Christmas tree burning slated Thursday night

Don't throw those Christmas trees out in the alley or dumpster, and for sure don't try to burn them yourself.

The Iowa Park Volunteer Fire Department will do it for you, New Year's Eve.

As a public service, firemen will be on hand to dispose of the dangerous trees, and make sure no one is injured and no property is damaged.

Just take your tree and trimmings to the vacant block between Third and Fourth Streets, just north of Ken's Pizza, before 7 p.m. Thursday. There are already some trees there, marking the spot.

Happy New Year

Roll-out containers to be serviced today

A change in the day roll-out trash containers are picked up by the city has been made for this week only, according to Mike Price, city director of public works.

The containers are normally picked up on Fridays, but because tomorrow is New Year's Day, they will be picked up New Year's Eve, Price said.

The change will affect only the roll-out containers and will be this week only, Price emphasized.

Hill resigns JP post

For the first time since 1970, voters of Precinct 3 will be electing a new Justice of the Peace.

Virgil Hill, who was elected in 1970 after the death of Robert Brubaker who formerly held that post, submitted his resignation Tuesday to commissioners court.

The effective date of the resignation is today, Hill confirmed.

Potential candidates for the office have until 5 p.m. Jan. 8 to file for a place on the March ballot.

Judge Hill, who was re-elected to his current four-year term in 1986, said his decision to resign "had been up in the air for about two months."

He cited health problems as his reason for the resignation.

Workers to begin rebuilding Wall

Workers are expected to commence a project to rebuild Wall Street from the railroad to Diamond as soon as the weather clears, James Barrington, city administrator, said.

Work was to have begun this week, but delayed due to weather.

The project is expected to be completed in March.

WINTERY CHRISTMAS - Freezing drizzle began collecting on everything it touched Friday afternoon, bringing traffic Saturday to almost a standstill. Iowa Park police reported very few accidents as result of icy streets, and most of those were when one vehicle would slide into another that was parked. No injuries were reported. Ice on streets and sidewalks protected from the sun was still there Wednesday. But all the weather was not ice. Thursday evening it rained heavily, with measurements ranging from 1.32 in the city to over two inches at Kamay. Just before midnight Friday, the area was covered by heavy sleet and hail, which fell during a thunder and lightning display.

Major stories of 1987 are reviewed

School athletic and musical groups, and construction by the city, school and churches, along with numerous major vehicle accidents and arrests by the police department.

An on-going story that carried throughout most of the year and will continue into 1988 is the city's problems with its sanitary landfill, created both by the state and the owner of the property being leased by the city.

And while the news load was heavy during 1987, the coming year's news is expected to be even heavier and more active, as Iowa Park rolls up its sleeves to observe its 100th anniversary.

The following is a look at the year past:

JANUARY

Possibly indicating the year to come, the Leader's lead story Jan. 1 was a report of a burglary at the Sonic Drive In, in which $50 in cash and some cigarettes were taken. The Iowa Park Volunteer Fire Department again sponsored a Christmas tree burning on New Year's Eve, both as a safety factor and to assist the city trash department. A 44-year-old Randlett, Okla. man was killed in a head-on collision with James Gregory Patterson and Leonard Gregory Untalan, just west of FM 369 on Old Iowa Park Road. Resurfacing of the track at Hawk Stadium was completed. Ronnie Feltman received the Fireman of the Year award and Joe Noel Jr. the Special Service award at the annual firemen's banquet. Recipients of awards at the annual Hawk football banquet included Robert Adams "Outstanding Hawk," Wayne Oltman "Ballhawker," David Meissner and Charlie Stamm "Hustler," and Billy Kenyon "Jackie Denton Memorial Award." An ice storm in the latter part of the month temporarily cut off electric service to numerous customers both in the city and surrounding area. Robert Adams was named All-State by the Texas Sports Writers Association to the first defensive unit and second offensive platoon. Scott Davis was among 60 finalists nominated for the Academic All-State Team. Recipients of the annual Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce awards were: James Barrington, Citizen of the Year; Carl Sullivan, Outstanding Senior Citizen; Greg Miller, Outstanding Educator, Freddie Daume, Outstanding Agriculturist, and Cryovac the initial Chamber's Outstanding Commerce Award. City workmen constructed two attractive rest benches in the boulevard area of West Park. The father and son team of Otto and Pete Barker purchased 3-M Cafe from Mr. and Mrs. Jim McClendon.

