Palestine Bank Robbery Solved With Arrest of Cashier

MONEY IS FOUND; 2
CHARGED

Cousin of Official Admits Taking
$8,427

PALESTINE, Nov. 19. (UP)— Authorities today said they had obtained a statement from J. Howard Wingate, 21, admitting robbing the Palestine National bank here of $8-427 yesterday.

The statement implicated his cousin, Porter Cooper, bank cashier. Both were in jail.

Officers were seeking a third man and the stolen money.

Three men and two women in the bank yesterday during the robbery identified Wingate as the bandit.

They said he also resembled one of the bandits who robbed the bank of $7,000 last March.

Accusations Made
Wingate and Cooper accused each other of double-crossing when they were questioned together in the district attorney's office.

When state aid authorities in Milwaukee, Wis., wanted to buy a pair of shoes for Harry Plosky, 20, shown above, he could get work to support his widowed mother, they had to have them made to order. He wears size 18 1/2, and his shoes weigh six pounds.

Bandits Eat But
Fire Routs Them
In Bank Attempt

RINGLING, Okla., Nov. 19. (UP)
Five masked bandits were frustrated today in an attempt to rob the First National bank here.

The men were waiting when the bank president, W. W. Woodworth, returned home from a party last night. They forced Mrs. Woodworth to prepare a meal for them, then sat down at the table talking for an hour.

This morning they took the key from Woodworth and went to the bank. Gunfire from a nightwatchman routed them.

ULMER LECTURES
ROTARY CLUB ON BUSINESS STATUS

Declaring that although prosperity had not definitely returned, conditions had taken a decided change for the better, M. C. Ulmer, Midland banker, gave a practical address on present day economics before the Rotary club today. Ulmer said that this section of the country was later in feeling the depression and might be longer in feeling the return of prosperity.

He predicted that the return would be so gradual that it would not immediately be noticed.

The speaker urged common sense, courage and reliance upon omnipotent guidance in bringing back better times.

DRIVE IS UNDER WAY

Committees Report a Good Response to Vital Need

Fifty-eight women of Midland started work at 9:30 Thursday morning enrolling Midland in the Red Cross.

The eight captains and all team workers met with the general chairman, W. Ily Pratt, Thursday morning on the mezzanine floor of Hotel Scharbauer and within 30 minutes were at work signing members.

Preliminary reports showed the campaign going strong. People apparently were glad to join the Red Cross because practically all they pay remains in Midland for welfare work. Subscriptions were good in most cases. Only people of limited means were limiting their payments to $1 each; everybody able to pay more did so, in most instances.

The workers reported that Midland people seemed to realize that the gifts they were making to the Red Cross were helping to feed their fellow citizens, and few people put the women to the extra trouble of making return trips to get their subscriptions.

All workers are to make reports to their team captains daily for a final report and check-up by 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Melody Makers

What is planned as the first of a series of weekly dances will be given Saturday night, from 9 o'clock "on," piece musical group is made up exclusively of Midland musicians and is playing the very latest hits.

Just to prove that feminine loveliness isn't confined to any one section of the country, here is a group of five girls, chosen for their beauty in states ranging from the Atlantic to the Pacific. No. 1 is Lillian McCarter, 26, assistant secretary of Legion Post No. 1, at Memphis, Tenn., one of the largest posts in the world. She is all dressed up to lead a parade and the boys shouldn't have much trouble following her. No. 2 is Betty Bronson, niece of Senator Hatfield of West Virginia, who was chosen "Miss Brenan" at the beauty contest at Brenan College, Gainesville, Ga. She was declared by judges to be the "true, patrician type of southern beauty." No. 3 is Jane Arrington, 17-year-old queen of the Feast of the Panzaeolas at Pensacola, Fla., where she was selected as the most beautiful of more than 40 contestants. Mae Green, No. 4, will be the official swimming girl at the pageant of the Tournament of Roses at Pasadena, Calif., New Year's Day. No. 5 is Lois Carter, Creek Indian girl, named queen of the Indian club at Oklahoma A. & M. College, Stillwater, Okla. She lives in Muskogee, Okla.

HUNG JURY IN SECOND TRIAL
OF BALM SUIT

ABILENE, Nov. 19.—A second mistrial in Miss Madge Roberts' $50,000 breach of promise suit against J.
Louis Keel, New Mexico rancher, was declared in district court here late yesterday and the jury discharged after deliberating more than 48 hours.

