Rail Talk Standoff Continues

FIRE CHIEF Warren Boyd, left, is shown helping Fire Department Lieutenant Mark Vaughn don a self-contained breathing apparatus yesterday afternoon at the scene of a fire at 109 Peach Street. The house was occupied by the Will F. Allen family.

THE HOUSE was so completely filled with smoke that firemen could barely see and could stay for only very short periods without the mask. The department bought three of the units about a year and a half ago at a cost of $300 each, and have found that they fill a real need.

IT WAS NECESSARY that the house be inspected to make sure first, that no one was inside, and second, to determine if there was any fire in the attic. Lt. Vaughn is shown coming out after making the inspection. Damage to the house was heavy, but no one was injured.

SOVIETS FALL BEHIND

More Troops Expected To Leave Cuba This Weekend

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Soviet Union appears to have fallen behind in fulfillment of its promise to get several thousand troops out of Cuba by mid-March but indications are that a large group will be leaving Havana this weekend.

The U.S. government is keeping a close watch on the situation. For the past several days normally informative officials have declined to discuss numbers of troops haveoleft Cuba so far. The problem appears to be one of analyzing and checking intelligence reports to determine exactly what has happened.

According to the best information available in official quarters here, the situation presently is this:

Since the removal promise was made to the United States Feb. 18, about 1,400 or 1,900 persons have left Cuba on four Soviet ships. The latest of those vessels to sail, the Grazia, left Havana Sunday. It was reported by the Soviet Communist party newspaper Pravda to be carrying aviation mechanics, artillery experts, engineering troops and tank soldiers.

Another Soviet ship, the 15,226-ton Admiral Nakimov, is in Havana harbor and there are reports in the Cuban capital it will depart this weekend with about 2,000 Soviet military specialists.

So far as U.S. authorities are concerned the number of people who have sailed on Soviet ships during the past four weeks—around 1,900 or 1,900—is considered fairly definite but the identification of those departing is by no means certain. For example, it is assumed here that many undoubtedly were Soviets, but some could have been Cubans going to the Soviet Union. Some could also have been Soviet civilian officers to the Castro government.

Officials said a definite statement here on the situation is unlikely until all reports have been carefully sifted and more hard facts are available.

The big Soviet military buildup in Cuba which began last July resulted in the influx of an estimated 22,000 officers and men. After Premier Khrushchev pulled out his big nuclear missiles and nuclear-capable jet bombers in November an estimated 5,000 Soviet troops were withdrawn, leaving around 17,000.

The promise of further withdrawals given to the State Department on Feb. 18, followed inquiries from Washington to Moscow about what Khrushchev planned to do about his declared intention to remove the troops who were sent in to handle the big missile hassle.

Moscow sent back word that "several thousand" would be withdrawn by mid-March.

Wirtz Plea Is Ignored

CHICAGO (AP)—A standoff between negotiators for the nation's railroads and chiefs of five operating unions in a work rules dispute continued today despite prodding by Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz.

Wirtz, in a statement Thursday night in Washington, requested the railroads and brotherhoods representing 200,000 on-train employes to resume negotiations immediately in the 3-year-old dispute.

The latest efforts to reach agreement collapsed Wednesday after a 90-minute session. A move from Washington to get both sides back to the bargaining table and avert a possible national rail strike had been regarded as certain.

At stake are 65,000 jobs, including those of 40,000 firemen which the railroads say are unnecessary for the operation of modern rail equipment. The U.S. Supreme Court held March 4 the carriers could make the changes.

Wirtz said it will take until March 29 for the Supreme Court decision regarding the dispute to become effective. Until then an injunction is outstanding against the carriers putting into effect their desired manpower cuts to eliminate what they term featherbedding.

The rail union chiefs, who have remained in Chicago since Wednesday's meeting, indicated Thursday night they were pleased with Wirtz' action.

"This thing has to be settled across the bargaining table," said Charles Luna, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen said. "We're willing and ready to negotiate."

James E. Wolfe, chief negotiator for the carriers, expressed surprise at the labor secretary's statement.

"I talked to Mr. Wirtz by telephone this (Thursday) morning," he said, "and he gave no indication he was going to make this request."

Wolfe had indicated Wednesday he favored third-party intervention in the dispute, saying it appeared further direct negotiations would be useless.

The brotherhood chiefs in a letter to Wolfe and other carrier spokesmen said Thursday night: "We think it incredible that you would prate to the public press collective bargaining while you exert every effort to shift your responsibility to those outside the industry," to a busy Labor Department or an already heavily burdened Congress."

"This dispute must ultimately be settled by the parties themselves," Wirtz said. "Their interests and the public interest demand that it be settled fairly and that it be settled peaceably."

Communications Link Is Proposed

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH

GENEVA (AP) — The United States said today a direct secret communications link between Washington and the Kremlin would greatly reduce the danger of accidental nuclear war.

U.S. Ambassador Charles C. Stelle told the 17-nation disarmament conference it should discuss the establishment of such a link as a matter of urgency.

The proposal was first made to the conference last year but has never come up for discussion as the delegates concentrated on a treaty to ban nuclear tests.

Faced with deadlock on this issue, delegates decided to move on to a discussion of general disarmament and other measures to reduce the risk of war.

Stelle clashed with Soviet Delegates Semyon K. Tsarapkin over a Soviet proposal for an East-West nonaggression pact.

Tsarapkin said such a pact is urgently needed to curb West Germany's militarists, and he demanded that it be taken up by the conference now.

Stelle replied that the conference was not competent to discuss the matter because most of the interested governments are not represented.

Tsarapkin assailed the Nassau U.S.-British agreements for a multinational nuclear deterrent. He charged the West German government is striving to take second place behind the United States in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and was "openly embarked on a course of nuclear war."

Stelle said Tsarapkin's speech was a "long and irrelevant diatribe."

"I must take exception to the statement of the Soviet representative attacking the peaceful people and government of the German Federal Republic," Stelle declared.

The 2½-hour session ended with no agreement on what measures for reducing the risk of war should be taken up by the conference.

Rejection Of Charges Is Delivered

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States formally rejected today Soviet charges that U.S. warships fired on a Soviet trawler some 70 miles east of Norfolk, Va., last Friday.

The State Department made public a note delivered Thursday night to the Soviet Embassy, saying that after a thorough investigation it was determined that no U.S. naval vessel in the general area engaged in any firing when any surface vessel or aircraft could be endangered.

It said no cruisers were among the U.S. naval vessels in the area as had been charged by the Soviet Union.

The note acknowledged that six U.S. destroyers were engaged in gunnery exercises within an established and recognized area used for many years for gunnery and other exercises by ships of the U.S. Navy.

It said a destroyer nearest the location of the alleged incident within the indicated time period conducted antiaircraft firing practice against a target towed by an airplane, firing in easterly and westerly directions with ammunition having a maximum range of seven miles. The destroyer was 10 miles southwest of the location of the alleged incident, the U.S. note said.

