End Of Shootout

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — A slim gunman killed in a barrage of police gunfire as he walked out of a bank with two women hostages was described as "calm — a lot calmer than I was," by a policeman who negotiated with him for several hours.

THREATENED TO KILL

Lt. L.C. Chatham talked nearly four hours with the well-dressed gunman, trying to persuade him to release four women bank employes he held captive Thursday in a small room of the downtown branch of the First National Bank of Atlanta.

The gunman took the women hostage immediately when he was told the branch office had only about $50,000 cash on hand — one quarter the amount he demanded, Chatham said.

"Everytime I went back to talk to him, he cocked his pistol," Chatham said. "I never saw his face. He made me sit in a chair with my back to him. He threatened several times to kill his hostages and said at one point that he did not want to live."

FBI agents and police provided a car and $200,000 in cash from bank headquarters to meet the demands of the gunman, identified as George Linton Whitfield, 31, New Carrollton, Md.

KNOCKED TO PAVEMENT

But as he led two of the hostages towards the car, a police sharpshooter fired once from a rooftop, knocking him to the pavement.

As the two hostages dived to the ground, the gunman screamed and fired once with a revolver, police said. Then police — who had surrounded the one-story branch — opened up with a deafening fusillade of rifle and small arms fire.

Watergate Conspirators Sentenced By U. S. Judge

WASHINGTON (AP) — E. Howard Hunt was sentenced today to at least 2½ years in prison for his role in the Watergate break-in. Five other Watergate conspirators were handed lesser sentences and three of them will soon be eligible for parole.

SEEK INFO

U.S. District Court Judge John J. Sirica fixed final sentences which had been delayed for months while the government sought testimony from the six in the ever-broadening scandal which stemmed from the June 17, 1972 break-in to Democratic national headquarters.

Hunt, a former White House consultant who helped plan details of the break-in, was sentenced to 2½-to-8 years in prison and fined $10,000.

James W. McCord Jr., former security chief for President Nixon's re-election committee and an electronics expert, got 1 to 5 years. It was McCord's dramatic decision to talk last March which exploded the Watergate affair from a mysterious, bungled break-in into a massive scandal that has threatened to topple the Nixon administration.

JUST THE FACTS

Even as he was being sentenced Friday, McCord said he believes the full facts still have not come out.

Bernard L. Barker, a Cuban-American recruited for the break-in by Hunt, was sentenced to 1½-to-6 years.

Eugenio R. Martinez, Frank A. Sturgis and Virgilio R. Gonzalez, three Miami men recruited by Barker, were handed 1-to-4 year terms by Sirica.

The three Miamians, who have been in jail for about 11 months, will be eligible for parole within a few weeks.

G. Gordon Liddy, the seventh conspirator, who was convicted in January's Watergate trial, has never talked about the affair and was sentenced earlier to a minimum of 6 years 8 months in prison. Currently, he is serving an 18 months term for contempt of court and is appealing his Watergate sentence.

Hunt, McCord, Barker and the three other men all had past ties with the Central Intelligence Agency, which had led to some belief early in the affair that the CIA was involved.

READY TO TALK

But a flood of subsequent testimony in various courts and congressional hearings has shown that Liddy directed the break-in itself. Who ultimately approved the operation has never been uncontestably determined.

All six men were present today for their sentencing.

McCord, who had first revealed his willingness to talk in a letter to Sirica last March, said: "I respect and admire the judge for seeking the truth in this matter. My participation in Watergate was an error, was a wrong . . . I offer no excuse for my participation."

Philip Lacovara, a government attorney, said, "The government is fully aware that McCord was the first to come forward."

McCord has been free on bond during much of the time since the men were arrested early the morning of June 17.

He was given 15 days to arrange his affairs before going to prison, but his expected appeal of the sentencing could lengthen this period of freedom.

Of the six sentenced today, only McCord had stood trial. The others all pleaded guilty. Sirica earlier this week turned down the bids of Hunt, Barker and the Miami men for withdrawal of their guilty pleas. He also had turned down McCord's bid for a new trial.

Barker's daughter, Maria Elena Moffett of Alexandria, Va., angrily declared: "Some one has to go to jail, so they send this man, a punk, for Mitchell, Magruder and ultimately the President of the United States."

John N. Mitchell was attorney general and then head of the Nixon campaign. Jeb Magruder was Mitchell's deputy in the campaign. They both held meetings with Liddy at which bugging was discussed according to various testimony.

Nab Mass Slaying Suspects; Blonde Questioned, Released

STOCKTON, Calif. (AP) — Two fugitives who gave up without a fight were in jail today, accused of nine slayings in California's latest mass murder and two deaths in Arizona. Authorities said they were checking reports of possible other victims in Denver and New York.

Willie Luther Steelman, 28, of Lodi, Calif., and Douglas Gretzler, 22, of New York state, were scheduled for arraignment in Stockton Municipal Court today on nine counts of murder.

They were booked late Thursday for investigation of murder in the execution-style slaying of nine persons, including two children, in the home of a grocery store owner in the nearby hamlet of Victor.

Steelman and Gretzler were tracked down Thursday in Sacramento, 50 miles to the north, after they registered at a hotel where a clerk recognized them from photos in a newspaper and tipped police.

Gretzler was arrested on a second floor hallway of the Clunie Hotel and 90 minutes later Steelman was flushed by a tear gas shell from a shabby apartment building 1½ miles away.

He was accompanied by Melinda Ann Kashula, 19, who threw Steelman's .22-caliber pistol onto the lawn following instructions relayed to Steelman over a local rock-music station. Steelman had been promised he would not be shot if he surrendered.

The slim blonde girl, who police said worked at a massage parlor in Sacramento, was questioned and released.

Steelman and Gretzler also were charged in a murder warrant with the execution slaying of Robert George Robbins, 19, and Katherine Mestites, 21, at a trailer court in the Phoenix suburb of Mesa, Ariz. Their bodies were found Sunday.

Arizona sheriff's officers have come here to question the two about two men missing in connection with the slaying of the Mesa couple.

Gasoline Rationing Probably By Spring

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon's top energy adviser says nationwide gasoline rationing probably will be imposed by next spring.

John A. Love, director of the Energy Policy Office, emphasized that the White House has not made any decision whether or not to order rationing for the first time since World War II.

But Love said in an interview Thursday his personal opinion was that gasoline rationing "will be pretty likely" by next spring, the start of the vacation-recreation season when Americans do most of their driving.

If so, every vehicle owner can expect to be applying to a local rationing board, come next March or April, for tickets entitling him to purchase limited amounts of gasoline depending on the priority assigned to his use of it.

Whipkey Room Dedication

The Fireside Room of the Webb AFB Officers Club will officially be renamed the Whipkey Room in a dedication ceremony at 11 a.m. Saturday to honor the late Herald publisher Robert W. Whipkey.

Brig. Gen. Stanley M. Umstead Jr., former commander of the 78th Flying Training Wing at Webb, will be the speaker at the invitation ceremony. Honor guest for the occasion will be Mrs. Ruby S. Whipkey, widow of the late publisher and civic leader.

Approximately 100 guests have been invited for the occasion, presided over by Col. Robert Liotta, wing commander. Mr. Whipkey received numerous citations from the Air Force, one of them the highest that the Air Force can pay a civilian, for his work on behalf of the base.

May Delay UT Opening

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — University of Texas President Stephen Spurr said today the university may delay the opening of the spring semester in order to conserve energy.

Spring registration is set for Jan. 9-11 with classes to begin Jan. 15.

The university postponed the start of the spring semester last year because of a fuel shortage.

Spurr said, in a written statement, that the school also would consider turning off the heat entirely in some buildings on weekends, setting thermostats at 68 degrees in dormitories, offices and classrooms, and reducing library hours.

Fisher Will Not Seek Re-Election?

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Rep. O. C. Fisher, D-Tex., has decided not to seek re-election as congressman from the 21st District, the San Antonio Light reported today from its Washington bureau.

Fisher mentioned health problems. He had heart bypass surgery last June in Houston.

"Although I am feeling good and will continue to work full time, my doctor thinks I would be well advised to reduce some of my activities for awhile," Fisher said.

Escape Artist Nabbed In Mason

MASON, Tex. (AP) — Elton David Meyers, an escape artist wanted in Texas and Montana, was arrested near this West Texas town today.

Meyers escaped from the Texas prison system in August and was captured in Montana, where he escaped again. A third flight was from the McCullough County jail at Brady.

AND NOW SHE'S HELD

Goodbye Visit Lands Woman In Local Pokey

The Howard County Sheriff's Office arrested Betty Jean Gibbs, 30, Midland, Thursday afternoon for forgery and passing charges when she came to visit a jail inmate here.

She was arrested on a warrant from Midland County and was released to Midland police later Thursday afternoon.

Walter Morris Gibbs, 20, Midland, identified as her husband, was the inmate she came to see before he was transferred with two others to the Texas Department of Corrections in Huntsville today.

District Judge R. W. Caton revoked probation the Midland man was serving for a robbery by assault conviction after District Attorney Bob Moore presented evidence of a second robbery in Midland. Gibbs was sentenced to five years.

Jerry Barkley, 31, Colorado City, was sentenced to six years for defrauding with a worthless check written for about $4,100. And Aulton Vaughn Jr., 36, drew a six-year sentence for burglary of the Doris Chalk Cole ranch house in the Chalk Community.

