Among the garments exhibited by Mrs. Pitts in clothing contest were dress and slip. The seam finishes, hem and color selection were particularly good in the garments.

The outstanding work done by Mrs. Jack Dodson was not only among her own club members who were 100 percent in reaching some of their goals, but Mrs. Dodson helped with the making of fourteen foundation patterns.

Clint Small described himself as a "country lawyer" in his opening campaign speech at Spearman last Saturday and frankly stated that he is desirous of serving the 31st Senatorial District again. It marked the opening of his third campaign for election to the Texas Senate.

Small outlined a plan by which he proposes to pay old age assistance and says his bill would have provided money for pensions at the last session of the Legislature if the House had not permitted it to die in the closing minutes.

He reviewed his eight years in the Senate and referred to himself as a "working senator."

"It has been charged that I missed a roll call," he announced. "Well, you want a man that works, don't you? I wasn't loafing while the Senate considered non-contested bills. I was out behind the scenes writing (continued on last page)"

International Sunday School Lesson

By A. C. Williams, Minister, Perryton Church of Christ

June 28, 1936.
JESUS MEETING HUMAN NEEDS

We have been studying the life of Christ as it relates to human needs. We shall remember that he did not come to earth for himself. He came for us. It was a lost world that needed compassion, redemption, salvation. Unless our Lord had come we should have never been rescued from the fangs of the serpent. Man had been bitten and poisoned by the venom of the prince of fiends. The scarlet path of tears, blood, tragedy had been trodden by poor, lost humanity. God loved us in spite of our sins. So He sent Jesus to seek and save the lost. Prior to the great gospel story in fact a crucifixion, death, burial, resurrection, ascension became necessary. It must take the warm, precious blood of the lamb of God to wash out the stains of men's souls. So Jesus came and gladly made a supreme sacrifice that we might live.

I. THE DIVINITY OF JESUS
Had it not been for the divinity of Christ his death would have availed nothing. No angel from heaven was worthy to die for the world. The fact that Jesus was the Son of God, existing with the Father "before Abraham was," made his sacrifice of such preciousness and power as to ransom man. No greater words were ever uttered by mortal tongue than those of Peter when he said in Caesarea

Phillippi, "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God." All the creeds of men, all the traditions of fallible humanity can never improve upon that all-inclusive declaration of the long ago. In as much as Jesus is the Christ, all his work in earthly ministry, in suffering, in vanquishing the tomb, and later establishment of the church on Pentecost move us with a definite appeal. "The only Begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth" brings us a revelation of Heaven's love, holiness, grace.

II. THE HUMANITY OF JESUS
In order to "taste death for every man" Jesus became embodied in flesh and blood, lived among us and died for us. This was necessary if our Lord would become acquainted with grief and be a "man of sorrows." It is a strange thing, hard to understand, but God's Word gives us the tender story of this earthly ministry, and we are grateful for these glimpses of our Master as he walked among men and women sympathizing with them in their sorrows, telling them of his Father's love and compassion, and urging a lost humanity to turn their faces heavenward and forsake sin. John said, "Our hands have handled . . . the Word of Life." Heaven was brought down where men could see it, God's goodness was revealed so all could understand it. In truth the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost. Today he is our High Priest and able through the tragedy of his own suffering to sympathize with and succor us in time of need.

NEW HOPE CLUB

Ivan Lovett, Reporter
 "Something out of nothing," motto of Mrs. Alvin Koehn, home demonstrator of the New Hope Demonstration Club, met with Mrs. Koehn, Wednesday afternoon, June 17.
 "I may think we haven't anything to work over and use but by going around we find we can make with very little expense," read Koehn in her story of her wardrobe.
 Her wardrobe was shown as an example of how little it costs to have much more convenient. The cake walk was discussed as to what to do at the dress exhibition, Saturday, June 21. Mrs. Loyd Furnish and Mrs. John Koehn have charge of the exhibit. Also Roberta will exhibit for girls. At the business meeting Miss Ludwick entertained us by telling of her Washington, D. C. members present for delicious refreshments were Mesdames J. E. Loyd Furnish, O. E. Carter, R. Tom Weldon, John Burdick, H. G. Riley, J. E. Yaden, and W. L. Lovett, Ivan Lovett, the hostess. Visitors were Maxine Sherman, Levant, Kan-Mrs. Chas. Ekberg, Colby, Kan-Roberta Furnish, Dorothy Burdick, Yaden and Rose Lee

