Lewis Starks Dies Sunday

Lewis Starks, 64, passed away suddenly Sunday, Aug. 8 in Ft. Worth. They had gone to the home of relatives when he died of an apparent heart attack.

Mr. Starks was a former area resident, having been reared in the Rugby community. He is survived by his wife, one daughter, two stepsons and several grandchildren. Also four sisters. Mrs. Fred Clifton and Mrs. Clyde Thompson of Bogata, Mrs. Jule Hood of Paris and Mrs. Raymond Hight of Deport, and a brother, John L. Starks of Paris.

Students Register Thurs., Aug. 26

General registration for all students in the Talco-Bogata School District — which includes the Bogata Elementary, Talco Elementary, and Rivercrest High School — will be Thursday, Aug. 26. Buses will make their regular runs on Thursday morning and will return students home about mid-morning.

Students will not return to school until the following Monday, August 30 which will be a full day of school with meals being served in the cafeteria.

All students entering the 1st grade at Bogata and Talco must be six years of age on or before September 1st of the current school year. Birth certificates or the equivalency of a birth certificate will be required of every child enrolling in the first grade.

A state law now requires that all children entering Texas elementary and secondary schools of institutions of higher education must have been immunized against six diseases: diphtheria, tetanus, poliomyelitis, measles, rubella, and smallpox.

Deport Cemetery Grp. to Organize Monday, 7:30

Much interest is being shown in the project to clean-up and keep-up the Deport Cemetery. Contributions continue to come in to help defray the cost of maintaining the upkeep.

All interested persons in the community are urged to attend an organizational meeting Monday night at 7:30 at the Community Public Service "Reddy Reddy Room." If you have relatives buried in Deport Cemetery or, if you are just interested in seeing that this burial place is well kept, please come to the meeting.

Contributions may be mailed to The Deport Times or First National Bank, Deport. Mark your donation "Deport Cemetery Fund." Thanks to those who have already responded.

Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Curlee had as their guests over the week end, Mrs. Curlee's nephew and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Ellison and daughters, Patricia and Janell of Sands Springs, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Turner accompanied by their grandson, Gary Neill and son, Bill Turner of Dallas have returned after visiting their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Barganski in Olathe, Kans. They also visited points of interest in Arkansas, Missouri and Oklahoma.

BUDGET DEFICIT. On July 28, it was announced that Federal spending had exceeded revenues by $23.2 billion for the fiscal year ending June 30, the second highest budget deficit since World War II. This sharply contradicts President Nixon's statement when he sent the budget to Congress on 2-2-70: "I have pledged to the American people that I would submit a balanced budget for 1971. The budget I send to you today — the first for which I bear full responsibility as President — fulfills that pledge."

AUDIE MURPHY, the most decorated soldier of World War II, recently died in a tragic plane crash, and as a tribute to this native Texan, the Texas Delegation in the House of Representatives is planning to offer legislation to name the new Veterans Administration Hospital in San Antonio, the Audie Murphy Memorial Hospital. The honor is well deserved.

SOCIAL SECURITY FOR WIVES. A wife who is 62 years of age, even though she has not worked for many years, may be eligible for at least the minimum benefits if in the past she had 5 years of work covered by social security. If eligible on her own record, she can receive these benefits even if her husband is still working. In such a case, the wife could draw monthly payments on her own record until her husband retires, and then switch to benefits as his wife if the amount would be higher. Any wife who believes she may be entitled to benefits should contact the local social security office, or write me (please include your social security number) and I will be glad to check into the matter.

THE U. S. COAST GUARD ACADEMY. December 15, 1971 is the deadline for submitting applications for the next annual nationwide competition for appointments to this fine school. Beautifully situated on the Thames River at New London, Conn., the Academy offers one of the best college educations available anywhere, fully comparable to the three other Armed Forces Academies. It graduates fully commissioned officers who perform vital humanitarian services in time of peace and serve with the U. S. Navy during wartime. Tuition is free and cadets also receive pay and allowances. Interested high school students (and their parents) who reside in the First Congressional District of Texas, may obtain a comprehensive 96-page U. S. Coast Guard Academy Bulletin of Information, with application form, free of charge, upon request to my office.

