All Tire Rationing To End January 1

Congress To Recess Today For Holidays

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20—The 79th Congress today cleaned up the last major bills it intends to enact this session and most of its members headed home for Christmas.

Formal adjournment of the session, however, was put off until tomorrow. The Senate has to dispose of a string of minor bills important to individual senators. The House has to act on a measure granting special immunities to members of international organizations here.

Reconvene January 14

The second session will open Jan. 14. There was some discussion in the Senate before it approved a House resolution fixing this date. Democratic leader Barkley of Kentucky wanted the congressmen back Jan. 8. Republican leader White of Maine said he thought everybody was entitled to a three-week holiday. A move by Senator Morse (R-Ore) to make it Jan. 8 was beaten on a voice vote.

Topping the list of bills on which action finally was completed was a $2,400,000,000 appropriation measure carrying funds for UNRRA, veterans' housing and other purposes. A controversy over the height of a North Dakota dam which had held it up was shelved until next session.

Others To White House

Other measures funnelled to the White House extended rationing and other wartime powers of the President to July 1, continued the Navy's V-12 college training program to the same date, and authorized the regular Army to raise the number of its officers from 16,719 to 25,000.

President Truman's slate of American representatives to the United Nations session was confirmed by the Senate. But there was criticism of Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt by Senator Bilbo (D-Miss) and of Sdward R. Stettinius by Senator Langer (R-ND).

The Pearl Harbor investigation was poorly attended but got some strong testimony. Admiral Richmond Kelly Turner, Navy war plans head in 1941, said the Pacific fleet got specific orders ten days before the attack which should have sent it to sea. In fact, he added, he had assumed it was at sea. This should have come about, he explained, under "a war warning" sent on Nov. 27 to Admiral

Admiral Says Orders Given Fleet Ten Days Prior To Pearl Harbor

By WILLIAM T. PEACOCK
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20—The Navy's 1941 war plans chief contended today that the Pacific fleet got specific orders 10 days before Pearl Harbor which should have sent it onto the high seas ready to fight.

Admiral Richmond Kelly Turner told the Pearl Harbor committee that he had assumed for days, in fact, that the fleet was at sea until news came of Japan's disaster-dealing Dec. 7, 1941, raid on the anchored ships at Hawaii.

At sea, he declared, was "the place for them under Admiral Kimmel's operating plan." Admiral Husband E. Kimmel was commander-in-chief of the Pacific fleet when the Japanese struck.

In brief, the Navy department's view here, as Turner presented it, was that Navy men had talked for 25 years of a possible attack on Hawaii, there was correspondence with Kimmel about air defense, and "splendid plans" were received from Hawaii.

Defense Was Planned

Then, Nov. 27, 1941, Kimmel was sent a dispatch which advised it was to be considered "a war warning" and instructed that he "execute an appropriate defensive deployment preparatory to carrying out the tasks assigned in WPL 46."

The letters and figures stand for War Plan No. 46 which was part of "Rainbow 5," the general plan for operations in a war with Japan.

Turner said defensive deployments under the plan had been worked out in detail and should have sent the fleet out ready to fight, extended reconnaissance, and dispatched submarines for surveillance and possible attack on an approachin, enemy.

Could Take Battle Stations

"Instead of being concentrated," Turner testified, "it (defensive deployment) meant that the commander in chief of the Pacific fleet could take operating stations for the most probable attack."

That, he asserted, would have sent fast ships northward, the direction from which the attack actually came, to cover an area in which there were no islands from which enemy could be reported.

Against such a fast force as might be expected to make any attack, he said, the American battleships would have been of "no use" except to combat landings. He added that the proper disposition for that sort of action would have been at sea, where they could move in on landing forces.

Fleet Caught In Harbor

The fleet—six battleships, six cruisers and a dozen destroyers—was caught in the harbor.

Relating his expectations as to Japanese action, the admiral testified that a drop around Nov. 25 or 26 in the volume of communication among Japanese fleet units caused him to conclude that the bulk of Japan's Navy was at sea.

Under the war plans, it was contemplated that no attempt would be made to hold Guam, but military installations there were to be destroyed.

Warning Said Adequate

On Dec. 5, 1941, he discussed at length with Admiral Harold R. Stark, chief of Naval operations, and Admiral Royall Ingersoll, deputy chief, the question whether additional warnings should be sent to the fleets. They came to the conclusion "that everything had been done that could be done."

He never saw until about noon on Sunday, Dec. 7, the decoded Japanese message indicating they

Soviet Demands For Strip On Black Sea Stirs Conference

By EDDY GILMORE
Associated Press Staff Writer

MOSCOW, Dec. 20—Demands Turkey cede a strategic 180-mile stretch of her Black Sea coast to Russia were published prominently today as the Big Three foreign ministers conferred again on problems vital to peace.

U. S. Secretary James F. Byrnes, British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and Foreign Commissar V. M. Molotov met for two hours and 20 minutes today, starting an hour earlier than usual at 3 p. m. (7 a. m., CST) and adjourning at 5:20 p .m.

After the meeting, Mr. and Mrs. Molotov were hosts for a reception.

The demands for the Turkish area, reaching 180 miles southwest of the Russian oil port of Batumi to Giresun, and stretching inland as deep as 75 miles, were made in a letter from two intellectuals of the Georgian Soviet Socialist Republic, where Generalissimo Stalin was born.

The writers, S. R. Djanashia, doctor of historical science, and N. Berdzenishvili, both members of the Science Academy of the Georgian republic, declared:

"We appeal to world opinion about the situation of our ancient land, taken by Turkey.

Must Get Back Land

"We are not talking about some small territorial dispute. This concerns the seized cradle of our people—a crime which has cut in two our living national body. The Georgian people must get back their land."

The newspapers Izvestia, Red Star and Pravda published the letter, and said it had been printed earlier in a Communist newspaper at Tiflis, the Georgia capital.

The letter traced the history of the Georgian peoples for 2,000 years, declaring that "in far antiquity the Georgian people lived, toiled and struggled on this territory . . . creating new centers of civilization and government.

Turks Invaded Area

"The Georgian people have shown amazingly vital and creative ability and stubborn attachment to their dear land and an unshakable will to defend it."

In 1921, the letter said, the Turks invaded southern Georgia and occupied the southern section of Batumi. It charged that under Turkish rule geographical names were changed and historical monuments ruined.

The Dardanelles controlled by Turkey were mentioned as among subjects for consideration at the current conference of the three foreign ministers. Revision of the Montreaux convention governing passage of ships through that entrance to the Black sea has been proposed by the United States.

Meanwhile, strict secrecy continued to surround the discussions at the current session of U. S. Secretary of State Byrnes, British Foreign Secretary Bevin and Soviet Foreign Commissar Molotov, who met for the fifth time today. The meetings were said to be progressing, however, in an atmosphere of cordiality.

Mr. Hilton says Lubbock will be "cut up" into delivery zones; gift packages will be divided and loaded in keeping with the zones—but he needs Lubbock men with the real Christmas spirit to deliver the packages.

Will you help?

If so, please call Mr. Hilton's place of business, Telephone No. 7112, any time between 8 a. m. and 6 p. m. today, and list your name. Whoever answers the phone will have all essential information.

Just An Hour's Work

Those who aid in delivery of the approximately 1,400 gift packages to needy boys and girls will report at 7 O'clock Christmas morning at the American Legion hall, 910 Texas avenue. No voluntary deliveryman should be longer than an hour on his particular job, Mr. Hilton says.

The delivery job is highly essential to the Goodfellow campaign to spread Christmas joy in Lubbock. Won't YOU help with it?

As delivery details took the spotlight of Lubbock's Eleventh annual Christmas cheer campaign the one-time flood of donations trickled slowly toward a stop. Fifteen dollars in contributions Friday ran the total up to $2,385.27—exactly $885.27 over the $1,500 goal. Yesterday's donations, and the full financial report are as follows:

Output Rises; Price Controls Are Retained

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 — Tire rationing will end at 12:01 a. m. on Jan. 1, Price Administrator Chester Bowles announced tonight.

He said the rationing program can be terminated then "because production of tires, particularly passenger tires, the shortage of which has been most acute, has increased steadily during the past two months, reaching an output for this quarter of about 11,000,000."

No More Certificates

Holders of tire purchase certificates will have through Dec. 31 to turn in ration coupons to dealers and obtain passenger or truck tires before unrationed sales begin.

After tomorrow, no additional ration certificates will be issued except in emergency cases.

Tire rationing began Jan. 5, 1942. Inventories have been frozen from the day after Pearl Harbor.

Shortage Not Over

Civilian Production Administrator John D. Small advised Bowles that current weekly production of passenger tires will approximate 4,000,000 this month. Small estimated that 66,000,000 passenger tires will be made in 1945.

Bowles warned that termination of rationing does not mean there is an ample supply of tires to meet all requests.

"For many months," he added, "it will remain important that motorists continue to do everything possible to avoid excessive wear and tear on tires. There will be many who will have to wait to get tires."

Urged To Conserve

The OPA chief urged all motorists who can wait for a new tire until rationing ends to do so.

The prohibition on spare tires for new cars will be continued, along with restrictions on white sidewall tires and tire exports.

OPA said price control over tires also would be continued and would be "closely checked."

Little Relief Is Seen By Dealers

Lubbock tire dealers said last night that a lot of folks wanting tires would still be unable to get them when tire rationing ends Jan. 1, as the demand will still considerably exceed the supply.

All dealers questioned agreed that elimination of the red tape connected with rationing would be the biggest relief as burden of filling out applications has fallen mostly on them.

No Big Rush Expected

Stocks of automobile and truck tires, particularly the popular sizes, are low, although factores are promising increased deliveries. No sudden rush for tires is expected by most of the dealers. As one retailer put it, "a lot of people who think they must have tires now, won't want them near as bad when rationing is off." He said that tractor tire sales had dropped considerably since the large casings were dropped from the rationed list.

Another dealer predicted a greater shortage of tires during the next 90 days than during any previous period as the tire-hungry public would keep the retailers' racks cleaned out between shipments from factories or jobbers. He said it would be six months or a year before supply would catch up with demand.

Dealers anticipated that most persons holding certificates would use them before the Dec. 31 deadline.

"After that," one said, "we can start the new year with bare shelves."

Truman Says Company Earnings "Relevant" In Wage Disputes

Proposal By Ford Called 'Mockery'

DETROIT, Dec. 20 (AP)—The CIO United Automobile Workers today told the Ford Motor Co. its 12.4 per cent wage rate increase offer was a "mockery" and in Washington President Truman declared that it is essential in labor disputes that fact-finding boards have authority to examine employers' and unions' books if deemed advisable.

In formally rejecting Ford's offer, amounting to 15 cents an hour, the union asked that discussion of the wage problem be separated entirely from other issues. The union took exception to virtually every condition Ford coupled with its proposal and challenged several company contentions.

May Quit In Protest

General Motors Corp., meeting in Washington with the President's fact-finding board in its dispute with the same union, announced it would withdraw from hearings if profits and prices were considered.

President Truman said he hoped GM would reconsider its objection to an examination of its books by the board. He told a news conference that "since wages are paid out of earnings, the question of earnings is relevant." He declared, however, neither the government nor its board will endeavor to fix a rate of return for the employer.

The union's rejection of the Ford offer said bluntly "we do not believe the company faces loss of $35,000,000 in 1946," and that Ford "stands to profit by many millions of dollars" in the market ahead. The company claims it stands to lose that amount without a wage increase and under established retail prices. Ford's proposed wage increase would cost an additional $33,000,000 annually, the company said.

Union Standing Firm

An increase of 30 per cent has been demanded of both Ford and General Motors by the union. Richard T. Leonard, UAW-CIO Ford director, said the union was "standing firm" on this demand.

The UAW-Ford negotiations were adjourned until January 8 after a half hour meeting today. John Bugas, Ford industrial relations director, said the session "was another step forward in our negotiations since it clarified completely the union's position. It looks as though when we resume on January 8, there will be some very serious negotiations.

UAW's Leonard emphasized that the union position at the next meeting would be that wages alone should be discussed.

Approximately 175,000 GM production workers have been on strike for nearly a month in the dispute in which the UAW-CIO demands a 30 per cent wage rate increase "within GM's present price structure."

In Windsor, Ont., the Ford Motor Co. of Canada prepared to resume operations after a 99-day strike

Court To Hear Yamashita Case

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (AP)—The Supreme court today asked experts in military law for help in deciding what it should do about petitions sent here by Japanese General Tomoyuki Yamashita in his fight for life.

The court called for arguments Jan. 7 on demands by "the Tiger of Malaya" that his case be taken out of the hands of the military and given to civil courts.

Sentenced To Gallows

Yamashita was sentenced by an American Military commission in Manila to death on the gallows. He was convicted of permitting brutal atrocities in the Philippines. The Supreme court last Monday granted him a stay of execution until it decided finally on his appeal.

U. S. Army lawyers defended him at the Manila trial. Army lawyers are expected to appear before the Supreme court to argue on his behalf. Other Army lawyers will oppose Yamashita's request.

The Justice department also is expected to be represented by attorneys who will oppose the Yamashita petitions. The department earlier filed a brief with the court urging it to keep hands off the case.

The Japanese general, first Pacific war leader to be convicted as a war criminal, in petitions airmailed to the high court asked:

Fact-Finders May Examine Records

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (AP)—In the face of management protests before his two fact-finding boards, President Truman declared flatly today that the question of a company's earnings is "relevant" in wage disputes.

He asserted that "ability to pay is always one of the facts relevant to the issue of an increase in wages" and that the fact-finding boards must have authority to examine an employer's books whenever this ability is in question.

GM May Withdraw

The President read his statement to a news conference after counsel for General Motors corporation had served notice that the company "will withdraw from the proceedings" if the fact-finding board went into the question of its profits and prices.

Previously the Pure Oil company had indicated to a fact-finding panel for the oil industry that it would not participate if the profit factor is considered.

"In view of the public interest involved," the President said, "it would be highly unfortunate if any party to a dispute should refuse to cooperate with a fact-finding board."

In the absence of the legislation which the President asked Congress to pass before its Christmas recess, there is no legal compulsion for the companies to open

Negro Runs Amuck At Hospital, Slain

MARSHALL, Dec. 20. (AP) — Marshall Chief of Police C. M. Exell said tonight that two policemen shot and killed a negro man who ran amuck at the Texas and Pacific railway hospital orderly.

Postive identification of the man was not announced immediately. He was admitted to the hospital from a small Arkansas community near Texarkana.

Clara Connor, about 30, of Marshall, died a short time after she had been stabbed in the chest, and Frank Spencer, hospital orderly, suffered a stab wound above the heart. Dr. C. C. Davis, physician in charge at the hospital, said Spencer was wounded while trying to rescue the negro woman.

Dr. Davis stated that police shot the negro as he advanced toward them brandishing a knife, ignoring their pleas to drop it.

Senate To Probe Vet Travel Ills

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20. (AP) — An investigation of delays in homeward transportation for veterans landing at west coast ports was ordered today by the Senate's War Investigating committee.

It called public hearings for tomorrow and asked Col. J. Monroe Johnson, director of defense transportation, to appear as the first witness.

Chairman Mead (D-NY) said the committee was concerned over "the bottleneck in transportation which will prevent returning servicemen and women who are being disembarked on the west coast from reaching their homes promptly."

Expense Said "Collossal"

Earlier, Senator Shipstead (R-Minn) had told the Senate that the Army was piling up "colossal" expense by its methods of discharging servicemen.

He said he had been informed of a case where a serviceman from Seattle was ordered to New York City to receive his discharge. Other instances of unnecessay travel, he added, indicate "lack of foresight."

Secretary of War Patterson appealed to civilians to stay off trains and help the Army and railroads get homeward bound troops to their destinations.

THOUSANDS STRANDED BY TRAVEL BOTTLENECK

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 20. (AP)—Nearly 100,000 Pacific veterans appeared doomed today to spend Christmas at West coast ports by lack of sufficient transportation eastward.

Port of embarkation officials said today troops were pouring into west coast ports at an estimated rate of 15,000 a day, far faster than they are moving out. Nearly 120,000 were stranded at the ports today, many of them still aboard their ships.

Severe cold and snowstorms east of the Rock mountains slowed train schedules and delayed airplane flights.

HEIDELBERG, Germany, Dec. 20. (AP) — Gen. George S. Patton, jr., today contracted a respiratory infection, taking a turn for the worse, and tonight's medical bulletin declared "his general condition is not satisfactory."

Army sources at the 130th station hospital, however, said "there is no cause for alarm" and no immediate indication that the partly-paralyzed Patton might be contracting pneumonia.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20. (AP) — H. F. Sinclair, president of Sinclair Oil Corp., announced today a wage increase of 18 per cent effective Jan. 1 for about 6,500 salaried employes receiving not more than $7,200 annually.

The increase matches the 18 per cent pay boost for hourly-rated workers made public earlier this week.

New Housing Program Mapped, And . . .
Vets To Profit Most

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20. (AP) — Veterans are expected to get the lion's share of homes built under the government's new housing program.

Federal officials working out details of the program said today that this was just what President Truman had in mind when he ordered that veterans be given a preference in the sale or rental of new homes costing $10,000 or less.

These officials, who asked that they not be identified, said their best guess was that at least 75 per cent of all homes built next year may be purchased or rented by veterans.

Meanwhile the OPA announced changes in hotel and rooming house rent and eviction control regulations.

Effective immediately, one revision provides an allowance for a general construction cost increase since 1939 in fixing rent ceilings on rooms in newly constructed hotels and rooming houses, and in buildings that are converted into hotels and rooming houses.

Another requires landlords desiring to remodel or demolish hotels or rooming houses to obtain eviction certificates from area rent directors. Those must be obtained before action is taken to dispossess permanent tenants.

Under a third change, area rent directors issuing certificates of eviction are authorized to impose a waiting period up to either three or six months, whichever is the maximum in the area.

Story Of Mussolini Kidnaping Disclosed By Gestapo Leader

NUERNBERG, Dec. 20. (AP)—Details of the Mussolini kidnapping were disclosed today by La. Col. Otto Skorzeny, gestapo hatchetman who was assigned personally by Adolph Hitler to abduct his Axis partner from the forces of Marshal Pietro Badoglio.

Skorzeny, a six-foot-four-inch giant, is a prisoner here.

Fifty paratroopers were assigned to him by Col. Gen. Kurt Student, he said, and they took off from Rome Sept. 12, 1943 in a number of planes during an Allied air attack.

