

On The BEAM

By J. W. King, Sr.

Well, it hasn't rained enough to start a crop yet. But I believe it will rain enough in time for a crop. We may not make another bumper crop like we did last year, but we'll make something. You never can tell what this country will do. It can promise more and produce less, or promise less and produce more than any country on earth. Remember last year—nobody thought this section would produce a bumper cotton crop, but it did. To our way of thinking the farmers in this territory need to get away from the one crop, cotton, idea again. Where on a farm around here can you find several milk cows, or even one milk cow, a bunch of hogs, or even a flock of chickens? There are some around, but as a rule farmers are buying their milk, butter, eggs, and meat. Cotton economy one year with another will not stand the strain.

Every farm family should produce their living, keep a locker full of meat and vegetables for consumption the year round. We wouldn't pretend to tell farmers how to farm—they all know as well as we do what one crop economy will do for them, they have tried it before.

WEINER ROAST

Those enjoying a weiner roast on Champion Creek Monday night were Messrs. and Mrs. Roy Richardson and family, Claude Woods and family, Jess Smith and family, Lewis Graham, Geo. Sinclair, Pete Saunders, Foy Yarbrough and family, and Mrs. D. L. Jackson and daughters, Connie Jean Lyles, Mrs. Young, Joanna Gunnells and a group of young people from Sweetwater. After supper, the group took part in singing, accompanied by guitar music.

Next Week Set To Raise Cemetery Fund

The week of May 13 to 19 has been proclaimed Cemetery Week by the Loraine Lions Club. The club has been sponsoring the keeping of the cemetery in good shape for several years and next week has been proclaimed Cemetery Week in order to raise funds with which to carry on the work.

A committee was appointed by Lion President Ray Preston to solicit funds for the cemetery during next week May 13-19.

For several years contributions of $5.00 from each person interested in keeping the cemetery in nice shape has been turned over to E. O. Leggett who has seen that the work was done. This year contributions have not come in large enough quantities to keep the work going. The Lions Club has paid the salary of the caretaker the past month but it is not financially able to carry the load for the year, hence all will be given an opportunity during Cemetery Week to make contributions enough to carry the work on the first of this year. The Loraine cemetery is in better condition than most cemeteries and everyone interested in the community should have pride enough to want to help keep it that way.

Mayor Proclaims Jury Service Month

Designating May as Jury Service Month

Whereas our concept of justice is best depicted in the American System of Free Courts, and Whereas many citizens of towns and cities throughout the State of Texas have expressed real concern over the present tendency to evade jury service, and

Whereas the jury trial system is one of our most basic freedoms and it must be revitalized by a wider and more willing participation in jury service if it is to survive, and

Whereas there is need for a more willing attitude on the part of all Texans to accept jury service when called upon, and Whereas the American Citizenship Committee of the State Bar of Texas and the Texas Press Association have joined hands in sponsoring Jury Service Month a statewide project, and

Whereas Jury Service Month is being carried out in an effort to reacquire the citizens of Texas with their obligations toward willing and intelligent jury service in order that our present trial by jury system might be maintained, and

Whereas the Governor of Texas has joined the State Bar of Texas and the Texas Press Association in urging each citizen to accept jury service when summoned.

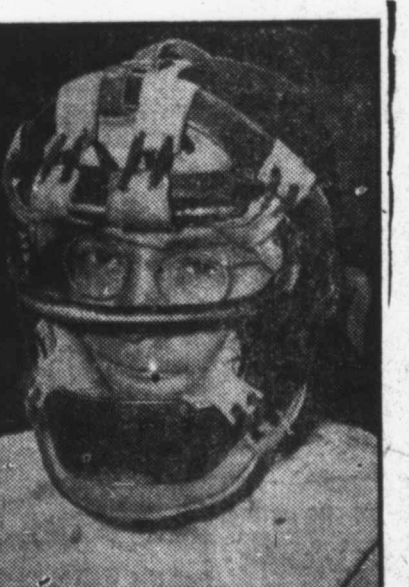

Therefore Be It Resolved that the Month of May, 1951 be officially designated as Jury Service Month and the citizens of this community urged, if summoned, to accept jury service without hesitancy in order that our democratic process of free courts may survive.

Given under my hand and seal on this, the 1 day of May, 1951.

Vance Dickenson
Mayor of the City of Loraine
Attest: Homer Hart, Secretary.

SCANNING THE WEEK'S NEWS of Main Street and the World

Truman-MacArthur Fight Continues; Chinese Launch Spring Offensive

HOW DIVIDED THE NATION—There was no sign of a letup in the great quarrel on whether President Truman did right or wrong when he fired Gen. Douglas MacArthur from his Pacific commands. If anything, the man on Main Street was hotter under the collar than ever before following the general's impressive speech before congress. The line of dispute was clearly drawn: The general's supporters believed his proposed plan of action in Asia the only possible realistic one; his opponents were just as positive his plan of action would mean world wide war. The great controversy caused many in the home towns to wonder just how divided can a nation become and still effectively battle communism?

