School Budget Hearing to Be Monday Night

The budget of the Wellington Independent School District, amounting to around $330,000 will be considered at a public hearing set by the board of trustees for Monday, Sept. 14 at 8 p.m.

This will be the regular board meeting, held at the high school, and the public is not only invited but urged to attend.

Although this budget hearing is advertised each year in accordance with the state law, it seldom attracts more than a handful of Wellington district patrons or other interested citizens.

J. L. Harper, superintendent of schools, said this year's budget will be a little higher than last year, when it amounted to $329,000.

There will be a complete discussion of all items that go to make up the budget, Harper said.

Core Drilling Finished on Cottonwood Site

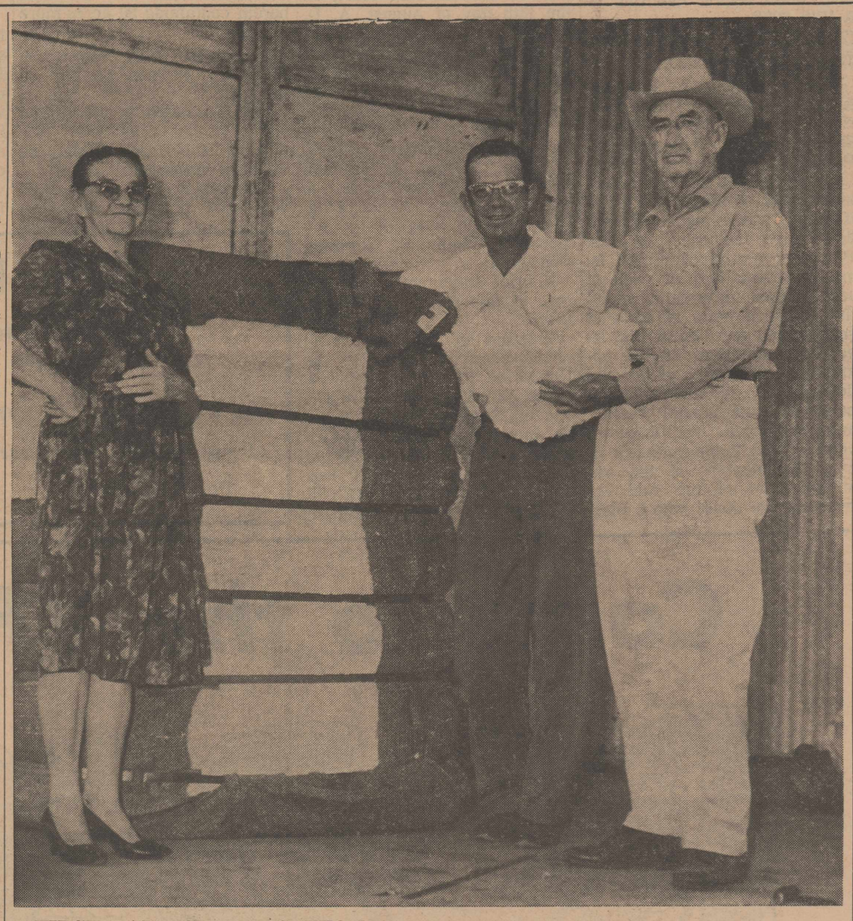

Core drilling at the site of the proposed Cottonwood Creek dam has been completed and survey work on the dam was finished Saturday, Sept. 5, according to Dan Henard, president of the board of the Collingsworth County Water Control and Improvement District.

The application for a permit for water rights on Cottonwood Creek was due to be filed with the State Water Commission this week, Henard said.

Five test holes were drilled, he continued. The first went into a cavity, then Buddy Carter of Carter Drilling Co., moved south and the other four holes were termed excellent for foundation. Clay and rock was found at from 35 to 40 feet, with large quantities of water at around the 35 foot level.

The tests were between 300

FIRST BALE OF 1964 COTTON

First Cotton Delivered at Wellington, Dodson

The 1964 cotton harvest opened at Dodson and Wellington the same day, with first bales delivered at both points Thursday, Sept. 3.

The honor of ginning the first bale went to veteran farmer Joe Simpson, who lives at 1104 East Ave., Wellington, and farms in the Arlie community.

His bale was ginned Thursday morning at the Farmers Co-op Gin in Dodson.

Doug Seale, youthful cotton grower, delivered the first bale in Wellington Thursday evening and it was ginned at the Farmers Co-op Gin.

In no previous year have Wellington and Dodson received first bales on the same day. This is also later than the first bale is usually delivered, as this sometimes occurs as early as Aug. 20, and almost always before the end of August.

Simpson had 1750 pounds of seed cotton and got a 448-pound bale with 800 pounds of seed, according to Edwin Crowder, manager of the Dodson Co-op Gin. The cotton graded middling 15/16.

This is the second time in his farming career that Mr. Simpson has ginned the first bale of cotton. While farming the Zack Lowry place on the river, he delivered the first bale of cotton in 1913.

"I'm not going to wait around 51 more years for another first bale," he joked.

New Bleachers Ready

Two Performances in VFW Rodeo This Week

Rodeo performances of a true western type come back to Collingsworth this week end with the VFW Rodeo, when the full facilities of the rebuilt Wellington Rodeo Arena will be used for the first time.

Two performances are slated, according to Herbert Bearden, VFW commander. The first will be Saturday at 8 p.m. and the other Sunday at 2 p.m.

New bleachers with a seating capacity of 450 are being completed this week and will be ready for use. These have a sturdy tubular iron framework and are located on the west side of the arena.

The high mesh fence still allows for cars to park along the east side and part of the west side, so the performances may be watched from those points.

Reconstruction work has been carried out during the winter and spring, with Wellington Future Farmers cooperating with the Veterans of Foreign Wars in doing the work. There has been a considerable amount of work from non-members of the veterans organization also.

The rodeo will have divisions for children as well as adults, and it is planned that this will become an annual event.

The Memphis Production Credit Association office in the 800 block of Highway 83 will be rodeo headquarters, and the deadline for making entries is 5 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 12, according to V. K. Orr Jr. who is helping. Entry fees will range from $1.00 to $5.00 de-

Hollis Tigers Here For Game Friday

The Skyrockets will be at Powell Field again Friday night, Sept. 11 when they meet the Hollis Tigers, which after only two scrimmage sessions is considered one of Southwest Oklahoma's strongest teams.