THE WEATHER: MORE OF SAME

If the national weather forecast is correct, fog and cloudiness will continue today with an expected drizzle tonight and Saturday morning.

There was no forecast of rain this afternoon. School officials were uncertain about the 4 p.m. homecoming parade. Weather forecasts indicate that Saturday morning might be even more threatening.

The Steers are accustomed to play in the rain, they've escaped it only a couple of times this season.

For the 24-hour period ending at 8 a.m. today, the U.S. Big Spring Experiment Station recorded a trace of rain.

FOG

Fog and a 30 per cent chance of measurable rain tonight falling to 20 per cent Saturday morning. Clearing and warmer Saturday. High this afternoon, low 50s. Low tonight, low 40s. High Saturday, low 60s.

Hitch Apparently Developing In Israel, Egypt Peace Pact

By The Associated Press

The U.S. Government reported today that Israel and Egypt had agreed to a new six-point plan designed to firm up the Middle East cease-fire and to bring about full peace negotiations soon. But a hitch apparently developed in Israel.

There, Premier Golda Meir called a special meeting of her Cabinet to discuss what an official described as a last-minute snag over the U.S. plan.

HITS SNAG

Shortly before the announcement, Israel said Egyptian missiles had shot down an Israeli reconnaissance plane, shelling was reported on the Syrian front and Premier Golda Meir called in the U.S. ambassador amid reports that a hitch had developed in the plan worked out to bolster the cease-fire.

There was no immediate indication of what the hitch might be but the announced agreement differed from one reported in Israel on Thursday.

The announcement of the plan said representatives of the two nations are to sign the agreement, worked out with the help of U.S. Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger, on Saturday at a meeting on the Suez-Cairo road under U.N. auspices.

CEASE-FIRE

Announcement of the agreement confirmed unofficial reports that a peace plan had been accepted by both sides following Kissinger's visits to five Arab states this week.

A letter from Kissinger to U.N. Secretary-General Kurt Waldheim, made public by White House officials in Washington, listed the following six points:

—Egypt and Israel agree to observe the U.N. cease-fire.

—Both sides agree to begin immediate discussion of disengagement and separation of forces from positions held on Oct. 22, the date of the original cease-fire.

—Daily supplies of food, water and medicine will be allowed into the town of Suez. Wounded civilians will be evacuated from the town.

ENCIRCLED

—No hindrance of non-military supplies to the east bank of the Suez Canal.

—U.N. forces will take over Israeli checkpoints on the Cairo-Suez road. At the Suez end of the road Israeli officers can participate in supervising the non-military nature of cargo.

—As soon as the U.N. checkpoints are established, prisoners of war are to be exchanged.

The encircled Egyptian 3rd Army, supplying of which was a key point in negotiations, was not mentioned in Kissinger's letter but would be covered in shipments to Suez.

COUPLE HAVE NO FUEL TO CONSERVE — Debbie Schwarz keeps her shoulders wrapped with a shawl as she huddles with her husband, Douglas, for warmth in their small suburban Novi, Mich., duplex home. They had run out of heating oil earlier this week as the national energy crunch began finding its first victims. The Schwarzes moved into the home last January but because it was vacant all during 1972 they have no fuel as a side effect of a mandatory oil allocation order issued last month. Retailers receive only enough oil to handle customers they had in 1972.

Better Believe It Was On Fire

A car driven by Joe Rodriquez caught on fire while he was driving down Mulberry Street Thursday afternoon was reported by fire officials to be a total loss.

Rodiriquez and a passenger were driving along when two men in another car waved them to the side shouting: "Smoke is pouring out of your trunk."

Rodriquez stopped, unlocked the trunk and concurred: "There was a big fire in there." He suffered a burn to his arm. More than the trunk was on fire by the time a fire truck could arrive.

Pep Rally Whoops It Up for Homecoming
Ring that Victory Bell — Hook 'em Horns

Spirited Rally Launches BSHS Homecoming Events

A spirited pep rally that jammed Main between Third and Fourth Thursday evening ripped the cover off the Big Spring High School homecoming package for this weekend.

Many exes, one from as far as California, were streaming back for the event, the first one in several years.

Several thousand residents were expected to line the route (10th and Main to First to Scurry to 10th) at 4:30 p.m. today for the colorful homecoming parade. Fifteen classes and organizations have prepared decorated floats, and many other groups — like the exes who will ride in car models that match their class years — will beef the parade to some 40 units. Music will be furnished by the Steer band. If the weather does not permit, the parade will be delayed until 10 a.m. Saturday.

OTHER EVENTS

Other homecoming events resume at 6 p.m. when the Steer Band will sponsor a supper at the Howard County Junior College cafeteria. A number of members from the class of 1923 indicated they may have a table there.

Pre-game activities will start at 7:30 p.m. at Memorial Stadium with the climax at 7:50 p.m. in crowning the homecoming queen. At half time, while the band goes through its drill, winning floats in the parade will be announced and stage a mini-parade around the stadium.

Honorees at the homecoming will be the Golden Anniversary Class of '23, which has approximately half of its surviving members here for the occasion.

HALL OF FAME

Also in the spotlight and to be the first inductee to the new Hall of Fame in Saturday 2 p.m. dedication rites — will be the football team of 1953, which went to the state finals. Immediately after these ceremonies, a reception for all exes will begin in the cafeteria, where tables and chairs will be set up by decades to facilitate renewal of school-day friendships.

Dances at 9 p.m. for students at the high school cafeteria and for exes at the Dora Roberts Community Center (Cosden Country Club) will conclude the day's celebration.

CLASS OF '23

Among those back for his '23 class reunion is Louie Moseley, Claremont, Calif. Others expected include Leo Forrest, Amarillo, Pauline Williamson Green, San Angelo, Anna Agnell Hornaday, Austin, and possibly others. Those residing here include Ruth Miller Rutherford, Marian Kennedy Wilcox, Mayme Padgett Roberts, Helen Creath Earley, Bernice Johnson Porter, Helen Hayden Acuff, Louise Weeg Jayes, and Abe Bailey.

A new name was added to the grid squad of 1953 list of returnees — Billy Earley will come here from Nacogdoches. More than half of the squad will be here.

Mrs. Jane Smith fired up the student body and exes at the rally Thursday evening. "Five of the seven men who pick scores in the Herald picked Odessa' (cries of ''boo'') because, she said, that was the way the record indicated, "but if every boy on this team will do his job tomorrow night, we'll blow Odessa off the field." (loud cheers). And, she predicted, that's what's going to happen.

"TURN AROUND TEAM

Larry Horton, backfield coach, said that if the Steers make up their minds to win tonight, they can go on to beat San Angelo and "be remembered as the team that turned things around for BSHS." Carl Coleman, coach of the '53 squad, recalled that his boys won because they wanted to win, bad enough to do more than they could, and today's team can do the same. Bill Bradley and the Steer band whooped up to the accompaniment of the Gold Diggers chants and victory bell's chimes.

Two Stolen Cars Are Recovered

Texas Highway Patrolman Robert Don Bates found two stolen cars in Howard County Thursday.

One belonged to a man from Albuquerque, N.M., who was beaten and robbed in Panhandle, Tex. This 1960 model car had been parked and abandoned by the Continental Trailways bus depot, Bates said.

The second car, a 1965 model reportedly stolen from an Oak Creek, Colo., resident, was found after it collided with a windmill and a parked car. The parked car, incidentally, was ill-starred, for it had been involved in a collision with a truck a week ago.

Officers arrested John Richard Nagle, 26, of a Lamesa motel, who was seated in the missing vehicle, and charged him with being drunk in public.

Nagle was fined $100 plus court costs by Peace Justice Gus Ochotorena Jr. He was charged with possession of a stolen automobile and was in county jail this morning, pending bond setting.

While there are many items such as desks, bells, slates, an old blue-back speller and an 1861 arithmetic book, school clothing, athletic letter sweaters, etc., the exposition features a remarkable collection of enlarged early-day school pictures for Big Spring, Coahoma, and Forsan. There also are pictures of all the 26 schools which once dotted the county map, plus pictures of school board presidents and superintendents.

To Be Returned

Dennie Michael Craddock, 18, of Big Spring, was being held in Freeport this morning for Big Spring city police, who will go to Freeport and bring him back to face complaints that charged burglary of the American Restaurant here, according to city police detectives.

DeMOLAY OFFICERS — Craig Knappe, senior councilor; Paul Bell, junior councilor; and Bob Shapland, master councilor, will be top officers installed Saturday at the annual investiture ceremonies.

BP's October Haul Is Huge

The Southwest Regional Immigration Commissioner Leonard W. Gilman announced that this region, which includes Big Spring, has seized marijuana and narcotics valued at more than $3,600,000 during the month of October alone.

During the same period of time, the region's officers apprehended more than 60,730 illegal aliens; confiscated more than 1,700 fraudulent entry documents; and intercepted 725 alien smuggling cases involving 3,244 smuggled aliens in the 10 states.

Contraband included more than 14 tons of marijuana, 10.75 ounces of heroin, 36.24 ounces of cocaine, 301.45 pounds of hashish, 212 pounds of peyote and 23,513 pills.

Most of the seizures were made by immigration inspectors and border patrolmen at ports of entry on the U.S. Mexican border although some were made in open areas.

