Enormous Feed Crop Harvested This Year

Huge Ricks Of Feed Are Piled Up In Tahoka From 1938 Crop

If a stranger or a visitor should take a look at the great ricks of maize heads and other sorghum grain heads stacked on the prairie near the Santa Fe railway north of the gin district, he would think this whole country had turned to feed. Great stacks of heads, a number of them from 50 yards to 150 yards in length and eight or ten feet high, remind one of the enormous piles of cotton that were to be found at O'Donnell last fall.

The Burleson Grain Company and Wyatt Brothers have purchased from farmers and piled on the prairie around 2,000 tons of feed. Yet, when it is remembered that there were many thousands of acres of feed in the county yielding from a half ton to a ton per acre, it becomes evident that these huge stacks represent only a small portion of the crop of the county.

The crop this year is bringing the farmers comparatively small returns, however, since it has been selling for $6.50 to $7.00 per ton. The buyers are not shipping this feed to the markets yet but are holding it for higher prices. Later, much of it will be threshed and ground and then sent to the markets if the price justifies.

In addition to this great accumulation of feed here, a number of individuals are fattening pens of cattle for the market. Among these are G. W. Pennington and son Garland, who are feeding 125 head. Wiley Curry, who is feeding a pen of 55 head, and Jim Burleson, who is feeding 45 head. There are probably others also whose names we did not get who are feeding varying numbers of cattle.

This is a very important series of educational meetings.

Crosbyton Will Play In Tahoka

Two football games in six days will be Tahoka's lot, as the local team meets Levelland at Levelland at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon and Crosbyton here next Wednesday afternoon at 2:30.

The Crosbyton game was originally scheduled for Thanksgiving day, but due to conflicting engagements in the territory and due to Crosbyton's demand to move the date up, the change has been made.

Both teams are in the northern half of this district and each has had only a fairly successful season.

PANSY TANKERSLEY CHARTER MEMBER IN GIRLS' CLUB

Waco, Nov. 15.—Miss Pansy Tankersley, Baylor University student from Tahoka, is a charter member of a new girls' social group the Peer club, organized this fall on the Baylor campus. Junior standing and a scholastic average of "B" are prerequisite for membership in the organization.

Red Cross Drive Nearing Quota

Lynn county's drive for Red Cross membership will go over the top, was the opinion of County Chairman A. L. Lockwood Thursday, reports from three communities showing a total of 305 memberships already. The quota is 400.

Draw, hardest hit by the tornado last spring, and aided by the Red Cross, reported 73 memberships. Wilson reported 52, and Tahoka had 180. O'Donnell, though unheard from, expected to enroll a large membership.

Those who have not yet paid their membership fee are urged to do so at once, since this organization more than once has come to the aid of the people of Lynn County.

Father And Son Banquet Held

Sixty-five people attended the annual Father and Son banquet of the Tahoka chapter Future Farmers of America in the grade school building Wednesday night.

Hon. Tom Garrard, local attorney, was principal speaker on the program, and brought a fine inspirational address. Short talks were also made by County Agent V. F. Jones and by Frank Hill of the school board.

The meal, prepared and served by the boys of the Vocational Agriculture department of the high school under direction of their teacher, Leslie Browning, consisted of barbecued chicken, potato salad, red beans, pickles, bread, coffee and doughnuts, and those present were convinced that the boys were rivals as cooks of their sisters in the Home Economics department.

Lester Adams, president of the chapter, was in charge of the program, and was assisted by other officers, including Leroy Johnson, secretary; Jack Edwards, treasurer; Junior Sanders, reporter; and Eldon Gattis. "Pug" Parker, vice president, was unable to be present. The creed was presented by Ray Shaddin. Many compliments were passed on Mr. Browning and the boys for the work they are doing this year. About twenty fathers were present.

District Rotary Governor Here

Linton Estes of Wichita Falls, district Rotary Governor, was a visitor at the Rotary luncheon here last Thursday and was the principal speaker of the day.

Mr. Estes' address was filled with facts and information presented in a most happy and effective manner, made all the more interesting and entertaining by frequent sallies of wit and humor and punctuated now and then with a funny story. His address, of course, was directed mainly to Rotary work, and he forcefully stressed the matter of programs and attendance.

Mr. Estes had a conference with the Rotary board of directors in the forenoon.

Record Set In Sale of Poppies

The Legion Auxiliary poppy sale for benefit of disabled World War veterans was a decided success in Tahoka, Mrs. Chas. Walden and Mrs. Rafe Richardson of the Auxiliary report.

Tahoka's quota of 250 poppies were sold last Friday morning in the record time of one hour and fifteen minutes. Sale started at 9 a. m. and the poppies were all gone at 10:15.

Mrs. R. C. Forrester was in charge of the sale, and girls making the sales were Misses Maxine Oliver, La Voyle Richardson, Mary Ruth Hargett, and Ruth, Virgine, and Mary Beth Roddy.

H. B. McCord, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis in a Lubbock hospital, returned home last Saturday and was able to ride down town Monday. He hopes to be entirely recovered in a few days.

County Promises Right-Of-Way To Wilson

Agreement Made With Highway Department Which Will Insure New Highway

The commissioners court, in session here Tuesday morning, entered into an agreement with the state highway commission to furnish right-of-way 120 feet wide from some point near Tahoka via Wilson to the Lubbock county line for a state highway designated as highway F. This is a portion of the proposed new highway to pass through Slaton and Petersburg and rejoin state highway No. 9 at Plainview.

It is not yet known just what route the new highway will follow from Wilson to Tahoka, whether it will closely follow the railway or will connect with highway No. 9 a few miles north of Tahoka. At any rate, a right-of-way 120 feet wide is required of the county, and this, the commissioners court has agreed to procure.

Tahoka Ginnings Now Total 10,582

Figures given the News, by the five gins in Tahoka at 5:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon disclose that up to that time 10,582 bales of cotton had been ginned here this season. This indicates that 11,908 bales have been ginned the past week.

This would also indicate nearly 50,000 bales have been ginned in Lynn county. E. W. Holloway, who gathers statistics for the Government, reports that 34,572 bales had been ginned up to November 1. Since our report of November 1, the five gins in Tahoka have turned out 2,890 bales—more than 3.00 since the first of the month.

It now seems probable that the entire crop will approximate 80,000 bales.

One new gin has been constructed recently in Lynn county. The owner is Horace Bartlett, who owns a gin in Terry county. The new gin is situated about three miles east of Newmore, and is a 4-stand 80-saw plant.

Thomas Brothers of Grassland, whose gin at Draw was destroyed by fire, have also begun rebuilding a gin there to take the place of the one destroyed, we are told.

Mrs. J. H. Edwards who has been in East Texas for the past six weeks is at home again and J. H. is here on a visit.

Tahoka's Armistice Program Attracted Large Attendance

O'Donnell Is Winner In Annual Game With Tahoka

One of the biggest football crowds of the season saw O'Donnell defeat Tahoka 7 to 0 on the local gridiron Armistice Day.

Ex-students of Tahoka high were honored at the game, and Thurman Wells of O'Donnell was presented a cake at the intermission between halves for being the oldest graduate present. Mr. Wells was one of the first students of Tahoka school. He first attended school here in 1903 when classes were held in the newly constructed frame court house. He graduated from the school in 1910. Mr. Wells is the only member of that class in Lynn county, the others having died or moved away. The band, under direction of J. H. Felts, played at the game and marched on the field between halves, and the Tahoka pep squad, directed by Miss Wilkins, and the O'Donnell pep squad also presented beautiful formations.

