Coe Howard Indorsed By Spanish Americans

From the Albuquerque Journal, Sept. 7.

Coe Howard, of Portales, accepted the nomination for lieutenant governor at the democratic state convention Thursday morning after differences between Spanish-American and Anglo delegates over formation of the remainder of the state ticket, which threatened for a time to wreck party harmony had been smoothed out.

The convention adjourned Wednesday night after Mr. Howard had been placed in nomination and after the complete roll of the counties had been made.

Before the morning session started, Mr. Howard announced to newspaper men that he was going to withdraw his name. As the motion was being carried to declare Mr. Howard's nomination by acclamation he jumped to his feet and addressed the chairman, but in the confusion that followed the chairman evidently did not hear Mr. Howard's protest and the vote was taken.

Declines at First.

Mr. Howard was escorted to the platform for what the majority of the delegates believed to be his acceptant speech but which proved to be his rejection address.

Mr. Howard said that Wednesday night was the first time he ever had a "full house beat by a pair of Jacks."

"When there were no other nominations I felt that I had a full house, but I discovered I was defeated last night by two Jacks."

Mr. Howard's humorous remark was taken to refer to the motion made and seconded by Jack Cleary and Jack Melaven for adjournment while his, Mr. Howard's, name was before the convention.

Mr. Howard's statement, "I refuse this great honor," came at the conclusion of his address and came so quickly that the majority of the delegates or the chairman did not understand that he had refused the nomination.

Chairman Brice called for the next order of business before his attention was called to Howard's refusal.

The convention was recessed for a 10-minute period on a motion by R. H. Hanna, so that the advisory committee could make a report.

George Armijo Saves It.

As soon as the convention started the session following the recess George Armijo of Santa Fe, in one of the convention's most oratorical masterpieces, voiced the sentiment of the Spanish delegates, asserted that the Spanish delegates heartily endorsed Howard, and moved that his nomination be reaffirmed by acclamation.

Discord which for a time had spread among the Spanish delegates threatened a breach during the early morning hours when the Spanish committee declined to meet with the advisory committee and a meeting of the natives, with nearly 200 attending, lasted until 3 o'clock in the morning before tranquility was again restored to the convention waters.

The advisory committee was in session nearly all night and throughout the entirety of the forenoon formulating the remainder of the ticket.

The first indication that the convention was again in complete harmony came with Armijo's speech endorsing Howard and assuring the convention that the Spanish delegates were "for the democratic party and the convention to a man."

Natives Honored.

When Mr. Armijo mounted the platform and stood before the broadcasting microphone he said, "you folks can imagine how a man born in an adobe house feels before an instrument of this kind."

Armijo declared that the republican party had never in its existence so honored th Spanish people as the democrats did Wednesday, when Juan Vigil was nominated by acclamation for the short term of the senate.

Armijo fired a broadside into the republicans of Santa Fe and Valencia counties when he ridiculed their predictions that Smith would not be elected. And again when he declared that "there is too much harmony and too much oil in the republican party.

"If you feed your motor too much oil the spark plugs get dirty," he said which was followed by a burst of applause.

"I want to tell you in behalf of the natives," Armijo said, "and that includes Bob Dow, for he is a native, that the nomination of Coe Howard is pleasing to us. I have been authorized by the Spanish delegates to say for them that Coe Howard has the entire support of the Spanish Americans, and I move you that we re-affirm his nomination by acclamation."

Howard Accepts.

When the shouting died away, Howard attempted to speak from the convention floor, but was shouted to the platform by the delegates.

"Last night," he said, "I felt that this convention thought that some other man could assist to victory in a more capable way than I, but today I feel that a man who is a good citizen should abide by the wishes of his friends. You have conferred upon me a double honor, and I only hope that I may live to merit the great confidence you have placed in me today."

There was a tremor in Howard's voice as he started to speak and in the opening he observed that there are four great factors in a man's life, "his religion, his family, his friends and his political party."

A pledge of support of Governor Al Smith was received from the New Mexico Independent Negro Voters' league," and the convention voted to assist the league in every way in its campaign.

New Tractor Farm.

Elmore Wall, of Lubbock, three months ago bought two sections two miles northwest of Dora, and about 15 miles south of Portales from M. A. Pember, and at once put two Farmall Tractors braking sod both day and night, and to date has about 640 acres ready for wheat, and is running wheat drills this week.