The two viewpoints on the Truman-MacArthur controversy were expressed by Senators Taft and Kerr. Senator Taft charged the Truman administration is working both sides of the military and political street and called for bombing of Chinese airfields and a naval blockade of her coast. Senator Kerr, on the other hand, said he is convinced MacArthur's military strategy "would hurl us downward to the awful road of total war."

Ticker-Tape Blizzard

Never before in the history of the U. S., or possibly in the history of the world, has a returning hero received such acclaim as Gen. Douglas MacArthur as he drove through a ticker-tape blizzard to the shouting of 7,500,000 people in New York. It was the climax of welcome home celebrations which began in San Francisco when the general returned to his native land for the first time in 14 years.

plain the conduct of the Korean conflict. The testimony will blow hot and cold. It will be up to the home-towner to sift it and find the truth.

THE UNITED NATIONS—Members of the United Nations, whether they were in agreement with General MacArthur's policy in the far east or not, were almost as impressed by the general's address as were members of congress.

But the general did not gain any votes in the U.N. for following his policy. His speech confirmed many delegates in the belief that a yawning gulf separates his concept of the way to defeat Communist imperialism and that of the United Nations. Only on one point was there any degree of accord—his demand for an intensified economic blockade of Communist China.

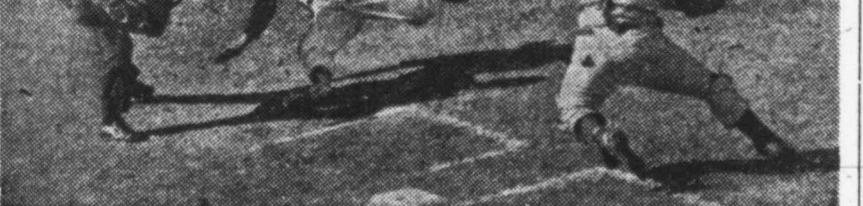

ON THE FRONT—And while the politicians ranted over how the Korean conflict should be conducted, the North Koreans and Chinese Reds opened their long awaited spring offensive. First reports from the front indicated a break-through in the mountainous central sector of Korea by an estimated 400,000 enemy troops. Approximately 300,000 others were reported attacking in other sectors of Korea.

First withdrawals amounted to as much as 15 miles. Allied officers reported, with the Chinese suffering heavy casualties. Nearly 9,000 Reds were killed or wounded by artillery alone on the first day of the attack, the eighth army estimated. Swarms of planes claimed an additional toll of nearly 2,000.

SALES TAX—The Committee of Americans, reportedly a nonprofit, fact-finding research-survey organization, covering all 48 states and Hawaii, reports a recent survey indicated the majority of the nation's businessmen favor a retail-sales tax on the federal level.

The organization said it sent questionnaires to some 30,000 businessmen, of whom more than 15,000 replied. The businessmen were said to favor the sales tax by 62 per cent; 12 per cent for such a tax at the manufacturer's level; and 26 per cent opposed to any sales tax.

Whether or not the survey reached to the Main Street businessman was not indicated, but it could hardly be conclusive unless he was consulted.

Take Me Out to the Ball Game

Neither wars or threats of wars, politics or the acclaim of a conquering hero could dim the opening of the baseball season on the sandlot of the home towns to the major leagues. Sports-minded Americans took time out for the greatest game of them all.

MAIN STREET BUSINESS—Hardware, dry goods and general merchandise, and jewelry stores on Main Street enjoyed a dollar sales increase during March of 1951 over the same month last year, the census bureau reported.

Hardware stores recorded a 22 per cent sales rise; dry goods and general merchandise stores a 20 per cent rise and jewelry stores a 13 per cent rise.

The agency said its figures were based on reports from about 10,000 independent stores. The department gave out no actual sales figures.

PROBER HAILS PRESS—Senator Kefauver, speaking before the American Society of Newspaper Editors, said his committee's celebrated investigation into crime could not have succeeded without the support of the nation's press.

The senator restated his theory that the place for "action against gamblers and other underworld elements is Main Street, not Pennsylvania Ave., Washington."

"All the press joined in the effort of exposing crime, Kefauver said. That spark was instrumental in setting off the explosion that has followed."

MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE

1950 Marriage Rate Climbs 6 Per Cent

The U.S. public health service reported recently the marriage rate rose and the divorce rate dropped in the United States during the past year.

