"Music by Masters," that famous tag line that has been heard on records, broadcasts and at leading hotels, theatre and ballrooms throughout the land will be seen and heard in person at the Southwestern Industrial Works building Thursday and Friday nights, August 21-22, as a feature of the Perryton Annual Celebration.

With Masters will be twenty top-flight musicians and entertainers, headed by lovely Phyllis Myles, handsome Phil Gray and the Holly sisters, Masters' famous quartet.

Masters believes in combining both sweet and swing music with a generous sprinkling of entertainment to provide a musical treat for old and young alike.

Free Barbecue Friday Noon

Members of the Lions Club and Rotary Club will start serving the free barbecue at 11:30 o'clock Friday morning and will continue until all visitors are served.

The barbecue will be served at the county fair grounds, where a new barbecue pit has recently been completed.

Roy Reed of Liberal, who prepared the barbecue last year, is back again and has selected enough choice beeves to feed 10,000 persons. Along with the beef will be all the ingredients for a delicious old-time barbecue meal.

Beaver Prepares For Celebration September 10-13

Plans are proceeding rapidly for Beaver's annual Cimarron Territory Celebration and Beaver County Free Fair to be held in Beaver on September 10-13.

Chamber of Commerce committees are making final adjustments of schedule in order to give the people of the Southwest one of the greatest combined shows ever seen.

Tentative plans now are that Beaver will have a big air show and officially open their new airport, big parade of western features, afternoon and night rodeos, big modern and old time dances, and fireworks display, besides other special acts and features of the regular county free fair.

Ranger Club to Hold First Meeting Aug. 28

The first meeting of the Ranger club will be held in the Perryton Hotel Coffee Shop on Thursday, Aug. 28, at 8 o'clock, Harry Nail, president, has announced. Plans for the club's activities during the coming year will be discussed and a schedule of automobiles to transport football players home after practice each day will be made. All members of the club are urged to attend and bring as many guests as they desire.

Nation's Wheatheart Will Be Named in Perryton August 22

Some lucky girl will be crowned "Wheatheart of the Nation," as the climax to the Perryton Celebration, in a contest which has attracted contestants from four states. The Wheatheart will be named Friday night, Aug. 22, at the Frankie Masters dance in the Southwestern Industrial Works Building.

Entries have been received from Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas and Missouri, and keen competition is assured for the Wheatheart title.

The Wheatheart candidates will be presented first in the parade Friday morning. The girls, dressed in bathing suits, will appear on various floats in the parade and will be judged at the reviewing stand. At this time the judges will make a preliminary judging of the candidates, but no announcement will be made until Friday night at the dance.

At 11 o'clock Friday night, the Wheatheart candidates, dressed in evening gowns, will again be judged and the Wheatheart will be announced. The contest carries a first prize of $100, with other prizes of $50, $25, $15 and $10.

Perryton Schools to Begin 1947-48 Term on September 1; Registration Schedule Given

The 1947-48 term in the Perryton schools will begin Monday, September 1, J. A. Anderson, superintendent, announced this week.

A general faculty meeting of all teachers in the Perryton school system will be held Monday morning at 9 o'clock. No pupils will report to the school buildings on this date.

Registration of senior high students starts on Tuesday, August 26. The seniors will register Tuesday morning and the juniors will register Tuesday afternoon. Sophomores register Wednesday morning, August 27 and the freshmen will register Wednesday afternoon.

Students in the elementary and junior high school will enroll Tuesday and receive their textbooks, class schedules and locker assignments. High school students who have registered previously will complete their registration and receive textbooks. School will be dismissed at noon Tuesday and busses will operate that day.

Classes begin Wednesday morning, Sept. 3. The cafeteria will open Wednesday, under the direction of Mrs. L. C. Hartman and Mrs. W. E. Garrison. Meals will be served again this year at the nominal cost of 25 cents.

This year is expected to set an all-time high in enrollment at the Perryton schools. The administration is planning for 1,000 students, 100 more than the previous high, set in 1941. The students are expected to be divided as follows: 500 in elementary school, 200 in junior high and 300 in high school.

To take care of this increased enrollment, the school will have

New State Vehicle Laws Announced

New state laws applying to the sale and transfer of automobiles will go into effect approximately September 15, Sheriff W. H. Lance has announced.

The new laws provide that the license registration receipt and the certificate of title on automobiles must be transferred within ten days after the transaction is completed.

Heretofore, there has been no time limit on transferring the certificate of title to a vehicle. The law was passed by the legislature because there are now many vehicle transfer papers being executed in blank and vehicles are being sold several times without completion of transfer papers in order to avoid the one per cent state tax.

It is believed that the law will also assist peace officers in theft enforcement and vehicle accident investigations.

Other new provisions of the law provide for the charging of $1 fee for assigning a serial number to a house trailer and $1 fee for assigning a motor

Local Delegates to Attend National Legion Convention

Marvin Walton, Don Enterline and Dean Bartel, members of the Pierce Johnson Post, American Legion, will leave Saturday for New York to attend the National Legion Convention as delegates from the local Legion post.

This is expected to be one of the largest conventions ever held by the Legion, and 750,000 Legionnaires are expected to attend.

One of the highlights of the Legion program will be an address by President Truman. A full week of entertainment and business sessions is on the convention program.

The Perryton delegates will travel by automobile and plan to return to Perryton August 31.

Geo. Reiswig is Killed in Wreck

George H. Reiswig, formerly of Booker, died early Sunday morning of injuries received in an automobile accident which occurred approximately two miles east of Mountain Air, New Mexico Saturday evening.

Mrs. Reiswig and their son, Joe, were in the car when the accident occurred. It is thought that Mr. Reiswig fell asleep while driving and the car ran off the road. He was thrown from the car and suffered severe injuries. Mrs. Reiswig and Joe sustained minor injuries.

Mr. Reiswig was taken to a hospital in Mountain Air, then moved to Albuquerque, where he passed away.