Game time is 8 p.m.

This is the season opener for the Tigers.

"Hollis will have a good size football team, although only about three boys weigh over 200 nearly all the others are in the 175 to 185 range," Coach Don Beck said.

The Tigers have one of the hardest running fullbacks in the country who weighs about [illegible]nd a tackle, Guarnero, [illegible]ney expect to make all-[illegible]t about 217 pounds, he [illegible]nding on both offense [illegible]se.

Halfback R. C. Maddox shows fine speed and is an exceptional broken field runner, according to those who saw him in the scrimmage.

Terrell Heath, 175, who plays guard on offense, is an outstanding defensive linebacker.

Erick Coach Marvin Daugherty, in a conversation with Wellington coaches said "the Tigers have a fine ball club and will beat a lot of people."

"We scrimmaged them and we couldn't even stay on the field with them," Daugherty continued.

Hollis Coach Bill Cummins believes he has the best ball club in about eight years. The Tigers run primarily off a wing T and straight T formations offensively, and defensively

FIRST COUNTY GROWN BALE

Biggest Fair in History Opens 2-Day Run Friday

The 7th annual Collingsworth County Free Fair opens with a big parade Friday, Sept. 11 at 10 a.m., and this year it will not end until the last rope is thrown in the VFW Rodeo on Sunday afternoon, Sept. 13.

In between there will be a quarter horse show, barbecue, old settlers reunion, terrapin races and square dance, besides the big agricultural section and the 4H-FFA livestock show.

Two events were held during the week end, the Appaloosa Show Saturday afternoon, Sept. 5, which brought blooded horses from Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico.

A throng gathered on the east side of the courthouse on Monday night to see Karen Childress crowned the 1964 Collingsworth County Fair Queen, by last year's title holder, Sammie Thompson.

The same night, the Gene Ledel Shows opened on the west side of the square for a week's run, and county organizations set up entertainment and food booths on the south side.

All events of the fair will be carried out much as they have in past years.

Parade

Polly O'Neil returns as chairman of the colorful opening parade Friday at 10 a.m. There will be dazzling floats, machinery and equipment entries, music and horses, ending with the small fry in a bicycle brigade.

The parade will form on the old East Ward School yard and travel west along 9th Street to the southeast corner of the courthouse square. It will then pass along the east, north and west sides of the square, turn west to Amarillo street and circle the block on which the community building is located, returning to the southwest corner of the square, along the south side and return on 9th Street.

Agricultural Exhibits

The agricultural exhibits will be in the community building with most communities of the county represented with booths. There will be individual exhibits as well.

Judging will begin Friday morning and as soon as the judges have finished their work the exhibits will be open to the public, according to Cecil Regier, general chairman.

This is generally one of the largest agricultural products exhibits of any fair in this section of the Panhandle-Northwest Texas area.

High School Homemaking

Also in the community building will be the high school homemaking division, in which girls of the homemaking departments of the Quail, Samnorwood and Wellington schools will participate. Mrs. George Henry is chairman.

The girls will compete by classes and there will be both clothing and food divisions.

Fine Arts Division

Two separate shows make up the fine arts division, the art exhibit and the flower show, with Mrs. Floyd Teutsch of Dodson the general chairman of the division. It will be in the community building.

The art exhibit is for amateurs only, and the work can be in any medium. Professionals or those not wishing to compete may exhibit but will not be eligible for ribbons.

Adjacent to the art exhibit will be the flower show, and in spite of dry weather, a large entry list is expected.

There will be a ceramics division and junior hobbies show along with the art exhibit.

Women's Division

The women's division and girls' open division will be held in the American Legion Hall

Western Style Barbecue Slated at Noon Friday

The Friday noon barbecue, a traditional part of the Collingsworth County Free Fair, will be served at Ellison Park again this year, N. M. Higdon, chamber of commerce manager, announced.

This will be for the opening day, Sept. 11, only.

Serving will start at 11:15 a.m. and continue until 1 p.m.

Barbecue tickets are now on sale and Higdon urged that those wishing to buy tickets do so by Thursday noon if possible.

They may be bought at the Chamber of Commerce office, Parsons Drug, C&H Pharmacy, Wellington State Bank, City State Bank, Pruden Drug, and Wells & Wells.

The barbecue will be put on by Underwoods of Wichita Falls, and food will be prepared in the western tradition.

It may be eaten in the park or taken home, Higdon said.

Parker to Boys Ranch Staff

Loyd Parker began work on Sept. 1 for Boys Ranch near Channing, and he and his family have moved there to make their home.

Parker worked for Clark Chevrolet as a mechanic for four years, and prior to that he was employed four years by the Quail school.

He is the third county man on the Boys Ranch staff. The Rev. Clifford Quaid resigned from Faith Baptist Church earlier this year to become Boys Ranch chaplain, while Gene Peggram has worked there several years.

Parker grew up at Quail and graduated from high school there. He is a past master of the Quail Masonic Lodge and Mrs. Parker is a member of the Wellington Chapter of the Eastern Star.

The couple has two daughters, Judy and Diane.

COLLINGSWORTH FAIR QUEEN

Karen Childress, a regal blond, was crowned Collingsworth County Fair Queen in the second annual queen contest Monday night, September 7, in an open air ceremony on the east steps of the court house. The new queen is 17 years old, a senior in Wellington high school, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Childress. The contest is sponsored by the Collingsworth Chamber of Commerce.

100 Horses Due

Quarter Horse Show Opens Here Saturday

At least 100 horses are expected at the Collingsworth County Quarter Horse Show Saturday, Sept. 12, John Holton, show chairman, said this week. This is the 7th annual show, held each year at the same time as the county Fair. It is an approved show of the American Quarter Horse Association.

The performance classes will be held at the new Wellington rodeo arena at 10 a.m. Saturday morning, while the halter classes will be at the baseball field at Marian Airpark, and will begin at 1 p.m.

The public is invited to both events.