WAKA CLUB

The Waka Home Demonstration Club met at the home of Mrs. C. B. Barber, Tuesday, June 16.
 A short business meeting was held. L. W. Hohlmann was elected president for the remainder of the year. Mrs. J. R. Stump gave a report to the County Council. Miss Marie Wicks gave a report of her trip to Washington, D. C., which was interesting and instructive.
 The business session a delicious plate lunch was served to the club members: Mesdames L. W. Hohlmann, H. N. Elledge, J. E. Miller, O. Burger, J. R. Stump, Ray Burger, C. B. Barber and Misses Ludwick and Wilma Coleman. The hostess Miss Nadine Barber.

GIRL FINISHES SEAMS

Making clothing problems in club work, Wilma Anderson of the club finds plain seams which have been pinked are good to use in making print dresses. In making slip in her club work, Wilma used French seams.

CLUB WOMEN KEEP CLOTHING RECORDS

The closets have been remodeled at a cost of $144 by the club women of the Ochiltree home demonstration club. The members are 100 per cent in keeping clothing accounts, and five have kept accounts for the family. Twenty-five garments have been made over and a total of sixty dresses and fifty undergarments have been made by the club as a whole.
 Mrs. Claud Crouch says that she has her foundation pattern very useful in making underwear.
 Mrs. L. W. Philpaw has made her dresses by her pattern this year and has used attractive trimming, collars and cuffs which she has made by hand.
 Mrs. Jim Dodson has helped with cutting and fitting of new foundation patterns for club members.
 Mrs. Roy Leicht has made four dresses by her pattern and says that it makes her skirt pattern because it fits so well. She finds her foundation pattern very helpful in connection with commercial patterns.

SEWING BOX HOLDS NEEDED EQUIPMENT FOR 4-H GIRL

A dress, slip, and cap towel have been completed by Vivian Williams, a year club member of Ochiltree Home Club.
 On the top of the lid of Vivian's sewing box is a list of equipment that 4-H girls need. This list helps Vivian to see that everything is in her box before coming to club.

TAXES BECOME DELINQUENT NEXT TUESDAY JUNE 30TH

To avoid paying penalty on the last one-half of 1935 county and school taxes, tax payers should make payment on or before Tuesday, June 30. Taxes becoming delinquent July 1 will bear a 1-2 per cent interest. Costs will also be added.
 The last one-half payment of city taxes becomes delinquent, if not paid by July 10. Delinquent city taxes will bear interest at the rate of 1-2 per cent each month from February in addition to penalty.

No matter what you want the Herald will get it for you.

CONVENIENCE IS KEYNOTE FOR REMODELING CLOSET

A dust proof closet which can also be used as a dressing room has been added to the home of Mrs. Jack Dodson of Ochiltree home demonstration club.
 After cleaning the walls, the ceiling was covered with discarded oil-cloth, and the entire closet was papered with light colored paper. Since dust is one of Mrs. Dodson's greatest problems, she was careful to see that all corners were well covered.
 The closet which is five feet, nine inches by seven feet and four inches, has been made more convenient by cutting the former clothes rods down to forty inches. The long shelves were cut down and raised, thus making shelf space all around the closet.
 Hat boxes have been papered like the closet and are used for storing both new and out of season hats. Garment bags made from large paper sacks, a moth proof bag for winter coats, shoe racks, a pocket bag for patterns, and a pin cushion are some of the useful things added to Mrs. Dodson's closet. She says that the closet is much more convenient since everything is in place and in sight.

SEAMS IMPORTANT PART IN SEWING WORK FOR 4-H

Mock French seams have been used in skirt by Roberta Furnish in making a cotton net dress for 4-H club work.
 Roberta made a raw seam on wrong side of her skirt. The edges of seam were turned in and both stitched together.
 Roberta says that this makes a softer finish and also makes a seam that holds well in net.

"HEARTS DIVIDED" SHOWING AT ELLIS THEATRE SUNDAY

Marion Davies, in her latest Cosmopolitan production, "Hearts Divided," a First National release with a romantic historical background, at the Ellis theatre Sunday and Monday.

The picture is said to have been produced on a lavish scale with beautiful sets and colorful settings. The scenes are laid largely in the historical Patterson mansion of Baltimore and its spacious grounds, but there are also sequences in Washington, an outlying race track, and in the palace of Emperor Napoleon of France.

