Two Men Killed As Texas-Pacific Train Explodes

Negro Held For Attack On Woman Near Sherman

Black Caught After Battle With Officers

Victim Is Tied To Bedposts And Attacked; Threatens Her Life With Shotgun To Subdue Her

No Violence Shown

Posse Traces Attacker And Engages In Battle With Him Before Capture; Heavy Guard Stationed

(By Associated Press)

SHERMAN, May 3.—Arrested after a running gun battle with pursuing officers, George Hughes, 41 year old negro, was in jail here tonight charged with criminal assault upon a young farm wife near Sherman. The negro was employed on the farm.

The attack occurred this afternoon while the woman and her small son were alone at the house. The frightened boy ran and hid in the barn when the negro, a double barrelled shot gun in his hands, entered the woman's kitchen and ordered her to throw up her hands.

She was tied to the bedposts and her hands secured with cord and wire. She manager to release herself and ran screaming to the nearest farmhouse, a half mile away, from where the alarm was given.

The negro was traced across a field, by a posse. He fired twice at the pursuing car, shattering the windshield and riddling the top with small buckshot. The negro was under a heavy guard at the county jail, although no threat of mob violence has been made.

Amarillo Has 43,094 People

Population Increases 177.7 Per Cent In Decade; Oil Area Cities Decrease By Several Thousand

(By Associated Press)

AMARILLO, May 3.—The population of the city of Amarillo was increased 177.5 per cent during the last decade, according to figures released by the census supervisor of this district today.

The figures showed a population for the city proper of 43,094, compared with 15,494 in 1920. The population for greater Amarillo was 45,878.

Oil Areas Show Decrease

ABILENE, May 3. (AP)—The itching feet of the oil field followers, lured from one black gold strike to another, was illustrated today in census returns from several West Texas sections which were the scenes of oil booms ten years ago.

Eastland reported a population this year of 4,641, shrinking 4,727 in the ten years. Ranger, now a city of 6,152 people, had more than 16,000 ten years ago. The population of Cisco, now 5,918, had fallen off 1,504.

On the other hand, Breckenridge, scene of a newer strike, had increased in population more than 400 per cent in the ten year period, boasting a population of 7,568, which was 5,713 more than in 1920.

Cross Plains, 1,503, increase 803; Gainesville, Cooke county, 6,913, increase 265; Rising Star, Eastland county, 1,153, increase 247; Gorman, Eastland county, 1,149, decrease 2,081; Desdemona, Eastland county, 609, decrease 2,389; Carbon, Eastland county, 463, decrease 278; Marshall, 16,190, increase 1,922 or 13.4 per cent.

CONSTRUCTION TO START

Material Unloaded Saturday For Highway Construction

Indicating that construction will start some time this week on paving of Highway 7, between Lubbock and Slaton, three carloads of material for preliminary work were unloaded Saturday in the latter city, it was announced last night.

The 15-mile paving project is to be completed within 180 days, according to contract.

J. W. Zempter Construction company, contractor, is now completing a project in Carson county.

Lady Mary Heath Wins Her Divorce

RENO, Nev., May 3. (AP)—On the ground of extreme cruelty, Lady Mary Heath, 31, above, aviatrix, was granted a divorce here today from Sir James Heath, 75, British iron master.

The decree went by default. Evidence was heard in the chambers of Judge Thomas F. Moran, disappointing a large crowd gathered in the court room. Among her allegations of cruelty Lady Heath said her aged husband was penurious.

Population Of Lubbock To Be Given Monday

Deadline For Enumeration In City Set For Monday Noon; Local Organizations Seek Complete Count Here

Lubbock's population, complete or incomplete, as will be seen by the eyes of millions all over the country for the next ten years, probably will be announced Monday afternoon, according to Dr. I. E. Barr, supervisor of the census for the seventh district.

Dead line for enumeration has been set at noon Monday and those who have not been enumerated by that time will not exist in the official count of the government.

Complete Count Sought

Avenue H Paving Plans Considered

Plans on the south Avenue H paving project will be completed next Thursday and the city commission will advertise for bids immediately following, according to an announcement made yesterday at a meeting of the commission in the city hall.

The body already has authorized the paving work and contract is expected to be let within ten days after completion of the plans.

With paving of the south end of Avenue H, an eye sore will be removed from that section of the city, members of the commission point out. The paving project is to include that portion of the avenue from the end of the present pavement to the intersection of the Denver railway tracks.

Several other matters were taken up in the meeting yesterday, none of them of major importance, however.

Hunt Continued For Billingsley's Slayer; Rewards Near $1000

Here, There And Everywhere With Associated Press

Funds Probe Coming

WASHINGTON, May 3. —(AP)—An investigation of funds contributed by E. C. Jameson, New York capitalist, to Bishop James Cannon, jr., of the Southern Methodist church, for the 1928 Anti-Smith campaign in Virginia, was determined upon today by the senate lobby committee.

Morrow To Open Race

WASHINGTON, May 3. —(AP)—Rejecting an opportunity to sit in the United States senate by appointment, Dwight W. Morrow announced that he would open his campaign for the republican senatorial nomination from New Jersey within the next 10 days with a view to entering the senate at the opening of the December session by election of the people.

LONDON, May 3. (AP)—Observers of the Indian situation tonight could not escape the impression of a decided stiffening of the government's attitude.

Pratt Named Chief

WASHINGTON, May 3. —(AP)—Appointment of Admiral William V. Pratt as chief of naval operations, effective October 14, upon the retirement of Admiral Charles F. Hughes was announced today by President Hoover.

Motions Filed

AUSTIN, May 3. (AP)—Preliminary to entering suit for recovery of the Cowden-Anderson, or Landreth Production company tract of 899 acres in Crane and Upton counties, by the University of Texas, special attorneys for the board of regents today filed motions in th Travis county district court to perpetuate testimony of John T. McElry of Grant county, New Mexico, and R. W. Cushman of Rankin county, Texas in the state's suit against the Oil Production company. In addition to recovery of the land, the state would claim 6,000,000 barels of oil said to have been taken from oil wells on the land.

Coutret Is Elected

WACO, May 3. (AP)—Henry Coutret of Corpus Christi was elected president and Dallas was selected as the 1931 convention city for the Texas junior chamber of commerce at its final business session here today.

New Service Scheduled

DALLAS, May 3. (AP)—Officials of the Western Air Express, who arrived here today from Los Angeles, tonight announced that tomorrow morning one day service between Dallas and Los Angeles would be instituted.

Dallas Gets Cloudburst

DALLAS, May 3. (AP)—More rain fell within one hour in Dallas tonight than fell here during the entire month of April. The downpour, of almost cloudburst proportions, flooded streets in sections of the city and highways leading to Dallas.

Automobiles were stalled on downtown streets here and the fire department was called upon to pump watr from the basements of several buildings.

Moody Posts $250, Brother $200, Lamesa $500

(Special To The Avalanche-Journal)

LAMESA, May 3.—With rewards amounting to nearly $1,000 offered for his apprehension, all of West Texas tonight was searching for a man wanted here for the fatal shooting of W. R. Billingsley, business man of Sparenberg, late Thursday.

Telegrams were sent to practically every police chief in Western Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma, giving a description of the suspect.

Moody Offers Reward.

Gov. Dan Moody has offered a reward of $250 for the apprehension of the man, J. O. Billingsley brother of the dead man, offers a personal reward of $200, while residents of Lamesa are offering $500.

Word of the offer of the governor came today. Billingsley made known his offer at the same time.

Newspapers, radio station officers, police and others are asked to aid in the man hunt.

The sheriff's department office today had uncovered several clues to the man they believe they want. He is about five feet, eight inches tall, weighs around 145 pounds and has a scar on his head that he claimed was from an automobile accident.

When last seen the man was with a woman, apparently about 30 years of age and red haired. They were accompanied by a girl about eight years old.

Car Described.

The party was last seen in a Model-A Ford roadster, painted grey, with a rumble seat and a trunk stowed in the seat. The front bumper was missing, the fenders are bent and the windshield cracked on both sides.

An Oklahoma license, number so far unknown, was on the car.

Officers here believe the man they want was responsible for the recent series of holdups in Breckenridge, Abilene and Anson.

This morning the sheriff was advised by a farmer in the rough area in Dawson county that a man answering the general description stopped at his place late Thursday

Hardy Warns On Home Brew

Man Arrested And 20 Gallons Destroyed Saturday; Eight Arrests Made In Ten Days; Slaton Man Held

After destroying 20 gallons of home brew and arresting W. J. Cookston, who resides at Broadway and Avenue A, Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, Sheriff Wade Hardy delivered an ultimatum to the manufacturers of the summer beverage, declaring that a strenuous battle will be waged against such illegal practice this season.

Cookston's arrest was the eighth within 10 days to be charged with violation of the prohibition laws in connection with manufacture of home brew.

Arrests Coming

"They are not going to get away with it this summer," said Sheriff Hardy. "We are using stringent measures to prevent making of the drink. If they continue to make it our department will record a great

Untenderable Cotton Proves Costly Error To Planters Of South Plains; Millions Forfeited Every Year

U. S. Gives Proof

Individual Farmer Is Short $300 Per Year, Figures Of Government Indicate; Hope Seen For Improvement

BY AL HILL
Avalanche-Journal Farm Editor

WITH ALL the differing contentions and viewpoints of farmers bankers, business men, ginners, cotton merchants and members of the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton association, regarding various phases of cooperative marketing, or of the agricultural marketing act and the Federal Farm Board, at least one thing has been discovered upon which all are of unanimous opinion.

This one thing is the penalty being paid by the South Plains because of the production throughout the area of entirely toi much untenable cotton.

Few, however, realize the full import of how great a penalty this section is actually paying, or of the large percentage of cotton that is untenderable because of short staple.

Figuring on the basis of producers selling their cotton on its grade and staple this past season, the South Plains has lost, merely because of

Clean Up Here In Final Week

Lubbock Citizens Are Urged To Make Banner Week With Closing Of Drive; Inspection Committees To Meet

As the second and last week of the Clean Up and Paint Up campaign swings into being tomorrow morning, officials of the campaign are urging that citizens of Lubbock make this week a banner one.

A meeting of inspection committees will be held on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock preparatory to the first inspection which is to be made on Tuesday. The final inspection will be made next Saturday when inspectors will make their reports to the judges and announcement of winners of awards will be made the first of next week.

Program for the week follows:

Monday—fire prevention day. Citizens are urged to clean out basements and attics and rid them of all rubbish, greasy rags and papers.

Tuesday—front yard day. Cut lawns, prepare gardens and flower beds for planting, clean walks and gutters.

Wednesday—flower bed day. Dig weeds, exchange plants, plant flower beds and trim shrubbery.

Thursday—paint day. Paint and brighten up inside and outporches, fences, woodwork, screens and porch chairs.

Friday—backyard day. Clean alleys, repair fences and sheds and screen garbage cans.

Saturday—vacant lot day. Residents and property owners are asked to clear all vacant premises of the city of tin cans, paper and dead weeds.

All rubbish to be hauled away should be placed in garbage cans in alleys and city trucks will call for them. In case of tree trimmings one large pile should be made in each block to save time for the trucks in making only one stop.

STRAW HATS RAIN DOWN

Three Dozen Top Pieces Are Dropped From Plane

Fashion devotees picked thirty-six straw hats out of the air here Saturday afternoon shortly after 1 o'clock, when that number of lids were dropped by an airplane under sponsorship of Lubbock merchants.

The plane, owned by L. H. Plain of Lubbock, was piloted by L. P. Quinn.

After circling over the mercantile district of the city, the ship was lowered to an altitude of about 1,000 feet, from where the hats were dropped to throngs in the streets below.

Million-Dollar Libel Suit Turns Political Eyes of U. S. to Texas

FEDERAL COURT HOUSE at BROWNSVILLE, TEXAS, where the SUIT will be HEARD

(By Central Press)

BROWNSVILLE, May 3.—Federal patronage in Texas, so scathingly denounced by Senator Smith W. Brookhart of the congressional committee investigating patronage in the south, will come up for an airing in United States district court here tomorrow.

The occasion will be the suit of R. B. Creager, Republican national committeeman of Texas and arch foe of Brookhart, against Collier's magazine for $1,000,000 damages allegedly incurred in two articles carried in that publication last year. It is considered by far the largest libel suit ever filed in Texas.

Blames Creager

The articles, written by Owen P. White, himself a Texan, in regard to the handling of federal patronage in Texas, attributing this to Creager, the party's titular head in the state.

Attention of Republicans in Texas is centered in the suit for two reasons: Upon its outcome will depend what course Brookhart probably will be able to pursue in pushing his charges further; it is important, too, because of the personal fight between Creager and Congressman Harry Wurzbach, the only Republican in the Texas congressional delegation.

The Creager-Wurzbach differences are attributed to the patronage situation. Wurzbach publicly let it be known that, as the party's only congressman from Texas, he is entitled to at least a part of the patronage control.

Differences Sharpened

Wurzbach's recent success in having dismissed indictments against him charging illegal campaign practices, which he asserts were fostered by Creager, and his victory over Augustus McCloskey, Democrat, for his old seat in congress, have sharpened the Creager-Wurzbach differences. McCloskey's election was certified, but afer a hearing that dragged for weeks, he gave up the office.

President Hoover last year publicly gave the Creager group a clean bill of health. It was Creager who placed in nomination Warren G. Harding for the presidency. He seconded the nomination of President Hoover.

YOUTH IS NEARING GOAL

Frank Goldsborough Forced Down Due To Weather

COLTON, Calif., May 3. —(AP)—Frank Goldsborough, 19, flier of Jackson Heights, N. Y., halted temporarily in his record breaking junior trans-continental dash today because of heavy rain storms.

The youthful aviator, son of Bryce Goldsborough, pilot of the ill-fated trans-Atlantic plane "Dawn," attempted this morning to fly the remanng 40 miles of his cross country flight from Westfield, N. J., to Los Angeles, but rain forced him to return to his bean field landing place. He has clipped about 15 hours from the 48 hour record set by Dick James, and with but a half hour flight ahead of him, it seems assured that only a disabling accident can keep Goldsborough from cutting more than 14 hours from the present record.

Blast Hurtles 50-Ton Boiler For 300 Feet

Both Victims Are Hurled 50 To 75 Feet After Being Scalded To Death; Boiler Bounces 100 Feet Further

Cause Is Unknown

Boiler Falls Within 100 Feet Of Farmer's House; Practically Every Bone In Man's Body Broken

(By Associated Press)

FORT WORTH, May 3.—Claude Gremm, 50, engineer and J. W. Wade, fireman, were killed when the boiler of locomotive No. 324, pulling southbound Texas and Pacific local freight train, exploded two miles north of Keller this afternoon. Gremm lived in Fort Worth, Wade's home is in Bonham.

The bodies, scalded, were picked up on the highway, about 50 or 75 feet away.

Brakemen Unhurt

Two brakemen, G. G. Weidman, Fort Worth and H. L. Turner, Bonham, riding on the second car back from the locomotive were knocked to the ground but were unhurt.

The 50-ton boiler was hurtled 300 feet away. It tore a hole in the ground about four feet deep when it struck, then bounced 100 feet further before it stopped.

The time of the explosion was fixed at 1:10 p. m. because Wade's watch had stopped at that hour. Gremm's watch still was running

Temple Wins State Debates

Both Teams Carry Off First Places; Lubbock Girl Wins Third Place In Typing; Record Is Broken

(By Associated Press)

AUSTIN, May 3.—Temple High school won the girls' state debating championship today when Beatrice Young and Louise Harper defeated Roberta Hollingsworth and Mary Joe Durning of Sherman, in the state interscholastic league meet. The winners had the affirmative side of the question, "Resolved, that the Sterling plan of financing a state highway system in Texas should be adopted."

The Temple debate team of Billy Hall and Valter Brindley defeated the Ranger team of Richard Rudolph and Erasmos Lozano to win the boys' debate, four to one. Temple upheld the negative of the Sterling plan question.

Other results:

Declamation contest high school boys: Avery Downing, Hallsville, first; Conrad Newton, Dawson, second; Lenore Hill, Amarillo, third; declamation contest for girls: Benona Lee Cantrell, Breckenridge (San Antonio), first; Margaret Bone, Wichita Falls, second; declamation contest for rural boys: Edwin Smith, Hagerman, winner;

Powerful Acting Of Freiburg Players Proves Hit In Final Presentation Of Passion Play Saturday

BEFORE a disappointingly small crowd, the greatest of all stories—the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ—was successfully presented for a final time at the Tech gymnasium last night through the medium of sheer drama of powerful acting and gestures by the Freiburg Passion players.

Spoken entirely in German the poignant drama was put across forcefully to a responsive audience of about a thousand persons, despite the fact that very few understood the spoken lines.

Adolf Passnacht as The Christus, Willi Ehrhardt as Judas and Elas Passnacht as Mary, the mother of Jesus were superb, enacting their roles with such reality as to give a vivid cross section of Biblical times.

The soft, resonant voice of the Christus seemed to cast a spell over the audience, which automatically became intensely silent as he spoke. Passnacht's portrayal was backed by his inheritance of seven generations in the same part.

The acting of Judas, also was one of the outstanding hits of the evening.

Last night's performance was considerably smoother than the two previous ones here Friday night and Saturday afternoon. Parts of the Passion play, including the solo of Adolf Passnacht, were omitted last night.

Play Given Approval

Despite the fact the production was given under many handicaps in the college gymnasium, it was given the unqualified approval of Lubbock audiences. A local chorus, orchestra and Tech college co-eds aided in the performance.

From the opening tableaux of the eviction of Adam and Eve from the Garden of Eden followed by the glorification of the Cross, the audience was carried through the eventful history of the life of Christ, including His triumphant entry to

Big Spring Farmer Is Shot to Death Late Saturday Culminating Quarrel Of Several Months; Contractor Held

(By Associated Press)

BIG SPRING, May 3.—Culminating a quarrel of several months standing, Ray Jones, farmer, was shot and fatally wounded here late today. C. C. Chambers, a dirt contractor, was charged with assault to murder.

The charge was filed before Jones died tonight and had not been changed at a late hour.

Chambers surrendered after the shooting. Before he died, Jones made a statement to the district attorney.

The men were said to have had differences several months ago over some dogs.

The grand jury, meeting Monday, was expected to take up the charge against Chambers, who came here several months ago from Colorado, Texas.

U.S. Chamber Of Commerce Action Said Not Typical

Fight On Federal Farm Board To Receive No Encouragement From Lubbock's Organization

Success Of Agricultural Aid Plan May Be Retarded, Think Some, But Government Is In To Succeed

Avalanche-Journal Farm Editor

Action taken by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, by passage of a resolution requesting Congress to take much of the power from the Federal Farm Board, was not unlooked for by those in close contact with national affairs. Such action, however, does not represent the will of chambers of commerce throughout the nation, as is evidenced by resolutions prepared for presentation before the annual convention of the West Texas chamber of commerce to be held at Abilene this month, and which is bended to endorse the farm board.

Nevertheless, the Washington meeting of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, has brought about animated conjectures among those favoring or opposed to action taken there.

Referendum In 1928

In October, 1928, a national referendum was had by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, upon the report of that organization's special committee on agriculture. Results of this vote show 2,816 in favor, and 117 opposed, to section 4 of this report, which read as follows:

"The Committee recommends that cooperative marketing of agricultural products should be supported and that producers of agricultural commodities should be encouraged to form cooperative marketing associations along sound economic lines."

Favored Farm Board

Section 6, of this report, having to do with creation of the Federal Farm Board, received a vote of 2,322 1-2 favorable and 577 1-2 opposed. It reads as follows:

"The committee recommends that a Federal Farm Board be created, the members to be appointed by the President of the United States, and be charged in considering the problems peculiar to agriculture and submitting its conclusions and recommendations to Congress from time to time."

Legge Is Quoted

Commenting upon the above action of referendum, Chairman Alexander Legge of the Federal Farm Board, in his speech before the Washington convention told members of the U. S. chamber of commerce:

"Perhaps I should mention that fact that, while your national organization did adopt a policy of silence when Congress was framing the Agricultural Marketing Act, spokesmen of some of your member organizations appeared before the house committee on agriculture and indorsed the principles of that legislation.

"One might find much justification in the statement that your attitude generally has been one of indifference if indeed not of antagonism; that you regarded the farm problem like the poor as something we have with us always' and that you who are more fortunately situated, discussed it much along the same lines as the ladies are apt to refer to the household help question—something that had to be endured if one was to avoid having to do the work oneself.

Action For Farmer Needed

"It is true that there have been many public expressions of sympathy and feeling for the farmer, but let us be certain that in giving expression to this feeling that our hand reaches for the dollar in our own pocket and not the penny in his."

In final analysis some seem to think that this is the beginning of a very extended fight between the Farm Board and the U. S. chamber. Congress will be the setting and the farmers of the nation will be the football. Others contend the power given to the Farm Board will never be taken from them unless more influence is exerted upon members of Congress by business interests opposed to farm aid than is exerted by the farmers themselves.

President Lubbock Body Talks

R. J. Murray, president of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce and Board of City Development, states:

"I predicted to members of our board, when we first became interested in securing a district office and concentration point of the Texas Cotton Cooperative association, for this section of the state, that the United States Chamber of Commerce would come out against the Federal Farm Board and fight it bitterly. Therefore, I am not the least bit surprised at their action.

Believes Government Means It

"It is my opinion that the government is back of the farmer in a plan to make him more prosperous and to place him on a parity with other industries of the United States, to the bitter end. No doubt enough influence will be brought to bear on plans to help the farmer that will retard the successful operation of the law, but will not defeat its purpose to help agriculture.

"It is possible this will be a political issue in 1932, at which time the south and west should join hands to clean house politically and place in power an administration in sympathy with giving the agricultural situation as square a deal as the government is giving to other industries.

"I am for the farmer and propose to help carry on to a successful conclusion the operation of the Agricultural Marketing Act.

"It is my belief that the action of the United States Chamber of Commerce will have no effect on the local situation, because our general prosperity depends absolutely upon the financial condition of the farmer and, it would be, in my opinion, a mad policy indeed to cooperate with any organization that might have detrimental influence upon our local prosperity."

Tractor, Combine Manufactures Showing Increase

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 3.—The bureau of the census announces that, according to returns received to date in the annual canvass of manufacturers of farm equipment, the total production of tractors in 1929 amounted to 221,200, valued at $193,324,000; of combines (harvester-threshers), 35,800, valued at $45,263,000; and of threshers, 14,500, valued at $11,800,000. Of the tractors, 194,300, valued at $140,204,000, were of the wheeled type and 26,900, valued at $53,120,000, of the track-laying type. These figures, as compared with those of 1928, represent substantial increases for tractors and combines, but the production and sale of threshers show decreases.

The statistics for 1929 are preliminary and are subject to such correction as may be found necessary after further examination of the returns. They are based to a small extent on estimated data, but in no case do these estimates exceed 10 per cent of the total.

Goat Pedigrees Kept With Care

ROCK SPRINGS, Texas, May 3. (AP)—Records of 140,000 Angora goats are filed in a one-room office in this Texas town.

A vigilant watch is kept over the Angora herds of the continent to see that none enters the ranks of the elect without unimpeachable records. Thorough examination of the animal's history is made before the records are admitted to the files of the American Goat Breeders association.

Eighty per cent of all registered Angoras are in Texas.

200 Help To Gather Radish King's Crop

MUSKOGEE, Okla, May 3. (AP)—The radish harvest is on.

Dayne Mayes, hailed the "radish king" of the state, expects to ship 30 carloads of the vegetables this year. On the first day of picking recently 200 men, women and children filled three freight cars.

The Mayes farm is six miles northeast of here in the rich valley land at the conjunction of the Grand and Arkansas river. Mayes has 100 acres planted in radishes.

During the last five years Mayes has built his radish "plantation" from a small plot to one of the largest of such farms in the southwest. He started without any previous agricultural experience or training and has devoted his time exclusively to the study and growing of radishes.

Cow Gives Milk To Supply 35 Children

RALEIGH, N. C., May 3. —(AP)—Milk enough to supply 35 children with their "pint a day" for a whole year is the record of North Carolina's champion three-year-old Guernsey.

This cow, Grape Lawn Fairy Lady, broke all state records for her class by producing 10,859 pounds of milk and 604.8 pounds of butterfat in 365 days.

