Bid For Settlement In Berlin Is Seen

West Seeking Settlement Of Austrian Treaty As Big Four Meet Nears End

By WES GALLAGHER
Associated Press Staff Writer

PARIS, June 13.—A partial settlement to bring a truce to East-West strife in Berlin appeared tonight to be growing out of secret Big Four talks.

The west also bid for a settlement on an Austrian treaty in a drive to end the deadlocked council of foreign minister sessions with some successes.

Sources previously reliable said the Big Four were making progress toward an accord on the Berlin matter, and that Russia was backing down completely from her position on Austria. American sources were less optimistic on Austria.

New York Meet Possible

These sources said it was hoped to end the Paris meetings by Friday, and there was talk of another meeting in New York in September.

The Western Powers were reported awaiting a reply from the Kremlin on their proposals on Berlin and Austria.

They made their effort for a patchwork accord on Berlin after all hope was abandoned of an overall settlement to end the cold war in Germany.

It would be a "live and let live" agreement which would not touch the main points of disagreement. There still would be a divided Germany, Berlin would still have two administrators, two kinds of money and two of nearly everything else.

Reds Bare Demands

But the arrangements would allow the two political camps to do business with each other, and it might allow a lessening of tension.

Authoritative sources said the West put its cards on the table at two secret meetings Saturday and Sunday.

British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin was said to have made the first move in a two-hour meeting with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky Saturday. He asked Vishinsky to present his minimum demands.

It was reported Vishinsky said Russia wanted increased trade for no one with West Germany and a single east mark currency for Berlin.

Bevin was quoted as saying Russia's wishes on trade could be arranged in return for Soviet guarantees in writing of free ac-

Mrs. Chambers Defends Husband

NEW YORK, June 13 (INS)—Mrs. Whittaker Chambers admitted today under relentless cross-examination that she is not sure about a piece of testimony that might lead to the conviction of Alger Hiss for perjury.

A day of often bitter questioning of the slim, pale-faced woman in black by the defense attorney, Lloyd Paul Stryker, produced conflicting testimony on a vital date. But generally the woman supported the accusations of her husband against Hiss.

The 49-year-old witness, who completed her stay on the witness stand, also showed an almost ferocious willingness to defend her husband. She told how it is to be married to a Communist, when even their baby had an alias.

Judge Calls Recess

The potentially most damaging piece of testimony Mrs. Chambers has given is that she and her husband attended a New Year's Eve party with Hiss and Mrs. Hiss in December, 1937.

One of two counts on which Hiss was indicted by a federal grand jury was that he lied when he said he did not see Chambers after Jan. 1, 1937—the other is that he lied when he denied he ever turned over government-secrets to the round-faced former Communist spy courier.

Mrs. Chambers became so confused during Stryker's blistering cross-examination about the exact date of the party that Federal Judge Samuel H. Kaufman called a five-minute recess so she could refresh her memory.

She said she had been to the Hiss home in Washington twice in 1937, during the summer and

OFFER IS REJECTED

BEAUMONT, June 13. (AP)—Beaumont and Port Arthur bus lines workers tonight turned down a proposal made by National city lines to settle a 26-day-old strike. The proposal included an offer of a 3-cent hourly wage increase effective when the workers returned to their jobs.

Coal Contract Talks Begin

(By The Associated Press)

PHILADELPHIA, June 13.—A weeklong holiday began today for the nation's 480,000 coal miners and John L. Lewis, their bushy-browed boss, spent the day telling coal operators what he wants in a new contract.

The walkout of United Mine Workers members was ordered by Lewis. He called the stoppage a "stabilization holiday."

Lewis' contract with the soft coal operators doesn't expire until June 30. If no new pact is signed by them and the union's traditional policy is carried out, a drawn-out coal strike likely will result.

Contract Talks Open

The miners are scheduled to go back to work next Monday. But they'll quit again June 25 for their annual 10-day paid holiday.

That means very little coal will be mined for some time to come.

Contract talks at the Bellevue-Stratford hotel here today were between Lewis and Harry Moses, president of the H. C. Frick Coke Co., coal-producing subsidiary of U.S. Steel Corp.

"Big steel" employs only 20,000 miners in its "captive" pits, but any agreement between Lewis and U.S. Steel probably will set the pattern for the industry. It has done so in the past.

The conference began at 9 a.m. (CST) and was adjourned at 1:45 p.m., with a two-hour recess for luncheon.

Brief Statement Issued

Moses issued this brief statement at the conclusion of the meeting:

"We have spent these sessions today talking about necessary preliminaries for negotiation of a new contract.

"We have decided to recess until Thursday, June 23, at which time we will start talks for signing of a new contract. The place

Senate Okays World Wheat Agreement

WASHINGTON, June 13. (AP)—The Senate today ratified an international wheat agreement which sponsors said would provide an export market for 168 million bushels of American wheat a year for the next four years.

The Senate acted by voice vote after several members, including Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) had expressed misgivings about the pact.

It becomes effective July 1, provided a sufficient number of participating nations ratify it by that time. A similar agreement last year died because this nation failed to ratify it.

Forty-one nations worked out the agreement last March — the United States and four other net exporters of wheat, and 36 wheat importing nations. Russia and Argentina, both big exporters, are not in the pact.

OLD GLORY! LONG MAY IT WAVE!—Today is Flag Day, the 172nd anniversary of the formal adoption of the Stars and Stripes as the official flag of the United States. Its history dates back to the time of the Revolution. It was officially adopted by Congress June 14, 1777. For a while a new star and stripe were added for each new state. In 1794, the 13 stripes and additional stars for each state were approved. The name "Old Glory" reportedly was first used Aug. 2, 1777 at Fort Stanwix, N.Y. The flag inspired the National anthem during the war of 1812 and has been carried to the four corners of the earth as Americans defended the Liberty and Way of Life for which it stands.

Stocks Drop To New Low

(By International News Service)

NEW YORK, June 13—The stock market dropped today to new postwar lows and experts estimated $4 billion have been sheared from big board stocks in the past two weeks.

Stocks fell $1 to nearly $5 a share during the day in the market's fourth serious decline since the Memorial day holiday.

The decline brought the market to a 4½-year low.

Nervousness over the labor outlook, highlighted by the nationwide coal stoppage, and renewed evidences of shrinking industrial activity as typified by another sharp drop in steel operations, were primarily responsible for the selling.

The Dow-Jones industrial averages declined $3.01 a share, rails were down $1.67, and utilities were off 21 cents.

On last May 31, industrials were off $3.17 a share, the widest break since last November. On June 6, industrials declined $2.09 a share while last Friday they were off $1.12 a share.

Today's slump forced the Dow-Jones industrial averages below the support bottoms which had held in 1947 and 1946. This was interpreted by many Wall street observers as a signal that the major bear market trend had been resumed.

The high-priced DuPont shares were the biggest losers in today's sell-off, cracking $4.75 a share. Allied Chemical and Standard Oil of California were off $2.25 each.

Pronounced weakness also developed in the rail group with Atchison off $3.25, and declines of $2 and more a share sustained by Delaware and Hudson, Nickel Plate, Southern Pacific and Southern Railway.

Volume totaled 1,340,000 shares, slightly below the dealings of 1,380,000 shares a week ago which had been the largest since March 30.

Taylor Citizens Offer Reward After Produce Dealer Beaten

TAYLOR, June 13 (AP)—Taylor citizens have offered a $300 reward for information leading to the arrest of the assailant of Bill Neubauer, found bound and beaten at his home late last Friday.

The 57-year-old produce dealer and former tavern-owner still was unconscious and in critical condition today.

Bill Olson found Neubauer bleeding, unconscious and with his hands tied with baling wire in a small pantry of his home north of here. Police Chief J. W. Dellinger said Neubauer apparently had been beaten with a heavy instrument and that several blows pierced the skull. A cigar box where Neubauer had kept change was found empty.

Courthouse Bids To Be Opened Wednesday

County Workers' Pay Boosts Are Okayed

By EDWARD WELSH
Avalanche Staff Writer

THE Lubbock County Commissioners' court yesterday afternoon approved salary increases for all county officers, deputies and clerks. The increase was granted under authority of the recently enacted Texas Senate bill Number 92.

The commissioners also announced there will be a special extra session of the court Wednesday afternoon at 2 p.m. At that time sealed bids on the construction of the new courthouse will be opened.

The legislation authorizing the increase in salaries of county employes took into consideration the increased cost of living and the fact that official salaries have not kept pace with financial opportunities in private life.

Fee Basis Abolished

Section three of the bill also provides that all officers now on a fee basis will be transferred over to an annual salary to be paid in 12 equal installments.

As the Senate bill reads, county officials can receive an increase not exceeding 25 per cent of the amount allowed for that officer under the laws existing in 1948. In the case of deputies, assistants and clerks the law allows an increase of 35 per cent.

The provisions of the act do not mean that the increase is 25 or 35 per cent of what the person is now receiving. For example, if the law of 1948 allows a salary of $3,000, a man, or woman, can receive up to $750 more. That person may only receive $2,000 at the present time but the increase of $750 could be applicable.

Low Pay Scale Noted

The commissioners in discussing approval of the increases pointed out that many deputies with large families are receiving only $187 per month. These men are on call 24 hours a day and seven days a week.

A similar condition exists in the office of the county attorney. Here attorneys who are assistants to the county attorney receive $187 and $218.

"It is almost impossible to keep educated and qualified men at these salaries," Waggoner Carr, county attorney, told the commissioners court. "They can get more than that in any law office in Lubbock."

The commissioners were in agreement with Carr's plea and that of Sheriff Grady Harrist who wanted to see his men properly compensated.

One provision of the Senate bill states that in no case could the commissioners raise their own salaries without raising all other county officers at the same rate. It does not state that the commis-

Residents Seek Annexation Here

By ROGER SOUTHALL
Avalanche Staff Writer

Property owners in a large section of suburban southwest Lubbock, who currently are seeking to have their section brought within the city limits, last night apparently were one step nearer their goal as a result of a meeting held in the M. C. Overton school.

Some 45 residents of the suburban area and those who own property there met at the elementary school in an attempt to work out obstacles which thus far have prevented that section of Lubbock from being brought into the city.

Street Widths Problem

Bottlenecks in that area include lack of alleys and sufficient street widths in several blocks, particularly in the 3400 and 3500-blocks of Ellwood street, and the block of Tyler avenue between Ellwood and Twenty-fourth.

Since it is the policy of the City of Lubbock to take in relatively large tracts of outlying areas at a time, these "bugs" have thus far prevented annexation of the entire area to the city.

At last night's meeting, Dr. J. C. Anderson, chairman and spokes-

Air Force General Objects To Rent Decontrol In Texas

SAN ANTONIO, June 13 (AP)—Decontrol of rents in San Antonio or adjacent areas would be a blow to the morale and livelihood of members of the air force, Brig. Gen. Byron E. Gates, chief of staff, Flying Division, Air Training Command, Randolph Air Force Base, declared here today.

He said the air force is renting some 11,000 units throughout Texas and will be the hardest hit if rent controls are lifted.

"Personnel of the air force are already paying exorbitant prices for what we consider substandard housing," Gen. Gates explained.

"Although we are in no position to tell any city or state government which step to take in lifting or holding rent controls, we definitely feel that any lifting of controls would hinder the progress of the U. S. air force," Gen. Gates declared.

A similar view is held by army officers at Fort Sam Houston.

FBI REPORTS ARE ASSAILED

Condon Ordered To Appear As Witness In Coplon Spy Trial

By GEORGE MOISE
INS Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Dr. Edward U. Condon tonight was subpoenaed to appear at the Judith Coplon spy trial to refute the charges made against him and his wife by the FBI and its informants.

Dr. Condon was summoned to appear Wednesday morning. He said he would appear, and would have no statement pending his appearance.

Defense attorney Archibald Palmer told newsmen he wants Dr. Condon to take the stand to show that the FBI reports are "silly" and based on "smear tactics."

Palmer said he wants to show that there was nothing vital in the reports that Miss Coplon could have stolen.

Defense Forces Delay

The latest move in the case came after the defense kept the government from ending its case by insisting that private notes of FBI agents be read to the jury.

Government attorneys wound up their presentation and were prepared to allow Palmer to start offering testimony.

But Palmer demanded the reading of private notes made by FBI

AEC Policies Defended By Top Scientist

By ROGER D. GREENE
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, June 13—Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer who helped develop the A-bomb testified today that the Atomic Energy commission has "sweated blood" to safeguard the nation's atomic secrets.

"And it has come up with about as good an answer as is obtainable," the scientist told a Senate-House Investigating committee.

Joining in the defense of AEC chairman David E. Lilienthal, the AEC's nine-man scientific advisory committee praised Lilienthal's regime as having produced "a sound and forward-looking program."

Statement Is Read

A statement from the nine scientists, read by Dr. Oppenheimer, said in part:

"Better weapons have been developed and tested . . .

"The improvement which has been achieved during the commission's administration appears to us to offer clear proof of competence and devotion to duty by the commission."

The Senate-House group is conducting hearings on charges by Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) that Lilienthal is responsible for "incredible mismanagement" of the atomic program.

In his testimony today, Dr. Oppenheimer said he "certainly" can reassure the American people that no risk is involved in shipping atom - bombarded isotopes aboard.

"Safe" In Red Hands

He said even if the isotopes fell into Russian hands, "I know of no way" in which the Soviets could use them to make weapons.

Dr. Oppenheimer was wartime head of the Los Alamos, N. M., atomic laboratories. He is now chairman of the AEC's general advisory council and president of the Institute for Advanced Studies at Princeton, N. J.

Dr. Oppenheimer made these other salient points:

1. The AEC should take the wraps off some atomic data which is now secret.

2. Development of improved atomic weapons was "nearly stagnant" when the civilian commission took over the atomic program from the military early in 1947. He said the AEC inherited "a tough cookie," but today—

"It is a sound program, soundly

Two Injured In Freak Accident

Two Colorado Springs, Colo., women were injured, one very seriously and possibly critically, in a freak car accident about 7 p.m. Monday on the Plainview highway, about four miles north of Lubbock.

Mrs. Della Manuel, 67, who was a passenger in a 1946 Mercury driven by Rachel Miller, 30, suffered a head injury and internal injuries, neither of which had been fully diagnosed last night. Hospital attendants explained that the older woman's condition was such that she could not be moved for x-rays.

Miss Miller, who was not seriously hurt, suffered abrasions of both knees, the left shoulder, both arms and the face, and had a small laceration on the forehead.

Women Thrown From Car

The mishap was unique in that there was no collision with another vehicle or object and the car did not overturn. Both women were thrown from the car onto the side of the road while the vehicle was spinning, apparently after the driver lost control in attempting to pass a car driven by Virgil L. Renfro, 28, of Dallas, a salesman for a storage battery company.

Renfro, said he was driving on the inside lane of the four-lane divided highway when the car

San Angelo Records Eighth Polio Death

SAN ANGELO, June 13. (AP)—A team of polio-fighting experts arrived by plane tonight a few hours after the disease killed its eighth child of the year from this area.

Tommy Yarbrough, 5, died this afternoon. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Yarbrough.

No adults have died.

The official count of cases under treatment in hospitals here rose to a new high of 65 today. An unofficial count placed the total at 71.

The specialists arrived at the Municipal airport and said they would wait until tomorrow to confer with San Angelo doctors.

Meanwhile, four new cases of polio—two from hard-hit San Angelo—were confirmed at Brooke general hospital in San Antonio today.

Brought from Goodfellow Air Force base at San Angelo were John H. Dykstra, 5, son of T/Sgt. and Mrs. Henry Dykstra, and Mrs. Audrey Olson, 28, wife of M/Sgt. Oscar Olson. The others were Mrs. Doris Nelson, 25, Uvalde, and the 13-month-old son of T/Sgt. William A. Buech of Brooks Air Force base, San Antonio.

Bandleader To Contest Divorce Suit By Child Star's Mother

HOLLYWOOD, June 13 (INS)—Don Silvio Sbrigata, Margaret O'Brien's stepfather, served notice that he would contest the divorce action filed against him by the child actress' mother.

His attorney, Leonard Wilson, today filed a demurrer to the complaint brought by Mrs. Gladys Silvio against the dapper orchestra leader who became Margaret's stepfather last Feb. 22.

Silvio contended that he not only is entitled to a list of the acts of alleged cruelty, but also a transfer of the suit to the superior court branch in Santa Monica, calif., where he lives.

DALLAS HARD HIT

More Showers Fall Over Area

Scattered showers continued to dot the South Plains Monday, but Lubbock failed to receive any moisture during the day, although a threatening cloud moved north of the city about 11 p. m.

The Weather Bureau station reported a "few drops" of precipitation fell there from the cloud which had given light showers to Muleshoe, Littlefield, Plainview, Hale Center, and Abernathy.

Other clouds were reported on the western edge of the South Plains shortly before midnight, but only Denver City in that area reported a light shower at 10 p.m.

Rains Soak Area Sunday

The possibility that the showers would move over Lubbock area before dawn was foreseen.

The showers came on the heels of violent thunderstorm activity over the area Sunday night and early Monday. Heavy rains in some areas further delayed the start of the wheat harvest and again soaked cotton fields.

The weather station, for the first time in several weeks, said that skies would be partly cloudy today but omitted the usual forecast of showers and scattered thunderstorms. However, the station said that thundershower activity probably would resume Wednesday.

Little change in temperatures from Monday's high of 83 is expected, the forecasters said.

Dallas Hard Hit

A cloudburst drenched Dallas Monday night as thunderstorms rolled over a wide area of north and west Central Texas, the Associated Press said.

Lights went out in Dallas' big Oak Cliff residential section, in northeast Dallas and in the University Park suburb as thunder crashed around the city.

Several streets in north Dallas were flooded.

The weather bureau described the Dallas storm as a "locally heavy cloudburst" but had no measurement of rainfall. Winds up to 40 miles an hour were recorded at Love field.

At Little Elm, north of Dallas, 1.93 inches of rain fell.

Greenville got two inches of rain in an hour and 45 minutes.

Wind and rain whipped at Sterling City northeast of San Angelo in West Texas, but no damage was reported. Weather observers in San Angelo spotted a funnel-like cloud but reported it broke up in the wide open spaces.

Light rain fell at Brownwood and Rising Star. Fort Worth reported heavy thunder but no rain.

Auto Industry May Top 6,000,000 Units

DETROIT, June 13 (AP)—If the auto industry could maintain its present production level it would roll out about six million vehicles this year.

But apparently only a few among the industry experts believe production in the July-December period can equal that of that first half of the year. So far this year the factories have built more than 2,615,000 cars and trucks.

With more of the Ford factories back into production this week's output in the United States may go over the 130,000 unit mark. Last week the factories built more than 127,000 vehicles.

The industry, of course, is concerned about the possibility of labor troubles in the coal and steel industries as well as the manpower situation in its own plants.

McAllen Farmer Speeds Cotton To Houston In 'First Bale' Race

(By The Associated Press)

McALLEN, June 13—Joe Acosta headed a 510-pound bale of cotton toward Houston tonight—hoping it would be the nation's first acceptable bale of the year to reach a cotton exchange.

He expected the bale to reach Houston at 3 a. m. It left here at 7:20 p. m. in a truck driven by W. J. Williams and Lynn Boyd.

The cotton came off the farm Acosta works 12 miles northwest of here, known as Jackson's pasture.

It was ginned at the Neville-Farley-Williamson gin here. The bale came through the first time at 6:15 p. m. weighing 450 pounds even.

Acosta feared it might lose moisture content on the way to Houston and be too light to be accepted. He added 200 pounds of seed cotton and ran it through the gin twice more. The 510 pound bale was turned out at 7:15 p. m.

Earlier today, an Edinburg ginner reported a farmer had brought in enough cotton for a 330-pound bale, but Houston exchange officials ruled the first bale must weigh at least 450 pounds.

Brannan Plan Okayed; To Be Election Issue

By OVID A. MARTIN
Associated Press Staff Writer

DES MOINES, June 13—A conference of Democratic leaders from 16 Midwestern states voted unanimously today to endorse the Truman administration's new farm program and to seek election of a Congress in 1950 committed to its passage.

This action came after Truman leaders suggested that the present Congress continue existing wartime farm programs pending a voter test on the administration's farm proposal.

"We accept the challenge of the Republican leadership," said a resolution, "to make the farm programs offered by the two parties a major issue of the election campaign of 1950 in the Midwest.

Barkley Pleads For Unity

The conference resolution—like Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan, a major speaker at the sessions—condemned the so-called Aiken long-range farm program of the Republican 80th Congress as inadequate protection to rural prosperity.

Vice President Barkley, addressing a meeting crowd estimated by leaders at 2,500, pleaded for unity of labor and agriculture on economic problems affecting both.

"He who seeks to array farmers and workers against one another is not a friend of either," Barkley said.

Outlining a history of farm aid legislation passed by Democratic administrations, the vice president said farmers could count only upon his party for programs aimed at maintaining farm stability.

The appeal for continuing wartime farm programs for another year was made by Sen. J. Howard McGrath, of Rhode Island, the Democratic national chairman, and Secretary of Agriculture Brannan.

Aiken Plan Opposed

McGrath, who made plain that President Truman endorsed the Brannan plan, said continuation of the relatively high price support program was to be preferred to the Aiken long-range farm law passed by the 80th Republican Congress.

Unless Congress acts, McGrath said, the Aiken law will go into effect next year. The law makers have shown no inclination to act

Negro Charged After Shooting

Jimmy Hawkins, 35-year-old Slaton negro, was charged Monday with assault with intent to murder another negro, Emory Morrell, and was held under $1,500 bond set by Justice of the Peace D. W. Robertson.