The agency's figures show the number of 1950 marriages—1,669,934 in all—rose nearly 6 per cent over 1949, the first increase since 1946. The total of 1850 divorces—estimated at 355,000—was the smallest

Great Debate Not Over

IT SEEMS that the "great debate" in congress over foreign policy is not over, it is just getting started.

But what is hard to understand is this—during more than three months of debate, the Republican leadership in congress opposed sending troops to Europe on the theory that to do so would arouse the Russian Bear to the point of war, that it was a calculated risk that should not be taken and that our main line of defense should be the western hemisphere.

And almost over-night this same band of leadership has switched from a western hemisphere defense to demands for an aggressive war on Red China which would take a million American boys and all the planes and ships and guns we could muster to send across the Pacific.

The rhyme or reason in this thinking is certainly not clear, and the only interpretation which can be placed on such a metamorphosis is politics, pure and simple. The Democratic administration was for sending an army to serve under General Eisenhower in continental Europe to implement the Atlantic pact, so politically, the Republican leadership must oppose and they did, but lost. The Democratic administration was opposed to making any aggressive war on Red China, seeking to confine the fighting in Korea, so the political thing for Republican leadership to do was to oppose it, so they are opposing, some going even as far as asking for an immediate declaration of war.

What has happened to the proposal of ex-President Hoover, to withdraw behind our two oceans? What General MacArthur thinks about this is not even important insofar as this congress is concerned, for the simple reason that what he says before a joint session or before any congressional committee will not change a vote one way or another. Minds already are made up beforehand. Does any one believe for a minute that anything General MacArthur might say would change the minds of such senators as Taft, Wherry, Jenner, Cain and Kean? Nor do you think they will heed for one instant whatever General Collins, or Admiral Sherman, or General Bradley or General Marshall will say, or what General Vandenberg, or Admiral Nimitz or even General Eisenhower might say on the subject in these committees?

What has happened is unfortunate, particularly for General MacArthur, and it is unfortunate for the country, for it is having the effect of driving deeper and deeper the wedge of disunity into the marrow of the nation, and it is permitting politicians to make a scapegoat of MacArthur, when the General's return should mean only a tribute to his military feats of valor.

MacArthur Deserved Honors

General MacArthur, setting foot on U.S. soil for the first time in 14 years deserved all the adulation and honors heaped up on him by the American people. A lot of it was overdone, but that is the characteristic American way—do it up brown if you do it at all.

But after all the shouting dies down—and the emotional hysteria has worn off—remember the man who withstood most, and who exhibited the most personal courage and just plain guts in this whole affair: was the present occupant of the White House—Harry S. Truman, President of the United States.

Truman Clears the Way

And it was the President who cleared the way for MacArthur's formal Congressional appearance, and it was the President who canceled his own public appearances so there would be no counter-attraction to the MacArthur's day in court in Washington and permitted government offices, the schools, the whole town to turn out to greet the general on his return after 14 years abroad in the service of his country.

President Truman is now at his lowest ebb of popularity. If you are interested, however, watch the popularity barometer start climbing. His two most recent talks to the American people were more forceful and contained more plain common American horse sense than any in many months.

Europe Approved

One thing appears to be certain, if the MacArthur position insofar as Asia is concerned is ever maintained or supported by this government, we will wind up behind the international eight-ball without a single ally in Europe or the United Nations with the exception of Gen. Chiang Kai-shek, now holed-up on the small island of Formosa. It is significant that every allied nation without exception approved the removal of MacArthur.

How Nations Decay

Lesson for May 13, 1951

"The mortality rate of nations is 100%." So Dr. T. W. Lingle used to put the fact that no nation yet has lived forever. They all die sooner or later. What kills them?

The student of history may delve into such books as Gibbon's "Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire" or Spengler's pessimistic "Decline of the West", or Toynbee's more optimistic six-volume "Study of History."

But when the juice has been squeezed out of these learned and interesting volumes, the Truth's essence turns out to be much the same as what we can find by reading the Old Testament. True, the nations under the Old Testament lens are not big empires like Rome, still less like the British Empire; the kingdom of Israel was only about 100 miles long and 60 miles wide, while the kingdom of Judah was smaller than many an American county.

Promise

WHEN Solomon died, the kingdom he had inherited from David had already shrunk. After his death, what was left immediately split into two kingdoms, the one on the south called Judah and the one in the north called Israel.

The nation of Israel, which lasted more than 200 years, began with great promise. Indeed, one of God's prophets (1 Kings II) had given to Jeroboam, the first king, the same promise which had been given David, of an enduring kingdom on condition of obedience to God. Everything seemed to be favorable. Israel had more territory than most of her neighbors had, a far more productive soil, and easy access to transportation.