Though Tahoka rolled up 111 yards from scrimmage to O'Donnell's 58 and amassed 10 first downs to the visitor's five, the fruits of victory went to O'Donnell, when the scrapping team from our sister city capitalized on its only serious threat to score in the fourth quarter. The first half of the game was all in Tahoka's favor, but the local boys could not cross the pay stripe though they were in scoring distance three times. The second half was a different story, however, and a rejuvenated O'Donnell team out-fought and out-played the local team. Robinson carried the ball across the goal line for the visitors, after a sustained drive up the field, and then passed to McLaurin for the extra point.

Revival Services At Nazarene Church

Revival services are to begin at the Church of the Nazarene here Sunday and continue until Sunday, December 4, according to Miss Betty Ellis, pastor.

The preaching will be done by Mrs. J. D. Roedler of Moody. The pastor will lead the song services and Miss Lona Webb will preside at the piano. She will also sing several special numbers.

The general public is cordially invited to attend these services.

Special Program For Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving will be fittingly observed in Tahoka next Wednesday evening when the Baptist Church sponsors a community wide program at that church at 7:30 o'clock.

There will be special music and a talk by some well known speaker, Rev. Geo. A. Dale, pastor, states.

School Children At Rotary Club

Thursday's Rotary Club program was presented by students of the Grade School, of which E. H. Smith is principal. Supt. W. T. Hanes introduced the numbers.

A group of boys and girls sang "The Organ Grinder", one of the boys being dressed as an organ grinder and another as a monkey. Boys from John Kirkwood's physical education class did some acrobatic stunts. Elbert Bouillon Jr. gave a reading and later impersonated Walter Winchell much to the merriment of the club.

One of the most interesting numbers on the program was that by Miss Georgia Taylor, public school music teacher, and twelve or fifteen sixth grade students. She conducted a regular music practice period, and the students played several numbers on their tonettes.

Peggy Fenton and Joan Edwards gave a tap dance and then teamed with Myrna Dean Gagnat and Dale Hogan to sing "Alexander's Ragtime Band." Mrs. M. H. Edwards accompanied at the piano.

President Raymond Weathers announced that starting next week and lasting two months the club would engage in a "Chicken and Beans" contest, the winners to eat chicken and the losers to eat beans. Directors Leonard Craft, Wynne Collier, and V. F. Jones head one side in the contest and Dean Nowlin, Frank Hill, and L. C. Haney the other.

Thursday's luncheon featured roast duck, furnished by Fred and roast duck, furnished by Fred Bucy and assistants.

Cotton Meeting Held Tuesday

About 100 farmers of the county attended the Cotton Improvement meeting at the Court House Tuesday afternoon, according to V. F. Jones, County Agent. Lynn county farmers, like those in other sections of the state are always interested in new information on the subject of cotton and will doubtless receive benefit from the messages of E. A. Miller and F. E. Licht, who as representatives of the A. & M. Extension Service have given years of study to the subject of cotton crop improvement.

Applewhite Plans Big Auction Sale

Next Wednesday will be a big day at J. K. Applewhite Co., for at that time the firm will formally open its remodeled display and shop rooms, show free educational farm pictures at the English Theatre, serve lunch free to farmers, and sell at public auction about Farmall tractors and many other farm implements.

The firm has distributed circulars all over the Plains from Amarillo south advertising the event, and many farmers are expected.

The interior of the Applewhite building has been completely remodeled, the display room enlarged, two offices partitioned off, and the parts department re-arranged.

"The district manager from Amarillo tells me," Prentice Walker of the parts department says, "that we have the prettiest set up of any agency in the division, which includes all of Northwest Texas and Eastern New Mexico."

Parade, Program, Game Features Of Holiday

Last Friday's Armistice Day program, though somewhat marred for local football fans by Tahoka's 7 to 0 loss to O'Donnell, was declared by many people to have been the finest one-day celebration ever held here.

Practically all business houses closed up for most of the day, a large crowd saw the parade at 10:30 the High School auditorium was filled for the 11:00 o'clock program, sixty ex-students of the school formed a permanent organization, and a great crowd attended the football game.

The parade was led by the new 60-piece Tahoka High School band, under direction of Joyce H. Felts, followed by sixty ex-service men, led by Post Commander W. E. Smith and Adjutant Chas. Walden. Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts under W. A. Reddell, and floats arranged by the High School, Grade School, Legion Auxiliary, Parent-Teachers Association, Rotary Club, and Boy Scouts, Phebe K. Warner Club, and many decorated cars representing various business houses of Tahoka.

The High School float was a beautiful one, representing Flanders Field, "with crosses row on row", guarded over by an angel, Jerry Jean Simmons. The Grade School float portrayed a Little Red School House and the part it played in keeping peace. The Legion Auxiliary float honored Gold Star Mothers. Principal Lee Dodson was in charge of the parade.

Teachers Plan Dallas Trip

The members of the Tahoka faculty are sponsoring the chartering of a special bus to go to the annual Teachers Convention at Dallas Thanksgiving. The bus will probably leave Tahoka around 6 p. m. Wednesday before Thanksgiving for the convention city and will return Sunday following Thanksgiving.

Teachers from O'Donnell and Wilson will also be aboard the special. This is the first concerted move of this kind that has been here and all teachers who are signed up already are looking forward to a profitable as well as pleasant trip. There is still room for a few more and any teacher who is interested should get in touch with Mr. Hanes or Mr. Dodson at Tahoka High school at once. You are welcome to go. We want you.

Hardy Attending M. E. Conference

Rev. and Mrs. Ben Hardy, left Wednesday for Memphis to attend the annual Northwest Texas Conference of the Methodist Church. Bro. Hardy expects to be supernumerated. In fact he has already bought a house here with expectations of making this his permanent home.

New pastor of the local Methodist Church will be announced at the Conference Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Wood are also attending the meeting, having left here Thursday morning.

Harris Warehouse Damaged By Fire

Fire of undetermined origin did considerable damage in the warehouse of the Harris Hardware store here at 8:00 a. m. Thursday morning of last week. The fire damage was confined chiefly to chairs, stoves and stove pipes. Prompt work of the Tahoka Fire Department prevented the spread of flames to the main store and other near by buildings.

Mrs. Ott Patterson is reported to be improving.

Local Firms That Have Helped Build Lynn County: By H. Baxter

D. W. GAIGNAT, TAHOKA, TEXAS

This "Feature Edition" would be quite incomplete without a word or two about D. W. Gagnat known by most of you as a reputable business man and a real enthusiast for the cultural and material progress of Lynn County.

It may be well for some of the newer merchants and citizens of Lynn County to borrow a few of the ideas to which Mr. Gagnat can attribute his good name and present status. Always having applied himself diligently and wholeheartedly to the proper conduct of his business, he still finds sufficient time to devote to any cause for the good and welfare of Lynn County, and the old saying, that, "If you want something done, get a busy man to do it," is again borne out.

