Along The Waterfront

Copano Cove reports:

Ideal fishing conditions exist at Copano Cove and adjacent waters. Lots of water in the Bay and it's clear. Good tides have freshened up the water and catches include reds, trout, drum and golden croaker.

Morris Keith and Cecil Simmons of San Antonio caught over 100 fish weighing from 1½ pounds to 6 pounds each.

Miss Ruth James of Rockport did a repeat catching another 3 pound red off the 500' lighted pier. She still is champion in the children's division.

Mrs. Mary Denney and Miss Jessie Lee Lindloff went back to Waco with 60 pounds of speckled trout and golden croaker.

Mr. Glenn Brookham with his son and daughter-in-law, Eddie and Virginia, from San Antonio, enjoyed several rays of fishing at Copano Cove. They went hime with over 100 pounds of reds, trout, and golden croaker.

Mr. Bill Dobsen, associated with the local Western Auto Store, plugs at Copano Cove several times each week. Using a 52M11 Mirrorlure and a Johnson Silver Sprite, he landed 16 trout and red fish Tuesday night. His total catch for the week is about 60 pounds.

Even Ed Sullivan tells waterfront windies, and last Sunday night he related the tale of a 700-pound fish he caught that had a radio in its stomach which was still playing when the fish was landed.

Such things, says an oil-drilling acquaintance of ours who use to be in Saudi Arabia with Aramco, are not to be believed. Of course, he said, there are strange things in this world.

"While we were in Arabia Desert—the Empty Quarter" he said, "we ran into a lake of Turkish coffee. The way the lake got that way, however, makes only a tame story. Aladdin wanted a cup of coffee one day, and rubbed his lamp. But he was feeling a little thick-tongued that day, and said lake instead of cup, and the lake is still there, although Aladdin is long gone.

"But that's got nothing to do with the story in last week's Pilot," our driller friend said. "What's

Commissioners Reject Request, Buy New Trucks

The Commissioners Court, at its regular meeting, rejected a request for aid with a park and awarded a contract for two new dump trucks, Judge John D. Wendell said.

The request came from Rockport Park Board chairman, Charles Roe, Jr., who asked for county aid in a joint city-county-navigation district park to be built around the lower end of the small boat basin in Little Bay.

However, the commissioners, after deliberation, decided not to participate in the venture because of lack of funds, as this was not a budgeted item, and due to the property being within city limits and owned by the Navigation District Commissioners and they were entirely without jurisdiction in the matter.

Bids were opened on two trucks needed for the road and bridge department, and Atzenhoffer Chevrolet Company of Victoria was low with a bid of $5,058.68. Next low was George Motor Sales, $5,399; George Clark Chevrolet, Aransas Pass, $5,405.30; while Commercial Motors of Aransas Pass was high with a bid of $6,870.

The contract was awarded to Atzenhoffer Chevrolet.

Among those who placed in sections and won red points were Mrs. Caspary and Mrs. Jerry Wendell.

Seafood Landings In County Totals $5,116,332 In 1962

Aransas County's income from seafood in 1963 amounted to $5,116,332, according to figures especially compiled my Orman Farley, supervisor of statistics for the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service in Texas.

Of course, the largest portion of this came from shrimp. There was a total of 9,945,100 pounds of these succulent crustaceans landed in the county, which, with heads removed, gave processors 6,203,000 pounds for sale. Total money received for this catch was $4,942,949, Farley said.

Forty-three thousand, five hundred pounds of oysters brought local fishermen $15,730, and landings of 1,605,400 pounds of blue crabs produced an income of $104,351.

Bait squid and other bait amounted to 325,000 pounds, valued at $9,960; the remainder of the poundage was in various species of fish.

There were 700 pounds of ling marketed, for $42; black drum weighed 10,000 pounds and brought $800. Redfish ran higher, with 15,900 pounds and $3,908 totals; 8600 pounds of flounder brought in $2150; two hundred pounds of jewfish sold for $16; king whiting poundage was small, 100 pounds, that sold for $6.