Dick Powell who has the leading masculine role, also sings songs specially written for the production by Harry Warren and Al Dubin in one of which he is joined by Miss Davies. Other music is furnished by the form of spirituals sung by the famous Hall Johnson Choir, representing slaves in their quarters on the Patterson estate.

Several historical characters are seen in the film, including Napoleon Bonaparte, Cambaceres, second consul of France, Jerome Bonaparte, brother of the emperor, President Thomas Jefferson, James Madison, James Monroe, John Marshall, Alexander Hamilton and Aaron Burr. The story, by Rida Johnson Young, although historical, is entirely romantic, dealing with the courtship of the famous Baltimore heiress, Betsy Patterson, by Captain Jerome Bonaparte, who had come to America as an emissary of his brother, Emperor Napoleon, to negotiate the sale of Louisiana.

The courtship is a stormy one and is frowned upon by Napoleon, but comes to a pleasing consummation in a surprising climax.

Lovely "Sweetheart of Texas"

To millions of people throughout the nation, who have read with interest the Texas Centennial's booklets describing the beauties of Texas, lovely Janice Jarratt was known simply as the "girl on the cover". But in response to a wide public demand Centennial officials revealed her identity as the San Antonio girl who won fame in New York as America's best-loved model and became ranked as one of the world's most beautiful women. Back to Texas she came last week, and in an elaborate ceremony attended by hundreds Governor James V. Allred bestowed upon her the official state commission as "Sweetheart of the Texas Centennial." It will be her duty to reign with charm and gracious distinction over many of the scores of Centennial celebrations being held throughout all Texas.

Boyer Is Optimistic

Friends Over District Are Giving Him Much Encouragement and Financial Support

Max W. Boyer, local candidate for State Representative, returned home to Perryton Saturday after a week's stay in other parts of the 124th District. Mr. Boyer reports that friends in Spearman and Hansford county with a few friends elsewhere in the surrounding counties recently presented him with a number of window placards to be used in his campaign. He stated that he was very appreciative of the interest shown by this group of friends as he would have been unable financially to purchase same. In many of the towns of the district, Boyer states that friends interested in his campaign have extended to him the hospitality of their homes and hotels without charge. According to Candidate Boyer, he is receiving splendid receptions throughout the entire district and is greatly encouraged with his prospects for election. "I find that farmers over the district are particularly interested in my proposed amendment to the gasoline tax refund law of Texas in that I believe the tax on gasoline used for agricultural purposes should be deducted at the time of purchase. No farmer should be compelled to pay out tax money which he does not owe and wait months for the refund on same and pay a charge to get his own money back from the State," Boyer said.

Jones Sends Condolence

Congressman Marvin Jones Sends Letter of Sympathy to Mrs. J. M. Grigsby

Mrs. J. M. Grigsby has received the following letter of condolence from Congressman Marvin Jones. The late Judge Grigsby was a very close friend of the Congressman and had always given him his loyal political support.

Washington, D. C.
June 19, 1936.

Dear Mrs. Grigsby:
I regretted exceedingly to learn of Judge Grigsby's death. As one of the pioneer citizens of our section, he was an institution in himself, and somehow the country will hardly seem complete without him.

Judge Grigsby has been my generous friend during these years. Like others who had the privilege of knowing him, I learned to appreciate his qualities both as a man and as a citizen, and I want to express to you my sincere sympathy in your sorrow.

Our section owes much to those who have helped to build it and have always been loyal to its needs. Please extend my sympathy to the other members of the family also.

Sincerely yours,
MARVIN JONES.

We are just wondering what will happen next, in this month. First we had between six and eight inches of rain in about a week and after the wheat began to look good, we had a big hail storm that took most of it. Week before last the weather was so cool that a coat felt good in the morning and last week it was so hot that every one was afraid to look at their thermometers for fear the top was pushed off. Last Thursday night the beautiful Aurora Borealis or Northern Lights were seen by several in this community and Friday night we were all shook up by the earthquake. There has been considerable comment on the big crack that is opening up across the road from the Davis field just south of Audie Conleys home. Of course there are several little things like black dusters, tornadoes and snow storms that could happen yet, but we are just wondering which will be next.

Misses Jesse and Frances French, Hugoton, Kansas, have been visiting their aunt, Mrs. Rosie Waide for the past week.