FEBRUARY

Deanna Sosebee, Iowa Park 4-H Club member, exhibited winning entries in the dairy goat judging of the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show in Fort Worth. TU Electric announced a 3.7-percent reduction in utility bills, resulting from reduced fuel charges. School trustees approved purchase of a computer system for the administration office at a cost of $52,968. The city council received a delay in implementing its sanitary landfill changes required by the Texas Department of Public Health, but the issue would prove to be an on-going problem throughout the year. John Mollet was named pastor of First United Methodist Church. Forty-seven members of the Iowa Park High School Band and 11 Junior High Band were named to their respective All-District Bands. Burglars were successful in both entering and stealing from the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Harrel Sullivan and John Clapp, southeast of the city, while the couples were asleep. Tops in sales of the annual Camp Fire Candy Sale were Wendy Bridwell, Sarah Kaspar, Jennifer Eiben, Stacy Eiven and Michael Gaitan. Iowa Park's Hawk basketball team lost 54-45 in a playoff with Bowie for second place in Dist. 6-AAA (Decatur was champion). IPHS mock trial team, composed of Cyndi Blanton, Amy Russell, Jana Coltrain, Rhonda Foehner, Jimmy Harper, Kristen Sharpe, Wes Ward and Phil Thames for the second year qualified for state competition.

MARCH

Workmen began tearing out concrete around city hall in the final phase of an eight-year-long renovation project. A 54-year-old woman being held on an intoxication charge in city jail made an unsuccessful attempt to Marvin Robertson, earned $289.60 to win first place in a Jump-A-Thon at Kidwell Elementary. Laurie Espinoza and Lori Allen, junior and senior respectively, were named to the All-District basketball team. Burk Burnett won both the girls' and boys' large school divisions, while smaller school winners were Bowie and Henrietta, of the first annual Iowa Park Lions Club Hawk Relays. The same weekend, Iowa Park Junior High swept all four divisions of a track meet at Henrietta. Carla Pool was named Outstanding Exhibitor of the annual Iowa Park FFA and 4-H Project Show. Ray Gholson was singled out for a special recognition at the Wichita County Junior Livestock Show, for having worked as a volunteer every year since the event's inception. Hawk basketball players Brad Huff and Bill Chandler were named All-District, and Sean Robinson honorable mention. Two Wichita Falls men were injured, one fatally, when their van ran into the blockade in front of Iowa Park High School. IPHS one-act play entry shared first in district competition. Iowa Park Little League Baseball workers launched a successful fund-raising drive to replace the light polls at the fields. Missy Logan and Kyle Long were named to the All-State Choir for the second year.

APRIL

The 23 Study Club recognized Dee Ann Todd and David Wesley Ward as Outstanding Senior Girl and Boy of the year. In a light turnout of voters, Wendall House, Don Decker and Gary Fielding were elected to the school board, while city council incumbents Johnny Coker and Diane Robnett were returned to office and Virgil Woodfin won the only contested alderman seat vacated by George Hammonds who decided not to seek reelection. Danny Fisher's 35-foot-fall while installing lights at the high school tennis courts was broken by a pipe fence railing, averting serious injury. IPHS girls' tennis team, lead by singles champion Jenny Bowerman, won the Dist. 6-AAA championship. The boys' team turned the same trick the following week, with Bill Chandler and Mark Molsbee defeating Matt Gerstner and Jeff Bartow for the doubles title. The Civil Air Patrol conducted a realistic air crash search training session at Lake Buffalo. The high school A Cappella Choir captured the coveted Sweepstakes Award for the eighth consecutive year (12 of the past 20) at the Regional UIL Concert and Sight Reading Contest. Groundbreaking ceremony for a new sanctuary at Faith Baptist Church was held. Spokesmen for both the Chamber of Commerce and city government rated the year's annual Clean-Up Week highly successful. Susan Dillard succeeded Dee Blackwell as secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. Ten tracksters, with Scott Weaver leading a delegation of three boys and Lori Allen tops among seven girls, earned places in the Region One meet by placing first or second at the Dist. 6-AAA meet. Coin changing machines at two businesses were hit by someone using bogus paper money. Pack 7 and Troop 7 Scouts adopted a two-mile stretch of Old Iowa Park Road by pledging to keep it clean, as part of a Texas High Department program to save taxpayer money.