Another record started before Fairy Lady was old enough to enter another class gives her a production of 13,808 pounds of milk and 768.3 pounds of butterfat, which, when it becomes official, will make her not only state Guernsey champion, but champion of all breeds.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Barringer have returned to their home in Amarillo after a visit to relatives and friends here.

Personals

Rev. and Mrs. D. B. Doak and children spent Saturday morning in Lubbock visiting relatives. Rev. Doak read the ceremony at the wedding of Miss Cymbol Patterson and John M. Teague, jr.

Mrs. Rusha Smith of Amarillo and Mrs. Thelma Gunn of Canyon have been visiting here as the guests of Mrs. John T. Pace, 2123 17th street.

Mrs. O. C. Moore and children, Geraldine and O. C. Jr., of this city, left Friday evening for Dallas and Longview where they will visit for four weeks.

Robert Anderson of Needles, Calif., is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Will G. Smith, 1904 27th street. Anderson is Mrs. Smith's brother.

Misses Loula Denham and Gladys Franklin are spending the week-end as the guests of Misses Modelle Simpon and Evelyn Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn Edelmon of Plainview visited friends here yesterday. They are former residents of this city.

To Make Paper Of Wheat, Flax Straw

WASHINGTON, May 3. —(AP)—Paper is to be made in Argentina from wheat and flax straws.

A plant, which is to be erected soon near Rosario, will have an initial output of 9,000 tons annually with activities centered around the manufacture of book and writing paper and wall paper.

It is believed no attempt will be made to manufacture newsprint, as this class of paper enters Argentina free of duty at a cost regarded as too low to meet.

Rotarians Offer Jobs for Scouts

The Brownfield Rotary club and American Legion post are planning to furnish all Boy Scouts of that city with jobs in order that they will be enabled to pay their expenses at the annual Boy Scout camp of the South Plains Area council, to be held at Post June 30 to July 20.

Complete plans have not been made by the organization for employing all of the boys but will be within the near future, according to an announcement received here by the area council headquarters.

George Eaton, of this city, deputy scout commissioner, attended a meeting Friday night of troop No. 45 at Brownfield. Plans were discussed at the meeting for the organization of a Boy Scout band in that city. Efforts will be made to enlist approximately 40 members.

ELLWOOD SELLS LAND

650 Acres Bought By Quanah Man For $26,760

W. L. Ellwood, extensive land owner, has sold six hundred and fifty acres of land in Lubbock and Hockley counties to F. L. Milligan, of Quanah, for a consideration of $26,760.

Mr. Milligan plans to move to the purchased tract, which is now uncultivated, and will soon start breaking the land.

The section is located 16 miles west of Lubbock, 584 acres being in Hockley county and 66 acres in this county.

This sale represent but one of many transacted during the last two years, in which thousands of acres of Hockley county ranch land has been put under the plow.

Misses Willette Waters, Crystelle Boone and Sue Bryan are to return this week from Dallas and Fort Worth where they have been visiting for several days.

Mrs. Lon A. Robinson and daughter of Plainview are visiting in Lubbock as the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Young, 1508 Avenue O. Mrs. Robinson attended the presentation of the Freiburg Passion play at the college gymnasium.

Miss Lucille Lilljedhl represented the Epworth League of the Asbury Methodist church at the Lubbock district assembly meeting in Amherst Saturday. The meeting opened Friday evening and closed yesterday afternoon.

Miss Jennie Robison, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. G. D. Robison, 1907 10th street, has recently been elected to teach English in the junior high school at Plainview. Miss Robison will receive a bachelor of arts degree from Texas Technological college this month.

CANDIES for MOTHERS' DAY

Sunday, May 11th, is Mother's Day—that one day in the year, above all others, when we express our undying love for the dear one who so unselfishly gives all and expects nothing in return. Money can never repay your Mother for the wealth of love she has showered on you. Love alone can repay for love.

Since the days when lovers first trod the courting paths bearing tokens of affection to their sweethearts, candy has spoken the the universal mesage of love.

What a loving message will be conveyed to your Mother by the floral-decorated, silken gift package of Artstyle Chocolates.

Just as candy is dear to the heart of every woman, so, too, is silk. The Artstyle Silk Mother's Day package is covered on top and sides with real silk, as exquisitely decorated as though painted by hand.

Attached to the cellophane-wrapped, silk-bound package is an eloquent tribute to Mother, written by a poet of note.

The wonderfully balanced assortment of chocolates inside is in perfect keeping with the unusual beauty of the outside design . . . no better candy can be made.

You may obtain the Artstyle Silk Mother's Day package, only at our store, in a sense it is a shame to mention price in connection with such a beautiful creation, as it seems to us the package is priceless.

BUT WE HAVE THE PRIVILEGE OF OFFERING THIS BOX WITH ITS SILK-COVERED AND MANY COLORED DESIGN IN ONE, TWO AND THREE POUND ASSORTMENTS AT ONLY ONE DOLLAR AND A HALF A POUND.

You will probably want a package mailed or personally delivered to Mother on time. We suggest that you call in this week, leave your order with us and we will attend to packing and mailing or delivering same for you.

However, if you do not care for candy, we have perfume, stationery, leather goods and many other articles that will make suitable gifts and as usual we have the largest and most complete stock of greeting cards for the occasion.

Tech Pageant, Ag Fair Not To Be Given

Conflicting Dates Prevent Two Popular Events On College Calendar; Funds Cut The Pageant Presentation

Considerable disappointment has been caused both the student body of Texas Tech college and the public at large due to circumstances making it impossible to hold either the annual spring pageant or the Aggie fair this year, according to Dr. Paul W. Horn, president of the college.

The pageant, in which a great number of students take part each year, is written and held under the direction of members of the speech department. It will not be held this spring because of curtailed appropriations for expenses of the institution.

Conflicting dates on the college calendar prevented holding of the Aggie fair which is a feature event of the year under the direction of the school of agriculture.

Anton Retains School Staff

All Twelve Teachers Are To Be Back; Town Boasts Of Record; Shallowater's Teachers Elected

(By Staff Correspondent)

ANTON, May 3.—Twelve teachers, elected for the 1930-1931 school year of the Anton school system, have accepted, C. J. Williams, superintendent, said today.

"We are glad to announce that all of our teachers have accepted the contract," Mr. Williams said, "I do not think there are very many towns this size, or even larger, that can show that record."

Members of the faculty for the coming year will be: C. J. Williams, superintendent and teachers of mathematics in the high school; E. E. Hancock, principal of the high school and civics instructor; Anna [illegible] Spanish and English; Clifton Osborn, Science and English.

Junior high school: Fred A. Dewey, principal; Mrs. Carolyn Grubb; Corriene Overstreet.

Grades: Mercedes Allen, fourth grade; Gertrude Burleson, third grade; Velma Hancock, second grade; Sarah Harland, second grade and some primer work; Mary Frances Askew, first grade and some primer work.

Enrollment Is 400

The entire system has an enrollment in excess of 400. There are 75 in the high school, as follows: graduating class, eight; junior class, 16; sophomore, 25; freshman class, 26.

In the grades the enrollment is as follows: first, 80; second, 77; third, 41; fourth, 44; fifth, 44; sixth, 31, and seventh, 28; total 343.

Six school buses transport between 80 and 85 percent of the student body to and from their homes.

To Get Another Bus

It is planned to have another bus for use at the beginning of the coming school year.

The temporary Anton school building was first opened for school work in February, 1925 with an enrollment of 75 and two teachers. There were eight grades of instruction given and school was held in a church.

The present brick structure was completed in March, 1926. It has 15 class rooms, an auditorium seating around 500 people; a study hall, gymnasium and office.

Eighty sections comprise the school district proper.

Shallowater's Staff Named For Year

(By Staff Correspondent)

SHALLOWATER, May 3.—All of the teachers of the Shallowater schools for the coming year have been elected and have accepted their places, R. L. Hooten, superintendent, announced today.

Teachers are:

High school, M. F. Stephens, B. S. graduate of Texas Tech, principal; A. F. Rasor, A. B. history and social science; Mrs. A. F. Rasor, English and Spanish.

Grades: Miss Lena Maserang, Denton, fifth and sixth grades; Miss Theresa Lawrence, Texas Woman's college, Fort Worth, third and fourth; Mrs. R. L. Hooten, Denton T. C., first and second.

Shallowater Will Graduate Fourteen

(By Staff Correspondent)

SHALLOWATER, May 3.—Nine boys and five girls will comprise the 1930 graduating class of Shallowater High school, R. L. Hooten, superintendent, announced today.

Members of the class are: girls, Dessie Ray, Alice Ellard, Elsie Bell, Waurni Brewster, Glenna Calley; boys, Lyle Copeland, W. R. Brewster, Lester Arnold, Carl Capp, Bedford Marr, Jim Marr, Harold Smalley, Hovel Smalley and Harold Reynolds.

There are 64 students in the high school, the same number that started at the beginning of the school year. "Each class started last fall with 16 students," Superintendent Hooten said. "There have been a number of changes in the enrollment this year."

By a coincidence there are 32 boys and 32 girls in the school.

Class enrollment is as follows:

	boys	girls	total
Senior,	9	5	14
Junior,	3	9	17
Sophomore,	6	8	14
Freshman,	9	10	19
Totals	32	32	64

Houston's San Jacinto High Wins State Track Meet

IN THE REALM OF SPORT

WITH ALLAN CARNEY
Avalanche Sports Editor

Coach Froggie Lovvorn at Ralls started something last Thursday that will mean something to Texas Tech if other high school athletic directors of the Plains area fall in line.

At the invitation of Coach Lovvorn, Pete Cawthon, the new Matador mentor, and Jack Durham, Tech captain-elect, met some 50 Ralls High school athletes, many of whom will graduate this month. Others in the group will be ready to enter college within a year or so. The chief purpose of the session was to point out to the Crosby county lads the advantages of attending college in West Texas, especially at a state institution closeby to the home town.

Coach Lovvorn, himself, not only advised his Jackrabbits to attend school in Lubbock, but Cawthon outlined his plans for the school's athletic department, pointing out what is in store for the Plains athletes who enroll here within the next few years. It was a real opportunity for the Tech commander and other high schools of this section will do well to offer the same sort of co-operation.

This happens not to be a Texas Tech bulletin, but the reasons for West Texans attending the college here are too numerous to mention in detail. From the viewpoint of this department, athletes of the Plains owe their allegiance first to a West Texas institution. If Texas Tech were to draw just the cream of the high school stars from this part of the state, the school's teams would be able to hold their own with the best in the southwest. By attending a college close-by, the athletes of the section would be able to play on through where their home town admirers could see them in action, not to mention the convenience of visiting at home over the week-ends.

Coach Cawthon plans to stage an extensive visiting campaign during the coming summer months in an effort to encourage high school athletes of the surrounding section to enter Tech instead of going to one of the down-state schools. After all, it takes material to produce winning teams, and the Tech mentor has set out to make conditions so attractive at Matador headquarters that the prospective varsity players will come here of their own accord. All of which brings us to the fact that the institution here will not reach its deserved position in the realm of athletics until the fans of this section start thinking along this line. Capable performers from other parts of the state cannot be expected to come here if we fail to draw the "native sons."

If Cawthon is not successful in drawing a promising array of stars to Tech, it will not be because he is not putting out the effort. He has already traveled throughout the length and breadth of the state in search of future varsity material and will travel many more miles before fall training season opens in September. Saturday he was in Austin, lining up prospective Matadors. At the state meet were some of the outstanding athletes in the state and it will not be at all surprising to see a number of down-state stars enter school here next fall.

Unless another rainstorm interferes, the Crosbyton all-stars will be in Lubbock this afternoon to meet the local diamond artists at Merrill Park. Cancellation of the contest here Friday with the barnstorming House of David aggregation caused considerable disappointment in local baseball circles. In spite of the muddy condition of the roads leading into the city, fans were on hand from all parts of the South Plains area to witness the contest. The long-whiskered crew is due in Littlefield tomorrow afternoon for an exhibition engagement. Manager Thorpe telephones that his club will be there if it is at all possible to reach there over the roads.

Even in baseball there is constant reform. The "murderers row" the Detroit Tigers boasted of last season has turned out to be just a group of amiable, law-abiding citizens this year.

There is still a raft of old-timers who contend that the world champion Athletics cannot be rated as a "great" team. Among these is Harry David, who was the predecessor of Stuffy McInnis at first base on Connie Mack's famous old machine. Davis is around the parks enough to know something about the current situation. He says:

"The A's are a good team; I'll admit that much. But they still have to show me something. For one thing they don't play such smart baseball, except for Mickey Cochrane. There is a catcher. If you ask me, I say he knows more than all the rest of the club put together, outside of Connie, of course, and Eddie Collins. There's the brains of the club.

"Al Simmons is the best all-around hitter on the team; one of the best in the game. Foxx hits 'em far but not so often. Haas is still young but improving. Miller and Dykes are getting old. You can't compare the infield of today with that of Mack's old team."

Lubbock County Club sends a delegation of at least fourteen golfers to Post today to meet Quails-Sampson et al delegation in a return engagement at the Garza county capital.

Seven matches will be played and the pairings will be made after the Lubbock team arrives at the scene of the contest. The locals will leave early today, arriving at Post in time to start the morning round by 9:30 o'clock.

The Lubbock team is made up of the following:

Joe Dick Slaughter, Ross McWhorter, V. O. Jennings, Don Mitchell, Howell Arnett, W. B. Powell, Clinton Bussey, Bill Yager, John Jarrott, Oscar Lykes, Bud Roberds, L. H. Quinn, O. W. English and W. D. Girand, sr.

Slaughter has been named to direct pairings.

BROWNSVILLE WINS

Mexican "Good Will Golfers" Lose To American Team

BROWNSVILLE, May 3. (AP)— Brownsville and Monterrey, Mexico, golfers apparently play the better games on their home courses. Brownsville today defeated a troop of "good will" linksters from Monterrey. Recently Monterrey defeated a group from Brownsville playing on Mexican territory.

Andy Kerr, canny football coach at Colgate, got his start as an obscure high school coach in Johnstown, Pa., where he taught mathematics and tutored the football, basketball and track teams on the side.

Giants And Pirates Tie Up In National; Sens Cling To Lead

Bengals Lose To Athletics

Al. Simmons Slaps Two-Base Drive To Put Champs Over Against Tigers; Cochrane Clubs First Homer

(By Associated Press)

PHILADELPHIA, May 3. — The Philadelphia Athletics fought an up-hill battle to win their third game in a row from the Detroit Tigers before a crowd of 18,000 here today 6 to 5. The world's champions won on Al Simmons' double that drove in two runs in the ninth.

The Mackmen started to wipe out a 5 to 2 lead in the sixth, when they scored one run. In the eighth, Jimmy Foxx hit his third home run of the season over the roof of the left field pavilion, cutting the visitors' lead to one tally.

Carroll Weakens

Owen Carroll, who was hit in the ninth inning, had the better of George Earnshaw over the first five innings but lost his effectiveness as the Mack hurler began to find his. Earnshaw held Detroit hitless in the last four innings, striking out seven and retiring the enemy in order.

Mickey Cochrane hit his first home run of the season with one on base in the first inning. In the fifth round, Marty McManus clubbed a homer.

Odd Game Of Three-Ply Set Goes To Boston As Former Mates Drive Grimes From Pitching Hillock

(By Associated Press)

PITTSBURGH, May 3. — Boston made it two out of three for the series from Pittsburgh today, winning the odd game, 12 to 7.

Burleigh Grimes, veteran spitball pitcher who went to Boston from Pittsburgh just before the season opened, started for the Braves but was driven from the mound in the first inning when the Bucs scored four runs without a man retired.

It all happened after Boston had given Grimes a five-run lead. Cunningham, who succeeded Burleigh, pitched good ball.

Shooting With Denny Shute

By DENNY SHUTE

I wonder if you have played enough golf yet this season to get to the point where a tip on overswinging will be of any help.

A lot of players start out a season by determining they're going to get some place and, consequently, think the best way to do it is to put all they have into every shot.

This is exactly the wrong way to bring out good golf.

Golf, actually, is a lazy man's game. The hardest thing about it is walking around the course. The actual making of shots should take hardly any exertion at all.

GREATER DISTANCE AND ACCURACY COMES WITH AN EASY SWING.

Ease Up On Swing

Instead of whaling the daylights out of the poor little ball, determine to hit it easy. You'll be surprised to see how far it will go and how straight, too.

The reason is that when you put a lot of steam into a shot you lose all co-ordination. Also you are inclined to sway. That's the thing that looking up causes. It simply means your head has ceased to be the axis around your swing.

The point I started to dwell on, however, was in easing up. If your partner knocks the tar out of the ball, don't try to put your back in it to outdrive him. Decide you're going to hit it a little easier than usual. And you'll co-ordinate, which is what makes distance and direction.

PLAY AT LITTLEFIELD

House Of David Nine Appears There Tomorrow

LITTLEFIELD, May 3.—One of the fastest baseball games of the season is on the boards for Monday, May 5, when the House of David baseball team, now on its 15th annual tour, will appear here.

O'DONNELL, May 3. — Lefty Stephens, who has been playing with the Roswell baseball team this year, is being looked over by scouts from the Texas League, according to reports here. He is expected to sign up soon.

For several years Lefty was one of the outstanding pitchers on the O'Donnell team.

San Angelo Is Second, With Hereford Third; Records Go Glimmering In Three Events

Russell, Hereford High Star, Smashes 100-Yard Mark And Ties Record In 220 Gallop; Discus And Low Hurdles Marks Beaten; Abilene Boys Win Tennis Doubles

AUSTIN, May 3.—San Jacinto high school of Houston won the 1930 track and field meet of the Texas Interscholastic league here this afternoon by rolling up a total of 15 points.

San Angelo was second with 12; Hereford third with 10; Harlandale High school of San Antonio, fourth with 8 and Smithville, fifth with 6.

Three Interscholastic league records were broken and one tied in what officials termed one of the best high school track meets ever staged in Texas.

Hereford Boy Shines

Russell, of Hereford, bettered the league record in the 100-yard dash when he clipped two-tenths of a second from the former mark to run the century in 9.8 seconds. He also tied the league record in the 220-yard dash with the time of 21.6 seconds.

Abolwich, of Greenville, broke the record in the 220-yard low hurdles when he negotiated the distance in 24 seconds, four-tenths of a second under the previous mark.

Discus Mark Falls

Betty, of Kaufman, was the third man to enter the record breaking group when he hurled the discus 141 feet, 9 inches, bettering the former mark by two feet and six inches.

Leo Brady and Francis Moore, of Abilene, today were crowned scholastic doubles tennis champions of the state when they defeated Ransell and Frankie Nicholson of Franklin in the finals. The scores: 6-3, 3-6, 6-6, 6-3, 6-2.

Emily Reichert of Main Avenue High school, San Antonio, won the girls singles tennis championship by defeating Clara Lane of Teague in straight sets, 6-4, 6-4.

Masonic Girls Win

Laverne Stages and Alva Mae Craig of the Fort Worth Masonic home captured the girls doubles tennis title by defeating Hilda Curtus and Edna Lee Platt of Pharr-San Juan.

W. Hess, of Fort Worth Central High school, defeated Leo Brady of Abilene for the state championship in boys tennis singles. Hess won the first three sets, 6-2, 7-5, 6-3.

Harry Roberts of Friendship Kaufman county, won the track pentathlon with 20 points for the second consecutive time. Roberts took first in the high jump, broad jump, and shot put and placed second in the hop, step and jump and third in the 100-yard dash.

Summary:

Plainsman Hurls Challenge To All Comers In Big Beginner's Match

Qualifying play started last week in Lubbock's first annual inter-club golf tournament, members of the Rotary, Lions, Kiwanis and A. B. C. organizations turning in scores at both the Meadowbrook and the Lubbock Country clubs.

Teams representing each of the four civic clubs will be picked according to the qualifying scores and match play will begin just as soon as the teams are made up. The tournament will likely be held at one of the local links, since dividing the play would cause additional expense and time for those in charge.

A challenge to "any and all comers who have no previous golf experience" has been issued by The Plainsman, local newspaper columnist and member of the Lubbock Rotary club. The Plainsman prefers to meet Dr. Paul W. Horn, president of Texas Tech in this special match but the college head is not likely to accept the challenge. He was recently heard to say, "I have never played golf because I've always heard that the game is for rich men, old men and fat men—and I'm neither of the three."

The only requirement in this contest of beginners is that regulation "gawf" pants be worn.

Texas Aggies Will Be Hosts To Conference

Annual Southwest Track And Field Meet Set For May 9 And 10 At College Station; Sprint Stars Feature

COLLEGE STATION, May 3.— With participation by what is probably the most outstanding aggregation of stars in the history of the conference, several of whom have already gained national prominence by their feats on the track and in the field, the annual Southwest conference track and field meet at Kyle field, Friday and Saturday, May 9-10, promises to be fraught with interest not only for fans of the Southwest but for track fans of the country at large.

Heading the list of stars who have won national recognition will be Cy Leland, Flying Frog from T. C. U., and Claude Bracey, Rice Owl flash, whose sensational records in the 100 and 220-yard dashes this year and last have overshadowed the performances of other stars in the conference and have placed them at the head of the contenders for national sprint honors this season. With both Leland and Bracey in the meet, national and world records as well as conference records will be endangered. Leland a few days ago was clocked at 9.4 seconds in the 100 and Bracey is a consistent performer at round 9.6.

Other conference stars whose form rates them on a par with the outstanding athletes of other sections and Don Slocomb and Herman Harlan, low hurdle and high hurdle champions of the conference, respectively; Jake Hammon, S. M. U. javelin star who has tossed the spear more than 200 yards; R. R. Farmer, Aggie broadjumper whose mark of 23 feet 10 inches set a new conference record last year; Westerfelt, Texas quarter-miler, whose time of 49.4 in the 440 ranks him as one of the best in the country; and Goddard of Baylor and Oliver of T. C. U., sprinters who are right on the heels of Leland and Bracey.

With the conference meet at College Station this year the Aggies, who won the conference title last year, will fill a double role, that of defending champions and hosts to the six other schools of the conference, each of which has signified its intention of entering a team. The Texas Longhorns, by virtue of their record in dual meets, are considered the outstanding contenders for the Aggies' crown, with the A. & M. team second best favorites and the Rice Owls third. However, Baylor, T. C. U., S. M. U. and Arkansas are expected to send some outstanding performers to the meet.

Springfield Teachers Drop Track Event To Arkansas

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., May 3 (AP)—The University of Arkansas track team won a one-sided victory from the Springfield, Mo., Teachers by a 93 1-2 to 46 2-3 score here today. Ivan Jackson took individual honors with 15 points.

CLOVIS, LITTLEFIELD MEET

LITTLEFIELD, May 3.—Clovis will send its fast semi-pro baseball team to Littlefield on Sunday, May 11, for a game with the local team, Pat Boone, manager, announces.

There is considerable rivalry between the two teams and a tip top battle is expected.

Miss Jessie C. Brandon coached the Odessa high school soccer team of Elmira, N. Y., to a championship in the Tri-County Soccer league. She is one of the few women in the country in charge of a high school athletic team composed of boys.

Clarence DeMar, who at 42 recently won the Boston marathon, was awarded "letters" by two universities, although he did not participate in athletics at either institution. The insignias were given him by the University of Vermont and Harvard University for feats achieved after graduation.

Texarkana Links Classic Is Ended By Gruelling Match; Frail Winner Shows Great Form With Irons

BY GAYLE TALBOT, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

TEXARKANA, May 3. —(AP)—A slight woman, almost fragile in appearance but with a tenacity and a mastery of irons which few feminine players attain, tonight was the new champion of the Texas Women's Golf association.

Mrs. Clay C. Cary, of Cedar Crest Country club, Dallas, gained the coveted title today by defeating Mrs. L. W. Magruder of Spring Lake Country club, Waco, 4 and 3 after a spirited battle over the treacherous Texarkana course. Two up at the close of the morning round, Mrs. Cary never permitted her opponent to catch her. Heavy rains last night and a misting downfall today caused both players to shoot under their best form.

Brilliant Shot Closes

Mrs. Cary reserved one of her most brilliant shots of the round to close the match on the thirty-third green. Deep in the woods with her second shot, she poked a beautiful iron out onto the edge of the green more than a hundred yards away. Mrs. Magruder was on the apron in two, but pitched short and took three puts to get down. Her second put that would have halved the hole and kept the match alive banged into the back of the cup but did not stay down.