The biggest haul was Oct. 27 when Chula Vista Border Patrolmen, alerted by an electronic intrusion device, intercepted two pickup trucks containing 3,170.2 pounds of marijuana valued at $317,020. The driver of one vehicle was apprehended. The driver of a second vehicle and two aides fled.

Guests are welcome, but reservations by them and by members should be made by calling Mrs. Ken Davidson (263-6325) or Donna Lamb (263-3340).

This Falcon Is Not So Frisky

Among the daily report of animals picked up by the animal warden were several dogs, several cats and one feathered friend — a falcon.

The falcon, which had a broken wing, was stalking around in the front yard at 510 Goliad in a rather bad humor with everybody that approached.

The animal warden took him to a pet shop on South Highway 87 where the owner plans to try to heal the wing, and if the falcon has not been claimed by the owner, turn it loose into the west Texas skies.

'Road To Armageddon' Showing Scheduled Here

David Wilkerson Youth Crusades has just released a new film depicting the events foreshadowing the last world war at Armageddon. The 45 minute full color film features David Wilkerson, author of "The Cross and the Switchblade," narrating the dramatization of five calamities that are coming to the world.

The film is based upon insights into final events Wilkerson received from God this past April. "I saw coming to the United States and the world: A terrible recession; a major earthquake, and worldwide famine; a flood of filth on TV and on the newstands; hatred against parents by teenagers; and a persecution madness, directed against all Jesus people," said Wilkerson.

The Rev. David Wilkerson, executive producer, states . . . "The purpose of this film is to awaken the young and old alike to the reality and nearness of the coming of Christ. This believable, low profile film has such an impact that every viewer will have to decide what he must do about Christ's imminent return."

"The Road to Armageddon" is now being premiered in churches throughout the United States and Canada and is soon to be released in Europe.

The public is cordially invited to this special presentation scheduled to begin at 7 p.m. Sunday Nov. 11 in the First Assembly of God located at 4th and Lancaster.

Admission is free.

A. J. Prager Details Tenents Of Judaism

Judaism was discussed by A. J. Prager when he was guest speaker Tuesday for Texas Delta Delta Chapter, Phi Sigma Alpha, in the home of Mrs. Lula Westbrook, 401 Hillside.

Prager said Judaism is a religious civilization which encompasses "customs, diets, language, political ideology, a general philosophy, history, a set of values, a religion and, above all, a moral and spiritual purpose."

The speaker listed the four cardinal tenents of Judaism as (1) all-embracing love of others, (2) the love of learning (3) the loving worship of God and (4) good deeds that stem from the heart.

"Christians and Jews share the same rich heritage of the Old Testament, as well as many other beliefs," said Prager. "The identity of the Jewish people could not have been preserved without the consolations offered by their family life. A good family life bears fruits of a good life." The program concluded with a general question and answer period.

A 'Big Bite'

Dear Abby

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Recently I gave a party for my husband. I planned the entertainment, which included games with prizes for the winners. One of the prizes was dinner for two at our finest restaurant.

I did not set a limit on the amount to be spent on the dinners because I didn't think it would be proper.

Well, I just received a bill for two dinners, and it was $120. Thinking there must have been a mistake, I called the restaurant and was told there was no mistake.

That man and his wife had ordered four appetizers, and THREE lobsters for the two of them, plus $50 worth of drinks which included 15 bottles of imported beer! (They even charged the "tip" on the bill.)

I feel that we were taken advantage of, but I am at a loss as to what I should say to this greedy, gluttonous couple.

Any suggestions?

PITTSBURGH

DEAR TAKEN: I would say "Goodby," after telling them that they had eaten themselves out of your good graces.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of an 81-year-old man and a 79-year-old woman who met in an old folks home four months ago, and decided to get married to save expenses? It's true, one double is cheaper than two singles, but isn't that a silly reason to get married?

LIVES HERE

DEAR LIVES: It's as good a reason as any to get married. And better than some.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I have been going with a guy for nine months. We have been together every night since we met. He is 24 and I am 18. He talks about long-range plans, such as the two of us going to Europe together next summer. Our relationship is a good one, but it would be perfect if we were married. He has not mentioned marriage at all, except to knock it. He was married for two years and is now divorced.

Should I just wait until he brings it up? I would hate to go on like this for a couple of years and then find out he doesn't want to marry me.

How can I find out what his intentions are without being pushy?

WANTS TO WED

DEAR WANTS: If he doesn't mention marriage, the chances are he isn't considering it. If you want to know for sure (and I can't blame you), ASK him. But be prepared for a let down. If your relationship is, as you say, a "good one" now, it's probably good enough for him — INDEFINITELY.

* * *

Problems? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069. Enclose Stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

Decorations Are Seen By Club

"Christmas Treasures," a collection of Christmas decorations created by Mrs. J. F. Skalicky, were shown by her at a Monday meeting of the 1941 Study Club. The group met in the home of Mrs. Bill Read, Coahoma, with Mrs. Cliff Ferguson as cohostess. Mrs. Don McKinney and Mrs. Ray Swan were program chairmen.

Mrs. Skalicky explained how the decorations were made, and she showed gift items and gave a demonstration of gift wrapping.

Mrs. J. W. Shive presided, and prayer was led by Mrs. T. A. Wynn.

Members will bring Christmas gifts for Big Spring State Hospital patients to a Nov. 19 Thanksgiving dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rod Tiller. Husbands of club members will be guests for the dinner.

STATE FINALISTS — The 1953 Steers, Big Spring's only team in history to reach the state football finals, will be honored this weekend during BSHS Homecoming ceremonies. Team members were (front row, l to r) Brick Johnson, Robert Angel, Jimmy Boyter, Tommy McAdams, Dickie Milam, Ronnie Wooten, Kirk Faulkner, Jerry Hughes and J. W. Thompson; (middle) Bob Jones, Dean Porter, Frank Long, Joe Liberty, Norman Dudley, Billy Martin, Lefty Reynolds, Don Swinney, Paschal Odom, James Hollis and Louis Stipp; (back) coach Carl Coleman, Jerry Graves, Buddy Cosby, Frosty Robison, Bill Earley, Don Washburn, Tiny Ellison, Wayne Medlin, Jimmy Porter, Roger Brown, J. C. Armistead and coach Wayne Bonner. The team was 9-4 that year, and lost in the finals to Port Neches.

Stanton, Sands Play Last Games Tonight

Stanton and Sands end their football seasons tonight and Forsan is at home for the last time as area schoolboy football winds down to an ending.

Meanwhile, Coahoma is hoping a small miracle might help the Bulldogs get into the playoffs for the third straight year as the team keeps one eye on McCamey's Badgers and one on Reagan County, where the Owls must lose to Crane to keep Coahoma in business. And the season may just be getting started in Lamesa, as the Golden Tors can sack up their second straight Dist. 3-AAA crown tonight against Colorado City.

For Stanton's Buffaloes, tonight's home game with Ozona means the difference between a winning season and a break-even year as the team carries a 5-4 standing into the bout.

Only 14 Buffs will be suited for the game, including six seniors. Among those playing their finale will be Mark Eiland, who returns to the offensive backfield after injuries and a move to tight end thee weeks ago kept him out much of the year. He'll be joined by quarterback Gordon Eiland and the Brown brothers, Vernon and Elvin.

On the line, David Standefer will be at tight end and Bill Howard, will be the split end, H. A. Schuelke and Roger Gutierrez are the tackles, Bruce Stanley and Ronnie Dickinson start at guard and Dennis Ireton is the center.

Ozona brings the league's No. 2 rusher into the game, Leonel Cervantez, plus talented runners Rick Hunnicutt and Pete Maldonado. Craig Taliaferro quarterbacks the Lions, who stand 4-4 on the year and 1-2 in league play. Top line hand is guard Melecio Martinez.

Sands opened the season with a victory that ended a 19-game losing streak, and the Mustangs would like to close out the year by ending a seven-game skid at home against the Roby Lions tonight.

Quarterback Dale Evers paces the Lions, who boast a strong passing game. Roby was an early favorite to battle for the Dist. 3-B title, but injuries hit the Lions and they stand 2-2 in loop play and 4-3-1 on the year.

Directing the Sands charge will be David Zant, with Frosty Floyd, Domingo Cantu and either Victor Rodriguez or Steve Bodine rounding out the backfield.

Ends Buddy Dyer and Refugio Cerda, tackles Ray Franco and Andy Anderson, guards Sam McDonald and Ed Kennemer and center Stan Feaster make up the Mustang line.

Forsan goes up against league-leading Jayton tonight on the Buffs' home grounds. Jayton is 4-4, all four victories in Dist. 3-B play and all four losses in non-district against Class A opposition and against Rule, the No. 1 team in class B.

Halfbacks Steve Kidd and Mike Wilson, along with high-scoring David Fincher, will be trying to spur the Jaybirds to their fifth straight win and set up the crucial meeting with Loraine next week.

Forsan will go with its same cast of characters, with Ralph Miranda and Landon Soles sharing the duties at quarterback with Soles, Donnie Croft, Wesley Thixton and John Medlin aiding the rushing show.

Orange, Sugar Bowl Foes Said Decided

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Second-ranked Alabama will meet No. 5 Notre Dame in the Sugar Bowl while seventh-ranked Louisiana State will take on No. 6 Penn State in the Orange Bowl, The Associated Press has learned.

