Ask Us

Q—It seems Scurry County has a lot of cancer deaths. How does the county compare with counties in Texas?

A—The latest available figures from 1989 show 27 cancer-related deaths in the county among a population of 20,158. By capita, Scurry County ranked 49th out of 254 counties that year, which put it in the lower one-fifth of counties with cancer-related deaths.

In Brief

Super collider

WASHINGTON (AP) — The super collider went on a roller-coaster ride through Congress this year, but has come out on top.

Congressional action on the $8.25 billion project was sealed for the year when the Senate voted late Thursday night to approve a $22 billion energy and water development appropriations package that includes the super collider money.

The action, which mirrors what the House did a week ago, now sends the appropriations package to President Bush's desk.

Income decline

WASHINGTON (AP) — Hurricane Andrew wiped out what would have been a substantial increase in Americans' personal income in August, the government said today.

Income fell 0.5 percent to a seasonally adjusted annual rate of $5.03 trillion last month, the worst drop in 19 months, the Commerce Department said. The overall income decline was more than accounted for by a storm-caused drop at an annual rate of $60 billion.

Andrew's demolition of property in southern Florida and south-central Louisiana reduced rental and business owners' income.

Citizens urged to check cards

Time is running out for those who haven't registered to vote in the November general election.

The final day to register in the county clerk's office is Friday, Oct. 2, said County Clerk Frances Billingsley. Anyone who has not registered may do so in her office on the third floor of the county courthouse from 8:30 a.m until 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Registration forms may also be picked up, completed at home and returned by mail, as long as they are postmarked no later than Oct. 5.

Billingsley encourages voters to make sure they have a valid blue and white registration card. Many times people will move from one precinct to another and forget that they must renew their voter's card, she said.

October 2 is also the final day a voter who has moved to a new address has to change a card in order to cast a ballot.

The Nov. 3 election not only includes the key presidential race between George Bush and Bill Clinton, but several locally contested races.

Local races heating up for Nov. 3 include that of 132nd District Judge, where Republican incumbent Gene L. Dulaney is being challenged by Democrat Marvin Sentell.

Democratic County Commissioner of Pct. 3; C.D. Gray Jr., is challenged by Republican Eddie Don Floyd, while appointed commissioner Jerry Morgan, a Republican representing Pct. 1, is challenged by Democrat Ralph W. Trevey.

There are two other locally contested races. Democratic incumbent Rona Sikes is facing Republican challenger Modean Riley Konvicka for county tax assessor. Bobby Goodwin, Democrat, and Republican Scott Crenwelge are running to fill a vacancy in the Pct. 1 constable's post.

In other races of local importance, Democratic U.S. Rep. Charles Stenholm is facing a challenge in District 17 from Republican candidate Jeannie Sadowski; Republican Tom Haywood is trying to unseat Democratic incumbent Steven Carriker for District 30 State Senator; and Democratic Railroad Commissioner Lena Guerrero is challenged by GOP candidate Barry Williamson.

The in-person early voting period begins Oct. 14 and ends Oct. 30. Anyone who is registered may vote during the early period. Early voting is accomplished at the county clerk's office.

First six weeks...

SHS failure rate drops

Less than 16 percent of the students at Snyder High School failed one or more subjects at the end of the first six weeks, a figure school officials say is encouraging.

"It's down a bunch," said Principal Gary Patterson, who pointed out that the high school failure rate during the first six weeks last year was 38 percent.

Of 922 students enrolled in high school, 146, or 15.8 percent, were failing one or more classes at the end of the six weeks period.

Patterson attributed the decline in the failure rate to the newly implemented tutorial period. Students who are failing a subject after three weeks are required to attend tutorial classes from 3-3:30 p.m. each day. Students who are passing may receive help if they want it, or may leave school at 3 p.m.

"Students who were failing after the first three weeks of school went into tutoring. That helped them at six weeks testing period," said Patterson.

He said it would take at least a semester to evaluate the tutorial period, but early indications — such as the failure rate at the end of the six weeks — are encouraging.

Sixty-three freshmen, or 22.4 percent of the ninth grade enrollment of 281, received a grade below passing.

Of 238 sophomores, 34, or 14.3 percent, had a failing grade and of 207 juniors, 33, or 15.9 percent, were struggling.

SHS's senior class of 196 handled their studies better. Only 16, or 8.2 percent, had a failing grade.

While students who are not passing all of their subjects must undergo tutoring, those involved in UIL extra-curricular activities are also not allowed to participate for six weeks.

According to numbers released by the high school, 14 out of 97 students playing football failed one or more class and are ineligible. These include two of 32 varsity players, three of 25 on the junior varsity and nine on the freshman squad of 40.

Tennis and volleyball lost no students to grades. Cross country lost two of 12.

Ten of the school's 135 band members failed to pass one or more subjects.

City to be fined $12,000 by TWC

The City of Snyder's fines for allowing improperly treated wastewater to be discharged into Deep Creek and removing a sewage treatment pond from service will apparently amount to $12,000.

City Manager John Gayle said he had not received confirmation of the penalty agreement this morning. He said he was told by a city-retained attorney on Wednesday that the penalty order would be approved in 10 days to two weeks. Gayle declined to comment until the city receives the executed order.

Gayle did note that the $12,000 fine is "considerably less" than the $30,000 originally estimated when the water commission began investigating the violations.

The penalties stem from two separate instances. In 1990, toxic chemicals flowed into the sewage plant which effectively destroyed the oxygen and led to a fish kill when the effluent was discharged into Deep Creek. City officials, armed with independent test studies, have charged that the toxic chemicals were placed into the system by The Western Company.

The Western Company denied the allegations. Its wash bay has since been disconnected from city wastewater services.

The second violation occurred in 1991 when the city removed a sewage treatment pond from service in order to take a soil sampling during the planning phase of building a new treatment plant. The pond removal allowed improper discharge, according to the water commission.

The city is being fined $3,500 for the 1990 fish kill and $8,500 for the pond removal.

Texas Water Commission officials deferred certain penalties, contingent on the city meeting certain requirements. One of those is that Snyder must have a new treatment facility in operation by Aug. 15, 1993.