While a big gallery was following the finalists about the course, the executive committee met and awarded the 1931 tournament to Brownsville. Mrs. B. O. Works, of Brownsville was elected president of the association. Fort Worth withdrew its bid in favor of the border city.

The new champion has been playing golf less than 10 years. She moved to Dallas from the Pacific coast and twice held the state title of Oregon.

The cards:

Cary 755 664 665—30.
Magruder 664 763 745—48.
In:
Cary 625 274 546—41.
Magruder 536 375 745—45
Afternoon round, out:
Cary 565 655 635—46.
Magruder 665 562 656—47
In:
Cary 536 465.
Magruder 645 366.

Mrs. F. C. Rochon, Wichita Falls, defeated Mrs. S. G. Hopkins, Texarkana, 4 and 3 for the championship of first flight. Mrs. R. E. Winer, Fort Worth, won championship consolation by defeating Kathryn Allen of Clarksville 4 and 3. Emily Wadley of Texarkana beat Mrs. T. S. DeForrest, Dallas, 6 and 5 in the finals of the first flight consolation.

Bucs, Dodgers Stage Batting Chase In Loop

Robins Boast Individual Swatsmith Leader And Pirates Lead In Team Hitting; Flowers' .469 Is High

NEW YORK, May 3. (AP)—Rivalry between the Pittsburgh Pirates and Brooklyn Robins is a feature of the National League batting campaign, according to official averages including last Wednesday's games. Brooklyn can boast the individual leader in Jake Flowers but the Pirates hold the lead in club batting and have four men among the first ten regulars against three for the Robins.

Flowers has rapped out 23 hits in 49 times at bat, giving him an average of .469 and a seven point lead over his nearest rivals, George Fisher of the St. Louis Cardinals and Riggs Stephenson of the Chicago Cubs, who are tied for second place. He also holds the lead in hitting two baggers, with seven.

Pirates Up At Top

Other batters following the three leaders among the top ranking regulars are P. Waner, Pittsburgh, .455; Frederick, Brooklyn, .436; Comorosky, Pittsburgh, .435; Herman, Brooklyn, .429; Suhr, Pittsburgh, .417; Engle, Pittsburgh, .396; and Terry, New York, .390.

In addition to holding second place in batting, Fisher is tied for two honors. He has made 24 hits to share the lead with John Frederick of Brooklyn and has batted in 17 runs, the same number driven home by Babe Herman. He has made six doubles.

Frederick and Adam Comorosky of Pittsburgh each have scored 13 runs, one ahead of Chick Hafey of St. Louis. Gus Suhr, another Pittsburgher is tied with Kiki Cuyler of Chicago in hitting triples with a total of three. Travis Jackson of the Giants still holds the home run leadership with five. Cuyler and Paul Waner each have stolen four bases.

Pittsburgh Leads Batting

In club batting, Pittsburgh has a mark of .331 to lead Brooklyn and the Giants by five points. Cincinnati and New York are tied for club fielding honors with .981 averages.

Four national League pitchers are tied for top honors, each having won two games and lost none. They are Remy Kremer and Larry French of Pittsburgh, Fred Fitzsimmons of New York and Les Prey of Cincinnati.

Hurling a wild leftie against a string of champion right-handed ball bangers does not come under the head of good business, but Manager Gabby Street, of the St. Louis Cardinals, tried the stunt this year and—

The result, Street now has a left-hander who is one of the sensations of the spring, credited with two victories over the great Chicago Cubs.

Wild Will Hallahan is the southpaw in question. Street has always liked Bill's possibilities and determined at the opening of the season to give the portsider a chance to make or brak himself. He threw him into the breach against the rough and ready Cubs, who boasted no less than eight right-handers in the lineup that day.

Bill went easy with the National league champions. He permitted them two hits.

When the two clubs clashed again in Chicago, Bill once more proved his supremacy over the champs, though his work was not quite up to the torrid peak of his first effort.

The showing of Hallahan against such a club as the Cubs should do wonders for the Cards improving their morale to a great extent. After his exhibition against the champions, the St. Louis fans are hoping Hallahan will keep up the good work against lesser opposition and, in the National league, all the other clubs come under the head of lesser opposition after you have mentioned the Cubs.

Leland Runs Wild Again But Frogs Lose Duel Track Meet to SMU; Red Oliver Is High Point Man in Walk

(By Associated Press)

FORT WORTH, May 3.—Coach "Pus" Mack Clark's T. C. U. thinclads ran hard in their dual track meet with S. M. U. here Saturday but not hard enough to stack up enough points to beat the field events of the Ponies, and the Frogs lost the meet by 64 to 53.

Red Oliver, T. C. U.'s fiery track flash, was high point man of the meet when he amassed 18 points. Cy Leland was tied with Hammon of S. M. U. for second place scoring with 10 points.

A strong wind swept the T. C. U. track and a slow cinder path worked together to mar fast time. Cy Leland, turned in time of 9.5 on the century and 22 flat on the 220.

During a recent tournament to decide the baseball championship among secondary schools in Japan, the attendance was 220,000 in three days. The games were played at Koshein Stadium, near Osaka, Japan.

Simmons Goes Into Tie For Batting Lead

Philadelphia Outfielder And "Spider" Cissell Of Pale Hose Have Joint Lead In American With .432

CHICAGO, May 3. (AP)—Hitting at a .432 pace, Al Simmons of the Philadelphia Athletics and Bill "Spider" Cissell, leadoff man for the White Sox, have taken a joint lead in the race for batting honors in the American league.

Unofficial averages, including the games of Wednesday, reveal that the two swatsmiths have been at bat officially 44 times and each has rapped out 19 safe blows. Simmon's performance excells that of the White Sox second baseman, however, as he has hit for a total of 35 bases, scored 10 runs and batted in 18. Cissell has accounted for 25 bases with his hits but drove in only 5 runs.

Simmons Climbs

Simmons batted at a 500 clip during the second week of the campaign to boost his average 32 points while Cissell slumped a trifle, dropping 26 points from the previous week.

Charlie Jamieson, Cleveland outfielder, who led the race at the end of last week dropped from a .533 averge to .385, good for second place, the unofficial averages disclosed. Generally, the batting marks dropped perceptibly during the second week.

Most of the other 10 leaders were veterans. After Simmons, Cissell and Jamieson they were: McManus, Detroit, .380; Myer, Washington, .380; Rice, Washington, .380; Seeds, Cleveland, .375; Cochrane, Philadelphia, .364; Fonseca, Cleveland, .355; and Oliver, Boston, .350.

Indians Take Lead

The Cleveland Indians took the team batting lead away from the Athletics during the second week. They raised their average fro .265 to .301. Washington and the White Sox were tied for second with .280 while the Athletics slumped to .276 and were next.

St. Louis supplanted Washington in first place in team fielding with a .981 percentage while the Senators were second with .980.

Clinton Brown, 27-year-old recruit obtained by Cleveland from New Orleans of the Southern league, took the technical lead in the pitching race by winning another game and running his total to three victories and no defeats. Five others had records of two won and none lost. Hadley, Washington; Hogsett, Detroit; Thomas, Chicago; Russell, Boston and Marberry, Washington. "Lefty" Grove of the Athletics was having difficulty getting started, although he has been credited with one victory and no defeats. He has been in four games.

Sens Lead In Runs

Other leaders: Team runs, Washington, 72; team hits, Detroit, 135; Double plays, Detroit, 18; individual hits, Oliver, Washington, 21; doubles, Kress, St. Louis, and Regan, Boston, 7; triples, Goslin, Washington, 3; home runs, Reynolds, Chicago, with 4. Stolen bases, McManus, Detroit, and Gullic, St. Louis, 3 each; runs batted in, Simmons, Philadelphia, 18.

Tolan Is Second And Bracey Is Third As Title Holder's Dust Settles On Ohio Track

Skeptics Learn That Speedy Ohioan Is Master Of Both Leading Rivals For Honor Of "Fastest Human"

(By Associated Press)

OHIO STADIUM, COLUMBUS O., May 3.—Geo. Simpson, of Ohio State, keyed highly to defend his world record against two challengers on his home track before 15,000 spectators, today contributed another "9.5" for the record books of the 100-yard dash at the Ohio relays.

He convinced the handful of remaining skeptics that he is the master of Eddie Tolan, University of Michigan negro, and Claude Bracey, Rice Institute flier, two of his foremost rivals, and that he is probably the fastest sprinter of the year.

Simpson left them behind about two yards today. Tolan, who got a slightly faster start, finished second, with Bracey lagging a few inches.

and Blackerby of Dallas were tied with 33 each.

Stuvengen of Waco, led the league's circuit clouters with seven. Rye of Waco, Hunt of Houston, Easterling of Beaumont, Kelly of Fort Worth and Bettencourt of Wichita Falls had five each.

Hock of Houston led in runs scored with 23 and Selph of Houston was close behind with 22.

Pair Of Base Thiefs

Stapleton of Beaumont and Whelan of San Antonio, were the leading base stealers with six each. Hunt of Houston, Stewart of San Antonio and Levey of Wichita Falls have pilfered five since the start of the season.

Stout of Houston was the only pitcher to have won four games without a loss and leads in strikeouts with 35.

Eckhardt Tops Texas Hitters Despite Slump

Beaumont Slugger Retains Leadership Over Rivals With Average Of .473; Blackerby Is Second

DALLAS, May 3. (AP)—Although Oscar Eckhardt of Beaumont slumped slightly in his work at the plate, the Exporter continued to lead the Texas League at the end of three weeks' play with an average of .473, one point lower than his mark a week ago. After his slump the first part of the week, Eckhardt got two hits in four trips to the plate in the Beaumont-Dallas "free-for-all" game at Dallas Thursday to climb back up.

Blackerby of Dallas moved from fourth to second place with a season average of .393. Brown, also of Dallas, moved from sixth to third place with a .383 mark. Other leaders in the first ten:

Other Leaders

Hutson, San Antonio, .375; Huber, Beaumont, .368; Munson, Waco, .366; Selph, Houston, .361; Mallon, Fort Worth, .356; Rye, Waco, .354; Morse, Dallas, .350.

Eckhardt was tied with Selph of Houston in hits with 35, Holm of Houston had 34, Wade of Beaumont and Blackerby of Dallas were tied with 33 each.

HOOKS AND SLIDES

"THE OLD ANIMOSITIES"

John Joseph McGraw leaned back in a chair in the lobby of a new York hotel the other night, a thing he does very gracefully, and delivered himself of the following remark:

"Baseball is not what it used to be. The old animosities are gone."

Pardon us, Mr. McGraw, but we don't think they are. Maybe they have been alleviated quite a bit, but they are still there. When the old animosities, which typify the very color of the game of baseball itself, die out, what of the game will remain but mere technical display? And surely baseball still is a bit more than that!

BRAVE OLD DAYS

McGraw perhaps was thinking back to a day when he had to have a police escort to appear on the streets of Cincinnati. Those were brave days! And the time that Buck Herzog entertained Ty Cobb three nights hand running, in Buck's room, during a series between the Giants and Tigers—maybe McGraw was thinking of that, too. The entertainment consisted of a fist fight each night, with Herzog winning the first two and Cobb copping the last decision. And the days when Kid Elberfeld used to step on the umpire's feet with his spiked shoes.

Those days may seem dim to McGraw now, but they are not far removed. Every year you see the old fight break out in some new quarter, reminding you that baseball is still war. Last year it was the Hack Wilson-Cincinnati affair. And over in Cleveland during a hot game with the Athletics, an umpire was struck down with a pop bottle. And down in Rochester, Specs Toporcer gave an umpire a nudge that might have been classed as very impolite and "hardly cricket" at all.

MODERN FEUDS

Sometimes the animosities run under the surface and you don't see them. I interviewed Charley Gehringer in Detroit and asked him what he thought of Ferrell, the sensational Cleveland pitcher. Gehringer voiced the opinion that Ferrell was a pretty good pitcher, but that he probably wouldn't win 15 ball games this year. In New Orleans I told several Cleveland writers about it and somehow the news got to Ferrell. He got hopping mad.

The other day when the Tigers and Indians met for the first time, Ferrell got the job to pitch. Three times Gehringer was at the plate with men on the bases, and every time Ferrell took him. The young pitcher from the south went about his work with an earnestness that was deadly. He beat the Tigers, 9 to 1, and Gehringer went hitless. Now, if Ferrell has his way, Gehringer, the best second baseman in the league, will not get a hit off him all season.

A collegiate director of athletics recently issued a "model baseball code" seeking to curb the roughneck aspect of the game. The code protested sideline baiting; abuse from the stands; riding of the umpires; attempts to rattle the pitcher, spike the batsman or beam the batter. We hope nothing like that ever happens to baseball. It would be tragic.

YOU'VE BEEN TELLING THE WORLD YOUR CAR CAN DO MORE THAN ANY OTHER CAR SO DON'T SAY IT CAN'T WRITE A LETTER!

To My Owner:
What is this rumor I have been hearing about a vacation trip?
If I am the car that is going to take you there and back, I would like to make a suggestion:
What would add more pleasure to your vacation than Star De Luxe tires?
Of course, I am only your car, but I'd feel much better about myself if Stars, the heaviest and handsomest of all automobile tires, were on my wheels.
Besides, I understand, there is an especially attractive trade-in offer just now on the tires you have on me at the present time.
Just between you and me and the truck, you just missed down the street I am getting tired of other cars equipped with Stars, giving me that look that seems to say, "get right, get right, you old tub, line up with us, so you can say you've got the finest tires that money can buy, that's us!"
Let's fix this up before we leave on this vacation trip.

'Little Juarez' To Celebrate 'Cinco de Mayo' Monday

Celebration Is Planned By Mexican Group

Events To Start At Five A. M. Tomorrow Morning; Day Corresponds To Our July Fourth

Cinco de Mayo, the days of days for patriotic Mexicans which corresponds to our July 4th, will be celebrated in "Little Juarez" beginning at 5 o'clock tomorrow morning when shots will be fired to salute the dawn of the glorious day.

Following the salute the Mexicans will form a procession and march around the little city. At 3 o'clock the group will gather at a platform which will be built on a small hill northwest of the Mexican Methodist church and music will be enjoyed. At this time Eulalio Izquierо Martinez, president of the patriotic committee, will be in charge. Mayor Jerry Clements has been invited to address the audience.

De La Cruz In Charge

C. Z. De La Cruz, who is master of ceremonies for the day, has announced that Americans are invited to attend the celebration which will last until 12 o'clock at night. In addition to speech telling of the battle of the fifth of May, Mexican girls will sing and dancing will follow. A group of young ladies and children are to sing the national Mexican hymn with orchestral accompaniment.

Mrs. Harry Roberts, 2415 20th street, who lived in old Mexico for several years says of the battle of the fifth of May that the battle in itself was not very important but the moral effect on the Mexicans was the remarkable thing about it.

Nation Divided

"In 1862 Mexico was divided by its two great political parties, the Clericals and the Anti-Clericals under Juarez, who mildly favored the creation of an empire by the French," said Mrs. Roberts. "They intended to seat Maximillian and Carlota as emperor and empress."

"On May 5, 1862 French troops under the command of General Lorencez advanced upon Puebla, joined before they arrived there by a strong Mexican force of the Clerical party under Marques, so they had a large and effective army.

"The existing force in Puebla was much smaller, not more than 2,000 under General Zarafoza and so the French were forced to retire to Orizaba."

The spirit which began with that battle continued to grow and finally the French were driven from the county in 1868. The city of Puebla was called after May 5, 1862, the Puebla de Zaragoza.

Results Given Of Fire Probe

Five Findings In Ohio Pen Blaze Reported To Governor Cooper By Special Investigating Commission

COLUMBUS, O., May 3. (AP)—Governor Myers Y. Cooper's special commission, which investigated the tragic Ohio penitentiary fire, reported to the executive late today that it had reached four findings in its investigation.

They were:

First—That the temporary wiring in the ill-fated cell blocks was "improper and dangerous."

Second—That a dangerous and hazardous temporary condition existed in that cell block construction work near the place where the fire started was not properly protected and thus the lives of 800 convicts were not safeguarded.

Third—That there was negligence in failure to have an organized plan of meeting the emergency of fire and in releasing the convicts from their cells.

Fourth—Failure to designate some one after the emergency arose to take command of the situation directly contributed to the loss of life.

Alienations Suit Filed at Lamesa

LAMESA, May 3.—C. J. Crawford, Seminole farmer, yesterday entered a petition in the 106th district court at Brownfield for $400,000 against G. W. Curtis and his wife, Pearl Curtis, of Brownfield, alleging alienation of affections. Suit was filed by Judge Thomas S. Christopher, of Lamesa, attorney for plaintiff.

In the petition the plaintiff alleges that the defendants "conspired together to alienate the affections of the plaintiff's wife, Naomi Crawford, and to transfer her love and affection to the defendant, G. W. Curtis."

It has been indicated here that there may be a settlement out of court but the case is returnable in the August term of the court in Brownfield.

Curtis is a retired capitalist and makes loans to farmers in his section. He has been a resident of Brownfield for eight or ten years.

START CHURCH BUILDING

(Special To The Avalanche-Journal)

SUDAN, May 3.—Digging of the excavation for the foundation for the new First Methodist church here has been completed. The building will cost in the neighborhood of $15,000. The pastor, Rev. Hendricks, is serving his first year in the church.

COTTON PLANTING STARTS

(Special To The Avalanche-Journal)

SUDAN, May 3.—Cotton planting in the vicinity of Sudan is under way, J. E. Dryden, secretary of the chamber of commerce, reports. There will be about the same acreage of cotton here as in other years, he said.

CASE DISMISSED

AUSTIN, May 3. (AP)—The third court of civil appeals today dismissed for want of jurisdiction the case of the Railroad Commission of Texas vs. the Texas Steel company, in which the steel company in the Travis county district court successfully attacked an order of the railroad commission establishing certain intrastate freight rates upon iron and steel articles.

A cow recently ran into a house in London, climbed two flights of stairs and entered a small room.

TO ATTEND CONVENTION

LAMESA, May 3. (Special)—Dr. John Bennett and Dr. W. H. Dunn will attend the West Texas Medical association convention at Mineral Wells, May 5 to 10, inclusive, it was announced this week. R. R. Townsend, member of the Texas Pharmaceutical board, was appointed by the organization as a Texas delegate to attend the National convention of Pharmacists which gathers in Baltimore, Maryland, during the first part of May. Townsend expects to leave on or about May 3.

LOSES CONTROL FIGHT

ST. LOUIS, May 3. (AP)—Walter E. Meyer of New York City, a director of the St. Louis Southwestern (Cotton Belt) railway company, lost his fight for control of the railroad at the annual stockholders' meeting here today. He was able to poll but 84,184 shares while those favoring the management polled 282,610.

Lynn County Boasts Of Strong Educational System

Twenty-Four Districts Are Forging Ahead

First School Opened In 1903 And Only Had One Room; All Have Modern Buildings And Good Teaching Staffs

(Special To The Avalanche-Journal)

TAHOKA, May 3.—Lynn county, one of the richest agricultural counties on the Plains, also, is rapidly becoming a leading Texas county in education due to its efficient system of schools, equipment, teaching force, and administration.

Twenty-seven years ago this next fall the first school was opened in Lynn county. A small one-room shack, one teacher, and a mere hand full of students comprised the "system," but the settlers were proud of the start. From this start the system has grown to be one of the outstanding in the state.

Have Modern Buildings

Of the county's twenty-four districts, twenty have modern brick school buildings, while the remaining four have modern stucco or frame houses. Twenty-one are rural schools. Every rural school has a teacherage. Value of buildings and equipment totals almost $600,000.00. Scholastic total 3,775, and there are 135 teachers. Ten of the rural schools and the three city schools have nine month terms, while the average length of term of the rural schools is nearly eight and one-half months. The office of county superintendent was created a little over three years ago and Supt. H. P. Caveness, the first and only county superintendent here, has been greatly instrumental in raising the standards of the rural schools. All schools are classified according to the classification recommended by the State Department of Education.

Patrons, Teachers Enthusiastic

These excellent physical plants combined with the enthusiastic work of the patrons and teachers have been instrumental in putting Lynn county among the upper few in Texas education.

Tahoka, the county capital, takes the lead with a $200,000 plant, 26 1-2 units of affiliation, 27 teachers, and 731 scholastics. The $100,000 high schools building erected in 1927 is said by state department officials to be one of the best erected, equipped and most complete in every detail in the entire state of Texas. It has laboratories for chemistry, physics, vocational agriculture, home economics, biology, and commercial subjects. Other buildings are fifteen-room Central Ward, the three-room South Ward, and a small negro school.

O'Donnell Plant Good

O'Donnell also has a fine $125,000 plant in two buildings, eighteen teachers, and nearly 600 scholastics. The high school is an excellent $75,000 structure.

Wilson has ten teachers, 400 scholastics, and a $50,000 brick school building.

The following indicates the work and importance of the twenty-one rural schools: Wells, $25,000 brick, 6 rooms, 325 capacity auditorium, teacherage, 5 teachers; Draw, $25,000 brick, 6 rooms, 300 capacity auditorium, teacherage, 5 teachers; New Home, $20,000 brick, 6 rooms, 300 capacity auditorium, 6 teachers, teacherage; Dixie, $20,000 brick, 4 rooms, 325 capacity auditorium, teacherage, 5 teachers; T-Bar, $18,000 brick, 4 rooms, 4 teachers, 400 capacity auditorium, teacherage; New Lynn, $15,000 brick, 5 rooms, 400 capacity auditorium, 5 teachers, teacherage; Newmoore, $11,250 brick, 4 rooms, 4 teachers, teacherage; Three Lakes, $7,000 brick, 3 rooms, 2 teachers, teacherage; Morgan, $8,800 brick, 4 rooms, 4 teachers teacherage; Joe Bailey, $6,500 brick, 4 rooms, 2 teachers, teacherage; Edith, $5,200 brick, 3 rooms, 3 teachers, teacherage; Lakeview, $8,000 brick, 4 rooms, 4 teachers, teacherage; Pride, $4,000, 3 rooms, 3 teachers, teacherage; Grassland, 4 room brick, 4 teachers, teacherage; Joe Stokes, 4 room brick, 4 teachers, teacherage, auditorium capacity 300; Redwine, 3 room tile, 3 teachers, teacherage; Magnolia, 2 rooms, two teachers, teacherage, and Petty, Gordon, and West Point have modern stucco or frame buildings and teacherages.

CONVICTED OF ROBBERY

SAN SABA, May 1. (AP)—Clyde A. McNeill was convicted here today of robbing the First State bank of Richland Springs, Dec. 19, 1928. His punishment was fixed at 25 years imprisonment.

Several Visiting Teachers To Take Place Of Regular Professors During Summer Session At Tech; Plans Made

Many visiting instructors are to appear before the summer school student body of Texas Technological college in their class room work for the summer sessions of 1930. Some will replace Tech instructors who are on leave of absence and others will be classed as visiting teachers.

Superintendent Lee Clark, head of the Plainview public schools will be a lecturer in Education. He received his Master of Arts degree from the University of Texas. M. H. Duncan, superintendent of Lubbock City Schools will also lecture in this subject. W. A. McIntosh, superintendent of the Amarillo Public Schools who received his bachelor of arts degree from Alabama Polytechnic, and Dr. L. S. Tireman, association professor of Education at the University of New Mexico will also be special instructors in this department.

Miss Chute To Teach

Miss Mary Chute, primary teacher in the Fort Worth city school will teach industrial arts in the primary grades.

Mrs. Lelia Hammet, specialist in the Houston city schools, will instruct on Palmer Penmanship and Public School Art.

T. C. Root, who has received degrees from Baylor University and Harvard University will instruct in economics and business administration.

In the School of Home Economics, there will be six changes or additions to the summer faculty.

Miss Grace Baker, former instructor of the college, who has been teaching in Florida State College for Women will return the second term of school to become an instructor in clothing and textiles.

Miss Blanche Cade, of Iowa State College, will also be a new instructor of clothing.

Miss Mabel Evans, member of the faculty of State Teachers College, San Marcos, will replace Miss Mabel Erwin, who is absent on leave.

