Better Feeling In Trade Looms

CONSUMER BUYING IS IMPROVED, STATES BUSINESS REPORT

(By The Associated Press)

DALLAS, May 1—Evidence of a better feeling through the trade is reported in the monthly business review of the Federal Reserve bank of Dallas, as well as some improvement in consumer buying.

"Business and industrial activity in the eleventh Federal Reserve district," the review continues, "was well-sustained during March despite the interruptions caused by the banking holiday. Sales of department stores during the month were 18 per cent larger than in February, and while there was a decline of 21 per cent from last year, the comparison was slightly more favorable than in February even though Easter came in March during 1932. All reporting lines of wholesale trade showed an increase in business between February and March, which was in part seasonal, and in some lines the declines from a year ago were smaller than in the previous month.

Business Holding Up

"Reports indicate that business in both wholesale and retail channels held up well in the first half of April and in some instances closely approximated the volume of the same period last year.

"Commercial insolvencies in this district for March were greatly reduced in number and the amount of liabilities involved as compared with the previous month and the corresponding month last year. In

ABDUCTOR OBJECT OF WIDE MANHUNT

BONNER SPRINGS, Kans., May 1 (AP)—The attempted abduction of a 16-year-old girl 12 hours after the body of 6-year-old Nadine Vogel Love had been found, spurred farmers and officers to an intensive hunt of wooded areas near here today.

Searchers expressed the opinion the man who seized Mrs. Nellie Black near a farm home Sunday night might be the kidnaper and slayer of the Kansas City, Kas., school girl. The body, with the child's jumping rope knotted about the neck, was in a desolate wood about half a mile from the scene of the attempted abduction of Mrs. Black.

A cursory examination by the Wyandotte county coroner indicated the child had been attacked.

Fear Gandhi Fast May Prove Fatal

POONA, India, May 1. (AP)—Among India's teeming millions the belief grew today that the aged Mahatma Gandhi would not survive a "three-week, unconditional, irrevocable fast" which he will begin on May 8.

Sitting in Yeroda jail, where he has been confined since Jan. 4, because of his passive resistance campaign, the frail little leader announced the fast yesterday in connection with his campaign against untouchability and the caste system.

ARGENTINA TO GIVE VIEWS

SPECIAL ENVOY WILL ARRIVE TODAY FOR ROOSEVELT TALK

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The arrival today of Argentina's special representative, Thomas Le Breton, marks the opening of the second series of President Roosevelt's world-wide negotiations for international prosperity.

The Italian envoy, Guido Jung, minister of finance, will reach Washington tomorrow and before the week is over representatives from Germany and Mexico will be here to take up the conversations so optimistically conducted by the British and Canadian prime ministers and the former premier of France.

Subjects Related

The questions involved will be similar to those world problems explored last week—war debts, exchange restrictions, stable currencies and tariffs as well as the subject of peace and disarmament.

Le Breton, Argentina's ambassador to France, will join Felipe Espil, Argentine envoy here, in conducting the conversations with Mr. Roosevelt and American experts. The possibilities of reciprocal tariff agreements, the betterment of world wheat prices through agreements by the major producing nations and the American quarantine against Argentine meat are some of the special topics to be taken up.

War debts will come to the front again when Jung arrives, the visitor already having been given notice he intends to seek revision of Italy's $2,000,000,000 debt to the United States. Jung also has power to negotiate reciprocal trade treaties.

Purported Slaying Plot To Be Probed

EDINBURG, May 1 (AP)—A purported murder plot against three officials of the Donna irrigation district will be investigated by the Hidalgo county grand jury convening today, according to Assistant District Attorney Claude Carter of Harlingen.

District Attorney Sid L. Hardin said no complaint had been filed with any Hidalgo county official either by Walter Weaver, T. W. Hooks or Harry Ridgeway, alleged to have been the intended victims of the conspiracy.

COTTON, GRAIN AND STOCKS ADVANCE

PART OF GAINS LOST BY PROFIT-TAKING; MARTS SWAMPED

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, May 1—Heavy buying and voluminous profit-taking swamped security and commodity markets today. Speculative pulses in Wall Street and other financial centers of the country again lifted their beats as the dollar took a fresh tumble against foreign currencies.

Stocks, racing higher at a strenuous opening, reacted later when traders rushed to take profits, pushed upward anew around noon as strong support was put behind rail shares and then met further realizing which roughly halved extreme advances of $1 to $4.

Cotton's rise of around $2 a bale was likewise cut in two, while wheat, which had been up as much as a cent a bushel, reduced its gains substantially. Trading in all markets was at a furious pace. Rubber, sugar and silver, among other commodities, were strong.

Stocks in the so-called commodity groups, such as sugars and metals, were somewhat less exuberant than last Saturday when the entire market surged upward.

GRAINS RESUME CLIMB

CHICAGO, May 1 (AP)—Grain prices resumed their climb on the board of trade today. Wheat ranged from 3-8 to 2 5-8 cents a bushel higher with all deliveries moving to well above 70 cents a bushel. The December delivery reached 77 1-4 cents at the start. Other grains ruled fractionally higher on opening transactions. These advances followed the rise of 6 cents in one day last week.

COTTON ADVANCES

NEW ORLEANS, May 1 (AP)—Cotton surged up $1.60 to $2.00 a bale

FORECLOSURE WAR SECTION IS QUIET

DES MOINES, Ia., May 1 (AP)—Peace prevailed throughout the mortgage foreclosure "war" area today.

Civil courts were closed by executive order in Plymouth and Crawford counties, scene of farm disturbances and now under martial law pending a conference of state officials to determine procedure of military authorities against farmers alleged to have been involved in recent disorders.

At Le Mars, in Plymouth county, where District Judge C. C. Bradley was abducted from his court and abused because he refused to take an oath not to sign any more mortgage foreclosure decrees, nine men have been arrested and national guardsmen expect to make further arrests momentarily.

SEVEN KILLED IN TORNADO

SCORES INJURED AND DAMAGE IS HEAVY IN TWO STATES

(By The Associated Press)

YAZOO CITY, Miss., May 1—Seven known dead, scores of injured and the ruins of hundreds of homes today marked the path of a week-end tornado which blew up around Lake Village in southeast Arkansas and leaped the Mississippi river to strike Yazoo City and Greenville in west Mississippi.

The storm struck first in the plantation country southwest of Lake village, late Saturday night. D. D. Boyd, 69, was killed as the blast carried his home nearly 200 feet. Others of the family were injured and two negroes were killed in the same vicinity.

Many Suffer Injuries

Jumping Big river, the storm struck again near Jonestown, shoved several homes into the swollen Yazoo river and then moved on to the edge of Yazoo City. Three negroes were killed here and many negroes and white persons injured.

Near Greenville, a negro woman was killed. National guardsmen hurried into the stricken areas to patrol against looting and to supplement the work of relief forces.

Society Matron At Denver Is Missing

DENVER, May 1 (AP)—Family and investigators were at a loss today whether to attribute the disappearance of Mrs. William E. Fisher, 50-year-old society matron, to foul play, amnesia or an accident.

Albert T. Clark, chief of police, suggested amnesia after he was informed by the family Mrs. Fisher recently had recovered from a serious illness.

BIG MAJORITY GIVEN BILL BY HOUSE

TEXAS MEASURE WILL BECOME EFFECTIVE WHEN SIGNED

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, May 1.—The house of representatives today gave a two-thirds majority vote to concurrence in senate amendments to a bill regulating the sale of 3.2 per cent beer. This action will make it effective immediately when signed by the governor. Under the vote given it Saturday it would not have become operative until 90 days after the legislature adjourned.

The vote was 104 to 28.

The motion to concur received only 86 votes Saturday, 14 short of the number required to make the bill effective immediately.

Would Permit Elections

The bill contained a clause that would allow counties that were dry before state prohibition to hold elections after July 1 to determine if the county would remain dry should the electorate approve a constitutional amendment to permit the manufacture and sale of beer. An election will be held on the constitutional amendment August 26.

A resolution calling for sine die adjournment of the Texas legislature on May 12 was introduced in the senate by Senator George C. Purl of Dallas, today. It was sent to the state affairs committee.

Senator Purl first asked that the resolution lie on the table subject to call. Senator W. R. Poage of Waco objected to this request, stating that the resolution probably would be called up every day or so and that much time would be wasted in debating it.

PERU PRESIDENT IS ASSASSINATED

LIMA, Peru, May 1 (AP)—An assassin's bullet has ended the militant career of President Luis M. Sanchez Cerro.

His slayer, Abelardo Hurtado de Mendoza, and two soldiers also were killed and six soldiers and two civilians, one a woman, were wounded in a riotous outbreak which immediately followed the assassination.

Peru ushered in May day in a state of siege with General Oscar Benavides chosen as permanent president by the constituent assembly.

General Sanchez Cerro was slain only 16 months after he became president at Jorge Chavez park, where he had just finished reviewing a parade of 20,000 army recruits.

Japs Move Against Strife With Russia

TOKYO, May 1 (AP)—General Nobuyoshi Muto, Japan's supreme military and diplomatic representative in Manchuria, has been instructed to use his influence to prevent the present wordy strife between Manchukuo and Soviet Russia from becoming more serious or involving the Japanese army.

These instructions were sent him by the war office. The foreign office stressed the fact that General Muto was acting in his capacity as commander-in-chief of the army in Manchuria and not as Japan's ambassador. The army is charged with Manchukuo's defense in event the new state is involved in war.

TO PROBE FLOGGINGS

EDINBURG, May 1 (AP)—District Attorney Sid L. Hardin said the Hidalgo county grand jury convening today would be charged specifically to investigate the alleged flogging of Charles Taxin and Louis Haymon, cash producer buyers, at Weslaco last Monday night.

Violence Marks May Day's Dawn

BOMBS TOSSED TODAY IN CHICAGO LAID TO RADICALS

(By The Associated Press)

May day, traditionally the occasion for radical demonstrations, was most widely celebrated today in two great dissimilar nations—in Russia, where the communists are all-powerful, and in Germany, where he communists are most hated.

For the most part the United States was quiet. Bombings in the heart of Chicago's business district caused heavy property damage—one estimate was $150,000—but there were no casualties.

Million On Parade

A million persons, including between 35,000 and 50,000 troops, paraded through Moscow's Red square where they were reviewed by the highest officials of the government and of the communist party from the customary reviewing position on the top of the venerated tomb of Lenin.

Chancellor Adolf Hitler changed the German May day from a radical festival to a great celebration honoring the German workingman and the part he is playing in building up the strongly nationalist state.

Peru was under a state of siege as the result of the assassination yesterday of President Sanchez Cerro by a revolutionary.

In Madrid police fired into the air several times to break up a demonstration by 1,000 communists before the ministry of war. A few persons were injured.

200 Are Arrested

Vienna saw a great military show of strength by the new dictatorial Dollfuss regime. Streets were strung with barbed wire and machine guns were mounted at strategic points. Some 200 persons were arrested.