Construction on the new plant has already begun, and is expected to be completed by that time.

Snyder boxers slate weekend tournament

The 1992 Snyder Boxing Club Tournament is scheduled for Saturday and Sunday at the Scurry County Coliseum annex building.

The event, sanctioned by the West Texas Boxing Association and USA Boxing Association, will feature bouts in 8-9 year-old, 10-11 year-old, 12-13 year-old, and 14-15 year-old divisions, in both novice and open classes.

Fights begin at 7:30 p.m. Saturday and 1 p.m. Sunday. Weigh-in is slated for 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, and Sunday from 8 to 10 a.m.

Admission is $3.50 for adults and $2 for students.

Approximately 10 teams are expected at the event, according to tournament director and Snyder Boxing Club coach Johnny Vasquez.

Anticipated entries include squads from Ft. Stockton, Odessa, Hobbs, N.M., Abilene and Lubbock.

Snyder's team includes Anthony Vasquez, Joe Martnez, Johnny Vasquez, James Vaughn, Mike Martinez Jr., Gabriel Vasquez and Ignacio Martinez.

Perot announcement anticipated Monday

DALLAS (AP) — Reports that Ross Perot was moving closer to a decision to re-enter the presidential race drew vows from President Bush and Democrat Bill Clinton today that neither would change strategy to counter such a move.

The Los Angeles Times reported today that the Texas billionaire would make the announcement on Monday on a favorite forum, "Larry King Live" on Cable News Network.

However, associates of Perot insisted today that the Texas businessman had not made up his mind and wanted a chance for his volunteers to meet in Dallas on Monday with representatives from both the Bush and Clinton campaigns.

"From what I know, Mr. Perot is not going to announce whether or not he's going to run on Larry King," said Orson Swindle, national volunteer coordinator for Perot.

Still, Perot has given clear signs in recent days that he is inching closer to getting back into the race he abandoned on July 16.

And Jim Squires, Perot's media adviser, said today that Perot might have a hard time staying out, given the fact that he's now on all 50 ballots and may feel "committed" to his volunteers.

Pasture Party...

Today final chance to purchase tickets

Today is the deadline to purchase tickets for this year's Pasture Party, sponsored by the chamber of commerce.

The event will get underway at 5 p.m. Saturday at the Jack Greene residence. Tickets, $100 per couple, are available at the chamber office through 4 p.m. today.

This year's party will begin with hot air balloon rides up to 10 stories. A Mariachi band will perform during the meal, which will consist of rib-eye steaks served from a chuck wagon.

Certificates of deposits in the amounts of $3,500, $2,000, $1,500, $1,000 and $500 will be given away during the second annual event.

The Jose Brothers will perform at 7:30 p.m. The duo, Gil Prather and Clay Lindley, are well known for their comedy.

The feller on Deep Creek says, "Everybody who got where he is had to start from where he was."

Keeping tabs on our neighbors:

James Roberts, in the Andrews County News, passed along a good method for dealing with a "Dear John letter."

He told of a lonesome military man who was far from home and anxious to hear from his girlfriend. When her letter finally arrived, it said bluntly, "I got tired of waiting for you, so I married Jake. Please send my picture back to me."

The sailor was very unhappy until a buddy came to his rescue.

The pair collected six pictures of the least pretty girls they could find. They mailed the pictures to her with this message:

"Your picture is one of these. Pick it out. I have forgotten what you look like."

All of that reminded Larry Crabtee in the Vernon Daily Record about the guy whose wife ran off with the tractor salesman.

She wrote him a John Deere letter.

Or the guy who ran off with a mustard salesman?

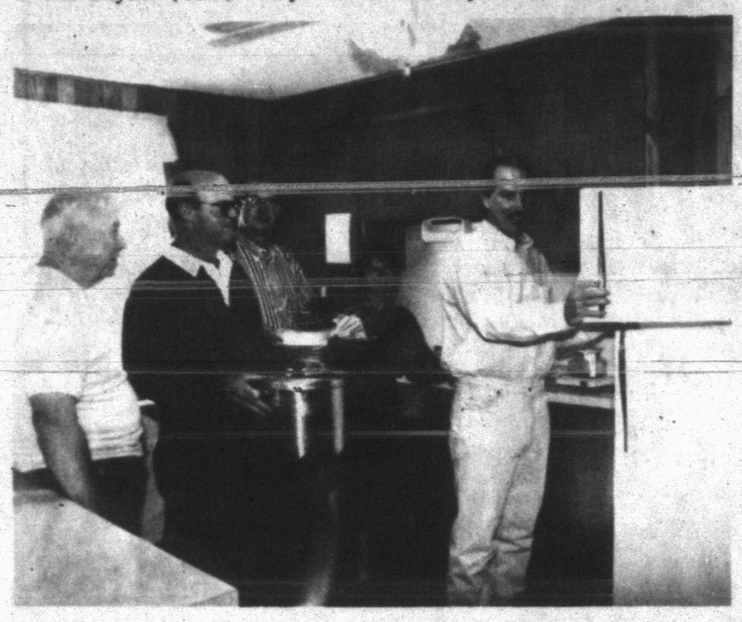

She wrote him a Dijon letter.

One of our most favorite cartoons appeared in a recent edition of the Wall Street Journal.

The cartoon showed a small boy talking to his father while the father was reading the newspaper.

The boy asked, "Well if Washington, D.C., isn't one of our states, is it one of our allies?"

It's still a good question.

Demos say race for spot on TRC will be very close

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. Ann Richards says Lena Guerrero still has a shot at winning back the seat on the Texas Railroad Commission that she gave up.

"I think she will be a very tough contender," Richards said Thursday.

Ms. Guerrero, 34, resigned from the commission Thursday, almost two weeks after it was revealed that she had falsely claimed to have been an honors school student and graduate of the University of Texas.

She said she wanted to wipe the slate clean and let voters decide her political fate against Republican Barry Williamson, a Dallas oilman.

"When the public and the people of Texas get an opportunity to see both of these candidates and hear both of their records, I think she is going to do very well," Richards said.

