Burkburnett Squad To Try For Honors In Hookup Contest

Permanent Possession of Cup
Sought In Meet At West
Texas Convention

A five-man team headed by Fire Marshal J. J. Blackstone, will leave Thursday for Knox City to attend the West Texas Firemen's convention, determined to bring back the championship cup as a permanent possession. The local team, composed of Neal Allen, John Musick, Bob Laney, Herman Engleman and the marshal, will defend the record established by representatives of Burk Burnett during the last two years. The hookup cup must be won three times to remain in the possession of a department, and the Burk Burnett team started a series two years ago at Archer City by establishing a district record in the contest. Last year at Throckmorton the team repeated the record-breaking performance.

The contest consists of laying three lengths of standard hose, attaching the nozzle and coupling at the plug, and finally securing the water stream. In practice this week the team made the time of 25 3-5 seconds, slightly over the record for the district.

Miss Marilyn Harwell Elected Football Queen; Bulldogs Win First Game From All Star Team

Miss Marilyn Harwell will be football queen for the 1937 season! The Bulldogs defeated the All Stars.

By decisive margin two victories were won at the spring training finale Monday night. The Bulldogs for next year smashed the All Star for the first victory in the history of the series. The 7 to 0 victory was sweet revenge for the squad that had suffered so many humiliations at the hands of the former players.

Miss Marilyn Harwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Harwell, carried the race for queenship over her opponents by a safe margin, and from the start of the race was established as a favorite by heavy balloting.

The queens race ended an intense contest that had waxed warm during the last month. Three of the most beautiful girls in the high school were nominated for princesses. The winner and Misses LaNelle Elder and Francine Hill will be the leaders of the peppers next year. Miss Elder is the daughter of

BURK, CLARA AND FAIRVIEW HOLD GRADUATING EXERCISES IN SCHOOL END YEARS CLASSES

L. H. HUBBARD

Burk Graduation Speaker Has Long School Experience

Special to the Star.

Dr. L. H. Hubbard, who will deliver the Commencement address at Burk Burnett high school on May 25, has just passed his tenth year as president of Texas State College for Women. He has given 32 full years of service to the state's educational system.

Dr. Hubbard was born in the United States Consulate at Mayaguez, Porto Rico, where his father was U. S. Consul. Following his graduation from the University of Texas in 1903, he served as ward school principal at Sulphur Springs, as high school principal at San Angelo, and later as high school principal and superintendent of public school at Belton.

Receiving his Master of Arts degree from the University in 1918, he served as dean of students there from 1924 to 1926, when he became president of T. S. C. W. A. A doctor's degree was conferred upon him by the University in 1931.

During the administration of Dr. Hubbard the college has grown academically artistically and physically. Graduation requirements have been liberalized and twelve new groups of courses have been added. Establishment of the Graduate School in 1930 was another step forward, and work leading to the master of arts degree is now offered in nine departments.

Enrollment of the college has grown steadily during the past decade, from 1702 students in 1926 to 2400 this year. Also during Dr. Hubbard's term the physical plant had adopted the total value of the 1926 plant.

Big Broadcast Is Acclaimed As Hit Of Season Friday

"The Big Broadcast," presented by the grade school at the high school auditorium last Friday night was acclaimed as one of the best of the season as a record breaking crowd gathered for the completely informal program. Jimmy Jeffers, played by Roy Jackson held the audience better than any master of ceremonies has here in many years. The young son of Mr. Jackson, Roy Jackson Jr. received the top of the evening's applause for his solos. Close second were the performance of Miss Barbara Crissey, Billy Ashlock and Pauline Browning's imitation of Robson and Queenie, and the performance of Jo Ella Morgan.

TEACHERS SALARY

Last week the list of teachers was announced, and the basis of pay for next year changed to a 12 months series. This change was for the welfare of both the teachers and the school system. However, the amounts received by the teachers is shocking. Some of the teachers with experience of several years will receive as low as $63.00.

This amount represents twelve payments and is no less than the amount received as a whole for the nine months on an $85.00 per month basis.

We do not presume to criticize the school board or superintendent. We know they are paying as much as possible under the present budget. We do feel that the public ought to know what the instructors of their children receive.

It is difficult to imagine any person spending from four to seven or eight years in universities at high expense for technical training working for amounts that small.