There were only fifty-eight at was twenty less than were there the Sunday before. We will give the heat wave credit for this decrease in attendance. At three o'clock, Rev.

Mrs. Etta Brennan, Toxoma, Okla. is visiting in the home of her sister, Mrs. D. P. Tarbox, this week.

Well summer is here again. All doubt was dispelled Sunday when it was announced that the first of McMillen's community ice cream suppers would be held at the James Hardy home Saturday night. This is the first one to be held this summer but no one has forgotten those parties during the last two summers. Mr. Hardy originated the idea of these community suppers and also claims the honor of eating the most cream each time, but there is some argument about this as he has some close competition. There has been some talk about putting a limit on the amount one person can have.

and twenty dishes has been prepared but James Hardy and his family are trying to get it ready. Everyone is invited to come and bring a cake or frozen cream. Mr. Hardy. Don't forget, Saturday night.

Shall the Big Cities Rule Texas? Vote For the Moffett Amendment

A study of the map of the United States clearly emphasizes what a large state Texas is. Its boundaries stretch from the piny woods of East Texas to the broad level plains of West Texas. They extend from the mild climate of Brownsville to Dalhart, which is half way to the Canadian border. No other state has such far-flung boundaries, such variety of climates, occupations, interests and industries. Texas produces the most cotton, the most wool, the most cattle, the most oil. It has more mining interests than many states. It has a long seacoast. In some parts of Texas there is always a shortage of rainfall, while in other parts it frequently rains too much.

Because of this great variety of conditions it is just and right that the members of the law making body be sprinkled around all over the State so that each and every part may have a proper voice in the making of the laws under which they must live. The larger cities, and particularly Houston, have been making a tremendous effort to have the State re-districted in such a way that each large city would have twelve or fourteen members in the House of Representatives.

In a State with such broad interests, as Texas, it would be unwise and improper to permit the clustering of so many members of the lawmaking body. And a Constitutional Amendment, known as the Moffett Amendment, has been submitted by the Legislature of this State, to be voted on by the people in November, 1936, which will limit the number of members, that any one county may have, to seven.

Certainly that is enough for any one county. This limit is not unreasonable, and a similar limitation has been placed in the Constitution of more than thirty States in the Union, and has been found to be a proper balance wheel in the governmental machinery of those States, and the same balance wheel should be placed in the governmental machinery of Texas. And you are urged to go to the polls and vote for this Amendment in November 1936, and to persuade your neighbors to do likewise, because tremendous pressure will be brought by the big cities to defeat this amendment. But, if the interests of the rancher, the farmer and those who live in the small towns are to be properly safeguarded it is necessary that the lawmaking body of this State be made up of members who represent each and every part of the State, and that it not be dominated by groups of twelve or fourteen members from each of the four or five large cities of Texas. These groups would usually act together, and would be able to shape and mold legislation to suit their own desires.

Thirty other states have found it best to scatter their Representatives around among all the different sections of the State and not permit large bunches of lawmakers to come from the same place. Texas should do likewise.

Representative George Moffett, Chillicothe, Texas, tried for six years to get the above constitutional amendment passed through the Texas Legislature, so that it could be voted by the people. It was repeatedly blocked by the legislative "trigger work" of members from the larger cities who opposed it. Finally at the last session, Moffett with the assistance of our own representative, B. L. Rogers, succeeded in getting the amendment submitted to a vote of the people. Those who favor it should strain a point to get it adopted, for if it is defeated this time, it may never be submitted to a vote again.

Better Be Vigilant

PICTURE OF A MAN WHO NEVER HAD TIME TO WAIT FOR GREEN LIGHT

BUT NOW HAS PLENTY OF TIME

Here is an example of what too many pedestrians do. The person illustrated above never had time to wait for the green light, but now, as all will admit, he has P-L-E-N-T-Y of time. No doubt any person who has had such an experience will decide it's better to wait a few seconds than to spend weeks and even months getting over injuries suffered because of impatience.

Last year there were more than a thousand pedestrians killed when they crossed at intersections against the signal, and there were more than 35,000 who were injured, according to the Travelers Insurance Company. Many of those killed, if they had a chance to do it over again, would be more than willing to wait for the light to turn in their favor. Very likely those injured feel the same way. It may be a little irksome to wait for the signal to flash "Go," but one remains dead a long time, and it's far from being funny to be kept in bed recovering from injuries.

