NEWS OF BOOKS

Henry de Montherlant, one of France's greatest living writers and a member of the French Academy, is represented with two books to be published July 31. Despite his distinguished literary career, little of Montherlant's work has ever been available in English translation in the United States.

"The Bachelors" is a novel about the decadence and ruin of two old bachelors of the French nobility, was first published in France in 1934 as "Les Celibataires" and won the Grand Prix de Littérature, the highest literary honor granted by the French Academy. Montherlant portrays with irony, sympathy, and yet with terrifying realism the twilight world inhabited by two poverty-stricken old men, each pursuing an eccentric existence divorced from the realities of the twentieth century.

How Stenos Fare In Russia

By Lydia Busek
For The Associated Press
Stenographers and secretaries in Russia must first learn how to repair their typewriters before they can get a job.

But so far as I could discover, talking with school experts from this and other countries who have made a study of Soviet education, there isn't a typewriter repair course available.

It is an example of a sort of do-it-yourself theory that applies to many things in Russia.

Being an American secretary, I decided to try to find out about girls who do the type of work I do.

When I first tried to make arrangements to visit a secretarial school, Intourist guides and information people—generally friendly and willing to lend a hand—met my pleas with stony stares. They didn't know of any such school.

She Finds School
But because I could speak and read a little Russian, a newly-found friend in one of the embassies provided an address at 14 Stolshnikov Street as that of a stenography secretarial school.

When I arrived I could understand why the Intourist people were discouraging. It is in the basement of a rundown building. By jumping mud puddles in an alley I got to No. 14. The outside door didn't fit the jamb. In fact, it couldn't have looked less like a school.

I walked down dark steps to a tiny hallway and spoke to three girls comparing notes, although I wondered how they could compare one shorthand outline from another, it was that dark.

I asked for the teacher, and one of the girls quickly ran to tell her an Amerikansyaya was here.

What School Teaches
The school mistress, Mrs. Demshikov, invited me in and seemed delighted and proud of her school. Certainly she wasn't embarrassed by the unattractive surroundings. Sixteen girls and women were typing on very old machines.

I learned that the shorthand, typing and business practice course takes two years. Classes can be tailored to personal needs, full day, half-day or evening. Secretarial schools offer in addition to typing and shorthand, refresher classes in Russian language, Russian history, cataloging and general office practice.

Mrs. Demshikov said a stenographer's starting salary is 45 rubles a month ($49.50) and the maximum for secretaries, unless they become experienced in specialized fields, is 70 rubles a month ($77). A ruble is worth $1.10.

At the U. S. embassy, which requires top grade bilingual secretaries and typists, the pay can run from 80 to 120 rubles a month.

For all this, a secretary can buy some interesting contrasts.

Rent is very low, as low as $3 a month. A dozen eggs, depending on size and season, can cost from $1.25 to $2.50 a dozen. A gas bill can be as low as 55 cents for a four room apartment, plus kitchen, bath and entrance hall. But a single orange can cost 70 cents.

Electricity is more expensive than gas, but not too costly by American standards. It costs about $4.50 a month for electricity in the same apartment, including limited lighting, a sewing machine, small refrigerator, vacuum cleaner, toaster, radio and television.

Potatoes are 6 cents a pound, but carrots are 40. Chickens are 60 cents a pound, apples $1.20.

No Coffee Breaks Allowed
Clothing is expensive, too. Shoes $19 to $31, capron hose (a synthetic, I could find no nylon) $2.30, wool suits $82.50; wool blouses $27-50; light-weight suits $33; winter coat with Persian lamb trim $99; summer silk print dress $33, hats starting at $5.50.

And secretaries in Russia get no coffee breaks. But they get vacations or two to four weeks, qualify for a pension, get free medical care, maternity leave, nursery attention for babies and—if they're ill for an extended period—may even qualify for rest in a sanatorium in the Crimea or another vacation and health area.

But I'll still take my job, and my boss is well going to have to keep his service contract to keep my typewriter in good working order.

Onion Rings Make Very Tasty Tidbits

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor
ARE YOU for party tidbits and munchies? Then just wait until you whet your appetite on these delicious French-fried onion rings.

Our family and friends always clamor for our own recipe for French-fried onion rings—a rule that calls for a batter made from scratch. Now they give this recipe equal standing—and this rule quicker than our own to prepare because it uses pancake mix.

But even though they're made with a shortcut, these rings are long on flavor, attractive appearance and just plain crisp crunchiness. The pimiento in the batter helps give sweet taste and a touch of rosininess to their golden hue.

Good as these onion rings are to enjoy as a before-dinner nibble, they can't be best as an accompaniment to hamburgers, steak or chops—grilled indoors or out.

GOLDEN ONION RINGS
(about 1/2 pound each)

- 1 cup pancake mix
  - 1/4 cup enriched white corn meal
  - 1 tablespoon chopped pimiento
  - 1/2 teaspoon salt
  - 1 cup water
- Peel onions; slice about 1/4-inch thick; separate into rings. Cover rings with milk and let stand about 15 minutes. Drain. Put pancake mix, corn meal, pimiento, salt and water into a mixing bowl; beat with rotary beater (hand or electric) about 2 minutes. Dip onion rings in batter; allow excess batter to drain off; fry in deep hot fat 375 degrees, 2 to 3 minutes or until golden brown. Drain on absorbent paper. Serve at once. Makes 8 servings.
- Note: If you hold a number of the onion rings on a fork and dip them into the batter this way, it will be easy to hold the dipped rings over the bowl and allow the excess batter to drain off. Fry in deep hot fat 375 degrees, 2 to 3 minutes or until golden brown. Drain on absorbent paper. Serve at once. Makes 8 servings.

ANOTHER BIG REASON BEHIND THE BIG BOOM IN FORD SALES:

No other wagon can match Ford's features (or popularity!)

There's a whole wagonload of Ford features that only America's station wagon specialists can bring you.

First, there's more room. Ford's extended load deck is the longest and widest in its field. The tailgate opening is seven inches wider than last year, too.

There's more convenience. You can roll an electrically controlled roll-down rear window in any Ford wagon... it's standard in all Country Squires and 9-Passenger Country Sedans. In their field, only Ford wagons have all seats facing forward.

There's more distinction. The Country Squire (shown above) is the one and only wagon in its field with body panels that look like mahogany, wear like steel.

There are more savings, too. Ford's Ranch Wagon is America's lowest-priced, full-size wagon. And like all Fords, every Ford wagon is built to be more service-free: goes 30,000 miles between chassis lubrications, 4,000 miles between oil changes, brakes adjust automatically, mufflers are made to last three times as long as ordinary mufflers, and the finish never needs waxing.

STOP putting off that station wagon you've always wanted. SWAP for a '61 Ford wagon now while you, Ford Dealer's celebrating record-breaking sales. SAVE with the wagon America loves most... made by FORD... America's station wagon specialists for 32 years!

New Frontier Plan Attacks Foundation; American Home

BY INEZ ROBB

Would that Mr. Dooley were still alive to cast his X-ray eyes on the nefarious goings-on in Washington! It is a terrible thing, a terrible thing indeed, but the New Frontier is nursing a clever and diabolical plan to destroy the American home.

This insidious attack on the very foundation of the American home is laid bare in one of the many two-bit weekly "newsletters" that now flood the United States mail.

It is taking the kind of Boston Blackie brain behind most of these newsletters to warn us Americans of the awful booby traps lurking behind innocent legislation.

Who would think that the Administration attempts to crack down on expense-account living to curb what seems like to dopey characters like you and me—executive high jinks on the corporate cuff, are really and truly attacks on the foundation of our nation, the American home!

But that's the nefarious piff, and don't forget it! It is the piff, the little woman behind every successful man, who would not pay and pay, right through her pretty little nose, if the Administration succeeds in enacting some curbs on expense-account living.

The corporate wife—who has not heard of this dynamo in business storm-and-strife—would no longer be able to travel with her husband when he goes on business trips or attends conventions. And everyone, just everyone but the hard-hearted government, knows that the corporate wife must always be handy to advance her husband's career, and take advantage of all business openings or opportunities. It is imperative that she be present to slip the hemlock in her rival's tea.

But this poor little girl hemlock and all, will not be able to accompany her husband on business trips if the nasty government tightens up on loose expense accounts. He won't be able to take her along unless he gets an unshakable dignity—down into his own pocket and pays for both the hemlock and her piff.

The terrible, cruel part of the whole business is that the mean old government has accustomed junior executives and their ilk—including wives to regard expense-account largesse as an integral part of a man's salary, as his by right and custom. That includes writing off home entertaining, social club dues, theatre tickets and night-clubbing on the corporate cuff. All the goodies, really.

And now—dear me, it is so fascinatingly petty and hard-hearted that I can scarcely bring myself to write about it—the wife of a junior executive or his counterpart will have to dig down into the family sock for such expenditures just like other people. That is, she will have to dig into the piggy bank if the new Administration passes this heartless legislation.

Just think! The bill proposes that there shall be no entertaining even to build good will, much less a swimming pool or another bedroom on the east wing of the house. In heaven's name I ask you: How will people live?

Scant wonder this newsletter speaks of the legislation's "protective victims," means about the return of business meetings and conventions to "stag" affairs without the refining touch of the little woman, and calls upon heaven to witness this premeditated destruction of that most-sacred

American institution, Together-ness.

Let us forget equitable taxation for now. Now is the time for the government to show mercy to the privileged few. Let us go forward, united, to save Togetherness and the whooping crane.

Crack Train Is Derailed

VAN WERT, Ohio AP—The Pennsylvania Railroad's General Trailblazer, bound from New York to Chicago, hit a stalled truck and was derailed today in the village of Conroy. Seven persons were hurt, none seriously.

The three-unit diesel engine and six coaches left the rails but none overturned. Three of the cars were tipped at a 45-degree angle, and windows had to be broken to remove the passengers from the cars. About 1,000 feet of track was ripped up.

William Meadows of Macon, Ga., the truck driver, said his trailer got stuck in the rails and he went to telephone for aid. While he was gone, the train struck the trailer.

The injured were taken to Van West County Hospital.

Conroy is 21 miles east of Fort Wayne, Ind., and seven miles west of Van Wert.

Hiring Of Stenographer Stirs Office

By HAL ROYLE

NEW YORK AP—Nothing stirs the average office out of its usual summer doldrums more than the hiring of a new stenographer.

This is particularly so if the girl is pretty, and—engineered like an adolescent's dream. Her arrival creates more excitement than anything since management surrendered unconditionally to the coffee break.

For a time she is more popular than the water cooler.

The career wolves and the seasonal bachelors converge on her desk from all corners. Everybody suddenly needs to borrow a pencil, some paper clips, an extra typewriter ribbon—any excuse to get acquainted.

The fact the new girl can type only 25 words a minute under full steam worries nobody but the boss.

Here is the impact she has on some of the office characters.

The office boy—He comes in 15 minutes early so he can slip unnoticed on her desk a rose he has stolen from a neighbor's bush and wrapped in a poem he spent half the night writing. (The quality of his verse is so poor the new girl suspects the boss himself wrote it.)

The hypochondriac—His idea of courtship is to lend her some of his medicines. "Try this new miracle pill," he urges. "It came out only last week, and it made me feel wonderful."

The junior executive—He hasn't dictated a letter in months, but now he suddenly develops a heavy correspondence. He even writes letters to strangers in the phone book, just so he can spend more time with the new girl.

The fatherly bookkeeper—"A young girl like you has to be very careful these days," he murmurs, clutching her hands in his. "You can't believe a word some of these jokers tell you, but you can trust me."

The boss's spinster secretary—"Everybody talks about how young she is," she tells her cronies spitefully. "But she isn't all that young."

But the romantic ardor that swept the office dies down as abruptly as it arose. For after three months the new girl announces she is leaving to marry the boy back home. Everyone has to dig down to buy her some farewell gifts—which include a bottle of tranquilizers from the hypochondriac. His last words: "Honeymoons can be so tense."

All then wait expectantly to see what the next new girl will look like. She turns out to have a face like a tornado and hair like Harpo Marx. But she can type 75 words a minute blindfolded—which, after all, is how she looks best.

"Now," growls the boss, "maybe we'll get some work done around this place!"

Maybe.

Picture At Wimbledon Is Jumbled

By ROBERT JONES
WIMBLEDON (AP) — Take an Indian, an Australian, a Briton and an all-American boy from St. Louis. Shuffle well and it's anyone's guess who'll be marching off with the Wimbledon men's tennis crown on Friday.

The shuffling-up is on the All-England Club's famed center court today, when Ramanathan Krishnan of India meets Aussie Rod Laver, runner-up the past two years, and Chuck McKinley, the 5-8 bundle of energy from St. Louis, meets Mike Sangster, the tough and brawny Briton.