We welcome Mr. Wall and all new farmers to our county, and especially are we glad to see them when the brake out big acres of new land for cultivation.

South of Portales are many wheat drills in operation this week, and what that was sown last week is now coming up to a stand. Some are useing one row drill and seeding wheat in their row crops, and others are sowing their wheat land of past year after having broken and disced it well for the seed bed.

Young & Hatch To Feed 300 Lambs

Young & Hatch have bought three hundred head of lambs which will be delivered the last of this month, which they will feed out in their feed lots in Portales.

This is a new industry for the valley and the results will be watched with interest by the farmers of the county.

GOOD WOMAN TAKEN.

Mrs. A. P. McDonald of Erin Springs, passed away at a hospital in Chickasha at 4 o'clock Thursday morning, Sept. 6, 1928, as a result of being struck by a car on Main street in Lindsay, Wednesday morning. A fracture of the skull was likely the immediate cause of her death. She was 46 years of age, and is survived by husband, A. P. McDonald and three sons, viz: Leon, Henryetta; James, Anadarko and Glenn, Erin Springs.

Mrs. McDonald was crossing the street going to her car, which was parked in front of the produce house and was within a few feet of the car, when she was struck by a Ford car which was going south driven by Jess Mullins.

The force of the blow knocked Mrs. McDonald to the pavement and she slid under her own car; her car was also hit by Mullins' car, and the force of the contact drove it across the side walk to the door of the Sawyer Produce house—it was stopped by some bystanders.

Mullins applied the brakes to his car some 25 or 30 feet before it struck its victim, but did not stop it in time to avert the catastrophe; probably the brakes did not hold good but evidently he had been driving at a high rate of speed.

Mullins helped to carry Mrs. McDonald into the Sawyer building, and then slipped out and got away. At this writing, Thursday noon, he has not been found. Dilligent search is in progress.

Mullins is a young man, a stranger in the community and had been picking cotton for Ed Lowe, a farmer living 2 miles northeast of town.

The blow received by Mrs. McDonald rendered her unconscious in which condition she remained to the end. Immediately following the accident she was hurried to a hospital in Chickasha in the Ainsworth ambulance.—Lindsey, Okla., News.

Mrs. McDonald is a sister of A. W. Baker and Aunt of Miss Eula John and Murry South's. She has visited these relatives several times and will be remembered by many, who regret to hear of her death.

Mr. Baker and Miss South attended the funeral services in Lindsey, Okla.

Each County May Enter in Cotton Carnival

Every county in eastern New Mexico has an equal chance with every county in the booth competition at the Chaves County Cotton Carnival which will be held at Roswell, October 3, 4, 5, and 6. In the past communities in Chaves County have competed with other county exhibits, but this year Chaves County will be barred and the outside counties will compete only with each other. The winning county will receive $50, the second $40, the third $30 and each other entry $10 each. The communities within Chaves county will compete with each other in a different class entirely. It is felt this will stimulate more interest in other counties in placing their agricultural products before the thousands of visitors who will be at the carnival. Every effort is being made to have this a representative showing for all eastern New Mexico.

Last year the paid admissions at night only ran to 16,000 and there was no charge during the day. Indications are that the crowd this year will be much larger.

All departments of the carnival are being improved this year. The entertainment features will be better than ever. The Lachman Carson shows with seven rides and fourteen separate shows will be on the grounds for the entire week. The rodeo with $2000 in cash prizes and a great array of special entertainers will be a bigger show than ever. There will be three big parades, and features on each of the four days which it is felt will make one day as attractive as any other.

Hotel Proprietor Suffers Serious Accident Today

On Thursday morning about 9:30 o'clock, M. E. Stout, proprietor of the Portales Hotel was repairing a boot for his auto casing, when the large pocket knife slipped, plunging into the right bowels.

Blood flowed freely as he went from the auto to the house. On reaching the house he rested himself over a box, and the flow of blood was checked.

Physicians were immediately summoned, and every effort made to relieve the injured man.

As the News goes to press, Dr. Pearce states that at this time it has been unable to determine whether there were internal cuts, and that if the cuts were only external, it would not prove serious.

