Cotton Men Put Pressure On Harvest Of Big Crop

The new First National Bank which will be opened to the public at an open house Sunday afternoon and open for business Monday morning, is pictured above. It has taken almost a year of planning and building. In dollars and cents it represents an outlay of slightly more than $175,000, but the finished product is the most modern banking facility on the South Plains.

Yields May Exceed Last Year's Crop

Floyd County cotton raisers have been putting the pressure on their harvest operations in the ten days since mechanical gathering became general. Last week-end with good weather the machines had covered the yards at the cotton gins. All the gins in the county, with an exception or so, operated around the clock Sunday. As of last Thursday (a week ago) the Texas Employment Commission reported the total cotton ginned in the county at 64,200 bales. These figures were taken from actual reports from gin offices. County Agent Cecil Lewis yesterday said that most crops are turning out slightly on the up side of the first promise. Even the late cotton in hauled out sections is making around a bale of cotton. The cotton which was planted early and has had a good chance is going considerably above a bale, some of it up close to two bales. Mr. Lewis thinks the Plains Cotton growers figures of 104,000 may be conservative. He is sure the county production will far exceed the estimate of 87,000 bales made by the Texas Employment Commission. Yesterday Lewis thought the harvest might be 70 per cent complete. An occasional field is still found where the grower is waiting for the late bolls to dry out. This is, generally speaking, in the sections where the hails in the late spring occasioned late planting. It is not the general rule. Dry land cotton, about 20,000 acres, appears to be making about a half bale. This production plus the cotton on the irrigated land make the figures mount up. Only gin plant which has had any material trouble to date this season is the Davis Gin, which resumed round the clock operations about 10 o'clock Monday night. The power plant an internal combustion engine, developed trouble Friday night and had to be replaced.

Cocky Denver City Mustangs Champs of 4AA Are Opponents

Wester Field in Floydada will be the site of the big bi-district game Friday afternoon between the Floydada Whirlwinds and the Denver City Mustangs. Admission prices are 50c for students and $1.50 for adults. Kick-off time is set for 2:30 p.m. and local school students will enjoy a half day holiday from school with classes being dismissed at noon. The contest pits the Whirlwinds, winners of the district 3AA championship, against the Denver City Mustangs, champions of district 4AA. The game will bring together the state's highest scoring team, the Mustangs, and the state's stingiest defense, the Whirlwinds, and it looks like the age old meeting of the irresistible force and the immovable object. Winner of the contest moves into regional play against the winner of the Canyon-Oilton game. Only 600 reserved seat tickets have been printed for the game and these are being offered first to regular seat holders who must exercise their option by this afternoon. These as well as the general admission tickets are priced at $1.50. The buyer of the reserved seat ticket will not need to purchase a general admission ticket but can offer the ticket at the gate and retain the stub to claim his seat in the stadium. This is a courtesy to those who have been faithful in supporting past stadium building projects. If there are tickets not claimed before Friday morning they will be sold to the general public along with the general admission tickets and these and all other seats will be on a first come first served basis at game time. A large number of tickets were sent to Denver City on Monday morning and Mustang fans are expected to number 1,200 or more by game time. The visitors will be seated in the west stadium. Tickets were also sent to Lockney Monday morning when inquiries began to be made by phone about their availability. With good weather the game is expected to draw well over 3,600 fans from over a wide area of the south plains. Local school authorities have been moving in temporary seats from the rodeo grounds, pony league park and little league park and from the track and field site to try and take care of the overflow crowd. Floydada school representatives met with those from Denver City at 7:00 p. m. last Saturday in the Caprock Hotel in Lubbock where the play-off plans were made. Coaches Preston Watson and Charles Tyer and Superintendent I. T. Graves and High School Principal A. E. Baker were present representing Floydada. The Denver City delegation was headed by Superintendent Jones and Coach Jake Harrell. Wins On Coin Toss After the likes and dislikes of the two schools were submitted it was decided to flip a coin on each point to determine the team to get its choice. Coach Watson flipped the coin for the game site and the Denver City coach called heads. The coin fell tails. (See WHIRLWIND, page 8)

Expect Game To Draw Big Crowd Friday

Weather man cooperating, the belief of Supt. I. T. Graves of the Floydada schools, is that Friday's crowd to see the Whirlwind-Mustang bi-district football game will break all local records for attendance at a football game. Mr. Graves says interest from all around points to this probability and the school authorities are making plans accordingly. The seating capacity is being increased by the use of temporary seating to a figure above 5,000. Likelihood is that a crowd of more than 4,000 will be at the game when the whistle blows at 2:30. All local business houses will be closed for the two hours and a half of the game. The school will furnish its full quota of attendance. Also interest at Lockney has mounted high and Supt. H. H. Nicholas has arranged Friday's schedule there so the student body can be dismissed at 2 o'clock and permit the several hundred members of the student body to attend. Mr. Graves said he had been advised by school officials at Tulsa and Spur that good crowds will be here from those cities. The Tulsa football coaches and squadmen are due to attend in a body, the superintendent there told Mr. Graves Wednesday morning. Press and radio broadcasting facilities are expected to be much in demand from local and regional newspapers and stations. The school is activating the west side press box, as well as the east side. Mr. Graves has not been advised what radio station in the vicinity of Denver City will broadcast the game to residents of that area. Only question mark now is the weather. A rather favorable outlook was seen Wednesday afternoon. Temperatures have come up from the first of the week and it appeared late yesterday that the schools can anticipate a reasonably good Friday afternoon, weather-wise.

First National Bank To Open New Home For Business On Monday

The officers and directors of the First National Bank have announced that the new banking quarters, awaited several months, will be occupied over the weekend and the bank will open for business at the new location at the usual hour Monday morning. E. L. Norman, president, said that the Sunday afternoon open house, at which they expect to have several hundred visitors, will be the prelude to the business opening on Monday. Sunday afternoon all the banking personnel including officers, directors and working force will be on hand to welcome visitors. Coffee and cakes will be served and all visitors will be asked to register. The elders will register in one book, the youngsters in another. "We want the youngsters to come. They are our future customers. We are making it easy for them to register at a registration booth separate from the heads of the house," Mr. Norman said. The bank's plans are for the doors to open Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The open house will continue until 6 o'clock. Government prizes will be a government bond of $500 maturity value and a $100 savings account. The bright new quarters, all-glass and weather conditioned, will be a welcome relief from the present quarters, temporarily set up last spring when the weather man and the building contractor's unexpected problems drove them out.