However, the plans would be scuttled if Notre Dame turns down a challenge by Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant to play his Crimson Tide in the Sugar Bowl.

Notre Dame Coach Ara Parseghian said Thursday: "Right now, our primary job is to get ready for our game with Pittsburgh" Saturday. "We're honored by the fact that they (Alabama) want to play us and by the fact they consider us as solid competition."

Notre Dame and Alabama have never played each other, and it was reported unofficially that the Notre Dame players, who have never been in the Sugar Bowl, want to play Alabama.

Alabama's last appearance in the New Orleans bowl was in 1967 when it beat Nebraska 34-7.

Soon after word of the virtually certain Sugar Bowl match, LSU voted Thursday to play "an opponent which has at this time a higher rating in the wire service poll." The only eligible opponent ranked higher than the Tigers "at this time" is Penn State.

'Past' Working Against Baylor

By The Associated Press

The Texas Longhorns, with all those eyes riveted on a sixth straight Cotton Bowl appearance next Jan. 1, are host to the Baylor Bears Saturday with the oddsmakers giving the Baptists little hope of diverting the "Horns" attention from that goal.

Consider the reasons:

Texas has won 16 straight Southwest Conference games, the last loop loss coming against Arkansas in 1971.

Baylor has never beaten the Longhorns in 16 Darrell Royal-coached contests, having managed just a tie in 1957 and then 15 consecutive losses.

The game is in Austin where Texas has won 27 straight contests.

But these considerations mean little when one looks at why Texas is expected to win by about 24 points and move to within one victory of clinching the Cotton Bowl host berth. The reason is Roosevelt Leaks.

The junior fullback behind crushing blocks from a line spearheaded by center Bill Wyman rushed for 342 yards last week in a 42-14 victory over Southern Methodist.

That performance shattered the SWC single game mark of 297 by Texas A&M's Bob Smith and was just eight yards shy of the national rushing mark. Leaks also is just 142 yards shy of the SWC single-season record of 1,302 yards by Smith in 1950.

Besides the Texas-Baylor fray at 2 p.m., other conference games have Arkansas at Rice at 2 p.m., SMU at Texas A&M at 1:30, Texas Tech at Texas Christian at 2 and Houston at Colorado State at 2 p.m. (CST).

Royal, despite Baylor's 2-5 season mark, is feeling the ever-present pangs of upset fear.

"(Neal) Jeffrey is an excellent passer," Royal said. "His timing is so good. Pass defense is like the shutter of a camera. It opens up and closes suddenly."

Toros, Mavericks Capture City Grid Championships

Big Spring eighth and ninth grade footballers brought down the curtain on their football year Thursday night in Memorial Stadium in fitting fashion, with close games and pleased coaches, for the most part.

The Toros scored with just over a minute to play to earn a 20-14 decision over the Brahmas in the freshman collision, while Goliad made a first quarter score stand up for a 6-0 victory over Runnels in eighth grade action.

Score by Quarters:

Toros	8	0	6	6	—20
Brahmas	8	0	6	0	—14

The final Toro score came with 1:15 left in the game as Bubba Stripling hit Mike Harris with a 45-yard scoring shot to break a 14-14 tie. That play overshadowed the performance of Brahma fullback Jesse Doss, who carved out 217 yards on 32 carries and seored both Brahma touchdowns.

The Brahmas drove 65 yards following the opening kickoff for the first score of the game, as Doss went the final six through the middle for a 6-0 lead. Bobby Morrow ran for the two bonus points as 3:53 remained in the first period.

Tommy Churchwell got the Toros back into the game three plays later, racing 50 yards for a score on a sweep, and Stripling ran for the conversion points to tie the game at 8-8.

That's the way it stayed until the third quarter, when Stripling crashed over from two yards out, culminating a 43-yard march for a 14-8 Toro edge.

The Brahmas tied it again in the third stanza with a 12-play, 52-yard drive that ended with Doss bulling his way over from three yards out. A try for two extra points failed and it stayed knotted at 14-14. Then came Stripling's bomb to Harris to complete the Toros' season in style.

Toro coach Rex Scofield said in addition to Stripling, Harris and Churchwell, Steve Hughes, Tony Vieira, Rusty Phillips, John Birdwell, Randle Jones, John Wrinkle and William Clark all had good games on offense. Defensively, he praised Phil Woods, Craig Bailey, Perry Rogers, Brad Beach, Jim McChristian, Frosty Reynolds, Jimmy Britton, Roland Lozano, Dale Osburn, Barry Halvorston and Dave Daniels.

The Toros, coached by Scofield and James Griffin, ended the year with a 3-6 mark.

The Brahmas finished at 2-5-2 with coaches Rod Carter and Sonny Monroe leading the way. The coaches said Doss and Morrow stood out offensively for the Brahmas, along with Alan Partee, Terry Carter, Jack Buchanan, David Buckner and Johnny Davis in the line. On defense, Sammy Winton, Joe Thomasson, Armando Nunez, Phil Barber and Kyle Wheeler led the effort.

In the eighth grade tilt, the defenses were in charge most of the night and the lone touchdown came as the Mavericks took advantage of a Runnels fumble. The Mavs recovered the loose ball at the Yearling 22, and after Wade Cobb passed to Tommy Worsham at the two, quarterback Mike Thompson got the score from one foot out on third down.

That came in the first quarter, and Runnels threatened to tie things up seconds before the half ended as a reverse carried 70 yards to the Goliad 10. But the Mavs' defense tightened up and threw the Yearlings for losses back to the 30.

Goliad coaches Ben Neel and Duke Atterberry praised the efforts of the Mavs' defense, spearheaded by Worsham at end and noseguard Ishmael Solis. Charles Vernon, Ricky Torres, Craig Richardson, and Mike Egan also stood out in the victory.

Offensively, Thompson, Mitch Harris, Joe Vasquez, Lance Perry, Jeb Worthy, Bart Clark, George Sheldon, Kenneth Coffey and Del Poss were the top hands. The Mavs ended their season at 7-2.

Runnels, coached by Bobby Zellars, closed out its year with a 4-4-1 standing.

In the B team game, Ira scored 43-31 win. Londa Feaster hit 16 and Jana Grigg 11 in the losing cause.

Los Angeles Is Favored To Burst Saints' Bubble

By BEN THOMAS
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Will the real New Orleans Saints please stand up?

Tell the truth, now. Are the real Saints the team that sinned badly in its first two outings, losing 62-7 to the Atlanta Falcons and 40-3 to the Dallas Cowboys?

Or, are the real Saints the team that has won four out of its last five National Football League games scoring upsets over the Chicago Bears and Detroit Lions, the Washington Redskins — yes, the same Washington team that went to the Super Bowl last season — and the Buffalo Bills.

The Saints go after upset No. 5 this Sunday in Los Angeles in a game that matches two coaches who were assistants for six seasons at Detroit — New Orleans' John North and the Rams' Chuck Knox.

New Orleans 4-4 at Los Angeles 6-2 — If New Orleans was at home where it pulled off those four upsets then the Saints might pull off another one. But the Rams are two touchdown favorites and their two losses are by a total of three points. Nevertheless, the Saints and the points might be worthy of consideration. RAMS 28, SAINTS 21.

'Horns Try OHS Broncs In Homecoming Tilt Tonight

By JACK COWAN

The Odessa Bronchos, just now finding out how to enjoy themselves, and Big Spring's Steers, hoping to win one in front of the home folks, prepare for war tonight at 8 p.m. in Memorial Stadium.

It's the last home game of the year for the worrysome Steers, who have been the mystery team in Dist. 5-AAAA, and it's also Homecoming. Members of the 1953 Steer squad, the only Big Spring team to make the state finals, will be looking on as the Steers try to upset the steamrolling Bronchos.

Elsewhere in Dist. 5-AAAA tonight, San Angelo and Odessa Permian lock horns in Odessa's W. T. Barrett Stadium in what could decide the league championship, Abilene Cooper hosts Midland High and Midland Lee is at home against Abilene.

Odessa High, 5-3 on the year and 3-2 in loop play, comes into tonight's game as a two-touchdown favorite over the Steers, and reports that the Bronchos are at their peak would cause some guessers to give the visitors an even bigger edge.

But up until a week ago the Steers had shown a knack for playing everyone close to the final seconds, though their current 1-7 season record and 1-4 district mark is just about where pre-season charts had them pegged.

Both Steer Coach Bob Burris and Odessa mentor Dick Winder talk of each others' team with respect, and both are sincere.

"We think they could be the best team in the district," Burris said of the Bronchos. "They had a tremendous backfield, good size all around, and more depth and experience than anyone we've played." The statistics back Burris up, as the Bronchos have averaged over 330 yards a game in district and rank a close third in team defense.

Winder says "We've got great respect for Big Spring. Their passing attack makes them very dangerous, and they've proved it." That turns out to be true, also, as quarterback Tom Sorley and flanker John Thomas Smith of the Steers top the league in passing and receiving, and they form up a potent combo.

Sorley has thrown for 866 yards and 12 touchdowns, with Smith hauling in 26 catches for 498 yards and five scores. Smith's total yardage approaches an unofficial record in Dist. 5-AAAA, as Hobby Stevens of Abilene Cooper caught passes worth 574 yards in 1969.

The game pits what many consider the top two quarterbacks in the league, Sorley and Rodney Allison, the Bronchos' versatile general who has rushed for 219 yards and six touchdowns and thrown for 668 more steps.