Whether he gets to the final or not, Chuck has served notice that Australia's virtual stranglehold on the Davis Cup—they've won it nine times in the past 11 years—may be ending soon.

Even the partisan British crowds—thrilled at getting a hometown boy in the semis for the first time in 23 years—agree that Chuck is the personality of the 1961 Wimbledon, with two other U.S. youngsters, Dennis Ralston and Chris Crawford, not far behind.

Australia still has Neale Fraser, Laver and Roy Emerson, veterans of so many Davis Cup clashes. But Fraser, the ousted champion, has hinted he may be retiring soon, and Laver may land in Jack Kramer's pro net if he wins this year.

But if the future looks bright for the U.S. men, it has a gloomy look where the girls are concerned. For the second year in succession, no American girl has reached the semifinals here.

Karen Hantze, the teen-ager from Chula Vista, Calif., was the only U.S. seed this year—and she lost to Rene Schuurman, the unseeded, bouncy brunette from Durban, South Africa, in an upset in the quarter-finals Tuesday.

One-Run Victories Highlight Activity

Roby's Tigers encountered another snag here Tuesday in their battle for an out-and-out Colt League title, as the Red Sox came into the late innings to edge them out 6-5 in an eight-inning contest.

Trailing by 4-5 going into the home half of the eighth, the Sox rose to the occasion and chased over a pair of tallies, with singles by Keith Moreland, Darrel Aldridge, and Kenny Wellborn sparking the door-swing rally.

Wellborn was the leading hitter of the day with three singles, while Tommy Shelburne popped a single and double to give added impetus.

Larry Randolph and Joe Jones each landed doubles for Roby for the other extra-base hits of the contest.

Keith Moreland hurried for the Sox until the eighth, when Gerald Bullard took over hill duties. Jerry Neves, Bob Waddell, and Bill Ashton shared pitching chores for the Tiger line.

In the second game of the after-noon, the Dodgers came through to knock the pro's out from under the Sports by 8-7 in another game they won eight frames.

Donnie Newman was the winner in that one coming on in the final inning in relief of starter Jerry Owens. Blake Roberts, who chucked the last six innings after taking over for J. N. Wall, was charged with the loss.

Corky Fox paced the winning platter attack with a single and a double in four trips.

For the Sports, Wall was tops with his triple and single. Mike Williamson also tripled in the furthest of the losing cause.

Swim Meet A 'Rousing Success'

Perfect weather conditions enhanced the picture at the Towle Park Pool Tuesday, and an overflowing and appreciative mass of townspeople turned out to witness a local swimming meet as part of the July Fourth holiday festivities.

There was competition offered for both boys and girls of all ages, and a healthy turnout of young folk bulged the slate of activity.

In addition to the swimming and diving-competition, the crowning of Miss Towle Pool was accomplished, with County Judge J. Ray Martin making the presentations.

Miss Paula Avant was the winner, while the first runner-up title went to Linda Reon and the second runner-up recognition to Judy Leppons.

Comic diving capped off the meet, the amusing display of slapstick being staged by Joe Robinson, Darrell Aldridge, and Mokey Hale.

Complete meet results are as follows:

Giants Blanked By Braves; Cards Win

Don Jones of the Little League Braves had the Giants, who are perched up at the top of the standings, eating out of the palm of his hand Tuesday, as he blanked them by 3-0 with a brilliant one-hit mound job.

Giants first sacker Gary Bailey led off the fourth by rapping out a single, that being the sum and substance of it for the losers.

Loser Bill Greif also chucked a most creditable game, as he gave up just three hits to his foes, one of those being a second-inning leadoff double by Brave centerfielder Dennis Harmon.

Jones struck out 10 and Greif 8 during the course of the contest. In other action of the day, the Cardinals stormed to seven big runs in the first two frames, then held on to emerge with a 7-6 triumph over the Cubs.

Base hits were a dime a dozen during the slugfest. Charles Brown, with three safe blows, topped the A's at the plate, while mates Randy Owens, Eugene Davila, and Thomas Cain each collected a pair of bingles.

John Thomas and Randy Mitchell drove out two singles apiece to top the losing onslaught.

Owens was the winning pitcher and Paul Glover the loser. The second game of the day went to the White Sox in another high scoring affair, 14-13, over the Yankees.

Sox slugger Jackie Cantrell led all batters with three singles and a double in four trips to the platter. Winning pitcher Randall Keller and Rick Merick each singled twice for the Sox, also, and Harvey Browning doubled to boost the effort.

Jerald Van Smith was the losing moundsman. At the plate, he was aided by Wesley Bishop, who rapped out a double and two singles, and Florencio Valdez, who singled twice. Smith collected a pair of singles himself toward the losing cause, also.

Snyder Stars Split Holiday Twin Bill

Snyder's City Softball All-Stars, starting from an opening inning, the good right arm of Lennie Crosby, lining 5-4 clipping as handed them by the strong E. C. Smith County structure outfit of Big Spring, came stomping back Tuesday night atop the Snyder stars in the opener, however, as they dropped the extra-inning affair by the aforementioned 5-4.

A three-run outburst in the first inning wasn't enough for the Snyder stars in the opener, however, as they dropped the extra-inning affair by the aforementioned 5-4.

Pottery Neeper went the distance for Snyder to be charged with the defeat. He gave up six hits, with Marion Treadway leading the attack on him with a triple and single and Buck Drake chipping in a pair of singles to keep the ball rolling.

For Snyder, four hits were all that were landed against winning hurler Franklin, one of which was a leadoff third inning triple by Jim Wesson.

Eloy Benitez was credited with the win, as he showed six hits over the span. Wade McCarty proved to be the chief thorn in his side, as he doubled and singled in three appearances.

Lester Ted Winter relinquished 11 base knocks, with Loyd Potts doubling and singling to pace the attack. Don Laster also powered out a two-bagger for the winning nine.

Golden struck out a total of 11 during his five-frame stint. In the other American League game of the day, the Athletics leaped out to a 4-0 lead after two innings, then had to hold on for dear life to finally take home a 6-5 victory.

Sox Slide Past Tribe; A's Win

The Little League White Sox cleared still another hurdle in their quest for the loop title here Tuesday, as they applied the white-wash to the Indians 11-0, while the second-place Athletics kept pace with a narrow 6-5 victory over the Yankees.

Robert Golden supplied the arm that quelled the Indian bats, with a double by Bobby Clardy and single as hit by Alton Patterson being the only safe blows as landed by the Tribesmen.

Meanwhile, the Sox got to loser Tommy Woodridge and reliever Kent Noble for eight safeties, with Max Moreland and Johnny Ganoa each pounding out a double and pair of singles to lead the onslaught.

Golden struck out a total of 11 during his five-frame stint. In the other American League game of the day, the Athletics

Snyder Celebrates Independence Day

LINING UP FOR PARADE—Scurry County Sheriff's Posse and Posse Anns line up for the start of the Independence Day parade in Towle Memorial Park. The parade was one of the early feature events which helped launch a busy afternoon and evening for thousands of people.

THE CHAMPS—Billy Joe Brown and Kenneth Baker triumphantly put away their dominos after winning the championship in a forty-two tournament staged by Jaycees during Independence Day festivities in Towle Memorial Park here Tuesday.

SIESTA—Gene Ragsdale, KSNY announcer, takes advantage of the holiday to give his vocal cords a thorough rest in the sunshine. The lush grass in the park makes an ideal siesta setting.

YOUNG PARADERS—Youngsters had a big role in the Independence Day parade yesterday afternoon in Towle Memorial Park. This group of young cyclists made the rounds. Other youngsters marched, carrying small flags, while still others rode fire engines and other equipment.

BOAT RIDES POPULAR—Youngsters line up for boat rides as the duck races, one of the more popular continuing events of the Independence Day Celebration. Boats are a novelty on the small park lake, which usually is the exclusive domain of the ducks.

TREES IN DEMAND—Trees were popular in Towle Memorial Park yesterday as thousands of people assembled in bright sunshine for the Independence Day celebration. Even the smaller patches of shade, such as that above, were attractive.

Contest Taking Shape For Presidency Of New Church

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A two-way contest shaped up today for the presidency of the newly constituted United Church of Christ, its highest administrative office.

Rank-and-file votes put the Rev. Dr. James E. Wagner of Philadelphia into the race, challenging a nominating committee's choice: the Rev. Dr. Ben M. Herbst, of Newark, Ohio.

The balloting comes this afternoon, a day after the constitution of the new 2-million-member denomination was declared in effect.

It unites "the Congregational, Christian Churches and the Evangelist and Reformed Church, the first merger in the country of denominations of different national origins and ecclesiastical structure.

Enactment of the constitution climaxed 21 years of preliminary steps.

Major moral quick to elect Maine Supreme Court Judge Donald W. Webber as moderator, the church's top titular officer, who serves for two years. The conflict came on naming the more powerful, continuing executive.

Both Presidential candidates were drawn from the E. and R. wing, a church that Dr. Wagner, 61, has headed for eight years.

No Winner In War, MacArthur Says

By DON HUTH

MANILA (AP) — General of the Army Douglas MacArthur told the Philippine Congress today that scientific advancement in the development of military weapons "has destroyed the possibility of war being a medium for the practical settlement of international differences."

"Global war has become a Frankenstein to destroy both sides," said the 81-year-old leader of World War II and the Korean War.

"No longer is it a weapon of adventure—the short cut to international power. If you lose, you are annihilated. If you win, you stand only to lose."

"No longer does it possess even the chance of the winner of a duel—it contains now only the germs of double suicide."

MacArthur's appearance before the cheering Congress was the high spot of the third day of return to the Philippines after 15 years. Filipino enthusiasm for their World War II liberator continued without letup.

The old soldier once more in effect criticized former President Harry Truman and other political leaders during the Korean War.

But a nominating committee by-passed him Tuesday in naming Dr. Herbst, a parish pastor.

From the floor, the Rev. Thomas D. Garner, of Nazareth, Pa., rose to nominate Dr. Wagner, declaring that the new church needs "the benefit of his continued dynamic leadership and invaluable experience."

"What is probably most important is an established and respected figure in ecumenical circles," the Rev. Mr. Garner added, noting Dr. Wagner's leading role in the National and World Councils of Churches.

Supporters of Dr. Herbst also rallied to the microphones. He is "a man of God whose strong faith will sustain and carry us forward in the future as it has in the past," said the Rev. Dr. Vere Lopez, of Berkeley, Calif.

He said Dr. Herbst, as co-chairman of an executive council chartered the church merger, had "saved our church" by reconciling disputing factions at one point when negotiations faltered.

The contest reflected, in the background, a question of whether the past leadership of either of the two churches should be continued for the united body.

Dr. Wagner and the Rev. Dr. Fred Hoskins, of New York, the Congregational Christian chief executive, had served as co-presidents of the new church in its formative years.

However, Dr. Hoskins removed himself from consideration, announcing last month he had accepted a professorship at Chicago next Jan. 1.

The nominating committee, headed by Dr. Arthur D. Gray,

Hemingway's Son Is Due For Service

KETCHUM, Idaho (AP)—The family of author Ernest Hemingway today awaited the arrival of his son Patrick from Africa before holding simple graveside services at the public cemetery here.

The family said Patrick had telegraphed he expected to arrive sometime today. On that basis the funeral was tentatively set for 10:30 a.m. Thursday.

The Rev. Robert J. Waldmann, who will officiate at the service, said Hemingway was entitled to burial rites of the Catholic Church "although he was not as good a member as some others."

Hemingway was converted to the Catholic faith after his second marriage.

"As far as I know, he did not leave or reject the church officially," Father Waldmann said. The priest said the church did not intend to pass judgment on Hemingway's membership. He said the simple rites were "due to the family's request which we are following."

The priest also said the church accepted the ruling of authorities that Hemingway died Sunday of a "self-inflicted gunshot wound in the head." Officials made no determination of whether the shooting was accidental or otherwise.

"We will not go beyond the ruling of the authorities," said Father Waldmann.

Odd Jobs Man Is Captured By FBI

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — He was on the FBI's most wanted list for a cruel murder. But to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bloom the fugitive captured in their home "was just like one of the family. Trusted like a brother."

Still shocked that the odd jobs man they took to their hearts was not the person he represented himself to be, the Blooms nevertheless promised Tuesday to aid him.

They met him when he was Bryan Brenton was, in fact, Kenneth Holbeck Sharp, 29, sought since 1952 on a charge that he shot and killed a 75-year-old service station attendant during a holdup in Chicago.

When the FBI took Sharp into custody Monday, Bloom said, he was babysitting for the three Bloom children, boys aged 2, 4 and 8. He was just like one of the family. The kids miss him already.

