

The spokesman said it was their impression Bobbitt himself made the promise. To settle the matter, old hearing minutes were dug up, revealing that Bobbitt said the commission would "take a hitch" on the matter. By this he meant to say the officials would study the delegation's request.

To keep the record straight Bobbitt announced publicly his favored expression of taking a "hitch" or a "twist" did NOT constitute a promise and would future delegations remember it.

Vernon McGee, former statehouse newspaper correspondent and Waco newspaper reporter, left the other day for Washington where he will become senior administrative analyst on unemployment in President Roosevelt's office.

Another former capitol correspondent who, it was rumored, is slightly anti-new deals thought Vernon should have a going-away present. It arrived nicely wrapped and tied. Vernon carefully removed the wrappings layer by layer and finally reached the present—a big bundle of red tape.

More than 9,000 families have been invited to the University of Texas Nov. 9 for a mothers and dads day planned by a student organization headed by Eugene L. Harris of Houston. Highlights of the program are a reception, sightseeing tour and the Baylor-Texas football team.

Washington Whitesides, 28, rode into Austin the other day just like he told the voters he would.

Representative-nominate from Troup, Cherokee county, Whitesides was astride a bicycle on which he conducted his successful campaign last summer.

Whitesides defeated two opponents in a runoff election in which, he says, his bicycle was an issue.

"My opponents kept getting on me about that bike," he declares. "The more they talked the more the voters noticed me."

He came out 888 votes ahead.

"The benefits of education and of useful knowledge, generally diffused through a community," said President Sam Houston of Texas a century ago, "are essential to the preservation of a free government."

"Cultivated mind is the guardian genius of democracy, and while guided and controlled by virtue, the noblest attribute of man," said President Mirabeau B. Lamar, father of public education in Texas. "It is the only dictator that free men acknowledge and the only security which free men desire."

That the success or failure of democratic government in the United States lies in the class room has been accentuated by many a great public leader.

And the Texas public school system is redoubling its efforts to teach children the benefits of government "by the people."

"The school year 1940-41 presents to the schools of Texas a challenge which calls for heroic effort on the part of administrators, teachers, pupils and patrons," says State Superintendent L. A. Woods.

"If we accept the statement as true, and we do, that the main function of the public schools is the preservation of our American democracy," Woods continued, "then it is essential that in every way possible these schools be made to contribute to the practical working of that democracy."

"This means we must clarify our thinking about this new term 'democracy,' so that it remains no longer an abstract idea of some political inheritance or an ideal toward which to work, but rather that it be recognized as a tangible, realistic way of daily living in the western world."

To this extent, Woods asked cooperation of all citizens in making successful the state department's plan which includes:

The national emergency defense program by which the schools are training thousands of men in skilled trades essential to military defense.

The Texas school of the air in which radio programs dramatize phases of democracy as they pertain to fields of learning.

Reading clinics in which children are given extra attention so that they develop the ability to read rapidly and absorb matter from the printed page.

Pupil guidance aimed at eliminating unemployment, social maladjustment, child delinquency and crime.

The health program whereby the people's "first line of defense" is preserved and improved.

The extended school program in which the schools assume responsibility for the educational advancement of the entire community they serve through evening schools, nursery schools, forums for discussion of issues and educational recreation facilities.

Academic training of NYA youth in which the schools provide work and educational facilities for youth which otherwise would have to curtail its school attendance.

"Texas is awake to the needs of a good educational program as never before," Woods asserted. "Governor W. Lee O'Daniel, by his radio addresses and through his school commission, has evinced his interest in the expansion of our program and its proper financial support."

"The Texas State Teacher's association is taking an active interest in the needs of the schools and the welfare of the teachers; the State Board of Education and the State Department of Education are carrying on research and formulating plans for necessary growth through wise legislative enactments."

"That we may answer the challenge of these critical days and that our land may continue to afford the American people a real American way of life is my wish."

Germans Report Widespread Attacks On British Convoys

(By The Associated Press)
BERLIN, Nov. 7.—Heavy blows against Britain's merchant marine by German warplanes ranging far over the Atlantic ocean and all around the British Isles were reported today by the high command. Its communiqué told of Nazi warplanes attacking a convoy yesterday some 300 miles west of Ireland and of so severely damaging three freighters if about 6,000 tons each that their loss must be reckoned with.

South of the Orkney Islands, it continued, a merchantman of 8,000 tons was hit amidships and sunk. Another freighter was bombed off Britain's east coast, another in the harbor of Kinloch Castle, on Scotland's west coast. German planes continued to lay mines in British harbors, the communiqué declared.

The big German runs on the French coast were reported to have joined in the fight to deplete Britain's fleet of food carriers, opening fire in the port of Dover and ships southeast of Dover, hitting one ship so badly that it was unable to continue its journey.

Informed sources said hits were scored on an 8,000-ton vessel in a third convoy, causing a boiler explosion, and also on a 6,000-ton vessel, which was struck twice amidships.

A fourth convoy was attacked in the North sea and one of its four ships was reported crippled by a bomb hit. Hits were claimed on a 6,000-tonner west of Ireland and a freighter of undetermined size off Duncansby.

Day and night raids yesterday over England were concentrated in Liverpool, Birkenhead, Birmingham, Coventry and London, these sources added.

Heiskell To Be On Bench In Borger Game

A. C. Enloe And Proper Also Injured

When the Pampa Harvesters take the field Monday afternoon in Borger against Catfish Smith's Bulldogs, one regular and possibly two first string reserves will be watching the game from the bench. Missing from the starting lineup will be Grover Heiskell, quarterback and top ground gainer and punter, who suffered a knee injury that will definitely keep him out of the game.

Also on the bench will be Ralph Proper, mighty little reserve fullback, who also is the victim of a knee injury. One of the probable list will be A. C. Enloe, reserve halfback, who is nursing a shoulder injury.

Heiskell, injured his knee turning on a pivot play Tuesday afternoon but the injury was not believed serious until yesterday when the knee became stiff. Enloe's shoulder injury was believed minor until he failed to report for practice yesterday afternoon. Proper injured his knee in scrimmage yesterday when tackled hard.

The starting backfield against Borger will be Edmondson at quarterback, Arthur and Pendleton at halves, and either Enloe or Andy Smith at fullback. The line will probably be the same as usual.

The Harvesters have been working long and hard this week trying to develop a scoring punch and on defense to combat the Bulldogs' spread formation and other tricks which Coach Smith has developed. The Borger coach has made no bones about the fact that he is going to develop the Harvesters' work. The two teams are deadlocked for the cellar position with two losses each.

Pampa High school's band will be in Borger early in the morning to participate in a big Armistice Day parade at 10:45 a. m. Fans will make the trip after dinner.

Football Deaths Still On Decline

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Nov. 7. (AP)—A grim report today that deaths from football were on the decline for the fourth year in a row.

Dr. Floyd R. Eastwood, record keeper for the American Football Coaches' and National Collegiate Athletic associations, said that only eight deaths could be blamed on the game for the first half of the season.