Was Hard Assignment

Their destination was the sports hotel on Gran Sasso mountain, where Il Duce was being held prisoner.

"A parachute jump from such seights on such a small target seemed not feasible," Skorzeny said. Although this was against strict orders from Gen. Student, we decided that a crash landing was the only possible solution. We landed, partly damaged, 15 meters from the hotel. Two more planes followed our example.

"The guards were overcome. A few shots were fired, but the Italian colonel in command realized our numerical superiority and did not put up much resistance."

Mussolini was taken to a nearby airport, Skorzeny said, and they took off in a plane which had been sent to pick them up.

Deposit From 1925, Forgotten By Owner, Gets Vet Son A Ford

Roy W. Wicker, sr., walked into Lubbock Auto company, at Ninth and Texas.

"Could you deliver me a new automobile this afternoon?" he asked.

Harry Morris, manager, explained that persons wanting cars had to place orders and wait their turn.

"Can ex-service men get them faster than the rest of us?" the man asked.

Morris said the company attempted to assist war veterans as promptly as possible.

"Do you happen to have placed an order somewhere back?" he asked.

"Yes—somewhere back," Wicker said.

He reached into his pocket and took out a receipt.

Morris looked at it twice—then again.

It was dated March 13, 1925, and showed that Lubbock Auto company had been holding money for a new car purchase since two years before Ford quit making model Ts.

Wicker explained he "just never got around to coming in after the car I paid for—figured I would sometime. My boy (Roy W. Wicker, jr.) has just come back from service and needs a car. I figured this would be as good a time as any. . ."

Morris looked back on the books and found that the payment had been charged off years ago, when the company could not locate Wicker and make delivery to him.

So a new automobile was delivered Thursday afternoon to Wicker, jr., whose father paid the "difference."

"There isn't much difference in his age and the receipt his father presented," Morris said.

Houston Dog Catchers Told To Quit Chasing Mutts Under Building

HOUSTON, Dec. 20 (U.P.)—Houston dog catchers hereafter have to give up the chase when a mutt runs under a building.

An ordinance to that effect was passed after property owners complained dog catchers were trespassing when they crossed onto private property. The council agreed after one member, W. T. Carter, jr., asserted:

"If I had a dog and a dog catcher chased him on my property and I had a shot gun I'd tangle with him sure enough."

Germans Transferred Scientific Plans To Neutrals, Is Claim

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (AP)—Senator Kilgore (D-WVA) said today this government had learned Germany transferred entire scientific research laboratories to neutral countries before her surrender.

Kilgore made the statement during testimony of H. H. Fowler, director of the Foreign Economic administration enemy branch, before a Senate Military subcommittee. Fowler presented an FEA plan for controlling Germany which included a recommendation for internationalization of the Ruhr and Rhineland.

Kilgore asked Fowler if he had heard of the transfer of German scientific laboratories to neutrals. Fowler said he had and that the United States or United Nations should investigate to learn where they are so they can be controlled.

Few proposed separation of the Ruhr and Rhineland from Germany to prevent reconstruction of a war industry "capable of once again unhinging the security of Europe."

National Aims Of Communists In China Firmly Track Old Program

By JOHN RODERICK
Associated Press Staff Writer

YENAN, China, Dec. 20—Chinese Communists' national aims—which certainly will come under close scrutiny at the forthcoming "peace talks" at Chungking—never have vered from Mao Tse-Tung's oft-repeated program.

Mao is chairman of the political bureau of the Chinese Communist party. His report to the seventh party congress a few months ago proposed:

First — establishment immediately of a provisional coalition government;

Coalition Government

Second—inauguration of a regular permanent coalition government though "free and unrestricted elections."

The Peoples' Political council, which includes elements of the National Communist, Democratic League and Your parties, could name the interim coalition government. Any deviation from this general program will run into head-on opposition from the Communists.

"We cannot agree to any or all so-called measures, proposals or other empty talk," Mao said, "which diverge from this general principle—no matter how beautiful they may sound."

Nor will the Communists approve a meeting of the national assembly, whose representation they assert was "fabricated" eight years ago by the government. (Chiang Kai-Shek has ordered the assembly convened May 5, 1946, but the Communists want it postponed until Oct. 10, to permit election of new representatives).

He Fears Results

"Getting to the root of this matter, if they convene this packed national assembly they will only drive themselves along the road to death and create a situation of split and division," Mao predicted.

He said if the present assembly is called it would pass a constitution "which in reality supports dictatorship and opposes democracy . . . entirely without a popular basis." The Communists will bring to Chungkin their draft proposal for a new liberalized constitution.

Lower Standards For Pharmacists Scored

AUSTIN, Dec. 20. (U.P.)—Vigorous opposition to any attempt to lower standards set by Texas pharmacy laws was expressed today by W. F. Gidley, dean of the college of pharmacy at the University of Texas.

Alarmed at rumors that groups are at work in Texas to have the present laws modified to permit persons with five years' experience in a drug store to assume the title of pharmacist, Dean Gidley warned that such a provision "would be a menace to the health of every man, woman and child in the state."

Since 1929, Texas laws have provided that only licensed graduates of recognized colleges of pharmacy may fill prescriptions. They must pass a state examination to obtain their license, which must be renewed annually.

"College trained pharmacists in drug stores and other drug dispensaries are more necessary today than ever before," Dean Gidley said, "because of the rapid development of new drugs and medicines and untold damage can be done by 'jackleg pillrollers.'

"Certain groups, through self-interest, are trying to open the gates to unskilled and basically ignorant persons and to the few who refused schooling in their younger days and now want to be counted among the professionals in the field."

Dean Gidley said that if the present laws are "scuttled" Texas pharmacists would be the joke of the nation. He predicted Texas would be the receiving grounds for incompetents from every part of the country.

Hereford Woman And Child Die In Wreck

More Control Sought Over New Mexico's Convicts, Parolees

SANTA FE, N. M., Dec. 20. (U.P.)—Chambers of Commerce throughout New Mexico today were receiving letters from Santa Fe Chamber President Norman Shenk, urging unified action in obtaining legislation for a stricter control of convicts, trusties and parolees of the state penitentiary.

The letter said, in part, "a recent criminal tragedy in Santa Fe is the immediate cause of our asking your support in endeavoring to have the next legislature enact appropriate legislation closely limiting, if not absolutely prohibiting, the granting to convicts, trusties . . and parolees, the freedom that now seems to be the custom to allow."

Unified Action Sought

While Santa Fe is "perhaps more vulnerable" than other communities because of its proximity to the penitentiary, the letter continued, "all sections of the state are exposed in same or lesser degree."

"We are of the opinion," Shenk wrote, "that unified action by the chambers of commerce throughout the state would be of considerable assistance in causing the enactment of proper legislation."

Shenk commended a report that the state penitentiary board would recommend that the next legislature "re-write the laws governing the administration and conduct of convicts," adding that "we should like to contribute our part in supporting such a policy."

The "recent criminal tragedy" to which Shenk referred was the slaying last month of Mrs. Eloise Kennedy, to which Louis Young, negro convict, has allegedly signed a confession.

Deficiency Bill Now Ready For Passage

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (AP)—A Senate-House conference committee today eliminated from a $2,400,000 deficiency supply bill a disputed section which had blocked the measure's passage.

The conferees decided to prohibit any expenditure for the proposed $130,000,000 garrison reservoir in North Dakota until Congress reconciles differences over the operating pool level.

The House insisted on an 1,830-foot level. The Senate held out for 1,850 feet which opponents contended would inundate valuable land.

The conference agreement clears the way for passage of the bill, leaving the disputed section for action after the holiday recess.

Stettinius Confirmed As Delegate To UNO

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (AP)—The Senate today confirmed President Truman's nomination of former Secretary of State Edward R. Stettinius, Jr., as this nation's principal representative to the United Nations organization.

Action came on a voice vote after assertions by Senator Langer (R-ND) that UNO would fail to obtain world peace. Langer, who had announced opposition to the Stettinius appointment, surprised the Senate by saying that he would vote for him.

ROME, Dec. 20. (AP)—Edda Mussolini Ciano, daughter of Benito Mussolini and widow of Count Galeazzo Ciano, Fascist foreign minister, has been sentenced by an Italian provincial commission to two years' confinement for her efforts in behalf of Fascism, dispatch from Messina, to the newspaper Il Tempo said today.

Albuquerque's Milk Strike Is Settled

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Dec. 20. (U.P.)—Grateful Albuquerqueans poured cream in their coffee and milk on their breakfast cereals this morning, as they day-old milk strike ended as quickly as it began.

Dairymen voted to accept the $1.05 per pound for butterfat as authorized by OPA in Washington, and presented by local OPA officials here late yesterday. The price boost is 13 cents more than the wholesalers had been receiving, and 15 cents less than they had been demanding. It is expected to raise the price of milk by one cent per quart.

Mrs. Frank Schulmeister, who represented the dairymen in conferences with OPA, said the price has been accepted "with the recommendation that Washington act on a request for $1.10, with distributors to assume the extra five cents." She said distributors have indicated their willingness to absorb the five-cent increase, provided it is granted.

Conditions Improved At Mental School

AUSTIN, Dec. 20 (AP)—Considerably improved conditions at the Austin state school for the mentally deficient in regard to treatment of patients and business affairs have been noted under the administration of Dr. A. M. Bowden, the state auditor reported today to the governor.

No evidence of generally practiced mistreatment of patients during the new administration was disclosed during the current audit investigation, the report said. The auditor considered business affairs to have been "administered conscientiously and capably."

HOUSEWIFE'S LETTER

IF Mon wrote a letter to St. Nick, it might run something like this:

Dear Santa: I see all the ads for perfumes, furs, lingerie and diamonds and such but what I want for Christmas is a box of clothespins.

Also pajamas for junior, sleepers for the baby and underwear for sister, an elastic girdle for myself and do you have any sheets and towels under the counter?

And Santa, I really don't care if my stockings are filled or not—just so that are nylon and the right size.

IN THE MAIL

My Dear Margaret:

I've lost my rabbit's foot on baking fruit cake and never intend to bake another. Here's a delicious, fool proof, un-baked icebox fruit cake that can be rolled in waxed paper or packed in blass trays or small crocks. It slices nicely and is really something to rave over. My neighbor says this should be halved for a small family. However, none will go to waste.

Two pounds of rolled graham crackers, 2 pounds of walnuts, 2 pounds of almonds, 1 pound of pecans, 1 No. 2 can of pineapple made into preserves (or candied), 1 bottle of cherries, 1 pound of dates, 1 pound of raisins, 1 pound of figs (if you like 'em), one-half pound of peach or other preserves, 3 cups of fruit juice, 1 pound of marshmallows, 1 large can of condensed milk.

Cook fruit juice, marshmallows, milk, until marshmalloms melt. Work in other ingredients, rolling the fruit in the graham cracker crumbs to keep it from sticking together.

Any fruit cake is expensive, good or bad and this one is really heavenly. And you are not using butter, eggs, sugar or flour.

The Schoolmarm.

* * *

DEAR Schoolmarm:

Thank you for sending the recipe. Marshmallows are hard to find but we think the other ingredients are still on the grocery shelves. We have had a number of calls for unbaked fruit cake and hope this is not too late to fill the bill for those who missed the recipe earlier in the fall.

Lady, Watch Calory Count In Holidays!

Rich pastries, sweet bonbons, luscious fluffy potatoes smothered with thick gravy—these are the holiday season saboteurs of our reducing schedule. We keep a pretty tight rein on our weight most of the year, but from Thanksgiving to the New Year we indulge ourselves and pay tribute to our friends' hospitality by eating all the delicious but fattening delicacies they offer.

There is no need, however, to wind up Jan. 2 with thickened midriff and several excess pounds in payment for a gay holiday time. First, arm yourself with a calory chart and count your calories every day faithfully — and honestly.

When you are due for a big dinner in the evening, have for luncheon low calory foods which have a high vitamin and mineral content, such as fresh fruit; leafy salads with mineral aid oil dressings, skimmed milk or buttermilk. Second, do this exercise persistently through the holidays — slowly shake your head from side to side when you are offered second helpings.

Marshall Arrives In China As Hopes For Halt In War Mount

SHANGHAI, Dec. 20 (AP)—General Marshall arrived today on his mission of peace for China as Communists in Chungking spurred hopes for unity by asking for an immediate halt to all hostilities.

Hardly had Marshall's plane landed after a flight from Manila than word came from Chungking that the Communists not only were ready to stop fighting but were prepared to make concessions for permanent peace.

It furnished an auspicious start for the general, who will fly to Nanking tomorrow for the opening of talks with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek.

Thousands Jam Street

The presidential envoy stepped smiling from his big silver-colored Army transport plane. He was driven through flag-draped streets jammed with thousands of waving, cheering Chinese.

Almost immediately Marshall held a conference with Lt. Gen. Albert C. Edemeyer, commander-in-chief of American forces in China.

Marshall arranged to leave tomorrow afternoon for Nanking and the initial talks with Chiang.

It will be Marshall's first meeting with Chiang since the Cairo conference two years ago. It was taken for granted here that the talks would be concerned primarily with Truman's strongly-worded statement of Dec. 15 calling for an immediate halt to hostilities in China.

Ready With Concessions

Almost simultaneously with Marshall's arrival, a Communist peace parley delegate in Chungking declared his side was ready with concessions for unity and handed the national government a request for an immediate cessation of the sporadic fighting.

The Communist delegate, Lu Ting-Yi, told Associated Press correspondent Spencer Moosa, the Communists no longer would insist that national forces withdraw to positions they occupied before Japan's surrender but would agree that both sides stay where they are now.

Marshall was believed prepared to exert every effort to bring the Chinese Communists into a unity government. He will go on to Chungking with Chiang, who is expected to set the date for the peace talks of the political consultative council arrival.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20. (AP)—President Truman said today he had no intention of muzzling Navy department opponents of his proposal to merge the Army and Navy into a single department of national defense.

The President told a news conference that the only requirement he considered advisable was that those in the service, in expressing their opposition, make it clear they are expressing personal and not administration views.

Germans Killed Prisoners With Poisoned Bullets, Is Claim

By ANN STRINGER
United Press Staff Writer

NUERNBERG Dec. 20—Doctors of the S.S., trying to perfect poison bullets for the German army shot five condemned prisoners with poison missles and three of them died a violent death, frothing at the mouth, the war crimes tribunal heard today.

A report by Dr. Krugowsky, chief S.S. hygienist, was introduced showing that he and two other doctors shot the five prisoners through the upper left thigh with 7.65 centimeter bullets in September, 1944.

The bullets were filled with a chemical called akonotinnitrate in crystal form. They passed through the legs of two prisoners without effect.

Death Is Described

The other three victims, the report said, suffered a disturbance of the motor nerves after 20 minutes and a flow of saliva became so strong they could not down it by swallowing.

"The foamy saliva flowed from the mouth, then the sensation of choking and vomiting started," the coldly analytical report said. "Death occurred 121 to 129 minutes after they were shot."

The evidence of SS atrocities and wierd experiments was presented in support of the prosecution's charge that every branch of the SS was involved in the Nazi concentration camp program and the entire organization was guilty of war criminality.

Used Humans In Experiments

Thi was the last day of hearings in 1945. Today's adjournment marked the beginning of a holiday recess, with the trial to be resumed early in January.

Warren Farr of the American prosecution staff handled presentation of evidence against the SS. He said probably 750,000 former members of the organization may now be facing conviction as members of a criminal group.

Farr introduced voluminous correspondence showing SS responsibility for the notorious experiments at Dachau by Dr. Sigmund Rascher on behalf of the German Air Force. The SS undertook to furnish him with human guinea pigs for "experiments by which the subjects can, of course, die."

Experiments Explained

Rascher experimented with the effects of oxygen shortages such as those at high altitudes and on reviving aviators who had been immersed in frigid waters.

Gestapo Chief Heinrich Himmler was described as enchanted by Rascher's work. He wrote a letter asking that the Air Force release Rascher, a member of the SS, for work on frostbite cases from the Russian front.

Farr charged that the SS from its very beginning "made prime contributions to the aggressive aims of the Nazi conspirators." He cited SS violations of the laws of war, including the shooting of Allied war prisoners by the 12th SS panzer division in Normandy in June, 1944.

Shot By Nazi Soldiers

He said a SHAEF court of inquiry found that between June 7 and 17, 64 unarmed prisoners, many of them wounded and none attempting to escape, were shot dead by the Panzermen.

Enlisted men of the 15th company of the 25th Panzer Grenadier regiment and other specified units received secret orders that the SS was to take no prisoners, and all should be eecuted after interrogation.

"The conclusion is inescapable that it was understood throughout the division that the policy of denying quarter or executing prisoners after interrogation was openly approved," Farr said.

Pension Outlook In Texas Dark

AUSTIN, Dec. 20 (AP) — There will be no immediate cut in average Texas pension payments, but the outlook on this point is doubtful, John Winters, executive director of the department of public welfare announced today.

Winters, after a conference with Gov. Coke R. Stevenson, said that while there has been an increase of 1,355 in the number of pensioners eligible for assistance payments in January, there is still enough money in sight that there will be no reduction in the average payment.

This will be approximately $24.65. These checks will be placed in the mails Jan. 2.

May Be Cut 40 Cents

Stevenson at his press conference said that indications were that there soon might have to be a 40 cent (repeat 40 cent) slash in average payments, probably for February. Winters agreed that this was likely, but that factors bearing future payments were still uncertain.

Payments will be made to 175,804 pensioners in January, compared with 174,449 in December. The increased payments will amount to $62,812, Winters said.

The upward climb in the pension rolls, said the governor, reflect several postwar economic factors bearing on aged persons. He noted that applications in November this year totaled 3,350 compared with 1,914 applicants in November a year ago. Approximately 80 per cent of the applicants, after investigation, receive pensions in varying amounts.

A wonderful bird is the pelican

There is a well-known little verse about the pelican and his gift for gobbling up more than he can swallow.

A parallel is the UAW-CIO demand for higher wages from General Motors.

For General Motors' wages are already high.

In fact, in the last peacetime year, the income of the average GM worker fell in the top third of all incomes in the United States.

We believe in high wages! But we also believe that when wages are already high, the question arises whether further cost reductions that management can bring about may not well be used to lower prices or improve products.

Lowering prices or improving products benefits everybody. Customers get more for their money. The company's business grows. And the growing business is able to employ more and more people.

Wider employment serves the national welfare—and should be a primary objective of all of us.

