Sweeping Legislation Seen As Demos Roll To Victory

GOP Collapse In Congress Is Complete

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Return of firm congressional control to the Democratic party brought a rush of questions today over the legislative future.

These subjects popped out as returns from Tuesday's voting gave the Democrats a wide working majority of both the Senate and the House after two years of playing second fiddle to the Republicans:

1. What will happen to State' Rights Democrats elected to Congress?

2. Will the Taft-Hartley law be repealed?

3. What will become of President Truman's civil rights program which split the Democratic party wide open this election year?

Control Passes To Demos

4. How about taxes, inflation curbs, and rent control on which Mr. Truman differed sharply with the Republicans?

The 81st Congress takes over on January 3. At that time, control of all the legislative machinery and the chairmanships of all Senate and House committees will shift from Republican to Democratic hands.

There was one thing fairly certain: The present Congress, the 80th, probably won't do much more than adjourn when it reconvenes on December 31. Its Republican leaders then will step aside, tossed out of congressional control after only a two-year reign.

The last vestige of doubt that the Democrats were back in the saddle on Capitol Hill were removed by late returns.

Big States In Demo Ranks

They not only lodged the Democrats firmly in charge of the Senate but gave them bigger House majorities than they had enjoyed in the closing years of Franklin D. Roosevelt's administration.

13 Feared Dead In Plane Crash

(By The Associated Press)

GLOSSOP, England, Nov. 3 A U. S. B-29 Superfortress smashed into a granite peak in a heavy mist today and burned. Apparently all 13 American airmen aboard were killed.

A Royal Air Force mountain rescue squad found seven bodies among the scattered and still burning fragments before the dense mist ended the search. The search will resume at dawn.

The rescue team expressed belief all the airmen were dead.

In London, U. S. Third Air division headquarters said three officers and ten enlisted men were aboard. Their names were withheld pending notification of next of kin.

Bigger 'New Deal' Program To Be Pushed

By DARRELL GARWOOD
INS Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—President Truman's "common man" legislative program featuring price curbs and increased federal benefits appeared assured today of quick translation into law.

A Democratic Congress pledged to his proposals will assemble January 3. Mr. Truman, backed by a mandate won almost singlehandedly at the polls, can insist on action by the legislators.

Even should the new Congress reject parts of the program, observers expect the President's proposals to cause a phenomenal change in the direction of the government on domestic affairs.

Vast Program Seen

Now largely incorporated into the Democratic platform, his once-rejected and even ridiculed measures would include:

1. Standby powers to control prices and ration materials.

2. Repeal of the Taft-Hartley labor law.

3. A huge federal housing program, including slum clearance and locally-initiated public housing for low income groups.

4. Broadening of the social security act to cover more millions of people, an increase of "at least 50 per cent in benefits," and lowering of the pension age from 65 to 60.

5. Appropriation of $800,000,000 "as a beginning" of federal aid to education.

6. Rent control until the nation's housing is adequate.

7. High-level farm price supports, and broadened and intensified soil conservation and crop insurance programs.

8. A 75-cents-an-hour minimum wage.

9. Improvement of the nation's health, through a national health insurance bill if Mr. Truman's past recommendations are followed.

10. Civil rights legislation, insuring equal political and employ-

President Makes Appeal For Backing After One Of Major Upsets In U.S. History; Dewey Leads In Only 16 States

(By The Associated Press)

SCRAPPY, underrated Harry Truman captured the presidential election Wednesday in one of the biggest upsets in America's political history.

And in the hour of his greatest triumph, the Democratic party gave him a solid, comfortable majority in both Senate and House.

It was a triumph which the little man from Missouri, standing almost alone against the flood-tide of pre-election forecasts, had predicted with unswerving confidence.

Down to defeat went Thomas E. Dewey, trying a comeback along the road to the White House which invincible Franklin D. Roosevelt blocked four years ago.

Dewey Urges Unity

Down with him went Republican candidates in key congressional races and gubernatorial contests.

They went down fighting, in the toughest presidential battle since Woodrow Wilson squeezed out Charles Evans Hughes in 1916. Dewey conceded defeat at 10:15 a. m., CST Wednesday.

For himself, Mr. Truman pledged anew that he would give all his efforts "to the cause of peace in the world and the prosperity and happiness of our people."

As Dewey lost, he called out to all Americans to "unite" behind the man who beat him and behind "every effort to keep our nation strong and free and establish peace in the world."

Foreign Policy Unchanged

In those words of the Prsident and the man who wanted to be president there was new notice that America's foreign policy will remain bipartisan, that it will remain one of unwavering firmness toward Russia.

In fact, there were suggestions that the first big diplomatic move by a chief executive bolstered by a resounding vote of confidence in his program will be in the direction of a military alliance with western Europe.

At home, Mr. Truman had an evident endorsement of his intention to carry forward and expand a New Deal which he has embraced in its entirety.

GOP Shakeup Seen

All through his campaign, as he trudged up and down and across the country, the President promised that a Democratic Congress and a Democratic president would give the people:

Price controls, housing, more social security, a higher minimum wage, repeal of the Taft-Hartley labor law, benefits for farmers, development of the west, medical insurance, strengthened civil rights.

New faces are almost certain to appear in the Truman administration. Secretary of State Marshall, long eager to retire, is reported ready to quit in January. Secretary of Defense Forrestal may quit, too. Former Undersecretary of State Dean Acheson is one guess for Marshall's replacement.

Shake-ups unquestionably are in store in the Republican party leadership. Twice defeated for the presidency on which he had set his heart for 10 years, Dewey said he wouldn't try again. He indicated he might get out of politics.

Even if he wanted to make another comeback attempt in 1952,

Dulles' Status Is Somewhat Clouded

UN Delegates Fear Marshall Will Quit

By PIERRE J. HUSS
INS Staff Correspondent

PARIS, Nov. 3 — The most apparent reaction among western UN delegates to the election of President Truman was a wide fear tonight that U. S. Secretary of State Marshall will try to retire next Jan. 20.

They hoped that the victorious President Truman will "draft" Marshall to continue since the delegates regard Marshall as a key pillar in the western economic, political and military front against Communism.

Marshall himself declined comment on the possibility of continuing if asked by the President. He told newsmen:

"I have exressed a very sincere desire on numerous occasions to retire from public service."

The status of John Foster Dulles, Republican foreign policy adviser, likewise is clouded now that Gov. Dewey is out of the picture.

Dulles had been regarded as Marshall's almost certain successor if Dewey won.

Before Gov. Dewey conceded, Dulles told newsmen that "in any event we shall go along with the bipartisan policy" in foreign affairs. He said such a policy had proved its worth.

Warren Austin, U. S. permanent delegate to the UN, likewise had stressed that "the delegation will carry on as it has in the past without reference to partisan political questions."

After Dewey conceded, Dulles said he was "greatly disappointed," adding:

Dulles Congratulates HST

"My disappointment is lessened by the fact that the campaign gave Gov. Dewey a chance to build up the strength of our nation. His central theme was unity in the face of danger . . . Dewey followed international developments. He constantly exerted himself to assure that the U. S. delegation would present a united front.

"There can be greatness in defeat as well as victory and I believed Dewey showed that.

"President Truman is to be congratulated on winning in the face of what seemed at first to be insuperable odds."

Before final results were known Marshall presided at a meeting of

Cold Front Due Here Late Today

A chill breeze from the northwest late today or tonight is expected to drop temperatures over the South Plains after two days of "unusually" warm weather for this time of the year, the weather station north of Lubbock predicted Wednesday night.

The maximum Wednesday hit 79 degrees, about 11 degrees above normal, and the minimum 42 degrees during the early morning also was above the usual reading for the season, the weatherman said. Today, he said, should be warm and partly cloudy, possibly a maximum of 70 degrees would be recorded during the afternoon.

The cold front which is racing southeastward at a 25 to 30 mile an hour clip from the Pacific was approaching the Rockies Wednesday night and was expected to sweep over the heights and into Texas late today. The weatherman said the front should warm up "some" on its way from the coast and that Friday's maximum likely would be in the low 60s, eight or 10 degrees below normal. Near freezing is expected Friday night.

While the front is relatively moist, the South Plains is expected to receive only scattered showers when the cold air sweeps in.

The Associated Press reported the autumn heat wave broke a record at Dallas, where the mercury climbed to 89 degrees.

It was 89 at Alice, but the weather bureau didn't know whether that was a record there.

Several places reported temperatures of 88 degrees, including Mineral Wells, Bryan, Waco and Laredo.

Washington To Give HST Great Welcome

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3. (AP)— A mammoth "welcome home" celebration was planned today for the man they said didn't have a chance.

With a new four-year lease on the White House tucked in his pocket, President Truman is scheduled to leave Kansas City at 7:20 a.m. CST, tomorrow. He will arrive here Friday.

Federal and district officials were already working out details of a program similar to the reception that greeted Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1940 when he came back after his third-term victory.

Ballots Swamp Election Staffs

Six large city boxes remained incomplete at 7 p.m. Wednesday—24 hours after the general election polls closed on a record Lubbock county vote.

Election judges, expressing themselves as dog-tired and handicapped by assistants who were weary at long hours they had labored over the long, often split, ballots, indicated that it would be sometime today before most of them could possibly report.

Some of the others said it would be late in the night when they finished—if they could finish then.

Workers Are Weary

"There ought to be a law against such a ballot," one judge said. "We're working two sets of checkers, and have been all along, but some of the assistants, particularly the women, have had to quit. They were on the verge of nervous prostration."

The spokesman said his precinct, like all the others of Lubbock county, had polled a record vote—"but the way the ballots are split we are doing exceptionally well to count 25 an hour."

Some, he said, "almost defy our construction of the voter's intent, and we've had to throw out a bunch for that reason. Others we figure out, as provided by law, as well as we can—but it surely takes

Dewey 'Never To Run Again'

By INEZ ROBB
INS Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Nov. 3 — Thomas E. Dewey, the most surprised man in the world, gallantly hid his galling disappointment today and turned his back forever on the presidency—which only 24 hours before had seemed so firmly in his grasp.

The Republican challenger, who has twice taken a Democratic shellacking for the most powerful office in the world, told a news conference that he would never again aspire to the White House.

Tired but composed, the 46-year-old Dewey saw newsmen at Republican national headquarters promptly at 1 p. m.

Confesses Surprise

He even managed a smile as he confessed to his stunned surprise at one of the biggest electoral upsets in American history.

But New York's governor, dapper and brisk as always, could not summon up a smile when asked:

"Would you consider running a third time for the presidency?"

Dewey's answer was brief, grim and monosyllabic. It was, "No!"

The "boy wonder" of the Republican party, buttoned into an immaculate gray suit, a fresh white shirt and a dark, figured tie, scotched one other report with equal firmness.

Won't Resign

Dewey, who has two years to serve in his second four-year term as governor of the Empire state, described as "pure fiction" a report that he would resign immediately to take up a lucrative private law practice.

It is no secret that newsmen assigned to cover Dewey's activities have not always found him personally appealing, nor have they been inclined to vote him "Mr. America."

But the 100 newsmen at his conference today, many of whom had kept the depressing death watch through the night at Republican headquarters, voted him

'Big Four' Meeting Talked In Europe

PARIS, Nov. 3 (INS)—Western European sources speculated tonight that President Truman's election victory may lead to a new meeting of the "Big Four" chiefs of state in the near future.

Both London and Paris reports emphasized that no plans have as yet been made for a conference among President Truman, Soviet Premier Stalin, British Prime Minister Attlee and French Premier Queuille.

French and British quarters agreed that the American election result is likely to speed conclusion of the "Atlantic defense pact" for American military aid to Western European defense.

The press of both countries called the Truman victory a "great personal triumph" and said that as a result the President has become a "major personal force in world affairs."

London sources called the President's triumph a "profound shock" to Soviet leaders, who had counted on the expected election of Gov. Dewey to cause an "interruption" in U. S. foreign policy.

Truman Beats Professionals At Own Game

Poll-Takers Wonder At Wrong 'Guesses'

By BEN SCHECHTER
INS Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Nov. 3 — Three foremost professional public opinion poll-takers admitted to rosy red blushes today when President Truman trampled on their neat rows of figures predicting a Dewey victory.

On the other hand, two Cornell university professors whose predictions were rejected by several top national publications saw their forecasts come true.

The puzzled professionals are Dr. George Gallup, Archibald Crossley and Elmo Roper. They had given an ample margin of victory to Dewey—and now are trying to find out why they were wrong.

Two Predict HST's Win

The successful professors at Ithaca, N. Y., are F. A. Pearson, agricultural economics professor, and W. I. Myers, dean of the college of agriculture.

This pair predicted on Sept. 1 that "Truman will win in November if the price level is high," and added:

"Lessons of history show that the public tends to vote for the continuation of administrations that have been in power during prosperous times and to vote against the incumbent administration when depression marks the approach of election time."

Pollsters Puzzled

The September issue of Farm Economics published by the New York State College of Agriculture issued the professors' predictions when a number of major magazines turned them down.

"Professor" Truman himself was not a bad pre-election prophet. He predicted red faces for those announcing a Dewey victory.

Roper, Gallup and Crossley admitted they don't yet know what went wrong.

Roper said tonight "I could not have been more wrong" in predicting that Dewey definitely

Truman Given Big Ovation

By ROBERT G. NIXON

INDEPENDENCE, Mo., Nov. 3—A victorious President Truman tonight humbly told the townsmen of Independence that the nation "has given me a great responsibility for the peace and welfare of the world."

Fifty thousand Jackson county neighbors turned out in the small Missouri community to give the Chief Executive a tremendous ovation after his stunning political victory.

Neighbors Pour In

Earlier today in a victory speech in Kansas City the President pledged to exert all his efforts "in the cause of peace in the world and prosperity at home."

The neighbors poured in from the countryside all afternoon to give the one-time farm boy a spontaneous, heart-cheering send-off on his way back to the White House.

The President, still a little stunned by the magnitude of his victory, told the enormous crowd that jammed the town square:

"I promise to carry out to the best of my ability the Democratic platform.

Appeals To Nation

"I have a Democratic Congress to work with me.

"We are going to get some things done and make some progress during the next four years."

The Chief Executive appealed to the nation to help him carry out his tremendous responsibility. He said:

"I want everyone of you to help me carry out this tremendous re-

Stocks Drop In Heavy Trading

By THEODORE KOSLOW
INS Financial Writer

NEW YORK, Nov. 3 — The stock market slumped one to more than six dollars a share today when heavy nationwide selling greeted the news of a Democratic election sweep.

It was the sharpest single day setback in more than two years and reflected the upset of Wall street expectations that a Republican administration would assume office next year.

The Dow-Jones weighted industrial averages, which reflect adjustments for stock dividends and split-up, showed a closing loss of $7.30 a share. The averages were down more than $10 a share at the low point of the day.

Buying Support Lacking

The rail averages were off $3.45 a share and the utility price index was down $1.47 a share.

Among the day's big losers were such widely known issues as Allied Chemical, down $6.50 a share, DuPont off $4.25, National Steel off $4.87, Atchison off $5, Union Pacific off $4.50, New York, Chicago and St. Louis railroad off $4, and Gulf Oil off $4.

Stock volume totaled 3,230,000 shares, the largest since mid-May this year.

There were many unusual features to the day's sell-off.

Five Persons Slightly Hurt In Florida Train Derailment

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 3 (INS)—Several persons were reported slightly injured today when seven cars of a Southern railway passenger train derailed near Kent, Fla., five miles from the Georgia border.

Officials said that two baggage and a freight car overturned, but that no one was seriously hurt. The cause of the accident was not yet determined.

The train was enroute from Jacksonville to Cincinnati, Ohio.

Hamp Scruggs, Lubbock Youth, Hurt In Bicycle-Auto Mishap

Hamp Scruggs, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse E. Scruggs of 708½ Thirteenth street, was injured about 4:45 p. m. Wednesday when his bicycle was struck by a car at Nineteenth street and Ave. M, police reports showed.

The car, a description of which was given to police, did not stop after hitting the boy on the bicycle. Driver of the vehicle was said to be a woman.

The boy was treated at West Texas hospital for a broken collar bone and minor bruises and lacerations, the family said last night. He had been carried to the hospital by Louie E. Wallace, an employee of Baldridge bakery. He was released after treatment.

Truman Pulls Political Miracle To Win Return To White House

By RELMAN MORIN
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3 — A simple and friendly man with blue eyes and a side-winding smile had performed a miracle today.

Months ago, from the very first, people were saying it would take a miracle, and nothing less, to return Harry Truman to the White House. His party was broken and disintegrating. There were men within its ranks who disavowed him and tried hard to find another candidate. No resident, assailed from within and without, ever went into the fight under such handicaps.

And the odds were increased by the power of his opponents, supported by a smooth, efficient and swift-moving machine.

Yet Harry Truman won the election.

His victory is without parallel or counterpart in the history of the presidency. It was a valid and genuine political miracle.

But this miracle can be explained.

Part of the explanation—a very small part—can be found in the

Most Women Seeking Political Offices Over Nation Defeated

By MARTHA KEARNEY
INS Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3—The voters have turned thumbs down on petticoat government today, judging by the trouncing taken by the majority of the 30 women who ran for election to the House of Representatives.

This is in spite of the fact that more women ran on the Democratic ticket than on any other one itcket.

It appears as though there will be eight women serving in the House in the Eighty-First Congress. There were seven women in the Eightieth Congress, but three new faces are included in the feminine representation.

Indiana elected its first woman congressman in some time. She is Mrs. Cecil Harden (R) of the 6th district and GOP National committeewoman.

The five women running for re-election to the House appear to have kept their seats. Three of these are Republicans; two Democrats.

Two other women seem sure of election. They are former Congresswoman Chase Going Woodhouse of Connecticut and Mrs. Reva Beck Bosone of Utah, both Democrats.

The Republican Margaret Chase Smith of Maine, of course, was elected to the Senate in September. She will be the only woman senator.

The veterans who appear to have been returned to Congress include Reps. Edith Nourse Rodgers (R) Mass., and Mary T. Norton (D) N.J. Both women will begin their thirteenth term in the House in January.

Also apparently victorious are Rep. Frances Bolton (R) Ohio; Rep. Katharine St. George (R) N. Y.; and Rep. Helen Gahagan Douglas (D) Calif.

Each of the two other women elected to the House has a distinguished career in public service.

Mrs. Chase Going Woodhouse, white-haired and intellectual, served as Democratic representative from the Second District of Connecticut in the Seventy-Ninth Congress.

She did not, however run for re-election in 1946. Instead, the former Smith college economics professor went to Germany as observer and consultant to Army Secretary Kenneth Royall.

Her job there was to assist the American military government in working out programs for the development of adult leadership through organized groups of German women.

