

Eviction Of Negroes Is Halted

Injunction Is Granted

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—The U. S. 6th Circuit Court of Appeals today granted a temporary injunction to prevent landowners in Haywood County, Tennessee, from evicting approximately 300 Negro sharecroppers because they had registered to vote.

The three-judge court declared, however, the order was not to be construed as preventing "legitimate action" by landowners where their intentions were not intended to deprive Negroes of their voting rights.

In a separate decision, the court dismissed a mandamus action which would have required U. S. Dist. Judge Marion S. Boyd of Memphis, Tenn., to take a similar action involving 400 sharecroppers in Fayette County, Tenn.

It was understood, however, that government attorneys would use the Haywood County decision as a precedent for asking Judge Boyd to issue a temporary injunction for Fayette County.

Judge Boyd had denied the petition for the temporary injunction in Haywood County and had declined to hear the Fayette County case.

On the basis of today's decision, the appeals court now will conduct a hearing, probably in February, on an appeal from Judge Boyd's decision.

The granting of the injunction preserves the "status quo" of sharecroppers whose contracts for farming of land expire automatically after Saturday.

It means, attorney said, that the contracts between the sharecroppers and the landowners may not be terminated as of Saturday on the basis of any civil rights legislation.

In Brownsville, Haywood County, spokesman for the sharecroppers were unavailable immediately for comment.

Sheriff S. T. Hunter, one of the defendants in the government's civil rights suit, said charges that evictions were reprisal-inspired are "untrue and unfounded."

"I can't say that goes 100 percent," but in the vast majority of cases evictions have nothing to do with voter registration," he said.

The government has sought a sit-down attitude, especially among colored people around here, and many of them have become worthless as farm laborers. The cabinet rejected the government's position—that the House of Representatives would be allowed to debate the controversial austerity legislation to raise taxes and cut welfare spending to offset losses of Congo revenue.

After the meeting the premier told reporters: "The most important thing is to pass the legislation and give the country the new laws it needs."

The demonstrators in Brussels stalked the streets shouting "We'll march on Parliament Tuesday" and "To the gallows with Eyskens." Parliament reconvenes Tuesday to consider the austerity program.

The Socialists contend that the burden of the new austerity program will fall heaviest on the poor.

The economic battle spawned a new outbreak of the conflicts between the Catholics and Socialists, and between the French-speaking Walloon south and Flemish north, which often have divided Belgium.

The day's first violence came in the Charleroi region, a Socialist stronghold in the south. Cobblestones were torn from the streets and thrown in Couillet, Maifene, Gilly, Marchienne-au-Pont and Jumeau.

The actual Mohole will be drilled from atop water perhaps 2 1/2 miles deep, with special drills then being 3 miles through the ocean floor to go below the earth's crust or outer skin for the first time.

Experimental drilling to test all the different techniques will start in March on the Guadalupe Island of the western coast of Mexico, the National Science Foundation and Academy-Research Council announced today.

There the sea is 12,000 feet deep—2.3 miles. Holes never drilled before in water deeper than a few hundred feet.

Several test holes to various depths are planned. A rotary drill working from a specially fitted ship will be used.

Digging the Mohole itself may come in a few years.

The Mohole gets its name from the Mohorovicic discontinuity—Moho for short. The Moho is a boundary between the earth's thin crust and the underlying rock, the mantle, of unknown composition which extends 3,000 miles deep to the earth's core. The core is presumably composed of nickel and iron.

The Mohole—Moho—can be feasibly drilled only at sea. For the earth's crust under the oceans is as little as 2 1/2 to 3 miles thick, as against 15 to 20 miles on land masses. And the deepest oil well ever dug on land is only 4 1/2 miles.

The Mohole will try to bring up samples of the mantle, and to study the curious Moho boundary layer.

The drilling also could produce a rich history of life, evolution and climate changes on earth. This can be done by bringing up and analyzing the sediments building up to 500 to 1,000 feet thickness over millions of years.

Organisms that lived in the sea sink to the bottom to form sediments, leaving fossil records. The types of life varied with climatic changes.

A $735,750 contract for test drilling was awarded to Global Marine Exploration Co., Los Angeles, by the science foundation.

This company's 200-foot drilling ship, CUSS I, will be modified and used.

NEW COUNTY COMMISSIONERS—Thayne Mebane, left, and Marion Dobbs, center, were sworn in as county commissioners by county judge J. Ray Martin in a special session of the commissioners court today. Mebane replaces L. L. Pat Moore as commissioner of Precinct No. 3 while Dobbs replaces T. B. Knight in Precinct No. 1. Their bonds, along with those of Earl Abercrombie, assessor-collector, and G. G. Gorman as auditor, and G. G. Greene as tax assessor-collector, were approved by the court today. The oaths were administered earlier than usual, since Jan. 1, the traditional date, falls on Sunday this time.

First Rocket Ride Looms For Spring

By C. YATES MCDANIEL
WASHINGTON (AP)—The first American manned rocket ride is set for early spring if a large age survives the jolt of a blast-off from Cape Canaveral early in 1961.

The House Committee on Science and Astronautics made this prediction in a man-in-space report today.

Despite setbacks in recent tests, Chairman Overton Brooks, D-La., pictured the United States standing "on the threshold of a major flight test program of short and long range ballistic flights, leading first to unmanned, and later on to manned orbital flight late in 1961, if all goes well."

The report, based on information supplied by the Defense Department and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, NASA set next March or April as the date for the first manned rocket ride. One of the Mercury Astronauts will be strapped in a capsule and shot well over 100 miles up by an Army Redstone missile.

The first space ride will last a matter of minutes. Ships will be ready to fish the capsule from the Atlantic Ocean.

An earlier trial, using the same kind of rocket and capsule, will have a chimpanzee as passenger.

