B. C. Harris, Retired Farmer, Dies Sunday

B. C. Harris, 74, 1102 Graham Street, who had lived here 68 years, died in St. Joseph's Hospital at 11:30 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 8. He was admitted two days earlier for treatment of a broken hip received in a two-car accident, but the cause of death was attributed to a stroke.

Mr. Harris was a retired farmer and was widely known through this area.

Born at Iredell on June 19, 1894, Bevel Caldwell Harris was the son of the late Lynn and Mary Lasiter Harris. He came here with his family in 1900.

Mr. Harris was a member of the Church of Christ at Dodson.

He was married to Miss Effie Mae Shadix on July 29, 1912, and she preceded him in —See back page

C-C Directors Re-Appoint Marsh 1969 Fair Head

The Chamber of Commerce took its first action on the 1969 Collingsworth County Free Fair in a meeting of the board of directors Monday night, Sept. 9.

Troy Marsh was re-appointed the overall Fair superintendent, with the authority to begin work immediately on next year's Fair, Jeff Wilson, C-C president, announced.

Efforts will begin now to secure a carnival for the 1969 event even though it may mean adjusting the Fair date somewhat, Mr. Wilson said.

Committee heads will be appointed in the immediate future also.

Three new directors were appointed, Paul Hawkins, Harold Gattis and Ralph Owens.

Gary Reed, work unit conservationist of the Soil Conservation Service, and Dan Henard, chairman of the Collingsworth County Water Control and Improvement District appeared before the Chamber directors to explain the proposed North Rolling Plains Resource Conservation and Development program.

The directors agreed to draw up a resolution endorsing the program.

Fatal Accident Occurs Fri. West of Dodson

A two-vehicle collision which occurred 2.4 miles west of Dodson on FM Road 338 Friday night, Sept. 6, took the life of R. J. Holland, 90, prominent Dodson rancher.

B. C. Harris of Wellington, well known retired farmer, who was in the other car, died in St. Joseph's Hospital at 11:50 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 8, but the cause of his death was listed as a stroke by the attending physician.

He had received a broken hip in the accident. Mrs. Harris, who has a broken kneecap, is still a patient in St. Joseph's.

Rockets Open Season Against Hollis Friday

Wellington Skyrockets, backed by their highly enthusiastic fans, open the 1968 season with a home game against the Hollis Tigers Friday night, Sept. 13.

Game time is 8 p.m. Adding color to the game will be the half-time performances

Rev. Crosley Resigns as Pastor Here

The Rev. Ronald Crosley has resigned as pastor of the Church of the Nazarene in Wellington to become pastor of the First Nazarene Church in Pittsburg, Kansas.

His resignation is effective Sept. 30, and comes a little more than three years after he moved to Wellington.

Pittsburg is a town of approximately 22,000 population and is the site of Kansas State College, where Rev. Crosley plans to work toward his master's degree.

First Church of the Nazarene in Pittsburg is approximately three times larger than the church here, it was pointed out, and is in the Joplin, Mo., district of the Church of the Nazarene.

In going there, Rev. and Mrs. Crosley are returning to the area where he was pastor immediately before coming to Wellington, Neosho, Mo., approximately 50 miles southeast of Pittsburg.

Since moving to Wellington, Rev. Crosley has served as president of the Collingsworth County Ministerial Association, chaplain of the Civil Air Patrol, and he is currently president of the Wellington Kiwanis Club and chaplain of the Volunteer Fire Department.

He and his wife, Barbara, have three children, LaRonna, 7, Randy, almost 3, and Laura, a year and a half.

Rev. Crosley, reared in Elkhart, Kan., entered the ministry seven years ago. He received the bachelor's degree from Bethany Nazarene College in Bethany, Okla., and was pastor of the Nazarene Church at Muleshoe.

of the Skyrocket Band, making its second public appearance under the baton of Wayne Tucker.

Very little is known here about Hollis, said Rocket head coach Thayne Amonett. The Tigers are a young club but an aggressive one. Observers found them impressive in the first part of their scrimmage against Childress and it was only Bobcat strength and numbers that were able to wear them down after a considerable length of play.

"They are more our size than any other ball club we will play this season," said Coach Amonett. "They are not extremely large and they are relatively inexperienced."

"We expect a real close, hard fought game," he continued.

Wellington will be without the work of one key player and possibly two.

Teddy McLain, right tackle, has sprained an ankle, and Coach Amonett said it is unlikely that he will be able to play Friday.

Neither is Gary Brewer's injured knee well enough for him to see any action.

Coach Amonett, along with his assistants, Tank Forrester and Dick Hamilton, have picked their tentative starting lineup, and these are the boys due to be first on the field for the

Father Burke Returns Home

At midnight on Sept. 4, the Boeing 727 carrying Father Pat Burke back to the United States touched down at Amarillo airport. He drove back to his parish here the following day.

Father Pat had been visiting relatives and friends in five European countries since July 23. These nations were England, Ireland, Wales, Scotland and France.

While in Ireland, Father Pat officiated at the wedding of a cousin, Michael Duggan, who is a member of the police force in Dublin City. The joy of the occasion was marred by the death of the bride's father on the night before the marriage.

On his birthday, July 30, Father Pat had the pleasant surprise of a brief phone call of congratulations from an old childhood acquaintance, John Lennon of the Beatles.

Deadline Set to Get Old Reserved Seats

Skyrocket fans who would like to have their old reserved seats back for this season have until 1 p.m. Friday, Sept. 13 to pick them up, Supt. J. L. Harper has announced.

The tickets are on sale at the business office in the High School building.

After 1 p.m. Friday, the tickets will be put on sale on a first come, first served basis.

R. J. Holland, Dodson Rancher, Dies Friday

R. J. (Rob) Holland, 90, a Dodson rancher and registered Hereford breeder, died in Hollis Memorial Hospital at 10:07 p.m. Friday, Sept. 6, of injuries received an hour earlier in a two-car accident.

He had lived in Collingsworth County since 1900.