The figure has shown a downward trend since 1937, said Eastwood, an associate professor of men's physical education at Purdue University.

Five of the 1940 fatalities were ascribed directly to football and three—two from heart trouble and one from an infection—indirectly.

Directly attributed deaths numbered two less than for the same part of 1939. The decline was in the high school classification, where two deaths occurred against four last year.

Only one fatality blamed directly on football was in college competition—that of Jack Tandy, 21, of San Francisco State college, who died Oct. 27 of cerebral hemorrhage.

Stradivarius, famous Italian violin maker, also made guitars, some of which still are extant. He is best known for his violins.

session. Little R. L. Edmondson will replace Heiskell in the starting lineup. Andy Smith will take over the first string reserve assignment if Proper and Enloe are out.

Headline Game Will Be Played At White Deer

Football fans of Pampa and the Panhandle will not miss their regular Friday afternoon football game this week because one of the outstanding games of the season will be played at White Deer when the Bucks meet the strong Panhandle Panthers in a conference game beginning at 2:30 o'clock.

The two teams are now tied for second place in the conference race and the loser Friday will just about drop from the picture as far as a chance at the league pennant is concerned.

The White Deer-Panhandle game each year is on a par with the Pampa-Amarillo struggle. Regardless of which team is supposed to be on the bottom of the dope bucket, it always rises to new heights for the big game.

There is little difference in the two teams this year although White Deer is the underdog because of performances with common foes. White Deer will be several pounds per man lighter than the Panthers and will have less experience on this side. But all that usually means nothing when White Deer and Panhandle meet on the gridiron.

The big question before the house is can White Deer stop the terrific drives of big Muri Pruitt, the passing of Hayton and the stutter-footed runs of Little? On the other hand can Panhandle stop the terrific power of Jimmy Russell and the end sweeps of fleet "Jake" Weaver? No one can tell what will happen when the Bucks and Panthers take the field.

Arrangements are being made to handle an overflow crowd at Buck field Friday afternoon. Demand for seats has been greater than in any previous year. White Deer school officials report.

Reapers Will Play Final Game Of Season Tonight

The Pampa Junior High Reapers will play their last football game of the 1940 season tonight at 7 o'clock under the lights at Harvester park when they meet the strong LeFors Junior High team. Admission will be 10 cents and proceeds will go to the Junior High school cafeteria fund to provide food for less fortunate students. Starting time has been set up so as not to interfere with the Kiwanis club revue at 8:15 o'clock.

All but three or four of the Reapers will be playing their last game in the blue and white uniform of the junior high squad. Next year several of the boys will be on the senior squad while others will spend next year on the Gorilla team before going up to the Harvesters.

LeFors has been giving some of the strong teams of this section lessons in football and they hope to beat the Reapers and get revenge for a loss last season. The LeFors team is not big but it has speed, power and deception and is well trained, according to latest reports.

Greenville Again Knocking At Door For District Title

(By The Associated Press)
By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Greenville's Lions, once Texas schoolboy football's mightiest, return for another surge at glory tomorrow afternoon when they play Highland Park's Highlanders at Dallas in a game around which a district title hinges.

The works against LeFors. He'll have his regular backfield of Berry, Dunham, Neef and Charlie Boyles working behind the regular line.

Fans are invited and urged to see the Reapers in action and to help the good cause for which the game is being played. The cafeteria fund is badly in need of money at the present time and winter is just starting.

Greenville won the state crown in 1933 and went to the finals in 1935, but since then the Lions' fortunes have run low.

Tom Driscoll of Rice became the coach last year. His team didn't win a game but played four ties. This season it's taken four and lost three and at the present time is unbeaten in conference play.

Highland Park also is beating back after a lapse of a season from being a top contender.

The winner of tomorrow's game will be favored to come through with the title of District 6.

This tilt is one of a dozen crucial battles over the state with the feature tussle coming on Armistice Day when Amarillo and Plainview, two of the three undefeated, untied teams in the Panhandle-Plains area, scrap it out at Amarillo.

Lubbock, the other club with a perfect record, plays an inter-district game with Austin of El Paso in district 2. Graham and Quanah, tied with Wichita Falls for the lead, clash at Quannah while Wichita Falls plays at Electra.

The hurly-burly central Texas race comes up with another crucial tilt with Temple at Waxahachie. The loser in this game will be eliminated from the race and the winner will retain a tie for the lead.

There are 51 games on the week-end schedule with ten of them falling on the Armistice day card. Forty-three of the tilts are conference affairs.

The schedule by districts:

1—Monday: Plainview at Amarillo (conference), Pampa at Borger (conference).

2—Friday: Wichita Falls at Electra (conference), Burkhornett at Childress (conference), Graham at Quanah (conference), Olney at Vernon (conference).

3—Friday: Midland at Lamesa (conference), Monah at San Angelo at Big Spring (conference), Sweetwater at Odessa (conference).

4—Friday: Bowie (El Paso) vs. El Paso High (conference), Yaleta at Las Cruces, N. M.; Saturday: Lubbock at Austin (El Paso).

5—Friday: Paris at Bonham (conference), Adkins (Dallas) at Sherman; Monday: Denison at Gainesville (conference).

6—Friday: McKinney at Arlington (conference), Greenville at Highland Park (Dallas) (conference), Sulphur Springs at Denton (conference).

7—Thursday: North Side (Fort Worth) vs. Poly (Fort Worth) (conference); Friday: Paschal (Fort Worth) vs. Masonic Home (Fort Worth) (conference); Saturday:

Beaten Teams May Play In Sugar Bowl

ATLANTA, Nov. 7. (AP)—Don't be surprised if some beaten teams get bids to the south's major bowl games next New Year's day.

With less than a dozen football powers undefeated and untied, and few of these receptive to bowl bids, nomination committees are checking their second-choice lists.

Of the top rankers regarded as bowl-conscious, only Tennessee is rated certain to win all remaining games. The Southwestern conference giant, victor in 28 straight regular season games, meets little Southern of Memphis, Virginia, Kentucky and Vanderbilt.

Sugar Bowl sources, still hot for Tennessee and Boston College in the New Orleans classic, are hedging in case the latter suffers an upset. The Texas must yet meet Boston university, unbeaten Georgetown, Auburn, Holy Cross. Should Boston College drop from the picture, New Orleans writers think Nebraska—beaten only by Minnesota—would be acceptable.

The Texas Aggies, rated by many southerners as an odds-on choice for the Rose Bowl, still have a tough row to hoe, with tied-but-unbeaten Southern Methodist, Rice Institute and Texas university coming up in succession.

Penn State and Georgetown—both unbeaten but facing heavy weather—have been mentioned as Orange Bowl possibilities.

Tie-up with the Southwest conference with the Cotton Bowl has suggested possibility of Rice or Southern Methodist matched with an eastern or southern team.