The natural result will be that the teachers will look for professions where they can make more money or for jobs in larger school systems.

That natural tendency will leave us with only the less efficient instructors. We have been fortunate to keep the excellent instructors that we do have. But there is no guarantee that they will stay any longer than to secure an opportunity for promotion.

We do not blame the officials, but we do blame an indifferent public. Salaries are set by the amount of taxes paid, and when the citizens fails to pay or complain about valuations, the budget is stretched to meet even normal expenses.

AN IMPORTANT WEEK

All news paper men at Washington agree that this week is one of the most important that the president has ever faced. Its two important measures faced the national assemblies. The bill remarking the supreme court and the bill for relief tests the strength of the president.

Since this inauguration in 1933, the president has had very few major set backs in congress. Only two bills for which he has asked of major importance have failed. The treaty with Canada on the sea-way via the St. Lawrence and the bonus bill have gone against him.

Neither of these bills have had the permanent reaction that will be expected by policies set within the new few days.

The supreme court measure will either change a system of government so that social justice can be achieved, or it will fail. Its failure will mean the continued domination by a selfish minority of the policies of the government. It would mean the restricting of all progressive legislation.

For the moment the measures are a test of the strength of the president. It will determine whether or not those congressmen who have made statements against the bill will vote for it or a showdown or line themselves up as opposed to the president.

It is our guess that if they do oppose the president that we will have some new congressmen the next election.

There is no chance of compromise now. Both sides are committed to the whole victory or none. The president can not accept compromise without losing prestige. The opposition could not accept compromise without complete defeat. The suggestion that only two new members be allowed rather than the whole number, merely would change the terms of the defeat, but would make it as positive.

On relief the president seems to be assured that the house would pass the bill without major revision. The 500 million cut was killed in a sub-committee. In the senate the victory for this measure is not sure. That is the second test of the demand of the government.

Before the week is over we will know whether or not the strength of the president is as great as ever or that his "honeymoon" has ended.

GRAIN CROP

There isn't the slightest doubt that the grain crop this year will be the largest that we have had in several years, and every farmer and merchant in this district is crossing his fingers hoping that no storm, hail, or rain during the harvest season prevents the crop from being as large as estimated.

During all of our enthusiasm there is the profound hope that common sense will prevail. Previously such good crops have led to the unreasonable estimate which pushed the price of the crop down during the period in which the producer sold the grain.

Last year while the farmer, usually operating on borrowed money or very small margin of money, gathered his crop from the fields and brought it to the mills, the price was held comparatively low. When the grain was almost out of the hands of the farmer, it was suddenly discovered that there was a shortage and the price started going higher until it reached the top price of $1.50. That point represented the highest since the crash of 1929.

If estimates are made this year, the enthusiasm of the authorities should be restrained until they are positive that such a process will not be repeated.

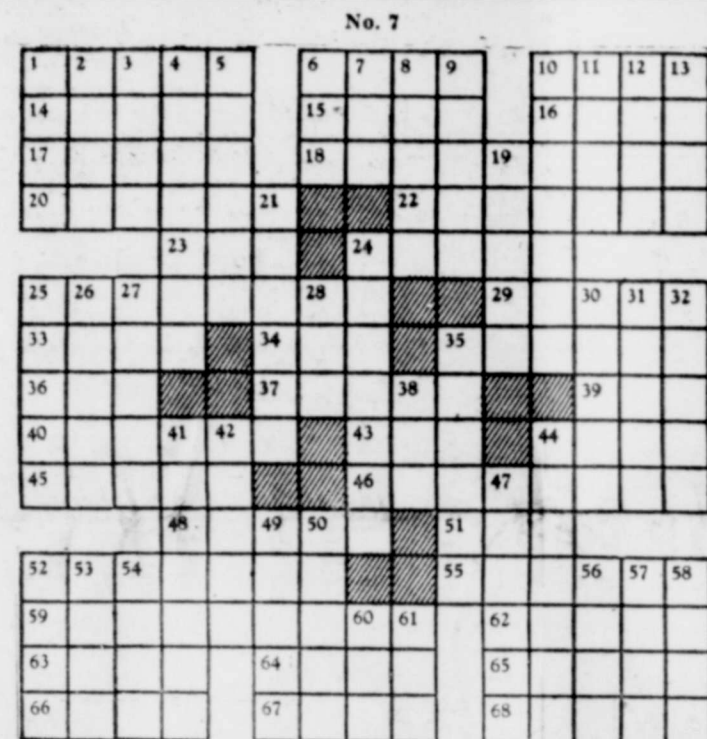

The producer of the wheat should get as much benefit as possible for his grain. Just because there is a temporary surplus at the time of production, there is no reason for the