MAY

Louis Glover Hopkins couldn't stop her car in time at the Bell Road railroad crossing, skidded onto the track and then got out just before a train struck the right rear fender, inflicting minor damage but not injuring her. School trustees began a lengthy study of building space needs in the district. Iowa Park Tennis Association turned over $1,000 to the school district to pay for lights at the high school courts. Jenny Bowerman, Lori Allen and Scott Weaver earned trips to the state athletic meet in Austin. Sarah Owens and Brett Hale were named valedictorian and salutatorian, respectively, of the senior class. A pavilion was constructed in city hall park and the first of monthly "Summer in the Park" events were held there. Awards presented at the annual Iowa Park FFA banquet included: Carla Pool, Outstanding Agriculture Science Student; Cody Franks, Star Chapter Farmer; Susan Howell, Star Greenhand; LaDonna Chandler, D&K Agriculture Accomplishment Award, and Mike Thorn, Top Salesman and Chapter Agribusiness. Stanley Williamson was named 1986 Business Professional Conservationist for the 51-county, 39-district area. Trustees denied an appeal to be placed on the career ladder by sixth grade teacher Eddie Jones. A 26-year-

JUNE

Water was the big story in the first issue in June. The valley area was flooded out after rains ranging from 5.5 to over 11 inches fell in the area, overloading the creeks and Wichita River. And the big rains set the stage at Lake Iowa Park where, for the first time in more than 20 years, boat races were held. The Hawk baseball team's season ended at the regional level with a 10-6 loss to Kermit in a game played at Abilene. An Albuquerque, N.M. man was killed in an accident just west of the city on US 287. The Chamber of Commerce entered a community-promotion booth in the Wichita Falls Fallsfest. A large trailer for hauling Hawk Band instruments was received and customized, a gift from the Band Boosters. Sam Laird became the third manager of the Cryovac plant, replacing Frank Gossett who was transferred to South Carolina. Gossett, who was serving as president of the Chamber of Commerce, was succeeded in that position by Robert Palmer. School trustees approved purchase of four portable classrooms to meet state-mandated teacher-pupil ratio of 22:1, with one being located at Kidwell Elementary and three at Bradford Elementary. Patsy Lane was installed as Worthy Matron of Iowa Park Chapter, Order of Eastern Star. Holliday's baseball team made it all the way to the state tournament, but lost in the first round to Three Rivers. City aldermen approved a long-standing policy of hauling brush for citizens to the landfill. Four graduating classes, 1965, 1966, 1967 and 1968, held a joint reunion.