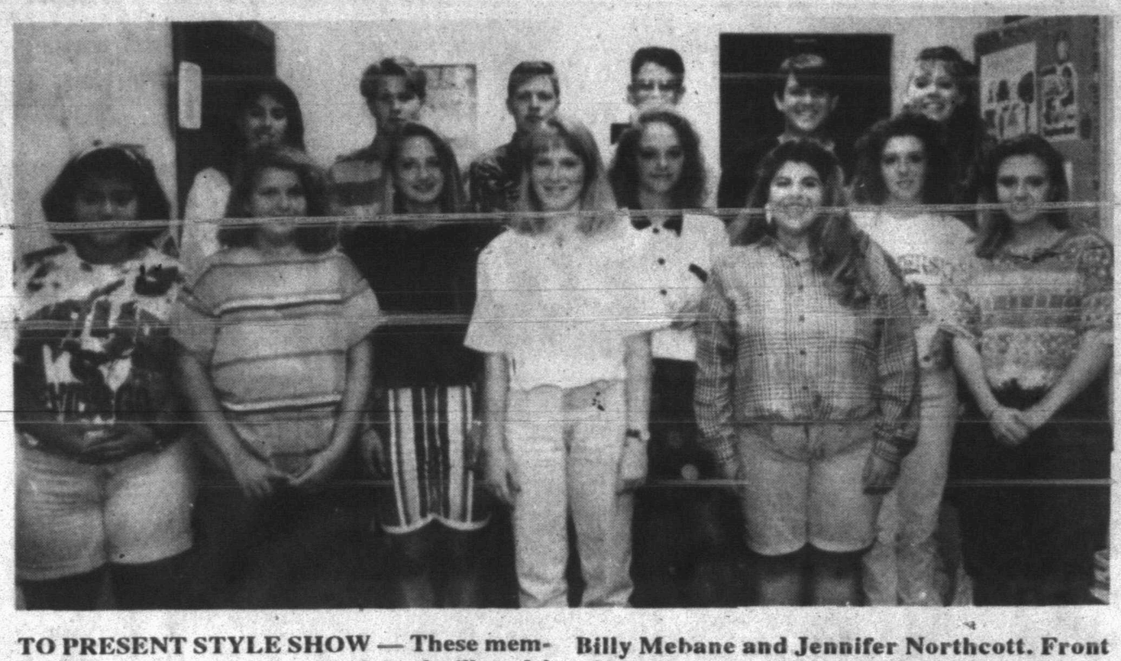

Richards said in 1991 that her appointment of Ms. Guerrero to the commission signaled a new age in Texas of inclusive politics. Ms. Guerrero was the first Hispanic and first woman to serve on the commission.

On Thursday, Richards said she did not believe that the subsequent controversy surrounding Ms. Guerrero would reflect on her.

"I think people will judge me on what I do. I don't think they judge me on someone else," she said.

Republicans were less forgiving.

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — A father of five was shot to death and robbed of $150 as he withdrew money from an automatic teller machine outside a San Antonio credit union building, police say.

Samuel Evans, 52, was pronounced dead early Thursday at Medical Center Hospital after another ATM customer found. Police said Evans suffered two gunshot wounds to his upper body.

Building may be demolished

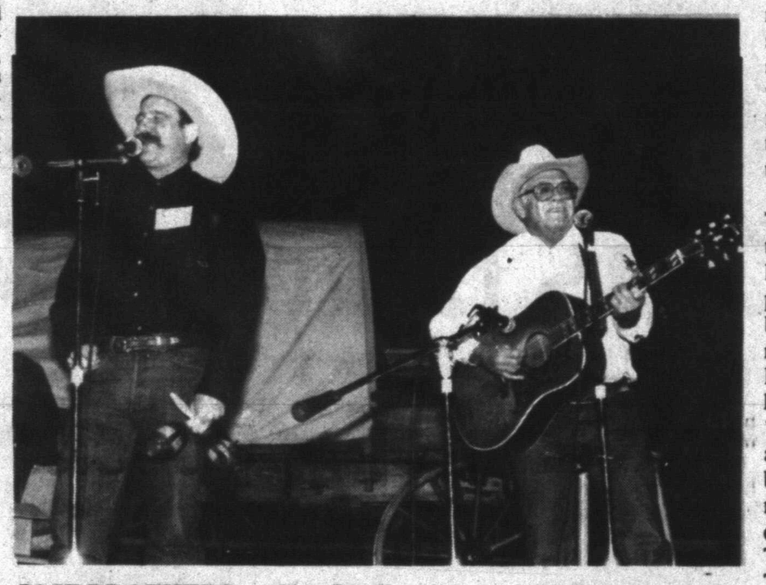

DALLAS (AP) — The former home of the defunct Dallas Times Herald may be demolished and the site turned into a parking lot if a Cincinnati real estate developer follows through on his purchase agreement.

Manuel Chavez, owner of Parking Company of America, has signed a contract to purchase the downtown Dallas building from its owner, A.H. Belo Corp.

"The paperwork is in the process of going through the title company," said Jeremy L. Halbreich, president and general manager of The Dallas Morning News, which is owned by Belo.

The deal was reached about two weeks ago, said Newt Walker, a Dallas real estate broker and business acquaintance of Chavez.

Belo bought the Times Herald for $55 million in December after the paper ceased publication due to financial woes.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:

R.E. Ask Us, Sept. 23, 1992:

I would like to offer 29 cents plus envelope expenses to the county to cover Larry Thompson's expenses involving his letter to the editor. Twenty-nine cents seems like a small price to pay to recover seven thousand plus dollars.

Sincerely
Richard Dupree

Dear Editor:

I am writing in reference to Mr. Larry Thompson's letter in Tuesday's Snyder Daily News and the "Ask Us" column in Wednesday's. I am not a taxpayer, but my parents are and I soon will be. When Mr. Thompson used county postage and county letter head, taxpayers were abused. The privilege of living in America and paying taxes includes helping to improve your country and environment. Without their permission, many taxpayers supported something they strongly disagreed with. This is not the way tax money should be spent, and were I a taxpayer, I would be extremely upset by this.