In Paris extremists for the first time since the war were allowed to hold an open-air May day assembly. They pledged they would confine themselves to oral violence.

In Tokyo a split in the ranks of labor resulted in a double celebration, with conservatives and anti-militarist radicals holding separate parades.

In Manila police and radical paraders clashed when the demonstrators disobeyed regulations by displaying the red flag. Several persons were hurt.

CHICAGO GANG WAR IS SEEN

TWO KIDNAPED UNION LEADERS RELEASED BY ABDUCTORS

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, May 1—Two kidnaped union officials were released unharmed by their abductors today and were immediately taken into custody by police for questioning by the state's attorney's office investigating a reported war between gangsters for control of the teamster's unions.

The men, Fred Sass, reputed business agent of the Ash Wagon Drivers' union, and Morris Goldberg, official of the Van Teamsters' union, were seized last Friday by Roger Touhy and his gang of reputed former convicts.

Pushed From Car

This morning the were pushed blindfolded from the kidnapers' car and were picked up by a passing police squad car and rushed to headquarters.

Their release followed by a few hours a telephone call Mrs. Sass purportedly received from her husband telling her not to worry.

The men told police they did not know where they had been held captive as they had been blindfolded the entire time by small sections of gauze, held in place over their

HOUSE ACTION TUESDAY TO BE SOUGHT

PARTY LEADERS FAIL TO OBTAIN CONSENT FOR A BALLOT

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Democratic leaders abandoned their efforts to force a vote today in the house on the inflation amendment to the farm relief bill after failing to obtain unanimous consent for a ballot.

Their original plans upset by objections by Representative Snell, of New York, the Republican leader, they turned to preparation of a rule to force a vote tomorrow.

To Argue Amendments

They had expected to instruct the committee of senators and representatives that will be named to harmonize differences between the measures passed by the two houses to approve the currency expansion measure and leave only the other amendments to be agreed upon in conference.

Chairman Jones of the house agriculture committee, who will head the conferees on the farm relief-inflation bill, said in a formal statement he favored the senate amendment for a controlled expansion of the currency.

Jones said that while the administration was not favorable to all of the senate amendments to the farm relief section he felt the conferees would be able to compose differences satisfactory to the house and senate and to Secretary Wallace.

Other Bills Pending

Mr. Roosevelt starts the second phase of his international economic negotiations this week, but he is expected to send to Capitol hill in quick order the remainder of his domestic recovery measures.

WIFE KILLED AND HUSBAND INJURED

SAN AUGUSTINE, May 1 (AP)—Oscar Wilson, 54-year-old farmer, was in a hospital here today suffering from critical knife wounds and his wife, 26, was dead of gunshot wounds.

The body of Mrs. Wilson was found yesterday at the Wilson home in Magnolia community, 14 miles southeast of San Augustine. She had been shot three times. A pistol which had been fired six times was in the room.

Wilson was found in a patch of woods about 300 yards from the house with his throat and wrists slashed and with two stab wounds in the chest. Officers said he refused to make any statement.

Man Shot Down As He Goes Into Jail

TEXARKANA, Ark., May 1 (AP)—Ernest Barnes of Garland City, Ark., was shot to death early today as he entered the Texarkana, Ark., jail unarmed.

The officer on duty, who was alone, said he thought Barnes and two other men were preparing to overpower him and instigate a jail break. Five men a month ago tried to overpower Waldo Nelson, another officer, at the jail but they were routed by pistol fire.

Millard Alford, prosecuting attorney, began an investigation.

Oakley Is On Trial For 'Devil Slaying' Of Child

(By The Associated Press)

LINDEN, May 1—Hundreds of persons filled the Cass county court room and overflowed into the lawn outside today at the opening of the trial of Paul Oakley, itinerant preacher, for the "devil slaying" of Bernice Clayton, three-year-old invalid.

The crowd included 210 special veniremen who had been summoned for prospective jury service. Difficulty in selecting jurors was anticipated because of wide-spread publicity the case had attracted.

Elmer L. Lincoln, district attorney, in questioning the first few men, indicated he would seek the death penalty. Defense counsel announced a plea of insanity would be entered for their client.

Oakley entered the courtroom smiling and during the preliminary proceedings sat near his attorneys, gesticulating with his hands and rilling his eyes. With his brother, Coy Oakley, he had been in jail here since Bernice was choked to death in wierd rites at her home designed to "drive the devil from her."

Both brothers and Sherman Clayton, the child's father, were charged with murder. At his preliminary hearing Clayton testified that he thought Paul Oakley was trying to cure the child and he did not know he was killing her.

Both Oakleys related their versions of the affair at the preliminary hearing. Paul declared that while he had his hands on her throat a "devil" told him to choke her.

Lubbock's Observance Of Boys' Week In Third Day

With boys having been guests, ushers, and otherwise participants in church services Sunday, Lubbock observance of National Boys' week this morning entered its third day.

Today is boys' day in industry. Boys will meet at the Lubbock Sash & Door company plant at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon and, after being escorted through it, will go to the Lubbock Cotton Oil company mill for a similar tour. Additional industrial hikes are scheduled for Wednesday and Thursday afternoons.

Boys will be guests at a showing tonight, beginning at 8 o'clock, in the Texas Technological college engineering building auditorium of five reels of motion pictures showing the development of the telephone and workings of a telephone exchange.

Tuesday is boys' day in school. Tom Garrard, a member of the state board of education, of Lubbock, will address junior and senior high school boys in the senior auditorium from 3:30 to 4 p. m.

Dude Buster, chairman of entertainment arrangements, has announced boys less than 18 years old will be admitted free to a track and field meet between Texas Technological college and Simmons university at Matador field Thursday night.

Thursday night originally was designated as boys' day in health and in an evening at home. The evening-at-home designation possibly will be moved forward to Wednesday.

Texas People Plan To Attend Meeting Of National Parent-Teacher Congress

CLAUDE, May 1 (Special)—A practical convention is in store for delegates to the thirty-seventh national convention of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, in Seattle, May 21 to 26, with headquarters at the Olympic Hotel.

Texas delegates signifying their intention of attending this convention are: Mrs. S. M. N. Marrs, Austin, national chairman of budget committee; Mrs. Ella Caruthers Porter, Dallas, national chairman of thrift; Mrs. A. F. Wood, Athens, president of the Texas branch; Mrs. J. J. Devoti, state recording secretary, Houston; Mr. and Mrs. Irby Dyer of Barstow; Mrs. G. L. Fugate, state chairman of city councils, Houston.

The central theme of the convention, "The Child and His Community," will be developed through addresses at the general sessions and through discussion groups and conferences following each session.

Several new features are being planned for this convention. Informal "at-homes" are to be held daily, following meetings, by national board members, when opportunity will be given for personal conferences between national, state and local parent-teacher workers. Another innovation is a dramatic presentation of the parent-teacher organization in its national, state, district, council, and local aspects to be staged on Tuesday, May 23. This organization conference, led by Mrs. Hugh Bradford, national president, promises to be one of the most illuminating and interesting features of the convention program.

Northwest Theme

"The End of the Trail" will be the theme for the annual banquet on Monday evening, May 22. The Spanish ballroom of the Olympic hotel will be transformed into a log cabin interior for this banner occasion. Red tablescloths, dripping candles, miniature covered wagons, and a typical northwest setting are planned to carry out the frontier motif.

The National Mothersingers chorus will sing such selections as "Star Lullaby," "Take Joy Home," and "Calm Be Thy Sleep," while the Washington State Mothersingers will render "The Green Cathedral," "My Lover is a Fisherman," and "Hark! Hark! The Lark."

Idaho Boy Trumpeters will play at the tree planting ceremony and at the banquet. The Idaho congress has arranged these numbers as a cooperative gesture since their state has no city large enough for a national convention.

Fathers To Sing

Fathers will have an active part in the program. Fathersingers will be heard on Thursday evening, May 25. The annual breakfast for men delegates on Tuesday morning has its plans shrouded, as usual, in secrecy, so no female member may attempt to intrude.

Many interested parent-teacher workers will be compelled to be "armchair" or "stay-at-home" delegates. For Congress members unable to attend the convention in person, arrangements have been made whereby they may purchase the convention delegates' notebook. The official program, issues of the daily Convention News, and other material will be included. Orders for the notebook, since only a limited number are available, accompanied by the registration fee of one dollar, must reach the National Office not la'r than May 10. Other sources of information concerning the convention will be in the Seattle daily newspapers during convention week and the June-July issue of Child Welfare magazine.

"B.O." (body odor) is a problem we ALL have to face!

LADY of leisure or busy "from morning till night"—no one of us is safe from "B.O." (body odor)! For every normal person must perspire. Pores give off a quart of odor-causing waste daily. We don't know when we offend—others do! Play safe—bathe regularly with Lifebuoy. Its clean, fresh, quickly-vanishing scent tells you Lifebuoy is no ordinary toilet soap. Its richer, more abundant lather purifies and deodorizes pores—removes every trace of "B.O."

Want a radiant skin?

Make Lifebuoy your complexion soap. See how quickly your skin responds to its gentle, yet thorough pore-deep cleansing. Watch dullness freshen.

234 ARRESTS BY POLICE IN APRIL

Two hundred 34 arrests were made by Lubbock police in April, and an aggregate of $930.50 in fines was collected in corporation court in April, according to a monthly report. Arrests for offenses other than traffic law violations totaled 171.

Thirty cases were transferred by police to county and federal authorities. One hundred 56 cases filed in corporation court in April were distributed among offenses as follows:

Traffic law violation 63, drunkenness 40, vagrancy 21, fighting 10, disturbing the peace 8, gambling 8, violation of sanitary ordinance 4, violation of plumbing ordinance one, and theft of less than $5, one.

Transferred cases were:

Seven to federal authorities for prohibition law violation, six to county authorities for similar offenses, five for aggravated assault, three for burglary, two for vagrancy, and one each for forgery, carrying a pistol, carrying knuckles, theft, and juvenile theft.

One automobile was confiscated and transferred to custody of federal authorities. A man was arrested as a fugitive from justice charged with inter-state transportation of a stolen car in violation of the Dyer act, and was transferred to federal custody.

LEGISLATURE

pire on May 9. After that the per diem drops to $5.

Senator Walter Woodward of Coleman said James E. Ferguson, husband of the governor, probably would be pleased with an early adjournment because it would leave him a free hand with the money bills.

The senate voted to submit a number of proposed constitutional amendments. One would increase the terms of office of the governor, lieutenant governor and attorney general from two to four years and would make the mineligible for immediate re-election.

Another would permit per capita school aid to be distributed on an average attendance rather than a scholastic population basis and a third would increase the salary of the secretary of state from $2,500 to $4,000 annually. Still another would permit prosecutions on information as well as indictment. The resolutions now go to the house.

Advocates of the Kayton sales tax bill hoped to bring it up for floor consideration today in the house.