Allison's main threat has been on the option, and when he isn't keeping he'll probably be giving the ball to either Woody Shepard, healthy for the first time in a month, or burly Doug King, the Broncs' 200-pound fullback. King is fifth among 5-AAAA rushers with 327 yards, and Shepard has 220 despite missing one whole game and most of two others.

Derrill Eubanks is a dangerous split receiver, as his 14 catches for 263 yards indicates, and flanker Terry Ely is close behind with 241 steps.

The return of 215-pound tackle Roger Benefield adds power to the OHS wall. Other key figures in the line include Jim Cagle (190) and guard Garland Reid (180).

When Big Spring isn't zinging passes in the direction of Smith or other top receivers, split end Ronald McKee and tight end Vicky Woodruff, the Steers will be using the running talents of Danny Ferrell (170) and 185-pound fullback Lonnell Banks. Ferrell has 297 steps and three touchdowns on 44 carries to rank sixth among the loop's rushers.

The Steers will be operating behind a front wall composed of tackles Ken Froman (215) and Scott McEwen (210), guards Steve Brackett (210) and Jerry Rogers (185) and center Ray McCutcheon (200).

Injuries during the Steers' 28-10 loss to Cooper last week thinned out the ranks defensively, as tackle James Coffey is out for the remainder of the season with a broken finger and end Stan Partee is lost with a shoulder separation. Joe Rains and Casey Lovelace will fill the end spots, with Brackett and Joel Fellows playing the tackles.

Three sophomores will be in the lineup again, with Edward Pekowski at nose guard, Ricky Watkins at linebacker along with Woodruff and Mark Moore back at safety after a stint at linebacker. Doug Robison will be at the other safety, and Smith and Lawrence Byrd are the cornerbacks.

Gilbert 5-Stroke World Golf Leader

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP) — Gibby Gilbert had but one fond wish after his stunning, record-setting, nine-under-par 62 had given him the first round lead in the richest golf tournament the world has ever seen.

"I just wish," Gibby mused Thursday after taking a huge, five-stroke lead in the chase for a $100,000 first prize, "I just wish it was a one-round tournament."

But it isn't. This inaugural World Open, offering a record one-half million dollars in total prizes to a 240-man field, goes for eight rounds, 144 holes, and doesn't end until Nov. 17.

"Nobody knows in something like this," Gilbert continued. "We've never played an eight-round tournament before. Maybe after 72 holes a guy could get out 10 or 12 strokes in front and just coast."

The 62 — it included eight birdies, an eagle and only 24 putts — broke by three strokes the record Ben Hogan set on the 7,007-yard, par-71 No. 2 course at the Pinehurst Country Club.

It matched the best round on the tour this year, set by J.C. Snead and later tied by Jack Nicklaus.

It was "far and away the best of my career," said Gilbert.

Winchester
separates the men...from the boys.

You're a big boy now. And when your taste grows up, your smoke should, too. Winchester is a very mature smoke. Ask any woman. She'll tell you that Winchester is slim and sexy, with a filtered smoothness. Mild and light. She'll tell you that Winchester isn't heavy-handed on aroma. One gentle whiff whispers in her ear: "It's not a cigarette. Not just another little cigar. It's a whole 'nother smoke." Very adult. And she'll tell you that when you're man enough for Winchester, you're man enough for her.

Winchester.
It's a whole 'nother smoke.

Marvelous Achievement

News that the United Way has gone over its record $117,000 goal — and by record proportions, is wonderful.

Certainly, it is like manna for the agencies who look to United Way for part or all of their operating budgets, and who regard it as a blessing. And there's something to be said, too, for the element of community pride and the boost that comes from achievement.

Everyone who worked, who gave or helped in any way can be happy about this.

And without meaning in any way to dampen spirits, we do want to reiterate the official reminder that the excess is due primarily to remarkable records at Webb AFB and Cosden. Were it not for this, we still would be far short of the goal.

The totals may go higher as last of the cards are worked and reported — as surely they ought to be, for the extraordinary work and generosity of some does not excuse the rest of us from doing our share.

In the meantime, most of us outside the Consolidated Federal Campaign and the Cosden family might contemplate what would have happened had we all done equally as well. Our essential agencies, who had to take cuts below actual needs in order to preserve a touch of reality for the UW, could answer that.

Cheers For Rep. Broomfield

Rep. William S. Broomfield of Michigan became incensed when he learned that millions of surplus Army trousers, overcoats, and shirts — some of them brand new — had been destroyed by the Defense Department in recent years. He charged that the American taxpayer was being short-changed by an "insane policy" which resulted in valuable, high-priced woolen clothing being destroyed.

Broomfield's complaints have resulted in a change in policy. Henceforth, surplus clothes will be sold, after removal of brass buttons, insignias and other identification features. Thus the familiar scene of post-World War II will return, with civilians wearing surplus Army clothing.

The enlisted man's overcoat was prized especially. The wool shirts and trousers and the field jackets were esteemed by hunters.

Let's hear it for Rep. William S. Broomfield!

Growing Indignation

Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON — The ripple across the country for the impeachment of the President or, failing that, for his resignation is a new phenomenon quite unlike the mass protests of the past. The young on the campuses are not burning down ROTC buildings or trashing university libraries.

INSTEAD THEY are organizing teach-ins and seminars on the dilemma of a government headed by a crippled President. Many of the young are those who worked for Sen. George McGovern until they were disillusioned in the last phase of the campaign.

Their attitude today is different. Deeply concerned over the future of the country, they are determined not only on a serious inquiry into every aspect of the constitutional crisis but on pursuing through legitimate channels the drive to remove the President from office.

AT YALE University, where a confrontation of massed thousands once threatened to burn down the campus, students and faculty members met to plan their program of letter writing, petitions and fund raising. Within three days 3,200 students had signed petitions calling for the President's impeachment. The chairman of the Liberal party of the Political Union reported that spontaneous activity had begun in the graduate, divinity and medical schools.

All eight Ivy League college newspapers printed an identical editorial headed: "Nixon Must Go."

The same thing has been happening on other campuses with petitions, letters and telegrams pouring in to Congress. This might be discounted as merely another manifestation of the smart aleck young on the Eastern seaboard, although the phenomenon is by no means confined to the East.

IN MIDDLE America — geographically and politically — the ground swell takes another direction. A popular lecturer doing one-night stands across the country reports that indignation centers on the President's huge tax deductions, reducing his payments for each of two years to reportedly under $800.

The White House has neither confirmed nor denied these reports and has declined to make public the President's income tax returns. A deduction of $570,000 came from the gift of his Presidential papers to the National Archives, although the timing of the gift in relation to the law is in question.

MEETING hundreds of people each week who attend his popular illustrated lectures, my friend reports that while they may not be clear about the issue of the tapes, they boil over on taxes. Why should he, with his salary of $200,000 and those other sources of income, get away with that, they ask.

Those electing to stick by the ship, such as Acting Attorney General Robert Bork, who in that capacity fired Special Prosecutor Archibald Cox, are feeling the whiplash of anger. On leave from the faculty of the Yale University Law School, Bork was denounced for this action in a petition signed by 160 students and some faculty. The total Law School enrollment for various degrees is 585.

HOW MUCH of this rising mutter of discontent gets through to the President? The answer is precious little. He is still the loner, finding solace at Camp David or Key Biscayne, and a loner surrounded by men who, with one or two exceptions, either are unable or unwilling to tell him the truth.

It is one thing to say this cannot endure. But it is quite another thing to say how it will end.

GUESS WHO'S COMING TO YOUR HOUSE!

Room Temperatures

Hal Boyle

By DEE WEDEMEYER
(Substituting for Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP) — President Nixon's prescription for lower room temperatures to save energy has the backing of some leading doctors. But they say there are no real scientific studies to prove cooler rooms are healthier.

"It's the kind of thing family doctors say all the time. I don't know anybody who would quarrel with it," said Dr. George Reader, chairman of the Public Health Department at New York Cospital - Cornell Medical Center.

"He was wishing so — that it would be healthier. I heard him speak and I agree with him in general, but there is probably little hard data. No one has done a study that shows lowering temperature makes you healthier," Reader said. He added, however, that he thought lower temperatures might mean a slightly less risk of catching cold.

President Nixon said Wednesday night that he wanted the nation to lower temperatures in the home by six degrees to a daytime average of 68. He asked offices, factories and stores to achieve the equivalent of a 10-degree reduction by lowering the thermostat or curtailing working hours.

In an aside to his prepared text the President said, "Incidentally, my doctor tells me that in a temperature of 66 to 68 degrees you're really more healthy than when it's 75 to 78, if that's any comfort."

The President's doctor, Dr. George Tkach, could not be reached for elaboration.

At the American Medical Association in Chicago, Dr. William Barclay said it generally is accepted within the medical profession that the higher the temperature, the dryer the air. Dry air tends to aggravate bronchitis and other respiratory problems and can contribute to dry throat, nose, cough and dry skin.

Barclay also said the respiratory system does not cope well with sudden changes in temperature caused by moving from an overly warm room into the outside world.

Dr. John McClement, professor of Medicine at New York University and director of chest services at Bellevue Hospital, said he did not believe that lowering room temperatures would affect a person's health one way or the other.

"I think there is no evidence that I know of that lowering room temperatures to 68 degrees will have any deleterious health effects. The best evidence is it will do no harm. I don't know of any evidence that it makes any difference."