Miss Bernice McDonald, another former teacher of the college, who has been a member of the College of Industrial Arts faculty this year will return to assist in the foods department.

Miss Mary Rena Penn, of Carnegie Institute of Technology, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, will replace Miss Jean Dorrell, as instructor in applied arts for the summer terms.

Miss Kitte D. Washington who took her Master of Arts degree from Columbia University is to instruct in freshman and sopohomore foods the first term of summer school.

Bailey Needs County Farm

Problem Of Caring For Poor Faced By Commissioners For First Time In Eleven Years Since Organization

(By Staff Correspondent)

MULESHOE, May 3. — Bailey county commissioners are faced with a problem, that of having to purchase a county poor farm.

In the eleven years that the county has been organized—it is now in its twelfth year, having been started in 1918—there never has been a pauper.

Applies For Aid

The past few months, J. E. Adams, county judge and chairman of the county commissioner's court, reports, a man applied to the court for aid for himself and wife, under the pauper laws. He was the first one in the history of the county.

"We have never had a county poor farm," Judge Adams said. "The county commissioners are giving serious consideration to the proposal but I do not know what will be done.

"The county is settling up fast and we estimate there will be at least 3,500 people here. In 1920 there were only about 550 people in the county. So, you see, with the increase in population has come increased duties and problems."

Shallowater High School Group Has Junior-Senior Banquet Friday Night At Club House; Is First In History

(By Staff Correspondent)

SHALLOWATER, May 3.—In spite of the inclement weather, the Junior-Senior banquet, the first in the history of the school, was held in the club house Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock. Forty-three sat at a beautifully decorated table in the shape of a "T". At each place was an attractive hand-painted card, which had a wise old owl in senior regalia with the menu attached.

The girls of the sophomore class served the sumptuous banquet which consisted of fruit cocktail, perfection salad, smothered chicken, new potatoes and peas, candied carrots, pickles, rolls, iced tea, grape ice and angel food cake. The senior colors, purple and gold, were carried out in the decorations.

D. L. Vaught was toastmaster and the following program was enjoyed: invocation, M. F. Stephens, principal; tribute to the senior class, D. L. Vaught, president of the junior class; response, Bedford Marr, president of the senior class; "The Bough Is Bent," Lal Copeland; "The Twig Is Inclined," Olen Farris; violin solo, Wayne Hardy, accompanied by Miss Theresa Lawrence, "What Does the Sophomore Say?" Arthur McCoy; reading, Miss Twilight Baker; "The Freshman's Wail," Clarence Maserang; piano solo, Miss Therest Lawrence; "Why a Faculty?" A. F. Rasor; duet, "Down Where the Sun Goes Down," Glenora Calley and Alice Elierd; "A Solution to All Problems," R. L. Hooten, superintendent; address, L. E. Baker, president of the Chamber of Commerce.

Look at this Silvertown..

NOTICE!

In the near future we will announce the formal opening of the LARGEST, FINEST AND MOST COMPLETE CAR SERVICE STATION ON THE SOUTH PLAINS located at Avenue H and 15th Street.

As usual TESTED QUALITY GOODRICH TIRES at very low prices can be obtained from us. Drive your car down to our Goodrich Stations and receive a liberal allowance on your old tires.

WHAT'S THIS? A worn-down tire in a tire advertisement?

Yes, sir . . . exactly that! And with good reason. Any tire looks good when it's new. It's the way Silvertowns look after long punishment on the road that makes us proud of them!

This tire is one of the 62 that went out with the Silver Fleet. It came back with it, too . . . made the whole 30,000-mile trip without a single difficulty.

This picture shows it at the 22,517-mile mark. Shows how it looks after battling its way across two dozen states. After fighting its way through snow, mud, gravel, sand, rock!

And look at it! Match it up with tires you know that have gone that far! Any question about Silvertown being a better tire now?

If you like this sort of performance, come in and see us. We have the blood brothers of this casing. Tires that can give you the same mileage.

Price? You'll be surprised! They cost a lot less than you think, and when you match up cost with performance, Silvertowns just can't be beat. We have your size; come in right away.

Colonization Of South Plains Is Setting Fast Pace

Thousand Farms Sold During Fall And Winter; Community Building Follows Newcomers

South Plains, Inc., Part Of Lubbock BCD, Has Many To Serve As Inquiries Filter In From Many Localities

BY SUTTON CHRISTIAN
Avalanche-Journal Staff

COLONIZATION on the South Plains continues to place this area on a pinnacle among the few agricultural regions of the United States which remain unworn by ploughshares and in the infant stage of development, a recent survey proves.

Approximately one thousand farms have been sold by real estate operators of the South Plains since September 1, 1929. In sporadic instances new communities have sprung up in Hockley, Cochran and Lamb counties where immigration has been active.

Many Seek Information

Eight thousand letters of inquiry have been received by South Plains, Inc., subsidiary of the Lubbock Board of City Development, as a result of the national advertising rogram inaugurated by that organization.

At this season of the year colonization and trading are not so active as during the fall and winter season, due to planting activities in all sections of the nation.

Following the initial receipt of inquiry, South Plains, Inc., sends each prospective resident of this area a letter and a questionnaire. The latter seeks such information as kind of farming interested in, whether the inquirer is interested in dairying, hograising, beef cattle raising, poultry farming, and whether he owns his farm now or is renting. The size of farm interested in is also sought.

Investigators Listed

Among those now investigating the South Plains and the acreage they are interested in purchasing are:

YOUTH FREED ON BOND

George Lloyd Baker Charged With Slaying Mother

CLARKSVILLE, May 3. (AP)—George Lloyd Baker, 20, was free on $1,000 bond tonight on charges of the slaying of his mother, after a preliminary hearing in justice court today.

The low bond was granted by Peace Justice Pat B. Clark, who took the position that the youth was entitled to defend his claims, in the absence of legal processes, from his mother who sought to obtain property left the by by his deceased father. The mother and father were stranged.

Witnsses testified that George shot his mother to death with a shot gun.

HAND BAG FOUND

New Clues Develop In Huge Insurance Plot Fraud

LINN, Mo., May 3. (AP)—County authorities announced today they had found the hand bag of William R. Pearman, slain in a $200,000 insurance fraud plot, approximately where Casper Tillman, held in connection with the slaying, said he threw it into the Gasconade river near Freeburg while he and Dr. Bass were taking the body to Gravette, Ark. Authorities said the finding of the bag virtually established that Pearman was slain in Missouri and not in Arkansas, where Dr. Bass, Columbia dentist, is held on a murder charge.

1010 CARS LICENSED

MULESHOE, May 3. (Special)—During the first four months of 1930 a total of 1010 automobile licenses were issued by H. A. Douglas, sheriff and tax collector. This number is almost as many as were issued during the entire year of 1929, he said.

Lubbock Farm Bureau Plans Meet, May 10

Large Attendance Expected; Prominent National, State Speakers Will Be Heard At Plainview Session May 14

Regular monthly meeting of the Lubbock County Farm Bureau will be held on Saturday, May 10, according to W. M. Ross, president.

A large attendance is expected because of the interest manifest in the district meeting of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation to be held at Plainview on May 14 and 15, at which many prominent state and national speakers will be heard.

S. H. Thompson, of Chicago, president of the American Farm Bureau federation; C. O. Moser, of Dallas, vice-president and secretary of the American Cotton Cooperative association, and John Manley, of Amarillo, manager of the Texas Wheat Growers association, all are to address the Plainview meeting. This gathering will be attended by members from every section of Texas.

On May 16, a week from next Friday, President Thompson will deliver an address to members of the Farm Bureau at the court house in Lubbock, Mr. Ross announces.

Utah is considering the elimination of electrical equipment in coal mines and substituting compressed air apparatus.

Officers Elected For Cochran Fair

(Special To The Avalanche-Journal)

MORTON, May 3.—Officers have been elected for the Cochran County Fair association, at a meeting of the association held here, with George E. Lance re-elected as president and J. R. Bond, secretary; D. L. Woods, vice-president, and W. S. Curry, treasurer.

This year's fair will be held prior to the Panhandle-South Plains fair at Lubbock and plans are for holding a much bigger and better exposition than last year's, which was the first in the county's history.

While the Cochran county exhibit at Lubbock last fall was not entered in any competition; 14 of the articles in that exhibit were taken to the Dallas Fair from this region.

The ELWOOD
KING OF LAWN MOWERS

The thumb screw adjustment
Is Easy, Simple and Most Efficient

See that little thumb screw on the Elwood mower illustrated above.

Yes! Just a common, ordinary thumb screw, such as you've seen time and again.

But it has revolutionized lawn mowing. No longer is it necessary to stop in the middle of the lawn, hunt up a wrench and screw driver, and adjust the mower. With Elwood Lawn Mowers the adjustment is made by simply turning the thumb screw. Instantly placing the cutter bar in perfect alignment and contact with reel without the use of tools. Simple as can be. Nothing to wear out or get out of order. This is one of the many exclusive, patented features of Elwood Mowers.

The easy-running, smooth cutting mechanism, and the simple adjustments to be found only in Elwood Mowers have made them a favorite with women and children throughout the United States. Our wide range of Elwood Models and the consistent prices at which you can buy them, coupled with their unrivaled reputation for quality, is ample reason why your next mower should be an Elwood.

PRICES RANGE FROM $10.00 TO $20.00

MODERNIZE YOUR HOME
Now
ON MONTHLY PAYMENTS
READ THESE 3 FACTS
You can enjoy home improvements on just a few dollars a month, like building a home, or buying a car.

1. COSTS LESS AT THIS TIME
Right now carpenters are not rushed. They can start your work at once, do a better job, and finish sooner.

2. INCREASES VALUE OF HOUSE
Modernizing adds to the value of any house, makes it more comfortable to live in, easier to sell. Modernizing is one of the safest investments a home-owner can make.

3. EASY TO PAY THIS WAY
There is no necessity of cutting into your savings fund to pay for modernizing. The small, monthly payments take care of the total bill easily—conveniently.

Oklahoma City Business Men To Visit Here

Greetings Sent Lubbock And Other Towns Along Route Of Proposed Goodwill Trip To Be Here May 14

One hundred twenty-five Oklahoma City business and professional men send greetings to the citizens of Lubbock and others along the route of the 29th annual good will tour of the Oklahoma City Chamber of Commerce in a letter received here yesterday.

"We are coming into your community—a whole train load of us," the letter reads. "And the 125 men composing this party are the heads of every line of endeavor in our community. In addition, we have a band of thirty-five musicians, and tons of souvenirs for the kiddies.

Nothing To Sell

"We are on a good will tour, with nothing to sell. We are out campaigning, each and every one of us, for your respect, friendship and good will—not another thing in the world.

"We believe in the great Southwest. We believe anything that will help any part of this vast empire will eventually profit every individual community in this great section.

Extend Invitation

"We believe we will be welcome to your community upon these terms, even though our stay, much to our regret, is necessarily limited, and we extend to you an invitation to visit us any time that it is convenient for you to come."

The visiting party will arrive in Lubbock at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, May 14. A night stop will be made here and the train will leave Thursday morning at 6 o'clock for Plainview. Only two other night stops in Texas are planned, Wichita Falls and Abilene.

Cotton Drops; Market Breaks Record

Week-End Mart Makes New Low Mark For Week

Present Downward Movement And Discount Under July Increased To 159 Points In Saturday's Session

NEW ORLEANS, May 3. (AP)—The week-end session in cotton was only moderately active and prices showed further declines, making lows for the week. The present downward movement and the discount of October under July increased to 159 points.

Poor Liverpool cables, more favorable weather for the crop in the cotton belt and the further slump in the stock market caused liquidation particularly in new crop months which showed the greatest declines.

After opening unchanged to four points down there was a slight rally but prices soon weakened with the renewed break in stocks and eased until near the end. The market showed losses from the previous of 18 to 24 points.

The close was easy and near the lows. July declined 19 points to 15.95 and closed at 15.98 or 16 points net lower for the day. The general market closed easy at net losses of 16 to 23 points.

Cotton Lower Under Liquidation

NEW YORK, May 3. (AP)—Cotton was lower today under week-end liquidation combined with some southern and local selling on reports of continued favorable weather for the coming crop, relatively easy Liverpool cables and the weakness in the stock market. May sold off 16.19 and the new October contract to 14.39. The general market closed barely steady at net declines of 15 to 20 points.

The opening was steady at an advance of two points to a decline of five points. There was some covering, but it was readily supplied by selling. Prices soon turned easier and the market worked slowly lower.

Passion Play

Jerusalem; enmity of the priests and scribes; prayers on Mount Olive; betrayal by Judas; sentence to die by the High Priest; repentance of Judas; trial before Pontius Pilate, march with cross; crucifixion; resurrection, and the final tableaux of the glorification and triumph of Jesus.

Other characters giving splendid portrayal of their roles were: Amalie Fassnacht as Mary Magdalene, Paul Dietz as Pontius Pilate, Victor Robert as King Herod, Fritz Schoeller as Caiaphas, as were the disciples and priests.

The Passion play was brought to Lubbock by the Texas Tech Artist Course committee. The Freiburg players are from Freiburg, Baden, Germany, and are making a tour of America for the first time.

Spain has abandoned its plan of national organization of the mineral industry.

Sharp Price Upturns of Fed Wooled Lambs Feature of 11-Market Circuit

KANSAS CITY, May 2. (AP)—(U. S.D.A.)—Livestock trade around the eleven market circuit this week was featured by sharp price upturns of 1.00-1.50 on fed wooled lambs. Spring lambs were comparatively scarce at firm to moderately higher rates. Mature classes of sheep at most centers ruled steady to .25 higher, an improved demand for dressed lambs was the chief stimulating influence on fat lambs. The week's supply approximated 323,800, as compared with 334,083 last week and 275,840 a year ago.

Current hog prices at most markets are steady to slightly higher than a week ago with a late top of 10.30 at St. Louis. Offerings 454,400, an increase of 7,500 over last week but 67,000 short of the same week a year ago.

A liberal movement of fed steers and yearlings and fore part of the week gave packers the upper hand and they were able to enforce a general decline of .25-.75. Chicago had a top of 14.65 on choice heavy steers. Bulk fed steers and yearlings 12.50. Receipts 185,700 as compared with 178,391 last week and 204,800 the corresponding period a year ago.

Wheat Overcome By Huge Selling

CHICAGO, May 3. (AP)—Despite lively transient rallies, wheat today followed the stock market downhill, overwhelmed at the last by heavy selling orders that came rushing from eastern sources. May wheat broke the season's bottom price record to $1.00 3-8 a bushel, the average value here from 1890 to 1929 inclusive has been $1.21 1-2. Contributing to weakness of the wheat market today was a forecast of frequent showers over the entire grain belt throughout the comnig week.

Closing quotations on wheat were nervous at nearly the day's lowest level, 7-8 2 5-8c a bushel under yesterday's finish. Corn closed 1-8 to 3-4c off, oats unchanged to 1-2c up, and provisions unchanged to 7-8c down.

Train Blast

when his body was picked up. Physicians from Keller, called to the scene, remarked that practically every bone in Wade's body was broken.

Train Moving Slowly

The train was moving slowly down a slight grade when the explosion occurred. When the train left Roanoke, three miles from the blast scene, Turner had been in the engine cab. He said he saw Weidman on the second back and a few minutes before the explosion, crawled to join him. Weidman said that he heard a "dull thud." "The next thing I knew I was picking myself off the ground," he said. "For the next few minutes I was kept busy dodging the hail of missles. There was so much steam I couldn't see what was happening."

J. S. Waller, Fort Worth, conductor and F. W. Laird, Bonham, a brakeman, were in the caboose. Waller said he heard the explosion which was not loud, braced himself for a shock and looking ahead, saw the cloud of steam. He said he knew instantly what had happened and ran up ahead. He was the first to reach the bodies of the dead men, five minutes after the blast.

One of the six-foot drive wheels rolled 50 feet and a pony truck ploughed a furrow for more than 300-yards. The cab of the engine was demolished although the chassis was still on the track.

V. R. Stevenson, whose farm house is situated about 200 feet from the scene of the wreck was sitting in his front room with two nieces, Misses Thelma and Billie Heflin who are visiting him from Clay county. He said they heard the explosion and rushed to the door to see the huge boiler descending from the sky, less than 100 feet from his house.

REVIVAL TO CLOSE

Dr. L. L. Evans To Deliver Final Sermon Tonight

Dr. L. L. Evans, pastor of Austin Avenue Methodist church, Waco, will preach the concluding sermons of a two weeks revival at the First Methodist church this morning at 11 o'clock and tonight at 8 o'clock.

Song services will be under the direction of Andrew Hemphill of Fort Worth.

tors and individuals and schools to get every person living in Lubbock listed in the count. Cards have been handed out to every student of the public schools which were to be filled out by the head of the family telling whether or not the family had been enumerated. These cards were returned Friday and many names were secured that otherwise possibly would have been missed.

The Lubbock Retail Merchants association lined up with the movement last week, putting out a call to all members over their S. O. S. calling system, requesting heads of each firm to make a canvass of all clerks and employes in his organiation to see whether or not they had been enumerated.

Figures Not Flattering

Census already announced for a number of South Plains and West Texas cities are far from flattering and Lubbock business men have expressed fear that so many might be unavoidably missed here that the city's expected population of between 19,000 and 21,000 will not be approached.

Dr. Barr announced Saturday that Lubbock's figures probably will not be ready before late Monday afternoon. Hundreds of cards are in the office of the supervisor which are yet to be checked and a large force of men and women are constantly kept busy assorting and listing that every possible name might be included.

Other sections of the seventh district also are expected to be completed by Monday, the census chief stated.

Stock Ticker Records Fresh Bear Triumphs

Tumultous Two-Hour Session Experiences Net Declines Of Five To Eighteen Points In Exchange Saturday

By JOHN L. COOLEY,
Associated Press Financial Writer

NEW YORK, May 3. (AP)—The stock ticker recorded fresh triumphs for the bears today in a tumultous two-hour session that broke all volume records for a Saturday and that saw net declines of 5 to 18 points in scores of leading issues.

Transactions in the final thirty minutes reached the exormous total of 1,627,900 shares bringing the day's business to 4,967,500 shares, the largest for a two-hour day in the market's history. An hour and fifty-six minutes after the closing gong the ticker tape printed the last sale.

The price index for 90 stocks lost 5.8 points, and the individual groups—rails, industrials and utilities recorded changes closely approximating those of the previous session.

Evelyn Garlington of Midland broke the league typewriting record with 68.5 words per minute. The previous record was 63.33 words per minute. Ruth McKenzie of Waxahachie and Margaret Lindsay of Lubbock placed second and third, respectively.

STANDS BY PRESIDENT

Senate's Tariff Provisions Are Refused Saturday

WASHINGTON, May 3. (AP)—The house, by big majorities, stood by President Hoover twice in the long contest over the tariff today and refused to accept the senate's export debenture amendment and modified flexible clause withdrawing executive authority to make emergency changes in the structure.

Party lines split on both votes, the debenture being rejected 231 to 161 and the legislative flexible provision 236 to 154.

Short Staple Cotton Proves Costly To Planters of South Plains Area

the difference in price offered for cotton of seven-eighths of an inch staple length and cotton below that length, $3,801,480.

Report Is Proof.

Ample proof of the above statement is backed by an analysis of a government report of cotton grade and staple, made to the Farmers Gin company, of Lubbock, which is typical of this area's cotton. Out of 1,616 bales tested by the government from this gin, 88.1 per cent were untenderable, 85.6 per cent of the total being untenderable because of staple under seven-eighths of an inch in length.

By giving other counties benefit of raising a greater percentage of longer staple cotton, and using 80 per cent as a conservative average for the South Plains—which many cotton men and ginners agree is likely the case—short staple cotton has this season robbed us of almost four million dollars.

Figures Produced.

Cotton production from counties of this section for the 1929-1930 season total 316,791 bales, 80 per cent of which is 253,432 bales. Difference in price between under seven-eighths and that length of staple figures 3 cents a pound, or averaging $15 per bale. Multiply the 80 per cent by the $15 loss per bale and the result is as above given.

To the individual cotton farmer this loss means some $300 a year, using average bale production at 20. To Lubbock county, this loss means $551,100. Half a million dollars would go a long way towards paying off mortgages on some farms in this county, say some.

Analysis Shown.

Further analysis of the government report to the Farmers Gin company shows that 47.3 per cent of the cotton, or 765 bales, was graded as white, middling and better. White, strict low and low middling showed 32.9 per cent, or 531 bales.

Only 11.9 per cent, 192 bales, were tenderable cotton. Number of untenderable bales was 1,424, of which 1,384 were so because under seven-eighths inch staple length, 13.9 per cent showed staple length of between seven-eighths to 20-thirty seconds, or 224 bales. Five bales were 15-sixteenths to 31-thirty seconds, two bales were one inch to on and one-thirty second, and one bale exceeded this in length.

Compared to the state of Texas, it is the opinion of cotton authorities that the Plains region has such a preponderance of short staple cotton, because of the belief existing among farmers that half-and-half is the best producer for a short season country, that the percentage of the state is cut down.

Much Untenderable.

Out of 3,802,600 bales produced in Texas last season; 28.7 per cent were untenderable because of short staple, or 972,400 bales. Thus, fully one-third of the Texas cotton crop is responsible for Texas cotton farmers being robbed of $14,586,000 dollars this past year.

Arguments favoring the above declare that longer staple variety cotton could have been planted on the same acres, to give the same yields or better, with identical expense and labor in producing, with the added advantage of $15 a bale more money.

Pendulum Swings.

Indications are that this section will see a distinct trend away from short staple cotton this season. Seed firms are reporting more sales of better cotton. Don L. Jones, superintendent of the state agricultural experiment station, east of Lubbock, reports more inquiries for many years, from farmers as to what kind of cotton to plant to get away from short staple varieties. Similar reports come from other farm leaders and extension workers throughout the South Plains.

Buying on the hog-round basis has had more to do with encouraging short staple cotton than any other one thing. With resolutions of the South Plains ginners declaring they will quit this method of buying, and with establishment of Federal licensed cotton classers at local branch offices of the Texas Cotton Cooperative association, as it becomes organized, producers of short staple seem facing penalties for poor cotton next season.

When the producer sees $15 a bale taken from him, instead of being at least partially absorbed by others, as heretofore, unanimity of opinion among farmers, bankers, ginners, cotton merchants and co-operative members, is had again. In effect, this opinion is that then the cotton grower will give more serious thought to quality.

night and borrowed some gasoline. The man was accompanied by a woman and girl.

He told the farmer that the wounds on his face were from a recent automobile wreck in which he was hurt. The man borrowed the gasoline and then drove off into the rough country in Borden county.

Friday a posse searched for the man but was unable to find trace of him.

Funeral services for the dead man, who died Friday from three bullet wounds he received Thursday night, will be held Sunday afternoon. They were postponed to permit relatives fro ma distance to get to Lamesa.

Billingsley was shot when he sought to prevent a masked man from holding up Jack Bryce, part owner of a filling station in Sparenburg just acros sthe street from the dead man's place of business.

A sister of Bryce managed to get away while the bandit had young Bryce and his mother covered. She ran to Billingsley's store and told him "There's a man with a gun in our station."

The merchant secured a shotgun and started across the street. He was shot three times by the bandit. Before he fell, however, the merchant managed to strike the bandit in the face, causing the blood to run.

Slaton Man Jailed Following Raid

J. B. Archelmayer, of Slaton, is being held in the Lubbock county jail in lieu of $1,000 bond, after being charged Saturday with violation of the prohibition laws, following a raid at his residence Friday night.

A small quantity of home brew was confiscated. Officers making the arrest were Assistant District Attorney Burton S. Burks, Deputy Sheriff O. B. Conley and Sam Selman, Slaton constable.

Negro Arrested After Raid Friday Night

Roy Williams, local negro, was arrested Friday night by officers of the police department and lodged in the county jail charged with sale of intoxicating liquors.

Examining trial probably will be held Monday morning in the court of Justice of the Peace G. R. Scott.

ROB SANDWICH SHOP

Burglars Get Candy, Cigars And Cigarettes Here

A sandwich shop owned by J. T. Scott, located at 1419 Texas Avenue, was robbed of about $6 worth of merchandise when the front door of the building was torn open some time Friday night, according to reports of Lubbock police.

Two cartons of cigarettes, one small box of cigars and a box of candy were included in the loot.

