

Babson's Authentic Report

By ROGER W. BABSON

BABSON DISCUSSES RESERVES

Babson Park, Fla., Feb. 20—Too many people are careless with their money today, both in connection with investing and spending. Some "wise boys" are even unnecessarily borrowing money with the idea of paying up their mortgages with "phony" money when, as, and if inflation becomes rampant. Such policies are the biggest kind of gambling.

ADVICE TO SMALL BUSINESS MEN

Big business, which has had experience in Germany, France and other countries that have really suffered from inflation, will not get caught. It has learned from experience the great need of large reserves during an inflation period. In fact, as inflation advances, every concern should more than proportionally increase its reserves.

This especially applies to small businessmen who have not extensive credit facilities. They now fail to realize that when inflation gets well under way it will be very difficult to get credit either from banks or from wholesalers. As prices will be going up without notice, and goods will be worth more than money, wholesalers will give no credits. All goods will need more working capital than at present.

ADVICE TO WAGE WORKERS

Wage workers also need to lay up reserves during the next two or three years as well as do their employers. Systematically save a portion of your weekly wages. Some day you will be confronted with a lot of unemployment. Now is the time for you and your family to prepare for it and lay a reserve aside in bank accounts or Victory Bonds.

Don't be content to build up only money reserves. When unemployment starts in again the least efficient workers will be let go first. Those who show the most interest in, and knowledge of, their work will be kept and promoted. Ask your boss to recommend some trade paper to which you can subscribe or some correspondence course which will help you. Store up knowledge in your head as well as money in the bank.

WHAT ABOUT INVENTORIES?

The average retailer now is carrying only a portion of the items normally carried. Moreover, the supplies of these items are much less than normal. Putting these two factors together it will be seen that much more capital will be required to carry a normal inventory as inflation progresses.

Certain big corporations now have the reserves to weather the inflation storm but this is not so with the small merchant or manufacturer. Many small stores will someday be crowded out. This will not be due to "bigness" but because the large concerns are now saving their profits and are paying small dividends while the little ones are pulling out all their profits for their families to spend foolishly.

WHAT ARE THE BEST RESERVES?

There are many ways for small businessmen to store up reserves. What I have said above the wage workers applies also to the shopkeepers and little manufacturers. Now is the time to spend money and hours on study to become more efficient in your own line. Of course, money in the bank is always a good reserve. Non-perishable and standard inventories are good reserves to have stored away.

During the troublesome years that business will some day encounter, other reserves than money or merchandise will be needed. Looking back over my 50 years in active business, I am greatly impressed with the relationship between physical reserves and business success. Unknown men who have the physical reserves to "take the gaff" rather than the "brilliant leaders" are the ones who survive panics and depressions.

LET'S NOT FORGET THE SPIRITUAL RESERVES

I must say a word about all-important spiritual reserves. There is an old saying, "Troubles never come singly." When things are going well it is easy to forget God and the Church and Prayer. Then when troubles come we complain because we cannot quickly get that all-powerful help from Faith for which we are so hungry. To enjoy spiritual help in time of trouble, we must build it up in our daily lives when things are going well. Before going to bed tonight read in your Bible how Jesus ended up His famous Sermon on the Mount as told in Matthew, Chapter 7, verses 24-29.

Chamber of Commerce Begins Work of New Year With Members and Others Ready to Get the Best for Snyder

The Scurry County Chamber of Commerce banquet was staged in the High School gymnasium to a very enthusiastic and appreciative audience.

The tables were decorated by Mrs. W. R. Bell, Mrs. Carl Whitefield and Mrs. W. J. Koonrod. The floral decorations consisted of beautiful carnations, while a colorful aspect was added by a background of flags of all Nations.

The program consisting of the following numbers was received in a very gracious spirit: Invocation, Rev. J. Wm. Mason; introduction of Toast Master Harley Sadler by Clifford Rogers; Piano solo, Mrs. L. A. Chapman; dinner was served by Mrs. Robert Hickman of the Manhattan Hotel Dining Room; dinner music by Mr. John Simmons; Vocal solo by Mr. John Simmons; Sweetwater for Sweetwater Church; Address by Boyce House of Fort Worth. Mr. H. L. Wren introduced the new directors as well as the directors that were held over. Mr. Sam Williams the new president gave a summary of the overall program for the year. Mr. Myron Roe led the audience in singing the National Anthem.