The house already had passed bills to increase the oil production tax and to levy an income tax. The senate may act on the oil tax before the end of the week and the state affairs committee likely will hold a hearing this week on the income levy.

The senate state affairs committee, meanwhile, had voted 8 to 6 to give a favorable report to the bill to create an oil and gas commission. It was doubtful that the senate would dispose of the proposal this week.

Compromise Seen

Conferees on the departmental appropriations bill, the third of the four major money measures, hoped to have their work finished within a few days. Legislators believed that the free conference committee on congressional redistricting might complete a compromise bill before the close of the week.

BUSINESS REPORT

fact, it is necessary to go back to October, 1930, to find lower figures. This is merely an extension of the favorable trend which began with respect to insolvencies last fall.

"Banking operations gradually resumed a more normal proportion during the past month. Federal Reserve bank loans to member banks reflected a steady decline throughout the period, the total on April 15, being $5,762,000 as compared with $7,253,000 on March 15, and $12,655,000 on the corresponding date in 1932.

Reserve Deposits Recede

"As member banks' balances were again shifted to eastern centers, reserve deposits of member banks receded. The loans, investments, and deposits of member banks in selected cities declined during the period between March 15 and April 12. The daily average of combined net demand and time deposits of member banks in this district amounted to $602,323,000 in March, as compared with $607,612,000 in February, and $656,444,000 in March, 1932.

"Conditions in the agricultural livestock industries were generally favorable during the past month. Farmers made rapid progress with land preparation and the planting of row crops. The seeding of corn is about completed and cotton planting is becoming general. Except in a few areas, moisture has been ample but recently the north winds have dried out the surface moisture with the result that a general rain would be very beneficial over most of the district. Prospects for winter wheat are very poor. Range vegetation has made good growth and livestock are putting on flesh."

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, May 1 (AP)—Cotton had an active and strong opening today. Cables were 20 to 30 points better than due and sterling was higher. First trades here showed gains of 33 to 42 points, the advance being due to the higher Liverpool and the progress of inflation legislation in Washington.

July advanced a few points additional after the start, trading at 8.22 and December rallied to 8.58, the general market showing gains of 34 to 42 points.

Prices soon eased on realizing, however, July declining to 8.04 and October to 8.25, or 18 to 23 points down from the early highs.

Later in the first hour, prices rallied again in sympathy with a firm opening of stocks, recording 13 to 23 points from the lows with July at 8.17 and October at 8.41, at these levels showing net gains of 34 to 35 points from Saturday's close.

Following the early advance, the market though still quite active became erratic under pressure of heavy profit-taking. Prices eased until July traded down to 8.03 and October to 8.25, or 19 to 23 points down from the early highs but still 19 to 20 points above Saturday's close.

Later in the morning, July rallied to 8.18, a recovery of 15 points, but near mid-session reacted again to 8.08 and the market at mid-session showed net gains of 25 to 26 points. Futures appeared to be following the erratic course of stocks.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, May 1 (AP)—Cotton opened firm, 30 to 45 points higher on active general buying, higher cables and the advance in foreign exchange. May 8.17; July 8.30; Oct. 8.45; Dec. 8.65; Jan. 8.70; March 8.80.

The initial demand carried July to 8.30 or two cents a pound above the March low.

The bulge attracted heavy realizing, which was absorbed on reactions of some 20 to 28 points and prices at the end of the first half hour showed net gains of about 27 to 30 points.

The buying was stimulated by the opening advance in the grain and stock markets and expectation that the house would act promptly on the farm relief bill.

The more urgent demand was supplied at about the opening prices, and while buying continued active, prices reacted later in the morning under realizing combined with southern selling. Reports that buyers of cotton goods were paying higher asking prices here had a sustaining effect, while according to local spot men the south was offering cotton more freely but at a very firm basis. At midday July was ruling around 8.14, with active months generally showing net advances of 27 to 29 points.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, May 1. (AP)—The rush of funds into stocks and staples rolled up new high price levels for 1933 today, and trading in shares was again at a furious pace.

The advance encountered heavy profit taking, however, and shares, after rising 1 to 4 points in leaders receded somewhat from the best. The list surged up under leadership of industrials at the start, eased off, then came up again with rails in the van in the middle of the day, only to ease off from the best again.

Extreme gains of about 4 points in Union Pacific, Santa Fe and U. S. Steel preferred, and nearly 3 in U. S. Steel common, Southern Pacific, and American Can, were reduced by a point or more. Heavy profit-taking came into the silver shares, and Cerro De Pasco, U. S. Smelting and International Silver declined 1 to 2 points from Saturday's final prices. Gains of major frections to a point were registered in heavy trading in General Motors, Anaconda, Radio, Sears Roebuck and Montgomery Ward. Among issues up 2 points or so were New York Central, Public Service of N. J., Consolidated Gas, Owens Illinois, and American Telephone. Oils were firm. The latest impetus to the markets was evidently the senate acceptance of the farm relief-inflation measure.

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, May 1 (AP)—Wheat advanced 2 5-8 cents a bushel in early dealings today, and then reacted almost 2 cents. The main factor continued to be the stimulus of the Roosevelt farm bill and attendant inflationary measures. Opening unchanged to 2 1-4 cents higher, wheat rose further and then reacted from top figures. Corn started 1-4 to 7-8 up, and subsequently strengthened.

may advance a measure which would give him authority to negotiate reciprocal tariffs with foreign nations, while a little later will come a proposal for a one to two billion dollar public works construction program to stimulate employment.

The senate prepared to take up and dispose of in rapid fashion the administration's Tennessee Valley-Muscle Shoals development plan.

Approval by the senate last Friday of the farm relief-inflation legislation opened the way for such speedy action, and this week was expected to see also a definite start on some of these proposals which have been piling up after passage by the house; the $2,300,000,000 home mortgage refinancing measure; the federal one-cent gasoline tax and postage reduction bill; the McReynolds arms embargo resolution.

Meanwhile, committees are shaping such controversial measures as banking-reform, thirty-hour work-week and securities regulation. A senate committee has completed work on the securities bill introduced there while a house committee plans to have the bill on that side ready for house action this week.

Goldberg, brother-in-law of William "Klondike" O'Donnell, associate of Murray Humphries and William "Three Finger Jack" White, all three of whom a notorious gangster was reported to have offered to kill for $30,000, told police he was seized when he entered the offices of the Ice Teamsters' union.

Airport Bombing Is Delayed By Winds

Strong, dust-laden winds Sunday afternoon necessitated postponement of a scheduled mock bombing, with sacks of flour being used as missiles, at Lubbock municipal airport, and the event is to be conducted next Sunday, W. C. Breedlove, manager of the flying field, said.

Wind velocity reached a maximum of 42 miles an hour, or 10 less than Saturday's peak velocity, and visibilty was low, Mr. Breedlove said. Two ships went up to test possibilities of the competitive sham bombing and the pilots found conditions dangerous for ordinary flying.

dustrial establishments in or near the loop.

Police set out to round up every known communist, direct actionist and anarchist in the city. They arrested five youths within a few hours.

Heavy Damage Caused

The bombs roared forth as if by prearrangement, shortly after 2:30 a. m. Damage was estimated at $150,000. Guests in downtown hotels were startled from their beds.

Plate glass windows were shattered as far as five blocks from the building of the Illinois Bell Telephone company, where the most damage, estimated at $50,000, was caused.

City officers generally believed radicals set off the bonds, but Lieut. Make Mills, investigator of radicalism for the police department, was not of that belief.

"From my close contact with radicals," he said, "I do not believe they were responsible. I believe there was another motive."

Officials of Sprague, Warner Grocery company, also damaged, said they believed organizations protesting the food supplied by the firm for unemployment relief might have been responsible.

Underworld Blamed

Authorities also considered reports of underworld warfare over control of labor unions as a possible cause. One of the other places damaged was the Willett Bus and Teaming company, where hundreds of teamsters are employed.

The other two establishments damaged were the Hibbard-Spencer-Bartlett Hardware company and the Stratford building, three floors of which are occupied by shops of Marshall Field and Company as a factory. A watchman was injured.

The mayor, the state's attorney and police officials pledged immediate action and the matter was placed on the docket of the county grand jury convening today.

Knights Of Pythias Close Meeting Here

With attendance exceeding 150 knights and ladies, a two-day 32nd Texas district meeting of Knights of Pythias and Pythian sisters closed Sunday morning with a breakfast in the Lubbock hotel.

Dr. G. H. Ater, deputy district grand chancellor, presided. Speakers included John Lee Smith, grand chancellor of the knights in Texas, of Throckmorton; Royal G. Phillips, past grand chancellor, of Tyler; Theodore O. Yarbrough, grand keeper of the records and seals, of Weatherford, and Claude Christian of Paducah.

Glenn D. Chase is chancellor commander of the Lubbock lodge, No. 486.

Rotarians Gather For Angelo Confab

SAN ANGELO, May 1 (AP)—With "service above self", one of the organization's mottoes, uppermost in their deliberations, more than 250 members of Rotary International this morning began here the eighth conference of the forty-first district, comprising 61 clubs in Northwest Texas and the Panhandle.

The convention will continue through Tuesday afternoon when reports of conference committees will be presented, the district governor will be nominated and the place of the next general session will be selected. O. B. Sellers, president of the Fort Worth Rotary club, is expected to be a nominee for district governor. Abilene and Amarillo are probable bidders for the 1934 conference.

Thought For Today

When my soul fainted within me I remembered the Lord: and my prayer came in unto thee, into thine holy temple.—Jonah 2:7.

Our prayers should be for blessings in general, for God knows best what is good for us.—Socrates.

Newest Dirigible

The airship Macon has gone aloft at last, and everyone who watched her as she slid effortlessly along the sky must have felt a sharp pang of regret at the thought that these exciting and magnificent dirigibles are not, after all, quite as practical as we had supposed.

What the Macon's future is going to be only time can tell. She was hardly launched under auspicious circumstances. The Akron was destroyed in a gale just as the Macon was made ready; then the Macon herself had to wait in her hangar for more than a week until mild weather came; and the net result seemed to be just so much added proof that the big dirigible must be a fair-weather bird.

But she is a beautiful sight to watch, for all that—beautiful and thrilling. A lot of people will continue to hope, for more reasons than one, that this ship will be able to reassert the reliability of the giant airship.

Dispatch from Germany says an editor who cartooned Hitler unfavorably has been taken into "protective custody" by the Nazis. Who, we presume, will then give him a benevolent beating.

Bankers, you might suppose prefer their beer on draught while lawyers prefer to get theirs by the case.

Stocks certainly fell down far enough. It oughtn't to be a surprise to see them go "Boom."

Bill aims to save the government $4,000 a day by cutting down free copies of the Congressional Record now given members. Say, who made that crack, "Talk's cheap!"

Speech may be silver, and silence gold, but paper money seems to be doing all the talking these days.

