Ike Shifts Slate; Bonn First Stop

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP)—President Eisenhower has shifted his European schedule to make Bonn his first call.

One possible purpose is to allay West German fears of being left in the lurch by Eisenhower's forthcoming talks with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, although Eisenhower reportedly "feels the Western Allies need no such assurance.

Announcement here and in Bonn Sunday that Eisenhower will confer with Chancellor Konrad Adenauer in Bonn on Aug. 27 came as a surprise in diplomatic circles.

While it has been stated all along that Eisenhower would see Adenauer while abroad, observers had been under the impression the chancellor would go to London or Paris rather than having Eisenhower go to Bonn.

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty came here to Eisenhower's vacation headquarters to tell reporters Eisenhower had accepted Adenauer's invitation.

The President is looking forward to the opportunity to meet with the chancellor and discuss with him "current problems of interest to the United States and the Federal Republic," Hagerty said.

Traveling by jet plane — the first time a U.S. President has done so — Eisenhower will arrive in Bonn Aug. 27 for the talks with Adenauer, and travel to London that evening for a five-day stay. During this period, he will confer with Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and probably make a side visit to Balmoral Castle in Scotland, for a formal call on Queen Elizabeth II.

Eisenhower goes on to Paris Sept. 2 for meetings with French President Charles de Gaulle, Italian Premier Antonio Segni, and the two top civilian leaders of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. He has no plans to meet with all the heads of the NATO governments.

Hagerty said Eisenhower will remain in Paris for several days, but added no exact date has been set for his return to this country. Khrushchev is due in Washington Sept. 15.

Eisenhower is known to have set no date for his return visit to the Soviet Union. Instead, he is keeping his schedule flexible through next January to attend any East-West summit meeting that may be arranged. There is some thought this could develop from Khrushchev's visit here, although the odds are against it.

A summit meeting could be made until some weeks after Khrushchev visits here, and after Eisenhower has had a chance to report to the Western Allies on his Washington talks with Khrushchev.

Eisenhower's visit to Bonn late this month will be his first there since he became President in 1953. He last was there when he made a good-bye tour of NATO countries on resigning as NATO commander - in - chief.

Castro's Regime Mum On Arrests

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ

HAVANA (AP)—Fidel Castro's government intensified a news blackout today in the face of unconfirmed reports that a large number of civilians and regular army men had been arrested to smash a military conspiracy against the revolutionary regime.

Official silence also greeted queries about reports of abortive sea and air strikes at the small Isle of Pines, off Cuba's southwest coast.

Camp Libertad just outside Havana, where a number of those arrested were reported being questioned was closed off to civilians. By Midnight even telephone calls went unanswered.

One official source reported earlier that 200 or more men were arrested on suspicion of plotting against Castro's eight-month-old regime. Officials at the presidential palace had denied, however, that the number detained had reached 1,000.

This was the picture given by the unconfirmed reports:

An antigovernment plot was nipped at an army camp near Managua, about eight miles south of Havana. This brought about mass arrests there and at Camp Libertad of military personnel held over from deposed Dictator Fulgencio Batista's army.

Small armed bands from the Dominican Republic landed by sea and transport plane late Friday and early Saturday in a futile effort to free prisoners on the Isle of Pines. Castro forces broke up both attempts and captured a number of the raiders.

Twenty-eight mechanics of the rebel air force are being held at Camaguey after the crash of a bomber that killed the pilot and injured two others. Rebel troops there have been restricted to quarters.

Two conspirators were killed and 15 others captured in a battle with rebel troops at Cienfuegos, about 130 miles east of Cuba.

Although Raul Castro, Fidel's brother and commander in chief of the armed forces, denied invasion attempts had been made, reliable sources insisted that counterrevolutionaries made the attempts on the Isle of Pines. Radio - telephone communications with the island were out, but commercial air connections were normal.

Several shots were fired from a speeding auto Saturday night at Castro's villa in a Havana suburb. The gunmen escaped despite police roadblocks. Castro reportedly was away at the time.

After weeks of indecision, the cabinet finally decided Sunday to send a delegation to the meeting this week in Santiago, Chile, of the Organization of American States (OAS). An announcement said Foreign Minister Raul Roa would head a seven-man delegation.

Bumper Crop Of Cotton Is Forecast

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department's first forecast of the year put the cotton crop today at 14,815,000 bales.

The Texas crop was estimated at 4,750,000 bales, an average of 362 pounds to the acre on acreage planted to cotton.

This is 3,303,000 bales more than last year's crop of 11,512,000 bales. It compares also with the ten-year (1948-57) average of 14,046,000 bales.

Cotton is being grown under a new federal program designed to open up broader markets by lowering price supports — and hence market prices — to growers. It permitted growers to overplant acreage allotments if they were willing to accept lower price guarantees.

This year's crop will be supplemented by a reserve and carryover of about 8,800,000 bales from past crops. Most of this is held by the department under price support operations.

Today's report estimated the acreage to be harvested this year at 14,991,000 acres compared with 11,849,000 last year and 21,076,000 for the ten-year average.

The yield of cotton per harvested acre was forecast at 474 pounds compared with 466 pounds last year and 329 for the ten-year average.

The production of American - Egyptian type — long staple — cotton was forecast at 71,800 bales compared with 83,600 last year and 49,700 for the ten-year average.

The production estimate for states included: Oklahoma 395,000 bales, New Meixco 330,000 and California 1,890,000.

The Texas production estimate of 4,750,000 bales would be an increase of 400,000 bales from last season's harvest.

The prediction compares with the 10-year average of 3,937,000 bales.

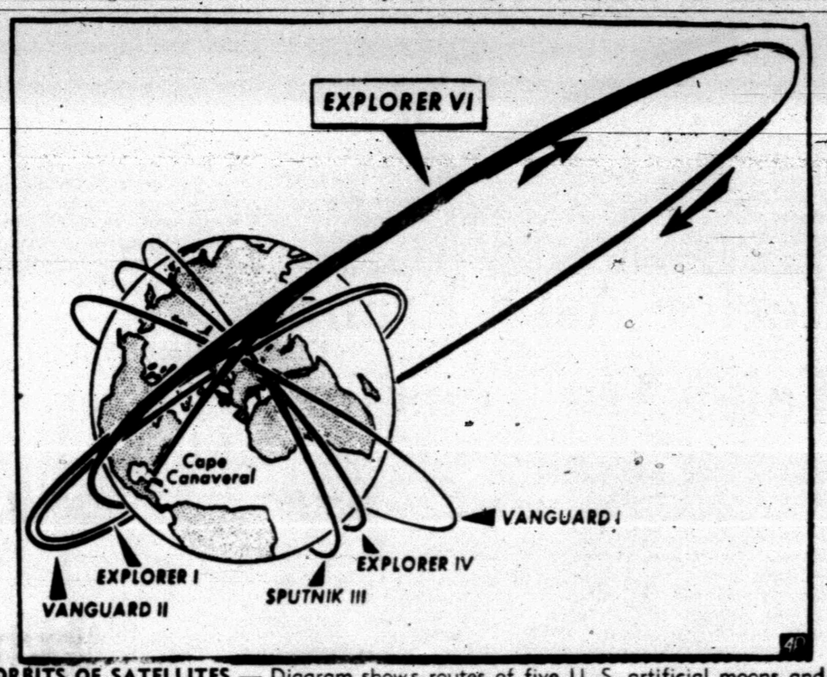

The Census Bureau said 141,444 bales from this year's crop were ginned prior to Aug. 1. This compared with 212,559 ginned last year.

The department said preliminary reports on acreage measurements in some states indicate that underplanting of cotton allotments this year was larger than estimated a month ago.

The department said the crop is generally early in California, Mississippi and Arkansas.

In South Texas, the crop is well advanced, the report said, and a good crop is in prospect. Elsewhere in the state, rainy, cloudy weather from late June through the first three weeks of July resulted in excellent growth. Prospects continued to improve in late July with hot clear weather and generally adequate soil moisture conditions prevailing.

