"I Have a Little Pony"

Among the early fans of Mitchell County Fair's Midway rides were the two small daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Don Compton, 129 Houston St. here. The two little sisters are, left, Kimberley, and right, Toni, who chose rides astride real live ponies instead of the traditional merry-go-round horses.

Reunion Brings Prizes To Old Timer Citizens

NEARLY 500 ENTRIES

'63 Fair Gates Swing Open After Judging

Fair time arrived officially at 5 o'clock this afternoon. Judging of the entries in various divisions of the '63 Mitchell County Fair began at 2 p. m. today.

Doors of the Fair were scheduled to swing open at 5 p. m. today to remain open until 9 p. m. both Thursday and Friday. Saturday hours are 5-8 p. m. Women's Division and Youth Division, with Mrs. Sidney Compton as chairman, has drawn the biggest number of entries this fair season. Total number of entries listed by deadline time today noon were 175 for the club and open classes for women and youth.

Flower show, when ready for judging for ribbon awards, had more than 100 colorful entries competing in classes for roses, 'mums, berried shrubs, and numerous other garden flowers along with pot plants. Mrs. Ruth Airhart is the Horticulture Division chairman.

Arts & Crafts, with Mrs. Don Benson as Division head, had a total of 88 exhibits in the classes being judged to choose ribbon winners in oil portraits and paintings of landscapes, watercolors, ceramics and others.

Agriculture Division, headed by Jim Kelley, had 135 entries by deadline time, 1 p. m. today.

Texas Game & Fish Wildlife exhibit, housed in the north part of the Ag building, was set up and ready to show by 2 p. m. today. Wildlife exhibit hours will be the same as those observed by the other exhibits of the Fair.

Midway rides and some booths will be kept open longer hours through Fair closing time, 8 p. m. Saturday.

Celebration Attracts More than 250 Pioneers

By RUTH COFFEY
Record News Editor

Between 250 and 300 Mitchell County pioneers celebrated Old Timer's Reunion Day here in Historical Museum Thursday morning.

Early hours were given over to informal greetings and nostalgic recollections of other and older days, after guests were registered.

Formal program began at 10:30 when Porter Richardson, master of ceremonies, introduced the guest speaker from Austin, Pat Bullock.

Bullock, an early-day school teacher who grew up in Mitchell County and later served this district as State Senator, is now chairman of the Texas State Board of Pardon and Paroles. His welcome address was alive with anecdotes bringing back the days when he and this town and a number of Reunion guests were young. Judge Austin McCloud, recently appointed judge of 32nd Dist. spoke the response to Bullock's welcome address.

Miss Martha Earnest, native daughter of Colorado City won first prize in the "Tall Tales of Early Colorado City" contest.

Robert McMurtry, former Colorado City man who now ranches at China Springs, took second prize.

Third prize in the "Tall Tale" competition was won by Walter Carter, now of Sweetwater. All three winners were present to accept their "Tall Tale" prizes.

The contest, which proved to be one of the morning's most amusing highlights, was one for written entries and was judged by a committee earlier this week.

Miss Mabel Smith, a pioneer resident of Colorado City, made the "Tall Tale" prize awards. Winning honorable mention were "Tall Tales" submitted in the episode writing contest by Mrs. Ray Noble, Mrs. Lottie Wilson, Mrs. Willie Conaway Byrd, Mrs. Ida McGuire Holt, Mrs. E. A. Barcroft, Pat Bullock and Judge Cotton, now of Seagraves.

At 11 a. m. one minute of silent prayer honored the memory of pioneers of Mitchell County.

Charles C. Thompson, banker-attorney-rancher and lifelong citizen of the county, presented the award plaques in five enthusiastic contests to L. C. Devore.

Faulkenberry Funeral Held

Last rites for Mrs. Ollie Edna Faulkenberry, 71, were said in First Methodist Church in Lorraine Monday afternoon at 1:30 with the pastor, the Rev. Frank Story, officiating. Born in Grosbeck Oct. 26, 1891, Mrs. Faulkenberry died in Lubbock, Saturday, after a long illness. She first moved to Lorraine in 1906 and was married there to James A. Faulkenberry, Dec. 22, 1915. Mr. Faulkenberry died Nov. 11, 1958.

Mrs. Faulkenberry was a member of the Methodist Church. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. A. A. Johnson and Mrs. Gene Ball, both of Ft. Worth; five sons, Dr. T. G. Faulkenberry of Brownfield; David Faulkenberry of Big Spring; Sam of Seattle, Washington; Forest of Lamesa; and Hester Faulkenberry of Pecos. One sister, Mrs. Minnie Rushing of The Cumech, Okla., also survives. Burial was in Lorraine cemetery under direction of Kiker & Son Funeral Home. Pall bearers were Jack Walker, Jim Templeton, Price Hall, Ray Preston, Ted Lefevre and George Mahoney.

City Bank Deposits Loans at New High

Prosperity? Deposits are at an all-time high for the Autumn Statement Call, City National Bank in Colorado City.

Loans are at an all-time high. "This increase in deposits," said City National President Charles C. Thompson, "is attributable to the fact that City National Bank has more time deposits than in the past—due to the higher current interest rate."

Thompson attributed the high point in loans to the increased loan demand in this area. Comparative figures for Sept. 30, 1963, with figures one year ago (Sept. 30, 1962) in the bank's statement for the first nine months (third quarterly report) follow.

TO DEBUT SOON

Courthouse 3rd Floor Acquiring New Look

The 1963 look for third floor in the courthouse is almost ready for a "coming out party" with the public to be invited.

Complete remodeling and refurnishing of the 32nd District court in Mitchell County Courthouse is expected to be finished by Monday.

V. E. Stone, contractor, had workers installing the new benches for spectators and new upholstered chairs for jurors and attorneys late Friday.