Also, it is obvious that Mr. Thompson did not read a copy of the audit that was the subject of his letter. The Snyder Daily News reported that the audit did not place blame on any one individual, but rather on collection procedures. However, in the first sentence of his letter, the author calls it a 'theft' without any ambiguity at all. Now doubts that are totally unbased are in hundreds of people's minds. These doubts cause more damage than will ever be known. The obvious subject of Mr. Thompson's letter has had his reputation damaged with a few uninformed angry strokes of a pen.

Finally, it seems strange that Mr. Thompson states one of his main reasons for his letter as being unable to answer this question: "What shall I say to these juveniles when they question the double standard for employees of Snyder Public Schools?"

This presents an equally disturbing question. What if the author treated and judged these teenagers the same way He has judged this "thief"? I would hope these situations would be handled differently.

Another privilege of living in America is the beautiful phrase "innocent until proven guilty." This basic right of one of our citizens was violated, not literally, but as far as the thinking of many Snyder Daily News readers is concerned.

Although it is obvious that much damage has been done, I hope the public will try to keep an open mind. Together, at the school board meeting, we will see what the evidence produces, and whether or not we have a "thief" in our midst.

Respectfully,
Julie Zeck,
Snyder High School Senior

Minister angered over disclosure of name

AUSTIN (AP) — A Presbyterian minister is suing the Texas Department of Human Services for telling a couple that he expressed concerns about them in a child abuse allegation.

DHS' revelation resulted in The Rev. Ned Benson's resignation as minister at Austin's First Presbyterian Church and harm to his reputation, he said.

Benson said that if DHS doesn't protect the identities of those who participate in child abuse investigations then many people will not help officials in their work.

In April 1990, Benson told a child protective services specialist that he had concerns about a couple in his congregation — a father and stepmother to two small boys — who he knew were under investigation for abuse. Benson says he was assured that, by law, his identity would be kept confidential.

But in October 1990, DHS gave the couple a 200-page file with the names of people who had talked to investigators about them.

In February 1991, the couple filed a $1 million slander suit against Benson and the 650-member church. They also instigated a formal church investigation of his actions. Soon after, Benson was asked to resign.

The couple eventually dropped the suit against Benson, and the suit against the congregation was dismissed. The church investigation of Benson ended in a no-fault finding.

The Austin American-Statesman reported that the couple was found guilty of physically and emotionally abusing the two boys and that their mother was awarded custody.

But Benson says the state has harmed his reputation and ability to earn a living.

He wants unspecified monetary damages as well as a ruling requiring the agency to stop revealing the names of informants in child abuse cases.

Texas law requires people to call state officials or law enforcement whenever they have "cause to believe that a child's physical or mental health or welfare has been or may be adversely affected by abuse or neglect."

DHS brochures state that "those who report abuse are promised confidentiality and immunity from civil or criminal prosecution" as long as suspicions are reported "without malice."

DHS officials, while not commenting on specifics of the case, did acknowledge exceptions to the confidentiality rules.

Essentially, those who call to report abuse are guaranteed protection, unless a court orders the name released.

If, however, a person's name has been given to investigators as a reference, or what the agency calls "a collateral source," that source's name and comments are available for public inspection.

The state maintains that Benson was a collateral source. Officials also said collateral sources are not routinely warned that what they say is unprotected.

Benson says he is sure that the controversy prompted his forced resignation. But some church officials disagree.

Benson says none of this would have occurred had DHS not been "negligent" in identifying him.

In court filings, however, attorneys for the agency say the release was justified because "Benson was not the complainant in this case. He made no specific allegations regarding incidents of child abuse or neglect."

The risk was needless

By Phillip Alder

Some writers rely heavily on their editors. Others feel that the editor, to justify his position, will unnecessarily alter the writer's carefully constructed prose. As H.G. Wells said, "No passion in the world is equal to the passion to alter someone else's draft."

When South looked up on today's deal, he found that he had gone down. But if only he had counted the nouns (his tricks) with an adverb (carefully), he would have avoided suffering another noun (defeat).

South's rebid of two no-trump showed 18-19 points. This was an accurate assessment of the power of his hand. That excellent club suit was worth another two or three points.

The defenders attacked in spades, declarer ducking his ace until the third round.

To play this club holding for no losers, South knew that it was better to take an immediate finesse than to cash the ace first and then to finesse. (West can hold five possible singletons: four low cards and only one queen.) Therefore, South played a heart to dummy's ace and finessed the club jack. However, West won with the queen and cashed his two spade winners: one down.

South had four top tricks outside clubs. So he needed only five club tricks, not six. And as it was in his best interest to keep West off the lead, South should have cashed the A-K of clubs, not taken a finesse at all. Here the queen drops and declarer makes an overtrick. But if the queen doesn't appear, South leads a third club, hoping East has the queen.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) You might have to deal with someone you dislike today because of something this individual did in the past. Holding a grudge could end up hurting you more than it does this person.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) If you attend a gathering today where friends are saying unkind things about a pal who isn't present, you'd be smart not to partake in the discussion.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Should you decide to do something important today, dedicate all your effort and energy toward this objective. Half measures could result in frustration and failure.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Don't expect others to be supportive of your views and opinions today — if they sense you really don't believe in them yourself. Sincerity is essential.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Joint commercial ventures could be more complex than usual today. Take measures to protect your interests, as well as the interests of those with whom you'll be involved.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) When under pressure today, you might make concessions or commitments that may not serve your best interests. If you feel you're being backed into a corner, stiffen your resolve.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Do not attempt to be first among equals when dealing with co-workers today. If you assume authority you're not entitled to, those you're involved with will find it offensive.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Social situations and impulsive spending are two conditions which could negatively overlap in some unique manner today. Be on guard in both areas.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) You'll know what needs to be done today, and you're likely to be a good starter, but your motivation could ebb and flow rather than remain constant. This might deprive you of fulfillment.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Say nothing of anyone else today that you wouldn't want said of yourself. This could especially pertain to a close friend whose feelings you hurt previously.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Usually, you have a good sense of bargains and values. However, this quality may not be operating today, and you might pay more for something than you should.