Mullet accounted for 26,700 pounds of the catch total, which sold for $801; sea catfish totalled 5600 pounds, priced at $480. Twenty-four thousand pounds of speckled trout sold for $6,000; snapper totaled 113,700 pounds, which brought $28,425; sheepshead production was 5200 pounds, which brought $416. Warsaw totaled 3300 pounds, for which fishermen received $330.

Naylor Funeral Held Tuesday

Funeral services for M. E. (Toots) Naylor, former Aransas Pass merchant and chairman of the San Patricio County Navigation District were at 4 p.m. Tuesday at First Presbyterian Church there, with the Rev. Clement Dickey, pastor, officiating.

Burial was in Prairie View Cemetery under direction of Cage-Marshall Home.

Naylor, who had a hand in Coastal Bend highway and maritime development, died at 4 a.m. Monday after suffering a heart attack at his residence at 126 N. whitney. He was 63.

Naylor built and opened his own furniture and hardware store in April, 1940, which he operated until his retirement in January, 1955.

In recent years, Naylor had also been associated with Commercial Motors.

An avid sportsman, Naylor spent most of Sunday afternoon hunting doves near Three Rivers.

He complained of being tired after he returned home and suffered the attack a few hours later.

Survivors, in addition to his wife, include one daughter, Eldagene, also of Aransas Pass, and one sister, Mrs. May Henderson of Corpus Christi.

Local Women Attend Meeting

Representatives from the business and Professional Women's Club in Rockport participated in an annual conference held at the Americana Motor Hotel in Alice, Texas on Sept. 28 and 29.

Registration began at 10 a.m. Saturday followed by a style show and luncheon at 1:30 p.m. A banquet was held for 8 p.m. Saturday evening with Mrs. Carol Haberman of San Antonio, first vice president of the Texas Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc., as guest speaker. Mrs. Haberman is a practicing attorney in San Antonio and active in civic affairs of that city. The topic of her address was legislation.

Panel type workshops in Personal Development, Civic Participation, World Affairs and Finance at 9:15 were followed by a general business session conducted by Mrs. Rose Martin of Alice, Director of District 13. Mrs. Frances Dare, of Robstown, State Recording Secretary served as a workshop co-ordinator and gave a general summation of all workshops. Other state officials attending were Mrs. Lorene Kennedy, Corpus Christi, chairman health a safety; and Mrs. Vera Holeman, Corpus Christi, member of the legislative steering committee.

Fay Stokes of Alice was conference chairman and Mrs. Ruby Poole, of Corpus Christi, a past president of the Texas Federation served as conference parliamentarian.

Similar conferences were held in McKinney, Lamesa, Port Arthur and Kilgore.

Mrs. Lucille Schultz, local president, was among those attending.

He has taught at many of our leading universities and colleges and has written a number of outstanding books.

For more than a decade, Dr. Park served as a special lecturer on Far Eastern affairs at the Institutes of International Understanding under the auspices of Rotary International and the Department of Concerts and Lectures of the University of Minnesota.

CORPUS CHRISTI CHURCH MEMBERS TO GATHER HERE

From 5 p.m. Friday, Oct 4 until 2:00 p.m. Oct. 6, members of the congregation of the Church of the Good Shepherd in Corpus Christi will meet at the Bishop Elliot Conference Center on Copano Bay, for a conference led by the Rev. Lucien T. Jones, mental therapist at St. Luke's Hospital, Houston.

The camp, according to Mr. Harry Carter, has had a most successful and busy summer. The past three weekends have seen the following groups attending from Corpus Christi:

The Senior Fellowship of the First Presbyterian Church, the Concert Group of Del Mar College, and the Board of Directors of the YMCA.

Large Number Of Books Added To Library Shelves

Two hundred and ninety-four new books were added to the Aransas County Public Library shelves during September, according to Mrs. Val Jean Eaton, librarian, who said that although attendance at the library had dropped off, because of shorter hours, 633 books were circulated during the month.

Mrs. Eaton said she had also issued 22 cards during the month, and called attention to the fact that no books could be issued without the borrower presenting his or her card.