The Reiswig family had made their home in Socorro, N. M., for the past year, moving there from Morse. They lived for a number of years in Booker.

Survivors include his wife, Helen; two daughters, Mrs. Dave Schick of Morse and Lorene Reiswig, Socorro; one son, Joe Reiswig, Socorro; and his mother, Mrs. Carolina Geisbrecht of Dallas, Oregon.

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Booker Methodist church under the direction of Rev. Cecil Ottinger, assisted by Rev. J. A. Land.

Man Confesses To Theft of Norris Wheat

Mit Thomas, who was arrested last week on suspicion of a series of wheat thefts in several Panhandle counties, has confessed to the theft of wheat from LaRue Norris' farm just east of Perryton, according to Sheriff Bill Lance.

Thomas stated that he took the wheat from the granaries on July 29, after making three holes in the granary walls with a brace and bit and keyhole saw. He then took the wheat to the Yukon Mills, Yukon, Oklahoma, where he sold the load, 521 bushels, for $2.02 per bushel.

The amount realized on the sale of this wheat, $1,052.42, has been paid by Thomas to the owner, LaRue Norris.

Thomas stated that he had a helper, but that he doesn't know the man's name, since he was just a hitch-hiker that Thomas picked up along the road.

Officers traced Thomas thru a license plate lost on Leon Schrader's farm in Hansford county. The license plate was found to Frankie Masters records will be personally autographed by the band leader Friday at the Perryton Electric Co., Russell Revis, owner has announced. Masters will be in the Perryton Electric Co. immediately after the parade Friday morning and will sign the discs. A special stock of records made by this famous band has been secured by the Perryton Electric Co. and are now on sale.

First Graders Must Have Birth Certificate

Parents of children starting to school for the first time this year are reminded by superintendent J. A. Anderson that the children are required to have a birth certificate in order to enter school. Children should also have had vaccinations for both whooping cough and smallpox, though these vaccinations are not required.

Parade Will Assemble on South Main

The big parade, scheduled for 10:30 o'clock Friday morning, will form two blocks south of the courthouse. All floats and parade entries are requested to be at the assembly point by 9:30 a. m. Friday so the parade committee can assign positions and get everything ready for the parade to start promptly at 10:30 a. m.

Another feature has been added to the parade, which is a $25 prize to be awarded to the best decorated bicycle ridden in the parade. The bicycles will be judged separately and this prize is in addition to the $75, $50 and $25 prizes to be given other winning entries.

Out-of-town entries include the Pampa Roping Club, floats from Borger, Woodward and Dalhart, the Borger high school band, Shriner Drum and Bugle Corps of Amarillo and the famous Santa Fe miniature train.

The Wheatheart candidates will appear on floats in the parade and will be judged as they pass the reviewing stand.

The parade column will advance down the west side of Main street, circle around the Perryton Lumber Co., Daley Hotel

Ex-GI's Have Real Treat in Store August 21-22-23

Ex-GI's of the Perryton area who sometimes look back with longing for those good old Army days with lavish spreads of food served by genial, understanding mess sergeants, will have a real treat in store for them on Aug. 21-22-23.

The reason? A Fourth Army Food Service School display composed of the various charts, pictures, cooking and training equipment used in the U. S. Army today will visit Perryton on these dates.

This exhibit is mounted on an Army five-ton trailer and contains several folding displays of food rations and photographs of the service school.

"Food like mother used to cook," could be the motto of the Food Service School, but it isn't. Their motto is, "Food like mother used to try to cook, but couldn't."

All Army officers and enlisted men who are concerned with the preparation or serving of food are required to attend the Food Service School. After completion of the prescribed courses, students are given further training in hotels and large commercial food cafeterias in and around San Antonio. (This ain't like the old Army, especially that part about officers attending a cooking course.)

Promptly at 10 o'clock this morning, the 200 planes gathered at the airport will leave the ground for the giant air show, opening event on Perryton's 28th Annual Celebration program. From then until late Friday night the city will be crowded with thousands of visitors who have come to join in the annual observance of the founding of Perryton.

The air show promises to be one of the outstanding events of its kind held in the Southwest this year. Events include stunting by Bill Vacin of Enid, one of the top stunt men in the business; an attempt to break the world's spin record by Bob Hurst of Enid; two thrilling parachute jumps, one by "The Black Ace," mystery jumper and the other by O. Rodent Control Schedule Set Up in County

Farmers in Ochiltree county who want to get rid of their prairie dog population are requested to contact Hood Wills, county agent, as soon as possible.

C. R. Hays, specialist from the Rodent Control Service, Texas A. & M. College, arrived in Perryton Saturday and will be working in the county until August 31, poisoning prairie dogs. Hays uses the new poison, 1080, and will be glad to demonstrate its use to those interested in killing the prairie dogs on their farms. A schedule will be set up for visiting various farms and ranches in the county and it is hoped that the county may be completely covered by August 31.

The prairie dog menace has grown to serious proportions in the past few years, stated Wills, until now the prairie dog towns cover hundreds of acres of wheat

School Term of Newly Formed Balko District Starts Sept. 1

The school term of the newly formed Balko school district will start on Monday, September 1, and enrollment for both the elementary school and high school will be on Tuesday, August, 26, A. M. Keeth, superintendent, has announced.

With an area of 262 square miles, the new Balko district is one of the largest in Oklahoma. This year, three more school districts were added to the Balko district, Palestine, LaKemp and Lone Star, which with the seven districts previously added, makes the Balko district take in an area formerly served by ten districts.

Due to lack of sufficient building facilities, school will be held only at the old Balko school this year. Most of the pupils from the newly added districts will be transferred to other schools this year and arrangements have been made for pupils from old districts 18, 68 and 74 to be transferred to Perryton and those pupils from part of district 48 will be sent to Booker.

The school boards of the districts at the time they were transferred to Balko have been asked by the Balko board to arrange for the transfer of their pupils, including the selection of bus drivers, from their respective districts.

