

Mrs. Gipson files for re-election

Iva Lee Gipson filed last week as a candidate for re-election to the Haskell City Council in the May 1 city election.

Mrs. Gipson was elected last spring for the one year remaining on a two-year term to which Dickie Greenwood was elected in 1991. Following Greenwood's resignation later that year, C. T. Jackson was appointed to serve until the 1992 election. In that election to determine who would complete the term, Jackson lost to Mrs. Gipson.

As of Tuesday afternoon, no other candidates had filed for the City Council. In addition to the position held by Mrs. Gipson, those now held by Kenny Watson and Tony Burson are to be decided in the city election. Wednesday was the last day to file.

Noted artist to give program

Faye Schnuriger of San Antonio will speak to the Brazos West Art Club at the Haskell National Bank building at 7 p.m. on Monday, March 22.

Mrs. Schnuriger, formerly of Haskell, teaches numerous places in Texas and has her studio in San Antonio. She returns every summer to Louisiana Tech University to study advanced art. She has studied with Robert Wood, Charles Reed, Zoltan Szabo and others who have been featured in American Artist magazine.

She will illustrate and talk about the modern trends in the art world.

The public is invited to attend.

Rural school reunion May 29

Registration forms have been mailed to ex-teachers and ex-students for the Haskell County rural school reunion.

The reunion is scheduled for May 29. Visitors are welcome to come and visit. Visitation starts at 12 noon. The meal will be served at 6 p.m. for those who have meal tickets.

Anyone who did not receive a registration form for the meal may call Garland Wood (817-864-3834) and a form will be mailed.

Social Security schedule given

The Social Security schedule in Haskell for the second quarter has been announced by the district office in Abilene.

A representative from the district office will be in Haskell on April 1 and 15, May 6 and 20, and June 3 and 17.

Pen presentation

The pen Gov. Ann Richards used to sign the boll weevil eradication bill is presented to KVRP farm director Carl Shearer by station owner Ken Lane. The outpouring of letters in support of the bill from KVRP's listening area was instrumental in emphasizing the importance of the bill to the governor.

Radio KVRP recognized for boll weevil bill support

Radio station KVRP of Haskell played a major role in getting Gov. Ann Richards to sign into law the boll weevil eradication bill.

Ken Lane, station owner, was invited to Austin March 11 to attend the signing of the bill.

Lane's invitation came from the Rolling Plains Cotton Growers of Texas in recognition of KVRP's initiative in obtaining letters of support from cotton growers in the Rolling Plains area.

KVRP farm director Carl Shearer headed the station's program. By urging farmers of the area to send letters to the governor in support of the legislation, the governor's office received an average of 60 letters a day from the Rolling Plains area throughout the 10-day campaign. It was by far the greatest showing of support of any area in Texas.

Lane received one of the pens the governor used to sign the bill. He gave the pen to Shearer, who he said "is the one who deserved it."

Also attending the signing was Texas Agriculture Commissioner Rick Perry. "This bill proves that Ann Richards listens to the agriculture community of Texas," Perry said. "Governor, we are grateful for your help."

The governor hailed the bill as landmark agricultural legislation. "The cotton industry, environmental and consumer groups worked with my office to come up with a bill that is the best boll weevil eradication bill in the country," she said.

The cotton-munching boll weevil causes as much as $20 million a year in losses to the state's cotton industry. Texas produces more than 5 billion bales of cotton per year. The bill will make Texas cotton framers eligible for almost $45 million in U.S. Department of Agriculture funds to help the state eradicate boll weevils over the next five to seven years.

Two years ago, the governor vetoed similar boll weevil legislation because of concerns about protecting the rights of farmers and environmental problems with the bill.

Perry noted that similar eradication efforts in other cotton-producing states already have produced significant results. Both North Carolina and South Carolina have eradicated the boll weevil and growers use 70 percent less pesticide than before the program began, the commissioner said.

City to consider development tax

The City Council has again been asked to let voters decide on a half-cent sales tax to be used for economic development.

Gene Long, representing the Haskell Industrial Foundation, appeared before the City Council last Tuesday and requested the council to place the proposition on the May 1 city election ballot.

A resolution to that effect will be voted on at the next council meeting.

The economic development tax proposition has been defeated twice by Haskell voters.

Proponents point out that the half-cent tax would generate approximately $70,000 annually, to be used exclusively for industrial and economic development.

Chamber banquet Saturday

Presentation of the annual "Outstanding Citizen" award will highlight activities Saturday night at the 57th annual banquet of the Haskell Chamber of Commerce.

The banquet will begin at 7 o'clock at the Haskell Memorial Civic Center.

Guest speaker will be Ray Overton, former Haskell football coach who now coaches at MacArthur High School in Irving.

The dinner is being prepared by members of the chamber's board of directors and the Welcoming Committee.

Andy Gannaway will be installed as new president of the chamber. He will succeed Conrad Roewe, who has served as president for the past two years.

Sam Watson will move up from second vice president to first vice president and Doris Jean McMeans will become second vice president. Elbert Johnson will continue as treasurer.

Roewe will preside over the banquet program and will give the welcome. The invocation will be given by Frank Summers, minister of the First Christian Church.

Mrs. McMeans will introduce the out-of-town guests and Watson will introduce the chamber's officer and directors. Past presidents of the chamber will be recognized by Johnson.

Tax rebate drops

Haskell's 1.5-percent sales tax brought the City of Haskell $14,146.68 this week. A check in that amount from the state comptroller represented the city's share of sales taxes collected for the month of January.

The rebate reflected a 14.77-percent decrease over the $16,597.69 the city received for the same period last year.

Nevertheless, city sales tax rebates in the first three months of 1993 stand at $59,765.42, or 7.68 percent more than the $55,502.60 in the first quarter of last year.

Also receiving rebate checks this week were the cities of Rule, $1,358.36, and Rochester, $540.02. For the first three months of the year, Rule's rebates have totaled $1,591.96 and Rochester's $850.62. These figures translate into a 5.63-percent increase for Rule and a 21.86-percent decrease for Rochester over year-ago figures.

Altogether, the five cities of Haskell County, Haskell, O'Brien, Rochester, Rule and Weinert, received $68,245.08 in the first three months of this year, an increase of 5.28 percent over last year when rebates totaled $64,825.16.

All county cities except Haskell have a 1-percent city tax rate.

Older Worker Week

Students to hear experts at school's Health Fair

Haskell secondary students will hear four noted health experts at the Health Fair on March 23.

Dr. Rick Harris and Dr. James B. Williams will discuss healthy lifestyles and the risks of heart disease and heart attack with the students.

Dr. Harris is president of the Taylor County branch of the American Heart Association and is president of the Abilene Cardiology Consultants.

Dr. Williams is a cardiovascular and thoracic surgeon and is associated with Humana Hospital. He was a founding member of Cardiac Surgery Associates of Abilene. He was the first surgeon in the region to perform "laser-assisted balloon angioplasty."

Dr. Mike Patrick, chaplain at Hendrick Medical Center, will be keynote speaker. He earned his bachelor's degree from Hardin-Simmons University and his master and doctor degrees from Southwestern Theological Seminary in Fort Worth.

Dr. Allen Neece, DDS, oral surgeon, will talk on the dangers of smoking, dipping snuff and chewing tobacco. He is a diplomate of the American Board of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery. He is a graduate of Abilene Christian University and Baylor University.