The Soviet complaint had alleged that some dummy shells fell as close as 100 feet from the Soviet vessel and endangered it.

"Before and during the firing practice, clearance of the range was established in accordance with normal safety procedures and no other surface vessels were within 12 miles of the destroyer at the time of the firing."

Three Feared Dead In Blast

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP) — A section of the Trojan Powder Co. plant blew up today, possibly killing three men and injuring eight, none seriously.

Newsmen, who were denied access to the scene, said the report of the number of dead was not confirmed.

The injured men, in Allentown Hospital, declined to discuss the accident, saying all information would have to come from company officers or a public relations man.

These officials were unavailable.

The building in which the blast occurred was reported to have been destroyed.

Clouds Push Into State For Weekend

By The Associated Press

A warm but wet weekend is forecast for much of Texas.

Southerly breezes pushed moisture-laden clouds into the state during the night.

This led to some light showers in East Texas early Friday, and promises more rain in wide areas of the state at least through Saturday.

A slow warming trend was forecast, but the cloudiness was expected to restrict temperatures Friday.

Early morning temperatures ranged from 35 at Dalhart to 59 at Brownsville, McAllen and Galveston.

Estes' Lawyers Object To Introduction Of Documents

By FINIS MOTHERSHEAD

EL PASO (AP)—Billie Sol Estes' lawyers began a step by step fight today against introduction of documents the government is offering to support its charge of mail fraud.

Estes, 38, is the one-time promoter whose financial manipulations, largely with questioned mortgages, collapsed a year ago, resulting in extensive congressional and legislative hearings.

The government introduced a mass of documents and the defense immediately objected on numerous grounds.

Among the objections were that one letter was unsigned, that no authentication of Estes' signature had been made, that there was no fraud because the person receiving the material had sought it from Estes and that the government had not authenticated that Alice Godwin, involved in the mechanics of mailing, was an Estes secretary.

The documents were sent to James Taber of Van Horn, Tex., who testified he received a $21,900 bonus for signing mortgages at Estes' request for almost $300,000.

Taber said he invited Estes to send him only one of the numerous documents.

The witness said that he signed mortgages for propane heating gas tanks as well as fertilizer tanks.

The government contends Estes induced persons to sign mortgages for certain kinds of tanks that do not exist, then Estes sold the mortgages to major lending companies. The total involved has been estimated between $22 and $30 million.

The defense contended yesterday that the lending companies share blame for Estes' manipulations.

Bristline cross examination by the head of Estes' legal staff, John D. Cofer, stressed the role of finance companies in sharing the blame for Estes' financial manipulations.

School Bus Hit By Auto

WACO (AP)— An auto plowed into the side of a school bus at a highway intersection today, injuring 10 persons, eight of them students on the bus.

The bus was carrying junior high and elementary school students to the Axtell School, about 14 miles east of this Central Texas city.

None of those injured were listed in serious condition. Doctors released four of the students after emergency treatment.

Officers said the bus overturned into a ditch after being struck by an auto driven by Miss Betty Kirbo, 19, a journalism student at Baylor University in Waco.

The accident occurred as the bus crossed Highway 31 on a country road about 7:45 a.m. seven miles northeast of here.

A gasoline tank on the bus was punctured. Firemen from Bellmead, a Waco suburb, hosed down the scene to prevent fire.

Miss Kirbo, who resides in Axtell, was alone on her way to classes at Baylor at the time of the accident. Driver of the bus was J. A. Willingham, 60, of Axtell.

East Elementary's Program Of Speech Therapy Advances

(EDITOR'S NOTE — This is the last in a series of articles on Snyder School activities prepared by Snyder High School journalism students as a "Texas Public School Week" project).

BY MALCOLM BOLGER and GENE SHELBURNE

In recent years educators have recognized the needs of students who exhibit speech difficulties. They have found that speech impairments have a definite bearing upon academic achievement.

At East Elementary School, as well as in all schools in the Snyder school system, a program of speech therapy for these students is in effect. Speech therapy was introduced to Snyder in 1959 and has grown since then into an important part of the school program.

Speech therapists have discovered the largest per centage of speech problems of the third grade level. The greatest problem in speaking seems to be articulation, or the proper use of words beginning with the th and h sounds. The second largest group of speech disorders is stuttering, which stems from nervousness and emotional disturbances in most cases.

How does a pupil become a part of the speech therapy program? When classroom teachers notice any difficulty in speech, the student is referred to the school's therapist, who must decide if the child needs help.

After the parents consent to their child receiving therapy, the child is taken out of his regular class twice weekly for 20 minutes. He is placed in a therapy group with two to five other children. Therapy consists of the repetition of proper sounds and use of correct consonant and vowel sounds.

Usually the child himself will not recognize his need since he does realize he speaks differently from other children in his class. The therapists agree that a major step toward removing the difficulty is the recognition of the problem on the part of the child and his parents.

The earlier therapy begins, the greater the chances are of the problem being cleared up. If therapy is begun when the child is in the first grade, he usually will be completely free of speech impediments by the time he enters the third grade. If the child is not cured by this time, it will take a great deal of time for the difficulty to be removed.

Speech therapy at East Elementary and other Snyder schools is conducted by Mr. Dub Holt and Miss Patricia Young.

70 Solons Cast Votes Two Ways

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (AP) — Seventy members of the House took no chances this week of being accused of wanting more or less defense.

They voted both ways on the same bill on two separate roll calls Wednesday.

Involved was a $15.8 billion authorization for procurement of aircraft, missiles and naval ships.

The first vote was on an amendment increasing the authorization by $363,700,000 for further development of the RS70 reconnaissance strike plane. Most Republicans did not want a roll call vote, which was forced on them by Democrats.

The vote was 133 Democrats and 93 Republicans for the increase, and 102 Democrats and 77 Republicans against it.

A few minutes later, Republicans offered an amendment for an across-the-board cut of more than $600 million. Democrats didn't favor a roll call vote on that proposal but were forced into it by Republicans.

The amendment lost by a vote of 258 to 149, with 10 Democrats and 139 Republicans supporting it, and 227 Democrats and 31 Republicans opposing it.

Of the 93 Republicans who voted for the first amendment to add funds, 67 voted for the second change to reduce the total. Three of the Democrats who supported the first increase voted for the cut in the second amendment.

The net effect of the shuffling was that the 70 members who switched positions can cite the official Congressional Record to back up claims that they voted for more defense and also voted to hold down spending.

They will get a chance to shift again later, if they desire, when another bill providing the money to finance the authorization measure hits the House floor.

Judge Rules For GM In Federal Suit

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Federal authorities, losers in one skirmish of their antitrust battle against General Motors, pushed ahead today on another front against the nation's largest corporation.

U.S. Judge Thurmond Clarke acquitted the automotive giant Thursday in a criminal suit that defendants claimed threatened the franchise system.

The Justice Department contended General Motors illegally restrained trade by conspiring with dealers' associations to stop sale of Chevrolet cars to discount houses.