If all goes well with the first manned space probes, the payoff will come next fall, when the first attempt will be made to put a man into a satellite in space and keep him there long enough to complete several orbits of the earth.

Light Rains Are Spreading

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Light rains fell in South and West Texas Friday and threatened to bring all of the state a New Year's Eve.

Morning temperatures were below freezing over the Panhandle, South Plains, North Central and parts of Northeast Texas.

Dalhart had a low of 13, Amarillo 19, Lubbock 22 and Wichita Falls 27. Readings generally were in the 30s up to the 40s under the cloud cover that extended from the Big Bend to the Panhandle.

A low pressure system at high levels was moving eastward from Arizona and the Weather Bureau forecast it would spread the rain in West Texas over all the state by Friday night and Saturday.

Widespread downpours Thursday dumped up to 3.50 inches in the Corpus Christi area. A shower fell at San Antonio while fog and drizzle drifted through Kingsville and Palacios.

This was the most violent day of the strike against the Premier's economy program.

The Brussels clash occurred when strikers stoned headquarters of the Sabena Airlines. Most workers at Sabena had refused to join the Socialist-led strike.

In Antwerp, strikers wrecked a post office truck and beat up two postal workers who refused to join the strike.

About 4,000 strikers clashed with police in the southwest industrial city of Mons and there were other outbreaks of violence in and around Charleroi.

King Baudouin, who cut short his honeymoon to deal with the crisis, met with the presidents of the Senate and House of Representatives. He had conferred with Eyskens Thursday night.

The king also asked the leaders of Belgium's three largest political parties to come to see him.

They are: Theo Lefevre, Socialist Christian president; Roger Motz, Liberal Conservative chief, and Leo Collard, Socialist president. Collard was reported to be in Charleroi to address a mass meeting of strikers.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The pensions of retired bituminous miners were cut today from $100 to $75 a month, starting with the February payments.

The action was taken by the trustees of the United Mine Workers Welfare and Retirement Fund because of reduced income from the 40-cent royalty on each ton of coal produced.

More than 65,000 retired miners are affected. The pensions of anthracite miners previously had been cut from $100 to $50 monthly because of even more depressed conditions in the anthracite industry.

Bituminous coal miners got their notice in today's issue of the UMW Journal, in a front-page letter signed by Josephine Roche, director of the fund.

The reduction will continue "until further notice," the announcement said. Miss Roche said that "at such time in the future that the trust fund income reaches a continuing higher level, consideration will be given to restoring the monthly pension to its former amount."

All studies of future coal demand indicate a slow, steady increase, the letter said, but the constantly growing number of pensioners makes it probable the reduced benefits "will be in effect for some time."

First Death Logged In Belgium's Riots

By EDDY GILMORE
BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—Belgium's bitter 11-day-old general strike, increasing in violence, brought its first death today. A striker was killed and a dozen policemen and demonstrators in downtown Brussels.

Premier Eyskens emerged from a conference with his cabinet, told reporters: "It is evident that the movement started from a group of Communist agitators and that it has now gotten beyond the Socialist leaders."

"I cannot believe that a great national party (the Socialists) is responsible for starting the action that has created such a crisis. It is high time that the Socialist leaders assume control."

Socialist leaders have denied the movement. But at the same time their requests that demonstrators avoid violence have been ignored, indicating they have lost at least some control.

Eyskens said it is clear that the demonstrations have been organized with the aim of taking over power" but declared his conservative government will not resign.

Violence erupted at the big northern port of Antwerp and at several cities in the industrial south, where the strike against the Premier's economy program.

JFK Ponders Appointments

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—President-elect John F. Kennedy says he is seriously considering appointment of a world-roving ambassador to represent him in talks with high foreign officials, including government chiefs.

And there are reports Kennedy's choice for such an assignment would be W. Averell Harriman, former ambassador to the Soviet Union and former governor of New York.

Harriman, who conferred with Kennedy here this week, refused to confirm or deny it and Kennedy headquarters had no comment.

The president-elect's disclosure that he is thinking about naming a roving envoy came at a news conference Thursday night at the Kennedy home on the Atlantic shore.

He also underscored again that he looks with little favor on a president of the United States doing a great deal of travel abroad, but by no means ruled out the possibility of his making some trips out of the country as chief executive.

Kennedy indicated, without mentioning any names, that he may pick an ambassador at large next week.

Kennedy and Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, met newsmen together after Kennedy had announced that James M. Landis will serve as his special assistant to help plan broadscale reform of federal regulatory agencies.

Landis, former dean of the Harvard Law School, has served as member or chairman of some of the government agencies he sharply criticized in a study made for Kennedy.

Landis, 51, will be on the job, a statement said, only "for the amount of time needed for the preparation of a program and the submission of final recommendations for presidential action and legislation."

The regulatory agencies include the Civil Aeronautics Board, Federal Power Commission, Federal Communications Commission, Interstate Commerce Commission and National Labor Relations Board.

Kennedy's only announced business engagement today was with Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr., son of the late president and a former member of the U. S. House of Representatives. There has been speculation Roosevelt may be named assistant secretary of the Navy, a post his father once held.

There were these other developments at the news conference: Federal 1. Kennedy and Fulbright advocated putting a good economic aid on a long-term commitment basis on a three-year congressional authorization for borrowing from the treasury, rather than the present annual appropriation.

of the Sunday law forbidding dancing or drinking beyond midnight. But there'll be more than just whoopee to mark the occasion.

Cherryville, N.C., observes an old German New Year's custom: A band of men known as the "Cherryville Shooters" march around town, beginning at midnight, to shoot off muskets at doorways and wish the householders "Happy New Year."

Members of the AdMan Club in Denver will make their annual climb to the 14,110-foot summit of Pike's Peak to shoot off fireworks at midnight.

One of the most unusual parties will be a "non-alcoholic dance," sponsored by the Providence, R.I., office of Alcoholics Anonymous, at St. Mark's Church in Warwick, R.I.