Judge W. R. Chapman was told the balloting stood nine to three in favor of the plaintiff from beginning to end on the first issue, the only one reached by the jury.

The first question was: Did the plaintiff at any time after they became acquainted and prior to Jan.
17, 1931, promise and agree to marry each other? The answer was to be "yes" or "no."

Other questions were contingent upon the first and were to be answered if the first was answered in the affirmative.

Helpful Health Suggestions

By Martha Bredemeier

School Doctor Should Be Under the Board of Education

School health supervision can be worked out more effectively as a part of the educational system under control of the board of education than under the board of health, in the opinion of Dr. Sven Lokrantz writing in School Physicians' Bulletin.

The school health activities he lists as:

Physical examination of all school children to aid the teachers in solving the problems of the backward child, to aid the physical training instructor in adjusting gymnastic activities, in assigning the children to the corrective physical education rooms and to aid the parents in discovering the conditions of which they have no knowledge and which have a bearing on the general health and efficiency of the child.

Classroom inspection for contagion.

Physical examination for all teacher applicants.

Nutrition classes for undernourished children.

Special treatment for poor and needy children at school clinics.

School sanitary inspection.

Conservation of children with heart disease, tuberculosis, defective eyesight and hearing.

Occupational therapy for crippled children.

Examination of boys enrolled in R. O. T. C.

Health supervision of all athletic activities and medical attention for football games.

Liquor Zone Is Dangerous to Law

DEL RIO, Tex., Nov. 15. (UP).—A 100-mile front along the border in Brewster county is a war zone between a Mexican bandit and a liquor smuggling gang of 20 and the officers of the U. S. immigration service border patrol and customs service.

Lying between Presidio and Boquilla, this area already has seen the death of one border patrolman, Miles Scannell, and the almost fatal wounding of Ware Hord and James McGraw.

The band is believed to be after a patrolman named Hill, who has long ago quit the service. Two weeks ago Hord was badly shot in a battle in which two Mexicans were killed. The battle took place in the moonlight, near Ruidosa. McGraw and companion officers were fired upon from ambush at a point near Presidio.

The Mexican band is said to have been in operation for more than 20 years. The members are accused of stealing yearlings and horses on the United States side. There are no roads on either the Mexican or the American side but there are many crossings of the river and the territory can be traveled by horseback and in some places by automobile.

ONLY ONE SCALP ON BELT, MIDLAND TACKLES WOLVES FRIDAY

BULLDOGS REMEMBER WINNING ONLY ONE GAME FROM WOLVES IN PAST; A SCORELESS TIE FOUGHT LAST YEAR

Comparatively few people know it, but if Midland is able to scamper away with the belt of the Colorado Wolves here at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon it will be the second time in history a club representing Midland has been able to turn the trick.

It was somewhere back in the dim and shadowy past that Midland school officials arrived in Colorado late on the afternoon of the first game the two schools ever matched, and found Midland 13 points in the lead. When the final whistle blew, gun fired or gong sounded—which ever way grid games were terminated in those days—Midland still had the 13 points and Colorado had nothing but an assortment of charley horses, spavined places and an ungente reminder that the Rivermen had applied unto themselves the old aphorism about biting off more than one can chew.

But that was the beginning of the end. For successive years thereafter—history does not say how many—the Wolves remembered the upset and turned the tables savagely.

Then last season, the Wolves, favorites to cop with the ease of a seasoned team that had scared the socks, gaiters and buckskin riding pants off the Abilene high school before dropping a close decision, saw Midland offered by its coaching song and dance men in a little presentation that began with combatants skipping just short of one goal to a goal's well-trimmed whicker of the other, a few dozen brisk turns, and other cavoring that looked extremely good but did not result in any serious injuries.

The game ended with both teams balancing goose eggs. The point of the whole matter is found in the belief the game here Friday will see a renewal of the upset that five afternoon years ago—the same afternoon when the school officials went in the gate grinning. Midland stands out on paper as being from three to five touchdowns better than the invaders, Colorado has not won a game this season against district competition. It is remembered that the club scored on Sweetwater, however; but a glance into the lineup of the Sweetwater title favorites shows that the counter was chalked up against substitutes.