Watson Sworn In As Co. Auditor O. M. Watson Jr. is now the auditor of Floyd County. The successor to Fred Conner, resigned, Watson took the oath Saturday morning in the office of the county clerk, Miss Margaret Collier administered the oath with only the office personnel as witnesses. Watson was named two weeks ago to succeed Conner when the latter turned in his resignation to Judge L. D. Ratliff to take a position in Muleshoe. Judge Ratliff at the time noted the eminent qualifications of the new auditor.

Burglaries, Stabbing, DWI Cases In Week's Crime News Two business firms, located just outside the city limits, were broken into Thursday night. The Dairy Mart was burglarized for some $40 and just across and down the highway the Capada Drive-Inn, was broken into, but nothing was found missing other than cigarettes. Sheriff Walter Hollums said this week that both burglaries are still under investigation. The money taken at the Dairy Mart was from the cigarette machine and the juke box. Nothing else was disturbed. After prying loose the air-conditioner at the Capada, the vandals crawled into the window there and helped themselves to cigarettes. Sheriff Hollums said

Survival Seen For Amarillo Deer Hunter

A K. Terrell, 41, of Amarillo, brother of J. B. Terrell of Floydada, is believed on the road to recovery after a shooting accident on Cimmaron River deer hunt. He was drilled through from back to front by a bullet from an unknown source that struck him in the lower part of his back and came out at about the navel. The accident occurred Saturday, Nov. 7, about 11 o'clock in the morning 53 miles out from Clayton, N. Mex. Terrell was in a party of Amarilloans, including Clay Willis, and Terrell's 10-year-old son Kenneth. Kenneth was hunting with his father and gave the alarm. Terrell was taken to Clayton for treatment and then sent on to Amarillo, where he is in Northwest Texas Hospital. He reached Amarillo about 7:45 in the evening. The wounded man, who has a wife and three children, lived in Floydada for several years. He is a carpenter foreman in Amarillo. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Terrell. The Floydada brother visited A. K. in the hospital last weekend and said the wounded man took a definite turn for the better about the time he was there. Cimmaron Canyon was full of hunters at the time and it is most unlikely that it will ever be known who fired the near-fatal shot.

WORD PICTURE OF A BANK Modern Banking Facilities Described In Detail (In this story the reporter begins at the front door of the new First National Bank and takes the reader through the building, picturing the arrangements, color schemes and fittings step by step. - Ed. Note) BY BETTY HENRY The new night depository on the front of the bank building is one of the features offered for the customers of the First National Bank of Floydada. It is contained in an all Rainbow granite column named in Cold Springs, Minn. Approximately half of the front of the building is constructed of a glass fixture. Entry is through a pair of double glass doors into an entry hall. Floor of this hall is of red clay tile with a granite wall on one side and glass on the other three. Entry into the lobby of the bank is made through double glass doors. Dimensions of the entry hall are 15 feet long by 10 feet wide. Also in the entry are two planters and a rubber floor mat. Customers step onto a floor of terrazzo tile upon entering the lobby. The ceiling, made of acoustic plaster, contains the units for central heating and cooling as well as indirect lighting and is of an off-white color. Lobby floor space is 61 feet nine inches by 7. Granite check desks are being constructed around columns in the lobby with lights on stems coming from the ceiling to hang directly above the desks. To the direct left of the entry doors is a lounge. Drapes hang

A writing table of walnut with a turquoise leather chair is also in the lobby. Another chair covered in tortoise shell leather - is situated in the lounge. A work table of walnut will seat four people in the lounge. Floor space is 17 by 17. Bookkeeping, Tellers Quarters A slab walnut door connects the lounge with the bookkeepers office which is located directly behind the tellers cages. The bookkeeping room is plastered in an off white color and has recessed lighting. The floor is covered with vinylized tile. The room can be closed off from the lobby by means of eight slab walnut doors plus the door that connects with the lounge. A vault at the west end of the bookkeeping room will be used to store books and records and has a completely fire-proof door. Recessed lighting is above the eight tellers cages which are just outside the bookkeeping room. The cage floors will also be covered with vinylized tile. Cages are constructed from granite and marble with walnut cases. The total area covered by the cages is 54 feet and four inches by six feet and eight inches. Coming on around from the tellers cages to the north is the new safe. This time the safety deposit boxes and the bank money are under the same protection, the vault having two sections. The new vault door constructed by the Mosler Safe Company weighs two and one half tons. The door is three and one half inches thick and features a time lock. Directly north of the safe is the place for two collection windows for future use. This fixture is constructed of the same material as that of the cages. East of this structure will be five desks belonging to the officials of the bank and their secretaries. The loan area will be divided from the rest of the lobby by a rail made from aluminum and walnut. The floor is done in a brown carpet. Desks are of walnut with pull up chairs covered with turquoise leather. The officials' chairs are of tortoiseshell leather. The waiting chairs are of coral textured covering.

The area of the loan space is 10 feet four inches wide and 54 feet 10 inches long. The north, west and east walls of the loan area are covered in a matched walnut paneling made from oak tree. Four local scenes will hang on the walls. They are pictures in color of a cotton field, a maize field, of whiteface cattle and of Angus cattle. The conference room has the same walnut wood paneling with brown carpet and a walnut desk. The desk chair will be of tortoise-shell leather with pull up chairs of coral fabric. Ash trays, wastebaskets and all other accessories will be of turquoise leather. Area in the conference room is 14 feet and six inches by 14 feet and six inches. (See MODERN BANK, page 8)

Several arrests were made on DWI cases, and a stabbing in the colored section of town occurred Saturday night. Aggravated assault charges were lodged against Albert Wireton, about 18, for the knife stabbing of a Negro, Robert Pleasant, 17. Both youths are at Floydada. Pleasant is receiving treatment in Plainview Hospital for the wound in the left side of his chest, just below the heart. The altercation took place at the negro dance hall in the flats. Hollums was assisted in the investigation by Perry Smith and Ernest Huckabee.