The same complaint, prosecutors announced after acquittal, will be pursued as a civil matter in a suit filed earlier, as a parallel to the criminal complaint.

Judge Clarke noted that General Motors Corp. and the dealers' associations never denied that they attempted to suppress Chevrolet sales. But, he added, the Justice Department failed to prove this was an unfair restraint of trade.

Under the franchise system, authorized dealers are granted exclusive auto sales rights in a given area. Authorized Chevrolet dealers in Southern California began in 1953 to wholesale cars to discount houses. Discounters in turn sold cars at retail prices under those of franchised dealers.

The government contended that General Motors and dealer associations tried to stop this by secretly agreeing to "pressure" offending dealers into stopping the practice.

Judge Clarke said he agreed with the Justice Department that consumers must be protected, but added that the rights of industry must be protected also.

The judge quoted the late Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes: "Let people manage their own business in their own way, unless the grounds for interference is very clear."

"If that advice is heeded by both the courts and the government," Judge Clarke went on, "I am confident that the United States will continue to be free, strong and prosperous."

Last Week Of Winter Begins Today

By The Associated Press

Winter started its last week of a three-month stand today with a sampling of spring-like weather in the major part of the nation.

But there were some wet spots in the West, with snow and rain moving from the Pacific Northwest and Northern California into Idaho and western Utah. Snow fell in higher elevations but amounts were mostly light. However, the storm earlier dumped upto six inches of snow in coastal mountains in Northern California.

The snow headed into Wyoming, Colorado, Montana and the Western Dakotas, with rain across some areas eastward into Wisconsin. Only other wet spots this morning were along coastal areas of the Carolinas.

Some cloudiness was reported in the southern Plains and scattered sections of the southern Atlantic Coast and Ohio Valley. Mostly fair weather prevailed in other sections of the country.

Temperatures over the bulk of the nation were in the 30s and 40s, with readings in the 50s and higher in the Gulf Coast states and the Southwest. Coolest spots were northern New England the northern Great Lakes, with the mercury dropping into the teens.

No storms or rain hit the flood-stricken sections of the Southeast where the huge cleanup operations continued. Many counties in the hardest hit regions of five states—Kentucky, West Virginia, Tennessee, Virginia and Alabama—have been declared disaster areas. The first major floods of the season have caused millions of dollars damage to property.

Orlich Looks For Fruitful Session

By MORRIS W. ROSENBERG

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica (AP)—Costa Rican President Francisco Orlich expects next week's presidential meeting here to take effective measures to provide economic aid to Central America and to curb the spread of Castroism.

Security agents busied themselves with protective measures for President Kennedy and the five other chief executives.

But Orlich, in Costa Rican tradition, moved through crowds downtown Thursday night without a bodyguard or security agent, chatting informally with well-wishers.

Visiting the conference press center, he described Castroism as "a problem of the entire continent" and said Costa Rica favors collective action against the Castro regime.

But he added: "In the case of Costa Rica, our aid in putting an end to such a regime can only be moral aid. (Costa Rica's only army is a 1,200 man police force.)

In defense of western culture the real leader must be the leader of the United States, who in this case is President Kennedy.

"Because international politics is extremely complex, we must wait and see what Kennedy proposes."

Orlich said next week's three-day meeting, opening Monday, must produce effective results, not mere words.

"We expect substantial aid for economic development with each country contributing its share. We must take the administrative and tax reforms agreed upon at the Alliance for Progress meeting in Punta del Este, Uruguay, and we expect aid from international agencies so we can effect most rapidly the social revolution needed to detain the spread of communism.

"The emphasis here will be on the economic integration of Central America. We have cost estimates of economic projects ready to present to President Kennedy, but I cannot reveal them now."

Hitting a favorite theme, Orlich said he intends to raise the subject of price stabilization for coffee, Costa Rica's main export.

A total of $64 million in aid has been granted or authorized for Costa Rica since 1957. In the same period a 60 per cent drop in coffee prices has amounted to a loss of $140 million in Costa Rican income, he said.

Soprano Is Found Slain In Rome Hotel

By JAMES M. LONG

ROME (AP)—American lyric soprano Frances McCann, 42, was found shot to death today just inside the door of her room in a Rome hotel.

Police said she was shot by Ernest Boxmann, 54, a resident of the hotel, the Bernini-Bristol on midtown Bernini Square.

They said Boxmann then fired a bullet into his own head.

He was taken to a hospital in critical condition.

Hotel officials said Miss McCann and Boxmann had taken fourth floor rooms three days ago.

Not having seen Miss McCann leave her room this morning, employes rang her bell several times. Receiving no answer, they opened the door with a pass key.

Police said they found her body on the floor, just inside the door. She had been shot through the throat.

Police said Boxmann was a naturalized U.S. citizen of German birth and that he was the singer's impressario. They said they had no clue as to a motive.

Miss McCann and Boxmann had come to Italy from Berlin.

The AFL-CIO American Guild of Musical Artists in New York said Miss McCann had joined that organization in September of 1953 and that her home address was Altadena, Calif.

Fast Action On Draft Law

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress sent to President Kennedy today legislation extending the military draft for four more years.

The Senate, with a chorus of "ayes" on a voice vote, completed action on the bill passed last Monday by the House.

Not a voice or question was raised against it before the Senate vote.

Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., chairman of the Armed Services Committee, delivered the only speech, calling the measure "of vital importance for the maintenance of our defense posture."

The Senate required less than 10 minutes to dispose of the measure.

The speedy action came as a surprise. Sen. Hubert Humphrey, D-Minn., had told reporters before the session he expected some members would seek to amend the measure to provide only a two year extension. But no one raised the issue.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Who in the world can a person trust anymore? Our preacher sat right in our living room and told all the details of some domestic trouble another couple was having. He knew full well these people were friends of ours. Then I found out that my doctor discussed my case with an aunt without any inquiry on her part — she says. Yesterday a friend of mine told her daughter something I had told her in confidence just to get it off my chest. Heaven help me if I ever need a lawyer. I hear they are the biggest gossips of all. I repeat—who can a person trust?

DISGUSTED

DEAR DISGUSTED: MOST clergymen can keep a secret. And so can most doctors. But professional people under obligation to keep confidences, occasionally talk too much. If your confidences are always revealed, perhaps you are prone to pick the wrong confidants.

DEAR ABBY: Can you please tell me why women are so touchy about telling their right age?

BEATS ME

DEAR BEATS ME: Beats ME, too. When a girl is young (around 14 or 15) the nicest compliment you can pay her is to say she appears to be about 19. When she reaches about 50, if you tell her she looks 35 you are apt to get smothered with kisses.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: A boy called me at 12:30 at night and woke up my father. My father got real angry and told him if he didn't have any better sense than to call at that hour he should never call again. The boy said he'd "think" about it. You can imagine how much angrier my father got after that. The next day my father told me about what happened and he said I was not to answer any more telephone calls from boys until next year when I'll be in the Ninth Grade. This is the first time anything like this has ever happened to me. Do your think my father is being fair?