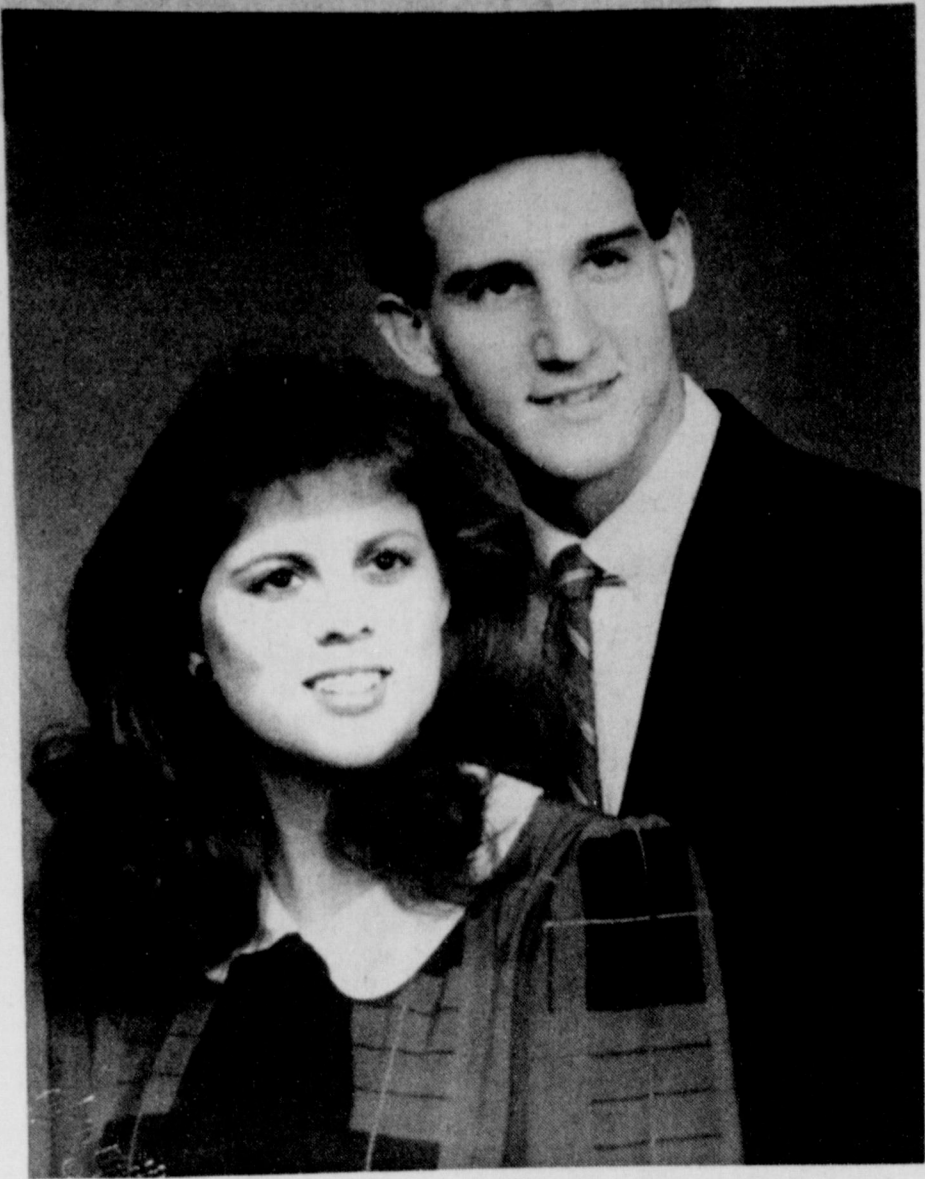

JULY

Iowa Parkan Tom Venhaus was promoted to superintendent of the Midway Independent School District. The month's "Summer in the Park" major feature was free watermelon and a program of patriotic music by the Sheppard AFB Blue Falcon Choral. Clifford Whitt was installed Worshipful Master of the Iowa Park Masonic Lodge. Firemen were kept extremely busy with grassfires during Fourth of July week. Thirty-one junior high students, under the guidance of Myrna Sharpe, toured Washington, D.C. Installed as new presidents of the two Lions Clubs in Iowa Park were: Ron Woods, Iowa Park Lions Club, and Sam Hunter, Iowa Park Evening Lions Club. A $6-million, 36,000-square foot expansion to the Cryovac plant was announced, and when completed would take the employee level to 625. A 1980 model automobile stolen from a Wichita Falls dealership was found half submerged in Lake Iowa Park, near the dam. Eleanor Bell returned to Iowa Park after completing two years service at the American Samoa Baptist Academy on the island of Tutuila. The Senior Little League All-Stars made it all the way to the state tournament at Farmers Branch, but lost there in the first round. TU Electric manager Wayne House retired after more than 40 years with the company, and was succeeded by Harold Smith, who moved here from Fort Worth. Hawk athletic star Scott Weaver accepted a football scholarship to attend Eastern New Mexico Univ. at Portales.