Crash

ISRAEL should have succeeded; but it failed. Only a little more than 200 years afterwards, no very great age as nations go, it crashed completely, never to rise again. When the walls of its "impregnable" capital city of Samaria, after a two-year siege, fell to the battering-rams of the Assyrian army, and over 27,000 leading citizens were deported, that was the end of Israel for good and all.

How did this happen? The Hebrew historian ties everything into a few words when he says that they wrought wicked things . . . they rejected God's statutes . . . they served idols.

But what were the details? What, in particular, did the nation of Israel do that was wicked?

Reading the prophet Amos will give many of the answers. At the time he preached, by all chamber-of-commerce standards Israel was at the peak of production and prosperity. But he foresaw doom around the corner, and he gave reasons. He called a spade a spade. Reading him, or even reading the bald accounts in Kings, we can see the collapse was no mystery.

Other Gods

ONE thing fundamentally wrong with Israel was idolatry. This was not the simple matter of making carved images; it meant taking some other "god" to be the true God.

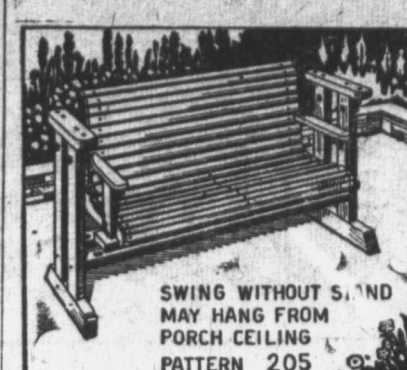

We know what the religions of Chemish and Molech and Baal were like; they were thoroughly bad. In the law of the true God, life and purity were regarded as sacred; life and purity under these other gods were held cheap. But one can see from reading Amos that what the people of Israel really worshipped was still another idol to whom no statute was erected: their own pleasures.

Too many citizens didn't care what happened to the country, so long as they could get their liquor. Well, let us not read the Old Testament from mere curiosity. What about our own nation, our own people and times? The United Stewardship Council (now the Joint Department of Stewardship of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U. S. A.) reports that every year since 1934, excepting 1936, has shown an increase in giving through the churches.

But—the percent of this increase is not so large as the increase of annual income. The increase for contributions through the church of God is less, far less, than the increase in spending for alcoholic liquors, soft drinks, candy, football games, jewelry, and a multitude of other things. We, like Israel, are putting God last!

Certain Stains Won't Bleach

Although sunshine is one of the best and safest bleaches for white clothes after laundering, and even though it often fades colors, it may have just the opposite effect on some common stains. Margaret Furry, textile chemist of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, has issued a warning along this line:

"The heat of strong summer sun may set and darken stains containing tannin, such as those from cherries, peaches, pears, plums, soft drinks or the mustards served on hot dogs or ham. Play clothes, sunsuits, house dresses or aprons, even bathing suits worn at beach picnics, may be permanently marked by leaving these stains exposed to the sun."

It's Wonderful the Way
Chewing-Gum Laxative
Acts Chiefly to REMOVE WASTE
—NOT GOOD FOOD

Here's the secret millions of folks have discovered about FEEN-A-MINT, the modern chewing-gum laxative. Yes, here is why FEEN-A-MINT's action is so wonderfully different!

Doctors say that many other laxatives start their "flushing" action too soon . . . right in the stomach where food is being digested. Large doses of such laxatives upset digestion, flush away nourishing food you need for health and energy. You feel weak, worn out.

But gentle FEEN-A-MINT, taken as recommended, works chiefly in the lower bowels where it removes only waste, not good food! You avoid that typical weak, tired, worn-out feeling. Use FEEN-A-MINT and feel your "peppy," energetic self! Get FEEN-A-MINT! No increase in price—still 35¢, 50¢ or only 10¢.

FEEN-A-MINT
FAMOUS CHEWING-GUM LAXATIVE

One ounce makes 6 gallons of spray. Kills aphids and similar sucking insects by contact and fumes. Spares friendly insects. Leaves no harmful residue. Can be mixed with other standard sprays. Proved dependable by 25 years of use on fruits, vegetables and flowers.

HADACOL HELPS MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN

Suffering Stomach Distress, Aches and Pains,
Weak, Run-down Conditions and Nervousness
When Due To Deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2,
Niacin and Iron

Mrs. Anna Laverne, Church Point, Louisiana: "You don't know how wonderful it feels to be in such good condition—after feeling run-down. I had a very poor appetite—in fact, food didn't agree with me at all. I had a hard time sleeping nights . . . sometimes I would stay awake until one or two in the morning and then the next day I would feel tired and groggy all day long. You have no idea how terrible I felt. Now all this is gone . . . yes, now that I have been taking HADACOL, I feel wonderful. I get lots of good, sound sleep, have a fine appetite and just lots of energy. I can eat any kind of food now and it doesn't bother me a bit. I just can't begin to thank HADACOL."