Tri-State Fair To Draw Crowds With Free Gate

Amarillo, Tex., Sept. 5.—The Tri-State Fair this fall expects to "pay out" on a novel scheme—"a free gates," the first time such an innovation ever has been attempted in the state of Texas, it is believed.

The 1928 annual Tri-State Fair will be held at the fair grounds here Sept. 22 to 29 inclusive, and in place of the 40,000 who attended last year and paid the usual admission, indications already point to 250,000 visitors and exhibitors next month.

Visitors from this section of the Southwest, under this plan may drive to Amarillo, park in twenty-nine acres of free parking space adjacent to the grounds, see every exhibit and take in much of the entertainment and programs without paying a cent.

Twenty farm exhibit spaces already have been reserved.

Some of the entertainment features procured for the eight days and nights are Schooley and Collins' Winter Garden Revue from Chicago, which will perform every night at the grandstand. This is the revue that will be used at the Dallas fair.

Leonard Stroud Rodeo will appear each afternoon before the grandstand. Included in the Rodeo acts are some of the leading cowboys and cowgirls of the country.

Two interstate high school football games between the now famous and formidable Amarillo Sandies and the fast powerful high homa's university city, and Oklahoma City, the state's capital, school squads of Norman, Okla-Claude and Pampa are scheduled for a Panhandle high school game on the 28th.

Oklahoma City and Norman will run special trains here with the teams, fans and pep squads.

Republican Convention Holds Harmonious Session.

(Special to Portales Valley News)

Convention Hall, Albuquerque, Sept. 13th.—Senator Bronson M. Cutting was nominated for the United States Senator by acclamation by the Republican state convention here Wednesday afternoon. M. E. Hickey placed senator Cuttings name before the convention and was wildly applauded when he mentioned the senators name at the conclusion of this nominating address. Governor R. C. Dillon was renominated to succeed himself by acclamation at the night session. Governor Dillon was also given a big ovation. He was placed in nomination by Manuel Otero, who placed him in nomination two years ago. Governor Dillon is the only Republican Governor ever given the second nomination. Other state officers nominated are A. O. Larrazolo short term of senate. Albert Simms congress, Thomas Burns Lieut. Governor; Mrs. J. A. Parrault, secretary of state; Emerson Watts, state treasurer, Antanacia Monterya, school supt. Mike Otero Jr., president, state auditor, attorney general, Jose Baca, Corporation Com. Frank W. Parker, Justice of Supreme Court, B. F. Pankey, Renominated to succeed himself for State Land Com. Victor Ulibarri, State Auditor.

Presidential electors are K. O. Jose, J. Gonzales, Hugh B. Woodward and Mrs. Gretchen Lyon.

The convention was one of the most harmonious ever held in the state and governor Dillon and Senator Cutting were given one of the biggest ovations ever given a nominee in New Mexico. Governor Dillon in his acceptance address said the office if he was elected, would be run in the future as in the past.

Senator Cutting escorted by the committee and a delegation of ex-service men walked down the aisle of the convention hall to the tune "Star Spangled Banner." The crowd arose and again staged a big demonstration." County standards were raised and men and women yelled themselves hoarse. Mrs. Holloman presented senator Cutting to chairman Woodward.

Senator Cutting declared in his acceptance speech that he was not nor ever had been a large contributor to the republican campaign fund. "If there is one delegate in this convention who has any doubt the facts I will say to him categorically that the only large sums of money expended in 1926 in this state were expended by the losing side. Senator Cutting said that his appointment came unsolicited and that he was never promised the nomination by the convention, and further he said, "Never told any human being that I would accept such a nomination. New Mexico, thank God, is not for sale and never was, this was never more strongly or thoroughly proven than by the election of 1926. This campaign must be waged on a aggressive basis.