Board members complimented Mrs. Eaton, and discussed the problem of book losses. It has been tentatively decided that anyone who, after being warned they have books over a period of time, and who does not return those books, or make some satisfactory arrangement if they are lost, will be denied library privileges until such arrangements are made.

A great number of books, particularly in the juvenile sections, have been lost since the library has been in operation, and while board members and librarian have been making every effort to obtain return of these volumes, in many cases they have been unsuccessful.

Mrs. Eaton called attention to the fact that the people who are worst offenders apparently will repeat as often as they are allowed to take books from the library. Jack Baughman, chairman of the library board, said that these are the delinquents who will be refused library privileges unless they return the books they have and others they may borrow.

Fines will be charged at two cents per day on all books kept overtime.

Mrs. Eaton issued an appeal for more donations, either in books or cash. Either can be deducted from your income tax, she said, and books in good usable condition can be placed on the shelves if they're not duplicates. If they are duplicates, they are given to other libraries in the area who may need them.

Both paperbacks and hard cover books are needed, the librarian said, as many people read books from the paperback rack, as well as the more conventional volumes on the shelves. Gifts of these are welcome.

Mrs. Eaton also pointed out that one of the nicest ways, and one of the most useful methods to use in establishing a memorial or in showing respect for deceased friends is to make a memorial gift to the library. These gifts, she said, are acknowledged, and the family of the person is whose memory the donation is given is also notified.

FALL ART CLASSES TO START MONDAY

Fall sessions at the Rockport School of Fine Arts will start Monday, Oct. 7, at 9 a.m., according to Simon G. Michael, the director, who says that anyone interested in painting is welcome to attend the opening day.

Mr. Michael says there will be the usual classes for beginners, adults and advanced students, in landscape, marine, still life and portrait painting, in oils, water salumles, pastels, ink and charcoal.

C of C Directors Discuss Hydroplane Racing Course Here

Much of the regular meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce was taken up with a pro and con discussion of the hydroplane race course proposed for Little Bay by Jack Sanders and others which has been the subject of a great deal of controversy.

James Kautz, who was not at the meeting in which the matter was first brought to the attention of the Board asked for further clarification saying that people were apparently confused as to the time and number of such races to be held during the year.

Sanders said that they should be told that these races would probably only be held on some four weekends during the winter season, when there it little other activity in the area, as they would operate as part of a racing circuit. Owners of such boats, he said, raced in the south in the winter time, and he pointed out that Miami had recently voted a $450,000 bond issue for construction of a marine stadium, to be used for races like this and other water events.

The Chamber of Commerce directors had no clear concept themselves of all that would be involved in such race course and, decided to ask Dr. William C. Triplett, of Corpus Christi, one of the leading exponents of such racing in this area to explain more fully what would be needed, not only in the way of a course, but also in the way of money for staging such a race.

As reported by directors during the course of the informal discussion, other questions asked by residents of the area revolved around the expenditure of funds for the race course. Did this course, one asked, involve expenditure of more funds than the Navigation District had from the recent bond issue and, if so from where would the extra money be obtained? Another asked if there was any firm plan on the part of the Navigation District as to the manner in which the race course would be laid out in Little Bay and, if there was, whether this agreed with the purposes for which the bond election was called by the Navigation District.

Sanders suggested that probably Dr. Tripplett would be able to clear up many of the misconceptions regarding the proposed course, about which the directors had authorized the following letter to the District, which was written following the meeting a month ago at the Navigation District's office. The letter says:

"At the Board of Directors meeting (of the Chamber of Commerce) on Sept. 3, it was brought to their attention that there was some interest in Little Bay being considered for national hydroplane races when it is dredged to full capacity.

"The board voted in favor of any accomplishment that could be had in this area that would bring national publicity and people to this area, and offer their help towards this end."

In other business, directors discussed need for new members, and Mrs. Mary Juergens, Chamber of Commerce manager, told them that four had been signed up during the past month. Two of them, she said, had been obtained by Mrs. Charles Roe, Sr. They are Knolle Dairies and Jack Baird, Borden Milk distributor in this area. Dr. Leonard Goldman had signed up King's Enco Service Station, and Mrs. Ana Wishert had taken out a membership also.