LeFors Goes To Lakeview For Friday Battle

LEFORS, Nov. 7.—Coaches Smith and Rankin, tutors of the "snake bitten" LeFors Pirates, journey to Lakeview this week. In the last three starts the Pirates have had a 13-0 advantage over Memphis, 14-14 tie with McLean at the half, 6-0 over Shamrock at the end of the third quarter.

The games ended with Memphis 14, 13-13; McLean 47, LeFors 14; Shamrock 7, LeFors 6. Now that is being "snake bitten" isn't it?

The Lakeview High school will dedicate their new lighting system at the game Friday night. The game will start at 7 o'clock.

Charles Nipper, Pirate guard, will not play this week because of a knee injury received in the Shamrock game. "Red" Cole will probably see a lot of service the rest of the season. "Red" turned in one of the best games played on Shaw field last Friday night. All of the Pirates are in tip-top shape for the game Friday night, with the exception of Nipper.

This is next to the last game for the LeFors boys and the season has been a very successful one considering the fact that they have just moved up from class B football. All of the class A teams have a lot of respect for them this year and have had a hard time beating them when and if they did beat them.

Riverside (Fort Worth) vs. Fort Worth Tech (conference).

8—Friday: Ames Tech vs. Woodrow Wilson (Dallas) (conference); Saturday: Forest (Dallas) vs. Sunset (Dallas) (conference).

9—Friday: Birdville at Mineral Wells; Monday: Breckenridge at Brownwood (conference), Cisco at Ranger (conference).

10—Friday: Waco at Cleburne (conference), Temple at Waxahachie (conference), Hillsboro at Bryan (conference).

11—Friday: Kilgore at Glade-water (conference); Monday: Longview at Tyler (conference); Marshall at Texarkana (conference).

12—Friday: Athens at Palestine; Monday: Jacksonville at Henderson (conference), Nacogdoches at Lufkin (conference).

13—Thursday: Sam Houston (Houston) vs. Milby (Houston) (conference); Friday: Austin (Houston) vs. San Jacinto (Houston) (conference); Saturday: Reagan (Houston) vs. Jeff Davis (Houston) (conference).

14—Friday: South Park (Beaumont) at Goose Creek (conference), Liberty at Orange; Saturday: Beaumont at Galveston (conference), Conroe at Port Arthur (conference).

15—Thursday: San Antonio Tech vs. Burbank (San Antonio); Friday: Kerrville at Jefferson (San Antonio) (conference), Laredo at Austin (conference), Saturday: Lamar (Houston) at Brackenridge (San Antonio).

16—North Zone, Friday: Corpus Christi at Beville (conference), Robstown at Kingsville (conference); South Zone, Friday: Brownsville at Edinburg (conference), Harlingen at San Benito (conference), Mission at McAllen.

Oklahoma Aggie Leads U. S. In Total Offense

By GAIL FOWLER

SEATTLE, Nov. 7. (AP)—Sophomore Jimmy Reynolds of Oklahoma A. and M., is right back where he was four weeks ago—in first place among the nation's gridiron ground gaining leaders.

Figures released by the American football statistical bureau today show that Reynolds turned full speed ahead to rise again to first in total offense—gains rushing and passing. His season total of 852 yards made him the leading rookie back of the year.

Statistically, he displaced Michigan's Tom Harmon, leader the previous two weeks, both in total offense and as a "workhorse." Harmon was idle last Saturday but still ranks second with 823 yards.

Reynolds, tenth among the rushers, has packed the ball 147 times and thrown 56 passes for 203 total yards, comparing with the 1939 high at this point of 177 total offensive yards by Ernie Lane of Rice.

Johnny Knolls of Creighton, whose team lost to the Oklahoma Aggies, 20-14 last week, ranks third at 832—just a yard behind Harmon.

For the first time one of the Cornell class backs moves up among the elite when Hal McCullough jumped from 12th to fourth, with 805 yards. McCullough ranks second to Harmon in average yards per game, his 161 comparing with Harmon's 167.

Rushing leader of the week is Al Chesquiere, of Detroit who has carried the ball 87 times for 617 yards. Dave Allerdice of Princeton still leads the passers with 51 completions. Owen Price of Texas Mines again heads the punters with a 48.15 yard average 26 punts. Jack Jennings of Oklahoma retains pass-snatching honors with 19 for 252 yards.

The leaders:

Total offense—After Reynolds, Harmon, Knolls and McCullough, come Jack Jacobs, Oklahoma, second last week, 794; Chesquiere, Detroit, 793; Gil Salcedo, Texas Mines, 739; Paul Christman, Missouri, 738; Bill Dudley, Virginia, 716, and Price, Texas Mines, 700.

Rushing offense—Chesquiere, Detroit, 617; Tony Galovich, Wake Forest, third last week, 585; Harmon, Michigan, first last week, 580; Jim Lallane, North Carolina, 497; Bob Westfall, Michigan, 491.

Pass offense—Allerdice leads on the basis of unofficial figures with 51 completions in 103 attempts. Then come Jacobs, Oklahoma, 41 of 79; Bill Sewell, Washington State, 39 of 80, with figures missing on his brief appearance against Idaho last week; Christman, Missouri, 39 of 95 for the high yardage figure of 711.

Punting—After Price comes Jacobs

SMU-Aggie Game Saturday To Be Littered With Backfield Greats

By FELIX R. MCKNIGHT

DALLAS, Nov. 7. (AP)—Not in the memory of southwesterners will there be such a congregation of backfield greats on one football field as those starting the classical Texas Aggie-Southern Methodist game here Saturday.

One All-American, several candidates, and all-conference material to waste will start moving with the kickoff.

Jarrin John Kimbrough, the Aggies' rumbling fullback who stood out as the nation's best last season and is headed in the same direction again, is the headliner—but there are others.

Marion Pugh, Aggie quarterback; Overlooked, underrated and taken too much for granted. Leads the Southwest conference with 4.39 yard average on 44 carries and is top passer with 544 average on 36 completions. Out of 65 attempts for 487 yards. Brains of the Aggies' robot machine.

2. Preston Johnston, S. M. U. fullback: One of the greatest punters in the nation. As a ball carrier has averaged 4.29 yards on 62 carries. A fine blocker, deadly defensive player.

3. Jim Thompson, Aggie blocking back: Acknowledged to be one of the best blockers and line-backers of all southwest history. Now bobs up as a runner who has averaged close to eight yards on some 20 runs. Balance of the Aggie team.

4. Johnny Clement, S. M. U. halfback: Definitely the spark of the Methodist team. Time and again pulled the Mustangs out of the doldrums with bullet passes, high-stepping runs. Completed 20 of 47 passes for 292 yards.

5. Wild Bill Conatser, Aggie halfback: Brilliant punt returner; brilliant punter. Has alternated with Derace Moser, still another punter and runner deluxe. Averaged 15.8

of Oklahoma, who booted nine punts for a 52.30 average against Nebraska last week, most of them quick kicks, bringing his season average for 25 punts to 47.85; Glenn Dobbs, Tulsa, first last week, is third at 45.61, followed by Dick McClellan, Auburn, 43.19, and McClung, Colorado, 42.89.