Unfortunately, many people are too apt to place their own interests above the national welfare.

Truman Seeks To Rescue Job Bill, Calling House Plan Unacceptable

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20—President Truman set out today to rescue his so-called full-employment bill, terming a House substitute unacceptable.

He disclosed that he has made an appeal to a joint congressional committee for quick enactment of a measure passed by the Senate, which he said meets the essential characteristics of his program.

Transfer To States

At the same time, the chief executive disclosed he will speak out forcibly soon on a congressional proposal to transfer the U. S. Employment service back to the states over his opposition.

In his final news conference before Christmas, Mr. Truman also said he wants Navy Secretary Forrestal to remain at his post at least fo rthe present, despite their differences over Army-Navy unification.

The President declared that despite his own commitment to a merger of the Army and Navy into a single department of national defense, no attempt will be made to muzzle Navy officers who disagree.

Express Personal Views

His only insistence, he told questioners, is that naval officers opposing the merger make it clear that they are expressing their personal views and not those of the administration.

When a reporter asked if Forrestal is trying to resign, the President replied that he had been trying to resign ever since last April.

He hopes, he added, that Mr. Forrestal will not resign at an early date.

The President began by saying he wants Congress to act soon on legislation giving fact-finding boards in industrial disputes the right to examine books of employers. He held that the question of earnings is relevant to a wage dispute.

Employment Bill

Continuing along this line, he made public a letter to the chairman of a joint conference committee considering the much amended employment bill, expressing hope Congress will adopt legislation "substantially in the form passed by the Senate."

The House version stripped the measure of its goal of "full employment" and substituted a reference to a high level of employment.

This emasure, the President told a questioner, is unacceptable, but the bill the Senate passed 71 to 10, did not remove the essential provisions of his own original suggestion.

Set Out In Message

What he wanted, he said, was set out in a message to Congress Sept. 6 asking a declaration of the "ultimate duty of the government to use its own resources if all other methods should fail to revent prolonged unemployment."

Asked if he had anything to say about legislation returning the U. S. Employment service to the states despite his request for its continuance under the federal government until June, 1947, the President said not until it reached him and he had studied it.

When that time comes, he said, he will express himself forcibly.

Solons Approve $100 For Stolen Melons

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (AP) — Congress cut a $100 melon today for Rastus Davis.

One hot July morning Rastus strolled out to his watermelon patch near Winona, Tex., and noticed: (a) That 300 o this prize melons were missing, and (b) That a well-beaten path led from his field to nearby Camp Fannin military reservation. Rinds and seeds completed the chain of circumstantial evidence.

The Senate completed action on the $100 claim today. It's up to President Truman now . .

Mrs. Carlan Free On Bond In Murder Case

CHELSEA, Mass., Dec. 20 (AP)—Pretty Rose Carlan, described by a district court judge as an "exhibitionist," was home again tonight with her sailor husband and three-year old son—released on bail on a murder charge in the death of her baby, central figure in a kidnaping hoax.

The 23-year old mother who set off New England's greatest "kidnap hunt" when she reported six-months old Ronnie Carlan missing Nov. 24, was released on $2,500 bail and returned to her home where the infant's body was found last Friday hidden under a built-in cupboard.

Feared Public Opinion

She had admitted she invented the kidnap story because she did not want anyone to think she had neglected the baby. Medical Examiner William J. Brickley reported the child died of asphyxiation following a fourth attack of pneumonia. She said she found the baby dead when she came downstairs to her flat from a party in her mother-in-law's apartment.

The young mother wept softly as Judge John J. McLeod said:

"Did she do what the average human being would have done" when she found the baby dead in his crib?

"She was the doctor; she was the undertaker," the court continued as he explained why he felt she should be held under bond until the case comes up again, January 10.

Mrs. Carlan was discharged from the Boston psychopathic hospital this morning after she had been found of normal intelligence.

Mrs. Mansfeldt Is Convicted In Case

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 20 (AP)—Attorneys for Mrs. Annie Irene Mansfeldt, convicted of manslaughter in the slaying of nurse Vada Martin, announced today they would attempt to obtain her liberty on bail so she could spend Christmas with her three young children.

Neither defense attorneys nor the prosecutor were satisfied with the verdict, reached by a jury of six men and six women late last night after four hours and 38 minutes deliberation.

Attorney Vincent Hallman declared Mrs. Mandsfeldt should have been acquitted, contending she had acted with provocation when she allegedly shot the nurse in the belief Mrs. Martin was having a love affair with Dr. John H. Mansfeldt. Mansfeldt himself committed suicide shortly after the shooting last Oct. 4.

But the husband of the victim, Navy Chief Warrant Officer Wilbur L. Martin of Baltimore, Md., indicated in a statement that he was not displeased with the verdict.

"I entered this case with every confidence in the courts of California and that confidence remains unshaken," said Martin, who will leave for his home in Baltimore tomorrow.

Britain's System Of King Ruler Untouched By Socialist Trend

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press World Traveler

LONDON, Dec. 20.—The advent of an out and out Socialist government has rendered the position of the King-Emperor rather paradoxical in theory, although practically his majesty fits into the new political scheme neatly.

The Socialist's haven't shown the slightest disposition to interfere with the monarchy. While thrones on the continent have been toppling in the leftist storm, the British institution still stands.

Fits Present Crisis

One is tempted to the belief Providence molded the character of the present King to fit the political crisis which has now hit England. He would seem in all respects to represent the type—and the only type—of monarch which the Socialist government could accept.

George VI is a plain man of the people. So far as one can see he hasn't any ambition to exercise royal authority, or yet to wear a jewel-studded crown. He is quite happy to take his instructions from the prime minister. And that, of course, is precisely what the bovernment in a constitutional monarchy—and especially a Socialist government—most desires.

Could Be Different

The situation might have had an entirely different complexion were the throne occupied today by the present King's revered grandfather, Edward VII, or by the late George V, or yet by Edward VIII, who abdicated so that he might marry Mrs. Simpson. All those past monarchs were strong-willed men who at times confronted their governments with gestures of royal authority — and sometimes made their desire stick.

About the last thing of this story occurred not long before Edward VIII abdicated. While visiting the coal fields in Wales he became angered (and quite rightly) over the terrible conditions of the workers, and said in forceful language that something must be done about it. He thereby trod heavily on the toes of his government, which was planning changes for the mining industry. In short, Edward stepped quite outside his role as constitutional monarch.

King Is Popular

There's small likelihood of the present king doing anything like that. Quite apart from the constitutional aspect, he now is in process of learning the statecraft which his brother, his father and his grandfather already had acquired before they came to the throne. It should be remembered that it was his brother Edward, and not he, who was specially trained to rule.

King George is popular with his people, and so is the queen.

So all things considered, the king, who without doubt is the living symbol which holds the British empire and commonwealth of nations together, seems quite safe on his throne.

Kaufman Man To Get Award From Truman

AUSTIN, Dec. 20. (U.P.)—T. B. Borden of Kaufman county local draft board No. 1 will go to Washington Jan. 21 to receive from President Harry S. Truman an Award of Merit for recognition of his Selective Service work.

Borden's name was drawn from among other Texas draft board members who have served five years or more continuously by Gov. Coke R. Stevenson from a small iron kettle once used by Gen. Sam Houston's army.

Names of three alternates were drawn by capitol news correspondents. The alternates, in order drawn, are: J. L. Eisen, Jefferson county board No. 1, Beaumont; Fred R. Army, Dallas county draft board No. 6, Dallas, and Fred P. Dodge, Jefferson county board No. 3, Port Arthur.

At the Washington ceremony the President will award the Selective Service medal to a local board member selected from each state and territory.

Awards later will be made also to all persons connected with the Selective Service system for more than two years.

Texas Selective Service Director Gen. J. Watt Page and his staff were present today for the drawing here.

Ginnings For Season Over 7 Million Bales

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (AP)—The census bureau reported today that 7,733,761 bales of cotton, counting round bales as half bales and excluding linters, were ginned from the 1945 crop prior to Dec. 13.

Ginnings from the 1944 crop to that date totaled 10,532,396 bales.

The ginnings by states, this year and last, respectively included Texas 1,678,621 and 2,156,891.

Blackboads of steel with enamel surfaces are now being used in some schools.

Fuel From Sunlight Is Claimed Possible

AUSTIN, Dec. 20. (U.P.)—Factories to produce fuel from sunlight were classed as a future possibility here today by Dr. Jack Myers, research professor at the University of Texas.

Dr. Myers now is conducting research into what takes place when green plants receive sunlight. Scientifically the project is known as research in photosynthesis.

"It is the most important chemical process that goes on in the world," Dr. Myers said. "It is the ultimate source of all food and is the process by which in past ages our reserves of energy in coal and oil were created."

Youngsters And Parents Favor Peacetime Military Training

By GEORGE GALLUP, Director
American Institute of Public Opinion

PRINCETON, N. J. — Both the young men who would be affected under peacetime military training and their parents are overwhelmingly in favor of a year of naval or military training for the nation's youth.

These findings are disclosed in two surveys just completed in which young men between 15 and 18 years of age, and parents with sons between 12 and 18 years of age (and not having served in the armed forces) were asked):

GALLUP

"In the future, do you think every able-bodied young man should be required to take military or naval training for one year?"

This question is the same one which has been put to cross-sections of voters and veterans of World War II in all parts of the United States.

The replies of youths questioned:

Yes	76%
No	22
No opinion	2

Although parents of young men between 12 and 18 years of age offer greater opposition to a military training program than do others in the survey ,they are nonetheless in favor of the program by a substantial majority. This is shown in the table below:

Yes	60%
No	36
No opinion	4

Meanwhile, across the nation voters continue to favor a peacetime military training program by a vote of 70 per cent.

In spite of discussion in Congress and throughout the nation, sentiment on the issue among all voters has not varied more than five percentage points since last May, when sentiment stood 70 per cent in favor of a peacetime military program. The trend on the issue in recent months:

	Yes	No	No op.
May	70%	24%	6%
July	69	24	7
Sept.	65	29	6
Oct.	70	21	6
Nov.	75	21	4
TODAY	70	25	5

A special poll by the Institute among veterans recently published found that men who had served in the armed forces in World War II were more highly in favor of a year's military training for youth than any other group polled by the Iistitute.

That in making equipment for the atomic bomb factory at Oak Ridge, Tenn., some surface tolerances were measured in millionths of an inch and "surgical cleanliness" was required.

Agency views Differ On Tieup Of Ships

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 20 (AP)—The number of ships whose sailing from New Orleans has been delayed reached six today, while representatives of maritime labor organizations and of various federal agencies disagreed as to the reasons for personnel shortages blamed for the tie-up.

A group of merchant seamen interviewed by the New Orleans Item said they were required to "wait in line all day" for Coast Guard papers, then told to come back the next day. Earlier other seamen's spokesmen had said the tieup was caused by lack of engineers, not general deck personnel.

Fact-Finding

their books. Mr. Truman said that this was "one of the things I meant" in urging the act.

Not To Be Made Public

"The detailed information obtained from the books of an employer should not be made public," the chief executive added. "Such a disclosure would place the employer at a disadvantage with respect to his competitor.

"But the fact-finding board should inquestionably have the right to examine the employer's books where it deems it necessary in order to make up its own mind as to whether a demand for an increase is justified, and to make public all findings based on such information that it deems relevant.

The presidential statement, handed to the General Motors board while it was in session, proved a dramatic surprise to the board members and the disputing parties alike. Chairman Lloyd K. Garrison prefaced his reading of it when the statement that the board had been completely unaware of Mr. Truman's intention to issue it.

Reuther Grins Widely

A wide grin spread across the face of Walter P. Reuther, director of the CIO United Auto Workers strike, as the reading proceeded.

Charles E. Wilson, General Motors president, said it would not alter the company's stand.

The board had not actually decided that the price and profits question should be considered. Walter Gordon Merritt of New York, counsel for the company, contended that the President apparently was seeking to authorize the board to go into the matter but that the decision whether to do so still rested with the panel. The board recessed until tomorrow (at 1:30 p. m. CST) to make up its mind.

Meanwhile, at the board's request, the company and union agreed to confer tomorrow morning to try to lay a basis for resuming collective bargaining on the issues in the month-old strike.

Merritt had opposed the union's demand that the company submit its books on the ground that the information which was sought would involve figures necessarily based on speculation and predictions of future conditions.

Joy And Despair Go Hand In Hand In 'Blue' Baby Cases

BALTIMORE, Dec. 20. (AP)—Joy and despair went hand in hand today at the Johns Hopkins hospital.

The joy was for a tragedy-haunted orphan, Bonnie Stewart, 2, of Orlando, Fla., who was ready to leave Hopkins any day now a healthy child. A month ago, tragedy loomed for the third time over her—she was marked for the early death of a "blue" baby. Her father was killed last March on Iwo Jima. Her mother was murdered a year ago.

But the genius of Dr. Alfred Blalock, professor of surgery at Hopkins, and Dr. Helen B. Taussig, head of the cardiac clinic at the Hopkins pediatrics division, saved her. The child's grandmother, Mrs. J. D. Heath, was to take the lively and healthy Bonnie back to Orlando.

The despair was for two other "blue" babies who left Hopkins this day. Dr. Taussig had decided after exhaustive tests that Phyllis Keller, eight, of Mansfield, Ohio, and Suzie Anello, six, of Philadelphia, Pa., must go home—the surgical miracle which had helped Bonnie was not for them.

Only certain "blue" baby cases can be helped by the Blalock-Taussig operation.

Two other "blue" babies operated on this week are recovering but Judy Hackman, two, of Buckley, Wash., is not making the progress doctors expected.

Ford's Proposal

that idled 10,000 UAW-CIO members in a dispute over wages, a closed shop and dues checkoff. The strikers voted to accept a government-sponsored arbitration proposal.

The union letter to the Ford company in the Detroit negotiations assailed a management proposal that the union agree to seek no further wage increase for two years even if OPA permitted higher car prices.

The UAW-CIO described the offer as "totally inadequate," adding:

"It would not raise wages to a point where Ford workers could meet the present high cost of living. Nor would it contribute sufficiently to the increase in purchasing power that is required if we are to avoid a disastrous breakdown of American economy."

Fight Price Increases

"As you know," it continued, "the union has fought very hard against price increases because we already have too much inflation and any further rise in prices threatens a breakdown of our economy."

"Suppose the powerful manufacturers lobby does succeed in destroying OPA controls. Such success, or even partial success, by the high price lobby would inevitably bring a fearful rise in the cost of living. We obviously cannot undertake to shackle our membership so that they are bound not to seek relief in such an eventuality."

Conditions Are Cited

At another point the union asserted:

"Even the 12.4 per cent increase you offer cnotingent upon production reaching 80,000 units a month would not come in the form of a blanket raise. A great many workers might receive little or nothing at all.

"You state that out of the 12.4 per cent must come all other economic concessions sought by the union. We refer to elimination of interplant and intra-plant inequalities, increased vacation pay, increased overtime benefits, increased shift premiums, pensions for the aged, and others.

would present an ultimatum to this country at 1 p. m. He asked Stark what had been done about warnings and was told one had been dispatched by Gen. George C. Marshall, Army chief of staff, which was to be shown also to Naval commanders overseas.

The Senate-House committee cut half an hour off its usual luncheon recess in an effort to assure that it can complete questioning of Turner by tomorrow or Saturday. Once his testimony is completed, it plans a Christmas recess until Dec. 31.

The House and Senate, meantime, voted the committee an extension to Feb. 15 for its inquiry. Chairman Barkley (D-Ky) told the Senate that the committee could not possibly report by Jan. 3 as instructed originally. Barkley said he believed all the evidence could be taken by Feb. 15, but that more time might be asked in which to prepare a report.

SCOTIA, Calif., Dec. 20 (AP) — A giant redwood tree, reputed to be the oldest living thing in the world, will be the scene of a worldwide Christmas radio broadcast at 10 p. m. (cst) tomorrow night.

General Denies Threat To Quit

TOKYO, Friday, Dec. 21 (AP)—General MacArthur today flatly denied he had any intention of resigning his post as supreme commander of the Allied powers. The denial was included in a statement which declared that Russian participation in the occupation of Japan is " a matter for other decision than my own."

MacArthur's press relations office issued the statement in reply to questions concerning a broadcast from Tokyo by Larry Tighe, American Broadcasting Co. correspondent.

Tighe said MacArthur and the Russians had disagreed over the scope of Russian occupation activities; that MacArthur told the U. S. State department if he were not let alone and if Russia were allowed any further participation in occupation affairs he would resign.

THREAT BY MacARTHUR DENIED BY PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (AP) — President Truman said today that Gen. Douglas MacArthur had not threatened to resign his post as supreme Allied commander in Tokyo.

Mr. Truman made the statement when a reporter at his news conference said:

"A broadcast out of Japan today made the assertion that Gen. MacArthur threatened to resign and was upset about the possibility that Russia might have a part in the occupation of Japan. Could you say anything to bring that back into proper perspective?"

The President replied he knew nothing about it. He added he did not believe General MacArthur had made any such statement and that he knew he had made no such statement either to the President or to the secretary of war.

Troops Told Policy Will Delay Return

SHANGHAI, Friday, Dec. 21 (AP)—Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer told American troops in China today that in view of President Truman's recent Chinese policy statement their return home would be delayed.

"As a matter of fact," he said in a radio address to his troops shortly after a conference with General Marshall, "I have had to cancel two ships this month as a result of changes in our evacuation plan."

The general said that until recently United States policy would have permitted the withdrawal of practically all American forces in China by the first of the year or by early spring but this was not now possible in line with the President's statement Dec. 15.

Health Chief Warns On Spread Of Flu

AUSTIN, Dec. 20. (AP)—Continuing cold weather throughout the state today raised a danger sign over the near-epidemic flu situation in Texas, Dr. George W. Cox, director of the state department of health, said in urging citizens to dress warmly, avoid crowds, and avoid contact with known flu cases.

Dr. Cox pointed up a report of 11,259 new cases of influenza in Texas during the past week, nearly one-sixth of the year's total. He istimated there were 10 unreported cases for every case reported, sending the actual total to approximately 112,000 new cases.

Bus Strike Truce To Help Vets Proposed

CHICAGO, Dec. 20. (AP) — A striking Greyhound bus driver today suggested a Christmas truce to bring home returning servicemen from the west coast, estimating 500 buses could carry 25,000.