Part of a long-term improvement project, the third floor remodeling job has been done by Mitchell County Commissioners on a "pay-as-we-go" basis.

Project has included extensive modernization—lowering of ceilings, closing of some windows and installation of new steel windows, indirect lighting, air-conditioning, vinyl floor covering, and new ultra-modern overnight accommodations for jurors.

Women's suite for jurors has complete bath and attractive tiled dressing table. Suite for men jurors has new tile shower.

Upon completion, the courtroom itself, will boast new judge's bench and witness stand which match the walnut paneling of walls, an acoustical ceiling has been installed.

Contractor Stone expects County Judge Elmer Martin said, to begin next week, the final work on rooms for jurors which are partially complete.

Hanson Clark was architect for plans which have changed the entire face of third floor.

Open house party for all Mitchell County is planned by the commissioners at a date to be announced when all work is done. The reception for showing third floor to citizens will probably be set for some Sunday afternoon late in October or early in November, Judge Martin said.

With emphasis on good lighting, better central heat and air-conditioning, the new look of third floor's District Court has the added attraction of new lighter floors of a warm golden-toned beige vinyl, teamed with a compatible green in the comfortable chairs for jury, attorneys and court officials.

Miss George Foster Slowly Improving

Condition of Miss George Maedell Foster, critically injured in an automobile accident near Lubbock several weeks ago is reported by friends in Colorado City to be improved.

Last week Miss Foster underwent a series of surgical repairs for several fractures and stood the operations well, her minister, Ray Holland, of 22nd and Austin Sts. Church of Christ, said.

County Judge Fines Three After Pleas

Judge Elmer Martin heard two pleas of guilty in Mitchell County Court this week.

Sam Wallace McFaddin, who entered a plea of guilty to DWI charges, first offense, was assessed a fine of $65, plus court costs and the mandatory three days in jail.

Higinio Flores DeLeon, who pleaded guilty to DWI, was also fined $65 plus costs and given a three day sentence in Mitchell County Jail.

Other County Court trials, recently, included two cases involving charges of bootlegging. Charles Taplin pleaded guilty to a charge of selling whiskey in a legally dry territory. Judge Martin fixed Taplin's fine at $200 and costs after hearing evidence. Frank Ginzler, county attorney was prosecutor. Taplin has a previous conviction for selling alcohol.

Ishmael Garcia entered a plea of guilty to a charge of illegal possession of alcohol for the purpose of sale. He was fined $100 and costs.

Church Rites Tuesday For Lopez Infant

Funeral for Juanito Lopez, one-day-old infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Pedro Lopez of Route 3, was held at 1 p. m. Tuesday in St. Ann's Catholic Church.

The baby was born Sunday in Johnson's Hospital at Lorraine and died Monday. He is survived by his parents and 3 brothers and 3 sisters.

Father Arthur Kaiser, pastor of St. Ann's, officiated for rites which were followed by burial in Mitchell County cemetery under direction of Kiker & Son.

Wife Helps Shaw Win Probation

Charles Hay Shaw pleaded guilty in 32nd District Court here Friday to charges of felony child desertion.

Shaw, father of five children, was under indictment by a Mitchell County Grand Jury on the felony charges.

Joe Earnest, attorney appointed by Judge Austin McCloud to defend Shaw, entered a plea of guilty for the defendant, earnestly introduced as witness for the defense Mrs. Jean Shaw, wife of the defendant.

Mrs. Shaw testified that she had reconciled with her husband and that he is now reunited with her and the children.

Judge McCloud handed the defendant a two-year sentence to the penitentiary, after hearing the guilty plea and the wife's statement, then placed Shaw on probation.

by Mrs. Rogers, with invocation by Mrs. Martin. Following singing of club songs led by Mrs. M. L. Kirschbaum, accompanied by Miss Ruth Hightower. Mrs. Richardson introduced the guest speaker, Irvin Fisher.

Fisher is district supervisor of the Social Security office in Bie Spring. He spoke on Social Security programs. After his address, Fisher conducted a question and answer period.

Mrs. Richardson talked on Civic Participation. She gave a history of the various organizations the club has shared projects with beginning with donations to the "Band Shell" in Riddick Park, and more recently, a school award to Beverly Grubbs, granddaughter of a former president of B&PW, Esther Grubbs Thomas.

She reminded members that future stress is on each one of them, that they may assume full partnership in club projects.

Announcement was made by Mrs. Richardson of Colorado City's winning entry in District 7 of the state-wide contest for Miss BPWC. Local contestant Mrs. Jesse L. Jones was judged on her record of interest, committee work, civic work and loyalty to club and members, of qualifications necessary for a typical club member. District 7 includes eleven clubs.

Meeting was closed with the emblem benediction.

Members present were Mrs. Kirschbaum, Arnel Smith, Phillip Berman, Nell Carpenter, Roy Dozier, Keith Miles, H. I. Berman, Annie Dixon, Ethel Hardegree, Roxie Witten, I. J. Pierce, Mildred Truan, Mary Post, Travis Pritchett, Jones, Thelma Tidwell, Haynes Nelms, Margaret Oyler, Martin, Rogers, Richardson, Annie Mary Morgan, Misses Hightower, Nelda Garrett, Effie Copeland, Idalia Wood.

Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock a seated tea will be hosted by the club in honor of the state president of B & PW, Mrs. William Conroe of Lubbock. Tea will be held in Medallion Room of the Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative building. This will conclude activities for National Business Women's Week for 1963.

REUNION—

name outstanding guests to the Reunion.

Bert Wulfjen, who has lived in Mitchell County continuously since 1884, won the plaque awarded the pioneer who has lived here longest (without interruption.)

Raymond Jones, Milwaukee, Wis., took the trophy as guest who traveled the longest distance to attend the Reunion. Jones is one of the two sons of City Judge Lee Jones Sr. who has been a Colorado City citizen since 1890. Lee Jones Jr. of San Antonio was also a guest present for the pioneer day festivities.