This banquet was served to some 350 people of which the following were out of town guests: Hermligh, M. U. Vernon, and J. R. Covey; Knapp, Mr. and Mrs. Nolan von Roeder; Hamlin, Willard Jones O. D. Rowland, Dickie Ferguson; Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Trout; Sweetwater, Laura Pitman, T. P. Johnson, L. A. Wilkie, Bob Cook, Mr. and Mrs. John Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Lightfoot; Abilene, Hamilton Wright and Merle Reese; Roby, C. R. Lamond Mr. and Mrs. Lon Adams; Stamford A. C. Bishop, and R. T. Taylor; Rotan, H. V. Vittow, C. C. Cat, Edwin L. Siggins, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Dalton, Mr. and Mrs. Odie Brown, J. V. Younger, Colorado City, John Baze, Dale Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Bullock, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sadler; Fort Worth, Mrs. Ruby Hammond.

The Directors and Manager of the Chamber of Commerce wish to express their thanks to those who helped to make this program a success, namely Burton Lingo Lumber Co., for lumber; the Church of Christ, for chairs; the Methodist Church, for silver ware, and piano; the First Baptist Church for chairs and silver ware; to Mrs. Hielman for a splendid meal; and especially to those who came to help; to Mrs. York for lending her lunch room; to Johnson Davis for getting all the necessary items borrowed, and to Mrs. Bell and her committee on decorations. May we say thanks.

Scurry County Chamber of Commerce is backing the Junior Live Stock Show 100 percent. To the FFA and 4-H Club boys of Scurry County, we take this means of expressing to you our joy and pleasure in the splendid way in which you have carried on this program. We realize that it has been difficult to stay enthusiastic about this work, due to the fact that our County Agent left and you had to carry on with only the advice and help of the different V. A. teachers of the high schools could find time to give.

We are expecting the best show ever staged in Scurry County on March 2nd. The boys will have the calves, hogs, and sheep to show, and believe me they are fine. The thing we want to insist upon is that the people avail themselves of the opportunity of seeing these prize animals. Don't forget to tell these boys that their calves, hogs, and sheep are fine. They have not spent the past several months raising these animals just for the pleasure they got out of feeding them though that is a fine lesson which every boy must learn if he is to be a good stockman. These fellows are going to determine the quality and type of livestock raised in Scurry County in the future. Scurry County Chamber of Commerce is ready and willing to encourage these boys every way possible.

Associate minister of Snyder's Church of Christ is S. L. Morgan, former Snyder Schools teacher, and a chaplain in the U. S. Army.

Brother Morgan, who is widely known as Shirley, has preached in Scurry County for the past 10 years. He taught school here and at Dunn, Ira and Hermleigh.

Shirley volunteered for service in the army in October of 1942. He served as chaplain with the 87th Division until sent overseas in the spring of 1944.

Morgan landed at Oro Bay in June, 1944, and was assigned to the Port Organization at Finschhafen, New Guinea.

While with the organization, Morgan moved to the Admiralty Islands to join the First Cavalry Division for the Leyte invasion. He served on Leyte until return to the United States on December 18, 1945.

Morgan holds three stars with the Asiatic-Pacific Ribbon, Philippines Liberation ribbon with one star, the Victory Ribbon and American Defense Ribbon.

Morgan has assumed work with the Church of Christ in Snyder and at Hermleigh. He preaches each Sunday at Hermleigh and Wednesday for mid-week services at Snyder. His office is located in the Snyder Church of Christ.

Morgan graduated from Abilene Christian College in 1935. He did graduate work at Texas Tech. College, Lubbock, in 1938. He was song director and preached during his college career. He also worked with the congregation at Gilmer, Upsher, County.

Crop Insurance Must Be Taken Out Before Planting of Seeds

Application for Federal Cotton Crop Insurance must be signed before the crop is planted, Joe B. Adams, Chairman of the County ACA Committee, pointed out today.

In Scurry County the deadline for obtaining insurance on the 1946 crop is April 10, the ACA official explained, but he emphasized that the applications must be made before the crop is covered.

The insurance covers all unavoidable risks, such as hail, drought, flood, excessive rains, insects, diseases, wind, frost, snow, wild fire, hurricanes and tornadoes, but it does not protect against avoidable losses such as negligence, damage to quality, or failure to prepare land, plant or cultivate according to good practices.

