NUMBER 159

SENTENCED TODAY IN SUPREME COURT

SHERIFF AND OTHER DEFENDANTS ORDERED TO PAY PENALTY FOR CONTEMPT.

HISTORY OF THE AFFAIR

Sentence Grows Out of Failure of the Sheriff and Others to Protect Tennessee Negro.

By Associated Press.
Washington, D. C., Nov. 15.—The defendants in the Shipp contempt case were sentenced in the supreme court this morning to ninety day imprisonment.

This was the second time in the history of the Supreme Court of the United States that that august body had imposed a sentence upon citizens, held guilty of disregarding its mandates. The previous occasion was in another generation.

Heading the little group of six men, found guilty of contempt, as they took their places before the black robed justices, was Captain Joseph H. Shipp, the sheriff in Chattanooga, Tenn., when he offended the court. His tall, straight figure, his seamed face and his gray-streaked beard, told of his long service in the army of the Confederacy.

Bowed down under his 76 years, Jeremiah Gibson, the jailer, stood with him. With bedimmed eyes he looked upon the long white locks of the Chief Justice, himself 76 years of age, who would soon pronounce sentence upon him, perhaps send him to prison. He and Captain Shipp had been found guilty of failing to protect a negro, waiting to be hanged on a charge of a heinous crime against a white woman, after the Supreme Court of the United States had stayed his execution.

Luther Williams, Nick Nolan, Henry G. Galt and William Mayes, residents of Chattanooga, found guilty of participation in the lynching of Ed. Johnson, formed the rest of the group. Before them sat the officials of the Department of Justice. Around about them in the little court room, were their attorneys and other lawyers, while the three rows of seats for spectators were crowded.

The proceedings were practically without precedent. In 1875, John Chiles, a business man of Texas, was brought before the court for contempt in connection with dealings in Texas indemnity bonds, contrary to an order of the Supreme Court. He was fined $250. But that instance lacked the interest of the case today. In it were involved no race question, no lynching, no interference with state jurisdiction; only the majesty of the law as interpreted by the highest court of the land.

The case today originated in the court's decision in March, 1906, to consider the appeal of Johnson, from a verdict of the Tennessee courts holding him guilty and sentencing him to be hanged on a charge of assault. The night after the determination of the Supreme Court to review the proceeding was wired to Chattanooga a mob stormed the jail, took the prisoner out, and lynched him.

The court was much incensed by the lynching, and at its instance the Attorney General instituted proceedings against Sheriff Shipp, Jailer Gibson and twenty-five others supposed to have been implicated in the lynching, charging them with contempt of court. Many of the accused were exonerated, and in the end only six were found guilty.

THANKSGIVING DAY IS TO BE WELL OBSERVED

Thanksgiving Day is to be observed with more than usual elaborateness in Wichita Falls this year. Union Thanksgiving services are to be held probably at the First Baptist church and all the congregations of the city will join in. The presence of the delegates to the Austin Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church will cause the program to be a complete one and music will be a feature, the chorus holding nightly rehearsals. Bishop William Quayle of Oklahoma City is to deliver the Thanksgiving sermon.

PECOS TO MARFA.

Railroad Through Toyah Valley Now Seems Probable.

Texas News Service Special.
Pecos, Tex., Nov. 15.—Charles W. Swenson of New York, who recently purchased the Toyah Valley Irrigation properties, today deposited half of the bonus of two hundred thousand dollars asked by W. L. Carville and associates for the construction of the railroad from Pecos through the Toyah Valley, to Marfa.

The residents along the proposed line are raising the other hundred thousand. Swenson is one of the largest owners of West Texas lands, the holdings of the Swenson brothers exceeding a million acres.

HAS A NARROW ESCAPE.

Mrs. E. T. Hall of Fort Worth, Nearly Drowned Near Crowley.

Texas News Service Special.
Fort Worth, Tex., Nov. 15.—Mrs. E. T. Hall, wife of Dr. E. T. Hall of Fort Worth, narrowly escaped death in crossing Big Sycamore Creek, near Crowley yesterday, when her carriage was overturned by the flood.

H. Whitfield, a farmer, rescued her three hundred yards below the place where Mrs. Hall and her brother-in-law, Sam Mayes, attempted to ford the stream.

Mrs. Hall clung to the vehicle and was thus saved.

The flood was caused by heavy rains Saturday.

IS SERIOUSLY INJURED BY EXPLOSION OF GAS

Robert Huff, Jr., son of Mr. Robert E. Huff, president of the First National Bank, met with a painful and what might have been a very serious accident, last Saturday evening, by the explosion of acetylene gas.