Work has been done on one of the buildings at the new location of the Balko school, one mile south and two and one-half miles west of Balko, and it is expected that other new buildings will be added during the year.

On August 12, the patrons of the Balko school district voted for the maintenance levy and the five-mill building levy for the school year 1947-48.

The Balko school will have a faculty of nine this year. New Farmers, Elevator Men Form Wheat Improvement Ass'n.

Further action was taken by wheat producers and grain men in Ochiltree county to maintain the high milling quality of the county wheat in a meeting held Monday night when the Ochiltree County Wheat Improvement Association was formed.

The meeting was attended by Frederick T. Dones, agricultural agent for Tex-O-Kan Flour Mills Co. of Amarillo, representatives of Burrus Panhandle elevators, and Keats Soder, representative of the Texas-Oklahoma Wheat Improvement Association.

The purpose of the new association is to encourage the planting of quality wheat varieties so as to insure a top market for the wheat produced in the county. Ochiltree county stands at the top of the quality wheat producing counties in Texas, and members of the association want to keep it there.

A temporary committee was appointed and will serve until officers of the association are elected. Members of this temporary committee are Audie Conley, A. L. Swink, J. H. Woodward, E. N. Flathers, Luther Wade, L. R. Conner and Ray Batman.

Each farmer in the county is asked to contribute 1/10 cent per bushel to the Ochiltree County Wheat Improvement Association when the wheat is sold. The money thus collected will be used to advertise Ochiltree wheat and stimulate the production of premium milling qualities. These collections will be made at the elevators and will be strictly voluntary on the part of farmers.

The wheat advertising program was started by the Farm Bureau, sponsor of the Wheat Improvement Association. Members of the association hope that the movement will spread to other counties and eventually become a state and national organization, organized along the lines of national organizations in the meat, cotton and dairy industries.

'Gunfighters' is Western Epic Filmed in Color

Another dressed-up Western epic, complete with big-name actors and filmed in color, will play at the Ellis on Friday and Saturday, August 22-23.

The picture is "Gunfighters," a film adaptation from the novel "Twin Sombreros," by that mas-ter of all western tales, Zane Grey.

Randolph Scott and Barbara Britton are the stars of "Gun-fighters," supported by Bruce Cabot, Charley Grapewin and Grant Withers. It tells the ab-sorbing story of Western out-lawry—the kill or be killed law of the range.

Randolph Scott as Brazos Kane, famed gunfighter, tries to leave his past behind him and start a new life in a different part of the country. Upon his arrival, however, he is falsely accused of murder, narrowly escapes a hanging and finally, roused to fury by the ruthlessness of a powerful ranch owner in a strug-gle to wipe out all the small cat-tle punchers, Brazos dons his guns once more.

Barbara Britton and Dorothy Hart play Bess and Jane Ban-ner, daughters of the cattle bar-on. Bess, the lawless beauty trading her kiss for a man's life; Jane, the straight-thinking pion-eer girl who sides with justice and Scott against her father.

According to advance reports, one of the reasons for the all-out praise which has been heap-ed on "Gunfighters" is the fact that even the supporting play-ers have been given meaty as-signments. Characterizations are fully drawn by each member of the large cast, and the result is a grimly realistic story of the days when men lived, loved and died by the rule of the gun.

'Butch' Jenkins is the Little Brother Who Knows How to Talk to the Horses

"Butch" Jenkins, that freckle-faced little rascal of the screen, has a picture tailor-made for his talents in "My Brother Talks to Horses," which plays at the Per-tex theatre Tuesday-Thursday, August 19-21.

"Butch," as little Lewie, hangs around a Baltimore race track and loves horses to the point where he feels he can communi-cate with them. This uncanny proclivity enables him to pick out the winners in every race, a point which is of considerable interest to turfman Edward Arn-old, to a trio of track gamblers headed by Charlie Ruggles, and to Lewie's brother, Peter Law-ford, who needs some ready cash to enable him to marry his sweetheart, Beverly Tyler. When it appears that their get-rich-quick schemes will be realized, the shock of seeing his favorite horse killed in a race robs Lewie of his extraordinary powers of divination. The manner in which the family fortunes are recouped leads to some excitingly sus-penseful situations before the happy final fadeout.

While the unusual premise of the plot gives "My Brother Talks to Horses" its novel flavor, it is the characterizations which lend a homespun warmth and sincer-ity to the proceedings, and every role is beautifully enacted. "Butch" Jenkins is completely endearing as the youngster who understands horses and who moves about with every mongrel in town at his heels. Peter Law-ford is convincing as the brother who tries in vain to get back-ing for his radio invention. Bev-erly Tyler, of "Green Years" fame, brings the Gibson Girl to life in the delightful early 1900 costumes, and Spring Byington steals the comedy honors as the zany mother of the family.

The picturesque settings of Baltimore at the century's turn offer quiet contrast to the pic-ture's racing spectacles, the most colorful being the famous Preak-ness race which gives the fast-moving plot its climax.

Mrs. Dorothy Crisp returned Thursday from Houston where she attended a Federal Land Bank meeting. She is assistant in the local office, and made the trip via air from Amarillo.

FAIRBURY, Neb. (AP)—Money matters between the Beetley Sal-vage Co. of Fairbury and the United States Treasury have been set right.

The check is for one cent.

We're doing the job—but material shortages still delay us!
Expanding our service to meet today's unprecedented demands requires vast quantities of poles, wire, transformers, meters, insulators and other equipment.
Many of these essential materials are still very difficult to obtain. National statistics show that the demand for line materials is by far the greatest ever experienced in the industry, so it is understandable that our biggest task is simply getting the necessary equipment with which to do the work.
We're making good progress in our expansion program, but in some localities service improvements and extensions to new customers are still being held up by delayed delivery of materials ordered many months ago.
Please rest assured, however, that we are doing everything we can to overcome the bottlenecks as rapidly as possible. In the meantime, your continued patience and understanding will be appreciated.