More about peanuts

By Lou Gilly and Max Stapleton
County Extension Agents
Our love for peanuts has spanned generations. Maybe it's the memories that make them special--eating peanut butter and jelly sandwiches or munching on roasted peanuts from little brown bags at ball games or the circus.

Peanuts have been significant to the South's economic history, thanks to Dr. George Washington Carver. Dr. Carver, a botanist, scientist and teacher at Tuskegee Institute in Alabama, developed more than 300 uses of peanuts. He was nicknamed the "Peanut Wizard" because it was said he could serve a complete dinner with everything from the soup to ice cream made from peanuts.

Peanuts are purchased as raw food items by these industries:

Food Products: Milk, flour, peanut butter, margarine, cooking and salad oil, cheese, mayonnaise, confections, meal, candies.

Non-Food Products: Shaving cream, adhesives, paper, ink, plastics, salve, cosmetics, shampoo, shoe polish, dyes, lubricating oils, metal polish, fertilizer, fodder for livestock.

Products form Shells: Insulation filler, buffing for steel mills, floor sweeping compounds, wallboard, carrier for certain deactivated chemicals.

Around 1890, in St. Louis, a doctor invented peanut butter as a nutritious, easily digested food. Because the peanut butter was high in protein and low in carbohydrates, it was prescribed as a health food.

Did you know you can make your own peanut butter? Making homemade peanut butter can be fun as well as an educational experience. All you need is a blender, peanut oil and peanuts.

In the container of a blender, put 1 cup of freshly roasted or salted peanuts and 1 1/2 tablespoons of peanut oil. Blend the mixture until it is smooth. With the blender turned on, gradually add another 1 1/2 tablespoons of oil, or enough to make the peanut butter the proper consistency. Add 1/2 teaspoon salt if the peanuts are unsalted.

For more information about peanuts, contact the county extension office in Haskell, 864-2546.

Wheat fields checked for various bugs

Several wheat fields were checked in Haskell County during the week of March 8.

Both dryland drilled wheat and volunteer wheat were checked for aphids, worms, mites, beneficial/parasitic insects and spiders.

Non-grazed wheat ranged from 3 to 10 inches tall. About 30 percent of most fields are yellowing due to many factors, including temperatures, rainfall, plant spacing, soil condition, nutrient availability and insects' mite populations.

Greenbugs, lady beetles and parasitic wasps were the major insects found. Less than 5 greenbugs or lice were found per row foot along with 0 to 2 lady beetles per foot. Only 2 parasitic good guys (braconid wasps) were noticed in 6- to 8-inch volunteer wheat.

(Reported by Louis D. Chedester, extension ento-mologist, and Max Stapleton, county extension agent-agriculture.)

Former pastor now in Montana

Mike McKinney, former pastor of First Baptist Church in Haskell, has been called to pastor the Trinity Baptist Church in Missoula, Montana (population 65,000).

Trinity Baptist Church began in the basement of the Florence Hotel in 1956. It has since acquired property in Missoula near the old Fort Missoula. In the ensuing years, Trinity has sponsored five missions which have grown into strong churches. Last month, Trinity began its sixth mission in Lolo (population 7,000) in a home.

First Baptist Church of O'Brien, where Dr. Troy Culpepper serves as interim pastor, voted to designate 50 percent of its Home Missions offering this spring to assist Trinity church in its mission endeavor. This work has been approved by the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, which is a co-sponsor.

Mature driving course scheduled

The Experienced Citizens Center of Haskell is sponsoring another 55/Alive/Mature Driving course on Monday and Tuesday, March 29-30. Two four-hour sessions are planned, from 1 to 5 p.m.

Designed by the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP), a non-profit organization, the course emphasizes measures to assure safe driving, especially for those 50 and older.

Minimum age for the course is 50. The cost is $8, which includes instructions, workbooks and certificate. The certificate is valid for three years and brings a 10-percent reduction in auto insurance premiums (comprehensive not included).

Instructor will be Owen Aikin, who is certified by AARP.

For further information and/or enrollment, call or come by the Experienced Citizens Center in Haskell. The phone number is 864-3875. Or call Owen Aikin at 743-3204.

Maiden track team gets 4th at Anson

The Haskell Maiden track team competed in its first meet of the season in Anson on Saturday and came in fourth behind Albany, Cisco and Anson.

Coach Kerry Gartman was pleased with his team's performance.

"We have a young team, consisting of one senior, two juniors, four sophomores and eight freshmen, and I thought they competed very well for their first meet considering we didn't do any field events due to the cold weather," the coach said.

Shelly Stewart won first place in the 100-meter hurdles and the 800-meter relay team of Rebecca Unger, Heather Hobgood, Holly Hobgood and Jaime Johnston, earned second place.

Charissa Huff took third in the 1600-meter run and Tonya Burson finished fourth. Huff also took fourth in the 800.

Heather Hobgood won fourth in the 200-meter dash and Johnston was fifth in this event.

Both the 400-meter relay and 1600-meter relay teams took fifth places. Making up the sprint relay team were Unger, the Hobgood sisters and Johnston. Running on the mile relay were Unger, Lisa Rodriguez, Nacole Lefevre and Veronica Gonzalez.

Marine completes recruit training

Marine Pvt. William B. Cox recently completed recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot in San Diego, Calif. He is the son of Gary L. and Shelly A Cox of Rochester.

During the training cycle, recruits are taught the basics of battlefield survival, introduced to typical military daily routine, and personal and professional standards.

All recruits participate in an active physical conditioning program and gain proficiency in a variety of military skills including first aid, rifle marksmanship and close-order drill. Teamwork and self-discipline are emphasized throughout the cycle.

Cox is a 1992 graduate of Graham High School. He joined the Marine Corps in October.

Indian golfers come in sixth

The Haskell Indian golf team shot a 371 to come in sixth in a 17-team field Monday at the Eastland Kiwanis Invitational Golf Tournament.

Individuals competing and their scores included Mart Guess, 89; Mik Everett, 85; Matt Perry, 92; and Brian Brzozowski, 105.

Team standings:
Baird 328; Hamilton 341; Throckmorton 353; Hamlin 353; Breckenridge 368; Haskell 371; Cisco 378; DeLeon 380; Bangs 383; Eastland 385; Breckenridge #2 390; Baird #2 391; Gordon 400; Eastland #2 405; Ranger 440; Rising Star 445; and Lingleville 497.

The Indian team will compete in the Monday tournament next Monday.

Since completing his surgery residency in oral maxillofacial surgery at Baylor University Medical Center in Dallas, he has had a private practice in Abilene.

"We appreciate Dr. Cliff Ray for securing Dr. Neece's participation in our program, Humana Hospital for sponsoring Dr. Williams, the American Heart Association for arranging for Dr. Harris to speak, and Hendrick Medical Center for making it possible for Dr. Patrick to come," said Susan Blanks, Haskell school nurse.

Boosters to study all-sports banquet

Indian Booster Club members will meet at 7 p.m. Monday, March 22, to make plans for the all-sports banquet. (Last week's Free Press story erroneously listed the meeting date as March 15.)

An Indian theme is planned for the May 22 all-sports banquet. The club is interested in obtaining Indian artifacts for display at the banquet.

The earliest known written records are Sumerian word pictures made about 3500 BC.

I want to express my appreciation and thanks to all my relatives and friends for visits, flowers, food, cards and prayers. To the doctors and nurses who cared for me in the hospital and to Charles Swinson for the shaves. Love you all.