Petite Miss Sallie Haltom, 101 years young, smilingly accepted from Thompson the plaque as the "oldest pioneer present." Miss Haltom, aunt of Mr. and Mrs. Sims Palmer with whom she makes her home, is Colorado City's oldest citizen — when it comes to counting happy birthdays.

Choice of the married couple who have lived longest (continuously) in Mitchell County proved the liveliest contest. To Mr. and Mrs. Will Berry, pioneer rancher in the Cuthbert Community, went the honor. Mr. and Mrs. Berry have been married 51 years—all spent in this county.

Runners-up were Mr. and Mrs. A. K. McCarley of Longfellow and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Jones, Rendonbrook Ranch. Both the McCarleys and the Joneses have been married 49 years and have spent that same number of years in the county.

Youngest pioneer present was Tom Morrison III, who solemnly accepted the plaque honoring him. Tom III is son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Morrison II, and grandson of a long line of Mitchell County early day residents.

Adjournment was just before the noon hour today. Among informal speeches were those made by Harry Ratliff, president of the Historical Museum, and state Senator David Ratliff, of Stamford, who was among the many out-of-town guests here for the 1963 Old Timer's Reunion.

Other guests were here from Ft. Worth, Big Spring, Abilene, Sweetwater, Snyder, and Silver. The Rev. John Elliott, Ft. Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Greene, Big Spring, Mrs. H. G. Towle of Snyder, and W. A. Bennett of Scurry County were among the distinguished guests who registered for the day which annually brings together pioneers of this area.

The Reunion is a yearly celebration planned each October on the opening day of Mitchell County Fair which got underway at 5 p. m. Thursday with opening of exhibit buildings.

Midway rides and booths are also part of the fair being staged this year at Mitchell County Agriculture building and grounds.

Official host for the day was Mrs. Pete Ainsworth. In charge of registration desks was Mrs. Douglas Burns. Reception committee chairman was Mrs. Oscar B. Price. Refreshments were served by pioneer daughters and granddaughters of the town and county.

"Out of the Wild blue Yonder"

Pairs of all wild ducks and geese which winter in Texas will be in the Wildlife Exhibit displayed at the Fair for '63 here. Pairs of numerous birds of Texas—quail, mourning dove, whitewinged dove, chachalaca, roadrunner, along with the American bald eagle, golden eagle and prairie chickens will be on display in the exhibit at Mitchell County Agriculture Building. (TEXAS GAME & FISH PHOTO.)

After-Game Sock Hop Saturday

After-the-game Sock Hop will be held in Episcopal Church Parish Hall immediately following the Wolves-Anson Tigers game Saturday night.

All high school age students from Colorado City and Anson are invited to attend. Special invitation is extended to all CHS exes in town for homecoming.

There will be a dance contest, local disk jockey, and food sandwiches, potato chips and soft drinks will be served.

Party will close promptly at midnight, and will be chaperoned by a couple from each of the sponsoring churches: First Methodist, First Presbyterian, First Christian and All Saints Episcopal.

FUTURE TEACHERS

Carla Britton Heads Loraine Chapter

Carla Britton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Britton, was installed Tuesday as 1963-64 president of the Loraine High School Chapter of the Future Teachers of America.

Special candle lighting ceremony was held in high school assembly with Joyce Furlow, immediate past president, as chairman for installation of officers and induction of new members.

Other officers who were installed by Miss Furlow were Judy McDaniel, vice-president; Sheila Oliver, secretary; Nancy Coffee, treasurer; Carol Little, historian; and Joe Cushing, parliamentarian.

The entire student body of Loraine high school was present and members of the club were seated in a group.

Preston C. Lightfoot, faculty advisor of the chapter, welcomed students and told the purpose of the assembly. He recognized the 41 members and reported on the FTA District IV Convention and Mr. and Miss FTA contest.

Loraine High School FTA Chapter was chartered by the National Education Association and the Texas State Teachers Association on March 15, 1962 and the chapter was designated as No. 453. Loraine club had nine officers and members to attend the Texas Future Teachers of America State Convention in Dallas last year. This year's FTA State Convention will be held in Austin on Feb. 28-29.

Vance Dickenson, Loraine High School principal, spoke to officers and members of the Loraine FTA Chapter concerning their responsibility for making the chapter a success.

Sheila Oliver, secretary, presented the purposes of FTA: to advance the interests of the teaching profession, to promote the welfare of students and to foster the education of all people.

Fourteen new members were inducted by Miss Furlow. They are Charla Hamilton, senior; Linda Chapman, Linda Cornutt, and Charla Mae Martin, juniors; Linda Troutt, sophomore; R. J. Baumann,

CARLA BRITTON
Loraine FTA Prexy

Raymond Holt, Loraine High School Vocational Agriculture teacher and first vice-president of the Mitchell County Teachers Association, welcomed Loraine High School FTA Chapter members as junior members of the resolve to work together in the spirit of loyalty to service and to humanity and always go their part in building and strengthening the teaching profession.

A short business meeting followed the installation ceremony.

Wesleyan Service Guild to Study Asia

Wesleyan Service Guild of First Methodist Church will begin study of a new book at their meeting Monday. "Christian Issues in Southern Asia" by P. D. Devanandian will be taught by Mrs. Tommie Vermer. Meeting will be in the parlor of the church.

secretary; Gretchen Helm, reporter; Anne Rhode, senior business manager; Pam Pratt, junior business manager; and Neta Erwin, president. Wolverine uniforms are black sweaters, centered with a snarling wolf's head, red pleated skirts, and white blouses.

Petty Coming Home from Korea Duty

Expected to arrive in Colorado City late Saturday or early Sunday is Sp-4 Jimmie Don Petty who has been on duty in Ullomgbu, Korea, for the past 13 months.