The other newcomer, Mrs. Reva Beck Bosone, has served three terms as presiding judge in the Salt Lake City court. She ran as a Democrat from the second district of Utah.

Mrs. Bosone is a graduate of the University of California and the University of Utah. She taught high school for seven years and later served for two years as floor leader of the Utah state legislature.

In 1943, Mrs. Bosone was elected to Utah's Hall of Fame in recognition of her work in rehabilitating alcoholic boys and girls. She later was chosen to be an official observer at the United Nations conference in San Francisco.

The new congresswoman also keeps house for herself and her daughter in Salt Lake City.

Jester Calls Special Election To Name Successor To Rep. West

BROWNSVILLE, Nov. 3. (AP)—Governor Beauford Jester is expected to issue a proclamation today calling a special District 15 congressional election to replace Milton H. West, who died last Thursday.

Congressman-elect Lloyd M. Bentsen, Jr., of McAllen reported to this effect to Cameron County Judge Oscar C. Dancy today. Dancy, as judge of West's home county, wired Jester official notification of the death, clearing the way for the proclamation.

Bentsen supporters pointed out that such an election would benefit the 27-year-old congressional designate from the standpoint of seniority in the House of Representatives.

West had not offered for re-election.

HST In Great Shape, His Doctor Reports

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 2. (U.P.)—Dr. Wallace Graham, the President's personal physician, said today that Mr. Truman "came through the campaign in great shape."

"Last night, he was in better health than the day after we left Washington," Graham said.

He was referring to Sept. 18, the day the President made his opening speech at Dexter, Ia., on his long western swing.

Graham was asked if the President had lost any weight.

He said the President probably had lost some weight but that he believed it was not so much because of the campaign but because of a personal bet they had between them on weight-losing. He did not describe the nature of the wager.

Want to get off to a good start? Then let your nearest Conoco Mileage Merchant steer you right...

He'll tell you that when it comes to fast, smooth winter starts, a lot depends on having the right kind of oil in your engine. He'll tell you, too, the right oil is winter-grade N^th. For two reasons:

First, because winter-grade Conoco N^th Motor Oil is specially refined for cold-weather performance. It's lighter...freer-flowing. Saves wear on your battery because it gives you faster starts.

And second, N^th oil extra-protects against "dry" friction starts because it contains a special, added ingredient that actually OIL-PLATES metal surfaces. And this extra film of lubricant stays up on cylinder walls...won't all drain down, even overnight!

So, if you want to start off right—and right off—on the next wintry morning...

REDS CLAIM NEW SUCCESSES

Chinese Nationalists Evacuate Last Manchurian Escape Port

NANKING, Nov. 3. (INS)—The Manchurian escape port of Yingkow was reported tonight to have been evacuated by Chinese nationalist forces in what amounted to virtual admission that all of Manchuria has been lost to the Communists.

A military spokesman for the Nanking government made the announcement. He would not estimate the number of nationalist forces who might have made good their escape through the port.

Yingkow—a projected Chinese "Dunkerque"—lies at the southern end of the escape corridor from the industrial center of Mukden which fell to the Communists Saturday.

Reds Claim New Successes

Mukden's estimated 100,000 beaten defenders were reportedly trying to escape through this corridor to Yingkow. But there was no official word as to how many of them had reached the city nor was it known whether the Communists had as yet entered the port.

Meanwhile the Communist radio claimed fresh successes in the outlying areas around Mukden. The broadcasts indicated that the Communists believed they had trapped uncounted thousands of nationalist troops attempting to reach Yingkow.

The radio claimed capture of Haicheng, Liaoyang and Penhsi at distances varying from 24 to 84 miles northeast of the evacuation port.

The coal and iron towns of Anshe and Fushun southwest of Mukden were also said by the Communists to have fallen.

Nanking reports on the fate of the remnants of its Manchurian army, which included some of its best American-equipped divisions, remained fragmentary and inconclusive.

Republican Workers Awaiting Chance To Celebrate Stunned

By HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Republicans who stayed up all night at national headquarters to celebrate looked at dawn like haggard brides left waiting at the church.

It was so quiet around the hotel Roosevelt that you could hear a poll-taker's chin drop.

But if there was a poll-taker in the place he wisely kept his mouth shut. There was no Republicans chins any longer able even to fall open. They had all done that hours before.

It was a scene of political carnage over which spread the lengthening shadow cast by the little man from Missouri.

In winning, he had — almost single-mouthed — smashed Republican hopes of gaining control of both Congress and the Presidency.

The tidal flood of Democratic votes completely ruined the grand old party's brand new victory party.

Some 300 happy party workers crowded into the gold ballroom of the flag-draped balcony, where Gov. Thomas E. Dewey was expected to deliver his victory speech before midnight. Rumor said his aides had composed the speech two days ago.

The crowd stirred uneasily as early returns showed Truman ahead. But they cheered when Campaign Manager Herbert Brownell, grinning widely, stepped out on the gallery and minimized the figures—again predicting victory. It was the last grin of the evening.

Some Republicans left then, sure Dewey had won. But they were probably the only ones who got a good night's rest.

Voters Offered Unique Service At San Antonio Polling Place

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 3. (AP)—Voters of Box 97, Alamo Heights school gymnasium, received a unique service at yesterday's election.

They were invited to have chest x-rays made while waiting to vote and many took advantage of the offer.

The Woman's Angle
By Margaret Turner

ONE of the most amazing results of the general election was the good humor with which Lubbock pollsters greeted the returns. Perhaps they had voted for the winner.

One man telephoned to ask if Dr. George Gallup were in the office and a reporter suggested we should have told him Dr. Gallup has slowed down to a trot.

Realizing that President Truman is back for another four years and that an old man would succeed him if anything happened, we cannot help but think of the words in the morning service of our prayer book:

"Grant to the President of the United States wisdom and strength to know and to do Thy will. Grant to him health and prosperity long to live."

CLUB PROJECTS

LUBBOCK Women's board of directors is to sponsor the sale of a cake and cookie recipe book within a few days, selected from favorites sent in by members of participating clubs. It's thought the books, which will sell for fifty cents, will make good additions to the kitchen shelves and will be sought as Christmas gifts.

Early in December the Lubbock Women's club will sponsor a pilgrimage of Homes Beautiful. Three days will be spent in paying visits to 21 homes.

Proceeds from the projects will go toward the fund to build a clubhouse.

KEEPING DIARIES

DO you record your daily doings? And if you do what do you write for posterity to read?

Some of the most interesting writings imaginable are found in diaries (and we are not thinking of the types that are read before a pop-eyed jury).

The personal writings of which we speak are referred to by Dr. Willis R. Whitney, in a current magazine article, in which he says that one of the most worthwhile things in life is to observe and record truth. Every child and adult should keep an honest diary, he says, which is a kind of scientific record of events and thoughts.

By these writings we could discover the simple truths of human existence and the universe.

Today's Town Talk

Mrs. John Keller of Snyder will return home today after visiting Tuesday and Wednesday with her daughter, Ramona Keller, sophomore Tech student.

They entertained Tuesday night with a supper party at Chicken Village and miniature gold heart-shaped compacts, topped by a duo of minute scarlet hearts, were used as favors.

On the guest list were Misses Lou and Sue Lawson, Norma Hudman, Anita Oliver, Jayne Thompson, Helen Mitchell, Jane Skinner and Jimmie Lee Cotton.

Miss Kate Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin W. Moore, 2111 Sixteenth, who is attending Austin College in Sherman as a sophomore student, is one of six cheerleaders elected by the college student body in a recent campus ballot.

Last year Kate studied at Texas Tech, where she was a member of Ko Shari.

Glenna Hackney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Hackney, route 6, is engaged to Carl Schoeffler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hand Schoeffler of Galveston. Her ring has a central diamond with two smaller stones on each side.

Carl, a senior electrical engineering student, took Glenna to meet his family last summer, and the couple has dinner with her family every Sunday. A home economics student majoring in applied arts, Glenna is already a good cook, but she is especially learning to prepare his favorite foods.

They want to be married sometime in the spring, but no definite plans have been made. The bride-to-be is a resident of Women's Dormitory III at Tech.

After today and tomorrow, Junior Welfare league girls and their families can call their lives their own (until their next project comes along.)

When the Follies of 1948 open tonight at 8 o'clock in the Lubbock High school auditorium, spectators will find that through plentiful practice and repeated rehearsals the dancing young leaguers have achieved perfection in their routines and that skits and sequences will provide a maximum of real pleasure.

In keeping with the current political flurry, a satirical comedy, "Women in the White House," will feature Dr. James Reynolds, Madame President; Dr. David Haymes, Madame's personal secretary; G. V. Pardue, jr., Mrs. Branningan, Postmistress General; James Robertson, Madame Secretary of the Navy; and Arnold Maeker, the French Ambassador. The clever reparte and "feminine" impersonations should make for a rollicking scene.

Terry Sanders will be back to croon in a "Moonlight Enchantment" scene which features Jo Simmons in a ballet number and has a beautiful background made up of Susan Alkire, Mildred Blackwell, Elizabeth Couch, Helen Fulgham, Crawford Horne, Mary Virginia Hutchinson, Kathleen Maxey, Crystelle Sanders, Doris Whiteley, Margery Snyder, Evelyn Whiteside and Merthell Womble.

Pretty and poised, little Miss Simmons will be co-starred with handsome and lithe Jim Carter in a novelty dance routine for "A Day In The Country."

In the chorus will be Linda Alderson, Anne Crenshaw, Joan Hale, Delight Hardin, Helen Humphries, Jane Ann Jackson, Jane Kuykendall, Martha LaRoe, Pauline Lowe, Bea McClure, Jean Newman, Jo O'Brien, Edith Rogers, Jean St. Clair, Barbara Thompson and Temple Joyce Young.

Presented in two acts and 26 scenes, the Follies will be filled with variety, variety, variety, and will feature everything from Latin rhythm to the dangers of matrimony.

Follies To Be Tonight

First presentation of "The Follies of 1948," sponsored and produced by the Junior Welfare League of Lubbock will be given at 8 o'clock tonight on the stage of Senior High school auditorium. The program will be repeated Friday night.

League members are taking part in the skits, dances and songs, assisted by their husbands and several students from Texas Technological college.

Costumes and special lighting effects will add a glamorous touch to the show which is being staged and directed by Stuart Allen of New York.

C. A. Rodgers' orchestra will play.

Proceeds from ticket sales will go toward financing three projects the League is sponsoring: The well-baby clinic held three times monthly in the Community center, the Mexican section and Carver Heights; the day nursery at Veterans Village where children whose mothers work are enrolled and the negro nursery now under construction in Carver Heights.

Reserved seats are on sale at a ticket booth in the Hilton hotel lobby, and may be bought at the school tonight. Reserved seats are $2.40 and $1.80 and general admission is $1.20.

Denmark has ended bread rationing.

Next Wednesday, the club will have a dinner meeting at 7 p. m. at the Hilton. Thirty persons attended the luncheon.

Overton P-TA Will Meet At Junior High

The meeting of Overton P-TA scheduled for tonight at 7:30 o'clock will be held at O. L. Slaton Junior High school rather than at Roscoe Wilson school.

W.M.U. Is Standard

Mrs. R. E. L. Pattillo, president of Women's Missionary union of District 9, announced at a luncheon meeting of associational WMU presidents Wednesday that the District has reached the Standard of Excellence. This goal has never been attained by any other district in Texas.

To be standard, it was necessary to have two standard associations in the district; the two associations which fulfilled this requirement are Lubbock and Brownfield.

The luncheon which was given in Mrs. Pattillo's home, 2019 Seventeenth, was attended by each president of the eight associations in District 9, the district corresponding secretary-treasurer, Mrs. R. C. Johnson, and the district vice president, Mrs. T. H. Knighton, of Canyon. The associational presidents are Mesdames Henry Heck, Idalou; W. J. Jordan, Plainview; O. G. Hill, Hereford; G. R. Dowden, Silverton; C. B. Stonecipher, Dickens; A. L. Stell, Brownfield; J. D. Lewis, Levelland; and J. G. Howell, Springlake. Plans for the new associational year were discussed.

Mesdames Pattillo, Johnson, Heck and A. E. Cook, president of the Lubbock First Baptist WMS, are to leave Sunday for the State WMU meeting to be held in Houston Monday, preceding the State Baptist convention. Mrs. Cook will be one of several WMS presidents to receive a certificate of award for attainments during the year.

Fat Is Not a Nice Word When Applied to the Body

Don't say it's your thyroid while reaching for the box of chocolates. Possibly one bulgy person in 100 has some glandular disturbance and that is truly a case for a physician. Never take any treatment for a gland condition without your doctor's advice. But for the other 99 per cent who are trying to fight the "Battle of the Bulges" common sense is the watchword. It is not necessary to overeat and it is not necessary to go hungry, either. Furthermore, it just doesn't make sense to go on a strenuous diet—take off weight and then quickly put it back on again when the diet period is over. For it is obvious that one cannot continue a starvation diet over a protracted period. Within the last year or so, several diet and vitamin "plans" have appeared on the market, which means cut down on the food intake and fortify with vitamins for hunger distress. But as mentioned above, you can't keep this up very long and when you quit—back comes the fat.

An exhaustive survey recently made among Texas druggists showed one outstanding reducing aid is not based on the diet and vitamin "plan." It allows you to eat plenty. You eat all you want but you eat LESS. Sounds like double talk, but it isn't. It definitely stops you from eating more than necessary for the energy you spend. At the same time, it dehydrates and eliminates.

Nearly one and a half million bottles of this preparation, called Barcentrate has been sold in Texas in the past four years.

You can get a four-ounce bottle of Barcentrate from any Texas druggist. Mix with 12 ounces of canned grapefruit juice and take just two tablespoonsful twice a day.

If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose that ugly fat, the makers agree to refund your money.

You Hear Strange Things About Catholics

Yes, you can hear some strange things about Catholics.

You hear it said that Catholics believe all non-Catholics are headed for Hell... that they believe non-Catholic marriages are invalid.

Some think Catholics believe the Pope is God... that he can do no wrong... that they owe him civil allegiance and that he should have the political power to rule America.

It is said that Catholics want religious freedom only for themselves... that they oppose public schools and separation of Church and State as evils which should be destroyed.

The claim is made that Catholics pay the priest for forgiveness of their sins... that they must buy their departed relatives and friends out of Purgatory... that they adore statues... are forbidden to read the Bible... use medals, candles and holy water as sure-fire protection against the loss of a job lightning or being run down by an automobile.

But what is worse, some say, Catholics corrupt the true teachings of Jesus Christ with the addition of pagan superstitions and practices that are nothing less than the inventions of the devil.

If all these things—or any of them—were true, it would be a pity. For at least one out of every six Americans is a Catholic—and it would be a national tragedy if one-sixth of all Americans entertained such erroneous ideas.

The Knights of Columbus is an organization of 700,000 Catholic men of reason and intelligence. In our ranks will be found statesmen, scientists, historians, physicians, movie stars, lawyers, educators and others representing every cross-section of American life. And for each and all of them loyalty to the Catholic Faith is the act of a reasonable man.

We are deeply interested in the welfare of our Church and our Country. And we believe the interests of both will be served best when fair-minded people know the Catholic Church as it is—not as it is sometimes mistaken to be.

If you have heard and believed any of these false claims, and want the truth, we'll be happy to send you without cost or obligation an interesting and enlightening Home Study Course in the Catholic Religion. Write today to

Idalou On Verge Of Winning 4-B Conference Race

Friday night is the biggest game of the year for the Idalou Wildcats, poised on the verge of winning their first title in the District 4-B conference football race.

The Wildcats Friday night can wrap up undisputed possession of first place, end their season with their seventh victory against a far from discrediting 13-13 tie with Kress and bring wild celebration to Idalou.

Whiteface's Antelopes, a good little team, don't seem to have enough power and depth for their invasion of Idalou. And comparative scores bring out the task that faces them. The Wildcats clawed New Deal 7-0 and the Lions beat Whiteface 12-0. Idalou romped to a 28-7 victory over Frenship; Whiteface beat them 13-0. And Idalou beat Meadow 33-0, while the Antelopes eked out a 19-13 win.

New Deal should have little trouble holding onto second place at the expense of an outmanned Frenship eleven and the score might run into minor astronomical figures. The Lions beat Whiteface 12-0, a team that beat Frenship 13-0. New Deal took Ropes 38-13, while the Eagles won its game 14-12. Both teams lost to Idalou, New Deal by 7-0, Frenship by 28-7. And both teams beat Cooper, New Deal by 45-7 and Frenship by 14-7.

Meadow goes to Ropesville Friday for the second meeting of the season between these two teams. The Broncs beat the Eagles in the first game of the season 13-0, but since then, the Eagles have grown stronger and it might be close. Both teams beat Cooper, Meadow by 26-0 and Ropes by 18-0, and both lost to Idalou, Meadow by 33-0 and Ropes by 33-6.

Cooper plays host to Tahoka B squad in an exhibition game and probably will have its hands full. The Tahoka Bulldog prospects have been rugged this year and, while going through the process of learning, have played some good ball. Copper doesn't have too much to recommend it, with six losses in as many games.

Hutchinson Rangers Top Brownfield, 25-0

BROWNFIELD, Nov. 3 (Special)—Lubbock's J. T. Hutchinson Junior High Rangers, paced by the brilliant running of Halfback Ronald Stephenson, rolled to a 25-0 triumph over the Brownfield Juniors in a South Plains loop tilt here tonight.

Stephenson put the Lubbock eleven ahead in the second quarter with a 60-yard touchdown gallop, then injured Billy Presley came into the game early in the third period to add the second six-pointer on a 10-yard plunge. Donnie Dean cracked through the line for the extra point to give the Rangers a 13-0 margin.

On the following Lubbock kickoff, the ball bounced into the Brownfield end zone and Ranger Guard Billy Taylor recovered for a touchdown.

The Rangers chalked up their final tally in the fourth period, when Stephenson swept 35 yards around end for the touchdown.

In the game between the J. T. Hutchinson Ranchers — seventh and eighth graders—and the Brownfield junior "B", the Brownfield eleven notched a 6-0 triumph.

The Rangers, sparked by the brilliant defensive play of Center George Guy, Tackle Ralph Murphy and End Charles Moore, held the powerful Brownfield team scoreless in the first half, but a 15-yard sprint across the double stripe in the third period gave the home gridders their margin of victory.

Levelland Invades Muleshoe In Top 4-A Tilt

WILDCAT STALWARTS—The Northwestern football team might make an appearance in the Rose Bowl this year, since Michigan is ineligible to attend. The Wildcats meet Wisconsin Saturday and two weeks later play Illinois in their final Big Nine game. And these three players have been sparkplugs all season, giving Northwestern one of the best backfields in the nation. From left to right the players are Quarterback Don Burson, Fullback Art Murakowski and Halfback Frank Aschenbrenner. Aschenbrenner is the triple threat back, Murakowski does a major portion of the running and Burson is the man up under in the T formation.