The young man had struck a match for the purpose of lighting the lamps on the family automobile, and in applying the match the explosion took place, burning his eyes quite severely. Dr. DuVal was called to attend his injuries, and today reports that the patient will suffer no serious results, but will be forced to keep his room for several days yet.

Baptist Convention Ends.

Dallas, Tex., Nov. 15.—The Texas Baptist Association's sixty-sixth annual convention here today raised a fund of ten thousand dollars for improvements at the Buckner Orphans Home here.

The convention will probably conclude its work tonight. More than two thousand have been in constant attendance.

Thanksgiving Proclamation.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 15.—President Taft today officially proclaimed Thursday, November 25th as Thanksgiving Day.

HASKELL'S DEMURRER IS OVERRULED—TO BE TRIED

Texas News Service Special.
Chickasha, Okla., Nov. 15.—Federal Judge Marshall today overruled the demurrers of Gov. C. N. Haskell and the others charged with fraud in obtaining Muskogee townships.

Judge Marshall's decision compels Haskell and the other defendants to stand trial, unless they plead guilty, which is unlikely.

The counsel for the defendants entered exceptions to the court's ruling and announced that further motions would be filed. The defendants were ordered to appear before Judge Marshall next Saturday and plead guilty or not guilty.

GRAND JURY CONVENES.

Alleged Shortage of Charles Warriner to Be Investigated.

By Associated Press.
Cincinnati, O., Nov. 15.—At a specially convened session of the grand jury an investigation was begun today of the alleged shortage of Charles Warriner, local treasurer of the Big Four Railroad.

It is stated today that Mrs. Stewart or Mrs. Ward, as she is also known, will be summoned to appear as a witness probably tomorrow.

DELEGATION FROM BYERS GOES TO HENRIETTA TODAY AFTER NEW ROAD

A delegation of eighteen leading business men from Byers passed through Wichita Falls this afternoon en route to Henrietta, where they will hold a conference with the leading business men of that city tonight, with a view to arousing interest in the proposed road from Henrietta through Byers to Waurika, where it will connect with the Rock Island.

The Byers business men think Wichita Falls ought to help them secure this road to Waurika, but are trying to interest Henrietta, also, so as to have two chances at it. They seem determined to secure the line and are confident of success.

Coffman Jury Secured.

Texas News Service Special.
McKinney, Tex., Nov. 15.—The jury was completed this morning at the trial of Louis Coffman, charged with murdering his wife near Melissa, and the state commenced introducing evidence this afternoon. A special venire of two hundred and forty tallies was exhausted and fifty additional veniremen reported this morning.

CROWELL CASE TO COME UP SHORTLY

SECOND TRIAL WILL BEGIN NEXT WEEK IN DISTRICT COURT AT HENRIETTA.

INTEREST IN CASE HIGH

Alleged Murder Took Place Over One Year Ago, Several Miles East of This City.

The second trial of M. J. Crowell, who is charged with the murder of his wife about five miles east of this city, in Clay county, will be given next week in the district court at Henrietta, and the case is awaited with more than passing interest.

On Crowell's former trial he was convicted of murder in the second degree and sentenced to fifteen years in the penitentiary. The court of criminal appeals reversed the verdict on account of an alleged error in the admission of evidence, and the case will come up again for trial at Henrietta next week.

The case has attracted considerable attention on account of the circumstances surrounding it and the trial will doubtless be watched with interest. It was brought out at the former trial that Mr. and Mrs. Crowell were not on very good terms with each other and there were other features that made the case an interesting one. District Attorney Martin is to conduct the state's case and Mathis and Weeks of this city, will represent the defendant.

The alleged murder took place slightly over a year ago, Mrs. Crowell's body being found by her children upon their return from school one afternoon. The arrest and indictment of Crowell followed shortly.

PROPOSITIONS FOR NEW ROADS MADE

SEVERAL PROSPECTIVE RAILROADS TO BE BUILT THROUGH WICHITA FALLS.

ARE STILL INDEFINITE

Seem to Be as Yet From Consummation, But Promoters Are All Very Optimistic.

Railroad propositions galore are now up for attention of the Chamber of Commerce and that body will doubtless receive some very attractive proposals in the near future for the construction of the contemplated lines. Some of the propositions appear very improbable at first glance, but there is no telling what success may attend them.

Secretary Gohlke is in touch with the promoters of the proposed line from Beloit, Wisconsin to the Gulf through this city and the letter received recently regarding that road is in very optimistic tone, stating that the financing of the matter is about accomplished. The promoters of the proposed road from this city to Lawton, Oklahoma, also seem very confident of success. This line, it will be remembered, was surveyed some time ago and has long been considered a very feasible proposition. The promoters will ask for a bonus for this road, they state.