D. W. Gagnat carries a complete line of furniture and hardware, featuring such well known products as, Chambers and Magic Chef stoves, Electrolux and Sheldahl refrigerators and R. C. A. and Zenith radios. They are also sales and service agents for John Deere implements and tractors, carrying a full line of replacement parts and employing four factory trained mechanics to service and repair this machinery. THE BACKBONE OF LYNN COUNTY

The merchants and other business people listed in this commercial review of Lynn County are local people, a part of this community. Their interests and yours are one. They pay taxes here, contribute to churches, schools, charities and other local institutions that are requisite to the welfare of any community—not for any selfish gain or reasons, but because these local institutions are their own as well as yours and they are glad to do their share. Do mail order houses do that? Do peddlers or out of town business interests of any nature do it? No, they don't. They take but never put and you can't keep on taking without eventually impoverishing it and have nothing left from which to take for either you or the merchant.

Isn't it good logic and common sense then for you to patronize these local merchants who have helped and will continue to help make this a finer community for you and your children and their children also?

These local merchants do not ask charity. They offer a full measure of value for every dollar received. Their goods are priced fairly, all of them. You don't pay fifty cents for one dollar article and then turn around and pay a dollar and fifty cents for another dollar article. They don't resort to such subterfuge. You get sixteen ounces to every pound, thirty-six inches to every yard, a hundred cents of value and service for every dollar, with a smile wrapped in every bundle. LOCAL MERCHANTS ARE LOCAL ASSETS. HELP THEM THAT THEY MAY HELP YOU.

One must remember that successful business houses are an absolute essential to the progress of any town. In fact a community cannot exist without them. Though they are dependent upon your support, you and your community are in turn dependent upon them and a perfect spirit of cooperation between you makes for the ideal community.

BURL'S AUTO PARTS, O'DONNELL, TEXAS

You naturally expect a store of this kind to handle a superior line of Auto parts and accessories and you won't be disappointed if you trade here.

J. K. APPLEWHITE COMPANY, TAHOKA, TEXAS

This review of Lynn County, would be incomplete indeed if it did not include among its columns a resume of the business career of the J. K. Applewhite Company established here two years ago. During these two years engaged in the sales and service of International implements, trucks and tractors, the firm has lucrily emblazoned its name upon the agricultural interests of Lynn county for it's very evident that a business house of this kind, providing as it does a needed and valuable service to the framers of the community, is a most important factor in all that pertains to its interests.

Any enterprise that tends to enhance and increase the agricultural progress of this section is surely a business worthy of mention, for we know of no more real worth while industry than that of the farmer—one that needs more encouragement. And firms like the J. K. Applewhite Company provide that encouragement.

At the J. K. Applewhite Company you will find a complete line of International farm implements and tractors on display at all times and also a very complete line of repairs and parts for this machinery. This firm also maintains a modern service department, employing four experienced mechanics and doing repair work on all types of farm machinery and trucks. A paint shop is also operated and they do both acetylene and electric welding.

The J. K. Applewhite Company has just recently remodeled their building and on November 23 will have their grand opening. The public is invited to attend this opening, free entertainment and souvenirs to all that attend.

TAHOKA CO-OPERATIVE GIN COMPANY, TAHOKA, TEXAS

Firms engaged in agricultural pursuits apparently have a closer and more intimate appeal to residents of Lynn county due, no doubt to the fact that this is so essentially an agricultural community. They also have a greater opportunity to serve and by the same token a greater obligation to their community.

The Tahoka Co-Operative Gin Company has, in three years of activity in the ginning and buying of cotton, always endeavored to serve the farmers of this community to the very best interests thereby fulfilling that obligation in a manner befitting, so reputable a firm. With Wiley Curry as manager this concern employs an average of twelve people. The gin is equipped with Continental (5-80's) ginning system and Hardwick-Etter cleaning system and has a ginning capacity of about four bales per hour. During the three years this Co-operative Company has been in existence, they have paid for their gin and have paid $11,300.00 in dividends to the customers.

WILSON STATE BANK, WILSON, TEXAS

The Wilson State Bank has since its earliest existence enjoyed a steady and continuous growth in which it may well take justifiable pride. Starting as it did nineteen years ago, it has passed valiantly through many trying times and periods of local and national depression, always with head well up and shoulders squared to offer stubborn and tenacious resistance to any and all obstacles that might tend to delude its progress. With mind set and definite aims in view, it has surmounted every barrier and maintained an even, steady pace, always onward and forward, until today it has obtained a position of envied eminence, strong and growing stronger every day.

The Wilson State Bank feels that it has not yet accomplished its mission nor fulfilled its purpose; that much remains to be done; that its real work lies in the present and in the future. Always with open mind and ear it is ever ready and willing to aid in any sound way the growth of the community.

Banks of this kind are vital assets to this section. We are glad that the Wilson State Bank is one of us.

The banking interest of Wilson and vicinity are well taken care of by this sound banking house, with W. D. Green as President, H. O. Cook as Vice President and Cashier, L. Lumsden as Vice-President and William Lumsden as Assistant Cashier. It has a Capital Stock of $15,000.00, Surplus and Undivided Profits of $9,500.00 and Deposits aggregating $175,000.00. This bank is also a member of the F. D. I. C.

SCHNELL'S WELDING AND BLACKSMITH SHOP, WILSON, TEXAS

The village blacksmith still plies his trade and sweats his brow, the anvil still rings out its merry song and the smithy's furnace still burns a bright, cherry red at Schnell's Welding and Blacksmith Shop where C. F. Schnell has conducted his blacksmith shop since 1923. Despite all this though, it is a modern shop plying an ancient trade in a modern way.

This is the editorial referred to in James Minor's letter to the editor which appeared in The Growl last week. James Minor is a graduate of Tahoka High School, and received a Tahoka football letter four years. Although he is only a Junior, he is the star football player of Howard Payne College, Brownwood.

THE VALUE OF TRAINING IN ATHLETICS

The value of athletics to the American boyhood of today can not be over estimated. In my way of thinking, athletics are of great importance in two major respects: they build the participant physically and mentally. Of course under each of these major topics will come many detailed values coming from training in athletics. Athletics is the chief way of building our boyhood of today into a manhood that is not physically weak. Of all sports, I think football has more to do with building a real, powerful physique than any other sport. Other sports also develop one physically but my experience has been that football has made more real men out of boys that would have otherwise been "physical weaklings" than any other sport. There are several ways which one develops physically from sports but we shall not take them up individually.

Under the mental values we find in training for athletics, especially football, many topics of superior importance. Naturally with a strong body we find a strong mind, and this is more than true in football. All football players possess not only a strong physique, but also a strong mind and a very active intellect. In football, as in many other sports, the player has to do split second thinking and this stays with him, and it becomes a habit to think fast. This may be considered one of the greatest assets of football, teaching the player to think, because after all about 5% of the American people do all the thinking for the other 95%. Not only does football and other sports teach one to think and think fast, but it also instills into the player the desire to win or at least to want to win. At the same time in football you learn how to take defeat by slapping your opponent on the back and telling him what a swell game he played. In sports this is termed a "real sport". In other words you learn to "take it" whether you win or lose and this helps one in future life because everything isn't going just exactly as you would like it and you may have to take a few hard knocks and spills. A football player can always come up smiling because he has learned to take knocks and spills and then come back fighting harder than ever and still keep a grin on his face.

Football also teaches the player the principles of cooperation and drills into him the art or technique "of getting along with his fellow team mates". He also gains valuable experience from his contacts with opponents and learns how to get along with his opponents as well as with his team-mates. There are many other valuable points received from participation in sports but due to lack of space I shall not be able to take any more of these up in this article.