Harvesters Undefeated In 1-AA

Large Crowd To See Lubbock-Pampa Tilt

PAMPA, Nov. 3. (Special)—A near-capacity crowd of 5,000 is expected to jam Harvester park Saturday afternoon at 2:30 to witness an important District 1-AA grid clash between the Pampa Harvesters and their South Plains rivals, the Lubbock Westerners.

The fate of the Harvesters in 1-AA competition this season could well lie in the outcome of the afternoon fracas, as they put their undefeated record on the line against the victory-hungry band of Westerners.

Thus far, the Harvesters have a record of six wins and only one setback. The loss, although not an upset, definitely was not in order as the Pampans mauled the Wichita Falls Coyotes all over Coyote stadium, but lost 6-0. They hold a 20-0 win over North Dallas, an 18-12 triumph over Ysleta and 19-7 wins over Vernon and Graham of District 2-AA.

Pampa In Top Shape

In conference play, the Pampans downed Plainview, 13-0, after fumbling seven times in the first half, and then trampled Brownfield, 33-0, last Friday night in Brownfield.

The Green and Gold schoolboys will be in near top physical condition for the Saturday tilt with the Westerners. Only regular who will not see action is Quarterback Lamar Lively, but a capable substitute, Carroll Smith, has been found to take his place. Smith tips the scales at 145 and is spending his first year on the varsity squad. His passing eye has improved, but the Harvester air attack is not expected to be as potent as it was with Lively under center.

The two big guns in the Harvester ground attack so far have been Halfbacks Wesley Kieth and Co-Captain Jack Williams. Kieth, a 145-pound scatback, turned in punt returns of 67, 72 and 48 yards against Brownfield last week. Williams has been outstanding on off-tackle slants and breakaway runs in the opponents' secondary. He is currently tied for the district scoring lead with 48 points.

Davis Outstanding

Harbord Cox, bruising 165-pound fullback, returned to his early season stride against Brownfield and ripped for consistent yardage. Cox was injured in the opening game with North Dallas and is just now returning to his top form. Sophomore Jimmy Hayes has been filling the vacancy very well and will probably see plenty of action against the Westerners.

On the line, co-captain and End Derral Davis has been the outstanding individual, scoring 38 points this year and turning in a brilliant job on defense. He got 21 points against Brownfield, scoring three touchdowns and getting the same number of extra points.

Guard Phillip Payne is another candidate for all-district and all-state honors. Payne weighs 185 pounds and is extremely fast and rugged. He has blocked five enemy punts this year and covered six fumbles.

Dill Leads SWJCC In Ball-Carrying

ARLINGTON, Nov. 3 (AP)—Bobby Dill of the undefeated, untied Kilgore Rangers, tops the Southwestern Junior College Conference in ball-carrying, the Conference statistical bureau announced today.

Dill has rolled up 741 yards in 127 carries. The top average in ball-carrying is held by Billy Reddell of Paris, who has gained 559 yards on 78 carries for 7.1 yards per run.

D. Page of Tyler is the leading passer with 47 completions for 727 yards. The highest average in passing is held by Harold Murdoch of Paris with 18 yards on 30 connections.

Jerry Parker of San Angelo has caught 26 passes for 487 yards. Joe Murphy of Paris has the best average on pass-receiving, showing 24 yards per catch.

Joe Young of Kilgore leads the punters, averaging 40.4 yards on 25 boots.

RAIN HALTS TOURNEY

PINEHURST, N. C., Nov. 3 (INS)—The second round of the North and South Open golf championship at Pinehurst was cancelled today because of rain. It will be held tomorrow.

Raider Cagers Begin Practice

The Texas Tech football team still has three games to play this fall, but only three days after they have booted the ball for the final time in 1948, the Red Raider basketball team will take the court against McMurry's Indians in a game to be played here.

Coach Polk Robison, who doubles as line coach for the football team and as a scout on Saturday afternoons, has made the transition from gridiron to court already. He has called his first practice and cage work has begun.

Early work will be concentrated on perfecting the set game which carried the Raiders to the top spot among Texas members of the Border conference and to second place in the circuit in 1947-48. Coach Robison is expected to rely virtually entirely on returned lettermen, with Charles Pinnell, Andrews sophomore, apparently the only graduate of last year's freshman squad to make the grade.

Averages Over 6 Feet

The Tech team this season will be manipulated to use height and speed to advantage. One quintet, averaging 6 feet, 4 inches, would include: Don Grove, Monument, N.M.; Gene Gibson, Lakeview; Wayne Bowles, Lubbock; C. W. Dukes, Tyler; and Pinnell. Another, averaging just under 6 feet would have: Ardis Barton, Hart; James Hill, Amarillo; William Banks, Vernon; Chester Jackson, Monument, N.M.; and Bill Edins, Sudan. Durwood Patterson, Sudan, 6-6, if he continues to improve, may replace Pinnell among the tall boys. A third arrangement by the coach would mix the long and short men.

Tech this season will face a 22-game schedule, in addition to the annual Oklahoma City tournament during the Christmas holidays.

Basketball Season At Boys Club Slated To Open Today

The fall season at the Lubbock Boys club will be opened today, when boys interested in playing basketball in any one of four age groups will meet.

V. L. Jackson, director, said that the four age group teams would be Wees, 10-11 years old; Mid..., 12-13 years old; Juniors, 14-15 years old; and Seniors, 16 and up. The two youngest age groups will meet at 4 this afternoon, while the two oldest groups will meet at 7 tonight.

Jerry Starkey, a Texas Tech student, will coach the youngest players, while Jackson will direct the two oldest age groups.

Today the boys will organize teams and a regular schedule will be played through Christmas.

Monahans Tests Seminole In 5-A

Eight conference tilts and one non-title encounter will be unreeled this weekend by grid teams of Districts 4-A and 5-A, with two of the loop clashes scheduled tonight.

Levelland's Lobos, undefeated in the north half of 4-A, will invade Muleshoe at 8 o'clock tonight to battle the dangerous Yellow Jackets in a feature district tussle. The Lobos have lost two non-conference battles, including a 14-6 defeat by Post last weekend, but Coach Truett Rattan's crew is still heavily favored to cop the north 4-A crown. Muleshoe has lost three straight district games, but the Jackets have a stubborn defense and are given a slender chance to upset the defending regional champions.

The other title encounter tonight will be played at Tahoka, where the Bulldogs meet the Seagraves Eagles in a south half 4-A district clash. Both teams have been eliminated from the title chase by the undefeated Post Antelopes, but both elevens will be shooting for another triumph in their "games won" column.

Two north 4-A conference tilts are scheduled Friday night, with Sudan's Hornets invading Littlefield and Morton playing host to the powerful Sundown Boughnecks. The second place in the loop standings will be at stake in the two games, since Sundown, Littlefield and Sudan are now deadlocked in the runner-up post with two wins and one defeat each. Sundown will be an easy favorite over Morton, but the Littlefield - Sudan encounter may provide plenty of fireworks.

Only one game will be played in the south half of 4-A Friday night, with the undefeated, untied Post Antelopes playing host to the equally undefeated, untied Lubbock Cowhands. The Antelopes moved into the West Texas grid spotlight last week with a 14-6 triumph over Levelland, while the Cowhands were giving the Amarillo Yannigans a 20-0 drubbing. A wide-open scoring battle is predicted in the tilt, with Junior Malouf sparking the Post attack and Donnie Rawls, Tommy Fisher and Mack Taylor heading the Lubbock defensive.

One of the outstanding Class A grid battles of the entire state is slated Friday night at Monahans, when the undefeated Monahans Lobos tangle with the undefeated Seminole Indians for the District 5-A championship. Monahans has chalked up top-heavy victories over every opponent this year, while Seminole has compiled a perfect record in conference competition—although tied by Littlefield in a non-title setto.

Monohans is rated as one of the most powerful Class A teams in the state, boasting a big, fast experienced eleven, and a really great halfback in Waldo Young. The Indians of Coach Gordon Wood are lighter and less-experienced, and are slated to lose the crucial game by two touchdowns. But since the game is a "grudge" event, many Seminole fans will make the trip to Monahans and most of them think the Indians have an excellent chance to surprise their highly-rated opponents.

Coach Gordon Wood reported Wednesday night that his squad is in near top shape for the game, and that he would probably start the following lineup against Monahans:

Jimmy Marcus, 156, left end; Clarence Smith, 180, left tackle; Wesley Patton, 150, left guard; Ernest Jordan, 170, center; L. C. Allen, 158, right guard; Eugene Agnew, 182, right tackle; Crowder Wharton, 160, right end; Guinn Hood, 138, quarterback; Ralph Jones, 160, right half; Jack McReynolds, 152, left half; and Ira Bobo, 148, fullback.

Other 5-A games will send Fort Stockton to Andrews, Pecos to Denver City and Kermit to McCamey.

Three Players Share Honors In Wednesday Morning Golf Tourney

Top honors in the regular Wednesday morning golf tourney at the Meadowbrook Publinx course were shared by Ileta Hitchcock, Johnnie Trammel and Ethyl Herriage, officials reported last night. The awards were made on "low putts."

The women of the club also held their regular luncheon at the party house at Mackenzie park.

Spur Is Host To Abernathy Eleven

Lockney On Way To Clinching 3-A Title

Friday night Lockney's Longhorns can either clinch the District 3-A conference championship, or make sure that they got no worse than a tie out of the season.

The Steers play a weak Matador eleven at Matador and all odds point to an overwhelming Lockney win. The Longhorns haven't tasted defeat this season and the only blot on their scutcheon is a 13-13 tie with Kress.

Other games in the conference send Abernathy to Spur and Paducah to Ralls, while Crosbyton and Floydada draw a week off from the grid battles.

Everything indicates that Lockney will win its game from the Matadors by at least four touchdowns. Lockney beat Spur 13-0, while the Bulldogs tripped Matador 40-0. Lockney beat Ralls 20-0, while the Jackrabbits took Matador 13-0. Lockney edged Floydada 15-12, while the Whirlwinds swept over Matador 34-6. And Lockney slipped past Crosbyton 13-6, with the Chiefs trouncing Matador 20-0.

Abernathy's Antelopes travel to Spur for what appears to be another licking. But the Antelopes could scare the strong Bulldogs before it was over. Lockney beat both teams, Abernathy by 26-0 and Spur by 13-0. Crosbyton eked out a 14-7 win over Abernathy, but fell victim to Spur 13-6. Both elevens beat Paducah, Abernathy by 7-6 and Spur by 40-6. The last score is the most impressive, showing more offensive power.

Ralls Appears Weak

Ralls doesn't appear to have quite enough to beat Paducah this week, although an upset would hardly be in the making if the Jackrabbits won. The Dragons, on occasion, have not been impressive. On comparative scores, Paducah beat Floydada 20-19, while the Whirlwinds rolled over the Jackrabbits 39-6. And both teams lost to Abernathy on successive week ends, Paducah by 7-6 Oct. 22 and Ralls by 14-0 on Oct. 29.

Annual Fall Meeting Of WT-NM League To Be Here Sunday

The annual fall meeting of the West Texas-New Mexico Baseball League will be held Sunday in the Hilton Hotel beginning at 10 a.m.

Milton E. Price, president, called the meeting and announced that the two most important points for discussion would be player rules and salary limits. He also announced that there would be no change in location of any present members and no shift in franchise from those presently held.

Club owners, presidents or managers, and in some cases all, will be in Lubbock for the meeting. The Lubbock Hubber Baseball club, champions in 1947, will be host for the meeting.

Louis To Fight Conn December 6

CHICAGO, Nov. 3. (AP) — Joe Louis, world's heavyweight champion, is going to trade punches again with Billy Conn, who has emerged from a retirement forced by Louis two years ago.

Conn, who gave the champion a scare before the war, and the Brown Bomber who knocked him out in eight rounds when they clashed in a championship bout in New York's Yankee stadium in June 1946, were matched today for a six-round exhibition at the International Amphitheater Dec. 10.

The exhibition will be prompted by Frank Harmon, Chicago promoter and son of the late Paddy Harmon, builder of the $6,000,000 Chicago stadium. Harmon will submit the match to the Illinois State Athletic commission for approval at its meeting next Monday.

Wants To Comeback

Conn, still boyish looking despite his 31 years, said he had been training for a comeback and would try to knock Louis out. Marshall Miles, representing Louis, will insist on Conn signing for a return engagement in the event Conn wins by a knockout.

The exhibition will be the first ring appearance of Conn since he was flattened by Louis.

"I'll make an effort to prove that I still rate as the no. 1 heavyweight contender," Conn said.

Louis, who is on an exhibition tour of the country, will box Conn on the same night that Joe Baksi and Ezzard Charles fight in New York's Madison Square Garden for the right to meet the champion next June.

Louis has said that if the Baksi-Charles fight produced a logical contender he would meet him.

Steele Captures Wrestle Royal

Jack Steele and Rex Mobley were the last two men to be eliminated from the wrestle royal last night at Sled Allen's arena, so they met in the final, with Steele winning two straight falls.

Rod Fenton and Sailor Parker managed to withstand the buffeting in the ring next to the longest and met in the semi-final event, with Fenton pinning Parker in two straight falls.

Pat O'Dowdy and Olan Boynton were eliminated in the initial wrestle royal, which took ten minutes to decide.

Steele had a lot of trouble with Mobley before he was able to pin him and, in the second fall, he was downright lucky to win. The former Masked Marvel, who wrestles exactly the same as he did when he hid his face, won the first grapple in 19 minutes using a full reverse crab. He halted a barrel roll to pin Mobley with a body smother in the second heat after 13 minutes.

In the semi-final, Fenton used up 31 minutes in downing Parker. The Canadian took the first fall in 17 minutes on a single leg reverse crab and added the second stanza in 16 minutes using a reverse crab.

Vick Weber, former Brooklyn resident and popular wrestler here in the '30s, was the referee. Next week Weber probably will make his return debut here.

Fenton challenged the winner of the Steele-Mobley match and will meet Steele in the feature next week.

Hale Center And Dimmitt Favored To Win In 3-B

If something doesn't happen to Dimmitt or Hale Center on the gridiron this week, there will be an awful crush of football fans in Dimmitt on Nov. 12, when the then two undefeated District 3-B conference powers meet.

And it doesn't appear likely that they will be licked this week. Dimmitt plays host to Friona's Chiefs and Whitharral entertains Hale Center. Neither the Bobcats nor the Owls appear in any danger of getting upset.

In other conference games, Olton visits Anton and Petersburg goes to Springlake, while Amherst invades Farwell for a non-conference tussle.

Dimmitt Should Win

Strictly on the records, Dimmitt should breeze past Friona without any trouble. The Bobcats beat Amherst 53-0, while the Chiefs eked out a 20-12 victory. Dimmitt took Springlake 45-12, while the Wolverines licked Friona 7-0. The Bobcats and the Chiefs each beat Whitharral easily, 45-7 and 47-0 respectively.

Hale Center should barely pause in running over the hapless Whitharral eleven. The Owls beat Anton 27-7, while the Bulldogs won their game 14-6 from Whitharral. Hale Center beat Friona 13-6, while the Chiefs won 47-0. And Hale Center nosed out Springlake 20-19, a team that licked Whitharral 18-0.

Olton Slight Favorite

The Olton-Anton game is a toss up. Anton lost to Petersburg 18-6, but Olton beat the Golden Buffaloes 14-0. Olton rolled over Amherst 48-7, while Anton lost to the Bulldogs 6-0. Springlake beat Olton 20-7 and Anton 31-12 and both teams beat Whitharral, Olton by 20-0 and Anton by 14-6. Dimmitt also beat Olton and Anton by 32-13 and 40-6 respectively. Olton will be a slight favorite.

Springlake probably will have their hands full with Petersburg, but they should win handily. Springlake beat Olton 20-7, while the Mustangs beat the Buffs 14-0. Both teams beat Anton, Springlake by 31-12 and Petersburg by 18-6. The Wolverines edged Friona 7-0, but the Chiefs beat the Buffs 19-13. And Hale Center had no trouble romping over Petersburg 32-0, but had a hard time beating Springlake 20-19.

BOWLING SCORES

Russell Hardin Cleaners' keglers retained their top spot in the Ladies Commercial Bowling league Wednesday night by winning two of three games from the Southwestern Public Service pin-topplers. Maxine Buckner paced the winners with a 196-542 series, while Bertha Thomas tallied a 169-492 for the Public Service five.

Hemphill-Wells took over the runner-up position in the league standings by sweeping three straight games from the Bluebonnet Laundry representatives. Bluebonnet was paced by Gail Tyson's 166-464.

Penrod's keglers took a full three games from the Home Lumber and Supply crew, as Lea Williams chalked up a high series of 179-506. Helen Wooten topped the losers with a 151-395.

Classman's pin-topplers took two of three games from Lubbock Tailoring, with Macel Russell tallying a 177-481 series.

The league standings:

TEAMS	W	L
Russell Hardin	17	10
Hemphill-Wells	16	11
Classman's	15	12
Penrods'	14	13
Bluebonnet Laundry	13	14

Lubbock Tailoring	12	15

Tech Will Face Tough Offensive In Tussle With Mines Saturday

Wendt Will Lead Powerful Miners

Any suspicions that Texas Tech might have its hands full controlling Fullback Fred Wendt and the Texas Mines football team Saturday afternoon were confirmed yesterday.

The National Collegiate Athletic Bureau's weekly report, covering games through last Saturday, was released yesterday and shows Wendt and the Miners at, or near the top in several things.

The flying fullback is the top rusher in the nation on the basis of 100 rushes in six games, piling up a total of 929 yards net. That's 243 yards more than the nearest competitor, Jensen of the California Bears, who has played in seven games.

Holds Fourth Place

Wendt's rushing total, plus six other plays, has given him a total of 956 yards gained, net, for fourth place in the nation in total offense. Ahead of him are Stan Heath of Nevada, Lindy Berry of TCU and Charley Justice of North Carolina.

In addition to his rushing, Wendt also ranks 11th in the nation in punting with a 40.9 average on 19 boots. The top average is held by Boston of Montana State with an average of 44.7 on 19 kicks.

A teammate of Wendt's, Pug Gabrel, a slashing halfback, ranks 17th in the nation in rushing offense with 472 yards, net, on 61 carries. Between Wendt and Gabrel, Texas Mines has gained 1,401 yards on the work of two players in six games.