Don't know how Premier MacDonald and President Roosevelt got along, but as for Herriot, we presume he can be depended upon to be quite franc.

Two-thirds of the human body is water, says a medical report. Some smart fellow will probably have it incorporated any day now, and sell stock.

AMBITION is a funny thing. Six months ago most people were claiming that they'd be satisfied when we'd hit bottom. But now we've hit it they're anxious to start the upturn.

It's all right to be a chip off the old block. It's being a chip off the old blockhead that's bad.

STARTED by Walter Winchell, the well known blessed-event prognosticator and picked up by a lot of the journalistic great, yesterday was "President's Day" to give honor to Mr. Franklin Delano Roosevelt, who has been doing a pretty fair job of getting things done during the past seven weeks.

The nation's big shots chipped in to make it a howling success in oratory, rhyme and song and the country's business men, from the corner store on up, were for it.

But what The Plainsman wonders is if the women folks—the mothers of this glorious land of our—really accepted the idea in its biggest sense.

After listening to Mr. Will Rogers and others of the land's leaders over the ether and then coming home to ponder over something interesting to say in this column for today, your humble servant happened to see on his sacred home desk a copy of "The Tales of Peter Rabbit".

Which gave rise to thought:

The man who first gave birth to the Peter Rabbit stories did a bigger job for the homes of our country than any President ever has done or probably ever will do.

For where would we be without Peter Rabbit and other, similar yarns by which countless mothers put countless boys and girls to bed every night of the year from January 1 to December 31?

SOMEBODY, sometime, said "he also serves who only stands and waits". That's only another, and more homelier way of saying that the fellow who performs some simple service to his fellow man gets an important job done.

Maybe he never gets credit for it.

Maybe his contribution is never considered to be of what we smugly like to call "the first water".

But never-the-less, he fills a need—and although his name may not go down in history, the world is a better place in which to live for his being here.

The Plainsman has no idea how long the Peter Rabbit stories have been with us—and of course he likewise has no idea how long they have been popular.

But he can look backward, across the chasm of years, and remember how he was enthralled by them—back to that day in the dim, distant past when the most thrilling sentence in the world was:

"But 'round the end of a cucumber frame, whom should he meet but Mr. McGregor!"

Remember that?

It was the end of the world!

ALL honor and all credit—together with all praise—to Mr. Franklin Delano Roosevelt for making us a jam up good President so far.

He will go down in history as a fellow who was going somewhere to do something—and who did it.

But let's not forget the birds who have contributed to other parts of our lives—fellows like the author of the Peter Rabbit stories whose names are not even associated with their contributions to humanity.

"They also serve who only stand and wait!"

And how!

Our Republican friends insist they will do nothing to detract from the popularity of Democratic President Roosevelt. We take that to mean, also, that they do not plan to interfere with time and tides.

That Man on Avenue Q says the main reason the conservatives oppose recognition of Russia is so we'll still have one country left that we can say is worse off than our own!

The main thing we all need is an alarm clock that, when it goes off, emits the delicious odors of frying bacon and larrupin' good coffee.

THINGS are picking up. Things are better. We have the absolute proof. There's no doubt of it now.

Greta Garbo has come back. She's going to work again, right here in the land of the brave and the home of the free.

If you've got any memory left at all, you'll remember that she took her feet and left our shores something like a year ago.

Her fanfare of publicity writers insisted that:

1. She was leaving for good.
2. She would be married to a nice Swedish boy whom she had known all her life.
3. She would do all her own house work, including worshing and arning.
4. That she would immediately start in raising a large family of double-jointed, hamhanded, Swedish boys and girls.

Remember?

BUT the Great Garbo is back. In the face of 50 percent salary cuts handed all the stars, she's back again in Hollywood.

In other words, "she bane t'ank she try heem again".

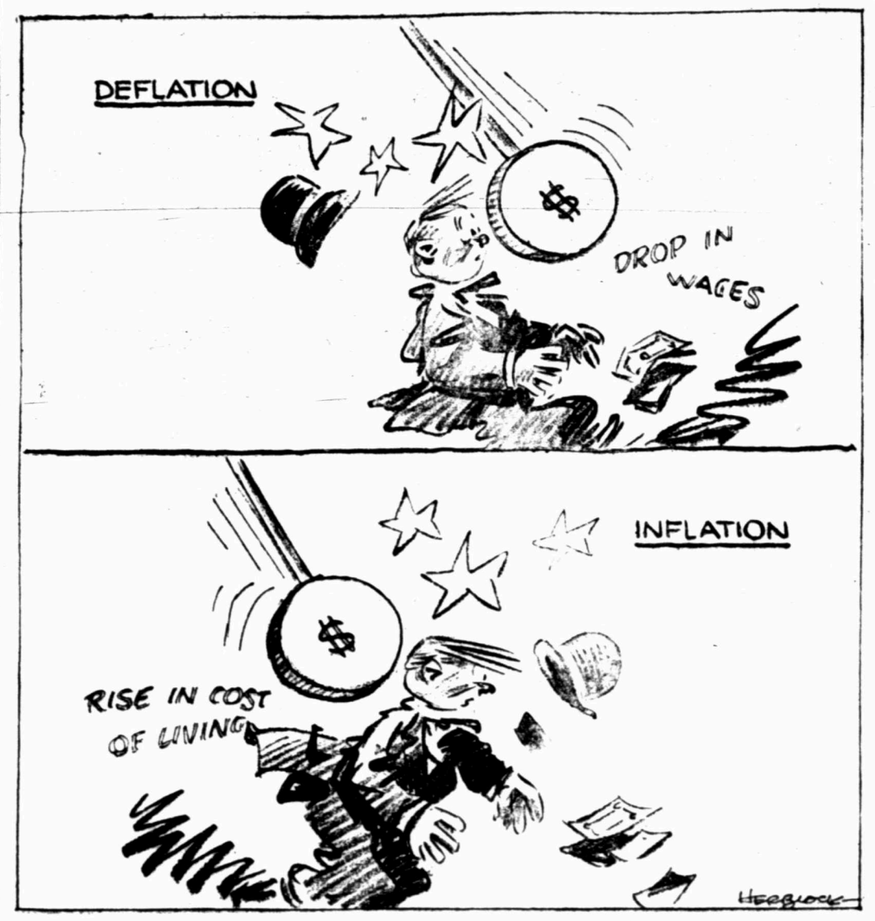

Which means the stage is set for another killing.

Hoorah for Roosevelt.

Hoorah for Garbo.

Hoorah for the end of the depression!

Democratic Inflation Program Brings Forth A Reminder That America Still Has Two-Party System; GOP Opposed

BY MORRIS GILBERT
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, May 1—The Democratic inflation program has brought forth a reminder that we still have a two-party system.

You may remember that the chief Republican contention used to be that the Democrats destroyed prosperity and were disastrous in a crisis, while the Democrats countered with the argument that the Republicans were the ones who would run us into the mud. That still seems to be it.

Unless Republican leaders are proved correct in their charge that the administration inflation policy will cause more misery than was experienced under President Hoover, or unless the general Roosevelt program fails to check the depression, the once powerful old G. O. P. will be at a disadvantage in the 1934 and 1936 elections.

Millionaire Leaders

The familiarity between the Republican party and the owners of great wealth is demonstrated again as that famous trio of ultra-conservative millionaire politicians—former Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon, former Secretary of the Treasury Ogden Mills and Senator David A. Reed of Pennsylvania—assumes leadership of the anti-inflation fight.

The line-up reminds you of the great Bryan silver fight of 1896, when Mark Hanna raised millions to defeat the inflation heresy. In those days the G. O. P. politicians sold the workmen of the east on "the full dinner pail." Today, with a similar solicitude, they tearfully plead the cause of the masses and Dave Reed warns that the chief sufferers will be the working people and those of moderate means, whose wages and the value of whose savings will be reduced.

President's Cold

The momentous press conference at which President Roosevelt announced the formal retirement of America from the gold standard began with some good-natured presidential wisecracking with a correspondent in the front row about the cold which confined the executive to his study in the White House proper . . . . It ended as the correspondent shouted back: "Well, take good care of yourself!"

Thomas Arrives

Elmer Thomas of Oklahoma, the tall, white-haired, best-dressed senator, has come into his own as brilliantly as anyone in this administration.

Summoned to the White House, he was consulted by the president and given the privilege of helping frame and introducing the presidential inflation program. . . . . Just a few months ago it was the fashion here to be very tired of Senator Thomas, who was always making long, serious and fervent speeches for inflation. He was Senator Huey Long's coworker in the spectacular filibuster of last January and his battle cry was "Reflation—or revolution!"

So he was very widely regarded as a demagogue unworthy of considerate attention. . . . The ironic factor in his present position is that the administration program contains provisions which go far beyond anything Thomas ever proposed.

Alfalfa Bill

What's become of Gov. Alfalfa Bill Murray? Well, he is still governor of Oklahoma and you hear a lot of talk about him in the capital. Much of this talk is sulphuric and it all comes from Oklahoma politicians who complain that they can't land any good jobs up here because Bill is in wrong.

He said some extremely mean things about Roosevelt last spring and kept his state delegation at the Chicago convention voting for Murray when it might have meant a lot to Roosevelt.

On February 5, I was run down by a car and got both arms and legs broken. My question is: Don't you think it a dirty trick for a man to break another's legs and then get his hat and run off with it? It being my new Stetson. What do you think should be done with him?

I have been reading your blooming old paper for three years and I sure miss it out here. Since I spent all the money I had and all my friends had on a leg show, I guess I'll have to do without the paper and a hat.

The President slid off the gold standard and most everybody praised him for it. Sometime before he got off I slid off and everybody cussed me. That only shows who is doing the sliding, whether it hurts or not.

With sixty camps over the state, tourists should find convenient places to stop for the night.

A. L. Stringer,
Dimmitt, Texas.

(Dear Mr. Stringer: I think the man in question ought to be boiled in oil. Nobody knows more than I do how hard it is to buy hats. If it hadn't been that Hugh Norman, our advertising manager, was a bum judge of Presidential material I'd have been going bare-headed long before now. Luck to you and thanks for your letter. The Plainsman.)

University of California scientists achieved a temperature of 459.1 below zero. They can get a still lower one if they will put a thermometer beside Mrs. Ella Boole while she reads reports of the success of 3.2 beer.

Women Train As Machine Gunners

Woman's place may be in the home, but members of the National Defense Women's Association of Japan don't let that deter them from training to fight beside their husbands and sons should occasion arise. Here they're shown taking their turn in machine gun marksmanship at the baracks of the First Infantry Regiment in Tokyo as a feature of the Japanese celebration of the 28th anniversary of the downfall of Mukden during the Russo-Japanese War.

THE PLAINSMAN GETS SOME MAIL

DIMMITT MAN WRITES CONCERNING HARD LUCK

Dear Plainsman: I know you have a wide actual experience and a much wider vicarious experience, and I know you to be a man of good, sound judgment. Knowing all this, I wish to ask you a question and I desire an honest answer.