The alleged incident, said Slaton Chief of Police Ernest Ward and J. E. Morris, patrolman of the same department, happened early Monday in Slaton.

Hawkins, the officers said, fired a shotgun blast that missed Morrell's head by a scant two inches when it blasted out the windshield of his car. Hawkins was drunk at the time of the shooting, the officers said.

Negro Is Arraigned

Seab Lee, 45, a negro under murder indictment in connection with the recent knife slaying of his wife here, was arraigned Monday in 99th District court. He informed Judge G. V. Pardue that he had no counsel. The court appointed James G. Denton, Lubbock attorney, to represent him.

Several theft reports marred an otherwise quiet weekend in police circles, officers said Monday.

Ray Fowler, 44, charged with theft of a car, posted $1,000 bond set in binding him over to grand jury investigation.

The complaint, prepared by E. G. Pharr, an assistant district attorney, accuses Fowler of theft Saturday of a car owned by J. M. Bowles. The bond was set by D. W. Robertson, justice of peace.

High Court Rejects Appeal By Movie Group On Contempt Action

WASHINGTON, June 13. (AP)—The conviction of two movie writers for contempt of Congress was upheld today by the U.S. Circuit court of appeals.

The court ruled that a committee of Congress has the right to demand that a witness state whether he is a Communist.

For screen writers Dalton Trumbo and Howard Lawson, the decision was the last stop before the Supreme court — and a possible year in jail. They now are free on bond.

Eight Others Indicted

They were convicted in district court here last year of contempt for refusing to tell the House Un-American Activities committee whether either was or had been a member of the Communist party.

Eight other Hollywood figures were indicted on similar charges. Trial of their cases has been held up pending the outcome of the appeals taken by Trumbo and Lawson.

The scenario writers took the stand that Congress didn't have a right to examine their political beliefs.

The appeals court said: Yes, it does.

The appellate court's decision did not rule on a witness's refusal to say whether he is a Communist on the ground that an answer might "incriminate" or "degrade" him. That comes under a section of the Constitution which says, in effect, that a man cannot be forced to testify against himself.

Robert W. Kenny, defense attorney, said he would ask the circuit court for a rehearing and if that is denied, appeal to the Supreme court.

Senate Group Agrees To Plan To Amend Natural Gas Setup

WASHINGTON, June 13 (AP)—A Senate Commerce subcommittee agreed tentatively today to redraft a bill to amend the natural gas act.

Senators Kerr and Elmer Thomas, Oklahoma Democrats, introduced the bill. It would prohibit the federal power commission from taking jurisdiction over sales of gas by independent operators to interstate pipelines.

Chairman Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex) will do the redrafting. The committee may meet later to discuss the new language.

Members who were present declind to say just what changes were tentatively agreed upon behind closed doors.

Leland Olds, FPC commissioner, opposed the bill at a hearing, claiming it would result in price increases to consumers. He said Commissioners Claude Draper and Thomas C. Buchanan had similar views. FPC Chairman Nelson Lee Smith and Commissioner Harrington Wimberly said they favored the principle of the Kerr-Thomas bill.

Freak Air Crash Kills Two In Japan

MISAWA, Japan, June 13 (INS)—Two Americans were killed and three were injured today in a freak air and ground collision which involved 14 fighter planes at the Misawa Airbase.

The multiple collision touched off a fatal chain reaction when two F-51's from Misawa collided with a flight of four F-51's from Johnson airbase at Tokyo.

One of the fighters, its wing sliced off in the collision, crashed on the ramp of the airfield, killing the pilot. Then the plane skidded into a line of parked fighters with a resulting fire and explosion which injured three mechanics and destroyed eleven planes.

The other plane in the midair crash slammed to earth near Misawa.

The other four planes landed safely.

Fourth Army Commander To Inspect Texas National Guard

NORTH CAMP HOOD, June 13 (AP) — Texas National Guardsmen of the 36th Infantry division will be inspected Wednesday by Gen. Thomas Handy, Fourth Army commander.

Brig. Gen. Rayond H. Hufft, Louisiana adjutant general, is scheduled to visit the division tomorrow. Lt. Gen Kenneth F. Cramer, chief of the Army's National Guard bureau, is expected some time this week.

Lt. Gen. Ernest O. Thompson, commanding general of the Texas National Guard, will deliver a flag day address tomorrow at the Hall of State at Fair park in Dallas. A 36th division program will be broadcast over the Texas state network at 8:30 p. m.

Resumed Negotiations Halt Des Moines Transit Tie-Up

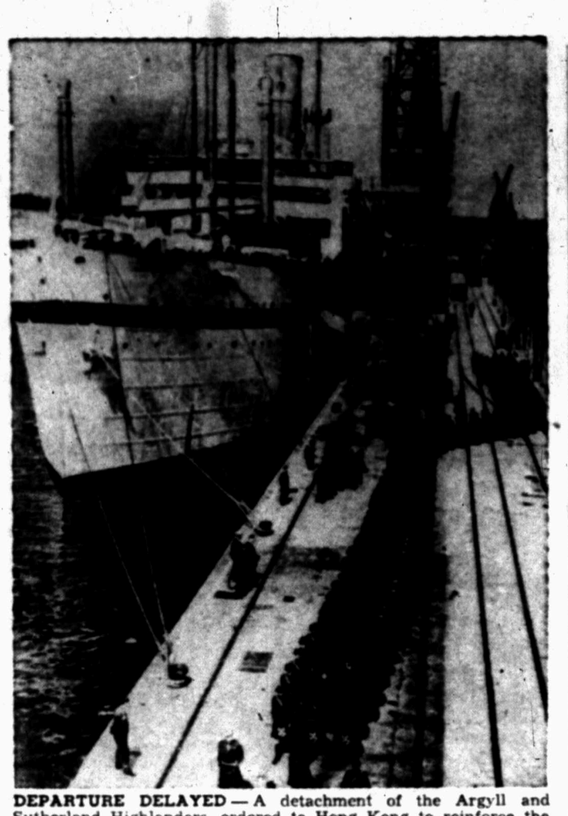

DES MOINES, June 13, (INS)—The day-old streetcar strike in Des Moines was halted tonight after a mass meeting of the Amalgamated Association of Street, Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employees of America (AFL).

Union officials said the action was taken "in order to serve the public interests and necessity." They agreed to resume negotiations with the company on three main points of dispute:

An audit of company books by an accountant approved by the union;

Clarification of reports on daily receipts from the transit service;

And reduction of fares from 13 cents to 10 cents.

House To Reconsider Amended Driver Bill

AUSTIN, June 13 (AP)—The driver financial responsibility bill was patched and streamlined today and sent back to the House for consideration.

A compromise version was approved by the House Commerce and Manufacturers committee by a 5-2 vote and sent to the House with the recommendation that it pass.

Principal change in the complete substitute approved today was a provision made that a motorist blameless in an accident would not be required to deposit security.

Old Provisions Removed

Under the original bill as approved by the Senate and sent to the House all drivers in an accident involving bodily injury or $200 damages or more would be required to show proof of financial responsibility up to $11,000.

In House debate, members attacked this provision, saying it would hurt a lot of innocent people and make everybody take out liability insurance.

"I believe this amended version of the bill will meet all objections which have been raised on the House floor," said Rep. Harry Whitworth of Smithville.

Needy Indians Receive First New Mexico Welfare Checks

SANTA FE, N. M., June 13. (INS) Aged and blind Indians, and dependent Indian children, received their first assistance checks from New Mexico's Public Welfare department today.

The payments were made under a temporary agreement reached with the Federal Security agency, welfare director Murray Hintz said.

Hintz said approximately 100 checks Were mailed and that the total was about $1,200.

The agreement with the federal agency calls for partial payments by the state to needy Indians until special legislation is enacted by Congress to provide for their welfare.

Economy Bloc To Seek New Slash

WASHINGTON, June 13 (AP)—Nineteen senators, representing both parties, joined today in sponsoring a resolution directing President Truman to cut federal spending by $2,000,000,000 to $4,000,000,000.

The reductions would be made in funds provided for the next fiscal year which starts July 1.

To become effective, the resolution would have to win the approval of both Houses of Congress and the President himself.

Senator McClellan (D-Ark), chairman of the expenditures committee, introduced the resolution after it was backed by a vote of 8 to 2 in the committee. He invited all other senators to join him as sponsors and 18 quickly added their name.

New Taxes Opposed

McClellan said his hope was to bring the budget into balance without new taxes. Mr. Truman repeatedly has asked for $4,000,000,000; in additional revenue. He has estimated that without such a raise, the treasury will be about $900,000,000 in the red at the end of fiscal 1950.

The resolution would direct the President to slice from 5 to 10 per cent off the aggregate of funds voted by Congress for executive agencies and departments next year. With the budget running in the neighborhood of $42,000,000,000, this would make cuts of $2,000,000,000 to $4,000,000,000 mandatory.

However, since the bulk of the budget is made up of items such as interest on the public debt which cannot be reduced without changing laws or dishonoring commitments, McClellan figured the reductions would have to be concentrated on about $17,500,000,000 in appropriations which are not in that category.

Under the resolution, however, no department's total appropriation could be cut more than 20 per cent.

Fancy is a short form of the word, phantasy.

VACCINE SEARCH ENCOURAGING

Outlook For Ultimate Victory Over Polio Is Declared Bright

NEW YORK, June 13 (U.P.)—In spite of last year's polio epidemic, in which 27,894 cases were recorded, the outlook for future victory over the disease was "brighter at the end of 1948 than ever before," the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis said today.

Most encouraging, the foundation said in its 11th annual report, were developments in the search for a vaccine to prevent infantile paralysis

Vaccine Search Launched

The report said that the most extensive and costly research project ever undertaken by the foundation was started in 1948 to find out how many viruses cause polio—a necessary step before a vaccine can be developed.

Researchers, the report said, were encouraged by the first sign of progress in cultivation of the virus outside living nervous tissue. Virus must be produced in enough quantity before a vaccine can be prepared.

In other research fields, the report said, it appeared "more than likely" that a simple test-tube method would be developed for diagnosis of polio, and that "considerable development" had been accomplished in providing new mechanical apparatus for treatment of respiratory paralysis, the condition most responsible for polio deaths.

Epidemic Aid Funds Exhausted

The report said last year's was the nation's worst polio epidemic in 32 years and "completely exhausted" the foundation's epidemic aid reserves. In a foreword to the report, Basil O'Connor, foundation president said its expenses in 1948 exceeded income by $4,250,000 and added:

"Had it not been for reserves accumulated in previous years, both locally and nationally, it would not have been possible to spend the more than $17,000,000 it is estimated was used for medical care during the year, about $11,000,000 of which came from chapter treasuries in many parts of the country, and the rest from national headquarters."

The report said that in three states alone, North Carolina, Texas and California, there was a concentration of 10,139 cases of polio last year. Other states with high totals were Iowa, Minnesota, Illinois and Ohio. South Dakota, with 938 cases, had the highest case rate of 150.6 per 100,000 population. Thirteen states had epidemic rates above 20 per 1,000.

Covering the activities of national headquarters, the report showed that $11,005,112 had been received in 1948 as a half share of March of Dimes receipts, special epidemic contributions from chapters that could spare funds, interest on government bonds and donations. Expenditures were $15,226,956, including research, epidemic aid and medical care.

President Peron's new Constitution which permits nationalization of industries by Argentina, is seen as a threat by the United States investors in Argentine utilities.

Glenn Woody Is Selected 'Man Of Month' By Jaycees; New Committee Heads Announced

Glenn Woody Monday was named "Man of the Month for March" by the Lubbock Junior Chamber of Commerce at the weekly Jaycee luncheon in the Hilton hotel.

Woody, who soon is to retire from active Jaycee work because of the organization's 36-year age limit, was named for the honor because of his work in connection with the March appearance here of Rubinoff, nationally-known violinist.

During six years' Jaycee membership, Woody twice has been president of the local chapter.

The award was made by W. H. Evans, local attorney.

Committee Heads Named

Billy Tinney, recently chosen as a state Jaycee director, announced the names of a number of new committee heads at Monday's luncheon. The new officers, elected by the local board of directors, include:

Aviation—Reagan Howell, chairman; Van White, vice-chairman;

Christmas activities — Jimmy Williamson, chairman; Turner Kimmell, vice-chairman;

Awards — Asher Thompson, chairman;

Extension—Ralph Krebbs, chairman; Joe Hefner, vice-chairman;

Inter-club relations — Sidney Key, chairman; Jack Wheat, vice-chairman;

Personnel and membership — Norman Igo, chairman; Irl Gannaway, vice-chairman;

Public relations and publications—Virgil Brecheen, chairman; Wayne Kelly, vice-chairman in charge of publications; Jeff Lewis, vice-chairman in charge of public relations;

Clean-up and fire prevention—Bill Larmer, chairman; Cliff Barr, vice-chairman;

Safety—J. W. Kinard, chairman; Hugh English, vice-chairman;

Sports—Jim Paxon, chairman; Ed Moore, vice-chairman;

Wild life conservation—N. A. Cox, chairman; Wright Stubbs, vice-chairman;

Youth welfare — Joe Gaylor, chairman; Bill Casstevens, vice-chairman;

Americanism and governmental affairs—Homer Wright, chairman; Ray Goodart, vice-chairman;

Public health and education—Hoyse McMurtry, chairman; Hubert Burgess, vice-chairman;

Agriculture — Thelbert Miller, chairman; L. B. Smith, vice-chairman.

Reports On Convention

George N. Atkinson, jr., reported briefly on last week's national Jaycee convention in Colorado Springs, Colo. Atkinson said that Texas' vote decided the presidential race, in which Cliff Cooper of California was elected Melvin Evans of Texas was chosen national vice-president, receiving 41 of 49 possible unit votes, Atkinson said.

Lubbock representatives at the convention included Bob Blake, Kurt Palmer, Joe Baldridge, Matt Sullivan, J. C. Hughes and Atkinson.

Horace Gearhart, local president, explained that Lubbock's entries for national honors at the Jaycee convention were disqualified from consideration because, due to a technicality, the local chapter had not paid its national dues prior to the convention.

One new member, C. B. Gilland, was introduced.

Linley Millsap presided at the luncheon, with invocation by Barney Stagner.

All animals in the Chapultepec Zoo, Mexico City, were vaccinated against hoof and mouth disease, in a recent outbreak.

Phone Girls Help Save Village From Fire Destruction

LYTTON, B. C., June 13. (INS)—Three local telephone operators were hailed as heroines today in helping to avert total loss of the colorful mining town of Lytton, B. C., in a $200,000 fire pushed by a stiff wind.

The girls identified as Muriel Floyd, Ethel Ferguson and Marian Reid, made their way to their posts even as a hundred volunteers were extinguishing embers on the roof of the telephone building.

Wind Shift Aids

The operators were able to flash orders through to the town power house 10 miles away to cut off the electricity, thus avoiding further fires or electrocutions from falling wires. No deaths or injuries were reported tonight.

A timely shift in the strong wind after several hours enabled 500 smoke-blackened volunteers to save half the town of 1,070 population 170 miles northeast of Vancouver.

The fire started in a large machinery storage shed early today. Major loss was to stores and business buildings.

The mining town was once the main stop for stage coaches during the Cariboo district gold rush of 1853. Lytton is now on two transcontinental railroads.

Women's West Texas Qualifying Starts Wednesday

Mixed Foursome Tournament Set Today For Participants In Meet

A mixed foursome tournament will be held at Lubbock Country club, beginning at 1 p.m. today, for participants in the annual Women's West Texas Golf association tournament.

Qualification rounds will be held on Wednesday, beginning at 9:30 p.m., and tournament play will get underway Thursday morning. One of the largest fields ever to be attracted to the tourney is expected to register at the club. Approximately 125-150 women are believed to be coming to Lubbock for the golfing and other festivities.

More Men Needed

More men are needed for the mixed foursome play today, and anyone wishing to enter should contact Herb Schroeder, country club pro, for information. In addition to the mixed foursome today, warm-up play will be allowed and entrants will be trying to put the finishing polish on their games before the qualification rounds.

Nine and 18 hole handicap flights will take to the fairways too during the tournament and give the lesser known and experienced golfers a chance to compete in tournament play.

Previous tournament winners this year will be ready to tee off for the West Texas crown, and among these are Mrs. Bonnie Autry, Odessa, who won the Midland Invitational; Mrs. Herschel Ezell, runner-up at Midland; Mrs. Ted Huestis, runner-up in West Texas tourney in the past; and Mrs. E. A. Dietz, champion at Colonial Country club in Fort Worth.

Thursday will see the start of the tournament, with first round matches starting at 9 a. m. Second round matches will follow on Friday, semi-final play will take place Saturday and finals will be held on Sunday.

Prizes To Be Awarded

Prizes and trophies will be awarded Sunday at 5 p. m. at the Country club, followed by a buffet supper.

Mrs. Sam O'Neal of Odessa, defending WWTGA champion, will be here to defend her laurels and is expected to furnish the top attraction on the links.

But Mrs. O'Neal will have her share of competition from other points. Mrs. J. W. "Betsy" Ross of El Paso will be one of the leading contenders, while Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite of Fort Worth, first WWTGA champion, will be here to threaten.

Mrs. E. A. Dietz of Fort Worth, Mrs. Hezzie Carson and Mrs. J. H. Lockaby of San Angelo, Mrs. Gene Mitchell of Plainview, Mrs. E. B. Herriage, president of the South Plains Women's Golf association, and many others also will challenge the present title holder.

Local Women Enter

Among the local golfers, Mrs. C. M. Hitchcock, Mrs. Oscar Taylor, Mrs. Tom Gilbert, Mrs. H. C. Simms, Mrs. D. P. Trammel and Mrs. Bill Bell, all of the Meadowbrook Publinx Golf club, will be among the top favorites.

From the Country club there will be such outstanding links women as Mrs. George Soash, club women's champion, Mrs. John Markham, Mrs. Tom L. Sampson, Mrs. T. E. Patterson and Mrs. Fenner Tubbs.

Many social events are planned in connection with the tournament and there will be activity every day from Tuesday through Sunday. Parties include the annual dinner Friday night, a cocktail party, a Calcutta Pool, a dance, buffet suppers and breakfasts.

Mrs. Howard Edminston of Brownwood, president of the association, will preside at the Friday night dinner.

Arrangements for the week's program are headed by Mrs. Tubbs, Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. W. F. Eisenberg, Mrs. C. L. Dean, Mrs. Guy McAfee and Mrs. O. D. McCoy.

Missions Curb Indians, 2 To 1

SAN ANTONIO, June 13 (AP)—Bill Martin's sixth home run of the season with Boo Riga aboard in the eighth inning gave the San Antonio Missions a 2 to 1 victory over the Oklahoma City Indians in the series opener here tonight.

The Missions were able to get only six hits off the offerings of Jack Hallett, who walked two and fanned seven.

Pal Gerheasuer, in registering his seventh win of the year, was nicked for eight hits, but he kept them well spaced.

The Indians got their only run in the second inning when Joe Frazier juggled Larry Lee's single permitting Grant Dunlap to scoot home from second base.

BEAUMONT, June 13 (AP)—Lefty Chris Van Cuyk pitched the Fort Worth Cats to a 7-3 victory over the Beaumont Exporters here tonight in the first of a three-game series, five Shipper outs helping the giant southpaw to his sixth win of the year.

The Cats put together 13 hits off lefty Aldon Wilkie and James Schneible for their win, Van Cuyk setting the hitting pace with three singles.

The Exporters collected nine hits including a homer by Keith Thomas with the bases empty in the seventh. The game rolled through the seventh tied 3-3, but in the eighth the Cats scored two unearned runs to go ahead and stay there. Wally Fiala stealing home for one of the two runs in this inning.

Biggest Deal In History Of Loop

Bobby Layne Sold To New York Bulldogs

NEW YORK, June 13. (AP)—Bobby Layne, the former University of Texas T-formation master, was sold today by the Chicago Bears to the New York Bulldogs, their National league brothers.

The star brought a bundle of cash and two players.

Ted Collins, owner of the Bulldogs, who are moving into the Polo Grounds next fall from Boston pronounced the deal "the biggest in the history of the National league."

Layne, who led the Texas Longhorns to two Southwest Conference titles and was an All-Conference selection for four years from '44 through '47, joined the Chicago club last season. He was used sparingly because of injuries.

His transfer to the Bulldogs means Collins has landed the outstanding passer he has been seeking to battle the combined Brooklyn-New York club of the All-America Conference for the favor of local fans next autumn. The two teams from the rival leagues will be in direct and bitter competition for patronage on several Sundays.

The NFL New York Giants, who permitted Collins to bring his team into the Polo Grounds, don't have many schedule collisions with the All-America club.

Collins did not name the two players he will send to the Bears or announce the amount of cash involved.

Halas did not entirely strip himself of T-formation quarterbacks, as he still will have Sid Luckman, who might be good for another year or so, as well as Johnny Lujack of Notre Dame immortality.

Layne has been called the greatest passer to come out of the Southwest since Sammy Baugh quit throwing for Texas Christian university. Layne's four year mark at Texas was 224 passes completed out of 417 attempts, an average of .540, compared to Baugh's .460.

He also was quite a pitcher on the Longhorn baseball team, winning 26 games and losing none in four years of competition.

LAYNE DECLARES HE IS HAPPY AT MOVE

Bobby Layne, informed here this afternoon that he had been traded by the Chicago Bears to the New York Bulldogs, said that he had anticipateu such a move and that he was "happy" about it.

"I was in New York three days last week, talking with Ted Collins, president of the New York team, about the possibility of playing with the Bulldogs next season," Layne said. "However, I was not told at that time that a trade definitely would be made."

"I like the idea of playing in New York," Layne continued, "particularly since the Bulldogs also will use the T formation."