In Philadelphia, St. George's Methodist Church, believed to be the oldest Methodist building in the world, will have watchnight services for the 190th consecutive year.

On the celebration side, top prices at the swankiest places for dinner, music, a show and party hats run like this: $35 per person at New York's Waldorf-Astoria Empire Room, $22 at Chicago's Ambassador Pump Room, $37.50 at the Ambassador Hotel's Coconut Grove in Los Angeles (including drinks). $34.20 at Ciro's there (also with drinks).

Usual Festivities Expected To Mark New Year's Arrival

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Time, that swirl-flowing stream, casts aside another year Saturday night, and starts on the course of a new one—a turning point that evokes celebration.

There'll be hymns and hoopla, meditation and merry-making, solemn prayers and raucous parties, devotions and high jinks.

The old is done, the new begun. Ever since ancient Babylon and Rome, it has been a spirited occasion of festivity, and across the nation today, plans for the annual affair were as animated as ever.

Churches set watchnight services, to mark midnight with worship and renewed dedication. Many homes stocked up with refreshments for private parties. And the public ballrooms got ready for a night of noise, wine and song.

Nightclub and restaurant prices for the evening ran the usual wide gamut—from $5 to $35 per person—for dinner, entertainment, dancing and treats, not counting drinks.

But the average was around $10. In Pennsylvania, where liquor sales are forbidden after Saturday midnight, many establishments plan to put bottles of goods on sale a half hour before then, so celebrators can keep their glasses full into the dawn.

In Michigan, however, —bars were expected to shut down at

Cassini Named Couture For Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy

By JOY MILLER
AP Women's Editor

NEW YORK (AP)—Oleg Cassini may not have achieved Cabinet status with his appointment as the next first lady's chief designer. But in his way he may be pretty influential—especially among American women.

"The Jackie Kennedy look will sweep the country," he predicts. "It will develop in France and Italy. She will be in the most seen, the most talked about, the most photographed woman in the world."

"For the first time in history all the elements are present to make a tremendous fashion story: the looks, age, style sense of the next first lady. Measure that against what we've had in the past. They've been very fine ladies but minus zero to the fashion world."

Cassini, 47, dapper, slim and mustached, is feeling modest about his new eminence, elated about the chance to "glorify the American look that has never been devalued by anyone except me," and somewhat belligerent about the skeptics.

There's no doubt that Mrs. Kennedy, long a loyal customer of the Paris couture and especially of the avant-garde designer Givenchy, threw the fashion world into a tizzy the other day with her selection of Cassini clothes. A most un-Givenchy designer, Cassini delights in revealing the figure—"I look at fashion with the eyes of a man," he declares stoutly.

He says his Kennedy assignment includes doing "the majority of all her things, plus coordinating hats, shoes, bags, jewelry. It's going to be a big job, especially since she's not going to be in New York."

The first Cassini gown will be worn at a gala Jan. 19 in Washington.

"Mrs. Kennedy is the best prototype of the American girl," insists Cassini, Paris-born of an Italian mother and titled Russian father.

"She can go so more to the French. She has to push American business, and the dress industry is the third largest in the country. It's tremendously important for the economy and well-being of our country. Together, her wonderful sense of style and my designs—we will sell something here in this country, instead of having it transferred from Europe."

"I will study all the things good in her and bad, although," he adds quickly, "she can wear almost everything. But she has preferences. Out of this will evolve a real Jacqueline Kennedy look."

He defines the look: "Imagine a royal princess with a touch of...

A CHILD'S ROOM can be a decorating triumph in these days of do-it-yourself ideas, and it doesn't require a big budget to do the job. Furniture that grows with the child, decorating short-cuts, and modern washability of furnishings all help make the small child's room a joy to contrive and maintain.

The amateur decorator is assisted by many easy-to-do-it plans. New prepacked wallpaper have companion paper borders which can be used in interesting and effective ways, and matching fabric that carries out the bedroom scheme at the window.

One do-it-yourself idea that can see a child into the teen years is a chevron wallpaper that picks up one of three predominant colors in a wall border, and helps set the color scheme for the room. The 20-inch border shows a gay zoo parade marching to a band. It may be removed in future years if desired and another border added.

The room color scheme is green, pink or blue. All three colors are in the border, and the one color chosen for the check is used at the window in sturdy cotton cafe curtains. The border may be used as a decoration on the shade, headboards or other flat surfaces, such as cabinets that need to be lived up or tied into the room decor.

The wall border should be placed at the child's eye level.

Pink and green may be used in chair cushions and bedspread. A vinyl floor is another floor feature of the easy-care room. Top it with a machine washable cotton rug.

New rugs to thrill any youngster have animal motif. A horse-minded child might like a rug design of a mare and foal in authentic colors. There is a rug dramatized with three kittens who have obviously lost their mittens, another with an authentic reproduction of an antique automobile. There are ABC rugs with whimsical figures for small children.

Animal shaped rugs steal their thunder from the hunter's lodge, and even in the large 3 by 6 foot sizes are machine washable. These acrylic and modacrylic pile rugs include a free form camel shape in tan, brown or black. There are baby, mama and papa bears, in mint, antique gold and melon as well as conventional bear colors. A wild-looking tiger skin will be cherished by any young explorer.

Furniture that grows with a child includes chests with doors that may be reversed from gay colors to cane finish, and unpainted chests that can go from babyhood to teen years. A small table and chairs is a practical addition to the washable bedroom, a good spot for snacks, reading and games.

WASHABLE BEDROOM: The check wallpaper and border trim are do-it-yourself projects, easy to maintain and a joy to children.

The Snyder (Texas) Daily News, Fri., Dec. 30, 1960 5

Lions Swamp Tigers, 74-49

BROWNWOOD — The Snyder Tigers interlocked with a buzzsaw here last night in the first round of play of the Howard Payne Invitational Cage Meet, bowing before the host Brownwood Lions, 74-49.