To date four applications for insurance have been filed in the county ACA office. Producers wishing to take out insurance can sign up either in the county offices or with official FCIC sales agents in the county, which are Snyder National Bank, Sweetwater Production Credit Association, and Mrs. C. J. Lewis.

The insurance is available to all producers, and those who are not reached by the agents should come to the office to sign up.

Local Men Visit In Sweetwater for CC Banquet and Speech

Snyder was represented last Thursday evening, Sweetwater Chamber of Commerce Membership Banquet, by Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Deffebach and Sam W. Williams, local Chamber of Commerce president.

Principal speaker at the Sweetwater banquet was Jimmie Ghene of New York City, a very capable after dinner speaker. Ghene is not only a super entertainer but a very informative man in public.

Troop 35 Scouts Open Hiking Season Early

Accompanied by Scoutmaster Clifford Rogers, members of Snyder's Boy Scout Troop No. 35 hiked out Monday afternoon to the Graham farm, four miles east of town on the Roby highway, and enjoyed an open air, Spout cooked supper.

A total of 23 Boy Scouts participated in the four-mile hike and after a beautiful meal, the entire group hiked back to town.

Scoutmaster Rogers reports the Scouts showed keen enthusiasm in the outing and with spring weather arriving, more outings of the club used Monday evening can be planned.

American Legion To Select Cast for Play

At a called meeting of Snyder's American Legion Post this (Thursday) evening, cast will be selected for the forthcoming Legion-sponsored play, "Lucifer's Lodge."

Proceeds from the forthcoming production will be utilized to redecorate the entire Legion Hut, located four blocks west of the square on 25th Street.

As materials become available, the Legion Hut will be redecored with new paint, drapes, ping pong sets, chairs, pool tables, floor lamps, tables and other fixtures.

Legion officials like Bob McKinney, commander, J. V. Robinson, adjutant, and Edson Lambert, entertainment chairman, believe the play will provide more than ample funds for the project. An all-male cast will be used.

Plans Completed For Methodists Revival Meeting

Plans for the spring revival meeting at Snyder's First Methodist Church are being completed, Rev. O. B. Herring, pastor, reports, and with each passing week indications point to a better revival than held here in several years.

Rev. Herring announces that Rev. W. E. Peterson, pastor of the First Methodist Church at Plainview, will conduct preaching services for the revival.

Rev. Peterson is perhaps the outstanding pastor-evangelist in the Northwest Texas Methodist Conference. He is a gospel preacher people of this trade territory will want to hear.

Rev. W. M. Culwell, preacher of McCullough Methodist Church at Pampa, will be in charge of song services and work with the young people and children.

Rev. Culwell will delight your heart, church officials state, as he leads the choir and congregation in singing the great songs of the church. He is one of the best solo singers in this part of Texas.

This Spring Revival will begin Sunday, March 17 and will be held through Sunday, March 31.

Officers Installed For WSCS Sunday

Due to transposition of heads, The Times last week ran under this two-line head, "Officers Installed For WSCS Sunday" list of new Chamber of Commerce officers installed Friday evening.

Correction on the Woman's Society of Christian Service, and original story on same follows:

In conjunction with regular services last Sunday evening, officers of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, Snyder Methodist Church were installed in a brief but impressive ceremony.

Rev. O. B. Herring, pastor, presented each officer with a symbol of her office.

Officers then knelt at the altar, while Rev. Herring led a prayer and the congregation sang, "Must Jesus Bear the Cross Alone?"

Police Foil Effort To Rob Johnson Motor Line Office

Snyder's city police force was really on the job Monday night when an attempt was made to burglarize Johnson Motor Lines.

Monday night, at a late hour, a car was discovered in the alley back of the transport lines. A city policeman interrogated the occupant of said vehicle, who said he was resting. . . . It was suggested the car occupant pull around in front of a street light, and evidently this threw a wrench in burglary plans.

Anyway, the padlock on the back door was unfurnished, and a typewriter, missed from the office, was found in the alley. Theory is that a burglar was in the building when the car occupant had to drive away, and when the typewriter "borrower" brought the machine out he got panicky and left it in the alley.

An adding machine had been carried from one room of the motor lines to another, but nothing else, evidently, had been misplaced.

Citizens Reminded Of Need For Spring Lot, Yard Cleaning

Trash hauling time is here again, Snyder citizens are reminded this week, and with many people breaking up gardens, need for cleaning vacant lots, alleys and back yards of all trash, tin cans and refuse is keenly evident.