Weekend visitors with Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Sprayberry were Jerry Sprayberry and Carol Macon who flew down from Dallas and the Sprayberry's daughter and husband from Junction. They spent the weekend trimming trees and painting Martin bird houses.

Sisters, brothers, friends and relatives gathered March 8 in the Harvey Simmons home to celebrate Margaret's 73rd birthday. A pleasant surprise was having Lucille Pickering of Lubbock here for the celebration. Sandwiches, cake, ice cream, coffee and cold drinks were served.

Congratulations to Raymond and Lucille Pickering of Lubbock, who celebrated their 42nd wedding anniversary on March 9.

Visiting Clariss Jones last weekend were her daughter Janice Lauderdale of Irving and grandson and wife, Sean and Delaska Lauderdale of Dallas.

Grandson, Brady Henshaw of Albuquerque was in Rockport last week to help his mother, Jeanie Richards celebrate her birthday.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Cadenhead were in Dallas last weekend. Dr. Cadenhead attended a medical meeting on arthritis.

Visiting with Frida Nehring in Rice Springs Care Home were Louis and Adeline Spitzer and Hazel Letz of Old Glory, Judy Wyatt from Bowie and from Haskell, Randolph and Nan Wilson and Louise Smith.

Nick, Melissa and Molly Long of Floydada visited last weekend with Mrs. Long's parents, Judge and Mrs. B. O. Roberson. Nick and Melissa went on to Dallas to attend the Southwest Conference basketball tournament. Molly remained here with her grandparents.

Glynn and Brenda Casselberry of Abilene spent Sunday with Glynn's grandmother, Leone Pearsey.

After being released from Haskell Memorial Hospital, Neat Bevel spent several days in Merkel with her daughter, Darlene Cummings. While ill, her children visited with her. They are Jack Bevel of Kenedy, Pat Kiddney, El Paso, Jack and Joy Harvey, Odessa, Darlene and Wendy Cummings, Merkel and James and Lela Bevel, Haskell.

Wendy Cummings of Merkel has been elected Badger mascot for Merkel High School for the 1993-1994 school year. Wendy is a junior and the granddaughter of Neat Bevel. This is the second time she has been elected mascot.

Juanita Ray of Houston spent two weeks with her mother, Elizabeth Cofield Corum.

Visiting during Spring Break with Mary Holden are her daughter, Millie Ehsani and grandsons, Nathan and Evan from Bryan.

The Country Cousins Square Dance Club held their St. Patrick's square dance Saturday night at the Wagon Wheel in Abilene. Elmer and Bernice Hilliard attended. Leon Ivey of Munday was the caller.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Yeldell had as visitors in their home, their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ronny Williams of Arlington, their son, Frank Jordan from Ft. Worth and their granddaughter and her mother, Angela and Pat Jordan from Stamford.

The Greater Independent Baptist Church's choir was in Stamford evening at the Solomon Temple Baptist Church for the Federation of Choir meeting.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Allen Clayton was their son, Edward Clayton from Dallas. He took them to Waco to attend the funeral services of Mr. Clayton's sister, Mrs. Doris Cole.

Rev. and Mrs. Clarence Walker's grandchildren are visiting them from Houston.

Recent visitors with Beulah Toliver were Jessie Clifton, Oklahoma City, Buster and Robbie Gholson, Abilene, grandchildren Bill and Nancy Casey, great grandchildren, Matt, Lee Ann and Jeffry, Abilene and Mrs. Toliver's sister, Dorothy Hines from Mineral Wells.

Edye and Wilton Davis of Dallas visited Friday and Saturday with Gladys O'Neal. Also visiting with Mrs. O'Neal was her cousin, Cecil Mae Archer from Crowell.

Leon Burson has started a 3 weeks series of treatments at the Abilene Rehab.

Jennifer Burson and a friend from Dallas are visiting Jennifer's father, David Burson, Mrs. Burson, other relatives and friends.

My sister-in-law, Hazel Bland, of Yoakum, is visiting her sister, Eunice Sonnamaker, other relatives and friends.

Salvation Army offers booklet to help on wills

The Salvation Army is offering a free booklet to assist the seven out of eight people who have not prepared a will.

With this booklet, the Salvation Army is offering information to help control the distribution of an estate to family, friends and charitable organizations. With an up-to-date will, an estate is distributed by one's own wishes rather than legal formulas.

Some think only wealthy people need a will, or that drawing a will is too expensive or complicated. The Salvation Army wants people to know, that without a will, the state will determine the disposition of assets, the welfare of one's spouse, and the guardianship of one's children.

For this free booklet write: The Salvation Army, Planned Giving, P.O. Box 2785, Lubbock, TX 79408.

PUBLIC NOTICE

BRIEF EXPLANATORY STATEMENTS

OF PROPOSED

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

SPECIAL ELECTION

MAY 1, 1993

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

Section 1 of Senate Joint Resolution 7 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the legislature to redistribute among other school districts ad valorem taxes levied and collected by a school district. The amendment would also allow the legislature to create county education districts with the taxable property of existing school districts in one or more counties combined. County education districts may levy, collect, and distribute ad valorem taxes as authorized by general law. The legislature would be allowed to set the rate of the ad valorem tax to be imposed in a school district or county education district or it may authorize the board of trustees of each school district or county education district to set the rate, provided that the rate of county education district ad valorem taxes may not exceed $1.00 per $100 valuation of taxable property, unless a higher rate is approved by the voters of the district. The amendment also provides that the amount of ad valorem taxes redistributed among school districts by the legislature and effectively redistributed within a county through county education districts may not exceed 2.75 percent of the sum of the state revenue appropriated for public schools and the revenue from local ad valorem taxes levied and collected for public schools. The term "state revenue" does not include revenue from ad valorem taxes, revenue for the provision of free textbooks, or contributions to a retirement system. Finally, the amendment provides that it does not affect the distribution of the available school fund under article VII, section 5, of the Texas Constitution.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment allowing limited redistribution of ad valorem taxes for schools, authorizing the legislature or local districts to set a minimum tax rate in county education districts, and placing a cap on the ad valorem tax levied by county education districts."

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

Section 2 of Senate Joint Resolution 7 proposes a constitutional amendment that would provide that, except for state educational mandates imposed in compliance with the Texas Constitution or federal law, or unless enacted by a vote of at least two-thirds of the members elected to each house of the legislature, a school district may not be required to comply with an obligation requiring expenditure of school district funds unless the obligation is fully funded. The amendment also requires the legislature to provide by law a procedure for determining whether an obligation is fully funded. In the absence of such a procedure, and at the request of a school district's board of trustees, the comptroller of public accounts shall determine whether or not an obligation is fully funded. This amendment applies only to state educational mandates enacted after December 31, 1993.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment exempting a school district from the obligation to comply with unfunded state educational mandates."