Another point that is very misleading is the fact that some people think all football players are "big and dumb" and are not good for anything except to play football. This is a very outstanding misconception as a general rule over the whole U. S., and this theory that "football players are big and dumb" has been proved false in every instance. In a recent survey of the student of Howard Payne College from actual records, it was found that the football players had an average of seven points higher in their grades than the average for the student body. Thus it can easily be seen that the football players are above the average in their studies as well as being good performers on the gridiron. With this point in mind we can see that training in athletics can not be stressed too much, and that the boys who are not coming out for athletics are missing the greatest thrills and training in their boyhood life.

SENIOR HIGHLIGHTS

The Seniors received their rings last week. The rings are of the most beautiful design, but it seems the seniors are rather dissatisfied with them. The rings are rather light compared to rings of earlier years. I think that after a while the class will be content with them.

It seems rather queer that some Junior girls are wearing Senior rings. Now they may belong to some Senior boys or they may have ordered them. The first would come nearer to being right.

We are planning a Christmas party already. Finis Connolly (our president) wants to have a dance. I think that would be swell. (If he pays for it.)

Political observers claim that the results of the recent national election strongly indicate that the popularity of the President and the New Deal is waning. Most observers believe that this apparent loss of popularity is due largely to the President's seeming friendliness toward John L. Lewis and the great influence that gentleman has been able to wield in legislative and administrative department of the Government. The National Labor Relations act and the wages and hours law have also doubtless detracted from the President's popularity. The terms of the National Labor Relations Act as well as its administration is seemingly very unfair to employers of labor, while the wages and hours law has stirred up a lot of opposition in the South and some other sections of the country. Radicalism may win a victory in America now and then but it rarely ever survives the sober second thought of the American people.

"Whom the gods would destroy they first make mad", is an ancient proverb. If it expresses the truth, then certainly Adolf Hitler is headed for a fall. To us it seems that he is acting a plain fool. A tyrant may thrive for a time, but the moment any ruler enters upon a mad course of injustice and cruelty respecting any large block of the citizens of his country, at that moment he starts falling. Heretofore it has seemed that Hitler aspired to be a second Alexander the Great or Napoleon Bonaparte, but now it seems he is determined to go down in history as a second Nero. He's unprovoked and unreasonable oppression of the Jews seems like the act of a mad man. Already he had been driving them from pillar to post, casting them into jail, and harassing them in almost every way imaginable, but since a Jewish youth in desperation slew a German diplomatic official in France a few days ago, Hitler's rage has known no bounds. Unable to punish the youth he shamelessly announced that he would punish the whole Jewish population within the bounds of Germany. He assessed a fine against them for four hundred million dollars, he confiscated much of their property, he had more than 50,000 of them arrested and jailed, he closed the cafes and eating houses to them and has made it difficult for them to obtain food and clothing, he has shut them out of the public schools. He has virtually threatened them with deportation or extermination. Under these circumstances we think our Government has done exactly right in withdrawing its ambassador from Germany. We should take much stronger steps than that to let this mad tyrant Hitler know that at least one great nation of civilized people gives no countenance whatever to his diabolical course.

We are so accustomed to the beautiful in this old world of ours that most of us pass it by daily unnoticed and unsung. Even a gorgeous sunrise or a brilliant sunset often escapes our attention. But on last Friday evening the great Master Painter of this universe spread on the canvas of the western heavens a picture of such rare beauty and splendor that it must have entranced even the most artistically dull and listless. Just after sunset the western clouds began to glow, and soon they were apparently a mass of intensely brilliant fire. So gorgeous and magnificent was the picture that the most talented and skillful earthly artist could not have portrayed on material canvas even a touch or a hint of its ravishing beauty and grandeur. In the presence of such a sublime exhibition, puny man can stand only in mute amazement and awe. And yet some people profess to believe that this old universe, filled with marvelous and matchless magnificence and mystery, is nothing more than a mere accident or an automatic development.

"Let us eat, drink, and be merry", said one of old, and millions are saying the same thing today, but he who eats like a glutton is seldom merry, and he who drinks like a lord always come to a bad end.

By Sunday night all Methodist pastors in the Northwest Texas Conference will know their fate, so to speak, for the next Conference year. The appointments will be read out by the bishop at the close of the conference in Memphis Sunday night. The bishop's announcement will doubtless bring joy to some pastors and a tinge of disappointment to others, but whether all the pastors are wholly satisfied or not, practically every one of them will go to his assigned field of labor determined to do his best. The Methodist are a great host, and they have been a powerful factor in the moulding of our civilization. They have ever raised high moral standards of conduct and have been a mighty force for civic righteousness. May their God continue to give them the faith and the courage to carry on in a great way.

Hester Closes Three Years At Lynn

Rev. J. N. Hester, pastor of the Methodist Churches at New Lynn and Southland, dropped into the News office for a brief chat Tuesday afternoon, just on the eve of his departure for the Northwest Texas Conference convening at Memphis on Wednesday.

Brother Hester reported that both the pastor's salary and the church's quota for benevolences for the past Conference year had been paid in full by the New Lynn Church and almost paid in full by the Southland Church.

Brother Hester has been pastor of this charge for the past three years. He went to this charge from Meadow, where he had served two years, and just prior to that he served three years at Draw. He is no stranger in this section of the state. He has been a constant reader of the News, and we wish him well wherever he may go.

POPULAR LOCAL COUPLE ARE MARRIED IN WILSON

On Friday night at seven o'clock, Miss Eunice Mullins and Mr. O. B. Davis Jr. were united in marriage at Wilson. Rev. J. T. Howell pastor of the Wilson Methodist Church and formerly pastor of the Tahoka Methodist Church, performed the ceremony at his home. Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Dunnagan accompanied them.

Carrying out the tradition in dress, the bride wore "something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue." Suspended from a chain, which belonged to a dear friend she wore a gold brooch, an heirloom of her mother's. Her dress was a Royal blue triple sheer crepe with navy accessories.

Mrs. Davis is a graduate of the Tahoka High School, having finished with the class of 1934. Mr. Davis is employed by the Gulf Service Station. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Davis, Sr., who live twelve miles north of Tahoka.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis are at home at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Lee King on North Fifth Street. Their many friends wish them much happiness.

SURPRISE SHOWER IS GIVEN ELDER NISBETT

Brother J. L. Nisbett, minister of the local Church of Christ, was presented with a surprise shower by members of the congregation and friends, who met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Richardson, Tuesday evening, November 15.

The group met for what was seemingly a recital for the pupils of Mrs. Richardson. Games were directed by Jessie Mae Rose and Mrs. Fred McGinty. A musical program followed, the vocal numbers including: Solo, Helen Bell Pemberton; Duet, Betty Lou Frazier and Julia Snowden; quintet, La Voyle Richardson, Pauline Owens, Julia Snowden, Betty Lou Frazier and Helen Bell Pemberton; Solo, Pauline Owens. A piano solo was given by Bobbie Cowan, and two accordeon numbers were rendered by La Voyle Richardson.

Following the musical numbers Brother Nisbett made a short talk on "Thanksgiving." He was presented with a "booby" prize for the best number on the program. And while he was at a loss to know what to say, the many beautiful gifts were brought in. The shower was a complete surprise to him, as he had been invited to a "recital".