Dear Abby

Story of Boy Meets Girl Ends in Winter Wedding

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1992 Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: Remember the saga of Patty and Pat who met through "Operation Dear Abby"? We had everything in common: We both came from Irish Catholic families with seven children. I (Patty) went to an all-girl Catholic school; Pat went to an all-boy Catholic school. We had both dreamed of biking through Ireland, and we were both single and had never been married. You printed our story Nov. 12, 1991.

Well, Abby, here's an update: Pat proposed to me over Thanksgiving weekend (1991) and I said yes! He's been living in Milwaukee since January when he got out of the Army, and he's now living less than two miles from me! He's my best friend, and we fall more and more in love every time we meet. I still can't believe it.

We went to Omaha to visit his family, and they couldn't have been more wonderful to me. At first they were a little skeptical, but after seeing Pat and Patty together, they knew we were right for each other.

We are planning to get married in the cathedral of my alma mater, Marquette University in Milwaukee, on Dec. 19, 1992.

PATTY TREACY,
GREENFIELD, WIS.

DEAR PATTY: Wisconsin in December? A Christmas fantasy! I will be with you in spirit, wishing you both much happiness and success in your marriage.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I am 20 years old with a baby and a husband. My problem is my husband. It all started when I was six months pregnant. "George" started staying out late, saying he was with the guys. After the baby was born, I found out he had been seeing a young girl who lives next door to his mother. A friend had told me this, but I didn't believe it. When I asked George if there was anything between them, he denied it.

A month later, I found a letter he had written to an Army buddy — but never mailed. In the letter he said he got a girl pregnant and had to rush her to an abortion clinic! That's not all. He got 90 days in the county jail for firing a gun at a girl he had been seeing. (The bullet missed her.)

When I visited him in jail, he broke down and told me he was sorry for cheating on me, but he said he is now a born-again Christian, and he's learned his lesson and wants another chance.

Should I give him another chance? He has lied so much, I don't know if I can ever trust him. He has even agreed to counseling. Our second anniversary is next week. What should I do? I still love him.

GEORGE'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: Since you still love him, give him another chance. I hope his being born-again will keep him straight and honest. But if it doesn't, say goodbye and close the door on this relationship.

DEAR ABBY: In further defense of those who work at less-than-exalted jobs, I have never seen it expressed better than in the following quotation from John William Gardner:

"An excellent plumber is infinitely more admirable than an incompetent philosopher. The society that scorns excellence in plumbing because plumbing is a humble activity, and tolerates shoddiness in philosophy because it is an exalted activity, will have neither good plumbing nor good philosophy.

"Neither its pipes nor its philosophy will hold water."

BARBARA HARROW,
RICHLAND, WASH.

Slumping Tech hosts Baylor

by The Associated Press

The snapshots coming out of Waco aren't very pretty from the perspective of Texas Tech coach Spike Dykes.

"The second quarter of the Colorado game and the Utah State game gave us a glimpse of what we can do and what we should do," Baylor quarterback J.J. Joe said. "We kept on plugging, and it just takes one strike of lightning for everything to change."

Tell Dykes about it.

The Red Raiders have been looking for that strike all season, trying to avoid the 1-4 start of last year. And yet they're on pace to repeat with a 1-2 start this season.

Now they catch Baylor in the SWC opener, just when the Bears seem to be jump-starting after losing their first two games to Louisiana Tech and Colorado before beating Utah State 45-10 last week.

"This is a big tempo setter," Dykes said. "We talk about two seasons (SWC and non-conference) and we talk about this not just after an unsuccessful preseason. If we're ever going to make a mark on the wall, we've got to belly up and do it right now."

Texas Christian and Southern Methodist play the other SWC opener with the Mustangs trying to extend their first two-game winning streak since 1986, the year before they disbanded for two seasons due to NCAA sanctions.

The Horned Frogs are a six-point favorite and the Raiders rate a two-point edge over Baylor.

In non-conference games, Houston is an 18-point underdog, playing at Northern Michigan; Texas, rested after an open date, hosts North Texas University and winless Rice plays its first home game against Sam Houston State.

Tech got the lightning it needed to win last year's game in Waco on a 99-yard fumble return by Donny Brooks but the Raiders have lost 10 of their last 13 games to the Bears.

Baylor lost to Colorado 57-38, but starting in the second half, the Bears started their turnaround, Coach Grant Teaff says.

"Those moments in the second half were critical to this football team, and in the long run, to this whole program," Teaff said.

The Rice Owls also find themselves on the brink of another disaster season after losing their first two games. Coach Fred Goldsmith also will face Sam Houston with a new quarterback since starter Josh LaRocca is likely out for the season with a broken collarbone.

Bert Emanuel, who saw little playing time in the first two games, will step into the starting role and be backed up by Greg Willig, who was the starter at the beginning of last season.

Sam Houston (2-0) of NCAA Division I-AA has a reputation for playing tough against Division I-A opponents. They lost to Houston 38-34 in 1987 and scared Baylor before losing 13-9 in 1990.

The Longhorns will be heavy favorites to beat North Texas, a game that should allow plenty of substitution but Coach John Mackovic won't say if freshman quarterback Shea Morenz will play.

Lamesa visits SHS for loop net battle

Coach Teri Hoerster's SHS tennis team hopes to continue a string of District 2-4A match wins Saturday when the Tigers host defending loop runner-up Lamesa.

The Tigers hammered Frenship, 21-0, in last Saturday's loop opener, allowing FHS just two sets.

No. 1 boys' singles entrant Jason Warren, who is also undefeated in loop play as a three-year varsity player, needed three sets to knock off Frenship's top seed, Dustin Valerius, last week, 3-6, 6-2, 6-4.

The visitors' only other set win was in the No. 6 boys' singles match between Snyder's Kevin Jones and Mike House of Frenship.

Jones won the first set, 6-1, before losing in the second, 1-6. He needed only seven games in the third set, ripping House, 6-1.