The Byers Commercial Club is trying to enlist the cooperation of the Chamber of Commerce for the building of a line from Byers to Waurika, to a connection with the Rock Island. The Rock Island interests have long contemplated the building of this line and it has been surveyed. Byers people point out that it would give Wichita Falls direct connection with Kansas City. The gap is only twelve miles long.

Other railroad propositions, less definite are pending and will receive attention when the time comes. Just what any of those already pending will amount to, remains to be seen.

NEW ORLEANS TO DENISON.

Boat Line Between Points Is Among Possibilities.

Texas News Service Special.
Shreveport, La., Nov. 15.—N. H. Ragland of Paris, Tex., secretary of the Red River Improvement Association, and a number of other Texans, are here today in conference with Shreveport merchants, urging the restoration of navigation on Red River from New Orleans to Denison.

This is part of the campaign to force a reduction of railroad rates from the gulf ports, and the shippers here and in the Texas cities are co-operating to obtain additional federal appropriations for river improvements. The government has appropriated fifty thousand dollars.

EAST TEXAS CYCLONE.

Several Houses Blown Down Near Mt. Pleasant.

Texas News Service Special.
Mt. Pleasant, Tex., Nov. 15.—Additional report received here today from the outlying country swept by the storm of cyclonic proportions last night state that houses belonging to Hugh Nelson, Will Searcy and W. T. Bolden were blown down.

CHARITY ORGANIZATION TO BE PERFECTED SOON

Very soon the charity dispensed by the people of Wichita Falls will be on an organized basis which will preclude the giving of money and clothing to the undeserving and yet see that all who are needy are well taken care of. A committee consisting of two members from each congregation in the city will meet tomorrow and draw up a plan of action, which is to be considered at the union Thanksgiving service on November 25. At this meeting an effort will be made to perfect the organization of a united charities association, over which this committee will have control. It is believed that with this general organization and one or two auxiliary bodies of this kind, that the deserving poor of the city will be well taken care of.

SANTA FE SHOPS LANDED.

Raising of $25,000 Bonus Assures Them for Sweetwater.

Texas News Service Special.
Sweetwater, Tex., Nov. 15.—The citizens committee today completed its canvass for the twenty-five thousand dollar bonus which assures the locating here of the car shops and round house of the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe Railroad.

WANT MANDATE STAYED UNTIL NEXT JANUARY

By Associated Press.
Washington, D. C., Nov. 15.—Application was made today in the district court of appeals by the counsel for Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison, the labor leaders whose sentences for imprisonment for contempt of court were recently affirmed by that court, to stay the issuance of the mandate until January, 1910.

The court later denied the application.

Unless notice of appeal is given before next Friday night, the mandate will be handed down next Saturday.

MESSANGER BOYS STRIKE.

Are Demanding Wage Increase at Fort Worth.

Texas News Service Special.
Fort Worth, Tex., Nov. 15.—The entire force of the Western Union Telegraph Company's messenger boys here went out on a strike today for a wage increase. The boys demand seven cents per mile for all messages delivered more than one mile. They now receive two cents. Fearing trouble, the company's clerks were appointed as deputy sheriffs and two policemen were stationed at the office. It is claimed the messengers in other Texas cities receive seven cents.

After dry weather all last night, intermittent showers fell during the night and the weather is still decidedly wet today. Showers are reported from other points in this vicinity.

SOME CHANCE FOR ENTOMBED MINERS

THEIR FATE, HOWEVER, IS BELIEVED TO BE HOPELESSLY SEALED BY THIS TIME.

NO SUCCESS REPORTED

Rescuing Parties Go Down to Third Vein, But Find Only Lanterns and Caps.

By Associated Press.
Cherry, Ill., Nov. 15.—Before nightfall the probable fate of the three hundred men who are entombed in the St. Paul mine will be ascertained. The state mining officials this morning announced that their plan was to raise the hoisting shaft and lower a cage of rescuers to the third vein, where, if alive, the miners are waiting.

All through the night a few anxious men and women kept faithful watch, surrounding the opening of the mine. President Newman of the state mining board said that he considered it a miracle is anyone has been spared.

Early today the rescuing cage made one trip to a section of the third vein and the faint hopes of the watchers grew fainter still when only caps and lanterns of the entombed miners were brought back.

Several of the rescuing parties returned from the second vein this morning and they report the mine to be caving in in several places. The mine is still on fire and three hundred miners are known to be inside.

A small pile of burning hay was the trivial cause of the accident, it causing an explosion Saturday afternoon that caused the mine to cave in at many places, killing about one hundred miners outright and imprisoning several hundred more. Some faint hope that the entombed men are still alive is held out.

Hope is all but banished by the relatives of three hundred or more men, now numbered among the victims of the greatest mine disaster in the history of Illinois.