We have the best of every issue, and must not detract from those issues to meet personal accusations which have not basis in fact. The quota system of immigration should be maintained as against the reactionary views of the Democratic candidate for the presidency and in my judgment the same system should be applied to immigration from Mexico. Our neighbor republic needs its citizens to develop its own boundless resources. By coming into this and other southwest states they may temporarily assist in our development, but at the expense of our standards of living. When senator Cutting, near the close of his speech, addressed the convention as "my fellow Republicans" the audience staged another demonstration and it was two minutes before the crowd could be quieted. "I have voted to confirm every presidential appointment I believe I have fairly carried out every recommendation of the republican organization in New Mexico. I feel that the action of this convention is sufficient guarantee of your belief in my party loyalty. He declared. "The day is coming when private campaign contributions will not be merely regulated, but abolished altogether and campaigns conducted at public expense." Senator Cutting predicted in discussing campaign contributions the corrupt practice act which he introduced in the senate at its last session he said he did not believe went far enough. "But I am interested in preventing so far as human legislation can prevent the recurrence of transactions, such actions as have occurred in the past." Senator Cutting in touching on the labor situation said he had always been in sympathy with organized labor and that he was opposed to the excessive use of injunctions in labor troubles. He touched on the Boulder Dam bill, political corruption through campaign donations, and legislation for the ex-service men.

Convention Hall, Albuquerque, Sept. 11.—Hon. Hugh B. Woodard, delivering the keynote address before the Republican State Convention at Albuquerque Tuesday morning, referred particularly to the efficiency of the Dillon administration and to the record made by Senator Bronson Cutting in the United States Senate.

He spoke of the high moral character of Governor Dillon and the courage with which he met embrassing conditions left by the Hannett administration. He pointed to the fact that Governor Dillon was faced, when he took office, with a deficit of $378,000 and with the public institutions of the state crying for more buildings and more maintenance funds. He said that the institutions were overcrowded and had been starved for ten years. Now the University of New Mexico, the Agricultural College, the New Mexico School of Mines and the normal schools at Las Vegas, Silver City, and El Rito have been cared for with new buildings and appropriations for maintenance adequate to their needs at the present time.

He spoke of the splendid work done by the Highway Department in providing good roads for New Mexico and thus bringing tourists to and through the state by tens of thousands.

The Game Protective Association, he said, is now run by the Association itself and is functioning with a higher degree of efficiency and more satisfaction to sportsmen and those interested in the preservation of game than has ever been known before in the history of the state. He pointed out that the Democratic party in platforms six years ago and four years ago and two years ago had promised game protection and when they came into power in two administrations had utterly failed to redeem those promises and had appointed game wardens in the interest of politics rather than in the interest of game protection.

Speaking of Senator Bronson Cutting, he said that no other Senator had achieved so much to his credit in so short a service in the United States Senate. He pointed particularly to Senator Cutting's work in connection with securing the appropriation of nearly $1,600,000 to launch conservancy in the Middle Rio Grande Valley, which when completed will add tens of thousands of productive citizens to the population of New Mexico. He said that the bill making possible conservancy could not have been passed through the Senate without the assistance of Senator Cutting and that the Dillon administration and the Legislature of 1927 had made it possible for such a bills to be enacted into law.

Reference was made to Senator Cutting's bill for honest elections and to pervent the expenditure of excessive sums of money in bringing about the election of candidates. The Senator had voted for the seating of Smith of Illinois because there was no law which prevented seating him except through arbitrary action of the Senate which is the sole judge of its own membership. He felt, according to Mr. Woodard, that grave injustices might result from setting such a precedent. He held that a state is entitled to representation in the Senate and that if Smith should be refused a seat it might open the door for refusing a seat when political advantage might be secured thereby. Therefore, Cutting voted for the seating of Smith and then introduced a bill, which if it becomes law will prevent any man being seated in the United States Senate if found guilty of such corrupt practices as were charged against Smith.

Reference was made to the bills introduced by Senator Cutting for the benefit of the ex-service men and to the fact that he consistently voted against lowering the tariff as proposed by Democrats and certain radical Senators.

Much of the speech was devoted to a plea for the election of Hoover and Republicans to both House and Senate in order that the tariff on cattle, sheep, meats and wool be retained.

Last week the Portales Valley News scooped the weekly papers of the state and some of the daily papers in the democratic convention news.

The News received the convention report by wire and on Thursday, the paper was in the post office in thirty minutes after a telegram announcing the nomination of Coe Howard for Lieutenant governor was received.

The democrats of New Mexico have chosen wisely and have put out the best state ticket which has been nominated in years. This ticket looks like a winner from top to bottom.

In choosing Coe Howard for Lieutenant Governor, the democrats of the state have chosen one of the most progressive citizens of the state.

Mr. Howard is a builder, and has been largely responsible for the development of the state. A few more like him and New Mexico's population would more than treable.