Nevertheless, Dr. McClement said that after hearing the President's address, he turned down the temperature at his home to 68 degrees for the day and several degrees lower at night.

Break For The West

Robert Novak

TEHERAN — When Soviet Prime Minister Aleksei Kosygin on his recent visit here complained to the Shah about Iran's soaring armaments program, which he said was costing $2 billion, the Shah smiled a chilly smile and murmured: "Three, not two."

INDEED, THE Shah's ambitious defense program is costing in toto even more than $3 billion. The Shah privately estimates its annual cost right now at between one and two billion dollars — a lot of hardware even for a fast-developing country of 32 million.

Yet, considering the Shah's ability to cash-and-carry every dollar's worth out of his oil-fattened treasury, and considering his plan to make Iran the principal guardian of the vital Persian Gulf waterway, his decision to build the best combat force between the Soviet Union and India is very good news for the West.

A CURSORY glance at the Sha's inventory, either in place or on order, makes pleasant reading for friends, among whom the U.S. stands high: close to a thousand British Chieftain tanks, 169 F-4s of the advance D and E classification, 141 F-5s, a couple of specially built British frigates, a couple of U.S. destroyers, U.S. air tankers to give his fighters maximum range, fast patrol boats, British-made Hovercraft and much more.

IRAQ BROKE relations with Iran in 1971 when the Shah seized British-controlled areas in the Gulf, including the Iranian side of the Shatt-al-Arab waterway dividing Iran and Iraq — and three strategic islets near the neck of the Persian Gulf — just before the British vacated the Gulf area. Although diplomatic relations were restored by Iraq, for tactical reasons when the war of Yom Kippur broke out, the two countries are bitter enemies.

THUS, PROTECTING his flank along the volatile border with Iraq, which is armed to the teeth by profligate Moscow, is a secondary reason for the Shah's huge military buildup. The greater reason is to keep Persian oil flowing and Persian control over the Gulf and the Sea of Oman.

As the Shah told us in an interview, "We must depend on ourselves. No one will do it for us."

THE SHAH means just that. He sent Iranian (Persian) armed help to Oman early this year to quell a radical left-wing movement in that small emirate. They are still there. He will do the same anywhere along the congested west bank of the Gulf.

Publicly, he and King Faisal of Saudi Arabia, another traditional but more passive monarch, have agreed to cooperate on keeping the Gulf clear of foreign influences and to protect the small oil emirates from radical infiltration. But they are not close.

SOVIET INFLUENCE in the Gulf area today is weak, except for Iraq. That hasn't stopped systematic and increasing Soviet naval penetration of the Gulf, however. Small Soviet naval vessels are frequent visitors, and early this year for the first time a Soviet cruiser steamed up the Shatt-al-Arab. Soviet activity is intense in Aden, far to the south on the Arabian tip, but on the Gulf itself there is no easy toehold other than Iraq — not yet. If Moscow tried to subvert the Shah's pledged role of Gulf protector and guarantor, U.S. counteraction is predictable, with detente a possible casualty.

The Sounds Of Eating

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I am a 17-year-old girl and I have had this problem for at least eight years. I cannot stand the sound of people eating.

It absolutely drives me up the walls. I actually want to turn and slug the person in the face, and it is all I can do to control my emotions.

During lectures at school I find it impossible to concentrate when there is someone chewing gum nearby. I have really been hard on my family and they've become quite disgusted with me.

I've been to a psychiatrist once. He told me to leave the room when I become irritated. This isn't always possible if I am in school.

I plan to attend college and I feel it will affect my grades. — K.S.

I don't know many people who enjoy the sounds of people eating, so to that extent you are not much different than anybody else.

Most people are accustomed to it though, and I suspect that you will in time join them.

One thing puzzles me a bit, though. Are you entirely soundproof when you eat? If not, why wouldn't your own sounds bother you?

I can think of worse things to be neurotic about than the sounds of people nourishing their bodies by eating. You know lots of folks can't stand sounds such as glass scratching. We all have our little pet annoyances.

My only advice would be that if the gum chewers of the world annoy you, join them. Stick a wad of gum in your mouth and chomp away.

The world is made up of ice crunchers, knuckle crackers, fluid slurpers, nut chewers. Why pick on the lip smackers?

* * *

Dear Dr. Thosteson: This question may seem peculiar to you, but it is important to me. Is it possible for a cat, dog or bird to contract cancer in a house where two people are chain smokers, smoking three to four packages of cigarettes daily? — L.R.

You mean cancer from the smoke? I doubt it, because cancer from smoking usually takes many years to develop. I'd worry about the people instead of the pets.

* * *

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I read an article that said that "some people with osteoporosis are being treated with large doses of fluoride." Do you have any information on this? — K.W.D.

Yes, this treatment is being used. I have mentioned it several times in this column, but some papers use only part of the column while others use it all.

Your term "large doses" has to be taken into consideration because fluorides are toxic if given in quantity.

* * *

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I am 72 and in reasonably good health except for arthritis at the base of the spine. I like to drink a quart of fat-free milk a day. Now I hear this can be harmful, that the calcium will settle out and deposit in my bones. — E.W.H.

No — because calcium does not "settle out" in any such fashion, and it will not aggravate your arthritis.

* * *

Arthritis sufferers can be helped. Dr. Thosteson's booklet discusses many types of arthritis and related joint diseases as well as effective treatments and medications. For a copy of "How You Can Control Arthritis" write to him in care of the Big Spring Herald enclosing 35 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed (use zip code), stamped envelope.

Can't parents be described as people who bear children, bore teen-agers and board newlyweds?

GEORGE WASHINGTON was a piker. All he did was throw a silver dollar across the Potomac. Those now in our government have felt compelled to throw billions across the oceans without hope of ever getting them back.

Things have a way of evening out: The pessimist is a fellow who thinks inflation will get so bad that he'll have to carry his money around in a wheel barrow. And then there are those optimists who will invest their money in wheelbarrows.

The Dilemma

William F. Buckley Jr.

Concerning the deteriorating situation, a few observations.

1. IT IS unlikely that the support for Mr. Nixon in the Gallup Poll will go much lower. Probably the figure, in the mid-twenties, is at bedrock.

Under the circumstances, it will not prove very much if in the days ahead Gallup reports that Mr. Nixon's strength is not decreasing. If it stays at its present level, the indices for Mr. Nixon are bad. The regenerative powers of the Presidency are so enormous as to bring great kinetic forces to bear on his popularity.

2. NO ONE knows exactly what is meant by the cant phrase that President Nixon "cannot govern." That observation needs to be examined at several levels. The first is in foreign policy. Anybody who can call for a nuclear alert, can "govern," and Richard Nixon just finished one of those. At a less obvious level, however, it is — let's face it — inconceivable that the President could reply with force to an offensive by North Vietnam in violation of the Peace With Honor Treaty of last January. Whether a brand new President would feel free to do so is problematic. Put it conservatively that he would feel freer to do so than the beleaguered incumbent.

3. AS REGARDS domestic matters, those who say that Mr. Nixon cannot govern are once again talking about different levels of Mr. Nixon's responsibility. It is true that Mr. Nixon's diminished prestige causes individual congressmen and senators to defy him sometimes even for the sake of doing so. Some legislators no doubt feel that they can only communicate to their constituents their sympathy with the anti-Nixon mood by being clearly obstructive.

AT A LEVEL once removed, it is true that Mr. Nixon is not now in a position to get from the public the kind of heat necessary to kindle Congress into a concern for its duties. There is entrenched irrationality here, but not much that one can readily do about it. Even a move transparently directed to the public interest meets now with presumptive opposition — the delay over the confirmation of Gerald Ford being a case in point. In this sense, the loss of the people's confidence translates into a palpable loss of presidential power. It is an exaggeration to say that Mr. Nixon can't govern. It is not an exaggeration to say that he cannot govern as effectively as once he could.

4. IS MR. NIXON so constituted that he will not resign, not under any circumstances? That he would need to be hoisted out out of the White House as forcibly as Sewell Avery out of his office at Montgomery Ward by Mr. Roosevelt's Marines? In this case, responsible people will be asking themselves: what is to be served by augmenting the clamor for Mr. Nixon's resignation? But other considerations figure. They are not conclusively aligned in favor of keeping silent. Some will reason that rectitude demands speaking out against Mr. Nixon irrespective of whether doing so would merely result in increasing his ineffectiveness, while leaving him unbudged as President. Oh what a tangle, and how difficult it is, and how great are the stakes.

Jesse James Knew A Bargain

STANTON, Mo. (AP) — Lester B. Dill, who operates Meramec Caverns here, was asked by a tourist what attracted Jesse James to hide out in the cave.

"Free admission," Dill replied.

Still Teaching

LONDON (AP) — Eighty-seven-year-old Percy Dunlop is a teacher in a class by himself — a Mr. Chips who will never say goodbye.

He has started on his 68th year at Star Lane Junior School in the Canning Town area of London. "I don't feel any older than when I first came here in 1905," he said.

He "retired" 22 years ago, but two days after the fond farewells he was back at the request of the local education inspector.

He has taught four generations of some local families.

MY ANSWER

Billy Graham

One night at our house we were talking about reincarnation. My sister read Ecclesiastes 1:9-11. Do you think it has anything to do with it? What are your views? B.M.