AUGUST

"Summer in the Park" feature of the month was presentation of "The Wizard of Oz" by the Summer Youth Theatre, and an ice cream making contest. The Movie Store, a video rental firm, opened its doors for business in Park West Shopping Center. City councilmen were pleasantly surprised

Cook of the Week

Linda (Mrs. Harold) Smith, the cook for the last week of 1987, shared six of her recipes that are most welcome after all the rich and sumptuous holiday fare. One of the recipes is Asparagus Roll.

Cultivated asparagus has been a luxury vegetable throughout its history. However, of all the familiar vegetables, none is less documented than asparagus. It is supposed to have been known in the ancient world. We notice its presence in France in the 17th century, but do not know how long it had been there.

The ancient Egyptians cultivated asparagus and considered it a worthy offering to gods. Julius Caesar ate it in Lombardy with melted butter, which is how it is served there today.

Even though it is agreed that asparagus is a plant of the Old World, it was widely naturalized in the United States. Thomas Jefferson grew it from imported seeds, but he did not introduce it in this county because it was mentioned in an American garden book in 1775, and Jefferson did most of his experimental planting later.

Linda, a native of Fort Worth, was graduated from Poly High School and worked as a hairdresser there 29 years. When Harold was named manager of TU Electric in Iowa Park, people wondered how she would adjust to small town living. They need not wonder any longer because she is delighted with it and is fast becoming active in the life of the community. She has been delivering meals on wheels this week for Friendly Door.

The Smiths are members of First United Methodist Church, and Linda is a member of UMW. She also is a member of the Lady Rotarians in Wichita Falls. She enjoys sewing, fishing and camping with her husband. She is proud of her two stepchildren and three step grandchildren.

Driving safely urged

Maj. V.J. Cawthon, regional commander of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said "Unlike last New Year's holiday, this New Year holiday period will make for a long weekend for many Texas motorists. The additional highway traffic and the traditional New Year celebrations could lead to tragedy for some Texas motorists."

Cawthon continued, "All available Department of Public Safety troopers will be on patrol throughout the holiday period in an effort to prevent traffic accidents and fatalities. The troopers will be watching for traffic violators, especially the drunk drivers, which is the leading cause of traffic fatalities in the state of Texas. Troopers will also be available to assist motorists with any problems they might have.

"If the campaign to reduce fatalities is to be successful, then motorists must do their part," he said.

Cawthon suggested that adequate travel time be budgeted in holiday plans, stop frequently and rest, reduce speed for road conditions and drive defensively, always watching out for the other driver's mistakes, buckle up and don't drink and drive.

"If you are going to host a New Year's party, you need to be a responsible host," he added, suggesting non-alcohol beverages should be made available for guests, don't center the party around alcohol, don't double up drinks and don't rush the refills, have food available and above all, do not allow anyone who has had too much to drink to drive.

As I See It...

By BOB HAMILTON

I don't know about your Christmas, but I'd have to call mine unique.

First, and foremost, this was the first Christmas of our family's when every member wasn't together. You will probably remember I've mentioned our daughter, Kay, has joined the Navy. She's still in Orlando, Fla. and won't get leave until the latter part of January.

We all got to talk with her on the telephone Christmas Day, but it still wasn't like having her at home.

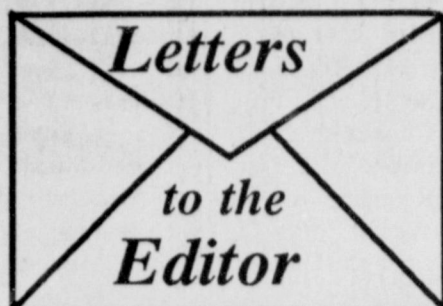

Then, Dolores and I got the most unique Christmas gift ever. It was a traditionally-wrapped package, but the card was from Kellie, our oldest daughter, and her husband, Mike. And on the card was the instruction to not open until August.