Midland has a vital reason for starting in early and continuing late in its rush towards the Colorado goal. The Bulldogs have won only one district game this season, a 10-6 verdict over McCamey. In order to pull out into fourth place, thus leading the second division, the Colorado affair must be annexed. Otherwise, Midland stands an excellent chance of tying McCamey for fifth place, the latter club having taken Colorado for a ride Oct. 10.

Midland has one game after that of Friday, with Sweetwater here

Basketball dreams are beginning to make some of the boys, W. Godbey, the Whitmore boys, "Scotty" Gemmill and the like twist around in bed. They're remembering in those night hours about the concrete floor on which we played our commercial league schedule last year. Yet every one seems to be in favor of reviving the league. It seems they have a covetous eye peeled on that pretty silver and mahogany trophy that adorns our desk.

The need for a floor is the only thing that is holding plans to nothingness. A garage served its purpose last season; but too many remember knocked-down hips, heads that prematurely became bald and knees and elbows that became roughened like emery paper. No, we have our private doubt about another league—unless someone will come to the assistance with a big floor and high ceiling in his pocket.

We state again our stunned wonderment that Midland cannot afford a gymnasium. We fail to see much logic in it. However, we are one of several hundred, and the rest seem to have a different idea. To us, a gymnasium is as necessary to a high school and community as turkey on Thanksgiving and another beauty.

Thanksgiving, Sweetwater, victor over Big Spring, is likely to encounter little opposition with the lighter club, though the score is not expected to be as great as the Big Spring victory in Midland, 39-0. The Mustangs will be tapering down for bi-district games, and will be scouted closely.

SWEETWATER-SAN ANGELO GAME IS LISTED AS ONE OF HEADLINERS OF STATE'S SCHOOLBOY COMPETITION

By BILL PARKER
(P) Sports Writer

DALLAS, Nov. 19.—Texas interscholastic league football warriors will strap on shoulder pads, lace their cleated shoes and go forth to their weekly football battle Friday and Saturday—games that will stress importance on numerous district championship races.

Perhaps the outstanding game will be at the Southern Methodist stadium at Dallas where Highland Park and Oak Cliff, both of Dallas, battle for the District 6 crown. Both are undefeated in four conference games, respectively. Last week the Highlanders trimmed Dallas Tech 14 to 7. Oak Cliff stopped Woodrow Wilson, 7 to 0. Jake Gore, Oak Cliff's most brilliant player, and Bob Martin, Highland Park's thunderbolt backfield ace, are expected to put on a personal football show for their respective supporters. The team to win this game will have a clear road to the district 6 championship. They met last year for the district crown, Oak Cliff winning.

District Tie to End
Another big game Saturday will be at San Angelo where San Angelo and Sweetwater, tied for first place in District 4 with three victories and no defeats each, will play. Sweetwater made a serious bid for the district title last week by beating the sultan.

All around us come reports of basketball starting. Maybe we'll have to organize a league to play at Odessa or Andrews.

Coach Henderson is a cartoonist of note. And Linggo, so we're informed, croons mean love ditties. Charlie Griffin, who coaches at junior high, is another choice of the girls.

Leading scorers of the district:
Dennis, Big Spring 140
Delker, San Angelo 87
Flowers, Big Spring 79
Harrison, San Angelo 76
Hicks, Sweetwater 69
Baugh, Sweetwater 49
Schwarzenbach, B. S. 49
Heibison, Big Spring 45
Sheridan, Sweetwater 45
Woods, Sweetwater 40
Burris, Midland 37
Coby, McCamey 31
Hopper, Big Spring 30
Allison, Sweetwater 30
Nichols, San Angelo 30
Reed, San Angelo 24
Forrester, Big Spring 24
Baldwin, McCamey 24

ing Big Spring, 7 to 0. It was Big Spring's first defeat of the season and the first time its goaline has been crossed. The San Angelo and Sweetwater affair looms as a football natural plus a toss-up.

Other important games this week-end include Polytechnic and Central at Fort Worth; Sulphur Springs at Greenville; Tyler at Athens and Cisco at Eastland.

Other Sport Scribes

By MILLARD COPE
(Editor Sweetwater Reporter)

Editor's Note: Whatever amount of room there is over the wide prairie of District 4 for transfer grid players and fine hostilities at which they are put up, it seems there is little space for all-district gridsters from any club not represented in the "Big Three," Sweetwater, Big Spring and San Angelo. In re this statement, Mr. Cope has the following to say.