Inquiries have come from as far away as Houston, Tulsa, points in Kansas and New Mexico, as well as from throughout the Panhandle and South Plains and western Oklahoma, Holton said.

There will be five classes of mares and fillies, five of stallions and three of geldings. A grand champion and reserve champion will be named in each division. First place winners will receive a trophy and ribbons and ribbons will go to winners of second through sixth places.

The performance classes will include cutting and reining.

Old Settlers Meet for Reunion Friday

An early Collingsworth will live again out of the memories of pioneers and their children as they gather for the annual Old Settlers Reunion Friday, Sept. 11 in Ellison Park.

This event is held each year on one of the days of the Collingsworth County Free Fair.

Zook Thomas, chairman, said several hundred are expected, including those who knew this area before the turn of the century, as well as those who came later and those who are native to the county.

Registration will begin at 11 a.m.

Those attending may attend the barbecue, to be served during noon, although this is not a part of the old settlers reunion and tickets must be bought separately.

A program, directed by Winfield Brewer, will begin at 1

WHAT'S BEEN GOING DOWN

UP

AND OUT

FOR YOUR BENEFIT?

DOWN and down the unit price of electricity has dropped over the past years. Today in homes served by WTU, the cost per KWH is 17% less than it was in 1953. While the cost of living continues to rise . . . the cost of electricity continues to fall.

UP and up has gone the amount of electricity the customer is using. WTU has grown in the past years and will continue to grow . . . staying ahead of its customer's needs.

OUT in every direction have gone power lines to supply electricity for all. Customers all through West Texas are provided with benefits from the most modern and efficient generating plants.

ELECTRICITY DOES IN ONE DAY what it would take 228 hours to do by hand in the average American home.

There's Wealth In Collingsworth

And You'll See It At The Fair

Our Fair will reflect many things . . . and of them is the agricultural revolution we are going through . . . here in Collingsworth as well as in the industry as a whole. No part of farming is more affected than cotton. Within 5 years, we have seen the last hand operation, harvesting, go out of cotton raising.

Your Farmers Co-op Enterprises has been in the forefront of this revolution, just as we have been in the vanguard of agricultural progress since our organization.

We urge you . . . GO TO THE FAIR. See the many and varied exhibits that go on display. Study them carefully . . .You will be amazed. Then go on to the sections that reflect our cultural growth . . . the stability of our homes . . . the abilities of our youth.

But there's more . . . the fun that is part of any Fair. Don't miss that. And you'll go home with new faith and new confidence in the wealth and resources, both human and material, that is Collingsworth.

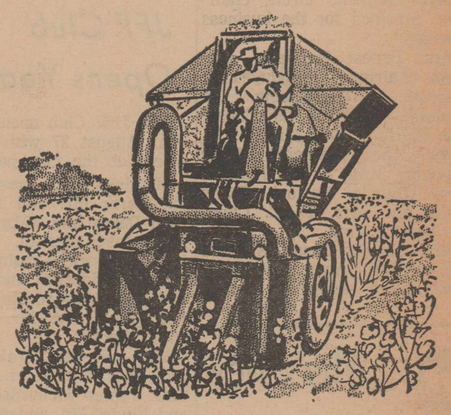

We are proud to have received the first bale of 1964 cotton ginned in Collingsworth county. In the picture above, Edwin Crowder, manager, congratulates Mr. and Mrs. Joe Simpson, who grew the cotton in the Arlie community.

Dodson Co-op Enterprises

Dodson, Texas Edwin Crowder, Mgr.

Our FAIR Is A Good Measure of the Real Wealth of Collingsworth

► Take your first thrilling look of the 1964 harvest of Collingsworth . . . all at one time . . . all under one roof. You'll see the whole of it . . . fluffy cotton . . . fat maize heads . . . luxuriant grasses and delicious fruit and vegetables . . . the work of women's skilled hands.

► Just a step away is some of the finest livestock our county has ever produced . . . and some of the finest youngsters will be showing them. There's horse shows, flower shows, art exhibits, rides, terrapin races and all the things that make up a Fair.

► We are a productive county indeed, and this bank is proud of the vital part we have played in helping build our agricultural economy. Only as our farmers and ranchers prosper can this bank and this county remain prosperous.

WHS Freshmen Elect Officers

The freshman class of Wellington high school met Friday, Sept. 4 to elect officers for this school year.

Those elected were Jan Blain, president; Andy Henard, vice president; Kent Clark, secretary; Cherry Lewis, treasurer; Freida Minatrea, reporter; and Harry Patterson and David Groves, freshmen representatives on the student council.

Mrs. Bernice Welch and Mrs. L. P. Durham were selected as class sponsors.

The freshmen chose as their project for the year a talent show.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. McNeill and their daughter, Mrs. Charlene Phipps and sons, Gearold and Carroll, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brinkley and children, left this week for Chowchilla, Calif., where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Austin and children, Polly, Carroll, Linda and Terry, of Wink were week end visitors in the home of his father, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Austin in the Loco community.

Water Moving Is Meet Topic

AUSTIN.—"Interbasin diversions," the process of moving water from where it is to where it is needed, is being talked about more and more in Texas where half of the state's water supply is centered in the eastern one-seventh of the state.

It will be the topic of three speakers at the Association of Western State Engineers in Austin on Sept. 21.

Speakers are Frank Raab of Oklahoma, David Hale of New Mexico and William Warne of California. All three are water officials in states which have turned to inter-basin diversions to solve some water problems.

Some moving already has taken place in Texas. In the Trinity watershed, for instance, Dallas is completing a pipeline and treatment plant for moving Sabine River water from Lake Tawakoni to Dallas. Also Houston has signed a contract with the Trinity River Authority to move Trinity water to Houston.

Interbasin diversion will become the subject of more conversation for Texans when the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation releases its pending report. It proposes a 400-mile canal to move surplus water from the Sabine and Neches basins, southward to link all major rivers in Texas and meet the needs of the Gulf Coast to a point below Corpus Christi.

Gov. John Connally has asked the Texas Water Commission to speed up water planning to seek alternatives to the Bureau of Reclamation's forthcoming proposal. But the commission is strapped by the bounds of a budget inadequate for such a study, unless the 1965 legislature increases its funds.