Directors, after considerable discussion, decided to ask members of the membership committee to intensify their efforts. It was pointed out that the Chamber program had been one that benefited the entire community, and that only through community-wide participation in Chamber activities could this continue.

Lee Doggett, of the Alamo Motor Club, of the American Automobile Association, and Robert Morrison, local insurance man, were also heard at the meeting. Doggett made a presentation of benefits that could accrue to the Chamber through a membership in the Association; Morrison and a companion outlined a new concept of group insurance that could be obtained through cooperation of members of the Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Juergens was authorized to attend the meeting of the South Texas Chamber of Commerce in Laredo on Oct. 27-28.

Firemen To Meet Here On Sunday

Between 300 and 400 Expected For Quarterly Meeting of South Central District Firemen's Association For Business and Pumper Races

Between 300 and 400 volunteer firemen, with their wives and children, are expected in Rockport next Sunday, Oct. 6, for the quarterly meeting of the South Central District Firemen's Association, representing 34 fire departments. Registration for the event starts at 8 p.m., in the building of the Rockport Fire Department. The Association business meeting is scheduled from 10 a.m. until 12 noon in the auditorium at Rockport Elementary School.

There will be a noon meal served to those attending by the Rockport, Fulton, and Lamar Fire Departments and Auxiliaries, and the Auxiliary business meeting is slated for 1:15 until 2:00 in the cafeteria at Rockport Elementary School.

Racing captains of the pumping teams that will compete are to meet in the Rockport Fire Station from 1:30 until 2 p.m., and the races are to start promptly at 2 p.m. This year they will be held on Austin Street, and will be preceded by an exhibition of the fire equipment of the three fire departments in Aransas County.

An added feature of the meeting will be a contest between a crack team of the South Central District and one from the Guadalupe District Firemen's Association. There will also be a number of ladies teams that will race.

The Rockport Volunteer Fire Department is offering attendance prizes to those attending the meeting.

Whooping Crane Council Gives Way To Paisano

Members of the Whooping Crane Girl Scout Council have joined with 20 other South Texas counties to form a new and unified organization, which will be known as the Paisano Council.

Mrs. Helen W. Cooley, of Corpus Christi, president of the new group, said that it will provide better service to troop leaders by centralizing four existing councils in the 23 counties, six of which had no previous organization.

"Many names for the new council were discussed by the committee and all felt that "Paisano," which means friend of countryman in Spanish was the best," she said. The name seems particularly appropriate for another reason, however, for in South Texas, it is also used as the name of that long-legged, gawky bird, the roadrunner, which is one of the symbols of the region.

The new council will help organize troops, train troop leaders, and provide for camp sites.

Counties included are: Calhoun, Victoria, Aransas, Refugio, Goliad, Bee, Live Oak, San Patricio, Jim Wells, Nueces, Kennedy, Kleyberg, Brooks, Jim Hogg, Zapata, Duval, Webb, McMullen, Karnes, DeWitt, Jackson, Lavaca and LaSalle.

Woodsboro Eagles Rips Rockport Pirates

Woodsboro crushed Rockport's Aransas County Pirates Friday night 28-6 behind hard running halfback James Lamprecht who scored two touchdowns and set up another with a 47 yard run.

The Eagles of District 31-A rolled to a 20-0 first quarter lead and led 28-6 at the end of the first half.

Rockport, now 0-4, scored in the second quarter when guard Andy Everett blocked a punt and Tim Sanchez scooped up the ball and dashed 15 yards of a TD.

Woodsboro scored first after recovering a pass from center on a Rockport fourth down punt attempt. Lamprecht went five yards around the end for the score.

Then Eagle tackle John Jordan recovered a fumble on the Rockport 20. Quarterback Eddy Havel passed 20 yards to Lamprecht for the touchdown.

The third TD, set up by Lamprecht's 47 yard run, came on a quarterback sneak by Dennis Haertig. Kenneth Wright added the two-point conversion on a run.

The last score followed a Haertig pass to end David Boerner for 27 yards. Lamprect ran the two-point conversion.