Pass receiving—After Jennings comes Humbert, Richmond, 17 caught for 265 yards; Phil Roach, Texas Christian, 16 for 134; Steve Lach, Duke, 15 for 220; and Snuffy Smith, U. C. L. A., 14 for 228.

yards on 13 punt returns; kicked for a 37.7 yard average.

6. Will Mullenweg, S. M. U. blocking back: Unfortunately, Mullenweg, a rough and tumble type, came along in the same era with Thompson. Just about the equal of Thompson on blocking and tackling, often called most valuable cog in the tricky Methodist attack. Rugged line backer.

7. Ray Mallouf, S. M. U. halfback: Cagney, methodical. Alternates with Clement. Fine passer, 478 average. Good direction kicker and driving tackle runner.

Russia 'True To Neutrality' Army Assured

By HENRY C. CASSIDY

MOSCOW, Nov. 7 (AP)—Defense Commissar Semen Timoshenko urged the Red army to display "maximum vigilance in an exceptionally alarming international situation" as Moscow turned over its Red square today to the army for a review marking the 23rd anniversary of the Bolshevik revolution.

Marshal Timoshenko took advantage of the anniversary to show publicly for the first time how Soviet Russia has built up her armed forces under his six-month regime at a time when other large European nations have been at war.

The Moscow Soviet at a meeting last night issued a statement declaring Russia's policy to be continued neutrality and armed vigilance.

"True to her policy of peace and neutrality," the statement said, "the U. S. S. R. will not participate in war. We must remember the international situation is full of surprises. Therefore, as (Joseph) Stalin has said, we must keep the entire nation in a state of military preparedness."

President Michael Kalinin in a lengthy address at the meeting warned that "the present international situation does not allow us to remain impartial onlookers."

"This situation," he said, "imposes responsible duties on every Soviet citizen. . . . Our first and uppermost duty is further to consolidate the economic and defensive might of the Socialist fatherland."

Timoshenko, who succeeded Marshal Klementi Voroshiloff six months ago as defense commissar, called attention in an order of the day to the need for preparedness in "the face of the danger of military attack so that no 'accident' and no tricks of our foreign enemies could catch us unawares."

In Twenty Years Of Voting, Women Have Given United States Many Important Social Laws

Since American women cast their first votes in 1920, as pictured above, they have won an increasingly important place for themselves through active participation in government.

By RUTH MILLETT
NEA Service Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Miss and Mrs. America went proudly to the polls in 1920, self-consciously determined to make the most of a hard-won privilege.

They had, after a long, bitter, unyielding battle, won the right to vote.

After twenty years' voting experience they know that cleaning up politics is more difficult than cleaning house.

They no longer believe that because they are women they are more morally responsible voters than men. What they do believe, in the words of Miss Ruth Ayres, president of the New York State League of Women Voters, is that they can and do bring to their communities "something of what they bring to their families, a driving interest in the welfare of human beings. They also believe that the participation of women in the total social pattern is of value to themselves and to society."

WOMEN VOTERS PROUD OF RECORD

As proof that women have turned this driving interest to good account, the National League of Women Voters, a non-partisan organization formed the year women were given the vote, points out that women gave "substantial and effective support" to such "welfare" legislation as:

The Sheppard-Towner act for the Promotion of the Welfare and Hygiene of Maternity and Infancy, 1921.

The Cable act for the Independent Citizenship of Women, which did away with the old law which made the nationality of a woman dependent on that of her husband, 1922.

Civil Service Reclassification act, including "the principle of equal compensation for equal work irrespective of sex," 1923.

Provisions of the Social Security act for unemployment compensation, for maternal and child health, 1935.

Repeal of Section 213, Economy act of 1932, discriminating against the employment of married persons in the federal service, 1937.

Food, Drug and Cosmetic act which replaced the outmoded 1906 act with an adequate food, drug and cosmetic law, 1938.

Child labor provisions of the Fair Labor Standards act—banning labor for children for 14 years of age, 1938.

Increase in federal share of funds for aid to dependent children under the Social Security act, 1939.

THEY ORGANIZED SCHOOLS FOR VOTERS

It was a woman's organization that launched the first "get-out-the-vote" campaign on a national scale. And it has been women's organizations that have taken the lead in organizing voters through-out the country.

The influence of women in politics can't be discussed without pointing out that in twenty years women have moved into almost every branch of the national government.

There are women in the state department, in the foreign service, and in the treasury, justice, post office, interior, agriculture, commerce and labor departments.

They found places in the senate and in congress.

In state government, they have served as everything from governor to assistant attorney general. Before 1920, the year women were given the vote, only 60 women had served in state legislatures, over a period of 61 years. In 1937 alone, there were 140 women serving on state legislatures.

There are more women holding offices in counties than in any other governmental unit. Women are serving as coroners, commissioners, criminal prosecutors, attorneys, public administrators, assessors, clerks, treasurers.

And women are active in civic government.

Take Ohio for an example. In Ohio villages approximately one out of every five board of education members is a woman, about one in six treasurers, and one in seven clerks.

In Ohio townships one in ten clerks is a woman, and there are a few women constables, justices of the peace, and trustees.

In Ohio cities there is an average of at least one woman on every one of the boards of education and boards of health. According to a 1937 report 9 cities had women treasurers, 4 had auditors, 4 had civil service commissioners, 8 had city planning commissioners, one had a city clerk and one had a director of finance.

Langer, former North Dakota Governor, who was elected two years ago to unseat Senator Gerald P. Nye, but held a substantial lead in a three-cornered race Tuesday.

Willis Brooks, Butler and Burton furnished four Republican spokesmen by winning Democratic seats. Senator Henrik Shipstead of Minnesota, accounted for the fifth change by shifting his party designation from farmer-labor to Republican and winning re-election.

Democrats who will take the oath for the first time include: James Miller Tunnell, Delaware lawyer and banker, who rode along with the Roosevelt majority to capture the only seat taken away from the Republicans, that of Senator John G. Townsend, Jr.

Ernest W. McFarland, Arizona superior court judge, who defeated veteran Senator Henry Fountain Ashurst in the Democratic primary and won easily over his Republican opponent in Tuesday's voting.

Rep. Mon C. Wallgren, who won the seat vacated by Senator Lewis B. Schwellenbach, Washington Democrat appointed to a federal district judgeship.

Harley M. Kilgore, criminal court judge, who will succeed Senator Ruess D. Holt, previously defeated in the West Virginia Democratic primary.

The sixth new Democratic member will be appointed later by Senator Matthew M. Neely when Neely takes over his newly-won post as governor of West Virginia and relinquishes his senate seat.

Republicans Will Have 28 Senate Seats

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7 (AP)—A resurgit tide of middlewestern votes which ran counter to the national Democratic trend carried Republicans today toward a six-year high point of 28 seats in the new senate.

That meant four more places than they now hold, but was far below the Democratic total of 66.