Lubbock Ties for First in Contests

Lubbock High school tied with Vernon and Denton for the grand total prize at the state clothing contest in Houston, winning one first place, two second places and receiving two honorable mentions according to information received here Saturday by Miss Gertrude Daniel, head of the home economics department of the local school.

Miss Gertrude Watson, clothing teacher of the high school, accompanied Lubbock's contestants to Houston.

Pauline Yeager Wins

First place in the ideal school girl dress division was won by Miss Pauline Yeager, student of home economics 1.

The two second places were for the general exhibit and total points for features. General exhibit of the local school included first and second in local judging for feature entrants; problems of child's play suits, care and repair; the layette and related art problems and household linens.

Get Honorable Mention

Lubbock's cotton costumes display, featuring garments suitable for high school girls, and the afternoon dress worn by Miss Anna Byrd Spalding, student of the economics 3, were given honorable mention.

Prizes of Lubbock's winnings total $40. Lubbock won the grand total prize last year.

A district clothing contest, preliminary to the state program, will be held in Lubbock next fall, officials announced yesterday at Houston. This contest will be the first time a similar event has been held prior to the state meeting. Two or three hundred contestants are expected to enter.

Lubbock's bid for the 1931 state contest, urged by telegrams from the local chamber of commerce and civic clubs, will be considered along with other bids at a later meeting.

McShea Child, L. J. Duffey, Die

Mary Katherine McShea, 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McShea, Sixteenth street and Avenue K, died Saturday morning at 6 o'clock, after a brief illness.

The body was sent yesterday to New Orleans by Bynum Brothers.

Duffy Funeral To Be Held Today

Funeral services for Luther J. Duffy, 38, who died Friday at the family residence, 1539 Avenue F, after a short illness, will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at Bynum Brothers chapel, Rev. C. J. McCarty officiating.

Burial will be in Lubbock cemetery.

Survivors are the widow, two daughters, Clarice and Gladys, and one son, Luther J. Duffy, jr.

Active pallbearers for the funeral will be J. C. Sanders, Stanton Ray, A. R. Manley, C. Graves, Joe Myers and M. B. Cross.

ATTENTION FARMERS

The farmers of the Plains of Texas have had more advice and been persuaded more this year, to plant staple cotton, which would be good advice, if you could make money following the free advice, but have you ever seen the time here, where yuu could make more money for yourself by using staple cotton? Remember, this is a short season and if you make cotton here it has to be made quick, and it is a fact that short staple matures quicker.

Have you ever been paid enough difference here to offset the loss of picking and ginning? Of course they argue you will sell your cotton on staple basis and am sure that is right, but the most of West Texas is Half-and-Half and your cotton is bought on hsort staple basis. Plant Western Big Boll Half-and-Half Cotton. Use your head. Plant the kind that you can go to the gins more times with, and make more money for yourself.

We have our seed for sale at various points in West Texas. Call your nearby dealer or wire our Terrell office.

Politics Hold Attention on Campus At Tech; Publication Posts Are Up

Elections will be held Monday and Tuesday of this week at Texas Technological college to elect officers for the publications of the college for the year, 1930-31. The offices to be filled are editor and business manager of the Toreador, weekly college newspaper, and La Ventana, yearbook.

For the past several weeks politics have waxed hot on the campus, with a representative field of candidates except for the fact that the schools of agriculture and of home economics have no candidates in the field. There has been much interest manifested by the student body in the elections and all office seekers have carried on active campaigns, putting their respective qualifications forth in much the same way as candidates for election to offices of the state, circulating their cards among students, placing large placards in advantageous places about the campus and on blackboards in the classrooms.

Must Have 90 Hours Work

The qualifications necessary for candidacy are set forth by the student council and state that a student must have at least 90 terms hours of work, in any school of the college, and be an undergraduate.

Candidates to be voted upon follow: editor of La Ventana, Bill Sewell, Slaton, junior in business administration, school of liberal arts; H. Y. Price, jr., Lubbock, junior in government, school of liberal arts; Frank Emison, Brownwood, junior in textile engineering.

Business manager of the Toreador: Byron Claunch, Hamilton, junior in business administration, school of liberal arts; Wayne Castleberry, Eastland, sophomore, economics, school of liberal arts; Bill McWilliams, San Benito, junior, school of liberal arts; J. Doyle Settle, Abernathy, junior, government, school of liberal arts.

Editor of La Vantana: R. C. (Flop) Marshall, Hillsboro, junior in business administration, transfer from Hillsboro Junior college; Frank Ward, junior in school of liberal arts, transfer from Wichita Falls Junior college; Don Boggs, Lubbock, sophomore in mechanical engineering; Claudine Cook, junior in English, school of liberal arts.

Business manager of La Ventana: Gene Adair, Lubbock, junior in business administration, school of liberal arts; F. M. (Country) Coker, Paducah, junior in engineering.

The votes will be counted Tuesday night by members of the student council with Hogue Williams, student president in charge and announced at the general convocation at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning. At the convocaton Wednesday elections will also be held from nominations from the student body for student president, student vice-president and yell leader for the year 1931-32.

For the publications elections it has been announced that there will be ballot boxes in the administration building and one in the engineering building. Polls will be open from 8 a. m. to 3 p. m., every bonfide student of the college is eligible to vote.

The officers who will retire at the end of this term are Bai Lary, Clovis, N. M., editor, and W. T. Timmons, Amarillo, business manager of the Toreador; and Holmes Webb, Lubbock, editor, and Ralph Brand, Dallas, business manager of La Ventana.

MR. INFORMATION

In every town there seems to be a man who has all the information about the town at his finger tips, and who is ready and willing to aid the stranger and visitor in the city to learn all about it. Littlefield has one in the person of Kenneth Hemphill, son of A. C. Hemphill and one of the town's home boys who is making good there. Kenneth is active in the Kiwanis club and the chamber of commerce. His office is next to the postoffice and he is prepared at all times to put strangers next to whatever they want to know. He is a graduate of Texas Tech.

UNUSUAL EXPERIENCE

E. E. Huntsucker, editor of the Amherst Argus, had an unusual experience the other day. While talking to a newspaper man in his office his young son came in and then started out the door. The boy had not gone more than a hundred feet when there was a crash of glass following close on the heels of the report of a small rifle or pistol. Investigation showed a bullet hole in the glass in the door. Where it came from is a mystery.

MILK SPILLED

A couple of rural girls at Littlefield the other afternoon came into town and stopped at a filling station opposite the postoffice. In some manner a gallon bucket they were carrying, containing buttermilk, spilled and the boys at the filling station had to clean up the ruins. Postmaster Bannon and his staff watched the performance as if they had expected to have the chance to drink the buttermilk, and were disappointed because it was spilled.

CAN'T PLEASE 'EM ALL

Friday night a woman passenger on the night South Plains coach from Sweetwater, fussed nearly all the way up because of the alleged "poking along" of the driver. The road was muddy from the rains of Thursday night and there was more or less of a rain during the entire time of the trip up to near Slaton. The driver kept his bus on schedule time but did not take any unnecessary risks due to the muddy road. Other passengers complimented the driver on his skill in making schedule time without any near skidding.

ONE FOR ALL

Amherst public utility residents have the chance to pay all their bills at one place instead of having to go to several places to pay the light, gas and water bills. City clerk M. L. Payne, who collects the water bills, also is collector for the Texas Utilities company, power concern and the West Texas Gas company, furnishing gas. Mr. Payne has been city clerk for three years and when the new commission went into office the first of April he was continued as clerk.

REACH FOR HOE

E. C. Barber, editor of the Sudan News, practices what he preaches. He has a slogan, "reach for a hoe instead of a golf stick" and he closes up the office half an hour early these spring evenings to go home and dig in the garden.

HOTELS BUSY

D. M. Holt, pioneer motor line driver who spends the night in Clovis, always tries to get hotel accommodations for his patrons. One night week before last he had a woman passenger who wanted to make an early morning train from Clovis. He had to take her four hotels before he could find a place where she could get a room. Clovis hotel men declare they are having full houses all the time. A card "rooms all taken" is kept handy under the desk and displayed when the last room is rented. It is used six nights a week at least, Holt says.

Littlefield Plans To Number Houses

(By Staff Correspondent)

LITTLEFIELD, May 3. — Ray Jones, at the order of the city commission of Littlefield, has begun the numbering of all houses in town as well as the placing of street markers at all street intersections.

Recently the commission decided to number the houses. A committee of three, one from the Rotary club, another from the Lions club and a third from the chamber of commerce, was named to assist in the work.

Each property owner is being assessed a dollar to pay for the house numbering and also the street markings. Iron standards, with porcelain signs showing the streets, are being used. The signs are blue with white lettering. One sign will be placed on each corner.

The houses have all been assigned numbers by the city.

Bride And Attendants In Watkins-Moxley Church Nuptials

Of interest to a host of friends in Lubbock and surrounding territory will be the marriage of Miss Lucille Moxley and Winfield Watkins Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the auditorium of the First Presbyterian church. Dr. Jack M. Lewis, pastor of the church, will read the vows.

Vocal selections will be furnished by Mrs. Richard Douglas, and piano music by Mrs. Ross McWhorter.

Miss Moxley has announced as her attendants, Miss Kate Boyd, maid-of-honor, and Misses Blanche Bradley, Mary and Anne Snyder, and Geraldine Smith, bridesmaids. All have been college chums of the bride, and all are members of Sans Souci club, girls' social organization of Texas Technological college.

Attendants of the groom will be Walker Watkins of Ralls, best man, and James Alls, John Keathley, Weldon Hankins, and Frank Wright ushers.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Moxley, 1809 14th street. She was a student in Texas Presbyterian college, Milford, for two years before attending Ward-Belmont at Nashville, Tennessee, where she is a graduate. She will receive her B. A. degree from Texas Technological college in June.

Mr. Watkins is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Watkins of Ralls. He is cashier of the Lubbock Cotton Oil company.

Climaxing in-honor functions, which have held an outstanding place in society for the past two weeks, will be a dinner given by the bride's parents Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock at Hotel Lubbock. Members of the bridal party will be guests for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Zimpfer of Amarillo and Mesdames C. N. Harrison and Clifton Jarrett of Canyon are expected to arrive Monday and to remain for the wedding.

In The Pictures

Members of Sans Souci club, Tech college social organization, hold the center of the stage this week in the Tuesday church nuptials of Miss Lucille Moxley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Moxley, 1809 14th street, and Mr. Winfield Watkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Watkins, of Ralls. Above are shown the bride-to-be, upper center, and lower center, her maid-of-honor, Miss Kate Boyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hiley T. Boyd, 1631 18th street. Bridesmaids are upper left, Miss Mary Snyder, and lower right, Miss Anne Snyder, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Snyder, 2701 19th street; lower left, Miss Blanche Bradley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bradley, 1619 Broadway; Upper right, Miss Geraldine Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Smith, 2020 8th street.

Wedding Held Saturday Morning In Church Chapel Unites In Marriage Miss Patterson and John M. Teague

BEFORE an altar embanked with roses, sweet peas, snapdragons, and fern in rainbow colors, Miss Cymbol Patterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Patterson, 2324 16th street, became the bridge of J. M. Teague, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Teague, 2222 14th street, in a ring ceremony read in the junior chapel of the First Baptist church Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. The groom's uncle, the Rev. D. B. Doak, pastor of the First Methodist church, Plainview, presided before a group of relatives and close friends of the couple.

Sam Teague and Howard Patterson were ushers.

Miss Alice Claire Teague, sister of the groom, played Lohengrin's "Briday Procession" for the entrance of the bridal party, and during the reading of the vows played soft music.

Sister Is Matron Of Honor

First to enter was Mrs. Ellis Dayton of Fort Worth, who was matron of honor. Mrs. Ellis is a sister of the bride. Her escort was her brother, W. B. Patterson, also of Fort Worth. Mrs. Dayton was dressed in blue crepe and wore a hat of a corresponding shade. She wore a corsage of rosebuds.

Miss Floy Pryor, who was maid of honor, was lovely in a chiffon frock of peach. She wore a hat of pink lace and pink satin slippers. Her bouquet was a shower of sweet peas and snapdragons. Mr. E. M. Carter of Plainview was best man.

Bride Enters With Father

The bride entered on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage. She was quite attractive in a dress of eggshell crepe and real lace embroidered in seed pearls. Her hat was of tan lace and her slippers of eggshell kid. Miss Patterson's only ornament was a strand of pearls. She carried a shower of pink roses and valley lilies.

Mendelssohn's March was chosen as the recessional.

Mr. and Mrs. Teague left immediately following the ceremony for a short wedding trip to Amarillo and upon their return will be at home in this city.

The groom is a teacher in the high school here. Mrs. Teague has been teaching the past year at Southland and will finish the year there. Both young people are graduates of Texas Technological col-

Friendship Group Favored At Party

Sweetpeas formed the decorations for a party given members of the 1930 Friendship club in the home of Mrs. Minnie Jackson Friday afternoon with Mrs. Maggie Hussey as joint hostess.

Games were played during the afternoon, and Miss Joellen Vannoy entertained with a reading.

Refreshments were served to Mesdames R. L. Carrell, Reeves Catt, A. H. Crawford, J. D. Cox, E. B. Harris, Joe Hess, Harry Hall, B. F. Hodges, A. G. Odom, W. L. Stringer, Pebble Talley, Erle Thompson, M. A. Welch, Fred Adkins, and one visitor, Mrs. Walker.

Homes Improved During Past Week

The New Hope club women are seeking to make good homes "better homes" and much interest was manifested during "Better Homes" week which has just closed.

Rooms have been refinished, furniture has been made to look like new, and much has been done to improve the home grounds in the way of sodding yards, planting shade trees, shrubs, and fruit trees.

In order to get "Better Homes" in the minds of all the people of the community, the pastor of the New Hope church gladly consented to give a sermon with "Better Homes" as his subject.

Mid-Afternoon Bridge Party Given Friday By Mesdames G. H. Ater And W. A. Jackson In E. Y. Freeland Home

Cut flowers were used to decorate the rooms for a mid-afternoon bridge party given Friday by Mesdames G. H. Ater and W. A. Jackson in the home of Mrs. E. Y. Freeland, 2517 22nd street. The springtime motif was stressed further in dainty game appointments, and the refreshments, which consisted of ice cream moulded as pink roses were served with white cake. Clusters of pansies were given as plate favors.

Orchid, pink, and green were stressed in all details of the function, and lovely pieces of rose-colored pottery were given as prizes to Miss Zella Riegel for high score and to Mrs. G. W. McCleary, for high cut in the games.

Those Present

Guests were Mesdames Jack Parsons, F. W. Zachary, W. O. McMillan, J. N. Michie, F. R. Friend, J. T. Hutchinson, Herbert Maxwell, J. H. Hankins, O. C. Corry, M. E. Ogden, Root, B. Hawkins, T. J. Foster, Y. W. Rogers, W. F. Schenck, Hubert Allen, Earl Moore, Grady H. Higginbotham, O. B. Conley, J. R. Dickey, A. C. Hendrix, D. D. Cross, B. F. Condray, W. B. Gates, O. L. Peterman, Floyd Bowen, C. E. Holden, and Misses Mamie Wolffarth, Emma Main, Lucille Gill, Zella Riegel, and three Slaton guests, Mesdames Kirby Brown, Howard Riggs, Bectal, E. Y. Freeland and Dewitt Fears. Mrs. G. W. McCleary was a tea guest.

Ribbles Are Hosts To Pastime Club

Members of the Pastime club were guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Ribble, 2220 18th street, Friday evening, and games of forty-two were played.

Pink and white snapdragons and rosebuds were used in the decorations and in the tallies and score pads. An ice course served at the close of the evening further accentuated the chosen motif, with sweetpeas being given for plate favors.

Mrs. J. D. Reese was presented a pottery vase for award in high score and a novelty ash tray went to Gordon Flenniken for high score among the men.

Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Joe Baldridge, Albert Pryar, Allan Hill, C. E. Moreman, J. L. Murfee, A. K. O'Kelley, J. D. Reese, W. J. Spikes and Gordon Flenniken.

Bride-To-Be Feted Friday And Saturday

One O'clock Bridge-Luncheon And Formal Dinner Among Lovely Climaxing Affairs Of Past Week

AS the day draws near for the wedding of Miss Lucille Moxley and Winfield Watkins, in-honor functions are continuing in full swing. On Friday evening, Mrs. Homer D. Grant entertained with a formal dinner at the Hilton hotel, and on Saturday, Mrs. F. C. Yarbro of Oklahoma City and Mrs. J. D. Hassell were joint hostesses for a one-o'clock bridge-luncheon at Hotel Lubbock.

Roses and valley lilies combined with maidenhair fern formed the centerpiece for the table on Friday. The honoree's place was marked with miniature bride frocked in lace and tulle and carrying a bridal bouquet of valley lilies, and Mr. Watkin's place was marked with a miniature groom. Tall, white tapers lighted the table, where the dinner was served in five courses.

Wears Printed Net

The honoree was wearing a charming dinner frock of printed net, with the color rose predominating. Two ruffles formed the ever-length skirt, and a rose-colored velvet bow at the natural waistline in the center back extended to the ankles. The frock was worn with a strand of pearls and natural linen shoes.

Guests were Miss Lucille Moxley, Winfield Watkins, Mrs. W. D. Watkins of Ralls, Walker Watkins of Ralls, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Moxley, Miss Kate Boyd, Miss Blanche Bradley, Miss Geraldine Smith, Miss Mary Snyder, Miss Anne Snyder, William Evans, Suggs Robinson, of Slaton, James Alls, John Keathley, Mr. and Mrs. Ross McWhorter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Douglas, and Mrs. F. C. Yarbro.

Rosebuds As Centerpiece

Rosebuds formed a lovely centerpiece for the luncheon given by Mesdames Hassell and Yarbro, and the bridal motif was stressed in place cards, score pads, and tallies.

Miniature bridal bouquets were given as favors with the dainty ice course, and prizes were given for high score, high cut, and to the honoree.

Guests were Misses Lucille Moxley, Geraldine Smith, Blanche Bradley, Mary and Anne Snyder, Kate Boyd, and Mary Lou Bayless; Mesdames R. D. Moxley, John Dalrymple, Jewell Davis, Homer D. Grant, Howell Arnett, Richard L. Douglas, Bass Arnett, W. D. Watkins of Ralls, J. C. Bean of Ralls, A. B. Davis, R. S. Rodgers, R. A. Mills, and S. B. Arnett.

Women Of Lubbock Are Anticipating The Building Of A Woman's Club House

Club Presidents State That Need Is Sufficiently Great To Begin Work Immediately

Problem Of Regular Meetings, As Well As Conventions, Special Programs, And Entertainments, Demands Solution On Part Of Women Of City

THE PROGRESS of Lubbock during the past few years has been steady and sure. As new needs have arisen, the people have cooperated to the fullest extent. Now comes a new need and a new challenge—that of building a woman's club house.

As the situation stands, the same problem, "Where to meet next?" is presented at practically every club session. True, some club meetings are held at the churches and others are held at Tech, but most of them are held in the homes of members, thus causing some inconvenience for the hostesses, besides being a bit indefinite.

Another problem is presented when the various groups entertain. The Little Theater must have a place to present its plays and the Music club needs a properly equipped room for musical programs. Entertainments and programs are also held by the various other clubs from time to time, and a convenient place for these events would be welcomed.

Place Of Rest

A club house, furthermore, would be a place where the members might gather at any time to rest or to chat informally and to hold committee meetings. It might also be available for private parties given by members.

"The building of a club house would be most wonderful thing we could do," said Mrs. R. S. Rodgers, president of the Lu Beta Delphian chapter, who was quite enthusiastic over the prospect of building a home for the clubs.

Smaller Cities Have Them

"There is no reason in the world why Lubbock could not make the undertaking a success," said Mrs. Rodgers. "Both Lamesa and Eastland have club houses. The one at Eastland is owned by the Thursday club and is rented to the other clubs of the city.

"The experience of attending a district meeting of the Texas Federation of Women's clubs such as the one recently held in Pampa is enough to inspire any group of women to build a club house.

"There are several ways of financing such a building, and the one which best suits the various clubs should be chosen. A large amount of the money could be raised through private subscriptions, and a small tax from each club could be collected for the upkeep of the building and the salary of a hostess."

It Can Be Done

"Lubbock is now large enough to have a club house, and I see no reason why one could not be built," declared Mrs. William Dingus, president of the American Association of University Women.

"Besides meeting the needs of purely local activities, the club house would be an ideal place to hold conventions.

"We would need an auditorium to seat between 500 and 1000 persons, a kitchen, a rest room, and several club rooms.

"Each club might pledge a certain amount toward building the house, and be responsible for raising that amount."

Among Greatest Needs

"I am heartily in favor of building a club house, and believe it is one of the greatest needs of Lubbock," said Mrs. R. A. Mills, president of the Little Theater. "The people of Lubbock can construct the building if they are sufficiently interested," she said.

"It would be a wonderful thing to build a club house in Lubbock," according to Mrs. O. L. Peterman, president of the Junior Twentieth Century club. "One big auditorium would meet all entertaining needs, and a few club rooms would be sufficient for all regular meetings."

Should Be Asset

"I would not be in favor of building a small, temporary building," stressed Mrs. Richard L. Douglas, president of the Lubbock Music club. "However, the clubs are capable of erecting a structure that would be an asset to the city. The music club needs such a building badly, both for regular meetings and for special programs."

Already Advocated It

"I have already advocated providing for a place for club meetings and entertainments," said Mrs. W. W. Royalty, president of the Parent-Teachers Association, and vice-president of the Sorosis club. "The need might be met by building club rooms in another building, such as the proposed American Legion building, or by buying an old building and improving it."

"Smaller towns than Lubbock have club houses, and there is no reason why we should not have one," affirmed Mrs. Charles Whitacre, president of the New Era club. "Such a construction would be meeting a great need of the local clubs."

Kil Kare Bridge Club Entertained

Mrs. V. W. Bradley, 2507 21st street, was hostess to members of the Kil Kare bridge club Friday afternoon in her home, 2507 21st street.

Pink roses were used to decorate the entertaining rooms, and pink baskets filled with candy were favors on dainty salad plates.

Prizes in the games went to Mrs. Earle Robinson for high score among the guests, to Mrs. G. L. Dixon for high club score, and to Mrs. George Sinnigson for high cut.

Members present were Mesdames F. D. Bledsoe, G. L. Dixon, Altus Sansom, Guy Hughes, Marcus Helbur, Robert Harvey, and Hurley Carpenter. Guests ere Mesdames Gaylord Hankins, George Sinnigson, W. N. Levine, Earle Robinson, and Russell of Fort Worth.

Eleanor Hunt Is Film Cinderella

Eleanor Hunt . . . 20, vivacious and auburn-haired

Eleanor Hunt . . . 20, vivacious and auburn-haired.
BY DAN THOMAS
NEA Service Writer

HOLLYWOOD, May 2—The Cinderella story still comes true, on occasions. If you don't believe it, listen to the story of 20-year-old vivacious and auburn-haired Eleanor Hunt. She became a movie star in just one week's time.

Eleanor, a short time ago, was attending George Washington High School in New York, planning to become an interior decorator. When she graduated, however, she had to make some money; so she managed to get a job as chorus girl in the Eddie Cantor musical show, "Whoopee."

Recently Cantor came to Hollywood to make a film version of the play. Among others, he had Eleanor come along too, to appear in the chorus.

Then Samuel Goldwyn saw her. He took one good look—and then picked her from among 100 aspirants to play the feminine lead in the picture, opposite Cantor.

So now Eleanor, who was just another chorus girl the other day, is right on the high road to fame. And all in one week after she arrived in Hollywood.

She is a typical "whoopee" girl with plenty of looks and personality thrown in.

The announcement party was made Saturday, April 26, by the bride-elect's mother, at a prettily appointed bridge-luncheon.

Roses Are Used

The home was lovely with great quantities of American Beauty and La France roses. In the dining room a golden wedding bell was suspended above the long table, which was covered with lace over yellow satin. Favors were lovely colonial bouquets of mints. An orchid and gold motif was emphasized in all appointments.

Miss Dunman is well known in Lubbock. She received a degree of bachelor of arts from Texas Technological college last spring.

Mr. Rollo is the only son of Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Rollo, 1802 Avenue S.