The FBI said Sharp, considered possibly deranged, had been in Philadelphia for five years. He worked for three years as a pin-boy in a bowling alley Bloom manages.

"Laid off when the alley was converted to automatic pinsetters," Sharp went to work in a service station Bloom operated. "I trusted him like a brother," Bloom said. "Some weekends would have $400 at the station. We never missed a thing."

The station closed six months ago and Sharp moved in with the Blooms while working at odd jobs.

"The kids loved him immediately. He would take them swim-

Soviet Radio Behind Times

LONDON (AP)—Moscow radio today broadcast four 10-month-old news items, including a report of Soviet Premier Khrushchev's arrival in Finland.

While Khrushchev slept in his Moscow bed, an early morning newscast told of his welcome to Finland by President Urho Kekkonen. The visit was last September.

The newscast included three other September news items: U.N. Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld welcoming news that Khrushchev would attend the General Assembly; the arrest of Congolese political leader Jean Bolikango; and the winning of gold medals by Soviet athletes at the Rome Olympics.

"It looks as though someone picked up an old file tape by mistake," said an official at the British Broadcasting Corporation's monitoring station. "I understand it has happened once before."

Bear Cub Makes Himself At Home

SAN PEDRO, Calif. (AP) — A friend gave John Fitch an orphaned male bear cub the other day.

Fitch, 37, who had been hunting for bear all week with nary a sight of one, was delighted. He brought the cub home in a box.

The 30-pound animal took over the garage and the backyard, stripped Fitch's apricot tree, tried to climb the fig tree but gave up because it was too slippery and harassed the family's dog and pet turtle.

When he didn't have anything else to do, the cub named Bigfoot, by the Fitches, nibbled daintily on flowers.

"That was too much for Fitch. Today the cub is nibbling bars at the San Diego zoo, and Fitch is repairing his backyard."

Wreckage Cleared From Railroad Track

FORT WORTH (AP) — Workers cleared the Fort Worth and Denver tracks near Bellevue early today of wreckage of four cars of wheat, derailed Tuesday in the middle of a 123-car train. The site is 70 miles northwest of here.

No one was hurt. The derailed car stayed upright. A severed car coupling was blamed.

Library Believes In Speed Reading

WIRRAL, England (AP) — A reader wrote the local librarian complaining that a book he borrowed had been stamped by error for return on the same day.

"Admittedly," he wrote, "the book is entitled 'How To Speed Up Your Reading' but this is ridiculous."

Israel Fires 1st Rocket Into Space

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israel fired its first successful rocket into space today, the government announced.

The rocket, a meteorological type, was fired from a secret installation on the Mediterranean shore. The government said the firing was a "complete success."

The complete government communication announced:

"At 4:41 a.m. today a successful attempt was made to send a meteorological rocket into space from the Mediterranean shore.

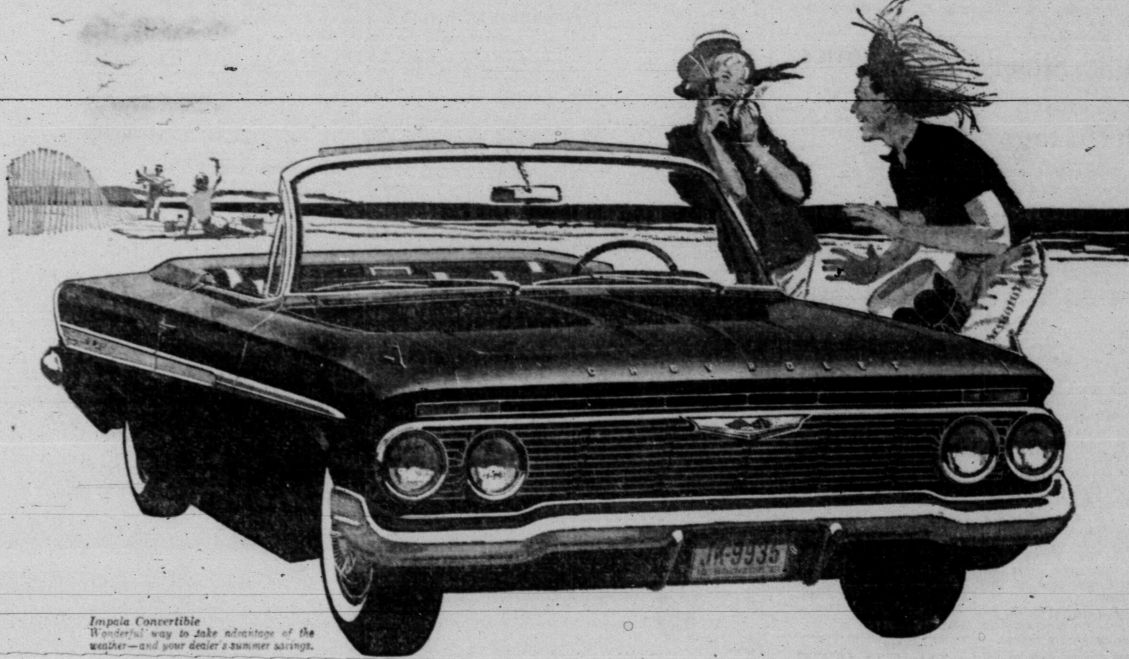

The rocket was planned, built and fired by a crew of Israeli scientists and technicians. The purposes of the experiment were achieved."

Government spokesmen said the firing was witnessed by Premier David Ben-Gurion and other officials.

Israel is the seventh country to send a meteorological rocket into space. The others are the United States, the Soviet Union, France, Britain, Italy and Japan.

None of the Arab countries are believed near a similar stage in technology. Reaction from them is sure to be critical, since they regard themselves at war with Israel.

Blasts Rock Dock Area

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Exploding gas tanks sent flames racing through a section of the city's dock area early today.

Balls of flame rose 200 feet into the sky and the fire for a time threatened the area. The blaze appeared to be dying down after more than three hours of battling by more than 200 firemen.

One man was seriously injured. Six homes burned. About 30 children plus adults were evacuated to a nearby school.

The explosions occurred at the dock of the Crown Central Petroleum Corp. where a barge with 450,000 gallons of petroleum products was unloading.

Two hours after the fire started, P. R. Kirtley, a Crown employee, walked into the fire wearing an asbestos suit and turned valves on the barge pipe lines which permitted gas to flow into the river.

The tug towing the barge burned and sank. The barge floated free momentarily.

Delinquent Boys Want Tight Jeans

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Night after night some of the boys at Kentucky Village asked their supervisor for needle and thread.

The supervisor was puzzled why so many boys had rips in the leg seams of their blue jeans. Then he learned the reason: The jeans simply were not tight enough to conform to teenage standards of proper dress.

Now the boys have lost interest in mending. Officials at the home for delinquents have ordered the jeans sewed to the girls' seams in quest of modernizing alterations.

Cancer Operation Set For Suspect

MONTREAL (AP) — Abel Vourburgh, awaiting trial on charges of murdering his wife and 11 children in a fire, will be operated on Saturday for cancer of the left lung.

The 62-year-old laborer was the only survivor of a fire Dec. 29 that leveled his small frame house in Noyan, a farming-resort community 35 miles south of Montreal. Vourburgh was arrested early in January after questioning and after an inquest was charged with murder.

Daniel's Panel To Report

By GARTH JONES
AUSTIN (AP)—Gov. Price Daniel's Texas Education and Welfare Committee will turn today to what they think are the chances for a compromise in the tax bill.

The 19-member citizen's group meets at 10 a. m. to make recommendations for the special session of the Legislature opening next Monday.

Daniel, who has been in Hawaii attending a governor's conference, will be on hand to discuss the committee's findings.

"I'll say what kind of tax bill I want the week before July 10," Daniel said when he called the special session May 30.

Today's session is the first meeting of the full committee since it was organized.

The subcommittee has not found any widespread enthusiasm for further compromise as of the date of this report.

French Robertson of Abilene, head of the subgroup, "It hopes that more evidence of a spirit of compromise will appear prior to the meeting of the full committee on July 6 and certainly before the first special session convenes."

The governor's committee will not be the only strategy session in Austin before the Legislature returns.

Speaker James Tamm said he has talked with some House leaders and will hold a Saturday morning meeting of "key chairmen and personnel."

Tamm said he considered calling a pre-session meeting of the House Revenue and Tax Committee but decided against it for fear some members might object.

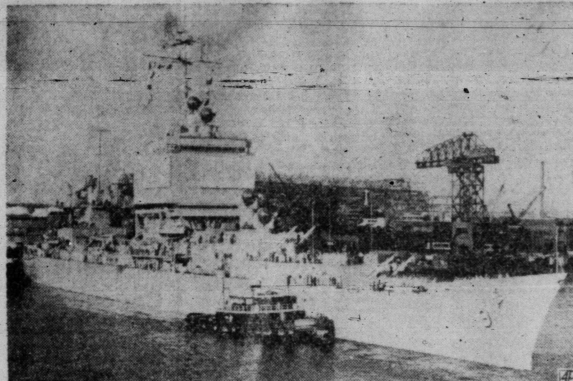

"I do hope that House members will come to Austin ready to take quick action on our tax and appropriation bills and on the Hall - Alkin school recommendations," Tamm said.

"The tax committee will be ready to start work the first day and I hope they will report out a bill in time for the House to consider it on Friday."

MacArthur Draws Crowds
By DON HUTT
MANILA (AP) — Huge crowds stood for hours in drenching monsoon rains today to catch a glimpse of General Douglas MacArthur as he traced the route his troops took to liberate Manila from the Japanese in World War II.

It was the fourth straight day that Filipinos have poured out their affection for the 61-year-old leader here on a sentimental visit for 10 days.

School children stood under banana leaves or palm roof cloaks as the rain poured down. They cheered every car that drove past.

Most Moslems Back On Jobs In Algeria

By ANDREW BOROWICZ
ALGIERS (AP) — Most of Algeria's Moslems returned to work today after a 24-hour general strike and riots during which French forces killed 50 Moslems and wounded about 300.

Some tension remained in outlying areas where emotional Moslems were burying their dead. Troops in Wednesday's trouble spots remained on the alert to put down any demonstrations that might develop during mass funeral services.

Algers was bustling with activity again. Reports said conditions were normal in other coastal cities and in most of the interior.

The French reported six of their men dead and 20 wounded after the violence. The 24-hour strike, called to protest President Charles de Gaulle's threat to partition Algeria into European and Moslem enclaves, was 90 per cent effective throughout the country.

There were mass demonstrations of support in neighboring Tunisia and Morocco. Fernat Abbas, head of the rebel exile government, told a crowd of Moroccans in Casablanca: "Algeria is one man and one indivisible."

A high French official in Algiers grimly admitted the disorders "hardly contribute" to the absence of peaceful coexistence between Algeria's nine million Moslems and one million Europeans or to association of an independent Algeria with France.

De Gaulle threatened last week to partition Algeria if no agreement on Algeria's future ties with France is reached before Wednesday's violence. French officials said peace talks between the French and the rebels, suspended since June 13, probably would resume next week.

Pro-rebel demonstrations became riots in eastern Algeria and half a dozen towns near Algiers. It was one of the most powerful displays of pro-rebel feeling among Algeria's Moslems since the rebellion broke out nearly seven years ago.

Bank Deposits Increase Here
Snyder bank deposits are up slightly, while loan figures are down by nearly a million dollars compared to totals for a corresponding period of last year.

The figures were compiled by local banks in response to a call for statements of condition as of June 30, issued by the U. S. Comptroller of Currency and the State Banking Department.

Deposits as of June 30 totaled $21,272,896.56, compared to $20,866,314.98 on the mid-year call last year.

Mines Ordered On Kuwait's Frontier

By COLIN FROST
KUWAIT (AP)—Britain's commander in Kuwait has ordered the desert frontier mined, charging Iraqi forces across the border appear to be building up at an increased pace.

Brig. Derek Horsford, defending his decision to mine the frontier, declared: "I have been ordered to come in and organize the defense of this country. If I am caught with my pants down then I would deserve the sack."

British military sources said the Iraqis, despite their continued insistence that they would get control of the oil-rich sheikdom only by peaceful means, appear poised for offensive action.

"The Iraq news agency reported that Iraqi Premier Abdel Karim Kassem, after a plane survey of areas near the Kuwait border Wednesday, denied the British reports of Iraqi troop concentrations and said the British know that 'to date Iraq has not moved a single soldier'.

"Kassem said in his statement that Iraq will combat British imperialism by all legitimate ways 'until the liberation of our Arab countries in the gulf and until Kuwait, the stolen part, is restored to its homeland, Iraq'.

"In the U. N. Security Council the United Arab Republic and the Soviet Union joined Iraq in demanding the immediate withdrawal of the British forces that went to Kuwait after an appeal from the country's ruler, Sheik Abdullah as-Salim as-Sabah. And there were hints the council might ask the Arab League to settle the crisis generated by Iraq's claim to Kuwait."