Too, citizens are again reminded that a morale boost for the town will be taking of all dead dogs, cats and chickens to the city dump grounds.

Practice of dumping trash along roads and lanes in the edge of town continues, at intervals, but with a firm admonition, it is believed that Snyder people will refrain from further trash dumping—unless it be at city dump grounds.

SHERIFF, JUDGE AND THREE COMMISSIONERS DOWN STATE

Sheriff Earl H. Strawn, County Judge F. C. Hairston and three of the county commissioners, Ted Haney, Jones Chapman and T. B. Knight, made a business trip to Huntsville Monday, with prearranged plans to return to Snyder Wednesday.

Mrs. Thaba Groves had charge of Judge Hairston's office while he was out of town.

Climaxing an unceasing swirl of activity for the past month incorporating the aid and enthusiasm of ranchers, farmers, hard-working FFA and 4-H club members and boosters, business and professional men, as well as the good will and assistance of the entire county, the Second Annual Junior Live Stock Show swung into its final stage of readiness this week with nothing to wait for now except March 2nd—the important exhibition date.

According to a report from Hugh Taylor, president of the Junior Live Stock Association, all money is on the barrel-head for prompt payment of the premium list, all entries added, which include 45 calves, 50 sheep and 35 hogs. Then, pointing to progress the show has made in one year, Taylor said the number of exhibits is probably no larger than last year, but that finer animals are in evidence throughout every department.

Plans have been made to accommodate one of the largest throngs of people in years, since the pulling power of the show will be tempered by special price inducements on merchandise for Saturday's trade of that date. As one merchant stated: "I am for the show, and I intend to bring my part of the people to town with prices that will actually pay them to come in and buy that day." With that type of cooperation from businessmen, show officials can expect people from miles beyond Snyder's regular trading area to be here.

Following the usual procedure, prize winning animals will be auctioned to the highest bidders. And with determination here to make the show stand out as one of West Texas' major events in the future, competition is likely to be keen in the bidding field.

Prize lists were carried in last week's Times, and will be reproduced for the convenience of readers and show officials again next week; plus a "booster edition" of the Times, and long-range publicity for the dailies is now being prepared here.

Many special articles are being prepared by club boys, Aggie department members, professional men, and an effort will be made by the Times to give due recognition to all of those who have worked diligently and untiringly to make the show a success.

Success for the show, Taylor as sets, is visible—now and for the future. "Proof," he emphasizes, "is on every corner. I have only to 'hint' for cooperation, and it is extended wherever I turn."

Attention of all Snyder and Scurry County singers is directed to the Monthly North Side Methodist Episcopal Church Singing Convention which will be staged Friday evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

People of this entire trade zone are extended a cordial invitation to attend the convocation, at which time both class and special singing will be featured.

Singers and song lovers are invited to bring all the copies they can possibly spare of Rainbow Rays, Humble Hearts and Living Grace.

Claude E. Patrick, song leader, informs The Times that plans have been completed for staging the North Side Missionary Baptist Church convention the fourth Friday night in each month.

OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES!

We're not suggesting that you pitch a teepee on our doorstep. But we know how much you, like so many other car owners, want B. F. Goodrich Silvertowns on your car, and we know why. Because you have heard that:

1. The new, better synthetic rubber developed by B. F. Goodrich makes Silvertowns run cooler, wear longer than prewar tires.
2. The 35% stronger tire body is made possible by a new, stronger cord, more cords per inch in the top ply, and an extra shock-absorbing breaker strip.
3. The new wider, flatter "road level" tread puts more rubber on the road to share the wear and provide quicker stops, better traction, and more safety on the turns.
4. More than 2,000 tests and 17,000,000 miles of the toughest kind of actual road service developed that the new B. F. Goodrich Silvertown outwears prewar natural rubber tires.

Time For Action

Not a person who attended Scurry County's Chamber of Commerce annual membership banquet Friday evening can advance one good reason why Snyder and Scurry County should not get to work, immediately, on the Chamber Commerce goals for 1946.

There is no reason—unless Snyder wants to stay in the horse and buggy stage and sit back and watch the town wither away when this flush population moves elsewhere—why we cannot begin on such worthwhile and permanent projects as:

Not only work, but unified cooperation with Scurry County's Commissioner Court in all road improvement projects for the county.