Personal

Recent visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Raburn were her nephew and family, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Clark, Stu and Scottie of Long Beach, Calif. Mrs. George Clark returned to her home with them after visiting several weeks with her sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Raburn, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Peeples. Other visitors in the Raburn home were their children, Mr. and Mrs. Randall Raburn and Robin of Marlow, Okla., and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Raburn, Tommy and Janice of Dumas. The Joe Raburns also visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Silas Crawford, and Janice remained for a longer visit.

Luther Sullivan has been vacationing in New Mexico and California. He visited with friends in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Auther Jones Jr., of Irving are visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Maxwell.

Mrs. Mayo Thurman and son of Amarillo spent the past week end with her mother, Mrs. Donnie Huston.

Improved Luster in Cotton Yarns

LUBBOCK.—Improved luster for cotton yarns and fabrics is the goal of a new research project being supported by the Cotton Producers Institute.

Work on the project is being done under a $30,000 grant to Stanford Research Institute at South Pasadena, Calif.

Market studies show luster is highly important in a wide range of textile uses. Improved luster would strengthen cotton's position in markets now consuming nearly 6 million bales of cotton a year and would provide an opportunity to score gains against other fibers in uses equivalent to nearly 4 million bales annually.

There are four national forests in Texas.

In Spite of The Many Other Advertising Media

Hometown Newspapers Are The Strongest

Here Are Some Very Good Reasons:

- It is the most thoroughly read publication invited into the home.
- National outlets and their advertising media are abstract quantities until they are identified with the local firm.
- It is by far, the most economical means of reaching the most persons, in the most receptive frame of mind.
- The mere fact that advertisers are alert and aggressive enough to offer their merchandise in the "show window" of the community, marks them as progressive and good business firms.
- An active market place (a hometown newspaper) is essential for progress and communication of ideas.

For The People

It is not surprising to hear from the banks of the Potomac that "some Texas Congressmen are upset" by efforts of Lt. Governor Preston Smith to assure the people of Texas the best possible Congressional representation under the latest redistricting edict of the U. S. Supreme Court.

Politicians are notoriously touchy on subjects which affect their jobs or their personal prestige. In fact, it would have been a miracle if any suggestion on redistricting, by anyone, had been accepted without suspicion or squawk by some members of Congress from this State.

Meanwhile, the citizens of Texas should not lose sight of the fact that Mr. Smith is thinking first of them, and of the best interests of the State, in Federal Government,rather than of the ambitions of any individual Congressman. In short, the No. 2 man at Austin is facing up to the responsibilities of his job, to serve the people of Texas to the best advantage in everything from taxation to representation.

The citizen who "looks under the chips" will be considerably less impressed by the report that Mr. Smith's undertaking may have rubbed a few Honorables the wrong way than by the fact that the Lieutenant Governor is on the job, as usual.

CJC Offers Bible Course

Clarendon Junior College will be offering a series of courses in Bible that will be of special interest to residents of the surrounding area.

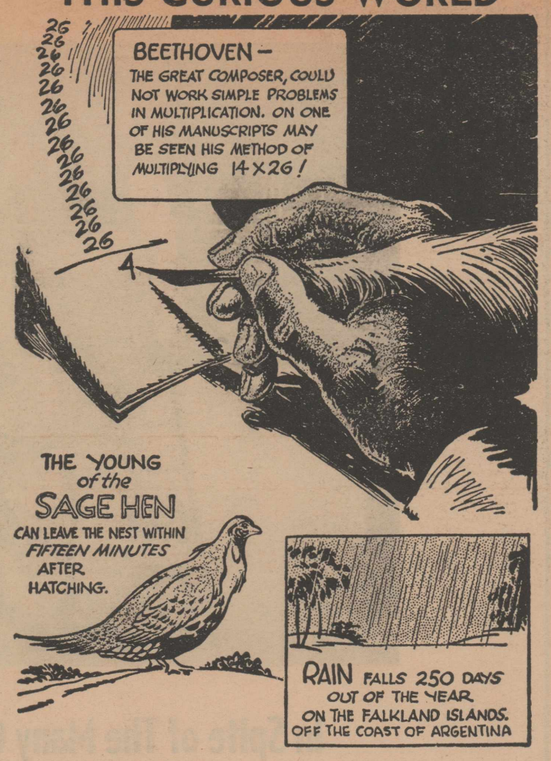

The first course in the series will be Bible 137, The Life and Teachings of Jesus, and will be offered on Monday evenings from 7:00 to 9:40 p.m. Other courses in the series to be offered during subsequent semesters will include Bible 113 (Survey of the Old Testament), Bible 123 (Survey of the New Testament), Bible 138 (The Spread of Christianity), and Bible 213 (The Prophets).

Three hours credit are given for each course. There are no pre-requisites for these courses; the class in Bible is open to any individual who has a high school diploma or is over 21 years of age, and who would like to increase his knowledge of the Bible.

The class will be taught by the Rev. W. R. Lawrence, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Clarendon, who has taught the series for ten semesters over a period of five years.

He is currently a director on the High Plains Baptist Hospital Board, a trustee of Wayland Baptist College, President of Pan Fork Encampment, and treasurer of Panhandle Baptist Association.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD®

CROSSROADS REPORT

Dear Editor:

News is that a first-string brain troubleshooter says us people ought to have our heads examined every year, so as to catch it in the early stages if we are going nuts.

But my vagarist neighbor says the problem here might be getting up some reliable stndards to use in telling whether it is the patient or the examiner who is slipping.

In fact, he says, if the guidelines for measuring peoplesanity got based on the bureaucrat norm, it might result in the wrong bunch of people running loose.

People around here are just like they are everyplace else; they have all kinds of different ideas about what is wrong with the country and how to fix it.

And my cogitatist neighbor says the matter is that it takes more than 150,000 average taxpayers working a year to make a billion dollars, but 535 Congressmen can spend same in a very few minutes.

He claims what is needed is a re-training program to equalize this imbalance of talent by teaching taxpayers how to make money as fast as the taxspenders can blow it in.