F. W. Horton, 108 74th Ave., Houston, Texas, says about his little son: "Lee was very weak and run-down and just didn't want to eat at all. We heard about HADACOL and decided that was what Lee needed. After he started taking HADACOL his appetite picked up right away. He started gaining weight and eats real well now, and has been feeling real good. HADACOL has been good for Lee and I heartily recommend it to everyone."

Richard Krabill, 3118 Marfield Road, Toledo 14, Ohio: "I am an apprentice pharmacist and I go to the University of Toledo. Going to school and working until 9:30 gets pretty tiresome. I was getting tired and run-down keeping pace with all I had to do. Being married and having a family, I am compelled to work after school. I work in a pharmacy here in Toledo. After selling HADACOL here in the store, I decided I'd try it. You have no idea how much it has picked me up. I'm telling you truthfully, HADACOL is the answer to all my tiredness from sitting up late at night doing homework after I come home from work. Already I have won customers on HADACOL. I am 31 and a veteran of World War II."

Senior Reminiscence

Soon our summer vacation was over and 44 of us went to the fifth grade with Mrs. Clara Shoemaker as teacher. The girls had a terrible time that year because the teachers wouldn't let them play football with the boys. The summer months slipped by and it was time to enter the sixth grade. There were 40 of us who made the journey through this grade under the supervision of Miss Pauline Morris.

Miss Morris helped us as we entered a new subject called English. This was a lot of fun, but it soon became hard work. The group disbanded at the end of the year and decided to meet at the end of the summer to start another tour. The meeting place decided upon was the seventh grade. You can bet that it was a routy bunch who met there the first Monday in September, a bright sunny morning for a long, long journey. Thirty-five of us and Mrs. Helen Bradberry started on this journey. This was a delightful trip with a wonderful guide. Many pleasant things can never be forgotten that happened during our seventh grade year.

Next week we will review the 8th year of our school life and our graduation exercises.

Sophomore News

It seems like everyone is pretty happy since this is the last four weeks of school. The world history and algebra students are getting down to work and believe me, some need to really, too!! It also seems that the Homemaking girls need to study a little too, eh, Miss Scott??

Some of the sophomore girls went vacationing over the week end and they all reported a wonderful time, especially one, eh Margaret? It's been said that she went to Lubbock to see someone special. Georgia Miles went to the FHA meeting in Ft. Worth and she reported a wonderful time. Willie Mae Robertson went to Abilene, visiting the ACC College. She reported a real nice time, and it seems like she's planning to go to college there. The sophomore class is gradually decreasing. We lost one student last week and another one is planning on leaving us pretty soon. Maurine White left us to get married, and Estella Jones is getting married in July. (The lucky girls.) We're sorry to lose them and wish they would wait until after our graduation, in '53, that is.

Campus Chatter

The annual speech play is to be presented May 18, at 8:00 in the high school gym. This year's production is "Date Bait," a comedy in three acts.

Characters are Emily Walker, Mary Rose Templeton; Agnes Walker, Betty Jane Horton; Mary Walker, Peggy Beaty; Pat Walker, Barbara Pierce; Anna Gibbons, Patsy Ruth Green; Harley Allen, Billy Joe Martin; Jim Allen, Max Shepherd; Ed Walker, Lowell Richardson; Jonny Burns, Kenneth Merket; Lester Gray, Thomas Bob Long; Dave Wilson, Douglas Wilson; Harold Smith, Raymond Gunnells; and Officer Benson, Junior Hayes.

Peggy Beaty is assistant director. Barbara Pierce is publicity manager. Patsy Green is properties chairman. Junior Hayes is soundman. Kenneth Merket is in charge of renovation of stage equipment. Max Shepherd is business manager, with Doug Wilson his alternate. Raymond Gunnells is stage manager with Thomas Bob Long his alternate, and Billy Joe Martin is curtain manager.

All the committees, the cast, and Miss Hyde are hard at work to make "Date Bait" a success and urge everyone to attend.

Lowell Richardson, Patsy Green, Coach Jones and Mrs. Smith returned Saturday from Austin where they attended the State Interscholastic League and Track Meet. Lowell placed sixth in broad jump and Patsy placed twelfth in typing. They reported a wonderful time as well as an educational one.

Peggy Beaty attended the rodeo at Baird over the weekend. Wonder with whom?

Everyone is all excited because the annuals are here. Next week's paper will have a description, since some of the details are secret at the time this is written.