Lake and recreation resort for Scurry County worthy of this great trade zone. There is no reason why people should have to drive 45 miles to find suitable fishing premises, where lakes are stocked with fish. . . . There is no reason why Scurry County should be a county barren of lake reserves for gardening, watering lawns and for irrigation purposes if we deem that necessary.

A municipally owned airport, capable of accommodating planes of our major airlines and private craft from all quarters of the Southwest.

A brand new Federal Building for Snyder—a building truly worthy of the town for a morale boost now; a show of confidence in the present and a token of esteem for the future.

New businesses and small factories. We are not going to have new business concerns move to Snyder and set up factories or processing plants without some type of investment on our part—be that help in securing land, buying a reasonable amount of stock in new concerns or assistance in both and showing representatives of business firms that Snyder people WANT new life blood, new capital and new avenues of pay rolls. The idea that every person wanting to set up a new business is a nut, a crank or talking through "his hat" was never practical. Any new concern that has real merit, regardless of its program scope or activity, should have a hand in making Snyder a better town in which to live.

Extension of sewer lines. Snyder has, through the years, had a good reputation as a town. If we cannot get such an essential project as this over, without ding donging and causing a community "earthquake" we might as well build a fence around the town and say, whoever may see same: UNWANTED HERE. Mere mention of adequate sanitary facilities should be enough for any wide-awake county seat to take suitable action.

Recreational facilities — swimming pool, tennis courts and a park. Unless we want our children to grow up to roam the streets, without benefit of all the wholesome recreation they need, the social consequences will be, mainly, on shoulders of the parents and not the children.

Pasture Terracing

Practice of Scurry and Borden County ranchers in terracing, on the contour, pasture lands is constituting a trend that is attracting considerable interest from other section of the nation.

The Soil Conservation Service is due a great deal of credit for inducing farmers and ranchers to terrace pasture land and not only conserve the basis of our "permanent agriculture," which is the native West Texas grasses we have.

According to the Federal Reserve System, West Texas, like other parts of the Southwest, has already lost a great deal of irreplaceable top soil and can only hope to salvage the next best thing, what top soils we do have that have not gone down the Brazos and Colorado Rivers.

Pasture terracing was practiced a lot earlier in history than we think, and a return to said means of saving soil will mean that our grandchildren can live on land that will make a substantial living and a profit for whatever type of agriculture or livestock pursuits they may care to follow.

TOP HEAVY TAXES

The Census Bureau summary of finances of state and local government for 1942 shows that their total revenue for that year was $13,136,786,000, and it goes without saying that there has been no subsequent decline in state and local taxation, but in many instances a rise. If the $13,000,000,000 is added to a probable revenue of more than $30,000,000,000 which will be collected by the federal government in 1946, the total tax "take" from the people would amount to one-third of a national income of $132,000,000,000.

The process of taxation is widely diffused, much of it hidden, but the net effect is obviously a burden on the people and productive enterprise. Despite that fact, sentiment persists in favor of increased governmental services that necessitate higher levies upon the people and business. The policy of public extravagance above the reasonable ability of the people to pay gained great impetus in the national government during the depression and war years. The policy of public economy is now in order, but it will be practiced only if the people demand it.—The Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

BY LEON GUINN

Secretary of State Byrnes is hitting the nail on the head when he says, off the record, that we can have no real peace in Europe until we get our occupying armies home. . . . For this reason he is very anxious to get the European peace treaties signed. . . . In effect, Byrnes said that there never was an occupying army that wasn't a hated army. . . . Too, fraternization with girls in occupied zones is causing an under current of unrest that could well have grave social consequences.

Another consideration in getting our armies of occupation home, soon, is that an idle army is always a badly behaved army and this should have heavy weight with the military "brass hats" who will have to make the decision on this matter—sooner or later. . . . Really, we cannot occupy all of the world forever, no matter what we set our goal as, and we might as well begin to pull up stakes now and get our men back in the states while we have no greater disorders than already prevalent in occupied zones over the world.

There emerges the fact, this week, that some keen maneuvering had to be done to keep the Army from dumping the German administrative problem into the State Department's lap immediately. . . . During the war, it will be recalled, the army would not listen to the department's repeated warning that the Nazi occupation was bound to be, one time or another, a mess. . . . The State Department, significantly, is refusing to take over the botched administrative task.