I see where every now and then some public character who obviously does not think so, asks if our country has got any Foreign Policy.

My dissentist neighbor says this is a silly question because even he can see that the U.S. has got a firm, forwardarian, and bi-partisan policy of Foreigners First.

Says one proof of this is that item of $13,500 worth of royal bee jelly which was sent free to needy Formosans, whereas Americans without official connections have to buy their own.

I see where there are some loose threats being made that Russia won't be let to vote in the U.N. this fall if that country doesn't pay up its delinquent dues.

My neighbor whose mother was frightened by an Extremist says this mercenary attitude is as bad as the poll tax, and world progress is vastly held back when the poor and the deadbeats are kept from voting if they don't pay some service charge.

Says we'll never reach the Great Total Welfare Society if the only people who get to vote on it are the ones who will have to support it.

South Plains Field Day September 10

HALFWAY.—The major attraction of the Eighth Annual Field Day of the High Plains Research Foundation will be the tour of the 310 acre farm on Thursday afternoon, Sept. 10. Five stops are scheduled for the tour where members of the Foundation will explain the research under way. Between stops, guides will point out other research projects en route. The guides will be professional personnel from the area. Included will be volunteers from the Agricultural Extension Service, Soil Conservation Service personnel, vocational agricultural instructors, and FHA officials.

The large trucks with seats will be dispatched from the south of the Cotton Gin and Farm Machinery Center by Ollie Liner, Hale county agent, Lee Dent, manager of the Hale Center Chamber of Commerce, and Merwyn Igo, Halfway Grain Company and a board member, who have conducted this program for every field day.

Dr. Arthur Gohlke, assistant director and senior soil scientist, will preside at the first stop. Here the guests will be given information on farm rotation systems and chemical weed control.

James Valliant, water engineer, assisted by James Stair, state vice president of Young Farmers and a board member, will describe the soil and water conservation research program at the recharge well at stop two on the tour. Bench leveling, irrigation methods, and the recharge research will also be explained.

Loyd Langford, assistant agronomist, will be the speaker at stop three, where the interplanted system of farming, developed at Foundation, will be observed and results presented.

Barry Love, assistant agronomist, will show the visitors the new crops developed by the Foundation at stop four. Included will be soy beans, sesame and sunflowers.

Stop five will feature farming through flame. Here Jack Parks, agricultural engineer, will explain and show many phases of the flame cultivation program.

There will be a flag raising and flag burning ceremony conducted by the Plainview American Legion; the annual barbecue at 5 p.m.; barbership music for entertainment; and an evening program.

We believe everyone should come to the Fair. You see on display the best of those crops that are the backbone of our economy, and we invite you especially to study the displays of cotton. They are a prevue of the crop we will harvest this fall.

Your gin is part of that cotton crop, the part that in the end determines how much each bale brings. the Farmers Co-op Gin works at all times to see that all possible advantages come to its customers. This may be installing the latest machinery in our plant to better process your crop, or by discussing with you cotton varieties that are best suited to Collingsworth County.

A BARTON BREAK-AWAY

Wayne Barton, No. 10, took the ball around right end in one of the first plays of the 1964 season to advance the Rockets 36 yards. A few seconds later he was successfully tackled by Richard Valenzuela, No. 24, A 150 pound Childress Bobcat half back.

Gilberts Home From New York

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gilbert have just returned home from a trip to the east coast where they attended the World's Fair in New York City.

Several weeks ago the Gilberts' daughter, Mrs. L. R. Lyons and children, Ed and Lou, of Darien, Conn., came for a visit and they were met here by the Gilberts' son, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Gilbert and sons, Stevie, Bobby and John of Sacramento, Calif.

After their visit, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert accompanied Mrs. Lyon and her children home. On the way they visited Canada, Niagara Falls and the World's Fair.

At the close of their tour and visit the Gilberts flew back home by jet.

Low Interest Not Legal

AUSTIN.—An effort by the Allstate Insurance Company to knock out the State Board of Insurance order requiring a minimum charge of 6% interest on insurance premiums paid by installments has failed.

Board said it found nothing in the hearing to change its mind. It reported that abuses of Texas laws, prohibiting inducements to prospective policyholders and prohibiting discrimination between policyholders, were taking place under deferred payment plans.

"Net costs of handling premium payments financed by insurance companies at cut-rate interest, or no interest, will ultimately be paid by all insureds," said Board Chairman Hunter McLean. "Those electing deferred payment plans should bear such costs . . . "

A spokesman for one company charged that criticism of the ruling by the National Association of Independent Insurers laid the groundwork for an attack "on the Texas rating system and policy control."

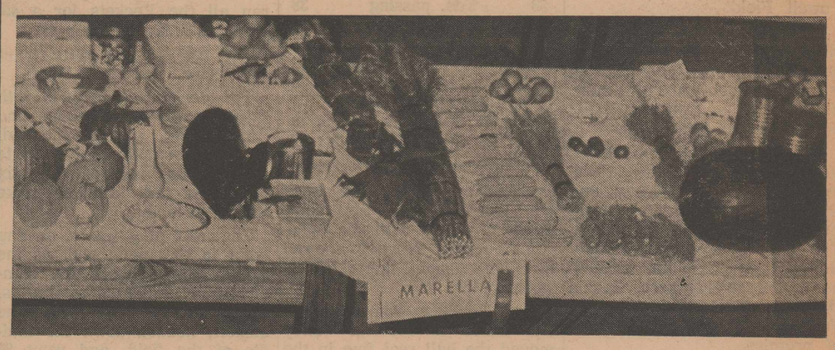

PICKED BY EXPERTS

The present system of selecting textbooks in Texas schools provides for recommendations by professional educators, a majority of whom are classroom teachers.

CONSOLIDATION

Texas today has 1,421 school districts. In 1948-49 it had 4,474 districts. Thirty-four Texas counties operate county-wide districts.

Bobcats Defeat Rockets 26-12 Friday in Season Opener

By JACK FORD

In the 1964 season opener the Wellington Skyrockets went down to defeat, 26 to 12, before a fine Childress Bobcat team Friday night, Sept. 4 at Powell Field.