Layne said that neither club had notified him of the trade, and that he did not know what two players would be sent from New York to Chicago in the exchange.

The ex-Texas ace doubtless will see more service at New York than at Chicago, where the Bears were overmanned at the quarterback post with Layne, Sid Luckman and Johnny Lujack, all top-flight performers.

ACC Exes Boost Fall Grid Tussle

Texas Tech grid supporters had best look to their laurels come the night of Sept. 10 here.

Alumni of Abilene Christian college held an enthusiastic meeting Sunday afternoon in Mackenzie state park to formulate plans for a mass meeting next fall. The meeting? When the ACC Wildcats meet the Red Raiders in Jones Stadium in the first football game of the year.

The whoop-te-do Sunday was only the first in a chain of meetings to be held to arouse enthusiasm. Another picnic will be held in Mackenzie state park in August and another business meeting will be held before the football game date. J. C. Rigney, president, made the announcements.

Earl Kerr, club secretary, was named general chairman of arrangements for the pre-game gathering of ex-students and students of the Abilene school.

Before Semester Opening

The football game will be played before opening of the fall semester at ACC. Special efforts will be made to enable those who will enroll there a few days later to join the Wildcat rooting section at Jones stadium.

Wendell Bedichek, ACC public relations director and Alumni association executive secretary, attended yesterday's meeting. He will work with the local club in execution of reunion plans.

Lennon Hill and Howard Garner are vice-presidents of the Lubbock South Plains group.

Bedichek said the "population of ACC exes in Lubbock and vicinity is perhaps more dense than in any area outside of Abilene." He predicted several hundred alumni would come here for the extra-early football game.

Walcott, Charles Will Wear Six-Ounce Gloves In Title Fight

CHICAGO, June 13. (INS)—The Illinois State Athletic Commission relaxed a rule today and announced that Jersey Joe Walcott and Ezzard Charles will wear six-ounce gloves in their heavyweight championship fight June 22 in Chicago.

The Commission at its weekly meeting amended a rule requiring all boxers in the state to wear eight-ounce gloves to permit the principals in the championship match to wear the lighter weight mitts.

The Commission also set the time of the Walcott-Charles fight at 9:30 p.m. CST.

MIZELL JOINS ENNIS

ENNIS, June 13. (UP)—Bill Mizell, former Ennis High athlete who played most of four years with the Southwest Conference championship Southern Methodist football team, has been added to the Ennis High school faculty and will help out on the coaching staff here.

ABCs Win Boys Club Game From Exchange

The ABC Junior league baseball team swamped the Exchange club nine, 11 to 4, in the Monday afternoon opening game at Lubbock Boys club.

For the ABC's, James Beck smacked out two singles in two times up and Sammy Nolley got two singles in twice up. Bobby Welch led the Exchangers with a double to drive in two of the losers' four runs.

In the Pee Wee league game, the Pirates gained a 21 to 11 victory over the Yankees. Billy Wiley hit a homer and three singles in four times at bat.

For the Yankees, Ray Hawkins slammed out three singles in four times up.

The Pirates trampled the Yankees, 21 to 2, in the Pygmy league affair. Guinn Sanders got three singles in three times before the plate. Wesley Light smacked a double and two singles in four times up. Dan Knight and Fred Chanceý hit singles for the losers' two hits.

Tuesday, the White Sox will play the Dodgers in both the Pee Wee and Pygmy leagues and Jaycees will tangle with Methodist Men in the Junior league affair.

Hubs Down Blue Sox Again, 3-1

Reichelt Hurls Seven-Hit Game

ABILENE, June 13 (AP) — The Lubbock Hubbers let the Blue Sox have it again, 3-1, here tonight to sweep the three-game series.

For the third time of the series, Abilene waited until the final quarter to stave off a shutout, although righthanded Ray Reichelt deserved one with a seven-hit precision job against the slumping Blue Sox.

Almost A Shutout

He had a five-hitter up to the ninth and a shutout in his hand until Rene Vega, pinch hitting for Jorge Lopez, singled, moved up on George Sturdivant's single, went to third on Nelson Davis' error at short and scored on Wessing's grounder which forced Feduniak at second.

Abilene brought in big Freddy Rodriguez from Big Spring barely in time to get in uniform and pitch tonight. He did right well except for the third and fourth innings. In the third, Buddy McCallum led with a single, the next two were retired, but Joe Wisniewski and Al Duarte singled in succession to drive in McCallum.

Jim Prince singled, moved up on Bo Dempsey's sacrifice, went to third on a two-base error in left field, passed Mike Dooley to second, and both runners scored on Jackie Sullivan's single to left.

Double Play Featured

That, with Abilene's ninth inning unearned run, constituted the scoring. There was some snappy fielding, featuring a circus catch in deep center by Duarte, and a neat double play by McCallum, Sullivan and Prince. The Blue Six fielded well except for an offnight by third baseman Jorge Lopez, who committed three blunders, and put over a double killing in the seventh to settle a Lubbock threat.

Lamesa Wins Fifth Straight Tilt By Beating Pampa, 8-5

LAMESA, June 13 (Special)—Lamesa's Loboes stretched their winning streak to five straight here tonight, defeating the Pampa Oilers, 8-5, behind effective relief hurling by rookie Righthander Joel Locke.

The Loboes copped their fourth straight over the Oilers although outhit, 11-13. Locke, who hails from Tahoka, gained his second win, holding the Oilers to six hits and one run in four and two-third innings after replacing starter Leon Hayes in the fifth.

Jack Guiterrez finished for Lamesa, coming in in the ninth with two out, to retire the last batter and end an Oiler threat.

Lamesa went in front to stay with three runs in the third on four hits, including a double by Frank Calo, to overcome a 3-1 Pampa lead. Hank Melillo, Lobo second baseman, furnished the winning margin with a two-run homer in the fourth, his third of the year. The Loboes counted single markers in the fifth and sixth while Pampa scored only twice in the last six frames.

Oiler Righthander Howard Bass, who was lifted for a pinch hitter in the eighth, was charged with the loss.

Stan Surma, Oiler third sacker, belted a homer in the first inning with the bases empty, and paced the losers attack with four hits, one a double. Hank Melillo also garnered four hits for Lamesa and drove in three tallies.

Pampa counted two runs in the third on singles by Danny Stringer and Virgil Richardson, a walk, and Surma's double. They scored once in the fifth on three singles and a free ticket, and counted a final marker in the ninth on one-basers by Ernie Velasquez and Surma and Homer Matney's long fly to center.

Lamesa and Borger open a three-game series here Tuesday night with Eulis Rosson slated to pitch for the Loboes.

Duke Nine Drops Gassers, 13 To 5

BORGER, June 13. (AP) — The Albuquerque Dukes handed an impressive 13-5 defeat to the Borger Gassers tonight to make the series an even go, each getting two wins.

Frank Shone handled the hurling chores for the Dukes in a capable fashion, setting the Gassers down with seven hits and five runs.

Rain halted the contest for nearly all the thirty minutes allowed before being officially called, during the first frame.

After the game was resumed, rain peppered down during most of the contest.

The Dukes chased three Borger hurlers from the mound, before Eddie Carnett, Gasser pilot came in to go the remaining distance.

Carnett allowed nine hits, as the Duke big bats indicated that this was their night to boom.

Shone held the Gassers hitless, as well as scoreless for three full innings.

Duke catcher Mulcahy hit for the route in the sixth inning, and Carnett in the seventh for the Gassers to makeup the only circuit blows during the error laden, hit and run contest.

Rutherford Is Junk Car Winner Again

For the third time in the past five Sundays, Doyle Rutherford walked off with the 25-lap main event at the weekly junk car races Sunday at Buffalo Lakes.

Rutherford, driving an old model Terraplane, outdistanced J. B. Williams and Bill Smith, both in Fords. And all three left by the wayside 13 other cars that started, but failed to finish.

A crowd of approximately 1,000 witnessed the races, promoted by Jim Clark.

Two drivers, Hood Abercrombie and Bill Smith, overturned their vehicles, but escaped serious injury.

Other results include:

First heat race (10 laps) — Bo Sessum, first; Tom Cox, second. Time: 4 minutes 22 seconds.

Second heat race (10 laps)—J. W. Martin, first; Dub Poston, second. Time: 4 minutes 8 seconds.

Special matched race (5 laps)—Sessum, first; Cox, second. Time: 2 minutes 6 seconds.

Consolation race—Doyle Rutherford, first; J. B. Williams, second; and D. C. Brannon, third.

Norway now is getting the first electricity from its "world's most modern power plant" in Hallingdal, where the first turbine unit has been completed.

Lions Club Junior Legion Wins Game

In the Junior Legion baseball program at Jumbo Webster field yesterday, the Lions club defeated the Rotary team, 9-2, on 10 hits and seven Rotary errors.

Mitchell led the hitting for both teams, knocking three doubles for the Rotaries. Byrd and Moore were the batteries for the losers, and Wooley and Hamilton worked for the winners.

The program at Jumbo Webster is for boys ages 12-13, and additional players are needed. Anyone interested in playing baseball this summer in a regular league should come to Webster field any afternoon at 4 p. m. There is no charge, and equipment, with the exception of gloves, is furnished.

COOPERSTOWN, N.Y.—This is an artist's conception of how Baseball's Hall of Fame will look when it is enlarged to twice its present size. The building on the left is the present structure; the wing on the right will be added shortly. The Hall of Fame, located in this upstate New York community where Abner Doubleday reputedly invented baseball in 1839, houses plaques honoring 58 of baseball's greats. Three were added this year. The new wing will contain the Babe Ruth collection, among others.

Tech's Reynolds Signs With Rams

LOS ANGELES, June 13. (AP)—Halfback Charles (Rocket) Reynolds joined the Los Angeles Rams of the National Football league today after a career with Texas Tech.

Reynolds, 6 feet one and 175 pounds, has been officially clocked at 9.5 seconds for the 100 yard dash. This is speed, plus, which Ram coach Clark Shaughnessy is after this year.

He was dash champion of the Border conference, averaged eight yards carrying the ball last year, turned in 48 yards per try on kick-off returns and ran punts back an average of 37 yards.

REYNOLDS LETTERED FOR THREE YEARS IN FOOTBALL

Charlie Reynolds, star halfback and sprint champion at Texas Tech, was graduated from Tech following the spring semester with a degree in mechanical engineering.

While at Tech he lettered three years in football and four years in track. In addition to being the conference champion in the 100-yard dash, he ran the 220-yard dash and was on the 440-yard relay team.

Reynolds finished high school in Denver City where he was a football star in his senior year. He is married and has a baby daughter. Reynolds served in the armed service during the past war.

He became the fourth Tech grider to join the pro ranks this year.

FIRST METHODIST WINS

In Commercial league softball last night at Jumbo Webster field, First Methodist defeated Lubbock Auto, 5-1, behind the steady pitching of Rufus Rush, who collected two hits in three times at bat. Charged with the loss was Preston Johnson.

Seagraves Nine In Second Place

Denver City Still Tops Oil Belt Loop

Denver City maintained its edge over Seagraves in the Oil Belt baseball league the past weekend as both teams won. Denver City dropped Sundown, 9-4, while Seagraves defeated Slaton, 11-9.

Power at the plate aided the Denver City team in its drubbing of Sundown, and 16 hits were collected off the offerings of Sundown's Wright while his teammates were able to hit safely only seven times.

First baseman Toten had three for four, and Hicks hit two for three for the losers. Pacing Denver City with three hits was Guy and Woodfin, and Davidson, Jones, Keel, and Lewis had two hits each.

Stops Slaton Rally

Seagraves scored early and staved off a desperate Slaton bid for victory in the last four innings to take their game. Seagraves tallied five runs in the second and three in the third and fourth, and Slaton scored one in the fourth and sixth innings, twice in the seventh, four in the eighth, and one in the ninth.

Leading Slaton with four hits, one a homer, was Tillery, and Weaver hit safely three times. French, McCoy, and Gray each collected two hits. Gentry, Faulkner, Ragland, Willingham, and Galey had two hits each for Seagraves. Faulkner received credit for the victory and Banks was charged with the loss.

In the third game of the day, Tahoka lost to Post, 5-9, after leading early in the tilt. Tahoka went ahead in the fifth, 5-3, but Post came back to score five runs in its half of the inning and added one in the eighth to conclude the scoring.

Hester, Holland Lead

Dale Hester and W. B. Holland led the winner, Hester getting three safe blows while Holland collected two. Barnett was the winning pitcher, and Holcomb was the loser.

In a game played several weeks ago, Denver City defeated Slaton, 9-8, to add to their lead in the standings. Results of the game between Levelland and Brownfield the past Sunday have not been received.

Cooper Traded To Reds For Mueller

NEW YORK, June 13 (INS)—The New York Giants tonight traded their big catcher, Walker Cooper, to the Cincinnati Reds for Ray Mueller, another receiver, in a straight deal.

Secretary Eddie Brannick of the New York club said no cash or other players were involved.

The unloading of Cooper represents a tremendous financial beating for the Giants, who paid the St. Louis Cardinals $175,000 for him right after the war.

Cooper has been the scourge of National league pitchers for years, but last season, due to injuries, he started to fade and wound up with a .266 average. This year he is hitting only .211.

It was a different story two years ago when Walker knocked in 122 runs and walloped 35 home runs as the Giants set a team record of 211 homers.

Cooper, at 34, is three years younger than Mueller. Both hit and throw right-handed.

Mueller batted .206 last year but played in only 14 games. This season, he is hitting .280.

The Giants may put over additional deals before the trading deadline expires Wednesday. Cooper and several other players have known for some time that their numbers were up because manager Leo Durocher made no effort to disguise his eagerness to trade them.

The handwriting on the wall was seen last week when pitcher Ray Poat, another member of the "doghouse group," was sent to Pittsburgh in the Kirby Higbe deal.

Softball Loops Still Considering Uniting

AUSTIN, June 13 (AP)—The two largest softball organizations in Texas may consolidate for rest of the 1949 season.

Consolidation was recommended yesterday at a meeting of officials of the Texas Softball League and the Inter-City Softball League.

The new league would be incorporated on a larger scale and under a new title for the 1950 season.

Both groups must obtain ratification of the merger proposal from their league directors, but the joining of forces appeared a certainty.

The two leagues, plus another division to be organized in the Dallas-Fort Worth area, will operate under the name of Texas Fastball League in the 1950 season. A championship playoff game between the TSL and the I-CL also has been approved for this year. Both leagues decide their titlists by a Shaughnessy playoff.

The next joint meeting of the two loops will be held at Dallas during the regional Amateur Softball Association tournament early in September.

Griffith Trades Harris, Mele

Masterson Goes To Bosox In Player Deal

BOSTON, June 13 (AP)—Just as the Boston Red Sox' pitching staff appeared to be sinking for the third time, owner Tom Yawkey rushed to its rescue today with his usual life preserver.

As so often in the past, it probably took the form of a large chunk of cash. The recipient was Clark Griffith of the Washington Senators, who surrendered 29-year-old Walt Masterson, a bespectacled righthander, for lefty Mickey Harris and outfielder Sam Mele.

General Manager Joe Cronin, in announcing the long-expected deal for added pitching strength, intimated that the astute Griffith, one of his relatives by law, was willing to give up the dependable Masterson for those two wilted products of the Red Sox' extensive but unfertile farm system.

But the current market quotation for any kind of a major league pitcher, who can find the plate more often than not, is around $100,000. And it is doubtful that either Harris, who came down with arm trouble in 1947, or Mele would command much more than the $10,000 waiver price in the open market.

Masterson, who broke in with the Senators 10 years ago, is hardly a winning pitcher, as his lifetime record of 43 wins and 68 defeats attests. But baseball men give serious consideration to the fact that the Senators seldom have given him much offensive assistance.

This season he has won three and lost two. His last appearance was in Detroit Saturday, when the Tigers chased him in three innings.

Harris joined the Red Sox from the Scranton farm in 1941 and, after a decidedly poor season, went into the U. S. army for a four-year hitch. He rejoined the Sockers in 1946 and was a great help in their pennant drive, winning 17 and losing 9. Then came the injury that has plagued him on and off ever since.

Mele, a 1946 Scranton graduate, had a great season as a freshman, batting .302 in 123 games during Cronin's final managerial season. But Joe McCarthy never has appeared impressed by that hard-working fly-chaser from Astoria, N. Y.

For weeks Cronin has been making the American league rounds trying to bolster McCarthy's chucking corps. It turned in only five wins during the 13-game road trip that ended yesterday with a doubleheader sweep over the White Sox in Chicago.

Two Killed in Car Collision; Six Texas Women Escape Death

BRINKLEY, Ark., June 13 (AP)—Dr. Preston Castleberry, 59, Pine Bluff, Ark, optometrist, and his wife were killed when their automobile collided with another near here late today.

The other automobile was occupied by two Texas women and four girls en route to the convention of the Future Homemakers of America at Memphis.

Elsie Bob Farris, 14, and Ruth Melcher, 16, both of Giddings, Texas, suffered head injuries and were taken to a Brinkley hospital. Mrs. L. Kareher, Lexington, Texas; Shirley Schnell, 17, and Eola Nell Tate, 15, both of Giddings, suffered minor injuries, but were not hospitalized. Their car was driven by Mrs. Willie B. Glover, Sutin, Texas.

The water level of Lake Geneva, Switzerland, this year was the lowest recorded in a century.

Texas Cattle Dollars

Texas cattle mean bread as well as meat for hundreds of thousands of Texans, for Texas cattle dollars help bring prosperity to every county of the state. Southwestern Life Insurance Company, operating in Texas exclusively, has played a part in the development of the cattle business. This strong company, during forty-six years of service, has loaned $123,365,140 on real estate and a substantial portion of these loans has been on Texas farms and ranches.

To policy owners of Southwestern Life insurance, sound loans such as these bring added assurance of sound protection for themselves and their families.

Cattle raising became a Texas industry in the shadow of the missions of San Antonio, where emissaries of Spain corralled wild cattle and turned them to economic use.

Brannan Farm Plan Endorsed

on the Brannan plan at this session.

Meanwhile, the conference—made up of party officials from the broad Midwestern corn-livestock-wheat belt—prepared to throw its support behind the Brannan plan and to make it an issue in the coming elections.

Brannan Pushes Program

The Brannan plan is designed to support farm income at a "prosperity" level, but at the same time to provide consumers with lower prices for perishable foods—especially meats, dairy and poultry products—when there are surpluses. It would use government payments to assure desired farm cash returns.

In calling for extension of present support laws, Brannan said the Aiken measure would not provide sufficient price guarantees to protect farmers against a depression.

Barkley Speaks

Present laws direct the government to support prices of major products at not less than 90 per cent of parity. The Aiken law authorizes flexible supports ranging from 60 to 90 per cent of parity on major crops, and zero to 90 per cent on others. Existing laws were to have expired this year, but the last Congress extended them through 1949, with a few minor changes.

(Parity is a legal standard for measuring farm prices, designed to be equally fair to farmers and consumers.)

Vice President Barkley, who was a scheduled afternoon speaker, told a news conference he favored the Brannan plan in principle. He declined comment on the fact that the Farm Bureau and the Grange are not supporting the Brannan plan.

Chambers Defended

again in mid-December. Later, she amended the later date to say it was perhaps Dec. 31. But she couldn't make up her mind "for sure" whether it was Dec. 31, 1936, or Dec. 31, 1937.

Receives Icy Stare

When she resumed the stand after the brief recess, Mrs. Chambers said she thought the date was Dec. 31, 1937.

Mrs. Chambers, primly dressed in a tailored suit, black hat and white blouse, frequently referred to Mrs. Hiss as "Priscilla" and "Pross." But Mrs. Hiss rarely looked at her. The defendant, dressed for the first time during the two-week proceedings in a lightweight summer suit, fixed the witness with an icy stare.

Mrs. Chambers, the mild little farm wife who had testified in a low, almost weak voice, flared up repeatedly and sharply today, at questions by the silved-haired, ruddy-faced Stryker.

Defends Husband

But she let herself go when the famed criminal attorney referred to her husband as "a sneaking Communist conspirator." Tugging at her steel-rimmed glasses, the pale-faced Mrs. Chambers shouted:

"I resent that. My husband is a decent citizen and great man."

Stryker then asked:

"Was your husband a great man in October, 1937, when he was sneaking about the country as a member of a criminal conspiracy?"

Coldly, but with anger in her voice, the witness replied:

"Yes—then and always!"

She added:

"If he believed that was the thing to do at the moment, he was a great man to live up to his beliefs."

Tells Of Meeting Husband

Spectators leaned forward in the tense courtroom; Judge Kaufman looked at the indignant witness, then at the man who was grilling her, and said softly to Stryker:

"I think you better pass on to another subject."

During the cross-examination which ended shortly before the trial was adjourned until tomorrow morning, Mrs. Chambers related how she had met Whittaker on a picket line in a Passaic, N. J., strike—that she was there "to make all the disturbance she could."

Before she met her husband—they were married in 1931—Mrs. Chambers said, she was a Communist sympathizer and "fellow traveler."

She and her husband lived under aliases, she added, and when their daughter was born in 1933, the baby had an alias too.

Stryker asked:

"As a mother, didn't it shock you that you were taking your little girl and teaching her to cheat and deceive?"

Quietly, Mrs. Chambers answered:

"It did not worry me."

Marriage To Texas War Hero Brings $11,200 To Actress

LOS ANGELES, June 13 (AP)—The marriage of actress Wanda Hendrix to war hero Audie Murphy made her $11,200 richer today.

County clerk Harold J. Ostly handed the petite brunette 112 government savings bonds of $100 each which were being held for her under her movie contract until she became of age.