Dallas.—Scenic backgrounds on the stage of "Cavalcade of Texas," huge spectacular production at the Texas Centennial Exposition in Dallas, are so realistic that the man-made rocks and mountains appear in photographs and under the performance lights as actual landscape.

Dallas.—More than 600 head of livestock are in the corrals at the Texas Centennial Exposition for the World Championship Rodeo, plus cowboys and cowgirls from the leading ranches of the United States, Canada and Mexico.

Dallas.—You can test your driving ability at the Warden Laves Crime Prevention Exhibit, at the Texas Centennial Exposition, on instruments prepared by Harvard University. Without getting in a car you can find out how nearly perfect you are in all types of driving conditions.

BONUS OBSERVATION A MESSAGE TO ALL VETERANS

We join in congratulating all veterans upon the receipt of additional recognition services rendered in the Great Conflict—services that we all know required sacrifice on the part of every individual, and that were rendered gladly and patriotically.

Perhaps you will put your bonus money away for the inevitable rainy day (or two) that is sound judgment.

Or you may pay up back debts and get "even with the world." That is highly commendable.

Or you may invest in a home—a castle of your own.

Or you may be fortunately situated, with a good paying position, and plan to spend your bonus for something you have wanted for a long time but felt that you couldn't afford of regular monthly income.

Many participants in the bonus need and would like to have a new car—or a better car than the one they are now driving.

If you are in this group we will gladly arrange, on request, a demonstration of Ford V-8.

Or we will be glad to help you choose a used car from the variety of makes and models we have in stock.

He denied charges that he has represented corporations to the detriment of the people in his own district.

"I am just a country lawyer," he declared, "and if I had all the money that corporations have paid me in the last 25 years, I wouldn't have $500. Making a living has been a pretty hard job for me, too, and I need the money."

The Senator, who plans an intensive campaign of every county in the District was introduced by County Judge J. H. Broadhurst, of Spearman. He spoke to an audience that overflowed the Lyric Theatre. A loud speaker carried his address to scores outside the building.

He reminded his North Plains audience of his legislation which created the soil erosion districts, the measure which returns the four-cent gasoline tax to farmers for fuel used for farm purposes and his bill by which the gasoline tax is allocated to highways, education and county road bonds.

The Senator did not mince words in rebuttal to some of the charges being brought against him by those who are opposed to his re-election and many who heard him expressed themselves as going down the line for Clint Small for another term.

Delegations from Amarillo, Dalhart, Shamrock, McLean, Panhandle, Gruver, Perryton and Dumas were present to hear the Senator fire his first gun in the campaign. Among those from Perryton were Jack R. Allen, C. E. Whippo, A. P. Spicer and Van W. Stewart.

CLUB WORKERS

thing else she has done. She says that she can actually make a dress for herself, and does not have to call on someone else to see if her dress fits. This saves a lot of time and is still more worry.

"It seems to be a standing joke that club women find their materials for remodeling storage space in the yard or scrap heaps," stated Mrs. A. M. Koehn, New Hope Club. After taking an inventory of materials on hand which she needed for improving her clothes closet, Mrs. Koehn constructed shelves of pieces of boards found in her yard and in that of her neighbors across the street.

The ceiling of the closet is very high, two shelves have been erected near the top for storing articles seldom used. To reach these shelves a foot stool has been provided. Three more shelves have been added to side wall. The top is used for hats, middle one for flat articles of clothing and bottom one for smaller articles such as shoe polish, etc.

Mrs. Koehn says that she is winner in her wardrobe work because she has learned to take small articles on hand that are not being utilized and with her two hands turn them into something worthwhile. According to Mrs. Koehn she has a more attractive and convenient place of storage, a pattern that really fits and the knowledge that she can really help herself.

To replace the wall for hanging her clothes, Mrs. Olin Sheets, of Waka Home Demonstration Club has built a two compartment clothes closet at a cost of $3.00. The closet has a rod in either end for hanging clothes, a shelf above each rod where hats can be stored. In the back of the closet directly in front of the door is a tier of shelves; this is used for folded garments, that are used in the bedroom.

Ruth Ann Urban, wardrobe demonstrator of McMillen 4-H Club has completed all of her goals in wardrobe work this year.