Remember Interest On Leave Bonds, VA Tells Veterans

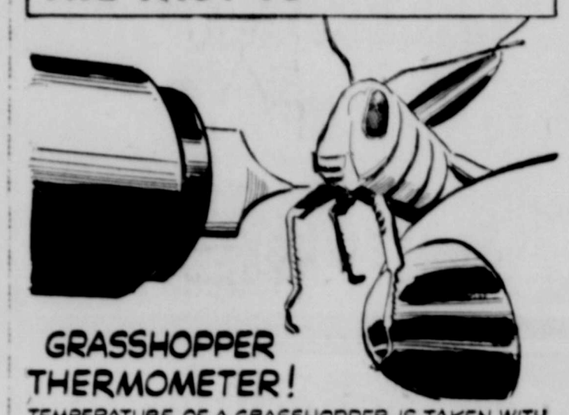

Local veterans who plan to cash their terminal leave bonds on or after September 1 should keep in mind the accumulated interest due on the bonds, stated M. J. Stacy, contact representative of the Veterans Administration.

He stated that the bonds were dated the first of the quarter following the date of discharge and have been drawing 2½ per cent interest from that date. As an example, he said that if a $100 bond was dated Oct. 1, 1945, the redemption value on September 1 would be $104.79.

Veterans who desire further information concerning their bonds or any benefit administered by the VA are invited to contact Stacy at the Chamber of Commerce office on the second and fourth Tuesday of each month.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Blank and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Woodward attended the races in Raton, N. Mex., this weekend.

Wheat Thieves Are Still Working In Moore County

Wheat thieves have again struck in Moore county, this time on the Lucian Burnett farm three miles west of town.

The theives made their raid Sunday night on the large steel storage bin on the property and took approximately 200 bushels of wheat.

Apparently using scoops, they took the wheat from a hole at the bottom of the storage bin, scattering the wheat badly over the surrounding area.

Mr. Burnett had just returned from a two weeks vacation trip, and discovered the theft, when he and Finis Holloway, his farmhand, went out to look the place over Monday morning. — Moore County News.

D. C. Wilson was in Ringwood, Okla., last Sunday to bring his sister, Mrs. Eelle Spinner to Perryton for a visit. Mr. Wilson, Mrs. Spinner and Miss Charon Blank spent three days last week in Pritchett, Colo., visiting their sisters who live there.

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Lackey left Thursday to spend a week vacationing near Denver, Colo.

Mrs. L. K. Belt left Tuesday to join her husband at Denton, Texas, where they will make an extended stay for his health.

Tech and A. & M. Seek Answer to Wheat Poisoning

LUBBOCK, Aug. 18—Texas Technological College and Texas A & M College this winter will launch a long-range cooperative research program to determine causes of cattle deaths resulting from grazing winter wheat, conducting experiments on 8500 acres of land at the Pantex Ordnance plant near Amarillo.

Pres. W. M. Whyburn of Texas Tech has signed a use permit from the War Assets Administration authorizing the college to use the land for seven years upon payment of one dollar to WAA. Buildings, including laboratories, are now on the acreage and their use is included in the permit.

Tech Dean of Agriculture W. L. Stangel, in his capacity of director of farms, will be in general charge of Tech's operations there. The colleges hope to develop grazing practices that will eliminate livestock losses during periods of grazing on winter wheat and other lush pasturage following study of the nature of physiological disturbances resulting in animal deaths.

Complete details of the proposed program have not yet been worked out, but it has been agreed that A & M will provide personnel and laboratory supplies and that Tech will supervise growing of wheat and make arrangements for cattle to be provided as needed in the study. A number of livestock owners in the region have agreed to cooperate with the college in making cattle available.

The federal government invested approximately $35,000,000 in the war time ordnance plant. Slightly more than half of it has been turned over to the schools for this research.

Mr. and Mrs. Virb Conley, Dixie and Benny, returned home Saturday evening from a two weeks vacation trip through Colorado and New Mexico.

By EUGENE WORLEY
Congressman, 18th District

Old Mexico, it's called "Af- " in the United States, it's d "Foot and Mouth" disease. no matter what it's called, ail remains one of the most erous diseases to which cat- or any other cloven-hoofed al can be exposed. The d States has had several eaks in its history which done millions of dollars in age. The disease is now rag- ing in certain areas of our neighbor Republic to the south and Congress has been extremely concerned with devising ways and means to help the Mexicans eradicate it and thereby remove the dangers to our own herds of cattle, hogs, sheep and goats.

Since the only known and positively effective way to combat the spread of this disease is immediate slaughter and burial in quick lime of infected or exposed cattle, the spread of Foot and Mouth disease to the United States could conceivably have these results: the immediate loss of slaughtered cattle; expenses necessary to carry out such a program; curtailment in rail and truck transport of livestock; the closing down of packing plants throwing thousands of people out of work; reduced market for feed by farmers in the Middle West; a crippling blow to the dairy, butter and cheese industries; and higher prices for meat and related products.

These things could come to pass if the Foot and Mouth disease gains any headway in this country. Congress, being fully alive to these dangers, recently sent a Subcommittee to Old Mexico to make a firsthand investigation and report. The Congress desired an eye-witness report from its own Members before additional monies were made available to continue the fight. The Subcommittee made a report of its findings and for the information of the people in my District, I submit the first portion in today's column. Additional reports will follow.

Foot and Mouth Disease in Mexico
A Report with Recommendations

The committee left Washington by chartered Army plane (a twin-engine C-47) on the morning of Saturday, June 28, 1947. The party consisted of the following: Representative George W. Gillie, chairman of the Foot and Mouth Disease Subcommittee of the House Committee on Agriculture; Senator Edward J. Thye, a member of the Foot and Mouth Disease Subcommittee of the Senate Committee on Agriculture and Forestry; Representatives Ernest K. Bramblett and Eugene Worley of the House Committee on Agriculture; Representative H. Carl Anderson of the House Appropriations Committee; Representatives A. L. Miller and Antonio M. Fernandez of the House Committee on Public Lands; John J. Heimburger, a member of the professional staff of the House Committee on Agriculture.