Other SHS winners in last Saturday's victory included top girls' singles player Leslie Sandoval, a 6-2, 6-1 over Alicia Kelly; Sandoval and doubles partner Christina Gonzales, who captured a 6-0, 6-3 victory over Kelly and Giuliana Berni; and Warren and Chris Gayle, who teamed up for a 6-1, 6-4 doubles victory against Valerius and Jay Donaldson.

Lamesa also opened district play last week, falling to Levelland, 18-0, and winning only two sets in the match.

Snyder enters with a 6-2 season record following a 24-4 non-district loss to Abilene Cooper Tuesday. The Tigers carry a 1-0 mark in loop play.

Matches begin at 10 a.m. at Snyder Junior High.

Lady Tigers compete in 3-team spike match

Snyder's Lady Tigers have just a few more non-district volleyball matches to work out the glitches before beginning District 2-4A competition Oct. 10 against Levelland.

Included in those few remaining non-district matches are those against host Seminole and Monahans in a three-way meeting Saturday.

Snyder lost its last match to San Angelo Lake View Tuesday, 15-13, 11-15, 8-15, setting ts season record at 8-9.

"I thought we played well," said SHS coach Patty Grimmett. "but our serving killed us.

"We had a lot of missed serves. We missed three in the first game, four in the second and five in the third. That didn't help us at all.

"We quit hitting at them in the third game," Grimmett reported. "We weren't aggressive enough. We were playing not to lose instead of playing to win."

"We played great the first game," Grimmett said. "We've got to put together a whole match like that first game."

Lynette Sears had nine service points and Stephanie Fambro and Melody Sargent each had six to pace the Snyder attack.

Snyder begins play tomorrow facing Seminole at 11 a.m. The Lady Tigers will take on Monahans at 12:15 p.m.

Snyder's JV was to have played at Seminole Saturday but, instead, will travel to Lubbock to take on Trinity Christian Academy.

Hermleigh boosters set work day

Area 6-man teams tackle road trips

Last week saw area members of six-man football's District 6 win one and lose two as Ira posted its first win of the season with a 43-14 lambasting of Rule, Hermleigh fell in nip-and-tuck affair to Klondike, 26-22, and Borden County ran into a District 5 buzz saw, losing to Wellman, 44-14.

This week finds all three squads on the road when Ira goes to Klondike, Hermleigh visits Patton Springs and Loop entertains Borden County.

The rest of District 6 is also in action tonight. Highland, which has scored just six points all season while giving up 135, faces Abilene Christian, surprising Loraine is at Southland, and Trent hosts a tough Aspermont squad.

Ira (1-2) at Klondike (2-1)

Ira's Mike Hughes connected for three TD passes a week ago, and ran for another, leading the Bulldogs to their first win of the 1992 campaign.

"We felt all along we were getting better," said coach Mike Cook of Ira. "All you can ask for is improvement every week."

Also scoring for IHS last week were Ronal White, who nabbed TD passes of 20 and 25 yards from Hughes, Bryan Luna, who scored on a six-yard rush, Cole Sterling, who blasted in on a 10-yarder,and Toby Haynes, who caught a Hughes pass and went in from 10 yards away.

The 'Dogs will have to keep a watchful eye on Klondike running back Mike Lee, who had 125 rushing yards and three touchdowns against Hermleigh last week.

Hermleigh (1-2) at Patton Springs (0-3)

Hermleigh came within six minutes of knocking off Klondike a week ago, and posting a 22-12 homecoming victory.

A late charge by the Cougars and some controversial officials' calls in crucial situations left the Cardinals four points shy when the gun sounded.

Running back Joey Sanchez rushed for 125 yards, Chris Velasco added scoring runs of one and four yards and William Gray bolted into the end zone from 24 yards out for the Cards.

They will face a winless Patton Springs team that has given up 166 points in three games.

The Rangers' last outing was a 53-31 loss to Southland.

Borden County (2-1) at Loop (0-3)

The Coyotes were attacked quickly and often last week at Wellman, but coach Bobby Avery's charges have a much easier task this week against the winless Longhorns.

Borden County's offense a week ago consisted of a Clint Wills to Kirk Jones TD pass of 79 yards. John Paul Harris added a 40-yard interception return for a TD.

The 'Horns are not only winless, they are averaging just four points a game, while giving up 40.

Big Spring entertains Tigers

By PHIL RIDDLE
SDN Sports Editor

In Snyder's drive to the District 2-4A championship in 1990, the Tigers' springboard game was a non-district 14-all tie with District 3 power Big Spring.

Though a win or a loss at this juncture of the '92 season would not necessarily mean much, it could give a team an emotional lift that could last for weeks.

"It could be that kind of a game for us," said Snyder coach David Baugh, speaking about tonight's 8 p.m. renewal of the SHS-Big Spring rivalry. "They're right on the same level with Sweetwater and Monahans. They're picked to win in that district over there, so, we're back to another tough football game.

"If we could upset them at their place it would sure help us."

Snyder defensive coordinator Jack Dorsett has had his hands full this week preparing for the multiple-set attack Big Spring brings to the game.

"They're a wide open offense," Baugh reported. "They'll run everything from a double-tight end dead-T to four wide-outs on one side.

"They run power sets, they get in trips, the get in twins open, they get in a straight T. They do lots of things offensively.

"They run so many sets," he continued. "Lots more than a normal high school offense will have.

"They run different plays, different combinations, everything. It makes it real hard to prepare for them defensively.

"They go from options to wishbone plays to dives to run-and-shoot looking stuff, and they do it all pretty well."

Junior Wes Hughes and Clay Klatt, a senior, split time at quarterback for the Steers. According to Baugh, they are both able to get the job done.

Other offensive standouts for Big Spring are tailback Lonnie Jackson, who is averaging 6.4 yards per carry while accumulating 254 yards and two TDs, tight end Oscar Cervantez, who leads the area in receiving with 15 catches for 301 yards and a pair of touchdowns, and split end Pat Martinez, who has snagged a dozen balls for 156 yards and a score, so far.