State Meeting Attender

Miss Edith Seitz, Mrs. Horace Miles, Georgia Miles and Jan Snyder attended the State meeting of the Future Homemakers of America at Fort Worth. Miss Scott and Georgia Miles were on the registration committee Thursday morning. That evening Miss Scott took the three others over to T. S. C. W. at Denton, where she had attended college. Friday was full of wonderful entertainment. All the Future Homemakers attended a picnic luncheon in barn 3 at the Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum. That night a chuck wagon supper was given in the same barn. During the meal the F. H. A. all girl orchestra played popular songs. After the meal nearly every area put on some kind of entertainment. Saturday morning the House of Delegates met and Georgia was one of the delegates. The four arrived at Lorraine late Saturday evening and all reported a wonderful time.

H. E. News

Hello there! Here we are again. Miss Scott, Mrs. H. G. Miles, Jan Snyder, and Georgia Miles went to the state meeting at Ft. Worth Wednesday to represent the Lorraine chapter. The meeting was held the 3, 4, and 5 of May. A wonderful time was reported.

The Homemaking girls are taking Ag. this week and the A. boys are taking H. Home taking. Don't you know the boys look real cute in their "little aprons." Don't you know the girls will make good farmers?

How you can make America Strong —1

PRAY

Perhaps you feel you should "do something" to help our country in its crisis. Most of us do. But not all of us can take places in the Armed Forces.

Not all of us can build tanks or airplanes or guns or bullets. Many of us... particularly in the present national emergency... must stay at our own jobs, do the same things we've done for months, for years. How, then, can we help? How can we "do something"? The answer is simple:

First, we must work. We must work harder. We must work better. We must produce more. Second, we must save. We must save money. We must save materials. Third, we must vote. We must vote for statesman-like leaders. We must vote for men who have courage. Fourth, we must pray. We must pray to God for guidance. We must pray to God for peace. We must pray to God in gratitude for all He has done for us and for our country. That is our job. Yours and ours. If we do it well... we'll help make America strong.

Yours is the power to make us strong spiritually, morally, politically and economically. Write today for a reprint of the article, "The Four Pillars of Freedom—Work, Save, Vote and Pray." Mail your request to: J. B. Shores, Public Relations Department, Texas and Pacific Railway, Dallas, Texas. No charge, of course!

SIXTEEN major-league ball clubs are under way again in two of the closest-looking pennant races the grizzled old game has seen in many seasons. In the absence of important rookies through the last ten years, the main burden will fall upon veterans, who have been writing most of the story from one campaign to another since 1941. This means Stan Musial, Joe DiMaggio, Ted Williams, Country Slaughter, Phil Rizzuto, Pee Wee Reese, Eddie Stankiewicz, Bob Feller, Hal Newhouser, Ewell Blackwell, Johnny Mize and many, many more. Baseball is now, in the main, an old man's game with only a few younger stars crowding into the picture. Wars and drafts have more than cut into its natural growth. The scene has changed only slightly from a year ago on this April date. In 1950 the pennant contenders in the American League were New York, Boston, Detroit, and Cleveland. The same four are rated in the hunt today with Red Rolfe's Tigers rated farther back, due largely to the loss of their star young pitcher, Art Houtteman. Of these four contenders the Boston Red Sox have drawn the strongest help in the persons of Lou Boudreau, a fine infielder and an inspirational field leader, plus Bill Wight and Ray Scarborough, two first-class pitchers. Tom Yawkey, the Red Sox owner, is a very stubborn person when he sets out for a goal. He also has what it takes to reach that goal, if you give him time enough and a few breaks. The race in the American League among the Yankees, Red Sox and Indians should carry deep into September's stretch. In the National League a new entry has moved into the picture as far as the pennant race is concerned. This new challenger is Lee Durocher's New York Giants. The Giants now move alongside with the Dodgers and the Phillies, possibly the soundest club in their circuit. Chuck Dressen's Dodgers have the best team in baseball, outside of the pitchers' coral. Here they are weak, or at least uncertain. The Two Races The National League has the better chance for a keener pennant race. Outside of Giants, Dodgers, and Phillies, rated for a photo finish, the Braves and Cardinals can be quite annoying. Both can cause deep trouble and bring much anguish to the leading contenders. So can Luke Sewell's Cincinnati Reds who have been moving up steadily with a younger ball club that should now be about ready. Ten- and twelve-year veterans can't rule this game forever. The Phillies and Reds have most of the new material baseball has collected recently and this may begin to show for the Reds this summer. It won a pennant for the Phillies a year ago. With Curt Simmons around, I think the Phillies would have won again. They may, anyway. There are many weak spots in the leading teams from both leagues. No one knows yet how many games the brilliant Joe DiMaggio, a great ballplayer, can handle. No one knows how long Ted Williams' shattered elbow will stay in place. Stan Musial seems to be better set for another year of stardom than anyone else. It is quite possible that Lou Boudreau will have more effect upon his mates than any other single player. For Boudreau moves into a lethargic squad that needs waking up. If the Red Sox can't win the pennant this season, Tom Yawkey might as well fire the entire squad and start from scratch again. The rejuvenation of the Giants will be one of baseball's most helpful features. The game has needed them badly in past years. The feats of magic to be shown again by the remarkable Casey Stengel will be something to watch. You can be sure that Stengel will get as much out of his line-up as any manager now in baseball. At least he has for the last two years.