The committee flew first to Amarillo, Tex., where it met Sunday morning with a large group of cattlemen from northern Texas and nearby States. These included Judge Joe Montague, secretary of the Southwestern Cattlemen's Association; Chanslor Weymouth, president of the association; Jay Taylor, a former president of the association; and other representative ranchers from that area.

On Sunday the committee flew to Kingsville, Tex., where a meeting was held that night with cattlemen from the border area of the State.

The committee arrived in Mexico City Monday afternoon and went immediately to the headquar of the Joint United States-Mexican Commision for the Eradication of Foot and Mouth Disease for a conference with directors and members of the headquarters staff. Later in the afternoon the committee conferred with the Minister of Agriculture of Mexico, and that evening met with the Permanent Committee of the Mexican Congress.

The group left the hotel by automobile at 7 a. m. Tuesday morning for a tour of the outlying infected area. The group included, in addition to the members of the committee, the following: Dr. M. S. Shahan, American Co-Director of the Joint Commission; Don Stoops, Agricultural Attache of the American Embassy and a member of the Commission; Dr. Leroy Noyes, Assistant Director of the Joint Commission; Lic. Oscar Flores, Under Secretary of Agriculture of Mexico and Mexican Co-Director of the Joint Commission; Dr. Fernando Camargo, chief of the Livestock Scientific Investigation Commission of Mexico; Col. Jose M. Clave, Mexican Army; Pancho Scanlon, Administrative Officer of the Joint Commission; Charles Bernhart, Director of Information; Senator Jose Esparza, member of the Permanent Committee of the Mexican Congress.

The committee stopped on its way out of Mexico City at the building on the grounds of the Mexico Agricultural College which has been turned over to the Commission for warehouses and shop purposes. Here the group inspected equipment and supplies arriving for use in the campaign, observed the shops which are being set up for repair of automobiles or equipment, and was outfitted with rubber boots, raincoats, gloves, and hats for use in the infected area. These garments are worn over other clothes so that they may be disinfected when leaving an infected zone.

Edgar Bergen Makes Movie Without Wooden Sidekick, Charlie McCarthy

HOLLYWOOD — Edgar Bergen is acting in a movie without his sugar-pine sidekick, Charlie McCarthy, and you can bet that Charlie has made some very nasty cracks about that.

It'll be a long pull making Bergen an actor—and he's just the jerk who can do it," the ventriloquist's dummy supposedly cackled from his carrying case in Bergen's home.

"This picture is going to a Rank Production," growled Charlie, "and I don't mean J. Arthur."

It's the first time in 25 years that Bergen has worked without the dummy, which a bartender-woodcarver whittled for Edgar while he was attending high school in his native Chicago.

Bergen, of Swedish ancestry, plays a comical Norwegian undertaker with false mustache, high button shoes, and black derby, in "I Remember Mama." Edgar sometimes thinks his inanimate partner is really more famous than he, and he told me, "Charlie's giving me a chance to catch up with him."

But movie-acting isn't all that's keeping Bergen one of the busiest persons in Glamorville. Come fall, he plans to hit the road with his radio troupe, giving one-night shows in Pacific Coast towns.

The curtain will rise in the town's biggest auditorium, disclosing Bergen sitting in what appears to be his parlor at home in Beverly Hills. A butler will enter and say, "There are some friends outside to see you." Bergen will turn around and greet the friends—the audience. He'll show them movies of Hollywood studios, star's homes, famous places like Hollywood and Vine and the Brown Derby. Charlie will get into the act, as well as Ray Noble and others.

Bergen's hitting the boards because, "I don't want to get into too comfortable a routine."

The blue-eyed, 44-year-old entertainer also produces movies for television, owns an East Los Angeles airport, maintains a $50,000 foundation to finance the training of student nurses, and finds time to write most of Charlie's gags.

Germans Say They Cannot Live on Pay

(AP) Newsfeatures

BERLIN—The fact that the average German worker can't make both ends meet any longer under wage controls in effect since the Nazi era has led to loud demands for increased wages.

Trade union leaders have been pressing occupation authorities for approval of wage adjustments.

Because wages are out of line, a number of important industries, particularly building and metal working, are having constant difficulty in recruiting and holding labor.

A study made by the statistical offices of the three German states in the American zone reported that the average essential expenditures of a normal consumer's family of five ranged from 170 to 185 marks in a four weeks' period. However, there wasn't a single industrial group in which the average earnings of unskilled male workers reached that level.

Earning data available up to last September showed that unskilled workers in a number of industrial groups earned wages below expenditures.

The study emphasized that the figures on expenditures were a conservative estimate of the cost of essential goods and services and actually represent a lower level of consumption than the one on which the cost of-living index is based. On the latter basis, a family of five outlay each four weeks totaled 210 marks last March.

Mrs. Hazel Carlson came in Thursday from El Campo, Tex., where she makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. Leroy Hunter, Mr. Hunter and the two children. She is visiting friends and relatives and plans to be in Perryton through the celebration.

The artichoke is believed to be a cousin of the thistle family.

The death rate in the United States reached a record low in the first few months of 1947.

Weaving was one of the oldest, if not the earliest, crafts practiced by primitive mankind.

Burning Salad Takes the Cake

HIGHLAND PARK, Ill. (AP)—The report on this blaze could be printed in the food column. The hungry flames were fed a raw salad.

Ralph Wheeler and his sister, Virginia, put a load of lettuce, chard and other green stuff from their garden in their car and started for home. The automobile caught fire. Ralph tried to smother it with vegetables.

Firemen finished the job with chemicals and, as a reward, they received a cake.