Miss Hendrix, 20, and Murphy of Farmersville, Texas, also a film actor, were married last Jan. 8, so she did not have to wait until her 21st birthday next Nov. 3 to take possession of the bonds.

Her movie contract, approved in superior court five years ago, provided that Miss Hendrix invest 20 per cent of her earnings in bonds.

Cominform Holding Secret Meet; Plan Blow Against Tito

WARSAW, Poland, June 13 (AP)—The Cominform is winding up a secret meeting in Silesia where it is planning to smash Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia economically, it was reported authoritatively today.

New propaganda campaigns against the west and against the Marshall plan also are being sharpened, it was reported.

Unidentified sources said the session of Communist leaders of eastern Europe was certain to produce a hardened attitude toward Marshal Tito's Yugoslavia. Next on the agenda, they added, is an intensification of "peace conferences" supporting the international views of Russia against "American imperialism and warmongers."

The Communist-inspired world peace Congress in Paris last April set up a permanent committee to wage a propaganda campaign with peace as the watchword and to hold more such conferences.

(The placing of Yugoslavia at the top of the program for secret discussion by the Communist international information bureau coincided with reports from Paris that the western powers were considering extending a helpful hand to Marshal Tito.

(Cavendish Cannon, U. S. ambassador to Yugoslavia, had an appointment with Secretary of State Dean Acheson and an American spokesman said they "are going to talk about ECA"—The economic Co-operation administration, or Marshall Plan.

Informants said the Cominform meeting was being held at Karracz west of Wroclaw, the former German city in Silesia known as Breslau. They said the sessions were due to wind up tomorrow.

Coal Talks Open

for our next meeting has not yet been determined."

Then he turned to Lewis and asked the UMW chieftain if he concurred.

"I do," intoned Lewis solemnly. He said nothing more but fixed his white panama hat on his head and strode from the room.

"I can say nothing more," Moses told reporters.

Lewis was scowling deeply, as is his custom, when he walked into the conference room. He didn't give a hint of what he was asking.

Pickets Close One Firm

And Moses and his associates made it plain they had nothing to offer Lewis. "John asked us to meet with him," one U.S. Steel spokesman said. "And that's the only reason we're here."

There was little by way of comment from miners. As usual, all UMW dues-payers followed Lewis' orders and quit work.

Bands of roving pickets forced some West Virginia strip miners to dump their trucks on the highways and caused at least one company to shut down.

Lewis said the weeklong stoppage is necessary to balance the supply and demand of coal. The supply now far exceeds the demand, he asserted. When he left the conference for the luncheon at noon, he was smiling. When he returned for the afternoon session, he was grinning broadly.

Both Lewis and Moses appeared solemn when the end of the conference was announced.

Lewis is slated to go to Bluefield, W. Va., tomorrow to resume contract talks with southern operators.

day morning's thunderstorms over the South Plains, Brownfield, Crosbyton, Meadow and Morton apparently received the brunt of the rainfall with each point reporting an estimated one-inch fall.

Ropesville reported .75, Tahoka and Slaton, one half-inch falls; Idalou and Lockney, .35; Shallowater, Hale Center, Anton, Levelland, Lorenzo, O'Donnell and Ralls, from .20 to .30. Other points reported good showers.

Lubbock's Sunday and Monday morning total was .34. The fall brought the month's total to 3.99 inches and the year's total to 18.77, only slightly under the average year's total of 19.15 inches.

NEWS BRIEFS

City firemen answered an 8:50 p. m. alarm Monday to 904 Ave. K, where an automobile was afire. A cigaret or cigar was believed to have started the fire, which was concentrated in the vehicle's front seat, fire department reports indicated. The owner of the vehicle was not known to firemen.

Condition of Mrs. Robert E. Stewart, of 2510 Twenty-ninth, was described as "improving" late Monday in West Texas hospital, where she was taken Sunday for treatment of virus pneumonia. Her physician said Monday afternoon that she was resting "fairly well." It was indicated, he said, that she would be "out of danger" about Wednesday.

Harold DeMent, 18, who was visiting his mother, Mrs. Maude Covey of 1301 Twenty-seventh when stricken by acute appendicitis, was considered in satisfactory condition Monday afternoon at West Texas hospital after undergoing emergency surgery. He was en route under transfer, from Kelly to Hamilton field, Calif., where he was to have arrived at midweek. When his condition permits, he will be transferred to Walker Air Force base at Roswell, N. M.

A father-son supper will feature the weekly meeting of the First Baptist Brotherhood, to be held at 6:45 p. m. today in the Sunday school annex of the church. Lavern Roach will be principal speaker at the meeting, it was announced Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pipkin are to present special music.

Additional Meetings Set

It was decided that further meetings would be held among residents and property owners in the various blocks in the area, so that each block could virtually, settle its own problems as they stand in relation to other blocks in that section of town.

At a meeting of the group held several weeks previously, property owners agreed to contribute $3 for each lot which they might own in the area to establish a fund to be used to cover costs of dedication deeds, surveying if such were needed, and similar expenses. It was agreed by most of the residents that additional money would be put up if the first sum was insufficient.

W. M. Peticolas met with the group at last night's meeting. He showed a number of maps of blocks in the area as they should be for annexation to the city, explaining the obstacles which now are holding extension of the city's boundaries in that part of town.

As an example, it was said last night that one house in that section is so situated that if an alley were laid through the block, part of the back of the structure would have to be removed, while extension and widening of the street would bring the street to the front door.

Ruling On Decontrol Of Rents Is Seen

AUSTIN, June 13. (AP)—Governor Beauford H. Jester is considering sending the statewide rent de-control measure passed by the legislature to the state Attorney General for a formal opinion on its legality.

The governor spent much of the day today studying the bill and conferring with members of his staff about it.

Jester said he "might turn it over to the attorney general."

The bill was passed by the legislature last week.

U.S. housing Expediter Tighe Woods flew to Texas Friday and said he asked the governor to veto it. He said he believed a Senate amendment made it open to court attack. The amendment would allow cities to reinstate controls if they desired.

Sunday, the governor revealed he had intended to sign the bill, but might have to change his mind because of the amendment.

Billfold Is Taken

Someone burst open the glove compartment of S. W. Lawson's car when it was parked in 120-block Ave. H and took his billfold. Lawson, of Lubbock route 1, said it contained $35 in currency and his car title papers.

A "gas bulb," carburetor jets and spark plug wires were reported stolen from a car in 1100-block Texas Ave.

John Stalcup of 1320 Ave. O reported his bike, valued at $15, stolen. Another bike was reported stolen from C. W. Wright of four miles west of Shallowater.

Steve Samudio of 501 Ave. H informed police a pair of his trousers had been stolen from the dressing room of a cafe where he works.

Jim Etter of Brophy courts informed officials that a radio had been stolen from one of the cabins there.

A wheel on which was mounted a spare tire was removed from a pickup automobile owned by Ameen and McCreary Supply company at 611 Broadway.

The sheriff's department said Lovie Rainey, 38, a Slaton negro woman, posted $750 bond in a child desertion charge.

County court officials said Robert Oliver Brown, 21, of Lubbock was fined $75 and court costs on a plea of guilty of drunk driving.

His driver's license was suspended six months.

TWO TOWNS DECONTROLLED

AUSTIN, June 13. (AP)—Gov. Jester approved rent decontrol in Sherman and Mount Pleasant. The governor signed resolutions from the two towns and sent them on to Washington to the federal housing expediter, Tighe E. Woods. Woods has authority to issue orders decontrolling the two cities.

Amarilloan Who Aided In Gem Case To Wed Princess

WASHINGTON, June 13. (AP)—Former Army Capt. Clyde Harris, 31, Amarillo, who is marrying Hohenzollern Princess Cecilie of Prussia, 31, played an important part in the investigation that led to recovery of the missing Hessian crown jewels, Army records show.

Many of the jewels, valued at $1,500,000, were found in possession of Col. Jack Durant, Falls Church, Va., and his bride, former WAC Captain Kathleen Nash Durant, Phoenix, after they returned to the United States. They were court-martialled.

Princess Sophia of Hess had the jewels buried in the cellar of Kornberg castle in Germany during the war.

Officers Occupy Castle

The castle was taken over as an American officers home at the end of the war. The jewels were found, Captain Nash — she had not yet married Durant — was in charge of the home.

The princess learned the jewels had been recovered. But they were missing when she wanted some of them for a relative to wear at a wedding. Captain Nash had returned to the United States.

Sophia reported the jewel mystery to Harris, then a lieutenant on duty with the fine arts and monuments branch of the U. S. Military government in Frankfurt.

Harris undertook to trace the jewels. When he could find no record of them, military authorities began an investigation that led to the arrest in Chicago of Durant and the former WAC in 1946. They had married a few days previously.

Both were convicted. Durant was sentenced to 14 years in prison and his wife five years, but she was released later because it was held that she had left the Army before her arrest by military authorities.

Vishinsky was not prepared to make the written guarantee on access to Berlin. But it was understood the suggestions were forwarded to Moscow for consideration.

One competent source said tonight it was doubtful if Moscow would give written guarantees but might give a "general statement of principles."

U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson was reported to have pressed the same proposals upon Vishinsky at a dinner Saturday night, in addition to making a tentative bid on the Austrian treaty.

Acheson was authoritatively reported to have expressed willingness to agree to the Soviet claim for reparations in Austria if she would drop her support of Yugoslavia's demand for part of the Austrian province of Carinthia.

USDA Announces Price Support Program For Tobacco, Peanuts

WASHINGTON, June 13. (AP)—Arrangements for new price support programs for peanuts and tobacco were announced today by the Department of Agriculture.

The peanut price will be supported at 30 per cent of the parity price on Aug. 1, 1949, on peanuts eligible for support under the 1949 crop marketing quota program.

This quota program cut the eligible acreage about 22 per cent under the 3,340,000 acreage in 1948.

Producers who pick or thresh peanuts in excess of their 1949 allotment will be ineligible for price support on production from the alloted acreage. They may receive up to nine per cent of parity on excess marketings, if they are disposed of through the government program.

Stevenson Fight On Vote To Be Dropped

SAN ANTONIO, June 13 (AP)—Coke Stevenson's contest of Lyndon Johnson's right to a seat in the U. S. Senate is due to be dropped by the Senate's election committee before July 31 James F. Gardner, Stevenson's attorney, said Monday. Gardner said he would try in the meantime to make a trip to Washington to upset these plans.

Gardner said the news came to him unofficially from Washington. He believes it is correct, however. His information stated that the dropping of the contest was the result of a bi-party trade. The name of Homer Ferguson, Michigan Republican, whose seat in the U. S. Senate is also under scrutiny, figures in the reported deal.

According to the report reaching Gardner, both the Ferguson and Johnson contests will be dropped by agreement to insure stability of both parties strength in the U. S. Senate. Congress is due to adjourn about July 31, Gardner was advised and both contests would be dropped on the eve of adjournment.

sioners have to raise their own salaries or raise any salary the full extent of the law.

The motion made and passed by the commissioners yesterday will leave the matter of increases in individual cases up to the discretion of the department heads.

"It would not be wise to make a blanket increase," Commissioner Ottis Isom stated. "We can leave that to such men as Sheriff Harrist to determine which of the men are deserving and how much the increase should be."

The motion does allow the department head to make the maximum increase if he feels it is deserved. However, before any increases can be granted, notice that such increases will be made have to be advertised for three consecutive weeks. Such increases as will be granted cannot become effective before July 1 or shortly thereafter.

More than 30-odd bids have been received to date for general construction, plumbing and heating work on the proposed new courthouse. These bids will be opened at a public meeting Wednesday afternoon in the court room on the second floor of the courthouse.

After determining the basic cost of construction the commissioners plan to meet again with the architects, Haynes & Kirby, to draw up specifications for furniture and fixtures that will be needed in the new building.

Club House Plans Tabled

The Commissioners court tabled any action on a request to construct a $50,000 community club house in precinct one.

A delegation from the precinct, the southwest section of the county, presented plans and sketches to the commissioners showing the design, floor-plan and construction details of the desired club house.

Funds Not Available

The commissioners pointed out that funds are not available in the permanent improvement fund at the present time and it is doubtful if an undertaking of this magnitude could be considered for some time. Members of the delegation suggested that they might submit plans calling for a smaller outlay in the hope that some early action might be taken.

The building proposed would be of concrete block and measure 90 by 67 feet. It would have 5,222 square feet of floor space, enough to accommodate about 250 persons. It would include a major social room; 38 by 48 feet; rest rooms, two clubrooms, a library, storage rooms and a kitchen. Eight community clubs from Slide, Hurlwood and other centers in that area would use the club house.

The delegation calling on the commission included Mrs. Robert L. Harper, Mrs. Garlin V. Cooper, Mrs. T. F. Godeke, Mrs. A. B. Allen, Mrs. W. A. Martin, jr., C. L. Rieger and the architect, F. A. Kleinschmidt.

Resignation Accepted

The commissioners also accepted the resignation of T. G. Roberts as justice of peace in the Idalou community. Roberts, in his letter dated May 28, 1949, stated that he had accepted a position which prevented him from fulfilling the duties of the office and wanted to be relieved. No successor has been named to take Roberts' place.

Upon the request of residents in the Stratton addition the commissioners accepted easements and decided to open up Forty-first street from the Tahoka highway east to the Chris Harwell school.

Request Is Approved

Mrs. J. A. Humphries, county librarian, appeared before the commissioners and explained that her card index file in the county library had become hopelessly overburdened. She stated that to relieve the situation she would have to have additional files. The files require a special lock device and contain 60 drawers. The cost of the system is $639.50. Commissioners approved the request but questioned the source of funds to pay for the cabinet.

The Fred Berryhill Equipment company submitted bills amounting to $15,778.03 to the commissioners for machinery purchased for use in the various precincts. Included were a centrifugal pump and machine parts, $495.76; an Austin-Western Motor Grader, $12,775.22, and a tractor and front end loader, $2,506.05. All the accounts were unanimously approved and the discounts taken.

All members of the court were present, County Judge Walter Davies, and commissioners R. O. Short, G. G. Green, Ottis Isom, Pat Corley and county clerk Louie Moore.

Scientist Summoned

agents on the night of March 4, when they arrested Miss Coplon and Russian engineer Valentin Gubitchev in New York.

Federal Judge Albert L. Reeves agreed, and agent T. Scott Miller read from the notes.

Apology Demanded

Meanwhile J. Edgar Hoover maintained a steadfast "no comment" silence on the fact of repeated demands by Dr. Edward U. Condon that he apologize for FBI "smears" against Mrs. Condon.

The wife of the director of the Bureau of Standards was named in an FBI report produced in the Coplon trial as a government exhibit. The report said that she introduced Washington business man Morton Kent to a Bulgarian suspected of being a Russian agent. Kent's body was found floating in the Potomac river June 4. The coroner rendered a verdict of suicide.

Condon demanded an apology Saturday, and when Hoover refused to answer, repeated his demand in a heated statement issued Sunday. Hoover continued to stand on "no comment."

May Call Actor

Palmer has indicated he will call Condon, as well as firm star Fredric March, named as a Communist in another confidential report to the FBI, as defense witnesses.

Rep. Nixon (R-Calif), a member of the House Un-American Activities committee, has demanded an inquiry into release of FBI documents at the trial.

Nixon charged that the Department of Justice, in introducing the FBI reports, "made an utterly stupid decision" and endangered its fight against Communism.

Clark Returns

The Justice department also refused to comment on the case, and insisted that the hurried return from Des Moines, Iowa, of Attorney General Tom Clark had nothing to do with the Coplon trial or criticism growing out of it. Clark had gone to Des Moines to attend a mid-western Democratic farm conference.

The windup of the government case was indicated when Palmer and prosecuting attorneys stipulated that documents found in Miss Coplon's purse when she was arrested in New York with Gubitchev were typed either on Justice department typewriters or Miss Coplon's own portable, or were in her own handwriting.

A government witness, FBI agent Robert Lamphere, testified that the Amtorg Trading Co., a Russian purchasing agency, functioned as a Russian espionage instrument.

Corpus Christi Youth Granted Probation In Auto Theft Case

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., June 13 (AP)—Through the kindness of Federal Judge Richard Duncan, a 19-year-old Corpus Christi boy was on his way home today instead of to a federal reformatory.

The youth is Joseph Clarence Elder. His 20-year-old brother, Forrest Darrell Elder didn't fare so well. Forrest Elder and another Corpus Christi man, James Clarence Jones, 26, probably will be sentenced in Kansas City next month on a guilty plea to a charge of transporting a stolen car across a state line.

The trio was arrested near Springfield, May 30 in a 1941 Hudson sedan stolen earlier in Houston.

Joseph Elder said he didn't know the car had been stolen although the three previously signed a statement saying they all knew.

However, Judge Duncan placed the younger Elder on three years probation, told the U. S. marshal to buy him a bus ticket and give him $3 for food, and the youth to report to the federal probation officer in Houston.

Babich Confessions Are Read In Court

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 13 (INS)—Five confessions given authorities by Milton Babich, accused of slaying his wife's sister, Patricia Birmingham, were read to a jury at Milwaukee today.

The 19-year-old youth sat quietly for five hours while the statements covering details of the girl's death were given the court.

Three of the statements had been made to police and two were given to District Attorney William J. McCauley.

Shooting Said Accidental

The court was adjourned immediately after reading of statements, and will be reconvened tomorrow morning.

The state charged Babich with first degree murder but the confession claimed 16-year-old Patricia was killed accidentally Feb. 10 while Babich was attempting to frighten her into silence about her sister, Kathleen's, pregnancy.

Kathleen, 18, and Babich were married two days before Patricia's weighted body was found in the Milwaukee river by a dragging crew seeking another river victim, a suicide Kathleen is expected to become a mother within a few weeks.

Didn't Frighten Easily

In Babich's confession, he related his concern for Kathleen's "disgrace," and how he invited Patricia for an automobile ride to frighten her into keeping the secret.

But Babich claimed that Patricia didn't frighten easily, and "giggled" during the discussion. When he drew the pistol which the state claims he purchased two weeks earlier, the weapon discharged and Pat was killed.

Babich said in his confession that the shooting was accidental when Patricia grabbed the pistol.

AEC Policy Defended

conceived and going forward full steam ahead," Dr. Oppenheimer said. "It is far better than I thought it would be."

3. The four grams of uranium-235 still missing from the AEC's Argonne laboratories in Chicago would be "of value but not decisive" in helping any other country produce an A-bomb.

About an ounce of U-235 disappeared from the Argonne plant last Feb. 8. The AEC says seven-eighths of it has been recovered from waste.

4. Congress would make a "profound mistake" if it decided to bar the shipment of any more isotopes aboard. The result, he said, would only be to make other countries speed up their atomic research efforts.

Dr. Oppenheimer's testimony about isotopes — radioactive by-products of the atomic process—conflicted sharply with views previously expressed by the AEC commissioner Lewis Strauss.

Strauss told the Senate-House committee last week that he protested against shipping American isotopes to other countries because they could be used to aid research on germ warfare, aviation gasoline, jet engines and rockets.

Strauss was voted down 4 to 1 by other members of the five-man AEC board two years ago, but he said intervening events have only strengthened his conviction that the isotope shipments might jeopardize U. S. security.

Two Hurt In Mishap

driven by Miss Miller approached from the rear and honked the horn. Following his first impulse, Renfro said, he started to swing to the right lane but resumed his initial course when he saw in the rear-view mirror that the car following him was apparently ready to pass in the right lane.

Auto Is Undamaged

Miss Miller said she had started to swing to the left when she saw the front wheels of Renfro's car begin to turn, but apparently switched abruptly back to the right when she saw his car was remaining in the left lane.

In the clockwise spin which followed, both doors of Miss Miller's car came open, throwing the women from opposite sides of the auto. The car continued backward into a ditch, without so much as scratching the paint.

A Rix ambulance rushed Mrs. Manuel to West Texas hospital, and Miss Miller followed soon afterward in a private car.

The two women were traveling from Colorado Springs to San Antonio to visit a son of the older woman and a girl friend of Miss Miller, investigating highway patrolmen were told.

Renfro was enroute to Lubbock, where he planned to stay several days.

Sundown City Board Meets To Discuss Bond Election Proposal

SUNDOWN, June 13. (Special) The city commission met here tonight to discuss a proposal to call a $430,000 bond election for water, sewer, gas, and paving facilities but recessed until next Tuesday before any decision was made, Mayor Lester Dudley said. Petitions for the election were recently circulated here.

The bond proposal calls for the purchase and improvement of the present privately owned gas and water systems or the construction of new systems.

The proposal asks $180,000 for the water system, $100,000 for the sewer system, $100,000 for the gas system, and $50,000 for street paving.

The Lubbock firm of Parkhill, Smith, & Cooper has been conducting a survey and doing engineering work on the project.

The expansion of this Hockley county oil town will necessitate an additional 600 meters to service it correctly, the engineering firm estimates.

Other members of the commission are: Geo. D. Denton, and Jack A. Williams. E. A. Edwards is city clerk.

Tourists on a 14-day tour of Japan are invited to visit atom-bombed Hiroshima.

STATE FINANCES UNSOLVED

Legislature Divided On Problem Of Financing Building Program

By MAC ROY RASOR
Associated Press Staff Writer

AUSTIN, June 13—Senate leaders today were not in full accord with House Speaker Durwood Manford's suggested solution for the state's financial woes.

Principal difference of opinion was over what the legislature should do about an extensive building program for its eleemosynary institutions.

Manford suggested in a letter to House members Saturday that the legislature forget the buildings until a way is developed to pay for them.

Lieut. Gov. To Study Plan

"Manford has presented a lot of good information that deserves some studying," Lieut. Gov. Shivers said, but added: "I'll have to study a little more the suggestion on the building program."