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 4 proposes an amendment to article VII, section 5(b), of the constitution, which currently authorizes the legislature to provide for using the permanent school fund to guarantee bonds issued by school districts and certain education-related revenue bonds issued by the state. The amendment would repeal the provision authorizing the use of the permanent school fund to guarantee state revenue bonds, but would permit the legislature to provide by law for the issuance of general obligation bonds or revenue bonds of the state for the purpose of making loans to, or purchasing bonds of, school districts for the purpose of acquisition, construction, or improvement of instructional facilities, including all furnishings. The amendment also provides that the state, pursuant to general law, may forgive the payment of principal and interest on all or part of a loan made to a school district under the amendment to partially finance an instructional facility. The cap of $750 million on the amount of bonds that could be issued under article VII, section 5(b), as amended, would be retained. The amendment would repeal the current provision of the constitution permitting the legislature to authorize bonds in excess of $750 million by two-thirds record vote of both houses of the legislature. While any of the general obligation bonds issued under the amendment or any of the interest on those bonds is outstanding and unpaid, there would be appropriated out of the first money coming into the state treasury in each fiscal year, not otherwise appropriated by the constitution, the amount sufficient to pay the principal and interest on the bonds that matured or became due that fiscal year.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the issuance of $750 million in state general obligation or revenue bonds to assist school districts in partially financing facilities, authorizing the state to forgive payments of loans made to a school district for partially financing facilities, and repealing the authorization for $750 million in state revenue bonds guaranteed by the permanent school fund."

Este es el informe explicatorio sobre la enmienda propuesta a la constitución que aparecerá en la boleta el día 1 de mayo de 1993. Si usted no ha recibido una copia del informe en español, podrá obtener una gratis por llamar al 1/800/252/8633 o por escribir al Secretario de Estado, P.O. Box 12060, Austin, Texas 78711

Indians place 8th in Anson track meet

The Haskell Indians placed eighth in a 17-team field Saturday at the annual Tiger Relays in Anson.

Seven individuals and two relay teams registered points in the meet.

Robert Huff placed second in the 800-meter run with a time of 2:06.14 and Eddy Gonzales placed second in the 400-meter dash (53.3). Also placing second was the 1600-meter relay team of Casey Coleman, Gonzales, Quinten Billington and Jonathan Tatum with a time of 3:39.18.

Coleman came in fourth in the 400 (54.7) and Billington was fifth in that event (55.64). Frankie Masias was fifth in the 1600 (5:07.01) and Cody Josselet was fifth in the 200-meter dash (25.05).

The 400-meter relay team of Justin Lisle, Gonzales, Tatum and Josselet won fifth place with a time of 46.67.

Also placing were Masias, sixth in the 800 (2:13.17), and Robert Johnson, sixth in the 200 (25.35).

The Indians will have an open date this weekend. Next competition will be March 26-27 in Abilene.

Laying foundation for a healthy diet

(Second in a Series)

One of the best ways to celebrate March, which is National Nutrition Month, is by learning to eat healthfully by using the new USDA pyramid.

According to Webster, a pyramid is "an immaterial structure built on a broad supporting base and narrowing gradually to an apex."

In this case of the food pyramid, it represents a general guide to selecting a healthful diet from a variety of food to obtain all the nutrients allotted and calories needed to stay healthy. Specifically you can see that the most graphic space is allowed to the Bread/Cereal/Rice/Pasta group to emphasize that 6 to 11 servings are needed daily depending on your age, size and activity level. You can obtain the recommended servings through wise selections such as:

¶ Whole grain choices for increased fiber.

¶ Servings made with less sugar and fat (bagel, English muffin, etc.)

¶ Less from baked goods made with flour (cakes, pies, etc.) and ordinarily higher in fat and sugar.

¶ Reduce fat and sugar added as spreads.

¶ Pastas with sauces with only half the butter or margarine and using skim milk to replace whole milk.

One serving would be as follows:

Bread (1 slice); hamburger (1/2 bun); English muffin (1/2); small roll, biscuit or muffin (1); cooked cereal (1/2 cup); dry cereal (1 ounce).

Many people believe that eating bread and cereals make you fat. For most of us, that is not true. It's usually all the butter, cream cheese and sugars added to breads and cereals that add extra calories. One serving from this group provides only about 80 calories.

Why are whole grain and enriched bread and cereal products an important part of a balanced diet? To provide the following nutrients:

Complex carbohydrates (starches) to provide energy, especially in lower fat diets recommended by various health organizations; fiber to provide bulk to help the body eliminate wastes; B vitamins, thiamin, riboflavin, folic acid; minerals, iron, magnesium, zinc.

Remember that laying a strong foundation by eating 6 to 11 servings from the Bread/Cereal/Rice/Pasta group daily will help to supply your body's energy and nutritional needs. So celebrate National Nutrition Month by wise selection from the USDA pyramid daily.

Houston show sets new records

With attendance surpassing 1.5 million and a grand champions steer selling for $350,000, this year's Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo set records, brought almost a million rodeo fans into the Astrodome and turned the city into one massive western extravaganza.

During its 61st anniversary celebration, the event:

¶ Recorded a total draw of 1,568,266 for general attendance, surpassing last year's total by 4 percent.

¶ Set a rodeo attendance record of 973,318, surpassing 1992's rodeo by 5 percent. Eight of the 18 rodeo performances set individual performance records, including Garth Brooks' all time high draw of 62,718. Sixteen of the 18 rodeo performances were sellouts.

¶ Established six world record auction sales marks: $350,000 for the grand champion steer; $77,000 for the grand champion barrow; $65,000 for the grand champion turkey; $45,000 for the reserve grand champion pen of broilers; $45,000 for the reserve grand champion turkey; and $38,000 for the reserve grand champion barrow.

Editor: Don't know why I keep taking The Free Press as I do not know very many people out there any more. But I love Haskell. It will always be home to me. I also love East Texas. It is a beautiful place.

I guess I will take the Free Press as long as I live. I can't see why I keep staying here. Next Sunday, March 7, if I live, I will be 96 years old and I am tired.

The coldest weather on record for March was experienced here March 19 when the mercury went down to 12 degrees, according to Judge P. D. Sanders, government weather observer.

Sheriff W. C. Allen and Deputy W. T. Sarrels of Haskell, joined by deputies W. W. Kitley and Frank Swearingen of Rule, assisted Stonewall County officers in a raid across the river in Stonewall one night this week. Five barrels of mash and a small quantity of whiskey was taken in the raid and two men were placed under arrest.

W. S. Pogue has moved his family here from Throckmorton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Walling and children spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mrs. Walling's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Watson of Rule.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Couch spent Sunday in Seymour where they visited Mr. and Mrs. George Andrus.

T. P. Hughes returned to his home at Georgetown Monday after spending several weeks at his ranch on Paint Creek.

90 Years Ago March 21, 1903

G. H. Cobb and family moved out to their ranch in the southeast part of the county this week. They spent the winter at their home in town in order to give their children the benefit of Haskell schools.

The latest report from the Rock Island surveying corps is that it has found a satisfactory crossing on the Brazos River below Belknap and is coming west in the direction of Throckmorton.

W. T. Hudson and J. L. Jones will start a shipment of fed cattle, mostly bulls, to St. Louis today or Monday.

Older worker week is being observed

Local communities are encouraged to celebrate Older Worker Week, March 14-20.

"Employers who look to the future and focus on maintaining a competitive edge are discovering the value of experienced workers," said Joe Rankin, president of Green Thumb, Inc., the Senior Community Service Employment Program, sponsored by Texas Farmers Union.

"Let us recognize and highlight the contributions of our senior workforce as we strengthen our commitment to investing in their talents and resourcefulness," Rankin continued.

Operating primarily in the rural areas of 132 Texas counties, the Green Thumb program provides over 1,000 older workers the opportunity of sharing their years of experience, hard work and dedication through community service training and employment projects. Funded through the Department of Labor, Green Thumb emphasizes the transition of its senior workforce back into private sector employment.