Well, I opened it, anyway. And inside the package were a baby rattle, nursing bottle and pacifier.

What it all meant was, we'll have our seventh grandchild in August!

Another thing that made this Christmas unique was the weather. It's very, very seldom you'll ever hear thunder and see lightning Christmas Eve in this part of the country. But we did, along with hail, sleet and rain.

Our family was able to reach here from their homes in Kamay, Wichita Falls, Fort Worth and Lewisville before the roads started freezing

Thanks for help

The firemen of the Iowa Park Fire Department would like to thank all the people of the Iowa Park area who helped with the "Toys for Tots" campaign. With the special help and love for our children from Mike and Debbie Clements, Santa Claus, Wal-Mart, and a lot of dedicated firemen, we reached between 20 and 35 children that otherwise would not have had Christmas. We hope to have a bigger and better "Toys for Tots" campaign in 1988. Again, thank you all for your support.

Chief Danny Skinner
President Bob Evans

over, and were fairly clear by the time they had to return. For that, we're grateful.

Oh, and to make this year's event even more unique was the decision of Dolores' and the girls to abandon the traditional Christmas Day fare of turkey and ham. We had Mexican food for a change. And with the weather as it was, I didn't mind at all. In fact, it couldn't have been more appropriate.

So, with Christmas now gone, let me wish you a Happy New Year, and add on a reminder that Iowa Park is entering its 100th Anniversary.

We'll have something about that throughout the next 52 issues.

Happy New Year!!!

Classes to resume camera crew with a knife. Donations by State National Bank and the Booster Club paid for two down timing clocks at Hawk Stadium. City aldermen approved purchase of a new road grader and scraper.

NOVEMBER

The road back to the state UIL marching contest ended at the region contest for the Hawk Band. An Iowa Park woman was arrested on a charge of "tampering with a witness." Jamie Owens was chosen freshman class favorite at Midwestern State Univ. Iowa Park police arrested a Wichita Falls youth only minutes after he allegedly stole a radio from a student's car in the Iowa Park High School parking lot. The city council approved a bid of $51,084 for the expansion of the police department building. The Midget Hawks defeated Holliday 8-0 for the Top of Texas championship. Robert Palmer was elected president of the Chamber of Commerce, Kenneth Via first vice president and Harold Smith second vice president. Iowa Park exceeded its United Way donation goal by some $3,000, reaching $59,600. A local man and wife were arrested when a small assortment of drugs were found in their home by Iowa Park police. The Hawk basketball varsity team opened its season with a win over Byers, 100-45. The Hawk football team completed Dist. 6-AAA play undefeated and then beat Ballinger 32-19 for Bi-District, but then lost 21-17 to eventual state runner-up McGregor, completing the season with a 10-2 record. Jim Cummings and John Wood were named the outstanding offensive and defensive players of Dist. 6-AAA. City aldermen approved purchase of an elevator scraper, costing $111,000, to be used primarily at the sanitary landfill.

DECEMBER

Mabel Karstetter, owner of the land leased by the city for use as its sanitary landfill, filed a suit to evict the city, followed by the city's offer to purchase the land or take it by eminent domain; the issue was still unresolved at the end of the year. Donations of food, money and toys were sought by the Ministerial Alliance to assist 163 families for Christmas. Ten additional street Christmas decorations were added to the city's inventory this year, financed by voluntary donations of city utility customers. Burglars took a reported $1,553 one week from the office of Woodbriar Apartments, and the following week, $700 from the safe at Ken's Pizza. Construction was completed on the new Faith Baptist Church sanctuary, but after it was determined a drive-through canopy had been extended over city street right of way, city and church officials agreed to a land lease agreement. School trustees approved a proposal to advertise for bids to construct four new classrooms with restrooms at Bradford Elementary. The first winter storm of the season arrived Dec. 13, being announced by thunder and dropping some three inches of snow. In a two-day period, Iowa Park Police Department became short-handed when one officer broke his ankle and another accidentally shot himself in the leg. The city worked out an agreement to annex land along the road to Lake Iowa Park, which will lead to the annexation of the entire lake area.