U. A. R. delegate Omar Loufi, in insisting the Arab League be left to deal with the crisis, said "my country opposes any idea of annexation of Kuwait by Iraq but we cannot oppose any program of unity among Arab brothers in the spirit of self-determination we support Kuwait's claim to independence."

Six hundred British marine commandos who set up a forward defense line in the desert five days ago were relieved by fresh troops Wednesday after about a third of them suffered from heat exhaustion. Most quickly recovered but some were flown for treatment to the aircraft carrier Bulwark hovering off Kuwait.

Brig. Horsford, after touring front-line defenses, said "he was worried about the conditions under which his men were working. 'Winds whip up cruelly hot burning sands, absolutely stinging,' he said. 'Imagine what it is like—it is not so much the heat as this burning wind all day long.'"

Meanwhile, he said, Britain's defense buildup is "proceeding according to plan." He said there still is anxiety "concerning Iraq's threat to the independence" of the sheikdom, which supplies 40 per cent of Britain's oil.

Pentagon Apparent Winner In Civil Defense Squabble

By STERLING F. GREEN
WASHINGTON (AP) — Official sources said today the Pentagon apparently has won major responsibility for the nation's civil defense program over the protests of the Office of Civil Defense Mobilization.

A White House meeting, which had all the earmarks of a showdown, was scheduled this morning with Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and OCDM Director Frank B. Ellis in attendance.

However, White House press aide Andrew Hatcher said he did not expect President Kennedy to make any announcement after the meeting in his office.

The scheduled participants, besides McNamara, Ellis and the President, were Budget Director David E. Bell, Theodore C. Sorensen, special presidential counsel, and McGeorge Bundy, Kennedy's assistant for national security affairs.

A decision in the OCDM-Pentagon tussle was due shortly, because Kennedy must soon send his revised civil defense budget to Congress. He has disclosed it will call for an approximate tripling of the $105 million previously asked.

The supplemental appropriation involves spending in fiscal 1962, which began six days ago. The proposed budget of roughly $300 million would permit the launching of a nationwide fallout shelter program advocated by Ellis with the Pentagon running the main show.

Kennedy's message to Congress on urgent national needs outlined the essentials of the program, assigned chief responsibility to the Defense Department and announced that OCDM would become the "Office for Emergency Planning" in his executive office.

Ellis has insisted, however, that final responsibility for civil defense operations and policy, as well as the coordination of the work of federal, state and local civil defense operations, should remain a civilian function under his agency. In other words, he wants the Pentagon to have responsibility for the intensified shelter drive, but operate under his directives.

Organizations of governors and mayors have supported this view, but McNamara has taken the position that he should have sole authority to do the job assigned or he doesn't want the job.

Administration officials said privately Wednesday night there was "every indication" that the basic questions in dispute have been resolved. The outcome, they reported, is that McNamara will get most of the power he wants and that the Pentagon already has begun setting up the skeletal organization which would wield the new authority.

Details were not immediately obtainable. Officials said the specific terms probably would not become known until Kennedy sends to Congress a letter of special message on his request for the new authority.

Doubt 2nd Youth Linked To Slaying

CISCO (AP) — Officers discounted any possibility today that anybody other than a high school sophomore could have murdered a 33-year-old church secretary.

But the mayor of the town and the relatives of Nathan Curry, 15 and crew-cut, had other ideas. The motive remained a mystery.

"We're satisfied at the present time we have the right person," said Dist. Atty. Earl Connor, "but we will continue to check all possibilities."

Curry, described at Cisco High School as the "quietest boy in town," gave officers a signed statement Tuesday night in which he said he admitted the slaying of Mrs. Florence Hussey.

The body of Mrs. Hussey, secretary of the town's First Baptist Church, was found by the pastor, Rev. Jesse Cassie, last Thursday when he went to her next door home to see why she had not come to work. She had been beaten about the head and stabbed 14 times.

Surrounding the body were bloody fingerprints, sand and artificial flowers, the latter from a metal planter.

Curry led police to the missing planter, a hefty brass object, Tuesday.

Police of the county, city and from Fort Worth said they believed that about-wrapped Curry is the truth.

Rescue Of Caroline Revealed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Caroline Kennedy, 5, daughter of the President, got into water over her head in a friend's swimming pool a week ago and was rescued by a young matron who jumped into the pool fully clothed.

Caroline suffered no ill-effects. Nor did her rescuer, Mrs. William Sallonstall, who is expecting a child in the early fall. Mrs. Sallonstall is the daughter-in-law of Sen. Leverett Sallonstall, R-Mass.

The White House confirmed the incident today after the Evening Star published a story about it written by society columnist Betty Beale.

The episode was at the suburban Maryland home of Mr. and Mrs. Newton I. Steers Jr. Attended by a nurse, Caroline had gone there for a birthday-swim party for Ivan Steers, 3. Mrs. Kennedy was not along.

White House press secretary Pierre Salinger said that Caroline was splashing around in the pool when she slipped out of a rubber ring and slipped out of it.

"Mrs. Sallonstall jumped in and pulled her out," he said. "It was not a serious matter. People were not around watching. She was out of the pool in seconds."

Apparently, Salinger said, Caroline wasn't even under long enough to swallow any water, and in any event, showed no ill-effects.

Mrs. Sallonstall, when called by an Associated Press reporter, said, "I was the one who jumped in." She declined to discuss the matter further.

The Star story related: "Three-year-old Caroline, along with a group of her friends, was attending the third birthday party of Ivan Steers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Newton I. Steers Jr. Mrs. Steers is the former Nina Auchincloss, daughter of Hugh D. Auchincloss who is Mrs. John F. Kennedy's stepfather."

"The party was held on the spacious grounds of the Steers residence at 6601 River Road, Bethesda, Md."

"Six or seven mothers and their small children were present at the gathering, that also included two or three nurses' and their charges."

"The President's daughter had been accompanied to the party by a Secret Service man who was on duty at the entrance to the grounds and by a relief nurse who takes Caroline out when her regular nurse, Miss Maud Shaw, is looking after her infant brother, John Jr."

"Mrs. Sallonstall had only time to prepare her children for the pool when she suddenly heard one of the mothers say, 'Is she all right?'"

"She looked over towards the pool and saw Caroline in the middle of the pool alone, holding onto a board raft. But even as she looked the raft flipped away from Caroline's hand and she started to go down. The water was four feet deep there, over her head."

"Without any thought of her own condition, Mrs. Sallonstall, whose third child is expected in two and a half months, ran to the pool and jumped in before the other parents and nurses had fully taken in the situation."

"Unknown to the other adults, Caroline's nurse had gone into the house to change into her bathing suit."

"By the time Mrs. Sallonstall got to Caroline the little girl had gone under. However, when she pulled her up the youngster, seemingly unaware of what had happened. Her only reaction was one of surprise. She did express some wonderment that Mrs. Sallonstall should be in the pool with her clothes on."

Highway Accident Claims 6th Victim

GONZALES, Tex. (AP) — The sixth victim of a highway accident 9 1/2 miles south of here died today. He was David Camarillo, 29.

The other five were fatally injured Wednesday in the crash of a heavy truck and a panel truck that was parked along fog-shrouded Highway 183.

Two others, Silo Gonzales and Rudy Martinez, were injured. Those killed instantly were Marcos Sifuentes, 37, and Julian Aguierra, 16. Dying later in a Gonzales hospital were Gilbert Hernandez, Joe Navarro, and Valente Cerillo.

Hoffa Bolsters Control Of Union

By NORMAN WALKER
 MIAAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—A dues increase and broad new powers today helped James R. Hoffa consolidate control over the Teamsters Union.

Hoffa dealt his monthly appeal a series of smashing set-backs attempting to block his way to a "renewed" union as union president.

Hoffa, sponsored his "Suggestion" through an election convention approval of a nearly $12 million dues increase at a grueling all-day and night session of a special Teamsters convention.

Hoffa, granted through the convention an 80-cent raise in his own salary from $30,000 to $30,800 a year. It made him the highest paid union official in the land.

But he said he deserved it because he presided over the biggest U.S. labor organization.

The dues increase over delegate protests would boost Hoffa's headquarters revenue to about $10 million a year. It would raise member dues requirements by 41 per cent per month.

Stanton J. Lask, general counsel of the Newark, N.J. Local 474, and Hoffa's only opponent for reelection, lost a series of convention floor battles to limit a program.

Lask and others argued that the dues hike and other Hoffa proposals would limit local union autonomy and right to serve in union office and at convention delegates.

The convention showed through new provisions to limit rank and file members to hold union office and to attend future conventions.

These new rules, adopted by the convention, require that candidates for national union office serve at least ten years in local office and that local officials must be approved by the rank and file.

Brotherhood Roundup Set By Baptists

Upwards of 1,000 Baptist laymen and boys are expected Friday evening at the "Brotherhood Roundup" grounds north of Stanton for the annual Brotherhood Roundup.

This year's district rally is being timed with the celebration of the Royal Annapolis camp for boys. There will be business sessions starting at 4:30 p.m. followed by a church wagon dinner at 5:30 p.m. and a final worship at 7:15 p.m.

John E. Haggal, Louisville, Ky., is chairman of the subcommittee.

Haggal said his office has been inundated with hundreds of packages, labels, and actual products submitted by consumers protesting against misrepresentation of the product involved.

He said at least one trade association, the Produce Packaging Association Inc., of Newark, Del., already has informed him that as a result of the hearings the association has formed a trade practice committee.

The association said the committee will establish a code of packaging practice standards for industry adoption in cooperation with other trade associations.

The three-day hearing last week also resulted in at least one labeling suggestion, which the subcommittee had not expected to go into, Hart said.

Stanley Marcus, of the Texas Neiman-Marcus firm, urged in a letter to Hart that makers of food products be required to list the calorie content on the label.

1st Fallout, Blast Shelter Installed

The dangers of the Hydrogen Age have been put clearly in focus with the installation by a Snyder couple of the area's first blast and fallout shelter. Mr. and Mrs. James B. Sullenger of 303 Thirtieth street, have announced that the shelter has now been completed.

The shelter is the Dynamics Industrial Survival Unit manufactured in Abilene. The unit, designed to withstand the tremendous pressures released in an atomic explosion, is built of fiberglass and steel-reinforced concrete. The unit has been engineered to meet all civil defense standards for a maximum security shelter.

Mr. and Mrs. Sullenger are quick to point out that the shelter was designed not only for fallout protection but also as absolute blast zone protection. It may also be used as a storm shelter.

The two primary materials, fiberglass and concrete used in the construction of the Survival Unit were selected because, according to Dynamics engineers, fiberglass affords strength equal to armor-plate steel to reinforce the concrete in the event that an earth shock cracks or damages the concrete, the engineers reported.

The entrance tunnel is also constructed of fiberglass to resist rust and corrosion indefinitely. The blast hatch entrance is locked both from the outside and from the inside. The tunnel has a ladder molded into it. By civil defense requirements and criteria all shelters must have a right angle in the entrance way. This is to prevent the entry of radiation which only travels in a straight line.

Since it is possible to have debris cover the entrance of any shelter in time of a nuclear burst, it is essential to have an emergency exit. The Dynamics Survival Unit is provided with an escape hatch for such an emergency.

The unit provides a three-filter activated charcoal air purification system with a positive-type air pump for pure air ventilation. Polyethylene is wrapped completely around the shelter for water-tightness. Every unit includes disposable sanitation facilities.

The design of the Survival Unit has given it the ability, tested by independent engineers, to resist pressures of 300 pounds per square inch. The average house will collapse under 3 to 4 pounds per square inch pressure.

Sir Anthony's Son May Win Princess

LONDON (AP)—Sir Anthony Eden, former prime minister, has a son who is the favorite to win the hand of Britain's most eligible bachelor girl, Princess Alexandra.

Young Eden's chances took a rise in Mayfair's eyes with the announcement Wednesday that his father, the former prime minister, had been made an earl.

That automatically raised Nicholas, Eden's only surviving son, to the peerage as a viscount and the heir to his father's earldom.

Socialites figured that the royal family, having seen Princess Margaret and Alexandra's brother, the Duke of Kent, marry commoners, would be pleased to see the queen's 14th, attractive first-born choose a husband from the peerage.

Nicholas, 30, and looking a lot like his handsome father, has long been a part-time escort of the 24-year-old princess. Recently they have been seeing much more of each other.

More Than 500 Killed Over Holiday

CHICAGO (AP)—Traffic accidents killed more than 500 persons during the extended Fourth of July weekend, the highest total for any summer holiday period.

The final count also showed that the more than 900 persons killed in all types of accidents during a four-day observance of Independence Day in 1961.