Puzzle No. 6 Solved:

Capitol News Letter

The House considered on Thursday and Friday and finally passed on Monday the Interior Department Appropriation bill, which carries an appropriation of about $115,000,000, which amount is about $5,000,000 below the Budget estimate. Of this sum about $55,000,000 is for various public works projects. This is the 11th and last appropriation bill to be considered by the House this session, other than perhaps a third deficiency bill, near adjournment.

Emergency Relief

The House Appropriations Committee on Thursday approved an emergency relief appropriation of $1,500,000,000 for the next fiscal year. A hot fight is expected in the House this week on this measure. The subcommittee recommended $1,000,000,000. Representative Boileau of Wisconsin and others have bills pending providing $3,000,000,000 for relief. Relief this year will expend $2,214,000,000. The Committee's action reduces appropriations for next year, $714,000,000, and will strike one-third of the existing number from the relief rolls. The President feels that this is just about as fast as we can hope to reduce the relief burden.

CCC Extension

The House considered Tuesday and finally passed on Thursday a two year extension of the CCC camps, eliminating the civil service provisions and providing for an enrollment not to exceed 300,000. This measure was bitterly contested from several different angles. Many believe these camps are costing entirely too much money, however, the House approved its extension for two years at a cost of $350,000,000 annually.

Legislation Enacted

The Congress has so far enacted the following legislation this session:

- Extension of the R. F. C. Guffey-Vinson Coal bill.
- Reciprocal Trade Agreements.
- The Navy Appropriation bill.
- The Neutrality bill.
- The first relief bill—$790,000,000.

The stabilization fund. Retirement of Justices of the Supreme Court.

The following appropriation bills are through conference:

- First Deficiency.
- Independent Offices.
- Treasury and Post Office.
- Navy Department.
- Legislative.

The following appropriation bills are in conference:

- Agriculture.
- Second Deficiency bill.
- The District of Columbia and Interior Department bills are pending in the Senate.

Now that the President has returned, it is believed that the important legislation, held up by the Supreme Court jam, will now go forward. It is well recognized that the Court Bill is the most important legislation that the President has recommended during his term of office and on its outcome will largely depend perhaps whether or not he and his Administration are remembered or forgotten in history.

It is recognized that the passage of a reasonable Court Bill will allow the Court to function as provided under the Constitution, not for the privileged few but for all the people. It is well recognized, the Court's recent opinions reversing completely its previous opinions were on account night was nice and dark between a cloud or so, and ready to go to the one big of the year, the Junior-banquet.

 about eight o'clock when the school and every was gathered in the hall in the trophy case. We de-join the group at the left of the auditorium and there and, girls nervous in long and worrying about the in their hair, boys looking warmly and stiffly they are dressed up all are discussing something or the other when Hodges comes up and informs us that Messrs. Forman and Reaves are in the auditorium conversing with Mr. Duncan and others. Not having seen either of them since the Seymour football game, we are all very anxious to have a peep, so we go in. We are introduced to Mrs. Forman and Mr. Duncan, whom most of us had met before, and we remember what Mother told us and say very smilingly, "how do you do." Then we come away all a little disappointed because Mr. Forman hasn't changed a bit since he guided us, every so gently, through the first six weeks of General Science, and Mr. Reaves has only lost two hairs from the top of his head since we saw him last.

Four men battling for stolen planes that mean a woman's happiness or disgrace—a nation's victory or defeat—is the gripping theme of the new Twentieth Century-Fox sky drama, "Crack-Up," which features PETER LORRE, BRIAN DONLEVY, HELEN WOOD, RALPH MORGAN and THOMAS BECK.

We go back out in the hall and stand about impatiently until somebody says go to the auditorium, so we obediently line up in couples and file down. The gymnasium looks nice, we think, and it ought to because we spent so much time fixing it up.