Petty is the husband of the former Miss Mary Belle Stockton, secretary in the office of Mitchell County Attorney Frank Ghzel. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Stockton of 1944 12th St.

Parents of Sp-4 Petty are Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Petty of San Angelo. After a leave spent here and in San Angelo, he will go to his new post in the US Army Garrison in Yuma, Ariz. His wife has resigned her secretarial post at the courthouse and will accompany him to Arizona.

DR. LAVADA RATLIFF

McMurry Professor Speaks At Primary Parents' Night

"The New Arithmetic isn't new at all. It is basically the same old arithmetic; it is just taught differently," said Dr. Lavada Ratliff, as she addressed the "Parents' Night" audience at Primary School Tuesday evening.

"Parents' Night," an annual event at the school, was sponsored by Primary Parents-Teachers Association. Approximately 400 persons heard Dr. Ratliff, professor of education at McMurry College, discuss "New Methods of Teaching Arithmetic."

"During the past decade, the pace of mathematical discovery has accelerated amazingly and today mathematics is one of the fastest growing and most dynamically changing of all sciences," Dr. Ratliff said.

Dr. Ratliff told her listeners that space missiles are only symbols of the great expansion of scientific knowledge of the 20th century. "One of the most important factors contributing to this explosion is the revolutionary advance in both the development and the use of mathematics," she said.

The speaker pointed out that the main purpose of arithmetic instruction is to assist the learner in developing abilities necessary to solve problems of daily living, now and in the future. Mathematics provides skills, processes and a special way of thinking.

al kind of language which enables pupils to sharpen their thinking, perfect communication, or find precise formulation for new concepts, she said.

Dr. Ratliff quoted one writer on this topic as saying: "If mathematics is the language of precise communication, arithmetic may be considered its alphabet."

"Much consideration must be given to such topics as an understanding of the structure of arithmetic, mental hygiene in the classroom, guidance, provision for individual differences, use and preparation of materials, and other vital related topics bearing on the program for effective teaching of arithmetic," said the McMurry professor.

Dr. Ratliff, a graduate of Colorado State College with both bachelor and master degrees, also holds a Doctor of Education degree from the University of Texas. She is a teacher of wide experience at all age levels, from elementary to college. She has been at McMurry since 1960.

A short business session preceded the program by Dr. Ratliff. Mrs. Rush Barnett, president, presided and welcomed parents, teachers, and guests. Rev. Augustine Silveas of Baptist Mission led the prayer.

Upon motion by Brooks Teague, Primary principal, members voted to send two delegates to state convention. Delegates elected were Mrs. Barnett and Mrs. Charles Snider, with alternates, Mrs. James Williams and Mrs. Dick Gregory. If local membership qualifies the association for additional delegates, present alternates will also attend. Expenses of delegates will be paid by the association, PTA members decided.

Following a short address by Frank W. Wilson, superintendent of schools, Mrs. Brooks Teague introduced Dr. Ratliff.

Parents visited their children's classrooms and examined samples of work done by each child. Teachers were on hand to explain past work and plans for future study.

Shrinks Hemorrhoids Without Surgery Stops Itch — Relieves Pain

For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain — without surgery. In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. Most amazing of all — results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne) — discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form called Preparation 20. At all drug counters.

CONVERSATION CORNER

NOMINATED for the scientific experiment least likely to "catch on" with the general public is the one played up in a Sunday magazine supplement. It has to do with "Marriage By Machine." Having the experts choose your marriage partner for you by coded punch cards placed in an IBM Electronic Sorter.

Romantics of the world, arise! The time has come for us to call a meeting and organize the Society for the Preservation of the Right to Fall in Love. We can always call it the SPRFL for short.

THIS Dr. Riss of the Scientific Introduction Service admits right in print that "What we're trying to do is reverse the cultural process of courtship as we've known it in this country. . . . Instead of young people first falling in love . . . we want them to ascertain their compatibility quotients first."

The man needs to take time out to have his head examined. People practical enough to ascertain their compatibility quotients first are too practical to fall in love and get married in the first place. Or the second place, either.

AS for reversing "the cultural process of courtship," does he mean abolishing moonlight and music . . . hand-holding in the movie . . . goodnight kissing in the dark?

Courtship, as we've known it in this country, is usually not so "cultural" as it is compulsive. Would the scientific approach substitute an interview for that inner view people in love have for each other? How do they figure to do it?

MARRIAGES may—or may not—be made in Heaven. We're willing to wait for Eternity for the correct interpretation of that tricky question: And would not take an IBM's word for it, anyhow.

But it's a dead clinch marriages were never meant to be made in calculators, either.

JUST how would you go about getting a calculator to understand the tender little things that make music for the marriage-merry-go-round?

Ever try telling a machine how it is that young people trot to the altar because of things like the way one somebody's hair grows? The smile in the eyes . . . cleft in the chin . . . tone of the voice?

No? Well, fair enough then. Let the IBM tend to its business of billing and leave the cooing to people who still prefer to rely on Love in Bloom.

And let Dr. Riss go apply for a role in the Twilight Zone. Or maybe the Outer Limit.

Let there be no mechanical tampering
With nature's old sweet laws.
Let people marry because they're in love—
Because—well, just because.

OFF THE CUFF: Among former C-Citians expected here for the '63 Old Timer Reunion are Annis and Earl Hammond who now ranch a beautiful big "spread" near Marfa.

The Hammonds were hosts last weekend to two C-City couples Lucille and Oren Trulock and Julia and Roy Warren. The three couples spent a long and beautiful day seeing the sights in Big Bend National Park.

ASKED longtime friend Lucille Trulock, via Alexander Graham Bell, about her son Capt. C. A. Wilkens to find he's now in the University of Nebraska at Omaha and will receive his degree, come January. After that, he and his pretty wife Marian and their children Cecile and Walter will move back to Tucson, Arizona, where he will again fly the supersonic 101-F as jet pilot.