Prospects in New Mexico were reported generally good to excellent.

ORBITS OF SATELLITES — Diagram shows routes of five U. S. artificial moons and Russian Sputnik III now in orbit around the earth. Explorer VI, launched from Cape Canaveral, Fla., takes six times longer than other satellites to travel once around the earth with its time of 12½ hours per orbit; it zooms out to a distance of 25,950 and then comes to within 152 miles of the earth. For comparison, Russia's Sputnik III, launched May 15, 1958, takes an hour and 46 minutes, going out 1,167 miles from earth and coming within 135 miles. (AP Wirephoto Chart)

Highway Financing May Face Crisis

AUSTIN (AP)—A crisis in financing federal aid highway projects in Texas could develop and shut down future contract letting in September, state highway engineer D. C. Greer said today.

But the Texas Highway Commission, Greer said, is "proceeding on confidence that something will be done by Congress to avert such an economic blow."

"As of today and this hour, we are proceeding as usual on the promise that Congress is going to do something to pump new money into the federal highway trust fund," Greer said. "That could change in a matter of hours, but we are hoping for the best."

Texas did not join 25 other states which came to a standstill by not scheduling any federal aid highway work in advance for August. Texas will take bids Aug. 18 and 19 on 317 miles of construction on which the low bids are expected to total 25 million dollars.

Of these, 148 miles are farm roads and 169 U.S. and state highways. Among them are sections of Interstate 35, in Travis, Webb, Hays, Guadalupe, Bexar counties; Interstate 20 in Dallas County; Interstate 10 in Harris and Colorado counties.

The Texas Good Roads Assn. in a circular to members issued this week by executive vice-president Callan Graham of Austin, gave a rundown on possible effects of delay in Congress in putting up new highway money. The association asked its members to let the Texas delegation know what should be done.

"Unless something is done at the federal level, highway development generally will be drastically retarded and all progress on federal aid routes will stop," Graham said.

"Many badly needed Texas highway projects and urban expressway programs now scheduled for early construction would be postponed indefinitely."

Projects now under contract would be completed, Greer said in pinpointing the Texas situation. No new or future projects could be contracted if the federal money does not come through quickly.

Three Injured In Collision

Three persons were injured, none seriously, in a two-car collision yesterday morning in the Green Hill addition in north Snyder.

Taken to Cogdell Memorial Hospital by Bell ambulance were Luther Frank Bass, 66, of Avenue Q; his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Alice Bass, 30, of Avenue Q; and Niles Victor O'Quist, 68, Lubbock highway.

O'Quist had only very slight injuries, while Bass and his daughter-in-law were treated for cuts and bruises. Mrs. Bass had been thrown from the car in the accident.

O'Quist was driving east on Dorsey Street in a 1953 Ford pickup, Bass south on Avenue Q in a 1955 Studebaker when the two vehicles collided in an intersection at 8:45 a.m. yesterday.

The accident was investigated by Will Cleveland, highway patrolman.

Gasoline Tax Hike Rejected

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Ways and Means Committee today rejected for the second time an increase in the federal gasoline tax to keep the interstate program from coming to a halt for lack of funds.

The committee scheduled another effort Tuesday to solve the highway financing crisis.

Gen. Williams Is 'Sinking'

HOUSTON (AP)—Gen. Walter Williams, 116, America's lone surviving veteran of the Civil War, was reported "sinking" today by his personal physician, Dr. Russell Wolfe.

"He isn't in extremely critical condition at this time, but he is sinking," the doctor said.

The aged veteran has had no nourishment for several days other than a mixture of milk, egg and water.

This has been fed to him with an eyedropper, the general's daughter, Mrs. Willie Mae Bowles, reported.

The general, Dr. Wolfe said, is "getting weaker day by day. There's nothing much we can do about it."

The doctor said Williams had won his recent bout with pneumonia.

Flood Death Toll On Formosa Reaches 773

By SPENCER MOOSA

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — The death toll from the century's worst floods on this Nationalist Chinese island rose today to 773 by official count. Another 241 persons were listed as missing.

The official casualty list also reported 1,093 injured and 169,173 homeless.

The floods destroyed 15,178 houses and damaged 11,890 more, the government reported. Most of the damage occurred in isolated communities hit by flash floods that followed the island's heaviest rains in 62 years.

The torrential rains fell Friday as Typhoon Ellen bore down on Japan after bypassing northern Formosa earlier in the week. But local weathermen said the rains on Formosa resulted from a storm in the South China Sea, not from Ellen.

Taipei, the capital and home of most Americans stationed on the Nationalist island, suffered little from the storm. Some low-lying streets were flooded Friday night, but there was little damage.

A spokesman for the U.S. command on Formosa said there were no reports of American casualties.

Elsewhere the floods wreaked havoc, sweeping away roads, railway beds and telephone and power lines.

In the central Formosan town of Miaoli, 75 persons died and 750 houses were washed away.

Nearly 24½ inches of rain fell in 36 hours in Taichung, and water stood six feet deep in places.

President Chiang Kai-shek told the army to give all possible help to the flood victims and instructed the cabinet to get a relief program under way immediately.

The government estimated there was enough food on hand to cope with the crisis and threatened severe punishment for anyone boosting food prices.

Food Commissioner R. C. Li expressed hope that the crops might be saved if the waters recede quickly.

Peiping Radio meanwhile reported heavy rains around the Red Chinese capital. It said 20½ inches fell there in the past 37 days and that several million peasants were battling floods.

Freight Line Sale Okayed

WASHINGTON (AP)—An Interstate Commerce Commission examiner has recommended that Consolidated Cooperstate Lines of Los Angeles be permitted to buy Sunset Motor Lines of San Angelo, Tex.

The recommendation, made public today, calls for a purchase price of $2,855,000. Consolidated also is to assume Sunset obligations of $1,624,201.

The finding by examiner Elden Miller will become the commission's decision if no objections are filed in 35 days.

Sunset has operated as a freight carrier for 20 years in an area bounded by Amarillo, Dallas, Houston, San Antonio, El Paso and Odessa.

Man Is Injured In Collision Today

Raymond Costello, 2101 Twenty-fourth Street, was injured in a two vehicle collision at Avenue V and Twenty-sixth Street just after noon today.

Costello was taken to Cogdell Memorial Hospital by Bolger ambulance, and X-rays were being taken shortly after 1 o'clock, but extent of his injuries had not been determined.

Costello was driver of a pickup truck which was in collision with a passenger car.

Gulf Coast Gets Rains

By The Associated Press

Light rain sprinkled Palacios early Monday as the Gulf Coast experienced more of the unsettled weather that touched off a freakish whirlwind in Houston Sunday.

Skies were partly cloudy over wide sections of East Texas and the coastal area. Clear weather was the rule in most of the rest of the state.

Forecasts called for isolated thunderstorms in Northwest and Southwest Texas and scattered thundershowers in East and South Central Texas through Tuesday.

The Houston whirlwind, termed "amazingly strong" by the Weather Bureau, lifted a section of the roof from an automobile polishing shed and dropped it onto the Gulf Freeway.

The 21 by 20 foot section of metal blocked the busy Houston-Galveston artery for about 10 minutes.

The weather was hot and dry in most of Texas Sunday. Temperatures ranged from 86 degrees at Sherman to 102 at Alice. Laredo and Presidio had 101 and Cotulla 100.

A few showers dotted the state during the day. Dalhart caught a light rain after sunset.

Rainfall reports for the 24 hours ending at 6 p.m. Sunday included .77 inch at Palacios, .40 at Victoria, .21 at Kingsville and traces at Lufkin, Wink and Del Rio.

Architects Study Courthouse Here

Remodeling of the present county courthouse would probably be excessively expensive if many changes were made in the building, an architect told the county commissioners court this morning.

Appearing before the court to discuss the courthouse was Dan Boone of the Abilene architectural firm of Boone & Pope. With Boone was J. D. Hinton, Snyder architect.

Remodeling of the present courthouse with additions, or the building of a new courthouse, have been points of discussion here for several months. The commissioners court has not taken any action in either direction.