The fast Bobcats, led by possible all-stater Mike Reeves at quarterback, took advantage of a pass interception and a fumble to score and put the game on ice in the first half.

The Rockets looked good. Veterans Wayne Barton, Chester McLain, Gary White and Olan Moore played their usual fine game in the backfield. The new boys such as Andy Bell, Randy West, Jackie Needham, George Leathers, Jackie Duncan, Neal Roberts and Tommy Yarbrough showed lots of promise.

The linemen, Roger Weems, Ray Floyd, Don Sweat, Danny White, Joe Rudy, David Caison, Johnny Maxwell, Skip Duncan, Adam Garcia and Lynn Wolf showed that they don't mind mixing it with the opposition. Phillip Hughey showed the fans some fine kickoffs and tackles.

The Rockets won the toss and chose to receive. They moved the ball real fine in the first series of downs, taking the kickoff on their own 27 and going to the Bobcats' 32 with a great run by Wayne Barton for 36 yards.

The Rockets then tried a pass which was intercepted by the Bobcats on the Bobcat 28 yard line. They moved the ball on short plunges to the Rocket 45, where R. Valeryuela outran all the Rockets for a 45-yard touchdown scamper.

The try for one extra point was good.

The Rockets came back with runs by Barton, McLain and Gary White, moving the ball to the Bobcat 31. A Barton to White pass paid off for six points but they failed to make the extra point.

The next play was a turning point in the game and, as the saying goes, "broke the camel's back", when Mike Reeves, Bobcat quarterback, took the kickoff, headed down the middle of the field, and went 85 yards for a touchdown. Extra point try failed.

The Rockets missed a scoring opportunity when they recovered a fumble on the Bobcat 6 but lost the ball on downs after being pushed back to the Bobcat 20.

The Bobcats scored twice more on drives of 80 yards and 75 yards. On the second touchdown an oddity occurred; the Rockets intercepted a Bobcat pass, started up field and fumbled and the Bobcats recovered on the Rocket 25 yard line and continued on to score. The half time score was Bobcats 26, Rockets 6.

The third quarter was dominated by the Rockets but they couldn't seem to put a TD drive together until early in the fourth quarter.

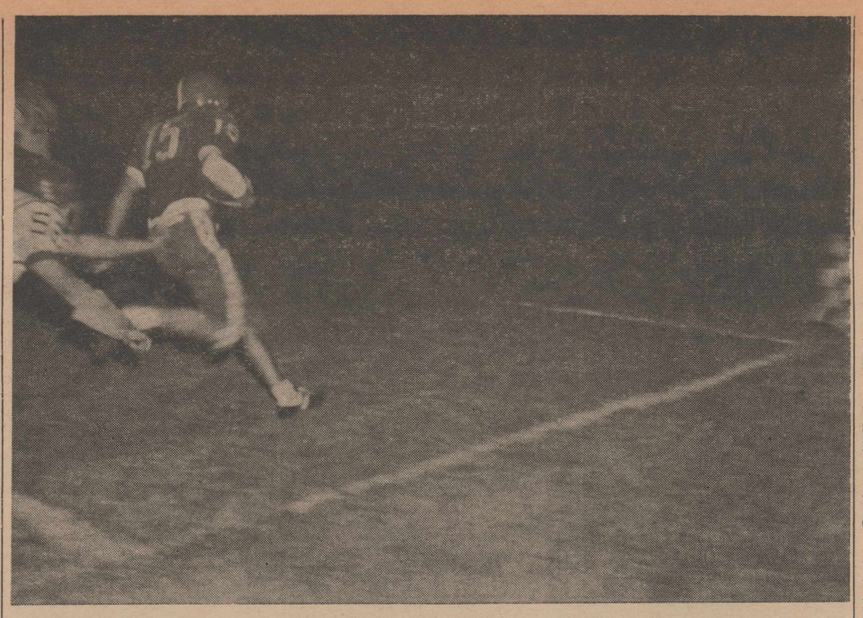

The Rockets started a series of downs on their own 39 and with runs by Barton, G. White and Olan Moore the ball was moved to the Bobcat 14 and Barton scampered 14 yards for the final TD of the game. Try for extra point failed.

The rest of the game both teams tried to move the ball but the defense proved to be too tough. Final score Bobcats 26, Rockets 12.

Hollis next week. Let's see a good crowd and cheer the Rockets on. These Rockets of ours are going to win a lot of ball games.

WHS Musicians Playing in College Bands

Three of last year's Skyrocket band musicians will be playing in major Texas college bands this year, James Larson, director, has announced.

Sammie Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Thompson, received a scholarship from Texas Woman's University and will be a member of the Serenaders, TWU stage band. She replaces an upper classman who dropped out.

The scholarship covers tuition and books during the regular term and full expenses for the summer sessions.

Plans are now being made for the Serenaders to tour Europe.

Sammie will play the alto saxophone.

Carol Blain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Ward has been accepted as a member of the Texas Tech A band and will begin practice with that group Sept. 10.

Charles Black, who played the bass horn in the WHS band will be playing that instrument in the Tarleton State College band this year. He was last year's band president.

Charles received a scholarship that covers his tuition and music fees.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Black.

Did You Eat Enough Breakfast?

COLLEGE STATION.— Skipping breakfast is not a good idea at any age, and is particularly harmful for youngsters and teenagers, Extension Service food and nutrition specialists say.

The human body needs refueling regularly, and breakfast is the meal that follows the longest stretch of non-eating.

Research has shown that, without an adequate breakfast, fatigue sets in earlier, irritability is increased, work output is reduced, and virtually all reaction time slows down. School children do not learn as easily, for they lack energy and sometimes become behavior problems.

Lack of time is the most frequent reason given for skimping on or skipping breakfast, says Mrs. Gwen Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist, and Extension nutritionist. This shortage of time is mostly a habit and can be corrected by revising one's schedule and getting up a few minutes earlier.

Breakfast should be a family affair. Then everyone has the advantage of a good breakfast and the young people form a habit that will stand them in good stead the remainder of their lives.