Traffic deaths totaled 500 compared to the previous high of 491 set during a four-day observance of Independence Day in 1961. The toll exceeded the National Safety Council's preliminary estimate by 50.

In accidents of all kinds, including traffic, boating, drownings, and the miscellaneous category, 924 persons lost their lives. That figure compared with 884 recorded during a four-day observance of Christmas in 1960, in addition to traffic fatalities during the four-day weekend. 43 died in boating accidents, 204 persons were drowned, and 148 others lost their lives in a variety of mishaps.

US Soldiers Recommended For Medal

ASCHAFFENBURG, Germany (AP)—U.S. Army officials said today two soldiers who saved the life of a German boy and then disappeared have been recommended for the Soldier's Medal, the highest military peacetime medal.

The two, Elmer Dean Smith of Omaha, Wash. and Michael Wickwire of Spokane, Wash., were wandering around downtown Aschaffenburg, June 19 when they spotted Michael Stronger, 5, hanging by his hands from a fourth-floor window of his home, about 100 feet above the ground.

They braced themselves under the window, locked arms and seconds later caught Michael as he plunged screaming toward the street.

Wickwire's mother and German police located the lad's rescuers, they had disappeared.

But their buddies back in camp heard radio broadcasts about the incident and after days of persuasion, finally talked them into identifying themselves.

Haggal said his office has been inundated with hundreds of packages, labels, and actual products submitted by consumers protesting against misrepresentation of the product involved.

He said at least one trade association, the Produce Packaging Association Inc., of Newark, Del., already has informed him that as a result of the hearings the association has formed a trade practice committee.

The association said the committee will establish a code of packaging practice standards for industry adoption in cooperation with other trade associations.

The three-day hearing last week also resulted in at least one labeling suggestion, which the subcommittee had not expected to go into, Hart said.

Stanley Marcus, of the Texas Neiman-Marcus firm, urged in a letter to Hart that makers of food products be required to list the calorie content on the label.

Ousted Pair Under Arrest

By ALAN CLINE
 SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—South Korea's two ousted premiers, John Y. Chang and Li Guo, Chang De-yong, have been arrested with several former government and military officials, competent sources said today.

The ruling military junta released comment on the reports.

Chang, the ousted premier ousted in the May 16 military coup, was reported by informants to have been taken from his home Wednesday to Mapo Prison. He had been under house arrest since the coup. Six of Chang's Democratic party ministers also were said to have been taken from their homes, where they had been under detention, to the same prison.

Other reports said Brig. Gen. Song Chan-so, Col. Park Chuh-ki, Lt. Col. Kim Jeon-min, three junta members forced to resign Monday, also were jailed.

But, Baby, It's Cold Outside!!

Northern Michigan is cold again, even in what has come to be known as the "good" summer months.

That's the report which has filtered in from Nantiquet, located on the lake front.

From "Mist" through the "fog" of the Snyder School system.

Holt has been at his midsummer post since the middle of June, and will remain there until approximately the middle of August. He is working at Northern's Shady Trails "Sports Improvement Camp," which is an extension unit of the University of Michigan graduate school. His work there will gain him credit toward his Master's Degree on which he is currently working.

He reports that it is not uncommon for the temperature to dip down to 50 degrees at night, and that life here are as normally "pleasant."

Former Snyderite Receives Valley Forge Teacher Medal

Miss Vernelle Stimson of Dallas was one of two persons recently awarded the Valley Forge Teacher's medal, by the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge, Penn.

Only 244 of these medals were given this year in the United States.

Miss Stimson is a former resident of Snyder and a sister of Mrs. H. P. Brown and Mrs. Annie Rodgers, well known Scurry County pioneers.

Miss Stimson, who lives at 3330 Granada, Dallas, teaches music in intermediate grades at the John S. Armstrong School, where she has served since 1941. Mr. Ralph E. Binnion the other recipient, has taught social studies and worked as head basketball coach at Highland Park High School, Dallas, since 1935.

The award is announced as "A new award to classroom teachers for exceptional service in the cause of responsible citizenship, patriotism, and a better understanding of the American Way of Life."

Specifically, Miss Stimson's award was given for planning and presenting original patriotic programs for community, parent and student audiences; as evidenced by her playlet "Lady of Liberty" and such outstanding programs as

"The Stars Reflect Our Freedom" which she presented for community parent and student audiences.

The award was given in recognition of her work with student councils to promote good citizenship; for her leadership in preparing college students to become dedicated, responsible teachers and for teaching patriotism through music.

Dads Can Be Firm

By VIVIAN BROWN
At Newsfeatures writer

Summer seems the time Dads take the most active hand in controlling daughters' dates and finances; if recent letters are an indication.

"Dad has given me $1,000 to put in the bank toward my college expenses," writes one 18-year-old girl. "My college tuition is paid, so I asked him if I couldn't use the money to buy a little car for beach use this summer. I assured him that I would sell the car in the fall and put the money back in the bank. He wouldn't go for the idea, and says the money is for incidentals, books and clothes. Don't you think my idea has some merit?"

"Your father gave you the money for a specific purpose. He expects you to abide by his wishes. It's possible that he would lend you money for a car or back you for a loan, with your assurances to pay the loan. You must make a wise car purchase to avoid a loss, even on a quick turnover.

Another letter tags dad as a severe disciplinarian.

"What do you think of coffee houses?" One opened up here recently and all the kids are fascinated," writes a 17-year-old. "My father hasn't even seen it, but he has forbidden me to enter the place. I was there once in the afternoon and everything was pleasant with people listening to music and reading poetry. Is there any way to convince my father that he is just being old-fashioned?"

Maybe you could suggest that he accompany you to the place one afternoon, and explain to you why he objects to it. It could clear up his doubts or perhaps he will convince you that he is right. There could be any number of reasons for his disapproval. Perhaps he doesn't consider you mature enough to cope with the people who frequent it.

Dad isn't such an ogre to this daughter.

"What do you think of a boy who keeps pestering me to ask my father to lend him his car?" writes a 16-year-old. "I have done it quite a few times, and my father has been very good about it. Several times the boy has dropped me at home, saying that he would put gas in the car before returning it to the garage. He does not bring it back to the garage for several hours. Do you think that I should continue to ask for the car?"

I would not continue to ask for the car, but you should have questioned the boy about his peculiar actions. Your father must expect you to be with the car or he would not be so generous with it.

This father has objections to his daughter's swim suit.

Millers' Host Church Social

The fellowship union of the Green Hill Baptist Church met recently in the outdoor living room of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Miller, 111 Birch Street, for their quarterly social.

The theme "Liberty and Justice for all" was carried out.

Following an hour of fun and frolic the group enjoyed homemade ice cream and cake.

Present were: Mr. and Mrs. Jack Green, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Prather, Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Merritt, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Bob Norris and children, Mrs. Edna Caldwell, Mrs. W. H. Hamilton, one visitor Mr. Owen Miller and the hosts.

Phyl's Veal

1 pound boneless veal (at least 1 inch thick)
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 clove garlic (crushed)
1/2 cup diced celery
1 beef bouillon cube dissolved in 1 cup boiling water
1 teaspoon paprika
1/2 cup sour cream
Salt and pepper

Have veal cut in 8 or 9 chunks in a heavy saucpan, brown veal on all sides in butter. Stir in garlic, celery and bouillon. Simmer, covered, about 1 hour or until tender. There should be enough liquid and drippings in pan to make about 1/2 cup; if not, add a little water; if more, reduce by cooking rapidly. Off heat, stir in the paprika and sour cream. Add salt if necessary and pepper to taste. Reheat but do not boil. Makes 2 to 3 servings.

QUICK BAKE POTATO BOATS

A Quick Tasty Meal For Mother In Hot Weather

The art of cooking these days is really more fun than in grandma's day because so much of the preparation drudgery has been done for us in the form of ready-to-mix foods. Just the cooking and the touch-up jobs are left for us to do.

That's all that is needed, and you can have twice-baked potatoes on the table in a jiffy when you serve new Quick Bake Potato Boats. By a whip of the beater, you can have fluffy potatoes in minutes and then all you need to do is pile them into four aluminum shells (that come with each package) and pop into the oven.

For the sour cream fancier there's a package with a sour cream sauce to spoon on after baking or broiling; for the cheese lover there's another containing a creamy cheese sauce that goes on before baking.

Here's a menu that's sure to please; it's a quick-way dinner for long-lasting satisfaction.

Don't Save These Kind Leftovers

When families set out to enjoy an out-of-doors July holiday weekend, the only leftovers from the outing are often the stains of food and beverages on the picnickers' clothes.

Here's a list of stains that could mar the family's picnic clothes and their methods of removal. For treating these, purchase the following items when you do the picnic grocery shopping, if you do not already have them: glycerine, trichloroethane solvent, rubbing alcohol and white vinegar. You might also keep a lemon handy, as you may need it for fruit juice stains.

STAINS AND THEIR REMOVAL
Barbecue or spaghetti sauce, catsup, meat juice. Scrape off excess. Soak in cold water 30 minutes. Pretreat with detergent to loosen or soften stain particles. Then simply run the garment through your automatic washer along with the rest of the laundry load with which it is normally washed, adding the regular amounts of detergent and bleach safe for fabric. Your washer will do the rest.

NOTE: A detergent, either liquid or powder form, is recommended for pretreating.

Mustard. Work glycerine into the stain—rub lightly between hands. Rub detergent in and launder in the automatic. If the stain should persist, sponge with rubbing alcohol.

Coffee and tea. If safe for fabric, stretch garment over basin and pour boiling water over stain. Then run through the automatic with the rest of the laundry, using the regular amounts of detergent and bleach safe for fabric. If boiling water cannot be used, soak in warm water to which a bleach safe for fabric has been added. Launder. Grease spots from cream can be removed with trichloroethane.

Fruit Juices: If safe on fabric, pour hot water on stain while stretching cloth over bowl. If stain remains, sponge with lemon juice solution. Where hot water cannot

Strawberry Plus Pie

1 1/2 cups sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca
1 pint strawberries (hulled after washing)
2 cups rhubarb (1/2-inch slices)
Pastry for 2-crust 9-inch pie
1 tablespoon butter
Mix together the sugar, salt and tapioca; mix in the strawberries and rhubarb. Line pie plate with half the pastry leaving enough hangover for turning under. Fill pie shell with fruit mixture; dot with butter. Roll out remaining pastry and cut into strips for lattice crust; arrange over pie plate. Turn edges under and flute. Bake in hot (325 degrees) oven 45 minutes or until syrup boils with heavy bubbles that do not burst.

Cherry Mold

2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
1/2 cup cold water
3 cups sweet dark cherries (pitted)
1/2 cup sugar
1 1/2 cups water
1/3 cup lemon juice

Soften gelatin in 1/2 cup cold water. Cook pitted cherries, sugar and 1/2 cup water together gently until cherries are soft but retain their shape—about 10 minutes. Drain juice; measure; add water if necessary to make 1 1/2 cups. Add softened gelatin and lemon juice to hot cherry juice; stir until dissolved. Chill until partly set; fold in cherries. Turn into 1-quart mold. Chill until firm. Turn out; garnish with water-cress and whole fresh cherries. Makes 6 servings.

Sherman Adams Views Boss

FIRST HAND REPORT. By Sherman Adams.

Memoirs usually are overburdened with the perpendicular pronoun, with a certain amount of justification. But Adams has gone beyond the memoir pattern to tell the story of Eisenhower, his cabinet and his administration. So in this book the spotlight seldom is on the author.

The picture of the former president that emerges from these pages corresponds closely with the image that had been created long before this book was written. But in some respects Adams' account of Eisenhower's acts, decisions and ideas serves to deepen the lines in the known image.

Adams was subject for years to allegations that his title "Assistant to the President" would be more accurate if it were written "Assistant President." He acknowledges this, and gives the other side. He says Eisenhower made his own decisions. But he relates instances—sometimes apparently without realizing their import—in which he handled a situation or short-circuited a government official on his own, while Eisenhower was on the putting green.

This circumstance revealed, as Adams plainly says from the fact that the president delegated so much authority and depended so much on the staff system. Adams' narrative drives home clearly two allied characteristics of his former boss—like's frequent reliance on "group decisions" at the cabinet level; and his tendency to keep hands off a problem in the hope that it would go away or settle itself. To cite two examples, Adams' own account shows that Eisenhower waited a very long time in the fight between Sen. Joseph McCarthy and the Army, and in the Little Rock explosion.

It has been said before that, in the cabinet, John Foster Dulles and George M. Humphrey were the major influences, and this book underlines strongly the roles both played in decisions which often had little bearing on the State and Treasury Departments.