The particular statements you refer to (Ecclesiastes 1:9-11) maintain that human study and thinking are a repetition of an unending round. He says nothing about reincarnation there, but simply that nothing is new. He asserts that all effort of nature and man is the doing again of something which has already been done.

The key phrase in Ecclesiastes is "vanity of vanities, all is vanity." It's a particularly appropriate word for our generation, because the writer, like us, had the advantage of everything — knowledge, wealth and honor.

While it might seem dreary to follow the logic of Solomon's thoughts, it can't help but be profitable. It sets the stage for the appraisal of life as insufferable monotonous, and a thing that ends in total oblivion.

We move from that to the life of Christ. At its close, He summed up His life by saying: "I brought glory to You here on earth by doing everything you told me to." (John 17:4).

Faith lets us have that same purpose. It rescues life from monotonous repetition and gives it a glory and a destiny.

A Devotion For Today . .

I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee. (Hebrews 13:5)

PRAYER: Father, life is so hard and I am so weak and tired. Help me to look to Jesus and trust Him more. Show me how to share my life with others. In His name. Amen.

GIVEN CITATION — Paul Adams, who served the Cap Rock Electric Cooperative for almost a quarter century, has been cited by the cooperative for "leadership, effective counsel and faithful service." Adams, prominent Howard County farmer, became a director March 1949, serving until last September when he resigned due to ill health. Glenn Cantrell, president, O. B. Bryan, retired manager, and Edgar Phillips, vice president, made the presentation.

Turn Down CATV Plan

HOUSTON (AP) — City councilmen will have to try again to award a franchise for cable television here. Voters Tuesday soundly rejected their first choice.

By a two to one margin, they turned down granting a cable TV franchise to Greater Houston CATV.

The council awarded Greater Houston CATV a 15-year franchise earlier this year. That would have allowed the company to provide a community television system throughout Houston.

After the franchise was awarded, however, several groups—backed mostly by disappointed companies which were rejected for the franchise—mounted a petition drive and forced the issue on the ballot.

Opponents hammered away at what they called a monopoly franchise, saying the council should have split the city up among several cable TV companies, each one operating in its own area.

Open Records Decision Made

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas' new open records law requires the release on demand of the Industrial Accident Board's files on workmen's compensation claims, Atty. Gen. John Hill ruled.

He also said Comptroller Robert Calvert must open to the public his records on applications for sales tax permits.

While acknowledging that opening the records would pose "practical difficulties" for the two agencies, Hill said the law does not contain any provision that would authorize withholding the documents.

Industrial Foundation of the South and the Industrial Foundation of America had sought access to the Industrial Accident Board's files of workmen's compensation claims.

Fall Festival Set Saturday

The Elbow Parent-Teachers Association is staging its Fall Festival Saturday at the Elbow Elementary School.

Turkey dinner will be served from 5:30 p.m. to 7 p.m. in the school cafeteria ($1.75 adults and $1 students) as a prelude to the festival.

There will be numerous booths operated starting at 7 p.m., including a fish pond, grab bag, wishing well, cake walk, wheel of fortune, country store, spook house, and others. All net proceeds will go to the PTA projects to benefit the school, said Bill Cregar, principal.

Church Of God, Grace Baptist Schedule Autumn Revivals Here

By MARJ CARPENTER

Both the Church of God and Grace Baptist have scheduled revivals in Big Spring next week.

An evangelistic crusade revival at the City Auditorium will be sponsored by the Church of God and will be in progress from Nov. 12-17 at 7:30 p.m.

The evangelist for the crusade is the Rev. Floyd H. Lawhon of Cleveland, Tenn. He is a National Evangelist for the Church of God, working under the direction of the Evangelism and Home Missions Department.

REV. LAWHON

Evangelist Lawhon's ministry has been far-reaching and varied, having served his church as evangelist, pastor, and has served on State Youth Boards. The Rev. Lawhon has traversed the United States, preaching revivals in local churches, and has been a featured speaker at camp meetings, conventions, and area-wide meetings with his Bible-centered, Christ-exalting messages.

Pastor O. A. Robertson invites the public to attend these evangelistic services each evening.

* * *

THE REV. JOE BOYD is slated to hold a series of revival services, beginning Monday night and continuing through Sunday (Nov. 18) at Grace Baptist Church, 2000 FM 700 West. Services begin daily at 7:30 p.m.

The Rev. Boyd, former All-American tackle, was a member of the Texas A&M national championship team of 1939-40. He is a member of Sports Illustrated Silver Team of 1965, and was also included in the Texas A & M Hall of Fame, 1966.

A successful businessman, the Rev. Boyd left the world of business to enter the ministry and now devotes all of his talents and energy to the church and area-wide evangelistic crusades. These have taken him all over the United States with more than 30 revivals scheduled yearly.

The Rev. Boyd is on the board of evangelists of the First Baptist Church, Hammond, Ind. He has pastored three churches, was president of a preacher's training school, operated Christian grade and high schools, and published a monthly Christian newspaper. For many years, the Rev. Boyd had a daily radio broadcast from Corpus Christi, known as "Strength for Today.

The Rev. Boyd held a large tent revival for Grace Baptist Church here and was termed a "big success" by the pastor, the Rev. Roy Honea. "Many souls met Jesus Christ as a result of the Rev. Boyd's dynamic preaching," said the Rev. Honea. His preaching next week will be accented by special music, such as soloist J. C. Walker, Weatherford, and Mr. Mr. and Mrs. Pearce of Photo West in Big Spring, and others.

THE WOMEN'S MISSIONARY Society of the First Church of God had their regular business meeting in the choir room of the church. The meeting was opened by the presiding president, Ann Smith.

The Spiritual life director, Norma Beasley announced the fall Bible Study, would be over the first four gospels using the related book, "The Life and Teachings of Jesus" by T. Franklin Miller. It began Nov. 7.

The group voted to send $125 to the West Texas Association for the remodeling of the room behind the present Missionary Cottage, which is our project this year.

The 1st Church of God will be having a supper and bazaar from 5 to 9 p.m., Nov. 16 in the church fellowship hall, at 2009 Main St. There will be baked goods for sale as well as home made articles and handcraft. Supper will be chicken-spaghetti (Louisiana style), salad, dessert, and drink. "Come and enjoy the fellowship and dinner," church officials stated.

* * *

THIS SUNDAY, a comprehensive report on the Mormon Church will be an NBC news special program from 9-10 p.m. with Harold B. Lee, president of the church to be interviewed. Channel 2 is the NBC station.

* * *

BISHOP STEVEN A. LEVEN, San Angelo, will be among the 250 members of the Catholic hierarchy expected to attend the annual general meeting of the National Conference of Catholic Bishops (NCCB) and the United States Catholic Conference (USCC) in Washington, D.C., Nov. 12-16.

Items on the agenda are the 1974 international Synod of Bishops, a proposed new method of administering Holy Communion, and several key elections. The bishops will also consider policy statements on the 1974 Population Year and on prison reform.

The international Synod of Bishops, which will be held in October 1974, at the Vatican, will occupy much of the bishops' attention.

Pope Paul VI announced earlier this year that the theme of the Synod will be "The Evangelization of the Modern World." The bishops incorporated their feelings into a position paper which will be sent to the Vatican as the American Hierarchy's response to the Synod theme. They also will elect four delegates and two alternates as their representatives at the Synod.

Messiah Practice

Anyone interested in singing in the annual presentation of Handels Messiah at First United Methodist Church is invited to rehearsals every Wednesday from 8-9 p.m. until the performance on Dec. 2.

This performance will be at 5 p.m. and will be the 14th annual presentation and will be performed with a full orchestra. Choir director is Charles Parham.

M. A. WILEMON
. . . honored by church

Wilemon Honored Sunday

M. A. Wilemon Day was held at the Church of God, 603 Tulane, honoring Mr. Wilemon as the oldest member of their congregation. He is 97 years old.

The church officials, in honoring Mr. Wilemon, pointed out "He has been a faithful member of the Church of God here for many years and has served on numerous boards and committees."

During the ceremonies Sunday, Mr. Wilemon expressed "gratitude for his blessings and many friends." He also told the group that he has set a goal of living to be 100 years old.

Methodists Schedule Conference

The annual charge conference of the Kentwood United Methodist Church in Big Spring and the First United Methodist Church in Garden City will be held jointly Sunday.

This marks the first time that two churches have been placed in a single charge. The Rev. Fred Witta is the pastor of the churches.

Worship services will be conducted at 9 a.m. at Kentwood by District Supt. O. A. McBrayer, who also will lead the morning worship at 11 a.m. in the Garden City church.

Immediately after this service, a covered dish luncheon will be held for members of both sections of the congregation in the Garden City church fellowship hall.

The annual charge conference, comparable to an annual business meeting, will be convoked at 1:30 p.m. with the Rev. McBrayer presiding. Travis Floyd, chairman of the administrative board, will present the Kentwood report for 1973, and Bryant Harris, chairman of the Garden City board, will present the report for his colleagues. A budget, a list of nominations for new officers, and a program of action for 1974 will be presented. The Rev. Witta urged members both at Kentwood and Garden City to take part in this important meeting.

OLDS-GMC-STARCRAFT

Introducing a used car guarantee without any "you pay half, we pay half" nonsense.

Most used car dealers sell their cars with 50-50 guarantees. You know the deal; if anything goes wrong, you pay half the cost of parts and labor. And they do the same.