According to Green Thumb state director, Diane Cowan, "Green Thumb's Experience Works! training program matches employer needs with participant skills, abilities and interest. At no cost to the employer, Green Thumb provides recruitment, screening and referral of qualified applicants. We tailor the training to the job and share in the training costs."

"Not only during Older Worker

Week but every other week, employers should utilize the skills and abilities of our senior job seekers; hiring experience, dependability, reliability and dedication is just good business," concluded Rankin.

PROCLAMATION

As the year 2000 quickly approaches, Texas must conserve and nurture our natural resources in order to meet the economic and social challenges which lie ahead. Among our most valuable resources are the skills, talents, and abilities of our senior Texans.

Older Texans want to be active partners in the labors of tomorrow and we must provide them with the opportunity to share their years of experience, hard work, and dedication. We must invest in their resourcefulness, their talents, and recognize their contributions.

Since 1965, the Senior Community Service Employment Program, through organizations such as Texas Farmers Union Green Thumb, has provided senior Texans with training and employment opportunities to showcase their strengths, their wisdom, and their productivity.

Therefore I, Pat Henry
Mayor of Haskell do hereby proclaim the week of March 14-20, 1993, as older worker week in Haskell.

I urge all Employers, both public and private, to invest in Experience--Hire an Older Texan!

Judging winners announced

High-point individual: Matt Kiker.

East Side WMU studies missions

March 2, the East Side Baptist WMU met with Deborah Laird to begin a week of prayer for home missions. This includes all 50 states.

The U.S. and its territories are divided into 1,200 associations. The director of missions in each association has a plan. Spreading the gospel by making congregations among people groups is a priority task.

Prayer was the emphasis---for people to give of themselves, their time and their money. Volunteers were called for to help start many new works.

Missionaries and DOMs (directors of missions) were studied and prayed for on the West Coast, Gold Coast of Ventura County on the outskirts of Los Angeles, Iowa, the Dakotas, Alaska, Georgia and Boston.

Also stressed were opportunities for Southern Baptist youth. Among them:

Sojourners, a summer missionary program for high school students; innovators, college students who support themselves by working at secular jobs in a resort area and ministering in their off hours; semester missionaries, college or seminary students who serve for 10 weeks any time between August and May; and SPOTS (special projects other than summer), ministry during spring break each year when hundreds of young adult sand youth minister on beaches and in the inner cities.

Study club learns of student contests

The Progressive Study Club met March 11 in the community room.

Donna Cole, president, called the meeting to order and introduced Jo Nored Lane, a new member, and Jill Druessedow introduced her guest, Sue Medford.

The speaker's table and stand featured Happy St. Patrick's Day with paper shamrocks and a spring straw hat with a small shamrock on the band.

The program theme was education and Robbie McLelland was the director. She introduced Melodee Christian, Haskell elementary teacher, who informed members about UIL events students are engaged in, often working before and after school hours.

A child can enter only two events, such as geography, creative writing, story telling, picture memory and oral reading, which is open to fourth, fifth and sixth graders. Mrs. Christian has charge of oral reading for fifth and sixth graders. She named the teachers who had charge of the other contests.

Over 20 from each grade began oral reading in mid-January. Elimination contests at various times left three for each grade. Sixth graders, Tiffany Cadenhead read "Boys Are Awful," and Freddie Kingsberry read "A Terrible, Horrible, No Good, Very Bad Day." Fifth graders, Meg McManamon and Hilce Mulligan both read "Boys Are Awful." Bree Burgess, sixth, and Emily Wheat, fifth, had conflicts in schedules and could not attend.

The social period followed, but the children chose to go to the Dairy Queen. Hostesses Doris Reeves Jordan, Sandy Forehand, Frances Lane, Gladys O'Neal and Robbie Pitman, all dressed in various hues of green, served a variety of finger sandwiches, olives, roasted peanuts, limeade icebox pie, green punch from a crystal bowl, and coffee. The table cover was white lace over green. A beautiful crystal pitcher contained a bouquet of daffodils.

A business session followed. Secretary Judy Ray read the minutes of the February meeting. Treasurer Nelda Lane gave the financial report and called for dues and reservations for the dinner theater to be paid.

Vice president Oleta Cornelius announced that members and guests would meet at the community room on Friday, April 9, and depart at 5 p.m. for the Spring Dinner Theater at Abilene Christian University's Sewell Theater. "The Barretts of Wimpole Street" is the performance.

Bake sale set by local church

The choir of Greater Independent Baptist Church will have a bake sale Saturday, beginning at 9 a.m.

--Obituaries--

Nettie McCollum

Haskell was saddened Saturday morning with the passing of Nettie McCollum in Haskell Memorial Hospital. She had been in declining health for the past few years. She was 92.

She was one of the last of Haskell County's true pioneers, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. N. I. McCollum who owned and operated one of Haskell's very first commercial enterprises, an all-purpose hardware store.

Nettie was born Oct. 15, 1900, in Putnam. She graduated from Haskell High School and attended Texas Woman's University in Denton. She returned to Haskell in 1923 and began a 45-year career with Haskell National Bank. She served 25 of those years as an officer of the bank, being the first woman to attain that rank. She was the only female employee of the bank for many years. She retired Dec. 31, 1968.

She was selected as "Woman of the Year" by the Haskell Chamber of Commerce in 1964. She was an active member of the First Baptist Church and the Haskell Garden Club. She was a member of the Magazine club and the B&PW club before those organizations disbanded.

Funeral services were Wednesday afternoon at the First Baptist Church with the Rev. Howard Ratcliff and Dr. Troy Culpepper officiating. Interment was in Willow Cemetery, under direction of Holden-McCauley Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were Sterling Hise, Buford Cox, Abe Turner, Art Williams, Charles Swinson, Jimmy Owens, Elbert Johnson and Felton Everett.

She is survived by two nieces, Mary Ann Morris of Greenville and Sheila Ratcliff of Northridgeville, Ohio; and a nephew, Johnny Jordon of Arkansas.

She was preceded in death by her parents; a brother, John L. McCollum of Tyler; and a sister, Margarette Jordon of San Antonio.

at Harper-Talasek Funeral Home Chapel in Temple, officiated by Dr. Ed Stewart. Burial was in Bellwood Memorial Park.

Mrs. Howell was born Feb. 23, 1913, in Ellis County, the daughter of H. R. Collins and Mary Stovall Collins. She grew up in Haskell County. She married Norman Howell in 1943. He preceded her in death on Aug. 25, 1976. She had been a resident of Temple since Aug. 1, 1965, and was a member of the First Baptist Church of Temple.

Survivors include two sons, Jackie Howell of Temple and Jim Howell of Troy; a brother, E. C. Collins of Haskell; a sister, Ruby Fletcher of Temple; five grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

Dudley Pitman

Dudley "D.D." Pitman of Odessa died March 11 at Medical Center Hospital after a short illness. He was 84.

Funeral services were March 15 at Hubbard-Kelly Funeral Home Chapel with Andrew Purcella officiating. Burial was in Sunset Memorial Gardens.

Mr. Pitman was born Jan. 22, 1909, in Belton. He married Ava Lee Cameron in Haskell on Jan. 3, 1927. He was a Navy veteran of World War II. He had lived in Odessa since 1956 and was a retired oilfield roughneck. He was a member of VFW Post 4372 and the Baptist church.

Survivors include his wife, Ava Lee Pitman of Odessa; two sons, Don Pitman and Doyle Pitman, both of Odessa; two daughters, Beatrice Livingston and Wanda Weaver, both of Odessa; a brother, Archie Pitman of Aztec, N.M.; five grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren.