The Trulocks, Lucille and Oren, met the Wilkens family in Frederick, Okla., recently, just before they took off for Omaha from Tucson where Capt. C. A. is stationed with the U. S. Air Force.

AMONG football fans who must have been suffering from divided loyalties last Friday when our Wolves played Ballinger Bearcats was Jerome (Buck) Buxkemper—former C-City coach. Buck and his wife Harriet were here for the game.

They're both students in Hardin-Simmons University for graduate study this term. He's an old Ballinger boy who's been teaching in schools for American Army children in Germany.

Mrs. Strange Gives Rules Program

Mrs. Gwan Strange presented a program on parliamentary procedure at the first business meeting of the year for 1949 Study Club Thursday afternoon.

Meeting was hosted by president Mrs. Dick Gregory. Leader for the day was Mrs. Arlene Morris.

Mrs. Strange's program topic was entitled, "Madame President." She selected rules for Roberts' Rules of Order and explained how they could be used to facilitate proper business meetings, for both members and presiding officers.

Constitution and by-laws were reviewed by Mrs. Strange, who emphasized various items of importance which help the club to be an efficient organization.

Preceding the program, Mrs. Morris opened the meeting with the club collect. Roll call was made by secretary, Mrs. Bob Barman. Members answered with information on various subjects, which were assigned to them. Reading of minutes followed.

Mrs. Gregory presided for the business, which included presentation of budget by the Finance Committee. Mrs. Thar on Henderson gave report on federation meeting. Club correspondence was read to members.

A sandwich plate was served by the hostess, Mrs. Gregory, to Mmes. Barman, Bill Carter, Art Dibble, Henderson, Bill Holbert, Jack Jordan, Jr., Jerry Konecny, Morris, Tom Neff, Ben Sparks, Strange, Dwight Tomb, Joe Weaver, Paul Gilbert.

APPRECIATION . . .

In this hurly-burly, rush-rush life of ours, we get in such a hurry that we run by—almost without noticing—some of the finer things.

That's why I appreciate the good citizens who each year do the planning and work for our Old-Timers Reunion.

This reunion is one way of causing us to slow down briefly and focus on the heritage and spirit and citizenship that placed the solid foundation for this great West Texas area.

So a pat on the back for Mrs. Oscar Price, Mrs. Pete Ainsworth, Mrs. Douglas Burns and all the rest who had a hand and a heart in making our Old-Timers Reunion a success.

Progress In Repeal of Poll Tax

One of the better characteristics of Governor John Connally's administration is the leadership for meritorious aims and principles, whether these aims and principles are controversial or not.

Instead of waiting for public opinion to be shaped and patterned by pressure groups, the governor repeatedly stepped to the front and sought to direct and lead his state in paths of progress on taxation, higher education, civil rights and others.

He is doing it again now as he personally requests Democratic leaders throughout the state educate and organize to repeal the state's poll tax in the coming November general election.

The governor's personal request to organize the repeal movement is coordinated with an action move by Eugene Locke, state chairman of Texas Democratic Executive Committee.

Their aim—Connally's and Locke's—is to see that local committees are shored up in every county within our state so that Texans will be sure to vote for poll tax repeal and not be misled by pressure groups, name calling and prejudiced cries between now and the November election.

Democratic leaders of Mitchell County should lose no time in joining hands with the governor and their state chairman in this repeal movement.

The poll tax is going out, as it should. Citizens have come to realize more and more in late years that proper registration is a good and necessary part of our election process, but that a poll tax payment is an artificial prerequisite for voting that is not in the best tradition of our democratic process.

This fact is pointed up by the results of the referendum last year in which Texas Democrats and Republicans—in each of their primary elections—counted majorities calling for abolition of the poll tax.

But there is even more reason now that Texas go ahead and wipe the poll tax out of its voting process. Failure to do so will cause confusion within the year.

Ratification by only four more states is needed for a U. S. constitutional amendment to go into effect abolishing the poll tax as a requirement in federal elections. This ratification is a certainty within the near future.

If Texas drops behind the pace of progress and retains the tax, then our state will have confusing dual qualifications for its voters. Persons with poll tax receipts will be eligible for voting in all elections from city and county and school boards to senatorial and presidential. Persons without poll taxes will be eligible for voting in primary and general elections for president, Congress and Senate and in the general election for all offices.

This dual voting requirement would cause undue confusion within the ranks of voters, muddle the election campaigns, and bind election judges with an entangling situation at voting time.

But most of all, retention of the poll tax would set up a first and second class voting condition for our citizenship—a condition that is hardly appropriate or fair within a democratic government.

Texas And The European Market

Two weeks of conferences with European Common Market officials resulted in some disturbing conclusions, according to Agriculture Commissioner John C. White.

"I think we are going to have to scratch and fight to keep the markets we have," said White. "If we don't, we may end up on the economic defensive."

Commissioner White and three agricultural economists from Texas attended a series of conferences in Europe during September. Their original mission, requested by Governor John Connally, was to inquire into future prospects of the 15-million dollar poultry market between Texas and EEC countries. It quickly became apparent that more was involved than just poultry.

One-fourth of Texas' total agricultural output goes into export markets and 60 to 70 per cent of this amount goes to the Common Market. European officials were firm in their requests for "quality" instead of "quantity" for today's purchases.

"The European Common Market men tell us we have a split personality in this regard," said White. "That is, we have high standards for commodities we use ourselves but will try to sell our off grades overseas."

"We won't be able to do this much longer. We cannot expect to be just order-takers in the future. We have to expect to compete on a quality basis."

Commissioner White said Europe especially complains about grain that is not cleaned. "They don't want to pay the freight on trash, hulls and impurities—and for good reason," he said.

Texas agriculture has an important stake in foreign policy, since most of our state farm products are saleable as exports. The four members of the Texas commission to Europe are in the process of preparing a report to Governor Connally on their findings and the report deserves careful appraisal.