There are Sophomores around the campfire singing gypsy songs and while they sing, we very slowly find our seats. From that time on the eats were marred by toasts by Polly Hall, Billy Walker, Miss Wynn and Tommy Harms. When we finish eating we are pleased to hear the enchanting voice of Barbara Crissey tossing songs down our ears along with some fancy music from the orchestra of George Napier. The music was swell for dancing, but we'll give three guesses what we did when we felt like we wanted to dance. Marilyn Harwell gives a musical reading, and then G. A. Reaves, minus the two forementioned hairs, gives us a very excellent speech about making success of our lives, and we are all very determined when he finishes, to go out and be Einsteins and F. D. Roosevelts. Mr. Reave's very fine speech is punctuated by a tree falling in the gym, gusts of sand-filled wind, and windows being slammed. When Mr. Reaves has done we find the banquet is over and so we prepare to go outside to enjoy a beautiful moonlight night.

However, we are doomed to disappointment, for somehow the wind has blown up enough sand to fill the Grand Canyon and enough rain to make it muddy. We had planned to go to Wichita and enjoy the night, but the weather objects so we go home sincerely wishing that the weather had done as much as the Jrs. did to give us a good time.

Football Team Will Honor Mothers Fri. At Banquet

Rev. Miles B. Hays To Pay Tribute To Mothers of Players In Program

QUEEN INTRODUCED

Rev. Miles B. Hays, pastor of the First Baptist church, will pay tribute to the mothers of the football players of the Bulldogs team at the annual banquet honoring the mothers next Friday night in the Rotary club rooms. Rev. Hays announced that his subject will be "Honor Thy Mother," and the tribute will be paid to all of the player's mothers.

At the time of the program Miss Marilyn Harwell, winner of the race for football queen, will be introduced. Her formal coronation will be at the annual pep squad banquet during the football banquet next year. Miss Harwell won the contest by a large majority according to the announcement of Coach Volney Hill at the spring training game Monday night.

Each of the boys of the team will be escorts for his mother during the evening, and an interesting program of music and other entertainment has been planned for the vent. The boys will provide the entertainment other than the feature tribute.

Junior University Club Entertains Mothers At Tea

Members of the Junior University club were hostesses of their mothers at a tea Friday afternoon in the Rotary club rooms. For the occasion the reception and dining suites were decorated with a profusion of colorful roses.

Mrs. Henry Prinzing gave an interesting review of "Vanity Fair." Preceding the review a group of songs were presented by Miss Ethyl Virginia Allen with the choral club, accompanied by Mrs. M. C. Tucker.

Tea was served in buffet style. Pink lighted candles were used as center pieces for the individual tables.

Those present were Mesdames J. H. Brumley, F. L. Pilkenton, M. W. Majors, D. A. Westbrook, Allen, O. L. Clark, Stacy, Reagan, Smith, J. M. Fogue, Paschall, B. M. Cropper, Schwegler, Alexander, W. H. Watkins, Victor Spearman, and Misses Sara Majors, Juanita Ford, Virginia Allen, Alice Westbrook Gladys Westbrook, Erna Schwegler, and Bennie Lee Gates.

Clara Lutheran Church

Paul Kaiser, pastor, Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. Morning service, 10:30 a. m. The morning service will be a reunion service of all classes confirmed in the past ten years. An important feature of this service is the roll call and the recitation of the memory verse. To make the service complete and successful, all classes should strive for a hundred per cent attendance.

The spring rally of the Radiance zone of the Walther League will be held next Sunday afternoon and evening in Zion's congregation at Vernon. The program also includes the celebration of the Walther League birthday with a special ceremony.

In view of the rally, the evening service will be dropped.

Photographers Plan Organization Here

Amateur and professional photographers of Burkburnett have made the preliminary plans for an organization of a camera club in Burkburnett in the near future. The meeting will be set in the next few days, and all photographers and picture lovers have been invited to attend. Those interested should contact George Counter Jr. or Curtis Cook as soon as possible.

The interest in photography has been growing rapidly here during the last few months and both movie and still cameras have been increasing.

A Land Mark Passes

A home that for many years served Burkburnett people is being torn down to make room for a modern brick building to house the Owens-Brumley Funeral home.

There is something strangely tragic about the death of an old house. When a building is ripped apart to serve the cause of progress, the soul of that building seems to protest.

Yet that is the history of progress. In the home of Owens-Brumley which is being torn apart this week for the erection of a modern brick building, rests many stories poignantly human.