A message from the ABILENE EYE INSTITUTE & CATARACT SURGERY CENTER DEDICATED TO EXCELLENCE

We specialize in cataract surgery with intraocular lens implant and routinely use the small incision phacoemulsification technique. We have 2 modern, fully equipped operating rooms each with its own Zeiss operating microscope and Phacoemulsifier. We also have an observation room so that family and friends may view the surgery while it is happening. Our ambulatory surgery center is State licensed and Medicare approved. We have performed over 3,000 cataract implant operations since 1987. Our doctors accept Medicare Assignment and we think you will find our fees very competitive with most hospitals. Our friendly, dedicated staff is available to answer any of your questions. If you need transportation, we can help.

Graduates

John Worth and Jewell Lea Wallace of Haskell are pleased to announce, and Maj. Steven Knott of Kirtland AFB, N.M., is financially relieved, that Juliejohn Wallace Knott has finally received a bachelor of arts degree in Rhetoric and Communication from the Speech Department of the University of Oregon. Mrs. Knott, a 1982 graduate of Haskell High School, has no plans to pursue an advanced degree at this time, as she is quite busy pursuing her 6-year-old daughter, Katherine (shown with her), and surviving an as-yet-unnamed varmint due in mid-August. --Rule--

by Vicky Anderson

Belated anniversary greetings are sent to James and Jo Ruth Lisle for March 1st; and to Eddie and Jackye Leonard, which was on the 3rd. Happy birthdays are wished Lucy Connally of Hamlin on the 10th; and Parnell Anderson of Stamford on the 11th. On the 18th birthday greetings are sent to the Leonard twins, John and Paul.

Enjoyed seeing Jan Wolsch of Old Glory and Anita Weaver of Rule in the grocery store recently.

Get well wishes are sent to Mrs. John Duncan of Rule, who has an infection of the lung. We were happy to learn that Malcolm and Maxine Hertenberger both got good reports on their check-ups.

Ladies of the Rule Church of Christ had a planning session on March 1st for a baby shower for Denise Turner, also for the Ladies Supper, also for the Senior Supper for March 25th.

The First Sunday Singing was hosted by the Rule Church of Christ on March 7th at 2:30 p.m. This is always an inspiring time. Sorry that your correspondent was otherwise engaged.

Get well wishes are sent to Bob McLain of Rule, whom I understand is doing quite well at this time. Also, to Bill Goree, Wayne Carlton, Virginia Moore and her brother in Ft. Worth, Ruth Vassar and Madge Woodson, also Harry Bounds and Pauline McKinley.

Many area schools, including Rule, are scheduled for spring break this week and next.

Would you believe there is still coffee for a nickel a cup at a local cafe?

Happy birthday is wished Gladys Dyckes on March 24th, a rule resident who now resides at Rice Springs. Also, to Eddie Merle Proctor, Greg Bryan, Lois Hughes, Peggy Ekdahl and Louise Calhoun, Charla Davis, Clinton Rogers and nephew, Donnie McElreath in Wyoming.

On March 25th the Rule Church of Christ will host a supper for the 1993 Senior Class.

Mildred Smith and Vicky

Anderson were in Rule the night of the 4th of March to attend the program put on by th elementary students and to tour the rooms as well as have punch and cookies. The program was quite interesting, which consisted of American Folk Songs, some that we had not heard in years and some that we had never heard. It was a most enjoyable hour, and the students with their teachers' help did a great job. This was in observance of Public School Week. The punch and cookies were delicious.

Our sympathy is extended to L. G. Moore upon the loss of his sister.

Get well wishes are sent to Jack Gray. His oldest daughter, Evelyn, graduated from high school with the oldest Anderson girl.

On Tuesday, the 9th of March, ran into Kris Miller, who is a Senior Bible Communications major there. He was on his way to Rule to talk to the 4th and 5th grades about his summer in Africa. Later, we saw his wife, Tori, at Smith-Adams Dorm where she works in the afternoon. We took a minute to run into the dorm to see Danny Kittley and sons, Luke and Ben.

Following lab work on Friday, your writer had breakfast with Ophelia Reed at the Cliff House.

Next week a happy birthday is wished for Don Cobb and Eldred Link on the 25th, Roy Martindale on the 26th; then, on the 28th one is wished for Bill Dennis and Michael Murray of Rule and for Steve Clary, also on the 28th; for Tiffany Proctor and Kolt Kittley on the 30th, too; and for Jason Halliburton on the 31st.

This past Thursday, Mike and Marka Wilcox treated Marka's great-aunt Vicky Anderson to breakfast at Cliff House.

We had quite a touch of winter this past Friday with the snow and cold wind. Too bad that the snow melted as soon as it hit.

Remember the first public viewing of the area One Act Play contest is to be given in Munday on the 18th of March (today), and beginning at 5 p.m. Next, the plays will be presented in Aspermont (Zone One) on the 23rd of March which will begin at 3:30. Let's all try to attend and lend our support to these hard-working students and directors.

Hope that all teachers and students are enjoying a good Spring Break this week.

It was good to see Jessie Pilley and her daughter, Margaret Kittley of Rule a few days ago.

Our prayers and good wishes are with Bobbie Olson and Jymann Hokanson as tests are begun to determine the cause of their problems.

It was great to run into Jennifer Beard Mathis at Hendrick Medical Center on Monday, March 15. She is a Radiological student there. Jennifer is a Rule native.

On Sunday the Andersons saw some Rule young men in Stamford who had been golfing: Jeffrey and Doug Sorrells, Santos and Rameriz Baiza and others. It was certainly a beautiful day for that sport.

Thought for the day: "Remember when five dollars worth of groceries wouldn't fit into one bag, let alone one stomach?" (Borrowed)

Wins third

Hollie Smith of Rule FFA placed third in the San Antonio Livestock Show with this heavyweight Chester. Also placing from Rule were Angela Hisey, 11th with her Cross; Jana Saffel, 11th with her Hampshire; and Cory Robinson, 12th with his Duroc.

TAX PLANNING

Written By
Gerald Rodgers, CPA

1993 TAX NUMBERS ADJUSTED FOR INFLATION

The IRS makes an annual inflation adjustment tot he tax brackets, the personal exemption amounts, the standard deduction amounts, and certain other tax numbers. These new numbers should be used in your early 1993 tax planning, keeping in mind that we're likely to see some of these numbers change again with new 1993 tax legislation.

• The income tax brackets for 1993 have been adjusted as follows:

TAX RATE	Single	Married (Joint)	Head of Household
15%	$ 1-22,100	$ 1-36,900	$ 1-29,600
28%	22,101-53,500	36,901-89,150	29,601-76,400
31%	Over $53,500	Over $89,150	Over $76,400

• The deduction for each personal exemption increases in 1993 to $2,350 (phased out for taxpayers with higher incomes).

• Standard deductions have been increased for 1993 as follows:

Joint returns and surviving spouses	$6,200
Married filing separately	3,100
Head of household	5,450
Single	3,700

Higher standard deductions are provided for blind and elderly taxpayers.

• The amount of unearned income that children under the age of 14 may have before the "kiddie tax" kicks in remains at $1,200 in 1993. The amount of income at which taxpayers begin to lose the tax-free exemption for college bond interest increases to $68,250 for marrieds, and to $45,500 for singles. The maximum payment that can be made to a 401(k) retirement plan in 1993 increases from $8,728 to $8,994. The mileage allowance for business travel in 1993 remains at 28 cents a mile.