J. S. Vaught is one of the souths most able lawyers. Since casting his lot in New Mexico he has rapidly risen in his profession, and today has the confidence and esteme of every citizen of the state. He will make a fitting companion for Sam G. Brattan in the United States senate.

Bob Dow, a favorite son of Eastern New Mexico, has proven himself bigger than sectional and county lines. When elected governor, he will be governor of the entire state, and will give an administration of which the state may well be proud.

B. F. Bennett, of Red Lake, was in town Saturday and paid the News office a pleasant visit. Mr. Bennett stated that on his recent trip to Oklahoma and Kansas, that he found crops better in this section than in either of those states, and that the Roosevelt county broom corn was of better grade than the Oklahoma crop.

SOCIETY and Club

Woman's Club Year Opens With Luncheon.

The first meeting of the Woman's Club for the year 1928-29 was held Wednesday, Sept. 12, at the home of Mrs. N. F. Wollard.

The meeting was in the form of a luncheon with the Social Committee in charge. The Wollard home was made beautiful with fall flowers, a general scheme of red and white being carried out in the table decorations. One long table extended almost the length of the big living room. Twenty-one club members were seated at this table, and an excellent three-course luncheon was served them by the Social Committee. The color scheme was carried out in the menu as well as in the floral decorations, the first course being strawberries on the stem served with powdered sugar. The second course consisted of fried chicken, candied sweet potatoes, red candied apples, corn and rolls with a tomato salad. The dessert was raspberry ice and angel food cake. Iced tea was served.

The following are members of the Social Committee, to whom the club is indebted for planning and serving the delicious luncheon: Mrs. J. Rex Forrest, chairman, Mrs. J. W. McMinn, Mrs. J. G. Greaves, Mrs. Dehn Kirk, Mrs. E. Wright, Mrs. Lillian Taylor and Mrs. C. M. Compton.

Between courses the club sang the state song, 'O, Fair New Mexico," by Elizabeth Garrett, the words of which were printed in the club books, which had been placed at each plate.

Following the luncheon, Mrs. G. W. Carr, First Vice-President called the meeting to order. Mrs. Carr presided owing to the illness of the president, Mrs. H. H. Buchanan. After the report of the secretary, and of the Program, Social and Finance Committees, and an enthusiastic talk by Mrs. Carr, there was a short musical program, consisting of a few favorite melodies from the list of selections for music memory printed in the club book. These were played by Mrs. T. A. Martin. A few of these selections are to be played at each of the meetings of the club throughout the year and it is hoped members will soon be able to recognize whenever they are played. The selections played were "Minuet in G" by Beethoven, "Berceuse" by Godard, "Norwegian Dance," by Grieg and "To a Wild Rose," by MacDonald.

The spirit of the occasion was splendid and all predict that the year 1928-29 will be a year of real accomplishment.

Cotton Maturing Fast

From most every part of Roosevelt County come reports of cotton putting on boles and blooms very fast, and some reports they have more than one-fourth bale per acre on their cotton now in grownbolls, and new boles becoming 'speckled' every day.

The past two weeks has been ideal Cotton maturing weather and while the price has slipped just a little it will net the cotton farmers nice profits per acre, and they will have ready money the same day they get it to the gins. There is no fear of worms or insects of any kind and plenty of this cotton will make half bale per acre and some of it will make bale per acre with reasonable weather from now on.

Hotels Crowded For First American

With reservations pouring into Albuquerque for The First American, and the hotels rapidly filling up, the Chamber of Commerce is calling on householders through the city and preparing to provide accommodations to fill every application, according to a statement released today.

It was pointed out that Albuquerque normally has hundreds of available rooms throughout the city in addition to an unusual number of hotels, and that no difficulty is expected in caring for the crowd. Reservations will be taken care of in the order of their receipt, according to the headquarters.

Since the larger hotels report advance reservations to nearly their capacity, it was urged that reservations be made as early as possible to avoid inconvenience. The Chamber of Commerce will be ready to assist if you are unable to get a place in the hotels. The dates of the First American are September 24, 25, 26, 27.

Taiban Tidings

We are sorry that Nitty Bill did not keep the Tidings coming.

The fine fall rains have put the ranges and crops in fine shape and the people about Taiban are in better spirits than for many years.

In spite of this situation, we have to report that Ollie Roberts and family have moved back to Tell, Texas.