Dogs Come Back To Meet—Poundmaster

SANTA CLARA, Calif. (AP)—Park L. Verner reports proudly that all the animals escaped from the city pound in Poundmaster Jim Johnson's absence, but—"Jim wasn't surprised to find them all—and I do mean all—waiting at the gate for him to let them back in. That's the kind of a dog catcher Jim is. You should meet him."

Wild Stallion Bows to Air Power

LANDER, Wyo. (AP)—A handsome, wild Palomino stallion that once had the run of the Teapot Butte area north of Crowheart is in a corral and being broken now because of the aerial cunning of Roy Lamoureaux.

Lamoureaux, Casper pilot who has helped round up more than 2,500 head of horses from the air, spotted the 1,150-pound blond animal long ago but only recently managed in two hours of maneuvering to drive the horse into a ground trap after forcing him out of willow thickets.

Lamoreaux helped capture "Desert Dust" of motion picture fame on the Red Desert years ago and thinks this latest beauty may prove equally valuable.

After Charity Comes the Payoff

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP)—Mrs. Murry McRay of a local inn had no odd jobs for the tramp to do in exchange for food, but she said she'd give him a meal anyhow. No charge.

After he'd eaten and left, she found a 50-cent tip.

Housing Project!

BOULDER CREEK, Calif. (AP)—Howell D. Melvin, a San Jose printer, has his summer cabin here nearly finished now. He's been working on it for 20 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry LaMaster of Altus, Okla., are visiting this week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. LaMaster, and other relatives.

Watches Tatting

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. (AP)—Lemuel S. Jean, a night watchman, has a peculiar but profitable daytime hobby. He tats handkerchiefs, doilies and pillowcases, and sells them to a specialty shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Flowers and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ondracek of Booker returned recently from a weeks vacation spent in Colorado.

Mrs. T. O. Pugh spent two days last week in Shattuck, Okla., where she was a guest in the home of Miss Madeline Colbert.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Cayler and Kay and Mrs. Miles Edwards and Connie came in Sunday from a two weeks vacation spent in Yellowstone National Park and other scenic points in the West.

Rev. and Mrs. H. L. Thurston and Norma of Brownfield, Tex., were overnight visitors in Perryton Tuesday. They brought Bob to Perryton where he will enroll in school for the current term.

Miss Sybil Williams of Glazier came in Tuesday night to spend a few days with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McMillen.

number to a new or rebuilt motor.

A wheat improvement association is now functioning in the states of Washington, Oregon and Idaho, and has been quite successful, stated Soder.

"The problem of stamping out inferior milling varieties of wheat in the Texas Panhandle has reached the serious stage," said Dines. "I personally think it would be a wonderful idea if the two top counties of Texas, Ochiltree and Hansford, could get together in a wheat improvement association and set an example for other counties with large acreages of inferior wheat."

Dines pointed out that the advantage to the farmer raising premium milling varieties of wheat is quite evident, since mills are eager to purchase good wheat and are now refusing to buy poor wheat.

"Quality bread demands quality wheat with strong gluton," said Dines. "Beardless varieties have weak gluton, make poor bread, and the housewives won't buy it. There's nothing for the millers to do but refuse to buy wheat that won't make good bread."

There were a number of instances during harvest this year where farmers were turned away from elevators in Amarillo because they had Chiefkan or Red Chief wheat. These farmers managed to sell their wheat for export purposes, but in ordinary times, they would have had absolutely no market for this wheat.

The Wheat Improvement Association is preparing a pamphlet to be mailed to every farmer in the county, pointing out the advantages and disadvantages of wheat varieties.

Recommended varieties are Cheyenne, Comanche, Pawnee, Standard Blackhull, Tenmarq, Triumph, Turkey, Wichita and Westar.

Less desirable varieties are Austin and Early Blackhull.

Undesirable varieties are Chiefkan, Red Chief and Superhard Blackhull.

and pasture land in Ochiltree county and are constantly spreading.

Hays' services were requested several months ago, but due to the press of rodent control work in other sections of the Southwest, he was unable to come to Ochiltree county until last week.

The poison is said to be the most effective means of controlling prairie dogs yet discovered, but takes special handling in its use. For this reason, Hays is conducting this demonstration so that local farmers and ranchers may use the poison later on as needed.

A schedule is being drawn up at the county agent's office in the courthouse and both Wills and Hays are anxious that persons interested in prairie dog control contact the office as soon as possible.

It's Always Correct to Send Flowers

Whether or not an occasion calls for a corsage or bouquet is a perplexing problem to many fellows, but the answer lies in the simple old maxim "when in doubt—do". Few occasions arise where flowers are not appropriate, and the fact they are not expected will make the lady fair appreciate them all the more.

Facts About Prices

Consumer protests against the high cost of food continue. Understandable as this is it seems certain that the public at large is unaware of certain basic economic facts.

According to one authority, food bills are no greater today in proportion to gross per capita income than they were in the 1935-39 period. They have, in other words, simply followed the general trend.

Again, farm authorities have presented some very compelling evidence to the effect that allegedly swollen agricultural profits are largely non-existent. The enormous increases in farm operating costs—labor, materials, feed, taxes and everything else—have eaten up the increase in the farmer's gross income.

To blame packers and retailers for high prices is a common practice. It is also an utter fallacy. The meat packing industry, for instance, states that it earns less than one cent a day, after expenses, for providing meat for an average American family of four.

The retailer is in precisely the same position. The large food chain systems earn, as net profit, only a cent or two on each dollar of sales. The independent merchants, who must meet the competition, work on similar margins. Many stores have voluntarily sliced their already narrow profits in order to hold price increases to the minimum. But they can't operate at a loss.

High prices are an economic consequence of the times. Neither producers, distributors, processors or retailers are responsible for them.

Who is?