Home Demonstration Society will hold their regular meeting Saturday, Nov. 21, in the council room. Members are urged to be present. Plans for the Council Christmas party will be discussed.

PROCLAMATION BY THE MAYOR OF FLOYDADA

Whereas, The Whirlwind Football Team of Floydada High School has made an outstanding record in Interscholastic Football this season, winning 10 games and losing none;

Baptist Building Debt Erased By Home-Coming Contributions

Home Coming Day Sunday for the First Baptist Church which began with a 7 o'clock Brotherhood Breakfast and was climaxed in the evening with a colorful pageant of church history was a heart warming event for the members and scores of friends who attended.

The Sunday School count was the second largest in the history of the Sunday School, the educational building fund was far over-subscribed, and church membership basked in the warm glow of four pastors, who formerly served the church.

Of the four Rev. S. R. McClung of Waco, now retired, was accompanied by Mrs. McClung and they were guests in the home of his son, W. H. McClung while here.

Each of the three other former pastors flew in from their respective fields of labor to be present. Dr. Vernon Shaw flew in from San Antonio, Dr. R. Earl Allen from Fort Worth, and Rev. L. A. Doyle and wife made a cross country flight from Portales with a friend of the family.

The historical pageant which climaxed the day had between 100 and 150 individuals in the cast. It was titled "To God be the Glory." Mrs. Claude Weatherse was director.

The goal of $11,000 to be raised on home-coming day to retire the church's only debt—for the educational building finished five years ago—was surpassed in the offerings at Sunday School Sunday morning, and additional subscriptions kept coming in throughout the day. Monday it was indicated that more than $34,000 had been subscribed.

The over-subscription is being put into a fund for future building plans of the church. Action taken by the church on Wednesday night voted to set up any excess in a fund for future building needs.

One hundred three from out-of-town were registered from Lubbock, Amarillo, Canyon, Plainview, Abilene, Houston, Bridgeport, Tulsa, Mineral Wells, Idaho, Lockney, Petersburg, Azle, South Plains, Post, Dimmitt, Shreveport, La., Portales, and Clovis, N. Mex.

The service of dedication of the educational building was conducted Sunday afternoon. The pastor, Ed B. Bowles and the congregation in a pretty ceremony, dedicated the building to the glory of God and the service of man.

The morning worship started with an organ and piano prelude by Mrs. Bob Copeland and Miss Nell Swinson. I. T. Graves brought the devotional and offertory prayer given by H. G. Barber.

Morning speakers were the Rev. S. R. McClung of Waco, who spoke on the "Valley of Depression", and "Dedication" by Rev. R. Earl Allen, pastor of Rosen Heights Baptist Church in Fort Worth. Prayer was led by John Stapleton and the benediction brought by L. A. Marshall.

Former members of the church and former pastors fore gathered when the noon luncheon was held in the church. The afternoon program commenced at 2 o'clock with opening prayer of Thanksgiving by Mrs. Lon V. Smith.

During the afternoon hymns were sung in unison and several selections by the church choir. Albert Mize led prayer followed by childhood-church memories given by Mrs. Pearl Fagan, after which a solo was sung by Johnny Burnett, music director of the church.

Dr. Vernon Shaw of Bethesda Home in San Antonio, and Rev. L. A. Doyle of the First Baptist Church in Portales, N. Mex. were afternoon speakers. Dr. Shaw talked on the growth in Biblical giving, and Rev. Doyle spoke on the sanctuary.

Climaxing the day's activity was the dedicatory service by Rev. Bowles and the congregation and the dedicatory prayer by Rev. Joe Wilson.

The evening worship opened with preludes by Mrs. Copeland and Miss Nell Swinson, followed by a hymn and the invocation.

On Wednesday afternoon the South Plains Home Demonstration Club met in the Kitchen for their regular club meeting. Their subject was "New Ideas in Party Foods." Mrs. John Smitherman was hostess.

Thursday afternoon of last week I went to Lakeview where I helped with their demonstration "Cake Decorating and Party Foods." Mrs. Faye Bertrand decorated a beautiful birthday cake (with roses and everything) for the group to see.

A group of ladies met in the Kitchen on Friday afternoon for a candy demonstration. Mrs. Harry Jones was hostess for this meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Luttrick of Abernathy were co-op visitors recently.

Jerome Buchanan of Plainview was a co-op visitor one morning last week.

Let Gratitude Compare

Nature does not economize. She gives with a lavish hand. She knows not what meanness is. In sky, on sea or land. One half the stars we see at night. Would deek a royal bride. But millions twinkle ever bright. With millions more beside. The mighty oceans yield their store. Of fishes large and small; The harvest there is ever ripe. At man's eternal call. Half the blossoms on the rose. Would be something to admire. Nature's cut still overflows. With beauty does conspire. Let gratitude within our hearts. With nature's gifts compare. And praise the Hand that nobly gives. Abundance, and to spare.

BROADWAY, Nov. 16 - Sunday School and church attendance was fairly good Sunday. The pastor, Rev. L. E. White, Mrs. White and their daughter, Karen are trying to remember names and faces as this is their third Sunday in our church. We hope they will be happy in our church and our community.

The gin gets quite crowded at times and then when we have a damp or cold spell they get caught up with the ginning, then along comes a bright and sunny day and they are again far behind.

Quite a number from our community attended funeral services in Crosbyton Saturday afternoon for Curtiss Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Smith of Crosbyton. We truly extend our very deepest sympathy to the Smiths.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Beckham left Lubbock by train Friday, Nov. 7 for California, where they visited a grandson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie White and daughter, Penney and with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lorenick and family. Enroute home they met up with a couple with whom they had lived as neighbors and had not seen in some thirty-three or thirty-four years. They reported a wonderful trip. Homemaking Hints

By Phyllis Roggenhoff County Home Demonstration Agent

When Buying Turkeys Thanksgiving is nearly here so you may be thinking of buying a turkey for the occasion. A few things to think about first are: How big a turkey should I buy? How can I check for quality? What about that inspection tag?

The size of the turkey will depend upon the number you expect to serve and the reaction of family members to eating leftovers. You should keep in mind that for each person served you will need about three-fourths pound of oven-ready turkey for a generous allowance.