Russell Kistle of Chicago, who said he was a union bus driver for Greyhound lines, proposed the truce in order to use idle buses to help relieve the jam of returning servicemen awaiting transportation homeward from the Pacific coast.

Friends Of Calvert Boom His Candidacy

HILLSBORO, Dec. 20 (AP) — One hundred friends and acquaintances of Robert W. Calvert of Hillsboro met here tonight and perfected organization of a Calvert for Governor club.

Jo W. Patterson of Hillsboro was named chairman of the group.

Calvert, Hill county attorney and former speaker of the Texas House of Representatives, made a brief talk. He said a race for governor was an enormous undertaking and that he wanted to give the matter a great deal of consideration before definitely becoming a candidate.

The group adopted a resolution which read: "We, as fellow townsmen of Bob Calvert, express absolute confidence in his basic honesty, his sense of justice and fair dealing and his ability and we commend him to the people of Texas as one capable of making this state a progressive leader and an able governor in this post-war era."

There were 17 speakers, all of Hillsboro, including Mayor S. L. Robertson, Dr. Charles A. Garrett and Will Morrow, formerly Calvert's law partner.

Record Cold Wave Begins To Ease Up

(By The Associated Press)

One of December's severest cold waves began easing up last night in some sections of the country.

Temperatures were moderating sharply in the Southwest and into the southern part of the Midwest and no fresh snow of consequence was in prospect immediately for any part of the country. The Pacific Northwest also had rising temperatures.

However, a cold wave shoved into the South Atlantic and Gulf states and the Chicago weather bureau said more cold would follow in the Southwest and central states, probably bringing more snow.

Temperatures vaulted from 30 to 45 degrees in 24 hours in parts of Wyoming, Colorado and Nebraska and plunged to below freezing in northern Florida.

Eighteen states reported a total of 90 deaths directly attributable to weather conditions in the current cold wave.

SS TROOPERS HANGED

LONDON, Dec. 20. (AP) — The Moscow radio said tonight that seven German storm troopers (SS) convicted of war crimes were hanged at noon today in a Smolensk square before 50,000 onlookers.

HAUPT SENTENCE UPHELD

CHICAGO, Dec. 20. (AP) — The U. S. circuit court of appeals upheld today the sentence of life imprisonment and a $10,000 fine against Hans Max Haupt, father of the executed Nazi saboteur, Herbert Haupt, for treason.

Illuminating gas was first used in the United States in Newport, R. I., in 1813, but was not introduced into New York until 1823—two years after it had been successfully installed in Baltimore, Md.

FEA Warns On German Assets

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (AP) — The Foreign Economic administration today called upon the Allies to take quick control over all German assets outside the Reich, by force of sanctions against neutral countries if necessary.

"Should any of the countries in question," the FEA said, "prove unwilling to cooperate with the Allies in their endeavor to suppress the seeds of another war, the employment of existing sanctions and the development of new ones should be aggressively pursued by the Allies acting in concert until a satisfactory elimination of the German economic base is achieved."

Powerful Influence

The United Nations, the FEA added in a report, can exert "a powerful influence on neutral opinion" by controlling exports from defeated Germany, denial of loans or other financial aid and causing German concerns to refuse to renew patent rights to subsidiaries abroad.

Permanent separation of the Ruhr and the Rhineland from Germany to cripple its war-making power was a further recommendation in a report to a Senate Military subcommittee.

H. H. Fowler, director of FEA's enemy branch, said the report was advisory and its terms have not all been adopted as fixed American policy.

UNO Committee To Tour Capital Sites

LONDON, Dec. 20. (AP) — The United Nations preparatory commission decided tonight to set up a committee with representatives from 12 nations which will tour the United States and select a maximum of six cities as candidates fo ra world capital.

The committee will fix a deadline for new offers and for hearings from representatives of prospective sites for headquarters of the United Nations organization.

Cities which presented formal bids today included New Orleans, La., Ridgefield, Conn., St. Louis, Mo., and Cincinnati, Ohio.

Mystery Lifts From Death Of Teacher

HOUSTON, Dec. 20. (AP) — The death of Miss Dorothea Houghton, Port Arthur school teacher, was caused by polyneuritis, Dr. Louis A. Crapitto, county health officer, said officially today.

Polyneuritis is an outgrowth of a virus infection and affects the nervous system, he explained. He said the autopsy also revealed a trace of lobor pneumonia, which Miss Houghton may have had for several days prior to her death.

Miss Houghton died suddenly Saturday shortly after she became ill at a downtown hotel.

Large Jewel Thefts Reported At Miami

MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 20 b—Two jewel thefts totaling more than $54,000 in gems sent detectives on a three-state search for a possible big-time theft ring tonight.

Mrs. Harry L. English, wealthy Atlanta widow, reported $48,200 worth of bracelets, rings, earrings and other lavish adornments were taken from her winter home. The search extended into Georgia.

At least $6,000 worth of jewelry disappeared from an express package enroute from Frankfurt, Ky., to the owner, Mrs. Susan B. Grant, at Miami. Insurance agents reported the missing articles included a platinum ring, a platinum brooch and other items.

Yank Polio Victims Fly In From India

HAMILTON FIELD, Calif., Dec. 20 (AP)—Two Army men suffering from polio and encased in iron lungs arrived by plane from Calcutta, India, tonight enroute to hospitals for special treatment.

A big C-54 carried Capt. L. Bapit, Seattle, and Cpl. Walter H. Hargrave, the entire distance.

The Army Air Transport command said the 11,000 mile flight was the longest ever attempted by polio patients in iron lungs.

MOBILE FOOD STORES

CHICAGO (U.P.)—Rural areas will be served by traveling food and candy stores, which will bring their wares to the farmer's door in the future, according to the Bulletin of National Confectioners Assn. It said several traveling food chains already had been organized in Texas and other Western states and that the plan is expected to be adopted throughout the nation.

Two More Involved In Cline Inquiry

DALLAS, Dec. 20. (AP)—Dallas Chief of Detectives Will Fritz said tonight the disappearance of a Colorado woman was under investigation here following the arrest of Alfred L. Cline in San Francisco.

Fritz said he is working to solve the disappearance of the former Mrs. Maud Reynolds Walters, Denver widow. Mrs. Walters married a man representing himself as a geologist, withdrew her securities from her bank and two months later was reported by her husband to have been killed in a Dallas automobile accident Sept. 14, 1936, Fritz related.

The chief of detectives said records of the city's bureau of vital statistics and those of the state department of public safety traffic section show no such death for the month mentioned.

Fritz added that relatives of Mrs. Walters were notified by the husband that the body had been cremated at her own request.

Cline, 56-year-old ex-convict, is under a charge of murder here in the death of a woman at a Dallas hotel in Oct. 1944. The body was cremated under the name of "Mrs. Alice W. Carpenter."

NLRB Charged With Press Intimidation

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (AP) — The National Labor Relations board was accused in the House today of attempting to intimidate and coerce newspapers that "disagree with its views."

Rep. Hoffman (R-Mich) said he based his statement on the case of the Labor Digest, described by him as "an independent monthly labor newspaper" published at Indianapolis.

Hoffman said that because the monthly "opposed the CIO and criticized the NLRB,' it has been given a choice of answering charges of unfair labor practices or submitting to a "cease and desist order.'

Submission to the order, he asserted, "would effectually muzzle the Labor Digest and any other publication' that it was applied to.

Deficiency Supply Measure Approved

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (AP) — Congress sidestepped a deadlock today and approved a $2,400,000,000 deficiency supply bill carrying funds for UNRRA, veterans housing, navigation and flood control.

The last stumbling block to passage disappeared when the House and Senate approved a second conference report shelving until next year a controversy over the pool level of the garrison reservoir in North Dakota.

The conferees met hurriedly after a deadlock threatened to prevent action on the big appropriation until after the holiday recess.

Among the big appropriations in the bill are $750,000,000 for UNRRA, $191,000,000 for veterans housing, and $125,000,000 for navigation and flood control projects, including the garrison reservoir.

News Briefs

The small residence of B. Hill about two and one-half miles out on the Idalou highway was destroyed by fire about 6:10 p. m. Thursday. Lubbock firemen reported. Other fire runs were to a blazing trash barrel in the alley at 1627 Tenth at 8:55 p. m., and at 2:14 p. m. to the J. E. Mann residence, four and one-half miles north on the Plainview highway, where hog pens were on fire.

Willie Hardrick, Slaton negro, paid part of a county court assessment of $100 and court costs Thursday for liquor law violation; Harold Robert Palmore, 17, was put under $1,000 bond bindiff him over to the grand jury on a charge of theft over $50, a watch valued at $60 by Harry Lewis, owner; bond of $1,000 on a charge of forgery had not been posted by Finis Lewis, negro.

Funeral services were held in Roswell, N. M., Thursday afternoon for J. K. (Kent) Fortenberry, about 34, former Lubbock resident who died early this week in Dallas. He left here about five years ago and was operating a tire business in Roswell at time of death. His wife and two children survive.

Mrs. Roxie Phillips Remains Unconscious

Condition of Mrs. Roxie Phillips, about 39, remained unchanged last night in St. Mary's hospital where she was taken late Thursday morning in a Bryan McDonald and Son ambulance after she was discovered by a neighbor lying unconscious on the floor of her 3104 Ave. H residence.

Her physician had not announced a diagnosis late Thursday night. She was unconscious when admitted to the hospital, and was suffering of exposure.

Mrs. W. A. Lewis, who lives next door and who had attended Mrs. Phillips several times when Mrs. Phillips was ill, became alarmed at not seeing her neighbor since sometime Wednesday, so went over to investigate. It was 10:10 oclock. She could see Mrs. Phillips through a window, lying on the floor between the kitchen and a bedroom. Mrs. Lewis called Sheriff Grady Harrist and the sheriff and his men burst into the residence.

According to report by the sheriff's department, Mrs. Phillips husband, Buck Phillips, is in the army overseas, and a son, Lester Scharnburg, is attending Texas Agricultural and Mechanical college.

Soviet Drops Plans For Jap Occupation

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 20. (AP) —Larry Tighe, American Broadcasting company correspondent, said tonight in a Tokyo broadcast that Russia not only has dropped all plans to send occupation forces to Japan as the result of a disagreement with General MacArthur but also had disapproved similar employment of Australians.

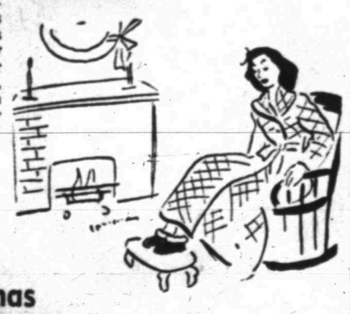

Russia's attitude is "if Russia doesn't occupy Hokkaido, then Australia doesn't occupy Kyushu," said Tighe whose broadcast was made Saturday, Tokyo date.

Tighe in his broadcast said he obtained the information from a very reliable source, which he did not identify.

Homma Accused Of Being Indolent Witness To Infamous Death March

MANILA, Dec. 20 (AP)—Broadened charges against Lt. Gen. Masaharu Homma accused him today of having been a personal and indolent witness to the savage Bataan Death March and of responsibility for a second death march of American prisoners in the Luzon mountains in 1942.

Lt. Col. Frank E. Meek of Caldwell, Idaho, who will prosecute Homma before an American military commission starting Jan. 3, said five new specifications had been filed against the once-arrogant conqueror of the Philippines.

Lolls In His Auto

They state that Homma, lolling in his automobile, actually watched the march of the starving, thirsting prisoners on Bataan while his soldiery slaughtered those unable to keep the pace.

That later more than 100 sick American prisoners were forced to serve as pack animals for Japanese supplies in northern Luzon and were pushed over cliffs when they wavered.

That Homma was "utterly unscrupulous" in the surrender of Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright, using the American commander as a hostage to try to force other units to surrender.

That Homma was responsible for the cold-blooded murder May 7, 1942, of Jose Abad Santos, former chief justice of the Philippines, for refusing to form a puppet government... and for the similar death Dec. 10, 1941, of Buenaventura Bello, Luzon rural school teacher, for refusing to haul down the American flag above his school.

FAKED CAUSES OF DEATH CHARGED TO JAPANESE

YOKOHAMA, Dec. 20 (AP)—Evidence indicating that the Japanese faked the causes of death of American prisoners of war to keep the record "straight" was introduced today at the trial of a prison guard charged with murdering Pfc. Robert Gordon Teas of Streator, Ill.

Inroyoshi Ohara, medical officer at the Mitsushima prison camp at the time of Teas' death March 5, 1943, testified that in five months he signed "20 or 30" death certificates but actually saw only two or three bodies. He denied any memory of Teas or of the certificate which gave the cause of Teas' death as acute enteritis—intestinal inflammation.

Copy Not Produced

Informed that the court had a copy of the Teas certificate with Ohara's signature on it twice, the witness asked to see it, but it was not produced.

The prosecution asserts that Teas actually died of beatings administered by Tatsuo Tsuchiya, guard whom the prisoners nicknamed "Little Glass Eye."

Ohara testified that in signing death certificates without even seeing bodies he was obeying a general order from Tokyo.

Wm. Jeffers To Retire As Rail President

NEW YORK, Dec. 20 (AP) William M. Jeffers, a pioneer in developing fast streamlined passenger travel on American railroads, will retire Feb. 1 as president of the Union Pacific Railroad Co. and will be succeeded by George F. Ashby.

Directors of the road accepted today "with great reluctance" the retirement request of Jeffers, who will be 70 on Jan. 2, and named Ashby, executive vice president who has been with the company 34 years, to take his place.

Jeffers will continue as a member of the board.

Holiday Death Toll Expected To Soar

AUSTIN, Dec. 20 (AP)—Col. Homer Garrison, jr., director of the State Department of Public safety, today predicted the heaviest death toll in the history of Texas Christmas traffic during the holiday season this year.

He estimated that 60 persons will die in traffic accidents between Saturday and Tuesday.

The largest number of fatalities on Christmas day were 18 recorded in 1940. Garrison said he anticipates this Christmas to equal or exceed that total.

"Careless driving, increased traffic not possible during war years, worn-out cars, bad tires, excessive speeds and drinking will be responsible for most deaths," he said.

Automobile accidents have cleamed 1,142 lives through November of this year, as compared with 985 in the same months last year. Injured for the same periods are 6,963 this year and 4,388 last year, the report indicated.

Healthy Christmas Is Seen By Truman

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (AP)—President Truman observed today that a healthy Christmas lies just ahead.

Chatting informally with newsmen just prior to his pre-Christmas news conference, the chief executive recalled an old saying of his grandmother.

Grandmother used to say, he asserted, that a green Christmas makes a fat graveyard.

Taking cognizance of the heavy snow outside his office window, he hazarded a guess that this Christmas shouldn't fill up the graveyards.

Price Lids Lifted From Canned Citrus

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (AP)—Indefinite suspension of price ceilings on canned citrus products, effective Dec. 24, was ordered by the OPA today.

The order covers all citrus juices, fruit segments and a number of other processed citrus products.

In announcing the suspension, OPA said it was convinced prices for canned citrus will not increase as those for fresh citrus fruits did when ceilings were removed recently.

It said in the case of canned citrus "the effect of weather, seasonal demand and transportation shortages react upon the price level to a much lesser degree."

Suspension of ceilings is possible, OPA said, "because of the abundant supply of citrus fruits available for this year's crop."

Texas Company Plans Expansion At Plant

NEW YORK, Dec. 20, (AP)—The Texas Co., plans an expansion program at its Casper, Wyoming, plant that will cost around $6,000,000, W. S. S. Rodgers, president, announced today.

The principal item will consist of a new fluid catalytic cracking and gas recovery unit that will cost in the neighborhood of $4,500,000.

Blair Cherry Confirmed As Successor To Dana X. Bible

AUSTIN, Dec. 20. (AP)—Studious Blair Cherry, who used to spend his vacations — and most of his earnings — visiting college training camps and getting first-hand football lore from outstanding coaches like D. X. Bible, Knute Rockne and Pop Warner, becomes headman of University of Texas gridiron fortunes Jan. 1, 1947, when Bible retires.

Cherry has waited a long time for his big chance, so one more year won't matter.

Nine Year Assistant

The trim, graying former Texas Christian university football captain and three-sport star, has served an apprenticeship that should leave him fully prepared for a head coachship, even in the fast and highly-competitive Southwest Conference.

He went from TCU in 1924 into the Texas Interscholastic League football scramble, served at Ranger, North Side (Fort Worth) and Amarillo during the next dozen years. His last three Amarillo teams delivered for him a bralliant high school valedictory by sweeping to state championships.

Followed nine years of assistantship at the University of Texas under Bible, his early mentor in the fine arts of the single and double wingback formation.

May Use T Plays

Now the dash and speed of the T formation has attracted him and it wouldn't be surprising if the 1947 Longhorns used it. At any rate, Cherry has been studying this formation intensely and has one of the best files extant of T plays and maneuvers.

Although Cherry likes hunting and fishing, his principal hobbies are books and pictures — books about football, motion pictures of football games. He studies every film he can lay hands on, running them over and over to catch the fine points. He corresponds diligently with other coaches over the country and never misses a chance to talk football with coaches, players, officials, sports writers or just plain fans.

Skymaster Gridmen Close Good Season

FORT WORTH, Dec. 20. (AP)—The Skymasters of the AAF Training Command have finished a season which saw them travel nearly 11,000 miles by air to keep engagements on the Atlantic and Pacific coasts and play before 135,000 fans as they scrapped to a tie for the National AAF Football Conference tournament championship.

The Skymasters, deadlocked with the Third Air Force for the AAF title, won eight games, lost three and tied one while rolling up 217 points to their opponents' 93.

Top gainer for the Skymen was Pat McHugh, 175-pound right halfback from Georgia Tech who totalled 370 yards in 87 carries, while Tennessee's 220-pound Bobby Cifers was second from his fullback spot with 358 yards in 105 tries. In third position was Dippy Evans of Notre Dame who carried the ball 77 times from the left halfback position and gained a total of 343 yards.

Sparkplug and quarterback for the Skymasters' T-formation was Herman Rohrig of Nebraska and the Green Bay Packers on whose stocky shoulders rested passing honors. Appearing in a passing role 89 times, Hurling Herman completed 45 for a total of 694 of the 1315 yards the 'Masters gained via the air lanes.

In the pass-catching department End Harry Burrus of Hardin-Simmons was No. 1 man as he snared 18 aerials for a total of 317 yards. Second place honors were won by Bruce Alford, Texas Christian's standout end who caught 13 passes for 266 yards. Alford and Burrus shared scoring honors as they each made five touchdowns on passes and added one apiece on rushing plays.

