Q. Should area residents be concerned about radon gas? If so, where can they purchase a detection kit?

A. A recent report by the Environmental Protection Agency says, yes, there is evidence of high levels of radon in parts of Texas. We checked local stores and Higginbotham-Bartlett Co. was the only one who had such kits on hand and only in a limited supply. The kits cost $12.59 each, and store officials said they will order more kits if needed.

City OKs bingo at civic center

The Colorado City Council, meeting in special session Friday afternoon, gave the go-ahead to the Colorado City Volunteer Fire Department's plans to sponsor bingo by agreeing to a six-month lease agreement for the civic center at which to hold bingo games.

Gary Parker, fire chief, requested and received permission from the council to sponsor bingo games at the city-owned civic center on Thursday nights from 7-10.

The council, on a motion by Earl Plagens and seconded by Rex Thackerson, agreed to a six-month trial basis with the fire department paying $100 rent each Thursday night with a $25 cleanup charge and a deposit of $50. The lease agreement will be renegotiated at the end of the six-month lease.

In doing so, the council instructed the city staff to change the civic center regulations in order to provide for bingo games.

City voters recently agreed to legalize bingo within the city limits for charitable organizations. The bingo proposition was placed on the ballot following a petition drive by the fire department.

Parker said before the fire department can submit an application for a permit from State Comptroller Bob Bullock, the place and time must be included in the application.

Prior to making the motion to grant the fire department's request, Plagens asked what would happen if other organizations decided they wanted to sponsor bingo at the civic center.

City Manager Brenda Hammond said that there are one or two other nights available each week, and that if other organizations show an interest in sponsoring bingo games, then they can negotiate for one of those nights.

In other business, the council heard a request from resident Woody Crabtree who lives on the Rodgers Road north of Interstate 20. Crabtree said he has been paying city taxes for 15 years but does not receive any city services such as water and sewer. The water and sewer lines stop at Nobles Construction and Crabtree asked that he either be provided city services or be taken off the tax rolls. City attorney Mark Piland was instructed to study the matter.

Mayor Jim Baum, at the request of Plagens, scheduled a meeting of the single-member voting district committee Wednesday. Committee members are Plagens, Bob Reily and Eric White. The committee is studying the possibility of forming single-member voting districts to elect council members instead of the present at-large method.

Thackerson asked Mrs. Hammond about the city hall remodeling project and he and Reily questioned whether a private bath and coffee bar is needed in the former fire truck bay area being remodeled into office space for her.

Thackerson said he hopes that the remodeled facilities meet handicapped regulations as it is supposed to and requested and received permission for a meeting of the handicapped regulations committee study the project and make sure it meets regulations before work is completed. Thackerson and Tom Carlock are on the handicapped regulations committee.

Reily suggested that the council consider conducting a periodic review of the city manager.

PROCLAMATION SIGNED - Mayor Jim Baum, right, signs a proclamation declaring May 22-28 as Safe Kids Week in Colorado City. Looking on Ladies Auxiliary members Bonnie Story and Estella Rivera of Post 9178.

Safe Kids Week proclaimed

Mayor Jim Baum has declared May 22-28 as Safe Kids Week, sponsored locally by the Ladies Auxiliary to VFW Post 9178.

The proclamation reads: "WHEREAS, during the week of May 22-28, 1989, the National Coalition to Prevent Childhood

Injury has scheduled a local national campaign to increase public awareness of the high incidence of accidental injury among children; and

"WHEREAS, each year, nearly 8,000 children up to age 15 die from injuries sustained in accidents, thereby making unintentional injuries and trauma the leading killer of children in the United States; and

"WHEREAS, each year, approximately one in four children under the age of 15 receives an injury serious enough to require medical attention; and

"WHEREAS, the incidence of childhood accidental injury doubles during the trauma season, the time when children are released from school for the summer vacation and spend a great deal of their recreational hours outdoors; and

"WHEREAS, the sponsors of this campaign believe that it is critically important to focus attention on the problem of accidental injury, the need for preventive measures, and the need to educate the public on prevention and emergency response;

"NOW, therefore, I, Jim Baum, the mayor of Colorado City, do hereby proclaim May 22-28, 1989 as "Safe Kids Week" in Colorado City and call upon all the residents of this great state to join with me in support the aims, goals and programs of the National Coalition to Prevent Childhood Injury, for the benefit of our state's most precious resource, its children."

Snyder Heating & Air Solution Simple:
Stop Sizzle To Soothe Squabblers!

By DONALD C. McMILLON

Normally, tempers can become a little strained when the heat becomes almost unbearable and the humidity reaches above the 80% mark. Take the case of this family and compare your experiences with theirs. The man of the house sauntered in the front door of his happy little home and nearly tripped over the family dog laying in the doorway with his tongue hanging out and eyes pleading for even the slightest breeze. In the living room, the three-year-old was throwing a temper tantrum because Mom wouldn't give him another drink of water.

Mom, cleverly and conveniently attired in the briefest apparel, was finishing up the evening meal in the kitchen. Her temper by this time as approaching the danger point, what with a kitchen full of steam, heat, and cooking odors, and a humidity reading so high that even the cactus plant on the window sill was dripping moisture.

Father's cheery hello did not even cause her to raise an eyebrow, and she indicated, when he asked what they were having for supper, that he could just sit down and wait and find out. So father, now experiencing a little of the heat himself, sat down and waited...and waited...and waited.

The family squabble that followed was something the neighbors will remember for years. The argument started when the frying pan flew out the front door and landed in the street, and ended when Father, coat over his shoulder, was seen heading toward the nearest air conditioned restaurant.