It has been generally agreed among county officials and among other citizens studying the courthouse-jail situation here, however, that there is need for more courthouse and jail facilities.

Boone said Jerry Rosser, consulting structural engineer of Abilene, made a visual inspection of the courthouse building here and drew several conclusions from that inspection. He suggested that a more thorough study be made before any decisions are reached, however.

Rosser reported that there is excessive deflection of the second and third floors of the courthouse. Floor joists on those floors have sagged, and any changes in loads, walls or in the placing of heavy furniture or equipment should be avoided.

Boone said the exterior walls and several interior walls are load-bearing, and any changes in them would involve excessive expense. That would create one remodeling problem, since some of the loadbearing walls are within offices which are needing more room.

The main structure of the courthouse is apparently sound, however, and there would be no structural reason, apparently, that the courthouse building could not be remodeled as long as the load-bearing walls remained or some replacements were made to carry the load if they were removed.

Boone said the building of another floor atop the present building would not be feasible or considered safe.

The architect suggested that the court either employ someone to make a thorough investigation of the structure for information upon which decisions could be made or employ an architect, if there is intention to do some building, and have the architectural firm make that investigation as a part of its responsibilities in connection with building plans.

The building of another building beside the courthouse, and connecting it with hallways to the present building would present no structural problems, Boone said. Normally, he said, his firm has good luck in adding to an older building by using expansion joints between the older and newer portions. An investigation of the older building, he said, should include enough information to determine the value of the usable part of the older structure and the cost of using that portion, weighing that against the cost of rebuilding.

The commissioners court passed an order recommending to the city council that it take Towle Memorial Park into the city limits. If this is done, this will not involve any change in operation of the park, but the city would provide police patrol of the park if it is legal.

The court also voted to give the city the county's water line to Winston Field and sewer lines in the Cogdell Memorial Hospital area for maintenance and use.

The court formally passed an order on issuance of $225,000 in hospital bonds, awarded last week to the Snyder National Bank and West Texas State Bank jointly.

Approval was given on request of Russell Jones, county park superintendent, to allow the Jaycees to stage a junior fishing derby at the pond in Towle Park.

Faubus Not Planning To Call Immediate Special Session

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus has apparently squelched persistent reports that he would take a hand against approaching school integration via a quick special legislative session.

The governor said he still had tentative plans to call a special session "within the next one, to six months." But he said it would deal primarily "with industrial financing and perhaps some other minor problems."

He indicated he had plans connected with desegregation—scheduled to start in two Little Rock high schools Wednesday — but wouldn't say what they were. He said he had "no concrete reports at this time" about impending trouble over the integration.

Faubus closed the four public high schools last fall to block integration but the law he used has been struck down by federal court. Violence accompanied the initial integration of Central High School by nine Negroes in 1957. Three of the nine who went to Central then have been assigned there again by the school board. Three Negroes also have been assigned to Hall High.

The board used a pupil-placement law in holding down integration. Some 55 other Negroes who applied to enter white schools were assigned to Horace Mann High for Negroes.

Meanwhile, a "buyer's strike" against downtown merchants was scheduled to begin today. It was called by the segregationist Capital Citizens Council. Amis Guthridge, council attorney, charged the merchants with aiding the integration movement.

Reports circulated that a mass rally would be held Wednesday morning to ask Faubus to do something about stopping integration, but segregation leaders denied knowledge of it.

Faubus Sunday had no comment on new court action aimed at making the school board admit to white high schools any Negroes living in attendance areas of those schools.

Attorneys for the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People filed the action of U.S. District Court Saturday. They asked for an order restraining the board from using the pupil-placement law, on grounds that it denied the Negro students benefits of previous court decrees in connection with the court-approved plan of integration here.

No date was set for action on the motion.

Meanwhile, anti - integration posters appeared in the Dollarway district near Pine Bluff, 40 miles southeast of here. The district recently was ordered by a federal court to admit three Negroes to a white high school.

The posters announced a meeting to be held Friday night.

And recruiting posters for the Ku Klux Klan were found tacked on telephone poles and posts south of Little Rock.

Goldfine Gets New Chance

WASHINGTON (AP) — House investigators announced plans today to give Boston industrialist Bernard Goldfine another chance to answer questions he refused to answer last year.

Chairman Oren Harris (D-Ark) of the House legislative oversight subcommittee told reporters no date for the hearing had been set.

After refusing to answer the subcommittee's questions last year, Goldfine was indicted for contempt of Congress.

Project Set To Halt Mine Fire

By HERB LINNEN

CARBONDALE, Pa. (AP) — A three - million dollar three-year project will start here soon to eliminate an underground mine fire that threatens to spread under the city's business district.

The underground fire broke out in 1946 on the west side of this northeastern Pennsylvania community. In addition to proving fatal in 1952 to an elderly couple who died of carbon monoxide poisoning, the fire's noxious fumes have made hundreds of others ill.

Officials over the years have tried to kill the fire by drilling holes into the earth and pumping silt-bearing water into them. This has proved unsuccessful.

Engineers feel that the earth must be ripped apart to get at the mine fire and put it out once and for all. Steam shovels will dig out huge trenches in a carefully planned pattern to surround and seal off the fire. Then the burning coal will be taken out, dumped on high ground and sprayed with water.

The fire broke out when rubbish dumped by the city into abandoned coal stripping craters in the 130-acre area started burning. Before the fire could be put out, exposed coal deposits were ignited. The flames raced underground through a network of abandoned mine tunnels.

As a precaution against the fumes, many families keep fans running in cellars and sleep with windows partly open. Inspectors check gas concentrations in homes on a 24-hour schedule to alert families of possible danger.

The federal government plans to spend two million dollars and the state another million to dig out the fire.

But first families must be moved from the 130-acre area threatened by the fire. Their homes are being purchased so that the first phase of excavation can get under way.

The mine fire has been an additional burden to the community which is trying to rebuild its economy dealt a severe blow by the decline of anthracite mining.

Herter Asks Frank Talks On Tensions

WASHINGTON (AP) —Secretary of State Christian A. Herter today called on the foreign ministers of the American republics to examine candidly the Caribbean tensions and to adopt steps that will ease them.

Herter's plea was made in a statement prepared for his departure from National Airport for a conference of the ministers in Santiago, Chile, which opens Wednesday. The session is aimed at calming unrest in the Caribbean.

It is the first such conference called by the Organization of American States to deal with affairs within the hemisphere.

Officials here hope the session will produce conditions to discourage any would - be invaders among the Latin American nations.

Several modest steps toward making an effective peace-preserving instrument out of the Inter - American system are favored by the United States.

Diplomats agree the session is faced with difficult problems.

Some of the more involved issues may be left for further study before a broader Inter - American conference to be held next Feb. 1 in Quito.

Cuban participation in the Santiago meeting had been indefinite because of friction between the regime of Prime Minister Fidel Castro and some other governments in the area.

But Sunday the Havana government announced Foreign Minister Paul Roa will head a seven-man delegation to the conference. Castro may attend later.

Herter plans to stay for about three days. He wants to return here to prepare for his trip to Europe with President Eisenhower Aug. 26 for conferences with Western leaders.

The council of the Organization of American States scheduled the Santiago meeting after finding it could not act effectively on the May 31 invasion of Nicaragua and the June 19 invasion of the Dominican Republic.

In addition to Caribbean unrest, the conference will deal with enforcement of human rights and democracy.

U. S. diplomats have indicated they would favor:

1. Ratification of measure requiring the signing states to prevent their territories from being used to launch attacks on other signers.

2. Formation of an OAS committee to keep an eye on the Caribbean area.

3. Strengthening of the Inter-American Peace Committee.

Louisiana's Legislators Drifting In

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — Unenthusiastic legislators drifted into town today for Gov. Earl K. Long's special session in which anything could happen.

The 63-year-old governor set 5 p.m. for the start of the 12-day meeting. Many legislators are opposed to the session so soon before their campaigns for the December Democratic primary.