Cifers headed the kicking department as he applied the toe to the pigskin 50 times for an average of 31.1 yards per boot.

Frog Guard To Play Under Brown Again

FORT WORTH, Dec. 20. (AP)—Bill Crawford, former Texas Christian university football player and for the last two years assistant to Lieut. Paul Brown, coach of the Great Lakes Bluejackets, has returned to Fort Worth after receiving his Navy discharge.

He will return to Lieut. Brown next year—but as a player, not a coach. Crawford has signed a contract to play with the Cleveland Browns in the new All-American football conference. He is a guard.

STILL IN HOSPITAL

BEAUMONT, Tex., Dec. 20. (AP)—A. Gordon of Lafayette, a member of the Southwestern Louisiana Institute basketball team, remains in a hospital here with a head injury but three other players hurt last night in a truck-bus accident have been released and have returned home.

Bowl Tilt May Honor Bible

* * *

AUSTIN, Dec. 20 (U.P.) — Before Jan. 1 rolls around there'll likely be a move afoot to dedicate the Cotton Bowl to D. X. Bible, venerable football coach at the University of Texas.

For just a year from then the plump, bald mentor will end 34 years of active coaching. He'll be ending a 10-year, $15,600-a-year athletic directorship and head coach position at the university. He will take the athletic directorship as his sole job at $9,000.

That's of his own choosing. He turned down offers for more money than $9,000 and contract renewal.

Seeks 201st Win

In the encounter at Dallas against Missouri university's Tigers, Bible will be aiming at his 201st victory in 33 years of coaching.

To the Missouri crowd Bible is certainly no stranger. The fat University of Texas salary in 1937—together with guarantees of a free hand—induced him to come south from Nebraska. Bible likes the brand of ball played in the Big Six.

He also likes the way things are operated in that part of the country. Missouri will remember Bible Bible for during his eight years at Nebraska his teams walked off with six Big Six championships.

It would be a fine affair for the Texans if they could knock off Missouri at Dallas. That not only would give them two wins out of three trips to the Cotton Bowl, but it also would add to their prestige in setting a record as the only eleven to go there thrice.

Maybe One More?

Though he's not given over to elaborate forecasts, there might be 'way back in Bible's mind an idea that another of his trained teams will make an appearance at the Cotton Bowl on Jan. 1, 1947.

At this time the outlook for the 1946 season is exceptionally bright. There are but two seniors on the present eleven—Right Tackle Jimmy Pyler and Back Guy Nunnelly. The rest of the crew has another year of eligibility.

That goes for Texas' mighty line, featuring Ends Hubert Bechtol and Dale Schwartzkopf, Tackle Harlan Wetz and Center Dick Harris. And for the guard slots the maintays are David Green and Sam Callan. Don't overlook Backs Bobby Layne, Jack Halfpenny, Byron Gillory, Bill Joe Baumgardner and Ralph Ellsworth.

All of them contributed much to Texas' success and eventual bid to the Cotton Bowl. They're all expected back in '46.

But even if the Cotton Bowl officials don't think of dedicating the classic to Bible, it's likely the players will have a warm spot in their hearts to make them play harder and start the coach toward a well-earned retirement with a glowing record.

Longhorns Brave Cold For Tough Scrimmage

AUSTIN, Dec. 20 (AP)—The Texas Longhorns roared through a long and hard-fought scrimmage today and then knocked off for the Christmas holidays, not to return to the gridiron until December 26.

It was so cold out in Memorial Stadium that Coach D. X. Bible kept the second team in the locker room while the first regulars mauled the T-team for two 20-minute quarters, then sent the regulars into the showers and let the second team play two 20-minute periods against the high-spirited "iron men" of the T-team.

McCloskey Vets To See Oil Bowl Battle

HOUSTON, Dec. 20 (AP)—Twenty five McCloskey hospital veterans will see the Oil Bowl game here Jan. 1 from a special box.

The veterans, being brought here through a cheer fund of the Sports Writers Activities committee, will have their dates with them at the game. The entire party will occupy a box which will be built especially for the occasion.

REDS STAR DISCHARGED

NEW YORK, Dec. 20. (AP) — Johnny Vander Meer, fire-balling left handed pitcher of the Cincinnati Reds, was discharged from the Navy today at the Lido eBach separation center.

Cowboys, Gaels Offensive Tops

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 20. (AP)—It's anybody's guess as to WHAT will happen when St. Mary's Gaels and Oklahoma A. & M.'s Cowboys collide in the Sugar Bowl football game January 1, but there's no doubt HOW it will happen.

Developments will be sudden, and they will be spectacular.

Two more wide-open, take-a-chance offenses than these teams present have seldom been seen on a gridiron. The presence of a triple-threat All-American halfback on each club is only part of the story.

Running from both the T and the single wing, Jim Lookabaugh's Cowboys compiled some striking regular-season averages—31 points scored and 420 yards gained per game—six yards per rushing play, a little more than nine per passing play. All-American Bob Fenimore, the nation's leading ground gainer for two years, topped the rushers' average with 7.37; but even the fullbacks did five yards per try.

Sensational plays have featured the Aggie offense—such as Fenimore's 80-yard sprint to break a tie with Arkansas, and seven downfield laterals completed against Oklahoma university.

Jim Phelan's Gaels averaged 34.6 points per game, and although they can't match the Aggies' ground-gaining figures, they can equal anybody in color.

Foes who concentrated too much on stopping All-American Herman Wedemeyer found his fellow Hawaiian, little "Spike" Cordeiro, slipping through them for eight touchdowns and a ball-carrying average of 7.5—a higher average and total yardage, in fact, than Wedemeyer's.

Squirmin' Herman actually threw the ball more often than he ran with it, completing 60 passes in 96 tries for 1086 yards and eight touchdowns. But he found time to score nine touchdowns and kick 17 extra points himself.

See what we mean?

New Coaches On Job With Tahoka Cagers

TAHOKA, Dec. 20. (Special)—The recent addition of basketball coaches to the school faculty at Tahoka High school has boomed the hopes for a successful season in the cage sport, for both boys and girls.

Travis Mason has taken over with the boys club, with John H. Wheeler working with the girls team.

After serving with the Navy two years in the States, and one year in the South and Southwest Pacific, Mason received his discharge Oct. 15, and immediately assumed the coaching duties here.

Mason graduated from Abilene Christian college at Abilene in 1938. He coached for two years at Blackwell and two years at Tuscola before he entered the Navy.

Wheeler coached at Central, Tex., and Silver City, N. M. He served as a link training instructor at Lubbock Army Air field for the past three years. He received his discharge Oct. 28. Wheeler attended McMurray college at Abilene and Eastern New Mexico Teachers college.

Doak Walker Leaves For East-West Game

DALLAS, Dec. 20. (AP) — Doak Walker, star quarterback of the Southern Methodist university football team, has gone to San Francisco to play in the East-West game—probably the only gridder in history to get a bid from this classic after playing just one month in college.

Walker, who was an All-State back at Highland Park (Dallas) High school last year, was discharged from the Merchant Marine Nov. 1. He immediately entered SMU and played his first game Nov. 3. He wound up the season Dec. 1 after five contests in which he was good enough to be named All-Southwest Conference.

Walker will be 19 years old on New Year's day. He already has had an Army physical and expects to be called up in the draft soon.

Kermit Laabs Named As Sun Bowl Referee

EL PASO, Dec. 20 (U.P.) — Sun Bowl officials today named the officials who will work the New Year's day grid classic here between New Mexico and Denver universities.

They were Kermit Laabs, Beloit, Young, umpire; Charles Bresnaham, Colorado State, field judge, and Robert Boney, New Mexico Military Institute, linesman.

Byron Nelson Named Man Of Year Again

NEW YORK, Dec. 20 (AP)—Golfer Byron Nelson, winner of the National PGA championship and 18 other tournaments, was named the world's No. 1 male athlete of 1945 today by sports writers across the country who voted the honor to the Texan for the second consecutive year.

But the 33-year-old shotmaker encountered tougher opposition in the annual Associated Press poll to select the best competitor in all sports than he did in most of his battles on the fairways—battles that fattened the Nelson bankroll by $66,600 in war bonds.

This time his competition came from durable Doc Blanchard, Army's All-American fullback.

Of the 82 sports writers participating in the poll, 36 of them placed Nelson at the top of the list, while 30 of them picked Blanchard as the best. On the basis of three points for a first-place vote, two for second and one for third, Nelson scored 161 points to Blanchard's 150.

Thirty-one athletes from all fields of sport were mentioned in the voting but Nelson was placed first, second or third on 70 of the 82 ballots and Blanchard on 65.

Nelson is the second man in the 15-year history of the poll to win the honor twice. Don Budge, the former tennis champ, was named the outstanding athlete in both 1937 and 1938. The only other golfer to finish first in the poll was Gene Sarazen in 1932.

Other leaders in the Associated Press poll with first place votes in parenthesis:

Athlete, Sport	Points
Hal Newhouser, baseball (7)	73
Glenn Davis, football (2)	19
Phil Cavarretta, baseball (1)	14
George Mikan, basketball (1)	9
Bob Waterfield, football	9
Hank Greenberg, baseball (1)	7
Buddy Young, football (1)	7

Tigers Present Gold Watch To Jack Zeller

DETROIT, Dec. 20. (AP) — Jack Zeller, a baseball figure for 42 years, bade farwell to the serious end of the game today and took with him a gold watch to remember the old days.

Owner W. O. Briggs and employes of the Detroit Tigers, a club he served seven years as general manager, chipped in to puy the watch. Zeller is going to retire to Fort Worth. He said he would keep in touch with baseball by serving as a talent scout in the East Texas and Evangeline Leagues.

BUFFS TO KANSAS CITY

CANYON, Dec. 20. (AP) — The West Texas State Teachers basketball squad has gone to Kansas City for games Friday and Saturday nights with Loyola university and Valaparaiso university. Both contests are sponsored by the National Association of Intercollegiate Basketball.

TOP SEEDED STARS

NEW YORK, Dec. 20. (AP) — Richard Savitt, Bayonne, N. J., was seeded first in the junior singles division and Richard Mouledous, New Orleans, La., was seeded first in boys' singles for the National Indoor Tennis championships in the two classes opening here Dec. 26.

MARINE HEROES HOME

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 20. (AP)—The First and Second battalions of the 27th regiment, first returning units of the Fifth Marine division, which wrote history in the taking of Iwo Jima, arrived in port today aboard the assault transport Pondera, from Sasbo, Japan.

Tigers Start Texas Trek In Top Shape

COLUMBIA, Mo., Dec. 20. (AP)—With all ailing players scratched off the sick list, the University of Missouri Tigers today made final preparations for the trip to Dallas, Tex., and their New Year's day Cotton Bowl football engagement with the Texas Longhorne.

Roland Oaks, star end, was discharged from the university hospital today to bring the Tiger complement up to par. Although the Tiger flanker, an influenza victim, proclaimed his readiness to resume a starting berth, Coach Chauncey Simpson predicted Oakes and several other gridders on the recent hospital roll would not be in top shape for the bowl battle.

Thirty-six players, Simpson and eight other members of the Missouri staff will leave Columbia tomorrow afternoon, and are scheduled to arrive in Dallas early Saturday.

Top Garden Bout On KFYO Tonight

Tony Janiro (above), the Buckeye boy from Youngstown, and Humberto Zavala, the Mexican who trounced Cleo Shans recently, headline tonight's boxing show at Madison Square Garden in New York.

When these two met last April, they battled furiously on even terms until the contest was halted because of an eye injury suffered by Zavala in the fourth.

Zavala, strictly a slam-bang fighter who sails into an opponent with both fists flying, has been an ace attraction since he arrived in the East. He has a spectacular ring style featured by constant punching and a bewildering "switch stance."

Enjoy the excitement, blow-by-blow, on Gillette's Cavalcade of Sports over American Broadcasting Co. and KFYO (1340 on Your Dial) at 9 p. m.

STOCKS SHOHW LOSSES
NEW YORK, Dec. 20 (AP)—Lower tendencies prevailed in today's stock market although dealings were among the slowest of the past six months and a handful of favorites managed to emerge with modest plus signs.

Strike stalemates continued to dampen bullish enthusiasm.

NEW YORK REPORT
NEW YORK, Dec. 20. (AP)—Cotton futures charted an irregular course today in routine trading featured by considerable switching operations prior to the year-end. Scattered hedge selling and liquidation depressed prices as much as 40 cents a bale in early dealings but the market displayed rallying tendencies on mill buying and local covering which met only limited offerings. Foreign buying of cotton here was reported active although details were not available.

The Bureau of Census reported cotton ginnings to December 13 at 7,733,761 bales, a decrease of approximately 2,799,000 bales from the last year. Ginnings for the first half of December, however, were moderately better than a similar period of 1944.

Futures closed 5 cents a bale lower to 25 cents higher.

British Continue To Shell Bandoeng Area

BATAVIA, Java, Dec. 20 (AP)—Trouble spots in northwest Bandoeng were hammered for an hour by British artillery today and then infantrymen advanced into that sector of the Java summer capital.

The Dutch government information service said a subsequent three-pronged infantry push into the sector to search for hidden weapons was virtually unopposed. Yesterday the British recovered "many arms," when their forces occupied the strongly-defended Isola hotel in northern Bandoeng.

Netherlands Indies army troops cleared and accupied Pasarminggoe, not far from Batavia, the information service said, while a battalion of NEI troops arrived at Tjimahi, four miles northwest of Bandoeng, without incident.

UNO Delegates Are Confirmed

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20. (AP)—President Truman's slate of nine American representatives to the first full session of the United Nations was confirmed by the Senate late today after spirited criticism of some of his selections.

There was never any doubt as to the outcome during the nearly two hours of debate. No roll-call votes were demanded on any of the nominees.

Oratorical Fireworks

Nevertheless the nominations of Edward R. Stettinius, jr., Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, Frank C. Walker, John G. Townsend, Jr., and Senator Tom Connally drew oratorical attacks ranging from heavy to moderate.

Stettinius received a double appointment, as representative on the security council with rank of ambassador, and as representative to the first session of the United Nations assembly to be held in London early next month. As such he was the first target.

Senator Langer (R-ND) declared Stettinius' "associations with high finance and big business" rendered him unsuited to "any high office where his duties would have an immediate effect upon the material welfare of the people at large."

Solons Rush To His Aid

Senators Barkley (D-Ky), Vandenberg (R-Mich) and Capehart (R-Ind) hastened to Stettinius' defense. Vandenberg said the former secretary of state is "a seasoned veteran who already has done as much for the world's hope of organized peace as any living man."

No "nay" vote was audible when the nomination was called up for confirmation.

Senator Bilbo (D-Miss) likewise drew counterfire when he criticized the nomination of Mrs. Roosevelt to an assembly post. "I care not what course others may take," Bilbo said, "but representing the soverign state of Mississippi, I know I represent 98 or 99 per cent of my people in opposing the nomination."

To Publish Book

He said he wouldn't take up the Senate's time giving his reasons, but said he was going to publish a book on the subject in March.

Senators arkley, Chavez (D-NM) and Taylor (D-Idaho) stood up for the late President's widow as a capable and energetic choice.

Taylor, however, said that in voting to confirm Connally to a place on the assembly he wanted it understood he did not agree with a recent assertion by the Texan that the United States did not want a world government. Taylor himself has proposed legislation leading to such a government.

Big Texas' Smallest State Employe Weds

AUSTIN, Dec. 20. (AP) — Big Texas' smallest state employe, Waylon H. Galloway, 45 inches tall, was married tonight in the Senate chamber to pert and pretty little Rose Mary Copeland of Burbank, Calif. She is 44 inches tall.

It was an all-midget wedding, except for the minister, who was six-foot Dr. W. R. White, pastor of the First Baptist church of Austin. And sitting on the front row in the crowd of state employes and officials was six-foot plus Gov. Coke R. Stevenson, who was one of the first to congratulate the tiny bride and groom.

The attendants were all midgets: Mr. and Mrs. August Swenson, and Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Clifton, of Austin.

The marriage ceremony on the rostrum of the Senate, where Galloway was once a page, culminated a courtship that stared three years ago in Vinita, Okla., where Rosy Mary lived.

Although Rose Mary admits that at the time she said something to the effect that she wouldn't go with any "red-headed freckled face bay," they kept up a steady correspondence until last week when Waylon got on the long distance telephone and completed arrangements for the wedding.

The couple will spend their honeymoon at Galloway's old home in Wills Point. The honeymoon was a gift of Claude Isbell, secretary of state.

The governor and his employes gave them a set of dishes, and fellow workers gave them furnishings for their home. They will live in Austin.

Workers Now Taking Lower Paying Jobs

AUSTIN, Dec. 20 (AP)—The attitude of unemployed workers in Texas toward taking lower-paying jobs has changed considerably during the past month, a report by United States employment service offices in Texas indicated.

The number of persons contacting USES offices in Texas began to increase in October and there has been a steadily rising increase since that time, the report said.

"The type and attitude of unemployed workers have improved considerably," the report said in part. "As an illustration, Borger USES office reports that the major portion of applicants fall between the ages of 20 and 30 years. Applicants, for the most part, are anxious to secure employment which is permanent with opportunities for advancement."

The report said applicants' desires are for at least a living wage to start but they are not necessarily set on the highest salaries jobs available.

There is still a great deal of dissatisfaction, nevertheless, among unemployed workers with the wage rates listed for many of the available job openings.

Excess Profits Taxes Net U. S. Over 28 Billion From Business

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (U.P.) — The United States will have collected more than $28,000,000,000 in excess profits taxes before this war-time levy on American business expires at midnight Dec. 31.

The first excess profits tax of the current war period was enacted before Pearl Harbor, during the period when the European war caused the United States to begin a preparedness program. The announced purpose of the tax was to prevent industry from enriching itself from the defense program.

After Pearl Harbor, the excess profits tax was strengthened and increased. In 1940, the tax on excess profits ranged from 25 per cent to 50 per cent. For 1941, the rates were increased to a range of 35 per cent to 60 per cent. In 1942, a flat rate of 90 per cent was placed in effect. Finally, in 1943, the flat rate was boosted to 95 per cent.