The word is getting around, generally, that Australia has plans already in the operative stage for the greatest immigration project in history. . . . It's a drive, the average citizen learns, for an increase, three fold, in the country's population of 7,000,000 persons. . . . One delegation from the "country down under" has been sent to Europe to make a survey to find out just how many British, Norwegian, Swedish, Dutch, Swiss and other emigrants can be attracted to the island continent. . . . In order to be able to deal with the economic problems that would go such a program, Australia has set the "ceiling" for the first few years at 70,000 persons annually.

Is it a rather regrettable thing to observe the general deterioration of Russia and American relations since Germany quit World War II fighting, and now U. S. Government officials are becoming resigned to Russia's boycott of the forthcoming conference on international trade to which the U. S. has invited the world's 14 major trading nations. Not a word, you may note, has been heard from Moscow since the invitations were sent our early in December, and all the rest of the Big Five nations have accepted. . . . The Soviet Union, you may rest assured, is far from pleased with the objectives—lowering of world tariff barriers.

The end of the rainbow has been reached in the fact the trend in which the U. S. lost gold steadily from November, 1942, has been stopped. . . . A wartime marvel, one of history's great gold movements has gone almost unnoticed—and resulted from U. S. dollar payments for most purchases abroad. . . . Exports, largely, from 1942 to date, were made under Lend-Lease and produced very little exchange of the dollar. . . . It is rather astonishing to learn that there is some $25,000,000,000 in gold and dollars held abroad. . . . Russia and Great Britain are considered, at the moment, as the two great mystery centers in gold movement, and from the sealed lips of these peoples we will learn very little.

Ford Motor Company doubtless has "something really good on the ball" in the form of a hydraulically driven automobile that promises to eliminate gears and their attendant worries—when cars age from driving and storage. . . . Ray Russell, a Detroit engineer, designed the gear-less car in which the engine's crankshaft is connected with pumps, and under oil pressure is utilized to drive all four wheels through individual hydraulic motors. . . . Russell's design does away, completely, with the conventional transmission of a motor car, the drive shaft and the differential.

There is growing sentiment for a drive to give much tighter enforcement of the Child Labor Laws. . . . The Children's Bureau of the Labor Department, for example, recently won some injunctions in a U. S. Court of Appeals against employment of under-age workers by two Mississippi packers (vegetable), after losing in a lower court. . . . The bureau plans, also, to tighten regulations governing issuance of work permits to minors. . . . when it gets to a point, in this rich land of ours, that we have to depend on the children as the "bread winners" of a family, than some good tarring and feathering will indeed be in high order.

An economic study now circulating in Washington compares the living standards of average wage earners in leading nations.

On this comparative basis, Russia is where the United States was in 1790; Italy is about the U. S. of 1812; Germany matches us at 1860; and England enjoys the living standard of the U. S. of 1870.—Eustis, Florida, Lake Region.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

1. Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.
2. Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic trouble.

Try Cardui. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.

The Junior class presented the play, "Good Gracious Grandma," Thursday night and it was attended by a large crowd. The characters performed wonderfully for it to have been the first appearance on the stage.

The play netted $72.88 which will be used to sponsor the Senior Banquet.

Hermleigh was host to the Dunn grade school basketball boys and girls teams last Friday with the host team winning both games. The boys won 12 to 3 and the girls 8 to 4.

The boys were: Jimmie Lyn Fritz, Center; Rex Robinson and Bill Voss, forwards; Carl Williams and A. B. Pylant guards.

We failed to state last week that Rev. L. Guy Ament of Snyder was a guest speaker at the P. T. A. meeting held on Thursday night, February 7, and we were requested to make this statement.

J. R. Covey announces that the spring football training will begin Monday, March 4 and will continue about four weeks with about 30 boys training. Nine of the boys are letter men and eight have had some experience but the rest are practically new. Gordon May will coach the kickers and anyone else who has had any experience in football is invited to help train these boys. Covey says he wants to mold them into a great machine ready for speedy action this fall and there is a bright prospect for the best team Hermleigh has ever had. Soft ball will follow this four weeks training.

The boys and girls plan to attend the basketball invitation tournament at Dunn next week. An invitation tournament will be held here this Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Ex-convict Van Voss and his brother-in-law ex-private Alvis (Bula) Sturdivant have arrived home with honorable discharges from the A. A. P. Van served 27 months at the Lubbock Army Air Field, then was sent to Keesler Field, Mississippi, where he trained eight months before getting his orders to sail overseas. Alvis stayed at Lubbock 33 months before going to Chanute Field, Illinois where he was stationed two months before getting orders to go across. The two men met here and went to a west coast port of embarkation from where they sailed to Luzon Island on October 8, 1945. They were stationed within three miles of each other and returned to the states on the same ship. They enlisted within three days of each other and received their discharges at San Antonio on February 8 about 15 minutes apart.