In 1908 the building became a home for J. A. Staley who constructed it as one of the finest and earliest homes in the entire district. Since that time as a home it has guarded all the beautiful emotion of home life. With its passing a landmark disappears.

When the building was first constructed it was constructed by Mr. Staley, one of Burkburnett's pioneers, and he made it with justifiable pride his home. Almost alone on a prairie it marked the spirit of permanency and faith that the early residents had in the future of the area.

Forest Harwell To Graduate At H. S.

Forest Hardin Harwell, Burkburnett student attending Hardin Simmons University, Abilene, will be among candidates for graduation at June 1 commencement exercises. Harwell is a Business Administration major with a minor in Spanish and Economics.

Active in campus extra-curricular activities, Harwell has been a member of the History club, Social Science club, and the Wichita club, becoming vice president of the latter in 1935.

Judge William H. Atwell of Dallas will be commencement speaker for Hardin-Simmons university's forty-fifth annual graduation program. The June 1 exercises will follow only two days the baccalaureate sermon by Dr. R. C. Campbell, secretary of the Executive Board of the Baptist General Convention of Texas.

Morris Strong Is Honoree At Party

Morris Strong was honoree at a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Reagan last Saturday night with Mrs. Strong and Mrs. Reagan as hostess. The occasion was Mr. Strong's birthday. The group were entertained with games of various types and contests. The hostesses served delicious refreshments to Misses Pat Thompson, Mildred Corley, Pauline Cunningham, Grace Warman, Kathryn Wynn, Gladys Westbrook, Geraldine Potter, Annie Laura Billingslea, Ella Billingslea, and Messrs. Polk Robison, W. B. Teal, S. J. Moreman, and Messrs. Lee Clifton, Morris Strong, Bryant Creighton, G. A. Reeves, R. P. Reagan, Morris Dean, and the host and hostess.

Punts And Passes
Telly Has Improved. Last year he was good. This year he is better. By fall next year I am confident he will be BEST. His passing has become more accurate. He is developing a change of pace that will give his speed more value than he had last year. On the touchdown play Monday night instead of trying to smash through the tacklers, he feinted at them and then swept back to cut out of their reach while they were stumbling to change their directions. On that 35 yard run he swept through a mass of players by the simple expedient of running them into committing themselves then stepping around them with a burst of speed. Only Avis Finch was able to stop him, and Finch knew all his tricks since he played in the same plays last year.

Now the beautiful part is how the rest of the backfield performed. Buck Willet is coming along. He is learning fast. Right now he would rather run over a man than try to dodge him. But Willet has an amazing fast getaway. When he takes the ball he is off before the rest of the team can form the blocking parade. Next year when Willet learns to time his dash to give the blockers time to form out in front of him, he will be hard to stop and will make a very handy young man to have around the camp.

Murray Evans can take it and like it. For two years he has tried to stick it out in spite of injuries and hard luck. That courage and tenacity deserves a big hand. That 185 pounds of bones and muscle seems to have found his place in the back field. He can throw and catch passes, kick, and on the line smashes is hard to beat. Right along with him on quick opening plays is Bates. On the spinners and such plays Bot can squeeze through.

Freddy Brown was nervous in his first real game Monday night, and by the time he gains experience he will be leading the parade in this territory. He has a couple of years yet to get that experience, and as he steadies down, Brown is going places for the Bulldogs. Many people say that because my name and Carl's are the same that I am prejudiced for him. But he played a game Monday that would make any football fan prejudiced in his favor. Coach Hill has a bunch of plays and a system of defense that calls for the guard to be accurate blockers, hard tacklers, and plenty smart on the defense. Carl won all district last year at tackle, and has been moved to the guard position this year and Elliot shifted to tackle.

That Little Misquito fleet don't do so bad when they were placed in the game Monday. The All Stars tried several times with their best polished plays up and still didn't score. That looks good for 1938. When any team can stop Doc Sims as speedy as he was Monday, it is a fair defense. They didn't get a chance to show what they had on the offense.

All The Praise in the world should go to Jack Kelly. He had not played center but did a good job when Hagemann and Grace went out.