POSTAL EMPLOYEES SHOULD NOT BE GAGGED. The Postmaster General has tried to shove postal workers down to the level of second-class citizens by issuing his now infamous "cag rule" which states in part: "It is mandatory that postal employees immediately cease any direct or indirect contacts with Congressional offices on matters involving the Postal Service." This is in direct violation of a 1912 law which says that "The right of (postal) employees . . . to petition Congress . . . or to furnish information to either House . . . may not be interfered with or denied." Certainly no citizen should be denied the right to contact his Congressman, and I am supporting legislation which would put teeth in the 1912 law protecting the rights of postal employees. The Austin. — An Austin district court decision invalidating the 1971 House of Representatives redistricting act handed state attorneys and legislative leaders a mountain of unanswered questions.

Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin is in the process of appealing to the Texas Supreme Court the lower court's decision that the bill's "splitting" of 29 counties into separate districts is unconstitutional. Martin said the appeal is in line with a long-standing policy of his office to advocate the validity of a legislative act until the state's highest court rules on it.

Many high-placed state attorneys feel that if the Supreme Court upholds the August 2 district court finding, the chore of re-doing the job will fall to a five-member Constitutional Board (composed of lieutenant governor, House speaker, attorney general, land commissioner and comptroller).

Constitution says the Board will reapportion when the Legislature fails to do so in the first regular session after publication of each U. S. decennial census.

Lawyers hope the High Court will provide guidelines, however, for they are confronted with these questions:

- Board is directed to meet within 60 days after the Legislature adjourns (before the end of August) and to come up with a redistricting bill within 60 more days (by the end of October). What happens if there is no final Supreme Court ruling by this constitutional deadline?

- Since the House tried to redistrict and its act was knocked out, would reapportionment then be expected in a special session of the Legislature? Constitution says the Board will reapportion if the Legislature fails to act, but the Legislature did "act" in the case of the House plan, only to have a district court declare its work invalid. No Senate reapportionment bill was passed by the Legislature, so that job automatically falls to the Board.

- Since the 1970 census (on which lawmakers base their reapportionment) was published while the 1971 Legislature was meeting, could redistricting really wait until 1973 when the 63rd Legislature convenes?

AG OPINIONS. Attorney General Martin held that a new law requiring certain county officials to report to the county money they receive from operating private business on public property is unconstitutional. In other recent opinions, Martin concluded:

- Use of automated machines for check cashing at banking houses would not violate Texas laws against branch banking.
- Education code does not entitle school teacher to return to the classroom and have additional years of teaching service thereafter used in calculating retirement benefits.
- Motor vehicle tax on rentals is due at the time of payment of rental charges. Legislation did not authorize credit or reimbursement for motor vehicle tax paid on original purchase price, when status of vehicle is changed from lease until to rental.

bill would establish a fine of $1,000 and one year imprisonment for a Federal officer or employee who discriminates against any postal employee for communicating with a Member of Congress or a Congressional Committee.

SOME PEOPLE ARE REAL LUCKY and seem able to smoke cigarettes without landing in the hospital or the morgue. Others are medium lucky and continue to indulge their smoking habit although it does give them violent migraine or sinus headaches. Twenty million Americans, however, have improved their chances by completely abandoning the cigarette habit. It still seems that the best way to avoid being a loser is not to gamble — with your money or with your health.

SPECIAL NOTICE. Station WFAA in Dallas will broadcast my interview with noted TV commentator Travis Linn at 12 noon on Sunday, August 15. This 30-minute "Conversation With Wright Patman" will explore issues important to America.

Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Turner were her sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Benable and daughter, Pebea of Denton and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Henry and sons, Todd and Craig of Pleasanton.

Judge Mason Named Chairman TFFA Week

Titus County Judge John W. Mason has been named chairman of the local Texas Food and Fiber Abundance Week observance which will be Nov. 15-21, the week before Thanksgiving, according to C. G. Scruggs, Dallas, vice president and editor of The Progressive Farmer magazine and chairman of the board of the statewide council promoting the special event.

Judge Mason is expected to call on agricultural and business leaders in the county to work as a committee in promoting appreciation for the abundance of food and fiber from the state's farms and ranches.

Texas Governor Preston Smith and John C. White state commissioner of agriculture, are honorary chairmen for the statewide observance. Leon Slaughter, Abilene, projects director for the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, is coordinator for the Texas Food and Fiber Abundance Council, a non-profit organization chartered in May, 1971, "to sponsor public relations programs designed to gain consumer appreciation for the abundance, quality and value of food and fiber."

In addition to Slaughter and Scruggs, the other charter directors of the Council include Dr. H. O. Kunkel, dean of agriculture, Texas A&M University; Dr. Wayland Bennett, vice president for academic affairs, Texas Tech University; and Don Blacketer, Honey Grove farmer. The latter three serve as vice chairmen. James L. (Curly) Hays, Abilene, West Texas Utilities Co., is treasurer of the Council.

A large number of professional people in agriculture-related businesses, organizations, state and federal agencies, news media, and educational institutions working in the Council.

The first organizational meetings of the Council were held in February in Fort Worth and Austin. Task force committees met in April in Austin, and the finance committee held its first meeting June 29 in Houston. Money to finance news releases, films for television and tapes for radio will come from voluntary contributions.

In the letter naming Judge Mason as chairman of the county Food and Fiber observance, Scruggs pointed out that agriculture is today — and has been for many years — the number one industry in the State of Texas.

"In this day and age of confusion and confrontation, drugs, pollution, etc., all of us tend to forget that through the unparalleled efficiency of agriculture, America is the best-fed — and at the least cost — of any nation in the world," Scruggs said.

The Council state chairman said that even though a large part of Texas' population is now found in urban areas, the food and fiber industry of Texas figures strongly in the daily economic life of every Texan.

"Over and above that," Scruggs added, "the bountiful array of food and natural fibers available to all is a blessing which no other

Kindergarten Program '71-72

The Talco-Bogata School District will operate two kindergarten classes for the 1971-72 school year — one in the Bogata Elementary School and one in the Talco Elementary School. The kindergarten will be an all-day program and will operate the entire school year.

Superintendent Talmadge Morgan stated that first preference must be given to children who will be 5 years of age on or before July 1, 1971. This is in keeping with the state law for the operation of the Foundation Kindergarten for the 1971-72 school year.

Mr. Morgan said that if there is sufficient room, children who reach their 5th birthday between July 1 and September 1, 1971 would be admitted on a first come basis and that there would be a tuition charge of not more than $15.00 per month for these children. Plans are to limit each kindergarten class to 25 students. Superintendent Morgan stated that a final decision on how many tuition students (those who become 5 between July 1 and September 1) could not be made until registration is over on August 26th.

Parents are to bring their children to the respective kindergarten rooms in Bogata or Talco on Thursday morning, August 26th at 8:30 a. m. for registration. It will be necessary for parents to bring the child's birth certificate or the equivalency of a birth certificate. Children will return home after registration with the first full day of school being Monday, August 30th.

Parents are reminded that all children entering school must be immunized against six diseases: diphtheria, tetanus, poliomyelitis, measles, rubella, and smallpox.