PUNISHED

DEAR PUNISHED: Your father was understandably irritated by the boy's attitude. But I think it's unfair to punish you because of another's insolence.

* * *

CONFIDENTIAL TO "Fictitious Names": You'd better think up another name. You aren't getting away with anything.

* * *

What's on your mind? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Cheese is a good substitute for meat in many Lenten dishes. It's flavorful nutritious and easy-to-serve. For best results in cooking cheese, remember to keep the heat low. Cheese needs just enough heat to melt and blend with your other ingredients. High heat or prolonged cooking causes cheese to become stringy and tough.

Paris Warms Up Cold Shoulders

BY JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
AP Fashion Writer

NEW YORK (AP) - Paris fashion arrived here a month after its debut in a sealed off section of a jet, in wax sealed cartons enveloped in heavy duty brown paper, or hung on racks in heavy wrappings to preserve their lines and identity.

What was the big secret?

Sleeves.

Slavishly fashionable women haven't seen any fur a long time, not since Mrs. John F. Kennedy, America's pacesetter, embraced "nothing" dresses and shell blouses that do without them.

On the surface it would appear that those Frenchmen were being typically quixotic, stitching voluminous yardage onto the shoulder to be worn when women least need them, in summer.

Why cover up a two - weeks-with-pay-tan? Why shut out the merest waft of a breeze? Oddly, the same women who now ask this incredulously shivered bravely through the winter with nothing but goose pimples from their shoulders to finger tips.

Of course, fashion, being a womanly thing, can be rationalized.

Upper arms, for example, are not as firm and shapely on all people as they are on the lithe young First Lady. Extra desserts and lack of exercise always show up there first. Worse, upper arm flabbiness betrays a woman's age quicker than her driver's license.

Besides, tans aren't always uniform and golden. Oddly cut bathing suits leave strange white patches, and blister peeling sunburn leaves unfavorable impressions.

At any rate sleeves are in.

Most look compromisingly cool in diaphanous fabrics with plenty of elbow room. Some are long, slim, and tailored. Some are set in. Some are a part of a cape. And many, many more drop from the shoulder, or extend from the yoke.

Yves Saint-Laurent, Balenciage, Hugh de Givenchy, Nina Ricci, Coco Chanel, Marc Bohan of Dior, Pierre Balmain—all battled for fashion supremacy is the supreme capital of style, and each in his individual way.

And each one agreed on sleeves for summer.

WINGS FOR THE LADY. Cape sleeves on a jacket with the back tapering to a point makes this navy, green and orange tartan wool suit by Jules Crahey of Nina Ricci a memorable fashion event.

Publishers Push Fiction This Spring

BY MILES A. SMITH
AP Arts Editor

NEW YORK, (AP) - It looks as though fiction will continue to have a more powerful appeal to readers than non-fiction in the spring months.

Since the turn of the year there have been few earth - shaking works in the nonfiction category, while the novels have made a fairly strong bid to attract the bookworm.

But whatever the category, there is no dearth of new titles. Book publishers are pouring out their products in bewildering profusion, hoping to appeal to tastes.

In what remains of March, one of the principal items on the fiction list will be Daphne du Maurier's "The Glass-Blowers." (Doubleday), a story of a family undergoing many changes in the course of the French Revolution. It is based on the author's research into the lives of some of her own ancestors. This book is the April choice of the Literary Guild.

There also will be a first, novel by Thomas Pyncheon, titled simply, "V". The publisher is Lippincott. The letter stands for ran unknown lady of mysterious proclivities.

The second book in what Nicholas Monsarrat calls a "Concise Dictionary of Modern Dilemmas" will be the volume titled "Smith and Jones," published by Sloane. The story, concerned with political defection, sounds a litte like an actual case in England a few years ago.

Nonfiction in the latter part of March will include another lion book by Joy Adamson, published by Harcourt and titled "Forever Free". It tells about the fate of the famous Elsa's cubs. There also will be an autobiography by Gertrude Stein's friend Alice B. Toklas, called "What Is Remembered." The publisher is Holt, Rinehart.

April showers will herald the arrival of a Hortense Calisher novel called "Textures of Life" (Little, Brown) and a Vladimir Nabokov novel, "The Gift" (Putnam), about Russian emigres in Berlin after World War I. Along with them will come Herbert Gold's novel "Salt," involving the smart set in Manhattan. The publisher is Dial.

A collection of essays by Nancy Milford, "The Water Beetle," will be brought out by Harper & Row. Simon & Schuster will produce a volume of short stories Lilian Ross did for The New Yorker about Dr. Spencer Fified, under the title "Vertical and Horizontal."

A fantasy about a passionate porpoise, "Penelope," will be William G. Anderson's contribution, via Crown Publishers, to the humor field.

The nonfiction books for April will include Harper's "The Living Sea," by Capt. Jacques - Yves Cousteau, with James Dugan, a story of underwater exploration which is the May choice of the Book of the Month Club.

Another nonfiction title will be "China Only Yesterday," (Doubleday) by Emily Hahn.

Once we get into the merry month of May we find the nonfiction classification getting stronger.

For example, there will be Laurence Stallings' "The Doughboys—The Story of the AEF, 1917-1918," published by Harper, and Samuel Eliot Morrison's "The Two-Ocean War" (Little, Brown), about the U. S. Navy in World War II.

Don Whitehead will tell about the Customs Service in "Border Guard" (McGraw-Hill.)

In the humor section Joseph H. Peck will have some salty comments on retirement in a book called "Let's Rejoin the Human Race," published by Prentice - Hall.

But the novels scheduled for May also are expected to make a strong showing.

The May choice of the Literary Guild will be Rosemary Sutcliff's "Sword at Sunset" (Coward-McCann), which is about a man whose feats may have inspired the Arthurian legend of the Middle Ages—Artos the Bear, a warrior-king.

Morrow is bringing out "The Shoes of the Fisherman" by Morris L. West, a novel about a Russian who, after 18 years of imprisonment because of this faith, is elected Pope.

For those who savor the unusual there wil be a nove from Iris Murdoch called "The Unicorn" (Viking), a tale of a sleeping beauty in an old seacoast castle.

And there also will be a first novel from a very young author, Charlotte Bingham, whose "Coronet Among the Weeds" (Random House) centers around a young girl in the London social season.

New Method Discovered To Work Way Through College

BY INEZ ROBB

There are few things we Americans admire more than old - fashioned git - up - and - go. So we have always had a special place in our collective heart for the young man or woman with the will, ambition and spunk — to say nothing of the physical stamina — to work his way through college.

In a day of skyrocketing college costs (it isn't called "higher" education for nothing), more and more students are dependent upon full or part-time jobs. Even at Harvard, which is usually fixed in the public mind as an educational enclave of the rich, about 50 percent of the student body is wholly or partially dependent upon self-support, i.e., jobs.