"Last year they came out and threw the first nine times they snapped the ball," Baugh remembered. "That wouldn't surprise me if they were to do something like that — just come out and start chunking the ball.

"They've been pretty balanced, so far," coach Baugh said. "I think they want to throw a little more, maybe."

The Steers probably won't be the only team throwing the football. Snyder's own pair of signal-callers, juniors Matt Cave and Jim Pat Griffin, also could sling a few passes in tonight's battle.

"I think we'll have to throw a little more than we have been," Baugh admitted. "They're so strong up front on defense, that we have to get those linebackers off of us. You have to get the linebackers a little concerned with the passing game.

"I imagine we'll go more to quick passes," said the Tiger coach. "They come at you so hard, it's hard to fake. We'll probably go more to a quick passing game."

The Steers' defense will line up in a seemingly traditional 4-3 set.

"It's a different looking 4-3," Baugh explained. "We call it a 4-1. It looks almost like a 5-0 sometimes.

"They'll have a linebacker shaded right over our center. They run a different defense from anybody else we play."

The Big Spring defensive backfield has given up 480 yards passing in three games this year.

A key matchup in the game could be Big Spring defensive end Marcus Yanez, a 6-0, 210-pounder, going against Snyder tight end Jason Greene, a 6-3, 185-pound talent.

"He's a good football player," Baugh said of Yanez. "He's bigger than Jason, outweighs him by about 25 pounds. Jason will have to work hard to block him. If we can't block him, then we're going to have a hard time running wide to our strong side."

New starters for the Tigers this week include Lionel Aviles, who fills in at noseguard for Bradley Williams, who is out with a back injury, and Brad Hart, who returns to his starting quick guard spot starting role after playing as a backup due to a sprained ankle for two weeks.

Brian Lickey, suffering from a wrist sprain, is expected to be near 100 percent by game time. David Krenek is still out with a knee injury and Jason McAden, who suffered a dislocated kneecap against Monahans, continues to make progress and may be able to return before the end of the season.

McAden had the soft cast removed Thursday and began rehabilitation of the knee on the exercise bicycle.

Snyder JV rocks Big Spring

BIG SPRING — Snyder's JV erupted for six touchdowns Thursday, including two scores each by Greg McAden, Chris Mitchell and Eddie Martinez, as the Tigers downed Big Spring, 40-26.

McAden opened the scoring with a 70-yard scoring run in the first quarter. He added a second-quarter TD that covered four yards.

Mitchell scored on a 70-yard kick-off return in the opening period and came back to scoot 15 yards for a third-quarter touchdown.

Martinez went over from two yards in the second quarter, then scrambled 60 yards in the fourth for the Tigers' last tally.

"The kids played well," said SHS JV coach Bud Birks. "We were pleased with their effort and execution.

"They got after them. Big Spring always brings a lot of kids. They have a lot of depth, so we had to deal with fatigue late in the game. But the kids sucked it up and got after it."

8th grade A nipped by BS

BIG SPRING — Snyder eighth graders were swept by Big Spring in Thursday night football action.

The SJHS A team lost 14-12, in spite of a brilliant defensive effort, and the B team slipped 18-6.

L.S. McClain had a 40-yard interception return for a touchdown in the A battle, to go with Richard Canas' 80-yard punt return for a score.

"The A team defense played the best defensive game of their careers," said coach Roger Goodwin.

Defensive players earning standout status for Snyder included Canas, Jay Don Griffin, Chris Post and Tommy Morris.

The A team sports a 1-2 season mark. The B team's record is 1-1.

Snyder will travel to Sweetwater for games next Thursday. Games kick-off at 5 p.m.

7th graders split games

Snyder seventh graders split their football games against Big Spring Thursday, the A team falling to the Mavericks, 16-6, and the B team taking an exciting 6-2 victory.

The B game was won by the Tigers on a 25-yard interception return by Jeremy Fudge with only 14 seconds remaining.

Big Spring held a 2-0 lead until that point on a first-quarter safety.

The B team is 2-0 on the season.

Snyder's A squad got a 2-yard TD dive by D.J. Garcia in its loss to Big Spring Thursday.

Linebacker Chris Fuentez "had an outstanding game for us," said coach Scott Lambert. "He really came on last night. He turned into a leader out there.

"They're really coming along well," Lambert said of his seventh grade team. "They're right where they need to be and they're improving every week."

The A team carries a 2-1 season mark.

The seventh graders will battle Sweetwater next Thursday at Travis Field. Games are scheduled to begin at 5 p.m.

NFL holdouts awarded free agency by judge

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Philadelphia Eagles tight end Keith Jackson and three other NFL players went from holdouts to pioneers when they became football's newest new-look free agents.

Jackson, Detroit's D.J. Dozier, Cleveland's Webster Slaughter and New England's Garin Veris were set free Thursday by a federal judge who said they were still suffering from the effects of Plan B free agency. The league-imposed system was declared illegal by a jury on Sept. 10.

The four players, protected under Plan B but not under contract when Plan B was annulled, were given five days to sign with any team. U.S. District Judge David Doty will decide Tuesday whether to extend their freedom until all the appeals in the antitrust trial are exhausted.

Jackson's agent, Gary Wichard, said he's confident the order will endure. Still, he hopes to have Jackson signed by Tuesday.

"What do I need it extended for," he said. "He's a football player. We've got to get him playing football."

The teams involved mostly said that they have been negotiating in good faith and they will keep trying to sign their players.

Slaughter's agent, Brian Duffy, said Slaughter would consider offers from Dallas, Philadelphia, Miami, Buffalo, Houston, Pittsburgh, San Francisco and Tampa Bay.

Role in Iran-Contra...

Secord says Bush didn't 'come clean'

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Bush "didn't come clean" about his role in the arms sales to Iran, according to Iran-Contra figure Richard Secord. Bush said today he did level with the American people and called Secord's allegations "all speculation."

The retired Air Force major general and former National Security Council aide Howard Teicher said Thursday that Bush as vice president was fully informed and wasn't — as he has asserted — "out of the loop" on U.S. arms sales to Iran.