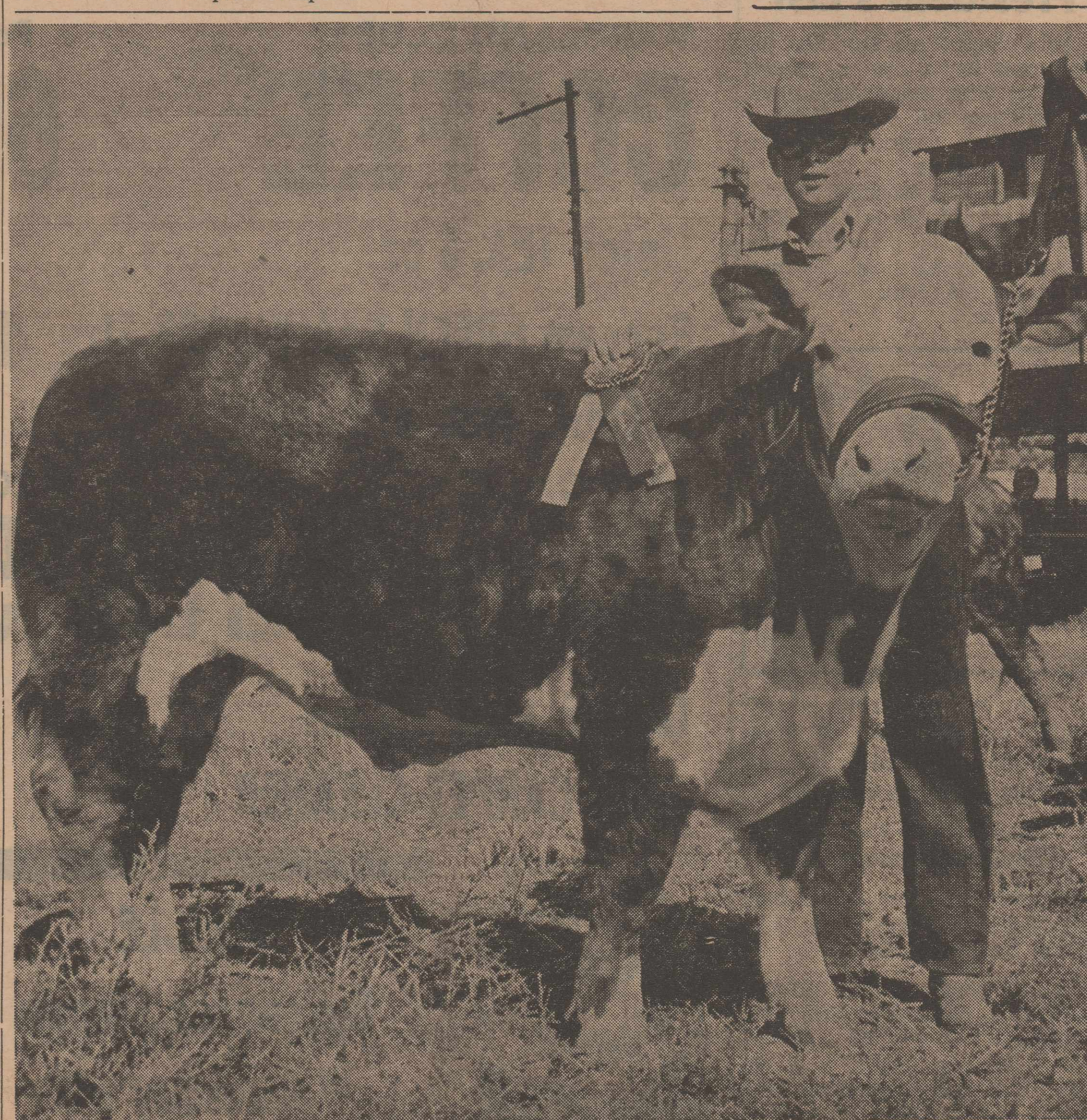

Mr. Holland became a breeder of registered cattle in 1918, and his herd was widely known for its quality throughout the southwest. In 1964 he was honored by the Panhandle Hereford Association for his service to that organization. He also was a member of the Texas Hereford Breeders Association.

A community builder as well as a successful business man, he was among the early directors of the Greenbelt Electric Cooperative, and for a number of years was a director of the Dodson Farmers Co-op Gin.

He was a trustee of the Dodson School for many years, also, and is remembered best in that capacity for his efforts to assure adequate financing for the school.

A member of the Dodson Masonic Lodge, he received his 50 year pin last spring. He also was a charter member and a deacon of South Baptist Church in Dodson.

Mr. Holland was born May 14, 1878, at Mesquite. When he was only 11 years old, his family came by covered wagon to Wichita County, and he often recalled that when they arrived, he and a sister who was two years older remained on the claim alone, living in the covered wagon, while the others of —See back page

Annual Crops, Soil Tour Set Sept. 18

The annual field crops and soil conservation tour for farmers and business men will be held Wednesday, Sept. 18 when tour members will have an opportunity to see what is being done to help Collingsworth agriculture.

The tour will leave the south side of the courthouse at 9 a.m. and return shortly after noon, according to Gary Reed, of Soil Conservation Service and Dwayne Scott of the Extension Service.

Transportation will be furnished.

There will be seven stops for tour visitors, covering the Wellington, Marella, Abra and Samnorwood communities. A barbecue lunch will be served at Lions Community Park in Samnorwood.

Sponsors of the tour are four agencies whose work relates to agriculture: Salt Fork Soil Conservation District, the Northwest Texas Research Demonstration Program, the Farmers Home Administration and the Collingsworth County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Program.

Four agricultural specialists will attend from the Texas Agricultural Extension Service at Lubbock, and Texas A&M University to explain various phases of the program, especially that pertaining to the NW Texas Experiment Program tests.

Representing the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Dr. Bob Berry, area plant pathologist, will discuss seedling diseases and nematodes; Dr. Bab Metzger, area agronomist, will talk on cotton varieties; and Jim Valentine, area soil chemist, will explain fertilizer rates. Fred Elliott, cotton specialist from A&M also will discuss cotton varieties.

A new crop grown here on an experimental basis only, will be seen at the first stop. This is Kenaf, being grown on the Dwayne Scott farm, a short distance north of Wellington.

Mr. Scott, who is in charge of the NW Texas Research

Demonstration Program, explained that this is a woody fibrous plant growing to seven feet tall under the dry-land conditions here, and is used for manufacturing paper and wall board.

It now appears that Kenaf can be produced successfully here but there is no market outlet in this area, according to Scott and County Agent Sammy Helmers. It is included in the tour because of the interest here in new crops, and because it grows so successfully.

The N. E. Childers farm at Marella will be the site of two studies. Scott has a cotton fertility test here with seven fertilizer treatments under study. Soil Conservation District will show a weeping love grass field with six rates of fertilizer and SCS personnel will discuss these rates and also the per acre production in terms of grass.

At Quail, a waterway seeded to alfalfa will be shown by the Soil Conservation Service.

"The main thing is to show that alfalfa will work on a waterway provided you slow the velocity of water enough that erosion is not the main problem, to two feet per second or less," said Mr. Reed.

Another SCS stop will be at —See back page

Henard Vice-Chairman

RC&D Board Named, Enthusiasm Mounts

A board of directors was selected for the North Rolling Plains Resource Conservation and Development Program when representatives of seven counties met in Shamrock Friday, Sept. 6.

This board was drawn from the steering committees of the member counties.

Harry Frye of Shamrock, the Wheeler County member, was elected chairman; Dan Henard, Collingsworth County Water Control and Improvement District, vice chairman; and A. L. Gailey, Memphis City Secretary and Hall County member, secretary.

Other members on the board are Judge B. F. Conyers of Canadian for Hemphill County; Harold White of Hedley for Donley County; James Clyde, SCD supervisor for Gray County; and O. R. Stark, Quittaque banker, for Briscoe County.

Briscoe became the new county to enter the program Friday, with Hemphill and Gray counties joining a week earlier.

The new board includes men representing most phases of this area's economy and interests, pointed out Gary Reed, Work Unit Conservationist for the Soil Conservation Service and a leader in work to secure the RC&D program.

Representing Collingsworth County at the Friday meeting were Mr. Reed, Mr. Henard, Herschel Tabor, mayor of Dodson, and Jim Martin, Wellington City Council member.

This was the most enthusiastic meeting of the RC&D group held so far, Mr. Reed said.

Mr. Frye, in taking the office of chairman of the board of directors, pointed out that the program seeks enduring type projects which cannot be handled by one county alone.

Mr. Stark was named to head the by-laws and rules committee, and Mr. Henard was named ed to be in charge of putting together information for the application for approval of the program.

Before the application can be sent to the state conservationist of the Soil Conservation Service, a hearing must be held, possibly in November, Mr. Reed explained. Three members of the state SCS staff at —See back page

Liquor Control Board Assigns Inspector Here

Charles Partridge, an inspector for the Liquor Control Board has been transferred here from the Amarillo office and is due to take over his duties immediately.