The dining room was beautifully lighted with candles and punch and cookies were served to forty-seven guests.

CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE

It has been some time since we have reported to our local paper, but have been away attending our district assembly, which met in Hillsboro. Then of course we came back and found lots to do in order to get ready for the new year.

We are glad to report that in all departments of the church we have a good increase. We feel there are greater things ahead for the church here at Tahoka.

We are beginning a revival meeting the 20th of November, continuing through December 4. We want all our friends and citizens of the town and surrounding communities to come and worship with us.

Rev. Mrs. J. D. Roedler of Moody, Texas, is to be the evangelist. She is a good preacher and a fine Christian character.

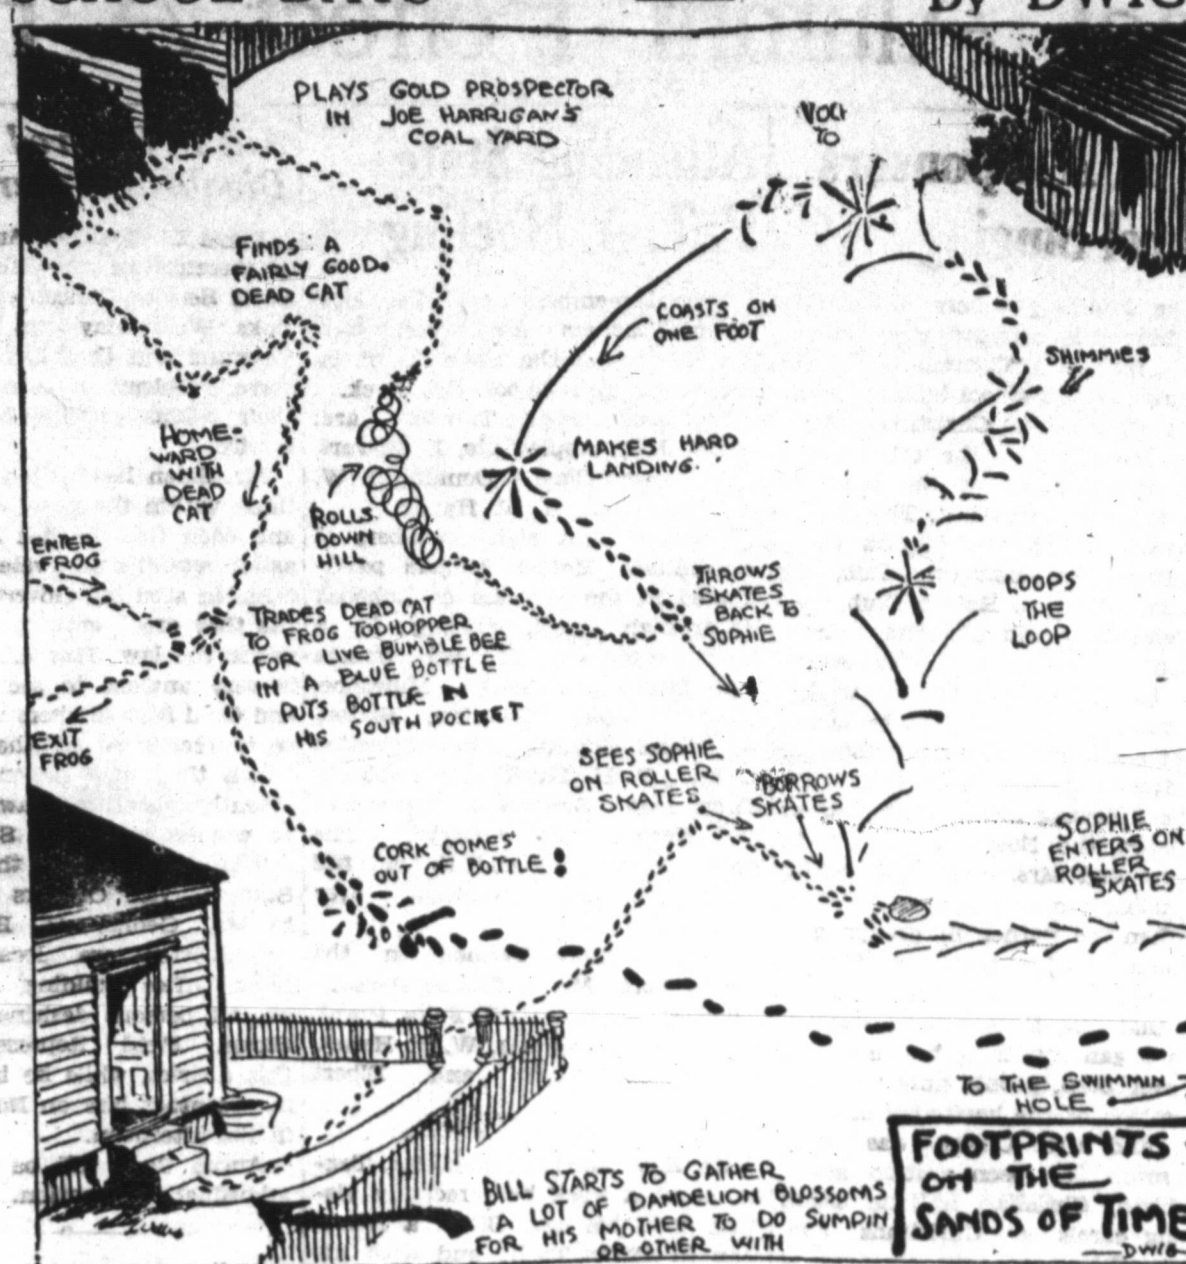

Miss Lona Webb, who played during the summer meeting, is with us and will play the piano and sing special numbers. The pastor will direct the singing.

We want to give you a cordial invitation to come. Don't miss a service. If you do you will miss something worth your time. Don't forget we are looking for you. If it rains, come, if the sun shines, come; we will have services. Come, come every one and let us go in for a gracious revival.—Pastor Betty Ellis.

Miss Ernestine Herring, teacher in the grade school, has been ill several days this week.

SCHOOL DAYS

By DWIG

BAPTIST W. M. U.

With Mrs. Carl Owens as Program Leader, members of the Baptist W. M. U. rendered their monthly missionary program from "Royal Service", the subject being "China", on Monday, November 14.

While many native Chinese Christians have lost their property and some their lives in the present war our Southern Baptist Missionaries have stayed in that land, leaving their regular posts only when compelled to do so and all have been spared up to the present. Preaching, teaching and ministering to those in need the missionaries have been able to see an increase in the fruits of their labors that has made their own trials seem as nothing. Then, too, the very retreat of the Chinese from the coasts, into the interior has helped to spread the Gospel among people hitherto unreached by any missionaries, fulfilling that truth that "All things work together for good to those who love the Lord".

Mrs. Garland Pennington, President, who attended the State W. M. U. meeting in Dallas, asked Mrs. W. H. Kinley who also attended to tell something of the convention, which she did in her own enthusiastic way.

November 21, will be Circle meeting day. The Sallee circle will meet in the home of Mrs. E. I. Hill.

T. E. L. CLASS MEETING

The T. E. L. Sunday School class met with Mrs. A. A. Mourfield Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock for their business and social meeting.