Brother Stump, of Albuquerque, preached a fine sermon last Sunday afternoon to a good sized audience, including Luther Watkins and his mother.

Mr. Ronald Doll left Tuesday, the eleventh, to enroll in State University. We congratulate Ronald and the University.

The Taiban School is now running full blast. We opened with just about the same number enrolling in the high school that we have had for the two previous years. Thirteen enrolled in the freshman class.

Miss Gerhardt's Primary Room is badly overcrowded. If we could get as good attendance in the upper grades and high school as she gets, we soon would have one of the leading schools on the East side of the State. But Miss Gerhardt will soon move these on up through the grades; and then Taiban will be her old self again.

The P. T. A. met and reorganized last Friday evening with a large attendance and a good membership. Mrs. W. F. Greer was put in nomination by Mr. Robinson and elected president by acclamation. Mrs. Homer Smith was elected secretary and treasurer, with Mrs. Mabel Martin assistant.

Brother Albert C. Bates, of Portales, and L. T. Conley, of Flomot, Texas, were school visitors, Tuesday. Brother Bates gave the student body a very fine talk on Life and Its Possibilities. Such visitors are always welcome; for they gave us new inspiration.

NEWS FOR THE READER.

For four years P. H. S. has had only a poor means of letting the public know just what is taking place in school. We appreciate the fact that, now, one page of each Portales paper, the Portales Valley News and the Roosevelt County Herald, will be devoted to school news only.

In our position as 'prospective' Star Reporters, we have reason for desiring to furnish facts about each department in school, each week.

Rumors do occasionally reach the public that something out of the ordinary is happening in school. In general, however, persons are not alive to the fact that school is no longer a place where readin', writen', and 'rithmetic is taught to the tune of a hickory stick.

Today there are many new and interesting occurrences in the loves of students.

It is our aim to keep you, who are interested in our progress, well informed.

Successful Football Season Expected

The school Board has decided that Mr. Chester F. Brown shall be athletic director for the Portales High School. Mr. Brown comes here from Southwestern College, Winfield, Kansas. He has lettered in three sports there. Football four years (capt. last year) Basketball one year and Track one year. He was assistant track coach the last year he was in school. With the combination of knowledge and experience that Mr. Brown has he should make a real coach for the Portales High School.

The first call was made for all football aspirants Monday morning in assembly. The Coach was rewarded by 26 men reporting for duty on the gridiron this season.

There were only five letter men back this season, but there was several men that had seen experience the past season but had not played enough to win a letter. There were also some men who reported that had come here from other towns.

The football team will be equipped with new suits this year. The pants have a new kind of a pad on the leg to protect the muscles from becoming bruised when they get a hard kick. There will also be new headgears and sox. The headgears have been painted red and white to correspond with the High school colors.

The first game will be played with Melrose at Melrose the 21 of September, this is the only game scheduled but some of the teams the rams will meet are: Clovis (2 games) Roswell, Friona, and others. When the schedule has been completed it will be printed in this column.

Present Buildings Are Crowded To Limit

The general "back to school" movemnt opened Monday with about the same crowded conditions as the year preceding.

There are at least six rooms in the grade school that are overcrowded to the extent that some means of relief must be provided within future months. The state allowance is not more than thirty pupils to each class. The high school conditions are about the same with several classes crowded to the limit.

The study hall during several periods of the day is packed and some are standing or sitting two in a seat. A number of students are also using lockers together.

About the only outlook for the congested condition is the constructing of the junior high school building. When this is completed, the plans are to shift the sixth grade, or at least part of it, from the grade school and the seventh and eighth from the high school, thus relieving the present crowded conditions.

School Buildings and Grounds Are Improved

Any visitor at the grade or high school building may notice many changes and improvements. Four new drinking fountains conveniently placed outside of the buildings have been added at the grade school.

Several plots have been sown to grass. The centers of the plots are bare and the children assemble in them before marching into the building.

The inside walls of the grade school building have been calsomined and the blackboards and desks repainted. New desks have been ordered and will arrive soon.

Mr. Brown, the principal of the grade school, states that he and the teachers will be satisfied with their schoolroom equipment if they can get some new class bells.