Party voting which cut through the Roosevelt majorities in Ohio, Illinois and Minnesota and paced the Willkie strength in Nebraska and Indiana, gave the Republicans five seats previously held by Democrats. The only offset to this was the Republicans' loss of a seat in Delaware.

In the lone race still in doubt out of Tuesday's 25 contests, former Governor William Langer of North Dakota appeared almost sure to win for the Republicans the seat of Senator Lynn J. Frazier, whom he defeated in the primary. With only 128 of the state's 2,263 boxes yet untabulated, Langer had 84,264 votes to 83,477 chalked up by his nearest opponent, William Lemke, an Independent, and had been increasing his lead steadily.

When Vice President Garner—or a substitute—pounds the gavel at the first meeting of the 77th congress January 3, there will be more members on the Republican side of the aisle than at any time since the 73rd congress, in which 36 Republicans won seats.

Henry Agard Wallace, 52-year-old former secretary of agriculture, will as the new Vice President be presiding officer January 20 of a senate which, if Langer wins, will be composed of 66 Democrats, 28 Republicans, 1 Progressive and 1 Independent. The present senate includes 69 Democrats, 24 Republicans, 1 Progressive, 1 Independent and 1 farmer-laborite.

Some senators said that Wallace might begin his career in the legislative field in the absence of his predecessor. They thought that "Cactus Jack" Garner might not come out of retirement.

Republicans who will take the oath for the first time include: Raymond E. Willis, Angola publisher who defeated Senator Sherman Minton, Indiana Democrat and majority whip of the senate, in a close race.

C. Wayland Brooks, Illinois lawyer who played an important part in drafting the foreign affairs plank of the Republican convention platform and who unseated Senator James M. Slattery, a Democrat.

Hugh A. Butler, Nebraska Republican, who won over Gov. Robert Leroy Cochran, a primary victor over Senator Edward R. Burke, Democrat.

Harold Hitz Burton, Republican "reform" mayor of Cleveland, who proved his vote-getting ability by capturing the seat voluntarily vacated by Senator "Vic" Donahay, a Democrat, despite an Ohio sweep for Roosevelt.

Gov. George D. Aiken of Vermont, who won the seat vacated by the death of Senator Ernest Gibson, Republican, and filled temporarily by Gibson's son, today, Ralph O. Brewster, who won the Maine contest in September to fill the vacancy created by the voluntary retirement of Senator Frederick Hale.

Langer, former North Dakota Governor, who was elected two years ago to unseat Senator Gerald P. Nye, but held a substantial lead in a three-cornered race Tuesday.

Bombs Fall Night And Day Over England

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, Nov. 7.—Sirens howled at noon today, giving London its first all night alarm of the day after the longest night alarm of the war.

The raiders dodged defenders in the clouds to scatter bombs on the London area and vapor trails high in the blue-patched sky coupled with the sound of diving and climbing planes told of a battle over the capital.

The alarm sounded a few moments after the noise of a dog-fight was heard. A lone Dornier (German) bomber dropped a stick of bombs on a southeast coast town a few hours earlier without causing any damage.

Light and heavy Axis bombers scattered bombs over a wide area of Britain during the night, ranging from the south coast to Scotland.

An early morning checkup showed that while damage was comparatively light it was spread over more sections of England than for some time.

One bomb struck a famous London church where a number of women and children had sought refuge. There were some casualties but the number was not immediately known.

One cluster of fire bombs which fell with a stick of seven high explosive bombs started a fire that sent flames leaping so high they silhouetted the majestic dome of St. Paul's cathedral.

In mid-afternoon the air ministry announced that five German planes had been shot down in today's fighting over Britain.

Long range British warplanes bombed the Berlin suburbs and a railway junction northwest of the German capital during the night, the air ministry reported.

Airships also were made a communique declared, "on synthetic oil plants at Leuna and Hamburg, factories near Dusseldorf, the inland port of Duisburg and railway yards and junctions at Halle, Pritzsch, on the Elbe, and near Cologne."

Other squadrons were said to have bombed long-range German gun emplacements at Cap Gris Nez on the French coast.

The Berlin suburb attacked was identified as Spandau, where the air ministry said the raiders had attacked industrial plants. The royal air force operations were described as "extensive."

In daylight attacks yesterday, British bombers were said to have pounded oil refineries at Salzgitter, starting great fires.

Cretney Drug Opens Anniversary Sale

GOP Trend In House Stopped By Democrats

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7 (AP)—Sharply reversing the Republican trend two years ago, late returns showed today that the Democrats would control the new house with an advantage of about 100 seats over the Republicans.

A tabulation of Tuesday's election, which adds two more years to the party's 10 consecutive years of house rule, showed this lineup: 263 Democrats, 162 Republicans, 3 Progressives, 1 Independent Democrat, 1 American Labor, 5 seats in doubt.

The present composition of the house is: 258 Democrats, 167 Republicans, 2 Progressives, 1 Farmer-Labor, 1 American Labor, 6 vacancies. Three of the vacancies formerly were held by Democrats and three by Republicans.

The Republican side was swelled to its present figure by a gain of

Hoyt's Compound Gave Me Relief Says Mrs. Jones

Constipation, Back Pains, Faulty Digestion, Sour Stomach and Restlessness Relieved Says Tulsa Lady.

Mrs. Rhoda Jones, 1336 S. Boston St., Tulsa, Okla., says:

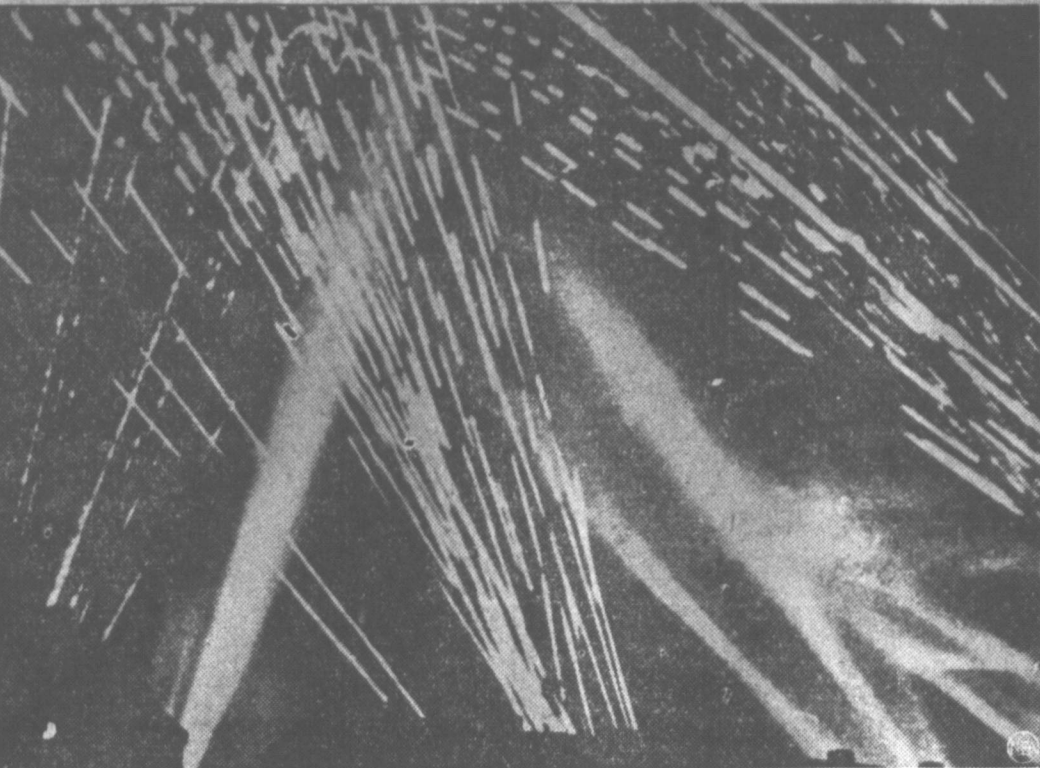

MRS. RHODA JONES

"I was troubled with constipation, had severe pains in my back all the time. My food didn't digest properly, and I was bothered with gas, bloating and sour stomach. I couldn't get a night's sleep. So I tried Hoyt's Compound.

"It there ever was a blessing, it was Hoyt's. From the first few doses those sharp and severe pains in my back began to leave, and I haven't been bothered since. After using Hoyt's my constipation improved, I was able to eat my food with a relish, and with no fear of gas and bloating. I am going to continue taking Hoyt's Compound until all the poisons have left my system."

Hoyt's Compound is sold by the Gretney Drug Store and all druggists in this area.

Blazing Nazi Reception to British Raiders

This spectacular blaze of light is no giant July Fourth celebration. It's fireworks in earnest, as German searchlights grope skies and anti-aircraft batteries spit tracer bullets during their attack on a German city, according to 81 in 1938, the year which marked a reversal of an earlier New Deal trend toward heavier Democratic majorities.

Democrats, including Chairman Andrew Jackson May, of the military committee, were ahead in four of the districts still in dispute. Richard T. Buckler, the chamber's lone Farmer-Laborite, was a nose in front of his Republican adversary in Minnesota.

It seemed probable, therefore, that the Democrats would end up with upwards of 100 seats more than the Republicans.

The election assures the Democrats of control of the chamber for their longest period since the Civil War—12 years.

Along with victory the Democrats brought back to the house 10 party members who were ousted two years ago by Republicans.

They include Alfred F. Belfer of New York, until recently Secretary Ickes' contact man at the capitol; Herman P. Kopplemann and William J. Fitzgerald, of Connecticut; Harry L. Haines of Pennsylvania, Robert L. Ramsey of West Virginia, Stephen M. Young, William R. Thom and Lawrence E. Imhoff of Ohio; Elmer H. Wene of New Jersey, and George D. O'Brien of Michigan.

Another former member returning was Miss Jeannette Rankin, Republican, of Montana, first woman ever elected to congress.

Harry Southoff, Wisconsin Progressive, also comes back again, having turned the tables on Charles Hawks, Jr., Republican.

Germans Advised To Leave Greece Quickly

BELGRADE, Nov. 7 (AP)—Trustworthy advices from Greece today said that all Germans in Greece had been advised by German diplomatic officials to leave the country at once.

Baylor Honors Supreme Court Chief Justice

WACO, Nov. 7 (AP)—Texas lawyers and judicial leaders today paid tribute to James Patterson Alexander, the new chief justice of the state supreme court, in ceremonies at Baylor university.

Justice Alexander's career began in a modest law office at Moody, Tex., in 1908, and he advanced thru county, district and appellate judgeships to the highest judicial post at the disposal of the Texas electorate.

The new chief justice was honored in the chapel twice of Baylor university, in whose law school he has taught continuously since its establishment in 1920. President Pat M. Neff, former governor, presided. Justices of the Texas supreme court were on hand to welcome Alexander to their number. They included Chief Justice W. F. Moore and Associate Justices Richard Criss and John N. Sharp and three from each of the commissions of appeals. Members of the Waco court of civil appeals, the district judges residing in Waco and scores of Texas lawyers also were counted.

"It is a tribute to democracy," W. W. Naman, a Waco attorney, said, "for a man to come from the ranks to the most exalted judicial office in Texas." As Jim Pat Alexander has done. He has achieved thru his own efforts, and because of his experiences in the classroom and at the bar his sympathies are deep and wide.

"Democracy today faces its greatest difficulties. Its preservation depends largely on our judiciary, and the bar of McLennan county prays that Jim Alexander will be able to meet the challenge."

Dean A. E. Lipscomb of the Baylor law school, a kinsman of the associate justice of the first Texas supreme court, found a parallel in "the spirit of King Phillip of Macedonia who thanked the gods for giving him Aristotle, a teacher for his son," and "the spirit of 350 Baylor law graduates for their own good fortune in having James Patterson Alexander as a teacher."

"For 20 years," he said, "Judge Alexander has sought to teach his law students to be worthy of their heritage from the law." He cited the "practice court" the new chief justice developed—in which students carry a law case through the entire procedure of state courts—as unique among the nation's law schools.

The supreme court delegation and a group of local lawyers were guests of the university at a noon luncheon.

During 1939, the state of Pennsylvania issued 2,818,574 operators' licenses; second was Ohio with 2,665,550, and third was Illinois with 2,539,449.

Dear Mr. Coors,

I had occasion to travel through the West the past five weeks and on this trip I became thirsty as might any good traveler on a hot day. My first introduction to Coors Beer was by a waitress in a small town in Arizona. She recommended it very highly and after tasting it, I remarked to Mrs. Stouter that without a doubt it was the finest beer I had ever tasted. Consequently, throughout the remainder of the trip I insisted upon Coors Beer, and if it was not available I bought it so highly that I am quite positive that the management would at least order a trial case.

Mr. Coors, it has never been a policy of mine to write congratulatory letters to anyone, in fact, this is the first, but I know I would like to receive a letter from any one who was so highly impressed with the good food and service rendered in any of our restaurants.

I would like to know if it would be impossible due to high transportation costs, etc., to serve your beer in our establishments. We have 12 restaurants located in the cities listed at the bottom of this letterhead.

I am especially interested in the Pilsener type and would like to have you send 10 cases to my home, 2349 Stanford Road, Shaker Heights, Ohio, billing same to my office together with the information desired as requested above.

Wishing you and your company the success you deserve, I am

Very truly yours,

SERIAL STORY

GOAL TO GO

BY W. H. PEARS

YESTERDAY, Buck talks the team out of their usual, steady Bill to practice. Bill tries one of his father's plays and the scrum team clicks. Landis challenges him to teach the scrum all he wants to. That night, however, Dot Skelton brings Dot Skelton to the drug store, because Bill around. Dot likes Bill. Drowsy Peters suggests Bill is overlooking a bet. Landis won't bet, and if Bill is in solid with the Skeltons.