A very touching and inspiring Thanksgiving program was lead by Mrs. H. A. Riddle, after which a business session was held and the following officers for the ensuing year were elected:

Mrs. J. H. Edwards, president; Mrs. A. J. Edwards, 1st vice-president; Mrs. J. K. Wooley, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. H. A. Riddle 3rd vice-president; Mrs. C. C. Barnes, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. A. A. Mourfield, reporter.

Plans were made for the Christmas program to be given in the home of Mrs. Pete Coleman December 13.

BAPTISTS HAVE SOCIAL

The Senior Department of the First Baptist Church had a social Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. J. L. Neville, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Harold Snowden. A delightful evening of games centered around the bride and groom was enjoyed, after which an ideal program given by Miss O'Ber's Forrester's pupils was enjoyed. This consisted of "Match Making" by Elma Reba Dunnagan; "A Bargain" by Rae Fern Pennington; "When Ma and Pa were Tied" by Gerald Georgey and a playlet "The Newly Weds" by Billie Haynes and Wanda Fay

Smith. These newly weds not making a go of their marriage gladly and willingly carried their bumpy honeymoon wagon, with gifts piled high in a banana crate, draped with old shoes and "Just Married" signs over to Harold and Helen.

Delicious pecan pie, topped with whipped cream and hot chocolate was served to over 40 guests and friends.

EUZELIAN CLASS

The Euzelean Class of the Baptist Sunday School will hold their monthly business and social meeting with Mrs. J. K. Applewhite, Tuesday, November 22.

There are already nine local members and sixteen others who expect to be present to go into the local organization, according to Mrs. Goodrich. All these are urged to be present so that the new Circle may be launched with at least 25 members.

MIDWAY H. D. CLUB MET WITH MRS. HOWARD DRAPER

The Midway Home Demonstration club met with their living-room improvement demonstrator, Mrs. Howard Draper, October 10.

Mrs. Draper has her improvements complete in this room, except to remove two panels from an outside door and replace them with glass and use lighter draperies, and ivory paint for the wood work, to have more light.

Miss Lillith Boyd, Lynn County Home Demonstration Agent gave the demonstration "Living together in the Family".

If one wishes to give the best to their family, be courteous, and the children will learn to be courteous.

Be considerate, and treat the children as a person and not as an inferior.

Have confidence in each other and let them know you have.

Environment plays as big a part in the kind of person one is as heredity.

Members present were, Mesdames Weldon McClintock, Pete Curry, Curtis Driver, H. A. Rowe, Otis Curry, Sam H. Floyd, R. L. Littlepage, Alice Duncan, Rufus Slover, R. B. Floyd, and Howard Draper.

We are glad to report J. L. Reese up again after his recent illness.

P. T. A. Sponsors Carol Singing

The Parent-Teachers Association of Tahoka is sponsoring a movement for a "Community Carol Singing" at the school building some night during the Christmas holidays. It is asking the other clubs and organizations of the town to join in this movement: The Phebe K. Warner Club, the All-Sew Club, the Home Demonstration Club, the Eastern Star, the Rotary Club, all the churches, and all the school students. Their plan is for everybody to "Learn a carol a week". The name of the carol to be memorized each week will be announced in advance in the News.

The following statement has been furnished the News by Mrs. Irvin Stewart and Mrs. J. K. Applewhite for publication this week.

"When we gather in groups and go about singing carols on Christmas eve, it is interesting to know how that beautiful custom started. 'In pagan countries, before Christ was ever born, people sang songs in celebration of the beginning of each year. And after Christ was born and songs had been written about his birth, Christian nations began to sing carols on Christmas Eve. Now, nothing can take their place in our own way of celebrating Christmas. It is really a beautiful custom to go about in bands on Christmas Eve singing these ancient carols.

"This year the Parent-Teachers Association is asking the clubs and churches in town to 'Learn a carol a week', which will be announced and probably printed in The Lynn County News each week from now until Christmas.

"Some night during Christmas week, we will have a community carol singing at the school house. Our first song will be: 'O Come, All Ye Faithful', which can be found in all the school and church song books.

H. C. Crie, Former Editor Of The News Writes From New Mexico Home

(Ed. Note: The News has received the following communication from H. C. Crie, former editor of the News. Mr. Crie and wife were owners and publishers of The News from June, 1905, until they sold it to Jas. L. Dow of the Lubbock Avalanche in the middle teens.)

Cubero, New Mexico, Nov. 6, 1938.
To The Lynn County News Force:

Dear Friends:
"Long time I no write."
I have intended to write ever since I moved to New Mexico over five years ago.

"We purchased an acre and half ranch" twelve miles north of Albuquerque, a mile west of the Rio Grande, and about 25 miles west of Sandia Peak, the highest point in the Sandia Mountains, where the McCormick youth fell to his death this spring.

This peak, rising ruggedly several thousand feet above the valley, was the first object I saw when I looked out of my bedroom window in the morning and the last that I saw at night. As I looked on this imposing height, I often thought of the first verse of the 121st Psalm: "I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills whence cometh my help", and believe it or not, Mr. Ripley, I derived great moral strength therefrom.

The old name for the valley road on which we lived was Corrales, or sheep pens, but the post office was Sandoval. I am now living at Cubero, or more properly speaking, at Cubero Junction, situated in the triangle between the old road to Cubero and the new highway 66 that leaves Cubero a half mile or so to the east. We are about 56 miles west of Albuquerque and about 20 or 30 miles south of Mt. Taylor, which, although it is over 11,000 feet high, looks like a gigantic ant hill. It was on the western peak of this mountain that the first major transcontinental air plane accident occurred.

Cubero Junction boasts of three business houses, strung along the east side of highway 66, which here, for about a mile, runs almost north and south, between the huge, high, rocky cliff to the east and Black Mound to the west. The road, one of the best in the United States, is nearly level and all kinds of vehicles from the wagon and team traveling three miles per hour to the huge trucks and fast autos, many of them going past "90 to nothing".

The first building, beginning at the apex of the triangle is the Dixie Tavern. Beer, whiskey, wines, liquors, coffee, short order meals ready to serve from 6 a. m. to 11 p. m. every day in the year except that no beer or liquor of any kind is served from midnight Saturday until midnight Sunday.

The central building is occupied by the Black Mound Trading Post; groceries and notions, Indian-made jewelry, rugs and pottery; C. F. Shook, proprietor.

Last and least is the Black Mound Service Station, where free air and water, also gasoline and oils, may be had from 5:30 a. m. until 9 p. m. every day in the year; also information on any subject or any place furnished by Yours Truly.

This is a wonderful country, dry as a bone at least 300 days each year, over 6,000 feet high, clear and sun shining most of the time, although Mt. Taylor almost always has its quota of clouds hanging around.

high mesa east of us thirty minutes after it has disappeared behind Black Mound.

I have never spent a winter here but I have an idea that old Taylor will send its icy breath through the notch many miles per.

A few miles west of us is a Government air port, and we are right under a transcontinental air line that makes a regular flight night and morning, with occasional flights during the 24 hours. We often see a flight of government planes go over, 14 being the most we have counted at one time.

We make our own light and refrigeration for the store and station.

Cubero is a mile northeast of here and is a typical Mexican adobe village, half of it built on solid bare rock, and the other half on rock thinly covered with sand. They have one large department store and no other business house I have seen except the small store the post office is in.