Shivers recalled that Gov. Beauford H. Jester has called the matter "important enough for a special session" if the regular session doesn't act on it.

Senator James Taylor of Kerens, the Senate's Finance Chief, was more specific.

"This legislature knew what it was doing when it got itself into this shape," he said. "I think it ought to stay here and work it out before they go home."

"Including buildings?" he was asked.

"Including buildings," he replied.

Suggests Financing Method

"They can pay for it with a tax bill if they like. I don't care about that. But if they want to do it with a constitutional amendment, it would have to be done in a regular session anyway. You can't amend the constitution at a special session," he said.

Manford's three-point program suggested to get the legislature out of its money tangle called for:

1. Holding present appropriations to minimum essentials.
2. Enacting a tax bill for new revenues.
3. Deferring all construction until adequate financing plans are developed.

Canadian Dam Meet Is Scheduled Friday

Representatives of the various cities interested in the Canadian dam project have been invited to attend a meeting of the Panhandle Water Conservation Authority at the Hilton hotel in Plainview, Friday, John L. McCarty, president, announced Monday.

The meeting has been called for the purpose of evaluating the Bureau of Reclamation report on the proposed dam and to discuss plans for securing authorization of the project in Congress, when and if the project is given approval by the bureau.

The bureau's report on the project, compiled by Harry T. Burleigh of Austin, which will be forwarded to Washington on June 15, will be explained in full by Burleigh at the meeting.

Estimated cost of the entire project, cost of water to the various cities and the quality of the water will be included in Burleigh's report.

Representatives from Borger, Pampa, Amarillo, Plainview, Lubbock, Brownfield, Littlefield, Levelland, Canyon, Lamesa, Tahoka, O'Donnell, Post and probably several other towns, are expected to attend the June 17 meeting. It will begin at 10 a. m. at the Hilton hotel there.

Defense Loses New Attempt To Delay Bridges Perjury Trial

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13 (INS)—Defense attorneys lost another preliminary legal skirmish today in the Harry Bridges perjury case in which he is accused of lying when he swore he was never a Communist.

Federal Judge Michael L. Roche ordered the CIO Longshore chieftain and his two co-defendants to enter pleas to the federal grand jury indictment Thursday over the objection of defense attorney Herbert Desner that the government "is rushing Bridges to trial."

Judge Roche also denied a plea that Henry Schmidt, one of the co-defendants, be permitted to remain in Honolulu until June 16. Schmidt is directing a Longshore strike in Hawaii.

Five Lubbock Students Enrolled At Hardin-Simmons University

ABILENE, June 13. (Special)—Five Lubbock students are enrolled in the current summer term at Hardin-Simmons university, which ends July 9.

The term this year boasts an all-time high enrollment of 1,165 students.

Lubbock students enrolled are: Mrs. Rose Davis McAuley, wife of Aubrey McAuley and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Davis, 2605 Ruby; Gary Martin, son of Mrs. Selena Martin, 1622 Sixteenth; William McLeod, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McLeod, Lubbock route 2; Horace Fisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Fisher of 1918 Twenty-sixth; and Mrs. Leona Burns Freeman, wife of James E. Freeman.

UNCLE AT TENDER AGE

FORT WORTH, Tex. (U.P.)—Tommy Hatcher observed his first birthday at a joint party with his uncle, Mickey Ray Neally. The uncle also was one year old. Mickey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Neally. Tommy's parents are Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Hatcher. Mrs. Hatcher is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neally.

DOCTOR'S CHOICE—Dr. Elmer J. Henderson, above, of Louisville, Ky., is the new president-elect of the American Medical association. Succeeding Dr. Ernest Irons, of Chicago, he will take office at next year's AMA meeting in San Francisco.

NEWS BRIEFS

Approximately 200 persons were present at the Party house in Mackenzie State park Sunday night for the first free movie of the summer in Lubbock parks. The crowd saw most of "Beyond Our Own," religious movie, before rain brought an end to the showing. "Adventures of Rusty" and part one of a serial, "Valley of Vanishing Man," will be shown at 8:30 o'clock tonight at Pioneer Park.

Barney C. McCasland, special representative, achieved the Leaders roundtable of the state and received the National Quality award for business written in 1948, the Fidelity Union Life Insurance company announced Monday through Chick Trout, its Lubbock manager.

Juan Ysasaga, 21, of Lubbock route 6, was arraigned Monday upon a murder charge, before 99th District Judge G. V. Pardue. He pleaded innocent. He was represented by Victor H. Lindsey. The state was represented by A. W. Salyars, assistant district attorney. The indictment charges Ysasaga slew Benito Perales, jr., April 30.

County Agent D. W. Sherrill and his two assistants, Joe Jones and Jack Carothers, left Sunday for College Station where they will participate in the annual A&M Round-Up. The agriculturists will observe the work of 4-H Club members the first three days of the week and on Thursday will attend the conference of county agents.

The U. S. Civil Service Commission Monday announced examinations for geophysicist and food sanitation inspector. The annual pay of these positions is from $2,474 to $6,235. Information and application forms may be obtained from Elmer Potts, Room 217, Post Office building, Lubbock.

An earthquake of moderate intensity was recorded at 12:03 p.m. Sunday at the Texas Tech Seismological observatory, Dr. Leroy T. Patton reported Monday. Dr. Patton said records indicated that the center of the shock was about 3,100 miles to the south, which would place it off the west coast of South America. It apparently was about 300 kilometers below the earth's surface, he said.

Amarillo Photographer Given 18 Months In Federal Prison

AMARILLO, June 13. (AP)—Lynn A. Boykin, jr., 31, Amarillo commercial photographer, was sentenced today in federal court here to serve 18 months in a federal penitentiary.

Boykin entered a plea of guilty on charges of transporting in interstate commerce a falsely-made bank draft.

He was charged with transporting a customer's draft for $188,844.16 drawn on the Fernando Cattle company through the Bank of America, Los Angeles, signed Paul Collins and payable to Browning Higgs, who is Boykin's brother-in-law.

Boykin told the court the draft was passed as a "blind" to cover withdrawal of a large sum he had deposited in the Mercantile National bank, Dallas, in forged checks drawn on the account of his father-in-law, P. B. Higgs, Amarillo and Spearman rancher and cattle buyer.

Prominent Eastland Doctor, Wife Killed In Plane Crash

MERIDIAN, Miss., June 13 (AP)—A prominent Eastland, Tex., physician and his wife were killed in a plane crash near here last night.

The victims were Dr. and Mrs. Marion Bailey Murdock.

Their bodies were found early today in the wreckage of a private plane at Topton airport, 10 miles northeast of Meridian.

Dr. Murdock was a physician and surgeon and his wife was his technician. The young couple moved to Eastland about two years ago. They were prominent in social affairs of the Texas town.

The couple left home several days ago to attend a medical meeting.

Ross Sanity Hearing Will Start Today

LA GRANGE, June 13. (AP)—Dr. Lloyd I. Ross tomorrow begins what may be the final round of his battle against a death sentence.

A Fayette county jury is to determine whether the San Antonio surgeon is insane or should be sent to the electric chair for the murder of a San Antonio investment banker's wife.

Defense attorneys sought the insanity trial after the state court of criminal appeals refused a rehearing on a motion for a new trial.

The insanity proceedings will be held in the same district court room where on October 23 the 43-year-old Ross was convicted of the Sunday slaying of Mrs. Gertrude York on a road near New Braunfels, May 25, 1947.

Ross has not been tried on three other murder charges in the deaths of Mrs. York's husband, Willard York, and two other members of the San Antonio family.

A 36-man panel has been called by District Judge J. R. Fuchs for selection of the insanity trial jury.

Under Texas law the insane cannot be executed but must be confined to institutions.

Nine witnesses have been subpoenaed by defense attorneys who hope to prove that Ross now is not of sound mind. Included are four doctors and two ministers.

Signed affidavits from the four doctors were used by the defense in having the insanity trial ordered. They are Doctors Royal Calder,

University Of Houston Plans For Cougar Wedding Go Awry

DALLAS, June 13. (AP)—University of Houston students tried to arrange a wedding between their mascot, Shasta, a cougar, and Tom, a male of the same species at the Marsalis park zoo here.

But Shasta has been unimpressed by the old college try. She sleeps through games.

The ash-blond cougar was furnished a veil, a cake and other wedding trimmings for the ceremony that was planned yesterday.

She was put into the cage with Tom, a 12-year-old cat. Shasta is three. Perhaps the disparity in their ages had something to do with it. Tom liked Shasta's looks but it wasn't mutual.

After a few gestures, Shasta swatted Tom on the side of the head.

Jim Buchanan, an engineering student from the universtiy, said he hoped in time Shasta would change her mind. "We sure could use another mascot," he said.

Kent County Rodeo Slated June 15-18

CLAIREMONT, June 13 (Special)—H. W. Davis and Son announced that the 3rd Kent county amateur rodeo will be held on the nights of June 15, 16, 17, and 18 at their rodeo grounds in Clairemont.

The stands have recently been covered, new chutes have been built to handle the bucking stock and the entire arena has been put in first class condition. A new permanent cook shack is under construction.

The show this year will include calf roping, ribbon roping, older men's roping, Junior Kent county cowboy's roping, junior bull riding reining-horse contest and sponsors contest.

Nightly Dance Scheduled

This is one of the few rodeos where the contestants compete for all the entrance money plus additional cash and other prizes.

The generous prizes are expected to attract a large number of outstanding performers.

H. W. Davis and Son will furnish the stock for the show. W. D. Vencil of Jayton has been named official announcer, and, according to Mr. Davis, the judges will be selected from ranches in Kent county.

In addition to the rodeo, there will be a dance each night. A new larger dance pavillion has been built in order that the crowd can be better accommodated.

Alaska Bachelor In Search Of Texas Girl As Bride

ORANGE, June 13 (AP)—A 40-year-old Alaska bachelor wants a warm-hearted Texas girl for a bride.

He is Harold Ames, World War II veteran who now is a civilian electrician living at Mountain View, near Anchorage.

He wrote to the Orange Leader, asking help. Ames spent six weeks here while in the Navy.

"I am sure that in all of my travels," Ames wrote, "I never have met more charming girls than live in and around Orange."

He said he has a good job and owns his home, but would like to have a wife to "greet me at the door when I come home from work."

In casting about, Ames wrote, "my mind turns back to those lovely Texas girls, so would you please help me find a girl that would like to be an Alaskan bride."

Grasshoppers Threat To Oklahoma Farms

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 13. (U.P.)—As if floods, hail and tornadoes weren't enough, Oklahoma farmers today are being besieged by another deadly enemy—grasshoppers.

In some sections of the state—notably the Southwest—the current crop of hoppers is called the "worst in 10 years."

Ted Krisher, Comanche county agent, is warning farmers around Lawton that "unless we do something right away, the grasshoppers will take our crops as soon as the sunshine hits."

The insect horde already has cut alfalfa to shreds in the Cache creek bottoms of the county, Krisher said.

At Stillwater, C. F. Stiles, extension entomologist at Oklahoma A&M college, called the hoppers a "serious threat," and said they have been reported at the rate of 20 per square yard in Cotton county. The rate is 15 per square yard in Comanche county and 7 in Caddo county, he added.

"Within two weeks hoppers are going to be spread over large areas and much damage result," he warned.

WAGE, PRICE SUPPORTS URGED

Five-Point Program Offered As Solution To U.S. Economic Ills

By LYLE C. WILSON
United Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The men who run the government are in a tangle of disagreement today on the state of the nation's economic health and what should be done about it.

The basic disagreement is on taxes and spending. Left wing leaders who reluctantly accepted President Truman as their 1948 presidential candidate have called a political rally to meet here July 12 to put some steam behind the administration's congressional program. The rally was called by the New Deal Americans for Democratic Action organization with a warning that the nation is "on the thin ice of recession" and headed for disaster unless Congress acts quickly.

Group Offers Program

ADA demanded immediate enactment of a five-point program designed to support prices and wages, as follows:

1. Expanded minimum wage coverage at a level of 75 cents an hour.
2. Increased social security benefits on a payroll tax basis.
3. Subsidized public housing.
4. Additional federal subsidy of education.
5. The Brannan farm program which would subsidize both consumers and farmers.

ADA already was committed to Mr. Truman's tax program which calls for a hike of $4 billion in general revenue and more than $2 billion in payroll taxes in the fiscal year beginning next July 1. But the Democratic leaders of Congress have indicated they will not give Mr. Truman much, if any, of that tax increase at this session.

Truman Opposes Cuts

They are maneuvering to let the Brannan farm plan go over until next year. Although minimum wages may be increased to 75 cents an hour, there is not much chance that coverage in that field or in social security in general will be expanded as the President desires it to be.

Mr. Truman is firmly opposing demands of the congressional economy bloc that government spending be reduced, although many Democrats including some of the senior members in key committee chairmanships are for a balanced budget and less spending.

ERP Slash Fought

The President told a Little Rock, Ark., audience over the weekend that the European recovery fund must not be cut. Chairman Kenneth McKellar, (D-Tenn.) of the Senate Appropriations committee promptly replied that about $1 billion should be sliced from the $4,198,200,00 asked by the administration.

After five and one-half months of this session, Congress and the White House agree that there are only two means by which a deficit can be avoided this year and for some years to come. They are to increase taxes or reduce spending. But there is no indication yet which it is to be. Evidence is piling up that Congress and the President will not be able to agree on what to do about the nation's bank account and that we are going into the red again.

Prominent Kansans Killed In Plane Crash

WICHITA, Kan., June 13. (U.P.)—Three prominent persons, one a millionaire contractor and another a former Kansas supreme court justice, were killed today when their plane crashed in squally weather at the east edge of Wichita.

The victims were Russ Prater, 40, who had constructed millions of dollars worth of housing here and at Garden City, Kan.; Austin M. Cowan, 63, who was named to the supreme court bench last year in an interim appointment made by Gov. Frank Carlson; and Cowan's wife, Mrs. Edwina Cowan, 62, nationally known child psychiatrist and a member of the faculty at Friends university here.

Friends of the trio said they had left in Prater's Beechcraft Bonanza for a Colorado resort when the crash occurred.

A witness said the plane appeared to dive to the earth from an altitude of about 250 feet. The plane crashed near a slush pond and burned.

Jester Administration Blamed For State's Financial 'Chaos'

WACO, June 13 (U.P.)—Case March, avowed candidate for governor next year and every campaign year thereafter "until elected," today blamed the state's current financial crisis on the administration of Gov. Beauford H. Jester.

Addressing the 19th annual convention of Associated Master Barbers and Beauticians of Texas, March said, "the present chaotic condition of the state treasury is a direct result of the no-new-tax policy of the state administration."

He said a tax on natural gas and refining of gasoline would raise over $200 million a year for the state.

"The only fair solution to the problem," said March, who gave up his job as law professor at Baylor university to become a full-time candidate, "would be for the legislature to completely disregard the false leadership of the present administration—including the present lieutenant governor—and enact revenue legislation to take care of the present deficit and funds needed for humanitarian purposes in Texas."

House By-Passes Action On Veterans Bonus Plan

Solon Plans To Withdraw Bill

By DAVE CHEAVENS
Associated Press Staff Writer

AUSTIN, June 13.—The author of a big veteran bonus bill charged today the House is dodging a showdown vote on the issue.

The House adjourned until Wednesday, skipping tomorrow when Rep. Jimmy Horany's $400,000,000 bonus bill headed the calendar. Horany said he would withdraw the measure now because it is too late to have a chance to pass.

"A majority of the House has maneuvered for three weeks to prevent the bonus bill from reaching a vote," the Archer City lawmaker said. The House vote to by-pass tomorrow's session was 62 to 60.

Juvenile Bill Snagged

A bill to modernize handling juvenile delinquents hit a snag.

The House refused 102 to 16 to accept Senate amendments in the juvenile code measure and asked for a conference committee.

The Senate stood pat on its effort to add $5,000,000 to the soil conservation appropriation. It sought to force the measure into conference.

After debating a bill changing regulations for public accountants, the Senate recessed until 10 a.m. tomorrow. Conference committees on the big money bills and other measures worked through the afternoon.

Final Senate action sent to Gov. Jester a bill making it unlawful for a drunk person to operate a motor boat. There is no statute on the subject now.

Election Bill Signed

Jester signed a bill to speed up official election returns. It provides they must be made "immediately" after the vote count is completed. It also calls for run-off primary races for county and precinct offices.

On the soil conservation bill, the Senate added its $5,000,000 in an amendment attached to the wrong bill. The House suggested the best way to straighten out the muddle was to whack off the $5,000,000.

A dispute over placing state orphans homes under the proposed youth development council brought House delay on final enactment of the juvenile code measure.

Horany Raps Tactics

Rep. Sid Gregory of Gatesville wanted the House to accept the Senate amendment and send the bill to the governor. He said all youth services should be under one head. Gregory said delay might kill the bill because it is so late.

Horany charged the legislature "has given consideration to every

Scurry Outpost To Be Completed

Hiawatha No. 1 Wilson, one-location outpost to the nearest completed oil well on the southeast side of the Diamond M field in southwest Scurry county, has shown that it will make a producer.

This venture, located 660 feet from south and west lines of section 183, block 97, H&TC survery, topped the Canyon reef at 6,785 feet, on an elevation of 2,378 feet. That made it 35 feet low to the same company's No. 1 Wilson, the closest Canyon producer, according to interested observers.

The project drilled to 6,800 feet, and in a drillstem test of the 6,785-6,800 foot section the well flowed for 30 minutes at the estimated rate of 20 barrels of pipe line oil per hour. There was no water. Gas showed at the surface in three minutes after the tool was opened.

Extension Completed

Operator is to cement 7-inch casing on bottom and test and complete through pipe perforations.

Barnsdall Oil company No. 1 A. L. Wren, one-quarter of a mile west of Sunray Oil corporation No. 1 Brown, recently completed south extension to the north Snyder field, in north-central Scurry county, topped the Canyon reef 13 feet high to the Sunray producer, and is drilling ahead.

The Barnsdall development, located six miles north of Snyder at 660 feet from north and east lines of lot 9, section 20, J. P. Smith survey block 1, picked the top of the reef to be at 6,522 feet.

Samples Look Good

Operator correlations made that point 13 feet high to the same marker in the Sunray No. 1 Brown. The outpost had reached 6,570 feet in lime and was drilling ahead. Samples were showing good indications of oil and gas.

The project will be drilled on down to approximately 6,900 feet before any testing is started.

Bert Fields of Dallas is to start operations immediately at a 7,200-foot prospector to explore into the Canyon lime of the Pennsylvanian in west-central Scurry county.

The project will be his No. 1 A. B. Eicke. It is 660 feet from north and 330 feet from east lines of section 205, block 97, H&TC survey. That makes it five miles west of Snyder.

It is a short distance south and west of Magnolia Petroleum company No. 1 Eicke, a recently completed, producer on the northwest side of the Kelly-Canyon field.

Stanolind Oil & Gas company has made location for two deep explorations flanking proven production in Andrews county.

DECISION ON DAM WITHHELD

Protest By Landowners Delays Okay Of Sweetwater Reservoir

By GARTH JONES
Associated Press Staff Writer

AUSTIN, June 13.—Action on a request from the city of Sweetwater for permission to build a reservoir in Coke county was delayed today by protests from a group of landowners near Blackwell.

A public hearing on the application to build a 30,000 acre-foot reservoir on Oak Creek was held today before the State Board of Water Engineers. No testimony in opposition to the $2,500,00 project was presented.

However, at the end of the hearing, E. V. Spence, board chairman, said the board would delay making a final decision for several days at the request of Senator Grady Hazlewood of Amarillo, who is representing the Blackwell landowners group.

Investigation Planned

"We want this thing investigated so we can find out the true story," Hazlewood commented after the hearing. "This dam might do away with the only source of stock water available to these ranchers."

Hazlewood added that some of the land which would be under water if the dam is built is now leased for oil development.

"It's going to cost Sweetwater a pretty penny if they start buying up oil leases," he said. "And if they start drilling oil wells in that lake it might ruin the whole water supply for several cities."

Sweetwater proposes to take 10,000 acre feet annually from the Oak creek project for domestic, municipal and industrial uses. In addition the reservoir would furnish city water for Robert Lee, Bronte and Blackwell.

Witnesses testified that the water project also could furnish water for Roscoe, Rotan, Roby and Trent if those communities need additional supply in the future.

Marvin Nichols, Fort Worth engineer employed to draw up plans for the reservoir, estimated that Sweetwater's present 16,000 population would grow to 36,500 by 1980.

"We have reached the limits of our present water supply," said H. S. Thorgrimsen, Sweetwater city manager.

He said the Gulf Refining company planned to expand its plant at Sweetwater to handle most of the oil production from the Permian basin, if the city could allow them 300,000 gallons of water daily.

"We figured the city could only finance about a million and a half dollars of the Oak creek project," Thorgrimsen said, "so we asked Gulf for a million."

Agreement Reached

"Just last Tuesday, after 18 months of negotiations, we reached complete accord with Gulf on the means of financing the project," he said. "We can go ahead with out project immediately if this permit is granted."

Thorgrimsen said Gulf had agreed to pay the city demand charges of $27,000 a year, plus the additional payment of $125,000

Public Invited To Concert Tonight

Opening Program Of Tech's Summer Band School Set

The three bands of the Texas Tech Summer Band school will give their first program of the season at 8 o'clock tonight at the area just north of the band building on the Tech campus.

The public is invited to attend the concert, which is free.

The advanced concert band will present five selections, while each of two intermediate bands will play three numbers.

Each band, well balanced in instrumentation, consists of approximately 90 members.