Long, who spent a strenuous weekend campaigning for re-election, first mentioned the possibility of the session after he was hustled off to a Galveston, Tex., mental hospital on May 30 after outbursts of profanity during the regular session.

After he engineered his release from the Southeast Louisiana State Mental Hospital late in June, there were reports he would have four bills in his call for the session. The list has grown constantly and the final draft lists 21 bills, including one to make it more difficult to commit anyone to a mental institution.

The final item in the call is dubbed "Phantom Bill No. 21." It would permit legislators to enact any bill which could be passed in a regular session; special sessions are supposed to take up only items specifically spelled out in the governor's call.

Breakthrough Sought On Rights Bill

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Judiciary Committee tackles the civil rights issue again today amid signs that leaders of both parties are hopeful of an early breakthrough.

The committee, at its meeting last week, overrode the opposition of Chairman James O. Eastland (D-Miss) and other Southerners and voted 10-5 to take a bill up for consideration.

The bill, called just a skeleton by advocates of stronger legislation, would extend the life of the civil rights commission from Sept. 9 of this year until Jan. 31, 1961.

It also would require that voting records be preserved for up to three years and be made available to the attorney general upon demand for use in investigations of alleged denial of voting rights.

Relief Agencies Speed Aid To Scene Of Tragic Blast

ROSEBURG, Ore. (AP)—Relief agencies sped aid to this stricken southern Oregon city today as construction workers battered down the charred remnants of blasted buildings.

Eight blocks of the business district were reduced to rubble early Friday when a parked truck, loaded with 6½ tons of explosives, blew up. The blast was touched off by a fire in a nearby building.

At least 13 persons were killed. More than 100 were injured. Property damage in a 22-block area around the blast scene totals more than 10 million dollars.

Financial relief began pouring in shortly after Oregon Gov. Mark Hatfield established a Roseburg Relief Fund. The little western Oregon town of Drain, with a population of 1,290, contributed $1,000.

The Red Cross set up an office to take care of emergency medical expenses and housing. The Small Business Administration is taking applications for loans from homeowners and businessmen who can't get money from other sources.

City and state agencies set up meetings to help get the city back on its feet. Mayor Arlo Jacklin travels to Salem today for a conference with Hatfield and Red Cross disaster Director Richard Gordon.

The school board must decide what to do about destruction of the junior high school.

City Manager H. John Warburton asked Hatfield to double the crew of building inspectors to check damaged buildings. Some structures already have been approved and firms have gone back into business.

But a large area of the downtown business district still is sealed off to all except those on official business. The National Guard is patroling the area to enforce the closure and prevent looting of the damaged stores and warehouses.

Efforts continued to identify the dead. Only eight of the victims have been positively identified. Two bodies are unidentified and three persons are missing and presumed dead. All the dead and missing are from Roseburg.

The district attorney has begun an investigation of the blast to determine if the truck driver violated any laws.

The driver, George Rutherford of Chehalis, Wash., was hospitalized for minor injuries after the blast. He was released Saturday and left the city. He was driving for the Pacific Powder Co. of Tenino, Wash. His load of 2½ tons of stick dynamite and 4 tons of ammonium nitrate mixed with oil was consigned to a Roseburg Building Supply Company.

Virginia Oliveras Cavazos, 36, was found strangled to death in her home in Raymondville Saturday.

A Negro was shot to death and another wounded in a gun duel in front of a North Dallas drive-in Sunday. Killed was Bennie McBride, 27.

Joe Villareal, 32, San Antonio, died Sunday in a three-vehicle accident 12 miles south of San Antonio.

Tropical Lagoon Is Proposed In Frisco

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—State Senator J. Eugene McAteer Sunday proposed a tropical lagoon in chilly San Francisco Bay shielded from sharks.

He asked the state park commission to wall in aquatic park, with a sliding panel allowing small boats in and out. He said large steam boilers could raise the temperature five degrees for swimming comfort.

Chairman Joseph E. Knowland said the commission is glad to consider the proposal, but financing is doubtful.

Youth Still Refuses To Discuss Slaying

DENTON (AP) — Sheriff Wiley Barnes said Sunday 18-year-old Freddie McCain continued to refuse to discuss the death of his mother.

McCain is charged with murder. The body of his mother, Mrs. Nadene Hutson, was found near the Garza-Little Elm spillway. She had apparently been strangled and thrown in the water.

McCain promised to take a lie detector test but failed to keep the appointment. He was arrested Friday driving a stolen car. Car theft charges have also been filed against him.

Long Island Killer Sought

WESTHAMPTON, N.Y. (AP) — Uneasiness spread over Long Island today as police stepped up the search for a killer they say has struck three times—and may strike again.

Three people have been shot to death during holdups around midnight, all within a week. In each case the victim was working alone, in a diner or delicatessen.

Many businesses are closing early. Police said the shooting last Friday night of a 50-year-old woman, bound and gagged, was found shot to death in the diner she owned. The cash register was empty.

All three victims were shot with a .32-caliber pistol. But police say ballistics tests show that several guns were used. Despite this, they believe the killings were the work of the same man.

The latest victim, Irene Currier, had just purchased the diner with her husband. They had saved the money working as a bartender and waitress in Manhattan.

The other two victims were Hans Hachmann, 54, who ran a delicatessen at Islip, N.Y., and Lawrence Kirchner, 53, a counterman in an all night diner near Smithtown, N.Y. All three killings took place in a 30-mile-wide area.

Ovens Breathe

The oven of a modern range is designed with vents through which steam from baking foods escapes. The vents are provided to help regulate the flow of heat and keep the air in the oven circulating. They are usually located at the top and back of the oven. The steam is discharged through louvers on the front of the range panel. This protects the wall behind the kitchen range.

SAVE TIME

You can save time i. when laundering ruffled curtains, you starch only the ruffles and the tie backs. You will find the curtains can be ironed in about half the time, will have a crisp fresh look and last longer.

Fish I. Q.

According to Margaret Spader, home service editor, fresh fish is sold in 5 different forms. Whole fish, sometimes called "round" is fish as it come from the water. Drawn fish, like drawn chicken has been eviscerated, usually with head and tail removed. Fish steaks are cross-section slices of large, dressed fish, boneless except for a short backbone piece. Fish fillets are sides of fish cut lengthwise away from the backbone. Fillets many be skinned; however, those with the skin left on are usually more moist when cooked.

Household Chores

Many attempts have been made to solve the age-old problem of garbage and trash removal from the home. The latest solution looks the most promising of all. It's an incinerator that takes care of the garbage as it accumulates. It is ready to go, day or night, regardless of weather conditions. And, best of all, it's smokeless and odorless. The new incinerators are on display at utilities throughout the country.

Vanishing Trade

Garbage collecting is a vanishing service in many farsighted communities today. Local ordinances have been passed making incinerators required equipment in all homes. Unsightly, overloaded garbage cans have been eliminated making backyards more pleasant and insect-free for outdoor living.

Dual Purpose

Some heaters can be utilized for summertime circulation of air as well as heat distribution. These heaters are equipped with automatic blowers. In cool weather the blower takes room air from the ceiling, mixes it with heated air from the wall heater, then forces it down to warm the floor. A manual control is incorporated so the blower can be used for cooling when heat is unnecessary.

Waistline Control

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

WAISTLINES are back in style for fall, and new underpinnings are important.

In order for new fall clothes to look their best, they should be worn and foundation garments designed to give a smooth, taut line through the midriff, with no bulges to mar the dress silhouette.

Sometimes the waist control is built into a high girdle, sometimes a long bra. The new styles do in waistline, but rather a slender natural line, emphasizing, but not strangling the waist. The over all look has a high, rounded bustline, flat midriff and gently curved hips and thighs.

Foundations on hand to do the required shaping are lightwight but firm, with beige the most popular basic color, and with new feminine touches such as lace, embroidery and applique trimming. White and black are still in great demand, and the pastel tones are brighter.