CHAPTER IV

BILL MENTOR, in football togs, moved slowly toward the practice field. Deep in thought, he was for once in his life deaf to the seductive pung of toe against leather.

Ten days had passed since Drowsy dropped the hint about Dot Skelton, but it clung to his mind like a burr on a piece of wool.

"Wait up, Bill."

He started guiltily at the sound of Helen's voice. He felt somehow that even thinking of Dot made him disloyal to Helen. Besides, she had a darn queer habit of guessing what was on his mind. Helen fell into step with him. "Am I poison, Bill?"

"Heck no, Helen," Bill said, a little gruffly. "I've been putting in overtime, so Old Man Peskin'll let me off for the dance."

"Oh, Bill, I'm so glad!" Helen's eyes glowed. "This will be the first time I've ever gone to dance with someone that I... well, kind of like."

"We'll have fun," Bill said, and changed the subject abruptly to football. "Well, we finally won a game Saturday."

"Westerburg!" Helen scoffed. "And just by a field goal. If that's the best we can do against a little, weak team, what'll happen when we meet Clayton?"

"Slaughter," Bill said gloomily. "I'll bet Landis is in to be tied."

LANDIS was. They could hear his voice as he stomped along the sidelines, bellowing at the boys. Catching sight of Bill, he scowled.

"Well, Mentor, still teaching the scrubs to be All-Americans?"

"No, sir, but we've got some new plays ready to roll. You said you'd like a chance to have the varsity stop them."

Bill spoke quietly, without challenge, but his words sent a rush of crimson to Landis' face. For the first time he appeared to realize that his taunt had been taken seriously, and that now it was too late to back out.

"I meant what I said, Mentor," he snapped. Then, turning to the varsity squad: "Get in there and smear this play wide open."

In the huddle Bill said earnestly:

Landis Orders Bill To Quit Football; Buck Gets an Offer

"Let's make these good, fellows. We know the plays will work, but we've got to prove it to Coach. If we do, he may let the varsity use 'em. Let's go!"

The play was simple, yet employed a brand of deception suitable to young teams. The ball came to a big scrub back. Bill cut behind him, faked a grab at the ball. Then, running together, the two sliced off tackle. Good work by the other faking back had made it appear that the play was going in another direction. Only the defensive halfback stayed on the play. Bill rolled-blocked him as he dived for the ball carrier. Landis blew his whistle sharply.

SILENCE hung over the field a minute. The varsity stood in a sheepish group. To a man, the scrubs tried to hide the triumph that lighted their faces.

Bill Mentor was surprised. Buck's training told him that the play shouldn't have clicked so easily. He sensed that it wasn't the fault of the varsity boys, but of their defensive training.

Coach Landis strode across the field toward Bill. The tiny network of veins on his nose flamed.

"Mentor," he said, "you're too big for your britches."

"But, Coach," Bill protested, "you wanted me to show the scrubs—"

"I don't want them learning circus plays," he raged. "You're—"

He checked himself, as if realizing that his anger carried him too far. "So long as I'm coach, Mentor, I'll run the show. You're a disrupting influence. I've let you practice with the squad because I felt sorry for you. I'm through being soft. Don't let me catch you around here again."

Bill dug his cleats into the ground, bit down an angry retort. Buck had told the fellows to behave like soldiers. Now it was his turn to take orders and not whine.

BILL changed clothes slowly. He wrapped Buck's uniform in a big bundle. Where his heart should have been, there was a sick, empty feeling. No more football ever. In another year he'd be through school and looking for a steady job. Bill Mentor realized sharply just how much these sandwiched-in practice sessions meant to him.

That night, Bill tried to get the bundle in without letting Buck see it, but the older man's keen eyes noted the shape of the package.

"That looks suspiciously like a football uniform, Bill. Anything wrong?"

Lying to Buck was out of the question. Bill said dully, "Landis booted me off the field today."

"Why?"

Bill told him. Buck nodded, thumbed his pipe; but he uttered no condemnation of Landis. He said simply, "That's tough, fellow."

"Maybe he was right," Bill said. "I guess I did want to show off your plays, Buck."

Buck Mentor smiled. "Keep punching, Bill. If things go as I've planned, you've got five years of football ahead."

"Five years? Say—"

"Here, take a look at this, fellow."

ON the table Bill saw a movie camera and projector. "Buck, for Pete's sake, where did you get that?"

Avoiding Bill's gaze, Buck said, "A friend of mine left it here."

"A present?" Bill gasped. "Not exactly. You've heard me mention Jim Kirk?"

"The fellow you said could drive a hole in a concrete wall?"

"That's Jim. He was my sidekick in college. Recently he heard about my accident and looked me up. He's a district sales manager for the company that makes these outfits."

"I still don't get it, Buck."

The older man fumbled with his pipe. "These machines are designed especially for coaches. Jim thinks my football background would make me a good bet to sell them."

"Nothing doing," Bill said. "You're not going to do anything like that. You know darn well what the doctor told you about being quiet. I'll keep things going until we can afford the operation."

Buck gripped his son's arm. "Sorry, Bill, but I've made up my mind. I'm through pampering myself. I'm going to make a living for us. My legs can wait. Don't think it's going to be easy. We'll be separated, and that's tough to take."

"Wait," Bill pleaded. "Something will turn up here. I know it will." Bill's mind flashed to an Auburn-haired girl. "I—I've got a plan..."

400 Can't Vote

And County Auditor Leaves Town Quickly

LUFKIN, Nov. 7. (AP)—Four hundred Lufkin voters didn't get to ballot Tuesday.

Today, they were pretty upset about the whole thing.

It seems County Auditor Amos Courtney hadn't obtained enough ballots to go around.

"I thought I ordered plenty—two thousand more than the last election," he explained.

But they really voted in Angelina county yesterday. By late afternoon the ballots were running low. By the time many working persons hurried to the booths there were no ballots. Hurried trips around the county's polling booths failed to produce any extra ballots.

Auditor Courtney's office said today he had left town for a visit of several days.

Rain Needed For Texas Fall Crops

Although light scattered showers have been received recently in the northern and central sections of Texas, moisture in the central areas has not been sufficient to be of material benefit, and rain of a general character is needed for small grain and other fall crops.

This is the opinion expressed in the statement of agricultural conditions in Santa Fe states, based on reports received up to October 28.

On account of continuous drought, the winter wheat outlook for the Panhandle and South Plains areas generally is poor for this season of the year. Rainfall for the year is one of the lowest on record.

Because there has been more moisture to start the crop, conditions are slightly better in the north Panhandle and along the Orient line of the Santa Fe than on the South Plains, but the subsoil supply is short and rain is needed badly.

A large part of the north Panhandle wheat is up and covers the ground fairly well but rain is necessary to keep it going.

Farther south the crop is very spotted, and while fully 75 per cent of the acreage has been planted little is doing any good.