Fulton Elementary To Hold Open House

George W. Fulton Elementary School will have open house Tuesday, Oct. 8, at 7:30 p.m. in the school auditorium. The Fulton PTA will serve refreshments before their regular meeting at 7:45 p.m.

A great variety of books for children will be displayed in the new library and you may celebrate National Book Week by purchasing any number of books to be kept in your library for the reading pleasure of all children.

The new library is only one of the many improvements made this year. The new band room and the glassed in breezeway have added greatly to the efficiency and the comfort of all concerned. There are two new wells that provide the school with plenty of good water to drink. The stage has been enlarged and added storage space provided for teachers and pupils alike.

Chester Johnson, District Six Commander, Charles Garrett Commander of Stewart-Wendell Post 3904, and Mrs. Garrett attended the District Six meet which was held in Falfurrias over the weekend.

B&PW RAISING FUNDS FOR LEGAL FIGHT ON RIGHTS

The Texas Federation of Business and Professional Women's Club is instrumental in trying to procure the passage of an Equal Legal Rights platform for women in Texas. Each district is responsible for raising funds for the legislative fund. District 13 is raising part of their quota by accepting donations for a Tony II movie camera.

The drawing will be held Dec. 17 in Corpus Christi. The winner will not have to be present to win the camera will be mailed to the winner. If anyone is interested, contact one of the local B&PW members.

The Rockport B&PW Club also wishes to announce that October 6-12 is National Business Woman's Week, honoring the great field of working women, in their many areas of endeavor.

Many of these women you see working are mothers who are helping the family finances, many are career women who have chosen a profession or business as their way of life. Look around you and note how many local gals are out in the business world, and give them a pat on the back next week.

FULTON ELEMENTARY TO HOLD BOOK FAIR

The Fulton Elementary School library will hold a Book Fair next week, Oct. 6-11, using as it's theme "Fall for Books." At this time, new books will be on display. At its open house, Tuesday night, parents and students will have the opportunity to purchase any of these new books for the library. The prices will be in the inside cover, ranging from one dollar to around four dollars. When a student decides to buy the library book, he will select a gift plate to be placed in the book, showing his donation.

There are two objects underlying a book fair, one is to enable the community to see the type of literature in the library and to see what their children are reading the second purpose is for the student to feel more personally responsible for the library and the care of the materials in it.

We urge all interested persons who love books, and wish to see the new Fulton Elementary School library to attend the open house Tuesday night, Oct. 8, from 7:30 pm. to 9:00 p.m. If you wish to help enlarge the library materials, make a selection from the new books on display and watch our library grow.

Letters to the Editor

Oct. 2, 1963

To the Editor:

The best use of Little Bay can be made by working out a plan which will utilize the limited water areas in such a manner that all of the natural resources are conserved and developed.

Such a plan should not unjustifiably decrease the available water areas. The bay itself is the prime resource.

The development of Little Bay by means of dredging should provide benefits to the greatest number throughout the whole year. The economy of this area is dependent on winter visitors as well as summer tourists.

The waters of Little Bay should provide for participation by many individuals and not for the few participants in special events to draw crowds of on-lookers a few days a year. Large gatherings of people would bring problems we are not equipped to handle, and the net benefits to our economy would not warrant the disruption of the varied recreational activities which the many natural resources of this area afford.

The use of Little Bay should not create a nuisance to nearby and adjoining areas. The waterfront sections of this community provide the highest values in the county. These high valuations are needed to produce taxes which provide the many services and utilities required by this area.

Little Bay is unique in that it provides the natural feeding ground for abundant water fowl. Many varieties of wild birds come to Little Bay. As you can now witness, even wild water birds become accustomed to boat and car traffic. Thousands of visitors come to Rockport annually to view the various kinds of water fowl which exhibit themselves and feed in Little Bay.

It is my opinion that a well thought out plan—not one hastily conceived to suit some special event which may pass on in a few years, would also provide for many special events in which a great number of participants would take part with sail and motor boats. Water sports can be enjoyed the year round and be practically a daily occurance.