Best quality turkeys, which are designated as grade "A", will have an even covering of fat over the entire bird. They will be broad breasted with bulging thighs and large drumsticks. Turkeys with these qualities have a maximum percent of meat to bone and thus give more edible meat for your dollar spent. In addition, you will want to select a turkey without blemishes, such as torn skin and bruises.

If the turkey has been graded, which indicates quality, under USDA supervision, it will have a tag attached. This quality will be indicated by the letters "A", "B", or "C".

Look for the grade and inspection tag on the turkey you buy. Turkeys that have been inspected for wholesomeness under USDA supervision will have a tag attached which states that the turkey has been inspected for wholesomeness. It will have the prefix U. S. on the shield and is usually attached to the wing.

In addition to suggestions on buying, here is a help on cooking. Kathryn Nyles, Home Economist for the Poultry and Egg National Board, suggests that you allow 15 - 20 minutes per pound of oven-ready turkey weight. She also recommends an oven temperature of about 325 degrees. The larger the turkey, the less time per pound will be needed for cooking.

Cleaning Closet A well organized cleaning closet can simplify your house cleaning jobs. If you don't have a closet, a metal cabinet or corner of a rear hall or porch will do.

Arrange tools so that you can remove one without shifting the others or having to take them out of the closet. Hooks for mops, brooms, and brushes, and shelves for bottles and jars will help keep the closet orderly.

An easy to carry basket with a handle will provide storage for small cleaning supplies and can easily be carried from room to room. Oily dust cloths and rags used in waxing should be kept in covered metal containers to eliminate fire hazards and odors.

4-H Officers Training A training meeting for 4-H officers will be held this Saturday in the courthouse. The agents are planning training sessions for the president, vice-president, secretary-treasurer, and reporter of all of the 6 community 4-H clubs in the county.

AN APPRECIATION To the people who have been so kind while I have been laid up in the hospital I want to express my sincere thanks. Many cards, letters, and other expressions of friendship have made me most grateful.

First National Bank History Replete With Important Names

(Although the history of The First National Bank as a corporate body goes back only to 1903, the bank as a matter of fact is a business with a continuous history dating back to 1860 when Johnson Bros. & Ainsworth started the business as an adjunct to their mercantile establishment in Floydada. Jas. B. Posey and associates bought the Johnson Bros. & Ainsworth business as a going concern and operated it as the Floyd County Bank for several years before its incorporation. The present story deals only with the history since it was chartered as a national bank. — Ed. Note)

BY BETTY HENRY

The First National Bank, as a business institution in Floydada, was launched in April of the spring of 1903, with a capital stock of $30,000. It was the outgrowth from the private banking institution known as the Floyd County Bank. Jas. B. Posey and L. T. Lester of Canyon, who owned the Floyd County Bank, were among the incorporators of the bank, early records reveal.

The bank's charter is dated April 3, 1903, but the old faded minutes, which were rescued from the fire of 1911, indicate that the organization meeting was not until October of the same year. L. T. Lester, the records show, was elected president; C. Sarginer, vice president; and Jas. B. Posey, cashier.

Will W. Nelson, mercantile owner; R. C. Andrews, a doctor; J. B. Rurris, stock farmer; and Jno. N. Farris, ranchman, were stockholders.

Dr. Andrews was elected secretary of the board, a post he held for many years.

Nelson Succeeds Posey
In January, 1904, J. P. Posey, the cashier's son, was the first addition to the officials, serving as assistant cashier, holding this only a short while, resigning to accept the position of cashier with the Lockney Bank.

Jas. K. Green, nephew of J. B. Posey, was appointed second assistant cashier for the bank on January 1, 1905.

Because of his residence in Canyon, L. T. Lester, president of the bank, did not sign the minutes of the director's meetings, but one time in the period from its organization in 1903 to January 1909, this formality was performed by C. Sarginer in his capacity as vice president.

In 1907, J. B. Posey transferred his activities to Plainview and was succeeded as cashier by Will W. Nelson, Mr. Posey retaining his interest in the institution until January of 1909 when he sold his stock.

In March, 1909, the charter of the bank was amended to increase the capital stock to $30,000. A big period of expansion was opened throughout the plains area in 1905-'06 which made the expansion advisable.

The directors believed in keeping up with the progress of the country, and to be prepared for another possible expansion, they should select a site on which to erect a new building. The purchase of Lots 1 and 2 in Block 71 was decided upon. This property was bought from A. C. Bowers and wife in April, 1909.

The institution was called upon to meet their first hardship to this time, the death of a man who was popular throughout the country and who had proved himself to be a capable banker in 1910.

First National Bank Personnel

These short years, the death of the director's meeting in January 1910, called for the resignation of a director to succeed him as well as a practical banker to fill the place left vacant. On December 22, J. M. Oakes was elected cashier, and in January, 1910, Mrs. Fannie Nelson was elected a director. Mr. Oakes resigned in the late summer of 1910 to take the position of clerk of the Court of Civil Appeals, Seventh District, Amarillo.

In August of 1910, E. C. Nelson was elected cashier. At the time of his election he was Superintendent of the Plainview Public Schools. For a brief interim, another man whose name is indelibly connected with the early history of Floydada, was a bank director. This was W. T. Montgomery, who was a director only a short time, the records showing his resignation of April 2, 1911.

In 1911 another name appeared as a stockholder on the books of the corporation in the person of Thos. Montgomery. It was this same year that the decision to construct a new two story building that would be the largest building in the county was reached. Directors borrowed their own resources so as to permit the continued use of the bank's funds in the regular channels of business. They moved into the building in the spring of 1912.

In January of 1912, L. T. Lester, John Farris, C. Sarginer, E. C. Nelson, and R. C. Andrews were recorded as directors, E. C. Nelson still in the position of cashier, in which he continued until 1917. In 1917 he succeeded Dr. R. C. Andrews as secretary of the board. It was this same year that the name of F. M. Butler appeared in the records. He was elected assistant cashier on January 17.

Thos. Montgomery a Director
In 1914 two more new names appeared in the list of directors, those of Harry Weatherly and Thos. Montgomery. The latter succeeded L. T. Lester. By a formal vote on January 14, 1914, by the directors, the bank became a member of the Federal Reserve System and bought stock in the Federal Reserve Bank at Dallas.