More than half of what has been sown is in the dust and will not germinate without moisture, and such as has sprouted is small and likely to die unless rain is received soon. In only a few spots is there any wheat for pasturing.

Leathers Family Wires Roosevelt Congratulations

Roosevelts Like 'Farm Life' But Prefer Washington To Any Other City In Country

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7. (P)—President Roosevelt, first man in history to be selected for 12 years in the White House, told a welcoming throng of thousands today that he and the first lady liked farm life, but that of all the cities in the country they would rather live in Washington, D. C.

He made the statement with a laugh in a talk to a crowd which thronged the plaza outside Union station upon his arrival from Hyde Park, N. Y.

The chief executive, fresh from his third term election triumph, thanked "my old friends of Washington" for their reception and added: "It isn't as if we (himself and Mrs. Roosevelt) were new people. Your turning out to see us means that we are getting on pretty well."

"And we are very happy, both of us, to be back here for a little bit longer."

"You all know how very much we like farm life, but of all the cities we would rather live in Washington, D. C. than any place else."

The President said he wanted to tell the crowd "how glad he was to return to Washington."

Henry A. Wallace vice president-elect, and Mrs. Roosevelt rode with the President in his open car through throngs that lined the way to the White House.

Captain E. A. Sweeney of the district fire department estimated that 50,000 to 60,000 persons were gathered on the station plaza alone.

Flags whipped in the crisp autumnal air. Bunting decked the great gray building. School children lined the curbs. Bands were marshaled. Police expected the biggest day since the visit of Britain's king and queen.

The decisiveness of that triumph was reflected in the hourly more complete tabulation of the nation's popular vote. With 119,168 out of the country's 127,245 voting units accounted for, the ballot totals stood:

Mr. Roosevelt—25,956,562

Wendell L. Willkie—21,591,032

The President had 39 states to his credit with a total of 468 electoral votes, while Willkie mustered 9 states and 63 electoral votes.

The big possibility of a change in this lineup appeared to rest with Michigan, where late Republican gains cut the Democratic margin to a slender 3,700 with more than 60 districts yet to report.

The Roosevelt victory, however, was not without encouraging aspects for his Republican opposition. The same figures which clarified his reelection, also proclaimed substantial Republican gains over 1936 when Mr. Roosevelt won 523 electoral votes to the 8 which two lone states yielded to his rival, Alf M. Landon.

In 1932 the popular vote went: For Roosevelt—27,476,673, Landon 16,679,583, but in 1940 Willkie not only slashed fifty per cent off the numerical size of the Roosevelt plurality but piled up a record-breaking mountain of Republican ballots. Although the count was not yet complete, he already had surpassed the previous Republican high of 21,392,490 which Herbert Hoover reached in 1928 in his great "prosperity landslide."

With the last tardy returns still dribbling in, Mr. Roosevelt had a multitude of affairs awaiting his attention. Problems of foreign policy, plans for greater assistance to Britain, and defense program details all promised to shove quickly into the background the election, its interests and controversies.

On these major questions the chief executive was receiving an increasing number of assurances of cooperation and support from the ranks of his erstwhile political foes. To implement these assurances, a post-election keynote of national unity sounded in every section of the country.

Following upon Wendell L. Willkie's telegram of congratulation to Mr. Roosevelt yesterday, Alf M. Landon, Republican 1936 standard bearer, told the country by radio that his job now was to "grin and go back to work."

In Palo Alto, Calif., former President Hoover noted that both Republican candidate Willkie and Democratic candidate Roosevelt had "pledged to the utmost national preparedness and to keep out of foreign wars."

"The transcendent duty now," Mr. Hoover said in a statement, "is the full cooperation of everybody in this vital purpose."

In New York, former governor Alfred E. Smith, a Democratic campaigner to the last ditch for the Willkie cause, declared that "every American should line up solidly behind the President in the interest of the future welfare of our country."

Along with their promises of support and cooperation, however, the Republicans gave every evidence of functioning vigorously as opposition to the administration on all issues which they may regard as inimical to the country's best interest.

Almost complete returns showed that the strength which the Republicans will command in the new congress, beginning in January, would be greater in the senate and somewhat less in the house than in the present session. With the outcome of one senate race still in doubt, the Republicans thus far had registered a net gain of four seats for a total of 28 as against 66 held by Democrats in that chamber.

In the house the Democrats had a net gain of five seats, with only five contests still undecided. This gave them a total of 263 members, compared with 218 necessary for a majority. The Republicans had elected 162 members and Progressives 3, Independent Democrats 1 and American Labor 1.

Meanwhile, indications increased that complete official returns on 1940's presidential election, counting in some million ballots usually cast for minor party candidates, would be around 49,000,000, the greatest in history. The record meant that about 4,000,000 new voters had been added to the 1936 total.

To Willkie, whose energetic and unprecedented campaign enlisted almost 30,000 miles of traveling, politicians generally attributed much of the credit for getting out the whopping Republican vote. His success in this respect buttressed his position as head of the party, with great influence over its policies of the next four years.

Exactly what part he would play and what he thinks those policies should be were subjects he was expected to discuss in a statement within a few days.

Mr. Roosevelt indicated at Hyde Park yesterday that renewed efforts to bring together Congress of Industrial Organizations and the American Federation of Labor might be undertaken, perhaps with his enhanced personal influence behind them. This hint of a new labor peace move came when reporters present at the chief executive's dedication of Hyde Park's new post-office asked for a "story."

Mr. Roosevelt called their attention to signs carried by men in the crowd of onlookers. These said "when Lewis resigns labor will have peace" and "not Lewis but unity."

John L. Lewis, president of the CIO, is expected to offer his resignation at the organization's convention this month. When he came out for Willkie in the campaign, he announced he would step down if Mr. Roosevelt was elected.

Of the 84 manufacturers of motor vehicles in this country 22 make passenger cars, and 62 make commercial cars, trucks and road tractors.

Woman Ranch Owner Kills Horse Trainer

GRAHAM, Nov. 7. (P)—Widowed Mrs. Tom Holt, 50, ranch owner, was at liberty under bond today in the pistol slaying of Jack Parker, 35, horse trainer, who was shot to death yesterday as he sat in a truck with Mrs. Holt's daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Hart, 25.

Two bullets struck Parker in the head. Mrs. Holt was wounded in the shoulder.

After the shooting, City Marshal George Grubbs said the ranch woman surrendered a pistol at his office. She waived a preliminary hearing on a murder charge and was admitted to $7,500 bail.

Parker formerly worked on Mrs. Holt's 10,000-acre ranch near Graham.

Five Negroes Killed

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 7. (P)—Five negro workmen were crushed to death today by the collapse of a nearby stone township traffic tunnel which they were repairing.

Eight men were in the tunnel at the time a section of the concrete roof fell but three—warned of danger by a "sudden loud, cracking" noise—escaped. One of three was injured.

Never Repeated

Only once in history, during Lincoln's term, were five living ex-presidents of the United States known. This unusual number was a result largely of the fact that no President elected between 1836 and 1860 served more than four years.