Pupils To Present Two Short Plays

Miss Lula Mae Cravens is presenting several expression pupils in a recital next Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the chapel of the First Methodist church.

The first part will be a short play, "The Fairy and the Doll" (Fyleman Rose) and the characters are "Silver Wing", a fairy, played by Eubice Klett and "Patty's Doll", little Dorothy Sue Standefer.

"Jane's Father (Dorothy Aldis) is a short book written in prose. Jane is six years old, and the family consists of Jane's father and mother, the twins, the twins' nurse, cook, and William, a man-of-all work.

Father Is Problem

Jane's father is the worst problem of all. He likes his "eggs-in-a-mess", he says his words wrong, he has a wobbly head, but in the end he triumphs, to cure them of curing him.

The book is divided into the "Wobble Cure", read by Elizabeth Spencer; "Telling the Twins Apart", Helen Wagner; "The Picnic", Elaine Meyers; "Eggs in a Nest", Robin Pace; "William and Jane", Ruth Wagner.

Ruth Holland will continue the telling of the story by reading "Jane's Friends"; "Jane's Father's Own Ideas", Katherine Klett; "The Twins' Pins", Marguerite Spencer, and "How Father Was Cured", read by Catherine Royalty.

Everyone who is interested in dramatic work is invited to attend the recital, according to Miss Cravens.

FAVOR PROHIBITION

DETROIT, May 3. (AP)—Delegates to the biennial convention of the National Young Womens Christian association in their closing session today voted in favor of prohibition.

BPW Meeting Is Of Interest In Lubbock

National President Is To Be Present At The Convention; Miss Daisy H. Leake Will Be On Program

Great enthusiasm is being evinced by members of the Business and Professional Women's club who are planning for a large delegation to attend the state convention of Business and Professional Women's club in Harlingen, June 19, 20 and 21, according to Mrs. Blanche Fulgham, president of the Valley Federation.

Among the national officers who will be in attendance at the convention is Miss Mary McClenck of Ann Arbor, Michigan, president of the National Business and Professional Women's club, which is composed of all the clubs throughout the United States. Miss McClench will address the convention.

Miss Daisy H. Leake, of Temple, second vice president of the National Federaton, the only officer of the national organization from Texas, will also be given a featured place on the program.

State officers include Miss Mary Jane Higgins, Fort Worth, president; Miss Julia O'Brien, Brownsville, first vice president; Miss Mary O. Lilyerstrom, Beaumont, recording secretary; Miss Rhoda Murray, Fort Worth, corresponding secretary; and Miss Anna Stallworth, Cameron, treasurer.

The nine Business and Professional Women's clubs in the Lower Rio Grande Valley are joining together to act as hostesses to the convention, according to Mrs. Fulgham.

These nine clubs, each run as a separate organization, have a Valley federation so that they meet together quarterly. It is this federation which will entertain the state convention, the nine clubs with a membership of 130 representing a population of over 200,000 people of the Lower Valley section which covers an area of about sixty miles long and thirty miles wide.

The Valley clubs are in Brownsville, Harlingen, San Benito, Mercedes, Weslaco, Donna, McAllen, Edinburg and Raymondaville.

"Heretofore the Valley Federation has been a social organization, growing out of the need for learning to know the personnel of our sister clubs. So when Harlingen was chosen for the 1930 state convention the entire Valley made use of the organization so that it could entertain the convention in the finest way possible," says Mrs. Fulgham.

Delegates attending the convention will be taken on a tour of the Valley and entertained in the towns where there are business and professional women's clubs.

The business and professional women's clubs of the state will report at the convention on the work they have accomplished during the past year, their clubs in each of the local communities taking their places alongside the Rotary, Kiwanis, Lions and other service clubs which have exclusive men's membership.

HEALTH IN BATHING

Everyone appreciates the wonderful satisfaction a soft water bath gives. That velvety feeling and invigorating cleansing can be obtained in no other way. Infants should never be bathed in hard water. The tallow from the soap combining with the lime in the water forms a greasy, sticky mass which clogs up the pores and causes skin irritations.

A Great Toilet Aid

A quick shave with soft water starts the day right. A heavy beard is covered with a rich, creamy lather which is rare where hard water is used. Beauty parlors and barber shops are especially loud in their praise of the Paramount softened water for all purposes, and those who are now using it marvel as to how they have gotten along without it. Hair washed in softened water is restored to its beautiful natural lustre and fluffiness. For the woman who wants to preserve her complexion Paramount softened water restores it to its natural velvety smoothness.

An Aid In Cooking And Dishwashing

Foods cooked in soft water have a more pleasing taste; peas, beans, potatoes and all skinned vegetables cooked in Paramount Softened water retain their original flavor and cook in less time, because both lime and magnesium are absent. The skin pores remain open and the heat penetrates to the center and the food is evenly cooked throughout. Coffee making thus requires less coffee and the full aroma is developed—likewise tea.

Ideal For Laundering

For the laundry it has been proved that clothing washed in hard water deteriorate much faster, become faded and discolored and do not last as long as when soft water is used. Clothing washed in soft water comes out snow white, clean smelling and soft. The meshes of the fabric do not contain soap curd or scum that causes yellow or dirty looking spots when ironed. The daintiest linens and lingerie can quickly and easily be handled. Dainty hands are kept soft and smooth and the housewife feels a real pleasure in working with Paramount softened water.

Eliminates Scale

For heating plant and water pipes in homes or industrial plants or any place where a boiler is used for generating steam or, hot water for any purpose whatsoever, conditions are improved by the use of Paramount softened water. The lime in hard water forms a scale which clogs the pipes and runs up the plumbing bills, scale is completely eliminated by the use of Paramount soft water.

Tech Freshmen Will Observe Annual "Fish" Day, May 10; Silver Falls Trip Planned

Upperclassmen To Be Underdogs During Day; Special Train To Carry Group To Crosbyton For Day

The popular saying, "Hey, Slime, take these books home," will be changed May 10 to "The honorable Freshman So-and-so orders you lowly upperclassman to work his math problems for Monday, write his theme, and to clean his room while he enjoys himself at Silver Falls."

The reason for this change in conditions is the fact that May 10 is designated as "Freshman Day" at Texas Technological college and the members of the class expect to put the bottom rail atop the social ladder.

It is customary that after observing this anniversary, no hazing will be done for the freshman is considered a regular college citizen after he has been here long enough to merit attending "Freshman Day" ceremonies. To him, the day is the most colorful in the calendar, for it is the one on which to repay all upperclassmen for past whippings or enforced labor. He is the ruler! The upperclassmen are the serfs!

As has been the custom in the past, the day will begin at 12 o'clock Friday night and will end at the same time Saturday. A special train leaves Lubbock at 7:30 o'clock Saturday morning and is expected to carry some 500 freshmen and a few higher students to Crosbyton, where the crowd will be met by the Crosbyton chamber of commerce and conveyed to Silver Falls. The day's program there will consist of a swimming, dancing, skating, boating and eating. A class meeting will be held sometime during the day, at which time, class officers for 1931 will be chosen.

An orchestra has been secured which will furnish music for four or five hours of dancing. A barbecue lunch will be served at noon by the ladies of a Crosbyton church. Following the class meeting several athletic contest will be held, featuring the potato race, sack race and if possible, a donkey race.

Aboard the special train will be issues of the school newspaper, the Toreador, which is to be edited by members of the class that week. It will feature the activities of the freshman class. The special train will return about sundown.

While, the return of the special, officially ends the days program, many of the upperclassmen are expecting visits to their rooms until midnight.

Truett Brooks, president of the class, Lynn Gray Gordon, Cecil Kersey and Lonnie Langston, class sponsor, are in charge of the day's activities.

Littlefield Will Give 30 Diplomas

By Staff Correspondent

LITTLEFIELD, May 3. — Thirty boys and girls will be graduated from the Littlefield high school Tuesday, May 20, B. M. Harrison, superintendent of schools, announced today in making public the list of graduates.

ONE MINUTE PULPIT

For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

But when we are judged we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.—I Cor., xi, 31-32.

SHORT STAPLE COTTON, A HI-JACKER

WHEN the citizenship of the South Plains becomes fully aware of the great amount of hi-jacking that has been going on in this section, by reason of the millions of dollars in wealth that are being taken from cotton produces by short staple cotton, the right sort of movement to out-law such coton will be started.

In an article appearing on the first page of today's Avalanche-Journal, there are give numerous facts and figures that are astounding, to say the least.

Short Staple cotton—varieties yielding less than seven-eighths of an inch staple—this season has robbed South Plains cotton growers of almost four million dollars. The same land, planted to cotton varieties with known yields of seven-eighths inch staple, would have produced as many — perhaps more—bales.

Where the hi-jacking prevails is in the difference in price of the cotton—at least 3 cents per pound, or $15 a bale.

It is true that the hog-round system of buying is probably responsible for a great portion of this difference being absorbed by the ginners, who bought to keep competitors from getting the ginning. But, in the long run, it will be the producer who pays.

The greatest lesson to be learned from the statistics made public on tenderable and untenderable cotton in Texas, by the United States Department of Agriculture, for the 1929-1930 season, is the overwhelming percentage of untenderable cotton produced on the South Plains. While the state as a whole reports 25.6 per cent of its cotton untenderable, because of short staple if the Farmers Gin company samples from Lubbock are typical of this section, which we believe to be true, the South Plains is raising at least 30 per cent of its cotton below standards of demand.

And, while this un-tenderable cotton may be sold this year, the time approaches when there will be no market, for this short staple. On top of this, every bale of untenderable cotton left over each season is marked up against the supply of cotton on hand awaiting market demand.

While we believe cotton growers of this area will this year reduce their acreage somewhat and, while many of them will plant cotton of greater staple length, we think too much stress can not be placed upon the need for getting away as hurriedly as possible—from anything that is hi-jacking producers out of millions upon millions of dollars.

As figures are quoted in the article referred to above, this short staple hi-jacking affects the pocketbook of each individual cotton farmer to the extent of at least $300, on the average.

Three hundred dollars will go a long way towards paying off mortgages. It will pay interest on quite a good-sized farm. It will add considerably to the average farm family's income. And, the same land, the same work, the same amount of seed, the same expense in handling, would have produced as many bales—with another $300 added to the bank roll of the average cotton farmer.

ATHLETES AND ATHLETICS

Those who are inclined to deplore the modern tendency to unduly glorify a successful athlete and to overemphasize athletics need not deceive themselves that such has not always been the custom.

Americans make much ado over professional baseball and collegiate and scholastic football. Millions have been expended on stadiums and there has been widespread dissatisfaction over the fact that football coaches earn more in three months than professors earn in nine. There is another popular superstition to the effect that college and high school athletics, league baseball, golf and horse racing are being taken too seriously, at the expense of academic studies, home and business.

Sports have reached a high stage of development in the United States and in some foreign countries, yet none seem to have even approximated the athletics and sports of ancient Rome and Greece.

The Colosseum and similar arenas and amphitheaters of Rome and Greece have left their ruins to remind the modern world how ancient civilizations lavished their wealth on their athletics and athletes. The Olympionikae, as the victors of the Olympiads then were known, were showered with every conceivable honor and opportunity for living in luxury ever after.

Think of the training a scientist must have to look at a fossilized fragment of a prehistoric mammoth's thigh bone and tell in what age it was part of a man's skull.

Some people do well to listen to other people's troubles. They forget their own.

PHILIPPINE DELEGATES AROUSED OVER PLAN OF CONGRESSMAN FISH TO DUMP REDS ON THEIR ISLANDS

By Charles P. Stewart, Central Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, May 3.—Dumping all the reds in the country on an island somewhere, and leaving them there to be radical among themselves to their hearts' content, has been suggested plenty of times—but hitherto the island seldom, if ever, has been even approximately indicated. The notion appears to have been little more than an abstract thought, indeed—inchoate, vague.

When Representative Hamilton Fish, Jr., of New York, mentioned the idea recently, specifically in connection with "some island in the Philippines," it made all the difference in the world.

It actually began to sound like a practical plan—thus proposed, with a degree of geographical definiteness.

In fact, it sounded practical enough to involve Representative Fish in a heated discussion with the Philippines' congressional delegates, who were prompt to object to any scheme the New Yorker might be maturing, to wish the Unite Sdtates' Communists onto their archipelago.

It seems they were unnecessarily alarmed, however, the Empire state lawmaker does not especially insist on the Phillippines.

"A good island anywhere would do," he says.

"For that matter, a remote mainland spot could be made to serve, though it is natural to thing first of an island, because a quarantine (which is what this would amount to) is comparatively easy to enforce against an insular community.

"An island certainly would be preferable—one of our own, if we have a suitable one; or we could purchase one, also buying out its present inhabitants and moving them elsewhere."

Representative Fish is an odd character. Among the richest of the very wealthy men in congress, his views are exceptionally liberal—old age pension legislation and social welfare measures in general particularly interest him.

He referred casually to his projected island home for political radicals at a meeting of the representatives' rules committee, while urging action on a resolution to investigate communism's spread in America.

Later he told me that he meant it seriously.

"I have no quarrel," he said, "with Socialists; they seek to attain their ends through the ballot box.

"Communists, however, advocate violence—the overthrow of our government. We have no choice but to take steps to checkmate such a program; and yet I dislike a policy of punishing folk for their political ideas. Prison makes martyrs of them. Besides they spread their doctrines behind the bars by proselyting among common criminals."

"It seems to me," reasoned the New York multi-millionaire-legislator, "that much the better system of dealing with followers of their creed is to segregate them and let them develop their own philosophy in their own way where they will be no annoyance to the rest of us.

"They can hardly call it a punishment. A sincere Communist ought to welcome a chance to live in the midst of communistic conditions.

"I favor supplying them with a satisfactory island—a fertile one, with a good climate and adequate room—equipping them with the necessaries of life—enough to last them while getting a fair start—and giving them an entirely free hand, subject only to the condition that they must remain there. A force would have to be maintained to prevent them from leaving, but otherwise I believe there ought not to be the slightest interference with them."

It would cost considerable money. "So do prisons," rejoined the congressman.

If the colonists made good, it would be all right? "Absolutely."

WORRIED MOTHER INSISTS SEEMINGLY HEALTHY SON HAS TOO LOW PULSE BEAT

Pulse Beats

"Dear Doctor: Quite recently I discovered that my son's pulse beats only 48 per minute. He is 17 years old, very active and seemingly healthy. What is your opinion of this? "MRS. G."

Are you sure you know how to palpate and count the pulse beat properly, Mrs. G.? And if your boy is suffering from some illness, haven't you called a physician?

The normal pulse in the newborn and during the first year of life varies from 130 to 140 beats per minute; around the third year, it drops to 100, and around the sixth year to 90. The average number of beats for the adult male is 72 per minute, while in females it is slightly higher. But the pulse varies in different persons. The influence of temperament and certain persona idiosyncrasies may cause it to fluctuate between 60 and 80 per minute during adult life (Anders and Boston.)

Even under normal conditions the pulse rate may be unusually slow in some; this is known as a congenital slow pulse. In the aged, a pulse of 60 is not uncommon. Naturally, as a result of exercise and mental strain, excitement, and after a full meal, the pulse beat increases; even during extreme heat it may be more rapid.

I hope you're not one of those mothers who are always taking temperatures and pulses and keeping your child in a state of anxiety about his health? Don't do this, Mrs. G. Such a procedure lays the foundation for neuroses (functional disturbances of the mind and nervous system) which may cause trouble throughout life.

"Dear Doctor: A doctor, who is not what you call a 'regular,' has told me that eating yeast will cause pernicious anemia, and that bran is harmful as it always irritates the stomach and intestines. Are these statements true? MRS. K."

No, neither of these statements is true, Mrs. K.

Those who have been on a diet that has been low in the vitamin B (the anti-neuritic vitamin) are benefited by taking a small amount of yeast a day, as this is very high in the vitamin. (I don't think it is necessary to take so much as the advertisements say; even half a cake a day should be sufficient.) If you don't like yeast here is an official preparation called Vitavose, which you can obtain at all drug stores, made of malted wheat germ, which is exceedingly high in vitamin B and iron.

So far as bran's being irritating; It is irritating to some intestinal tracts, but to the majority it is simply stimulating enough, with its bulk, to produce normal bowel movement. Bran is also high in vitamin B and mineral elements and so is a good food.

But remember this: any good thing can be overdone.

We have an article on Balanced Diet which will help you check up on your diet. See column rules.

Editor's Note. Dr. Peters cannot diagnose nor give personal advice. Your questions, if of general interest, will be answered in the column in their turn. Requests for articles or pamphlets on hand must be accompanied by a fully self-addressed, stamped envelope, plus the following small charge to help cover cost of printing and handling: for each article wanted, two cents in coin. BEGIN HERE TODAY

NATALIE CONVERSE tries to conquer her jealousy when other women admire her handsome husband, ALAN. When he receives a call to the home of BERNADINE LAMONT, a popular night club hostess, she demands that he refuse to go and that he give up the business of "that Lamont woman." Alan explains that Bernadine is the widow of a war buddy who had save his life, but Natalie is mornful. After a quarrel in which he taunts her for refusing to bear him children, Alan leaves and Natalie spends a miserable evening—never dreaming that he is listening to a doctor tell him that Bernadine's recovery is doubtful.

The actress surprises Alan by requesting him to take BOBBY in the event of her death. He promises and tries to tell Natalie but her rebuffs silence him. Later he confides in his secretary, PHILLIPA WEST, who has always been soothingly sympathetic. This gives the girl the opportunity she has been heping for, and during the next few weeks she works out a plan.

When Natalie comes to the office, Phillipa engages her in conversation and talks gushingly about helping pick out toys for "darling Bobby" and shows her a letter from Bernadine in which Alan's visits to Bobby are mentioned. In a rage, Natalie leaves without speaking to Alan, except to show her temper.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER VII

Alan had a faint hope that Natalie would apologize for her behavior. He wanted her to come to him and tell him she was sorry, ask him to forgive her.

Only a thorough clearing away of the misunderstanding would put their marriage back on a normal basis.

He decided he'd have to give her the chance to apologize. That's why he was going home. He knew it wasn't because he wanted a hot bath. Only he wasn't going to humble himself any more. He'd done that enough—begging her to tell him what he'd done, give him a chance to explain.

No, he'd had enough of that. It was up to Natalie now.

He opened his front door in quite the same manner as usual. He'd let her know that he wasn't too angry to be approached.

Natalie heard him, and her heart pounded furiously. The fear that he might not come home at all had haunted her every minute since she'd walked out of his office in a manner for which she now burned with shame.

But she did not go to him, or call out a word of greeting. Aside from her regret for having made a fool of herself in his secretary's presence, she was unchanged in her temper.

This was something he could not explain as he had so many other affairs, she assured herself, as she sat before her beautifully appointed dressing table, and stuck golden pins into her pale hair.

What satisfaction it had given her once, the moonlight quality of it, and her orchid-fine skin. How little it seemed to mean now.

Yet she was glad she was beautiful. It somehow gave her moral support when she went down ahead of Alan and waited in the softly lighted living room for him to finish dressing. She did not know that the power of beauty is too often ruthlessly misused—that eventually it makes its owner suffer by causing her to overestimate the endurance of its effect.

She knew she made a charming picture, seated before the sea salt-brightened fire, with a pile of silken pillows at her back. Alan should have melted as soon as he saw her, but he didn't.

His face wore an inscrutable expression. Natalie told herself he wanted to know how much she'd found out before committing himself to any line of defense.

Well, he should know! There was no reason why she should fence.

Alan, unknowingly, delayed her attack. "What's the matter: isn't there anything for a cocktail in the house?" he asked, glancing at the empty stand by the davenport.

"I don't know," Natalie answered tartly.

"I'll go and see," Alan said pleasantly. He was determined she should not stir his temper, thinking to show her that the way was open for a better understanding between them.

When he returned, Natalie refused the glass he offered her. He took his in silence.

"Oh, let's have dinner," Natalie exclaimed suddenly.

She led the way to their charming dining room, and Alan's heart sank. It was plain that whatever had caused the trouble that afternoon would have to be threshed out in battle.

Instantly, his own intentions changed. He was weary of trying to handle the situation diplomatically. Why couldn't he be allowed to eat his dinner in a pleasant atmosphere? Already he could feel himself succumbing to nervous indigestion, a complaint that was growing steadily more acute with him.

Natalie toyed with the canape before her. He swallowed his in two bites. Then his rebellion burst forth in a flood.

"Well, let's have it," he said challengingly, leaning back in his chair and nervously wiping his lips.

Natalie smiled a wintry, accusing smile. "Must we?" she retorted, shrugging distastefully.

Alan grimaced back at her. "You know we must," he said. "You wouldn't miss it for the world."

Natalie's eyes widened, then narrowed in reaction to her quick anger. "I'm not asking you to explain," she said hotly.

"No?" Alan laughed. "But you will give me a chance to, won't you?" He was sarcastic and Natalie knew it, but the flame within her had burned out the pride that might have kept her silent. She could not resist her desire to know why he bought toys for Bernadine Lamont's child.

"What am I accused of this time?" Alan went on, reading her thoughts aright.

Natalie stared back at him, tense and bitter

"To save time," she said, with a sarcasm to match his own, "I'll tell you. Why are you interested in Bernadine Lamont?"

Alan's expression grew blank. He sensed an unspoken charge beneath her words, something he could not cope with.

Natalie drew in her breath sharply, as he spread out his hands in a gesture of futility.

AN OLD FASHIONED SUNDAY

Do you remember Sunday morning not so many years ago? Remeber how the church bells were ringing as you put the last touches on your Sunday shoe shine before reporting to your other for final inspection? Down the street then, between your father and mother, nodding to friends and neighbors all bound on the same errand. What a wholesome spirit of unaffected Christian kindness was abroad that day!

Then the old familiar hymns, in which all the congregation joined so lustily, the honest heartfelt prayers and the reading from the Bible. Perhaps the sermon seemed dull, perhaps the whole day appeared dull to you in contrast with the joyous freedom of Saturday, but what would you give now to have such days back again, between your father and mother in the old church again. To sit once again between your father and mother in the old church where they worshipped God with such simple faith.

Since those days you have drifted far from the church. In the ceaseless rush of modern life you may have given up the habit of regular church going. Perhaps you are not even giving your children that Christian environment hich belongs by right to every American boy and girl.

But have you ever stopped to think of what you are missing, what you are forcing your children to miss by such a course??

To that Christian atmosphere and environment you owe most of the good in your own character. To it, also, is due in large measure the present greatness of America, for the ideals and inspirations that have led our country forward are fundamentally Christians.

Why not make next Sunday an old fashioned Sunday by going to your church?—for 'your church' means every church in this city. Every one of them opens its doors to you with Christian hospitality.

Give the time honored service an opportunity to reawaken within you the spirit of peace, friendliness and self-sacrifice of an old fashioned Sunday.

Observe the Lord's Day as your father and forefathers oberved it before you.—ODLE HOLCOMB.

cried furiously. "I know that there's something more between you than a business relationship. What is it? Why don't you tell me?"

The storm of her accusation was breaking over a sob in her throat.

"You're forgetting Jack Lamont," he said.

Natalie's answering laugh cracked hysterically. "Oh, am I?" she sneered. "And what are you doing? Do you think that he would want a married man mixed up with his widow?"

Alan's fist crashed down upon the table. "Natalie! Stop it! You know that Bernadine is nothing to me . . ."

Natalie was on her feet. "How about the boy?" she shot at him.

"Bobby?" Alan was taken off his guard.

Alan completely lost his temper. "You bet he is something to me," he declared warmly; "my favorite child."

"Not what you're thinking," he assured her stingingly. "Bobby's name is Lamont. And he's a regular kid. I wish I had a dozen like him."

Natalie gasped and started to speak, but Alan shut her off.

"I'm tired of your everlasting suspicions," he stormed, and flung his napkin to the table.

Natalie made no protest, as he strode from the room in the high tide of his anger. It flashed over her that she had learned nothing of value to her. And their quarrel was going to end as usual—with Alan going off somewhere alone. But there was one satisfaction that belonged to this occasion He could not go to Bernadine Lamont, Not unless he went to Atlantic City . . . Natalie caught her breath in dismay, and flew to the door.

She saw Alan leaving, his coat under his arm, and his hat in his hand. She wanted to call out to him, but the conflict of her much bruised pride and her natural inclinations choked her utterance.