Necklines come in for a great deal of attention by bra designers, who achieve adjustable features through convertible straps and tabs that increase or decrease the cup separation. Other new bra features are fabric zipper closures, cups contoured with polyurethane foam and cups encircled by mesh elastic for more precise fit.

For midriff control, bras extend to different lenghts—three-quarter for the short-waisted woman, or to wear with a high-rising girdle; waist length to meet a shorter girdle; bra-lette versions to taper the waist as well as flatten the diaphragm.

Girdles offer many new waistline stylings, such as elastic inserts, front or side dips, boned top sections above the waist or a waistline cinch only partially attached to the girdle.

Pantie girdles are most popular in long-legged versions, to smooth and slim the thighs for wear with sheath dresses and skinny pants.

New corselets, including strapless styles, have a much improved fit in the bra section, built-in waist control and elastic strips or panels to smooth hips and thighs.

Water Heater

An eye-level thermostat control near the top of the water heater is a feature to look for when you shop for a new heater. Homemakers are more alert to water temperature since the advent of wash and wear fabrics. The right temperature of wash and rinse waters can save hours of ironing and result in neater looking garments.

Remote Control

A new combination washer and dryer is designed to fit under a counter top with 36-inch high base cabinets. The control panel can be mounted to the wall [illegible] the side of the installation. Removable front panels permit changing the face to harmonize with the decor of the room.

OUR VIEW

No Federal Direction Needed

THE CORPUS CHRISTI CALLER:

The annual Governor's Conference has demonstrated a massive apathy toward President Eisenhower's repeated proposal to shift functions from the federal government back to the states. But that should not be taken as an open invitation further to centralize nationally governmental services that are primarily a local concern.

As a case in point, there is no justification that we can discern for a bill for a federal recreation service recently introduced by Sen. Richard L. Neuberger (D-Ore). The Neuberger bill would set up a federal agency to provide advice and technical information to public and nonprofit groups on the operation of recreation programs.

There are already a large number of private organizations active in that field, and state and local public recreation agencies need financial support from the people they serve rather than more advise. Things will have come to a pretty pass when we have to turn to a Washington bureau to find out how to go about having fun.

"The bow cannot possibly stand always bent," Cervantes wrote, "nor can human nature or human frailty subsist without some lawful recreation." And we heartily agree. But we prefer that our pursuit of pleasure not be coordinated by a national agency.

Only Specialists Can Decipher Bills

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — If you look blank—thinking of the various labor control bills now kicking around in Congress—don't worry, them thoroughly. And they disagree.

This is one of the greatest mish - mashes in years. So most members of the House — which Tuesday begins debate on passing some kind of bill—will probably have only a vague idea of what they're doing.

None of them, unless he was a specialist in labor problems, could possibly know or guess all the implications in all the details and differences, major and minor, between the bills. For example:

A bill passed by the Senate months ago has 51 sections, scores of sub-sections and subdivisions. A bill approved by the House Labor Committee is similar to it but has at least 100 differences.

A third bill, similar to both of them, has some more differences of its own, and is much tougher on labor unions than either. Still a fourth bill, mildest of all but in many ways similar to the others, is not quite the same as any of them.

All four bills, because of a general feeling in Congress that some labor controls are needed, propose doing something to the extent of setting up rules and penalties against despotic, unfair and corrupt labor practices.

And all contain a "bill of rights," or protections for individual union members in voting and saying what they think. But, starting there, the bills go in opposite directions. They differ on penalties and protections.

And they differ on what questionable union practices should be banned.

House members will not be acting, in a pure and pious vacuum. They'll have different motives for the way they vote, for what they put in a bill or take out.

Some, particularly Democrats, are under obligation to organized labor for helping them get elected in 1958. They know they may lose their seats in the 1960 election if labor turns against them for what they do now.

Some House members, in sympathy with labor, want a mild bill. Some others will honestly want a tough one. Still others will want a tough one because they seem to have an ingrained antagonism to organized labor.

And some Republicans, being politicians, may be thinking how best they can create a profitable issue for themselves and against the Democrats in 1960 on the subject of labor control.

That's not all. Most members of the House by now have probably been put under great pressure by organized labor and big business, on opposite sides of course, to vote tough or mild. The lobbying on a labor bill has been terrific.

Here's an example of the mishmash:

First, there is the Kennedy bill, passed by the Senate 90-1 last April 25. It is named after its principal sponsor, Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass). But most organized labor, particularly the AFL-CIO, doesn't like it.

But President Eisenhower, as he revealed in his TV broadcast last week, doesn't like it, either. "Ineffective," he called it.

Then there's the Elliot bill—named after its chief sponsor, Rep. Carl Elliott (D-Ala)—which was approved July 15 by the House Labor Committee although only five of the 30 committee members had a kind word for it.

The rest either denounced it or looked down their noses at it. The only reason they let it get out of their committee was to get it up to the House floor for debate, changes, and a vote. It will certainly be changed on the floor.

Although the Elliott bill has been called a middle-of-the-road attempt to control bad labor practices, Eisenhower considers it inadequate to do the job he says needs doing.

Everybody Bidding For Credit Dollars

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The rush is on to garner on-the-cuff dollars. And some of the competitors for consumer credit are causing head wagging today among the old timers.

Take the banks. On the one hand they urge you to save money—and deposit it with them. On the other hand many of them are making it easier for your wife to run up charge accounts at the stores—a lot of stores.

Take the stores. They're thinking up new switches on the old charge account. And some of the long-time all-cash holdouts are coming out with new gimmicks that let you take it home now and pay later.

It's just recognition that consumer credit plays a major role today in American life. The total is now around 46 billion dollars. Of that, 35 billion dollars are of the instalment payment type. Of the rest some four billion dollars are carried as charge accounts.

This old faithful of family life is gathering new recruits and new variations.

Among the latest is Macy's, the giant New York department store which boasted for 100 years it could sell for 6 per cent less than its competitors because of its all-cash policy.

It has just come out with a charge account variation which lets it balance its books each night on a cash basis, but lets its customary pay later — sometimes quite a bit later by paying more.

Macy's officials say initial response was way beyond expectations.

Other variations on the old-fashioned charge account are the budget plan, which calls for a monthly payment based on the amount owed, and the open-end account, which is a fixed payment each month despite what the month's new charges may have been.

Macy's, as far back as 1914, yielded to its customer's desire to order without cash in pocket by setting up Macy's Bank. It takes customer's deposits—the total of late running as high as five million dollars — against which the customer can charge. If his deposit stays in long enough he gets 1½ per cent interest at an annual rate.

The store's new plan lets customers set up a credit rating and then charge purchases. The bank pays Macy's the total of such chargings each night. But the customer has the choice of paying without cost within 10 days of billing, or paying at least one-fifth in cash and being charged by Macy's Bank 1½ per cent a month service charge on the unpaid balance.

Commercial banks are out for this retail credit business. More than 200 have gone in for charge account banking this year.

A typical charge account system is that of the Chase Manhattan Bank of New York.

Merchants pay a $25 entrance fee and a service charge that varies between 6 per cent and 3 per cent a month depending on size of credit sales.

The consumer can buy at any or all of the member stores but gets just one monthly bill. There's no charge if the bill is paid within 10 days. If not, he must pay at least one-fifth in cash and is charged 1 per cent a month on the remainder.

Typical of the revolving credit plan is the one used by another New York giant, the First National City Bank.

You set up a credit rating at the bank with a fixed limit. The bank issues you specially numbered checks with which you can purchase goods from member merchants up to your total credit limit. You repay the bank along lines set up in the original contract.

Tribe's Wedding Rites Are Simple

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

The Negretto Tribe in the South Pacific has one of the world's simplest marriage ceremonies. The bride and groom appear before the chief, who briskly knocks their heads together, then declared them man and wife. In civilized countries, the head-knocking usually comes after the honeymoon.

Weddings in Finland are sometimes more doleful than funerals. The bride cries throughout the ceremony—to show her grief at leaving her parents and girlhood.

Chisox Still Win Close Ones

Associated Press Sports Writer

Ability to win the close ones is what makes championship clubs and the Chicago White Sox have won 28 of the 33 one-run games they've played this season.