1945 Top Year

By fiscal years, the acutal collections from this tax were as follows:

Fiscal year ended June 30, 1942, $1,670,000,000; fiscal year ended June 30, 1943, $5,146,000,000; fiscal year ended June 30, 1944, $9,482,000,000; fiscal year ended June 30, 1945, $11,147,000,000. Several billion additional dollars remain to be collected during the present fiscal year, even though the tax itself ends on New Year's morning.

Since the announced purpose of the tax is to prevent industries from getting rich out of the war, the tax does not apply to the normal earnings of corporations.

New Setup Planned

Each corporation had the right to compute its normal earnings on the basis either of the average yearly earnings in the years 1936 through 1939 or a percentage of the firm's invested capital. This portion of the firm's earnings was subjected only to the regular corporation income tax. However, earnings above these normal amounts were taxed at the excess profits rates.

Next year, after repeal of the excess profits tax, these earnings as well as the normal earnings, will be taxed at the regular income tax rates.

Most Complicated

While the excess profits tax was one of the biggest money raisers in the U. S. Treasury's history, it is also the most complicated law ever administered by the tax authorities.

These complications were due mainly, to numerous provisions for adjusting the tax upward or downward in cases where the general rules for application of the tax might be unfair.

For example, a firm which started in business in 1940 could not be taxed on the basis of its average earnings from 1936 to 1939, and special rules had to be made in such cases. In other instances where 1936-1939 earnings were abnormal for various reasons, provisions had to be made for adjustments. Claims arising under these and similar relief provisions will be processed for years after the tax itself is gone.

The excess profits tax is also the first of the special wartime taxes to be repealed by the United States Congress. This repeal was urged by both the administrative and legislative leaders in order to stimulate the conversion of business from wartime to peacetime production.

Further Cuts In Tax Program Is Scored

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20. (AP)—Until the nation's budget is balanced, Chairman Doughton (D-NC) of the House Ways and Means committee believes there can be no justification for any further substantial tax cuts.

Doughton, the Congressional tax chief, criticized at a new conference what he called a tendency among lawmakers for large appripriations and continued deficit spending.

He let it be known that ,until expenditures are brought into line with revenues, any proposal for cutting the taxes that bring in the revenues will have difficulty obtaining his support.

AIR SERVICE STARTS

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 20 (AP)—Twice-weekly air express and mail service, in addition to daily passenger service, between San Francisco and Honolulu has been started by Pan American World Airways V. A. Kropff, traffic manager, announced today.

House Halves Time On War Powers Act

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19. (AP)—Six southern Democratic senators teamed with a solid Republican bloc to vote a six-months rather than a full year's extension for the second war powers act under which rationing is carried out.

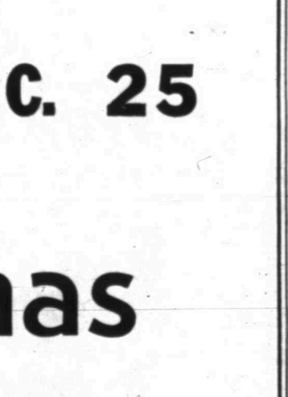

The thin margin of one vote—the roll call was 31 to 30—assured the six-months-only extension previously approved by the House.

Dwindling pre-holiday attendance was reflected in the vote which saw Democratic Senators Bilbo of Mississippi, Byrd of Virginia, Hoey of North Carolina, McClellan of Arkansas, O'Daniel of Texas and Tydings of Maryland aligned with 24 Republican and one Progressive against the longer term of power.

The bill goes back to the House for consideration of an amendment affecting the naturalization of soldiers. It sets Dec. 31, 1945, as the deadline for application of members of the armed forces for naturalization papers, and provides that the applications can be filed only by persons who are in the military or naval services at the time the extension bill is enacted.

NEW AUTO ENGINE

CLEVELAND, Dec. 20 (AP)—President William S. Jack today told 1,400 Jack and Heintz, Inc., associates (employes) at the company's annual Christmas party that the new Jahco engine would be used by one of the nation's largest auto makers and that within the next four months production of the engines would reach 15,000 units daily.

Buffet Supper Will Delight All Ages

"It would be hard to say just what we like best about the holidays. Certainly one of the greatest joys of the season is the gay succession of festivities, ranging all the way from Christmassy teas to after-the-theater buffet suppers.

"Buffet suppers are a delightful way of entertaining both young people and the older crowd. They're the easiest of all meals to plan, prepare, and serve, whether you have a big home or a small one—a maid or no one but yourself to put on the whole affair. And they're a fine solution for handling a good sized crowd.

"Decorating the holiday buffet table can be a lot of fun. One idea for decoration is to use a white or pale green linen cloth with a centerpiece of figurine candles. Arrange three or four figures in the center of a table mirror, sprinkle artificial snow in a circle around them and stand little Christmas trees in the background.

"Once you've decided on the meat dish for the buffet meal, the rest of the menu seems to shape up by itself. For that important main dish you'd probably love to highlight baked ham, but if you must pass up this favorite choice until another year, there are other appropriate meat dishes with which you can easily team up a vegetable, salad, and dessert. Here are some buffet supper main dish suggestions: Casserole of sweetbreads and dried beef; veal a la king in patty shells or on crisp noodles; scalloped ham, chicken and mushrooms; beef tamale pie; ham, macaroni, mushroom casserole; curried lamb in rice ring; chop suey on rice; veal birds; smoked tongue; meat balls in Italian sauce on spaghetti; scalloped veal and spaghetti.

Nesselrode Pie Said Sure Family Treat

Nesselrode pie is sure to sate the family appetite. It is easy to make. Try it and make your family say you are wonderful when dessert comes in.

One package prepared vanilla pudding 1½ cups milk, 1 egg white, 2 tablespoons sugar, 2 tablespoons chopped maraschino cherries, ¼ teaspoon rum flavoring or rum, 1 baked 8-inch pie shell or graham cracker crust.

Prepare vanilla pudding as directed on package, decreasing milk to 1¼ cups. Cool. Beat egg white until foamy throughout, add sugar gradually, and continue beating until mixture will stand in soft peaks. Fold in pudding. Fold in cherries and rum flavoring. Turn into pie shells. Decorate with halved maraschino cherries and leaves cut from citron. Chill.

Holiday Eggnog With Fragrant Port Wine

1 cup Roma Port, 2 cups milk, 2 tbsps. sugar, 2 eggs.

Separate the eggs and beat the whites and yolks separately. Retain half of beaten egg whites for a "float." Combine remaining egg whites and yolks. Bring milk to boiling point, preferably in a double boiler, and slowly stir in wine, at the same time adding sugar. Continue to stir while adding beaten eggs. Serve in preheated cups or glasses. Top with a "float" of beaten egg white and a fleck of nutmeg. Serves 6.

The recently-losed Heart Mountain, Wyo., relocation center converted some 2,000 acres of sage brush land into a high state of cultivation.

For that Christmas supper "snack"—sliced turkey, pears stuffed with whole cranberry sauce, and a pot of baked beans.

It's Not Christmas Unless You Have Turkey And The Fixin's

FOR THIS, our first peaceful Christmas in so long a time, we all want to have a really perfect dinner. There's plenty of turkey. All we have to do is to provide the trimmings. Here's a suggested menu:

CHRISTMAS DINNER MENU

Clear Soup
Roast Turkey
Chestnut Puree
Candied Sweet Potatoes
Green Peas
Hot Rolls Cranberry Sauce
Olives and Celery
Plum Pudding
Salted Nuts Candies

Holiday Turkey

Pluck, wash and draw a 12-to-14 pound turkey. Rub inside and outside of bird with a mixture of salt, poultry seasoning and pepper. Stuff lightly with prepared stuffing (see below). Sew up openings or secure with skewers. Truss the bird so that wings are held back tightly against the body. Place, breast up, in roasting pan. Brush melted butter or margarine over the whole surface. Roast, uncovered, in 300 degree oven, 25 minutes to the pound for a bird of 12 pounds or less, on a slightly less time per pound for a larger bird.

For Festive Dessert

Two squares unsweetened chocolate, 1 1-3 cups sweetened condensed milk, ½ cup water, 3 drops oil of peppermint, 24 vanilla wafers.

Melt chocolate in top of double boiler. Add sweetened condensed milk and stir over boiling water 5 minutes until mixture thickens. Add water and oil of peppermint. Line narrow, oblong pan with wax paper. Cover with chocolate mixture. Add layer of vanilla wafers, alternating in this way until chocolate mixture is used, finishing with layer of wafers. Chill in refrigerator 12 hours or longer. To serve, turn out on small platter and carefully remove wax paper. Cut in slices. Garnish with whipped cream, if desired.

Fifty-Eight Counties Top Quotas On Bonds

(By The United Press)

To prove that it can be done, 58 Texas counties have reached their E bonds sales quota and more in the Victory Loan drive.

But the 196 counties who haven't are the ones that count. They've kept Texas from reaching another of its records. The state is still down in 43rd place in the nation, tied with Rhode Island, and the accounting period runs out Dec. 31.

"Show your gratitude for a victorious Christmas; give victory bonds," says Nathan Adams, chairman of the War Finance committee of Texas.

E bond sales have reached 73.5 per cent of the $90,000,000 quota, Adams revealed. That leaves almost $34,000,000 Texas is short.

Army Still Pushes Search For Thousands Of "Missing" Men

By JANE EADS
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—Army "search teams" are combing every World War II battlefield for the bodies of an estimated 7,000 GI's now listed as missing in the Pacific theater and about 6,500 more in Europe.

A search team consists of five men, one of whom speaks the language of the locality to which he has been assigned. The team covers an area of approximately one and a half square miles. It gets its information by interviewing householders and others in the area.

Bodies Are Located

When an unmarked grave is discovered the body is checked for identification and shipped to an American cemetery. The War department says that locating the burial site is about the only way by which actual proof of death now is obtained.

However, the bodies of many of those missing in action in the air and at sea may never be found. In other instances, soldier dead buried by natives in some isolated spots have little more chance of being discovered.

The War department says too that it is down to only about 140 men listed as prisoners of war. As such they are still unaccounted for, but the War department says its assumes they are dead.

Many Said Alive

In addition, the War department says there are many AWOLs who could be among the dead. Last winter some 10,000 were listed as absent without leave." One of department's biggest problems is to determine whether they died in action or in the line of duty. Line of duty and misconduct status affect the financial settlements—gratuity and pay arrears. However, life insurance is not affected.

The War department is still sending out telegrams bearing heartbreaking news to the loved ones of the GI's who had been reported missing in action. Bad enough to learn that a boy is missing, but worse still to live for months in the vain hope that he will turn up alive, sometime, somewhere. The telegrams these days mostly are that the boy has been concluded dead.

Complete Account Given

If the boy is missing a year and a presumptive death finding is made, the Casualty Branch of the War department notifies the family by letter, explaining the purpose and effect of the death finding.

In cases where the death finding is made on the search team's report, or other conclusive evidence, the War department issues an official report of death to give the family the actual date, cause and place of death, if known, and any other known information.

Additional information may come in for some time, but under the law if conclusive proof of death is not obtainable the boy is officially concluded dead after a year's time has elapsed.

Complete Check Planned

The Casualty Branch is now receiving around 600 telephone inquires daily and 15 to 20 personal visits from anxious people from all parts of the counitry. Peak number of calls a day was 1,750 last spring. This number involves two calls, the incoming and outgoing, and includes also 342 Congressional calls.

It took about eight months after World War I to clear up casualty problems. Some, of course, were never solved. The War department has just issued casualty clearance plans to all theaters in an effort to speed up the work still to be done. Immediate action has been asked of all commanding officers.

The plans include recovery of dead personnel, ascertainment of dead or alive status of persons not recovered, and obtaining all possible additional information concerning individuals presumed to be dead.

Stevenson Involved In Debate Over Size Of Texas Watermelon

DALLAS, Dec. 20 (AP)—If what Governor Coke Stevenson of Texas had to say about Texas watermelons doesn't convince south Carolina that Texas melons are the largest, he may have to challenge the governor of South Carolina, he indicated today.

Governor Stevenson in a letter to the Dallas Times-Herald said watermelons in Kimble county, his home county, are so large farmers blast holes in their sides in order hogs may enter and feed on the contents.

"After thousands of hogs have been fattened in this manner, the rind is left intact and is used to shelter the cattle through the winter," he said.

"Usually one melon will house 200 head of cattle along with a few sheep and goats."

It all started when a national news magazine carried a story about 300 melons being taken by Camp Fannin soldiers from a field. Major William R. Geddings, a South Carolinian stationed in Cincinnati, Ohio, disputed the story, which gave Texas supremacy in melon production, and said that South Carolina watermelons were shipped by plane—one melon per each C-46 transport plane.

The correspondence was submitted to Governor Stevenson, who said if that was the largest melon South Carolina could grow, farmers there should go out of business.

"A watermelon of that sort would be of inferior quality in Texas," he said.

Then he described the size of melons in Kimble county.

The letter indicated that should this "statement of fact" fail to convince South Carolinians, the governor may issue an official challenge to the governor of South Carolina to settle the whole matter.

O'Daniel Continues Eviction Suit Today

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (AP) — The second of three tenant eviction suits filed by Senator O'Daniel (D-Tex) to obtain possession of the 4-story, 14-unit apartment house he bought recently for a home, is scheduled to start tomorrow in municipal court.

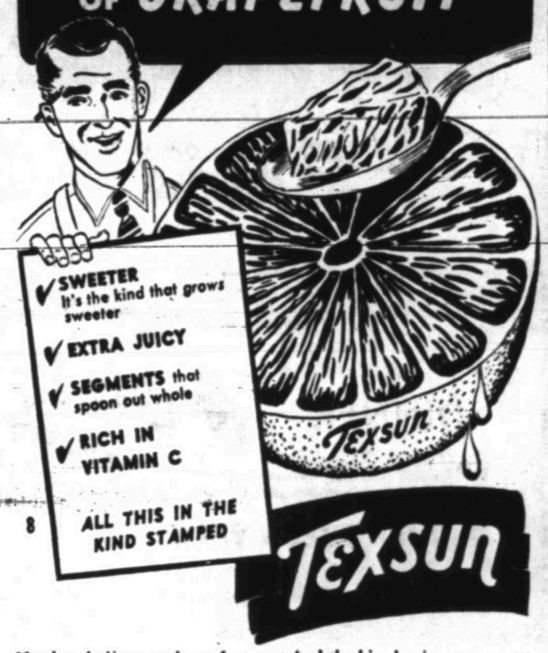

The defendant, Austin Patrick Fitzpatrick, has served notice through his attorney that he will fight the case on the grounds that O'Daniel does not need apartment No. 3, which Fitzpatrick occupies, and that the senator has other apartments available in the building.

D. Heywood Hardy, former Houston, Tex., attorney who is counsel for the Texas senator, said a favorable decision would be sought under a housing laws provision for eviction if the landlord "requires and seeks in good faith" the possession of the dwelling for his own "immediate personal use and occupancy."

O'Daniel was successful in the first of the three eviction proceedings. The third suit, against Mrs. Orpha Wilcox, is expected to come up for jury trial in January.

An ancient ceremony in High Wycombe, England, requires each mayor to be weighed before entering office.

Soviet-Chinese Negotiations On Manchurian Setup In Deadlock

By REYNOLDS PACKARD
United Press Staff Writer

PEIPING, Dec. 20 — Soviet-Chinese negotiations over Manchuria have met a setback in Russian demands for joint control of Manchurian heavy industries, a Chinese newspaper report claimed today. Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek's son is trying to patch up the difficulties.

Quarters close to the Central government said they understood the reported Russian demand was the reason for frequent flights by Chian Ching Kuo between Changchun, the Manchurian capital, and his father Chian Kai-Shek's headquarters.

May Talk With Marshall

The Catholic Chinese language newspaper "Socialist Welfare Daily," reporting the Russian claim, said "the Manchurian problem again has entered a critical phase."

Chiang Ching Kuo, whose title is diplomatic commissioner for Manchuria, has gone to Nanking to see his father. Chiang Kai-Shek is expected to meet Gen. of Army George C. Marshall there.

(Marshall arrived in Shanghai today).

Delay Not Explained

Before he left Peiping for Nanking, Chiang Kai-Shek was reported pleased with the trend of the Changchum talks, which then were said to be progressing favorably.

Whatever the reason for the delay, circles close to the Generalissimo said that Chinese Nationalist troops still have not entered Mukden, nor have they made airborne landings in Changchun, as anticipated. Ground forces were said to be on the outskirts of Mukden, while airborne troops are supposed to land in Changchun and Mukden "in a week or two."

While here the Generalissimo studied the problem of evacuating Japanese troops and civilians from North China in event American ships are unavailable later. Chinese circles hope to get all Japanese troops out in two months.

Paratrooper Makes Quick Trip Back To England For Bride

NOTTINGHAM, England, Dec. 20. (AP) — Dominick Casciari, 22-year-old ex-paratrooper from New Canaan, Conn., arrived in Nottingham early today bearing an engagement ring, a wedding ring, a pair of nylon stockings and two tickets to the United States

He had come by air from Boston to get the girl—Rita Blankley, 17, whose father had told him to "come and see me after the war" when he asked for her hand in 1944.

"He didn't waste any time, did he?" said the father, Ferdinana Blankley, a public works employee. "Come all that way, I can't very well send him away empty handed, can I?"

Casciari's only disappointment was that his visit did not come as a surprise.

Warned by a newspaper story, the whole neighborhood in Bulwell, Nottingham suburb, was waiting when the American rapped on Rita's door at 1 a. m. today.

Rita's sister called, "is that you, Dom?"

"He was so surprised himself that he couldn't answer," the mather laughed.

MILITARY PLAN OPPOSED

CHICAGO, Dec. 20 (AP) — The American Farm Bureau federation by resolution today opposed compulsory military training on the ground that it "is foreign to the American way of life" and that it "leads to regimentation, a militaristic point of view and future wars."

Attendance at the Chicago Service Men's Centers is higher now than at any time during the war and nearly twice as high as it was this spring.

Horn-Blowing Cop Gets Job Done As Timothy Returns

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 20. (AP) — What the lady wanted was a policeman who could blow a horn, she said on the phone.

Patrolman Harry Brewer trudged to the home of Mrs. H. T. Poindexter wondering whether he would have to ta ta ta a trumpet or oompah a tuba.

"I'm the horn blower," Brewer announced above the yapping of a small black spaniel.

"Quiet, Timothy Handy Junior," admonished Mrs. Poindexter, and to Brewer she added:

"It was good of you to come but Timothy Handy Junior is back now. He runs away, the naughty boy, but he loves to ride in the car. He always comes back when we blow the horn but we've had the flu here and couldn't go outside."