As Brought Over Associated Press Wires Today

Beer, Your Figure

One of the minor issues of the day seems to be the question whether or not the consumption of beer will add unwanted pounds to the figures of women who want to be slender.

Prof. Lafayette B. Mendel of Yale predicts that it will.

A quart of beer, he points out, contains 545 calories—only 105 less than a quart of milk. Consequently, if you add a quart of beer to your regular daily diet, and don't cut down on anything else, you are pretty certain to take on weight, just as you would if you drank an extra quart of milk every day.

Of course, you can get around that by leaving off the menu a sufficient quality of some other food to balance the diet. And if you are a feminine beer drinker, and you want to keep your figure, it looks as if that is about what you'll have to do.

One Big Family

TOPEKA, Kas.—When Edward Schlodder and Miss Viola D. Schwanke were married it was the third time in two months children in the two families became husband and wife. It started when Miss Bessie Schlodder, sister of Edward, married Alvin Schwanke, brother of Viola. The second marriage was that of Albert Schlodder, brother of Edward and Bessie, and Miss Pearl Schwanke, sister of Alvin and Viola.

Refuse $2 Bill

DETROIT — Although they have not been paid since February 1, Detroit city firemen would rather continue payless than accept the city's scrip in $2 denominations. Other city employes demurred—but the firemen refused outright to take the supposedly unlucky paper.

No more scrip in $2 denominations will be manufactured for the city, but meanwhile 20,000 pieces of $2 scrip remain on hand.

Signed With "X"

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—A will signed by an armless invalid—with just an "x"—has been admitted to probate here by Judge F. M. Guthrie who said the case was without parallel in Tennessee history.

The will, that of Alex Kulewaska who died last January, left a house and lot to Mrs. Katie Miller, in whose home he had lived. Kulewaska made his mark but the welfare worker who witnessed the signature neglected to write the invalid's name beside the "x" to make it conform with usual documents of the kind.

Attorneys said they found a parallel case in searching back through English law to the time of Charles II.

A Bumper Ride

CONNEAUT, Ohio — Dickey Truman, 4, only went to town with his mother, but what a ride he had.

Dickey, told he must stay home, crawled unseen on the front bumper while Mrs. S. C. Truman, was getting ready. Wedged between the bumper and the radiator, he rode the six miles to town. He was cold but unhurt.

A Tight Fit

ESCANABA, Mich.—For the last year John Manning, Escanaba shoe dealer has been offering a pair of shoes, size 15, to any one who could wear them.

The shoes, measuring 12 1-2 inches from heel to tip, were pushed around on the display counter until Robert Vietzke, deputy sheriff of Rapid River, walked into the store. He stepped into the shoes, found them a bit snug, but decided they would stretch a bit.

Conductor Stokowski has presented a concert by an invisible orchestra. All right for music-lovers, but how about us fellows who only keep awake at concerts by keeping our eye glued on the kettle-drummer?

Hawaii is out of beer already, and the nearest brewery is 2000 miles away. Water, water everywhere, and not a drop to drink!

DARLING FOOL

by MABEL McELLIOTT

BEGIN HERE TODAY

MONNIE O'DARE, who works in a drug store in Belvedere, a small town, helps to support her MOTHER, her younger sister, KAY, and her brother, MARK. She goes to the aid of her older brother, BILL, wrongfully arrested in a garage holdup, and CHARLES EUSTACE, handsome newcomer in town, becomes her friend. DAN CARDIGAN, who says he is in love with Monnie neglects her and Monnie believes SANDRA LAWRENCE, a rich girl who has pretended to be her friend, is trying to get Dan away from her. Monnie learns Bill plans to marry ANGIE GILLEN, a cheap, good-natured sort of girl, as soon as Angie gets her divorce. Dan stops in to see Monnie at the store but she is cool to him. Kay is discontented in Belvedere and Monnie worries about her.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER VIII

Monnie made herself proud and cool, answering him. "Yes?" she said.

Dan's voice over the wire sounded hurried, vaguely embarrased. "Monnie, listen, I was in such a rush today. I wanted to talk to you but you know how Mother is. She won't wait—"

He paused, evidently waiting for encouragement. Monnie felt a new scorn which somehow buoyed her up and she did not help him out.

After a few seconds he went on eagerly. "How about tonight? We could drive out some place. It's hotter than the hinges out here at the club but it will cool off by 7. We could take a picnic basket, go out on the River Road—"

Every pulse in the girl's slim young body was hammering. Every nerve urged her to accept the invitation. But pride held her back. Coolly she said, "I'm sorry but I have another engagement."

It cost her a great deal to say that. It was not true. She had nothing on earth to do that evening but it was time Dan Cardigan was taught a lesson. Time he knew that he could not have Monica O'Dare's company for the mere snapping of his fingers—

"Oh. I see." Dan sounded flat, crestfallen. Monnie exulted in her triumph. But after she had hung up the receiver, after she had gone quietly back to finish her luncheon she felt a little reaction.

"What did he want's?" Mrs. O'Dare asked nervously. Her policy in all her chilren's affairs was one of "hands off" whenever possible. But she could not help noticing the change that had come over Monnie since Dan Cardigan's return. With resentment and anger foreign to her quiet nature she now regarded the Cardigans. Wasn't Monnie, who was lovely and gracious enough to catch the attention of a prince, quite good enough for young Dan Cardigan? Mrs. O'Dare had lived in Belvedere all her life. She knew, with bitterness and a little sardonic amusement, the rigid rules that govern small town society. She knew Monnie "didn't belong" now that she worked in Mr. Vernon's drug store. The Cardigans would look higher than the little cottage on Denny street when they put the accolade of their approval on a bride for Dan.

"Just asking me to drive out with him tonight for a picnic supper," Monnie returned in an indifferent tone. "I told him I was busy."

"Monnie, I forgot to tell you," her mother cried with animation. "Mr. Eustace stopped in this morning to ask if you and Kay would have dinner with him tomorrow night. He included me, too, but I told him I'd rather not come. You young people can have a better time by yourselves. He said he was asking some others. I don't know who—"

"That was foolish of you. He asked you because he wanted you," Monnie told her. Somehow this message took the sting out of Dan's left-handed invitation. Charles Eustace, who was cultivated and rich and handsome didn't mind letting the whole world know he was friendly with the O'Dares, even if they were poor and lived in a shabby little house on the wrong side of town!

"He's nice," Mrs. O'Dare said. "Kay will be wild with joy when I tell her. Poor child, she hasn't had much fun lately! And I keep worrying lest she get so bored with dullness that she'll join that wild crowd in town. Mrs. Merriam was telling me they had to give the Young People's Society down at the Fourth street church a good talking to. Some of the boys brought liquor to the last meeting. The janitor found the bottles next morning when he was sweeping up."

"Imagine not being able to be sure of those infants at a church meeting!" cried Monnie, struck. "But Kay didn't go last time. She said she was tired of all that crowd. They were too slow."

"That," contributed Mrs. O'Dare, "was the night she spent with Clarissa Briggs. Her father and mother went to Hig Springs. Remember?"

Monnie was putting on her hat before the mirror, only half attending to the conversation. But at Clarissa's name something flashed in her brain. A scrap of gossip which had drifted to her ears in the store. Two old women, their heads together, mutterig.

"—that 'Rissy Briggs. She's a trial to her parents and no two ways about it. Gallivantin' around with travelin' men down at the hotel—"

She allowed nothing of the sudden consternation she felt to show in her face. Those terrible old tabbies talked about everybody, anyhow! It didn't mean a thing, the fact that they gossiped about Clarissa who was roly-poly and redhaired and had a cuddly, kissable face. Only Monnie did wish she knew more about Kay's activities outside the home. Kay was mysterious about her affairs, sullen when questioned. It was impossible for Monnie, working as she did during the day, tired at night, to keep track of her.

"Let me alone, won't you?" Kay would say, rather sullenly, when questioned. "You never want me to have any fun. Might as well be buried alive—."

Monnie kissed her mother and hurried out. She looked fresh and charming in her thin yellow frock with the brown straw hat. No one would have guessed that she cerried with her a burden of worry to great for her 20 years.

"I wish," she cried to herself passionately, hurrying down Denny street, "I wish Father were here—"

She wasn't old enough or wise enough to settle all these problems. Bill, who might have helped, was immersed in his own affairs. That, too, Monnie had to keep from her mother's ears. Bill, 22, the head of in the family really, was in love with a married woman whose husband was about to get a divorce—

Resolutely she put this thought from her.

It was later the same day that Sandra ran in to see her, Sandra very crisp and fresh and fragrant in embroidered batiste of sheerest white, with an ingenune hat trimmed with field flowers. Monnie was hot and tired—it was at 5 o'clock—her frock which had seemed so cool and immaculate a few hours earlier was now wilted.

Sandra's tone was light and confidential. Demanding a huge jar of the special bath salts Mr. Vernon always ordered for her, she leaned over the counter, whispering. "My dear, I've such heaps to tell you!"

Monnie pushed back the damp bronze ringlets clustering around her forehead and tried to smile. It was a sorry attempt. She felt out of sorts, angry, suspicious. Hadn't Sandra been playing tennis with Dan at the Country Club only a short time before; hadn't she lunched with him? A wave of furious jealousy and resentment swept over her but she forced her tone to be calm and dispassionate.

"Have you? Isn't it a frightful day? I'm perishing—"

Sandra widened her eyes and flicked her lashes downward in a way she had.

"I saw—guess who?—today," she murmured importantly.

Coolly Monnie said, "I know. Dan. He told me."

Something very like annoyance crept into Sandra's honeyed expression. With an instant flash of prescience Monnie said to herself that Sandra had wanted to make her jealous.

"She's pretending when she says she's my friend," thought the younger girl bitterly. The knowledge made her cold and forlorn. She hadn't many friends. She was too busy and too poor to make them—and she had counted on Sandra. Last winter the other girl, rich and easy and cultivated, had made things pleasant for her, had lent her books and invited her to Sunday night suppers. Now everything seemed changed.

Sandra said importantly, "My dear, we talked about you!"

"Did you, indeed?" Monnie hated herself when that sarcastic note crept into her voice but she could not keep it out.

"Danny's such a darling," the other continued, lowering her tone so that Miss Anstice Cory who had come in and was pottering around among the tooth-brushes, should not overhear her. "He's honestly fond of you, Monnie," she continued with a faint note of patronage.

The angry color crept into Monnie's check and she smiled brilliantly, without meaning. "Really! How nice of him," she said.

"Oh, now, don't misunderstand me," Sandra drawled. "Dan's a bit of a charmer. We both know that. I honestly feel, Monnie," (this with another side glance at Miss Cory who was near-sighted but far from deaf) "that Dan will never tie himself to one woman. He's the—the flirtatious type—"

"Was that what you wanted to tell me?" Monnie asked, amber eyes darkening with repressed fury.