• The tax rates for FICA and self-employment taxes stay the same in 1993. However, the wage base increases to $57,600 for the social security portion of the tax and to $135,000 for the medicare portion.

Students present garden club program

The Haskell Garden Club met March 11 at the Haskell National Bank community room.

Club members met at 11:30 for a sandwich luncheon. The theme of study was "Waves of Grain."

Marsha Whittemore was program director. She presided in the absence of the president, Mona Gibson. The roll was answered with naming a favorite grain. The minutes were read by Lorene Dewey and were approved.

Mrs. Whittemore introduced Mr. James Bevel who had brought some of his students with him. He is the agriculture teacher in Haskell High School. He and his students talked about the different types of soils in Haskell. He brought soils of several types and also hand-outs of maps and codes of soils in this area. He and the students explained each type of soil. They also brought laminated samples of grains to show. It was most interesting to know the soil where we live.

After the luncheon, a mini show of irises and roses was discussed as a feature of the April 8 meeting. Members were reminded to remember this date and to bring their irises and roses.

Those enjoying the luncheon were Mr. James Bevel, Blake Henshaw, Jason Torres, Kevin Grand, Holly Hobgood, Shana McKenzie, Juanita Bevel, Peggy Burnett, Helen Cox, Lorene Dewey, Ernestine Dickson, Margie Dorner, Gladys O'Neal, Leone Pearsey, Florence Peden, Dee Sprayberry, Marsha Whittemore, Ozelle Frierson and Irene King.

Hasskamps celebrate anniversary

Harold E. and Lorena M. Hasskamp of Hurst celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on March 14 with a reception and dinner at Peace Lutheran Church in Hurst.

Hosts were their children and their spouses: Anita Harris of Sandy Hook, Conn., Lt. Col Charles W. Hasskamp and Catherine Hasskamp of Beale AFB, Calif., M/Sgt. (Ret) John R. Hasskamp and June Hasskamp of New Castle, England, and Bruce Martin and Michele Martin of Spring, Texas. There are 11 grandchildren.

The Hasskamps were married March 14, 1943, in Sagerton. She is the former Lorena Druessedow of Haskell. Harold is a native of Crosby, Minn., and a graduate of CI-HS, class of 1937. He is a retired Air Force lieutenant colonel.

They are members of the Retired Officers Association and Peace Lutheran Church. They have lived in Hurst for the past 26 years.

South African weaver birds can build communal nests as large as small houses.

Fashion show winners named

Twenty-four Haskell County 4-H clothing project participants modeled their garments for family members, friends and 4-H leaders during the annual Haskell County 4-H Fashion Show held Sunday in the Haskell National Bank community room.

Tonya Burson of the Haskell 4-H Club served as master of ceremonies. Melanie Michaels led the audience in the 4-H motto and pledge. Shana McKenzie recognized the judges and other special guests and officially welcomed everyone to the event.

Sharee Gardner served as the commentator for the afternoon revue of fashions.

All 24 participants received blue award ribbons.

First-place winners were Amy Barbour, Amanda Crawford and Halee Walton, all of Paint Creek; and Amy Burson, J. J. Comedy, Jennifer Comedy, Kristin Cypert and Nisha Patel, all of Haskell.

All first-place winners will represent Haskell County at the District Fashion Show in Hamlin April 3.

Second-place winners were Megan Bird, Brandy Gardner, Shayne McKenzie, Mira Patel, Jennifer Smith and Kaki Stapleton, all of Haskell.

Third-place winners were Paige Lammert of Sagerton and Katy McDaniel, Krishna Patel, Anna

Rieger and Selina Ruth Salinas, all of Haskell.

Other participants and their special awards were:

Cotton awards: Tara Nicole Hamilton and Heather Steele, both of Haskell; best models: Jenny Goudeau and Jessica Rieger, both of Haskell; and best handwork: Bergen Peiser of Haskell.

Christie Stapleton, Haskell 4-H assistant club manager, and Joetta Burnett, representing the Haskell County Extension Homemakers, made the award presentations. Each 4-H model received a special award, compliments of the Haskell County Extension Homemakers.

Rhonda Dorner and Melanie Michaels recognized the following clothing project leaders:

Joetta Burnett, Nene Comedy, Tonya Cypert, Sharee Gardner, Holly Hobgood, Pat Jordan, Shawn Jordan, Janis McDaniel, Brandon

McFadden, Shana McKenzie, Usha Patel, Charlotte Peiser, Abby Salinas, Jane Smith, Kay Smith, Christie Stapleton, Bernice Stewart and Heather Stewart, all of Haskell; Kim Crawford of Paint Creek; and Phyllis Davis of Sagerton.

Following the fashion show, refreshments were served by the Haskell 4-H leaders and parents. The Haskell 4-H Club hosted the fashion show again this year.

Rochester church schedules revival

The spring revival at the First Baptist Church in Rochester will begin Sunday and continue through Wednesday.

Services will be at the usual time on Sunday, with Sunday school at 10 a.m. and worship at 11 a.m. The evening will begin with a prayer meeting at 7:15 and worship at 7:30. Weekday services will begin with the noon meal, followed by worship services from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. Weekday evening services will begin with prayer service at 7:15 and worship at 7:30.

The Rev. John Gillispie, former pastor of the First Baptist Church in Knoxville and now pastor of First Baptist in Benjamin, will be the guest preacher.

Gillispie and his wife, Peggy, have four daughters, all living in Amarillo. He was ordained by First Baptist Church of Lamesa and all of his pastorates have been in Texas.

He is a graduate of Wayland Baptist University in Plainview, and attended Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth. He is a gifted preacher and his long experience as a pastor equips him in preaching God's word with power and authority.

Music will be directed by the church's own music director, Bobby O'Neal.

Mindy Ballard gets recognition

Mindy Ballard has been named a "Distinguished Student" at Tarleton State University in Stephenville.

Robert C. Fain, vice president for Academic Affairs, said the distinction is the university's way of honoring her academic achievements and recognizing her importance on campus.

Defusing Type A Personalities: Researchers have refined their definition of Type A personality and have created exercises to modify these harmful characteristics. Those at greatest risk for heart disease are frequently angered, cynically mistrust most people, often are openly hostile, and can be rude, uncooperative, and easily disgusted. Exercises designed to change these traits include driving in the right-hand lane on the freeway for an entire day, concentrating on not interrupting others, and standing on the longest checkout line in the supermarket.

STAMP Collecting Tips and Treasures

Get A Guide To Great Stamp Fun

The joys of stamp collecting can be easier to achieve than ever, thanks to the help of the latest edition of The Postal Service Guide to U.S. Stamps.

It contains more than 2,000 helpful illustrations, a wealth of basic stamp collecting information and extensive lists of philatelic organizations, publications and resources. Also included are expanded sections for stamped envelopes and postal cards, and there are increased listings of valuable varieties. The Guide also provides market-based values for more than 3,000 stamps and stationery items.

The latest edition features a stylized color image of outer space, dominated by the planet Saturn. It is accented by an illustration of the corresponding Saturn/Voyager 2 stamp, one of ten designs from the Space Exploration booklet. The theme is continued inside with an entertaining, informative article on the history of American space exploration efforts and accomplishments.

The Postal Service Guide to U.S. Stamps, Item No. 8891, is available for $5.95 per book, plus 50 cents for handling per total order, from: The United States Postal Service, Philatelic Sales

Whether for yourself or as a gift to a new collector, a stamp collector's guide from the Post Office can set the seal on stamp collecting enjoyment.