The Case of Johnny Mize
In Mantle and Morgan, the Stengel Yankees have possibly the two best rookies in either league. It might work out that way. They have another member of the "M" club in a fellow known as Mize, who isn't a rookie. It has been a matter of 21 years since Big John, the demon of Demorest, Ga., reported to Greensboro as a first baseman. In 1931 Mize was batting .337 and he has been a .300 or not far from .300 hitter ever since. He ran into a streak of 15 consecutive years with various teams when he batted an average of .330. Big John has always been a gentle, easy-going fellow and practically everyone who knows him likes him. He never had the speed to beat out hits after the manner of Cobb, DiMaggio, Jackson, Speaker, Williams and other star hitters. His hits had to come the hard way—earned with his bat and not his legs.

The Two Races
The National League has the better chance for a keener pennant race. Outside of Giants, Dodgers, and Phillies, rated for a photo finish, the Braves and Cardinals can be quite annoying. Both can cause deep trouble and bring much

Veterans' News

Questions and Answers

Q. Is there any deadline on VA hospital care, as there is on a number of other VA administered benefits?

A. There is no deadline for VA hospitalization. Veterans may be admitted to hospitals at any time, so long as they meet eligibility requirements.

Q. I would like to appear before the VA Rating Board on my own behalf, in connection with a compensation claim. May I do this?

A. Yes, but a definite appointment should be made beforehand.

Q. I am receiving a VA pension for a nonservice-connected total and permanent disability. Does that entitle me to Public Law 16 training since I am a World War 2 veteran?

A. No. One of the eligibility requirements for Public Law 16 training is a service-connected disability which would entitle the veteran to compensation. You may, however, be entitled to GI Bill training if you have a discharge other than dishonorable and served at least 90 days part of which was between September 16, 1940, and July 25, 1947.

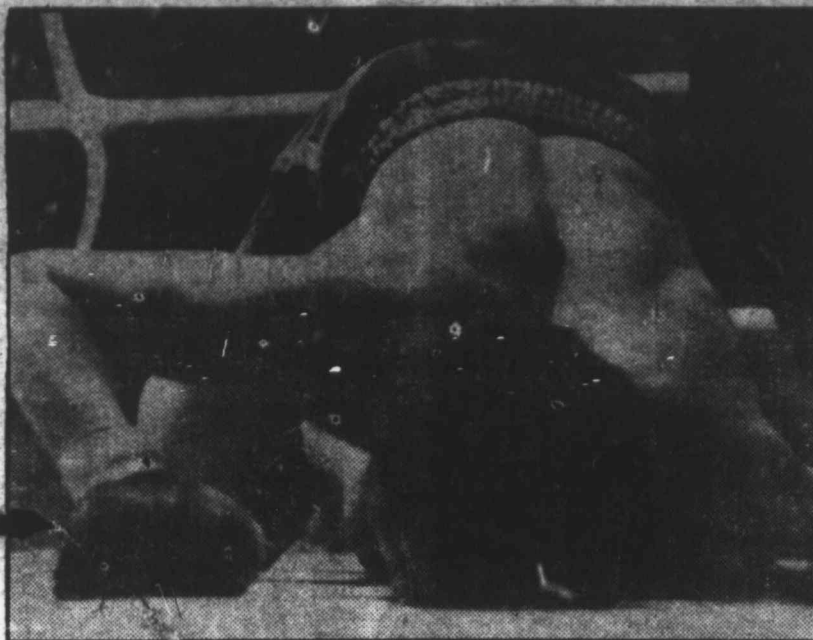

Q. I am a patient in a VA hospital and expect to be discharged soon. Before I leave, is there anyone in the hospital I can see to learn about veterans' benefits that might be helpful to me once I am back home?

A. See the VA contact representative at your hospital. Contact representatives are on duty at all VA hospitals.

Mrs. Frank Johnson and Nancy Spurrier visited Mrs. Grace Jackson in Abilene Saturday.

Friends here received the message of the death of Wes Edwards, formerly of the Highland community and president of the Highland school board for several years. Mr. Edwards died of a heart attack at his home in Midland Sunday after an illness of eight years.

Mr. and Mrs. Noel Redus and son of Fort Worth spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Banks and Windell.