Having built a new closet last year Ruth Ann worked on stocking bags and pockets for her closet door this year. Ruth Ann made a dress, slip, two pairs of bloomers and a tea towel besides helping with the family mending.

Ruth Ann has learned a great deal about cutting and sewing garments and feels that she has enjoyed this year of the club work even more than she did the first year's work.

Fifty cents was spent by Bonnie Dell Harbison of Wolf-Creek 4-H club in remodeling her closet. She has made a hat rack and shoe rack for her closet and pockets for her closet door. Besides her club work Bonnie Dell has kept an account of her clothing as a part of her club work and says she has learned how to sew and depend upon herself, and has really enjoyed her club work this year.

By winning the mattress for being the best 4H girl in the county last year, Lillian Williams, Wardrobe Demonstrator of Ochiltree 4-H club says that that gave her the courage to do even better than she had done the year before.

This year she has kept an account of the cost and value of each garment made. She has a sewing box and she says she keeps her clothing in better condition, and she washes, irons and mends most of them.

Lillian has a notebook with all the information on seams, how to remove stains, and many other helpful hints on sewing that has proven very useful to her.

She has spent six hours in improving her closet.

Lillian says she has made most of her clothes for the past two years, and that she has helped with the sewing for her two younger sisters.

V. S. Dillingham, Homestead, Oklahoma, came in Saturday for a visit in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Fred Huston.

JNO. N. STUMP

On October 9, 1881, the deceased was married to Miss Nannie Simmons. Two children blessed this union. One a daughter, Lillie Maud, passed on many years ago. The other a son, Jesse V. Stump, is a prosperous farmer and stockman of the Waka vicinity.

In 1883, Mr. Stump with his wife and infant son, moved to Osceola, Mo., where they resided for two years before going to Nevada, Mo., for a three year stay. Then in 1886, they started out for Texas, locating in Cook county, near Gainsville. After a little daughter had been added to the family circle, John N. Stump and his family thrust on forward to the Panhandle frontier, settling at Miami in 1890 and coming on to Ochiltree county in 1901.

Jno. N. Stump has ever been a leading citizen of Ochiltree county. Always extensively interested in farming and ranching, he soon became concerned in varied business activities. For many years he was associated with C. E. Forbes in the ownership and management of the telephone system at Ochiltree. Then when Perryton was started in 1919, Mr. Stump installed a modern telephone system here. This he operated for many years. After disposing of his telephone system, he became interested in various lines of business: mercantile, automobile, motor parts, farming machinery and banking. At the time of his death he was the owner of the Stump Supply Co., a wholesale and retail farm machinery and motor parts business. For years, he had been a director of the First National Bank and when death called, was a vice president of this institution.

In addition to his business interests, Mr. Stump was the largest owner of rental property, both business and residential in Perryton. He was also one of the largest land owners in the county.

Funeral services were conducted at the First Baptist Church at 2:30 p. m., Monday, Rev. James H. Elrod, pastor of the Brethren Church, Wichita, Kansas, officiating, assisted by Rev. W. C. Bryan. Interment was in the Ochiltree cemetery. Appropriate vocal selections were rendered by a mixed quartet composed of Mrs. Carl Ellis, Mrs. W. J. Brewer, J. Malvin Jackson and Addison Cutler, with Mrs. J. Malvin Jackson, pianist.

Active pallbearers were W. E. McMillen, J. S. Talley, Carl Ellis, C. B. Rogers, H. T. Cutter and A. J. Kelly. Honorary pallbearers were C. E. Forbes, Judge Geo. M. Perry, P. Dodson, Johnnie O'Laughlin, J. C. Brewer and M. R. Coffee.

In the passing on of this grand person, Ochiltree county and Perryton has lost a true friend. One who had an everlasting faith in the greatness and future of this Plains country. A man who had made more than the usual financial success and who did not hesitate to invest his earnings in improving and building this city and county. A true Christian, a friend to all, he is gone but his memory will live on and on in the hearts of the many that he has befriended. No more true tribute could attest to the high esteem in which he was held than the profusion and beauty of the floral offerings that banked his bier.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Miller and Janice were in Happy Saturday night and Sunday visiting with his folks.

Mrs. M. M. Cudd and Mrs. J. W. Herrell motored to Goodwell, Okla., Friday for Mrs. Herrell's daughter, Miss Anna Lee Hodges, who spent the week end in Perryton.