The Orediggers rank eighth in the nation on total offense, averaging 389 yards per game, 363 plays gaining a total of 2,334 yards. In rushing offense alone, the Miners rank second with an average of 350.7 yards per game. They have made a total of 2,104 yards on 341 plays. Only the Army, with an average of 354.2 yards per game, ranks higher.

Good Punting Average

The Miners also have broken into the national spotlight on punting with an average of 41.5 yards on 30 punts in six games.

The figures on the Miners are sobering to even the most optimistic, although there is no question that Tech will be the favorite to win. The Raiders probably will go into the game with a touchdown advantage on the cards and it appears to be a slim edge.

So far the Orediggers have played six games and five of them have been victories, two of them against Border Conference foes. They opened the season with a 33-14 victory over McMurry, then romped through Houston University 35-7. Their first Border loop game was against the Buffaloes of WTSTC, a team beaten by Tech 19-0, and the Miners won this one 21-7. Brigham Young fell before the Miners 34-20 in an offensive battle and their second Border loop game also was an offensive show, the Miners beating New Mexico University 27-13. Last week they led Hardin-Simmons until the final 14 minutes, when the Cowboys scored 14 points to gain a 27-27 tie.

JAKE RHODES
Aggressive Miner Tackle

Have Potent Offensive

The Miner offensive definitely is potent and they have been held to three touchdowns only once, have scored four touchdowns in each of two games and five touchdowns in each of three games.

Most of the Orediggers are sophomores, pointing to the fact that they are improving with each game. Only four are seniors, ten are juniors and 24 are sophomores.

The line, which averages 205 pounds, is agile for its size and definite stars are Jake Rhoads, the 210-pound, five feet eleven inch tackle; Ernest Kelly, 215-pound, five foot eleven inch guard; Jim DeGroat, 205-pound, six foot two and a half inch end; and Joe Valencia, 205-pound, five foot ten inch guard.

In addition to Wendt and Gabrel in the backfield, the Miners also are high on Fred Rosas, a 185-pound fullback, whose speed has made him a potent factor as a runner, Jim Bowden, the 190-pound quarterback, adds heft to the backfield and his passing has been a big factor in helping shake Wendt loose on long runs. Bowden last year had the best pass completion in the Border loop with 51 completions in 93 attempts.

Junior Tussles Scheduled Here

Three conference battles in the South Plains Junior High football league will be unreeled this afternoon and tonight, with two of the clashes scheduled at the Chapman field gridiron.

Carroll Thompson's Cowboys of Lubbock, leading the loop with an undefeated, untied record, tangle with the powerful Plainview juniors at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the local field, then at 7:30 o'clock tonight the second-place O. L. Slaton Redskins of Lubbock meet the Seminole juniors here.

The Cowboys need only two more league wins to cop the area junior grid championship, but the Plainview eleven is one of the top teams in the loop and could throw the conference race into a deadlock. The Redskins, with only one defeat to mar their record, are pressing the Cowboys for the league title and will attempt to keep their championship hopes alive with a victory over the Seminole crew.

Cowboys Feature

The Cowboys feature a quick-breaking "T" formation attack, sparked by Backs Don Jones and Charles Hodges, but the Redskins will use both "T" and single wing formations against their foe. The Redskins' chief scoring threats will be Halfback Duane Rampy, fullback Johnny Tatum and Quarterback Charles Brewer.

One non-title junior game will be played at 6:30 o'clock tonight at Chapman field, when the O. L. Slaton Warriors — seventh and eighth graders—tangle with the Seminole Junior High "B" team.

There are four fathers on the Lehigh football squad — Jimmy Case, Bob Numbers, Stan Szymakowski and Cliff Freund.

Sports Study

By Earl Scudday

There were just enough surprises in the schoolboy grid games last weekend to drop our average to a not-too-good 74 per cent. We called 26 of the winners, but missed on nine games—chiefly downstate tussles where our information is definitely second-hand. This week the slate looks a little easier, although that Monahans-Seminole tilt could give us a severe case of indigestion. Downstate there are a number of crucial games, but most sports fans in West Texas will be watching the results of the Sweetwater-Odessa encounter that will determine the 3-AA winner. Here's how they shape up:

District 1-AA

LUBBOCK over Pampa . . . I a major upset. We think the Westerners will get back in the win column.
AMARILLO over Borger . . . Sandies have a better line.
PLAINVIEW over Brownfield . . . Bulldogs too fast.

District 3-AA

ODESSA over Sweetwater . . . but we may be wrong. Both teams have excellent backfield and good lines.
ABILENE over Lamesa . . . Eagles bounce back.
SAN ANGELO over Big Spring . . . crippled Bobcats should win.

District 3-A

LOCKNEY over Matador . . . by 30 or more points.
PADUCAH over Ralls . . . by a clear margin.
ABERNATHY over Spur . . . in a close game.

District 4-A (North)

LITTLEFIELD over Sudan . . . Wildcats still in the race.
LEVELLAND over Muleshoe . . . Lobos heading for title.
SUNDOWN over Morton . . . too much Ethridge.

District 4-A (South)

POST over Lubbock Cowhands . . . could be close.
TAHOKA over Seagraves . . . hurts our percentage.

District 5-A

MONAHANS over Seminole . . . for the district crown. Monahans has too much speed, weight, power and experience.
KERMIT over McCamey . . . Panthers have claws.
DENVER CITY over Pecos . . . Mustangs will romp again.
ANDREWS over Fort Stockton . . . not even close.

State Specials

CHILDRESS over Electra . . . they can't hold T. Jones two weeks in a row.
GRAHAM over Quanah . . . inside information.
DENISON over Gainesville . . . Jackets pretty tough.
BONHAM over Greenville . . . on the flip of the coin.
PARIS over Sherman . . . more guesswork.
SULPHUR SPRINGS over Grand Prairie . . . who cares?
HIGHLAND PARK over McKinney . . . Scotties by two touchdowns.
STEPHENVILLE over Mineral Wells . . . Stephenville should be up.
TEXARKANA over Marshall . . . Texarkana rated as a top-notch team.
HENDERSON over Kilgore . . . Henderson has good record.
LONGVIEW over Tyler . . . two weak teams.
NACOGDOCHES over Palestine . . . know very little about either.
BRYAN over Lufkin . . . hard year for Lufkin fans.
PORT ARTHUR over South Park (Beaumont) . . . don't look, please. The carnage will be terrible.
ORANGE over Beaumont High . . . little to choose between.
BAYTOWN over Galena Park . . . Baytown one of state's best teams.
GALVESTON over Freeport . . . money in the bank.
TEXAS CITY over Pasadena . . . we hope.
AUSTIN over Kerrville . . . Maroons are under-rated.

Derogatis Captures Lineman Honors In Weekly AP Poll

NEW YORK, Nov. 3. (AP)—His team didn't win, but the play of Al Derogatis, Duke tackle, against Georgia Tech brought him this week's award as the "Lineman Of The Week" in the Associated Press poll.

Playing with a bad knee that was likely to buckle under him at any time, Derogatis blocked a Tech punt in the first quarter that led to a Duke touchdown. Later he recovered a Tech fumble deep in Tech territory and generally made life miserable for Tech forward passers by throwing them for big losses before they could get the ball away.

Fans' Predictions Cost Denver Tailor $22,248 Worth Of Suits

Gooden will meet Townsend and Trout will play Raley in the semi-final round.

In the women's tournament held yesterday, Mrs. Olan Key won the 18-hole low net and Mrs. Bill Honey won the 9-hole low net. Mrs. John Markham won the 18-hole low putt prize and Mrs. Guy McAfee tied with Mrs. C. O. Caldwell for the 9-hole low putt prize.

GIANTS SIGN EX-STARS

NEW YORK, Nov. 3. (AP)—The New York Giants announced today that Frankie Frisch and Freddie Fitzsimmons, two of their former stars, have been signed to serve as Manager Leo Durocher's coaches in 1949.

The Detroit Tigers made three triple plays in 1911.

412 Amateurs Pick Correst Winners

DENVER, Nov. 3 (AP) — The biggest football upset in the country last week didn't happen to a football team. It happened to Harry Bitman, Denver tailor.

Bitman, a small independent business man, was the victim of the most fantastic backfire in the history of football contests. He figures it will cost him $22,248, enough to send most small business men into bankruptcy.

Bitman's firm, known as Harman tailors, sponsors a weekly radio contest in which fans are offered free suits for the best predictions each week on the outcome of ten close football games.

The joker in the rules provides that all persons naming all ten winners will receive suits.

Last week, Bitman disclosed today, 412 persons picked all ten winners.

A Lot Of Dough

Bitman, who says he "didn't sleep for three nights" after getting the returns, figures that's $22,248 worth of suits. Production of the garments will tie up his small factory for several weeks during the winter rush season. Normally, it only turns out seven suits a day.

He contends it's the biggest single week's payoff in the history of radio contests, including such famous ones as "Stop The Music." Some of these shows have paid more, but only after the jackpots have accumulated for several weeks.

"And those national shows are sponsored by big corporations," Bitman groaned. "For a little business man, that's a startling amount of dough."

National League umpire Bill Stewart had a pitching trial with the Chicago White Sox in 1919. Before the season opened he injured his arm in a fall.

HST Carries Demos To National Victory In Scoring Upset Win

the GOP probably would deny Dewey the chance. Never before in its history had the party so much as renominated a man who lost in the presidential race.

As Dewey admitted that he had failed again to scale the political heights to the White House, women staff members at his New York headquarters sobbed openly.

At that moment, Mr. Truman was out in front in 28 states with 304 electoral votes—and only 266 were needed to clinch the prize. Dewey was ahead in only 16 states with 189 votes. J. Strom Thurmond, States' Rights Democrat, led in four states with 38 votes.

And in the popular vote, the lineup was 19,353,871 for Truman, 17,942,869 for Dewey, 749,648 for Thurmond.

Popular Vote Lags

The popular vote lagged behind the record total of more than 50,000,000 that had been expected. And there wasn't much chance it would climb to a new mark.

Later last night reports from 99 per cent of the polling places, 122,083 out of 135,867, put the total at 44,491,891. It was split this way:

Truman 22,229,400, Dewey 20,371,674, Thurmond 862,429, Progressive candidate Henry Wallace 1,028,391.

The electoral vote remained unchanged. It had gone up and down during the afternoon as California and its 25 votes leaned first to Truman, then to Dewey, then tilted back again.

But with Ohio's 25 votes finally in the bag for the Democrats, California couldn't change the election outcome by landing at last in the GOP column.

There were changes, of course, as the count came in belatedly from outlying places. But Republican hopes were gone.

The political dopesters still were in a daze trying to figure out how it all happened. Adjectives like "stunning," "amazing," "astounding" were on every tongue.

The grit and never-give-up spirit of the man who inherited the White House from Roosevelt couldn't be discounted. Mr. Truman could say "I told you so." He had told the poll takers they would be red-faced today. They were.

GOP Strongholds Razed

Presidential candidates aren't supposed to win without the big electoral votes of New York and Pennsylvania. Truman did.

And he did it with his own party split, without the solid South, without the big total vote that is supposed to favor the Democrats.

Progressive party candidate Henry A. Wallace, fired from the Truman cabinet, got even in part in New York, Connecticut, and Maryland. The votes Wallace collected there would have been enough to swing those states to the Democrats.

But the President won without those, too.

He razed Republican strongholds in the farm belt, where wheat and corn prices have been sagging. He wrenched states like Iowa and Wisconsin away from the Republican banner.

Holds Most Of South

He ran strong in the border states including his own Missouri. And he held onto most of the South in the face of attempts of rebelling States' Righters under Thurmond to snatch it from him.

Thurmond captured only Alabama, South Carolina, Mississippi and Louisiana.

In winning, the Chief Executive proved that the South can't control the Democratic party, just as he demonstrated in July that Dixie and big city bosses can't run a Democratic convention as they please.

Mr. Truman came out on the campaign and the election with new stature and prestige. He was good enough to win on his own. He had answered with his victory the talk that he just wasn't big enough for the job.

Dewey was behind from the start of the vote counting. The early returns came mostly from big cities and industrial areas where the Democrats were expected to score heavily. The Republicans expected to pull up as the tally came in from small towns and rural districts.

But Harry S. Truman ran like a champion all the way, out in front, sticking there and pulling away at the finish line.

In somes states, he got only an eyelish victory. But that was all Dewey got in some other states—including his own New York.

One phrase Mr. Truman stressed in his campaign may have offered some key to the results. He kept repeating that what the people really were interested in was "peace, prices and places to live."

Gain Control Of Congress

That underscored an old political doctrine—it's hard to toss out an administration when times are good even if there is some inflation.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio) put it into these words in Washington:

"It is almost impossible to put an administration out of office at the very peak of a prosperity boom."

Dewey Seeks Rest

every inch a scholar, a gentleman and a good sport in defeat.

It was Gov. Dewey who asked the first question at the conference, when he queried:

"Is there anything I can tell you that you don't already know?"

"What happened, governor?" he was asked.

He looked smilingly at the gathering. Now, if ever was the time for alibis. But Dewey had none. He said simply:

"I'm just as surprised as you are. I gather that that is shared by everyone in the room."

This was a tired man, with the fatigue of a long, hard campaign and the shock of defeat etched into his youthful face. But he could still laugh.

Asked what he thought of the future of political polls, all of which had forecast an easy victory for the GOP, he chuckled delightedly and said:

"I don't like to comment on somebody else's misfortune. I guess there are a lot of red faces today."

Despite the obvious strain of the past months, Dewey insisted he felt "fine." But he said he hoped to take a rest and vacation at his farm in Pawling, N. Y. before he again resumes the burden of the New York governorship.

As Dewey left the news conference, newsmen again applauded him as they had when he entered the room. It was their tribute to a plucky odds-on favorite, who, in defeat, had turned out to be a good guy who could take it like a champ.

The Dewey plans did not go much beyond tonight—when the governor looked forward to a "good night's sleep" in Albany—and a long weekend at Pawling.

Their totals had been reported earlier in the record smashing 15,368.

Full reports of the election, which went Democratic by top-heavy majorities, will be printed when the full returns are in.

Interest in the local election sagged almost to a minimum at midmorning Wednesday when the red-hot national popular vote for president and the returns in races for Congress hit fever pitch.

hands in the early trading in large blocks, but an imposing number of issues failed to appear for upward of an hour as brokers sought to find enough buying support to take care of the heavy selling orders awaiting execution.

It was midway in the second hour before United States Steel, General Motors, Standard Oil of New Jersey, General Electric, and Southern Pacific appeared on the ticker. When they did, it was to show losses of as much as $4.75 a share.

The best showing in the markets was made by grains and cotton, which moved higher in the common belief that the election results indicated maintenance of the farm legislative program involving price supports.

ment opportunities, security of person (anti-lynch), and "equal treatment in the armed services" (anti-segregation).

Congressional observers said that few presidents in history have been in a better position to insist upon adoption of his recommendations by Congress.

They pointed out that Mr. Truman "went to the people" chiefly on the contention that his proposals were right and the Republican 80th Congress was wrong in rejecting them. The voters agreed with him.

These observers called Mr. Truman "the freest man who ever sat in the White House," and pointed out that he owes little or nothing to the people who disagreed with him.

They traced a large portion of Mr. Truman's vote to resentment over coolness shown by the last Congress to White House recommendations.

The statement that "Mr. Truman owes nothing to anyone except the voters" was echoed at the White House, where his secretarial staff pointed out that he had only lukewarm support from some usually active Democratic figures.

The election was a personal triumph for Mr. Truman, members of his staff said, but the real significance of the vote will be felt when his program becomes law.

issues of the campaign, and in the President's approach to them.

There has been a certain amount of anxiety among the farmers, recently, as a result of surpluses in wheat and cotton and other products, plus the fact that European farmers, having had bumper crops, are taking up the slack in their own markets.

The President promised to support prices. He also promised assistance in obtaining storage for their products.

In the same way, he reminded industrial workers that he had vetoed the Taft-Hartley act, and is still opposed to it. He read some parts of Rep. Hartley's book on the subject.

Won Hearts of People

Undoubtedly, he won over a great many farmers and industrial workers with these statements. This, most probably, is one answer to the victory in traditionally Republican state.

But beyond these things—and this is the major part—it appears that Harry Truman, a simple and friendly man, simply won his way into the hearts of the people he met in his zig-zagging trail around the country. One of his intimates, who was almost as astonished as any outsider by the victory, put it this way:

"You just can't explain it in any other way. People liked him. He spoke their language. They called him 'Harry', and they liked the way he talked and acted."

The President has that quality, and the ability to make people feel it.

HST Has Courage

Moreover, he has courage. Hence, the very fact that he fought it out, against such towering odds, must have won the admiration of a great many voters. The average American appreciates and roots for the man who puts up a fight—especially when he's the underdog.

the U. S. delegation to the UN, and Dulles attended. A participant said Marshall kept discussions on an official note and avoided politics.

Now that the American elections are over the U. S. delegation is awaiting fresh instructions on UN procedures.

Council to Meet

It is understood that the British tactfully but firmly are pressing for a reversal of the Truman order against approving an Anglo-Chinese resolution demanding Palestine sanctions.

The proposal would punish either Jews or Arabs if they refuse to obey UN Security Council orders aimed at imposing peace in the Holy Land.

The council is scheduled to meet tomorrow, but there is a possibility that the session will be postponed until Friday if the General Assembly plenary meeting extends into the afternoon.

would win and "that it was all over but the shouting."

"Perhaps," said Roper, "the abnormally high 5 per cent 'don't know' vote did not distribute itself equally to both major candidates as it has in the past."

Roper also suggested that a quietly-organized labor turnout was so efficient as to have upset his tables, but confessed "I don't know."

Dr. Gallup admitted he was stunned by the unexpected Democratic sweep and asserted that the answer to why President Truman's strength was underestimated may be found when the voting statistics are analyzed.

Crossley said the Truman sweep may be attributed to the widespread publicity given the polls which resulted in Republican overconfidence and "served to redouble the Democratic effort to bring out the vote." He added:

Election Called 'Night Mare'

"The result clearly shows what happens when one party gets out the vote and the other does not."

Dr. Gallup, whose poll gave Gov. Dewey 49.5 of the popular vote against 44.5 for President Truman, described the election as a "nightmare to poll takers" that happens once in a generation.

He admitted that the Gallup poll underestimated Democratic strength and asserted his poll takers will undertake to find out:

1. Which voters stayed home?
2. Why the majority of the 3,000,000 undecided voters switched to Truman?
3. Did original Wallace supporters shift to Truman?
4. How much help did the national ticket get from the local and state candidates?