Therein lies the reason why Al Lopez' dashing White Sox are in first place in the American League, enjoying a three-game lead over runner-up Cleveland.

The White Sox swept a doubleheader from hapless Washington Sunday, winning the first game 4-3 on the superb relief pitching of 39-year-old Gerry Staley and adding the second game 9-0 on the shutout pitching of another 39-year-old, Early Wynn.

The New York Yankees won two uphill battles from Kansas City, 4-3 in 14 innings and 3-2 in 11 to climb into a third place tie with Baltimore although the Orioles defeated the Indians 4-3. Detroit moved past the Athletics into fifth place by defeating the Boston Red Sox 7-3.

Wynn became the American League's biggest winner when he blanked the Senators on three hits in the nightcap for his 15th triumph.

Chicago won the opener in the ninth. A poor throw by Roy Sievers on an easy roller allowed Jim Landis to score the winning run. Landis had singled for his third hit of the game, and advanced to second on a wild pitch by reliever Dick Hyde.

Staley, third Chicago pitcher, halted a Washington rally in the fifth and pitched one-hit, runless ball thereafter to pick up his fourth victory. One of Washington's runs came on Harmon Killebrew's 35th homer of the year.

Milt Pappas, Baltimore' 20-year-old right-hander, limited the Indians to six hits for his 12th victory against five defeats. Jim Perry lost his fourth of 12 decisions.

A four-run ninth, featured by Harvey Kuenn's run-scoring single and Gus Zernial's single that drove in two more, gave Detroit's Don Mossi his 11th triumph against five defeats.

Gil McDougald's bases-loaded single in the 14th inning of the opener and Elston Howard's home run in the 11th inning of the nightcap gave the Yankees a double triumph over Kansas City and stretched their winning streak to four straight, longest since they won five in a row in June. The defeats ran the A's losing streak to six in a row.

Giants May Cash In On Deals Again

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The New York Giants won the 1951 pennant because of the trade they made the year before for Eddie Stanky and Alvin Dark. They repeated in 1954 because of the trade they made the winter before for Johnny Antonelli.

If the San Francisco Giants win in 1959 it may be because of the trades they made for pitchers Jack Sanford and Sam Jones.

Sanford and Jones along with southpaw Johnny Antonelli, are chiefly responsible for the Giants game and a half lead over Los Angeles and 2½ game bulge over Milwaukee today.

Jones, who is due to pitch against the Cardinals tonight, has won 15 and saved a number of others in relief roles. Sanford now 11-9, hurled a strong five-hitter against Cincinnati Sunday as the Giants won in 10 innings, 4-3, on Orlando Cepeda's home run.

The triumph enabled the league leaders to pick up a full game on the Dodgers, who were beaten 8-7 by the Braves. Pittsburgh defeated Chicago's Cubs 5-3 in 10 innings for Elroy Face's 15th triumph without a defeat. It also was overtime games this season.

Philadelphia's last place Phillies swept a doubleheader from St. Louis, 8-3 and 4-2.

Cepeda's homer, his 23rd of the year enabled the Giants to defeat Don Newcombe for the first time. The Reds forced the game into overtime when Jerry Lynch smacked a game-tying home run with one out in the ninth.

The Braves gave Bob Buhl an early 8-0 lead with six runs in the third and two more in the fourth. But he couldn't stand prosperity. The veteran righthander gave back all but one of the runs and finally gave way to Don McMahon in the ninth after Duke Snider's two-run homer had narrowed Milwaukee's margin to one-run. McMahon preserved Buhl's ninth victory but not before the Dodgers had sent the potential tying run to third. Don Zimmer's force play ended the game.

Joe Adcock high lighted Milwaukee's six-run rally by smashing his 14th home run with two on base. Eddie Mathews hit his 31st home run with a man on in the fourth.

Dick Groat's single in the 10th broke a 3-3 tie and gave the Pirates their second overtime victory over the Cubs in two days. Face, who relieved Vern Law in the eighth, was rewarded with his 20th straight victory since May 31, 1958.

Gene Conley and Jim Owens pitched Philadelphia to its double win over the Cards who had beaten them eight straight times. Ed Bouchee's grand slam homer iced it in the ninth.

Finsterwald Takes Fat Wallet Home

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Dapper Dow Finsterwald, with $8,800 of Cleveland Open golf winnings in his wallet, flew home to Tequesta, Fla., today to see his wife and three youngsters.

The rest of the touring professionals headed for Detroit and the Motor City Open. Finsterwald will fly back and play there without benefit of a practice round over the unfamiliar layout.

Dow, the 1958 PGA champ from Athens, Ohio, roared from a seventh place deadlock and a three-stroke deficit Sunday to take the $25,000 Cleveland event in a hair-raising finish. He had a closing 68, three under par for the 6,966-yard Seneca course and an eight under par total of 276.

Gene Littler, the 1953 amateur king from Singing Hills, Calif., wound up a stroke back, tied with big Mike Souchak, the former Duke footballer from Grossinger, N.Y.

Finsterwald, runnerup in 20 tournaments since he hit the trail in 1952, thought he was second again when he took his lone bogey on the closing hole, where he blasted a trap shot far over the green. But his challengers failed to take advantage of the lapse and Dow picked up the $3,500 top prize, a bonus of $5,000 for repeating his 1956 victory and $300 in appearance money.

For a 28-year-old whose dad wanted him to study law, Finsterwald has found golf a gold mine. Since taking the tour seriously in 1955, when he came out of the military service, he has picked up $157,713 in tournament winnings.

Moore Weighs In At 175

MONTREAL (AP) — Ancient Archie Moore tipped the scales at an even 175 pounds — the light-heavyweight limit — today and was pronounced fit and ready for his title defense against Yvon Durelle of Baie Ste. Anne, N. B., Wednesday night.

"We'll have no excuses," said Moore's Manager Jack (Doc) Kearns. "We've had plenty of time. Moore is in good shape."

Reports from Durelle's side of the gym — both fighters are training in the same East-End Gym—indicate the fighting fisherman also is in top shape. The challenger weighs 176.

Complacency Top Obstacle Facing Colts This Season

By GEORGE BOWEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

BALTIMORE (AP) — Complacency is the biggest bugaboo hovering around the squad of the Baltimore Colts this season.

Coach Weeb Ewbank even has to put the spurs to himself to dispel the obvious appearance of standing pat with the same crew that won the National Football League championship last year.

"We hope we have it every place," Ewbank says in appraising his squad by position.

Then he says he still is looking for a "big interior defensive lineman, another linebacker and two offensive halfbacks." But they will be substitutes.

Every first line position is manned by the same player as last year.

Ewbank has made only two trades, substitute offensive guard Fred Thurston for linebacker Marv Matuszak of Green Bay and substitute quarterback George Shaw to the New York Giants for two draft choices next year.

The linebacking positions were rated by Ewbank as the one he wanted to strengthen most. Even without Matuszak and Leo Sanford, who is questionable because of two knee operations, the Colts remain formidable with the trio of Bill Pellington, Dick Szymanski and Don Shinnick.

Eubank looks upon the release of Shaw as "picking up another player." With the sensational John Unitas cemented in the quarterback spot, Ewbank is tutoring Andy Nelson and Ray Brown as "in case" signal callers. Brown and Nelson both played regularly as defensive halfbacks last season an. Brown also will do the punting.

The rest of the first string offensive backfield is set with the same L. G. Dupre and Lenny Moore at the halves and Alan Ameche at full.

The only question remaining is who will be the second string halfbacks. There are three holdovers, speed demon but weak pass catching Lenny Lyles, Jack Call and Jackie Simpson. Curly Johnson from Houston and Ferd Burkett from Southeastern Oklahoma are the only rookies with an outside chance of sticking.

Two rookie ends, Jerry Richardson of Wofford and Dave Sherer of Southern Methodist, have a good prospect of making the squad as relief for the sturdy regulars, Raymond Berry and Jim Mutscheller.