"Don't be cross," Sandra coaxed. "What I really wanted to say, Monnie, was that I think you're wasting your time, watching and worrying about him—"

"I didn't know I was doing that," Monnie returned proudly.

"Ah, but, my dear, those of us who know you best realize your care for Dan. Of course we do!" For an instant Sandra slipped her white, beautifully manicured hand over the other's and Monica was conscious of the contrast. She had helped Mr. Vernon open a packing case that afternoon and had broken a nail. She felt gauche and grimy beside the other girl's perfection.

"When Dan telephoned me after lunch," she told Sandra, "and asked me to go out with him tonight I refused."

"My dear you did?" Sandra quite glowed. "I think you were perfectly right. I think that's just the medicine he needs. He'll begin to realize how spoiled he is. You've been too sweet with him always—let him treat you just as he liked and then let him come around—" Sandra seemed quite excited. Her voice raced on, with heat. "Why, everyone has been talking about it. I've told a dozen people, myself: 'Take no word for it, Monica O'Dare doesn't care that for Dan. She's got heaps of young men'."

Perhaps, Monnie thought, after she had wrapped Sandra's package and said good-by to her, she misjudged her friend. Perhaps Sandra was really and truly her champion. "It's my nasty, suspicious nature, I guess," she thought ruefully. "It's natural for Dan to see a lot of her. They belong in the same set—don't. Perhaps Sandra is right, and a dose of his own medicine will bring Dan around."

Miss Anstice came up at that moment with the toothbrush she had selected. She peered nearsightedly at Monnie.

"What's this I hear," she cried cheerily, "about your young sister leaving us and going to New York?"

"It's news to me," Monnie told her. What was Kay planning now?

And if your banker lends you twenty when you only asked for ten, you may be assured he's in a hurry to grab his tackle box. Don't let 'em fool you.

About all we know is what we read in the ads, and from those we discover that Shannon park, formerly County park, is closing up its golf course today in order to make room for anglers, and that Sherrod's, J. & J.'s, Mallory's and Meinecke's each have the most complete layout of fishing tackle on the South Plains.

Suggestion for an unemployed intellectual: Start a correspondence course in "Fish stories" for anglers. The one's we heard last week and the ones we're sure to hear this week are worn out, used up and anything but original.

The South Plains Independent Baseball league season opened yesterday in the midst of circumstances that were everything but pleasant and joyful for the home folks. In the first place, the sand was blowing into the pitchers' eyes, making it a gala day for batters, a tough one for fielders and a lousy one for the fans. Secondly, the Tahoka ball boys, while not getting as many base bingles as the Hubbers, took more advantage of them and scored a victory over Lubbock in the local opener. It's going to be a tight race for some position in the standings between Lubbock and Tahoka.

It is hoped that the lingering sandstorm season has just about blown itself away, or that the storms choose some day other than the sabbath for the rest of the summer. There would have been a good crowd at the park yesterday had it been a pleasant day. Even at that, a surprising number of fans turned out and sat through most of the farces.

Texas Tech is providing its followers with another athletic party Thursday night. For perhaps the last time this spring, the lights will be turned on the athletic field, this time to focus on Matadors and Cowboys in a dual track and field meet. Arrangements for the meet were completed Friday night when Fats Cranfill of Simmons was here for the football affair.

Thursday night's track and field meet is the "let's see," the pay-off, the show-down. In other words, the build-up, the "gimme." Let's see if local fans want collegiate track and field. If they do, they'll pay off to see it Thursday night. There'll be a light admission tax. They gave you one free track meet, and you turned out about 2,500 strong. This one will cost you about a quarter, enough quarters roll in, the Matadors will be able to participate in the Border conference track and field meet this month. So far, when each has participated in Border conference athletics, it has emerged with championships. A track and field championship would top off a good year. The conference football and basketball titles rest with the Matadors.

There'll be baseball aplenty this week at City park. Some fourteen or sixteen ball clubs, maybe more, will compete in a Lubbock county invitation tournament, beginning Wednesday. It's the first county tournament attempted here, and, judging from the early response, it ought to be highly successful.

They're getting set this week for a bit of a hoss race over at Churchill Downs. The hottest tips we're able to pass along now are Ladysman, Charley O and Mr. Khayam, in that order, or vice versa.

WILLIE HOPPE WINS

CHICAGO, May 1 (AP)—Willie Hoppe is the new cushion carom billiards champion, the first since Maurice Daly won the title in 1883. Hoppe attained the crown by a victory over his most persistent rival, young Jake Schaefer of San Francisco.

In a six block match Hoppe scored the quired 1,500 points while Schaefer was collecting 1,012, in 83 innings. He finished his contest for the long dormant title, an overwhelming Schaefer, 250 to 9, in the final block Saturday night.

BATTERS HAVE BIG DAY IN SANDSTORM

VISITORS TAKE FIRST LEAGUE GAME BY 14 TO 9 COUNT

The Tahoka nine made fourteen base blows count for as many tallies yesterday and defeated Lubbock in their South Plains League opener here, 14 to 9.

Mr. Weatherman tossed a low, hard one at the ball players in the form of a stiff wind clogged with bits of earth from South Texas, robbing the game of thrills, making it tough on pitchers and double tough on fielders.

Big Day For Batters

Batters, however, had a nice day, swatting the pellet for hits that should have been easy outs in most cases. It was impossible to judge 'em from the outfield, and potential singles went for home runs, doubles and three-baggers.

The Hubbers, behind the pitching of Tracy Watson and Dell Morgan, collected sixteen bingles off Frank Larkin and Pete Edwards. Watson, starting for Lubbock, gave up ten in the eight innings he tossed. He was removed in the eighth chukker and Morgan went to the box from first base.

The eighth was also a tough one for Tahoka. Each team scored five runs in that inning. Larkin was replaced by Edwards. Faulty catching was Lubbock's chief trouble, as Burl Huffman had difficulty handling Watson's and Morgan's tosses.

Scoring Starts Early

Each team scored a run in the first, Edwards scoring on a passed ball after a stroll. Bactell, Crites and Anderson singled to start Lubbock's half, Bactell scoring on Anderson's clout. Tahoka gained a tie in the fourth after Lubbock had registered in the third. Two consecutive home runs by Evans and Larkin in the fifth gave the visitors a lead, who added another in the seventh, five in the eighth and three in the ninth. W. Holland hit a homer for Tahoka in the ninth to score B. Holland, who had singled.

Watson, besides pitching a nice game, striking out thirteen batsmen, took the runs batted in honors when he drove a home run to score Huffman and Hambright ahead of him in the eighth and a triple in the ninth to score the same mates again.

Harold Crites led the batters with four bingles, including a double; in five times up.

Next Sunday, in second league games, Tahoka goes to Abernathy and Lubbock to Slaton.

LEVELLAND SMASHES MORTON, 17 TO 7

MORTON, May 1.—(Special)—In the worst sandstorm of the year, Morton and Levelland opened the South Plains Baseball league season here yesterday with a wild game.

Levelland overcame a lead late in the game to win, 17 to 7. The Levelland batters combed Thompson, Lewis and Nicholson for fifteen hits, several of them for extra bases, to win the opener.

Weaver gave up eight hits for Levelland, but they were enough to give Morton a lead. Errors were plentiful for each side.

Morton goes to Enochs next Sunday and Amherst plays at Levelland in league games.

SLATON WINS OVER ABERNATHY TEAM

ABERNATHY, May 1.—(Special)—The Slaton baseball club won the opener of the South Plains league here yesterday, defeating Abernathy, 7 to 3.

High winds and a sandstorm made for anything but a good ball game, each side making numerous errors as results of misjudging balls.

Pair and Cannon, pitching for Slaton, held Abernathy to three safe blows. Slaton's batters took four hits off the offerings of Apperson, who struck out nine men and gave seven bases on balls.

AMHERST DEFEATS ENOCHS, 24 TO 19

AMHERST, May 1, (Special)—In a wild, free-scoring game that saw 43 runners cross the plate, Amherst opened the South Plains league season here Sunday with a 24 to 19 victory over Enochs.

The score, reading more like a football game than a league baseball game, resulted from pop flies and short knocks that went for home runs, triples and doubles, as high winds carried the balls aloft and far. Fielders were at a loss, and sometimes lost the ball in mid-air. Pitchers fared badly, what with the wind and sand beating their faces and spoiling their effectiveness.

There were only 32 clean hits, meaning that most of them went for extra bases. Errors were numerous on each side.

GRAZING LANDS SOLD

MASON, May 1. (AP)—Indication that ranch lands are holding up in price is seen in the sale by Reagan W. White, stock farmer and sheriff of Mason county, of 800 acres of grazing lands to J. D. Eckert at $15 an acre cash. Eckert owns about 30,000 acres of well-stocked land lying six miles northwest of Mason.

PAIRINGS ARE TO BE MADE TUESDAY

Pairings for first round play in the Lubbock County Invitation baseball tournament, starting at City Park here Wednesday, will be announced Tuesday afternoon or Wednesday morning. Ed Hambright, tournament manager, said this morning.

Fourteen teams have definitely entered the tournament, and at least two others are expected to enter today or tomorrow.

Play will start at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon and continue with two games daily until the winner has been decided.

VINES TO SEEK NEW LAURELS

SAYS AMBITION IS TO BEAT JEAN BOROTRA IN TENNIS MATCH

PASADENA, Calif., May 1 (AP)—American tennis courts will see but little during the early summer of Ellsworth Vines, jr., national singles champion. His ambition this year is to meet Jean Borotra, the French star, in a singles match and to aid in winning the Davis cup matches from France.

Vines, leaving today for the east, said he would keep his competitive activities down to a minimum until he leaves for Europe in June.

"It's my ambition to beat Jean Borotra," said Vines. "Yes, I know he said he won't play in the singles, but he's said that before."

The French Davis cup matches will be uppermost in Vines' mind this year. He wants to avenge the defeat the French gave the American team last year when Borotra defeated his teammate, Wilmer Allison.

Vines said it was his plan to appear in only one or two tournaments besides the Canadian Davis cup matches in Montreal and the American zone finals at Washington, D. C.

The young Pasadenan opened his 1933 campaign by winning the 38th annual Ojai valley singles championship Saturday by defeating his doubles partner, Keith Gledhill. He then paired with the rangy youth from Santa Barbara, Calif., to win doubles honors.

TULSA, SAN ANTONIO ADVANCE; FT. WORTH, DALLAS GO BACK

BY BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

There was plenty of lowering and hoisting Sunday in the Texas league pennant race. Tulsa moved into third place, San Antonio climbed to fifth place, Dallas dropped to sixth and the Fort Worth Cats landed in seventh place.

While all this switching was taking place, the Houston Buffaloes redoubled their hold on first place to one and one-half games by sweeping a doubleheader from Fort Worth, 6 to 5 and 12 to 4.