BABSON DISCUSSES SOCIALISM

ROGER W. BABSON, Editor-in-Chief

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Aug. 15—I wanted to visit some typical New England City to learn how its people are feeling. As Bridgeport perhaps suffered most thru the depresion of the Thirties and then — according to Newton's Law of Action and Reaction— prospered most later during World War II, I am writing from here.

A Typical City

Bridgeport is a city of about 150,000 people. These people have had a reputation as being radical and for many years have elected a socialist mayor. He, however, tried hard to be fair and has had the vote of many conservative people. At one time Bridgeport was the only city in New England with a socialistic government.

During the recent war these people prospered greatly. Not only is this a large center for small machinery and tools of all kinds, but it makes guns and ammunition even in peace times. Hence, it was and is a war city. The conversion to peace time products was difficult and much unemployment was forecasted for 1946 and 1947, but this has not come about. Bridgeport continues to be prosperous. Certainly if this applies to Bridgeport, it should apply to most manufacturing centers in New England and elsewhere.

What About Business?

The truth is that the entire United States—as President Truman has recently pointed out—is at an all-time high. We have more employment and greater sales today than ever before in out history. The only disappointed people seem to be those of some summer resorts who had planned on a record year which has not occurred. Too many people seem to be economizing during vacations. They take only a twenty dollar bill and one suit of clothes and change neither during the trip! This, however, is not a bad sign. These people are saving money for something which will last longer and perhaps give them a little vacation each day of the year.

When the stock market was at a low ebb—some months ago—many readers criticised me for being optimistic during the early months of 1947. They felt that my forecasts for a "good 1947" would be wrong. Each month, however, has confirmed my optimism. The stock market is now at the highest point of the year. Investors who cashed in half of their profits did a safe thing; but the "smart ones" who sold everything are now disappointed bears.

A Bridgeport Story

A Bridgeport socialist, who knew that the United States money in circulation had tripled from $8,000,000,000 in 1940 to over $24,000,000,000 today, asked a local banker: "Why am I not three times as rich now as I was seven years ago?" This interested the banker enough to take a Gallup Poll of the next 100 women leaving his savings bank. He asked each woman how much money she usually carried in her pocketbook before World War II? These women usually replied: "About four or five dollars." He then asked them to count how much they now had as they left the bank after making their weekly deposit. He found that all the women of Bridgeport were averaging twelve to fifteen dollars in their pockets—or three time what they formerly carried.

But why do these people vote the socialistic ticket? The answer is because Bridgeport has an honest Mayor Jasper McLevy, who leads the Socicalist Party but who truly loves the people. He looks at every boy and girl as if it were his own boy or girl. He has a heart, generous with the poor, enforcing the laws and especially protecting youth. He is more than Mayor of the city; he truly is the loving father of the city and all its people. Let us not think only of money when people talk Socialism. There are many things much more important than money by which cities and people should be judged.

Looking Ahead

I continue to be optimistic for the many "Bridgeports" in the United States, although sometime there will be a day of reckoning for all unless we thing more of other people and get out of debt. The next panic will come suddenly "like a bolt from the blue." Although our domestic situation is good, the foreign situation is very bad. There are no prosperous "Bridgeports" in Europe. Communism is very different from Socialism.

Remember the crowded conditions of our 16 state colleges last year.

Remember the thousands of GI's and other deserving young men and women who were turned away from our colleges because these colleges lacked building facilities.

Remember, if this amendment is not passed no other plan is proposed for the relief of these colleges.

And remember that passage of this amendment will not cost tax-payers a single additional penny. The amendment reallocates the state ad valorem taxes; it does not create any new taxes.

Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Sharp, Welbourne and Grace and Miss Diane Kent are spending ten days visiting in New Albany, Mississippi.

Santa Fe Carloadings Show Slight Increase

Santa Fe System carloadings for week ending August 16, 1947, were 29,775 compared with 27,032 for same week in 1946. Cars received from connections totaled 10,937 compared with 11,682 for same week in 1946. Total cars moved were 40,712 compared with 38,714 for same week in 1946. Santa Fe handled a total of 40,674 cars in preceding week of this year.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rogers of Tyler left Friday evening to return to their home after a visit with Mrs. Rogers' sister, Mrs. W. E. Perry, Mr. Perry, Gene and Jane. Mrs. Oscar Blank met in Dumas and brought them Perryton last week.

"Mind" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, August 24.

The Golden Text is: "Righteous art thou, O Lord, and upright are thy judgements . . . Give me understanding and I shall live" (Psalms 119:137, 144).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "The counsel of the Lord standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations" (Psalms 33:11).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Few deny the hypothesis that intelligence, apart from man and matter, governs the universe; and it is generally admitted that this intelligence is the eternal Mind or divine Principle, Love" (page 270).

The Great UMPIRE

Copyright 1947 by Williams Newspaper Features Box 413, Fort Worth, Texas

Attend Church

It was a great day for religion when the prophet Amos discovered that there is an Umpire who passes judgment in the affairs of men. Life is a great game and we are all players; it is an interesting and thrilling game if we can be sure that we have a fair chance. We will play our best if we know that the Umpire is impartial; but it takes the heart out of the best player if he suspects that he is called 'out' when he was safe at the base. We have a fine tradition in the great American Game of baseball: men of integrity as well as of intelligence call the strikes and decide between the opposing sides when the play is close. So we rejoice that at the heart of the Universe justice is enthroned; though onlookers may jeer or call the game against us we rest assured that the Cosmic Umpire will understand and will call our plays with fairness. The Judge of all the earth will do right. On the other side, we too must keep the rules of the game, we must play fairly, we must play with our mates in good teamwork, we must keep ourselves in good trim for the gruelling contest ahead of us. The Umpire will not do our playing for us, but he will guarantee us a fair decision in today's game and at the end of the playing season. He calls today, "Play ball!" Then play with all your skill and power and rest your game with THE GREAT UMPIRE WHO NEVER CALLS 'EM WRONG.

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you"—form a combination for good.