Statistics on the game demonstrate how much the stars were on the defensive. First downs, Bulldogs 13; All Stars 5. Penalties, Bulldogs one for 5 yards; Stars five for 25 yards. Passes, Bulldogs, two for 11 yards, two incomplete; Stars three for 35 yards, nine incomplete. Punts, Bulldogs two for average of 32 1/2 yards; Stars, five punts, total 135 for 27 yard average.

On closing this column until next fall when the regular season starts, I wish to express appreciation for the trio. Mildred Kemp, Katherine Houser, and Delphia Finch, whose crowning Monday night during the last quarter of the game was about on the four star rating.

From a woman's point of view, it's less important to be in love than to show her you're in love.

Seventh Grade Picnic

A caravan of sixteen cars escorted the sixty-nine members of the Seventh Grade graduating class on a picnic at the Community Golf Course Wednesday, May 19, 1937. The entertainment was given by their sponsor Miss Ethyl Virginia Allen.

After a delicious picnic lunch was served the fun began. Baseball football, hiking, fishing, and swimming furnished the entertainment for the evening.

Those who helped to entertain the children were Mr. H. Lee Clifton, Morris Strong, and Mr. Teel.

Local Members Go To T-B Luncheon

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Clifton and Mrs. John Brookman, local members of the county executive board of the Association for the prevention of tuberculosis, attended the meeting of the county board at the Wichita club Tuesday at noon. The group were guests at a luncheon and heard the reports from the executives on the clinics that were recently held in various parts of the county. Plans for future campaigns were discussed by the association.

McCall. The Juniors also were proud of their musically inclined friends "Bing Crosby" Wright, "Kate Smith" McCall, "Harriet Hilliard" Miller, and "Rudy Vallee" Williams. Bing gave us a very amazing performance unknowingly put on for the crowd. Then Mary Frances Goins gave a very beautiful piano selection. Mr. Y. C. Paschall, our Superintendent next gave a short talk and introduced the speaker of the evening, Mr. Bert King. Mr. King gave a speech that would benefit the Jrs. as well as the Srs. and they all wish to thank him again for such a wonderful address. Concluding the program the Juniors and Seniors sang to each other, lead by the songbird of Fairview, Dreda Miller.

After the program the group was entertained by an orchestra and we know that everyone had a good time there.

The Junior Class regrets that Miss Toby Baird was unable to be present at the banquet and also the two Juniors not present at that time.

Cecil Wheeler Back At Old Post With City Barber Shop

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wheeler have returned to Burkburnett to make their home.

Mr. Wheeler has accepted a position with the City Barber Shop, and invites his many friends and customers to come in and see him.

Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler have resided in Breckenridge for the past several months.

a complete survey of everything Say folks those Thaxton Bros. have in stock repairs for any machine that has ever come out to be sold to the old clod hoper. The nicest thing thing H. E. saw was that they have shelves made on the walls, that holds each cog, each piece of a repair to itself, each chain and roller all numbered so at any time a guy comes in for a certain cog, or its number all of the many clerks who are employed has to do is just walk back to the box number of any piece and its handed to you. You don't see repair parts scattered all over the floor at Thaxton Bros. No sir, in two minutes time you are waited on and started back to your machine.

Well Hawkeye had to purchase some his favorite chewing tobacco (Beech Nut) before he left the city, so he stepped in to the L. & M. Food Store where everything in the shelf line and meat department, who comes forward to wait on him with a pleasant smile was the great prophet Elijah Chrestmann. So Hawkeye got his Beech Nut. The L. & M. Store was sure doing a big business.

Hawkeye is very sympathetic to heart, especially when he sees the poor clerks in the Elijah store working so hard, waiting on the big trade, the desperation was just running off of their faces, still that didn't have any effect on their big smile on each clerk's face.

Charlie Boyd, a brother to the Boyd Bros is certainly and no mistake one of the swiftest store clerks in North West Texas. H. E. saw with his hawklike brother Charlie wait on 3 customers at once, 2 ladies and one man. The Boyd Bros. big store was so packed with buyers that's why bro. Charlie had to wait on those three customers at once.

HEADLINES

King Ahmed, ruler of Albania, a tiny Balkin kingdom, had a very successful rule until he started trying to change the style of dress worn by the women of his kingdom. When he became ruler he hired British military experts to train his army, and he has a very peaceful existing backed by the highly efficient military machine. Suddenly without any notice a revolution started last Saturday. That excellent army which he had trained at such expense turned against him, and he is likely to lose his throne.