Mrs. Alene Fussell of Dickerson, accompanied by her niece, Mrs. Robert Kelso of Galveston, brought their mother and grandmother, Mrs. J. L. Perry, home after visiting them for several weeks. Mrs. Kelso visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reid. Mrs. Fussell also visited her sisters, Mrs. Robert Reid and Mrs. O. O. Hanks.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayman Alexander and daughters, Berenda and Beverly accompanied by Mrs. Alexander's mother, Mrs. Jay Garretson, have returned after visiting Mrs. Garretson's son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Durward Garretson, Debroah and Gary in Gadsden, Ala. Together they toured Alabama's Space and Rocket Center, which is the earth's largest space exhibit, and the George C. Marshall Space Flight Center, both in Huntsville, Ala. Also the Sequoyah Looking Glass Caverns near Ft. Payne, Ala., and Little River Canyon and Park near Collinsville, Ala.

To call attention to these facts, the week just before Thanksgiving — November 15-21 — has been designated as "Texas Food and Fiber Abundance Week." County judges all across Texas are being asked to give leadership to the effort on the county level.

383 Register At PJC For Fall

A total of 383 students registered for fall classes at Paris Junior College last week, 14 more than had enrolled at this time last summer.

Of the 383 who registered during the first week of early registration, 222 were new students, while 161 re-entered PJC. After the first pre-registration week of 1970, 239 had registered, 128 new students and 111 re-entries.

Early registration will continue through Wednesday, Aug. 18, from 8:30 a. m. to 4 p. m. in the ballroom of the Student Center. Before reporting to the ballroom for class scheduling, students are to fill out forms available in the Registrar's Office.

Regular registration is scheduled for Thursday, Aug. 26, at fall classes will begin Monday August 30.

Sloan - Gloria Vows Exchanged

The First Baptist Church was the scene of a double ring ceremony uniting Miss Lana Carol Sloan and Cyril Gloria on Saturday, August 7, 1971, at 2:00 p. m. with the Rev. Roy Crossland officiating.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sloan of Talco and Mrs. Janie Gloria and Frank Gloria of Temple.

Miss Beverly Alexander, pianist, presented a program of favorite selections of the bride and groom prior to the ceremony, and the traditional wedding music. She also accompanied Don Jones, brother-in-law of the groom, of Pine Bluff, Ark., soloist, as he sang "The Twelfth of Never."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white peau de soie overlaid with white chantille lace except the front panel. The empire-line dress was fashioned with a stand-up collar and the long sleeves were of unlined chantille lace ruffled at the wrist. The bodice was belted with a peau band and formed a classic bow to accent the inverted pleat at center back which fell gracefully into a long train. Her elbow-length veiling of tulle was tiered and adorned with lace appliques. It was held by a crown of peau. Also lace applied. The bride carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations centered with an orchid and flowing satin streamers tied in love knots.

The bride's dress was made by a college friend, Miss Gin Rogers from El Dorado.

Maid of honor was Miss Glenna Grayson of Sulphur Springs. Bridesmaids were Miss Mary Jones, sister of the groom, Pine Bluff, Ark.; Mrs. Mary Quintero, sister of the groom, Austin-Miss Jeanette Seiba, Lake Jackson; Miss Donna Jones, a niece of the groom, Pine Bluff, Ark.; and Miss Deborah Peaden, a cousin of the bride, of Garland.

The bride's attendants wore formal gowns of orchid dotted swiss. The floor-length gowns featured tucked bodice, a lace-trimmed stand-up collar, short puffed sleeves with lace trimming and tiny orchid buttons centering the front of the bodice. The maid of honor carried a single stem of purple gladioli with orchid and purple streamers. The bridesmaids carried white gladioli with orchid and purple streamers. Their headdresses were puffs of orchid tulle held by a purple velvet bow.

Flower girl was Miss Laura Gloria, of Rogers, niece of the groom. Her dress was identical to the other attendants. Her beaded basket was white satin tied with orchid and purple ribbon.

Attending the groom as best man was Paul Lancaster of Benton, Ark. Ushers were David Proffitt of Dyess, Ark., Steve Ward of Dallas, and Jimmy Quintero, brother-in-law of the groom, of Austin, Alfred Gloria of Pine Bluff, and Don Jones of Pine Bluff. Ushers also lighted the tapers.