For generations certain jobs in all colleges have been the classic preserve of the self-supporting collegian. Young men and women have washed mountainous stacks of dishes, waited on endless miles of tables, baby-sat, performed janitorial chores, tutored their confreres—and still do. (It would be interesting to learn if automation—that is, the electric dish washer—has replaced, to any extent, the ambitious young whose way to a diploma has long been the dish pan. A diploma and dish pan hands used to go together like an ocean and sands.)

But times change—the old gives place to new. And it is interesting to learn that new opportunities for working one's way through college are constantly presenting themselves to the alert student. There is a coed currently at the University of Florida, Gainsville, Fla., who is helping to pay as she goes through the halls of learning by stuffing envelopes.

In this way the young lady earns $167.54 per month, a fat sum for any working student. But although the coed will eventually graduate, it will be useless for other ambitious coeds to apply for her job unless they, too, possess her unique qualification. Her basic and indispensable qualification is a real, true sugar daddy who is also a member of the United States Congress.

It is for him that she each month stuffs some 220 envelopes with a bulletin of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, called "Infant Care."

For performing this singular task Katherine E. Meader, 22, daughter of Rep. George Meader (R., Mich.) is on Daddy's Congressional payroll for the aforementioned $167.54 per month or slightly more than $2,000 per year—a sum that even in these inflated days will go a long way toward picking up the educational tab at college or university.

Of course, Miss Meader not only has to put the bulletin in the envelope, but go to the trouble of addressing it to such constituents in Daddy's district as have just had a baby and are, hence, in need of "Infant Care". It is devoutly to be hoped that the brochure does as much for the new parents and their offspring as it does for an older parent, Rep. Meader, and his offspring.

This new method of working one's way through college as a Congressional employee in absentia has just come to light through a survey being made into a subject that has long fascinated voters in all parts of the country. The number of deserving relatives that some ever-lovin' Congressmen keep on their tax-supported payrolls.

For decades such occasional surveys have revealed that one of the most constant characteristics of members of Congress is a passionate loyalty to their sisters and their cousins and their aunts, no less than to their respective wives, sons, daughters and kissin' cousins. This almost-universal Congressional anxiety for the financial well-being of their kith and kin leads, as night the day, to the fact that the Congressional payroll is often a relative matter.

Time has case-hardened the average voter to this political fact of life. The semi-annual revelations may disturb him momentarily. But it never maddens him sufficiently, for example, to retire Rep. Adam Clayton Powell (D., N. Y.) whose Puerto Rican wife lives in that lovely island while drawing down in excess of $12,000 annually for doing virtually the same chores as Miss Meader—stuffing envelopes.

And if Miss Meader wants to shoot for a Ph. D. after she gets her B. A., surely Rep. Meader's constituents will re-elect him rather than interrupt her education. When she picks up her diploma it won't be with dish pan hands.

Harper Lee Continues To 'Run Scared'

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—"Success has had a very bad effect on me," said Harper Lee, smiling. "I've gotten fat—but extremely uncomplacent.

"I'm running just as scared as before."

Harper Lee, 36, is the author whose first novel, a story of life in a small Southern town, lit up the literary world in 1960 like a lightning flash.

The novel is "To Kill a Mocking Bird."

It has since sold six million copies, won a Pulitzer Prize, and been made into a film recently nominated for an Academy award.

Miss Lee, a sweet-faced, dark-eyed woman with a firm sense of self-discipline, is now at work on her second book at her home in Monroeville, Ala., where she lives with her sister, Alice, a lawyer.

"I am more of a rewriter than a writer," she remarked. "I write at least three drafts. I've been writing since I was a kid of 7. But I have systematically thrown away most of what I have written. It was a form of self-training."

She has found her hobby, golf, valuable as a source of inspiration.

"Playing golf is the best way I know to be alone and still be doing something," she remarked. "You hit a ball, think, and take a walk.

"I do my thinking walking. I do my dialog talking it out to myself."

To Miss Lee life is a fountain, springing from the past, and she feels personally a great debt to the heritage of past authors.

"I don't keep up with contemporary stuff," she said. "I'm a late 18th and 19th century type. I think that in the South we are still in the Victorian age in some ways—and in some ways I don't want to get out of it."

Miss Lee, who wrote most of her first novel at night after working as an airlines clerk during the day, is a good-humored but firm believer in the old-fashioned virtue of self-responsibility. She has no sympathy for the beatnik tendency to blame one's personal plight on society.

"Self-pity is a sin," she said. "It is a form of living suicide.

"Most of us in the Western world make our own lives. Life doesn't make us. We create our events."

You understand Harper Lee better when she tells your who are her favorite heroes.

"They are," she said, "the two greatest gentlemen America has produced—Robert E. Lee and Tom Jefferson."

Ted Weems Stricken With Heart Attack

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—Bandleader Ted Weems, 62, was in a hospital today after suffering a heart attack. Attendants listed his condition "serious to critical."

Weems became ill Wednesday afternoon. He missed the performance of his band here Wednesday night and was hospitalized Thursday.

The hospital said an incision was made in his windpipe to assist breathing.

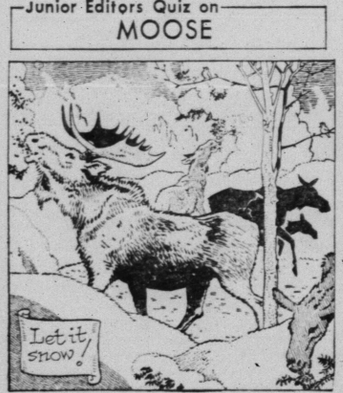

Junior Editors Quiz on MOOSE

QUESTION: What is a moose yard?

ANSWER: The moose is a strange, rough, ungainly-looking beast who looks as if he had just stepped out of the Ice age. His great size gives him majesty, but with his long head and his odd nose which seems to hang over his mouth, no one could credit him with good looks. Moose get along very well in the cold northern forests which are their home. (They range from Maine to Alaska and in the Rocky Mountain region south to Wyoming.)

In summer, the long upper lip serves to scoop around in shallow water and pull up tender water plants to eat. Usually living close to water, they wade out and submerge when flies annoy them. In winter, moose live by eating buds, moss, the bark of young trees and evergreen foliage. To get at the topmost stems, they will often straddle a tree and bend it down.

As midwinter blizzards make moving difficult, moose gather together in small groups. By trampling the snow a cleared area of several acres is often formed, called a "moose yard." Here they can move freely, the trees and high snow banks protecting them from the cold wind. The moose is the largest member of the deer family and, in the old world, the moose is called an "elk."

Bengal Baseballers Battling 'Jackets

Baseball will be in the air this afternoon and again tomorrow at Towle Park, when the Snyder Tigers play host to Kermit's Yellowjackets in a non-district series.

Today's game will be touched off at 4 o'clock, with senior righthander Dalton Walton (0-3) being Coach Speedy Moffett's mound choice to toil for the Tigers. Saturday's doubleheader has a starting time of 1 o'clock.