► It's fair time again . . . time to welcome all our neighbors to the big Collingsworth County Free Fair. Look at the fine crop and livestock exhibits. They represent the wealth of Collingsworth . . . the riches of our soil that is becoming more fertile each year.

► We take special pride in this year's fair. Many of the fat calves and hogs you see were grown on Purina feed. Many of the fine grains were grown from DeKalb seed, for which we are the dealer. We are proud of our part in making Collingsworth County Farming better.

► If you want more information about a livestock feeding program that has been proved successful, or in improving crop production, we invite you to come by and talk with us.

Deck's DIDACTICS

—By Deskins Wells

It is fair time, rodeo time and horse show time in Wellington and if the preliminary crowds at the carnival are any indication, there should be a lot of people in Wellington during the big days Friday and Saturday. The VFW has arranged an outstanding rodeo that should be one of the best in years. They tell me the exhibits will be excellent as usual and this in spite of the dry weather. So get out your glad rags and make your plans to be here this week end.

This is written before it happens, but the advance publicity indicates that the High Plains Research Foundation will make an announcement Wednesday of a new development that will bring millions of dollars to the sorghum grain growers of the area. And the nice thing about it is that the research work was directed by Lloyd Langford, a graduate of Quail High School and West Texas State.

My neighbor, Joe Simpson, who ginned the first bale of cotton in the county last week also ginned the first bale in 1913. The bale in 1913 was grown northeast of Wellington while the one this year was grown near Arlie. Fifty-one years is a long time to stay in any kind of a business not to mention the rather arduous one of fighting boll worms, leaf worms, careless weeds, blue weeds and all the other things that bob up to vex the cotton grower.

The City of Wellington was spraying this week and it is just as well because five new cases of encephalitis were found in Hale County this week. This is one disease for which there is no known cure. If a person survives due to natural strength of constitution there can still be serious after effects.

Herschel Combs and James Miller of The Democrat were over from Memphis this week measuring the Miehle press in The Leader plant. They have bought one exactly like the one in Wellington. It is not the fastest press in the world but when properly adjusted it still gets the best print of any letterpress that has ever been built.

Wellington football fans were pleased with the initial showing of the team against Childress. Although they lost due mainly to an outstanding 195-pound Bobcat quarterback, the Rockets presented a well balanced club that will go far in district play. Memphis showed exceptional strength in defeating Crowell and will be one of the strong contenders this season. The newcomers to the district, the White Deer Bucks, are expected to be the hardest competition. The Rockets will have the slight advantage of playing the Bucks on Powell field, but they will meet Memphis at Memphis.

I bragged too soon on my dahlias. I do not have a single one that would make an acceptable entry at the fair.

The weather map shows a chance for scattered showers this week. The only trouble is that the map has shown the same thing before with no results. What we need is the old Indian sign.

Former County Resident Visits

E. B. Morgan of Perryton was here on business Saturday and visited his brother and sisters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Oran Starkey and Mrs. Charles Starkey.

p.m. and continue until 4, but there will be much visiting and reminiscing throughout the day.

First through fourth places will be awarded in the following categories:

The oldest person attending.

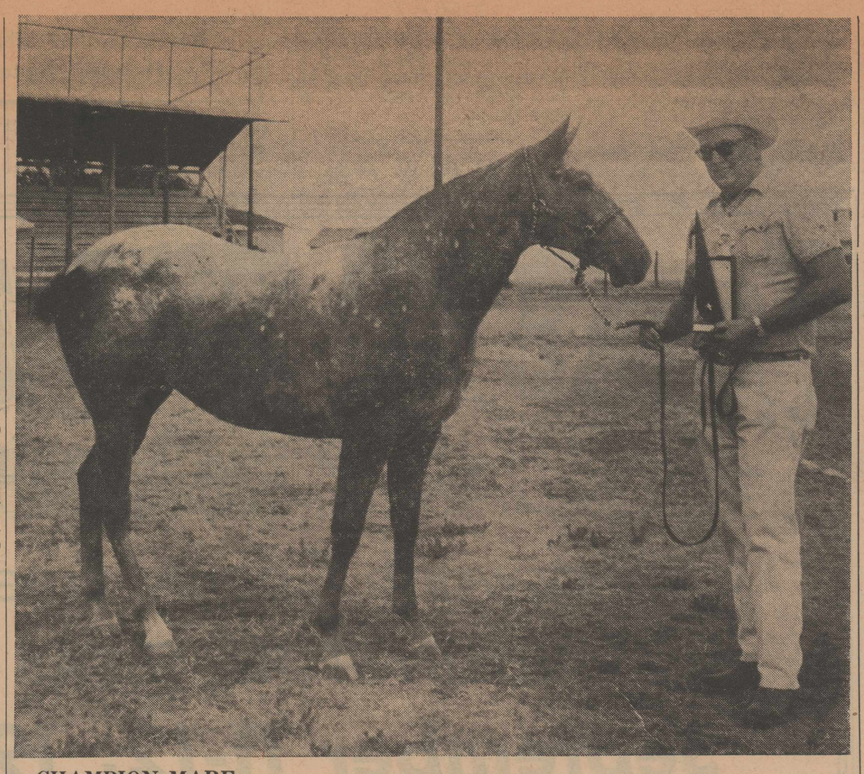

The person who traveled farthest.

The person having the most grandchildren.

The person having lived in the county the longest.

All persons who lived in the county prior to 1925 are considered old settlers, regardless of age, Thomas said.

Assisting him in the arrangements are Mr. and Mrs. Riley Dunson.

CHAMPION MARE

Got Took took home a grand champion's trophy from the third annual Appaloosa Show Saturday afternoon, Sept. 5. The 1963 filly is owned by Lon D. Cartwright of Plainview and placed first in her class.

LEADER BUYERS BEGIN YOUNG

People of all ages buy The Wellington Leader when it goes on sale at B&B News Stand Wednesday afternoon. Some of them come from the rural areas to get one, rather than wait for Thursday mail delivery. Two-year-old Carrie Coleman has just bought a copy of the newspaper for her grandmother, Mrs. V. D. Hutchens, waiting in a car. —Leader Staff Photo by Virginia Robey

Salesman Dies in Car Sept. 1

Guy Howard Armstrong, 54, a Cheyenne, Okla., salesman, was found dead at the wheel of his car eight miles north of Childress on US 83 Tuesady, Sept. 1. He apparently died of a heart attack.