Adams also supplies plenty of evidence that Eisenhower rarely succeeded in working with the professional politicians, and was frustrated by them in many of his most cherished objectives.

The author dryly recounts some of his bloopers, but on occasion he skirts rather quickly over some of the things that got him into the most hot water. For example, certain political speeches that infuriated the Democrats. And one curious thing about this book is that it barely mentions James Hagerty, one

Chicken-Asparagus Cheese Sauce

16 asparagus stalks
2 large servings cooked sliced chicken
2 tablespoons each butter and flour
1/2 cup chicken stock
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup grated cheddar cheese
1/4 teaspoon sugar
Salt and pepper
1 tablespoon grated Parmesan cheese

Paprika
Pare asparagus stalks up in buds and cook whole just until tender and still green in a small amount of salted boiling water in a skillet; drain. Divide asparagus between 2 shirred egg dishes or other wide shallow individual baking dishes, cutting off any portion of the asparagus stalks that protrude. In a 1-quart saucepan over low heat melt butter; stir in flour; add stock and milk; cook and stir constantly until thickened. Off heat, stir in cheese until melted, the sugar and salt and pepper to taste. Spread sauce over chicken; sprinkle with Parmesan and paprika. broil until hot-through and topping is browned. Makes 2 servings.

Detroit Splits; Lead Sliced To Half Game

By ED WILKS Associated Press Sports Writer If there's a weak link in Detroit's chain of thought about winning the American League pennant it's the lack of depth among starting pitchers. And because of it, the Tigers' lead is down to only half a game over the New York Yankees.

The big 3 1/2 of the staff—Frank Lary (12-4), Don Mossi (9-7) Jim Bunning (8-6) and Phil Regan (7-4)—have accounted for 36 of Detroit's 51 victories, the bullpen has collected 12.

Bunning won his third in a row as Detroit was the opener of a day-night doubleheader at Boston 6-2 Wednesday, but the Tigers then lost the nightcap 3-3 as manager Bob Scheffing turned to sometimes starter Bob Bruce when confronted with his second straight loss in two days.

The split, coupled with the Yankees' 6-0 victory over third place Cleveland behind the four-hit tossing of rookie Roland Sheldon, also put the Tigers on the New York in the "lost" column.

Baltimore closed within a half game of Cleveland by beating Washington 2-0 on the four-hit pitching of Dick Hall, the Los Angeles Angels beat Minnesota 6-2 and Kansas City spilled the Chicago White Sox 6-3 in a game called after six innings because of rain.

In the National League, Cincinnati regained a three-game lead by winning 3-2 at San Francisco while St. Louis clubbed the second place Los Angeles Dodgers 9-1. Milwaukee swept a two-night pair from Philadelphia 5-4 in 12 innings, and 4-0 Pittsburgh-Chicago was rained out.

Right-handed Bill Monbouquette (8-6) and reliever Mike Forneles checked the Tigers on five hits in the nightcap. Dick McAuliffe and Rocky Colavito, who drove in five runs in the opener, honored for Detroit before Forneles nailed it with 3 1/2 innings of perfect relief.

The Red Sox collected 12 hits, including homers by Jim Pagnaroni and Gary Geiger. Bunning gave up seven hits and struck out six while beating Billy Muffet (8-6).

Sheldon (5-2) won his fifth in a row for the Yankees with his first major league shutout. He started at his own request in self anger after giving up a steal of home while working one inning of relief against Detroit Tuesday. Yogi Berra's two-out single gave Sheldon the edge with a first-inning run off loser Gary Bell (5-2).

Roger Maris closed the scoring with a solo seventh-inning home run, his 32nd and stayed 17 games ahead of Babe Ruth's record of 60 pace of 1927.

Hall (5-3) a right-hander, shut out the Senators for the second time as the Orioles put away their 12th victory in 15 games. Marv Breeding scored both Baltimore runs against Bennie Daniels (4-5).

The A's tagged Chicago with a fifth straight loss, dropping the Sox back to sixth place, on four-run bursts in the first and second innings. Juan Pizarro (+2) lost his second in a row, while ex-White Sox right-hander Bob Shaw was the winner.

Steve Biko drove in the Angels' first three runs with a pair of doubles. Ken Hunt also drove in three runs, with a ninth-inning homer. Jim Donohue (3-2) was the winner in relief. Jim Kaat (3-8) lost it.

'BAD BOY' MAKES GOOD McKinley Enters Wimbledon Finals

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—Chuck McKinley, the bad boy of American tennis, was on top of the world today. The fiery 20-year-old star from St. Louis, released from suspension only six weeks ago, slammed his way into the Wimbledon men's final Wednesday and was hailed as the most colorful personality in this year's tournament.

He delighted the crowds with his energy, retrieving and speed. McKinley, the first native American finalist since 1965, will meet Rod Laver of Australia for the cup Friday. Today's women take the stage with Sandra Reynolds of South Africa playing Britain's Angela Mortimer and Renee Schuurman of South Africa meeting England's Christine Truman in the semifinals.

"I can't tell you how much this success means to me," McKinley said after he had blasted Britain's Mike Sangster 6-4, 6-4, 6-6 to gain Friday's final against Australian Rod Laver. Laver beat Ramnathan Krishnan of India, 6-2, 8-6, 6-2.

"That suspension upset me a lot. I meant missing the U.S. indoor championships, and I had set my heart on winning that. When I was banned from playing, it upset my confidence and set back my game.

"Now it's come back again and all that trouble seems over and forgotten." The U.S. Lawn Tennis Association suspended McKinley because he threw his racket during a Davis Cup match last winter.

"I wouldn't be honest if I pretended I really understood why I was suspended," McKinley said. "I threw my racket—right. But it wasn't because I was annoyed with the crowd or with anyone else. I was just angry with myself."

McKinley had three days of practice with Earl (Butch) Buchholz, the lanky pro star also from St. Louis, before coming to Britain. "I was grateful to Butch for that practice," McKinley said. "It did my game a lot of good after the lay-off."

"I was at the peak of my form when I got back from Australia. I know I'm back to that peak now." McKinley watched the first set of Laver's massacre of Krishnan and said he wasn't worried. "Laver's playing well, but then I'm playing well too," he said. "I'm looking forward to the match and I think the chances are pretty even."

Tulsa Finds Mexican Air Invigorating

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS The Tulsa Oilers are finding Mexico City a fine place to get acquainted with the Mexican League.

Playing north of the Rio Grande the Oilers worked up to second place but they just couldn't gain ground on the loop—leading Amarillo Gold Sox.

Since the six-team Texas League has been in Mexico for the Pan American Association games with the Mexican League clubs—Tulsa has won two hits and the Gold Sox have lost two to cut Amarillo's lead to only 2 1/2 games.

The Texans had a better night Wednesday, taking four of the six games with the Mexican Clubs. The losses were chalked against Amarillo, which bowed 10-1 to the Monterrey Sultans, and Victoria which dropped a close 1-0 game to Veracruz.

Tulsa downed the Mexico City Reds 5-2. Austin won 4-2 over the Mexico City Tigers, and San Antonio needed 12 innings for its 4-2 win over Poza Rica.

The stars of the evening were the Texas League's cellar club, the Ardmore Rosebuds. Trailing 2-3 at the end of the eighth, the Oklahomaans tied up the game in the ninth and then exploded for seven runs in the tenth for a 10-3 victory over Puebla.

The teams moved around in Mexico Thursday night. The Mexico City Reds will be host to Victoria while the Mexico City Tigers will entertain Amarillo. Austin at Vera Cruz, Ardmore at Poza Rica and Tulsa at Puebla.

BENJAMIN CITY HAUL—Fourth of July fishing in the Benjamin City Lake proved to be a productive venture for (from left) Tommy Arnold, Curt Prince, and Ronald Bratton. They caught this string of catfish ranging from 1 1/2-4 pounds each on a trotline. Arnold and Bratton are both of Snyder, while Prince is a Bowie product.

Pedro Ramos of the Minnesota Twins has won opening day pitching assignments in the American League the last three years.

Vikings To Initiate Pro Grid Practice

NEW YORK (AP)—Professional football; now a six-month operation, resumes Friday when the first National Football League team, the new Minnesota Vikings, reports to its training base at Bemidji (Minn.) State College.

Commissioner Pete Rozelle gave the Vikings permission to get an early start on the job of sorting out the players from other clubs although the league rules specify a July 15 start.

The Dallas Cowboys also were given an earlier starting date because they have an early August exhibition game with the Vikings. The Cowboys will work out at St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minn. Rozelle also granted the Philadelphia Eagles an earlier date because, as the defending champions, they must play the College All-Stars Aug. 4 in Chicago. The Eagles will open practice July 11 at Hershey, Pa.

Green Bay and St. Louis will start July 16, Baltimore, Chicago, Los Angeles, New York and Pittsburgh on July 17, Washington July 18, Cleveland July 23, Detroit July 25, and San Francisco July 26.

Glass Lined Offices Reveal When The Blinds Are Up

BY INEZ ROBB

No one argues about the inadvisability of chucking stones on the part of those who live in glass houses. Stones may not be prison make but they do afford a large means of exit if aimed at a plate glass.

It seems to me that in my collegiate youth there was a popular song advising Marjane to keep the shades down. But, for the life of me, I can't remember the rest of the musical admonition. Anyway, windows were windows in those days, and had not spread into picture expanses with open living openly arrived at.

However, this is all by the way. In the mid-20th Century glass has become the most popular building block of all, both for home and factory office and apartment. Park Third and other avenues in New York are rapidly becoming canyons not of brick and steel, as once pictured, but of glacial and translucent precipices.

The fashionable office building of the moment, such as that of Lever Bros. and Seagram, only contain enough steel framework to anchor the glass walls. Window washers are in shorter supply than that old-fashioned category, the general houseworker, who is one with the do.

But until a day or so ago, I never contemplated or dreamed of the moral aspect—the power for positive good—that lurked in all that glass. Then I heard the story of the Park Avenue dweller who lives in an old apartment building surrounded by glass office buildings.

It is impossible for her to look out of her windows without gazing squarely into a number of offices as open to her as if they had no walls at all. And she began to take a vicarious interest in the office workers to right, to left, in front and in back of her apartment.

The dowager was particularly interested in the comings and goings in the office nearest her. A plush enclosure so close she not only felt she could reach out and touch it but knew all the personnel.

The boss's office was especially lush, furnished rather like an executive drawing room plus, of course, a refrigerator. She noted that his secretary was an especially pretty young girl who reminded her of her own granddaughter who was a student at Radcliffe.

The old lady began to take a great interest in her granddaughter's double. So the day the boss put his hand on the girl's knee, the young lady's obvious annoyance, the dowager had to take a tranquilizer.

From that day, with the Venetian blinds up and visibility unlimited, things went from bad to worse. The boss became more persistent in his unwanted attentions with the young girl doing her best to be an artful dodger.

By this time the dowager was burning with righteous indignation from her box seat opening on so much iniquity. Then came the fatal day when the boss arrived with a box, which he united in the presence of the pretty secretary. It contained a white mink stole which he offered the girl and which she vigorously refused.

Next—and this the dowager believed only happened in comic strips and slapstick movies—ensued a chase around the boss's desk. Only youth saved the girl, who managed to keep ahead of and out of the grasp of the boss until she could make it to the door and safety.

The long and short of it is that the scene made the old lady so mad that she went to her bank rummaged through her securities and discovered she owned a large chunk of the company for which the boss worked. Well, he has been transferred. And the pretty girl works in tranquility for his successor.

The moral of course, is that men in glass offices shouldn't chase secretaries—with the blinds up.

Here's How To Detect Man Hunter

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—"Dear Pavement Plato: Recently you wrote on how to tell if a girl is losing interest in you.

I think I have just the opposite problem. My girl is showing so much interest in me I am afraid she wants me to marry her. How can I be sure?"

Doubtful!

Nothing could be simpler, my boy. She is probably a latent scout for matrimony—and has picked you as her number one target.

Her father keeps offering you his car so you can take her riding. She always carries a needle and thread in her purse—just in case you should need a button sewn on. She would rather drink beer at a ball game with you than go dancing at a night club with Cary Grant.

She starts making remarks such as, "Some girls like real expensive engagement rings, but I think that's a waste of money, don't you?"

When you tell a funny story at a party, she chuckles even before you reach the punch line.

She begins to take a kindly interest in your money. For example: "You're too generous for your own good, dear. You didn't have to tip the waiter that much."

Instead of asking for the latest romantic novel at the lending library, she checks out the latest cook book.

She proudly shows you a new burn on her finger and says, "I got it in the kitchen last night trying out a new recipe." (Where does she think you thought she got it anyway—sliding down a rope ladder from the Brooklyn Bridge?)

Your hair is falling out, but instead of kidding you, she says, "I just love your high forehead. It's a sign of intellect."