Crossley's Oct. 29 pre-election poll gave Dewey the same margin of the popular vote as did Dr. Gallup and asserted that the Truman-Barkley ticket could not hope to get more than 219 electoral votes. He said:

"Because polls in the last three elections have forecast results with increasing accuracy they have become to be considered exact indicators of public action as well as public opinion.

"Polls can and do take the temper of public opinion but cannot infallibly predict how the opinion will be expressed at the last minute in terms of turnout."

With a note of humility, the President said the victory was not his, but a victory of the Democratic party. It is a real victory for the people, he said.

Dewey Thanked

The President sent the following message to Gov. Thomas E. Dewey in New York:

"I thank you sincerely for your congratulations and good wishes. Your fine sportsmanship is deeply appreciated.

"We jointly owe congratulations to the American people, who have once again shown the world the vitality of our free institutions.

(Signed) Harry S. Truman"

Mr. Truman telephoned his runningmate Senator Alben Barkley at his home in Paducah, Ky., to share the joys of victory.

The President left Kansas City for nearby Excelsior Springs, Mo., to spend the rest of the day.

He will leave for Washington at 7:20 a.m. CST tomorrow. He will take off Sunday by plane for Key West, Fla., stopping enroute at Wilmington, N.C., to go to church.

Daring Burglar Takes Money After Breaking Into House

A daring burglar last night removed a screen from a bedroom window at 1508-B Ave. T, took two purses from a bed inside and escaped with about $29 in cash—all while six persons were visiting in the next room with the connecting door open.

Police, informed of the burglary by A. A. Welch, found that the burglary was discovered as some of the persons visiting the home were ready to leave.

One of the purses, minus its money, was found in the alley behind the house, police said.

GOP Defeat In Congress Mounts As Demos Take Over More Posts

trol and 49 for Senate dominance, the Democrats elected 23 senators and 256 representatives. One senate race remained undecided—for a short-term seat in Louisiana. Democrats had 30 senate seats as holdovers.

All their House gains except one, an American-Labor party seat held in the present Congress by Leo Isacson of New York, were at the expense of the GOP.

Toppled into the Democratic column in the House were such big states as Ohio, New York and Indiana, with broad Democratic gains chalked up in Illinois and Pennsylvania.

Demos Lead Elsewhere

The Democrats gathered in Senate seats held by Republicans in Minnesota, Delaware, Oklahoma, Illinois, Iowa, West Virginia and Wyoming. The losers in these were Ball, Buck, Rizley, Brooks, Wilson, Revercomb and E. V. Robertson, respectively. All but Rizley are incumbents.

Republicans elected 9 senators to add to their 33 holdovers.

Democrats also were leading in Kentucky and Louisiana Senate battles, with Republicans ahead in Massachusetts and Michigan and fighting to stave off further losses. The Idaho Senate race was a see-saw affair. The Kentucky, Michigan, Massachusetts and Idaho seats were held by Republicans in the present Congress.

Democrat Russell B. Long, son of the late Huey Long, was leading his Republican opponent in the race for a two-year Senate term from Louisiana.

The Democrats entered the fray for congressional control needing a net gain of four Senate and 31 House seats for control. Late today their net gains were 68 House and seven Senate posts.

Well-Known GOPs Defeated

Besides dropping nine Senate seats, Republicans lost 73 House races. With contests still out, they had elected 164 House members.

Democrats lost only two seats in both branches, in two California House holdings in which the incumbent Democrat was not up for reelection.

Swept into defeat were such well-known House Republicans as Reeves of Missouri, who two years ago beat a Democrat backed personally by President Truman; Harness of Indiana, who has been heading a congressional inquiry into the Federal Communications committee; Ploeser of Missouri, chairman of the Small Business committee, and McDowell of Pennsylvania, fireball of the House un-American Activities committee.

Down in defeat went more than 50 House members whose votes helped put the Taft-Hartley labor law on the books over Mr. Truman's veto. The six defeated incumbent senators also had backed the T-H act.

The New Jersey House seat of Fred Hartley, co-author of the Taft-Hartley law, went to a Democrat. Hartley did not seek re-election.

Republicans who escaped the fate of their defeated colleagues included Republican speaker Joseph W. Martin, jr., of Massachusetts, House Republican leader Halleck of Indiana, Chairman Taber (NY) of the House Appropriations committee, Chairman Thomas (NJ) of the House un-American Activities committee, and Chairmen Allen (Ill), Eaton (NJ), and Wolcott (Mich) of the House Rules, Foreign Affairs and Banking committees.

But they no longer will be chairmen when the new Congress meets.

Neither will Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) head the Senate Foreign Relations committee. Tom Connally of Texas, a Democrat, is in line to take over that committee.

Martin will step down as House speaker in January and Democrat Sam Rayburn of Texas will replace him. Halleck probably will give up the GOP floor leadership to make a place for Martin to descend to.

Vice-President-elect Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky will take over the gavel in the Senate. When he takes the oath as President Truman's partner, he will vacate his seat as a Kentucky senator, and Gov. Earl Clements, a Democrat, will appoint a successor.

So much for the overturns.

As for legislation:

There was no talk, at least publicly, of punitive action against southern Democrats who bolted President Truman and backed States' Rights presidential candidate J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina.

The general belief was that the regular Democrats would receive the straying southerners back in the fold and not deny them their committee posts and positions of party seniority.

If they wish, the southerners can snag President Truman's legislative program by filibuster, or talking to death, procedure.

Senator Olin D. Johnston (D-SC) said at Columbia, S. C., the States' Righters will filibuster if necessary to keep civil rights legislation off the Senate floor. But with their normal control of committees, Johnston said in a radio interview, the southerners might be able to bottle up bills in committee.

New Air Service For Tyler, Longview Sought At Hearing

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3. (AP)—People of Tyler and Longview, Tex., want daily commuting flights to Houston, Tex., and Tulsa, Okla., the Civil Aeronautics board was told today.

Frank N. Buttomer of Kansas City, testifying for Mid-Continent Airlines, Inc., said it would cost his company very little to give these folks twice as much as they get now.

At a hearing before CAB Examiner Walter W. Bryan, however, Braniff airlines served notice of opposition to such increased service for Tyler and Longview by Mid-Continent.

Buttomer told a reporter after the hearing that Mid-Continent is prepared to begin commuter service within 30 days if CAB approves it.

Drys Win in Three Texas County Option Elections

(By The United Press)

Three Texas counties which held local option elections in conjunction with the general election balloting yesterday appeared today to have taken the prohibition path.

Palo Pinto county, a majority of whose precincts had sold beer under local option laws, completely banned the sale of all alcoholic beverages. The close vote was 2,866 votes for prohibition and 2,680 votes against. Returns were complete.

Eastland county voted to remain dry, with returns from only three small bokes out of 27 remaining out. The dry vote was 4,346, the wet 2,544. Not a single wet box had been recorded in the county.

Lamar county, which has been dry for five years, remained that way, with 33 of the 60 precincts complete. The vote was 4,132 against the sale of beer and 1,911 in favor of it.

51 Taft-Hartley Backers Ousted

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3. (AP)—Out of 54 House members ousted from their seats in Tuesday's election, 51 voted for the Taft-Hartley labor law.

And at least six Republican senators who voted for that law were defeated.

It will always be open to debate, of course, as to how much these defeats can be blamed on their pro-Taft-Hartley votes. But President Truman made the labor law a main issue in his fiery campaign. And the labor organizations, with few exceptions, put on all-out vote drives against those who voted for the controversial act.

Prominent among the losers is Senator Ball (R-Minn), recognized as one of the Taft-Hartley law's principal draftsmen. Its nominal authors are Senator Taft (R-Ohio) and Rep. Hartley (R-NJ).

Taft, although his home state evidently went Democratic, remains in the senate. His term did not expire this year. Hartley's did, but he did not seek re-election.

Top labor leaders said the Taft-Hartley act gave them a prime issue to rally organized workers who otherwise would have been apathetic on other issues.

OIL OBSERVERS OPTIMISTIC AFTER LATEST SURVEY

New Field In Northwest Scurry County Seen In Standard Test Near Snyder; Oil Show Reported

Standard Oil Co., of Texas, appears to have opened a new oil field from the Pennsylvanian lime in Northwest Scurry county, nine miles northwest of the town of Snyder.

The company's No. 1 Jessie Brown, located 1,880 feet from north and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 40, block 97, H&TC survey, flowed 30 barrels of 42.5 gravity oil in 60 minutes during a drillstem test of the canyon lime zone of the Pennsylvanian at 6,261-72 feet.

The drill pipe unloaded some oil while it was being pulled, and the last four sands and a double of the pipe was filled with oil when they were pulled out and racked.

60 Barrels Flowed

Some observers estimated that the well produced a total of approximately 60 barrels of oil during the one hour the tool was open that included the fluid flowed out, that which was unloaded, and also that which was recovered on the final breakdown.

The tool was open a total of one hour and 50 minutes for the drillstem test. Gas showed at the surface in three minutes.

Oil started flowing out in 44 minutes. It was turned to tanks six minutes later and in the last hour of the test produced the 30 barrels of oil through a five-eighth inch Bottom hole choke.

Open flowing bottom hole pressure was 750 pounds. Shutin bottom hole pressure, after 20 minutes, was 1,400 pounds.

Operator has now cut a core from 6,272 feet to 6,287 feet, and at the time this report was prepared, was coming out with that specimen.

It is expected that another test will be run shortly.

Lario Oil & Gas Company No. 1-B Hayden Miles, four miles west of the town of Andrews, appears to have found a new oil field from the lower Glorieta section of the Permian, in Central Anrews county.

This exploration, located 1,320 feet from south and west lines of section 12, block A-46, psl survey, is a short distance from production from the San Andres-Permian in the Deeprock field. It was barren in the Deeprock pay section, and is drilling ahead to a possible bottom of 7,500 feet to explore into the lower Permian.

A drillstem test for one hour at 5,845-85 feet, recovered 3,200 feet of salty, sulphur water, with no shows of petroleum.

Another Test Taken

The project drilled on down and took another one-hour test at 5,720-70 feet. There was a good blow of air throughout the period. Recovery was 600 feet of oil, with the bottom 100 feet of that fluid being heavily cut with drilling mud. The drill pipe unloaded some of the oil while being pulled.

In a one-hour drillstem test at 5,773-5,810 feet, there was a slight blow of air for a part of the period. Recovery was 225 feet of heavily oil cut mud, with some free oil being included in the drill pipe.

The venture is drilling ahead, and had reached 6,071 feet in Permian dolomite, at the time this report was prepared.

Informed sources say that the development has logged between 50 feet and 75 feet of good pay in the zone already drilled through and they think that a good oil well, and a discovery can be completed from that interval—even if no more producing horizon is found.

There is no production from the Glorieta anywhere in the adjacent regions.

After recovering salty sulphur water from the Ellenburger, American Republics Corporation has plugged and abandoned its No. 1 Koonsman, northeast Scurry county wildcat, on a total depth of 7,574 feet.

No shows of oil or gas were recovered unto that depth.

The dry hole is 2,115 feet from north and 3,290 feet from east lines of section 240, block 2, H&TC survey. The town of Snyder lies about 15 miles southwest.

Seaboard Oil Company of Delaware No. 1 E. M. Hinson, northeast Terry county wildcat, 10 miles northeast of Brownfield, and 660 feet from north and west lines of section 91, block 4-X, psl survey, has found the big water in the Ellenburger, and has not encountered any indications of oil or gas in that formation.

In a one-hour and 30 minute drillstem test at 11,640-690 feet, a 1,030-foot water blanket was used.

Recovery was the water blanket, 630 feet of drilling mud and 9,050 feet of salt water with an odor of sulphur. There were no signs of petroleum in any of the recovered fluid.

The development is drilling ahead, and had reached 11,740 feet. It may be drilled on down until the granite is reached.

Some indications of production were drilled through in the Pennsylvanian. Those shows were tested extensively, and they failed to deliver commercial production. It has not been learned whether the operator plans to do any more testing on that section or not.

Drillstem Test Made

Shell Oil Company, Inc., No. 1 Hawkins, south-central Gaines county discovery for flowing production from the Devonian, between 10,272 feet and 10,378 feet, took a drillstem test at 10,378-428 feet.

Operator was pulling the testing tool, at last report. No details of the recovery were available.

The development had produced at the rate of 206 barrels per hour from the section already penetrated.

The new field discovery is 15 miles south and west of Seminole, two and one-half miles southwest of the Robertson field, where the production is from the Permian above 7,500 feet, and it is 1,983 feet from north and 665 feet from east lines of section 8, block A-23, psl survey.

Because of its many islands, Korea has 11,000 miles of coast line.

Texas Clinches Place In Demo Triumph

Party In Sweep Of All Contests

(By The Associated Press)

Texas clinched a choice seat on the Democratic bandwagon that carried President Truman to a second term in Tuesday's general election.

Late returns to the Texas Election bureau Wednesday only emphasized the all-out Democratic victory that became apparent with the first tabulation.

Although Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and Jack Porter piled up the heaviest Republican votes in years in the presidential and senatorial contests, they trailed from the start and never threatened the leads of President Truman and Lyndon Johnson.

State Demos Jubilant

The usual Democratic sweep continued down the line with even more emphasis. Gov. Beauford H. Jester piled up a five-to-one victory over Alvin H. Lane, Republican, of Dallas. Democrats triumphed in all other state offices and sent a solid 21-member delegation back to Congress.

The voters approved seven of the proposed amendments to the constitution, and an eighth appeared to have been approved. The judges retirement amendment in a 6 p.m. tabulation Wednesday was given 201,982 for approval and 188,168 against approval.

The voters approved all eight of the proposed amendments to the state constitution.

Democratic party stalwarts were jubilant Wednesday over the national and state results.

Rep. Sam Rayburn of Bonham, who is slated to take back the speakership of the House as a result of the national Democratic victory, telephoned congratulations to President Truman Wednesday. He said in a statement that the Democratic vote "has placed a tremendous responsibility upon us.

"All of us, from the President down, will do our utmost to live up to these responsibilities and the expectations of the American people. In the words of the President, we must all work to the utmost to bring about a permanent peace in the world and continued responsibility at home. I am gratified that the Democrats will again control Congress."

Rayburn told the Sherman Democrat in an interview:

"It looks like everybody was against President Truman but the people."

The Republican congressional victory in 1946 shoved Rayburn from the speakership. He has been House Democratic leader since.

Texas U. President, Dean Visit Austin 'Hot Spot'

WCTU Scores Charity Stunt

By BO BYERS
Associated Press Staff Writer

AUSTIN, Nov. 3 — When President T. S. Painter of the University of Texas "dated" dean of women Dorothy Gebauer and "chaperoned" a student couple at Dinty Moore's cafe and bar last night, he was doing it for the cause of charity.

Dr. Painter described the visit as "obviously a stunt to carry out the spirit" of a student drive for charities.

But Mrs. Claude Devan Watts, state president of the Women's Christian Temperance union, thought such goings-on were a "high price to pay for charity."

She termed the affair "disgraceful," blasted Dr. Painter and Dean Gebauer for leading "a group of students to a honky-tonk for an evening of debauchery," and called for a cleanup of the university faculty and the night spots of Austin.

She said officers of local Frances Willard chapter of the WCTU have called a meeting at 3 p.m. tomorrow to protest the incident. Mrs. Etta H. Roper, vice-president of the chapter, who is scheduled to preside, could not be contacted for comment.

The situation resulted after a student project was started with a campus "auction" to support various charitable causes. Students bid on "stunts" in which faculty members were asked to cooperate.

Bill Bunting, a student from Henderson, bid $10 if Dr. Painter would chauffeur a student couple to the cafe and bar, and another student added a $10 bid if Dean Gebauer would accompany Dr. Painter.

Students Cheer

Obligingly Dr. Painter and Dean Gebauer appeared briefly at the night spot. Students cheered as the jazz band played a be-pop version of the "Eyes of Texas."

With the university president and dean were Barbara Haden, a Houston senior; football player Byron Gillory of Marshall, Miss Haden's date, and Bunting.

Bunting said two soft drinks and three beers were ordered.

Mrs. Watts read an account of the event in the morning paper.

"I feel I speak for the mothers of the WCTU of Texas in deploring the incident," she told a reporter.

"The whole picture is a disgrace and most deplorable to the state of Texas.

"Both the president of the University of Texas and the dean of women have broken faith with the parenthood of Texas.

"They have set an example of drinking and carousing for the youth of Texas."

Answering the reporter's telephone call, Dr. Painter chuckled. "I think I can guess why you're calling," he said before a question could be asked.

"It seems to me it was so obviously a stunt designed to carry out the spirit of the student drive for charities that no comment is necessary," he said.

"Did you drink any beer?"

"No comment," Dr. Painter replied.

Demo Sweep Of Congress Puts Rep. Mahon In Key Position

The Democratic sweep of Congress puts this section's Rep. George H. Mahon in positions of greater power and responsibility, lending further proof, if any be needed, that "it's smart to find a good Congressman and then keep him."

Mahon told The Avalanche by telephone from his Colorado City home Wednesday that action of the voters yesterday makes him the No. 3 man on the powerful 43-member House Appropriations committee. At the same time, the election returned him to an Appropriations committee sub-committee chairmanship—a position he held until the GOP seized control of the House two years ago.

Of the 43 members on the House Appropriations committee, 25 are Republicans; 18 are Democrats under Democratic majority.

Succeeding Republican John Taber, of New York, as chairman of the House Appropriations committee will be 70-year old Clarence Cannon, Missouri Democrat. Next in line and just ahead of Mahon in majority party seniority will be Rep. John Kerr, of North Carolina, age 72.

The advanced ages of the two Democratic members who outrank Mahon means that he will carry a much heavier load on the committee than otherwise would be the case, hence will exert that much more influence on the committee's operations. As a high-ranking member of Appropriations, Mahon will be in good position to secure from other Congressmen support for his pet measures in exchange for his help on appropriations for their projects.

Mahon's wartime sub-committee chairmanship was on Military appropriations, which place will be held by Kerr in the 81st Congress. Mahon will be chairman of the subcommittee on Government corporations, covering such agencies as the War Assets, Farm Security, Commodity Credit and the many other gigantic government bureaus.

The tall 19th district Congressman, soon to begin his eighth term in the House, admitted his surprise at the victory of President Truman and the Democratic seizure of Congressional control, but said "my surprise doesn't keep me from being plenty

Bids On Building Received By C-C

Bids were received, but no action on them taken, on construction of a Chamber of Commerce building at Ninth and Texas at a special meeting of the building committee of the board of directors Wednesday.

The lowest base bid, submitted by W. G. McMillan, was $56,995. Next in order were those of Joe Telford, $57,740, and South Plains Construction Co., $58,870. Seven others ranged up to $72,325.