The Wellington outpost which Mr. Partridge will serve covers four counties, Collingsworth, Donley, Hemphill and Wheeler, according to Police Chief Donald Nunnelle, who will work in cooperation with him.

Other officers from the Liquor Control Board will be here on occasion to work with him.

Mr. Partridge and his wife, Linda, have three children. They will live in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Helmers, east of town.

The Amarillo district of the Liquor Control Board comprises approximately 20 Panhandle counties. It has one outpost to serve the North Panhandle area and another at Hereford.

The appointment of an inspector here comes after several years of effort on the part of Sheriff John Rainey and Police Chief Nunnelle to secure an agent to serve this area.

Billy Moseley President

Rotary Reorganizes, Names New Officers

Re-organization of the Wellington Rotary Club was completed in a special called directors meeting Tuesday, Sept. 10, after the noon luncheon.

Rotary President Sammy Helmers resigned, as he is moving to Sierra Blanca and Vice President John Sherman also tendered his resignation.

Billy Moseley, secretary-treasurer, resigned that post also and was named by the directors to fill Mr. Helmers' unexpired term as president. J. B. Oney was elected vice president to succeed Mr. Sherman, and Tommy Thomas was named secretary-treasurer.

One thing that will be stressed during the remainder of the year is increased membership and fellowship, Mr. Moseley said. There will be more activities of club members and their Rotary Anns with special emphasis on surrounding Rotary Clubs participating in various events held here.

There was also a discussion of Rotary's initiating and sponsoring a school safety patrol at the Wellington Elementary School.

The Tuesday luncheon program was given by Wellington High School Head Coach Thayne Amonett, who told Rotarians about the prospects for the upcoming football season which begins Friday night, Sept. 13 when the Skyrockets meet Hollis, Okla.

Mr. Moseley also reported on the Rotary Chicken Barbecue Saturday, announcing that well over 300 plates were served.

Still Life Studies Win in Art Exhibit

Still life studies took honors in the Collingsworth County Free Fair Art Exhibit, winning the purple rosettes in all three divisions of painting.

The fourth division was sculpture, with Miss Bonnie Willis receiving the rosette for a small black wood sculpture, a study in shape, space and shadows.

Katy Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sullivan, received the rosette in the oil painting division of the Junior Art Show.

In the adult exhibit, Mrs. John Sherman won the rosette in the oils division and Mrs. Hook Elliott in the water color division.

Junior Exhibit

Katy Sullivan's still life was a close-up study of a cactus in bloom, using shades of rich reds against cool greens. She also won second and third place in the still life class of the oils division.

MONEY HISTORY

Early in the history of our country, paper money, known as "continental currency" was in regular use at the time of the American Revolution. This currency decreased in value to such an extent that the saying "not worth a continental" became a common expression.

Congress adopted the dollar in 1785 as the unit of American money. This was followed in 1792 by the establishing of our monetary system.

The first United States mint was in Philadelphia. There were gold eagles valued at $10 each, half and quarter eagles, silver dollars, halves, quarters and dimes were stricken off. Half dimes, pennies and half pennies were also minted.

Then followed coins of unusual denominations such as the three cent piece in 1851 and a twenty cent piece in 1875.

Brown Appoints Mrs. Coleman As Coordinator

Dick Brown, candidate for United States congressman from the 18th Congressional District, has announced the appointment of Mrs. John Coleman of Wellington as coordinator of the Dick Brown for Congress campaign for Collingsworth County. Mrs. Coleman is the newly-elected Democratic County Chairman. She has for some time been prominent in political activities and is well-known in Federated Women's Club activities. Mr. Coleman was County Agent of Brown's home county, Hartley, when Brown was in 4-H Club work in 1937-39.

"I feel that the 18th has been virtually without representation during the past two years," Mrs. Coleman said, "and I welcome this opportunity to help regain a positive voice for the Panhandle... a job which I know Dick Brown can and will do when he is elected to Congress."

Brown, a life-long resident of the Panhandle is general manager of Farmers Supply Company of Dalhart, and owns and operates a farm in the Hartley area.

"I have been advised that Dick will be visiting in our county within the next few weeks. I know that all of his many friends will be on hand to give him a warm welcome, and that those who have not yet met him will want to get acquainted with this extraordinary man. You will be hearing from me, and I want to invite you at this time to contact me for information, cards, and bumper stickers," Mrs. Coleman said. "I consider Dick's candidacy an opportunity to send to Congress a man who has the background, experience and reputation that will enable him to take with him a first-hand knowledge of the problems of the Panhandle. He has the energy to tackle those problems and the ability to handle them, along with a record of proven effectiveness in his profession, his community and his party," she concluded.

Mary Ann Roberts, Billy Thomas Wed in Dalhart Church August 31

Miss Mary Ann Roberts and Billy Wayne Thomas exchanged wedding vows in the First Christian Church at Dalhart, Saturday, August 31, at two-thirty in the afternoon. The Rev. Cecil Beaver, minister of the church, officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Roberts, Jr., of Route Two, Dalhart, and Mr. and Mrs. Truett Thomas, 809 Dalhart Street, Wellington.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Cecil Beaver of Dalhart.

Mr. Roberts gave his daughter in marriage.

She wore a formal floor-length empire wedding gown of angel skin peau de soie and imported Alencon lace, designed with a sabbina neckline and sleeves that came to petal points at the wrists. Bands of lace enhanced the slender skirt. The lace, touched with sequins, also formed a full overskirt and swept to a chapel train. Her elbow length illusion veil was attached to a dainty crown and she carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and orchids.

Miss Debbie Wadsworth of Texhoma, Oklahoma, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Patricia Thomas and Miss Sue Roberts, sisters of the couple.

Their floor-length gowns of turquoise lace were in empire style with full-length panels of matching chiffon falling from the shoulders. Their headpieces were crowns of flowers holding short matching veils. They carried bouquets of white daisies.

Dan Warrick of Wellington was the best man and ushers were Lonnie Coker of Hereford and Tommy Thomas of Wellington, brother of the bridegroom.

Kaye Roberts of Panhandle and Jim Roberts of Dalhart, cousin and brother of the bride, lighted the candles, and the flower girl and ring bearer were LaVonda Thomas of Wellington and Joe Christian of Claude.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Roberts honored the bride and groom at a reception in the Rose Room of the church.

A white lace cloth, caught up at intervals by turquoise bows, covered the bride's table, centered with an arrangement of white and turquoise flowers and appointed in silver.

Family Honors Mrs. Ora Calcote at Reunion in Erick September 1

The children of Mrs. Ora Calcote and the late William S. Calcote of Erick, Oklahoma, met there for a family reunion Sunday, September 1. It was an all-day affair of visiting and picture taking.

Mr. and Mrs. Calcote lived 10 miles south of Wellington from 1910 to 1920, and most of their eleven children attended the Loco School.

Seven of these eleven children are still living, and of these, six were present for the reunion. The youngest daughter, Mrs. Howard Cayton of Flagler, Colorado, was unable to attend.

Mrs. Calcote, still very active at 91 years of age, could indeed count her blessings as her family gathered about her. She has eleven children, 36 grandchildren, 80 great grandchildren and 12 great great grandchildren, for a total of 139 direct descendants.

Mr. Calcote passed away on March 28, 1947, at their home in Texola, Oklahoma.

Another observation showed Mrs. Calcote had a son, Jim, in World War I; a son, Jeff, and several grandsons in World War II; grandsons in the Korean War; and grandsons in the Vietnam War. One grandson was killed in World War II and another in Korea.