On January 14, 1916, the stockholders recorded were Thos. Montgomery, C. Sarginer, C. Snodgrass, E. C. Nelson, John Farris, R. C. Andrews, J. B. Jenkins, Harry Weatherly, I. E. Martin, Edgar B. Howard, H. E. Cannaday, and F. M. Butler. In the fall of that year Mr. Weatherly moved away and N. A. Armstrong, extensive farmer and rancher from Kansas, was elected a director to succeed Weatherly.

J. V. Daniel was added to the payroll in September and was elected assistant cashier in November. In the election of officers at the bank this having the director's meeting in January 1910, called for the resignation of a director to succeed him as well as a practical banker to fill the place left vacant.

On December 22, J. M. Oakes was elected cashier, and in January, 1910, Mrs. Fannie Nelson was elected a director. Mr. Oakes resigned in the late summer of 1910 to take the position of clerk of the Court of Civil Appeals, Seventh District, Amarillo.

and California Streets, on Tuesday, April 17, 1923, from 4:30 p. m. to 10:01 p. m.
The occasion was marked by the presence of all the stockholders, bank officials, and board members.
E. C. Nelson, president, said the plan was to make the occasion one of good fellowship and neighborliness.
"Our rounding out of twenty-five years in the span of the life of the First National Bank, coupled with the completion of our new banking room makes a dual event that we want to celebrate." These words coming from the mouth of Mr. E. C. Nelson thirty years ago.

Tennessee marble was used for the offices and cages for the first forty-two inches in height. On this was placed a six inch marble slab and the remaining space to the top of the fixture was of plate glass with sand blasted edges. Woodwork was of black walnut, with the cages being finished in bronze wrought iron.
The lobby floor was of black and white checkered tile in eight inch squares. The office and cage floors were covered with brown cork carpets. An all-marble check desk was placed in the lobby. Total installation cost at that time was $8,000.

Assistant cashiers were E. L. Norman, Annie Marie Moore, and Frank L. Moore. O. M. Watson was cashier. Bookkeepers were L. J. Welborn and Charles Bedford.

Later History of The FNB
About the only changes that came about in the period of 1920 to 1929 and the new bank were the change in bank officials, directors, stockholders, and the big change in capital stock. In March, 1909, the capital stock was listed at $30,000, and in August of 1928 it was changed to $200,000.
At the stockholders meeting on January 8, 1929 the following were elected to serve for one year: E. C. Nelson, Mrs. J. N. Farris, J. B. Jenkins, O. W. Stroup, H. E. Cannaday. On June 11 of the same year, the resignation of Frank L. Moore, assistant cashier, was accepted with T. A. Norman being named as bookkeeper.

The name of J. V. Nelson was added to the list of directors at the stockholders meeting on January 13, 1931 to serve for one year. At the directors meeting on the same day, Oleta Jackson was elected as stenographer for the bank.

Some stockholders elected directors in 1931 who were again elected to serve for the year of 1932. Thos. Montgomery to serve as chairman of the board of directors.
On November 12, 1932, the board of directors had a called meeting when E. C. Nelson's resignation from the presidency of the bank was accepted.

New Names On Payroll
Kenneth Bain, Jr. was serving as a bookkeeper for the bank on January 9, 1940. Directors meeting of January 14, 1941 showed the bank officials to be the same as the year before. On December 31, 1941 the records show that the name of Lyda Walding appears as secretary.

On January 13, 1942 Bennie Crawford was working as bookkeeper. At a special directors meeting on December 18, 1942 where he is to await further

Fire Of Unknown Origin Damages M. M. Julian Barn
Extensive damage to the flooring of a barn belonging to Murray Julian, near South Plains, occurred in a fire about 11 p. m. Thursday, just short of a high wind which could have caused some real trouble.
Firemen from Floydada and Lockney went to the scene and stood guard until about 2 a. m. Friday to make sure the smoldering boards would not catch again. Members of the family kept a watchful eye the remainder of the morning.
Mrs. Julian said they had not the least idea of how the fire started. Cotton seed and other farm seeds were stored in the building, and were lost. Smoke was so thick that entry into the building was impossible until the fire was under control.
Neighbors close by came to the Julian's aid and had the blaze pretty well whipped by the time the firemen arrived.

There's nothing like a new car—and no new car like a Chevrolet. This is the 1960 Chevrolet Bel Air Sport Coupe.

PEOPLE SAY THESE ARE THE THINGS THEY WANT IN A CAR...and CHEVROLET for '60 comes closest to meeting every need.

Interviews with thousands of car owners across the country show clearly what they like or dislike about their present cars... and what they want most in their 1960 cars. Here's what the people tell us they want... and here's how Chevrolet meets their needs.

"Price, that's what's uppermost in my mind." All Impalas and Bel Airs with V8 engines are lower in price, as are automatic transmissions and many other popular options. Also Biscaynes now include as standard equipment conveniences formerly optional at extra cost.

"Let's keep upkeep down, too." More than ever, Chevrolet for 1960 is built to stay on the road and out of the repair shop. You can tell that from its hushed, unruffled way of going, from the solid think of Chevy's big doors. Of course, if you should need service, you're always near efficient, economical attention to your needs.

"I want a car that will stand up to the driving I do." For proof of Chevy's staying power, just spend a minute watching the nearest road. You'll see more Chevrolets traveling on it than any other car—evidence-on-wheels of Chevrolet durability. (And that higher resale value attests to it, too.)

"Give me plenty of good old-fashioned comfort." There's comfort and then some in this one. Chevy's long on space, for one thing. Once you're under way you'll know just how comfortable Full Coil suspension makes your ride.

"Safety—don't forget safety!" You're surrounded by safety features in a new Chevrolet. You've got big, sturdy brakes underfoot, for example, that last longer. As it has been for years, safety is standard equipment in Chevy.

"And how about operating economy?" And resale value? You keep right on saving after you buy your favorite Chevrolet, too. And Chevrolet's traditionally higher resale value means you'll get more back when you trade.

"Me for a sweet-handling car." Handling's always been Chevy's forte, and 1960 is no exception. But kind of lightness and precision simply got to enjoy for yourself.

"... a car you can look at and about buying it." Chevrolet leaves the low-price field far when it comes to fashion. But the best judge of styling, as good close look at Chevrolet. You're about to fall in love.