Well, our guarantee doesn't work that way.

When we guarantee a car, we guarantee the repair or replacement of all major mechanical parts* for 30 days or 1000 miles. There's no charge for parts. Labor. Anything.

How can we do this? Easy. We fix the things that need fixing before we give them the guarantee. These used cars, for instance. They've all passed a tough, 16-point safety and performance test. They're reconditioned and ready to roll.

A car with a 100% guarantee costs no more in the beginning. And won't drive you to the poorhouse in the end.

New Lions Club Is Assured Here

A new Lions Club — the third for the city — has been formed here.

It is the Webb-Spring club, and it has 27 members on the now-closed charter list.

Charter night has been scheduled for Jan. 26, 1974, and by that time the new club will have named all its officers. New members will be added, too, although they won't be on the charter list.

James Walker Sr., civilian empoye at Webb AFB, has been elected first president of the club. Secretary is James Boyce, and the charter-night chairman is Milton Isaiah.

The new club will meet temporarily at the NCO Club at Webb AFB each Thursday at 7:30 p.m. until a permanent meeting place can be selected.

Here for the ceremonies firming up the charter Thursday evening was Ed Skypala, Austin, Texas Lions Secretary and Lions International extension director for the state; Cecil Bridges, Stanton, past district governor and district extension chairman; Tom Nipp, Midland, district 2A-1 governor; Paul Bozeman, Midland, zone chairman; Russell DeVore, zone chairman; Jim Lemons, district deputy governor.

Sponsor of the new club is the Evening Lions Club. The other Lions club operative here is the Downtown Club.

Sheriff, Police Chief Confer

Sheriff A. N. Standard and Police Chief Vance Chisum met Thursday afternoon in what will become a regular monthly conference between representatives of the two local law enforcement agencies, Standard said.

Other police department staff members attended the meeting.

Standard said he suggested the conference in reaction to a "rash of (rural) burglaries."

The Police Department and Sheriff's Office daily exchange activity log information, but Standard said they will be discussing the "nitty gritty" of law enforcement investigation in monthly conferences.

Details of criminal offenses, the method of operation followed in different crimes, suspects being sought and descriptions of suspects cars will be among the pooled information.

Moves To Conserve Fuels Assailed By Some Texans

By The Associated Press

The energy crisis may have replaced the weather as a topic of conversation among Texans, especially since President Nixon told a nationwide audience his proposals for conserving energy.

Although most local governments across the state supported the President's ideas for conserving energy, some merchants in Houston say the energy crisis may have to take a back seat to the Christmas rush.

UNPOPULAR

Retail merchants and department store officials said early closing, to conserve energy, would tarnish the yuletide sales season.

"An order to close would be an unpopular decision," said Tom Holliday, vice president for sales promotion at Joske's. He said about 30 per cent of that Houston Firm's business is at night.

Although most retail merchants did not take as strong a stand as Bernard Fuchs, executive vice president of Plais Royal, who described the situation as an "absolute disaster," they did agree that business at night in mall stores was far more important than business during the day.

Battlestine vice president Leonard Jacobs noted that closing at night would have to cut into sales volume.

Mayor Louie Welch said Nixon's call for conservation would have very little effect on Houston because "the President is talking about areas where there are critical shortages and extremely cold weather, which doesn't apply to Houston."

SPEED LIMIT

As for a 50 miles per hour speed limit proposal, Welch said it would have little effect since his city's maximum limit now is 55 m.p.h. on most highways.

The Retail Merchants Association also viewed with caution suggestions for curtailing exterior advertising lights and Christmas decorations in Houston.

Dallas Mayor Wes Wise said he would like at this point for the city to try meeting the President's requests on a "voluntary" basis.

But a Dallas mortgage banker, J. M. Dumas took a different attitude, declaring, "I started saving energy during his (Nixon's) speech by turning him off."

A couple in Garland, a Dallas suburb, listened to President Nixon's call for fuel conservation and decided at once to mobilize their neighbors in car pools.

ARE YOU SURE?

The sheriff at Amarillo warned that merchants who cut off their lights at night might be more vulnerable to burglars. His office also defended the use of large, powerful cars for deputies.

"We have to have the additional power," said a spokesman, explaining that "crooks don't drive Volkswagens."

In Corpus Christi, Mayor Jason Luby said he would not reduce speed limits or turn off Christmas lights.

Luby said, however, he had urged employes to save on fuel by taking only necessary trips in city vehicles and he would encourage more use of mail and telephones to avoid out-of-town trips.

Midwestern University at Wichita Falls will have its annual fantasy of lights and Christmas display but will reduce the hours for the display, an official said.

Twenty residents formed a committee to visit all public school buildings in Wichita Falls during the winter months and said they will take pictures of thermostat settings.

At the state government level, Gov. Dolph Briscoe was to talk to the Texas Highway Commission today about the proposed 50 miles speed limit.

A spokesman said Briscoe was meeting with commissioner DeWitt Green to talk the situation over. No directives or decisions were expected at least until early next week.

Briscoe's Energy Conservation Task Force made a report Thursday which said state agencies began last May to cut back on energy.

Nixon Sends His Energy Proposals To Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has ordered fuel economies at the White House and has sent Congress his proposals to deal with an energy crisis he says is "closing upon us quickly."

In Congress, the Senate Interior Committee planned to begin voting today on a bill sponsored by Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., which would give the President most of what he is asking.

PUBLIC SAFETY

But the Jackson bill would not permit the administration to suspend primary clean-air standards designed to protect public health and safety.

However, Russell E. Train, administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency, said Thursday that he doubted "that we can entirely avoid granting variances which may impinge upon primary standards."

Oil industry spokesmen and a leading environmentalist in Congress said Nixon's recommendations, including 50-mile-an-hour speed limits and a temporary letup on antipollution laws, will not be enough.

"No amount of cheerleading will provide an instant solution," Rep. Morris K. Udall, D-Ariz., chairman of a House environment subcommittee, said.

HUGE SHORTAGES

Udall called for immediate rationing and new taxes to reduce energy consumption.

In New York, a spokesman for the Sun Oil Co. said Nixon's proposals "will still leave a shortage of a million barrels a day."

Exxon President Clifton C. Garvin Jr. maintained that, even if Nixon's proposals are all adopted, "There will still be a crunch. There's no way to make up the past month's loss of petroleum."

HOPE

Nixon ordered an end to all-night floodlighting at the White House, thermostats were turned down to 68 degrees in the executive mansion and heat and lighting in other federal buildings were curtailed in a drive by the government to reduce its own energy use. A spokesman said the presidential jet airplane will fly slower to save fuel.

The President's message to Congress asking standby authority to impose fuel and gasoline rationing said petroleum supplies could fall as much as 17 per cent short of demand this winter.

Nixon also asked Congress for authorization to cut government and industry business hours, adjust air and other transportation schedules, license nuclear power plants for 18 months without public hearings, establish year-round Daylight Saving Time and authorize full production from government oil reserves.

"It is my hope that rationing of energy products will never be required," the President's message said, "but, if circumstances dictate it, there should be no impediment to swift action."

The White House said Nixon also sent telegrams to mayors, governors and county officials asking them to consider shortening school hours during the winter and extending the term into the summer.

Colorful West Texas Political Figure Dies

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — U.S. District Court Judge Robert E. Thomason, a colorful West Texas political figure whose exploits and tenure in office spanned five decades, died Thursday.

Thomason, 94, had been mayor of El Paso, speaker of the Texas House of Representatives, a U.S. Representative, and judge of the federal court for the western district of Texas.

Born in Shelbyville, Tenn. in 1879, Thomason was raised in Gainesville, Tex., and graduated from Southwestern University at Georgetown. He took a law degree from the University of Texas.

After serving as Gainesville district attorney four years, Thomason in 1916 was elected without opposition to the Texas House. He was re-elected in 1918, and was unanimously named as Speaker of the House.

In 1920, Thomason tried his luck in the governor's primary but was less fortunate. In a hot battle, he was defeated by Pat Neff, elected governor that year, and Joseph Bailey.

In 1927, having returned to private law practice, Thomason was asked to run for mayor of El Paso. He did and served two terms.

To cap his career, Thomason was named a federal judge. His more famous trials included that of Billie Sol Estes and two skyjackers, Leon and Cody Bearden.

In 1966, the Texas Legislature paid him a special tribute as the oldest living former Speaker and the only man west of the Pecos ever to have held the post.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Abbey Long Thomason, a son, William E. Thomason of Bryan, a daughter, Mrs. Isabell Thomason Dechard of Dallas, five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements were pending under the direction of Harding-Orr and McDaniel.

Food Stamp Raise Slated

The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) has announced that food stamp coupon allotments will increase on Jan. 1, 1974 for all participants in the food stamp program in the 48 contiguous states and the District of Columbia.

The Food Stamp Act, as amended by the Agriculture and Consumer Protection Act of 1973 (Public Law 93-86), requires that coupon allotments be adjusted semiannually to reflect changes in the prices of food as published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

The allotment increases are based on the cost of the USDA economy food plan as it is computed from Bureau of Labor Statistics food prices. The cost of the economy food plan through Aug. 31, 1973 was $141.60 for a family of four with school children.

Accordingly, USDA will raise the value of the coupon allotment from $116 to $142 for a family of four and make appropriate adjustments for other household sizes.