An estimated crowd of two thousand saw the Buffaloes win the first game when Manager Carey Selph hit a home run in the last of the ninth to break a 5-all deadlock. After this thrilling finish, the crowd lingered to see Houston walk away with the nightcapper when Bill Beckman limited the Cats to seven hits.

Galveston retained second place by splitting a doubleheader with Tulsa, winning the first, 3 to 1, and losing the second, 5 to 0.

The Buccaneers got a fine five-hit game from Lefty Darrow to win the opener. It was Darrow's fourth victory this season. Thormahlen started the second but left the mound because of illness. Bivin pitched for Tulsa and limited the Buccaneers to five hits for his shutout.

Steers Drop Two

Dallas fell far into the second division by losing a doubleheader to the Beaumont Exporters, 3 to 1, and 5 to 0. An error by Shortstop Lou Brower started a Beaumont rally in the eighth that netted three runs and a victory in the first game after Erickson had pitched a fine five-hit game for the teers who led 1 to 0 until the fatal eighth. Fritz pitched five-hit ball to trim the Steers in the second game.

The Oklahoma City Indians, champions of the Texas league cellar, lost a doubleheader to the San Antonio Missions who are only a half-game in front of Dallas.

By winning a twin bill the Missions stretched their consecutive winning streak to six straight. Tom Conlan beat Oklahoma City in the first game with a 7 to 3 score. Elton Walkup breezed to victory in the second with a 3 to 2, five-hit game.

CHOCOLATE TO RISK TITLE

CUBAN NEGRO SLATED TO MEET JOHNNY FARR TONIGHT

NEW YORK, May 1 (AP)—Kid Chocolate risks the lesser of his two championships tonight as the nation's fisticuffs settle down to an active week.

The Cuban negro will defend his Pennsylvania - recognized junior lightweight crown in a 10-round bout against Johnny Farr of Cleveland at Philadelphia. Chocolate, recognized in New York state as world's featherweight champion, will defend the 126-pound title against Seaman Tom Watson of England in Madison Square Garden here May 12.

Other Bouts Slated

Other head-liners on the week's schedule include Maxey Rosenbloom, world's light heavyweight champion; King Levinsky, Chicago heavyweight; Jackie Fields, former welterweight champion, and Barmey Ross, Chicago lightweight sensation.

Fields, recently beaten by Young Corbett in a title match, opens a come-back campaign against young Peter Jackson of Wilmington, Calif., in Los Angeles tomorrow night.

Charley Retzlaff of Duluth in the main bout of a Chicago stadium card on Wednesday night and the same evening Ross, soon to meet Tony Canzoneri with the lightweight championship at stake, battles Joe Ghnouly at St. Louis.

Rosenbloom meets Charley Belanger, Winnipeg light heavyweight, at Jeffersonville, Ind., over the 12-round route but his crown will not be at stake. Dave Shade, of New York, and Henry Firpo of Louisville, clash in a middleweight bout featuring a Derby eve card at Louisville the same night.

GOLFERS FROM LITTLEFIELD DEFEATED

PLAINVIEW WINS OVER SLATON TEAM WHILE MEADOWBROOK WINS

Lubbock Country club retained its standing at the top of the South Plains Golf league averages yesterday by winning fourteen of seventeen matches with the Littlefield team. The matches were played over the Lubbock Country club layout.

Plainview's entry in the league jumped from fourth to second place yesterday with a topheavy score over Slaton. Playing at home, the Plainview team won fifteen of twenty matches.

Meadowbrook Wins

Lubbock Meadowbrook encountered considerable difficulty at Brownfield, winning ten matches and losing eight. Brownfield dropped to fourth place and Meadowbrook retained third place.

At the Country club here yesterday, Kermit Dees defeated Duffy of Littlefield, 6 and 5; Captain Ted Tipps of Lubbock lost to Cook, 3 and 1; Jo Dick Slaughter, Lubbock, won over Bob Badger, 5 and 4; Ross McWhorter defeated McCloskey of Littlefield, 3 and 2; W. D. Girand defeated Hendricks of Littlefield, 6 and 5; Waldo Trotter defeated J. R. Roach, 4 and 3; Otis Felty beat LaGrange, 4 and 3; Spencer Wells won over Bell, 4 and 3.

Dick Mims of Lubbock lost to Harris, 3 and 2; Floyd Bowen dropped a 6 and 5 decision to Blakley; F. L. McRee defeated J. A. Lilly, 4 and 3; Heilhecker of Lubbock won over Johnson of Littlefield, 3 and 1; Hooper Stiles defeated Allison, 1 up on 20 holes; Peter Evans beat Keithley, 3 and 2; Paul Campbell won over Lyman, 1 up; Jim Kuykendall lost to Phrash of Littlefield, 3 and 2, and Guy McAfee defeated Terry, 3 and 2.

Meadowbrook players are named first in the following results of the Meadowbrook-Brownfield matches:

Billy Holmes defeated Shorty Woods, 7 and 6; C. J. Cantrell stopped Smith, 5 and 4; Guy Victory lost to Akers, 6 and 5; Carl Nail defeated Bailey, 3 and 2; W. B. Kelly was beaten by Herrod, 7 and 6; Jack Wilson won over May, 2 and 1; Walter Pendleton defeated Ballard, 6 and 5; D. A. Dowell smothered Powell, 8 and 6; Walker Stanton bowed to Hold, 5 and 4; Panny Farmer was beaten by Tierman, 1 up.

Allan Webb lost to Hinson, 1 up; Donald Doherty scored a 1 up victory over McGowan; Doyce Clark lost to Penn, 2 up; John Bell defeated Kendrick, 4 and 3; C. C. Rogers won over Hilliard, 8 and 6; Bill Collins lost to Heath, 1 up; Doyle Settle was beaten, 2 up, by Smith, and Sam Parkinson defeated McGowan, 3 and 2.

High winds and sandstorms held down low scoring at all league games yesterday.

MILLER APPEARS WINNER

CHICAGO, May 1 (AP)—Only the formality of rolling the final block of his series with Stewart Watson of Chicago today separated Joe Miller of Buffalo, N. Y., from the national match bowling championship.

Miller, hitting the peak of his form last night, outclassed the Chicago bowler in the seventh block in which he rolled up 2,289 pins to 1,917 for Watson. He had only one game under 200, and opened his drive with a smashing 253 total.

His total was 14,597 to 13,413 for Watson.

Tough Sledding Seen For Yanks

SENATORS HIT STRIDE AT EXPENSE OF LEAGUE LEADERS AND REACH CONTENDING POSITION

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

If the western clubs of the American league can do their bit toward helping the Washington Senators this month, it looks as if there might be some tough sledding ahead for the New York Yankees.

Largely at the expense of the Yanks, the Senators have climbed into the contending position that was predicted for them. In their recent series, they took four out of five games from New York, the only games the Yankees have lost in 15 starts.

Defeat Athletics

Then the Senators beat the Philadelphia Athletics and the great Lefty Grove 5 to 4 in a 12-inning struggle yesterday, to make it four triumphs in a row and seven in their last eight games. Twice the Senators overcame two-run leads by the A's, first against Rube Walberg, who started the game, then against Grove. Finally, with two out in the twelfth, Joe Kuhel stretched out a hit for two bases and Bob Boken, rookie second sacker, caught one of Grove's fireballs on the nose and brought him home with the winning run.

The Yankees protected their hold on first place by lining up their big guns behind some smart pitching by a pair of recruits, Russell Van Atta and Don Brennann and cleaning up the Boston Red Sox in a doubleheader, 11 to 2 and 8 to 3. Lou Gehrig and Tony Lazzeri hit two homers apiece and Babe Ruth one.

Chisox Hold Place

Chicago's White Sox clung to their second place tie with Washington when Paul Gregory held the Cleveland Indians to six hits to win 3-1. The Detroit Tigers and St. Louis Browns slugged it out all the way through a twin bill and broke even. The Browns pounded four flingers for 17 hits and took the opener, 11-8. Gerald Walker and Johnny Stone walloped two homers apiece to give Detroit the second, 5-1.

The Boston Braves, climaxing a sudden rise from the National league cellar to the first division, shoved the New York Giants out of first place. Combining excellent pitching by Ed Fallenstin and a timely homer by Wally Berger, his fifth, the Braves beat the Giants twice, 3-0 and 8-4. Fallenstin pitched three-hit ball in the opening duel with Carl Hubbell.

Pirates Regain Lead

Pittsburgh regained the lead by walking roughly over the weakened Cincinnati Reds 8-1. Minus Jim Bottomley and Chick Hafey, the Reds got only five hits off Waite Hoyt while the Bucks scored all their runs in two innings.

The Brooklyn Dodgers also had a big inning and gave the Phillies their fifth straight licking, 6-3.

Rogers Hornsby, coming back to Chicago for the first time since he was ousted as Cub manager last August, played an important part in gaining an even break for the St. Louis Cardinals in a long double header. The Cubs pounded out a 7-5 victory in the opener, but the Redals evened it by pasting a homer with one on in the third inning of the nightcap and paving the way for a 5-3 Cardinal victory.

IT'S DERBY WEEK IN OLD KENTUCKY; TURF FOLLOWERS GATHER FOR RACE

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 1. (AP)—It's Derby week in old Kentucky, and from far and wide the followers of the sport of kings are pointing towards Churchill Downs here, where the $50,000 added classic will have its 59th renewal somewhere around 5 p. m., Central Standard time, next Saturday.

Already the influx of sportsmen—rich and poor—panhandless, "con men," touts and what-not has started. Before the blue bloods of the turf answer the bugle call, thousands more will come statesmen, society belles, and the plain, ordinary racing folk.

Beehive Of Activity

Out at Churchill, the setting of the mile and one-quarter classic is a beehive of activity. Horses are coming and going. Trainers, stable boys, track workers and other employes are doing their bit to see that the big event goes off without a hitch.

The "dopesters" figure anywhere from fourteen to more than a score will start, listing as the most probable entrants Head Play, Ladysman, Charley O., Interpreter, Strideaway, Spicson, At Top, Good Advice, Broker's Tip, Captain Red, Trace Call, Mr. Khayyam, Sarada, Kerry Patch, Inlander, Dark Winter, Pomponious, Fair Rochester, Warren, jr., and The Darb.

Of these, Ladysman, Mr. Khayyam, Pomponious, Sarada, Trace Call and Kerry Patch are regarded as the strongest of the eastern contingent. Head Play, Charley O., Broker's Tip and Strideaway are considered by many the west's main hopes. The "wise boys" lean most favorably towards Ladysman, followed by Head Play, Charley O., Sarada and Mr. Khayyam. The latter's spectacular performance Saturday in winning the Chesapeake stakes at Havre De Grace in record time won him many new followers over the week-end.

Technique, Friend Charley, Pot Au Brooms, Jessie Dear, Flying Cadet and Shepherd Boy were withdrawn yesterday as starters, and before the crowd shouts "they're off" Saturday, others of the original 118 nominees undoubtedly will be scratched.