Mrs. Jerry Drew, a granddaughter of Oklahoma City, had prepared a history of the family from Mr. Calcote's side, and also from Mrs. Calcote's side. She was a Mayo before her marriage. Mrs. Drew had prepared copies of the histories for each family present.

Two of Mrs. Calcote's sisters, Mrs. Lula Masters of Dill City, Oklahoma, and Mrs. Annie Lowe of Erick, and her niece, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Fenn of Dill City, and a nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Lowe of Erick were guests of the family.

Attending were Mrs. Calcote; Mr. and Mrs. John R. Calcote of Wellington; Mrs. J. B. Calcote of Wheeler; Mrs. Emma Adkins of Wellington; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Calcote of Dalt; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Calcote of Oklahoma City; Mrs. Marie Cayton of Amarillo; Jeff W. Calcote of Mulvane, Kansas;

Mrs. Pete Lester of Amarillo; Thurman Calcote and Bob Calcote of Miami; Mr. and Mrs. John C. Wolf, James, Sue, Robert and Thomas of Wellington; Mr. and Mrs. Chester Calcote, Mike, Jan and Ella of Lubbock;

Miss Peggy Calcote of Amarillo;

rillo; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Drew and Sylvia, Mr. and Mrs. Billy McGruder, Debra, Denise, Bobbie, Billy Kent, Brenda and Robbie Jane, Clifton Calcote, and Jerry Bob Calcote, all of Oklahoma City;

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Walker, Sherry, Charlotte, Dianne and Mary Lynn of Amarillo; Harold Calcote of Mulvane, Kansas; Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Don Lowe of Jal, N.M.; Miss Anita Lowe and Darryl Lowe of Erick.

Marilyn Philley Weds Rodney Phillips in Late August Ceremony at Dallas

Miss Marilyn Philley, formerly of Wellington, became the bride of Rodney Phillips in a ceremony performed before members of their families on Friday, August 23 at St. Andrews Presbyterian Church in Dallas. The Rev. Elsworth Caylor, pastor, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ennie Putnam of Hollis and Calvin Philley of Amarillo. Mr. and Mrs. Don Phillips of Plainview are the parents of the bridegroom.

Arrangements of white gladioli and chrysanthemums alternating with candelabras, decorated the church.

The bride was given in marriage by her step-father, Mr. Putnam. She wore a white street-length, crocheted-knit dress, and her short veil was attached to a headpiece of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and chrysanthemums.

The couple was unattended. A reception in their honor was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hardin of Dallas.

The bride's table was laid with a white linen cloth and the floral centerpiece was the bride's bouquet. Mrs. Hardin and Mrs. Bertie Sue Belcher served the guests.

After their honeymoon spent in Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Phillips are at home in Canyon, where both will attend West Texas State University.

The bride was graduated from Wellington High School in 1966 and attended Clarendon Junior College before enrolling at West Texas State.

A graduate of Plainview High School, the bridegroom formerly attended Texas Technological College in Lubbock.

Mrs. Jim Henard of Wellington was in Dallas for her sister's wedding.

Indoor-Outdoor Carpet

The relatively new indoor-outdoor carpet already has a new twist—bulkier yarn to give a plush, more luxurious carpet.

Indoor-outdoor carpeting, in the past, has been a little on the stiff side. The bulkier yarn has softened the surface, yet it wears like stiffer finishes.

The carpeting is easy to care for, highly stain resistant and resistant to mildew and rot. It has good acoustical properties, low static build-up and low moisture absorbency.

There are other new indoor-outdoor developments underfoot. Patterned carpets are coming on the scene for more decorative versatility. These carpets, with special barriers to keep moisture such as spills from leaking through, especially are good for use over wood.

Two basic types of indoor-outdoor carpeting are woven or non-woven. The woven carpet is textured and in cut-pile, much like other carpeting. In the non-woven or felted construction, the carpet is somewhat like resilient floor covering. Generally the felted types are somewhat cheaper. Aside from the price, there is no general advantage of one type over the other.

Another version of the non-wovens is carpet tile. The tiles are 12-inch squares with soft rubber backs for use indoors or out.

Sharp objects, such as cleats on shoes, can damage the non-wovens. If some repair work is needed, then you could replace a few tiles and not the entire carpet.

The manufacturers of indoor-outdoor carpeting claim it will hold up for a long time in or out of the weather; on boards, cement, brick or even bare ground. According to extremely rigorous tests conducted by independent testers, the manufacturers do not exaggerate.

Two additional advantages of the indoor-outdoor carpet are cost and ease of installation. It is the cheapest type of carpet available—starting at $5 a square yard.

Installation is easy since the carpet can be cut with a knife, razor blade or scissors. It is important to cut to size very carefully since the material can not be stretched. The felt types do not need binding, but the tufted types should be bound to prevent raveling.

When buying indoor-outdoor carpet be sure and get specific care instructions for stain removal and general upkeep. Then follow them.

Teen-Agers Like Color

Teen-agers like any color—so long as it is orange!

This is the consensus of interior designers consulted by the National Association of Furniture Manufacturers on the subject of color preferences of teens.

Modify the color orange a little... shades of it, even yellow and yellow-green and olive, and get the teen-agers' vote.

In furnishing their own rooms they like many storage areas, especially open-face stack units that go on top of chests, dressers and desks.

For boys, oak is the favorite wood, either in natural finish or painted, preferably in dark, more masculine tones.

The "forever feminine" girl still likes her bedroom furniture in a paint finish of white or pastel tint. The canopied bed still meets her approval. She, too, likes plenty of storage space for books, treasures, and clothing. A corner desk can pinch-hit for a dressing table.

A pegboard on one wall is almost a must for the teen-ager's room.

Midway HDC Names Officers

Midway Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. Ruth Wyrick Wednesday evening, September 3 at 2 p.m.

Mrs. Russell Hill, president, presided over the business meeting. Mrs. Ben Brewer said the prayer and Mrs. Wyrick gave the devotional.

The club plans for the fair were discussed and planned.

Mrs. Harold Caldwell was elected secretary and treasurer for the coming year. Other officers were elected at a previous meeting. They are: Mrs. Joe Terry, president; Mrs. R. T. Savage, vice-president; Mrs. W. E. Colson, council delegate.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Ben Brewer, Mrs. Russell Hill, Mrs. Joe Terry; Mrs. Jess Mosenbocker, Mrs. Harold Caldwell and Gene, Mrs. W. E. Colson and Mrs. Ruth Wyrick.

Two-Year-Old Given Party

W. J. Hudspeth, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Hudspeth, was honored on his second birthday Sept. 6 at his home in Hollis.

Clowns and balloons decorated the entertaining room, and birthday cake with ice cream and pink animal cookies were served to Craig Rippetoe, Tammy Coaly, Jetta Meek, Jon Bealand, Stephanie Randall, Christie Lemons, David Woods, Kelly Rogers, David Swaim, Sheila Orr and Amber Crenshaw.

Party Honors Keith Davis

Mrs. G. N. Davis honored her son, Keith, on his 13th birthday with a party in Ellison Park Monday afternoon, September 9.

Mrs. Davis was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Travis Buske. The boys played football, then roasted wieners, which were served with birthday cake and punch.

Attending were Tim Jones, Mike Williams, Stevie Kane, Steve Marsh, Randall Hodges, Paul Wilbur, Dickey Johnson and Brent Wade.

Johnson Gets Degree at WTSU

Dean Johnson, formerly of Quail, was graduated from West Texas State University at its recent summer commencement, receiving the BS degree.