"And performance. Let's have one!" Chevy's spirited V8's set standard for ultra-efficient passenger cars. You've got a long list of performance-minded transmissions to pick from.

So that, friends, is what you want. We think it can be up rather well in just one word.

Get the full story of Chevy's value soon at your Chevrolet dealer.

Nearest to perfection a low-priced car ever came...

Floyd County Hesperian, Floydada, Tex., Thursday, Nov. 19, 1959

Harmony News

By Mrs. Allan Gross

HARMONY, Nov. 16 - What a week we have had. We have been without a telephone since Saturday. Most of the news is of our close neighbors.

Whirlwind-Denver City Game

and so the game came to Western Field in Floydada. Watson also won on several other points such as being able to play with the ball of his choice and also it was agreed that the Winds can wear their green game jerseys with Denver City being dressed in red.

Each school named two game officials. Those chosen were Cotton Neely, referee; Tim Hatch, umpire; John Moorehead, line man; and George Philbrick, field judge.

Coach Watson said this week that barring practice injury his team would be near top strength, and about the same starters as usual would be named. It was hoped that Richard Marler would be ready to see some action at the right half position after being idle with injuries for the past two games.

Probable starting lineups along with other facts of interest about the two teams appear on the football spread on inside pages of this issue of the Hesperian.

Mustangs Breeze Through Season
Coach Jake Harrell's Mustangs have breezed through a 19-game schedule piling up 439 points for very near a 46 point per game average and are tabbed the highest scoring club in the state. The Mustangs as a team are lightning fast, big and tough. Their backfield boasts a fearsome four—some led by such boys as Fred Kidwell, a speedy track star who likes to head for the double strike from any point on the field. He has carried the ball some 97 times for over 1,000 yards and about an 11 yard average.

Bert Gravitt is the rugged quarterback and ball handling wizard who is a very tough runner. Roger Munn a big tackle is one of the standouts in the line.

Floydada has its offense, too, and Don Vickers probably holds the schools scoring and rushing record for a single season. Don has scored 163 points this fall for the green and white and also has gained 1633 yards from scrimmage on 148 tries for a fine 11.033 yard average per carry.

Teamed with Vickers in the backfield are Rodney Teague with a pretty fair record of his own as has Bill Gilliland, Charles Christian and Richard Marler.

Forward Wall Air-tight
Floydada's boys up front like to talk about defense, however, and it is here that Gilliland at middle guard, Shipley at line-backer, Parks and Christian at tackles, and Graves and Self at ends along with linebackers Irby, Vickers and Stallard form the stop unit forward walls. Teague and Dempsey fill in at defensive halves.

This aggregation has allowed but one touchdown this year and that on a pass play as time was running out on the clock.

Some of the daily papers are naming Floydada as the favorite, but many of the local fans who made the trip to Denver City and saw them play Seminole are shaking their heads. They gained much respect for the Mustangs and point to the speed, fast charge, ball handling and team balance and aggressiveness as points that may add up to a total too large for the Winds to overcome.

The Denver City team and their followers are definitely not lacking in confidence that they can take Floydada in stride as they move on to bigger and better things.

The whirlwinds are not downhearted, however, after having seen Denver City play and they point out that the game will be won or lost on the field of play Friday and have taken a wait and see attitude.

Many Whirlwind followers feel that the brand of ball played between Denver City and Seminole last week was as good if not better than that demonstrated by Stamford last year in winning the AA state title.

Regardless of these different points of view it shapes up as good a game as will be played in the state this week.

Cotton Burrs
Lots of top quality organic matter is going to waste at many farms in the county. Cotton burrs applied at the rate of 4 to 5 tons per acre can bring about a yield increase of 20 to 25 pounds of lint cotton per acre per ton of burrs. The use of some form of nitrogen with the burrs can increase yields up to 160 pounds of lint per acre. From 40 to 60 pounds of nitrogen per acre applied with the burrs has proven to be a good practice.

The burrs if at all possible, should be worked into the top 6 inches of the soil to get the best results. This practice will prevent wind erosion, hold rain-fall and irrigation water, and prevent crusting and baking of the soil.

Grain Sorghum
There were many top fields of grain sorghum producing over 6,000 pounds per acre this year. Yields as large as these will take a lot of plant food out of the soil. Crops grown on this land in many cases will show nutrient deficiencies. A good fertilizer program and soil testing may prevent reduced yields.

EDITORIAL VIEWS AND COMMENT

Two Years Needed. If no change is made in the state debt and no new appropriations are made—which changes and appropriations there will be no doubt—it will take the state just about two years to erase the deficit in the general fund. Of course, there are other funds with millions in them, but fortunately, the way we think of it, they are segregated by law and can't be spent for purposes other than those specified.

Lobbies At Austin. The best-manned and most influential lobby at Austin is said to be maintained by the major oil companies. In approximate strength, resources and influence come next the light and power companies, the AFL-CIO and the teachers. The latter carry a great deal of weight because of the backing they have back home from the letter writers. In South Texas a legislator does not fail to consult with Central Power & Light at Corpus Christi before making any important policy move, it is claimed. There are scores of other lobbying influences. In recent years it has come to be a cat and dog fight. In many instances a lobby is just a matter of life and death, tax and business wise. There will be more lobbying not less. Don't expect a legislature to attempt to pass a law that would keep a person or an organization from petitioning his legislator.

Ready to Move In. The big dailies—Dallas for instance—are full of ads offering to let families "move right in" to new homes with very little down-payment and monthly installments that are cheaper than rent. No wonder the big towns lure off the young fellow with a new family. The kids want to enjoy living, have a bright new home beyond their means. They can do this simply by moving to the big city and get a job equally as good as the one offered at home. Who got the laws set up so that a big city has such tremendous advantages over the small city in this and many other ways? Perhaps the lawmakers thought to help carry out that consoling biblical passage in which it is told for the little fellow even that which he hath shall be taken away.

Texas Employment Commission continues to estimate the cotton production in Floyd County at 87,000 bales, the Plains Cotton Growers figures for the crop in this county being 104,000. Today two weeks ago TEC said the crop here was 95 per cent open, 74 per cent harvested, with 47,470 bales ginned. With strippers in every field (when it is warm enough) and nothing to stop the harvest except lack of trailers we have an idea the county had 75 per cent of the crop harvested as of the first of this week. We have no ginning figures available.