A salesman for Euclid Sportswear Company of Cleveland, Ohio, he had made a sales call in Wellington only a short time before and was en route to Childress.

His body was found by R. G. Haynes of Wellington and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Bouchelle of the Loco community, who notified the Childress County Sheriff's Department.

He was born Oct. 24, 1909 at St. Jo and was a World War II veteran.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Ida Frances Armstrong of Cheyenne.

Tigers

they use a 5-4, 6-3 or 8-man line.

They throw the ball fairly well, but their biggest threats are in their big, fast, hard running halfback and a little 155-pound halfback who is a 10-flat speed sprinter.

Tipton is the other team that Hollis has scrimmaged this year, and that team barely got by the Tigers.

As for the Rockets, Coach Beck and line coach Raymond Kauffman feel their team will be pretty well at full strength, although two or three players may be out—Mike Smith and Freddy Bobo, who were out last week, and Olan Moore, who got a leg injury in the Childress game.

"I feel like our kids will come back up fighting after their defeat by Childress. They have the mental attitude of defending champions. Against Childress, they had a real fine attitude. They made a lot of mistakes but tried real hard. They were just outmanned," Coach Beck declared.

The Rocket coach took one look back at the Childress game: "I felt like we had real fine defensive play by Skippy Duncan, David Caison and Wayne Barton. Offensively Adam Garcia, Phillip Hughey, Lynn Wolf and Joe Rudy did a fine job in the line. In the backfield, I feel like Barton and Olan Moore were outstanding."

Young Farmers Will Meet in Hereford Sept. 12

The 4th Annual Area Young Farmer convention will be held Sept. 12 at the Hereford high school auditorium at Hereford.

Wilbur Adams of Lockney, the Area I Young Farmer president, will be presiding over the convention which begins at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 12.

One of the highlights of the afternoon program will be a tour of the Holly sugar plant now under construction at Hereford. Also, new Area I officers will be elected.

These new officers will be installed at a dinner beginning at 7:30 p.m. in Hereford high school's cafeteria, and sponsored in part by the Greenbelt Electric Cooperative of Wellington.

In addition to installation of new officers, the speaker of the evening will be the Rev. Leon Hill of Amarillo. Awards will be presented to outstanding Area I - Young Farmers and Young Homemakers.

George Henry, manager of the Greenbelt Electric Cooperative says "The local electric cooperative is always pleased to have the opportunity to take part in such an outstanding program as our Young Farmer association."

Work With Irrigation

Crawfood Transferred to SCS at Spearman

Bob Crawford, work unit conservationist of the Soil Conservation Service in Wellington four years, has been transferred to the SCS at Spearman. He will begin work there Sept. 27.

His successor has not been announced.

Crawford said that a considerable part of his work will be with the fast developing irrigation in Hansford county, one of the leading counties in irrigation farming on the north plains.

A graduate of Texas Tech, Lubbock, Crawford came here from Dell City, near El Paso, but prior to that he was with Soil Conservation Service at Muleshoe.

Here he has been president of Little League baseball, treasurer and Sunday school teacher in Bowie Street Church of Christ; and chairman of the Kiwanis Club agriculture committee. Crawford grew up at Blanket.

His wife, Alene, taught a Sunday school class here. Also a Texas Tech graduate with a major in home economics, she supervised the lunch room at Muleshoe two and a half years.

They have three children, Kate, 5; Bryan and Phyllis, 3.

and 400 feet south of FM 1981, a short distance west of the junction with US 83. Two were taken in the bed of the creek and one on each bank.

Survey work indicates the dam height will be approximately 70 feet, water will stand at a depth of around 50 feet, and it will be an estimated one-fourth mile in length. The lake will cover approximately 350 surface acres and back water up from one and a quarter to one and a half miles.

Henard pointed out that no work is being done on the Dozier Creek site pending developments on the proposed large dam on Salt Fork. If the present location is feasible, the Dozier Creek site will be covered up with water.

across the street from the community building.

Women of the county will exhibit fine sewing, cooking, food preserving and canning and various types of handwork.

The girls' division, open to any girl, but with 4-H Club members making up most of the exhibitors, will give girls as young as six years an opportunity to participate. There will be two divisions, one for elementary and junior high girls and the other for high school girls. They will enter both food and clothing. All of these exhibits will be open on Friday and Saturday.

Livestock Show

The livesock show in which boys and girls of the county will exhibit fat cattle and hogs will be on Saturday only and will be at the Youth Project Show Barn in the 700 block of Amarillo Street.

Directing the show are the three vocational agriculture instructors of the county, Danny Garcia of Wellington, Donald Bradley of Samnorwood and Buford Comstock of Quail, and County Agent Cecil Regier.

H. C. Weatherby, vocational ag teacher at Shamrock, will judge the show.

The public is invited to come and watch the judging, which will begin at 9:30 a.m.

It is the custom also if the weather is unduly hot to release the animals as soon as they are judged, so that they may be taken home if their young owners wish to.

Terrapin Races

Terrapin races will be held at various times during the afternoon, both Friday and Saturday, on the square.

Any person wishing to enter the races may furnish his own terrapin or purchase one from the Chamber of Commerce.

Other rules will be announced at the time of the races, as the judges think them up.

Chairman of the races again this year is Rusty Henard, and his assistants are Chub White and Dick Lindley.

Square Dance

The final event Saturday, Sept. 12 will be the Square Dance on the Square, another traditional fair event.

The dance will begin at 9 p.m. and Jack Anderson of Stinnett will be the caller.

Manley Joins SCS Staff Here

Max Manley has joined the staff of the Soil Conservation Service here as soil conservationist, Bob Crawford, work unit conservationist, announced this week.

He was transferred from Spur and replaces Mike Deason, who resigned the first of the year to enter the school of Veterinary Medicine at Texas A&M University.

Manley was reared at Abilene and graduated from A&M with a major in animal husbandry. He has worked as a contractor and for Texas Instruments in Dallas as a technician.