START IN '87, FINISH IN '88

Varsity teams in Archer City tournament

Iowa Park's varsity basketball teams will be playing in a tournament that will begin in 1987 and finish in 1988.

The Hawks and Lady Hawks are matched with Notre Dame today in the first round of the Archer City Holiday Tournament.

The Lady Hawks will play at 1 p.m., and the Hawks follow at 2:30. Both defeated Notre Dame recently in the tournament at Holliday.

A win by the Lady Hawks would pit them against the Burk Burnett-Holliday victor at 4 p.m. New Year's Day. Should they lose, they would play at 10 a.m. Friday.

The winner of the Iowa Park-Notre Dame boys' game is slated to meet the Graham-Holliday winner at 5:30 p.m. Friday. Losers are to play at 11:30 a.m..

All finals of both boys' and girls' brackets will be played Saturday. Girls' consolation will be at 11:30 a.m., third place at 2:30 p.m. and championship at 5:30.

Boys' consolation will be at 1 p.m., third place at 4 and championship at 7.

The other schools represented in the bottom half of both the boys' and girls' brackets are Eastland, Windthorst, Chillicothe and host Archer City.

The varsities and junior varsities will host Holliday Tuesday, with the first game starting at 4:30 p.m.

Next Thursday, the Freshman and Junior Varsity teams will host Jacksboro, starting at 6:30 p.m.

Friday of next week, the Lady Hawks, their Junior Varsity and Freshmen will host Decatur in a non-conference meeting, starting at 5 p.m. That same evening, the Hawks and JV will travel to Burk Burnett for a 4:30 p.m. tilt. The Freshmen are entered Jan. 8-9 in the a tournament at Hirschi.

MARC JOHNSON DRIVES ON ARCHER CITY DEFENDER

ARCHER CITY HERE

Archer City swept both varsity games here Tuesday evening, but the Iowa Park Jayvees won their's.

The Hawks led throughout the first half, 14-10 after the first period and 27-23 at the half.

But the visitors caught fire in the third quarter, outscoring Iowa Park 27-14 to go into the final frame with a 50-41 lead.

The Wildcats led by as many as 12 points in the fourth, forcing the Hawks to foul to stop the clock, and they almost pulled it off as Marc Johnson canned a pair of three-pointers and a free shot in the final 41 seconds.

But Archer City free shots (they sank 23 of 33 attempts for the evening) in the final two seconds sent the Wildcats ahead, 68-62.

Johnson finished with 22 points and Bill Chandler had 14.

Archer City led 14-10, 30-17 and 41-27 at the end of each period of the girls' game to win, 59-41.

Lori Allen was high for the Lady Hawks with 19 and Paige Knight had six.

Both the Junior Varsity games were close, with the boys winning 45-41 and the girls 38-35.

Banquet tickets go on sale

Tickets for the annual Hawk football banquet went on sale this week at Settle Drug, Scobee's Mini Mart and Louis Jewelry.

The banquet will be held Jan. 16 at Chaparral Baptist Camp and the featured speaker will be Texas Tech Univ. head coach Spike Dykes.

Ticket price this year will be $10 per person, according to Joe Galloway, president of the Booster Club which sponsors the annual event.

Worth Quoting

A long-winded preacher in Granbury once caught my attention.

The usually windy minister announced that he had a three-point sermon: "The first point I want to make is there are two million Americans starving this very minute."

Members of the congregation yawned and repositioned themselves in their pews as they waited for the barrage of words to follow on charity.

"The second point I'll make today is that you don't give a d-mn!"

Deacons sat straight up. Mouths were covered in shock. Eyes opened wide. A rumble wandered across the sanctuary.

"The third point I'll make and leave with you today is that most of you are more shocked with the fact I said 'd-mn' than the fact that two million Americans are starving."

Sometimes we do have to be shocked into thinking of others.