Floydada football fans, who have longed for a good many years to see a bi-district interscholastic football game on their home grounds, had one dropped into their laps for this coming Friday. Denver City school people wanted either Denver City or Floydada to have the game and let the toss decide it. Floydada won the toss and has the game. Now, let's see how well we take care of it!

Don't Take Chances! The way a game is called by the officials is the key to successful inter-school rivalry. A Good Joe who is somebody's friend in need of a job or a "homer" should not be tolerated. The boys in the game learn in a few plays whether or not they have officials who are running the show the way it should be run. And the fans soon catch on, too. An official can't run a football game to suit the screwballs but he can run it like it should be run, so that a good time will be had by all, regardless of who wins or loses.

Theoretically neutral fields are good places to have inter-sectional rivalry, and it may be that school men have been right in arranging neutral fields for games wherever possible on the theory that it is "fairer to both teams." We can't help but believe that, until the opponent gets to be far away it is better to let one community or the other have the thrill of the contest on their home lot.

Denver City School district is one of the number in Texas which have more than ordinary wealth. They have the money to do things up brown. Floydada fans will be treated to the sight of a team and school management that does not have to skimp at every turn to have the things that are nice to have. What they can't furnish themselves, however, that will have to be furnished by Floydada, is common courtesy. We won't have to make a fuss over that team and that big lot of supporters who will be in Floydada, to gain their good will, just do unto them as we would be done by.

So Many Owe So Much. Business is good, the country is operating in high and everybody is having it better than they ever had. That is allowing for those who have had bad fortune, or are afflicted with illness either of body or bad management. Also, relatively as to farm operators who had it good for years and now find themselves faced with costs of operation higher than the moon and lowered incomes from their crops. After allowing for these exceptions things are good. But the economy is geared as tight as a fiddle string. The average fellow can't afford to miss a beat. And one reason, everybody owes so much. While the family with a fixed income, like the people living on Social Security, devoutly wish for more reasonable prices, the others can't afford a cut or a day off the payroll. Reason, so many owe so much. That is the only cloud on the horizon of business that we can see. Nobody is ready for any sort of disaster, except that provident small per cent who make hard times make them money, just the same.

Because most everybody of the mine run spend all they make and a wee bit more most of the time and keep themselves stretched across a barrel anyhow, is one reason why we are sorter hard-hearted on the matter of paving the city streets. They had as well be spending their money for something worthwhile as to be spending it helling around the countryside trying to find something interesting to do, to keep the kids from "having nothing to do." When and if tough times do hit, the community and the property owners in it will have something to show for their money.

Territory is but the body of a nation. The people who inhabit its hills and valleys are its soul, its spirit, its life. —Garfield.

To force opinion is like pushing the magnetized needle round until it points to where we wish the North Star stood. —Dorothy Canfield Fisher.

McAllen. Ned was the son of the late E. W. Henderson of Floydada and lived here from 1922 until 1930. His wife is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Shurbet, also former residents of this county.

R. D. Stevens, truck driver of Lubbock, was freed by a jury in county court here last Friday of a charge of negligence and carelessness in failing to put out flares while parked on a highway in April of this year.

In the trial the state charged that the negligence of the defendant resulted in the death of Marvin Glassmoyer, popular student of Floydada High School, who was killed in a collision with the Stevens truck at 1 o'clock on the morning of April 23.

The youth was enroute to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Glassmoyer at Daugherty after attending a junior-senior banquet.

Last rites for Mrs. Jno. L. West, 65, and interment in the Floydada Cemetery Friday afternoon of last week marked the passing of a woman whose life has been unique in the history of this county. Her mature years were dominated by the desire to be helpful to the needy of the community and to the needy of the world in general.

Mrs. West, in her last days expressed admiration for and interest in the Mexican families of the southwest, who are so anxious to rear their families in a wholesome atmosphere of Christianity and good citizenship. Mrs. West died Thursday afternoon and rites were held in the First Methodist church. She had been ill for many months and her death was not unexpected. She came to this county in 1901 with her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McCarty.

Helen Hinsley became the bride of Edgar Owens in a single ring ceremony in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hinsley, on Nov. 17. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Owens of Floydada. He recently discharged from the army. After a few days in Amarillo the couple will return to Floydada to reside.

Mrs. Holt Waldrep, the former Marilyn Fry, was home last week visiting with her parents, and her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McCullough. Mrs. Waldrep is employed in Amarillo at TWA.

Mrs. J. W. Kinard left Wednesday of last week for Seattle, Wash., to visit with her husband, who is stationed there at Fort Lewis.

Gene W. Lotspeich, last stand defender of Bataan in the spring of 1942, prisoner of the Japs for three long years, is expected home most any time, by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Lot-speich of Dougherty. He has been in Leatherman General Hospital at San Francisco for sometime trying to correct a hip injury sustained before the end of the ill-fated campaign to defend the Philippines.

chairman in 1956. Johnson won Daniel says he wants Johnson to be chairman, but that he (Daniel) will take an active role in working for the senator both here and in other states.

SAVE THE SEED — State Board of Education has gone on record as being unanimously opposed to spending anything but the income from the $400,000,000 Permanent School Fund.

Fund has been built up over the years, principally through sales of mineral rights on the school lands. It has been invested in government and municipal bonds which have an income of about $12,500,000 per year.

This investment income is used for school operating expenses. It is dipping into the principal — the $400,000,000 — that the Board opposes.

Board resolution compared the school trust fund to seed corn which "our forefathers saved to plant instead of grinding it for use as food."

There has been some talk of tapping the permanent fund to meet current demands for a teacher pay raise.

Board of Education approved the holding of a county-wide election to see if Cooke County residents were all admitted on court order as mental cases. Now they're too infirm to be "turned out."

Another problem under study is that of tuberculosis patients who go "awol" from TB hospitals before they are completely cured. Danger is not only that they will relapse, but that they will infect healthy outsiders.

Third matter under study is the facilities needed for present and future care of mentally retarded children under school age.