Citizens Requested to Aid In Finding Farms That Veterans Want To Buy

In the face of a sharp increase in number of veterans seeking farms in Scurry County, Gerald G. Gordon, Scurry County FSA supervisor, this week urges all local citizens to give him a hand in locating farms for either sale or lease.

New loans for livestock and operating goods have been made by FSA in this county to 40 returned servicemen since V-J Day. A great number of others have inquired but have been unable to get land to rent, or lease.

Besides these, more than 50 veterans have made application for 40-year land purchase loans, but lack of available farms at reasonable prices has greatly hindered this program.

"Already a few patriotic citizens, who want to do more for the returning serviceman than just wish them well, have offered to sell at reasonable prices land for family-sized farms," Gordon declared.

"But we need much more such assistance. One man sold his land for $10 an acre less to two veterans, than he could have gotten on the open market."

Congress has provided through FSA the funds for the two types of loans mentioned above — land purchase loans and operating loans — to assist veterans. The supervisor indicated, however, that unless and until the veterans can find the farms they want to buy or operate, these loans mean nothing.

"Anyone who has a large tract of land from which he is willing to sell or lease a veteran a family sized farm, please contact the FSA office," concludes Mr. Gordon. The office is located in the basement of the Fair Store. Office hours are from 8:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m. Mondays through Friday.

FARM MACHINE CUT THE PERILS OF 1946 CROPS

Farm equipment output has been hit so hard by strikes that the resulting shortage of tractors and implements may cut 1946 agricultural production.

Many products will be "out-seasoned by lack of plows, planters, cultivators and other equipment needed in the spring, according to one manufacturer, who usually makes this equipment during the winter.

Spring Is Just Around The Corner

It is time for you to be thinking about those planting seed you will be needing.

Some time back we booked some State Certified grain sorghum seed for March 1st delivery. Rumors kept coming in that good planting seed would be scarce this Spring on account of the drought on the South Plains last year (where farmers go in for Certified Seed in a big way). We made a trip to Lubbock last week, which is the distributing point for these seed, and found that the situation does not look too bright, especially if there is any replanting this Spring, as is often the case. Seed houses have been offered a premium outside this territory for good planting seed, but they have been considerate enough to hold enough to furnish this area unless we have too many wash-outs, etc., at planting time.

See Us For Your Needs In Good Planting Seed

If we do not have what you want, we will do our best to get it for you.

Methodist Women Hold Regular Meeting In Cloud Home

The Woman's Society of Christian Service, Snyder's First Methodist Church, met in the home of Mrs. P. W. Cloud Monday afternoon.

Subject for the program was "Congo Gifts Through the Cross." Mrs. Pearl Martin, who had charge of the devotional, gave talks on "The Gift of Rightful Pride in Ancestry," "The Gift of Sincere and Heart Searching Prayer," "The Gift of Spiritual Aspirations," and "The Gift of Song in the Midst of Sorrow."

Two songs, "Near the Cross" and "Rise Up Oh Men of God" were sung. Following these numbers, Mrs. M. W. Clark closed the devotional with prayer.

Mrs. O. B. Herring gave "The Star of Hope is Risen," Mrs. Thaba Groves "The Star of Hope Shines Upon a Gracious Land," Mrs. Lee "The Star of Hope Ascends" and Mrs. Herring "The Dawning of the Morning."

The program was then turned to Mrs. Birdwell, president and the minutes were read. Each committee chairman gave a report on her work and those who attended the services in Roscoe gave a talk on the topic that interested her most while there.

Mrs. M. W. Clark closed with a prayer and delicious refreshments were served to 18 regular members and two new members, Mrs. W. T. Higgins and Mrs. Holly Shuler. Officers of the WSCS urge each member to attend the regular meetings.

LONG DISTANCE has a goal to reach

Our goal in long distance is to get every call through without delay. Right now we're doing that on about three out of every four.

More and more calls will go through without delays as our 1946 construction program moves ahead. By the end of the year, the Bell System plans to put in more miles of long distance circuits than it did during the five years before the war.

Meanwhile, because there are still more calls than circuits can handle without some folks waiting, we'll appreciate your patience until we can give you the better, faster service that's on the way.