Johnson is in his third year as a member of the Quikrete school faculty and this year is grade and junior high principal, teaches science, and is junior high coach.

The son of Mrs. Robert Johnson of Wellington, he was graduated from Quail High School in 1963 and attended Clarendon Junior College two years.

His wife is the former Agatha Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gabe Wright. She, too, is a Quail graduate.

almost a must for the teen-ager's room.

Agent's Briefs

Blouses are literally tops in fashion this season. Whether your taste runs to the Mao-collared, the frill, the dickey, the peasant or the body shirt, you will want to collect a wardrobe of shirts to wear with stylish skirts, suit jackets, weskits or sleeveless tunics.

Keep ironing and laundering at a minimum by watching the hang tags on your clothing purchases. Polyester and cotton, acrylic blends and washable wool are easy-care, easy-wear fabrics.

INTERESTING FLOWER SETTINGS

While the shape, color and size of a container are of great importance in the displaying of flowers, of equal importance are settings and backgrounds.

One delightful effect is produced by placing the flower unit so that a lamp causes fascinating shadows on the background wall.

Another exciting effect is produced by placing the flower unit in front of a mirror.

With a mirror setting, the flowers should never be as tall as the mirror. The upper portion of the mirror should be left clear for primping and distant reflection.

Good judgment must be exercised in the selection of a container when a mirror is used.

A round mirror calls for a pot-like container. An oblong mirror requires a four-sided container.

Former Area Resident Dies

A former Wellington man, Louis Will Christoph, died in the hospital at Fowler, Colo., on Aug. 30, following a short illness.

Mr. Christoph was born Sept. 18, 1894 in Childress County, the son of the late John and Emily Christoph. He was a veteran of World War I.

On April 22, 1926, he was married to Miss Truly Rippeotte and they moved to Colorado in 1929, and to the Fowler area in 1945. He became a member of Pitkin Avenue Baptist Church in 1947 and served as Sunday School Superintendent and in other capacities.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday, Sept. 3 at 2 p.m., at Pitkin Avenue Baptist Church, with the Rev. Loyd Hamilton officiating. Burial was in the Fowler Cemetery under the direction of Crist Funeral Home.

Mr. Christoph is survived by his wife, Mrs. Truly Christoph; and eight children: Albert Christoph of Leadville, Colo.; Manning Christoph, of Orlando, Fla.; Darrell Christoph, with the Air Force in the Philippines; Mrs. Alice Joy Davis of Arcadia, La.; Stanley Christoph and John Christoph of Denver, Colo.; Mrs. Marilyn Kindell of Whittier, Calif.; and Mrs. Carolyn Morley of Manzanola, Colo.

Others surviving are his stepmother, Mrs. Bertha Daniels of Amarillo; three brothers and two sisters: Albert Christoph of Dallas; Austin Christoph of Arlington; Joe Christoph of Wellington; Mrs. Mabel Burden of Oklahoma City, and Mrs. Mary Ann Nivens of Amarillo. There are 27 grandchildren. One brother, J. D. Christoph, preceded him in death.

Tarters Home from Colorado

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tarter returned Aug. 25 from Canon City, Colo., where they spent the summer.

After leaving here June 5 they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Killingsworth, former residents, until they found an apartment at the foot of the mountains among beautiful trees.

Mr. Tarter worked about half the summer at Canon City. Their favorite drive was up the Arkansas River to Salida, Colo. The Tarters' daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Delmo Risley, Jyll and Derek, of San Antonio, spent ten days with them.

Canon City is like Wellington in at least one respect, say Mr. and Mrs. Tarter. It has some wonderful people.

They returned by way of Dalt, where they spent the week end with Mrs. Lola Dell Patterson and heard Minister Grandol Forehand preach again.

NYC Couple Visits Family

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Webster of New York City were here recently as guests of her mother, and sister, Mrs. Clark Anderson and Mrs. Jack Kopp and family.

Joining them were Mrs. Anderson's youngest daughter, Mrs. Ben Meadors and daughter, Ray Ann.

Mrs. Webster will be remembered here as Louise Anderson.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Webster sing professionally in New York, and have begun work in the field of television commercials.

In addition, Mrs. Webster is editorial assistant of Science Technology Publication, and her husband also is associated with a magazine published in New York. He is a former supper club entertainer.

Mr. Webster lived in Denver before going to New York and studied at Ohio State University. Mrs. Webster attended Texas Tech.

Mr. and Mrs. Webster and Mr. and Mrs. Kopp are now visiting with members of Mr. Webster's family in Denver, with a side trip to Aspen. They will fly to the West Coast for a short visit before returning to New York.

Former County Couples Here

Guests of Mrs. Robert Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Jerol Morris recently were their daughter and sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Terry of Artesia, N.M., and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Brown and children of Amarillo. The Terrys also visited his mother, Mrs. O. A. Terry.

Both families formerly lived here.

Three of the Terrys' four children are in college this year. Sandra attends Coty College, Nevada, Mo. on a scholarship; Freddy will be in the New Mexico School of Mines at Silver City; and Eddie Terry, who is in the Air Force stationed at Alexandria, La., will also attend college in that city.

Their older daughter, Ellen Sue is now Mrs. Tommy Salmon and lives in Honolulu, Hawaii, where she is employed in a bank.

McClaskey Attends Arizona University

Robert Worth McClaskey, the grandson of Mrs. W. W. McClaskey, is entering the University of Arizona at Tucson this fall as a senior.

He has made the dean's honor roll the past three years. He is majoring in science and math. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie McClaskey of Phoenix.

Robert Worth lived here as a small child.

Three Register for Draft

Three Collingsworth County boys were registered with the Selective Service during August, according to Bill Hatch, registrar.

These were Emilio E. Bera, Rufus Garcia Sosa, and George A. Kopp.

There's Much To See on The Annual Crops Tour

The annual farm crops tour, sponsored by the agriculture-related government agencies, will be held Wednesday, September 18. A number of farms will be visited, scattered over a wide area to give a picture of some of the work being done toward a better agriculture for this area.

Salt Fork Conservation District has before it one of the biggest jobs in its history, rebuilding flood-ravaged land. Little of this is apparent yet, but the consistently fine job that the SCD does will be apparent.

The continuing experiments of the Northwest Texas Research Demonstration Program also will be seen, as it searches for new crops and improved varieties and practices for Collingsworth County.

The third partner in this tour is the Farmers Home Administration. This agency not only provides financial assistance to individual farmers, it has a number of other programs that vary in size and type.

Collingsworth County is fortunate in the work being done by these federal and state agencies and for the leadership which their personal provides.

OTHER EDITORS SAY . . .