The defeat perpetuated the Lion mastery over the Tigers, who fell before the eventual state champion Brownwood gridders by 29-20 in bi-district football play last month.

The loss was the second in a row for the Bengal five after losing to San Angelo in the finals of the Del Rio Tourney last week, and placed them at 6-5 in the non-ot column for the season. The win boosted Brownwood to 7-3. By virtue of the downing, Snyder shrives into the losers bracket of play today against Graham in a game having a tipoff time of 2:30 this afternoon. Ahlenski slipped past the Graham quip, 57-55, to advance into the winners division.

In other action involving big school teams, Plainview got past Sweetwater by 49-44 and defending champ South San Antonio obliterated Lake View, 67-26.

Other games of today will see Abilene and Brownwood vie at 8:45 p.m., Plainview and South San getting together at 7:30 p.m. and Sweetwater and Lake View meeting at 1 o'clock.

Tiger coach J. F. Ward commented that the fast breaking style of play as employed by the Lions was the big difference in the game, as the Snyder five rallied behind the shooting of Travis Hatter, who had 21 for the game, to stay close to their hosts until a torrid second half spelt the doom.

TRAVIS HATTER On Scoring Blinge

Hatter was practically the "whole show" for Snyder, with Weldon Ware being a distant second in scoring with 8 points.

Ware shot only five times from the field, making good on three of same, while Hatter hit for an even 500 with 6 successful cannings in 12 attempts. Eddie Fry, although shooting only twice from the field, had a perfect night as he made good on both.

As a team, the Tigers hit on 17 of 53 field goal attempts (32 percent) and 15 of 24 free throws (62 percent).

The team effort hit a snag early in the third quarter when center Charlie Gladson was forced out of the game via the foul route. Hatter also fouled out, but in the dying moments of the contest.

Powering the Lions to the win was big Glen Hallum, a 6-5 juggernaut, who popped the nets for 28 points to lead all scorers.

Small school results during first round tourney action included: Lampasas 73, Ballinger 47; Hamilton 65, Cross Plains 48; Comanche 59, Blanket 58; and Lipan 31, Jacksonville 50.

Lipan is the defending title holder in that division of play.

Rebels Sport Potent, Bowl-Prone Outfit

By ED TUNSTALL
NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Over the years, the Southeastern Conference has been the big supplier of football bowl teams. And in the last 14, a prime mover in this department has been Coach Johnny Vaught, whose Mississippi Rebels meet Rice in the Sugar Bowl next Monday.

Under Vaught, an All American guard at Texas Christian in 1952, Mississippi has played in seven bowl games and won five of them.

Against Rice, the Rebels rule a 10-point favorite to hike Vaught's percentage.

You might judge from the bowl record that Vaught has had fabulous success at Ole Miss, and right you would be. In 1947, Vaught has won 106 games, lost only 27 and tied seven. This is a .781 mark and ranks second only to Oklahoma's Bud Wilkinson among active coaches.

This would also indicate that Vaught has had some pretty fair players going for him. And you would score again for the list reads like a "who's who" of SEC football for nearly a decade and a half.

In 1947, there was Charley Conery, who went on to further fame with the New York Giants in professional football. Then came end Barney Poole, tackle Kline Gilbert, guard Crawford Mims, tackle Rex Boggan, quarterbacks Raymond Brown and Bobby Franklin and fullback Charlie Flowers. And this is just skimming of the top.

But let's not overlook Rice since the Ole Miss coach has far removed from the rookie ranks.

Jess Neely has guided the Ole Miss and the Houston squad has won 121, lost 58 and tied seven.

Rice has had more than his share of talent, what with end Bill Houston, halfback Dick Moegele, quarterback King Hill and end Buddy Dial.

Houston Ready To Start World's First Domed Stadium

Ground will be broken in mid-January for the world's first air-conditioned, dome-covered sports stadium in Houston. The stadium will be erected by Harris County on a 220-acre tract of land located south of Old Spanish Trail midway between S. Main Street and Fannin Street (extended). The site is five miles from downtown Houston and a mile south of the Shamrock Hilton Hotel. The new Houston freeway system will make the stadium readily accessible to out-of-town fans.

The stadium, costing $15,000,000, will be covered with a translucent plastic dome permitting sunlight to enter and facilitate grass growth. The dome will be approximately 200 feet high, a height sufficient to cover the Shamrock Hilton. It will seat 43,581 for major league baseball, 52,913 for football and up to 66,000 for boxing and other events.

The playing field will be approximately 35 feet below ground level, and the stadium will have five separate decks of seats. An unusual ramp arrangement will permit easy access to all seats wherever they may be located.

Architects and engineers are trying to find all possible ways to have the County Stadium ready for the opening of the 1962 National League season in Houston in April, 1962.

Untimely Heave Nets Suspension

NEW YORK (AP)—Charles (Chuck) McKinley, 19, the nation's fourth ranked tennis player, is not thinking of turning pro at this time even though he has been suspended by the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association for his racket-throwing in the Davis Cup inter-zone finals at Perth, Australia.

The St. Louis, Mo., player, America's chief Davis Cup hope now that Barry Mackay and Earl Buchan have turned pro, was suspended Thursday by USLTA President George E. Barnes and the organization's Rules Committee. How long the suspension lasts depends on what the Executive Committee does when it meets in New Orleans Feb. 4.

"No one from the USLTA contacted me or gave me any formal notification," said McKinley in St. Louis. "And I don't know what the charges against me are, either. I still hope to play tennis and I intend to keep in shape."

The D.S. Indoor Tournament begins Feb. 9 in New York and maybe the Executive Committee will see fit to let me play when it meets in New Orleans Feb. 4.