IT'S AMAZING!

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

November Trip Isn't Too Early for Texas Politics

BY VERN SANFORD

Texas Press Association

President John F. Kennedy is coming to Texas around November 22 to help lift the 1964 Democratic presidential campaign off the launching pad in this state.

As early as he is, the President appears to be somewhat behind the political timetable of Texans.

Gov. John Connally, who announced the President's visit, called in nearly 50 of his top supporters to begin getting his own campaign organization in shape.

Republicans also summoned key local leaders to Austin for a "leadership conference." They pow-wowed over finances, talked up their talent scouting for candidates and began organizing a drive to register 600,000 new members of the GOP.

The Republicans picked up another candidate for the U. S. Senate, Dr. Milton V. Davis, Dallas chest surgeon. George H. W. Bush of Houston announced last month.

WRANGLE—A coastal region crisis is being claimed by the state's four largest shell-dredging firms.

Firms are Parker Brothers, Inc., W. H. Haden Company, Horton and Horton, and Bay Dredging Company. State Parks and Wildlife

Commission took under advisement their application to expand dredging activities in Galveston and Trinity bays.

Applicants claimed $1,000,000 worth of industry and 10,000 jobs are threatened by an acute shortage of oyster shells in authorized areas. Dredgers supply shell to roadbuilding and concrete industries, as well as chemical, paper and other manufacturing firms in the state.

Oyster fishermen, sports fishermen and conservationists also were on hand during the two-day hearing. They claim that they would face a crisis if shell-dredging areas are expanded in the two bays. Commercial fishermen who produced 64 per cent of the 1962 oyster crop in Galveston Bay, claimed they would be run out of business. Sportsmen said destruction of live oyster reefs, or reefs which can be revitalized, would destroy every natural attraction in the bays.

Both sides feel that the application fight is a life-or-death situation... either for the shell-dredgers or for the oyster men and the vast sporting industry on the upper Gulf Coast.

CATTLE KILLER—Agriculture Commissioner John White warned Texas farmers against the "deadly danger" of letting livestock graze in fields which have been defoliated by the use of certain cotton chemicals. Warning came after a Breckenridge farmer lost more than half his herd of cattle from the effects of arsenic poison.

White urged farmers to seek full information on the effects of any chemical before applying it to their fields.

OIL WOES—The Texas oil industry is in a three-way bind, Governor Connally told the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association.

Stabilization of foreign imports would strengthen the troubled industry, he said, but Texas oil also is losing markets to other states and to natural gas.

TIPRO backed legislation to require pooling of small tract oil and gas leases for operational purposes. Connally went to Washington to ask Secretary of Interior Stewart Udall for more import controls.

OLD-AGE PLAN—Fifty-three insurance companies have joined the statewide coop, authorized to write health insurance for citizens over age 65.

Among the first senior citizens to sign up for insurance were Gov. John Connally's mother and father-in-law, Mrs. J. B. Connally of Floresville and Arno Brill of Austin.

The voluntary health insurance plan is available to all those 65 and older, regardless of their health condition. Plan was authorized by the 58th Legislature.

BUDGET BALK—Legislative Budget Board declined to give its immediate consent to a new $1,000,000 conference center building at the University of Texas. Members said they feared Governor Connally might red-line the item.

Wes-Tex Talk

A Look At West Texas Through Editorial Page Excerpts From Its Leading Weekly & Semi-Weekly Newspapers.

Someone said if you have a sense of humor and exercise a bit of tolerance, you can have a lot of fun on this universe. Those two factors, especially the sense of humor, have brought the United States a long way.

We do wonder, however, where all the jokes come from: especially the risqué sort, which men folks like to tell when they gather in small groups from time to time—and perhaps the same is true of women, but we doubt it. These jokes, frequently down right clever and humorous, seem to spread all over the nation in a hurry. Some people attribute their rapid spread to salesmen, others to long-distance telephone conversations.

Anyway, they often are cleaned up and adapted to television and radio, chiefly because they are frequently better than the comedians can buy from their writers at tremendous cost. We still wonder where they come from? Are they spontaneous with many people, or do some-four characters sit around and think them up from time to time?

Usually they are timely, too. Right now the rage centers around integration. When we get a new president, right away we begin to hear some new stories caroling his policies, his habits and his appearance. Not long ago several concerned space flight and the monkeys who had early orbits.

No doubt, there are people who condemn this type humor. We do notice, however, that many of the jokes are at ourselves—and frequently they emphasize some strong point. To say the least, living in this country would be far different without these questionable jokes which, we suspect, contribute far more to our general conclusions and ultimate decisions than most of us realize.

—HEREFORD BRAND

Nearly 50 Post business and professional folks sat down together in the Community Room last Thursday night and discussed community problems.

The problems, of course, are not new ones really. How to encourage present industry, secure new industry, pull better together, make the community a more attractive place in which to shop and live, secure an airport, etc.

But basically before the two hour session ended most of those present agreed on one principal point. The real problem is to get organized—put enthusiasm and ability to work for common good.

That brought up the thought of hiring an experienced, trained, full-time Chamber of Commerce manager as the coordinator. Such a man would devote his full time to getting people together on community projects, and following through on the details after decisions were made.

This is what Post needs to really "get off the ground" in community development and progress.

The Dispatch is convinced Post can never gear up all-fronts push for community progress unless there is a seasoned hand at the helm.

SHINNERY PHILOSOPHER

Even Reds' Cash Has Sweet Taste

Editor's note: The Shinnery Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Bone Hollow Creek faces up to a difficult international problem this week.

Dear editor:

There are some international problems which I'd just as soon not have to solve.

For example, take wheat.

As I understand it, the Russians are trying to buy a lot of surplus wheat from the United States. I guess in order to get enough strength to handle the shovels they're planning on burying us with, and the offer, especially since it mentions cash in advance, is troublesome to answer.