Wives' Key Roles

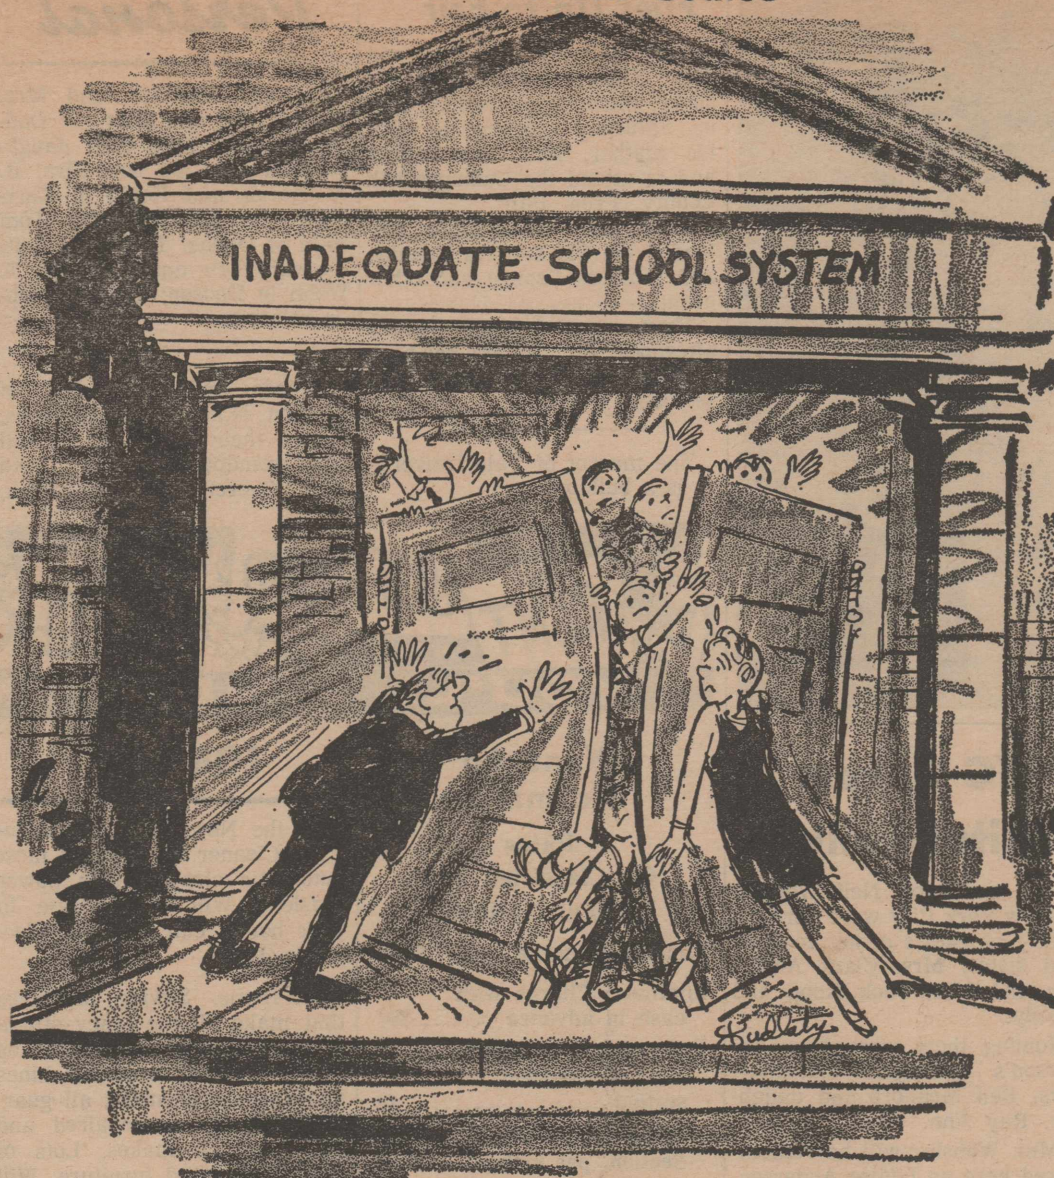

Wives are Valuable — We guess it will surprise no one to have this impression confirmed: That wives can play a big role in their husbands' business careers. And particularly in that rather vital question as to whether the husband get hired or promoted.

For instance, one insurance executive always had dinner with the family before hiring the husband, to make sure that the wife doesn't nag, and believe it or not, that she doesn't wear "gaudy, cheap jewelry." A law firm has hired executives mainly on the strength of the wife's personality. And one business firm decided not to promote a man because his home looked like a "pig sty."

One of the things that this indicates, of course, is that business now recognizes that a marriage and a home must be a true partnership to be successful. Gone are the days when the man was expected—or allowed—to set the tone of family life as he wished.

AUSTIN.—Four political conventions of just about every complexion of politics extant in Texas are coming up. Saturday, Sept. 14, a frankly illegal convention of liberal Democrats unhappy with their party majority will be held in Austin.

cial party conventions, Tuesday, Sept. 17, the regular State Democratic convention will be held, also in Austin. Lt. Gov. Preston Smith, the party's nominee for governor, will present his campaign platform planks then, for adoption by the whole convention.

On that same day in Fort Worth, GOP gubernatorial candidate Paul Eggers and his platform will be featured in the State Republican convention. Keynoter for the day will be the Republican vice-presidential candidate, Gov. Spiro Agnew of Maryland.

Additional convention excitement is expected to emanate from Dallas where the American Party will convene Tuesday, and hear its presidential candidate, George Wallace.

There, recently ousted party officials intend to challenge that party's state committee.

County District Attorney Tom Blackwell judge of the 167th district court in Austin to succeed Judge Tom Reavley, recently appointed to the Texas Supreme Court. Travis County Attorney Robert O. Smith succeeds Blackwell as D.A. All three are Democratic nominees to the posts to which they were appointed.

Connally selected Edgar Britton Hart of Electra, Marvin L. McCullough of Wichita Falls, Louis Pitcock, Jr., of Graham and Hugh T. Marshall of Quantah to the Midwest University Board of Regents.

James H. Harwell, Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce manager, will become executive director of Texas Industrial Commission on Oct. 1.

It's auto inspection time again. The 1969 inspection period began Sept. 1. Deadline is April 16, 1969.

Aid Granted Airports

A total of $765,513 in grants have been authorized by the Texas Aeronautics Commission for construction and/or improvement of 44 air ports. Largest grants, $27,500 each, went to airports at Canadian, Edinburg, Fort Stockton, Jasper, Kingsland, Mineral Wells, Morton, Smithville and Taft.

TAC at same time said it may recommend eliminating aviation fuel exemption from that gasoline tax. Unclaimed refunds of tax payments finance TAC aid to small city airports.

Pollution

It is almost certain that some state agency will take over regulation of salt water discharges from liquefied petroleum gas storage caverns near oil refineries and gas plants, but a public hearing by the Texas Water Quality Board did not settle the question of which agency.

WQB called a "show cause" hearing for LPG underground storage cavern operators with the idea of regulating brine-water waste discharges itself. But when the hearing opened, chairman Howard Rose of Austin said the Texas Railroad Commission had expressed an interest in handling the problem.

As it stands now, both agencies apparently will be involved in this area of pollution control.

Draft Quota Cut

State's draft quota has been reduced to 523 men for November, lowest since April, 1965.

Quotas have been dropping off since May when call reached 2,131. Call for August was 895. It's 683 for September

CROSSROADS REPORT

Dear Editor:

It is the opinion of some folks around here that the TV cameras and the newspaper reporters didn't do a complete job of telling us about the Chicago fracas.

Like when they used dashes instead of words in the newspaper stories, and cut out sections of the TV tapes, so we couldn't tell what the actual words were that the young protesters were using to express their demands and complaints and sentiments.

After all, you have to know the exact words a person uses when speaking or writing before you can judge fairly whether his mind dwells at some high level, or at the bawdy house and gutter level.

LETTERS

from the People

Dear Mr. Wells:

It is really too bad that some of your rain couldn't have fallen in this area. We have had a drought here up until the last month. We were certainly thankful for the irrigation well here at the ranch. We had a real good test of what water can mean—for instance—the dry land made 8 bushels wheat per acre; 29 bushel on once-watered ground; 54 bushel on twice-watered ground; and 65 to 85 bushel on the 3 time watered ground was caused by different amounts of fertilizer and the time it was hit by the water.