Bids To Be Studied

The amounts were within the estimated $50,000 to $60,000 cost of the one-story building. Each bid allowed for several "alternates" in plans and construction which mght raise or lower the total cost of construction.

Homer D. Grant, president of the chamber and chairman of the committee, said a detailed study of the bids will be necessary before the group will be prepared to make a recommendation to the directors as to which appears most advantageous. The chamber has 30 days to accept or reject the proposals.

Separate consideration is to be given air conditioning and heating contracts, Grant said.

The building is to be erected at chamber of commerce cost on a lot leased from the city at $1 a year. It will harmonize with other buildings in the same block—the City hall, the home of Allen Bros. post of the American Legion, the Police Department headquarters and Central Fire station.

Members of the building committee, additional to Grant, are Earl B. Collins, Carl Maxey, L. E. Davis W. C. Wood, and Roy Furr. A. B. Davis, chamber manager, is ex-officio secretary of the group.

Major Companies Expected To Meet Crude Oil Price Hike

DALLAS, Nov. 3. (AP) — Guy Warren, Corpus Christi oil man, said today he was confident major crude oil purchases will shortly meet the posting by Phillips Petroleum company.

Warren is president of the Texas Independent producers and Royalty Owners association. He made his remarks at a district organizational meeting of the association.

The meeting was the fourth in a series the association is holding. The fifth will be tomorrow at Tyler.

"Payment for bonuses for crude oil cannot continue indefinitely," Warren said." It is better that we as producers and royalty owners press for a stabilized price at the Phillips level."

Phillips raised its price for crude oil 35 cents a barrel. Other major purchasers did not follow suit.

Appeals Court Rules For Railroads Here

The Amarillo court of civil appeals has dissolved an injunction granted by Judge G. V. Pardue in the 99th district court here restraining the Fort Worth & Denver City railway from building a switch track in South Lubbock.

Applicants for the injunction were Alton J. Ammons and about 20 property owners in the affected area, which lies between twenty-eighth and Thirty-fourth street adjacent to Avenue L.

Rehearing Request Planned

J. Orville Smith, attorney for the applicants, said he will ask a rehearing within the 15 days allowed for that filing. If it is denied, he added, an appeal to the State Supreme court is planned.

He said he plans to attempt to enlist the participation of the city of Lubbock and the League of Texas Municipalities in pressing the fight for a favorable final decision. Lubbock was an intervenor in the case during the district court proceedings, and then dropped out.

If the Amarillo court's position is sustained, Smith contends, the legality of the entire principle of zoning may be in question.

The local law firm of Klett, Bean, Evans and Justice has participated in representing the railroad in the case.

BUILDING PERMITS LEAD PARADE

Lubbock's Business Situation Is One Of Brightest In State

Business barometers for Lubbock made many significant gains in September, making Lubbock's business situation one of the brightest in the state, the Bureau of Business Research of the University of Texas reported Wednesday.

Heading the parade of gains was building permits, which more than doubled from August to September to total $2,023,504 for September. This total more than doubled year-earlier figures also.

Clothing Sales Climb

Retail sales of independent stores climbed five per cent in September, to stand nine per cent above September 1947.

Cooler weather brought about consumer interest in fall and winter merchandise, and this increase was felt especially by department and apparel stores throughout the state. Department and apparel store sales in Lubbock gained 44 per cent from August to September, bettering the statewide rise of 27 per cent. Lubbock's increase in sales also topped the seasonally-expected gain for September. Despite the excellent showing over the month, however, sales dipped fractionally in a year's time.

Postal receipts in Lubbock totaled $51,993—14 per cent above August levels and 17 per cent above September 1947 levels. Receipts in other parts of the state gained only eight per cent over the month, but 19 per cent during the year.

Bank debits to individual accounts in Lubbock scored a 11-per-cent gain in September to better September 1947 by seven per cent. Bank debits totaled $59,734,000 in September. End-of-the-month deposits declined five per cent in September, but increased eight per cent above a year ago. Annual rate of deposit turnover advanced 13 per cent during the month, but fell five per cent under the September rate last year.

Air express shipments stepped up 55 per cent from August to

RED FACES ARE PLENTIFUL

New Champs Of Clouded Crystal Ball Take Over After Election

By BOB CONSIDINE
INS Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Nov. 3—As a re-treaded member of the sports writing trade, a homely guild which through the years has had its knuckles broken for making sour predictions on fights, races and football games, let me present to you today the new champions of near-sightedness, undisputed winners of the clouded crystal ball, the political experts of the U. S. press and radio.

Among them are members of my own lodge. The pundits of all major news services including our own were as exuberantly cock-eyed in their pre-election calculations as the poll-takers.

All Were Wrong

The poll-takers, a curious species of journalists grown fat and a bit olympian through the years, apparently tapped a cross-section of the voters of Lower Slobvia instead of the USA.

The blunderbuss columnists, who previewed President Truman's appalling doom in accents grave and dyspeptic, set a new record by being as wrong in 1948, as they were in 1944, 1940 and 1936.

The radio boys, whose elegant huffings and puffings blew away every possible doubt that they might just be guessing, must join today's endless parade of red-faced savants.

Sports Writers Laughing

They're all a lot of bargain-basement tallyrands. And members of the abused sportswriting wing of newspaper work are going to have a wonderful time for a few days watching the boys explain to their probably outraged readers just why they failed to sniff out even a hint of one of the great sweeps of political history.

A baseball writer who predicts on the day before the World Series that his home team will have its collective brains flattened by the enemy, and then to his horror sees the hometowners win four straight, risks being ridden out of town in a tumbrel.

The least that can happen to him is a loss of aplomb, his standing in the community and his following.

Boxing writers who picked Joe Louis to slaughter Max Schmeling in their first meeting (Schmeling knocked out Joe in 12 rounds) were forced to wear false beards for months.

Dewey Delegation Sad

About the only casualty among pundits or pulse-feelers was The Literary Digest, which insisted down to its dying breath that Alf Landon, who managed to win Maine and Vermont, was going to slap FDR all over the lot.

Not even the stricken Dewey delegation presented sadder pans today than did the "trained seals" on hand to attend a wake at the governor's headquarters.

Some of them have filed columns as far ahead as next Sunday extolling the winnah and Nee-yeww champion and taking bows for seeing greatness in him when he was just in the "preliminaries."

Some of the reddest faces around headquarters were those of columnists appearing in New York morning and afternoon papers, which arrived like incriminating fingers at a time when the Truman avalanche was beginning to smash Dewey and his supporters to smithereens.

Even Dewey's chief aide agreed that the man who would have the most explaining to do was Elmo Roper, conductor of Fortune Magazine's pulse feeling department.

Last Sept. 27 Roper announced that he would take no further accounting on the country's presidential race because Dewey was certain to win the high office.

Not far removed from Roper as he teetered on the furthermost tip of one of the longest limbs in history were the messers Gallup and Crosley.

It appeared that the red which coated the face of famed S. Louis, Mo., betting commissioner James Carroll might transmit itself to his bankbook.

It was Carroll who officially declared Dewey a one-to-fifteen shot, probably the shortest-priced candidate since George Washington.

All right, Buster, I'm getting to it. Just don't push me.

In a column I wrote Monday and which appeared—alas—as as Dewey was surrendering unconditionally I began:

"A new president of the United States acquires an appalling number of fresh duties, rights, benefits and possessions. When the dust of an election settles he is struck by an avalanche of public and government largesse and dependence."

You may fire when ready.

Work Is Planned On Tech Cotton Building

Plans for the $25,000 conditioning job to be done on the building which will house the cotton research program at Texas Technological college are taking definite shape, though no contracts have been signed, Dr. D. M. Wiggins, president, said Wednesday.

The two story building, located west of the Textile Engineering building in the campus, was constructed of steel girders and sheet metal in 1946 with money from the cotton research commission, but there was insufficient funds to complete the building on the inside at that time. Present plans call for insulation, painting, repair of roofing and flooring, more extensive plumbing and heating, and the installation of a humidity control system.

The cotton research commission was established by the state legislature in 1946, under the direction of a committee composed of Dr. Wiggins, Dr. T. S. Painter, president of Texas University, and Dr. Gibb Gilchrest, president of Texas A. and M. A separate phase of the research is carried on by each of the three colleges. The ultimate goal of program is to discover and test ways of helping Texas produce cotton to compete more favorably with that grown in foreign markets.

More Than 300 Persons Attend Methodist Meet At O'Donnell

Approximately 350 persons attended Tuesday's all-day meeting of the Lubbock district of the Methodist church at O'Donnell, where Bishop William C. Martin, bishop of the Dallas area, delivered the principal address.

Reports presented by all the 35 Methodist pastors of the Lubbock district at the meeting showed that 168 new members have been received into the church since June of this year, including 191 received on profession of faith.

The theme of the meeting was adherence to the "Advance-for-Christ" movement, a four-year program recently undertaken by the Methodist church.

A delegation of approximately 50 to 60 persons from Lubbock attended the meeting.

Man Posts Bond In Burglary Case

Bond of $1,000 was posted Wednesday by Harmon Edward Jones, 21, of 222 Ave. T, a short time after he was charged in a formal complaint with the Tuesday night burglary of Wilk Iron and Metal company, Twenty-fifth and Ave. F.

Kenneth C. Westmoreland and Wylie Summerlin, representing Moore's Bond Patrol, a private patrolling agency, discovered a truck at Twenty-fifth and Ave. F loaded with 33 automobile batteries and four cases of anti-freeze, during routine patrol late Tuesday night.

Returning to the scene shortly afterward, they arrested Jones and a negro, brought them to the police station, and according to police reports, Jones made a statement.

The negro was not charged. Officials said he established that he had been hired to help load a truck and he was not aware that stolen goods were involved.

Lee F. Rice of the city detective force swore to the burglary complaint before E. G. Pharr, assistant district attorney.

Lubbock Men Fined

L. D. Wall, about 42, and Fred Norton, 55, both Lubbock men, were fined $150 and county court costs Wednesday on guilty pleas of liquor law violation, after County Attorney John Steele had set up prior convictions on the two and asked for the enhanced penalty.

Easter Thompson, Lubbock negro woman, was fined $100 and costs on a charge of liquor law violation, Steele said.

Bond of $1,000 was posted by James Hayes, charged with theft by Bailee of a typewriter. The complaint was sworn to by Margaret Bandy before Assistant District Attorney E. G. Pharr.

A person listed on police reports as Mrs. West reported a burglary Wednesday afternoon of a house at 1011 Ave. L, in which a gold chain necklace and earrings, total value $10, were taken.

A butane bottle was stolen from the 2813 East Ave. G residence of Azzih Nichols, she informed police.

Story Of Police Officer's Fight Against Black Hand Society Is Slated For Filming

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS
INS Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 3—The King brothers are with us again. This time with plans for "The Giant Killer"—not the fairy tale.

Their movie is about Italian-born police Lt. Joseph Petrosino, who cleaned out the Black Hand society in New York 35 years ago.

Lt. Petrosino was a friend of Enrico Caruso's. When Caruso received a letter from the Black Hand threatening his life, the police officer found the would-be murderer and located the ringleaders of the mob—not, however, without serious consequences to himself. He was killed in Italy, where he went to get the remaining leaders of the Black Hand society.

The widow Petrosino, who sold the film rights of her husband's story to the Kings, will act as technical advisor. The screen play is by Burnett Hershey, who was a war correspondent with the Army in Italy during the past war. An effort will be made to borrow Victor Mature from 20th for the lead.

MGM Keeps Contract

There is no truth whatsoever in the report that MGM is cancelling Robert Walker's contract. Louis B. Mayer, Dore Schary and the other head men had a meeting at MGM and decided to give Bob another chance.

Anybody's entitled to a second chance, and if Bob follows their advice and goes into a sanitorium to build himself up, he will be back on the screen in no time.

He needn't feel the whole world is down on him—that's the wrong attitude. And he needn't feel that life is over for him. He isn't the first person to be in trouble. That he's sorry for everything there can be no doubt. The episode last week when he was taken to the hospital, proves how unhappy he has been.

Good Picture Job

After I read "The Snake Pit," Mary Jane Ward's horrifying and revealing story of conditions in a public insane asylum, I wondered how Darryl Zanuck would dare put such a story on the screen. A mentally sick woman is about the last person you could visualize as a heroine.

Yet, I have to say, Mr. Zanuck has made a picture that will prove a sensation. Olivia De Havilland, as that heroine, is superb. She gives a performance that is the best of her long and successful career.

Anatole Litvak's direction keeps the picture from being too morbid, and yet the story is so vivid you will never forget it. The deep sadness is lightened by the encouragement it offers to the families of those who are temporarily mentally ill.

$25,000 Suit Is Filed As Result Of Fall At Store

C. W. Hudgens, who was injured Aug. 19 in a fall at the new Hemphill-Wells store building at Thirteenth and Ave. K, Wednesday filed suit in 99th district court against the company and Robert E. Maxey, contractor for the new store building.

The suit, filed through Hudgens' attorney, J. Orville Smith, asks for a judgement of $25,000 damages. Hudgens alleges that he suffered a fractured right hip and severe injuries to his back when he fell through an opening for a stairway into the basement of the building. He was allegedly delivering a package to the store for the Railway Express company for which he worked at that time. He further alleges that the injuries are of such a nature as to constitute permanent injuries, rendering him unable to work or earn a living, and rendering him unable to do manual labor.

Folsom May Act Against Electors

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 3 (INS)—Gov. James E. Folsom announced tonight that a special legal committee will decide what court action—if any—will be taken against Alabama's 11 Democratic presidential electors pledged to vote for States' Rights candidate Thurmond and not President Truman.

Folsom said that he "expected" the electors to follow the people's mandate and vote for the Truman-Barkley ticket. The governor declared that in his opinion the "great majority" of Alabama voters were voting for Truman, not Thurmond, when they voted the Democratic ticket.

HST Not On Ballot

President Truman's name was not on the Alabama general election ballot.

Folsom earlier had announced that he would institute action today in federal district court to force the electors to cast their vote for the regular Democratic nominee.

The existence of a "special legal committee" to handle the problem had not heretofore been revealed.

Court proceedings today had also been predicted by Ira Thompson, Folsom's legal adviser.

Folsom joined the Truman camp several weeks ago, after the Alabama Democratic organization had split away. He made several speeches on behalf of Truman.

Fourth Increase In Oil Output Is Noted

NEW YORK, Nov. 3. (AP)—The American Petroleum Institute reported today the fourth consecutive increase in crude oil production.

The daily average gross crude oil production in the United States increased 8,150 barrels in the week ended Oct. 30 to 5,604,100 barrels compared with 5,274,250 barrels a year ago.

Reports received from refining companies totaling 91.2 per cent of the estimated daily potential refining capacity indicated the industry as a whole operated at 92.6 per cent of potential in running to stills 5,626,000 barrels of crude oil daily. The daily average the previous week was 5,556,000 barrels and indicate the industry, as a whole, operated at 91.4 per cent of capacity. A year ago runs were 5,224,000 barrels per day.

Total U. S. heavy fuel oil production for the week was estimated at 8,853,000 barrels, against 9,227,000 the previous week, and 8,364,000 barrels a year ago. Light fuel oil production was estimated at 7,679,000 barrels compared with 7,331,000 the previous week and 6,793,000 barrels a year ago.

Finished and unfinished gasoline stocks totaled 91,925,000 barrels compared with 91,674,000 barrels as of the previous week, and 82,092,000 barrels a year ago. Unfinished gasoline stocks totaled 8,690,000 barrels against 7,931,000 barrels a year ago.

Total estimated gasoline production in the United States amounted to 17,569,000 barrels, against 17,238,000 barrels last week.

Texas Demos

who is slated to resume the chairmanship of the internationally important Senate Foreign Affairs committee, expressed his jubilation in an interview at Corpus Christi.

In Interest of People

"I am immensely pleased," Connally said. "I feel it is in the interest of the people of the United States. After all, the people govern."

Connally was not a candidate this year. He was re-elected in 1946 for a six-year term.

Lyndon Johnson, who will succeed the voluntarily retired Senator W. Lee O'Daniel, had nothing to add Wednesday to the victory statement he made Tuesday night. He said then that the Texas voters "have overwhelmingly repudiated the mud-slinging, character-assassinating campaign of right-wing Republicans and renegade Democrats."

Johnson had nearly a two-to-one lead against Jack Porter, Houston oil man in returns from 253 out of 254 counties, including 70 complete. The vote at that stage was Johnson 563,638, Porter 274,639.

States' Righters to Carry On

In the same count, President Truman had 578,085 votes; Dewey, 213,962; Gov. J. Strom Thurmond, States' Rights, 76,233; Henry Wallace, Progressive, 2,680; Norman Thomas, Socialist, 481, and Watson, Prohibitionist, 1,905.

Jester's lead over Lane was 468,447 to 89,798.

Curtis Douglass, chairman of the Texas States' Rights executive committee, said at Pampa Wednesday that the party will not dissolve despite its small showing in the state.

"The results of yesterday's election do not in any way affect the determination of the States' Rights party to carry on its fight for the preservation of the American way of life and constitutional government," he said.

Tabulations To Continue

"We have made a fight for the preservation of principles and our party now holds the balance of power in both Houses of Congress.

"The fight of the States' Rights party has just begun and we are now in much better position holding the balance of power than if either of the large parties had been swept into office by a landslide.

The Texas election bureau's 6 p.m. tabulation Wednesday was its last for the day. Bob Johnson, bureau manager, said there probably would be a tabulation Thursday.

There were enough votes out to change the result on the judges retirement amendment, though its margin for approval was being maintained consistently.

Wallace Says Truman Should Repudiate Bi-Partisan Policy

NEW YORK, Nov. 3. (INS)—Henry A. Wallace today urged President Truman to repudiate the bi-partisan foreign policy and return to the Roosevelt policy for establishment of "one world at peace."

The Progressive party presidential candidate, who polled less than a million votes, wired Mr. Truman a 262-word message. The released text did not include congratulations on Mr. Truman's victory.

Statement Is Issued

Wallace said:

". . . The Progressive party calls upon you, as you enter your first elected term, to repudiate the bi-partisan policy, to remove the military from the civilian branch of the government, and the bankers from the State department, and to return to the Roosevelt policy of friendship and collaboration among all nations through the United Nations for the establishment of one world at peace.

"Only in this way can the mandate which you have received from the American people be fulfilled."

Wallace called for an end to the "cold war" and to halt the arming and supporting of "reactionary regimes" abroad and to cancel his alleged plans for "militarizing America."

He also urged the President to stand by his legislative program calling for price controls, repeal of the Taft-Hartley law, price protection of the farmer, the civil rights measures and full recognition and assistance to the new state of Israel.

happy!"