And in the kitchen the cook and the waitress talked and "guessed it wouldn't be long now."

Alan caught a train to New York, and went directly to his office. He had forgotten about dinner—about everything but the rotten mess it got a man into to have a jealous wife. Forgot that he'd told Phillipa he would return to the office

He was surprised to see a light in the office when he opened the door. He though the cleaning people were through by this hour.

Then he noticed that the light wasn't in the outer room, but was coming through the open door of his private office.

He hastened his steps, a vague doubt in his mind of all being right.

Nineteen Criminal Cases On Docket As Muleshoe Looks To May Term; Clements To Be On Bench

(By Staff Correspondent)

MULESHOE, May 3.—Nineteen criminal cases, mostly liquor, are on the docket for the May term of district court which is scheduled to open Monday, May 5.

Hon. Charles Clements, of Plainview, district judge, will preside. Meade F. Griffin, also of Plainview, is district attorney.

The county grand jury is scheduled to convene Monday morning. There are a number of cases for investigation including that of John Lacy, formerly connected with the Blackwater Valley bank who has been arrested on a warrant issued in justice court. He was bound over to await action of the grand jury.

Civil matters will be heard the first two weeks of the term with criminal matters coming the third week. This docket has not been set and is to be set probably the opening day of the term.

NO COUNTY COURT

MULESHOE, May 3.—Owing to district court opening the coming week no session of county court, which was to have begun May 5, will be held until after the May term of district court is over with, Judge J. E. Adams, reports. The county court docket is not very heavy, he said. There are no important cases on the docket.

AUDIT IS COMPLETED

MULESHOE, May 3.—Thomas Y. Pickett and Co. of Dallas, auditors and accountants, have just completed an audit of the books of Bailey county. The company in its report to the county commissioners, complimented the several officials of the county whose books they went over. Only a few minor discrepancies were found.

Lubbock Business Man Endorses Orgatane Remedy

"I'm Grateful For The Health And Happiness It Has Brought To My Home"

"I m one of the happiest men in Texas today and I just want to tell my friends what Argotane has done for my wife," said J. T. South of 1613 Sixteenth Street, Lubbock, Texas, who owns and operates the J. T. South Gin Company.

"She had suffered so for the past fifteen years," he continued, "with stomach trouble and indigestion that we had almost given up hope. She had very little appetite and misery for her; her nerves went all to pieces, and she got weak and run down and would have to lit down and rest during the day while trying to do her housework. She was very restless and could hardly sleep, lost weight and felt despondent and downhearted all the time. Her liver was in a bad condition and she never found any kind of medicine that would give her much relief until we found Argotane.

"She is getting wonderful results and we booth think Argotane is the best medicine in the world. Her stomach trouble and indigestion is a thing of the past now, and she has such a big appetite that she can hardly get enough to eat. She sleeps good every night and is enjoying life better than she had in a long time. I'm certainly grateful for the happiness Argotane brought to my home by restoring my wife's health. I honestly believe it will help anybody."

Genuine Argotane may be purchased in Lubbock at the Bowen's Drug Store. Adv

Brownfield's Hi-School Is To Be Modern

New 18-Room Building To Be Ready For Fall Term; Big Gymnasium Will Also Help Improve School System

(By Staff Correspondent)

BROWNFIELD, May 3—Construction of Brownfield's handsome new high school by the J. M. Morgan Construction company of Big Spring, is under way and the structure will be completed in time for the opening of school in September, W. B. Toone, superintendent, announced today.

The building will cost $65,900 and will have 15 rooms and an auditorium. A separate gymnasium is to be built, on the same location, with the remainder of the bond issue.

When sold, the $75,000 bond issue recently voted, brought a premium of $77,000. Twelve thousand dollars will be used to construct the gymnasium.

To Have Junior High

The new structures are located on the property owned by the school board and are between the old building and the new high school erected in 1925. This building, Superintendent Toone said, would be used as a junior high school.

"We plan to put three grades, the sixth, seventh and eighth grades, in the old high school building," he explained. "That will give us the entire old grade building for the grammer grades."

The gymnasium will be of regulation size and will have a basketball court of standard requirements. The equipment will be purchased by the district outside the cost of the bond issue, it is planned.

Six On Faculty

Six are on the present high school faculty and it is expected at least two more will be added this summer. Three of the faculty are now working on their M. A. degrees and expect to complete their work this summer. Superintendent Toone said. One already has an M. A. degree.

"We are planning to add a home economics department and also a vocational agricultural department," the superintendent explained. "We used to have agriculture but owing to several unforseen factors and lack of space, were unable to continue it. Agriculture has not been given here for several years.

Seek Federal Aid

"The board hopes to be able to secure federal aid through the Smith-Hughes act for both the home economics and agricultural work. If we can do this, and I believe we can, Brownfield will have one of the best school systems on the South Plains."

Besides the city of Brownfield, the school district takes in a territory about four or five miles long, north and south and three or four miles east and west.

Lifting The Veil Of Time In Lubbock

News Events Of Twenty, Ten And Five Years Ago, Taken From The Files Of The Lubbock Avalanche, Recall Earlier Days In Hub Of The Plains

Anton Movie Man Has "Side" Business And Does Good

ANTON, May 3—(Special)—L. L. Reese, owner of the picture show and the Reese drug store, as a side line operates a dairy.

"I have five good Jersey cows that are giving me four gallons of milk per day each", he said. "I have four other cows. I do not have a bit of trouble to sell all the milk and if I had more cows could sell more milk."

The animals are fed a ration as well as given some pasture. The dairy barn is located at the edge of town. It is of a modern type and well kept and everything is in first class shape.

DEARTH OF WEDDINGS

Bailey County Lovers Drive To New Mexico For Rites

MULESHOE, May 3.—The new Texas marriage license law has just about ruined the marriage business for Bailey county says J. L. Alsup, county clerk.

Since the law went into effect in June of last year but six licenses have been issued, he said. Last year a total of 18 licenses were issued.

"Most of the people who want to get married in a hurry go over to Clovis," he said. "They have to take the girl along with them, but they can drive over there in a little over an hour from here."

Large Number Of Celebrities Will Be Seen In Film

'Free And Easy' To Start Friday At Palace Here

WHAT is alleged to be the largest collection of screen celebreties ever to be used in a talking comedy will be seen at the Palace Theater, where Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's satire of Hollywood studio life, "Free and Easy," will be shown starting Friday.

The cast includes Buster Keaton, in his initial talking and singing screen appearance, Anita Page, Trixie Friganza, Robert Montgomery, Dorothy Sebastian, Karl Dane, John Miljan, Gwen Lee, William Collier, sr., Edgar Dearing, Marion Shilling and Lottice Howell. The company did not stop with its regular players, but even incorporated several of its directors in the cast, such well known executives as Cecil B. De Mille, Lionel Barrymore, Fred Niblo and David Burton, making their appearance in the inside studio scenes.

Edward Sedgwick, known for such comedy hits as "West Point," "Slide Kelly Slide" and "Spite Marriage," directed the picture which was adapted by Paul Dickey from Richard Schayer's scenario. The dialogue was written by Al Boasberg.

Songs And Ballets

Musical numbers in the production include "Free and Easy," "Down in Arkansas," "Oh King, Oh Queen" and "It Must Be You," the work of Roy Turk and Fred E. Ahlert. Keaton, Miss Friganza, Montgomery and Miss Howell, and a large chorus do the singing. Accompanying several of the songs are ballets staged by Sammy Lee, former Ziegfeld dance coach.

'His 1st Command' Filled With Action

With the blare of trumpets, the clatter of horses hoofs and the flourish of sabers, William Boyd will arrive at the Palace Theater today in Pathe's all-dialogue and sound romance of the United States Cavalry, "His First Command."

Coming on top of his fine portrayal in "The Leatherneck" and his performance as a West Point cadet in "Dress Parade," Boyd's appearance as a cavalryman should hold much interest for local theatergoers. Preview reports indicate that "His First Command" is one of the finest pictures in which Boyd has appeared.

"His First Command," which was photographed at Fort Riley, Kansas, tells a story of a wealthy man's son who enlists in the cavalry to be near a certain colonel's daughter with whom he has fallen in love. What happens to him in the course of his training as a soldier provides plenty of the Boyd type of comedy, but the story also develops a beautiful romance enlivened by many thrills.

The scenes involving the annual Fort Riley steeplechase are said to be the most thrilling horse pictures ever taken and the brigade review, photographed in both sound and color, is regarded by critics as one of the most beautiful scenes ever recorded on celluloid.

FREIGHT RECEIPTS GOOD

Brownfield Continues To Show Much Activity

BROWNFIELD, May 3—(Special) Receipts of the Santa Fe in Brownfield for April, 1930, will only fall short a little of the record breaking receipts of April, 1929, R. L. Harris, agent, reports.

"Last April we had a lot of corn shipments to make while this year all of the corn has been shipped," he said. "In spite of this, we will be only a little behind last year. Another thing, we are not shipping as much cream this year as we did last year, owing to lower prices and to competition by truck."

This situation, according to Mr. Harris, indicates the continued growth of Brownfield, as with a normal amount of corn to be shipped, receipts would undoubtedly show an increase.

TOONE RE-ELECTED

Brownfield Superintendent To Return Next Year

BROWNFIELD, May 3—(Special) W. B. Toone, superintendent of the Brownfield schools for the past two years, has been re-elected for another two-year term by the board of the Brownfield Independent school district.

Before coming to Brownfield, Mr. Toone was at Lampasas for twelve years as one of the school executives. He is one of the well known school men in this section of the state.

McFee Is Rival For Joseph Conrad In His New Novel, "North Of Suez"

THE search for a writer who could wear the mantle of Joseph Conrad without looking too ridiculous in it has been going on for several years now; and William McFee is about the best candidate now in sight.

"North of Suez," published this month by Doubleday, Doran and Co., is Mr. McFee's best novel. It deals with a young British naval officer who is stationed at the Mediterranean end of the Suez Canal during the World War, and it is not only a magnificent bit of character drawing, but an intensely interesting and moving story as well.

McFee's young officer is out to win the war and make a name for himself. He finds the two jobs difficult. The insiduous corruption of the Near East, with its myriad invisible currents, its hidden intrigues that never quite come to the surface, enmesh him at every turn. There are German spies, smugglers, neutral plotters, slipshod Britishers, grafting politicians on every hand. Life is almost too complicated to be endurable.

Then, to add to his difficulties, the young man falls in love with a siren of the east. He has his English wife with him, to be sure; but she, somehow, is too matter-of-fact, too everlastingly efficient and unemotional, to hold him. He wavers, nearly slips off his feet, finds himself torn by the strongest emotion of his life—and then, finally, resolves all of his difficulties by plunging into a last heroic bit of action that costs him his life.

The tale is very well told. This McFee can bear comparison with Conrad rather well.

Van And Schenck In First Talkie At Lindsey Today

'They Learned 'bout Women' Features Bessie Love

GUS Van and Joe Schenck, well-known vaudeville headliners, will make their first all-talking feature picture appearance today at the Lindsey Theatre in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "They Learned About Women." The stars will be supported by Bessie Love and including Mary Doran, J. C. Nugent, Benny Rubin, Tom Dugan, Eddie Gribbon and Francis X. Bushman, jr.

According to advance information the plot of the picture very much resembles the actual career of the stage pair, who started in as baseball players and ended up as vaudeville headliners. The story was written by A. P. Younger and was adapted to the screen by Sarah Y. Mason. It is stated that the producing company, wishing to supply the noted song and dance comedians with gags worthy of their talent, came all the way to New York for the clever columnist of one of the metropolitan newspapers, this individual being none other than "Bugs" Baer, who is responsible for the dialogue and baseball "lingo".

Having obtained good talking material for Messrs. Van and Schenck, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer made a search for the better known song writers to supply ten catchy songs for the pair whose voices have been heard both over the radio and on phonograph records. The choice finally rested on Milton Ager and Jack Yellen, whose "Ain't She Sweet?" and "I Wonder What Became of Sally" were considered to be among the most popular songs of the past few seasons.

Book News Notes For This Week

Tales Told

Now that Commander Byrd has returned to civilization, curiosity prevails as to the record of this intrepid adventurer. How long did his flight over the South Pole take? What had other explorers done in that region? Where has the Commander been before? These questions are answered by J. Harris Gable, in his Boys' Book Of Exploration. Dutton. He tells of the ill-fated expedition of the "Italia" of Willeins in Graham Land, about General Nobile and the "Norge," as well as the things that have happened to the great explorer, Byrd, that it tells of his experiences as late as last December.

Writes Morrow Life

A complete biographical sketch of Dwight W. Morrow by Hewitt H. Howland, editor of "The Century Quarterly," makes its appearance The book is so up-to-the-minute today under the title: "Dwight Whitney Morrow: A Sketch in Admiration," published by The Century Co. The book contains a long introduction by Calvin Coolidge.

From The Pulpit

Herman Landon is one of the few writers of mystery stories, if not the only one, whose work has supplied themes for sermons from pulpits. Recently, on two consecutive Sundays, the Reverend H. L. McCann, pastor of the Congregational Church of Gray, Maine, culled a sentence from each of Landon's two latest novels as the themes for his sermons. Landon says he was much surprised to learn that his work has inspiration value. His new mystery novel, Three Brass Elephants, was just published by Horace Liveright.

New Books Coming

A somewhat unusual novel to be issued later in the year by Houghton Mifflin Company is Maud Meagher's "White Jade", described as the story of the Chinese Helen of Troy. The book has been enthusiastically acclaimed in England by such critics as Humbert Wolfe, Sylvia Lynd, Alan Monkhouse, J. B. Priestly and R. L. Megroz.

Sequel Coming

Although an autobiography in the strictest sense, Anne Ellis's "Life of an Ordinary Woman" (Houghton Mifflin Company) does not tell the author's entire story. Wintering in Glendale, Arizona, Mrs. Ellis is hard at work on its sequel.

Lindsey Picture Celebrated Play

'Strickly Unconventional' Starts Wednesday

CONSIDERABLE anticipation is rampant in connection with the opening Wednesday at the Lindsey theater of "Strictly Unconventional," all-talking adaptation of W. Somerset Maugham's celebrated comedy of marriage and divorce, "The Circle," which served as a co-starring vehicle for the late John Drew and Mrs. Leslie Carter.

It is reported that Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, realizing the difficulty of duplicating the phenomenal success of the stage farce on the screen no little of which was due to its brilliant dialogue, took infinite precautions in selecting the cast of the production. With the idea of sticking as close to the dramatic form as possible, only those players were chosen who had established a reputation on the legitimate boards as well as on the screen.

Included were Lewis Stone who was leading man in stage presentations on the Pacific Coast long before entering the movies; Catherine Dale Owen, who previous to her success in "The Rogue Song," was known for her work in "White Collars," "Mr. Moneypenny" and other New York plays; Ernest Torrence, who was last seen on the stage in "The Night Boat"; Mary Forbes, star of Shaw's "Androcles and the Lion", and seen recently on the screen in "The Thirteenth Chair"; Alison Skipworth, who joined the cast from the Broadway success, "A Primer for Lovers"; Tyrell Davis, who was seen on the New York stage in "The Swan" and on the screen in "His Glorious Night," and Paul Cavanagh, who came from London to play in "Scotland Yard."

Wayland College Has Shown Fine Growth; Endowment Of $250,000 Is Goal For School

College Is Free Of Debt Now And Enjoying Good Progress; Ranks High In Junior College Work

(Special To The Avalanche-Journal)

PLAINVIEW, May 3.—In connection with the $250,000 endowment fund campaign in Plainview for Wayland College, the Plainview Herald has the following:

"Among the junior colleges of Texas Wayland Baptist College of Plainview has, in recent years, made notable advance in recent usefulness and in becoming a permanent institution," says Dr. E. L. Morgan, head of the Bible department of the college. Dr. Morgan has prepared an article on this college, which is of particular interest at this time, the trustees of the school being at this time engaged in the task of raising an endowment fund for the school.

Been Through Struggles

"In the twenty years of its life the college has been through the struggles that usually attend such ventures, but it now has attained such soundness of business administration and recognized educational merit that the friends of the school are justified in contemplating further investments, which will bring such good results in forming character and in producing good citizens—and undeniably this is being done at Wayland.

"The grade of work done by the teachers may be judged by the fact that Wayland belongs to the Association of Junior Colleges of Texas and to the American Association of Junior colleges, and that students who are graduated here are able to finish any Senior College within two years. The standards of instruction will bear comparison with those found in any college of similar grade.

School Is Free Of Debt

"Not only in education but in financial matters has this college an enviable record. Some years since, the management was fortunate in installing a business system which, we are told, is one of the best. No debt, no mortgages, no claims of any sort, is enough to fill the hearts of all supporters with thankfulness. Some years ago the Baptists of Texas pooled the debts on their schools and, against mortgages upon their properties, issued bonds with which to pay those debts. This placed a mortgage upon Wayland's property for $140,000, but this has now been settled and the release is now on file in Hale county court house. The Executive Board of Texas Baptists paid to the college the sum of $97,000, thus showing their faith in Wayland as an asset to the denominational life. Besides this strong denominational support of our Plains country college, there is another bright page of recent history in which the citizens of Amarillo and of Plainview may take part.

"In 1928 there was a floating debt on the school of $10,000. To lift this load the Baptists of these sister cities did the worthy thing of raising about $10,000; the Plainview Chamber of Commerce showed good business acumen by giving $15,000; again the Executive Board of Texas Baptists aided by giving $7,500, and the day of embarrassment was passed. Since then the progress of the college has been steady, the enrollment for this year being about 280, the highest yet.

Many Church Contributions

"It is due to all concerned to say that at present there are some 65 churches which send regular gifts to aid in running expenses; these contributions since the debt was paid have amounted to more than $8,000. It is recognized that many pastors are being trained here, and the weekly visits of the Volunteer Band over a radius of 125 miles are so profoundly appreciated that churches are more and more falling into the habit of including Wayland in their budgets. The number of these praiseworthy churchts is increasing.

"There is sound basis for this enthusiasm for the financial stability of the college is further strengthened by the possession of properties easily worth $300,000 against which there is not one cent of debt. We doubt if there is a junior college in Texas with a more encouraging condition. The keen common sense of West Texas business men is not afraid to back an enterprise with such a solid foundation.

Possibilities Bright

"With such a start, upon such a sound basis, and with the prospect of endowment so that permanency will be guaranteed, the possibilities of the college will be seen to be very bright. The field of service, too, is large; in fact the territory from which students are drawn is already larger than three states the size of South Carolina. Today all over this territory and beyond these bounds Wayland's former students are to be found engaged in honorable service for God and humanity.

"The growth of spiritual power, the high moral and scholastic standards within the school, as well as the wholesome tone now prevailing in athletics and other college activities, are turning the eyes of many parents toward Wayland as the place where they wish their sons and daughters to be trained. At the time of the college revival an observing father said to President McDonald: 'This is the kind of school which I like, and I plan to send my son and my daughter here. A mother recently visited her daughter, gaining first-hand information as to the fine dormitory and college life; her eyes were shining with gratitude and unshed tears as she said earnestly, 'I thank God for such a school where I can put my daughter.' This mother returned to tell her husband what she had witnessed, and now he joins her in saying that as their other daughters are ready they shall be sent to Wayland."

In addition, a second story is being added to the office building and supply house.

Jugoslavia's 15 theatres wired for sound production include 14 with American equipment.

Littlefield Cheers Schools

More Than 96 Percent of High School Population of Lamb County Has Schools At Door; Record Is Unique

(By Staff Correspondent)

LITTLEFIELD, May 3—"More than 96 per cent of the high school population of Lamb county live within walking distance of a four year rural high school or have transportation to and from school," M. B. Harrison, superintendent of schools, declared in an interview on the Littlefield school situation.

"We have 26 buses in our fleet and they average transporting 750 pupils to and from their homes at an average cost of $32.50 per year per capita. Costs in the United States for transportation range from 12.24 to $50 per capita with the average around $23.54.

Best In Texas

"Superintendent of Education Marrs says Littlefield has more students transported than any other school district in Texas."

Mr. Harrison said he was unable to find any other county in the state "or any other state for that matter" that had the record of Lamb county in the matter of transportation facilities.

"We had in March of 1929 a total scholastic population of 4,046", he said. "All but ten of that number either live within walking distance of a school or are furnished free transportation.

"These ten are in what is known as Pleasant valley district, up in the northwest part of the county. They are all around a ranch house."

The Littlefield district comprises some 184 square miles of area. At one time it had about 300 square miles but there have been some other districts formed from this one.

"Edinburg, Texas, is the only other district I know of that has a larger area than we have", the superintendent says.

Up to the present time this year, the enrollment has been 1,650 with an average attendance now of about 1,350.

The district has 27 teachers. Twelve of these are in the high school and 25 in the grades.

Enrollment Divided

Enrollment in the high school is 290, divided as follows: senior class (graduates), 30; junior class, 40; sophomore, 100; freshman, 100.

Graduation will be on May 20, with the baccalaureate sermon given the Sunday preceding.

Some 75 pupils from the grades will be promoted to the high school this year.

Comparison Given

Superintendent Harrison has prepared some interesting comparative figures on the growth of the Littlefield school since 1922. They were:

	1922	1930
Enrollment	220	1,650
Scholastics	193	1,838
Teachers, (H. S.)	2	12
Teachers, grades	7	37
Buildings	1	4
Trucks	4	26
Daily Transported	89	750

The approximate valuation of the property within the school district is $7,760,000, Mr. Harrison said. Eight years ago it was about $3,061,000.

For the school year of 1928-1929 the district spent $89,554.90 for its district work, including bonds.

Bonded indebtedness is given as $200,000, with a school plant estimated to be worth in excess of $260,000 in replacement.

During 1928-1929 a total of $40,982 pupils were transported by buses.

"The greatest drawback to the child in the rural district is that he does not have the opportunity of attending high school," Mr. Harrison said in conclusion. "There are many rural school districts that only have work up to the seventh and eighth grades.

"Eighty-five per cent of our Lamb county boys and girls are near four year rural high schools. We have five, Littlefield, Olton, Amherst, Sudan and Spring Lake."

The first patent for cement making issued in the United States was acquired by the state of New York by purchase from Canvas White, whose experiments starting in 1818 gave rise to the industry in America.

Britain is favoring the construction of more liners because the building of one means work in the shipyard for 2,000 men for 100 weeks and the outside work represents one year's work for 12,000 men.

Reported missing in 1918, and later said to be dead, a German ex-soldier has just returned to his family at Bingen and related that he was captured by Russians and later settled in Siberia.

Rural School Doors Closed For Vacation

Last Of Month Will See All Country Schools Deserted In Bailey County; Short Finances Close Some

(By Staff Correspondent)

MULESHOE, May 3.—Rural schools in Bailey county are closing their 1929-1930 school terms and by the latter part of the month all of them will have completed their work, J. E. Adams, county superintendent, said today.

Five of the 14 schools in the county had closed up to this week. One of these, the Muleshoe Independent district, closed early this year on account of lack of finances.

Beulah Independent district, the only other one besides Muleshoe, closed Friday. It is a 7 teacher school. Wilson school also closed Friday. Schools closed previously besides Muleshoe were West Kemp, Progress, Watson and Fairview.

Plan New Building

One new building is to be erected the coming year, at West Kemp, where a fire recently destroyed the structure. Plans for rebuilding are not yet completed, being held up pending settlement of the insurance by the adjusters.

There have been 50 teachers in the county the past year, Mr. Adams reported. With an increase of 374 in the number of scholastics, there will be at least ten new teachers, he said.

"I know of about ten new ones to be added for the next year," he said. "If our population continues to increase this summer like it has the past few months we may have to add more. So far the number of teachers next fall will be around 60."

To Have Institute

Plans for the annual teacher's institute to be held at the opening of the fall term are incomplete. The county board is expected to decide soon on its plans.

Last year, after holding a county institute for a number of years in Muleshoe, the board decided to have teachers attend Texas Technological college institute at Lubbock.

The county superintendent said he thought the board would decide on its own institute this year.

At the trial of a boy for truancy at Roslea, Ireland, recently, the father testified that he could not be responsible for the lad as he had several times led him to school on a rope.