Program Is Given

The concert band, under the direction of D. O. Wiley and R. A. Dhossche, will play "March et Cortege from 'La Reine de Saba'," "Overture - Beautiful Galatea," "Londonderry Air," "Fantasy Ballet," and "Mexican Overture."

The "Blue" band, directed by Joe L. Haddon and Charles A. Wiley, is to present "March-Salutation," "Overture - Aurora," and "Chapel Shrine."

The "Red" band, under direction of Gurthal T. Gilligan and J. W. King, will play "Overture-Tremontier," "Seeds of Cadmus," and "March-Queen City."

The second summer concert is scheduled for June 21.

Portales Valley To Remain Open For Water Well Drilling

SANTA FE, N. M., June 13. (INS) There are no present plans to close the Portales, N. M., valley to water well drilling.

State engineer John Bliss said today "apparent misunderstanding over provisions of the new drillers' licensing law" had led to rumors that the Portales area would be closed.

Bliss stated, "The drillers' license law applies only to declared basins, and the Portales area has not yet been declared a basin."

Reds Refuse Probe Of Treaty Violations

WASHINGTON, June 13 (AP)—Russia has refused to take part in an investigation of American-British charges that three Soviet satellite states violated their peace treaties.

The State department said today Moscow made the counter charge that the Western Powers were trying to use the treaties to interfere in the internal affairs of Hungary, Romania and Bulgaria.

Russia also supported the denials by the three countries that they have violated their treaty pledges. Britain and the United States have accused them of failing to live up to pledges to grant fair trials, free speech and other human rights to their peoples.

Moscow's note was a reply to the formal British and American requests made May 31 that Russia join in investigating the dispute, as provided for in the treaties. All three countries, now Soviet satellites, were Axis allies during the war.

Various Groups Meet For Programs Monday

Morning, afternoon and night meetings were conducted by church women's groups Monday. Lessons, programs and socials were featured in the various gatherings.

BREAKFASTS ARE GIVEN MONDAY

Breakfasts were held by four circles of First Christian Women's council Monday morning as the last meetings of the church year which is concluded in June. Another circle, Circle 2, had a picnic Monday night at Mrs. Frank Haden's.

Fifteen members and two guests of Circle 1 met with Mrs. J. L. Nix for their breakfast. Mrs. J. H. Hackfield was hostess to 17 members of Circle 3. The breakfast for Circle 4 was given in the home of Mrs. Fred Childress with 14 members and one guest attending. Circle 5 met with Mrs. Vera Salmon. Twenty-one members and three guests were present.

LESSONS TAUGHT FOR CIRCLES

Mrs. David Zacharias taught a lesson from the Gospel of John for Circle 1 of Westminister Presbyterian Women of the Church Monday afternoon in the home of Miss Margaret Huff. Seventeen members and one guest were in attendance. The devotion was brought by Mrs. T. W. Waddill.

Circle 2 of the group met with Mrs. J. H. Darden for a program on foreign missions directed by Mrs. Stella Brown. Mrs. Joe Wilson had a part on the program and Mrs. C. C. Galbraith gave a devotion. Twelve members were present.

CHINA STUDIED BY TWO GROUPS

Maud Keith Horn and Mary Louella Dunn circles of St. John's Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service met jointly Monday at the church for a continuation of a study on China. Bill Slagle, who was in China while he served with the Navy, told of his experiences there and discussed his impressions of the Chinese people. Miss Anna V. Moren told stories from "Tales of China" (Lewis), and Mrs. Hubert Bratcher spoke on religions of the Orient.

Refreshments were served to 15 members after the program.

Mrs. G. E. Crosby reviewed the book, "Meet Mrs. Yu," for Mary Winn circle of the WSCS in the home of Mrs. Donald McDonald. Eleven members and one guest attended.

FIRST METHODIST WOMEN AT COFFEE

In the home of Mrs. Sam Hildreth, Plainview highway, Monday morning, First Methodist WSCS gave a coffee with members of China circle as hostesses. Approximately 75 persons called.

Those in the receiving line were Mrs. Hildreth, Mrs. C. A. Gamill, jr., Mrs. Jack Ray, Mrs. J. D. Edwards, Mrs. Ira L. Spann, chairman of the hostess circle, and Mrs. Edwin E. Merriman.

Mrs. H. L. Robinson and Mrs. C. C. Coffee presided at the serving table which was laid with a lace cloth and decorated with yellow and white daisies. Silver appointments were used.

MEETING HELD IN AFTERNOON

Monday afternoon, Calvary Baptist Women's Missionary society met at the church for a lesson on "Questing Youth" given by members of Helen Leech circle. Twenty-five persons attended.

A Sunbeam meeting was attended by nine children.

PROGRAM GIVEN IN CADE HOME

Mrs. C. H. Stogner taught a lesson on "Home Missions" and Mrs. R. D. Bumpass brought a Bible lesson for Circle 5 of First Presbyterian Women of the Church Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. James O. Cade. Mrs. Bumpass, a guest, was introduced by Mrs. Leroy T. Patton who also spoke briefly on "Family Prayers."

The meeting was directed by Mrs. C. C. Schmidt, co-chairman of the circle. Sixteen members and one guest were present for the program and social hour which followed.

MEETING PLACE NAMES DRAWN

Approximately 30 women of Asbury Methodist WSCS met with Mrs. C. A. Bickley for coffee Monday morning. Meeting place names for the seven circles of the organizations were drawn and announcement was made that circles are to elect leaders at next Monday's meetings. Mrs. Bert Douglas, president, led a prayer.

A recording, "Advance Message," by Mrs. Frank G. Brooks, which is an outline of future programs for the WSCS was played.

Circle meetings for next Monday are to be as follows: Jane Bickley, 9:30 a.m., Mrs. Bert Douglas, 2201 Twentieth; Naomi Ruth, 9:30 a.m., Mrs. J. C. Dean, 1926 Twenty-eighth; Hester Dale, West 9:30 a.m., Mrs. J. H. Williamson, 1606 Ave. Y; Rebecca, 9:30 a.m., Mrs. Russell Denison, 2504 Twenty-fourth; Mary Martha, 4 p.m., Mrs. H. E. Singley, 1510 Ave. U; Kitty Bond, 4 p.m., Mrs. R. J. Clark, 2021 Tenth; Suzanna Wesley, 9:30 a.m., Mrs. Fred Graves, 2002 Sixteenth.

Cheney-Blair Ceremony Is Read Here

The marriage of Bernadine Blair and Ralph H. Cheney took place Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burney Hancock, with Rev. C. J. McCarty reading a double ring service.

The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. T. E. Mahan of Fowler, Kas.

The couple has gone on a wedding trip to Santa Fe and Red River, N. M., and will be at home in Lubbock after June 15.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a navy blue, accordion pleated, ballerina length dress with navy and white accessories. She carried an orchid showered with stephanotis. For something old she wore a green enameled pin witch, belonging to her mother, and something borrowed was an heirloom diamond belonging to Miss Sarah Louise Palmer of Roswell, N. M.

Sister Attends Bride

Mrs. Carl Hooper of Olton, who served her sister as matron of honor, wore a navy blue dress with navy and gold accessories. She carried a Colonial bouquet of yellow rosebuds.

The rooms were decorated with fern and pink and white gladioli. At a reception that followed, Miss Palmer served the wedding cake and Mrs. Max Dodson served punch.

The bride's table was laid with a white Madeira linen cloth and centered with a single ring wedding cake topped with orchids.

Out-of-town guests were Mr and Mrs. Paul Meador of Clovis, N. M., Mrs. Delcie Palmer of Roswell and Gene Smith of Amarillo.

For travel the bride wore an aqua silk shantung dress with natural and brown accessories. A graduate of West Texas State college, Canyon, she has been a teacher in the Roswell Public schools for the last three years.

Mr. Cheney, who served three years overseas with the U. S. Army during the late war, is a representative for Morrow-Thomas Hardware company.

Church To Be Scene Of Wedding Tonight

Miss Betty Mae Worrell and Floyd L. Boston who are to be married tonight at 8 o'clock at First Methodist church, were honored at a rehearsal dinner Monday night at the Chicken Village.

Hosts were the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Worrell.

The list was made up of Dr. and Mrs. H. I. LONA JO JONES

Girl To Be 4-H Model

Lona Jo Jones who was winner of a Hale county 4-H club Dress Revue in April will model her dress at the State Dress Revue Wednesday night at the 4-H Round-up being held at College Station.

For the past three years, Lona Jo has been a winner in the county Revue. She has been a member of County Wide club for four years. She makes many of her own clothes, and occasionally sews for her youngest sister.

School dresses, best dresses and tailored garments are being modeled in the State Revue. The dress which Lona Jo will model is a school dress of iridescent chambray trimmed with ruffling of a harmonizing stripe. It is fashioned with a round yoke, brief puffed sleeves and a flared skirt. Girls in the Revue are to be judged on the selection, construction and appearance of their garments.

Yolanda Ellis of Plainview and Janice Allman of Hale Center are other Hale county delegates at the Round-up.

Miss Rhodes Is Honored

Miss Bobbie Jean Rhodes, who is to marry James H. Valentine of Fort Worth June 17, was complimented at a tea and shower given Friday night by Mrs. D. E. Sellers, 1905 Twenty-seventh.

Thirty guests called or sent gifts.

Mrs. A. A. Reynolds was assistant hostess with Mrs. Sellers.

The tea table was laid with a lace cloth and centered with a reflector on which a miniature bridal couple stood in front of an arch of rainbow colored net. The reflector was bordered with fern and sweetpeas.

Larkspur and pink roses were placed at vantage points about the rooms.

Backyard Party Held For Engaged Couple

Miss Bobby Jean Rhodes and her fiance, James H. Valentine of Fort Worth, were honored at a backyard party given Saturday night at the home of Mrs. L. O. White, 2219 Thirteenth.

Guests were former classmates of the couple at Texas Tech college. Twenty-eighth called, including Mrs. Jimmy Robertson of Knoxville, Tenn., and John Ewing of Amarillo.

Miss Vicki Martin presided at the bride's book and Miss Nadyne Brewer served punch. They were assistant hostesses.

The refreshment table was centered with an oblong copper box filled with ivy and deep red roses. The table where guests registered also was centered with roses.

Town Talk

THE FIRST social event of the Twelfth Annual Women's West Texas Golf Association tournament will be a buffet supper scheduled to be held tonight at 7 o'clock in the Lubbock Country club ballroom immediately following mixed foursomes.

A colorful buffet has been planned with dishes ranging from turkey and ham to prime roast beef. Summer flowers will be used in decorating the ballroom.

Some of the masculine members of the club have not understood they are invited to attend all social events to be held in coordination with the tournament, (provided, of course, they have paid for entrance tickets,) but tournament officials assure the men that they are cordially invited.

Dr. D. M. Wiggins, president of Texas Tech, has accepted appointment as a member of the Texas USO committee by Governor Beauford Jester, general chairman, and T. E. Braniff, President of Braniff International Airways, USO State Campaign Committee chairman for Texas, in the reactivation of the United Service Organizations under the nation's continued strong defense program.

Beatrice F. Carruth, Lubbockite, received her B.S. degree in nursing and a certificate of Institutional Supervision Monday from the University of Colorado in Boulder, Colo. At its ninety-seventh commencement exercises, the university graduated 1,638 students, the largest class in its history.

Mrs. Lizzie Sanders McCauley of Vista, Calif., oldtime resident of Lubbock and original owner of the Nicolett and Cova hotels, is visiting friends and relatives here for a short time.

She is a guest of her son, Sylvan Sanders at the Hilton hotel, and friends may contact her at Room 402.

Roxana Ruth Ford of Lubbock was among more than 1,100 graduates to receive degrees and certificates at the seventy-eighth commencement of Iowa State college Friday.

She was awarded the degree of doctor of philosophy in vocational education.

Mrs. Robert H. Gibson and two sons of Floydada are guests in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R Gibson, 2017 Fourteenth.

Her husband, Bob, is at College Station this week in connection with the 4-H Round-up being held at A. & M. He is county agent in Floydada.

The visiting Mrs. Gibson, the former Miss Elaine Gibson, and her husband are both former Tech students.

Ex-Trojan L. J. Clark and Miss Wilma Jean Robertson, both of Hereford, were married recently in the Hereford First Baptist church in a double ring ceremony read by Rev. R. H. Cagle before an altar of roses.

After a wedding trip to Colorado, the couple will be at home in Hereford, where the bridegroom is employed.

Mrs. William R. Sewell, 2206 Thirty-second, is celebrating a birthday today.

Auxiliary To Have Guest Day Lunch

Guest day, which will be in the nature of a 12 o'clock luncheon served at IOOF hall, was planned for June 22 by the ERT auxiliary at a Saturday night meeting. Auxiliaries from Slaton and Clovis, N. M., will be guests.

A memorial hour was conducted.

Mrs. Trenton McCurry was hostess.

Attending were Mesdames J. D. Mullins, D. R. Patterson, Clark Zachary, Rafe Nabors, T. K. Martin, J. A. Nunley, jr., R. J. Clark, Ervin Grant, W. D. Donald, Lloyd Berry, Arnie Boyd and N. M. Lowrie.

Ike Opposes U.S. School Aid Bill

By JAMES LEE
INS Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, June 13—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower today declared his opposition to the administration's federal-aid-to-education bill and warned of the increasing dangers of "paternalism" in government.

Eisenhower asserted in a letter to Rep. Gwinn (RNY) ranking minority member of the House subcommittee on education:

"Very frankly I firmly believe that the army of persons who urge greater and greater centralization of authority and greater and greater dependence upon the federal treasury are really more dangerous to our form of government than any external threat that can possibly be arrayed against us."

Economy 'Endangered'

The soldier-educator, who recently completed his first year as president of Columbia university, said he would "flatly oppose any grant by the federal government to all states in the union for educational purposes."

Eisenhower asserted that blanket federal aid would result in "competitive" spending and would "completely decry and defeat the watchful economy that comes about through local supervision over local expenditures of local revenues." He added:

Socialism Feared

"In short, unless we are careful, even the great and necessary educational processes in our country will become yet another vehicle by which the believers in paternalism, if not outright Socialism, will gain still additional power for the central government."

Some legislators expressed belief that Eisenhower's views would result in drastic revision of the bill. Gwinn declared that "having fought the good fight against tyranny, Gen Eisenhower knows how precious freedom is to mankind."

Eisenhower said he would "heartily support federal aid" in areas where the tax revenue potential is insufficient to provide a satisfactory level of education.

Federal Interference Opposed

But he stipulated that such assistance should be given "under formulas that would permit no abuse, no direct interference of the federal authority in educational processes, and no opportunity to expand the flow of federal money into areas where need could not be clearly demonstrated."

NEWS BRIEFS

Prof. Gene L. Hemmle, who was appointed head of the music department at Texas Technological college at a Board of Directors meeting recently, was a visitor at the college Monday. Prof. Hemmle has been a professor of music and chairman of the music department at Texas Western college since 1946. He was in Lubbock to visit and look over the Tech campus. Prof. Hemmle will assume his new duties in September.

High Court Refuses To Review Decision On Louisiana Tidelands

WASHINGTON, June 13 (AP)—The Supreme court refused today to reconsider its recent decision permitting the federal government to file a tidelands oil suit against Louisiana.

The court on April 16 granted the Justice department permission to file suits against both Louisiana and Texas. By the actions the department seeks to establish paramount rights of the United States to rich oil lands in the Gulf of Mexico.

Reconsideration of the decision was asked in a petition filed by Bolivar E. Kemp, jr., attorney general of Louisiana. Texas has not filed a similar request.

Comment Withheld

Kemp's petition recalled that the Supreme court's brief announcement of its decision made no comment on Louisiana's contention that the federal government may not sue a state without the latter's consent.

The question of the Supreme court's jurisdiction over Louisiana in such a suit, Kemp said, can be raised only after a legal process by the federal government is actually served on Louisiana. On this basis, Kemp told the court his petition for reconsideration should be denied.

"But," he added, "if the Supreme court should be further interested in the question of jurisdiction at this time, the petition should be granted and the issue be set for argument immediately."

Thus Kemp's petition left the inference that if it were denied, he would conider the quetion of the court's authority over Louisiana in the oil case remains open for later decision.

The Supreme court in denying his petition today, told him in effect to make his defense on the jurisdictional question after the Justice department formally files its suit against the state.

Bonus Bill By-Passed

other major issue but that of paying the veterans a bonus.

His proposal would have paid $200 to veterans of both world wars plus $200 to those overseas at least three months.

The House spent more than two hours arguing a resolution by Reps. Wayne Wagonseller and Horany which suggested cutting $45,000,000 from the four major money bills now in conference committees.

An amendment to the resolution suggesting that the legislature merely appropriate funds on a one-year basis, instead of two as at present, was defeated 89-31.

Property Sale Bill Hit

Rep. John Crosthwait, sponsor of the one-year idea, said the legislature could come back for another session in January to decide how much money should be spent.

Discussion of the resolution was postponed on the motion of Rep. George Nokes of Corsicana, who said most members had not read the resolution and were acting too hastily.

A bill by Rep. S. J. Isaacks of El Paso providing for summary sale of real property on which taxes are delinquent three years was dealt virtual death when it failed to pass on second reading. The vote was 65-51.

The House finally passed and sent to the Senate a bill appropriating $200,000 to cover the cost of holding elections on proposed constitutional amendments in September.

Wall Street

MARKET HITS NEW LOW

NEW YORK, June 13 (AP)—The stock market plunged to a 4½ year low today.

Resistance to one of the worst declines of the year was tissue thin.

The market value of all stocks was chopped more than $1,000,000,000.

Individual stocks lost fractions to more than 3 points one as much as 7½. Many sold at their post-war lows.

The market headed downward only a few minutes after the opening.

Not since January, 1945, has the general level of stock prices descended so low.

Trading stepped up sharply as prices sagged, an ominous sign to those optimists still left in Wall Street who have figured that most "important" selling was a reason for the current decline. Sales were 1,340,000 shares, one of the largest totals of the year.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks dropped 1.2 points to 58.

Gloomy Wall Streeters could find nothing special on which to blame today's crack-up.

The financial district seemed to be gripped tighter than ever in the fog of pessimism. Unfavorable business news has been circulating in uncomfortably large doses for some time. At the same time, tastier reports on the economy have appeared with encouraging frequency.

But Wall Street has concentrated on the bad news with its usual single-mindedness. Stock prices, under almost relentless pounding for the past month or so, have been forced to levels which indicate a severe recession.

Contributing strongly to the general mental discomfort was another decline in steel production scheduled for this week. U. S. Steel, one of the most active issues, lost ½ point to 20½. Of issues traded, 869 dropped and 99 advanced.

Down by around a point or more were Bethelem Steel at 23¼, Youngstown Sheet and Tube 53⅜, General Motors 52¼, Chrysler 44¼, Studebaker 17, Goodrich 53, Du Pont (Old) 173½, Allied Chemical 167¼, International Paper 42, Santa Fe 80½, Southern Pacific 32⅝, Superior Oil of California 128, Standard Oil (NJ) 60¼, Skelly Oil 37½, off 7½, and Twentieth Century Fox 20⅝.

Lower in the Curb were Humble Oil, Pancoastal Oil, United Gas, United Light, Electric Bond and Share, Creole Petroleum, Cities Service and American Light. Waltham Watch and N. J. Zinc improved.

Cotton

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, June 13 (AP)—Cotton futures were easy today on increased liquidation in nearby July futures. Commission house and New Orleans traders sold following the easiness in securities. Offerings were absorbed through scale down mill buying and short covering. A leading spot firm who has been a persistent seller of nearby July contracts was on the buying side today in a small way.

Futures closed 50 cents a bale lower to 40 cents higher than the previous close.

AVERAGE PRICE

NEW ORLEANS, June 13 (AP)—The average price of middling 15/16ths inch cotton today at 10 designated southern spot markets was 55 cents a bale lower at 32.86 cents a pound. Average for the past 30 market days 32.79; middling 7/8ths inch average 30.98.

Grain

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, June 13 (AP)—Wheat No 1 hard 2.05¾-2.13¾.

Oats No. 2 white 79¾-80¾.

Corn No. 2 white 1.68¾-70¾.

Sorghums No. 2 yellow milo per 100 lbs 2.35-2.40.

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, June 13 (AP)—Grains lost ground rapidly toward the close today moving with fairly substantial losses. Early gains extending to more than a cent in wheat were wiped out under light but persistent selling. Corn and oats were weak from the start.

Demand dried up, partly because of declines in cash wheat prices and partly because of nervousness resulting from another drop in securities at New York. Rains over the week-end in the mid-west served to depress corn.

New crop wheat was being purchased on a to-arrive basis at Kansas City at prices 4 to 7 cents under last Saturday's cash dealers said. Visible supply of wheat increased 4,130,000 bushels during the past week, the board of trade reported.

Wheat closed 1¾-2¼ lower, July $1.93¾, 1.94; corn was 1¼ to 2 cents lower, July $1.30¾-¾, oats were 1¼-1⅝ lower, July 88.

Babies Born In Hospital—But Just Barely

American Flier Beats Stork To Scotland In Close Race

PRESTWICK, Scotland, June 13. (U.P.) — A doughty American airman who ordinarily fears neither man nor elements admitted today that he was scared stiff when he found he had two women in labor aboard his trans-Atlantic airliner.

"It scared the hell out of me," said Capt. Walter Kyse of Fairlawn, N. J. "I bet our plane never flew so fast in its life."

Frightened or not, he won his race with the stork— just barely. The babies were born at an Irvine maternity hospital near Prestwick immediately after an unscheduled stop.