Not one man of the hundreds entombed in the St. Paul Company's mine will be taken out alive, is the practically unanimous opinion of those on the scene.

The officers of the local miners' union today notified President Lewis of the Mine Workers' Union, that three hundred and ten lives were lost in the St. Paul Coal Company disaster. President Lewis advised the local union that the five thousand dollars contribution of the national body was immediately placed at the disposal of the widows and orphans of the victims. A representative of the owners of the mine today declared the loss of life to be three hundred.

The fire is still burning in the mine and water is being played on the fire at the bottom of the shaft. The air shaft was ordered closed to shut off further circulation.

By Associated Press.
Cherry, Ill., Nov. 15.—More than one hundred bodies are reported found at the St. Paul mine today by the rescuers. Relatives of the victims and spectators fought furiously to reach the scene as the work of taking out the bodies began. A later report says, however, that no bodies have been recovered from the mine and that the previous report sent out is untrue.

To Massachusetts Soldiers.

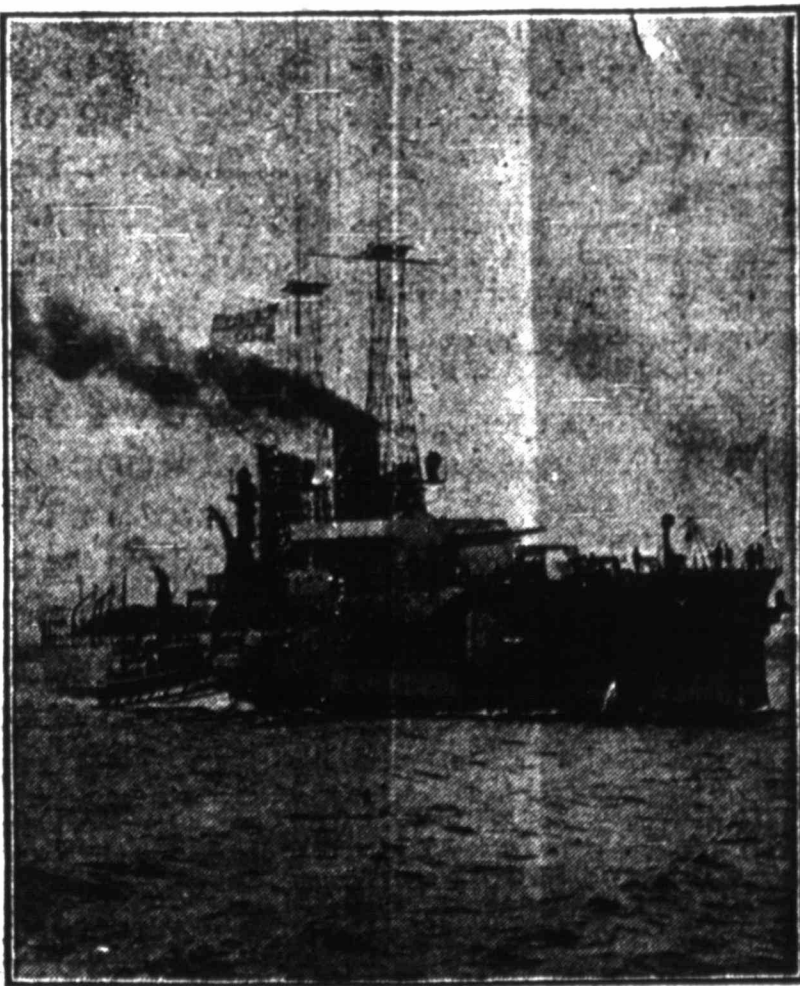

By Associated Press.
Baton Rouge, Nov. 15.—With simple and impressive ceremonies, the monument erected to the memory of the Massachusetts soldiers who were buried here during the war between the states, was unveiled today. Governor Draper of Massachusetts, made the principal address.

SEARCHING FOR NEGRO IN LOUISIANA TODAY

Shreveport, La., Nov. 15.—A posse of officers and citizens are today searching the vicinity of Marthaville, La., for the negro who assaulted Mrs. Polk Raines, the wife of a prominent farmer last night.

Lynching is certain if the negro is captured.

The negro was employed as a farm hand a few days ago and in the absence of Raines forced an entrance to Mrs. Raines' room. Her condition is critical.

THE NORTH DAKOTA, NEWEST AND MOST POWERFUL SHIP IN UNCLE SA M'S NAVY.

When the builders of the new battleship North Dakota gave her the first speed test off the Massachusetts coast they were much pleased with her performance of the giant vessel. She steamed at a rate of 19 knots an hour without difficulty and is expected to do much better on her official trial. The North Dakota is a faster and more formidable ship than the English Dreadnought and differs in many respects from all the other war vessels in the United States navy. The deck forward is high enough to keep the seas from washing on board and make it possible to use the guns when running at high speed in a storm. Her big guns are mounted in pairs in electrically controlled turrets. Two of these turrets are forward and three are aft. At a broadside the North Dakota can hurt 7,500 pounds of steel at an enemy.