"I have no thought of turning pro at this time," McKinley said. "The lengthy statement issued by the USLTA didn't specify the exact charges against McKinley either. But an association spokesman left no doubt that it was the racket-throwing incident after McKinley and Buchholz lost to the Italians in the doubles at Perth that prompted the suspension."

The decision was made, Barnes said, because McKinley "acted in a way detrimental to the welfare of the game" while in Australia as a member of the U.S. team. Barnes added that McKinley's suspension was concurred in by David L. Freed, nonplaying captain of the team.

The racket-throwing capped a day in which McKinley either kicked the ball or tossed his racket in disgust. On the final point of the 5-set match, McKinley dumped a half-volley into the net, wheeled and threw his racket into the stands. No one was hurt but the crowd jeered the young American as he went into the stands and retrieved his racket.

Coach Milt Bruhn's East squad features the run with an all-star set of backs to do it. Coach Bill Barnes' West will also run, but they'll be passing often in this game for the benefit of the Shrine Hospital for Crippled Children.

Barnes has two of collegiate football's ablest passers in his own Bill Kilmer from UCLA and Rich Mayo of Air Force Academy. Plus that, halfback Keith Lincoln of Washington State provides a triple threat.

It meets the preceding week. But I have no thought of turning pro at this time.

Are Porkers That Beefy?

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Coach Bill Murray of Duke just doesn't believe those weights listed for the Arkansas football squad. He even challenges the Razorbacks to have a public weighing.

Murray arrived here Thursday night from San Antonio, where the Sooners squad trained for four days, and appeared slightly nettled when asked if the weight difference—Arkansas is reported to outweigh Arkansas 24 pounds to the man in the line—would be a deciding factor in the Cotton Bowl game Monday.

"Those weights aren't correct," he said positively. "We will outweigh Arkansas, to be sure, but it won't be over 10 or 12 pounds to the man. I challenge Arkansas to a weighing just to show it. Besides, I don't think it makes any difference. Speed and strength are more important than weight."

Other observations by the quick-talking coach of the Blue Devils, making their first appearance in the Dallas football post-season classic, included the statement that "I think we have a good chance to beat them."

He was asked if he thought the seven-point spread favoring Arkansas was correct. "I never rate anybody," Murray snapped. "I let you fellows do that."

Murray said the drills at San Antonio were "just for the fun of it."

Antonio had been quite beneficial and "we accomplished what we set out to do. Our only thoughts were to prepare for technical problems and conditioning."

He replied when asked if Duke had put in any "new stuff" for the Cotton Bowl game: "We made some offensive variations but I doubt that they will be noticeable to the public." And he added that he wasn't about to tell anybody what they were anyway.

Joel Arrington, the halfback who has been recovering from a knee operation, is sound physically and will play, Murray said. But he did not see how Arrington could be expected to be up to regular season form because of the inactivity. Arrington is considered Duke's top runner.

It has been raining and the weather bureau won't predict what conditions will be Monday. But Murray said he didn't think a muddy field would be to anybody's advantage.

Extension Of Season Urged

AUSTIN (AP)—An extension of the hunting season on deer in Mason County is necessary to prevent "a sordid winter die-off," the Sportsman's Clubs of Texas (SCOT) says.

The suggestion came in a letter to the Mason Chamber of Commerce from Cecil Reid, executive secretary of SCOT, and South San getting together at 7:30 p.m. and Sweetwater and Lake View meeting at 1 o'clock.

Tiger coach J. F. Ward commented that the fast breaking style of play as employed by the Lions was the big difference in the game, as the Snyder five rallied behind the shooting of Travis Hatter, who had 21 for the game, to stay close to their hosts until a torrid second half spelt the doom.

Hoggies Surprise '11' Of Season

FORT WORTH, Dec. 30 — Arkansas, the newly-crowned football champion of the Southwest Conference, upset the so-called pre-season "dopesters" in the 27th annual TCU Sports News Poll for the 1960 season.

The Hogs, who will host Duke University in the Cotton Bowl classic Monday, was the choice of 114 newsmen, radio-TV personnel for fourth place in the SWC standings on the September ballot. Texas was a heavy pick for the crown, as 58 ballots foresaw the Orange in first place by December.

Only 13 of the 114 ballots had the Razorback team in first place, and three others picked the Hogs to tie for the crown. Calling the correct shows were Joe Kelly, Lubbock Avalanche Journal; Charles Wadsworth, Wichita Falls Record-News; Jerry Jackson, Snyder Daily News; Jim Bell, Southwest American; Fred Smith, Ark.; Fred Miller, Dallas Morning News.

Actually the pollsters picked one spot correctly in September when Texas Tech, competing in SWC football for a first time, was the choice for seventh place.

The "miss" was the 22nd in the 27-year history of the poll. The poll has called the finish right on only five occasions—TCU, 1938, Texas, 1942, 1945, 1950; and TCU again in 1958.

The Hogs have made it a habit of bouncing from the "lower" ranks to win the crown. Last year, they were picked for fifth, but tied TCU and Texas for the title. In 1954, the Hogs were a 4th place choice, but the season was extended so was the pick for the 1954 title, but fell to a fifth place spot.

In fact, the Hogs have been a pre-season choice only once in the history of the poll. In 1937, the ballots predicted a tie for the title for Arkansas and Texas A&M. Neither won as Rice took the marbles, with Arkansas finishing third, and A&M tying Baylor for fourth.

Another surprise of the 1960 poll was the showing of the Rice Owls, who tied Texas and Baylor for the runner-up slot. Only five ballots had the Houston team marked for a higher finish than fourth place. Rice was the choice for a sixth place spot.

As usual the comments were interesting, but probably the most noteworthy came from Kelly, the sports editor of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal. With his choice of the Hogs, Kelly remarked: "It's time for a blind pig to find an acorn. The year tried a novel experiment. Had my teenage daughter, who couldn't pick a winning horse at Ruidoso, pick them. Now we're both wrong."