"In the Big Spring game there was no doubt but that Sweetwater rated the best pair of wingmen in Jones and Bledsoe. If they perform against San Angelo in the same manner they're all-district material and certain to get the nominations.

Grimley Is the Boy!

"Grimley, at a Pony tackle, offered an outstanding game and was the outstanding tackle of the afternoon, in spite of the publicity that had been given Hopper of Big Spring. Rogers played a beautiful game for the Ponies and in the event Rogers can handle the Bobcat aggregation next week and the Bobcats handle Hopper as did the Ponies. Sweetwater may also have the two outstanding tackles in the district.

"Sweetwater's two guards, also, were the best on the field against Big Spring, both Captain Brooks and Strother performing as miracle men. What San Angelo will have to offer in Colton and Taylor will determine the all-conference selections.

Baugh Has to Hustle

"San Angelo is offering Simpson as the center candidate for district honors. Baugh of Sweetwater and Dyer of Big Spring fought it out gallantly on Newman field the other afternoon, and we will give the decision to Baugh. Time after time the Pony backs hit the center of the line to gain over Dyer, though Dyer was a power both on offense and defense.

Red and Mike O. K.

"There is no doubt but that Sheridan and Hicks will get the call when the scribes start lining up.

Thrilling Life to One Man Is Found in Studying Millions of Flake Formations

By DEXTER H. TEED
NEA Service Writer

JERICHO, Vt., Nov. 19.—When you sit at a window in your home and watch the first snowflakes of the year drifting lazily down or scurrying before a pranking wind—When you look out some bright morning and see the beauty of shrubbery and trees and buildings draped with a clean cloak of the purest white that makes even ordinary objects appear enchanted—

Then don't forget that up here in the shadow of the Green Mountains of Vermont dwells a man who has devoted 50 years of his life to the study of snowflakes.

A SLUGGISH liver requires stimulation. This stimulation should not be forced by drastic cathartics, but by a mild, dependable purgative that will encourage the hepatic functions, increase the natural flow of bile, induce digestion, and cleanse the intestinal canal. The "RED BIRD" liver pills are made from the prescription of a successful physician of Texas, having been used in his practice for many years, giving general satisfaction. Buy them from your druggist and be convinced of their usefulness as a family liver medicine. 214-12

One Is Born Each Minute

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is a continuation of an article prepared by the Midland chamber of commerce showing the various graft schemes palmed off on the public of West Texas, to the detriment not only of small-town merchants, but of those who subscribe as well.

Publications are a problem. Colleges, private educational institutions get our annuals and year books. Instead of these being paid for by school funds or by purchases of those interested, the frequent plan is to pay by advertising. Sometimes this is profitable to promoters; sometimes the young people soliciting the advertising are not properly supervised; the funds carelessly handled and bad selling practices used. Merchants in trade centers are liable to be called upon for 50 or 60 cents. The advertiser's value is limited and doubtful and such advertising is being persistently discouraged.

This would not apply to the Midland high school annual, as all monies are collected locally and handled by Midland school authorities without any promotion costs. The above paragraph applies particularly to larger cities, where surrounding smaller towns seek to pry advertisers loose from coin on a boycott threat.

Special newspaper stunts, in which professional promoters purchase at a very low certain space or pages from the newspaper and sell canned advertising at a very high rate, on the supposition that the newspaper and the community are benefited, whereas the promoter is getting all the benefits. In one instance a few months ago a high-sounding advertisement was sold to a negro undertaking establishment and published without any indication this institution was conducted solely for negroes.

Employment for home work gets many easy dollars. Warn people seeking employment against sending a fee for information on how to get home work. Many of these keep within the postal laws but do not give benefits to those who send in the fees.

Telephone selling has become an organized scheme. From time to time during the past two years, it seems a good rule not to buy tickets, advertising, or other goods over the telephone, particularly from strangers and promoters. Many worth-while organizations have listened to propositions of getting large profits without effort simply by letting the promoter sell tickets to a charity ball. If the ball is given, the sponsoring organization is usually ashamed and humiliated. Frequently the promoter collects for the tickets and leaves without giving the entertainment or paying his debts. Time clock and bulletin-board space is sold on the claim that this is advertising. Sometimes a promoter will call claiming to represent an industry to sell advertising on bulletin-boards or time clocks at the factory, going so far out of the way some times as saying "either buy this ad or be boycotted by the industry." Comment would seem unnecessary except these ads are still being sold.