One side says no, don't sell them Communists anything. The other side says why not, we got all this surplus wheat staring us in the face and costing us money to store and if Russia doesn't buy it from us she'll buy from Canada or some other country so why not take the money and spend it on defense or apply it on the national debt if it's not unconstitutional to reduce it.

It's that cash-in-advance angle that makes this a hard problem to answer. If she wanted to borrow some wheat, or buy it on credit, any Congressman could give you the answer, but cash on the barrel head... this is a question that requires judicious debate.

It stumps me, I don't have the answer, but I think I can tell you what we'll do. We'll sell.

Human nature is hard to control. I've never yet seen a prohibitionist lumberman.

THE CAUSES OF MIGRAINE HEADACHE

A 14-year old girl was referred to me for examination. She complained of a severe, throbbing, one-sided headache accompanied by nausea and vomiting.

In my office, she appeared to be quite intelligent and of a tense, nervous disposition.

I performed a simple examination of her skull to rule out any serious problem but, from the first, I suspected that my final diagnosis in this particular case would be migraine. She was a typical migraine candidate.

The typical migraine sufferer is intelligent, alert, of small build, two to one a woman, especially a woman with a perfectionist outlook on life. The migraine factor usually begins to cause trouble when the victim reaches puberty or at the end of adolescence. Also, the tendency to migraine is inherited.

The intense pain associated with these headaches is caused by the dilation or expansion of the arteries within the head, and because of the structure of the vascular system, usually only one side of the head is affected during an attack.

It is from this identifying symptom that the disease has received its name. Migraine is derived from the Greek term "Hemicrania" meaning half skull.

Although there is, at this time, no absolute cure for migraine, it can be lessened in its severity, and duration of the attack can be shortened. Medication relieves the symptoms of migraine by causing the dilated blood vessels to constrict, and if given quickly enough and in sufficient dosage can, in most cases, completely terminate the attack. It has been the most important single contribution in the fight against migraine.

Maranatha Club Installs Officers

Installation of officers for Maranatha Study Club was conducted recently in part of First Baptist Church. Hostesses for the meeting were members of the year-end committee, Mrs. Newell, Mrs. Cornelia Martin, Mrs. Wayne Shaw, Mrs. Wilford Fox, 1963 president, presided at the meeting. She thanked the hostesses and welcomed the members. In her address as president, she expressed her appreciation to members for their support during year of her administration. Closing, she dedicated a "Friendship" to club members. History of the club was given by Mrs. Elmer Martin, for club year, 1962-63. Course study for last year was "Can't, But God Can." Stiches of each meeting throughout the year were in the history. Mrs. Rush Barnett was speaker for the installation dinner and also installing officer. In her speech, she reviewed the club's course of study, Mrs. Barnett placed a picture of Christ in the center of ribbons. Each officer held a ribbon she was installed, the ribbon radiating outward to form the spokes of the wheel. A candle was lighted by each officer, as Mrs. Barnett said, "The candle is the power — your central force. Daily prayer, Bible reading and meditation will reinforce this wheel." The rim of the wheel was formed by a ribbon encircling the officers and held by the members of the club. Service was closed with prayer. Mrs. P. H. Pace, incoming president for 1963-64, gave her address on the three watchwords for the new club year, Faith, Courage, and Patience. She stated that each club member must have faith to assure success in the coming year, both for themselves and their club endeavors. Courage comes as a gift of God, Mrs. Pace told members. It takes courage to act upon your faith. Patience was defined as a large part of faith. "No one gets very far if he always looks for quick returns..." will be Oct. 17 with hostess, Mrs. Sam Bullock. Next meeting of the club Mrs. Pace said. Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Hall and their daughter Donna spent Sunday in Happy visiting in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Hall and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hall.

Christ's Terms of Unity THERE IS... ONE BODY

The body is the one church or kingdom founded by Jesus Christ (Ephesians 1:22-23; Colossians 1:18). Christ is the Saviour of the body or church (Ephesians 5:23), having purchased it with his own blood (Acts 20:28). Ultimately he will deliver up the kingdom to God (1 Corinthians 15:24).

ONE SPIRIT

The Spirit is the one Holy Spirit of God. Jesus taught that one must be born of the water and the Spirit to enter the kingdom of God (John 3:5). The Spirit converts through the Word, which is described as the sword of the Spirit (Ephesians 6:17). The Spirit works through the gospel to convict people of sin and to call them out of the world into the kingdom of Christ. This is why the gospel is defined as the "power of God" unto salvation (Romans 1:16).

ONE HOPE

The hope is the one hope of eternal life after the grave, which is desired by every normal person. Eternal life will be a life of bliss and glory with the Father, the Son, and the Spirit of Heaven. This hope will be realized through one's faith (Hebrews 11:1; 1 Peter 1:9).

ONE LORD

The Lord is the one Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, the Son of God, the Messiah, the King of kings (1 Timothy 6:15).

ONE FAITH

The faith is the one faith made possible by the revelation of God to man, as that revelation was expressed through the Patriarchs, Moses, the Old Law, the Prophets, the Christ, the Holy Spirit, the Apostles, and finally the Bible—which is the Word of grace (Acts 20:32) through which one receives faith (Romans 10:17).

ONE BAPTISM

The baptism is the one baptism valid in our age. Authorized by Christ and administered in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, the one baptism is for the forgiveness of sins (Acts 2:38). It is described as a burial in water (Romans 6:3-5; Colossians 2:12).

ONE GOD

The God is the one God and Father of all, the Designer and Maker of the universe, the Creator of man, the Giver of every good and perfect gift, who "so loved the world" (John 3:16) that he gave Christ to become our Saviour.

... (EPHESIANS 4:4-6)

JESUS CHRIST IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD. This message is supported by Christians seeking the unity of believers in a non-denominational church.