"WHO'S YOUR FRIEND?"

Beresford's Comedy Pleases Audience At Wichita Theatre.

A gentle combination of comedy and pathos, with the former predominating, is "Who's Your Friend?" which was presented to a fair house at the Wichita Saturday night, with Harry Beresford in the stellar role. The play is a very entertaining one and seemed to be thoroughly satisfying to the local audience.

Harry Beresford as Daniel, the quaint itinerant inventor, fitted that part well. One beauty of his acting was his total lack of self-consciousness and he created laugh at the laugh with his quiet, subtle humor. One did not realize, until it was over how much he had laughed. The action of the play is unusual and this added to the enjoyment. Miss Taylor as Lila Hake and Miss Mathes as Judith Hake, portrayed those parts excellently and H. H. Sleight as Vanamoy was also a finished actor.

"Who's Your Friend?" is one of those simple hearted plays, that one is not apt to forget soon.

WINDOW GAZING.

A Fascinating Occupation For the Tourist in Paris.

Window gazing is one of the recognized vocations of the tourist in Paris. Everybody engages in this fascinating occupation, and, in truth, it would be impossible to resist the temptation, for the most beautiful wares are set forth in the most artistic manner, and the only way you can withstand the desire for possession is to leave the coin of the realm and even your letter of credit at home; otherwise there is no telling into what extravagance, not to say useless purchase, you may be persuaded when probably you have just gone out for a morning stroll.

Of all these windows the jewellers' seem to be the greatest magnets. But the bewildering part of it is that to the man or woman unversed in the knowledge of precious stones the imitations thereof look quite as good as the genuine articles. Pearls, diamonds, rubies, emeralds and so throughout the long list stones are so perfectly imitated that it is small wonder many American women succumb to the temptation of buying them. But there the temptation does not end, for they bring them home with all the intent to dazzle, bewilder and deceive their unsuspecting relatives and friends with the magnificence of their suddenly acquired wealth of jewels. Women whom one would never suspect of wearing imitation gems frequent the shops where they are for sale in Paris in the most open, not to say brazen, manner, while the foreign papers fairly bristle with advertisements of reconstructed and imitation gems, which only goes to show what a lucrative business it must be.—New York Tribune.

AN OLD BUSYBODY.

What the Bridegroom Thought of the Old Native at the Station.

While waiting for the train the bride and bridegroom walked slowly up and down the platform.

"I don't know what this joking and gadding may have been to you," he remarked, "but it's death to me. I never experienced such an ordeal."

"It's perfectly dreadful," she answered. "I shall be so glad when we get away from everybody we know."

"They're actually impertinent," he went on. "Why, the very natives!"

At this unpropitious moment the wheezy old station master walked up to them.

"Be you goin' to take this train?" he asked.

"It's none of your business," retorted the bridegroom indignantly as he guided the bride up the platform, where they consoled with each other over the impertinence of some of the natives.

Onward came the train, its vapor curling from afar. It was the last to their destination that day—an express. Nearer and nearer it came at full speed; then in a moment it whizzed past and was gone.

"Why in thunder didn't that train stop?" yelled the bridegroom.

"Cos you sed 'twarn't none of my business. I has to signal if that train's to stop."

And as the old station master softly stroked his board there was a wicked twinkle in his eye.—London Tit-Bits.

He Was Acting.

Stephen Phillips, the dramatist and poet, began life as a member of F. R. Benson's repertoire company. An amusing story is told of his debut. Mr. Benson had told him that the great thing for an actor is to act. "It does not matter," he continued, "so much what the words are which the actor speaks as the impression which he conveys to the audience by those words." Then he gave Mr. Phillips the part of Balthazar in "Romeo and Juliet." On the first night Balthazar managed the first line of his part and then forgot the rest. Romeo, in the person of Mr. Benson, had to go to his assistance and speak the rest of the part for him, while Balthazar exhibited an agony of speechless grief. "What do you mean," Mr. Benson afterward demanded, "by going on the stage without knowing your part?" "I was only doing what you told me. You said the great thing on the stage was not so much the words you speak as to act. Well, I was acting."—London Tit-Bits.

Tact.

"I am sorry to have to tell you so, boys," said the pleasant looking visitor who was addressing the Sunday school, "but there is not one chance in a thousand that any one of you ever will be president of the United States."

Still he failed to secure their undivided attention.