The predicted finish of the 114 ballots: 1—Texas; 2—TCU; 3—Baylor; 4—Arkansas; 5—SMU; 6—Rice; 7—Texas Tech; 8—Texas A&M.

South Banking On Air Attack

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—With a pair of star passers eager to work, South Head Coach Paul Dietzel hopes there will be no rain to hamper his aerial attack in Saturday's Blue-Gray football game.

However, North Head Coach Jack Mollenkopf, finding little mud at Cranton Bowl, says he doubts rain would make much difference except at the gate.

The weather bureau says it will be cloudy, but no rain is predicted. Kickoff will be at 2 p.m. (EST) as the North seeks to continue its winning ways of the past two years.

The game will be telecast and broadcast nationally (NBC). The Southwest Conference basketball teams that took to the hardwood Thursday night managed to break even in inter-sectional play.

The Baylor Bears, who hadn't won a game until this week, continued to pace the loop teams in this week's victories.

The Bears, who trounced Oklahoma City Tuesday, downed New York University 38-50 Thursday in the All-College tournament at Oklahoma City.

Texas Christian, playing in the same tournament bowled to the University of Houston 85-72.

The holiday doubleheader at Lubbock Thursday night proved to be a clean sweep for the Southwest Conference. Texas Tech slamed "Air Force Academy" 81-40 while Texas A&M trounced Eastern Kentucky 76-57.

Bowl Slate Reviewed

By JOHN CHANDLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
The New Year's weekend college football bowl firing opens tonight in the Tangerine Bowl game at Orlando, Fla., and winds up Monday with the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif.

An estimated 500,000-plus fans will surge over assorted bowl all-star games.

Heading the list as usual is the oldest of them all, the Rose Bowl clash, this time between Minnesota (9-1) of the Big Ten and Washington (9-1) of the Big Five. Minnesota ended the season as the nation's No. 1 team in the annual AP poll and is a 7-point favorite to clip Washington, rated No. 2.

A crowd of 103,000 is expected for the Pasadena battle, largest of the bowl tournaments. The game is to be televised (NBC) starting at 8 p.m. Eastern Standard Time. Tomorrow's Tangerine Bowl has the Citadel (7-2) against Tennessee Tech (8-2), with 11,000 fans expected.

In addition to the Rose Bowl, Monday's other attractions are the Sugar Bowl in New Orleans, the Orange at Miami, and the Cotton at Dallas.

Mississippi, No. 2, tackles Rice in the Sugar Bowl; Navy, No. 4, opposes Missouri, No. 5, in the Orange Bowl; and Arkansas, No. 7, meets Duke, No. 10, in the Cotton Bowl.

The Sugar Bowl crowd is expected to hit 81,000, with Mississippi favored by 10 points over Rice (7-3). Missouri (9-1) is 6½ over Navy (9-1) at Miami, where a crowd of 76,000, including President-elect John F. Kennedy, is forecast. The Cotton Bowl turnout is estimated at 65,000, and Arkansas (8-2) is a 7 point choice over Duke (7-3).

That leaves seven other bowls for Saturday, headed by the Gator at Jacksonville, Fla., between Baylor (8-2) and Florida (8-2); the East-West Shrine game in San Francisco. Florida and Baylor are "pick 'em" while East rates a five point edge over West.

The Gator Bowl crowd is estimated to be 50,000 with television (CBS) at 2:15 p.m. EST. A turnout of 60,000 is looked for at San Francisco, with television (NBC) at 4:50 p.m.

Running down the other Saturday contests:

Utah State (9-1) vs. New Mexico State (10-0) in the El Paso (Tex.) Sun Bowl, 15,000; Blue-Gray College Stars at Montgomery, Ala., 20,000, television (NBC) 2 p.m.; National All-Stars vs. Southwest All-Stars, Copper Bowl, Tempe, Ariz., 23,000; Texas A&I (7-1) vs. Arkansas Tech (10-0), Great Southwest Bowl, Grand Prairie, Tex., 9,000; and Prairie View Bowl, Houston, Arkansas A. M. & N. (6-4) vs. Prairie View (9-1), 10,000.

A Junior Editors Quiz on FRUITS

QUESTION: Where do dates come from?

ANSWER: The date is the fruit of the date palm tree. It has been a choice food for man for centuries and references to it appear constantly in the poems and proverbs of the East. Bricks from ancient Mesopotamia, dating back more than 5000 years, contain directions for growing the date palm. The tree is a stately one. It is perhaps the oldest cultivated tree known to history. It is cultivated in North African countries, China, Spain, France, Italy and the Southwestern United States. The date is a light golden color on the tree, but when it is dried it is a deep russet or brown. It is oblong in shape and more than an inch long. It is fleshy and sweet and as a food is as nourishing as wheat or corn flour. The tree is a great producer of fruit, bearing from 100 to 500 pounds a year. Trees may bear fruit for as much as 100 years.

FOR YOU TO DO: The next time you have dates, check the package to see where they come from. You will find many come from California or Arizona. If they do, try to get some which come from foreign lands and compare the difference in taste.