A planned development of Little Bay to include the preservation and development of all its natural resources will reward this community well today and for many years to come. Our economy will be greatly benefited by the visitors and participants who will come here to enjoy the unique surroundings which this area provides.

The Rockport Pilot

Dear Sir:

My husband and I have been visiting Rockport regularly for almost 20 years, spending at least one month each year there. We enjoy the fishing and the general atmosphere so much that we plan to retire and live there permanently in the future. We own a lot in Little Bay Shores and expect to build a nice home.

The idea of a possible "racing basin" seems almost disastrous to us. From our standpoint, the fishing pleasure and enjoyment of the waterfowl would most likely be adversely affected.

We will be most interested in the outcome of this proposed plan, so we can plan accordingly.

The Rockport Pilot
Rockport, Texas
Gentlemen:

I wish to call attention to the fact that there are many people for whom it is not easy to write a letter that are still opposed to making a race course out of Little Bay. And, even though they can't write letters with ease they don't want the race course.

I am opposed to such a course. Momentary gain that might come from it would not be worth the noise, racket, traffic problems and other fuss that would go with it.

Mr. Eckman expressed the sentiments of many people when he asked who wanted the race course, and why?

I would like to ask another question. Who's going to pay for all this? such races must be enormously expensive to stage, and someone has to foot the bill. I hope it is not this community.

We need too many other things to get tangled up in a mess like this, which would benefit only peope engaged in seillng boats, tourist courts, and like enterprises for only a few days at a time.

If these boat races are such outstanding successes, (I echo Mr. Eckman,) why haven't some of the Texas communities with lots more money than we have here done something about getting the races? Sunset Lake wasn't such an outstanding success, or it would be still operating.

Dear Sir:

I am the owner of property with riparian rights fronting on Little Bay, and I wish to register my opposition to any kind of course that will permit boats to race over 100 miles per hour in front of my place.

I have seven (7) grandchildren who enjoy fishing and crabbing on the pier in front of our house; they would be denied this pleasure if the pier had to be removed, and their lives would be endangered.

Dear Sir:

The Rockport Volunteer Fire Department is to be highly commended for their prompt arrival and putting out the fire at Mrs. Henderson's home at 1427 So. Live Oak Sunday morning. Their performance was as efficiently accomplished as any professional fire fighters.

After viewing the accomplishments, I think they deserve the utmost support and cooperation of every citizen of Rockport and surrounding areas.

Sincerely,
E. E. Huggins.

Dear Sir:

I would like to take this method of commending the Rockport Volunteer Fire Department. Yesterday morning while driving towards my cottage on South Magnolia I saw flames leaping skyward from a garage which was attached to a house. I turned around to go get my husband so that possibly we could help. While turning I heard the fire siren and in a matter of minutes the fire department was there.

We were amazed at their promptness and ability to get the situation under control. Each man seemed to know exactly what to do and did his part well and efficiently. They are well organized and seem to be well trained.

Rockport should be proud of their Volunteer Fire Department. I assure you we are thankful to know that an alert group like these people are ready and available for such emergencies. This is a fine service and I am sure the entire community appreciates it.

Very sincerely yours,
Mrs. L. B. Mills

Gentlemen:

I am owner of 270 feet fronting on Little Bay.

Due to the hazard and the noise I would be opposed to any hydroplane or other course where boats would be permitted to race 100 miles per hour in front of my property.

Yours truly,

WATERFRONT—

brought that to my mind was a cousin of mine who read the story, and said something like that happened to her brother-in-law. He had used up all his shells but one when he came to the shore of this little lake near his home and took a look to see if there was anything he could shoot. There was a flock of ducks on the lake; across the lake he saw a flicker of movement and there was a fine buck deer drinking. About that time he heard a bunch of geese honking overhead.

He couldn't make up his mind what to shoot at, and began walking circles. As he did so, he slipped and fell in the mud, which clogged the barrels of his gun. He didn't know this, so just decided to close his eyes and trust to luck to shoot something.