"But if you live up to your opportunities," he went on, eyeing them keenly, "some bright boy in this audience may become a great baseball pitcher or the world's champion batsman."

Instantly every boy sat up straight and began to listen.—Chicago Tribune.

Too Full.

A man very much intoxicated was taken to the police station.

"Why did you not bail him out?" inquired a bystander of a friend.

"Bail him out?" exclaimed the other. "Why, you couldn't pump him out!"

Allowances.

"Of course I admit your son is extravagant. But you must make allowances; he's young."

"That's all right! But the more allowances I make the quicker he blows 'em."—Judge.

Tuesday. Colder Tuesday.SENATOR CULLOM'S STRANGE VIEW.

Senator Cullom's appearance as an advocate of negro disfranchisement is decidedly interesting. He is a stalwart republican and one of the last men one could have expected to take such a stand. "Erase the negro vote," he says, "and this country will become a unit politically as it is now patriotically." In other words, the senator contends that the disfranchisement of the negro will make the south republican. As the senator wants the negro to vote in the north, we take it that he is not in favor of repealing the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments, or otherwise amending the constitution.

Therefore, we fail to comprehend the necessity of Senator Cullom's advice. Are not the negroes of the south already practically disfranchised?

There are in the states of the former Confederacy about 2,000,000 negro males of voting age. It is doubtful if 100,000 of these vote in any election, all because of election laws that make it impossible or undesirable for them to vote.

As this condition already exists, and the same states continue to go democratic, it would seem that something more than negro disfranchisement would be necessary to republi- canize the south. Of course, Senator Cullom is mistaken in the view that the majority of the white men of the south favor protection. The south has never favored protection and probably never will. There is quite a protection sentiment in most of the southern states, but it is a minority sentiment with no prospects of an early change.

The South's adherence to democracy is in no sense a matter of expediency. The south is democratic for democracy's sake, because it believes in the principles which have come down to us from the fathers of the party. If the south really wanted to vote the republican ticket, it could do so without fear of negro domination. The white men of the south could turn republican, if they wanted to do so, without abating a jot or tittle their determination to keep the negroes out of politics.

So, Senator Cullom will have to find some other way to win the south to his political faith. The elimination of the negro vote has already been accomplished without changing the political complexion of the southern states. We do believe, however, that if Senator Cullom will inaugurate a movement to eliminate the negro vote in the north, the democrats would carry some states without trouble, and enough of them to regain control of the government.—Houston Post.

Don't be frightened. It's true that Bryan is coming back to Texas, but he is only going to remain two days.

SENTENCED TODAY
IN SUPREME COURT

nounced, but all the defendants entered motions of rehearing, which had the effect of postponing action until this fall. On November 1, rehearing was denied and the six men ordered before the court for sentence today.

In investigating the case, the Supreme Court found that Johnson was removed from Chattanooga to Nashville before his trial, because of fear that he would be lynched. He was brought back for legal execution. When the Supreme Court stayed the execution, the court has held, Shipp made no effort and gave no orders to have the deputies or others guard the jail, but left the night jailer, there alone. That evening a white male prisoner was removed from the upper floor of the jail, leaving only Johnson and a white woman on that floor. The court pointed out that this same man had been removed in the same way at the time of the first attempt to lynch Johnson, which had been frustrated by the removal of the negro.

Shipp lived only a few blocks from the jail and when he was notified by the trial judge and the prosecuting attorney that a mob was at the jail, went there alone. Although for an hour in the midst of or near the mob, the court held he did not seek to obtain information so that he could identify any of its members.

The court in finding Shipp guilty commented on a published interview alleged to have been had with Shipp. "The people of Hamilton county were willing to let the law take its course until it became known that the case would not probably be disposed of for four or five years by the Supreme Court of the United States," it quoted Shipp as saying: "But the people would not submit to this, and I do not wonder at it."

Chief Justice Fuller in pronouncing

Shipp guilty said that this reference to "people" was significant. "For he was a candidate for re-election and had been told that his saving the prisoner from the first attempt to mob him would cost him his place, and he had answered that he wished the mob had got him before it did."

The court held that Gibson must have believed a mob would attack the jail the night Johnson was lynched, but although he was in charge of the jail more than two hours before its arrival, he made no effort to summon assistance to repel the attack. The testimony of Mrs. Baker, a white prisoner, to the effect that Gibson told her before the mob arrived that it was coming and for her to go to her cell, was referred to.

Williams and Nolan participated in the lynching, the court held upon the strength of direct testimony to that effect. Statements made by Padgett and Mayes were held as evidence of their guilt.

Benjamin Clothes

Copyrighted 1909 By
SCHLOSS BROS & CO.
Fine Clothes Makers
Baltimore and New York

After all, it's really the tailor who makes a suit a success or a failure. The most fascinating style would be a fizzle if there were not careful needle work underneath.