Snyder is still looking for its first triumph after suffering nine losses to class 4A teams. Kermit, a District 2-AAA outfit, ranks as one of the stronger teams of its class in the area. The Yellowjackets managed to put the skates under Odessa Permian earlier in the season, and Permian is the only team which has succeeded in stopping Lubbock Monterey in its 10 starts.

Catcher Kenny Gay, a sophomore hitting in the leadoff spot, currently reigns as the top batsman for the Tiger nine. He is 9-for-26 to give him an average of .346. Senior first baseman Kenny Wellborn, with 11-for-34, is second to him with a .324 mean and will be plying his wares in the clean-up position.

Wellborn has a wide edge in the runs batted in department with 9 to his credit.

The tentative Tiger batting order for this afternoon:

WTS Names Viramontes To Cage Post

CANYON, Tex. (AP)— Jimmy Viramontes, formerly on the University of Texas basketball coaching staff, has been named head basketball coach at West Texas State College.

A native of New Mexico, where he was an all-state basketballer at Las Cruces, Viramontes announced his resignation at Texas to be effective April 1.

West Texas State's athletic director, Frank Kimbrough, said Viramontes' appointment would be effective at the Canyon school on June 1.

Viramontes, 35, is a former UT basketball star and has been on the Longhorn staff seven years during which time the team won two Southwest Conference championships.

At West Texas State, the new coach succeeds Metz LaFollette who resigned a month ago, effective June 1.

Schoolboys Run Today At Odessa

ODESSA (AP)—More than 500 schoolboys get the West Texas Relays under way today with the universities and colleges posed for opening action Saturday.

Abilene Christian's powerful crew is an overwhelming favorite to win the university class championship and roll on unbeaten in track and field for the year. Six schools oppose the Wildcats—Texas, Texas A&M, Texas Tech, Southern Methodist, Baylor and Houston.

McMurry, headed by mighty broad jumper Bill Miller, is an equally strong favorite in the college division.

There are nine teams entered, including Howard Payne, Hardin-Simmons, Texas Western, East Texas, Sul Ross, Arlington State, Texas A&I and New Mexico State.

At least a dozen records are under the sights of one of the best fields the West Texas Relays has had in its 19 years.

Jerry Dyes, the all-purposes Abilene Christian star, appears most certain to set a new mark. He has thrown the javelin over 240 feet this season and the record here is 234-5½.

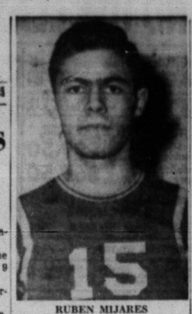

Miller also might set an overall mark although he's competing in the college division. He already holds it with 25 feet ¼ inch.

The flying feet of Geoff Walker of Houston, Ian Studd of McMurry and Bobby Hargrave of Abilene Christian could hang up records in the distance races and Abilene Christian, Houston and Texas A&M are expected to dominate the relays.

Randy Matson, the Pampa giant, is due to lead the record parade in the high school division where Amarillo Tascosa is defending champion.

Tascosa again is very strong in the relays and should make a fight of it for a championship repeat. However, Odessa Permian will rate favorite with its balanced squad and Kermit will be another tough contender.

Matson has thrown the shot over 64 feet and the discus better than 188 and those distances are well over the West Texas Relays records of 56-3½ in the shot and 168-11 in the discus.

On the second team were guards Gwen Landrum, Fluvanna; Reva Jo Hull, Hobbs; Carla Britton, Loraine; Jean Byars, Ira; and forwards Carolyn Clark, Ira; Glenda Rees, Westbrook; Cindy Mahon, Loraine; Carolyn Roemisch, Hermleigh.

WINTER'S REST HAS TURNED THE TRICK

What Makes Koufax Tick?

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

A winter's rest apparently has worked the Midas touch on the index finger that tarnished Sandy Koufax' golden arm.

The 27-year-old fireballing lefthander with the amazing strikeout record had everyone wondering what all the concern was about as he pitched in five innings and allowed only three hits and an unearned run in the Los Angeles Dodgers' 5-2 victory over the New York Yankees Thursday.

Koufax' performance in the exhibition game at the Yankees' Fort Lauderdale, Fla., home base, marked the first time any Dodger pitcher had attempted to go five innings. It was Koufax' second spring workout. He allowed a run and two hits in a previous three-inning stint.

The circulatory ailment that numbed Koufax' finger last year generally is considered the major reason the Dodgers lost the pennant. Before he was sidelined on July 17, Koufax had won 14 games, pitched a no-hitter against the New York Mets and struck out 18 batters against the Chicago Cubs.

The Baltimore Orioles remained the lone unbeaten team with a 15-hit attack that subdued Minnesota 11-7 at Miami. It was the Orioles' fifth victory.

The Chicago White Sox and Kansas City A's won their fifth in six games. The Sox blasted Pittsburgh 16-5 at Fort Myers with a three-homer attack and the A's belted Philadelphia 5-1 at Clearwater behind Ted Bowsfield's pitching and hitting.

Cleveland whipped San Francisco 7-3 at Phoenix, Ariz., Washington beat the New York Mets 4-2 at St. Petersburg, Cincinnati edged St. Louis 3-2 at Tampa, the Los Angeles Angels defeated the Chicago Cubs 5-2 at Mesa, Ariz., Milwaukee nipped Detroit 4-3 at West Palm Beach and Houston outlasted Boston 12-11 in 11 innings at Apache Junction, Ariz.

The Dodgers gave Koufax solid backing shelling Yankees' ace Whitey Ford for three runs in the first inning. Tommy Davis later hit two homers while Maury Wills wound up with three singles. The Orioles withstood the Twins as John (Boog) Powell collected three run-scoring singles and Al Smith belted a double, single and sacrifice fly.

Ron Hansen led the White Sox outburst against the Pirates with a sixth inning bases-loaded homer.

Homers by Woody Held, Tito Francona and Willie Tasby got the job done for the Indians against the Giants. Don Lock drove in two runs with a double and homer as the Senators took the Mets. Gordie Coleman's two-out ninth inning homer proved decisive for the Reds against the Cards.

Alvin Dark In Speaking Role

EL PASO (AP)—Sid Cohen and Carlos Edwards will be inducted into the El Paso Athletic Hall of Fame Saturday night.

Edwards will be honored posthumously.

The affair will be the annual awards banquet of the El Paso group. Alvin Dark, manager of the San Francisco Giants, will be the featured speaker. Boston Red Sox manager Johnny Pesky and Giant star Willie Mays will be special guests.

Cohan was the last man to strike out Babe Ruth in the American League and also the last American League pitcher to allow the immortal Bambino a home run. He will be presented to the Hall of Fame by John Phelan.

Edwards was a stellar golfer before his World War II death in a plane crash. He will be honored by Dr. Ralph Morgan and Edwards' sister, Mrs. Irene Portillo of Delicias, Mexico, will accept the plaque in her brother's behalf.