You're a bit on the plump side, but instead of advising you to go on a diet or visit a gym, she sighs, "My, you're so much fun to snuggle with. I hate skinny men."

When you admire her new frock, she shrugs and says modestly, "It's just a little thing I made myself."

She can't stand the cigars other men smoke, but yours are different somehow—they smell so manly.

Instead of a $1.39 necktie, she buys you an expensive fishing rod for your birthday.

Brother, if this is the way any girl in your life is acting, it's time to run for the hills or walk to the marriage license bureau—depending on how strong you feel.

Atress Loses Gowns In Las Vegas Storm

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Mitzl Gaynor waited nervously today for her hairdresser to bail her out of a catastrophe caused by two rarities—her nightclub debut and a Las Vegas rainstorm.

Her wardrobe of seven original gowns got soaked in transit from Hollywood and ruined. Four were Parisian models, and three were made in the United States for her appearance at the Flamingo Hotel starting tonight. None was useable.

Cartons containing the gowns were turned upside down after being unloaded from an airplane during a shower Monday, she said.

The actress put in a hurried call for a Los Angeles fashion designer to whip up a new ensemble, and the show—she hopes—will go on.

She Just Can't Take Her Eyes Off Him

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—"I don't want to look at anyone else but him."

That's what actress Lauren Bacall said Wednesday when photographers asked her to turn away from her new husband, actor Jason Robards Jr., to pose for pictures.

The couple, married at Ensenada, Mexico, Tuesday, sipped champagne and nibbled cake at a movie set news conference.

They previously had been turned down for marriage licenses in Las Vegas, Nev., and in several European countries because of the questionable legality of Robards' quickie Mexican divorce from his second wife Rachel. Miss Bacall is the widow of actor Humphrey Bogart.

Of marriage, Miss Bacall said: "It's the best thing in the whole world. I never felt better."

Junior Editors Quiz on SCIENCE

QUESTION: What makes a bubble float in the air?

ANSWER: You may think this explanation is a lot of hot air, but actually that's just what it is. You probably know that heated air rises...

But are bubbles warm? Well, you blow your breath into them to make them and your breath is air which is warmed by the warm temperature which your body must maintain in order for you to live...

FOR YOU TO DO: The next time you use a bubble pipe, make a test: watch the bubbles in a warm room and then go to a colder one and see if you can find any difference.

(Kevin Amatuzo of Dulute, Minn., wins $10 for this question. Send yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper.)

Busy Session Reviewed By Rosson; Fiscal Woes Cited

EDITOR'S NOTE — Rep. Renal B. Rosson of Snyder, who represents the 90th District in the Texas Legislature, is preparing to return to Austin this weekend for a special session beginning Monday. He has made some observations on the regular session of the 57th Legislature and the outlook for the special session, which are presented below.

BY RENAL B. ROSSON State Representative 90th District

The Regular Session of the 57th Legislature was completed on May 29, and it is with pleasure that I bring you this report on the legislative session as your State Representative. I am proud to represent the 90th Legislative District. I feel that I represent the finest area of Texas of which we are all proud. Our abundance of natural resources, ranching and agriculture, as compared to some of the other areas of this state, gives us a somewhat enviable place geographically. We do not rely so heavily upon public welfare assistance as do many of the areas of this state.

As you would probably expect, there were many bills studied during the Regular Session of the 57th Legislature. In the House of Representatives, 1,136 bills were introduced, and an additional 400 were introduced in the Senate. In addition, there were 83 House Joint Resolutions and 25 Senate Joint Resolutions — all proposing amendments to the Texas constitution — and numerous concurrent and simple resolutions were considered by both houses.

From this mass of legislation introduced and referred to committees in both houses, 314 House bills, 235 Senate bills, 8 Senate Joint Resolutions and 6 House Joint Resolutions were finally passed and completed the legislative process; there being a somewhat smaller percentage of the House bills passed than is usual and a slightly greater percentage of the Senate bills passed than is usual.

It was a busy session with many important matters being considered and ranging in importance from the highest level of state policy to matters of only local interest. Some of the matters considered as Major Legislation were as follows:

Water Legislation to liberalize the loan program for the construction of more reservoirs for water conservation, which appeared to me to be particularly desirable legislation for West Texas.

Loan Shark Legislation as authorized by constitutional amendments which failed to pass and will probably be considered in a special session.

A constitutional amendment to be voted upon by the people authorizing an increase of five million dollars annually on the ceiling now on welfare payments.

Appropriation increases for the nineteen state supported schools of higher learning.

Teacher Pay increase and other public school legislation which will be contingent upon a tax bill to support it.

Creation of a Commission to reorganize the state government to cut expenditures and seek out further economy measures which passed the House of Representatives but failed to pass in the Senate in order to become law.

Legislative Redistricting bill was passed as required under the constitution which left our legislative district with the same five counties as now compose same.

Parimutuel Racing bill failed in the House of Representatives.

Measures regarding criminal reform matters, a series of bills to simplify and speed up the State's bookkeeping by abolishing small special funds a medical assistance measure, and fourteen constitutional amendments also passed and will be submitted to the voters of Texas for their consideration in November, 1962.

Bills regarding a tighter drivers' licensing act, a more strict financial responsibility law, annexation by municipalities, industrial safety measures, and a water pollution bill all passed the House of Representatives but failed to pass the Senate; many matters having failed to pass for one reason or another in each chamber.

The above is to briefly mention only a few of the matters considered and I will now likewise summarize the fiscal or matters of taxation confronting our state. The Biennial Budget for the State of Texas is estimated to be approximately two and one-half billion dollars for the next two years, including an estimated 350 million dollars additional during such period to take care of the deficit, pay for additional public school services and teacher salaries, improved law enforcement programs, higher education and other public services already outlined during the Regular Session. The State's budget is being expended for major functions of the government as follows: For public school and higher education, approximately 12 per cent; highways and roads, 30 per cent; public welfare, 15 per cent; health and hospitals, 5 per cent; and all other state services, 7 per cent.

I am generally opposed to additional taxes and believe that the state government should be operated at the most economical level feasible and still provide for the needed services of the state. I am sure that I share your views in also believing that the tax load should be kept balanced and as equitable as possible under the circumstances. However, after a careful evaluation of the population growth in this state and the tax program which is inevitably to be passed (being the additional tax program of approximately 350 million dollars from the General Revenue Fund for the next two years to take care of the deficit and additional programs passed during the regular session), I did lend my support in behalf of Senate Amendments to House Bill 334, the limited sales and use tax measure, after it had been studied in the free conference committee of the two Houses of the Legislature for more than a week at the end of the regular session.

As you probably know, Texas has for many years relied upon methods of taxation which failed to grow in proportion to the needs of the state resulting from the great population increase; thus we did, as above mentioned, this year at one time find ourselves with a deficit of more than 100 million dollars which was brought about primarily as a result of the decline of oil and gas production and partially as a result of prior inadequate tax programs in recent years. As of the last report, the State deficit was in the sum of approximately 79 million dollars. In view of this and because no acceptable alternative was presented to the Legislature, I lent my support to the limited sales and use tax measure which seems least objectionable. This tax measure exempts food, medicine, feed, seed, farm machinery and equipment as well as a number of other miscellaneous items, and thus does not fall heavily on the basic necessities of life.

Other measures submitted, would, in my opinion, in order to raise this large amount of money, have much greater economic impact upon our area; changing the operation of the Farm to Market Road program by transferring therefrom during the biennial 30 million dollars to help defray the deficit, an additional gasoline tax of probably one or two cents per gallon, a further stripping of some of the schools in our district of available school funds, which would take from Snyder alone approximately $50,000 annually; a transfer of real estate tax, with a two per cent tax on all items of personal property selling for more than ten dollars (which would in itself be a limited sales tax, and I have just this day noticed in the paper is being considered on all items selling for more than five dollars); a two per cent tax on utility bills as well as a three per cent tax on restaurant meals, and a ten million dollar increase in college tuition fees.

The above are some of the proposals recommended or suggested by other parties and members opposing the limited sales and use tax as submitted, which, when considered in regard to the effect they would have upon the economy of our area, I do not believe to be in our best interest.

I also have information to the effect that there are some communities in the eastern portion of our state whose principal source of income is derived from public welfare benefits. As I view this situation, should we fail to adopt a limited sales and use tax exempting food, medicine, feed, seed, farm machinery and equipment, etc., we are leaving ourselves open in this area of the state to having our Farm to Market road program and some of our schools and other rural programs impaired or greatly affected, and yet have another tax program which in itself is as bad or worse than such a limited sales and use tax measure. This is particularly true in view of the recent Legislative Redistricting Bill which passed giving the larger cities more representation.

For example, Houston will have four additional representatives, making a total of twelve for Harris County.

During the two sessions which I have served as your representative, I have learned that it is most difficult, and even impossible, to find a desirable solution to the tax problem to one's own liking. In view of the large Legislative membership it is necessary to survey the entire tax problem and lend support for the passage of a bill which will be acceptable to a majority of the members and least objectionable as far as the economy of this area is concerned. Although I have supported additional taxes to be placed on the liquor and beer industries, it was shown that the beer industry is now taxed $4.20 a barrel by the State and $9.00 by the Federal; and liquor almost $5.00 a gallon by these same agencies; and additional taxes on these products were declined by the membership during this session, except for such drinks when served with a meal as to whether or not such a tax on the gas pipeline companies will ever be upheld since a prior tax was levied some six years ago and was also held to be unconstitutional by the Supreme Court of the United States causing an indebtedness of approximately 40 million dollars which we are still at this time repaying.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Benito Costello, Lubbock Highway, are parents of a 6 lb. 1 1/2 oz. son born at 9:44 a. m. Wednesday in Cogdell Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Haddleton, 2313 Fortieth Street, are parents of a son born at 12:38 p. m. Wednesday at Cogdell Memorial Hospital.

3 Wrecks Wednesday In Snyder

Three wrecks occurred Wednesday on Snyder streets, causing minor automobile damage and sending one man to the hospital.

N. A. Brown of 207 Hickory was injured at a car-tractor accident at the same address at 2:15 p. m. yesterday. He is in satisfactory condition at the Cogdell Hospital.

The tractor which he was driving was in collision with a 1950 Lincoln driven by Tommy Lou Bennett of Route 3. Damage to the Lincoln was estimated at $100.

A collision at 6 p. m. Wednesday at Fortieth and Ave. C involved a 1960 Nash Rambler station wagon, driven by Donald Ray Scott of 2204 Forty-fifth, and a 1956 Oldsmobile driven by Arthur Nick Crain of 2406 Ave. X.

Damage to the Nash was estimated at $250 and damage to the Oldsmobile was $200.

A 1960 Ford, driven by Lewis Phipps of Twenty-ninth St., and a 1955 Pontiac, driven by Ellen Hatway of Arapah Route, were in collision at 9:30 a. m. Wednesday at the R&SP railroad on Twenty-sixth. Damage to each car was $5.

Diamond is the hardest natural material known to man. Bits of diamonds cut steel, saw stone, shape bowling balls, polish dental fillings, and play much of the world's recorded music.

SHS Class Of '41 Sets Reunion Here

The 1941 senior class of Snyder High School has scheduled its second reunion for Friday and Saturday.

Activities will begin at 6:30 p. m. Friday with a barbecue in the National Guard Armory in Towle Memorial Park. Class members and their families have been invited to the barbecue.

An informal coffee is planned for 10:30 a. m. Saturday at the armory, and the class has extended an invitation to anyone who is interested to come out and visit the group.

A banquet has been set for 7:30 p. m. Saturday in the 66 Cafe dining room to climax the activities. The first reunion of the class was held in 1951. Out-of-town class members are expected from California, New Mexico, Florida and several Texas cities, including Victoria, Overton, Fort Worth, Littlefield and Wichita Falls.

Congo Parliament Session Is Sought

By PETER GROSE
 Leopoldville, Congo (AP)—The drive to reconvene the Congo Parliament was bogged down today in talks and second thoughts despite persistent U.N. attempts to secure Democratic government in the "year of transition."
 The Leopoldville army chief Gen. Joseph Mobutu, and his close aide, President Kasavubu, were seen by the press as the two key figures in the hesitating. President Kasavubu announced today that he would reconvene the Congo Parliament after over two months of non-parliamentary government.
 Kasavubu, Premier Joseph Ileo and his ministers were plagued by growing fears that voting in the Parliament might agitate the army.
 Ileo has never received a parliamentary vote of confidence. Diplomatic observers give him little chance to survive once the Parliament is convened.
 Another obstacle to the reconvening of Parliament came Tuesday from the Katanga capital of Elisabethville, where the provincial assembly voted to ratify the Congo's pledge that Katanga deputies would participate in the Leopoldville assembly.
 The Katanga legislature rejected the agreement, claiming the province's right to secede from the central government.
 The developments were a blow to U.N. negotiators who have worked intensively for weeks to get Parliament back into session to elect a government representing all factions.