No new playground equipment has been bought for the grade school this year. According to Mr. Brown, however, the school is sadly in need of some. He and the Superintendent have in mind an apparatus known as the merry-whirl, which is a small merry-go-round without horses or seats. The merry-whirl, or "ocean wave" as is commonly called, would accomodate forty or fifty persons.

The present playground equipment at the grade school is composed of three strides, two slides, twelve seesaws, one volley ball court, and four basket ball courts. Mr. Brown states that the athletic equipment will not suffice for the large enrollment until some footballs, indoor baseballs, and basketballs, are bought.

The janitor has been at work at the high school building for the past four weeks. He has oiled the floors, repaired windows and desks, repainted all inside work and some of the desks. New mats and toeplates have been placed on all the steps inside of the building. Twenty feet of concrete walk has been built at each side of the building to prevent students and teachers from making paths across the lawn. Grass has been sown all across the front of the building between the side walk and the curb.

Home Economics Classes Increase In Enrollment

According to Miss Julia Hankins the Home Economics department has grown considerably the past year, thereby, necessitating two classes. The girls are divided into several sections in order that none of the sections will be overcrowded.

The girls are busy washing dishes, arranging tables and machines. They are also cleaning cabinets and getting the dishes and utinsels in place in order that they may begin work right.

Well Equipped Library To Open Thursday

According to the report given by W. E. Dupuy, sponsor of the library, the library will be formally opened and in ship-shape condition by Thursday or Friday of this week.

There will be twenty librarians, sixteen regulars and four extras. Librarians will not be permitted to study while on duty, but are to give all their attention to the checking in and out of books.

There are now about 1500 volumes in the entire library, according to Mr. Dupey. Fiction books are plentiful. History and economics are short on reference books. English is well supplied with reading material. A number of popular magazines, for reference work will be on file. Among them will be the Golden Book, Review of Reviews, and Literary Digest. There are four or five sets of encyclopedias in the library but are in very poor condition.

Instead of sending books away to be rebound, there will be a special librarian to do the work, thus saving about two-thirds of the former cost of rebinding.

A new phase of the library this year is that at least one teacher will remain in the library, each period.

Students in Manual Training Decrease

A decrease in enrollment this year in manual training classes is quite noticeable, probably due to the fact that students are turning to the college preparatory course, states Mr. Brown who has the work this year.

Two years ago the manual training department had an enrollment of about eighteen students.

In the way of equipment this year the shop has a joint plan, vises, steel square, a forge hammer, leather making set, soldering equipment, braces, a bench and planes, etc.

New Study Hall May Be Created Soon

According to Mrs. Hester P. Daniels, the pupils in the study hall have been permanently seated except the seventh and eighth period classes. These classes will be seated as soon as Mr. Golden arranges another study hall for some of the pupils, for there are more pupils than can be seated.

The new study hall will accommodate the junior high if it is possible to make arrangements for rooms anywhere in the building. Mr. Golden states that if this plan cannot be carried out, some other arrangement will have to be made.

The first period in the study hall registers 150 pupils with 69 of that number in the junior high. The second and third periods have 122, the fourth period 109, the fifth 126, while the sixth has only 96.

Pupils crowd the study hall the seventh and eighth periods.

Junior Division Attracts Much Interest From Schools

A feature of the Christmas Livestock Week, to be held at the Los Angeles Union Stock Yards, December 3 to 8, which is attracting much interest, is the junior division, for college and high school students in agricultural courses. Special premiums have been set up for entries of livestock from accredited students of these schools, as well as recognized members of boy and girl clubs.

There will be special prizes for fat lambs, fat pigs, baby beeves, steers and heifers. Many inquiries are coming into the secretary's office, indicating interest is high in this division on the part of California and adjoining states.

Livestock judging contests will be held for both high school and college teams. In last December's high school judging contest 19 high school teams participated being awarded silver cups. Medals are also awarded in the high school contest as well as the college student division there being gold, silver and bronze medals for individuals.

Both sections of these judging contests will be held on Saturday, the closing day of Christmas Livestock Week.

Raskob Absurd; State Tax Talk; New Mexico Game

(By the Republican State Central Committee.)

Chairman Raskob, the Republican plutocrat selected to conduct Governor Smith's campaign, issues a statement claiming 308 electoral votes certain for Smith and 138 more as better than an even bet. In fact he regards of those uncertain votes as certain. He does not concede even the pitiful remnant of 84.