Bush briefed President Reagan about the initiative by secure telephone on July 29 or July 30, 1986, said Secord, who handled the weapons deliveries for the Reagan White House. Reagan on July 30, 1986, approved shipping 240 Hawk anti-aircraft missile parts from Israel to Iran — reviving an arms initiative that had temporarily collapsed.

Bush, asked about Secord's allegations in an interview today on WBBM-AM in Chicago, responded: "What General Secord said was all speculation on his part."

"The country has spent about ... some say as high as $40 million investigating Iran-Contra," Bush added. "Clearly if I'd done anything wrong ... you can bet that the Democrats in Congress would have had me before the bar. That is not true. I have leveled with the American people."

Teicher said he "briefed the then-vice president several times" about the Iran initiative.

One briefing was about a May 1986 trip to Tehran, where hostage negotiations hit a dead-end. The reason: former national security adviser Robert McFarlane insisted that all U.S. hostages held in Lebanon be released at once rather than one at a time.

Israeli officials working on the hostage problem with the Reagan White House favored "sequential" trades — an arms delivery for a hostage release.

And in a July 29, 1986, meeting with Bush, Israeli government officer Amiram Nir pressed the U.S. vice president to allow a resumption of that one-at-a-time approach.

"After Bush relayed the Israeli proposal to President Reagan," the all-or-nothing policy was "dumped in favor of sequential release," Secord wrote in his new book, "Honored and Betrayed."

White House aide Oliver North subsequently told Secord that Bush's briefing of Reagan was a factor in Reagan's decision to allow sequential releases, Secord said in an interview Thursday. The main factor had been the July 26, 1986, freeing of hostage the Rev. Lawrence Jenco, which had "turned Reagan euphoric," Secord said.

Secord, who also ran North's Nicaraguan Contra resupply operation, pleaded guilty to making a false statement to congressional investigators in the Iran-Contra scandal and was placed on probation.

The comments by Secord and Teicher are the latest pieces of information disputing Bush's position that he knew little about what was going on in the Iran initiative.

"I don't think President Bush did anything wrong, but he decided to duck," said Secord. "He didn't come clean."

But White House spokeswoman Judy Smith said suggestions that Bush knew more than he has admitted about the Iran arms sales are "absolutely false. ... Secord is just trying to sell his book."

Dr. Gott — By Peter Gott, M.D.

Is urinary glucose a health hazard?

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: My 32-year-old daughter has been diagnosed as having a small amount of glucose in her urine. Will long-term kidney damage result?

DEAR READER: No, it won't. The glucose may, however, indicate the presence of diabetes, which should be diagnosed and treated. Sugar in the urine is always abnormal but doesn't invariably reflect disease. For example, during the latter months of their pregnancies, many women will excrete small amounts of glucose into the urine; this usually requires no treatment and will clear up after delivery.

If your daughter's urinary sugar persists (and she isn't pregnant), she should have a glucose tolerance test, which measures blood sugar after a glucose drink. Diabetics have elevated levels of blood sugar. Similarly, if your daughter is overweight, she may have a low-grade form of diabetes that will disappear on a weight-reduction diet.

Sugar in the urine will not lead to kidney damage. Diabetes, however, usually produces long-term renal impairment if the disorder is not discovered and treated.

To give you more information, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "Diabetes Mellitus." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1.25 plus a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title.

DEAR DR. GOTT: Can you please discuss the causes and how to alleviate foul smelling gas that one passes? We have a family member who has a real problem, and this happens on days when he does not drink soda or alcohol.

DEAR READER: There's not much we can do to alter the olfactory characteristics of intestinal gas, which smells bad because of the internal company it keeps. Preferably, we can change the amount of gas by following these simple suggestions:

- Eat slowly and chew thoroughly. Most intestinal "gas" is really swallowed air that is not belched up but passes through and is expelled in a considerably spicier state.
- Avoid carbonated beverages for the same reason.
- Don't eat gas-producing foods such as beans and legumes. The starch in these substances is not digested; it passes into the colon where bacteria digest it, causing foul-smelling gas as a result.
- Consider purchasing anti-gas medicine, such as those containing simethicone.
- Make an effort to release intestinal gas in socially acceptable situations. In this way, the problem will appear more diminished than it really is.

Facts About The BIBLE

BY JOHN LEHTI

ALTHOUGH THE ISRAELITES MAY HAVE ESCAPED FROM EGYPT AS A MOB OF STRAGGLING REFUGEES, MOSES KNEW THIS CONDITION MUST BE CHANGED! AND HE WAS RIGHT—THE PEOPLES THEY RAN INTO DURING THEIR DESERT WANDERINGS WERE UNFRIENDLY AT BEST, WHEN THEY WEREN'T DOWN-RIGHT WARLIKE! TO SURVIVE, IT WAS NECESSARY FOR THE ISRAELITES TO DEVELOP INTO A STRONGLY-ARMED FORCE, CAPABLE OF WITHSTANDING THOSE WHO WOULD DESTROY THEM. SO IT BECAME THE DUTY OF ALL MEN, AGES TWENTY TO FIFTY, TO BEAR ARMS, TO BE READY FOR BATTLE AT A MOMENTS NOTICE! THE BIBLE TELLS US THAT THESE MEN NUMBERED 603,550 WARRIORS FROM ALL THE TRIBES WITH AN EXCEPTION TO THE TRIBE OF LEVI, WHO WERE EXEMPT AS THE PRIESTHOOD. EVEN THEIR ENCAMPMENT WAS LAID OUT WITH MILITARY STRATEGY, THE TABERNACLE OF GOD BEING PROTECTED IN THE CENTER OF AN AREA WHICH COVERED SOME TWELVE SQUARE MILES.

BY THE TIME JOSHUA FINALLY LED THEM INTO CAANAN TO CONQUER THE PROMISED LAND, THE ISRAELITES MARCHED AS BATTLE-TESTED VETERANS, SKILLED IN THE ARTS OF WAR FROM MANY DESERT CAMPAIGNS!

NEXT WEEK: THE WEAK-WILLED MAN WHO COULD HAVE SAVED JESUS!