Mt. Taylor has several white peaks, and as I finish this letter we are having a snow squall, not much snow but lots of squall.

If you have managed to read down this far, I wish you would forward The Lynn County News to H. C. Crie, Cubero, N. M., for you don't know how much I miss it.

Hoping you are all well and happy, I remain, HARRY C. CRIE.

Among those here last Friday afternoon to see the football game between Tahoka and O'Donnell was J. B. Walker, who was the second superintendent or principal the Tahoka school ever had. There were only two teachers then, and Miss Minnie Chambers, now Mrs. J. W. Elliott of this city, was the assistant. After teaching a few years Mr.

Walker entered other lines of business but continued to make his home here until about a year ago, when he removed to Lubbock. Mrs. Elliott has lived here continuously since she gave up her position as a teacher in the Tahoka school.

"Every Winter had Terrible Colds"

Nurse's Grateful Letter

"I want to thank you for the wonderful cough and cold medicine, BUCKLEY'S MIXTURE. I bought the first bottle last winter, for the old gentleman whom I am taking care of, for he had had terrible colds every winter. The first dose helped, and after the third dose cold was gone. It does such quick work." Mrs. C. Davis. Don't take chances, for even the most stubborn, racking cough swiftly yields to the powerful influence of BUCKLEY'S MIXTURE (triple action), the largest seller of cough medicine for colds and bronchitis in all of cold Canada. Lynn County History

As Revealed by the Files of the Lynn County News of November 14, 1913.

Last Saturday according to previous arrangements. The Lynn County News gave a premium of $5.00 to the best colt between three and five months old. A colt belonging to George Short was awarded the premium. It is seven months old and weighs 680 pounds.

Founder of News Visits Tahoka
Otis Lilly of Amarillo, who is in Tahoka today, Friday, paid The News a pleasant call this morning. Mr. Lilly is representing the Fox Typewriter now but was the Founder of The Lynn County News in 1903. Mr. Lilly, with the help of his young wife, published The News for about twelve months when his health failed and he had to sell out and move to a lower altitude. Mr. Lilly sold The News to the Boyd brothers of Snyder, who ran the paper about eight months, when they mixed too much in local politics and had to quit and pick cotton for a living. The News plant was idle from October, 1904, to June, 1905 when the present management brought it to life again and have managed to keep it going pretty regularly ever since. (Ed. Note: The "present management" when the above paragraph was written was H. C. Crie & Company, with H. C. Crie as editor.)

ELDER DRENNON'S NOTES

Another message to our readers: Thanks for the kind things said to me at the football game about our weekly visits through the News. The pleasure is all mine.

We want to commend the fine, friendly spirit manifested at the ball game. It was a fine game and played fair, as far as I was able to discern.

Next week will bring with it another national Thanksgiving day. It seems to me we have more to be thankful for this year than usual, especially we who live in good old Lynn county where God has blessed us with a normal crop. As I read the world news about conditions in poor old China, Germany, Palestine and almost any part of the world except our fair land, where we have religious, civil, and social liberty, I am indeed thankful that I am an American citizen.

I wish my readers would turn and read Psalm 103 and then turn your attention to verse 2 and meditate. Are we not prone to forget all God's benefits?

When I hear so much murmuring and complaining, I think of the 603,550 men above twenty years of age who left Egypt for the promised land. Only two reached it. The most of the others failed because of murmuring and unbelief. How many are going to miss the heavenly land for the same reason!

As I visited Lubbock today and saw the fine preparations they have made for the delegates to the P. T. A. convention, and as I watched the reception committee at the depot extend every courtesy you could ask I was made to realize why Lubbock is the fine town it is and why it is growing so fast. They have what it takes to make a city. Tahoka, take a lesson from her.

When we look upon the gruesome pictures in the papers of our wrecks, it ought to make us more careful in our driving and also think about how we stand with God. If we were called into His presence, how would it be with our souls?

Last Lord's Day we began a series of lessons on The Divinity of Christ. The besetting sin of the world is unbelief. It seems to me that we have more evidence that Jesus was the Son of God than we have that George Washington was the first, or second, President of the United States, and yet many will reject the one and accept the other.

Yours for more people who are thankful for what they have instead of coveting what others have. Visit the friendly church sometime.—R. P. DRENNON.

RAILWAY TRANSPORTATION SHOWS DECREASE

The Santa Fe handled a total of 28,598 cars in the preceding week of this year.

Mrs. John A. Haley of Midland and grandson John A. Haley II, of Kermit and little granddaughter Anne Mason, spent Friday night here as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hill and Patricia. Mrs. Haley is acting president of the Texas Tech pending the election of a regular president, and she and the others had been to Lubbock that day to see the Tech-Gonzaga football game. She is an aunt of Frank's.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hilliard of Cone, Mrs. Alva Cowart of Crosbyton, and Mrs. D. E. Wright of Rogers, Bell county, spent Sunday here with Mrs. Harry Woods east of town, who is a sister of Mr. Hilliard and Mrs. Wright. Mrs. Wright remained here until Tuesday, when she was accompanied back to Cone by Mrs. Woods, where they expected to spend a few days this week visiting other relatives.

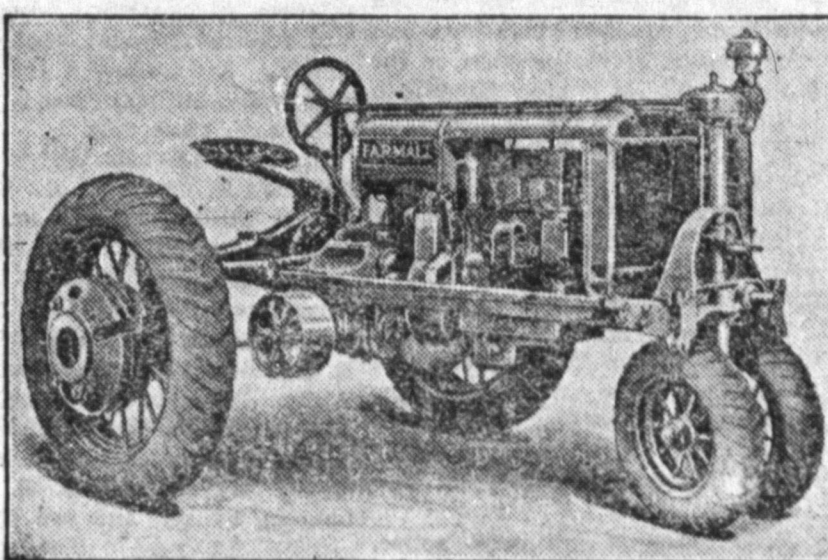

Mrs. Cecil Kersey and her friend Mrs. J. W. Taylor came down from Lubbock Saturday afternoon just to make a brief visit with friends in the court house and elsewhere in Tahoka. Mrs. Kersey is the former Miss Sylvia Robb and was county home demonstration agent here about four years. Mrs. Taylor formerly resided a few miles east of Tahoka. Their many friends here were delighted to see them.

Mrs. G. W. Tomlin of Corpus Christi and her husband came in Thursday morning to spend some time here visiting her mother, Mrs. Julia Houston.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Houston of Amarillo are here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Houston.

Cotton Bagging Introduced Here

Claude Donaldson, manager of the Farmers Cooperative Gin here, says that he has recently wrapped forty of the bales of cotton ginned at his plant with cotton bagging.