Smith may make a clean sweep, he says, and get all the electoral votes—nothing like it in American history since George Washington was elected without opposition. James Monroe had no opposition, but one elector voted against him.

Raskob Follows Precedent.

Claims, such as Raskob makes, have been made in the past by national chairmen of both sides, but especially by Democrats.

Tom Aaggart, Chairman in 1904, issued statement after statement claiming more than 30 of the 46 states for Alton B. Parker. Parker carried just twelve. In 1912, Chairman Hilles claimed a majority of the electoral vote for Taft, and Chairman Dixon, with equal confidence, claimed a majority for Roosevelt.

The result was that Taft carried two states, with four electoral votes each, and Roosevelt carried six states.

The Tax Situation.

The Dillon administration raised taxes from $5. to $7.80 on each $1,000. of assessed valuation. It was necessary to provide funds for stated institutions, for a sinking fun and for efficiency in the various departments of the state government.

There was a deficit of $378,000 from the Hannett administration, if figured from the Hannett went out of office, January 1, 1927, or $315,000, if we figure from the end of the last Hannett fiscal year, June 30, 1927. If we figure only to the expiration of Hannett's term, his administration had the use of five tax collections, against four by any other Governor; and if we figure to the end of his last fiscal year, his administration had the use of six tax collections, during five months of which the state tax rate was $9.00 on each $1,000 of assessed valuation. The Hannett administration should have left at least $500,000 surplus, instead of a deficit of $315,000.

Dillon Begins Reduction.

Notwithstanding the appropriations for buildings at State Institutions and for increases in the cost of maintenance, and appropriations for sinking funds, the Dillon administration has begun to reduce state tax levies. The first reduction cuts the levy from $7.80 to $7.54. No reduction would have been made had it not been safe to do so. Governor Dillon does not play politics with state finances, anymore than he plays politics with his own business affairs.

When the Dillon administration took over the affairs of state, it met an embarrassing situation. To raise taxes is always embarrassing. Hinkle had used a surplus of $278,000, left him by Mechem, and incurred a deficit of $210,000, rather than arise them. Hannett left a deficit of $378,000 or $315,000, whichever way it may be figured. The Hannett administration refused to make sufficient levies for state purposes. The Dillon administration saw no reason for trying to fool the people.

Game Protection.

Protection of game in New Mexico is highly important. Governor Dillon took it out of politics. He recognizes good roads and plentiful game for hunters as two great sources of income for the state.

The income from tourists is highly valuable. How the sportsmen of New Mexico regard Governor Dillon's policy may be judged from the bulletin of the Sportsmen's Association of Southwestern New Mexico which says:

"After so many years of battering our heads against the stone wall of ignorance and indifference it was rather startling to visit Santa Fe early in February and find a Governor (Dillon) who said that he intended to let the Game Commission and the Game Warden run the Game Department, that he had chosen for the Commission the men whom the G. P. A. wanted and had given the Commission free rein in the appointmen of Mr. Perry as Warden. Also, it seemed strange to have the Chairman of the Commission report that he had no complaints to make, and that everyone was working with the Commission and with the Warden, who was on the job and his whole force more than eight hours every day.

"Now this is not a beautiful dream which we are relating, no fairy tale or press agent stuff, but an exact report of the conditions in Santa Fe today as far as game and fish are concerned. To sum up we now have, first, a Commission of undoubted ability and sincereity of purpose, representative of the sportsmen of the state. Second, a Game Warden fitted for this job by training, intelligence, earnestness and tach, whom any future administration will find difficulty in removing if he makes good, as we believe he will. T a Governor who is in sympathy with our aims and who agrees to allow the Game Commission to run the Game Department without interference."—(Political Adv.)

Air Pressure

retained for months

Balloon tires — with old style tubes — should be inflated weekly. But how many remember to do it? With Polson Super Tubes you don't need to, for they maintain air pressure evenly for from thirty to sixty days without attention. This is a convenience, but more important, the best possible safeguard against under-inflation.

Self-Seals 95% of all Punctures

A heavy inner tread, highly compressed when the tube is inflated, not only serves to cushion tires against road impacts, but self-seals, 95% of all punctures. Here is a feature every motorist will appreciate.

Low Cost

In spite of all these advantages Polson Tubes cost no more per mile than old style tubes. It will pay you to investigate.