Trading books and coupons permit many promoters to get their both ways, on trade discounts and prizes, charging the merchant to handle the contract, frequently selling coupons to consumers, and then failing to make good. At best the merchant is left with the bag to hold, paying discounts he can not afford without getting extra trade.

Fritz Lanham, Mrs. Head Wed

FORT WORTH, Nov. 19.—The marriage of Mrs. Charles W. Head, the former Miss Hazel Walker, and Congressman Fritz G. Lanham of the Twelfth district, took place Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. D. Davis, 2416 Ryan Place Drive.

Congressman Lanham has been prominent in political and social circles here for many years and Mrs. Lanham has been a resident of Fort Worth all her life. She formerly was a member of The Assembly.

Mrs. Lanham is the daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Walker, 318 South Adams street, where she lived until recently, when she moved to 100 Penn street. She wore a Hattie Carnegie traveling suit with chic hat and other accessories to match. She carried no flowers, nor was there any music. The simple ceremony was read by Dr. D. F. McConnell of the Broadway Presbyterian church. Only members of the immediate family were present.

Mr. Lanham recently returned from an European tour on which he went as a member from congress to a word economic meeting in Bucharest, Bulgaria. Afterward he toured Europe. He has been mentioned as the future chairman of the banking committee should the Democrats succeed in organizing the house.

Mr. Lanham is a Mason and a Shriner. He also was the father of the movement to develop helium as a commodity by the Navy department.

Mr. and Mrs. Lanham left immediately after the ceremony for New York and other cities of the Northeast, where they will travel and visit friends until Dec. 1 when they will go to Washington, D. C., to live at the Washington hotel. They will arrive in the capital city several days before the opening of Congress, Dec. 7.

Both Mrs. Lanham and her husband plan to return to Fort Worth at frequent intervals, as both call this city "home."

San Angeloans on Rio Grande Cruise

SAN ANGELO, Nov. 19.—James and John Bramble left here yesterday for Sierra Blanca for a two-months tour of the Rio Grande. They took with them two boats, one a small skiff and the other a house boat, 4 by 16 feet, in which they will float down the river.

They will trap for beaver after these two months trapping, fishing and plan to come out of the river at Hot Springs. They will sleep in the large boat and tow it behind the little one. They will trap for beaver after the first of the year.

They will go through the most severe canyons in the state, when they nose through the Grand Canyon of the Rio Grande in which a New Yorker lost his life a short time ago.

The trip will be through that 100-mile zone where the Mexican bandits and the border patrol are at war today. It is one of the few such ventures made in that section in recent years, and lies through the wildest country in the nation. They will go weeks without seeing any one.

Texas Man Killed As He 'Hops' Ride

CHATTANOOGA, Nov. 19. (UP).—Harrison Payne of Erwin, Texas, was killed and W. W. Gillespie of Cherokee, Ala., and Wilson Simpson of Florence, Ala., were seriously injured today when they were struck by a freight train.

The trio was attempting to board the train.

Gotham Mayor in Mooney Petition

NEW YORK, Nov. 19. (UP).—Mayor James J. Walker announced today that he would go to California to intercede with Governor Jas. Rolph on behalf of Tom Mooney who is serving a life sentence for the Preparedness day bombing of 1916.

Walker said he had learned new facts in the case.

Some of the titled women of England have now abandoned their traditional life of leisure and are rapidly becoming an efficient and willing group of business and professional women.

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action: it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter of how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

TAYLOR PLANS TRICKERY FOR PONY INVASION

SAN ANGELO.—The San Angelo high school Bobcats, awarded slight chance to turn back onslaughts of the spirited Sweetwater Mustangs in district 4 combat on the home gridiron Saturday afternoon, are determined to give the enemy a bitter scrap for the laurels. Coach Harry Taylor has been training his club in the privacy of a closed field.

Realizing apparently the great odds he and his young and inexperienced team face Saturday, Coach Taylor doubtless plans summoning all of his cunning this week in effort to devise some trick maneuvers and numbers with which possibly to take the vaunted foe by surprise.