"He did. The mud that clogged the barrel caused it to burst. Part of it killed the buck; other fragments killed the ducks on the pond and the geese flying overhead. One piece hit a squirrel and killed it, and the gun kicked so hard that the hunter stumbled backwards and sat down on a flock of quail, and killed most of them. The buck, shot through the heart, made one mad dash like so many heart-shot animals do, and hit a maple tree so hard the tree fell over into the lake. That tree was so rich in sap it turned the lake into maple syrup.

"That maple syrup was so good and so plentiful that people from miles around same there to get it, rather than going through all the trouble of making it, and my cousin said they are still paying her brother-in-law royalties on it!"

WEISE-CLARK WEDDING SATURDAY

In a morning wedding at the First Presbyterian Church, on Saturday, Sept. 28, at eleven o'clock, Miss Caroline Clark became the bride of Ralph Albert Weise, with the Rev. Cecil Lang, Jr., of Rockport, and the Rev. A. Arnott Ward, of Corpus Christi, officiating at the double-ring ceremony. Twin floor baskets of white gladioli and lemon leaf flanked the altar.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Leon Clark of Rockport. Parents of the groom were the late Mr. and Mrs. Albert August Weise of Yorktown. He is the nephew of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Witte of Yoakum.

Mrs. Norvell F. Jackson, organist, rendered the traditional wedding music, and accompanied J. Allen Frye, soloist, who sang "Because" and "Whither Thou Goest."

The attendants wore street-length lresses of pale peach peau taffeta, with molded bodices, portrait necklines, and short sleeves. The bell-shaped skirts were trimmed with self-bows at the back waist. Their headpieces were flat bows of matching taffeta with small tiered veils. They carried large glamellias in blending shades of peach.

Best man was Groege Wolpman of Victoria.

Paternal grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Rossie Clark, of Monahans, wore a Navy blue silk costume suit, pale blue fur hat, and blending accessories.

Orchid corsages for the bride's mother and grandmother, and the groom's aunt, were specially flown from Hawaii by the bride's great-aunt, Mrs. Harry G. Soria, of Honolulu.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlor. The main table, bearing the punch and coffee service, was laid with a handmade cutwork banquet cloth of eggshell white over a skirt of pale peach taffeta matching the attendants' gowns. Its centerpiece was an antique silver pitcher, given to the bride's maternal grandmother at her wedding, holding gladioli in blending shades of peach. A smaller separate table, skirted in peach taffeta, and overlaid with an eggshell linen cloth, held the tiered wedding cake decorated in spun sugar gardenias and stephanotis to match the bride's bouquet.

Members of the house party were: Mrs. Eugene F. Everett, Miss Gayle Copeland, Miss Jill Jeffers, Miss Gayle Griffith, Miss Ann Cassel, Mrs. Robert Ayers III; Mrs. Wayne Ahr of Houston; Miss Becky Fey of Beeville, and Miss Georgia Smock of San Antonio.

After a short wedding trip, the the couple will be at home in Beeville where the groom is a member of the faculty of Thomas Jefferson Junior High School.

For her going-away costume, the bride wore a two-piece suit of beige brocade, with pencil skirt, demi-fitted jacket, and three-quarter sleeves. A small velvet hat of royal blue and blending accessories completed the ensemble. Her corsage was an orchid.

The bride is a graduate of Aransas County High school and attended Del Mar College in Corpus Christi. The groom is a graduate of Yorktown High School and Texasas A&M College.

After the church reception, a wedding breakfast was held at the home of the bride's parents for family and bridal party. The bride's table was centered with an antique pressed-glass pedestal, of her great-grandmother's, on which was placed the bride's bouquet.

Out-of-town guests included for this occasion were the following:

Mrs. Rossie Clark of Manohans; Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Witte of Yoakum; The Rev. and Mrs. A. Arnott Ward of Corpus Christi; The Rev. Marvin Obst of Round Top; Mr. and Mrs. Manroy Wolpman of Victoria;

Mr. Valda Grimes of Houston; Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Roeder of Yorktown; Mr. and Mrs. Randal C. Stivers, Jr., of San Antonio; Mr. and Mrs. Karl Farmer, Mr. and Mrs. Albert McGuill, and Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Fey, all of Beeville.