The most phenomenal designer on earth could not make a garment a success without the co-operation of the tailor. It is he who, by the diligent plying of his needle, gives shape and style and ensures service.

The world's most excellent tailors are congregated in New York on account of its being the greatest clothes manufacturing center in the world. They have more work and are better paid there.

Could there be a better explanation of why "Benjamin Clothes," Made in New York, are the most stylish and the most perfectly made of any on earth. Won't you make it your particular business to see these wonderful "Benjamin Clothes."

AMUSEMENTS

Joe Morris in "Too Many Wives." Joe Morris and his merry company of fun-makers will make their first appearance in this city at the Wichita Theatre on Thursday, Nov. 18, in a new musical comedy entitled "Too Many Wives." The book and lyrics are by Charles Horwitz and the music by Frederick Bowers. Morris, who has long been considered one of the best impersonators of Hebrew character on the American stage, will be seen to advantage in the role of Isadore Heyer, a wealthy Kansas City merchant. He has some very good parodies, and there are several very catchy musical numbers throughout the program, prominent among them being "I Want Someone to Show Me New York town," "My Honeysuckle Baby," "Big Chief Ol, Ol," "How'd You Like to Call Me Dearly," and "When the Moon Shines On Broadway." The chorus is composed of bright, pretty and vivacious girls who sing and dance well, and Managers Mitchell Brothers have given them opportunity to display some handsome Parisian creations, that are said to cause many feminine eyes to glisten with envy.

"A Knight for a Day." There is no reason to doubt the unusual merits of "A Knight for a Day," which is to be the attraction at the Wichita Theatre November 9. This smart musical play ran for a solid year at the Whitney Opera House in Chicago, totally eclipsing all records for long runs in that city. The presenting company is a very large one, and includes among its prominent members Mr. Edward Hume, an energetic comedian of original methods; Miss Grace Demar, an engaging comedienne who has scored heavily in the "slavery" part.

There are but two acts in "A Knight for a Day," but these are declared to be of unusual brilliancy and beauty. The electrical effects introduced in this brisk musical play have attracted wide attention, and were devised by Mr. Gus Sohke, who staged the production of that "American Beauty Chorus" are said to be unique and decidedly original. Edward Hume and Grace Demar are at the head of the large presenting company.

TO THE INSURING PUBLIC.

A Few Pertinent Facts About Fire Insurance Which It Will Pay You To Know.

Since the year 1880 some 440 stock companies engaged in the business of fire and marine insurance in the United States have either reinsured, retired, or failed—an average of more than 15 retirements and failures a year.

In purchasing securities, clothing, or builders supplies, or provisions, most buyers are careful to select the best that can be had for the money. Why should not the same law of trade govern the purchase of fire insurance? The rates charged by the stock fire insurance companies are the same. Then why not select policies of companies, which have large resources, whose business is carefully selected, and which have honorably met the enormous losses occasioned by the great conflagrations at Chicago, Baltimore and San Francisco, to say nothing of those resulting from the smaller catastrophes of the kind?

Any insurance policy is a good enough policy until the unexpected happens—until a fire comes, then it will be found that it paid to select the best.

Companies represented in our office have more than TWO HUNDRED MILLION DOLLARS in United States assets, they are the leaders, strong and old-established.

Don't forget that the very best insurance protection can be had for the same money as an inferior article. 155-tf ANDERSON & PATTERSON

A Gold Mine to All

The following is an analysis of water taken from a well on my farm two miles southwest of town, on the road to Lake Wichita; was made by G. S. Fraps, Ph. D., State Chemist, at the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas, on Oct. 13th, 1909.

This sample of water has the following composition, expressed in grains, per U. S. Gallon:

Carbonate of Lime.....	7.58
Sulphate of Lime.....	23.33
Calcium Chloride.....	15.68
Magnesium Chloride.....	22.19
Sodium Chloride.....	128.41

This water is classed as a muriated saline water. These waters stimulate the secretion of the stomach, increase digestion and favor a more complete absorption of the food. This water should have a laxative action, taken in small doses, and a purgative action taken in larger doses, on account of the magnesium which it contains. Yours truly, G. S. FRAPS.

This water will be delivered to any part of the city at 10c per gallon.

Newspapers Are Loyal

If the people of any community were as loyal to the interest of their town or city as the newspapers, what a splendid competition this country would see. But they are not; nor is any considerable part of the people. Nor are the business men or the manufacturers. That town succeeds just in proportion to the zeal with which it leading citizens back up the patriotism of its newspapers.