FALLEN — Former British heavyweight champion Tommy Farr fell flat on his face as he was knocked out for the first time in his career in a recent bout at Porth, South Wales. The popular 37-year-old Welshman was K. O'd in the second round of his bout with newcomer Frank Bell.

Pfc. Hubert Meadows of Kelly Field, San Antonio, visited here Saturday night, returning to San Antonio in a new car Sunday.

Mrs. C. E. Elliott received the message Monday of the death of Mrs. Hayden Williams at Tahoka. Mrs. Williams died at her home early Monday of a heart attack. She is the mother of Clarence Williams, who is the son-in-law of Mrs. Elliott.

Carl Britton and little son of Portales, N. M., visited in the Billie Joe Hale home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Bowlin and Mary, Sgt. Glenn Bowlin, and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Hamilton and Keith spent Sunday in the William Bowlin home in Abilene.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Stollenberg and children spent Wednesday night and Thursday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Dudley enroute from Amarillo to Houston where they will make their home.

There Is a Church You Should Know
WHAT IS IN A NAME?

A great deal is said in regard to the Church and the name it is to wear. With a careful investigation any honest sincere person can see the Bible says much in regard to this question.

If you should sign some-one else's name to a check you would find out there is something in a name; write a letter without putting on the name where would that letter go?

IMPORTANCE OF NAMES

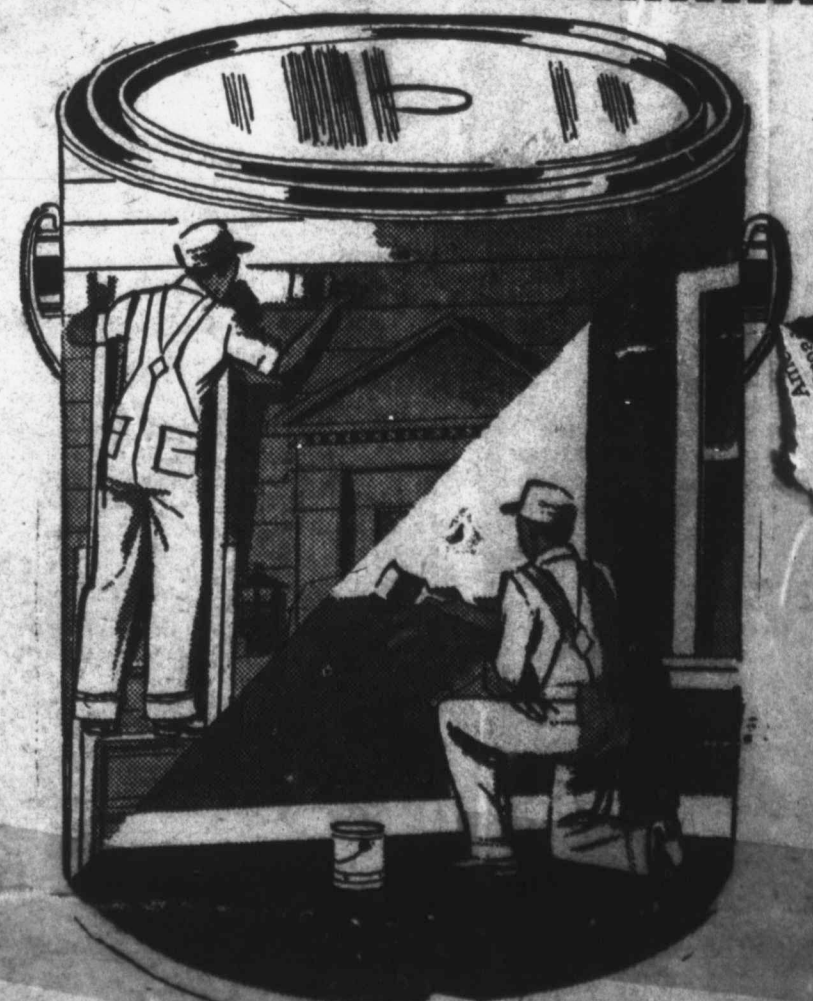

- Eve wore the name of Adam—Gen. 5:2.
- God changed the names of Abraham and Sarah—Gen. 17:5, 15.
- God gave Jacob a new name—Gen. 32:27, 28.
- Paul condemned human names—1 Cor. 1:13, 14, 15.

GOD PROMISED ISRAEL A NEW NAME:

- An everlasting name—Isa. 56:5 "Even unto them will I give in mine house and within my walls a place and a name better than of sons and of daughters I will give them an everlasting name, what shall not be cut off."
- Old name a curse—Isa. 65:15.
- New Name for Gentiles—Isa. 62:2 "And the Gentiles shall see thy righteousness, and all things thy glory; and thou shalt be called by a new name which the mouth of the Lord shall call."
- When did this occur—Acts 2:10:11.