We are pre-watering now and putting down fertilizer through the water systems for this fall's seeding, which will begin in about three weeks.

Kathy and I took our share of ribbons at the local county fair two weeks ago. Kathy earned 3 blue (1st) ribbons and 3 red (2nd) ribbons and I took a blue and a white (3rd).

QUIT SCHOOL

Each depositor insured to $15,000

Many of the high school students of Collingsworth County obtained jobs when school closed last spring. They enjoyed the sense of responsibility which these jobs provided; and they found that the money earned allowed them to buy luxuries which their families could not provide.

Unfortunately

This experience has in the past caused some teen-agers to decide against going back to school. Those who do not think farther ahead than tomorrow or next week have decided that continuing to work will give them the money for the cars and entertainment which at the moment seems most important.

Regrettably

The boy or girl who does quit school will regret it later . . . when it's too late to do anything about it. A little extra education often makes the difference between success and mediocrity. The world today wants and needs trained and educated men and women.

"DOG WALTZ"

According to legend, one of the waltzes in Chopin's Opus 64 acquired the sobriquet of the "Dog Waltz" because it was inspired by the sight of George Sand's dog chasing its own tail.

Helmets Honored

Trophies Ribbons Go to Horse Show Winners

The skill from a full summer's riding was in evidence when boys and girls from 6 through 18 years competed in the various events of the Youth Activity Horse Show Friday, Sept. 6. This is the closing event of the season for the young riders.

Handsome trophies went to first place winners, and winners through tenth place received ribbons.

As this was the final event in which County Agent Sammy Helmers will participate with the 4-H Riding Club before leaving for his new post at Sierra Blanca, the riding club members presented a handsome silver tray to him and his wife, Jean.

Winners in the various horse show events were:

Balloting Under Way in ASCS Elections

Wednesday, Sept. 18 is the deadline for mailing ballots in the annual ASCS community committee elections. Millard Brown, county office manager, has announced.

Ballots were mailed Friday, Sept. 6 to all eligible voters, including farm owners and operators and their wives.

This election determines the farmers who represent their communities as delegates to the county convention. Although the ballots contain the slate of nominees, write-ins are permitted.

Mr. Brown reminded that the nominee getting the most votes will be the chairman of the community committee, the one who gets the second largest number of votes, the vice chairman; and the third largest number, the regular member. Those ranking fourth and fifth will be the alternates.

The three community committeemen will serve as delegates to the county convention to elect farmers to fill vacancies on the ASCS committee.

The ballots will be counted in the ASCS office on Friday, Sept. 20, at 9 a.m. Anyone wishing to watch the counting of the ballots may do so, Mr. Brown said.

The nominees for community committeemen are:

A Community, North Wellington: C. A. Amerson, Raymond Barton, Buster Bounds, Richard Fourmentin, Horace Holliman, Shelton Nunnelle and Ted J. Wheeler.

B Community, Dodson: Kenneth Hudson, Louis Patterson, Fred Covey, Grover Graham, Garland Hightower, Robert Hightower, Tommy Lewis, Joe Tarver, Dennis Holland, and Lee White, Jr.

C Community, South Wellington: Earl Bowen, Danny Davis, Albert Fulcher, Benson Long, Leslie Moore, and Harold Scott.

D Community, Quail: Fred Bourland, Roy Canada, P. P. Fielding, Orbie L. Hartman, Lonnie Neeley and Delbert White.

E Community, Dozier-Samnorwood: Denzil Deger, Fred Johnson, Herman Oldham, Sam Seago, Jack Stafford, and Otis L. Tate.

F Community, Lutie: Everett W. Fain, C. R. Hankins, Otis Offutt, Leon Owens, M. W. Paschall and A. S. Whitson.

Group Here for Taylor Rites

A group of out of town relatives were here to attend the rites of Mildred Henard Taylor.

These included Mrs. John Henard, Sr.'s brother, Sam White and granddaughter, Miss Aileen White of Encino, N.M.; also Mr. and Mrs. Jim White of Alamogordo, N.M.;

Mr. and Mrs. George Corry of Littlefield; Mrs. J. T. Carter, Johnny Carter and Vickie Carter of Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Hatchitt of Quannah; Mrs. Laverne Burkard of Sweetwater;

Mrs. Roy Vaughan of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Vaughan and Penny of Albuquerque, N.M.; Mrs. Robert White of Santa Rosa, N.M.; and Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Morris and Janet of El Paso.

Men In Service

BILOXIE, Miss. — Sergeant Jimmy C. Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Taylor of Shamrock has been graduated from a U.S. Air Force technical school at Keesler AFB, in Mississippi.

He was trained as a computer repairman and has been assigned to a unit of the Strategic Air Command at March AFB, California.

The sergeant is a graduate of Samnorwood High School.

His wife is the former Pamela K. Bjerke.

A kid's got a right to some privacy too.

If your kid's been hiding out lately when he gets on the phone, take the hint. There are probably some things he'd rather discuss without an audience around. And he's entitled. After all, asking a girl out at his age is hard enough. But when the whole family's listening in, a guy could freeze. Help loosen young Don Juan's tongue. Call your General Telephone business office and get him an extension phone. Then he can have his tête-à-têtes without feeling self-conscious.

When a kid feels you don't want to listen in on all his private conversations, he's more apt to tell you about them. An extension phone gives him that choice.

Yea Rockets! We're With You All The Way

Deck's DIDACTICS

—By Deskins Wells

Frank Anderson understands that each state will have only one vote if enough votes are cast for Wallace to throw the election into the House of Representatives. What he wants to know is how the one vote of any state will be decided. The constitution says that if a state is evenly split or can't agree, it loses its vote.

Each state will vote as a unit and in the few cases in the past when the president was selected by this method, the ballot was secret. Of the three top contenders whoever first receives 26 will be elected. If no contender has won by January 20, inauguration day, the Senate will have elected a vice-president from the two leading contenders and he will be sworn in as president until such time as the House of Representatives made up its mind.

The Texas congressmen would have to get together and agree on the man they would support or the state would lose its one vote. They could not be bound to vote for Wallace even if he carried the state. Since most of them are Democrats it is presumed that most of them would vote for Humphrey although some of the Texas delegation do not care too much for Hubert.

The Fair has come and gone and people are lavish in their praise of every part of it, the parade, the exhibits, the horse show, the stock show, the barbecue, the singing, every part of it. The contribution of the young people to the success of this annual community enterprise was outstanding. Congratulations are in order from the head officials to the smallest exhibitor.

Work has begun on the Fair for 1969. They want to secure a carnival to add a gala atmosphere and provide more entertainment at night.

The feeling of fall is in the air and so is football excitement. This Friday the Rockets meet the Hollis Tigers, which is always a good game and in most years a fairly evenly matched contest. Both schools are about the same size and have about the same size squads on their varsity.

The coaches were agreeably surprised the other morning to come to work and find a new padded red and white studio couch installed in their office. It was a present from Paul Guthrie.

My neighbors are doing all right raising fruit this year. Mrs. Lillie Mickey won first prize on her peaches at the Fair and she says she would not have entered them if I had not written about them. Mrs. J. L. Burt has an olive tree that is loaded with fruit and they are larger than usual. At this time they look very much like green plums.