Tiger Thinclads Set To Defend DC Title

Snyder High's Black and Gold tracksters have their collective sights set on Denver City Saturday, where they will be defending their team championship earned last year in the annual Mustang Relays.

The Bengal team, along with Coaches Jim Stehley and V. V. Shearburn and manager Jim Sullenger, will begin their westward trek early in the morning so as to arrive in time to compete in the initial events of 9:30 a.m. Running preliminaries are set to get underway at 10 o'clock.

Snyder won the meet in 1962 with 83 total points to get past host Denver City, which compiled 75 for the day. Others near the top at that time were Lamesa with 71, Andrews with 66½, and Seminole with 53.

The Tigers also fielded the top individual of the meet in Bax Callaway. Callaway has since graduated, but the Tigers will be conceded a chance of retaining their title due to sound overall strength in the majority of the events on the docket.

Hurdler - sprinter Gail Reed, top point man for the Tigers in meets to date, looks to be a sure-fire winner in the 180-yard low hurdles. It's a trick he's managed to turn in each of the three outdoor meets participated in to date. He'll also be anchoring the 440-yard relay team, and will try his hand in the 100-yard dash provided he isn't inserted into the mile relay foursome.

Tiger success in the meet could also hinge on whether or not half-miler Mike Mayo is able to go at full throttle. He has been plagued by a stomach disorder, but is a tentative entrant nonetheless.

The tentative lineup of Tiger performers in the various events is like so:

440-yard relay — Jackie Wasson, Jimmy Taylor, Tim Hardin, Read

880-yard run — Mayo, Bobby Spradlin, Jerry Smith

120-yard high hurdles — Taylor, Harley Bynum, Jimmy Wilson

100-yard dash — Read, Tom Kincaid

440-yard dash — Wasson, Malcolm Bolger, Jimmy Townsend

180-yard low hurdles — Read, Taylor, and either Bynum or Leslie Anderson

220-yard dash — Hardin, Kincaid, and either Bynum or Anderson

Mile relay — Mayo, Bolger, Spradlin, Hardin

Mile run — J. B. Murphy, Glen Banks, and either Lee McKinley or David McKinney

High jump — Phillip Floyd, Bynum, Wilson

Broad jump — Craig Stokes, Taylor, Floyd

Pole vault — Darrell Aldridge, Jeff Graham, Douglas Fuller

Shot put — Stokes, Danny Aycock, Benny Minor

Discus — Stokes, Aycock, Minor

Longhorns Hoping For NCAA Upset

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP)—Mighty Cincinnati plays Texas and Colorado faces Oklahoma City University in the semifinals of the NCAA Midwest regionals tonight, with top-ranked Cincinnati heavily favored to take its first step toward a third straight national basketball championship.

"They're a better ball club," said Texas Coach Harold Bradley, whose Southwest Conference champions play the Bearcats in the 8:30 p.m., CST, opener of the doubleheader, expected to lure 7,000 fans.

"They're rated No. 1 and rightfully so. When you lose only once playing in that Missouri Valley Conference, you've got to be great.

"If they have a good night, they're good enough to beat us. If they have a bad night, we're liable to beat them. We have a young team but we think we have pretty good speed, pretty good height, pretty good depth and pretty good shooting."

The Longhorns, like Colorado and especially Oklahoma City, have an over-all height advantage over Ed Jucker's Bearcats, although under Bradley's system of rotating eight or 10 players they surrender some of the margin at times.

Cincinnati, 23-1 this season and beaten only six times in 85 games since Jucker took over as head coach three years ago, starts 5-foot-10 Larry Singleton along with the four holdovers from last year's NCAA champions, 6-8 George Wilson, 6-5 Ron Bonham, 6-2 Tom Thacker and 6-1 Tony Yates.

The only height on the bench comes from 6-6 Dale Heidotting whose play has been limited all season by an ankle injury, and 6-4 Gene Smith, a sophomore.

By contrast, Texas, 19-6, starts a front line of Mike Humphrey and Joe Fisher, both 6-8, and Larry Franks at 6-5. The backcourters are 5-9 Jimmy Gilbert and 6-1 Jimmy Puryear. The rotation system gives reserves John Futz at 6-8, Jack Dugan at 6-7½, and Mutt Heller at 6-3, as much playing time as the starters.

"We can be hurt if we get into foul trouble or run into an injury," said Jucker. "In rebounding power and bench strength, we don't measure up to last year. That Texas depth could be important."

Colorado, the Big Eight Conference representative, and Oklahoma City, an at-large selection, are rated about even but Sox Walseth of Colorado still is shaking his head over the size of the Chiefs.

"My little kids were just walking off the court when Abe Lemons brought his bunch out to practice Friday afternoon," said Walseth. "I got my guys out of there fast. I never saw so many big ones in my life. I may have to use blinkers to keep my kids from getting scared to death."

Colorado's two big men, in scoring, rebounding and size, are 6-6 Ken Charlton and 6-8 Jim Davis. Lemons plays 6-4 Gary Hill and 6-5 Bud Koper, both 20-point scorers and normal forwards, in the back court because they are his "little men." Up front are Eddy Jackson at an even 7 feet, Bill Johnston at 6-6, and Jim Miller at 6-6.

Since Jackson became eligible at mid-term 12 games ago, the Chiefs have been beaten only once. They have a 13-9 record, compared to Colorado's 18-6.

SHS Golfers Have Best Day

Snyder High's golfers experienced their best day of the year at the Snyder Country Club in a dual match against Sweetwater Thursday, earning medalist honors of the day although being nosed out in team scoring, 312-317.

Junior Larry Black came out as medalist with a scorching 37-35-72. Jimmy Featherston chipped in with 43-36-79, Darrell Haney with 38-45-83, and Robert Thomas with 41-42-83 to round out the Tiger team total. Other Tigers posting scores for the day were Glenn Ward (39-46-85) and Richard Waters (48-40-88).

In winning the match, the Ponies placed three golfers in the 70s. Leading the way was C. E. Boyd (37-36-73), followed by Mike Malone (43-36-79), Mike Fitts (40-38-78), and Trice Boswell (42-40-82). The other two members of the Mustang team—Benny Pace and Charles Ballard—had rounds of 43-43-86 and 47-43-90, respectively.

Prior to hosting yesterday's meet, Coach J. P. Ward's Tiger golfers took part in a three-way meet at Colorado City Wednesday and also finished second behind Sweetwater.

The low four Mustang swingers had a victorious total of 317, while Snyder turned in 337 and host Colorado City 391.

Individual scoring for the Ponies included that of Boyd (33-39-72), Malone (41-35-76), Boswell (39-44-83), and Fitts (44-42-86).

Each member of Snyder's low foursome for the day were sophomores. Leading the way was Haney with 42-40-82 followed by Waters (39-45-84), Jerry Wilson (43-42-85), and Featherston (43-43-86).

Other Tigers trailing behind the leaders were Robert Thomas (87), Glenn Ward (92), and Larry Black (94).

Composing the Colorado City team were Mundy (47-45-92), Burson (51-46-97), Noble (49-50-99), and Kendrick (52-51-103).