Deadline Set On Bid For Mexico Gas Line

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20. (AP)—Reynosa pipeline company of Corpus Christi, Tex., yesterday was given until Jan. 10 to submit additional data to support its request to deliver 60,008,000 cubic feet of gas daily to Mexico as the federal power commission concluded its hearing on the company's application.

The commission's ruling on the company's application to export natural gas from the Rio Grande valley in Texas to Monterrey, Mexico, consequently is not expected for several weeks.

As the week-long hearing ended Robert Wilson of Corpus Christi, president not only of Reynosa but of its parent company, La Gloria corporation, took the stand again to urge favorable action on the application. He declared that La Gloria, as the producing company supplying Reynosa, needed additional markets for its gas wells.

I. W. Keyes of Corpus Christi, attorney for the Mexican corporation which would transport the fuel from the border to consumers, "Gas Industrial De Mexico," reiterated the ability and readiness of Mexican business men to build a pipeline from Monterrey to the Rio Grande as soon as the FPC should approve the pending proposal.

Both he and the attorney for Reynosa, James Young of Corpus Christi, declared there are abundant reserves in Hidalgo county to fill a 10-year-contract to supply Monterrey industries and that no other large market was in sight for the Rio Grande valley gas fields.

TO RESUME SESSIONS

FORT WORTH, Dec. 20 (AP)—The Texas State Medical association will resume its annual sessions "with all the trimmings" next May 6-9 at Galveston, Dr. H. F. Conally of Waco, president, announced through state headquarters here today.

Colorado River Heads Pledge Cooperation

AUSTIN, Dec. 20. (AP)—The cooperation of the Lower Colorado River authority has been pledged by General Manager Max Starcke to the Upper and Central Colorado river authorities for contemplated irrigation and flood-control projects on their sections of the river.

At a conference here yesterday representatives of the three authorities conferred with members of the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation in an attempt to clarify not only the attitude of the LCRA but also consider how to untangle the knot of conflicting state statutes relative to water.

Legal Opinions Differ

S. L. Baird, regional consul for the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation, said the "best lawyers in the state differ in their interpretation of the meaning of the Supreme court's ruling relative to reparian rights as well as the attorney general's opinion relative to permits for hydro-electric power."

H. G. Wendland of San Angelo, vice president of the upper Colorado river authority, said he believed the "mere commitment" of the LCRA of a willingness to cooperate with the other authorities would remove the apprehension of the federal government in going ahead with a contemplated 100 to 150 million dollar water development program for the upper and central Colorado.

Members Are Present

Starcke said before LCRA made any definite commitments it needed to "study the plans of the Bureau of Reclamation and U. S. Army engineers in order to better determine how such projects will affect existing facilities on the lower portion of the river."

Those present included: G. C. Allen, of Robert Lee, member of the board of directors of upper Colorado river authority; L. T. Youngblood of Bronte, president of Upper Colorado; H. G. Wendland of San Angelo, vice-president of Upper Colorado; Paul Sharkey, with the Amarillo office of the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation; L. W. Smith, and Jim Regar with the Austin Bureau of Reclamation; Sam Cooper, general manager of Central River authority; R. G. Hollingsworth, of Coleman, member of the central board of directors; C. S. Clark, chairman of the state board of water engineers, and J. E. Sturrock, general manager for the Texas Water Conservation association.

Texas A. & M. Plans To Expand Facilities

COLLEGE STATION, Dec. 20 (AP) Formation of the Texas A. and M. college development fund to make available the means by which the institution may expand its research and educational service facilities, was announced today by A. F. Mitchell of Corsicana, chairman of the newly organized group.

R. Henderson Shuffler, former Odessa newspaper publisher, was named executive director, with headquarters at A. and M. Both Mitchell and Shuffler are graduates of the college.

"The A. and M. development fund will speed development of the college into an institution of inestimable value to Texas," Mitchell said, "through erection of needed buildings and financing of research, scholarships and projects which cannot be financed with state funds through the medium of gifts, endowments, bequests and grants from former students and friends of the institution."

NOYES GETS POST

NEW YORK, Dec. 20 (AP) — Dr. W. Albert Noyes, jr., chairman of the chemistry department of the University of Rochester, has been elected president of the American Chemical society for 1947, when he will assume a post once held by his father, the late Dr. William Albert Noyes.

Kirtland Field Said Set For New Duties

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Dec. 20. (U.P.)—Immediately after Kirtland Field ceases operations as a B-29 base on Dec. 31, it will be reactivated to fulfill an anticipated future requirement," Chamber of Commerce manager John Murphy said today.

Murphy reported he was so informed by Army Air Forces officers in Washington, where he conferred with a number of national officials in regard to proposed Albuquerque projects.

In addition, the chamber manager said he had learned that the veterans' hospital here will be expanded and that the Army expects to retain the Kirtland Field housing project so that it will not be available for easing the current Housing shortage in the duke city.

Rehearing Appeal On Estate Tax Planned

HOUSTON, Dec. 20. (AP)—A rehearing on the estate tax ruling made by the Supreme court Dec 10 will be asked by a special committee of the Texas Bar association, Palmer Hutcheson, Houston attorney, said today.

Hutcheson said the Louisiana state bar was preparing an appeal similar to the one being prepared by Texas lawyers.

The Supreme court ruled that estates in this country's eight community property states may be taxed 100 per cent by the federal government on the death of either spouse. Before, the estate tax in community property states had applied to only 50 per cent of the property left on the death of either spouse.

"We're not going to have any Red Lead Rows here like those after the first World war," Navy authorities say.

Can Be Ready In Hurry

"America cannot afford to have hundreds of ships rotting away to worthless, rusted junk again. These ships must be ready to be put in action quickly in case of national emergency."

Which makes the job a little harder than putting Mrs. Jones' fur coat away for the summer.

When completely "dehumified" by new processes, these ships can be put back into action by "stepping aboard, firing the boilers, tooting the whistle and shoving off," the Navy says.

Keeps Inside Dry

Tied up in four and five-ship divisions, destroyers are the first craft to be subjected to the new method. All but one destroyer in each division are fully dehumidified and the remaining one left partly open for maintenance crews.

Every hatch must be sealed, vents covered with metal sheets tack-welded and calked for easy removal, smokestacks closed up and a dehumidifying machine installed in each ship.

Cmdr. Clyde Lovelace, head of the Readiness and Preservation Department of the industrial command at the repair base, is enthusiastic over these new machines.

"They can be operated for only a few cents a day, keeping all air inside the ships dry—which certainly is cheaper than allowing the vessels to rust away and having to replace them," Lovelace says.

Guns Sealed Airtight

After enclosing guns and other exposed gear with wedding fishnets, a rubbery plastic compound just developed is sprayed on them to form an airtight casing.

Rust - presentative compounds are coated on exposed bright metal on the weather decks, and all machinery is given a protective coat to keep it "in shipshape order for years."

Some of the most famous destroyers of World War II are already in the "moth balls," including the Sullivans, Porterfield, Hazelwood, Hunt, Picking, Tingey, Jenkins, Gregory, Marshall, Preston, Lewis Hancock, Trathen McCord, Miller, Owen, Halley, Pritchett and Abbott.

"We've only started the job, but we're going to seal up the retired sections of the Navy just in case Uncle Sam has to draw 'em out again some time," Lovelace said.

Mrs. Simm's Estate Totals $5,868,000

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Dec. 20. (U.P.)—The will of the late Ruth Hanna McCormick Simms, filed in Albuquerque probate court by her husband Albert G. Simms, executor of the estate, reveals that her New Mexico assets total $5,868,000.

Assets in New Mexico are comprised of real estate and personal property, consisting of cash, stocks and bonds.

In addition to the New Mexico holding, there is some $100,000 in real estate in both the District of Columbia and Illinois, where the estate is also being probated.

Under terms of Mrs. Simms' will, the District of Columbia and Illinois property will go to her two daughters, Mrs. Cortland V. Barnes, jr., of New York, and Mrs. Peter Miller, of Chicago. Simms will receive the remainder of the estate, and he is required to pay all administration expenses, as well as all inheritance, estate and succession taxes.

Over-all taxes will total more than $3,000,000, Simms estimates, or about 63 per cent of the estate. Federal inheritance tax will will amount to about $2,550,000, and New Mexico succession tax is expected to total about $490,000.

It is reported that taxes due in the state of Illinois and the District of Columbia have not yet been determined.

Authority Of FEPC Extended By Truman

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20. (AP)—President Truman issued an order today continuing until June 30, 1946, the authority of the Fair Employment Practices committee to investigate and report on discriminations in employment occurring in private industry engaged in military or "effective" reconversion production.

FEPC officials said previous executive orders had continued its power in this respect only for the duration, and since the end of the war its jurisdiction has been questioned.

At the same time the President directed heads of government departments and agencies to analyze personnel policies to see that no racial discrimination is practiced in rehiring of temporary war job workers.

Veterans Of 36th Set For Holidays At Home

TYLER, Dec. 20. (AP)—The first veterans of the famous Fighting 36th division came home to Texas in two trains today and hope to eat Christmas dinner with their folks.

Two trains pulled into Tyler early today, and the men were taken to camp Finnin where processing began immediately.

Officials said that all except those who must remain for medical treatment will be home for Christmas.

One train carried 116 enlisted men and 7 officers, the other 243 enlisted men and 16 officers. Officials said the bulk of them were Texans.

President Greets Hospitalized Vets

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20. (AP)—President Truman today sent special Christmas greeting to every hospitalized American war veteran.

The President's letter follows:

"To you who have so richly earned the enduring gratitude of the nation I send Christmas greetings.

"Your unselfish devotion to duty has preserved for all of us our precious heritage of liberty. You have merited from your fellow citizens the heartfelt tribute; well done!

"May the new year and each succeeding year bring to you and your loved ones ever increasing proof of the inflexible determination of all Americans to discharge in full the sacred obligation that our free nation owes to the gallant men and women who served us in our hour of need."

It's "Cigaret Money"

Joe Citizen Gets A Tax "Break"

MANY a Joe Citizen will get what amounts to a pea-size wage raise when the New Year rolls around and Uncle Sam's changes in the federal income tax law go into effect.

Though the federal withdrawal tax, adopted when wartime necessities required heavy revenues, has not been eliminated, the amount will be reduced after January 1.

The married man with two children making 50 bucks a week will receive about a dollar more in his Saturday paycheck. However, Uncle Sam will continue to take a weekly cut of $1.30. New payments for other $50-a-week workers follows: married with one child, $3.30; married with no children, $5; single, $6.80.

The change will be put into effect by your employer, but in your own interest you should examine the first check that you received after January 1 to make sure that less is being withheld. The Treasury has ruled that the new rates will be effective at the first of the year, regardless of when the money was earned. Therefore, if a check for December service is not issued until after January 1, it must be made out on the basis of the new rates.

While the "pay increase" will not allow for the purchase of a new watch or a new carpet for the living room, it will provide some convenient loose change in a time when many are hard-pressed for "cigaret money" after meeting the inflated prices of necessities.

Patton Fights It Through

ONE often hears of "will power" as an important factor in recovery from physical disabilities.

Perhaps the stubborn determination to overcome adversities has had almost as much to do with the amazing "snapback" of Gen. George S. Patton, jr., as the skilled attention of noted medical men.

"Old Blood and Guts" suffered injuries in an unfortunate automobile accident that might have even proved fatal to a less courageous and headstrong man. But the famous general has reportedly astounded his doctors with a speedy recovery reminiscent of his armored lunges across France and Germany. Though he suffered a paralytic injury to his spinal cord, reports indicate that the effects will not be permanent.

One gathers that the 59-year-old Patton would much rather "go down" on the battlefield. After surviving the hazards of warfare, the thought that he might die or suffer life-long injuries as the result of a traffic accident was perhaps abhorrent to him. Therefore, his will to live and overcome his impairments must have been profound.

Modern Enoch Ardens

NEW finishes are being put on Longfellow's classic story of Enoch Arden by the soldiers of the last war who have come back from the dead.

The newspapers in the last several months have reported many a case where a man, previously reported "missing" or "dead," has come home to find his wife married to another man. There have been occasions where it was to the service man's relative or best friend.

The wives, in the stories we have read, usually return to their first love after a due period of contemplation. And husbands No. 1, unlike the fictionalized Arden, who peeped into a window to see a strange man in his house and slipped quietly away, have not been hesitant in making their existence known, and, by and large, have seen the situation through as excellent sports.

Terminiello For Coughlin

IN THE sulphuric cloud of dust which rises on the horizon, there comes into view a familiar figure.

It looks like Father Coughlin, the old battler of the hornets' nests. But it isn't; there's just a strong resemblance.

The new harranguer is Rev. Arthur Terminiello, who until recently practiced as a Roman Catholic priest at Anniston, Ala.

Terminiello was ousted from his assignment when he commenced to rage to his flock in this vein: "Roosevelt, a war criminal" . . . "hanging for those who led this country into war." . . . "God first, America next, other nations last" . . . "Jews plan wholesale extermination, world domination."

But now, in a Birmingham, Ala., print shop, he is carrying on the work which caused his suspension—preparing literature for his "Union of Christian Crusaders."

Under the American system of free speech, there is no alternative but to let Terminiello rave on, and it is just as well. The record in this country is that radicals of his stripe, sooner or later, hang themselves on their own strings of vituperation.

Marshall's Report On The War

By Gen. George C. Marshall
Wartime Chief Of Staff

(This is the 29th of 42 installments of material selected from General Marshall's report on the winning of World War II.

ISLAND HOPPING

ON 1 July 1943, General MacArthur had four American divisions and six Australian divisions under his control. His air force had less than 150 heavy bombers. Admiral Nimitz had nine Army and Marine divisions. Yet in the spring of 1945 these two commanders were ejecting the Japanese from the Philippines and the Ryukyus — already on the home stretch to Japan.

MARSHALL

Following the completion of the extremely difficult Buna campaign late in June 1943, difficult because of the paucity of facilities and the character of the terrain, two regimental combat teams landed on Woodlark and Kiriwina Islands off the eastern tip of New Guinea. The operation was small but it was typical of the general method of the offensive in the Southwest Pacific. Deceived by feints, the Japanese were taken by surprise. Airfields were quickly established on these two islands, from which effective support could be provided for the operations which were to follow, and which permitted the rapid transit of fighter aircraft, is necessary, between the Solomons and New Guinea.

The capture of New Georgia Island with its important Munda airfield was accomplished by Maj. Gen. Oscar W. Griswold's XIV Corps. The first landing in force was made 30 June on nearby Rendova Island. Japanese ground reaction was slight, but in the air the enemy aried hard to disrupt the landing. The next day Marine 155-mm guns on Rendova were shelling Munda airdrome six miles across the water. Elements of 37th and 43d Divisions then landed on New Georgia enveloping the western end of the island. After our forces were reinforced by troops of the 25th Division, Munda was captured on 5 August. Bypassing the strongly held island of Kolombangara, the XIV Corps had captured Vella Lavella by 9 October.

Salamaua

General MacArthur reduced Salamaua with an Australian force which advanced overland from the west and an American regimental combat team which made an amphibious landing south of the town. On 4 September, while the Japanese were still resisting at Salamoua, an Australian force landed a few miles east of Lae. The next day, supported by air and screened by smoke, a U. S. parachute regiment dropped to seize the airdrome at Nadzab, 19 miles northwest of the town. This daring move permitted the airborne movement to Nadzab of an Austranial division, which then participated with their forces to the east in a concentric attack on Lae. After difficult fighting the town was occupied on 16 September.

Salamaua had fallen five days previously. General MacArthur then moved quickly toward Finschhafen. Employing mostly Australian forces, he occupied the town on 2 October. By February 1944 the Huon Peninsula was completely in our hands. During these operations and those which followed, extensive air attacks were maintained against the enemy's supply lines, barges, and airfields, contributing materially to the success of the ground operations.

Meantime New Zealand troops occupied two islands in the Treasury Group of the northern Solomons late in October. Preceded by diversionary landings in northwest Choiseul, the 3d Marine Division of Lt. Gen. A. A. Vandergrift's I Marine Amphibious Corps landed on 1 November at Empress Augusta Bay in western Bougainville. This permitted the establishment of a Naval base and three airfields within fighter range of the enemy concentrations at Rabaul, 235 miles distant. From these airfields the remaining Japanese installations in the Solomons could more extensively be neutralized by Maj. Gen. Nathan F. Twining's Thirteenth Air Force, thus obviating the immediate necessity of conducting a campaign to annihilate the enemy or to complete the capture of the islands. On 11 November elements of the 37th Division entered the line, and on 15 December command of the beachhead passed to our XIV Corps, which had been reinforced by the American Division. Meanwhile a naval task force under Admiral Halsey had smothered Japanese air and naval power at Rabaul.

Training Centers Established

In the Central Pacific Area the primary mission of the Army command under Lt. Gen. Robert C. Richardson, Jr., was the training of units en route to the combat zones further south and west. Amphibious and jungle training centers were established under battle-tested instructors in the Hawaiian Islands. The effectiveness of this training was demonstrated in every area of the Pacific Ocean.

In the fall of 1943 a series of operations was initiated which, less than a year later, had given us mastery of the Pacific. Attacks directed against the enemy along several axes forced him to deploy his relatively inferior air strength over awide area, without sufficient strength at critical points. The vast sea area favored the employment of superior American naval strength. The small islands were not suitable for the employment of large Japanese ground forces.

The first step was the seizure of the Gilbert Islands, designated operation GALVANIC. Preluded by attacks by carrier task forces on Marcus and key islands in the Marshalls Baker, Nukefetu, and Nanumea Islands were occupied by United States forces at the beginning of September. Early in October, Wake was heavily bombarded. After a preparatory naval and air bombardment by both Marine and Navy planes and Maj. Gen. Willis H. Hale's Seventh Air Force, the invasion of the Gilberts began on 21 September. The 2d Marine Division landed on Tarawa. A combat team of the 27th Division landed on Makin. The Jap fought stubbornly on both islands. The larger enemy force on Tarawa made the operation difficult and costly for our troops. Abemama to the south was seized without opposition.

These operations opened a phase of warfare new to most of our troops. The enemy was concentrated within restricted areas, heavily fortified in pillboxes, and protected by mines and beach obstacles. Landing forces faced intense cross-fire. The enemy could be dislodged only by stattering bombardment and powerful hand-to-hand infantry assault. Amphibious tractors proved to be one of the effective assault weapons. They could be floated beyond the range of shore batteries, deployed in normal landing boat formations, and driven over the fringing reefs on to and up the beaches.