CARR APPOINTMENTS — Named by Speaker Waggoner Carr to the Joint Educational Standards Commission were Reps. C. T. Mathew of Yoakum, Leon Thurman of Anson and Maurice S. Pipkin of Brownsville. Commission is to search for ways to cut school costs without sacrificing necessities.

ALL THE WAY FOR LBJ — Governor Daniel announced he will support Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, not only for the presidential nomination, but for chairman of the Texas delegation to the Los Angeles national convention.

Senator Johnson and former Gov. Allan Shivers fell out over who should be state delegation response would almost certainly result in adoption of the rule. This, because there are hundreds of individuals engaged in optometry as compared with firms so engaged.

If adopted, the rule would prohibit practice "under an assumed name, corporate name, trade name or any name other than the name under which the optometrist is licensed."

This would mean the end of such firms as Texas State Optical, and Lee Optical, where glasses are available at considerable savings to the general public.

HOSPITAL PROBLEMS STUDIED — State Hospital Board has under way studies aimed at three of its current problems.

One is to find a way, other than providing expensive mental hospital facilities, to care for some 2,700 patients whose only ailment at present is old age.

Two plans are being considered. One is state assistance toward the cost of caring for the oldesters in private nursing homes. Other is providing for state nursing homes.

Under law, the state is not responsible for giving institutional care for the aged. But these patients were all admitted on court order as mental cases. Now they're too infirm to be "turned out."

Another problem under study is that of tuberculosis patients who go "awol" from TB hospitals before they are completely cured. Danger is not only that they will relapse, but that they will infect healthy outsiders.

Third matter under study is the facilities needed for present and future care of mentally retarded children under school age.

RULE HITS 'CORPORATE OPTOMETRY' — Within the next few weeks Texas optometrists will vote on a proposed new rule prohibiting practice under any name except the name under which the optometrist is licensed.

Before polling the optometrists, the Board of Examiners in Optometry got a ruling from Attorney General Will Wilson stating that the regulation would be legal and valid.

While the board is not bound by the results of the balloting, it was predicted that a favorable

Verdict Acquits Former Crosby County Sheriff

It took the jury just six hours to come to a verdict that J. T. (Slime) Herrington was not guilty of theft and misapplication of funds in Crosby county where he was sheriff.

The verdict came in at 12:30 a. m. Friday in Lamesa where the trial got underway Monday.

Herrington resigned his job as Crosby County Sheriff after the charge was brought against him early this year. He had held that position since 1955. Presently he is Chief of Police at Lorenzo.

Herrington, his wife and two daughters, one of whom is married, were jubilant over the verdict, as were numerous friends of the Herringtons, who stood by him throughout the ordeal.

Disposition of four other indictments pending against the peace officer had not been indicated the first of the week.

FALCON, the New-size Ford, delivers the value and cuts the budget!

Handling that's really a breeze. The all-new, new-size Falcon parks on a dime... turns on one, too! You'll be able to steer with power steering ease... without power steering. You'll be able to stop as though you had power brakes... without power brakes.

Sweet performance from Ford's most modern Six. A full 90 hp. You'll have to feel the pickup and responsive power to believe it! And each Falcon Six is electronically balanced, while running under its own power, for top smoothness.

Room for six—and all their luggage. No doing without in the Falcon! There's hip, shoulder, knee, and head room galore! Both two- and four-door models are a cinch to enter. Then, thanks to the Falcon's front-mounted engine, there's luggage space aplenty for everyone.

Up to 30 MPG on regular gas, too. And the Falcon actually crossed the country without any oil added. Speaking of thrift, the Falcon's finish never needs wax. Its aluminum muffler normally lasts up to twice as long.

New luxury interiors. Upholsteries are truly quality-made... materials you'd expect to find in cars costing twice the money. Seats are chair high. The front seat cushion is foam padded. And the Falcon rides smooth as silk... corners on rails.

Proved over 3,000,000 miles. To top off 3 years of testing, a fleet of the new-size Falcons has just been proved over every mile of numbered Federal highway. It's without a doubt, the world's most experienced new car.

DRY CLOTHES ANYTIME.. Electrically!

You can dry clothes around the clock and get around the weather when you have an electric clothes dryer. Electric clothes dryers are your best buy. They cost less to own, less to install, less to maintain. You save dollars instead of pennies — and that makes sense.

Contrary to previous regula- tions, a first-place winner may now enter in the same event the following year, except in typing and shorthand. In the typing con- test, a change has been made from one 10-minute test to two. The best paper will be submit- ted for judging.

The 50th celebration will recognize the importance and the many outstanding accomplishments for this worthwhile organization. Some of the outstanding men in the state and nation who were IL winners will be recognized at the celebration. Mr. Graves said, "It was certainly a great honor to be chosen to be one of the five to plan the program."

District FFA Banquet Here Monday Night

The FFA District Banquet will be held in the Floydada High School Cafeteria this Monday from 7 to 9 p. m. with District President, Bert Green from Roaring Springs, presiding. SOLUTION FOUND FOR TEACHER'S DILEMMA

Nita Stout, office assistant, was showing Mr. B. J. Eudy, business teacher, how to run the electric ditto machine in the office toward the end of the 4th period recently. She had just shown him how to put the ditto master on the machine when she was interrupted and had to deliver a telephone message. Mr. Eudy started to put the ditto on the machine and hit the wrong button—the one which starts the machine. No ditto was attached. Blank sheets started going through with fast speed. Frustrated because it was time for the bell and the office girl was gone, Mr. Eudy nervously searched for the "off" button. He could not find such a button and became frustrated he did not stop to glow. He thought that he could ump the PARKING METER Piggy monster. About 100 sheets fed through. SMALL TOWN: Where it's no the machine—blank that is. The sooner done than said. office girl returned and rescued! SALES TALK: Trade Winds.

THIS ain't hay!

This lineman is stacking a portion of the dollar crop produced by Electric Cooperatives for the merchant on Main Street. It represents $3,000,000 a day spent by cooperative members for electrical appliances and work-saving devices. This business was created by the cooperatives. It does not include the millions spent for trucks, poles, lines, and equipment, or the salaries paid to thousands of home town cooperative employees. The Electric Cooperatives have brought nothing but good to their members, their neighbors and to the nation. Owned and operated by the people they serve the Electric Cooperatives of Texas represent democracy in action and free enterprise in its purest form.