Barring injury, no one is going to break into the Colt mountainous wall of defense — Gino Marchetti, Art Donovan, Gene Lipscomb and Don Joyce.

The interior offensive line also is invulnerable to displacement with Jim Parker the standout at tackle along with Art Spinney, Buzz Nutter, Alex Sandusky and George Preas.

With 33 of the 1958 squad still around, it's no wonder Ewbank confides his main job is to "make them forget they're champions."

Hypnotist Employed By Soccer Teams

TORQUAY, England (AP) — A 65-year-old hypnotist says he has been retained by two British soccer teams to try and charm them into a goal-scoring frenzy.

"My task will be to try and restore confidence to the players," Blythe said. "I shall give them hypnotic help."

Intruder Shot By Woman

ROGERS, Ark. (AP)—The wife of a prominent Rogers businessman shot and killed a restaurant owner who entered her bedroom yesterday, police reported.

Mrs. Jay Rand, 39, told officers she was reading in bed about 1:30 a.m. when H. V. Clark, 33, suddenly came into her room.

Police quoted her as saying she asked Clark to leave and when he advanced, she got a pistol from a night table and fired four times. Clark, hit thrice in the chest and once in the arm, grabbed the weapon and staggered outside.

Little Leaguers Due Here Friday

Little League teams from Longview, Galveston and Herford will be among those in the State Little League Tournament, which will be played in Snyder Friday and Saturday.

The fourth team in the tournament will be winner of the Section 4 tournament played at Kingsville last week. Local officials have not been notified who won the Kingsville tourney.

Leland (Mutt) Herod, coordinator of Little Leagues in Snyder, will work with Ed Patton of Rotan, district Little League director, in staging the state tournament here.

Herod said the four teams in the state tourney will be matched in a drawing to be held at the Chamber of Commerce office Thursday night.

First round games in the tournament will be held Friday night, with the first game starting at 5:30 p.m., and finals will be Saturday night.

Winner of the state tournament here will be sent to Norfolk, Va., to a regional tournament to be held about Aug. 20, and the winner of that tournament will go to the Little League World Series at Williamsport, Pa., late in August.

The four section champions coming to Snyder for the state tournament represent close to 400 leagues in Texas, the rest of which were eliminated in previous tournaments. The 400 leagues have a total of 1,600 teams, each with 15 boys, so the four all-star teams coming to Snyder will represent the "cream of the crop" of some 24,000 boys in Texas.

To gain a place in the state tournament here, a Little League all-star team had to win an area tournament, district tournament and sectional tournament.

Snyder will not be represented by a team in the tourney. Snyder had all-star teams representing its two leagues. The American League all-stars in finals of the area tournament held here, then the National reached district finals, where they lost to the Abilene Lone Star League. The Abilene team lost in preliminaries of the sectional tourney held at Brownfield, in which Hereford downed Pecos in finals Saturday night.

The Little League field here will have additional lighting for the state tournament. The county commissioners court, learning that lighting at the field, located in Towle Memorial Park, was not up to specifications, authorized addition of 16 1,500-watt lights to make lighting on the field sufficient.

Carlsbad Has Its Troubles

By The Associated Press

Carlsbad appears to be stuck in its efforts to take over the North Division lead in the Sophomore League.

The Potashers drew within 2½ games of front-running Hobbs then did the same kind of playing as Carlsbad. So for six days now the difference between the two clubs has remained the same.

Sunday night both won and they did it by heavy scoring. Hobbs whipped Plainview 15-9 and Carlsbad slammed Artesia 17-6.

Hobbs pounded 16 hits and never was behind. Four homers rattled the fences as the two teams combined for 26 hits.

Carlsbad got 14 hits and was aided by 14 bases on balls in burying Artesia. Gil Carter and Al Shaw socked homers in pacing the attack.

Alpine, leader of the South Division, had its margin cut to 27 games over second place Midland by taking a 9-7 trimming from Roswell. Alpine helped Roswell along with five errors that permitted four unearned runs.

Midland whipped Odessa 12-8 although giving up six unearned runs.

Robbery Suspects To Go Before Grand Jury

FORT WORTH (AP)—Two Negroes charged with the $28,180 robbery of the bank at Camp Wolters in Mineral Wells will be taken before the federal grand jury in Dallas in September, Asst. U. S. Dist. Atty. Gavett Binion said today.

James Spencer, 41, and Sgt. Carl Humphrey, 33, are being held in county jail, in lieu of $10,000 bonds.

Humphrey, military policeman at Camp Wolters at the time of the robbery Thursday, and Spencer were charged Saturday.

RBI agents recovered $14,995.

GPL Squad Leaves Today

The Graduate Pony League all-stars of Snyder, one of five district champions in Texas, left this morning for Lufkin, where they will participate in the Region 7 GPL tournament.

At Lufkin the team will be trying for a place in the GPL World Series to be held at Springfield, Ill., later this month, at which eight region winners will compete for the national title.

Joe Reaves and Amon Weaver, managers of the all-star team, accompanied the youths to Lufkin.

Snyder and South San Antonio will meet in the region tourney's first game, which will be at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow. District winners from tournaments held at Garland and Houston will meet in the second game tomorrow night. Lufkin, the fifth team in the tournament, drew a bye in the first round.

The double-elimination tournament will last through Saturday.

The 15-boy Snyder team has been holding daily workouts in preparation for the tournament.

Snyder gained a place in the regional tourney by winning a two-out-of-three series with Crane-McCamey two weeks ago. Losing the first game 9-8 in extra innings, the Snyder team came back to win 10-0 and 4-3 in the following games. South San Antonio won a district tournament at Beeville.

Expected to see pitching action in the first or second games at Lufkin are Freddie Miller, who has a 5-3 record for the season, Charles Gladson (2-5), John Weaver (7-2) or Mike Moffett (7-1) Several other members of the team are also pitchers but are expected to be used primarily in other positionss.

Casey Hints He'll Return

NEW YORK (AP)—Casey Stengel hinted—ever so indirectly—today that he'll be back as manager of the New York Yankees again next year.

The Yanks, riding a four-game winning streak after dropping the Kansas City A's twice, 4-3 and 3-2, in a doubleheader yesterday, are far from the exit of Stengel's doghouse, though.

Some of the younger players have him sore because they haven't been playing heads-up ball and he was grated all the more when some of the ex-Yankees on hand for the old-timers game Saturday pointed out blunders to him.

"I'm going to change all that in camp next spring," he said while waiting for the scheduled night game against the Boston Red Sox. "We're going to work on those things and if we can't do it one way, we'll find another."

MEETING THE PRESS — This smiling couple is Steven Rockefeller and his fiancee, Anne Marie Rasmussen, as they met the press at Sogne, where they will be married on August 22. The bridegroom announced that they would be married in the "new" Lutheran church, the choice of the bride-to-be. Krush Could Bring Peace, Says Hoover

NEW YORK (AP) — Herbert Hoover, 85 today, says Nikita Khrushchev could bring with him to the United States the greatest gift mankind has received in 1,000 years — peace.

"But this is unlikely to be the result of this visit," the former President added.

"He could interpret his oft-repeated statement as to peaceful coexistance," Hoover said Sunday, "as eliminating all international demands, all warnings, all threats, and all conspiracies against free people."

Such a move, said Hoover, could win the Soviet premier "immortality among the leaders of all men."

But, he added, the possibility that Khrushchev would make such a move is remote because "the tactics of the Communists may change, but their determination to dominate the world continues."

Hoover appeared on "Meet the Press" over NBC-TV.

The forthcoming visit of the Soviet leader has hopeful possibilities, said Hoover. It could lead to a decrease in tension that might tide us over for a period in which there may be hopes of greater steps in peace," he said.

Meanwhile, he said, "We must not be lulled into any complacency. We must be alert and armed to the teeth."

Only one other former president, John Adams, celebrated more birthdays than Hoover. Adams died when he was 90.

The ruddy-faced, white-haired Hoover has a simple formula for longevity — work. He illustrates it today by spending his birthday at his desk.