Say Vice Claims Are Exaggerated

BEAUMONT (AP)—The Jefferson County Grand Jury Thursday laid "exaggerated" charges by Rep. Tom Jones that vice conditions in this Southeast Texas area are the "oldest, largest and most thoroughly organized in the state." The grand jury, in its final report, criticized James, vice chairman of the House General Investigating Committee, claiming his statements presented a "distorted picture of conditions in our county." The grand jury backed law enforcement officers in the county, contending they did their duty and are doing a "satisfactory" job. Included in the grand jury report was the following: "This grand jury feels that the people who are at present holding office in these agencies either by election or being employed by city fathers are doing a satisfactory job. No evidence has been presented to this grand jury that any member of our law enforcement agencies has failed in his duty either by way of omission or commission. "If the voters have any reason to think otherwise, they should remove such persons from office at the next election." James was invited to appear before the jury Dec. 13, several days after he made his allegations of widespread vice and law enforcement breakdowns in Jefferson County. James' allegations were made on the basis of gambling raids carried out Dec. 3 by Texas Rangers, representatives of the investigating committee and intelligence agents of the Department of Public Safety and the Pen. Club in Midcounty and six downtown Beaumont clubs. "The grand jury report said that the jurors' discussion with James of 'certain alleged vice conditions' was of a 'harmonious and amicable' nature. "We, the grand jury, are well aware that the gambling charges filed against the establishments and the statements made pertaining to them are warranted. "We are also aware that an investigation into the general conditions of alleged vice in this county is timely due to the results of those raids. "However, we wish to state emphatically that the statements made by James, county vice conditions called worst in state, 'vice operations in Beaumont area are oldest, largest and most thoroughly organized in the state of Texas' are unwarranted, but, on the other hand present distorted and exaggerated picture of conditions in our county. "James charged that grand jury report issued earlier Thursday night 'confesses its own deficiency.' "In a statement which he read at a press conference James contended: "The grand jury report contains its own deficiency. In the second paragraph it said that the grand jury had made no investigation of any places where our laws may have been violated. This is somewhat dismaying to follow.

Such a statement with the conclusion that since the grand jury had not investigated the situation that we found here in Jefferson County they do not think it exists. "Particularly questionable is the report statement that crime and vice in Jefferson County is no worse than in other parts of the state. To be qualified to make this comparison the grand jury necessarily would have to know what the statewide situation is. In view of their statement that they have not investigated their local problem, it is doubtful that they made such a statewide study as this committee has."

James said the Texas Legislative Council, at his request, began preparing Wednesday a bill for him to sponsor in the legislature to create the special grand jury "similar to the blue ribbon grand juries named by federal judges to look into specific cases." James said he also planned to introduce a bill to rotate the job of naming grand jury commissions among the various district judges. At present the commission is named here by the judge of the criminal district court.

Steer Wrestlers Head Into Stretch

By ROBERT E. FORD DALLAS (AP)—The top steer wrestlers of rodeo went into the final six rounds of the national finals today setting a new record in the fight for the title of world champion. A come-from-behind old-timer, Harley May of Okadale, Calif., skyrocketed to second place in the standings after starting the finals in fourth slot. He did it Thursday night by throwing his best 3 1/2 seconds flat—the best time of this year's finals so far. He cut two seconds off the previous best time, set by Bob A. Robinson, a rodeo youngster at 26. Robinson is from Rockland, Idaho, and leads the field at the moment in steer wrestling. Robinson, fighting off Mary's challenge for the steer wrestling crown, won fourth place in the fourth go-round Thursday night. Meanwhile May, 32 and a product of collegiate rodeo at Sul Ross College, Alpine, Tex., took first place and 347 points to Robinson's 27. Only 1,227.25 points separate the pair, with 3,126 points still up for grabs before the Jan. 1 closing of the finals. Each dollar of prize money won equals one point. The fast pace eliminated 10 contestants from title consideration in four go-rounds. Other remaining in contention are Jim Painter, McAlester, Okla., and James Bynum, Fort Worth, Tex. Bynum lost his steer Thursday night but climbed aboard his horse again and made a successful second try, thereby remaining in contention for $2,610 in prize money for the best average score over the 10 finals performances. Equally blistering was the pace set by calf ropers, although Dean Oliver, Boise, Idaho, wrapped up the title before the final began because no one can overcome his point lead. Harry Charters, Meba, Idaho, tied his calf in 11.1 seconds, the best time of the national finals, now in their second year. The previous record was set by Lee Cockrell, Panhandle, Tex., in 1959. Other fourth go-round winners were Jack Buschhorn, Cassville, Wis., in bareback bronc riding; Billy Hand, Laxahatche, Fla., in bull riding; and Winston Bruce, Calgary, Alta., Canada, in saddle bronc riding. Buddy Peak, Tucson, Ariz., became the current star of bull riding when he stuck with his animal. He is the only one of the 15 contestants who has not been thrown. If Peak can stay with his bull through the remaining six go-rounds, he automatically will win the top "average" money of $1,044, although he has no chance left to win the world championship in that event. Harry Tompkins, Dublin, Tex., leading the race for all-around champion cowboy of the world, again demonstrated that he is in a crippling slump in bull riding. He had not stayed aboard any bull in the four go-rounds. He picked up 217.50 points in

Ex-Teacher's Case Reversed

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Zarlie L. Reynolds, 49, a former teacher at Ohio's Antioch College, was guilty only of trespassing when he sailed into the Eniwetok nuclear testing area in July, 1958. So ruled the U.S. Court of Appeals Thursday. The court reversed Reynolds' 1960 conviction for invasion of the 300,000-square-mile Pacific Test Area in defiance of an Atomic Energy Commission regulation.

Man Charged With Stealing Papers

COLUMBIA, S. C. (AP)—A former defense department employee has been charged with stealing secret documents.

Arthur Rogers Roddey, 38, of Falls Church, Va., told newsmen he took the papers "to take them to the National Security Council." He said after his arrest Thursday, "I felt I was right and I still feel that way."

The council is the top echelon of the department of defense. Roddey was senior operations research adviser for the weapons system evaluation group of the Institute of Defense Analysis.

A newsmen asked Roddey at his arraignment if he felt the documents contained information he thought the council should have but that it had not been given.

"I don't know what they knew, but I know what I knew and wanted them to know it," he replied. He conceded he did not take the documents to the council.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation said the case does not involve espionage.