Doctors Radio Advice

Kyse and an all-male American crew were over the Azores speeding toward New York last night when two women among their 53 displaced person passengers from Munich were seized with labor pains.

A married man with no children, Kyse said he radioed for midwifery advice from Prestwick's medical officer. Meanwhile he headed for Prestwick and crowded the four motors for all they were worth.

"Our normal cruising speed is 200 miles per hour," Kyse said. "But we never dropped below 240. I was dead scared."

The C-54 touched down at Prestwick as Mrs. Sylvia Tellerman, a Polish DP, and Mrs. Elena Vaicys, 27, of Lithuania, were in the final stages of labor.

The fathers were out over the Atlantic today, continuing their journey to New York. After a quick visit to the hospital both decided to stay aboard the plane rather than risk a holdup in transportation arrangements.

BABY BORN IN ARMY PLANE OVER CALIFORNIA

LONG BEACH, Calif., June 13. Mrs. Jean Fish, 24, and the seven-pound boy she gave birth to in a plane over Los Angeles were reported in excellent condition today by Long Beach Naval hospital.

The young mother, wife of S/Sgt. Barney Fish of Muroc (Calif.) Air Force base, was attended in the aerial birth yesterday by Lt. Mary R. Foster, an Army nurse. The boy was the couple's fourth child.

The plane was flying at 6,000 feet when the baby arrived.

CHICAGO MEDICAL STUDENT AIDS WIFE IN CHILD BIRTH

CHICAGO, June 13. (U.P.)—Lawrence Elegant, 26-year-old junior medical student, decided today that maybe he should specialize in obstetrics.

His wife, Joan, 22, suddenly went into labor Saturday. There was no time to get to a hospital or to call a doctor. Elegant delivered a six-pound, 10 ounce girl.

Human bones can withstand a compressive stress of 23,000 pounds per square inch. That means they are one-fourth as strong as cast iron and twice as strong as hickory wood. It means people are tougher than we ordinarily think.

EAT PLENTY AND TAKE OFF UGLY FAT

When you buy Barcentrate, you buy a preparation for taking off weight. You do not pay for any printed diet or for vitamins to fortify you against weakness while on a starvation diet. You need never know a hungry moment while taking this preparation. Barcentrate is the original grapefruit juice recipe for weight reduction.

Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take just two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it.

Lost 56 pounds

Here is what Mrs. L. J. Bryant, P. O. Box 56, Whitewright, Texas, wrote us:

"I want to tell you what Barcentrate has done for me. I weighed 268 pounds when I started taking it. I now weigh 212.

"I have taken my dress size down from size 50 to 44 and never felt better in my life and everybody tells me how much nicer I look than I did.

"I am still taking Barcentrate as I want to get my weight down to 146 or 150 pounds."

Philippines Leader Believes Old 'Europe First' Policy Outmoded

By SIGRID ARNE
Associated Press Staff Writer

For several years Carlos Romulo of the Philippines has spoken for the yellow and brown people of the Far East.

He's done it at the United Nations, on platforms, in magazines.

He has always said, and now he repeats, the Far East does not want Communism. "They want," he said, "an end to colonialism and a chance to build the sort of comfort the western world enjoys."

But in the light of what is happening now in China he's afraid the western nations haven't caught the implications for the whole world.

Policy Believed Wrong

"The Communist sweep through China has tipped the world political scales heavily to the left—and we're in a world battle of ideas," he said.

"Maybe it was correct, in a military framework, to put Europe first. I think Communism has been stopped in Europe. But it's of minor importance now. The policy of 'Europe first' won't work any longer."

Asia still has no over-all plan to get together, to fight for one another—like the inter-American mutual aid treaty, or like the North Atlantic pact. There isn't even official talk of such a plan.

All Asia seems to be in revolt against colonial rulers. It was part of the magic of Japan's cry of "Asia for Asiatics."

Sees Balance Force

But does it mean an "Asian block" in world affairs that could line up 15 to 19 votes on all issues, as the Latin-Americans line up their votes? Such a bloc might even trade votes with other world blocs for personal advantage.

European colonial rulers have always dreaded the formation of an independent Asian bloc.

Romulo thinks Asia could be the life-saving "third force," a combination of powers which could referee the battle between Democracy and Communism, and perhaps prevent the battle of ideas from becoming a battle of guns.

He points out that the Asian Communists outside China have had rough sledding. They've had little luck in Burma, Thailand, the Philippines. In Indonesia, the Republicans, Romulo says, took time in their war with the Dutch to contain their own Communists.

Police Find Escaped Slayer Waiting For Bus In Eagle Pass

BROWNSVILLE, June 13 (AP)—Otis Fogle, slender and likeable escaped convict who lived here more than a year under an assumed name, is back behind bars.

The 28-year-old convicted slayer was recaptured Saturday afternoon as he sat on a bench in front of an Eagle Pass bus station—waiting for a hoped-for reunion with his wife.

Details of the arrest were disclosed today by Deputy Sheriff M. F. Stephenson, who said the pale, slim convict did not resist.

"I'm glad it's over," Fogle told Stephenson. "I'm tired of running. I have been too jumpy to eat or sleep."

Convict Seeks Wife

Fogle arrived in Eagle Pass Saturday morning on a bus from Del Rio. He told Stephenson his wife was due in Eagle Pass on a bus from Laredo that afternoon.

But, Stephenson said, the attractive Brownsville girl whom Fogle married under an assumed name did not show up in Eagle Pass.

Fogle escaped from the Huntsville State penitentiary in October of 1947 after serving 47 months of a 75-year sentence for the slaying of a negro taxicab driver at Austin.

He lived here for more than a year under the name of William Honea. He got a job with the telephone company and was well-liked by his fellow workers. The friendly, young man married an attractive Brownsville girl. She has claimed she knew nothing of his past.

Police Learn Identity

Late in April this year authorities learned of Fogle's true identity. But apparently Fogle found out authorities knew who he was, because the convicted slayer escaped two police traps.

Police said Fogle escaped into Mexico. An international manhunt was set up. Today Fogle confirmed he had escaped into Mexico—but didn't stay long. He said that he crossed one international bridge here and turned around and returned to Brownsville immediately on the other. This apparently threw officers off the track. Fogle took a bus out of town, headed north into Texas.

Use Of Secret Files In U.S. Espionage Trials Claimed Injurious To Innocent People, FBI

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, June 13—Some innocent people and the FBI will both suffer if secret FBI files continues to be made public.

A man accused of Communism now, when there's so much excitement about it, is smeared in the public mind and may be ruined.

The accusation of an informant in an FBI file, that a man is a Communist doesn't necessarily mean he is one or even that the FBI thinks he is.

He may or may not be. Some of the FBI information is true, some false. It's gathered in various ways.

All Information Filed

From regular FBI agents; secret undercover agents; and strangers who may be sane, crazy, bright, stupid, loyal or revengeful.

The FBI checks on Communism to prevent spying, smash conspiracies, and be ready for a nationwide crackdown in case of emergency.

All kinds of information, true or false, go into its files for immediate investigation or further reference, if needed.

While it remains secret, no one is hurt. But when it's thrown wide open the public can't tell what's true in this collection of truths, untruths, suspicions and accusations.

And that's when innocent people and the work of the FBI both get damaged. This is why:

Court Issues Order

At the trial of Judith Coplon, charged with spying for Russia, the judge ordered certain secret FBI information made public. The FBI said it had found it on her.

The judge did this to give her a fair trial so the jury wouldn't have to act on hearsay. Neither the FBI nor the government prosecutors want this information exposed. But the prosecutors yielded.

Why did they? It was either do it or drop the case against Miss Coplon. Why didn't they drop it, then? Maybe because they feared this would encourage would-be spies to go ahead in the belief that any time secret information was involved the government would be unable to prosecute.

The files were opened and out tumbled the names of many people, not connected with Miss Coplon at all but accused of Communism. They made denials. But now they're linked in the public mind with Communism.

FBI Work Suffers

If, using this as a precedent, judges in future government trials order secret FBI files made public, innocent people are bound to suffer. Why? For the reasons given above.

And, in the Coplon case, the work of the FBI suffered a blow. Undercover agents were exposed, not by their right names but by code names.

But, some of their information was so intimate that the accused people now must know it could have come mainly from so-and-so, even though he's disguised in the files under a code name.

Thus the usefulness of some of those agents is destroyed. And, in cases where they had true or dangerous information, this exposure may endanger their lives.

Exposure Hurts Agents

The FBI badly needs undercover workers but this exposure may discourage others from secret FBI work, and a repetition of what happened in the Coplon case certainly would.

This creates a dilemma all around. Should the FBI publicly clear innocent people, named in their files but publicly exposed as accused of Communism? If the FBI clears some but not others, its silence about those others really indicts them.

Yet, if an accused person on trial is to get full justice, all the information involved in his case should be made public to the jury. Otherwise, does the government have any right to try to bring him to trial?

Fort Worth Opens Move To Spray City In Anti-Polio Fight

FORT WORTH, June 13. (U.P.)—Fort Worth today took the first step in a move to spray the city by air in the fight against polio, but it may be some time yet before the job is started.

City officials said Air Force planes were desired for the aerial spraying job. In order to obtain the planes, the city must ask the state health officer for permission to use Air Force planes on the job.

The state health officer relays the request to the governor, who passes it on to Washington, where the Air Force makes its decision. The answer comes back through the same channels.

The first step—asking the state health officer—will be taken today, city health officials said.

Testimony Begins In Damage Action Here

Testimony commenced Monday after selection of a jury will be resumed this morning in the 99th court damages action of M. G. Abernathy and wife against Decorator's studio and others. The plaintiff rested late Monday.

Counsel said the Abernathys seek $597.55, an amount they alleged in their petition would be necessary to restoration of two buildings, at 1302 Ave. N and 1509 Thirteenth, to the condition they were in when leased to Mrs. Fredda Hunt Carle and her husband James and Alma Lockhart Edwards and her husband Alton P. parties defendant.

The suit was filed Jan. 3, 1947. The law firm of Berry and Ball represent the Abernathys. Robert J. Allen, of the law firm of Boling, Smith and Allen, is counsel for the defense.

The jury is composed of Glenn Bates, M. B. Tudor, C. H. Scales, T. C. Scott, V. T. Brady, J. R. Caldwell, W. J. Culp, C. C. McQueen, Donovan L. Stafford, C. R. Givens, U. U. Clark, and F. F. Hendley. District Judge G. V. Pardue is presiding.

Head Of Corpus Christi Fishing Business Dies Of Heart Attack

CORPUS CHRISTI, June 13 (AP)—John Mircovich, 92, widely known in the Gulf Coast areas as "two brothers," died yesterday of a heart attack.

Mircovich was a native of Long Island, Yugoslavia. He came to this country 78 years ago and to Corpus Christi 10 years later.

With his brother, Mateo, he built a schooner and founded a fishing business. The two became known as the "two fishing brothers from Yugoslavia" and John retained the nickname "two brothers" after Mateo's death.

He built up a small fortune from fishing, grocery and restaurant interests and had extensive property holdings in Corpus Christi, Beeville and Ingleside.

Funeral services were to be held this afternoon.

Texas Builders Urged To Go To Oklahoma City Meeting

PAMPA, June 13. (AP)—R. G. Hughes, Panhandle builder, urged Texas builders and lumbermen today to attend a builders meeting in Oklahoma City this coming Friday and Saturday.

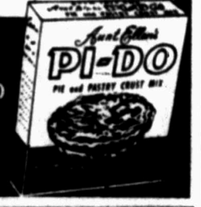

Hughes is vice president of District XI of the National Association of Home Builders. The Oklahoma City meeting will be that of the Southern Division of the association. It takes in Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi and Oklahoma.

HIGHWAY 87:

An Important Route

LUBBOCK and the South Plains have an important stake in trying to stimulate interest in the International 87 Highway association convention to be held next Friday and Saturday in Lethbridge, Canada.

The association has undertaken the ambitious job of attempting to obtain official designation of the route as the U.S. connecting link in the road from Alaska almost to Central America. This road when completed, will extend to the southern tip of South America.

Whether the association will succeed in this purpose is doubtful because of the competition for such designation. But Highway 87 offers several advantages which logically should make it one of the most heavily traveled motor routes between Northern Canada and the start of the Mexico segment at Nuevo Laredo. It is the shortest in distance across the U.S. and follows the most level terrain of any connecting link in the Pan-American route. Properly publicized, the highway could become productive of substantial revenue, chiefly from tourists.

This, does not suggest that the development of Highway 87 is Lubbock's most important highway needs. Better roads are needed into the northeast South Plains to provide faster and more convenient access into Lubbock for farmers and ranchers, many of whom now travel longer distances to Fort Worth and Oklahoma markets. More aggressive support of the Carlsbad cavern highway into Oklahoma, the short East-West transcontinental route which crosses the Mississippi river at Greenville, Miss., and several others might pay dividends.

But Highway 87 could be developed into an asset of considerable value and it is encouraging that Lubbock will be well represented at the approaching Lethbridge convention.

Who's Worrying?

A GREAT many crocodile tears have been shed of late because the names of some Hollywood movie people have been brought into the trial of Judith Coplon a former government employe charged with spying for Russia.

Names of these people were interjected into the trial by agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, witnesses in the case. Naturally, the FBI men would not divulge the names of the undercover agents who reported the movie people as being (1) Communists, or (2) Communist sympathizers. Then the "Weeping Willies" and "Bawling Bettys" began screaming that "it ain't fair to charge someone with Communist affiliation or leaning, unless the names of informants are given."

Well, our answer to this is two-fold: The FBI that did such a great job safeguarding our wartime rail yards, our power plants and all the rest of our essential points against enemy espionage is the same FBI that gathered the information on the movie Communists and Communist sympathizers; and,

None of the many known movie patriots—like Adolphe Menjou, Darrell Zanuck, Bing Crosby, and Bob Hope—were brought into the trial. Instead, only those whose previous intonations had marked them as questionable.

It's not surprising to anyone that people who howl the loudest about their names being linked with subversive activities are those whose words and actions have first made them suspect.

It is not surprising to anyone that citizens whose record and associations proves them to be good Americans are never charged with being something else.

Hollywood people, and others, who don't want the slime of Communism showing on their garments should stay out of the pigpens where Communists thrive. If they don't want to be suspected of being Communists, or Communist sympathizers, then they should conduct themselves in such a way as not to attract suspicion.

We lose no time weeping over people who, by their actions and words, ask for suspicion of their loyalties.

We don't believe many others do, either.

The congregation of the Dutch Reformed Church at Delportshoop, South Africa, called on the Prime Minister to introduce legislation forbidding any kind of experiments with artificial rainmaking, as it "militates against the principles of the word of God."

O Long May It Wave

Island Of Escape

By HUGH LAWRENCE NELSON
Disributed By NEA Service, Inc.

(THE STORY: Eight persons who came willingly or unwillingly to Speare Island to lead a new life now are trapped there. Fire has destroyed the home of eccentric Henry Gough Harding. A dynamite blast has covered the stores and food with debris. Furthermore there is a murderer in their midst who killed Lilly Warren, and who may have slain the mate of a fishing boat who is believed to have started the fire and dynamited the house. Next, George Bascombe picks up the rifle found by the fisherman's body, and declares himself "king" of the island. Mollie Stark, with whom Harding is infatuated, goes with him as "queen.")

XXXI

BEA stooped, picked up the rifle cartridge George had ejected. She looked around, saw nothing else. She and Nona left the small depression where the mate of the Simpactico had died.

"What'd you pick up?" Nona demanded.

Bea showed her, watched her face intently. Nona showed no interest.

Nona followed silently, stood and watched while Miss Cosgrove poked around the charred and twisted wreckage. She smiled when Bea unearthed a small ax with scorched handle but serviceable blade. "Protection against George?" she jeered.

"No," Bea said. "We're supposed to find a sheep. Find food. I don't feel strong enough to tear one limb from limb with my bare hands."

"And I don't feel strong enough to eat one raw."

"You don't think George'll give us fire?"

"I don't know what George'll do. Not after this morning. It's a funny thing. Ever since he got out of the service, I've been at him to do something. Show some ambition. Strike out for himself. Well, I suppose I should be pleased. He followed my advice didn't he?"

"How do you feel about his taking Mollie along?"

"I'm glad he did," Nona McGuire said slowly. At least I think I'm glad. It may make up for some of the things I've done."

They had reached the ruined sheepfold. Bea Cosgrove stared at the huddled animal bodies. Fire, fright, or concussion, the reason for their death did not matter. She tried to count them.

"If it hadn't been for Fred, it'd been some other man," Nona said. "But why couldn't I have met George first? But I met George afterward, of course. I didn't have anything more to do with Fred. Not that he cared. George and Fred were friends even then."

"Friends?" Bea asked.

"Oh yes. It was before the war and I was 17. I wrote to George while he was away. They wouldn't take Fred. So George finally came back. To Fred and to me. He said he wanted to marry me. I told George I wouldn't."

"Did you tell him why?"

"I told him why. I didn't tell him who. I never thought he knew, until this morning. He'd have shot Fred if he'd moved. And I knew something about myself then too. I want Fred dead. Maybe it could be buried and forgotten then."

• • •

BEA COSGROVE stopped walking. The fire had spared a part of the grass on this end of the island, or the rains had quenched it. Four sheep stood together, making eating motions. As she watched one of them broke from the others, ran to the edge of the cliff and disappeared silently.

"Let's go back," Bea said. "There's meat enough in the pen."

"What're you going to do?" Nona asked.

"What's necessary," Bea said grimly. "You might have a better appetite later if you didn't watch." She tightened her hold on the ax, swallowed quickly, and pulled one of the bodies free of the pile.

The islanders collected two battered buckets, one of which held water, four scorched and sodden blankets, and a half of two cot mattresses from the hut George and Fred had occupied. There were no changes of clothes.

On the other hand, there was a large assortment of tools and plenty of planks. Mabel Jones and Harding had little trouble constructing a shelter in the angle of the veranda steps and the part of ruined wall.

Henry Harding had prepared kindling, whittled from the dry inside of pine boards, and was trying to get a spark by striking steel against various kinds of stone. Mabel Jones had hacked away at the mutton with Harding's pocket knife and had some in the good bucket with added rainwater, waiting for the fire to make a sort of stew.

AGNES FIRTH returned from the lower storeroom on the verge of tears. "It's so maddening when you know there's food down under all that rock," she complained. She looked around suddenly. "Where's Mr. Sillwell? He left me! He went on ahead with the peaches!"

Nona McGuire said wearily, "You shouldn't have trusted him, Aggie. He's probably down making a trade. And I don't think the rest of us will get either peaches or whiskey from the deal. I know George likes peaches."

"B-but they were all we found! They were for all of us!" Miss Firth said. She sat down on the soggy edge of a mattress out of the rain.

Bea Cosgrove stood up. "We've got to have a fire. I'll go and try to get a match or a piece of burning wood. I don't think George'll shoot. He's had a chance to think it over now. Cool off."

No one made any suggestion, no one tried to dissuade her. Once again she went over the ground around the saucer depression.

A shout and a clatter of rock brought her attention to a hurrying, bent-over figure on the trail to the cave. A little streamer of smoke whipped out behind Fred Silliwell. Smoke from the smoldering pieces of two by four he carried.

Looking At Life - - By Erich Brandeis

ISN'T life the craziest darn thing?

Will any one of us ever be able to understand what it is all about?

Here I was in the midst of that almost unbelievable Cinderella story of Rita Hayworth's marriage to the Ali Khan.

BRANDEIS

Here was a dream come true.

No, it was more than a dream come true.

Eduardo Cansino, her father, and his wife, Volga, never dared to dream that their daughter would some day become a princess; would some day live in a palace; would some day be showered with diamonds and rubies; would some day have more money, more glamour, more fame than any parents ever dared to dream for their child.

Here was everything that any little girl or any big girl could ever wish for herself upon a star.

Here was the epitome of life. Here was everything that all the fairies together could possibly bestow upon a human being.

I was reading that story and looking at the pictures, when my telephone rang.

It was a friend who had just heard the news on the radio.

"Bob Ripley is dead," he said.

I couldn't believe it.

Hadn't I seen him on television only the other night?

Hadn't I had dinner with him just a couple of weeks ago?

Hadn't he been the picture of health and happiness?

Hadn't he laughed and joked and told us all about his plans for the summer? The trips on his bizarre Chinese junk? The journeys to faraway countries he was going to take soon to get new material for his famous "Believe It Or Not" feature?

Fifty-five years old. Full of life and plans and hopes.

A few days later, on the very day on which Rita Hayworth reached the pinnacle of her career —dead.

A strange coincidence.

Two people who come out of nowhere.

Two people who were living proof that there are unlimited opportunities in this country of ours.

Two people who made front page news on the same day, but news which was about as contrasting as any news can possibly be.

I have been trying to figure it out.

What is this thing called Life?

What is its aim, its purpose?

What is the why and wherefore of the human being on this earth?

I SHALL never be able to give you the answer.

But I know this: Both Rita and Bob came to their fame because they gave service to the world.

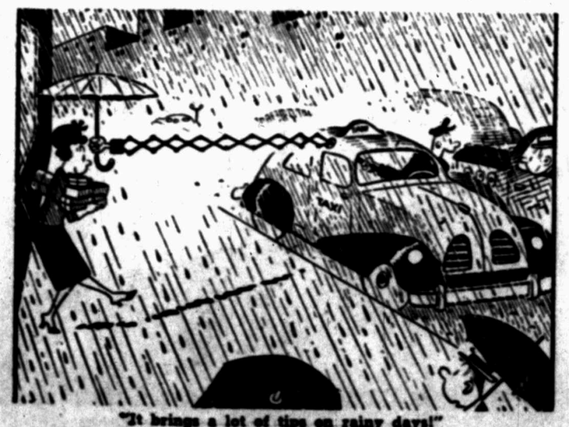

Pleasure, laughter, romance, beauty—those are service just as much as the greatest invention or the most important discovery.