RUBBERNECKS OUT AGAIN

HOLLYWOOD (U.P.)—The good, old days are coming back to Hollywood again.

Sight-seeing busses that were ditched as a war casualty are back in operation. One of the bus drivers recalls he used to harangue through a megaphone about the homes of such old favorites as Mary Pickford and Harold Lloyd. Now, he says, ogling tourists want to see where Danny Kaye and the Andrews sisters live.

Great horned owls nest in midwinter and successfully keep their eggs warm in temperatures that drop to zero a below.

Looking At Life ------ By Erich Brandeis

ONE of our New York newspapers printed a lovely story a few days ago about the wedding of a Hollywood movie star. It told all about the ceremony and how the bride was flustered and a lot of other details. Then, at the end of the story, in smaller type, was this line:

"Other amusement news on Page 19."

I am purposely not mentioning the name of the star, because I don't want you to think that this column has any intention to reflect on her—as a matter of fact, she is one of my favorites.

BRANDEIS

But I couldn't help thinking how unintentionally appropriate the line "Other amusement news on Page 19" was for so many modern marriages.

I have attended many, many weddings in my newspaper work and as a private individual.

Many of these weddings have been better amusement than many Broadway shows I have paid $5.50 a seat for—and those weddings were all free with food and refreshments thrown in.

There was music and dancing and drinking and kissing the bride any anyone else who was in kissing distance, and when the bride and the bridegroom finally started on their honeymoon trip, the rest of the guests stayed on and had one heck of a good time.

Some of those marriages have lasted, many have gone on the rocks. And, strange to say, the largest percentage of divorces—at least in my catalogue—seems to be among those who had the most hilarious weddings.

* * *

Don't misunderstand me, please, I have nothing against nice weddings. Marriage should be the beginning of a happy, contented life by two people who love each other.

I certainly don't advocate crepe-hanging or long faces at weddings.

But I have seen weddings which cost young fortunes and assumed the proportions of public bazaars.

Then, after the minister had gone, and Mrs. Emily Post had been satisfied, some of those affairs became nothing less than saloon brawls. I remember one held at a fashionable country club where there was a free-for-all-fight in the locker room and I, myself came away with a black eye—and nobody can tell me that a saloon brawl can ever be the beginning of a successful matrimonial career.

* * *

THE nicest wedding I remember took place in Alameda, Calif., more than twenty-five years ago. It was held in the garden of a modest home and I am sure none of those present earned fifty dollars a week.

Yesterday I had lunch with the son of the bride and bridegroom of that wedding. He had just returned from Germany and can hardly wait for the train that will take him back home to his parents who are still married, still happy, and still in modest circumstances.

There was nothing about that wedding in any newspaper, either on the amusement page or anywhere else.

But that was a wedding—and that is a marriage!

Justice For Nazis Sags

Industrialists Might Go Free

WASHINGTON
By Ray Tucker

ANGLO-FRENCH attempts to block the introduction of incriminating evidence against German bankers and industrialists at the Nurenberg trials have aroused the fear here that the Allies' pledge to destroy militarism and Nazism in the heart of Europe may be thwarted by clashing interests. American Prosecutor Robert H. Jackson is known to be extremely disturbed over recent trends in the medieval courtroom.

Not a single individual who financed the early Nazis or manufactured weapons for Hitler's machine sits in the dock with the political, diplomatic, military and bureaucratic defendants, despite Jackson's possession of original documents which prove them accessories before and during the fact of conflict.

TUCKER

Seventy-five-year-old Gustav Krupp von Bohlen and Halbach has been indicted but it is probable that he will not be punished because of illness. He owned majority control of the vast Krupp armament combine.

When Justice Jackson asked that his 38-year-old son be tried, the British and French denied the demand, although young Krupp joined the Nazi party as early as 1936 and has been active manager of the firm for the last five years.

* * *

CRIMINALS: "Wild Bill" Donavan, former head of the Office of Strategic services, resigned as Jackson's aide because he thought the trials were "going too slowly." He will return to the practice of corporation law in New York.

Lord Justice Geoffrey Lawrence, the presiding British jurist, speeded up the hearings recently when he cut short the American prosecutor's reading of a document showing that German industrialists gave Hitler his start to global war.

While the promised prosecution of major war criminals has struck these snags, the physical destruction of German industry has slowed down American and British members on the Allied Control council seem reluctant to eliminate factories owned by international cartels.

It is reported that certain groups in France, Britain and the United States oppose the whole program to brand financiers and industrialists as "common criminals" subject to the death penalty on conviction, and to wipe out so much invested and valuable capital.

* * *

MEETING: Authentic data in the files of American investigators raise the question of why Britain's Lawrence refused to permit Jackson to introduce his evidence against the industrialists. The information consisted of a statement to our agents by Georg von Schnitzler, an executive director of I. G. Farbenindustrie.

He described a meeting of the industrialists called by Hermann Goering at his Berlin home late in February of 1933 at which the top figures of German finance and manufacture were present. His testimony continues:

"I remember that Dr. Hjalmar Schacht acted as a kind of host. While I had expected the appearance of Goering, Hitler entered the room, shook hands with everybody and took a seat at the top of the table. In a long speech he talked mainly about the danger of Communism, over which he represented that he had just won a notable victory.

"He then talked about the alliance which his party (Nazi) and the German National People's party had entered. This latter party, in the meantime, had been reorganized by Herr von Papen. Toward the end he came to the point which seemed to me the purpose of the meeting.

* * *

FUND: "Hitler stressed the point," continued Schnitzler, "that the two aforementioned parties should gain the majority in the coming Reichstag election. Krupp von Bohlen thanked Hitler for his speech.

"After Hitler had left the room, Dr. Schacht proposed to the meeting the raising of an election fund of, as far as I can remember, 3,000,000 Reichsmarks. The fund should be distributed between the two allies according to their relative strength at the time being . . . The amounts which the individual firms had to contribute were not discussed."

An even larger fund was raised, according to evidence in the hands of U. S. agents, and Hitler became chancellor on March 30, 1933, largely through the aid of these contributions.

* * *

CONTRIBUTIONS: Here are excerpts which in Jackson's opinion indicate that both the Krupps—Father Gustav and Son Alfred—deserve no protection from the British or French:

"Long before 1931, large sums of money were being spent to finance Hitler and his party. Already in 1919 paper bands on packets of 1,000-mark notes which were circulating in Munich reactionary circles had the name of the Krupp concern printed on them.

"In 1933, Gustav Krupp was still supporting the Nazis. He is said to have organized a scheme whereby industrialists contributed one-half per cent of their pay rolls to the Nazis . . . He is also said to have provided financial aid to Hitler in return for which Hitler checked labor troubles that annoyed the heavy industrialists."

Other evidence, obtained from important I. G. officers, links the Krupps and their associates to Hitler's rise to power and his war machine.

"I. G. Farben's directors and officers," reads one document, "fully approved the Nazi aggression against Poland, Czechoslovakia and France. I. G. profited considerably from these conquests. I. G. Farben did not approve of the attack on Russia and the Hitler declaration of war against the United States because we were too well aware of the American power."

* * *

HARD-BOILED: Former Congressional colleagues from the West—California, Oregon and Washington—have advised President Truman that it will be politically dangerous for him to neglect the coastal area in future appointments and postwar economic planning. The suggestion was offered in a friendly spirit, but even his Democratic pals told him they mean business.

Washington has a cabinet member in Labor Secretary Lewis B. Schwellenbach. But the West is chiefly concerned about such questions as the disposition of shipbuilding, airplane and industrial plants built during the war, in the development of the Columbia River basin and in obtaining more Navy yards. It has no representative in a position to influence the agencies which will handle these problems.

If Secretary James V. Forrestal leaves the Navy soon, California may claim the place, now hat New England's historic grip on the post has been broken for so long. Among those mentioned is Rep. Harry R. Sheppard of Yucaipa. He now heads the House Appropriations subcommittee which handles Navy funds. He is a "big fleet" man, but the "brass hats" might not relish his appointment He is too hard-boiled and plain-spoken for them.

* * *

ACCOMPLISHMENT: Old Republican friends are twitting Eugene L. Meyer, editor and publisher of the Washington Post, for the editorial razzing he recently handed out to Patrick J. Hurley. The two men served together during the administration of Herbert Hoover, and have been friends for years.

In commenting on the former China ambassador's performance before the Senate Relations Affairs committee, Meyer's paper said that, despite his charges against alleged State department saboteurs of the Roosevelt-Truman policy for Chungking, Pat merely wound up by "giving the Cherokee yell."

Indian war-whooping at parties has been one of Pat's social graces and accomplishments ever since he came to the capital.

"What would you do if you knew positively that the world would come to an end two weeks from today?" asks a psychologist. We'd take a vacation and enjoy every minute of it, with never a worry as to what it was costing us.

Outmoded Plan Said Hampering Congress

Seniority System Is Assailed

By THOMAS L. STOKES
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON. — Rep. Clifton A. Woodrum(D., Va.), who has been in Congress for 22 years, delivered a farewell speech to his colleagues in the House.

He is retiring soon to enter private business.

STOKES

He was strong in his praise of the House as a great legislative body. Among other things, he asserted:

"Much has been said about reforming Congress. Perhaps there are procedures that could be initiated that would be beneficial, but the House of Representatives as it stands now is unique in one particular. Whatever may be said of the antiquity of its procedure, it is a legislative body which strictly and literally is immediately responsive to the will of the majority of its members."

* * *

Committee Studies Set-Up

Mr. Woodrum will get a lot of agreement in his statement that some changes might be beneficial. But exception will be taken, and must be taken, to his statement that the House is "immediately responsive to the will of the majority of its members."

There are many ways to demonstrate that the House is not so responsive, among them its own confession, and that of the Senate, when the two bodies delegated a joint committee to devise means of modernizing Congress. This committee is expected to report soon.

* * *

BUT the case of Mr. Woodrum himself offers an example as good as any of antiquated and un-Democratic procedures.

The Virginian is regarded as one of the ablest members of the House. He has been among the recognized leaders in that body for years because of his counsel and guidance in one of the House's most important duties, the appropriation of money for the government's functions. He has served with distinction on the appropriations committee.

Yet he never became chairman of that committee for the reason that his name begins with a "W" instead of "A" or "B".

It came about this way. Several years ago when the chairmanship became vacant there were two claimants under the seniority rule, Mr. Woodrum and Rep. Cannon (D., Mo.). Both came to the House the same year. Mr. Cannon became chairman because his name was ahead of Mr. Woodrum's in the alphabet. The Missourian is still chairman.

* * *

System Is Explained

This bit of monkey-business shows how silly the whole seniority system is, without going into the qualifications of the two men. Neither the committee itself, nor the House, had anything to say about the chairmanship of this important committee, nor do they for any others. Seniority rules. A man moves up on the committe list through the years and automatically becomes chairman when he gets to the top, whatever his abilities. In this case of rival claims the alphabet was invoked.

It is responsible, in a similar situation, for the fact that Rep. May (D., Ky.) is chairman of the important House Military Affairs committee instead of Rep. Thomason (D., Tex.). They both came to Congress the same year.

* * *

OTHER devices have been used in the other cases.

Now they flip a coin!

The House cannot be "immediately responsive to the will of the majority of its members," nor to the public, as long as the seniority system prevails, or some of the other antiquated procedures which serve to flout the will of the people as expressed at successive elections.

They throw up a crusty bulwark against infusion of new and younger men into the leadership and against new ideas to meet changing conditions in our nation and our Democracy.

In Mr. Woodrum's retirement Congress loses a valuable member, who might have been more valuable

It happens too often.

It is time Congress did something about it.

Truman Signs Bill On Reorganization Law

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20. (AP)—President Truman today signed legislation giving him authority to reorganize executive branches of the government.

The reorganization, advocates say will bring economies and simplification of administration procedure.

After signing the measure, Mr. Truman said that while the act would result in some reduction of administrative expenditures in the agencies affected, "I do not consider it probable that we will generally save as much as 25 per cent as suggested in the act."

Six agencies are exempted from reorganization, except that additional duties, agencies and employes may be shifted to them. These are the Interstate Commerce commission, Federal Trade commission, Securities and Exchange commission, National Mediation board, National Railroad Adjustment board, and Railroad Retirement board.

The civil functions of the Army's Engineers corps, which includes such work as flood control, the general accounting office and the comptroller general, both direct agents of Congress, are completely exempt.

Two salt mines in Ruthenia have been operated continuously since 1804 and 1809.

Marine Fliers, Captured By Reds In China, Recount Long Defention

By OLEN CLEMENTS
Associated Press Staff Writer

TIENTSIN, Dec. 20. — Bearded but none the worse for their 38-day ordeal, six U. S. Marine fliers have returned here safely after being in Chinese Communist hands in a village 90 miles south of Peiping since Nov. 10.

They are: Lt. Robert A. Holbrook, Three Rivers, Tex.; Warrant Officer John Bieber, jr., Sedgwick, Colo.; Tech. Sgt. Charles Carino Leone, Annandale-On-Hudson, N. Y.; Sgt. Robert J. Murphy, Hudson Falls, N. Y.; Pfc. Jack Leon Poage, Evansville, Ind.; and Pfc. Roy Vantile Curtis, Ethel Springs, Tenn.

Lost In Bad Weather

They became lost in bad weather between Peiping and Tientsin in a torpedo bomber Nov. 10 and crash-landed near the village of Hochin.

The fliers said Communists and bandits looted them of personal effects and menaced them frequently with guns.

Holbrook said when he demanded release, Communist officers replied the affair was "a political problem" which had to be handled through channels.

(Chinese Communists armies hold some sectors, chiefly in north China, in opposition to forces of the Chinese central government).

Holbrook told the complete story to Maj. Gen. Keller E. Rockey of the Third Amphibious force. He said most of the time the six were fed good Chinese food.

Kept Out Of Sight

The Communists kept the fliers out of sight when Marine planes flew overhead although the Communists insisted the six were not prisoners.

"I don't know what you'd call it when they sat around holding cocked weapons on us," Holbrook remarked.

The Communists tried constantly to indoctrinate the fliers, and once asked Holbrook and Leone for statements of praise for their treatment. Both refused. They also refused to pose for photographs which the Communists said were wanted as souvenirs.

They said the Communists wanted to know why the Marines were in China and asserted they ought to get out because the Communists could disarm the Japanese. Some Communists said American planes were strafing villages and that there had been some fighting between Communists and Americans.

One Charges War

One said flatly that the Communists and Americans were at war, Holbrook stated.

Holbrook and Poage tried to destroy equipment in their plane after Chinese Communists camouflaged it. Both said they were menaced while in the cockpit.

Finally, the six were transferred to Jenchia village, where they were held in a stockade under guard. On Nov. 25 they escaped in a heavy fog and walked about 40 miles.

The fliers walked until late at night, found their way barricaded by marshland and sought refuge in a hut. There they were recaptured by the Communists. This time they were robbed of their watches, wedding rings, lighters and other personal effects.

Flailed On Legs

The next day, Communist officer obtained most of their stolen possessions for them but unidentified Chinese kept them awake nights by flailing them on the shins with antiquated hand grenades and rifle barrels.

Eventually the Communists took them to Sinchien village in an ox-cart and later returned them to Jenchiu where the Communists treated them kindly and fed them good food.

On the 35th day of captivity, they were taken to within seven miles of central government troop lines.

A Marine captain and another officer met them and escorted them to Tientsin. A physical check-up shows all are in good condition.

When the six entered the office of General Rockey, he exclaimed:

"This is the best Christmas present I could get."

Oil Portrait Of His Mother Given Truman

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20. (AP)—President Truman, his face crinkled in smiles, received his first Christmas present—an oil portrait of his mother, Mrs. Martha Truman.

Told by Frank S. Land, who made the presentation, that his 93-year-old mother had sat from five to six hours a day for six days during the painting, the President commented:

"They don't make them like her anymore."

Dewey's Code Secret Heroism Discounted

GENEVA, N. Y., Dec. 20. (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey would have committed "political suicide" and risked prosecution for treason if he had revealed the cracking of Japan's military code during the war, Democratic State Chairman Paul E. Fitzpatrick asserted last night.

"For the past few months," as a prelude to the 1946 and 1948 campaigns, Fitzpatrick said in a speech at a Democratic dinner, "Republican masterminds have been giving Governor Dewey a buildup as a super-patriot . . . "

"The truth of the matter is that Dewey had no choice," Fitzpatrick maintained, "To begin with, he had knowledge to which he had no right. General (George C.) Marshall (wartime Army chief of staff) has declared that the breaking of the code was a vital military secret.

"Had Dewey refused to keep that secret, many fighting men, now home for Christmas, would have paid with their lives. Had he revealed this secret he would have committed political suicide and possibly subjected himself to prosecution for treason."

Dog Is Hero Again As He Drags Child From Path Of Auto

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 20 (AP)—King, a mixture of bulldog and terrier, is a hero again.

Several months ago he led Russell P. Bomer, 18, to safety from a burning house. Today Leo Fowler, 33 told his latest exploit. King dragged his daughter Jacka, 4, from the driveway where she was playing, Fowler said, as he backed his car from the garage, unaware she was there.

Giant Missouri Turk Ready For President

LIBERTY, Mo., Dec. 20. (AP) — A 35-pound broad-breasted Missouri turkey will help make President Truman's Christmas dinner a culinary success.

An admiring friend and turkey farmer, E. L. Capps, said today that he would deliver the giant bronze bird to the Independence home of the President Monday morning.

Fire Alarm Almost "Burns Up" This Cop

MONROE, Wis., Dec. 20. (AP)—"Send the fire department right away, we've got a stove pipe fire out here," said an excited voice over the telephone.

At the Monroe police station, desk man Herb Bolliger threw a fire bell switch. The switch didn't work. Rushing to the fire station he yanked the bell cord. It broke. Turning to run back to the police station, Bolliger tripped over the coil of rope. Scrambling to his feet, Bolliger frantically threw a siren switch. It worked. Just then the phone rang.

"Cancel that call," a voice said, "we've got the fire under control."

Cochrane Will Head Foreign Newsmen

Other officers elected: Frank Robertson, Ins., first vice-president; Morrie Landsberg, Associated Press, second vice president; Guthrie Janssen, NBC, secretary; and Ralph Teatsorth, United Press, treasurer.

Auto Accident Toll Shows Big Boost