This temper situation in hot weather is not a problem is a LENNOX centrally air conditioned home. When the temperature and humidity are under control, so are the family dispositions.

No matter how old or young we are, we always seem to like to reminisce about the "good old days". And, of course, who better than to tell about the good old days than the younger generation, no matter how old or young?

Jeffrey, our 12 year old who likes to be chauffeured to and from school, turns a deaf ear every time his mother and I talk about the "ancient" days and when we had to walk three or four blocks to school. What's so good about having to walk to school, he asks?

Even though I wasn't born before 1940, I can still remember 25-cent shows and five-cent soft drink machines. Mr. and Mrs. J.T. Moore of Colorado City can remember farther back than that, and the following caught their eye when they first read it in their hometown newspaper, the Roxton (Texas) Progress.

For All Those Born Before 1940

We were born before television, before penicillin, before polio shots, frozen foods, Xerox, plastic, contact lenses, frisbees and the PILL.

We were born before radar, credit cards, split atoms, laser beams and ballpoint pens; before pantyhose, dishwashers, clothes dryers, electric blankets, air conditioners, dripdry clothes...and before man walked on the moon. We got married first and then lived together. How quaint can you be?

In our time, bunnies were small rabbits and rabbits were not Volkswagens. Having a meaningful relationship meant getting along well with our cousins. We thought fast food was what you ate during Lent; and outer space was the back of the Riviera Theatre.

We were before house-husbands, gay rights, computer dating, dual careers and commuter marriages. We were before day care centers, group therapy and nursing homes. We never heard of FM radio, tape decks, electric typewriters, artificial hearts, word processors, yogurt and guys wearing earrings. For us, time sharing meant togetherness...not computers or condominiums; a "chip" meant a piece of wood, hardware meant hardware and software wasn't even a word.

In 1940, "Made in Japan" meant junk and the term "making out" referred to how you did on your exam. McDonald's and instant coffee were unheard of.

We hit the scene when there were 5 & 10 cent stores, where you bought things for 5 and 10 cents. Sanders or Wilsons sold ice cream cones for a nickel or a dime. For one nickel you could ride a streetcar, make a phone call, buy a Pepsi or enough stamps to mail one letter and two postcards. You could buy a Chevy coupe for $600, but who could afford one (a pity too, because gas was 11 cents a gallon)?

In our day, cigarette smoking was fashionable, grass was mowed, Coke was a cold drink and pot was something you cooked in. Rock music was grandma's lullaby and aids were helpers in the principal's office.

We were certainly not before the difference between the sexes was discovered, but we were surely before the sex change; we made do with what we had and we were the last generation that was so dumb as to think you needed a husband to have a baby.

No wonder we are so confused and there is such a generation gap today. But we survived! What better reason to celebrate.

Answer to last week's question: Because believing the doctrine of original sin/ inherited depravity DEMANDS that one believe Jesus also was tainted, such religions can NOT be any part of the religion of Christ.

Mets, Pirates undefeated

Pitching carried Little League baseball teams to wins at Ruddick Park Thursday night. The Minor League Mets and Major League Pirates took the wins and stand as the only undefeated teams.

The Mets handed the Mustangs a 12-7 defeat and took over first place at 3-0. The Mustangs, defending district champions, suffered their first loss and fell to second place at 2-1. The teams were tied at 6-6 before the Mets pulled away behind the relief pitching of Joshua Silva and the batting of Ryan Randle.

Silva used strikeouts to hold the Mustangs to one run. A Mets relay from leftfield to third base to home plate stopped the last Mustangs threat. Randle came through in the clutch by hitting with men on base. Randle twice stole home for other runs.

Pirates pitchers Michael Hoyle and Lewis Martinez limited the Dodgers, defending Major League champs, to only five hits in an 8-2 victory. The Pirates, 3-0, stayed in first place while the Dodgers suffered their second loss for a fourth-place 1-2 record.

Leftfielder Buddy Huff got the Pirates off to an early lead. Huff led off the top of the first inning with a double to right/center. Second baseman Joseph Molina scored Huff with a double between shortstop and third. Centerfielder Kyle Chambers singled on an error to score Molina.

The Pirates added two more runs in the second inning for 4-0 lead. Catcher Jesse Rivera and rightfielder Junior Molina hit singles to lead off and were batted in on Martinez' double to center. Hoyle singled in the inning.

Pirates shortstop Ashton Weatherly hit a long single in the third that bounced off the centerfield fence. First baseman Jerrod Goss also singled in the inning but both were left stranded.

The Dodgers made it 4-2 in the bottom of the third. Catcher Dusty Robinson knocked in two runs with a double on an error but was tagged out attempting to steal home as Hoyle threw to catcher J. Rivera at the plate.

Martinez relieved Hoyle for the last three of six innings and shutout the Dodgers in relief but did give up singles to Jerrod Esperson, Stephen Payne, Joey Sosa and losing pitcher Frank Espinoza.

Espinoza was relieved by Sosa in the top of the sixth after the Pirates added four runs on four hits helped by three errors. Sosa pitched three consecutive strikeouts to retire the Pirates.

Card of Thanks

Card of Thanks

We want to thank Dr. Roach and his efficient and competent medical office staff, also the Mitchell County Hospital staff for the loving services you rendered to us. May God bless all of you.

Mary & Raymond Way

Expression of Love

We wish to express our love and appreciation to all of you who worked so hard on the oak tree dedication in memory of our Sandra. The beautiful little ceremony outside, performed by the Band Members was very touching. The refreshments were delicious and the decorations were lovely. The oil painting was very special also. Thanks to all of you who made it so memorable and to all her friends who came. Sandra would have loved it, and we love you all for it.

Her Family,
The Biggs & Mayfields