Cpl. Jim King Member of 'Best Squad'

Marine Corporal Jimmy H. King, son of Mrs. Bertha Carmack of 331 W. 4th, is a member of the First Marine Brigade squad named the "best squad in the Marine Corps." The 14-man infantry team from Company I of the Third Battalion, Fourth Marine Regiment, returned late in September to its home base at Kaneohe Bay, Hawaii, after winning the table in Corps-wide competition at Quantico, Va. The award marked the third consecutive year in which a First Marine Brigade squad won the title. The four-day combat practice competition was held in mid-September at Quantico, Va. The meet emphasized all aspects of Marine Corps warfare, with special emphasis on marksmanship. Each Marine in the squad received individual awards from General David M. Shoup, the squad took the winner's Commandant of the Marine trophy back to Kaneohe Bay, during a ceremony in place alongside the trophies Washington, D. C. In addition, of 1961 and 1962.

HONOR PRESIDENTS

Zetagathians Host Installation Dinner

Terrace Room of Baker Hotel was scene for the Zetagathian Study Club's President's Dinner, hosted by yearbook committee, Mmes. Jim Edison, George O. Witten, and Brady Warren.

Centerpiece for dinner table was of yellow mums and candles. Place cards featured individual mums. Invocation was given by Mrs. Curtis Latimer. Mrs. Henry Lewis, outgoing president, presided at the dinner meeting. In her address Mrs. Lewis extended a welcome to all present, especially new members. Mmes. Warren, Anderson, Bob Carver and Don Butler. She expressed her appreciation to the club for the term of office as president.

Reviewing the past club year, she described the yearbook, and gave a brief outline of programs. In conclusion, Mrs. Lewis introduced and installed the new president, Bob Robinson, O. B. Trulock, Mrs. Larry Kinard, and presented her with a gavel. Mrs. Carver and Butler.

WITH DINNER

1921 Study Club Honors Presidents

President's Dinner for the 1921 Study Club was hosted in Terrace Room of Baker Hotel.

Table was decorated with an arrangement of white mums and daisies in a blue bowl. The bowl is a club treasure, and used on special occasions.

Toastmistress for the evening was Mrs. Sam L. Majors. Sr. Mrs. W. W. Rhode spoke the invocation.

Mrs. Majors presented a program of humorous stories of members' vacations. Stories were interspersed with novel questions.

Outgoing president, Mrs. Ed S. Jones, gave an address entitled "I can say it now," in the club during her term in which she reviewed work of office.

"We are living in a changing world, but our friends do not change," she said, in reference to cooperation given her by club members. In defining an ideal woman, Mrs. Jones said, she aids with her presence at all club meetings when possible, and serves in any capacity she is called on to do for the club.

During Mrs. Jones' term as president of the County Federation that the first paid librarian was hired for Mitchell County Federated Library.

She concluded her speech with the remark, "I not only can say it now, but I have said it."

Mrs. R. P. Almsworth, president for 1963-64, told the club members of her "Plans for the year." She said the club was to study and share fellowship by springing its best efforts in presenting poetry, art, music, books club heritage, and interest in living.

Support of members was requested by Mrs. Almsworth in sponsoring projects for the year — exceptional children library and mission. Officers for the new year were presented by the president.

Present for the dinner were Mmes. Almsworth, H. B. Braddus, Glenn Conn, J. S. Craddock, Sr., M. J. Dawson, W. L. Duss, Doyle Hoster, A. O. Hickman, W. C. Hicks, Jones Lee Lavender, P. K. Mackey, Majors, Doris Martin, R. P. Price, J. T. Pritchett, J. F. Quinney, Rhode, and V. P. Trulock.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Yelting and daughter, Kay, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Douglas Bryant of Odessa, and Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Carnie and daughter, Cathy, of Foster were guests of the Rev. and Mrs. S. L. Yelting during the weekend.

Parents of Son
Cpl. and Mrs. T. T. Hammonds of Carlsbad, Calif., are announcing the birth of a son on Thursday, Oct. 3.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Brown were Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hall of Cisco, Mrs. William Walker of Stanton and the Johnny Brown family of Colorado City.

Baby was named Raymond Troy, and weighed 5 lbs. 9 ozs. at birth. The couple have one other child, a daughter, Gayle, 4 years old.

Howard Dean Quiett of Aspermont was a Tuesday visitor in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Houston Quiett, of China Grove.

Mrs. Hammond is the former Miss Dorothy McCullough. Both she and her husband attended schools in Colorado City.

Kerry Allen of Big Spring visited his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Allen in China Grove recently.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Hammond of C-City and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McCullough of Hobbs, N. M., formerly of C-City.

Now five kinds of Chevrolets for all kinds of people!

JET-SMOOTH LUXURY CHEVROLET—For luxury-loving people. Rich new styling, finer appointments in all four series and 15 models. Engines up to 425 hp*, manual or Powerglide* transmissions.

NEW CHEVELLE—For pace-setting people. A totally new kind of car with small-car handling, big-car comfort! Styling that makes expensive cars jealous. Three series and 11 models, and a full choice of engine and transmission teams!

CHEVY II—For practical people. Chevy II with new V8 power* for fun-on-a-shoestring. Stretches the shoestring further with 4- and 6-cylinder engines. Chevy II's six models in two series all act like they're bigger, more expensive cars!

CORVAIR—For fun-loving people. More fun than ever from Corvair's new bigger engine! Same Corvair handling and riding ease in 9 models—including the 150-hp Turbocharged Spyders!

CORVETTE—For sports-minded people. Corvette now rides softer, smoother—but loses none of its gusto because its big V8 offers versions from 250 to 375 hp*! Want to get together with other car-loving people? Go see your Chevrolet dealer... he likes all kinds! *Optional at extra cost

See five entirely different lines of cars at your Chevrolet Showroom—CHEVROLET, CHEVELLE, CHEVY II, CORVAIR & CORVETTE.