The Tiger team will be concerned tomorrow with tournament play in Brady. They have their long-range shots set on the District 3-AAA golf meet of March 30 in Lamesa. Each member school may enter two teams then if desired, with the low two teams and individuals qualifying for regional.

Snyder's swingers were to have departed here at noon today for Brady, with their tee-off time being 8:30 tomorrow morning.

Tiger Netters In Meet Play

The Snyder High tennis team is competing today in the Midland Invitational Meet, where matches begin this morning and finals will be reeled off Saturday.

Senior singles entrants from Snyder are Stuart Long and George Glenney. Glenney and Buck Martin combine to make up the senior doubles team for Coach Bub Holt's Tiger netters.

Pegged for duty in the junior singles are Gary Blackshear and Joe Kelley. Two junior doubles entrants are to participate; Ronnie Detrich and Steve Crowell make up one of the teams and Blackshear and Jerry Vestal the other.

Suspects In Bank Robbery Are Nabbed

DALLAS (AP) — Two men who admitted robbing a Konawa, Okla. bank Thursday were arrested five hours later by police and FBI agents at suburban Irving.

They boasted they could blow up the Southeast Oklahoma town.

Lester Smith, 27, and Vernon Isaacs, 31, offered no resistance.

Officers recovered about $8,000, the bulk of the loot, tucked between the mattress and springs and under bed clothing in a bedroom of a house at Irving.

Charles Brennan, 26, pegged as the man who drove the getaway car, was arrested an hour after the 10 a.m. holdup at a roadblock 5 miles north of Ada, Okla.

Brennan denied he had any part in the robbery. He had $212 when arrested.

Curtis Lynum of the FBI said all three men had been charged with bank robbery in Oklahoma.

Smith, a dapper, youthful looking carpenter's helper, said:

"To rob a bank you don't have to have nerve, you've just got to be stupid."

Bank President O. T. Damron said two men entered the bank and one of them shoved a roll of paper at him and told him "You'll do as you're told."

Damron said one of the men told him, "We've got some more folks outside in the car and we've got a lot of dynamite and we'll blow this whole town up."

One man was armed with a sawed off shotgun and the other with a pistol.

New Pastor At First Presbyterian

The Rev. John A. Gordon will conduct morning services at the First Presbyterian Church at 11 a.m. Sunday. This will be his first service as the new pastor of the congregation.

The Rev. Mr. Gordon comes to Snyder from the First Presbyterian Church in Big Lake, Tex. where he was minister for two years. A native of Ohio, he came to Texas during World War II.

In addition to service during the Second World War, Mr. Gordon was recalled during the Korean Actiop. Prior to his studying for the ministry he was in the bond and insurance business in Amarillo.

Mr. Gordon is a graduate of West Texas State university and San Francisco Theological Seminary. He is a Mason and a member of the Lion's Club.

Mrs. Gordon is the former Zella Mae Wible. They have four children, and will reside at 3100 Avenue T.

Dropped Wing Tank Subject Of Probe

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—Air Force officials are investigating an accident in which an F102 jet dropped a wing tank in a residential area.

The 161-pound tank hurtled to earth Thursday, crashing through a pecan tree and missing a residence by 20 feet.

Shamrock Set For Huge Celebration

SHAMROCK, Tex. (AP)—A bit of Ireland comes alive in the Texas Panhandle Saturday when Shamrock throws the biggest St. Patrick's Day celebration in its history.

This town of 3,000 virtually has been covered in green and white banners and bunting. The weekly newspaper has been printed with green ink and the menu for the big kickoff banquet is in Gaelic.

Shiny green top hats are everywhere, and shamrocks by the thousands will be flown in from Ireland.

All male citizens are required to have a donegal (Irish-style) beard, or carry a "shaving permit" with them at all times.

Thirty-six hours of continuous entertainment has been planned, centering around a two-mile long parade down Main street Saturday. This will feature forty-five elaborate floats and a score of bands, drill teams and horse clubs.

Twenty Shamrock beauties will compete for the "Miss Irish Rose" title, all wearing green skirts and white peasant blouses.

A sound-stage has been erected in the center of town for stage bands, Western music, twist contests, fiddlers and brass bands.

Union Baptist

The Rev. Murray Kay, pastor of Union Baptist Church, will preach at the 10:55 a.m. service Sunday on the subject, "Where Is the God of Elijah?" Kings II, 2:8-15. At the 7 p.m. service, his subject will be, "The Curse of Dry-Eyed Religion." Roma. 9:1-5.

The Sunday School will begin at 9:45 a.m. and Training Union at 7 p.m.

The WMU and Sunbeams will meet at 4 p.m. Monday.

On Wednesday, officers and teachers will meet at 7 p.m. and the midweek service will be held at 7:30 p.m.

Men of the church met on March 7 for a work day at the church. Ceilings of the junior and intermediate departments were repaired, a coat of paint was put on the steeple, a set of shelves built in the primary department and a new sign was placed in front of the church building. Women of the church prepared a meal for the men at noon.

First Christian

"Crowned With Glory and Honor" will be the sermon subject of the Rev. Alan Lynch at the 10:50 a.m. worship service Sunday at First Christian Church.

At the 6 p.m. service, Rev. Lynch will have as his subject, "A New Testament Order."

The junior fellowship group will meet at 4:15 p.m. Wednesday. Also on Wednesday, the adult study course will be held at 7 p.m. and choir practice is set for the same hour.

The Joy Dodson group will meet at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday with Mrs. J. S. Horn, 2601 Avenue V for a luncheon. The leader will be Mrs. Dave Harlin, and Marie Caseboit will direct the worship.

High School and junior high groups will attend the world fellowship youth meeting at Lake Brownwood on Saturday and Sunday.

As one resident put it: "Everybody in this town is involved in St. Patrick's Day. We start preparing in the middle of January."

There are 27 volunteer committees handling the affair, which is sponsored by the St. Patrick's Association, Inc.

The fete began when the Shamrock band director decided in 1935 that the town should take advantage of its name and put on an annual Irish celebration. Each year things have gotten bigger.

About 40,000 visitors from surrounding counties are expected for the fun Saturday, with plenty of tourists stopping off for the night.

The rest of the year Shamrock is a quiet place, surrounded by cotton fields and stock farms. It got its name by sheer chance. The town had to submit three names when it applied for its post office, and someone suggested kiddingly that the third choice be Shamrock, for luck. It turned out the other two names were in use in Texas.

... what? You haven't written one? Then you'll be surprised to know that you write a line every day. God laid clean white pages before you and challenged you to give an accounting of your days on earth ... one by one. What you write may embarrass you or it may make for happiness. One fact is sure. It becomes a permanent record. Every day comes from God. He offers us new opportunities with the dawn of each new day ... opportunities to write with integrity and trust and genuine goodness. What will you write today? Were you a blessing to another? Did you attend church this week? Have you helped the poor? What are you writing? What's Your Story???