It censures of the critics that the only way San Angelo can repulse the powerful Sweetwater machine is by trickery. They do not rate the San Angelo team as strong enough to beat the Nolan entry by orthodox football methods.

The San Angelo squad came from its 57-12 romp last week with Colorado in far physical shape. There isn't a noticeable injury on the roster.

The morale of the team is fine. It understands it is the under-dog and is doped little opportunity to click the victory side of the ledger, but the squad to the last man is determined to "turn the dope" and win.

The brilliant play of the Sweetwater team, 7 to 0 victor over the turbulent Big Spring Steers the past week, is depicted by Millard Cope, Sweetwater journalist, in an after game discussion. Cope considers the Sweetwater team man for man better than the hitherto high-scoring Big Springers. Cope believes the majority of the Sweetwater players are the best in the district and will win berths on the mythical all-district team. He foresees several Sweetwater athletes earning all-state honors.

Nine Cents Less To Feed Soldier

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19. (UP).—It cost nine cents a day less to feed a soldier in 1931 than in 1930, even though he was given the same food.

This fact is revealed in the annual report of Maj. Gen. John L. Dewitt, Quartermaster General of the Army, submitted to Secretary of War Hurley. Dewitt said that during the last year the per-soldier cost of the daily ration had decreased from 50.06 to 41.15 cents.

Dewitt, whose bureau has had charge of the pilgrimages war mothers and widows have been making to European cemeteries, said 1,784 women made the tour in the summer of 1931, as compared with 3,663 in 1930. Approximately 12,000 women are entitled to go, under the Congressional Act authorizing the pilgrimages.

Coach Training Saved His Life

ROUNDUP, Mont., Nov. 19. (UP).—Experience gained when he was a stage coach driver, probably saved the life of James Buckley, 72, when a log slipped from a wagon-load of fuel he was taking to his ranch and broke both his legs.

The accident occurred on an isolated road many miles from the nearest town. Buckley was pinned to the ground and realized that his team might start up at any time and hurl the remainder of the logs down on him.

He managed to retain his hold on the reins, however, and as a result of his past training was able to turn the horses in such a manner as to be able to unhitch them from his helpless position.

After he had unhitched the team and removed the danger of additional logs falling on him, Buckley built a small fire of leaves, twigs and pieces of bark which he was able to gather.

When a searching party found him hours later, he was smoking his pipe.

Your baby's photographs—interesting now—will be priceless treasures when they grow up. Special Christmas price for two weeks beginning Monday, November 16. Prothro Studio, phone 363.—Adv.

City Helps People Keep Appointments

HANNOVER, Nov. 19. (UP).—This city believes in helping people keep appointments. A large blackboard has been set up in Rathenau Square, where eight streets intersect. If one party is late and his partner cannot wait, he merely writes the address where he can be found, and the late comer follows him. The board is filled every day.

Blackboards Slow Down Ohio Students

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 19. (UP).—Educational efficiency has cast a shadow on blackboards at Ohio State University.

In a report to the English faculty, Prof. James E. Fullington, of the university department of principles of education, declared that a large amount of time was wasted by pupils in walking to and from the blackboards.

Unless a means can be devised for speeding up the process, the blackboard may be barred at the university.

Society to Keep Church Beautiful

NEW YORK, Nov. 19. (UP).—Keeping the architecture of Roman Catholic churches throughout the nation beautiful and fine is the object of the Liturgical Arts society, the organization of which was announced here today.

Its membership including many well known members of the clergy, architects and others of the laity, the society will attempt to instruct those responsible for the construction and maintenance of churches in the best in new development and tradition. To this end, it plans to establish an exhibition of ecclesiastical art here, to sponsor occasional books in the field, and to issue an authoritative quarterly, "Liturgical Arts."

Rumba Changes Two Schedules

HAVANA, Nov. 19. (UP).—The James J. Walkers and other tardy travelers may keep an occasional steamer waiting at the dock, but it took the Cuban rumba to compel a complete revision of the sailing schedule of two steamship companies in Havana.

So great was the curiosity of passengers on the Panama Mail and Grace lines steamers reaching Havana that officials thought it necessary to amend the schedule. That steamers might here afford passengers a chance to glimpse the renowned rumba, Cuba's native dance.