Chad Graf, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer, who carried a white satin and lace, beaded pillow with orchid and purple ribbon.

A white wrought iron arch entwined with greenery, centered the altar. The arch was also adorned with white wedding bells and streamers. Two seven-branched candelabras holding white tapers were also at the altar, and flanking them were two tall baskets of white gladioli, purple asters, orchid mums with greenery and satin streamers. Pews were marked with purple and orchid streamers. A white and gold kneeling rail completed the nuptial setting.

The parents of the bride were hosts for the wedding reception held on the church lawn immediately following the ceremony. Parents and the wedding party welcomed the guests.

The long bridal table was covered with a floor length white satin cloth with overlay of white gathered nylon edged with orchid and purple ribbon. Centering the table was a gold candelabra holding a mass arrangement of purple asters and four tall white tapers. The white wedding cake was a columned three tier with white swans holding each column, and lavishly trimmed with sugar spun orchid roses and crested with wedding bells. Orchid punch, mints and nuts were served in crystal appointments. Presiding were Miss Gin Rogers, El Dorado, Ark., Mrs. S. T. Peaden, the bride's aunt of Garland. Near the end of the table was the groom's cake which was chocolate covered with spun sugar chocolate drops. Miss Angie Gloria of Temple presided.

The registry table was laid with a floor-length white linen cloth. A wedding tree centered the table and was adorned with purple flowers and purple rice bags tied with orchid ribbon. An orchid satin cloth draped the base of the tree with other rice bags nestled on the cloth. Two orchid tapers entwined with purple flowers were placed on each side of the tree. Mrs. Gail Dryden of Paris registered the guests in a white bride's book.

For traveling the bride chose a red, blue and white knit dress with white accessories and wore the orchid from the bridal bouquet. The bride and groom will make their home in Arkadelphia, Ark., where both are seniors at Ouachita Baptist College.

REHEARSAL DINNER
Mrs. Janie Gloria honored her son, Cyril, and his fiancée, Miss Lana Carol Sloan, with a rehearsal dinner Friday evening in the dining room at the Alps in Mt. Pleasant.

The guests were members of the wedding party and immediate families. The couple presented their attendants with gifts.

For Summer Dining

GOOD BEGINNINGS

ANTIPASTO is a meal in itself when it's too hot to cook. Platter (center) serves deviled eggs flanking Tonno Marinata. Side dishes (clockwise from midnight) hold open-and-eat specialties from the Progresso cupboard: eggplant caponata, Tuscan peppers, olives, anchovies, artichokes, marinated mushrooms.

Italian antipasto — the good beginning of any dinner, any time of the year — becomes a meal-in-a-moment when the kitchen is even hotter than the weather. Putting together an antipasto as satisfying as it's authentically tasty is the simplest kind of summer "cooking". All you need is canned specialties from the Italian section of the supermarket; all the preparation is done for you. Add a cold soup, a warm loaf of crusty Italian bread — and a smile. You'll need it when the compliments start coming!

TONNO MARINATA

2 3/4-ounce cans Progresso Tonno
(imported tuna fish packed in olive oil)

Prepare Italian Dressing. Place tuna fish in bowl, leaving contents whole. Marinate fish in dressing for several hours. Spoon dressing over tuna from time to time. When ready to serve, drain and place on serving dish surrounded by roasted peppers and topped with sliced lemon and parsley. Save dressing in covered container to be used on salad greens.

ITALIAN DRESSING

1 cup Progresso imported olive oil	1/2 tsp. dry mustard
1/4 cup wine vinegar	1 Tbsp. grated onion
1 tsp. salt	1 tsp. oregano
1 tsp. paprika	1 clove garlic crushed

Combine all ingredients. Shake well. Serve as needed. Shake thoroughly before using.