Callaway Family is Now in England Preparing for Burma Missionary Work

An interesting newsletter came to the Herald this week from London, England, where C. W. Callaway, Jr., his wife Lois and children are making preparations for missionary work in Burma.

C. W. is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Callaway of Canadian residents of Perryton for a number of years.

The young Callaway family left the states on December 27, 1946 for England and arrived in Southhampton on January 5. Since that time they have been busy preparing for their work as missionaries in the field of Burma.

C. W. began a missionary medical course soon after arriving in London and reports that he has been kept quite busy there in the endeavor to learn the essentials of elementary medicine, dentistry, obstetrics, first aid, minor surgery, tropical medicine, etc. In addition to lectures, much time has been spent during the course in gaining practical experience in the clinics, wards, operating theatres and casualty departments of the London Homeopathic Hospital and in the casualty departments of other London hospitals.

Mrs. Callaway has been taking lessons in Burmese at the School of Oriental and African Studies of the University of London. Although they expect to use the Kachin language, they believe it well to study Burmese while they have the opportunity.

The Callaways and two small sons, Lelan and Jon Mark, plan to leave England this fall for Burma, arriving there at the close of the monsoon season and during the cool season of the year.

Their visa for England will expire in January, and they are anxious to get their papers in order within the next few months so that the voyage to Burma may begin.

Having experienced the recent rigorous English winter, the Callaways stated that a warm climate would be welcome, for a change.

C. W. and his wife decided to become missionaries in the summer of 1945 and made their intentions known publicly at the 1945 "Missions Week" at Lake James. C. W. was serving two Indiana churches in Syria and Bethel at that time, while attending Seminary.

Their present address is: Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Callaway, 20 Lincoln Rd., South Norwood, SE 25, London, England.

Veterans' NEWS

Automatic increases will be paid effective Sept. 1 in the minimum allowances received by the more seriously disabled veterans enrolled in educational and training courses under Government sponsorship, Veterans Administration announced today.

The increased rates, which will be reflected in September checks received on or after Oct. 1, were voted by the last session of Congress and signed into law by the President.

VA said the law requires no action by disabled trainees entitled to the higher rates because of the automatic nature of the increases.

The new law provides that a veteran enrolled in a course under the Vocational Rehabilitation Act (Public Law 16), whose disability is rated at 30 percent or higher, will receive $115 a month if he has no dependents, and $135 if he has one dependent.

The old law allowed $105 and $115 for the same two categories; but, while these rates are superseded by the new schedules for the more seriously disabled, they will continue to apply to veterans with disabilities rated at less than 30 percent.

The new law also raises the amounts authorized for additional dependents of veterans with disabilities of 30 percent or more. The additional allowance for one child is increased from $10 a month to $20, and the previous allowance of $7 a month for each additional child is raised to $15. No change is made in the $14 monthly allowance for a dependent parent.

The new law does not change the basic provisions for awarding payments to disabled veterans pursuing a course of training under the Vocational Rehabilitation Act. These provisions are:

While a veteran is in training and for two months after his employability is determined, he receives a subsistence allowance of $65 a month, if he has no dependents, or $90 a month if he has one or more dependents, in addition to his disability compensation. In case the compensation plus the allowance do not total $105 or $115 for those with disabilities of less than 30 per cent, or $115 or $135 for those with disabilities of 30 percent or more, an additional sum is paid to make up the difference. The sum is further increased if there is more than one dependent.

The veteran in job training may retain whatever wages are paid him, but if his salary plus his subsistence allowance exceeds the wage of a beginning trained journeyman, VA will reduce his subsistence allowance proportionately.

If the veteran-trainee is enrolled in school, his tuition and fees are paid by VA, and his books and supplies are provided by VA. If he is enrolled in on-the-job training, VA provides the necessary tools.

Now—you can have
Power-Line Voltage
WITH THE NEW 110-VOLT D.C. WINCHARGER

And—you can use "standard" appliances! Those "standard," "city-type" appliances that operate on universal current—that is, on either 110 volt A.C. or 110 volt D.C. electricity, such as radios, vacuum cleaners, toasters, food mixers, coffee makers, for example—can be operated on the new 110 volt Winco Power Wincharger.

Also, most motor-driven appliances, such as washing machines, water pumps, milkers, separators, drills, grinders, etc., can be bought for 110 volt D.C. operation. No longer do you have to buy special, "farm-type," appliances, except for hermetically-sealed refrigerators and automatic, thermostatically-controlled heating appliances. And even in the case of these appliances, refrigerators with "open-type" compressors and non-thermostatically-controlled irons are available. Simple provision can be readily made for operation of radio-phonograph combinations.

Furthermore, you can use standard 110 volt house-wiring with the new 110 volt Winco Power Wincharger. Same wire, at the same cost, as in town.

The 110 volt Winco Power Wincharger provides sufficient electricity for a well electrified farming operation—much more electricity than the average R.E.A. customer uses (based on latest R.E.A. annual statistical report).

And—economical—no monthly "electric bills"—power from the free wind. $595.00 F. O. B. Sioux City, including Wincharger unit and stub tower. Battery, tower, installation and wiring are additional.

"-BUT I WAS RIGHT DEAD RIGHT!"

"I was going into that intersection first. I had the right of way—that truck driver should have stopped when he saw me—I was right, dead right!"

"Yes dear — you always were right — the other fellow always wrong. That's why we're here."

You know the kind, you've met him on the road—and ducked. He always barges through traffic when it's a question of split-second judgment. Never anticipates other drivers' actions — just assumes that traffic will give way. Owns the road. Drives with his horn.

He may get away with it for a time, plus a few tickets, because other drivers are more careful, more conscientious. But his kind eventually steps on the gas once too often—and for the last time he is "right—dead right!"

4,000 people died last year because "know-it-all" drivers violated rules of the road and the courtesies of driving. Good drivers never need to hold cemetery post-mortems. They drive carefully and live longer.