The king stated Sunday that communists caused the uprising, but new reports indicate that the revolution started when King Zog ordered all the women to remove their old fashioned head dress and substitute modern hats. The kingdom has a large number of Mohamedan men and women, and when the veils were ordered removed, the soldiers rebelled. The decree was made a week ago, and now the king loses his throne and maybe his head. He should have learned a long time ago that it isn't safe to try to make women do anything.

Minimum Wage Law

The approval of the Supreme Court of the Wagner labor law made it possible to pass minimum wage laws. Now a bill has been favorably reported in the house that will make $18.00 wages and 35 to 40 hour week the absolute minimum on wages and maximum on hours. The principle of minimums is not a very good one. Too many employers will use it as a basis, but like many other situations the evil of the present system demands an equally undesirable cure. In many major industries in the East and Midwest wages as low as six cents an hour for even skilled workers are in force. It is at such shops that the minimum wage law is aimed.

10 Year Contract

The movie strike was settled by the granting of a 10 year contract in which the players agreed to not to strike. The settlement is of interest to those who enjoy plays, and the strikers felt that a readjustment of the salaries and conditions in that crazy capitol of movies was necessary. The objection was the huge salaries paid stars compared to small amounts paid extras and technicians.

Huge Family

The world is interested in large families right now, and the announcement that the officials family of the U. S. Government was the largest since the war is of interest especially to the taxpayer. The civil service commission statistics showed a total of 829,193 persons on federal payrolls. This includes both civil service and non-civil service employees. This is the highest since 1918 when over 900,000 employees were listed by the same bureau. There will have to be either severe cut down in this number or an increase in taxes.

Syphilis Control

The state house of representatives passed a $50,000 appropriation bill last week for the control of syphilis. There has been so much prudence in connection with the treatment of the disease that an unhealthful condition has been created. The victims don't dare see a physician until it is too late in many cases for effective treatment, and the result is death and spreading of the disease. The six point program is: Finding the disease, determination of treatment education, city clinics, laboratory for diagnosis, distribution of drugs through rural areas, and hospitalization of acres to prevent spread. We are glad to see the state taking recognition of an existing evil, and forsaking the hush-hush attitude that has characterized our state for so many years. Now some control may be achieved.

Dangerous Increase

The oil producers are increasing the production so rapidly that a new high was established last week. It seems that the oil men are like the farmers, not willing to cut down their production until they are forced by law or agreement to do so. The proration works many hardships, but it prevents the flooding of the market.

Thaxton And Bank
Fight For Lead
In Softball Race

Thaxton Hardware and the Bankers of the First National Bank fought over a slender margin in this week for the lead in the Burkburnett softball association. Only a half a game separated the second place Bank team from the Thaxton leaders. The double victory of the Bank over Jackson News Stand gained a half of a point for Financiers. Thaxton won their single contest with the same team this week.

In the hitting division the leaders changed fast. In a 24 run game several of the Bank members fattened the averages and jumped into the select circle of the first ten. Hinnant remained in the lead with an average of 500 in spite of the fact that he was out of the game for the whole week. Hanvey jumped from sixth to second with a spree. Ragsdale, Williamson, Winkles and Gregg went into the leading group.

These batters are selected from those who have been at bat at least 11 times, and the hitters that were weak at the first of the season seemed to be catching up with the pitchers this week. The First National Bank members hold five of the ten positions of the leading hitters.

WE ENJOY KNOWING OUR NEIGHBORS BUSINESS

We all like to know how our neighbor is handling his business, and here is one neighbor who is proud enough of his management to tell us about it.

One of Burkburnett's merchants had an electric bill of $38.84 for the use of 697 KWH in January four years ago.

This year the same consumption would have cost him only $25.12 because with the establishment of a municipal light plant, electric rates were drastically lowered.

This same merchant, seeking to give his customers several improvements, added lighting fixtures of the best type and made extensions. This year as a result he consumed 1097 KWH. However, that many cost only $35.92, less than the cost of 697 KWH before municipal plant days.

This merchant is an ardent backer of the local light plant. No wonder he is proud of his business ability.

Local Girls Win At Hardin Simmons

The Burkburnett Hornets representing the Barrow-Grace Chevrolet company won easily over the Hardin Simmons College girls team at Abilene last Friday night. The score was lopsided until the last inning when the Simmonsites ran in six scores. The final tally was 17 to 7 in favor of the Burkburnett lasses.

quarter ranked with the pass as the brilliant plays of the game.