In Richmond, Va., however, U. S. Dist. Atty. Joseph S. Barnabas, who authorized filing of the charges, commented, "I plan to reconvict the federal grand jury in Alexandria (Va.) within the next 10 days and I will ask the grand jury to indict Roddey on espionage charges."

He said some of the documents are "so highly classified that their mere existence, let alone their contents, are top secret."

The FBI announcement of Roddey's arrest said he made false statements about possession of documents when he left the job in August.

The FBI charged that Roddey took a top secret tape recorder and approximately 200 documents. Roddey said he had known since September that he was under investigation. He expressed relief that the charges were no more severe and "actually are as indicated to me previously."

He was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Henry W. Kirkland. There were two counts of theft of government property and three counts of fraud.

He was held in lieu of $15,000 bond, pending removal to Virginia.

Roddey chatted with newsmen while waiting for papers to be drawn up by Kirkland.

"The only reason I'm doing this well, these charges are serious charges," he said, "and I feel I was doing right while I violated the law in doing what I did."

He continued, "this is something bigger than what I'm being charged with."

Roddey worked in the Pentagon from 1958 until the staff was cut last August. He came here a week ago to spend Christmas at the home of his mother-in-law.

Klan Plan Is Promised

ATLANTA (AP)—A Georgia Ku Klux Klan official says next month "we will reveal our weapon which will stop the integration movement in the South."

The statement of O. F. Craig, grand dragon of the U. S. Klans, knights of the Ku Klux Klan, followed the resignation of another Klan leader because he saw "no way to stop racial integration."

Craig said the resigned klanman, Bill Hendrix, of Oldsmar, Fla., was not connected with his group. Hendrix was grand dragon of the Ku Klux Klan's Southern-Northern knights.

"The U. S. Klan has never considered surrendering and we shall never surrender," said Craig in announcing a Jan. 28 meeting in Atlanta to reveal plans for making "the biggest struggle known in the South to preserve segregation."

Dozen Actors And Writers Are Suing Major Studios

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—A dozen movie writers and actors, three of them Academy Award winners, are suing major studios for 7.5 million in damages and demanding abolition of an alleged political blacklist in Hollywood.

Four of the plaintiffs were members of the famed "unfriendly 10," who were convicted of contempt of Congress and sent to jail in 1947 after refusing to say whether they had ever been Communists.

The suit, directed against eight studios, was to be filed today in U. S. District Court at Washington, D. C.

The plaintiffs, who contend they were deprived of work in Hollywood because they were on the alleged blacklist, are writers Nedrick Young, Albert Malt, John Howard Lawson, Herbert Biberman, Lester Cole, Robert L. Richards, Frederick I. Rinaldo and Philip Stevenson, and performers Gale Sondergaard, Alvin Hammer, Mary Virginia Farmer and Shimen Ruskin.

Malt, Young and Miss Sondergaard are Oscar winners. Malt, Lawson, Biberman and Cole were members of the "unfriendly 10."

A. I. Wirin, one of the plaintiffs' attorneys, said the suit charges conspiracy and is being filed under anti-trust laws.

Wirin, associated with the American Civil Liberties Union, said this is the first time anti-trust laws have been used "to secure enforcement of civil rights."

"The Sherman Anti-Trust Act makes it unlawful for persons to agree not to employ any person or group of persons," he added.

"In this case, the complaint alleges there was an agreement by all those named as defendants not to employ persons who invoked the Fifth Amendment before a congressional committee or who refused to furnish information to a congressional committee."

All the plaintiffs fall into one or the other of these categories, Wirin said.

Hollywood studios have denied the existence of a blacklist, but Wirin said such a list has been used since 1947 and now contains more than 200 names. He said the suit would detail how the alleged blacklist has been employed.

An application for an injunction, which would restrain studios from blacklisting, was to be filed with the suit. Wirin said damages are being demanded to compensate the plaintiffs for income lost while they were on the purported blacklist. Some writers said to be on such a list have written for the movies under assumed names.

Defendant studios are Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Columbia, Paramount, 20th Century-Fox, Warner Brothers, Universal, International, Walt Disney Productions and Allied Artists. Also named are the Motion Picture Association of America and the Association of Motion Picture Producers.

Postcard Writer Draws Sentence

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—A man of 58 who said he likes prison drew three years from a federal judge for writing postcards threatening to kill President Eisenhower.

Laurence G. Thompson told officers he only writes such threats when he is drunk and can only stay sober when he is behind bars.

His criminal record shows about 30 convictions—three of them for threatening the President. His time served totals nearly 40 years.

He drew the latest sentence Thursday.

Says Africa Is Red Goal

MADRID (AP)—Gen. Francisco Franco of Spain said Thursday night Communist penetration in Africa is a main goal of the Soviet Union.

In his year-end annual broadcast to the head of the Spanish state said, "The arrival of Russian war material in North Africa and the assistance being given by Soviet Russia will end by upsetting the peace and independence of those countries."

Franco said communism has declared a "revolutionary war."

"For communism," he said, "this which we call peace is but war with different means and procedures."

Most of the 6,000-word speech was devoted to discussion of the transformation of Spain since the end of the Spanish civil war in 1939.

He said the Spanish economy currently is the strongest it has been in many years.

Motion To Evict Man From Jail

WOODLAND, Calif. (AP)—A hearing will be held Jan. 3 on a motion to evict Fred Block from the Yolo County jail, where he has languished the past nine years rather than pay child support to his ex-wife.

Block, 67, has been in custody on an indefinite sentence for contempt of court since July 28, 1952. He has declared he never will pay, and moreover he has refused to leave the jail.

The child in the case, Yvonne, since has married.

County officials figure it has cost $11,340 to maintain Block in jail the past nine years.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Thomas A. Partell told the court Thursday that Block is "a burden on the taxpayers of the county of Yolo" and that no practical purpose is served by keeping him in jail.