The true newspaper devotes columns and pages of space to boosting the city in which it is published. The most loyal and devoted boosters of any city are found in its newspaper offices. There is a sneering class of people in every city, who, finding no good in anything, decry the newspapers as mongers of sensations and as destroyers of character. They demand the news, and the newspaper that is a faithful mirror holds up to its readers the reflection of their own doings. If the community is bad, its newspaper pages will show it. If it is good these news articles will show it.

But the paper itself, it is far in advance of the procession. With here and there a yellow exception it stands unceasingly for the betterment of business conditions, constantly seeks to bring business to the town. Better than that, it stands for the moral upbuilding of its citizenship, stands for better civic conditions. In many cities the editors have an uphill task, and a lonesome one. There are times when the most devoted newspaper man will lose faith in the value of publicity. But honest and enthusiastic devotion to a city's interests will waken sufficient spirit among the people actually to accomplish things.—Springfield News.

THREE CONTRACTORS WORK NON-UNION MEN

The report in Saturday's Times, that the contractors of this city had granted the request of the Carpenter's Union for the eight-hour schedule, was in part erroneous, as three of the largest contractors have not agreed to this demand. Their contracts are being carried out with non-union carpenters, who are working on a nine-hour schedule. President T. W. Scott of the Carpenter's Union and N. R. Marcum, financial secretary and business agent, stated today that practically all of the one hundred or more-union carpenters in the city were at work, but that none of them were employed by the contractors who have failed to recognize the union. The contractors, it is stated, are willing to change to the eight-hour schedule, but think the nine-hour schedule ought to apply on contracts already accepted on that basis. It was upon this point that the differences arose.

When Opportunity Knocks.
Harpers Weekly.

A New Jersey farmer, whose farm is near a school for boys, was greatly annoyed by the depredations of the youngsters. Finding two of the boys helping themselves to his choice apples, he ushered them from his premises, ably assisted by the toe of his boot.

The following day he found the same boys loitering in the vicinity of his orchard fence.

"What are you scamps hangin' round here for?" he shouted. "I told you yesterday what you'd get if I caught you on my land agin."

"Yes, sir, we remember," explained the spokesman. "We didn't come for apples this time. We came to ask you to join our football eleven."

Up in South Missouri it is claimed to be so easy to make a living that a man will get too lazy to write a letter.

Douglas English of Lamar, had a friend who failed to answer his letters. Mr. English sent him a "pre-digested" letter to sign and mail back, as follows:

"Douglas English, Lamar, Mo.—I am and have been, too darned lazy to write you. I have promised so often that I double my ability to tell the truth. I am dead, to all intents and purposes, so far as writing is concerned. If I could muster sufficient energy I would write, but as I am shy on both energy and inclination, I shall only write my name." Here the writer left a blank with directions to "sign if not dead." This letter brought an answer.

CORRESPONDENCE SOLICITED

Buy and sell cotton on our own account, and for account of our customers. Receive, weigh, inspect, sample, and deliver from seller to buyer, and guarantee satisfaction to both parties as to honest and correct weights and class. Advance money, and finance when desired on Bills Lading for cotton F. O. B., any point tributary to these plants consigned to them. Pay inbound freight bills and collect refund freights on all cotton so consigned. Customers desiring to hold cotton for a period not exceeding thirty days and held on our wharves subject to our wharf terms, may draw an approximate value for same.

Fall and Winter Suits and Overcoats

What we have to say here concerns you lovers of exclusiveness in dress among our higher priced lines—those at $22.50, $25.00, $30.00 and $35.00. You will find materials and patterns confined to us alone in Wichita Falls by Hart, Schaffner & Marx. But very few suits of each material came to us and, considering the enormous size of our stock, we can surely say that nowhere in Wichita can you find so wide, so varied assortment of splendid garments. These are beautifully made, cleverly styled clothes, luxurious to the last degree; mere words are inadequate to describe them justly—come and see for yourself. Woollens have advanced and clothiers generally are putting up their prices—some more, some less; according to the skill and manner of their buying. There is nothing extraordinary interesting in that statement but read what follows. Hart, Schaffner and Marx are the greatest manufacturers of clothing in the country. The amount of woollen clothes they buy each season may be measured in leagues. Their buyers are most skillful and experienced. And here is the interesting point: On account of their buying skill, on account of their enormous quantity of their purchases, Hart, Schaffner & Marx have been enabled to give us better fabrics at each price than any other makes can afford. That is why Hart,

Prescription Value

The value of a prescription is not what you pay for its compounding; its in the good it does the patient. Have your prescriptions put up where pure ingredients and expert compounding will insure just the results anticipated by your physician. You cannot get better prescription service than we provide. No purer drugs and chemicals than ours are obtainable and we employ only registered pharmacists. We guarantee purity, accuracy and reasonable prices when your prescriptions are compounded here.