We cannot all be a Princess Rita of a "Bob" Ripley. But each of us can give service in our way. If we cannot give it to the millions, let us give it to the few.

Let us be happy while life lasts, and make others happy.

Let us not worry or brood or try to answer the unanswerable questions — whence? Whither? Why?

FOREIGN AID PROGRAM

Oil Market Threat

By RAY TUCKER
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON:—The loss of foreign markets which furnish a large percentage of the American petroleum industry's profits will result directly from the operation of the Marshall Plan, according to official admissions by spokesmen for the State Department, the British Embassy here and ECA.

Had this paradoxical situation been known to members from oil-producing states, it is doubtful if Senators and Representatives from those areas, including Chairman Tom Connally of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, would have voted for the full appropriation for Paul Hoffman's agency.

Together with British dependencies' inroads on foreign cotton markets once open to Texas growers, the new oil threat accounts for Mr. Connally's growing skepticism toward various phases of the North Atlantic Pact, and especially the plan to implement it with American arms.

TUCKER

It is now fairly definite that the $1,130,000,000 for providing weapons for Marshall Plan beneficiaries will not be forthcoming at this session, if ever.

Mr. Connally has also agreed to partial weakening of the effect of the North Atlantic document by bowing to the demand of Senator Walter George of Georgia, another cotton state, that this country shall not go to war under North Atlantic commitments without prior approval by Congress.

BARTER: Even sympathizers with the anti-Communist program of strengthening Western European nations, including diplomats, ECA officials and Capitol Hill politicians, are amazed at the brazen nature of Britain's plan to use Marshall Plan dollars to take over South American, Italian and Swedish markets hitherto supplied by American petroleum interests.

With these American funds, England is increasing her refinery capacity in Britain, in Venezuela, and in the Dutch Ea.. Indies and in the Middle East. She will then be able to process oil from her Middle East friends, and lay it down throughout the world at a cheaper price than American firms. She will also enter the barter business, as she did in her recent agreement with Argentina, under which she will take wheat and meat for petroleum.

American oil men say that they can compete with the foreign oil companies on even terms, even though the latter are backed by the British Foreign Office. The Atlee-Bevin government virtually controls all English oil firms and may soon nationalize them. Every Downing Street diplomat is an oil salesman, wherever he happens to be stationed.

But Oklahoma, Texas, California and Louisiana petroleum producers admit that they cannot hold their foreign markets when they have to combat the American State Department and the ECA.

CASH: To be honest, England makes no secret of her plan to grab many of our foreign markets, and also to invade our domestic field. Within the last few weeks, she has opened up four trade consulates in the U. S. The main office is in New York City, and the man in charge there is one of Britain's leading oil men.

"And he didn't come here to sell panties or lollipops!" exploded an American petroleum spokesman.

Under this same program of increasing their refinery capacity with Marshall Plan dollars, the British intend to take over the Swedish and Italian markets from us.

Stockholm and Rome cannot fork over dollars in payment, but Uncle Sam will contribute hard American cash so that their soft currency can be converted into dollars.

LOAN: American oilmen derive some solace, however, from the fact that the Administration apparently intends to reject Mexican petroleum interests' request for a $200,000,000 loan to tap new fields below the border. They had thought that the skids for this subsidy had been greased because "Ed" Pauley, President Truman's close friend, had a finger in this juicy pie.

But the State Department looks rather coldly on this proposition. It may permit the Export-Import Bank to lend a few millions, perhaps fifty, to ease the Mexicans down gently, and to enable Mexico to save face.

It would be difficult to negate the application flatly, in view of the way in which we are building up our British rivals. It would be a blow at the "good neighbor" policy.

Mr. Truman, however, has become irritated at frequent charges that he is running the government "by crony," an ironic reference to the fact that in several instances he has tried to advantage his old political friends —Mr. Pauley, Mon C. Wallgren, Midwest politicians like Francis Patrick Matthews, etc. So, it looks as if he will refuse to finance the Mexican adventure.

CHOICE: John L. Lewis recently gave A.F. of L. President William Green the choice of uniting the three squabbling labor organizations into a "solid" front or high-tailing along with President Truman, the mortal enemy of the president of the United Mine Workers. Mr. Green chose to stick with the White House, in view of past and expected favors from a Democratic Administration.

Although John L. regards his old friend, Mr. Green, as a "weak and feeble" sister, he invited the A.F. of L. head to lunch after the house fight on repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act. The Green-Murray forces had approved the White House compromise known as the Sims amendment (it was defeated by only three votes) which contained many provisions that John L. will never accept.

Down Memory Lane

(Taken from the files of The Lubbock Morning Avalanche, June 14, 1929.)

Progressive bunco was played Wednesday afternoon by members of the First Presbyterian Happy Workers class at a party given by the teacher, Mrs. R. C. Harvey, in her home at 2612 Twenty-first street. Refreshments were served after the games.

Guests included Eleanor Hodges, Kathryn Barr, Emily Davis, Frances McKee, Ruby Green, Tommie Jo Pence, Helen P. Chase, Helen Cobb, Jean Ory Eaton, and Katherine Leidigh.

A review and history of the achievements was discussed at the regular weekly luncheon of the Kiwanis club Thursday noon when the seventh birthday of the organization in this city was celebrated.

Dr. R. B. Hutchinson, first president of the club, was in charge of the program and made a short talk on the infancy of the club. Dr. R. T. Canon was next called upon, and he in turn presented Dr. Jack Lewis, who gave a brief history of the club in Lubbock.

Several vocal selections by Miss Nell Parmley, accompanied by Mrs. Mamie I. Neal, followed this talk. S. C. Wilson, one of the early members of the club, gave a brief review of the accomplishments of the club.

At the close of the program, Miss Margaret Halsell favored the group with a violin solo.

Dr. Jack Lewis, after motion by Judge Clark M. Mullican, was appointed to compile a history of the organization so that it can be handed down through the years by the various members.

RURAL AREAS BLOCK CIO PLANS

Labor Faces Test In Michigan

By THOMAS L. STOKES
Special Correspondent

DETROIT.—Labor is stronger politically in Michigan than in any other state because of the numerous and aggressive—if still in some respects immature and unstable—CIO United Automobile Workers of America—the restless legions of Walter Reuther.

It reached the climax thus far in a gradual build-up politically in Michigan with the election last November of a governor of the newer generation, young G. Mennen Williams, known as "Soapy" from his connection with the Mennen shaving soap family and fortune, in which he is the heir. The CIO is very influential in the young executive's councils, and so is the more refined and elite ADA, Americans for Democratic Action, which gives some indication of the somewhat rarified and idealistic atmosphere of the new regime.

STOKES

Governor Has Troubles

It offers an interesting example, on the state level, of the newest fashion in our changing American politics, which is the attempt of a labor-progressive combination to absorb the Democratic party as the best vehicle to attain its aims. This state provides a good proving ground, not only because of labor's concentrated strength here, but also because the Democratic party in this state has been a weak sort of makeshift.

Events thus far have demonstrated, however, that management of the affairs of a state with such a combination is much harder than winning an election with the same lineup.

For young Mr. Williams has bumped his head smartly against some very unpleasant realities. They are embodied in [illegible] and small town hardheads who have little fancy for new modes in politics, economics or ideals—or for the big city which is Detroit—and elected an overwhelmingly Republican legislature which nonchalantly refused to take any of the governor's social reform program and botched up his budget.

It was a program in the New Deal tradition — self-liquidating housing on a big scale; a state FEPC; increased accident compensation for workers; a tax on corporations to replace the sales tax; a public defender to represent consumers in utility rate increase cases; repeal of the state's "little Taft-Hartley" labor regulatory law.

This, as can be seen, is a program that springs from the aspirations of labor and other city folks. Such aspirations are in sharp contrast with the conservatism in other parts of the state, which weighs preponderantly with the legislature because of the gerrymandering in favor of rural and small town constituencies here as in other states. Of the Democratic minority in the House of Representatives, 26 of the 29 come from Wayne county, in which Detroit is located. There are 61 Republicans in the House. Seven of the nine Democrats in the Senate, in which there are 21 Republicans, are from Wayne county. There is thus negligible Democratic strength from outstate.

Such a situation requires political finesse of a rare order. This the young governor lacks yet, though he may acquire it. He is a political novice. The giant newcomer—he stands six feet-four—does, however, have other qualities useful in politics: the personal charm of a rugged young man with a casual, easy and friendly manner; a fine intellect of the scholarly sort polished at Princeton and disciplined in law at the University of Michigan; an abounding physical energy that kept him going day after day in a hamlet-to-hamlet campaign; an attractive and dynamic wife who is avidly interested in politics and her husband's career and is perhaps more to the left than he. She comes from the wealthy, conservative Republican Quirk family which established itself at Ypsilanti a century ago.

Served With Government

Governor Williams symbolizes the wealthy and intelligent young man who seeks a career in politics, which is less common in our country than England, for example. His experience has been in the more cloistered administrative sphere rather than the realm of practical politics. He got an indoctrination in the New Deal in Washington where he had a tour of duty as an assistant and protege of Attorney General Frank Murphy, former governor of Michigan and now Supreme court justice.

Young Williams is somewhat in the tradition of the Frank Roosevelts, elder and junior, but the elder Roosevelt had considerably more success with the Republican legislatures with which he was constantly saddled while governor of New York—which suggests an omission in the Michigan case that will have to be repaired by the young man probably as he goes further. It is his intention, seemingly, and that of his CIO-ADA lieutenants, that he shall go further, but he must be re-elected governor next year if he does.

CONQUERORS DO WORRYING

Only Germans Are Optimistic As East, West Seek Supremacy

By HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

BERLIN, June 13.—Here in defeated Germany is the world capital of postwar optimism.

There is uneasiness in Washington, Paris, London and Moscow. There appears to be less uneasiness here.

The biggest single impression a postwar visitor gets now is that the defeated are not so worried today as their conquerors. They see better times.

For the current international tug-of-peace over the fate of his country has given back the average German something he lost when his nation collapsed in military and political chaos in 1945.

Keystone Of Fear

He has regained a feeling of importance, the thing the German likes best. He has the knowledge that here where East and West once met in victory they now meet in mutual fear. And he knows that he is the keystone of that fear.

He is enjoying the odd pleasure of being courted from two directions simultaneously instead of having to fight simultaneously in two directions.

And this is a flattering gift of peace indeed to a nation that in a single generation lost two war bids for world dominance because it got itself in the classic military dilemma—having to fight fore and aft at the same time.

Three years ago, when I last came here, the victors' prevailing philosphy, left over from wartime unity, was:

"Germany is trying to divide the Allies—split them into two camps." Today the underlying feeling appears to be:

"We must win the Germans to our side."

No longer do the conquerors say they can't afford to let themselves be divided by the vanquished. Tacitly accepting that division now, they court the conquered. In defeat Germany is today more united than the nations who whipped her.

For she knows what she wants. She wants to be Germany again.

In a way, Germany is on the auction block. But who can buy her? The muscular military power of Russia, the old neighbor enemy to the east? Or the strong boy of the western world—America?

Probably neither can do so permanently.

Alabama Officials In Bitter Attack Against Gang Of Hooded Men

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., June 13. (U.P.)—State officials today blasted a gang of hooded men who threatened a 42-year-old grandmother here Friday night and promised to "push the investigation till we find out who is guilty."

Attorney General A. A. McArmichael branded as "bums, hoodlums and cutthroats, otherwise known as the Ku Klux Klan," the mob which terrorized Mrs. Hugh McDanal at her home here.

And Public Safety Director Bankhead Bates sent state officers here to investigate the incident, saying that local officials apparently are "unable to cope with the situation."

"We will push this investigation until we find out who is guilty," Bates promised.

Mrs. McDanal said about 100 masked men paid her a midnight visit, burned a cross in her yard, beat and threatened her after accusing her of "dancing in the nude, running an immoral house and selling whisky."

She denied all the charges.

In Montgomery, Public Safety Director Bates said he sent investigators here and promised to bring the incident before a grand jury "if we get information we can use to indict anyone."

McArmichael confirmed that state authorities were investigating the situation.

"These bums, hoodlums and cutthroats, otherwise known as the Ku Klux Klan, are on the prowl again," the attorney general said, "and I hope at least some of the Ku Klux thugs will be caught and convicted."

Army Sentences Recruits Freed By Czechs To Six Months In Jail

STUTTGART, Germany, June 13 (U.P.)—The Army announced today that two recruits released recently by Czechoslovakia after serving prison terms as "spies" had been sentenced to six months in jail by a court martial for being absent without leave.

Recruits George Jones of Owensboro, Ky., and Clarence R. Hill of Pampa, Tex., will be given bad conduct discharges when they finish their terms, the Army said.

The sentences are subject to review by higher authorities. The men were AWOL when they were picked up in Czechoslovakia.

Dallas Man Drowns, Wife Hurt As Auto Plunges Into Creek

DALLAS, June 13 (AP)—A 34-year-old Dallas man drowned and his wife was injured today when their car plunged through a railing over Turtle creek here.

The man, Leon Pratt, was trapped inside his car. A passerby said Mrs. Pratt struggled out of the car while it still was in the air.

Texas Osteopathic Group To Move Offices To Fort Worth

FORT WORTH, June 13. (AP)—The Texas Association of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons will move its headquarters from Austin to Fort Worth on Aug. 1, and Dr. Phil R. Russell of Fort Worth will serve as executive secretary.

The action was announced today after a meeting yesterday of state association officials.

Men Freed By 'Legal Error' Are Hunted

DENVER, June 13. (INS)—A statewide dragnet was thrown out today for ten prisoners who gained freedom from the Colorado penitentiary on what was described as a "legal error."

Colorado Attorney General John W. Metzger ordered the convicts arrested as "escaped prisoners" though each of them was released by a district court order.

The Colorado supreme court ruled last January that a man cashing a short check is not guilty of confidence game.

10 Are Released

The ruling apparently classified all similar offenses as a misdemeanor and not a felony, which would mean all such convictions were illegal.

The ten immediately sought court action and were released.

Metzger, however, obtained a writ of prohibition against the district court, stopping release of some 20 additional prisoners and canceling the brief liberty of the others.

State supreme court Justice E. V. Holland, in today's clarifying decision, said, in effect, each short check case must be considered on its own merit to determine where confidence game is involved.

NATION STILL IN RED

Bookkeeping Switch May Keep Government Figures In Black

WASHINGTON, June 13. (U.P.)—The federal government is certain to wind up the fiscal year June 30 deep in the red, but Treasury figures may show a surplus. It's all because of a $3,000,000,000 bookkeeping switch a year ago. The switch has been variously called phony bookkeeping, party politics and good business. Here is what happened:

Last spring, when the Treasury was carrying an $8,000,000,000 surplus on its books, the Republican 80th Congress voted to transfer $3,000,000,000 to the Foreign Economic Co-operation trust fund for future use. The money was to be spent during the 1949 fiscal year, which ends this month, but the transfer was made a few days before the 1948 fiscal year ended and was carried on the books as a 1948 expenditure.

Reasons Are Given

Various reasons were ascribed to the Republican action. Some said Republicans wanted to cover up any loss to the Treasury because of income tax reductions. Others said they wanted the next President, who they assumed would be a Republican, to benefit by an extra $3,000,000,000 which would not be counted in with the 1949 expenditures.

The fact that President Truman was re-elected has not altered the effect of the switch.

The latest Treasury statements show a surplus of about $817,000,000. If the $3,000,000,000 ECA money were included in expenditures, the statement would show a deficit of $2,183,000,000. That is the amount by which actual payments by the government have exceeded income this year.

This is the figure that compares with Mr. Truman's estimate that the government will be $600,000,000 in the red on June 30. If the balance did not change between now and June 30, Mr. Truman would be that far off in his estimate.

No one expects it to remain the same, however. Quarterly income tax collections, due the government June 15, will add more money to the till, so government is sticking by its $600,000,000 deficit estimate.

Unofficial estimates from other quarters have ranged beyond $1,000,000,000. But guessing the outcome is dangerous business. Last-minute payments may boost the deficit beyond all expectations, and the June 15 tax returns may reduce it. The best advice from the Treasury is to wait until the statement for June 30 is issued.

Services Scheduled Tuesday For Father Of Lubbock Man

JAYTON, June 13. (Special)—Funeral services for M. O. Pugh, 76, retired farmer who died early Monday in his residence here, will be held at 10 a.m. Tuesday in the Methodist church.

Rev. George Bryant, pastor of the Lorenzo Methodist church, is to officiate.

The body will be taken to Greenville for burial there at 10 a.m. Wednesday, Rix Funeral home of Lubbock reported.

Pugh, a South Plains resident 24 years, died after an illness of several months.

Survivors include the wife; a son, H. B. Pugh of Jayton; five brothers, E. H. Pugh of Lubbock, J. T. Pugh of Levelland, C. F. Pugh of Fort Worth, and L. H. and J. R. Pugh, both of Greenville; three grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Pallbearers will be Dallas Kenady, D. W. Cave, Travis Smith, John Harrison, Ben Boland and John M. Johnston.

Funeral Services To Be Held Here Today For Jo Ann Irwin

Last rites for Jo Ann Irwin, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Irwin of 3105 Walnut will be conducted at 3 p.m. today in St. John's Methodist church.

Rev. Hubert Bratcher, pastor, will officiate.

Burial will be in Tech Memorial park, under direction of Plains Funeral home.

Miss Irwin, who had been ill several years, died Sunday evening in Lubbock Memorial hospital.

Survivors include the parents; three sisters, Montie Bell, Wilta Joice and Mery Elisabeth Irwin; a brother, Wilton Royce Irwin; and maternal grandmother, Mrs. Maude Meddley, and the parental grandmother, Mrs. Montrey Irwin, both of Lubbock.

Sheriff, Constable 'Race' In Raids On Harris Gaming Spots

HOUSTON, June 13. (U.P.)—Houston bookies and gaming room operators were having "double trouble" today as Sheriff Buster Kern and cowboy constable Dale Richardson battled for prestige.

Richardson, a rough-and-ready officer from suburban La Porte, began an all-out, one-man war against gambling in Houston several weeks ago, but Kern jumped into the game Saturday.

He and 35 deputies swooped down on headquarters for the racetrack wire services that supplied bookies with race results, struck other spots, and tore down wires from telephone poles while pedestrians looked on in bewildered amazement. More than 75 persons were arrested for gaming.

The commando-like raids brought Richardson into action. He broke up a bingo game, grinned at unprintable remarks from women players, and destroyed six pinball machines with his axe.

G. N. Larkin, 31, was charged before Justice Thomas I. Decker with gaming.

Richardson, wearing his 10-gallon, "Red Ryder," hat, broke up the marble machines at four places on Harrisburg Blvd. in northeast Houston. He attacked the pinball machines with such force that he broke his axe. He and two negro assistants seized two punchboards.

The cowboy constable took little note of Kern's raids, the first by a sheriff's department here in 25 years.

Lubbock Man Scores 'First' With Bus Trip Up Pikes Peak

A Lubbock man recently gained the fame of being the only person to drive a large passenger bus clear to the top of Pikes Peak in Colorado.

J. Weldon Bennett, grade school principal at the Frenship schools, was the driver of the school's 48 passenger bus when it ascended the peak during a recent trip taken by the Frenship senior class. There were 22 students on the bus when it made the trip.

Ballot Delivery Bill Is Signed Into Law

AUSTIN, June 13. (AP)—Immediate delivery of ballots to county officials after completion of the vote count in an election became the law today.

Gov. Beauford H. Jester signed the bill by Rep. William R. Stump of Georgetown providing the speed-up of official returns. The bill also states that second primaries in county and precinct races shall be held.

Other Bills Okayed

Other bills which became effective today with the governors signature included:

By Senator Hill Hudson of Pecos authorizing the board of regents of the University of Texas to fix the terms of all surface leases on university lands but specifying that grazing leases are to be limited to 10 years.

By Senator Jimmy Phillips of Angleton clarifying the firemen's relief and retirement act so as to provide that persons who have 20 years or more service in regular organized fire departments shall be eligible for benefits.

Swiss watchmakers now turn out around 22,000,000 watchworks a year, one-third of which are sold in the United States.

Body Of Texan Rifled In Crash To Be Returned From Mexico

MEXICO CITY, June 13. (AP)—The body of Douglas J. Cameron, 24, will be returned to McAllen, tomorrow, probably by plane, the Foot and Mouth Disease commission said.

Cameron was injured fatally Friday night when the jeep he was driving skidded off the road and turned over. The accident occurred on the Guadalajara highway about 100 miles west of here. He died at the Zitachuaro hospital, Michoacan state.

He was a livestock inspector with the commission, based at Zamora, Michoacan. His father, Murdock C. Cameron, lives at route 1, Pharr, Tex.

A fellow employe of the commission, E. W. Hupp, 28, Overbrook, Kan., was with Cameron at the time of the accident. He escaped with minor injuries.

Nation's Best-Paid Corporation Employe Receives $810,000

WASHINGTON, June 13. (AP) A new treasury list shows America's best paid corporation employe in 1947 (or fiscal years spilling over into 1948) got $810,000—$175,000 less than he got to be No. 1 the previous year. The list showed salaries as they stood before payment of heavy taxes.

The top man, and it's his third straight year as such, is greek-born Charles P. Skouras, president of National Theaters Amusement Co., Inc., and of Fox West Coast Agency Corp.

The top salaried woman for 1947 was a movie star Betty Grable, although the $208,000 listed for her was a $91,333 comedown from her earnings the previous year.