Bubbling over, Mahon told how he had remained up all night listening to election returns. Then, more soberly, he admitted that "the added responsibilities of both the Democratic party, and myself as a member of the Congress, are such that we must work harder than ever to do the sort of job we must do for the nation and the world."

Mahon said the outcome of the election will cause him to go back to Washington earlier than he had anticipated, probably in early December.

He said it was necessary for him to do considerable planning and committee organizational work prior to the January opening of Congress.

37 REPORTED KILLED IN BATTLES

Fighting In South Korea Revolt Spreads To Several New Areas

SEOUL, Nov. 3 (INS)—Fighting in American-occupied South Korea spread to several scattered points in the second day today of a new rebellion.

Reports reaching Seoul indicated that 37 loyalists and rebels had been killed in the fighting that flared at Taegu, Kunchon and Kurye.

The government reported that 117 insurgents had been captured in the last two days of the fighting which followed close on the heels of a major insurrection that was believed crushed a week ago.

Fourteen policemen and civilians were reported killed at Taegu, where the revolt began yesterday, and 20 mutinous south Korean constabularymen were said to be holding a textile factory against attacks by loyal troops.

Twenty miles to the south 50 rebel constabularymen attacked a police station in Chilgok after commandeering a train in Taegu. This force was reported to have surrendered.

At Kunchon, the government claimed the capture of 70 insurgents, about 50 of whom were members of the constabulary.

Twenty-three insurgents were reported killed and 30 others captured in mopping up operations at Kurye.

American observers in Seoul noted similarities in the present uprising and the recently suppressed insurrection. Again the revolt is composed of mutinous constabularymen and again the insurgents captured a train to carry the fighting to outlying towns.

The Seoul government continued its insistence that the revolts have been Communist inspired.

Bookmakers Handed Severe Trimming In Truman Upset

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 3. (INS)—The bookies were very unhappy today in St. Louis.

They had offered 8-1 odds that President Truman would be defeated. The odds on Gov. Dewey winning were 15-1.

As one bookie moaned:

"All the money was on Truman. The bettors bet like they vote.

"The bookmakers took a nasty trimming. There was money on Truman from every place in the country.

"A lot of people may be happy today, but you can bet the bookmakers aren't."

Ellis Is Jubilant As Demo Triumph Conceded By Dewey

"I was one of those who didn't think we had a chance," L. C. Ellis, chairman of the Lubbock County Democratic executive committee, jubilantly admitted Wednesday after Gov. Dewey had conceded the election to the Democrats. "I'm agreeably surprised, like a lot of other people.

"The best part about the whole thing is our victories in the House and Senate races," he added.

Ellis said Lubbock county's vote went about like he had anticipated.

Jester Explains Stand In Party

AUSTIN, Nov. 3. (AP)—Gov. Beauford H. Jester today hailed the Democratic victory as "a tribute to the courage and fighting spirit of President Truman."

In a prepared statement, he said he had wired his congratulations to Truman and Barkley.

The governor was apparently happy that he had stayed within the Democratic party in the South's fight against Truman's Civil Rights program. But his statement indicated he had not forgotten his opposition to the program.

Must Meet Pledges

"Having re-elected a president and rolled up majorities in both House and Senate, the Democratic party now comes face to face with the other half of its bargain—to live up to the responsibilities placed anew upon it by the people of the United States, and to serve all the people wisely and well," he said.

"The Democratic party has proved itself strong enough to get along without its dissenting elements; now I hope it will prove itself strong enough to get along with them. . . .

"Months ago, when this campaign was brewing, I announced my opposition to certain portions of the administration's program and opened a fight against these objectionable portions. At the same time, I announced my intention of fighting it out inside the Democratic party. Having stayed within the party, I feel that I am now in better position to continue the battle against federal control of tidelands and for States' Rights than if I had bolted the party."

Thanks Texas Voters

Jester said he thought Truman's continual stressing of the thought that the Democratic party is the party of the people while the Republican party is the party of special privilege, was his most effective campaign argument.

In regard to his own victory in the general election, Jester said he is "truly grateful" to the people of Texas who voted overwhelmingly for me."

He said he also accepted "with sincere gratitude" the best wishes wired him by his Republican opponent, Alvin H. Lane.

"During the next two years I want to work closely with the legislature in a program of state services that will strengthen our claim to States' Rights. In that direction lies our only chance to meet and defeat a trend toward governmental centralization and federalization. Theories, traditions and revolts are not enough; we must meet our responsibilities as a state if we are to retain our constitutional prerogatives," he said.

Dr. Jones Is Speaker At Meeting Of Exchange Club

Development of the resources of the youth of America was the theme of an address by Dr. E. N. Jones, vice-president of Texas Tech, before the weekly luncheon of the Exchange club at Hotel Lubbock Wednesday.

Speaking to some 40 club members and guests, Dr. Jones urged granting of opportunities to gain practical experience to the nation's young people, so that they may be better prepared early in life for the problems they are to encounter later.

At the meeting, club members voted to sponsor the March of Dimes in Lubbock in mid-January.

Misses Ruth Breazeale and Julia Zeitz, members of local Girl Scouts organizations, spoke briefly on the benefits of the Girl Scouts' health and safety program.

Invocation was by Charles Cathey.

Moursund Leads Petsch In Race For State House Seat

FREDERICKSBURG, Nov. 3. (AP)—E. W. Moursund of Johnson City tonight was leading Col. Alfred Petsch of Fredericksburg in the 81st state representative race.

His lead was based on incomplete and unofficial returns.

Moursund was ahead in three of the four counties in the district. They are Llano, where he was ahead 953 to 247, in Blanco, 908-22 and in Kendall, 734-518.

Petsch, a veteran of 16 years in the House, led 2,154 to 1,029 in Gillespie county, which went Republican.

Both Moursund and Petsch are Democrats. They seek the post left vacant by Rep. Tom Martin of Stonewall, who died in September.

His widow received a number of Token votes. She had withdrawn in favor of Petsch. The names of Moursund and Petsch were not on the ballot. Martin's name was scratched and either of the two candidates was written in.

Texas' Sam Rayburn, Elected To 19th Term, Is Expected To Get 81st Congress Speaker's Post

DALLAS, Nov. 3. (AP)—Texas' veteran congressman Sam Rayburn, elected yesterday to his 19th consecutive term without opposition will probably become the speaker of the 81st Congress.

The Democratic control of the House makes Rayburn the logical choice for the speaker's position, which he held through the 76th, 77th, 78th, and 79th sessions. In the 80th, Republican-dominated Congress, Rayburn was house minority leader.

Rayburn was elected to his 19th term in yesterday's general election, as usual, without Republican opposition. He has never had a GOP opponent.

Solidly Democratic

The Texas delegation to the 81st Congress will be solidly Democratic and its 21 members will have an aggregate of 168 years of legislative duty in Washington.

Besides Rayburn, those elected without opposition were:

Wright Patman of the 1st district, to his 11th consecutive term.

Tom Pickett of the 7th district, to his third straight term.

Clark Thompson of the 9th district, who has served two part-terms, to his first full term.

Homer Thornberry of the 10th district, to his first term as successor to Lyndon B. Johnson, the senator-elect.

Wins Sixth Term

Ed Gossett of the 13th district, to his sixth consecutive term.

Lloyd M. Bensen, jr., of the 15th district to his first term, as successor to the retired Milton West, now deceased.

Omar Burleson of the 17th district, to his second straight term.

O. C. Fisher of the 21st district, to his fourth consecutive term.

Results in contested districts on the basis of incomplete election bureau returns: (Democrats listed first):

2nd—J. M. Combs, elected for his third term, with 8,894 votes against 481 for Don Parker, Republican.

3rd—Lindley Beckworth, elected for a sixth term, 17,128 votes, against 2,857 for R. E. Kennedy, Republican.

Wilson Elected Again

5th—J. Frank Wilson, elected for a second term, 65,618 votes, against 1,033 for Joe Bailey Irwin, Progressive.

6th—Olin E. Teague, elected for a third term, 8,896 votes, against J. Hayden Moore, Progressive, eight.

8th — Albert Thomas, elected for a seventh term, 36,283 votes, against Joe Ingraham, Republican, 6,383.

Lyle Wins Third Time

14th—John E. Lyle, elected for a third term, 11,279 votes, against James M. Swafford, Republican, 1,003 and Tom Neal, Progressive, 20.

16th—Ken Regan, elected for a first full term, 5,810, against J. B. Chavez, Republican, 20.

18th—Eugene Worley, elected for a fifth term, 19,921, against J. Evets Haley, Republican, 2,610.

19th—George H. Mahon, elected for an eighth term, 11,750, against Mohler Temple, Republican, 557.

Court Rejects Gragg's Appeal In Murder By Drowning Case

AUSTIN, Nov. 3. (AP)—Chesley Arthur Gragg, under life sentence for murder in the drowning of his wife, today apparently had exhausted his last legal recourse in Texas in his effort to secure freedom.

His motion for rehearing of his appeal from the overruled by the trial court was Court of Criminal Appeals, the highest state court in criminal proceedings.

Judge F. L. Hawkins, author of the majority opinion, said there was no reversible error in the lower court judgment. Gragg had insisted the evidence was insufficient to sustain his conviction.

The drowning of Gragg's wife took place in June, 1943. Gragg received a death sentence in Dallas county. The Court of Criminal Appeals reversed the judgment because the indictment describing the manner in which Gragg committed the crime was not considered sufficiently specific.

There was a hung jury on the next trial of the case. Gragg was given a life sentence after trial was transferred to Collins county.

Testimony offered by the state prosecution was designed to show that Gragg drowned his wife to get her out of the way and to collect on two insurance policies in order that he might marry Ann White of Mount Pleasant.

GOP LEADER MAKES BID

AUSTIN, Nov. 3, (AP) — Texas Republican leader Henry Zweifel of Fort Worth today invited "purged" Democrats and others to join with the Republican party to help make Texas a two party state. Zweifel, chairman of the party's state executive committee, announced through state headquarters here that the Republican party is setting up the Austin headquarters on a permanent basis.

Truman Expected To Push Plans For Alliance With West Europe

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—President Truman's first major post-election move in foreign policy very likely will be to order a State department go-ahead within a few days on negotiations for a military alliance treaty with Western Europe.

If he acts on this line, as State department officials expect, his new majorities in House and Senate should greatly enlarge his chances of winning congressional approval both for the treaty and also for a costly lend-lease arms program expected to be proposed in connection.

Faces China Situation

The alliance proposition in some form may be ready for congressional action early in January.

The President also may come to grips soon with the new crisis created in China by sweeping Communist victories and by the weakening of Chiang Kai Shek's government. State department people have felt deeply concerned—but pretty helpless—over the situation there.

But while the future course of his global strategy in the cold war seems clear, the identity of the men who will help Mr. Truman carry out his mandate in foreign policy is uncertain.

Secretary of State Marshall, Secretary of Defense Forrestal and Undersecretary of State Lovett are expected to resign by January 20, the inauguration of Mr. Truman's second term. All are key figures in the global strategy worked out here over the past two years to meet the Russian problem.

Acheson May Get Post

Who will replace them is a matter of almost complete guesswork in the absence of any hints from Mr. Truman himself. But one guess considered good for secretary of state is Dean Acheson, who was undersecretary until 18 months ago and is known as a friend of Mr. Truman.

One point which appears certain is that Mr. Truman's White House staff—and presumably the President himself—will want to get the State department into the hands of someone the White House will consider more co-operative than Undersecretary of State Lovett.

While relations between the President and Marshall are tops, Lovett bore the brunt of much of the campaign conflict over foreign policy within the administration. Lovett started the maneuvers which blocked the President's plan to send Chief Justice Fred Vinson to Moscow and differed with the White House over other questions, notably Palestine.

Forrestal shared with Marshall and Lovett the record of being a spotlighted figure in the administration who did not speak a word in behalf of Mr. Truman's election. Friends of Forrestal say the President fully agreed to this to keep American rearmament out of politics—as bi-partisan as foreign policy. They also say Forrestal is definitely counting on getting out of government by January 20.

The expectation here is that the impending shifts in key men will not materially alter the main line of the American diplomatic strategy of peace through power, in or out of the United Nations. But the precise way in which this policy is applied might be quite different under new secretaries of state and defense.

ALL ON HIS OWN

Mr. Truman Won It!

IF EVER a man won the Presidency of the United States completely and finally "on his own," that man is Harry Truman.

Faced on all sides by blank walls of party antipathy, deserted by the men he had honored with cabinet portfolios, and by many of the party's city bosses, "the little guy from Missouri" fought like a lion, all by himself, and literally snatched victory from the gullet—not the jaws—of defeat.

His dogged perseverance as he stumped the almost endless miles of his country is something to admire. But even more magnificent was his individual courage as he carried his fight to the people. With Mrs. Truman and daughter Margaret as his only constant aides, Harry Truman won the election.

Harry Truman won it. Nobody else did.

AS THE President goes about his arduous, daily tasks from now on, he does so as his own man.

He is the choice of the majority of the people, not a hangover from the preceding administration of which he was more or less of an accidental part.

He is the President in his own right from here on out. That knowledge doubtless will permit him to assume a command over both his party and the administration which has been denied him ever since the day when death struck in Georgia in 1945 and catapulted him into the White House in the twinkling of an eye.

FROM A standpoint of purely "bread-and-butter politics," the capture of the legislative branch of the government by the Truman-led party is of particular boon to Texas and to the men Texans have sent to Washington to serve in the House and Senate.

Back to committee chairmanships and to places of great legislative power will go Texans who have been in eclipse during the past session of the Congress. Sam Rayburn is likely to become House Speaker again next January. Tom Connally will go back as chairman of the Senate's powerful Foreign Relations committee. And this district's representative, George Mahon, will find himself again the chairman of the House Appropriations committee's sub-committee on Military appropriations, as well as No. 3 man on the whole committee. Other Texans will have powers greater than they have had before.

THE DEMOCRATIC sweep of Tuesday also will permit the state to begin, immediately, to profit by the retirement of Wilbert Lee O'Daniel and his replacement in the Senate by Lyndon Johnson.

Instead of being pushed and pulled—and perhaps even finally denied his hard-won seat—by a Republican Senate, or a Senate closely divided, Mr. Johnson can begin in early January to apply his experience, energy and legislative talents to the job for which Texans wanted him in large numbers. With the amazing Republican collapse which dumfounded even Howard McGrath, the Democratic National chairman, also collapsed the opposition to Mr. Johnson's seating by the now thoroughly discredited Coke Stevenson, his chief aides Dan Moody and Clint Small, and Big Oil in Houston.

BUT OVER and above all stands the doughty figure of Harry Truman, chin jutted out, the victor in the astounding climax to a fight everybody else said he didn't "have a chance to win."

It could be—we hope it will be—that Mr. Truman's victory will make him a great President; that it will transform his administration into something to compare favorably with the very greatest administrations of the past.

One thing is certain: The way Mr. Truman won election makes him beholden only to the people as a whole; not to the politicians, of to isolated blocs of voters.

It puts him in the very enviable position of being able to administer to his tasks with nothing more in mind than the desire to be just and fair; to be the President of all the people.

Nothing So Dead—

Tryst

THEY missed her at Nuns Farthing, of course, by tea time. Hilary heard them calling her in the garden, in the passage, and began to wonder too. At 5 o'clock Mrs. Pilton came up and looked in at his door, to see if Sabrina had fallen asleep up there. With one inscrutable glance round the empty room, she closed the door and went away again.

A little later he went out and sat on his stairs, listening. While he sat there, shamelessly waiting to eavesdrop, Aunt Effie came upstairs and went into Sabrina's room. In a few minutes she came out again and hurried downstairs towards the study. Hilary followed to the top of the lower flight.

"Alan! Alan!" cried Aunt Effie at the study door. "Her dressing case is gone, and her toilet things! She packed them up! She's run away! Now will you ring up the police at Wells and give them a description? Say we'll be there directly after dinner. I'll go and bring the car round now."

Packed a bag and bolted, wondered Hilary, beginning to be concerned.

He hung about the stairhead while they ate a hasty and unhappy meal, and before they had finished he ran down through the lower hall and got into the rumble seat of the waiting car.

In a few minutes they came out. Aunt Effie took her place behind the wheel, and they drove away.

The hood was down, and fragments of their conversation floated back to Hilary on the road. Aunt Effie blamed herself for not leading up more persuasively to the matter of the school in Switzerland, and reiterated her intention to get Sabrina out of the house as soon as possible. Hilary was enlightened. Threatened with school against her will, Sabrina had run away.

THE police station at Wells was only mildly concerned about Sabrina's mysterious disappearance. They took the viewpoint that girl of nearly 18 who had calmly packed a bag and walked out in broad daylight with at least two pounds in her purse was not in any immediate danger. They were pretty sure that she had not been seen at the railway station and she was not at any of the hotels, but they were making further inquiries and would probably have something to report in the morning. They advised Aunt Effie to go home and get some rest and prepare to come and collect the girl when she turned up safe and sound the next day.

Baffled and silenced by the bland efficiency of the law, Aunt Effie and Father returned to the car and drove away in the direction of Nuns Farthing. But without Hilary. He was far from satisfied, and he meant to drift round the railway station and a bar or two, picking up local gossip.

He went first to the Swan, which was probably the only hotel Sabrina was likely to know about in Wells, and when the manageress' back was turned he inspected the register, but without success. He glanced into the dining room and the lounge and as he expected drew blank. He then went down the road and the social scale and finally fetched up in a pub bar where a dart game was in progress.

Various ancients had grown gregarious over their mild and bitter, and the entry of a constable just come off duty was greeted with a small stir. Had the missing young lady been found, they wanted to know. No, she had not.

"I saw un, I did," volunteered an old boy in the corner with a bubbling pipe.

"Did you, now?" said the constable, humoring him. "Where would that be?"

"PRETTY creetur she were, too," mumbled the old man into his beer. "Nigh broke her neck, she did, gettin' on the bus. Luggin' a great 'eavy bag like that."

"What bus?" said Hilary involuntarily, drawing nearer.

"How do you know so much about it?" inquired the constable.

"'Erbert, 'e, were down at the railway station. 'E 'eard 'em asking about people takin' tickets fer London an' that. I said, 'No London in it,' I said. 'She took the bus for Glastonbury,' I said. So 'Erbert said—"

"How was she dressed, this girl you saw?" the Constable was interested now.

"Might be somethin' blue," said old Tom with nonchalance, and buried his face in his beer. "Pretty creetur," he added, half emerging. "But wants fattenin'—" He disappeared again, into his beer.

"Blue," said the constable. "That's right. Carrying a bag. Glastonbury bus. Well, no harm in letting them know at the station."