Division, P.O. Box 449997, Kansas City, MO 64144-9997. The Philatelic Sales Division accepts payment by check, money order, Visa, MasterCard and Discover. Orders may be made by phone (816-455-4880) or FAX (816-453-7264).

Long-time coach to be banquet speaker

Guest speaker at the Haskell Chamber of Commerce banquet will be Irving MacArthur football coach Ray Overton, who began his 45-year coaching career right here in Haskell County.

Overton has been coach at MacArthur for 10 years and his teams have reached the playoffs in seven of those years.

He received his BS degree from Texas A&M and his master's in education from Abilene Christian University.

He coached one year at Paint Creek, 15 years at Haskell and 19 years at Abilene Cooper before moving to Irving.

He is past president and a member of the Board of Directors of the Texas High School Coaches Association and is a member of the association's Hall of Honor. He coached the North All-Star team.

A pilot in the Air Force during World War II, Overton and his wife, Margaret, have one daughter.

Past Presidents

A special Presidents' Table is set up at the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet to seat the past leaders of the organization and to recognize them for their efforts.

Invited to the 1993 banquet are Past Presidents H. V. Woodard, Raja Hassen, Wallace Cox Jr., Bailey Toliver, Charles Thornhill, Abe Turner, Gene Long, Royce Williams, George Fouts, Bill Comedy, Tom Bartfield, Don Munsler, Robert Greenroy, Bob Philpot, John Rike, Audrey Carroll, John Wayne McDermott, Dickie Greenwood, Bud Lane and Conrad Roewe.

Deceased past presidents are Sam Roberts, Chesley Phelps, John A. Couch, J. M. Crawford, Alfred C. Pierson, Hallie Chapman, Harold Spain, Carl Wheatley, Gaston Hattox, James A. Byrd, Joe Williams, Myron Biard, Dr. T. W. Williams, J. E. Walling Jr., Olin Dotson, Tom Watson, Wayne Lehrer and W. O. Holden.

Lonnie Meredith, a new member of the Chamber's Board of Directors, is a pharmacist at The Drug Store.

He is a member of the Kiwanis Club, the Big Country Pharmaceutical Association and the Texas Pharmaceutical Association. He is a member of the Church of Christ.

He and his wife, Kim, are parents of a son, Nathan.

2nd Saturday big success

As its originators had hoped, Super 2nd Saturday in Haskell has been very successful, drawing local citizens and out-of-town shoppers into the area for the entertainment, food-game-and-craft booths and special sales.

There are 45 local businesses participating in the activity, marked by turquoise and shocking-pink flags.

Many service clubs, churches and other organizations take advantage of the opportunity to have food booths, craft sales and game areas with all proceeds going to the sponsors.

Von Marr is chairman of the Haskell Business Association of the Chamber of Commerce.

Message from the President

By Conrad Roewe
Outgoing President

At a Chamber of Commerce annual meeting, we look both backward and forward---to past achievements and to future goals.

The Board of Directors of the Haskell Chamber of Commerce is grateful to the hundreds of Chamber members and other citizens who help to draw attention to Haskell, to attract visitors and to encourage residency.

We congratulate the Haskell

Business Association of the Haskell Chamber of Commerce for outstanding promotions through Christmas drawings and the ongoing Super 2nd Saturday effort.

Joint efforts with the City of Haskell in tourism programs, the night Christmas Parade, the annual Fly-In Breakfast and the traditional Sunday in the Park have produced successful events that brought thousands to our community.

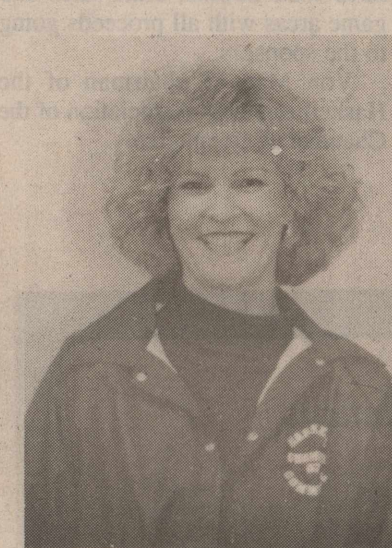

Although we have lost some businesses, we have also seen opening of several new ones. Visitors comment on the progressiveness of Haskell and on the community effort of togetherness.

We all need to continue to seek new businesses and new industries, and to encourage former citizens to move back here to retire.

A positive approach is the key to any success. No one responds to negative thinking. We have to face the facts realistically, then proceed with positive action.

The community leaders who make up the Board of Directors of the Haskell Chamber of Commerce represent many segments of our town--business, industry, retail trade, tourism, farming, professionals--and all have the interests of the entire populace. We are proud to have these combined and individual strengths.

David Middleton

David Middleton became manager of the Chamber of Commerce in 1992, succeeding Wanda Dulaney.

Middleton is a 32-year veteran of Texas High School coaching. He retired in 1990 and moved back to Haskell from Houston.

During his 32 years in coaching, Middleton worked with the youth of Texas in four different schools. He started his coaching career at Haskell and then coached at Abilene High, Brazoswood High in Lake Jackson and Klein Forest High School in Houston.

He was honored as the Greater Houston Area Basketball Coach of the Year during the 1982-83 season, and was chosen Coach of the Year in District 15-5A in both 1982-83 and 1985-86. He was honored as District 25-5A Coach of the Year twice and was chosen head coach of the 1979 Texas High School Coaches' South All-Star team, which responded with a record-breaking 114-88 victory in the July Classic in Fort Worth.

In 1987, Middleton was honored by the Texas High School Coaches Association for career basketball victories of over "500". He also was named recipient of the Golden Award given by Scholastic Coach and Franklin Life.

A graduate of Haskell High School, Middleton earned his bachelor's degree from North Texas University in Denton.

Since moving back to Haskell,

Middleton has been active in community affairs. He is on the board of directors for the Haskell Country Club and the Haskell Civic Center; serves as president of the Kiwanis Club and the Haskell County Retired Teachers Association. He is a member of the administrative board of the First United Methodist Church, is a member of the Texas High School Coaches Association and works as a sports broadcaster with KVRP radio, in addition to being Chamber manager.

HASSEN'S

Haskell
1933-1993 our 60th year

We believe in the importance of the everyday work of the Chamber of Commerce as so succinctly written by Will Durant in his Story on Civilization.

"Civilization is a stream with banks. The stream is sometimes filled with blood from people killing, shouting, and doing things historians usually record, while on the banks, unnoticed, people build homes, raise children, sing songs, write poetry and even whittle statues. The story of civilization is the story of what happened on the banks. Historians...ignore the banks of the river."

The Haskell Chamber is dedicated to the progress of the community.

Chamber wears many hats

The Haskell Chamber of Commerce is responsible for:

1. Planning activities to draw large crowds to Haskell.
2. Publicizing our town.
3. Attracting tourists and new residents.
4. Expanding retail trade.
5. Working with the Haskell Industrial Foundation to pursue further industrial development.
6. Making known the resources of Haskell and promoting the town in its endeavors.
7. Working with other organizations and groups, often serving as an umbrella for combined efforts.
8. Keeping abreast of developments in oil and agriculture and other interests.

9. Maintaining liaison with churches, schools, city and county governments, service clubs and other organizations.

10. Promoting professional development.