Terry County Plans To Add To Fair Date

Third Day Likely To Be One Improvement This Year, Is Manager's Report; Leader Is President Ben Hurst

(By Staff Correspondent)

BROWNFIELD, May 3. — Terry county's annual fair, held the last of September, may be made a three day fair this year instead of a two day exposition as in previous years, according to J. E. Shelton, secretary.

Members of the board, headed by Ben Hurst, president, are giving serious consideration to the plan to add a third day. Tentative dates are September 26 and 27, but the plan is to use Thursday, the 25th also.

The fair is held at the Texas Compress and Warehouse company, near the Santa Fe depot. The structure is 240 by 300 feet and is not used at fair time.

"Last year we estimated the crowds that attended the two day fair were in excess of 10,000", the secretary said. "We have about 50 business concerns in Brownfield and I think virtually every one had an exhibit at the fair.

Premiums Total $1,000

"The premium list last year amounted to $1,000. We plan to get the money raised this year before we decide on our premium list so we will know exactly how much money we will have for premiums.'

A committee soon will begin its campaign to secure funds for the premium list.

The pig division of the fair two years ago, Mr. Shelton said, was reported to him as the equal at least of the fair at Plainview. "The International Harvester company man told us he considered our hog show as good or better than the Tri-State fair show at Amarillo and the equal of the Plainview show," Secretary Shelton said. "We heard a number of compliments like that. Other men said our 1929 show was better than our 1928 show."

Six Departments

There are six departments to the fair, home economics, dairying, poultry, swine, agriculture and manufacturing. Each department has a superintendent in charge. Superintendents for the coming show will be named in a short time.

The association is sponsored by the Brownfield chamber of commerce. Besides Ben Hurst, president, H. W. Nelson is vice-president and Mr. Shelton secretary. The 1928 show was the first one that a definite organization handled details on. Each succeeding year has shown greater interest.

Judges for all departments are either from Texas A. and M. college, Texas Technological college or county agents.

TO HAVE NEW GIN

Fieldton, New Town, Is To Have Ginning Plant

LITTLEFIELD, May 3—(Special)—Fieldton, a small town about 12 miles northeast of Littlefield, will have a new gin this spring.

W. W. Terry is reported starting construction of a new gin there.

Fieldton is a town of about 200 population. An effort is being made to secure a postoffice there.

FIFTH GIN REPORTED

Construction Is Expected For Littlefield Soon

LITTLEFIELD, May 3—(Special)—Reports are in circulation here that a fifth cotton gin is to be erected in Littlefield.

Land for the proposed gin has been purchased, it is said. The gin is to be located near the railroad and if erected, will be completed in time for handling the 1930 cotton crop.

More Wheat Is To Be Shipped From Muleshoe

Three Hundred Cars Shipped Out Last Year; Acreage Is Increase 25 Per Cent In County This Season

BY J. SAM LEWIS
(Staff Correspondent)

MULESHOE, May 3—Three hundred cars of wheat were shipped from Muleshoe during the handling of the 1929 wheat crop according to J. A. Eikler, Santa Fe railroad agent here.

"I believe we will get 90 per cent of our last year's total in wheat," Mr. Eikler said. "We have had some pretty good rains recently and they saved the late wheat. Some of the early wheat may be gone.

Increase Acreage

"Farmers around Muleshoe have increased their wheat acreage for 1930 and the increase will be 20 to 25 per cent."

There are three elevators in Muleshoe handling the wheat crop. Last year's crop shipped from this station amounted to 450,000 bushels.

Record breaking crops of grain sorghums and feeds also are predicted by the railroad official for this summer.

Grain Shipments Large

Larger acreages will be sown, he said, with many new farmers in the community and all of the old farmers increasing their plans. "This town is a great place for raising grain sorghums" he pointed out. "Our shipments were around 400 cars last year. There will be a good increase this year."

Cattle shipments average about 200 cars per year while hogs will exceed 50 cars a season.

Many new farmers are coming in, Mr. Eikler said. The Santa Fe frequently has an emigrant car bringing in a new settler, but the most of them ship their goods by truck. "Each man has a truck or two and they come in here with their trucks loaded with household goods," he added.

Two new land development projects, both irrigation farms, are being opened up.

Before the summer is over it is believed there will be at least 200 new farmers in Muleshoe territory.

Anton Shows Much Growth

Town Advances From Prairie To Busy Little City In Five Years Time; Population Is Now 398

(By Staff Correspondent)

ANTON, May 3—Five and a half years ago or so, in October, 1924, to be specific, H. A. Duggan of Dallas, bought a large part of the old Spade ranch, one of the historic ranches of Hockley county and the South Plains and then drove off his land some 5,700 head of cattle.

In December of that year he laid off the town and held the first town lot sale.

Two months later, February of 1925 the first school was held in a church with some 75 pupils.

Named After Anton

Anton was named for J. F. Anton, then superintendent of the Slaton division of the Panhandle and Santa Fe railroad.

Latest population figures show the town has a population of 398.

There are four churches, a Baptist, Methodist and two Christian denominations.

Anton has two lumber yards doing a splendid business, two hotels, several cotton gins and numerous other businesses. The Cohen Grain company has an elevator here and the Doggett Grain company a loading chute.

One of the industries is a feed mill for grinding feed.

The school building, of 15 class rooms, an auditorium and study hall and gymnasium, cost approximately $100,000.

SCHOLASTICS GAIN

Increase Of 30 Percent Seen In Bailey County

MULESHOE, May 3.—Scholastics for Bailey county for the coming year show a 30 per cent gain, J. E. Adam, county superintendent of schools, announces.

"Last year we had 1,213 scholastics," Judge Adams said. "This year we found 1,587 and that will be the number for the fall term."

The gain, 374, represents an increase of slightly more than 30 per cent.

NEW TRACTOR BOUGHT

MULESHOE, May 3.—Bailey county commissioner's court has just purchased a new tractor for the road equipment, J. E. Adam, county judge, says. The county now owns two tractors and two graders and these are in use all the time on the county roads. One set is kept in the south part of the county for the use of two precincts there and the other in the north part for the two precincts in this section.

THEY EAT AT SCHOOL

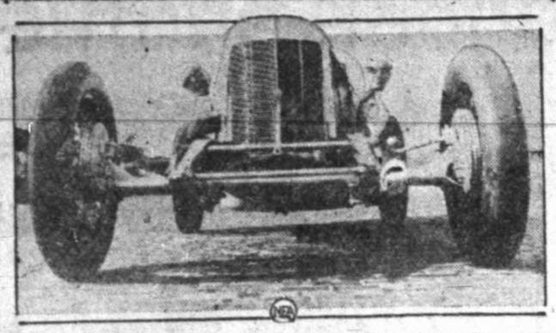
Littlefield Youngsters Are Fed At Cafeteria

LITTLEFIELD, May 3.—One of the outstanding departments of work at the Littlefield schools is the cafeteria, privately operated in a building located on the school grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Spinks have a lease on the cafeteria from the school board. They report an average of 250 pupils served daily.

The cost of meals is kept very low according to Superintendent Harrison.

Ready for the Big Speed Event



Here it is, coming right at you! It's the new type of two-place racing car that will take its place on the track of the Indianapolis Motor Speedway for the 500-mile Memorial Day classic. This one holds Louis Schneider, the driver, at right, and his mechanic, Clyde Terry, at left.

ON AUTO ROW

BY ISRAEL KLEIN
Science Editor, NEA Service

The birdies have made their appearance this spring as usual in other than natural ways. One of these is the automobile.

We can hear them squeak and whistle as the car rolls along, after a winter's session of inattention. They seem to be hidden in the most inaccessible parts of the body and should be released before any long trip is contemplated this summer, if our nerves are to be rested at all.

Elimination of this whistling and squeaking from the automobile body is merely a matter of tightening bolts and oiling hinges. Some of the bolts may be hard to reach, but diligent search and application of the wrench will more than reward the motorist for his efforts.

Tightening of the body bolts will not only chase out the birdies, but it will assure longer life for the body. Constant squeaking means constant friction of parts at joints where these should be in tight contact. Such friction harms the body considerably. Furthermore the bumps the car gets riding the streets and highways, and the vibrations it has to stand from the motor, aggravate that friction and wearing away of body structure that eventually will cause breakdown of the entire body.

Oiling the hinges and locks of the car should be a regular task each month. This enables one to open and shut the doors more easily, does away with any possibility of squeaks from these sources and avoids the necessity of slamming the doors. Slamming doors is a serious cause for loosening of body joints and resultant breakdown of the body.

Another cause for body breakdown is the gradual seepage of water through an unprotected roof and down into the wood of the corner posts. The wood rots and the doors eventually loosen away. The hinge screws cannot hold. The only way to correct this fault, then, is to put in a new corner post, and that's a costly job.

To avoid this the top should be covered with a special top dressing at least once a year. But that isn't all. It should also be polished about once a month with a good quality oil that will keep the roof material waterproof.

Such a job isn't much, doesn't take much time, and results in a sturdier body throughout the life of the car.

During the rainy days of spring the automobile is going to be covered with spots of mud splashed over it by passing motor cars. These should be washed off carefully—in fact, the entire automobile should get a good bath regularly—or they will leave blemishes in the colored coating. The mud spots should not be allowed to dry.

The bumping and vibration that the car has undergone over the winter may have loosened the headlamps, so that they are now out of focus. They should be refocused and tightened.

Focusing a pair of headlamps is a simple job. Some evening head the car against the closed garage with the lamps about 10 feet from it. Light the lamps and set them so that the main beam of light will strike the garage in a horizontal line not higher than the lamps themselves. Then tighten the lamps on their crossbar or other means of support.

A screw in back of each lamp is a means of focusing it so that the light will concentrate on the doors of the garage at the 10-foot distance, and in a horizontal oval hardly as wide as the lamps are apart. By turning this screw to right or left, this concentration of light can be effected.

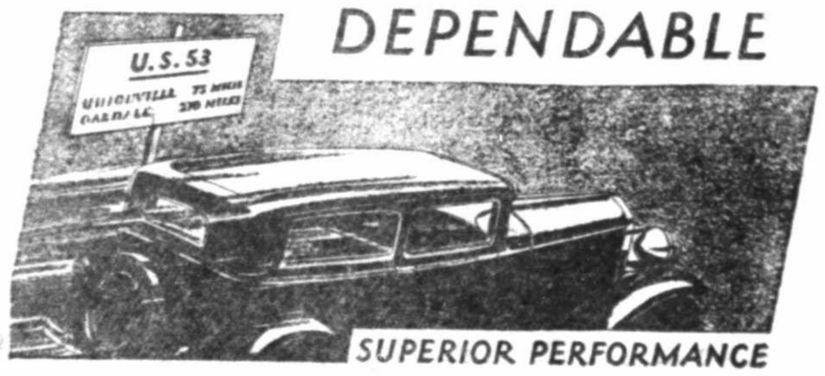
Mile after mile..... ...Month after month.. ALWAYS DEPENDABLE



The New Oakland Eight is colorful, thrilling. It develops more power than any other automobile of its size and weight. It has acceleration, speed and power that few cars can match, regardless of price.

Yet the very features which give Oakland its superior performance also make it a remarkably reliable car. Its high power is applied to transmission and rear axle in such a smooth, even flow that strain on these parts is materially reduced. And because its reciprocating parts move at an unusually low rate for any given road speed, its engine life is unusually long.

The Oakland Eight embodies sixteen years' engineering experience with eight-cylinder automobiles. And every car undergoes approximately 25,000 separate inspections while being manufactured!

That is why mile after mile, month after month—Oakland performs with that unfailing dependability which is, by far, the biggest factor in the continued enjoyment of an automobile.

Consider the delivered price as well as the list (f. o. b.) price when comparing automobile values ... Oakland delivered prices include only authorized charges for freight and delivery and the charge for any additional accessories or financing desired

CHANGE SPARK PLUGS EVERY 10,000 MILES

The Economic Way to Better Engine Performance

Let Us Install Champions in Your Car NOW

EVERY one of our motor car owners who changed to a new set of Champion Spark Plugs during 1929 Change Week, enjoyed better performance for a whole year, at less cost, as a result.

Champion National Change Week is sponsored by us to bring forcibly to the minds of all our customers the advantage and actual dollars and cents saving of installing a new set of Champions in their engines every year.

All motor car manufacturers recommend it.

Let us change your spark plugs to a new set of Champions this week, if your car has gone 10,000 miles or more, regardless of what spark plugs you are using. For Champions are the better spark plugs. This is the judgment of the majority of motorists everywhere. Champions excel and outsell the world over.

Progress Of Lubbock Schools Shown In Annual Exhibits Displayed Friday

ew System's Work Emphasized With Materials

ubbock public schools in near- the end of another year of hievement displayed exhibits in h room and department of the schools of the city Friday after- n. Classes were dismissed in er that the patrons, friends and rents of the children and youths ght view the many interesting d largely original articles.

This is the second year that the up study plan has been used and presentations of the many sub- ts showed much talent and testi- d to the working machinery of new system and the greatness the year in the public schools.

Visitors Ushered Through

Students in various schools urteously met the many visitors the door and ushered them into dividual rooms where the work s displayed. Here there were her students who explained the ndiwork and pointed out phases interest. Refreshments of sand- ches and punch were served at veral schools and hundreds of rsons called during the after- on.

Illustrations of health projects, ading and language, drawing and usic were on the boards in Sand- s school. In one room a sand-table ustrated children at play while a rror presented a miniature lake, olls' dresses, soap carvings, stencil alterns and illustrated stories were aced at intervals around the oms.

Posters Displayed

Posters and booklets telling of vancement in geography, arith- etic and history were in evidence. f interest was one child's con- ption of an exercise poster. A ung man was making circles round a tree upon being chased by certain animal while the young rl was perched in a precarious po- tion on the limb of a tree. This y, Clyde Revan, had several rawings on display.

A Japanese project in a sand able was of interest at K. Car- r school. In one room animals of rious nature were made of in- er tubing, and on one board was awn the picture of an airplane id-ing across the field. The work as done free hand and on most casions without a picture to gain n idea.

Clean-up Emphasized

Clean-up week was emphasized n all of the schools by clever origi- al posters.

Flowers, bird cages and flags add- d notes of interest, while lovely apestries testified to the artistic aste of several children.

A miniature house in one second rade room contained several ooms, each of which was com- letely furnished by furniture made n the classroom.

Several humorous situations de- eloped with the explanation of the mall youngsters, one who had rawn a picture of the Pied Piper of famiin pursued by three small rats. nother child had pictured an im- ense sun in the background and anging to one ray was a large rown rat.

George in Bathing

One tiny boy in telling of a pic- ure which showed a tree, a small ake and a few brown objects ex- lained that it was a picture of eorge Washington.

"But that's impossible," he was uestioned. "Where is Washing- on?"

"Well you see he is bathing in he lake," explained the boy un- erturbed," and those brown things re his clothes."

In the Dupre ward school upon ntering the front door visitors ere greeted by the words "The hallenge is to find a way of mak- ng the task the pupil's task."

Black and white etchings and nimal books were additions to the rticles displayed in other schools.

Washington Honored

Products, exports and imports of ld Mexico were viewed in a room n Central ward and George Wash- ington, who had been voted one of ur greatest Americans by the room, as given a prominent place on a lackboard in the back of the room.

A better English club had been rganized and posters were in evi- ence urging the necessity of speak- ng correctly. Other exhibits stress- d important current events and booklets had been made which told interesting stories of Hawaii and Canada.

Salt maps, charts of knowledge in arithmetic and peek boxes were other items of unusual interest.

Health Program Shown

At George M. Hunt school a health project was converted into a trip areund the world which took approximately six weeks. Children wore going away clothes on the day that the project began and every nook and corner of the world was visited with each day's procedure daily recorded in a log.

San tables were illustrative of Dutch scenes and fields of sugar cane and oxen plowing represented the country of Porto Rico.

A project which was different to anything else showed the virtues necessary to live in Good Rabitville with steps of "faith", "obedience", "love", and "self control" leading the way.

A hand run picture show in an- other room told the tale of the "Town and Country Mouse" and "The Hare and the Porpoise."

Hundreds of persons viewed the exhibits for students in junior high school in the high school gym- nasium.

Dozens of notebooks, posters, hand work such as doll furniture and airplanes were placed on tables about the large room.

Projects Shown

Girls in the eighth grade had dresses and pajamas on display and a dairy was another projects.

Chemistry booklets were placed near a physics show and linoleum blocks, monograms and tie-dyed scarfs were other items which were viewed with exclamations by ap- preciative parents.

Spade Ranch District To Be Recipient Of Building

LITTLEFIELD, May 3.—Sixty four sections of land in Lamb county, formerly a part of the Littlefield school district, were cut off to form a new district to be known as the Spade Ranch district.

Voters of the new district have authorized the issuance of bonds to the amount of $75,000 for the erection of a new building. The structure is now being started and will be completed in time for the opening of school in September.

NO OIL LEASES FILED

Leases Being Forfeited In Bailey County, Clerk Says

MULESHOE, May 3—(Special)—No oil leases for Bailey county have been filed with the county clerk's office for a long time, J. L. Alsup, county clerk says.

Bailey county during 1926 had considerable activity in oil leasing and many companies came in and spotted the county. Most of these paid their lease money for several years but have forfeited the leases by not paying the past year or two.

IT'S WISE TO CHOOSE A SIX

A demonstration tells you why it's wise to choose a six

Everywhere, buyers in the low-price field are agreeing "It's wise to choose a Six." And if you want to know why—get a demonstration of the new Chevrolet Six.

The Chevrolet Six is always smooth. When you idle the motor—drive fast in second—or travel at top speed—the power flows easily and evenly at all times. And everyone in the car enjoys a pleasant ride.

Developing 50 horsepower, the Chevrolet motor is also a marvel of flexibility. Needless gear shifting is avoided. And on the steepest hill, there is a reserve of power more than equal to every need.

And six-cylinder smoothness protects the entire chassis from the destructive effect of vibration. As a result, the whole car lasts longer—and resale value is increased.

Moreover, a demonstration reveals many other reasons why it's wise to choose a Chevrolet Six.

Coach, $565, f.o.b. factory

Chevrolet's four semi-elliptic springs and four Lovejoy hydraulic shock absorbers provide comfort and security wherever you drive.

And Chevrolet's completely enclosed, weather-proof, four-wheel brakes give definite assurance of quiet, positive braking control.

It will take only a few minutes to confirm all these reasons why it is wise to choose a Chevrolet Six. So come in today. Get behind the wheel—and drive!

And, as you do, remember this fact: The Chevrolet Six is just as economical as any car you can buy. It costs no more for gas, oil, or service. It is priced as low as $495 at the Flint factory. And it can be purchased for a small down payment with unusually easy terms.

Slaton Is Constantly An Up And Coming Community

Agriculture, Rail Payroll City Incomes

Citizens Active In Civic And Commercial Activities; Cotton Forms The Major Crop Income

BY J. SAM LEWIS,
(Staff Correspondent)

SLATON, May 3.—Slaton, while ostensibly an agricultural town if you are a railroad man or a railroad town if you are a farmer, is an up and coming community in southeastern Lubbock county that has made great strides the past ten years, with an increase of better than 150 percent in population.

As a matter of fact Slaton depends upon the railroad pay roll—it is the division point for the entire Slaton division of the Santa Fe—as much as on the agricultural products of the prosperous farm communities around it.

Payroll Around Million

The Santa Fe's annual payroll is around a million and a half dollars, the greater percentage of which is spent right in Slaton among the stores and business houses. There are about 450 employes of the railroad residing there, including both trainmen and office men as well as shop men.

Santa Fe employes for a large part of the population of 3,869 that Uncle Sam says now reside within the city limits. They are active in all civic and commercial activities, belong to the lodges, clubs, churches and other groups.

The town is on the main line between Amarillo and Sweetwater. There is one branch, to Lamesa. But it is headquarters for workers over a thousand miles track and they all look to the "old man" at Slaton for orders.

Recently the town became still more important with the Santa Fe when 477 miles of the old Orient railroad (Kansas City, Mexico and Orient) purchased by the company, were added to the jurisdiction of the division superintendent. This gives a total of 1,039 miles of railroad under the rule of the man who occupies a small office in the end of the second floor of the big red building which houses the depot, baggage room, express office and division headquarters.

But don't get the idea that Slaton is "all Santa Fe". It is not.

There is the Slaton Cotton Oil mill, which buys cotton seed and extracts the oil from the seed. The oil and also the residue of the seed is shipped to farmers in the entire South Plains country as well as in other sections for feeding to cattle. The business of this company is not to be passed by as of little consequence, as it forms a large part of the freight revenue of the railroad.

Hail Ruins Crop

Some eight cotton gins in the town, when there is a good crop, handle a considerable amount of cotton. Last year a big hail south of town just about ruined the crop down there. In spite of that, more than 9,000 bales were ginned.

Then there is a new business. It is a plant where grains such as kaffir, maize, higera, etc., are handled, threshed and ground up for feed and the feed shipped to poultry owners and other who use ground feed for stock. Buyers find the scource of supply all over this section and there is what is known as a "milling in transit rate" that enables the company to handle shipments in and out on an advantageous scale.

Slaton has a wholesale grocery house with two branches, one at Littlefield and the other at Lamesa. This is the Hestand-Kimbell company.

A hatchery is another industry that is growing with the town and it is also spreading the fame of the city among the farmers and poultrymen of this section.

Cream Stations Busy

Besides this there are a number of cream stations in town which get a lot of business from farmers in the community. The cream is sent largely by truck to Lubbock.

Poultry and eggs are shipped from Slaton to Lubbock also. There are numerous shipments of these by-products of the farms to other far away points. In fact, Slaton is a sort of gathering point for these products from the Terry and Garza counties.

Slaton is built in a different manner from other towns on the South Plains. The city square is the hub of the town, with streets going in many directions, like the spokes of a wheel.

Business Section Spreading

While a majority of the business houses are around the square or on the streets diverging from the square, yet there is a constantly spreading business section. This in some instances is two blocks from the square.

Just now Slaton is not expanding rapidly. Growth has been beyond expectations for the past few years. But several crop failures in succession have sort of retarded the expansion.

"Give us a good cotton crop this fall, with good row crops and then watch Slaton grow," one man declared.

Slaton has paved streets down town. There are many modern store rooms and business blocks. There is a white way around the square, and a modern city lighting system and other improvements.

Square Is Park

The public square is a park where there is plenty of shade for the weary in the summer time. The streets around it provide lots of parking space for visitors.

A live chamber of commerce is active in spreading the news about the town. Its fame as a convention city is attested by the fact that the American Legion district convention meets there in June, the I. O. O. F. meeting just held was a district affair and there are numerous district meets expected.

School census shows 1,349 children of school age. The town has a high school, junior high and ward building combined, a ward school, a Mexican school and a negro school.

FIRE CAUSE UNKNOWN

West Camp School Fire At Muleshoe A Mystery

MULESHOE, May 3—(Special)—Cause of the fire which destroyed the West Camp school house recently, entailing a loss of $15,000, has not been determined. Trustees as soon as the insurance is adjusted, will begin plans for a new structure.

The building, occasionally used for church purposes, had not been used the night the fire started, it was said, contrary to reports to that effect.

Several of the teachers who had their personal books in the building estimated their losses would be between $200 and $300.

ENROLLMENT GIVEN

Shallowater Schools Have 204 In Attendance

SHALLOWATER, May 3 (Special)—Total enrollment in the grade schools here is 140, R. L. Hooten, superintendent, says. The high school enrollment is 64, making a total of 204 for the school.

China's poor rice crop this season has compelled it to import four-fifths of its requirements.

CLEAR THE WAY FOR THE LITTLE CRUSADER

Bless the heart of her, Mrs. Thrifty Housewife! See her roll up her sleeves and "go to it!" She realizes, of course, that it not only means a happier home in which to live, but a point of pride — what the "neighbors think" is not to be sneezed at. Who wants to be known as a "poor housekeeper?" Everything that's done is for you and yours which takes much of the sting out of toil.

One More Week to Go!

Just one more week to go to make Lubbock a cleaner and finer place in which to live. Clean-up, Fix-up, and Paint-up and that means every man, woman and child. Already, the work of the campaign shows signs of great benefit to the city. But don't leave it to your wife altogether, get out the lawn mower, the hoe, the spade, or rake and help. Get in touch with a contractor today and have that porch remodeled, the plumbing fixed, the yard fence painted, or whatever it may be, but do it now!