But Hilary had slipped out the door ahead of him and was hurrying towards the square where the last bus for Glastonbury was loading. He waited on the curb till its gears went home, and then swung on through the open back door and dropped into a seat near the rear.

It was quite dark when they got to Glastonbury, and the Pilgrim Inn was dim and quiet. He walked into the deserted hall, and with a quick glance round stepped into the office and sought the register. The last signature of the day amused him. Mary Smith, he read, and beside it, No. 27.

Still smiling, he went upstairs and found the number on a door and listened. Not a sound. He walked through the painted wooden panels.

Looking At Life - - By Erich Brandeis

HERE is part of a letter that certainly has me puzzled.

If I were a Mary Haworth or a Beatrice Fairfax, I would have a ready answer. Those girls have an answer for everything.

But I am a mere man. Furthermore, contrary apparently to the wishes of many of my readers, I am not a Saint. On the other hand, neither am I a professional Sinner.

BRANDEIS

And we, those millions of us, who are halfway in between Saints and Sinners can't always find the proper answers to these perplexing questions of what is right and what is wrong.

That, I suppose, is the main reason why we are halfway between Saints and Sinners; in other words, that is why we are run-of-the-mine human beings.

After this ponderous preface, here is the question that puzzles me.

"My son is going around with a girl of whom we do not at all approve. Both my husband and I are afraid that he is going to marry her. He shows every indication of being terribly in love with her. But such a marriage would be a disaster to our entire family.

"What do you advise us to do?"

Let me tell you an experience out of my own life.

When I was very young, just out of college, I also was "terribly in love" with a girl who was not at all the type of whom my parents approved, although very many men seemed to approve of her enthusiastically.

She was ten years older than I, but, apparently she was deeply in love with me, too, a fact which she proved by many things into which we shall not go here in this family column.

I wanted to marry her and she wanted to marry me.

My folks lived about three thousand miles away from my amatorial arena, but, as those things happen, they heard about the affair.

FATHER hopped on the next train, had a talk with my beloved and, somehow, perhaps by practical inducements, managed to get her to leave town to parts unknown.

I was heartbroken. I investigated every known kind of suicide. Poison, hanging, shooting, drowning—I looked into them all.

There seemed to be one principal trouble with the various methods of suicide—they were either painful or fatal, or both.

And, incidentally, during my investigation a very lovely blonde came along and I became more interested in living than in dying.

The years passed. My wild oats

CONSERVATION SETUP

Krug 'Takes Over'

By RAY TUCKER
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—An unpublicized order issued by Secretary of Interior J. A. Krug has so revolutionized the land-and-water conservation setup throughout the country, from Maine to Texas, that it makes him absolute, push button czar of the organization. It has disrupted morale within the Bureau of Reclamation and provoked protests from local interests and other government agencies.

TUCKER

Although the ukase is considered one of the most far-reaching in Interior annals, it attracted hardly any notice for the reason that Mr. Krug's usually zealous publicists did not know it, or were instructed to neglect it.

According to law, he published it in the Federal Register, which lists the thousands of new federal orders, regulations and communiques, but that technical publication has limited circulation.

COMMITTEES: The decree establishes seven regional committees for supervising reclamation, irrigation, hydroelectric construction and operation projects, transmission lines and all related activities.

The chairmen of these committees shall be named by Mr. Krug, and they shall be responsible solely to him. Thus the regional independence and non-political nature of these local bodies have been wiped out by a stroke of the bureau cratic pen.

The new regional groupings are as follows: Alaska, Pacific Northwest, Pacific Central, Colorado River-Great Basin, Missouri River Basin, Southwest, Eastern. In the past the Reclamation Bureau had regional offices at Boise, Sacramento, Boulder City, Salt Lake City, Amarillo, Billings and Denver.

CONTROL: The significance of the centralization order lies in the fact that the Bureau of Reclamation is now the world's leading producer of hydroelectricity. It operates such vast interstate projects as Boulder Dam, Shasta, Grand Coulee, Davis, Big Thompson, the Central Valley operation in California and the Missouri Basin developments.

Under the New Deal its activities were so broadened by legislation and executive orders that numerous cities, industries and military establishments are dependent upon its decisions for their supply of water and power. Its dams, turbines and transmission lines furnished the juice for many of our major wartime plants. It is constantly seeking expansion of its jurisdiction.

Now, under the August 25 edict, this empire of land and water and power will be subject to the control of a single official at Washington, despite his many other official duties.

CENTRALIZATION: Unless rescinded by Congress or the White House, the order vests in Mr. Krug and his successors a grant of authority which not even the power-grabbing Harold L. Ickes dared to dream of in his most grandiose moments. When he tried to take over new territory by similar methods, Franklin D. Roosevelt himself intervened to block him.

Although a federalist rather than a states rights man, F. D. R.'s philosophy and understanding of these problems led him to oppose this sort of centralization. He established the Tennessee Valley Authority as an independent, three-man body, with its main offices at Knoxville rather than Washington. He figured that local people and interests knew their troubles better than a remote official at the Capital.

ENTHUSIASTIC: In fact, President Truman is supposed to be cold toward federalization. So much so that he has never been enthusiastic for setting up a Missouri Valley Authority and similar projects throughout the country.

Congress has frequently shown it hostility toward the Krug scheme. For years the men on Capitol Hill have refused to approve the Ickes plan for strewing at least seven Washington-bossed TVA's around the United States.

CONCLUSIONS: Despite these objections, conservation experts withhold comment until they have more opportunity to study the operation of the Krug project. Three of the new regional organizations—in the Pacific Northwest, the Missouri River Basin and the Southwest—are ready to function, but there has not been sufficient time to draw any conclusions from actual operation of the program.

If the new setup envisages greater cooperation among sometimes conflicting agencies and a more basic approach to the broad question of preserving land, water and forest resources, now being wasted in prodigal son manner, the change may be a step in the right direction.

Conservation experts have recently been extremely critical of the piecemeal, patchwork handling of the conditions that produce floods, droughts, soil deterioration and disappearances of grasses and timber.

DIFFICULT: The Krug order also caused surprise because of the expectation that the Hoover Commission will recommend a radical reorganization of the numerous squabbling and duplicating agencies in Interior, Agriculture and the Army that now handle these questions.

It has been reported that he will propose creation of a new Department of Conservation that would allocate more authority to regional bodies. Should Congress accept the Hoover suggestions, then the Krug program's operation will merely make it more difficult to unscramble the federalized omelette.

MILITARY: R. C. of Chicago wants to know whether it is true that military men now exert greater influence in shaping our foreign policy than they did under previous administration. He would also like to know the reason for the shift of control from civilians to what he calls "the brass."

Answer: There is no doubt that military thinking dominates our conduct of foreign affairs. However, it is not due to the fact that so many generals and admirals hold key posts in our diplomatic establishment—Marshall, Leahy, Clay, Walter Bedell Smith etc., or that President Truman has always been partial to a uniform.

CHANGED: Conditions have changed from the days when the existence of such strong and stable nations as the U. S., England, France, Germany, Japan and Russia provided a balance of power that generally deterred any power or group of powers from precipitating a conflict. In those days old-fashioned diplomacy served to maintain the peace for long years.

When Japan began to run amok on the Chinese mainland in the early thirties, we tried to stop her by sending notes and refusing to recognize her right to land conquered by force. Eventually we placed embargoes on such war necessities as scrap and oil. But we never gave great sums or arms to China.

Many a man has sewed up a deal by making a stitch in time.

It seems the thing most people are interested in making out of plastics is money.

HST'S VICTORY SURPRISE

West European Leaders Pleased

By KINGSBURY SMITH
European General Manager, INS

PARIS, Nov. 3.—Western European leaders expressed pleased amazement tonight at President Truman's victory—and the Communists showed confusion.

All members of the UN delegations at the General Assembly in Paris are fully aware that the Democrats now have a chance to seize the initiative of the American policy of containing Communism.

More consistency in American policy and a general stiffening in the cold war against Russia now is anticipated by many as a result of the mandate given President Truman.

Wallace Showing Hits Reds

This mandate cements the firm bipartisan policy in American foreign policy. But it also leads to European hopes of quick steps to settle the Palestine issue, the formation of a North Atlantic security pact, and continuity in the European recovery program financed by the U. S. taxpayer.

Telephone lines between Paris and Washington and among European capitals were busy tonight with discussions of the effect of the Democratic victory.

The poor showing of progressive party candidate Henry A. Wallace is expected to shock the Kremlin which is believed to have been misled in thinking he had a good chance of polling a substantial bloc in disagreement with the Truman doctrine.

Andrei Vishinsky of Russia and Dimitri Manuilsky of the Ukraine whistled in surprise during General Assembly discussion of a resolution on no-self-governing territories when they learned Gov. Dewey had conceded.

In apparent confusion they voted "yes" on a paragraph, and had to call back for a switch to a "no" vote.

Whether President Truman's victory will cause a more conciliatory Russian attitude toward the west is a matter of much conjecture tonight.

The election news overshadowed all UN deliberations and Assembly President Herbert V. Evatt of Australia adjourned the session tonight until tomorrow morning. Evatt told the delegates:

"You have had very interesting and exciting news to digest and think over."

Evatt hailed President Truman as a "magnificient fighter" and British and French leaders likewise were elated at his victory.

British Minister of State Hector McNeil said, "I am happy that in your country and mine the people always are right."

French officials and those in Britain who also had been misled by advance predictions of a Truman defeat believe that the Democratic victory will aid European recovery by speeding defense commitments.

Less "flip-flopping" in foreign policy now is expected too after the decision of the voters.

In Berlin, German political leaders in Soviet-besieged Western Berlin expressed surprise, but were generally pleased today by the election of President Truman.

Acting Mayor Ferdinand Friedensburg said "I cannot deny that the result is reassuring to Berliners who feared that a change in the present American administration would place the Berlin problem in an atmosphere of uncertainty."

A commentator on the Russian-controlled Berlin radio asserted "Truman was elected because he talked like Wallace."

Max Reimann, western zone Communist boss, ignored the poor showing of progressive party candidate Henry A. Wallace and said:

"The Progressive party results mean that peace forces are gaining strength in the United States."

Reimann added:

"The victories of the Democrats (Communists) in China are more decisive than elections."

American observers in Berlin saw in the election results a tremendous strengthening of the position of U. S. Military governor Gen. Lucius D. Clay, who has been a target of some U. S. criticism. They thought Clay would postpone indefinitely his retirement plans.

Special Schooling Set For Marines

NEW YORK, Nov. 4. (AP)—Approximately three of every four one-year enlistees in the Marine Corps will receive specialist schooling after "boot" camp, under a new program approved by Gen. Clifton B. Cates, Commandant of the Marine Corps.

Decision to concentrate on specialist training for eighteen-year-olds was prompted in part by results of aptitude studies. Average general classification test scores reported for one-year enlistees now at Marine Corps recruit depots are: San Diego, Calif., 113; Parris Island, S. C., 109. Average wartime score for the Marine Corps was 104.

Men selected for formal technical training will commence study in one of the following schools: clercial, engineer, ordnance repair, automotive repair, supply-clercial, photographic, electronics, and cooking and baking. Aviation students, after a basic technical school, will be further assigned for schooling as aviation electricians, machinists, structural machinists and electronics specialists.

Men not selected for formal schools will be assigned after recruit training to special tactical units of artillery and infantry, composite tank-amphibian training units, or to regular aviation units, all within the United States.

MARKET TAKES SHARP PLUNGE

NEW YORK, Nov. 3. (AP)—More than $3,000,000,000 was chopped off the market value of all shares listed on the stock exchanges today.

The drop in prices was the severest since September 1946.

This was the first quick reaction by investors and speculators to a completely unexpected democratic victory.

Before the market opened selling orders piled up in brokerage offices from all over the country. Prices started to plunge a second after the trading bell first sounded.

Not until the final hour did any substantial support appear.

Closing prices, though, were still down 1 to around 6 points.

Some of the favorites which had spearheaded an October advance were among the most vulnerable to the selling pressure. They included steels, rails, oils, and motors.

Utility stocks, which had been edging toward the highest prices of the year, cracked with the others. They had been supported on the theory that a Republican administ[illegible] look with a little favor on the industry.

Volume p[illegible] 4,226,000 shares, the largest day's turnover since nearly 4,000,000 changed hands during mid-May's bull market.

The opening of a large number of the so-called pivotal shares was delayed for one to around four hours. Exchange spokesmen said this was almost without precedent.

General Motors broke the trading deadlock a few minutes after 11 o'clock when it first appeared on the ticker tape at a decline of 4¾ points. GM closed 5¼ lower at 62⅝.

In quick order these deals were reported: U. S. Steel, down 4 on a 15,000-share block; Westinghouse Electric, down 2¾ on 9,000 shares; Sears Roebuck, down 2¼ on 15,000 shares.

Among the hardest hit were U. S. Steel at 79¼, National Steel 106⅛, Youngstown Sheet 83½, Chrysler 97⅛, Studebaker 34½, Firestone Tire 45⅝, Caterpillar Tractor 53¼, Boeing 24⅛, Coca-Cola 14, American Telephone 152⅛, Electric Power & Light 21, General Electric 46, Dow Chemical 47⅝, Allied Chemical 183½, Philip Morris 38¾, Radio Corp. 12.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Nov. 3 (AP) — Cotton futures advanced as much as $2.50 a bale in early dealings today, influenced by the election results. A good part of the advance was later lost on hedging and profit taking. Considerable covering developed on the theory that the new Congress will continue friendly to agriculture and price support programs.

Cotton closed steady.

Grain

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Nov. 3 (AP) — Grains took the astonishing election news with a mild show of strength today. It was felt the result meant continuation of the long range price support program.

Prices were up around a cent at the opening, and this gain was increased slightly in later dealings. Commission houses and local traders bought. There appeared to be some covering by previous short sellers, particularly in the 1949 wheat contracts.

Wheat closed 1¼-2¾ higher, December $2.39-2.39⅜; corn was ¾-1¼ higher, December $1.38¼-⅜; oats were ⅛-½ higher, December 78¼.

Looking At Life

sown in the twenties turned into quite a satisfactory harvest of respectability and happiness.

A couple of weeks ago, while in New York, a white-haired lady rushed up to me. She looked as if she had seen better days.

"Erich!" she exclaimed and threw her arms around me.

"I am afraid you are mistaken. I don't know you," I replied. Then it dawned on me—the woman I once had loved! The woman who today might have been my divorced wife!

I thanked my lucky stars. And I apologize to my inquiring reader for not having answered her question.

San Antonio Man Loses Appeal To Escape Death For Slaying

By MAC ROY RASOR
Associated Press Staff Writer

AUSTIN, Nov. 3.—Dr. Lloyd I. Ross, San Antonio surgeon, today lost his appeal from his sentence to die in the electric chair.

The Court of Criminal Appeals refused to disturb the Fayette county trial court verdict that found Dr. Ross guilty of murder of Mrs. Gertrude York, one of four members of the York family he was charged with shooting to death with a rifle.

The appeal court said it found no reversible error in the trial court proceedings, overruling 70 points of error alleged in a 162-page brief filed with the court by Ross attorneys.

Defense Claimed Insanity

The physician's counsel had plead that Ross was insane when he fired on members of the Willard York family on Sunday morning, May 25, 1947, on a country lane in Comal county. The victims were on their way to church. The family consisted of Willard York, 39; his wife, Mrs. Gertrude York; their son John, 9; their daughter, Ann, 13; and York's 67-year-old mother, Mrs. Mary York. Only Ann escaped death in the shooting.

"The one controlling question in this case is whether or not the accused was so mentally deranged at the time of the commission of the alleged offense as to make him incapable of knowing the right from the wrong in the particular transaction, and that it was a thing he ought not to do," the Appeal Court said in its 11-page written opinion.

Had Surrendered To Police

"When we consider the testimony of the many witnesses for the state directly in conflict with much of that upon which appellant relies to establish his insanity, there could be no question that there is evidence to support the jury's finding," the opinion said.

Particularly attention was directed to the fact that Dr. Ross had returned to San Antonio after the shooting and surrendered to police.

"It would be singular that a man should do this in the absence of any realization of wrong doing," the court noted.

"The strongest conclusion which might be reached from the testimony of the great majority (of witnesses) was that he committed the offense under an irresistible impulse.

"It was not that he could not understand, but that he could not control his action. Under such facts he should be made to pay the penalty of the law, since the jury so decreed."

Model Plane Builders Club To Be Organized Here Today

A model airplane builder's club, sponsored by the Lubbock Jaycees, will be organized at 7 o'clock tonight at the Lubbock Boys club, Ave. K and Twenty-third.

Reagan Howell, chairman of the Jaycee aviation committee, is to be one of the chief instructors.

Wednesday night, Don Steele, "Shorty" Irvin, James Carpenter, Fred Salmon, and Howell demonstrated planes before 166 boys at the club house. A movie, "Below Zero," was shown, in addition to a sport short and an installment of a serial movie.

Hearing Continues On Demo Purge In State

FORT WORTH, Nov. 3. (AP)—The threatened purge of Democratic party officers was depicted in 67th district court today as a device which would enable left-wingers to wrest party and election machinery from the control of men who had been elected by the direct vote of the people.

E. C. Pannell, chairman of Precinct 116, and J. L. Gammill, chairman of Precinct 43, testified to that effect during the hearing on the injunction suit—sought by conservative Democrats — which would halt the purge and block other actions of the state convention held here on September 14.

The fourth day of the hearing found three of the principal complainants on the witness stand—Neville G. Penrose, Mrs. Bennett Smith, and William D. Morris. Penrose and Mrs. Smith were deposed as members of the State Executive committee and Morris was dropped as an elector nominee after the certified Tarrant county delegation was replaced by rump delegates who named Jack Carter, Mrs. J. W. Douglas and J. L. Thomas in their places.

If granted, the injunction would nullify the election of Carter, Mrs. Douglas and Thomas.

SUSPECT IS HELD

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., Nov. 3. (INS)—Eau Claire authorities said tonight that Marshall Johnson, 32, has admitted the double slaying of Raymond Smith, 18, and Gertrude Bauman, 17. Miss Bauman and Smith were found slain on the grounds of the Eau Claire golf course Oct. 23. The girl had been criminally assaulted.

Plans For Ticket Sales To Stage Play Here Are Pushed

The Lubbock 20-30 club discussed plans for ticket sales for the Hollywood production, "Voice of the Turtle," at its meeting Wednesday night at Lubbock hotel.

The 30 members in attendance decided that advance ticket sales to the Nov. 17 production to be given in Lubbock Senior High school auditorium would be handled with each individual member of the organization acting as salesman. All advance sales tickets are of the exchange type and may be traded for reserved seats three days before the presentation date. Regular reserved seat sales will begin at that time.

President Charles Nelson presided at the meeting.