The movement to use cotton bagging is being fostered by the Department of Agriculture at Washington and by farmers interested in finding additional uses for cotton. Especially is it being urged that farmers in counties or communities which have adopted a single variety of cotton demand that their products be wrapped in cotton bagging. Just how general the use of this material may become remains yet to be seen. Mr. Donaldson says that while this bagging costs a little more than the bagging now in general use, yet it helps create a demand for cotton and thus helps the price.

Perhaps not many of us who are not engaged directly in the production, transportation, or ginning of cotton, know that the bagging generally used in West Texas for wrapping purposes is made of second-hand sugar sacks. But such, says Mr. Donaldson, is the case. These sacks are first furnished to the sugar manufacturers in this and other countries for the sacking of sugar and are then sold to the cotton trade to be converted into cotton wrapping. This material is used almost exclusively in West Texas. In South Texas and many other sections of the cotton country, jute is used for bagging. Jute is manufactured from hemp and other forms of vegetation grown mostly in the tropics.

This is by no means the first time that a movement has been started to use cotton as a substitute for jute and sugar sacks for cotton bagging. Many of our older citizens will remember that back in the days of the Farmers Alliance, that organization started a movement for the use of cotton bagging, and they were so successful that for a few years in many parts of the country cotton bagging was used almost exclusively.

Mrs. Durwood McGinty of Plains accompanied by her sister, Mrs. R. B. Jones and daughter Grace, of Tahoka returned Monday night from an automobile trip to Temple, Houston, Galveston and intermediate points. At Caldwell they visited their grandmother, Clinton, at Rosenberg they visited their sister, Mrs. R. A. Dawes, besides visiting with friends at Cameron and other points.

Hardy's Retirement Leaves Howell Oldest Pastor

Rev. J. T. Howell, pastor of the Methodist Church at Wilson, was a visitor in The News office Monday and told us he expected to be transferred from the Wilson charge at the meeting of the Northwest Texas Conference in Memphis this week.

Bro. Howell is well known over Lynn county, and many friends will regret to learn that he will leave us.

He was pastor at Tahoka on two different occasions, the first period being in 1908 and 1909, when the nearest railroad point was Big Spring, and supplies were freighted into Tahoka by wagon from that city. He returned to Tahoka in 1923 as pastor of the Methodist Church and during his two years stay was instrumental in the erection of the beautiful $30,000 church building.

Bro. Howell says the retirement of Rev. Ben Hardy of Tahoka brings a bit of sadness to him both because of the pioneer preacher passing out of service and because of the realization it brings to him of the fact that he has been preaching so long.

Thirty-four years ago Rev. Howell became a pastor in the Northwest Texas Conference, and with the superannuating of Rev. Hardy, the Wilson pastor is the oldest preacher in the Conference in years of service.

Rev. Howell is still very active, however, and is due to serve many more years as a preacher.

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS ARMISTICE PROGRAM

Armistice program at the High School auditorium at 11 o'clock. His talk was one every person in Lynn county should have heard.

The program, under the direction of Supt. W. T. Hanes, opened with "Reveille" played on the trumpet by J. H. Felts. The colors were presented by Boy Scouts, while ex-service men seated in a special section stood at attention. Gold Star parents Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Sheard and Mrs. Mattie Bradley were honored, and the audience stood, one minute in silent tribute to those who died in the World War. "Beautiful Ohio" was sung by a girls quartet, little Misses Peggy Fenlon and Joan Edwards presented a tap number, a girls quartet sang "Alexander's Ragtime Band", and the audience joined in singing a group of war-time songs. Graduates of Tahoka high, by years were then asked to stand.

Following the program, ex-service men and their families were guests of the Marion G. Bradley post of the American Legion at lunch in the grade school gymnasium. Food was served to three hundred.

At 1 o'clock, ex-students of the high school, met at the grade school to form a permanent organization, account of which appears in another column.

The football game in the afternoon between Tahoka and O'Donnell was the climaxing feature of the day, account of which also is in another story.

Students Put Over Red Cross Drive

The annual Red Cross drive is being made this week in the Tahoka schools and was closed today with every room a member of the Junior Red Cross. After the drive for student membership had closed with 100% participation among students the teachers then had a 40 minute drive for adult membership of the faculty.

The faculty also went over the top in less than one hour after the County chairman had called on them. So the Tahoka schools are now 100% members of the Red Cross.

Rev. and Mrs. Geo. A. Dale of Tahoka, and Mrs. Geo. Truett Dale of Lubbock returned Tuesday night from Houston where they had visited relatives following the Baptist Convention in Dallas. Bro. Dale reports that he is glad to be back and is looking forward to a splendid service at the church Sunday morning.

Slaton's Brother Dies Suddenly

John Oscar Slaton, 41, brother of W. R. Slaton, Tahoka banker, was found dead 80 miles north of Clifton, Arizona, November 10. Doctors said he evidently died from a heart attack. Burial was at Morenci, Arizona, Saturday.

Mr. Slaton had gone on a hunting trip the previous Sunday, and when he failed to return a search was started for him. Thursday the body was found in a sitting position on a rock at the foot of a bluff in a heavily vegetated and rugged country.

He was married in Lubbock to Miss Georgia Chapman, teacher in the public schools there. She and their two children were visiting relatives in Amarillo when word was received Monday that he was missing, and returned immediately to Arizona. He had been a resident of Arizona since 1917.

Slaton is survived by his mother, Mrs. W. R. Slaton of Seminole, Texas; his wife; two sisters, Mrs. H. N. Stone, wife of the Seminole mayor, and Mrs. Jack Sharp of Albuquerque, N. M.; four brothers, Carl E. Slaton of Lubbock, Walter B. Slaton, banker of Tahoka, Texas, Wilbur Slaton of Las Vegas, N. M., and Pat Slaton of Seminole; two uncles John Slaton, Hereford, Texas, lawyer, and O. L. Slaton, Lubbock banker, and two children.

W.P.A. Needs Your Discarded Toys

Now that Christmas is drawing near again the women of the Renovation Project are anxious to help make the children happy again, especially those in the needy homes. So, if you have toys that have been discarded by your children they may make some other child happy 'til Christmas. Get them together, an' call Mrs. Grace Clinton, supervisor of the Renovation Project of the W. P. A. Under her direction the skillful fingers of the women workers will soon make those toys as good as new, and attractive enough for any girl or boy. These toys must be ready to be transferred out by December tenth, so call Mrs. Clinton at 34 or 177, today.

Besides renovating old toys and making new ones, which forms a large part of the work at this time, the women, as usual, are making over old furniture, clothing, hats and many other articles. If each family in Lynn County will bring their discarded garments, shoes, hats, furniture, and any other article used in a home that they have no use for Mrs. Clinton will see that they are put into good shape and passed on to a family who can make good use of them.

"I wish to thank the people of the County for their co-operation. John Oscar, and Georgia Ann. W. B. Slaton was unable to attend the funeral.

with this project in the past, and assure you that we shall be glad to receive other contributions at any time", said Mrs. Clinton to a representative of the News this week. Mrs. Clinton also expressed her appreciation for the cooperation of the Lynn County News.

S. W. Ellis of Christoval was here from Sunday to Wednesday visiting his children, Miss Viola Ellis, Mrs. C. F. Gaylen and Burns Ellis.