The crops have never looked better, the cotton greener and the maize heads redder than they do this fall. It is pleasant to drive over the county roads and see all the growing things. The doves seem to be more plentiful this year than ever before. Near Dodson the other day we came across a flight of doves sitting on the pavement with a few on telephone wires. Louise says there were more than a hundred. Every single dove had his head pointed south.

the family went on to get lumber for their home.

Upon coming here, Mr. Holland filed on a place northeast of Dodson.

He was married to Miss Myrtle Scivally in 1907, and in 1910, they moved to the Rolla community, where they lived three years before returning to Dodson and the place that has been the family's home since then.

Mrs. Holland preceded him in death in 1957.

Services for Mr. Holland were conducted at 2 p.m. Monday at South Baptist Church, Dodson, by Dr. Bill Hendricks of Fort Worth, a former pastor of the church. Burial was in McKnight Cemetery east of Dodson under the direction of Coley Funeral Home.

Surviving Mr. Holland are two sons, Truett Holland and Dennis Holland of Dodson, and a granddaughter, Janet Holland of Wellington.

CHAMPION FIDDLERS

Winner of the second annual Old Fiddlers Contest Saturday, September 7, was Dick Barrett of Pottsboro, who grew up at Quail and Lone Mound. The champion guitar player was Keith Osborn of Perryton.

Keith Davis Honored

Ross and Coffee Exhibit Stock Show Champions

A Hereford steer, shown by Joey Ross of Quail, was named Grand Champion of the livestock division of the Collingsworth County Free Fair in the judging Saturday, Sept. 7. The steer also won first place in the division for calves weighing 851 pounds and over.

Joey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ross.

The Reserve Champion was a Charolais exhibited by Keith Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Martin, which a few minutes earlier had been judged first place winner in the division for beef calves under 850 pounds.

Country Group to Hear FU National Head

A group representing Collingsworth County Farmers Union will be in Lubbock Thursday, Sept. 12, to hear National Farmers Union President Tony Dechant of Denver, Colo., who will be the principal speaker at the Lubbock County F.U. banquet.

This will be the second time they have heard this dynamic speaker, as he appeared at Wellington in a similar capacity a little more than a year ago.

In Lubbock, Mr. Dechant will make a major farm policy address dealing with federal farm policy and proposed commodity legislation.

Mr. Dechant was elected president of the National Farmers Union in 1966 and serves as president of several business enterprises which are affiliates of the National Farmers Union. He is a native of Kansas and has been associated with the National Farmers Union since 1946, having previously served as the secretary-treasurer.

The Collingsworth group also plans to attend the reception to be held in his honor from 4 to 6 p.m., hosted by District 2 Farmers Union.

Mr. Dechant will tour South Plains agriculture, including a stop at the High Plains Research Foundation at Halfway, if time permits.

death April 5, 1952. He was then married to Mrs. Vada Wynn on March 3, 1963.

Funeral services were conducted at 3 p.m. Tuesday, at the Church of Christ in Dodson with Minister Van Bonneau and Minister Claud Walkup of Gould officiating. Burial was in Memorial Gardens, Wellington, under the direction of Kelso Funeral Home.

Palbearers were Ted Holsomback, C. C. Comfort, Jr., Bryan Harris, Mike Burk, Marvin Wynn and Lynell Black.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Vada Harris; three daughters, Mrs. C. C. Comfort of Dallas, Mrs. R. D. Todd of Hamilton, and Mrs. F. C. Holsomback of Plainview; a step-son and stepdaughter, Phil Wynn of Coahoma, and Mrs. Newell Burk of Floydada; 11 grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Other survivors are three brothers and three sisters: Lee Harris of Lubbock, Jim Harris and W. B. Harris of Wellington, Mrs. Ethel Tipton of Frederick, Okla., Mrs. Dewitt Laughter of Portales, N.M., and Mrs. Bill McDonald of Wellington.

The champion gilt shown by Sammy Coffee of Wellington was picked as the Grand Champion in the swine division. Coffee's winner, a Poland China, took first place also in the division for gilts over 6 months. The young winner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Coffee.

The Reserve Champion, another Poland China, was entered by Keith Davis and also was the second place winner in the division for gilts over 6 months, Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Davis are Keith's parents.

Keith scored again when he was chosen to receive the showmanship award presented annually by Rolling Plains Production Credit Association.

The winners in the stock show were announced by County Agent Sammy Helmers:

Beef Calves

Heavy steers: first and grand champion, Joey Ross; second, Stevie Marsh; third, Pam Marsh; fourth, Teddy Martin; fifth, Joey Ross.

Light calves: first, Keith Martin; second, Lyna Coleman.

Burial Services Held Here for Former Resident

John Gilbert Davis, 88, a former Wellington resident, died in St. Joseph's Hospital Sunday morning, Sept. 8. He had lived at Brownwood several years before entering Thomas Nursing Home here about two months ago.

Graveside services were conducted at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday in Fairview Cemetery, Wellington, with the Rev. Dan Beltz, pastor of First Baptist Church of McLean officiating. Arrangements were directed by Lamb Funeral Home of McLean.

Mr. Davis was born in Red River County and came to the Wellington-Shamrock area in 1922. He was a retired farmer.

Mr. Davis was a Baptist.

Survivors include eight children: Mrs. Ruby Pierce of Guthrie, Okla.; Mrs. Fern Johns, Mrs. Wyvonne Thompson, J. H. Davis and F. D. Davis, all of Amarillo; E. A. Davis of Dimmitt, W. A. Davis of McLean and W. C. Davis of Hereford.

Other survivors are two brothers, W. C. Davis of Lubbock, and Archie Davis of Ft. Worth; 21 grandchildren, 24 great grandchildren, and two great great grandchildren.

Lt. Jackie Daves

Daves Gets Army Com.

FT. SILL, Okla.—Jackie L. Daves, son of Mrs. Louella L. Daves, Wellington, was commissioned a second lieutenant upon graduation from the Officer Candidate School of the Army Artillery and Missile Center, Ft. Sill, Okla., Aug. 6.

Gunnery was the primary subject taught during the 23-week course, designed to prepare men for officer duties in artillery units. He was also trained in artillery survey and transport, communications, map and aerial-photo readings, electronics, counterinsurgency and leadership.

The 23-year-old lieutenant received his bachelors degree from West Texas State University, Canyon, in 1967.

His wife, Sandra, lives in Lawton.

DPH Worker Visits City

Darrell W. Morris, regional field representative for the Texas Department of Health, Austin, was in Wellington Tuesday, Sept. 10, checking on the immunization of children and adults in the city and county.

He contacted Dr. Chas. B. Jones, city health officer, for information concerning immunization for measles, whooping cough, tetanus, diphtheria, polio, smallpox, etc.

Mr. Morris is with the Department of Health immunization project at Lubbock.

Terms Describing Condition of Hospital Patients Told

What does it mean when a hospital spokesman says a patient is critically ill?

So that Collingsworth residents may be more familiar with the terms which describe the condition of someone who is under treatment, Sister Perpetua, administrator of St. Joseph's Hospital, has given the following descriptions.

The vital signs referred to are blood pressure, pulse and respirations.

"Good"—Vital signs are stable and within normal limits, patient is conscious and comfortable and his prognosis is good or excellent.

"Fair"—Vital signs are stable and within normal limits, patient is conscious, the prognosis is favorable, but he is uncomfortable or may have minor complications.

"Serious"—Acutely ill with questionable prognosis, vital signs may be unstable or not within normal limits, and there is a chance for improved prognosis.

"Critical"—Questionable prognosis, vital signs are unstable and not within normal limits, there are major complications and death may be imminent.