Biggest Rain Recorded In El Paso Area

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 The skies opened up before dawn in El Paso Wednesday, leaving the city drenched with 1.54 inches of rain.
 The downpour came in six hours to 2 a.m., lowering the temperature to 47 degrees.
 Thousands crowded the coastal areas on the July 4 holiday were treated to spectacular weather displays, a water spout at Galveston and a tornado that dipped to the ground harmlessly near Katy, 25 miles west of Houston.
 Elsewhere Texas was mostly sunny with a hot wind only a few isolated showers. The mercury touched 84 degrees at Austin.
 Galveston holiday throngs watched in awe as water from a huge water spout arched southward over the Gulf pulling water down in its vortex. Black funnel clouds were seen in the distance for half an hour but caused no damage. It was the largest seen in Galveston in 15 years or so.
 Katy, Kansas, Galveston News reported, said the water spout was "heavy black" and shaped like an inverted mushroom.
 "It frightened some people and fascinated everybody," she said. The tornado 2 1/2 miles north of Katy dipped briefly to earth in a pasture and then disappeared.
 Rain totals included Galveston 36 inch, Lufkin 54, Houston 12, Alpine 66, Abilene 23 and Beaumont 92.
 Another warm day with scattering of showers was in prospect for the whole state.
 A long range forecast said similar conditions could be expected through Sunday, except that cooler air will move into the northern parts of Texas at the weekend.
 At sunrise, skies generally were clear across the state and most temperatures were in the 70's.

Castro Raps Embargo On U. S. Exports

HAVANA (AP)—Fidel Castro claims the United States is trying to force Cubans to go hungry by embargoing food exports to Cuba.
 In a nationwide television radio address Tuesday night, the prime minister accused the United States of economic aggression and said the Soviet Union had offered Cuba 10,000 tons of food to make up for a U.S. shipment of 20 railcars that was stopped last week.
 Castro did not explain the circumstances of the embargo on the food shipment. A Florida court order blocked the shipment until the government could pay a $420,000 bill the Cuban government owed to a Miami agency.
 Castro called the latest seizure the latest act of "imperialist aggression" and announced Cubans would have to cut down on fats until production can replace U.S. supplies. Cubans also depended on the United States for most of its oil, but Castro said Cuba would buy no more U.S. oil, imports of which he said had run to $20 million a year.
 The prime minister announced that Cubans who normally consume about 40 pounds of fats per person annually would be rationed one pound of fat and one pound of lard a month.
 Castro also complained about the seizure of a Cuban twin-engine airplane. The plane, jammed in flight by some of its passengers, was seized when it landed to the west of Miami, according to an advertising firm's judgment. Three Cuban crop-dusting planes that landed at the Florida keys also were seized for the same reason.
 Castro termed Adlai Stevenson's recent tour of South America as President Kennedy's special envoy a vain effort to build up an aggressive anti-Cuban front.

Five Youths Are Killed In Road Crash

GONZALES, Tex. (AP)—Five youths died early today when a heavy truck smashed into a parked panel truck in which they sat at their driver's help.
 The other youths were injured. All were from this South Central Texas town.
 The crash occurred on fog-shrouded U.S. Highway 187, 3 miles south of here shortly before dawn.
 One of the youths died instantly. Three others died later in a Gonzales hospital.
 Marcus Simentes, 17, and Julian Aguilera, 16, died as the trailer truck plowed into their parked vehicle.
 The other dead were Gilbert Martinez, Joe Navarro and Val Garcia.
 The injured are David Camarillo and Sara Gonzalez.
 The youths were on their way to work on a nearby poultry farm.
 The driver of the panel truck, Tommy Wilson, escaped unhurt. State police said the panel truck was parked along the highway, while Wilson helped a motorist change a tire.
 The motorist, whose name was not learned, and the driver of the trailer truck, Tommy Garcia Trevino of Austin, also escaped unhurt.

Woman Hurt In Mishap

City police reports show an automobile accident in the city of Scurry Tuesday at 4:38 p.m.
 The cars involved were a 1957 Ford, driven by James Mills of Hermleigh that sustained $300 damage, and a 1958 Chevrolet pickup driven by Zay Hudman of 1907 Fifteenth Street received $50 damage. Mrs. Callie Hudman a passenger in the pickup was taken to Cogdell Hospital by a Boiger Funeral Home ambulance. She received abrasions and lacerations but no broken bones.
 The collision happened some 200 feet north of the Texas Park entrance.

Scouts Keep Tab On Road Deaths

PARIS, Ky. (AP)—Small, white crosses by the hundreds dotted roads leading into Paris, a reminder of the nation's highway toll.
 Boy Scouts throughout the long Fourth-of-July weekend marked each traffic death nationally by putting up two crosses.
 As the toll surged upward late Tuesday, the scouts made an extra 150 crosses and prepared to assemble others to keep an accurate count on highway deaths.
 She backed a trailer too far into the path of a Missouri Pacific passenger train, which didn't stop.
 Mrs. Hartl and her three children were cut and bruised but not seriously injured. Her car was demolished.

Hemingway Made No Concessions

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—Ernest Hemingway's people contorted death as something it is not, posed, as Hector in Homer's Iliad did when he stopped running to face Achilles, armed but without hope.
 Hemingway said 26 years ago, long before illness overtook him: "I must write because if I do not write a certain amount I die. Only the rest of me lives."
 It is a reasonable guess the prospect of years of invalidism, or at least marginal vitality, took the joy out of life for him.
 This may be too simple for future analysts seeking the meaning of the shotgun blast which killed him last Sunday. You can almost read them now.
 That his concern with death, which dominated all he wrote, meant he was obsessed with fear of it and that he sought to buy time through the years by marching character after character to inevitable doom as a substitute for himself.
 The literary pigeon-fanciers who like coming or a message mailed him. But he was no snoop-sayer; he used words like rocks and in the beginning he had no message.
 Maxwell Geismar once wrote that Hemingway's people as if thought it unthinkable. This was true. He was an artist, writing about the muscles of the heart, not the capillaries of the brain. The muscles got tired as he grew older. His best work was his early work, the short stories, "The Sun Also Rises," "A Farewell to Arms," some parts of "Death in the Afternoon," some parts of "To Have and Have Not."
 It was downhill after that although for him war was up on the mountain for most of his count. He was an artist writing about life and he wrote to write and not for money. He made no concessions.
 He did it with enormous self-discipline and economy in language and emotion. He created a yardstick by which those coming after him had to be measured. At his worst he was a giant.
 Perhaps the future will decide his greatest contribution was not his style which sometimes became a caricature of itself or his war work which wasn't always good but his honesty about all in a field where it's a cinch to cheat.

Miss Bacall, Robards Wed

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Thwarted by legal red tape in previous attempts to wed, actor Jason Robards and actress Lauren Bacall, widow of Humphrey Bogart, are making their wedding today.
 They were wed in a civil ceremony Tuesday in the Mexican coastal town of Ensenada.
 But the newlyweds couldn't enjoy a honeymoon because Robards had to appear for work at a studio today. Instead they motored back to Hollywood.
 Robards, a New York stage actor, and Miss Bacall first tried to marry last month in Vienna but were unable to provide legal proof of Robards' eligibility.
 Another attempt was frustrated in Las Vegas, Nev. last Saturday night. The marriage bureau said the refusal of a license was related to the Mexican records of Robards' second wife, Rachel, obtained May 22 in Juarez, Mexico. Nevada honors some, but not all, Mexican divorces.
 Robards listed his age as 38, Miss Bacall 36.

Starts Fight With Police After Slaying

WESTPORT, Conn. (AP)—A young advertising agency employee squared his police headquarters Tuesday and started a fight with police a short time after his father was shot to death. He was injured critically by police bullets.
 The gun play between Brendan McLaughlin, 25, an ex-Marine and former art student, and the police took place a short distance from the house where McLaughlin's father, 70, lay dead with five bullet wounds.
 "Brendan just lost his mind," Mrs. Eugene McLaughlin said later of her son.
 Police said McLaughlin began firing at two officers in the station, wounding patrolman Donald Bennett, 38, in the hip.
 He then aimed his .45 pistol at desk officer Andrew Chapo, 35, who said "Don't be a fool. Put that gun down," making sure that his words carried over the police radio transmitter.
 McLaughlin turned and fled with Chapo and the wounded Bennett in pursuit. McLaughlin was trapped outside in the police parking lot as cruisers, alerted by Chapo's words over the radio, converged on the station.
 In the gunfight which followed, McLaughlin was killed by bullets in the stomach and chest. Chapo was hit in the hip.
 The body of Eugene McLaughlin, a retired industrial engineer, was found by a police officer checking neighbors' reports of gunfire coming from the house.
 The neighbors told police they saw the younger McLaughlin running from the house shortly after they heard the shots.
 Thermonsters, registered 39 in Alpena, Mich., and 40 in Big Pine, Wis., were taken to the station.
 Rain fell in many areas.

Suspect Nabbed By Former Policeman

HOUSTON (AP)—A suspected burglar was in jail today after a former Houston policeman caught him wearing his stolen shoes.
 James Hanks Jr., 46, the ex-officer, said he noticed the 32-year-old man wearing black and white shoes in a cafe Tuesday.
 Hanks questioned the man. A tussle ensued and a billfold fell from the man's pocket.
 The billfold turned out to be Hanks' too—complete with identification cards.
 Hanks said the items were stolen from his home Sunday.
 The suspect denied the burglary. He said he bought the clothing—including suits and shoes—from a man named "Joe" for $150.

Officers Rewarded For Good Work

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Mayor Ben West has given five-day paid vacations to two police officers who captured alleged bank robbers minutes after two holdups Monday.
 Referring to a number of disciplinary suspensions given other policemen recently, West said, "If we give them five days without pay for bad work why don't we give these men five days with pay for good work?"
 The vacations went to motorcycle officer Frank Hancock and detective C. O. Robinson.

Ship Operations Are Perking Up

NEW YORK (AP)—Shipping operations began shortly after the work order was issued here Monday night under the Talt-Hartley Act.
 There was no sign of defiance of the court by any of the five striking maritime unions.
 The order was directed also at other unions whose members were not on strike but nevertheless were not working, and at several employer associations.
 Deck officers, radio officers and unlicensed deck and engine room crewmen were ready Tuesday to sail many ships on the East Coast. But the ships generally lacked engineer officers, who are members of the Marine Engineers' Beneficial Association (MEBA).
 MEBA spokesmen said the union did not have a sufficient office staff available on the Independence Day holiday to alert the engineers, who were scattered over a wide area.
 Members of the American Merchant Marine Institute, a large shipowner group which has not yet reached contract terms with the engineers, said they believed the MEBA was deliberately engaging in "delaying tactics." They said the union wants as few uncontracted ships as possible to sail before the court order comes up again for argument in further Talt-Hartley proceedings on Friday.
 The MEBA and two other unions plan to have their lawyers appear here Friday before U.S. Dist. Judge Sylvester J. Ryan, who issued the temporary restraining order against the strike, and argue against issuance of a permanent injunction.
 The delay in resumption of work here hit the liner American of the United States Lines, which had been hastily scheduled to sail late today with 600 passengers for Europe. The sailing was postponed to Thursday.
 The United States Lines, United States of America, and American passenger fleet, scheduled to sail Friday, the big liner Independence of the American Export Lines is to sail Thursday.

Record Lows In Northeast

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 Temperatures dried to record lows for the date and brought out sweaters and coats in many areas in the Northeastern quarter of the nation today.
 It was the day after the traditionally overheated Fourth of July, but the mercury dropped into the 50s and 40s in many communities.
 An unofficial minimum of 31—about under freezing—was reported in St. Marys in the northwestern section of Pennsylvania. It was the lowest there for July 5 in about 50 years.
 The new low marks included 45 in Burlington, Vt., 48 in Windsor Locks, Conn., 51 in Pittsburgh, 49 in Cleveland, 48 in Flint, Mich., 47 in Rochester and Albany, N.Y., and 51 in Buffalo.

Why was a 50-word ad the only thing clipped from this 50,000-word newspaper?
 The ad was where the hole is. Around it, and for page after page before and behind it, there was news... important, well-written news. The ad contained news, too, but news of a different sort. It might have announced a new brand of clothes dryer, a neighborhood TV service, a business opportunity, or a new way to make biscuits. The subject doesn't matter. The point is, this news was of immediate and personal importance to the person who clipped it. It flagged her attention because it dealt with her needs. Ads provide this kind of news every day. News direct from our merchants and industries. News that hits home and invites our immediate action.