Firm Resistance Offered by Lira

ROME, Nov. 19. (UP).—The firm resistance of the lira in the face of the present unsettled financial conditions throughout the world is remarked on here with considerable satisfaction.

The abandonment of the gold standard by Great Britain came as a shock to the financial world here, and there were small fluctuations of the lira in respect of the two most important gold standard monies, the dollar and the French franc.

The inevitable rumors that Italy intended to abandon the gold standard also were circulated, but the government's rapid action soon restored the lira to normal.

Government placed a check on the purchase of foreign exchange, which is still in force. To purchase foreign money, it is necessary to show the reason for the purchase, and unless it is a good one with contractual obligations, or some other inevitable requirement, the treasury will not allow the banks to sell the money.

Dealings in forward exchange are for the present forbidden, and an old decree which had been allowed to drop into disuse requiring the deposit of the securities of a 25 per cent cash deposit has been put into force again. Attempts to deal in foreign exchange by trying to get round the present restrictions are punishable with arrest and even deportation to one of the penal islands where the system of enforced domicile is in vigor.

Water Cure Planned For Racing Engines

GROTON, S. D., Nov. 19. (UP).—A bath from the fire hose will greet any automobile attempting to get to a fire ahead of the fire department, Harry Hartrant, Groton fire chief said.

Motorists have been in the habit of driving their automobiles from the curb when the fire apparatus is passing to a fire, and thus impeding the progress of the firemen.

COP SHOTS BUTTER STATUE

PUYALLUP, Wash. (UP).—Startled by a butter statue of the famed swimmer, Helen Madison, in a refrigerator through which he was patrolling, a watchman drew his revolver, fired.

Barrymore Is At Ritz Friday

Manager Bill Blair of the Ritz theatre announces the opening Friday of the engagement of John Barrymore in Warner Bros., "Svengali" in which the star portrays the character of the master-hypnotist who won such fame on the stage a generation ago in "Tribby."

"Tribby," which was written and illustrated by George Du Maurier first swept the English-speaking countries as a novel and won even greater acclaim as a play. It depicts with grim power the evil control of Svengali over the pretty artists' model of the Latin Quarter.

Through the spell of the sinister music-master, Tribby becomes a great singer, leaves Paris with him and though pursued from place to place by Little Billee who loves her, and his stalwart friends Taffy and Laird is oblivious to them until the weird magic of Svengali is miraculously broken.

TRAIN AIDED MOTORIST

Will Instructs Cheap Funeral

BUTTE, Mont., Nov. 19. (UP).—Ostentation was distinctly absent from the funeral of John Ferry, 69, who died here recently.

His will, scrawled on a single piece of paper, ordered a private wake and funeral.

"I don't want anybody to waste any time over me," the will read, "and not a flower. I like them too well. Put me over the back fence and don't spend more than $150 for a funeral."

Ferry listed among his assets, which he willed to Neal O'Donnell, pioneer Walkerville resident, a car of silver ore, which he mined during the last years of his life. He suggested it be held until the price advanced.

Film Folk Plan Gay Thanksgiving

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 19. (UP).—Hollywood will celebrate Thanksgiving day with a variety of amusements, ranging from costume balls to desert riding parties. Theatre parties, receptions, dinners and buffet suppers also have been planned by the famous of the film colony.

Open house will be popular Thanksgiving afternoon, and among the homes that will entertain many friends are Clive Brook, Paul Lukas and George Bancroft.

A Puritan costume ball is a Thanksgiving eve event planned by Frances Dee for members of the younger set. Shining satins and velvet will be replaced on that night by the white surplises of the Pilgrims, while many famous screen faces will be framed in the starched bonnets of the Priscilla Alden period. Sylvia Sydney will entertain 12 friends at a breakfast preceding the University of California-Florida football game.

Other players attending the game are Carole Lombard, Miriam Hopkins, Judith Wood, Charles "Bud" Rogers, Phillips Holmes, and Charlie Ruggles.

Wynne Gibson is celebrating a family reunion in her new home with the traditional Thanksgiving dinner.

Frederic March and his wife, Florence Eldridge, will take eight guests to the theatre following a late afternoon dinner.

The desert near Palm Springs will be thronged with many electric light names clad in riding habits, among them being Peggy Shannon, Anna May Wong, Gene Raymond and Adrienne Ames.

The United States government as such has never borrowed money from the British government.