HOGS TO MARKET

MASON, May 1. (AP)—Fourteen thousand fat hogs have been shipped out to market from Mason since last November, destinations being San Antonio, Fort Worth and Houston. The hogs were fattened largely on mast or acorns. Truckloads of suckling pigs sold at $1 each are leaving Mason each week for the Plains country.

PRESIDENT'S FORMER LAW PARTNER ONE PERSON WHO ISN'T AFTER A JOB; HE'S CLOSEST AND MOST TRUSTED ADVISOR

Franklin D. Roosevelt, as president of the United States.

Came to practice law in New York from Boston in 1919.

Five years later, junior partner of Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Basil O'Connor; the president's former law partner.

By Central Press

NEW YORK, May 1.—Basil O'Connor is the most unique figure in the United States.

As member of the New York law firm of Roosevelt and O'Connor, he had an opportunity that few would resist. When his partner became president of the United States—thus dissolving the partnership, but not the friendship—O'Connor undoubtedly could have had any office within the presidential power. O'Conner, instead, modestly refrained.

As a private citizen, however, he probably is the closest adviser that the president has—and a trusted one, for he has kept the faith. Therein lies his power.

No Use Of Power

Never once, to anybody's knowledge, since the forming of the Roosevelt and O'Connor partnership in 1924 did Basil O'Connor use the Roosevelt power or the Roosevelt influence to gain anything for himself. Instead, he has effaced himself.

He was among the first to urge and advise the presidential candidacy of Franklin D. Roosevelt because he believed this man essentially the person to guide the nation out of its difficulties. One may say of Basil O'Connor, that he has no doubts concerning Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Nor, one is inclined to believe, does the president have any doubts concerning Basil O'Connor.

What drew the men together is a secret. O'Connor's mind, brilliant, working quietly is a balance to the Roosevelt mind, brilliant, pouring out challenging phrases.

Born In Massachusetts

O'Connor was born in Taunton, Mass. He took an A. B. at Dartmouth in 1912—one of the youngest men in his class.

It is said that he worked his way through college by playing his violin. (He probably doesn't touch the fiddle now.)

In 1915 O'Connor took his LL.B. at Harvard Law school and then served a probationary year with the New York legal firm of Cravath, Henderson & DeGershoff.

Following which O'Connor practiced in Boston with the firm of Streeter & Holmes.

Enters New York Undaunted

Boston, however, was too small. In 1919, undaunted by the thousands of struggling lawyers in the metropolis, O'Connor went to New York. Five years later he was the junior partner of Franklin D. Roosevelt.

O'Connor began life as D. Basil O'Connor, jr. In college that was briefed to "Doc"—and "Doc" he still is known to his friends of college days.

While O'Connor is not a member of Tammany, his brother, John J. O'Connor, is a veteran Tammany congressman—a congressman who sought the speakership of the present congress. But Tammany supported Henry T. Rainey.

Basil, who lives on Park avenue, wed Miss Elvira Miller, of Louisville, Ky., in 1918. They have two daughters.

During 1931, 1,800,000 passengers traveled 94,000,000 miles over various American air lines.

Merger Of Courses At S. M. U. Is Asked

DALLAS, May 1. (AP)—A committee on survey and reorganization headed by Bishop John M. Moore has voted to recommend to the board of trustees of Southern Methodist university that all courses in the engineering school excepting strictly technical courses be merged with those of the college of arts and sciences.

The reorganization of those two schools composed one suggestion for retrenchment to meet a financial emergency facing the 1933-34 session, the committee said.

Although it was explained this would necessarily drop a number of professors from the faculty, Bishop Moore added, "our plans now are to reorganize and retrench to the extent that work may be carried on without a lowering of efficiency and standing of the school."

AMES, Iowa (AP)—The working co-ed no longer is a rarity at Iowa State college. Ninety girls—about twice the number of last year—work in private homes for room and board.

FT. WORTH IN PERMIT LEAD

AUSTIN SECOND LAST WEEK IN BUILDING CONSTRUCTION

DALLAS, May 1. (AP)—Expansion and repairs at a Fort Worth oil plant amounting to $300,000 gave that city a building permit total of $318,410 last week. Of other reporting cities, Austin was second and Houston third.

COTTON CARNIVAL DATE IS CHANGED

Date of the Texas Tech cotton carnival has been advanced one day to avoid a conflict with an engagement of Dr. Bradford Knapp, college president, acording to M. E. Heard of the textile engineering department. The new date is Thursday, May, 18.

Cotton paper for invitations has been received from John W. Carpenter, a member of the board of Tech, and also from a paper house. Invitations are being prepared and will be mailed this week.

"We are inviting all of the civic, women's service and other clubs of Lubbock to have a representative at the carnival," Mr. Heard said. "About 100 invitations will be mailed. We would like every group connected with the cotton industry, such as the compress, brokers and others, to be represented."

The textile engineering building will be open for inspection following the carnival. Students will be operating the machinery.

It is planned now to classify the dresses of those participating in the pageant according to cost, Professor Heard explained. The desire of the committee sponsoring the pageant is to show what cotton means to a community.

ALL-TIME 'BEST SELLER'

NEW YORK (AP)—The late Henry Van Dyke was the author of one of the "best sellers" of all time. The book was his "The Story of the Other Wise Man," originally a magazine story. Since publication in 1895 it has sold 750,000 copies, the publishers say, and now moves at the rate of 15,000 a year.

Royal Student

A rarely photographed scion of one of the oldest royal houses in Europe, Otto von Hapsburg, oldest son of the late Emperor Charles and former Empress Zita of Austria-Hungary, is shown as he strolled in the German capital, where he is a student at the University of Berlin. The young man holds the title of Archduke, but in the event of a monarchial restoration, he would be the logical ruler of Hungary.

LATEST PARISIAN FAD

PARIS (AP)—"Hitler mustaches" have become the rage among young Frenchmen, despite official sentiments regarding the German chancellor.

AMERICAN SCHOOL OPEN

TIRANA (AP)—The first three buildings of the new Albanian-American agricultural college near Durazzo, built by the Near East Foundation, have been opened. The American minister, Herman Bernstein, and Djafer Vila, foreign minister, kindled the first blaze in the fireplace of the assembly hall.

LOCATION SOUGHT FOR OBSERVATORY

FORT DAVIS, May 1. (AP)—Prof. G. Van Biesbroech and Fred Granburg, Williams Bay, Wis., astronomers, are making tests for locating the McDonald Astronomical observatory on top of Mount Locke near here. Plans for locating the observatory are regarded here as in the final stage.

The observers are making tests every night at the site and will remain for about a week. Prof. Van Biesbroech said that the accessibility to Mount Locke would offset the difference between that location and Spring Mountain, notwithstanding Mount Locke is only 6,600 feet high while Spring Mountain is 7,000 feet.

The observatory site will be less than a mile from the new Davis Mountain state park highway. There is plenty of level land on top of Mount Locke, which is 14 miles north of Fort Davis.

A number of scientists have been here in connection with the establishment of the McDonald observatory, which will be sponsored jointly by the University of Texas and the University of Chicago. Material already is being gathered for the library of the observatory and various observatories over the world will be invited to exchange their journals and publications with the McDonald project.

STRATOSPHERE IS TO BE EXPLORED

AKRON, O., May 1. (AP)—The Goodyear-Zeppelin corporation has announced that Lieutenant Commander T. G. W. Settle, chief of the navy's inspection bureau in Akron, and international balloon race champion, will make a stratosphere flight from Chicago this summer.

Settle obtained navy permission yesterday while waiting to be called to testify in the U. S. S. Akron crash inquiry. The announcement said the balloonist was asked to make the flight by Professor Auguste Piccard, famed Swiss stratosphere flier.

The proposed flight may be made sometime between July 1 and 20, according to Goodyear officials. The balloon which will be used will be of 600,000 cubic foot capacity, about 100,000 cubic feet larger than Piccard used last summer.

Who will accompany Lieu. Commander Settle has not been determined definitely, but it is understood a student trained by Professor Arthur H. Compton, of the University of Chicago, may be chosen.

"Lost That Tired and Weary Feeling"

"I was tired all the time; had misery in back and sides that kept me feeling bad; was in a nervous and weakening condition," writes Mrs. H. H. Penn, of Portsmouth, Ohio. "I lost in weight until I was very thin. During girlhood, mother had given me Cardui and it helped me so much then that I decided to take it again. I took several bottles and my strength began to return, and I gained in weight. Soon I lost that tired and weary feeling. Cardui did me a great deal of good."

Take Cardui to improve the general tone of the system in cases of run-down health and "tired nerves." Women have found, in such cases, that Cardui helps them to overcome pains and make the monthly periods easier.

"B. C." Relieves Periodical Pains In Three Minutes

It is so unnecessary to suffer month after month from inorganic pains, because "B. C." will bring soothing relief in three minutes. "B. C." is prepared by a registered pharmacist, compounded on a different principle from most relief-giving agencies in that it contains several ingredients, used by many physicians, so blended and proportioned as to accomplished in a few minutes what we believe no one drug formula can do in so short a time. "B. C." should also be used for the relief of common colds, headaches and neuralgia, muscular aches and pains, reduce fever and for quieting a distressed nervous system without opiates, narcotics or such habit forming drugs. Get "B. C." in 10c and 25c packages, wherever drugs are sold. —(adv.)

NEW TIRE SAVES LIVES
REMARKABLE NEW INVENTION MAKES SAFEST TIRE EVER BUILT 3 TIMES SAFER FROM BLOW-OUTS

NO EXTRA COST TO PUBLIC

THIS is the story of an invention that will save thousands of lives . . . maybe your life . . . and prevent thousands of those accidents that maim and cripple people.

When your speedometer reads 40, 50, 60 and 70—mile after mile . . . the heat inside the tire becomes terrific. Rubber and fabric begin to separate. A blister starts . . . and grows. Like an insidious tumor it gets bigger and bigger . . . Until BANG! A blow-out! And a terrible drag sets in . . . Like some unseen monster pulling your car off the highway!

How it prevents blow-outs

To protect you from blow-outs, every new Goodrich Safety Silvertown Tire has the amazing Life-Saver Golden Ply. This new invention resists terrific heat—rubber and fabric don't separate. Thus blisters don't form inside the tire. Blow-outs are prevented by overcoming the very cause of blow-outs before they start.

At gruelling speeds on the world's fastest track, the new Goodrich Safety Silvertown, with the Life-Saver Golden Ply, lasted 3 times as long as first quality tires that did not have this feature. These SILVERTOWNS never blew. They were run till the tread was gone . . . but the Life-Saver Golden Ply refused to give!

Safest anti-skid tread

And that isn't all. Scientific tests with leading makes of tires prove that the Goodrich Safety Silvertown has the most skid-resisting tread on the road. Its squeegee drying action gives your car extra road-grip, and reduces danger of skidding to a minimum.

Get this Silvertown Tire on your car. Remember, it costs not a penny more than any other standard tire.