Willett and Evans
The Bulldogs most sustained march was in the second quarter when Evans-Willett and McKown carried the ball 69 yards in four plays to have their threat stopped by the gun at the half.

Throughout the game Willett and Evans showed promise of developing rapidly. Their power and slashing attack added to the speed and deception of McKown.

Carl Cook came in for a few stars when he pulled out of his guard position to smack down the defense of the stars, and floated away with the Star end to stop the thrusts of the team while on the defensive.

For a completely inexperienced man at the position Jack Kelly played an outstanding game at center. Hagemann, regular pivot man, is out with the mumps.

Current Literature Club To Hold Meet At Luncheon Thurs.

Members of the Current Literature club will hold a delightful and well planned meeting at the Woman's Forum next Thursday May 27 in Wichita Falls. The plans for this meeting were made last Thursday afternoon, May 13 at the home of Mrs. A. R. Hill as the club met in regular session.

The major part of the program Thursday was devoted to a brilliant review by Mrs. Temple Shell of Wichita Falls of the "You Can't Take It With You." This modern play was presented in interesting review by the visitor Mrs. A. H. Lohofener was leader for the afternoon, and Mrs. Geo. McCarty was accepted as a new member.

Delightful refreshments were served to Mesdames Dick Davis, of Wichita Falls; Glenn Bear, A. R. Hill, J. L. Caffee, T. H. Boling, Joy Scussums, F. A. Jamieson, M. W. Majors, B. F. Gilchrist, C. D. Dodson, A. H. Lohofener, Roy Magers, R. E. Ebbs, and B. M. Cropper.

A woman will eat out of your hand if you're smart enough to say at the right.

Reduced Rates For Overnight Telegraph

Drastic reductions in rates for overnight telegraph service which will become effective June 1 will provide substantial savings to residents of Burkburnett, it was disclosed last night by Mr. Lohofener, local manager of the Western Union Telegraph Company. A tariff field Saturday with the Federal Communications commission at Washington, D. C., will reduce the cost of both short and long messages and cut the telegraph bill of the nation by approximately $3,000,000.

"The effect of these reductions," Mr. Lohofener said, "is that the charge for 25 words will be the same as, and in some cases lower than, the present charge for a 10 word night message and that long messages can be sent at relatively even lower rates.

Home Makers Class

The home makers class met at the home of Mrs. Biddie Smith May 13. The meeting opened with "What A Friend We Have In Jesus." Mrs. Watkins led in prayer. Mrs. Will Teal brought the devotional on the World Peace Among Mothers, using 1 Sam. 1-27-28 as a text, and closed with the poem Mother Oh My Mother. Mrs. Gilbow explained the plans for a contest between the men and women classes in the Sunday school. The minutes were read and approved. The class voted to pay a fund to the 100,000 club. Mrs. McMurtry dismissed. The hostess served refreshments to the following visitors and members: Mesdames Bell, Hastings, Reace, Watkins, Teal, Gilbow, Harwell, Wood, McMurtry, Smith. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Gilbow June 10.

Below are a few comments made by Burkburnett folk who have seen "Green Light."

I was glad of the opportunity to see really a worth while show such as "The Green Light."

I think the picture "The Green Light" was one of the best I have ever seen in years. I hope that everyone see it, for this type of show should be supported to the fullest degree.

Truly a great picture. Don't Miss it.

This was a very good picture. One of the best I have ever seen this year.

I feel that "Green Light" is a very unusual picture and it carries a wonderful lesson all the way through the entire story.

The philosophy in "Green Light" excels that of any other stage or screen play I have ever seen. A picture every one should see and then live a similar life.

Just want to thank you for the invitation to see "Green Light." I think it is a wonderful picture. I believe I like it better than "Magnificent Obsession."

In working in connection with Theatres all over Texas I see an average of ten pictures each week. I can't think of an adjective that can describe "Green Light." It is one of the truly great pictures that I have had the pleasure of seeing.

"Green Light" is the best picture I've seen this year.

I enjoyed the picture "Green Light" very much. I think it is one of the best pictures I have ever seen, and I sincerely wish to thank you for your kind invitation that I see this picture.