He keeps six secretaries busy with his massive correspondence and activities in various organizations.

He indicated in the interview that he was confident of America's ability to meet any crisis that might occur, and to defend herself successfully if necessary. But he also saw room for improvement.

He saw need to curb "inflation, unbalanced budgets, overspending by Congress, and the growth of crime." He was outspoken on the need for improving the American educational system.

"We have one great difficulty in our competition with Russia," he said, "and I think it is greater than all others, and that is the lag in our training of the best brains we have in the United States, the creation of enough scientists and engineers to carry our productive system forward.

"The Russians are outnumbering us about five to one in those professions which we are solely dependent upon for our defense and for our progress and well-being. I think we ought to reorganize the high schools of the United States where we have a system which lacks entirely in discipline and in effective training."

Either Talk Or Fight, Says Nixon

By JOE F. KANE

WASHINGTON (AP) — You either talk to the Russians or eventually you are going to fight them, Vice President Richard M. Nixon has told American television audiences.

"The alternative, to me, is unacceptable, not only for us, but to them, and for the world generally," Nixon said.

Nixon expressed his views Sunday on the exchange of visits by top U.S. and Soviet officials while narrating CBS and NBC telecasts of films made during his recent visit to the Soviet Union.

His opinions were in reply to the criticism that his trip and the scheduled exchange of visits by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev and President Eisenhower are hypocritical and immoral.

Nixon said he considered it essential, in recognizing the differences between the United States and the U.S.S.R. that they not be discussed by trading insults 5,000 miles apart.

"What we should do," Nixon said, "is to sit down around the conference table, where we can, so that there will be no miscalculation on the part of either side as to the strength or the will that either side possesses."

Nixon gave these impressions of Khrushchev: He can do pretty much as he wants, he is sensitive about public opinion outside the Soviet Union; he likes to do the unexpected; he is an articulate defender of his point of view; he knows how to grab the headlines, and he doesn't like to concede anything.

Newlyweds Stir Up Fuss During Trip

DALLAS (AP) — Police theorized today a former Miss USA and her bridegroom may have flown to Los Angeles after stirring up a fuss with a high-speed race through East Texas after their wedding Saturday.

Officers in neighboring Fort Worth said they had been tipped that the former Eurlyne Howell, 22 and Paul Mitchell LaCava, 28, caught an plane to Los Angeles, where LaCava is a law student and Miss Howell is under contract to Warner Brothers Studios.

The couple disappeared Saturday night after arriving at Fort Worth International Airport, midway between here and Fort Worth. They came here after missing a Mexico City-bound flight in Shreveport Saturday.

Airlines said there was no record of their boarding a plane here or in Fort Worth.

They left a string of angry policemen between here and the Texas-Louisiana line when they raced through the area in a police car provided by the mayor of Bossier City, La., Miss Howell's home town.

Texas officers, alerted by an emergency code and told the car contained a sick person needing to catch a plane for medical reasons, cleared traffic and escorted the auto to the Fort Worth airport.

A Dallas deputy sheriff started asking questins then. He said "the pretty girl and the fellow in the back seat laughed."

Texas officers said they plan to talk to Louisiana authorities about the trip.

Trio Pinched In St. Louis

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—A Negro alderman and two companions were arrested Sunday night in a north St. Louis restaurant which refused to serve them.

When Alderman William L. Clay and his friends refused to leave, the hostess at the Howard Johnson restaurant, Miss Dorothy Congleton, 52, called police.

Booked with Clay on charges of disturbing the peace were Ray Howard of St. Louis and Robert L. Schwerdtmann of suburban Richmond Heights. Schwerdtmann is white.

The three men filed a peace disturbance charge against Miss Congleton and she also was booked. The four were released on bonds of $500 each and are scheduled to appear today in city court.

Clay, a Democrat, is chairman of an aldermanic committee which has scheduled hearings next month on charges of racial discrimination in city construction projects.

Democratic Race Is Taking Shape

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—The contest for the Democratic presidential nomination appears to be tightening, with indications that top contenders may be able to push some favorite sons out of the running early in 1960.

The 51st Annual Governors' Conference in San Juan, Puerto Rico, last week gave little apparent support to the aspirations of Democratic Govs. Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey and G. Mennen Williams of Michigan.

Meyner and Williams were unusually vocal in conference sessions but it was not noticeable that they made any political headway. Neither was there any outward surge of support for any of the other potential candidates.

Among the Democratic governors there was a recognition that Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) has at least secondary support in all the favorite son states. There was also an awareness of a continuing strong sentiment for Adlai E. Stevenson, who says he isn't making a third try for the party's nomination.

Gov. Orville L. Freeman of Minnesota got a polite reception—but no public recruits—when he sang the praises of Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn). Humphrey is billing himself these days as a sort of favorite son of the Middle West.

There was discussion, but again no burst of support, for Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo) and Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas.

Humphrey is pitching his entire campaign on the assumption he can beat Kennedy in the April 5 Wisconsin primary. If he should lose there, he probably would be out of the race quickly.

Kennedy is almost certain to challenge Gov. Michael V. DiSalle in Ohio's May 3 primary if the latter assays a favorite son role. The Massachusetts senator is determined also that Gov. J. Millard Tawes shall not block Maryland off from him with an uninstructed delegate slate.

There have even been hints that Kennedy might take on Meyner in New Jersey's April 19 primary, although the result of the vote would not be binding on the delegates. Pennsylvania, where Gov. David L. Lawrence remains publicly undecided, also may offer Kennedy a target in its April 26 non-binding primary.

The one tate that seems to be Kennedy-proof, so to speak, is California. There Gov. Edmund G. Brown has erected a fence against candidates in the primary that neither Kennedy nor Humphrey seems ready at this point to attempt to leap.

In a reversal of what appears to be the static fortunes of other favorite sons, Brown now gives the appearance of a man who has thought the matter over and has come to the conclusion he is about as well qualified for first place on the ticket as any of the others.

Julie Plans A Long Rest

LONDON (AP)—Julie Andrews took up the role of housewife full time today after shedding the rags of Eliza Doolittle, the role in "My Fair Lady" that rocketed her to international stage fame.

The 4-year-old singing actress said she plans to take a long rest, spending "just a quiet and ordinary time with my husband," stage designer Tony Walton, whom she married last May. She apparently has no immediate plans for a new part.

Tears streaming down her face, Julie took her final curtain call in "Fair Lady" Saturday night after 3½ years before New York and London audiences.

Anne Rogers, another British girl who has played "My Fair Lady" in the United States, takes over as Eliza tonight.

Pauley Would Compromise

LOS ANGELES (AP) — California oilman Edwin W. Pauley says he is willing to compromise on his demand for 5,000 tickets to the Democratic national convention next year.

He said Sunday he will accept 3,133 seats.

The trouble is the compromise was proposed by Los Angeles Mayor Norris Poulson, a Republican who has no authority to allocate tickets.

Pauley cabled from his home in Hawaii that he will return here for a meeting Tuesday with a committee set up by Poulson to try to mediate the dispute, which has been going on for months.

Pouley, credited with soliciting the $350,000 guarantee necessary for convention expenses, feels his host committee should get the big bloc of seats.

Freak Fire Encircled

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (AP) — A freakishly triggered fire in the Lake Elsinore resort area has covered at least 1,500 acres and has destroyed two homes and left more than two dozen men burned or injured. But firefighters said they have it virtually encircled.

DEFIES SUPERSTITION

Postmaster To Receive Award

INDIAN WELLS, Ariz. (AP)—The postmaster of this tiny Navajo reservation community will be honored Friday by the Post Office Department for defying a superstition as old as man himself.

The postmaster is Herbert S. Hukriede, 50, and behind the award he is to receive is a story of death, fear and friendship that goes back to the hot afternoon of July 15.

That day, Harry Joe, a 17-year-old Navajo, was struck and killed by lightning while tending a flock of sheep near his family's hogan. His elderly parents found his body lying under an abandoned wagon.

Joe had been struck dead by the evil spirit of lightning, they believed, and an ancient Navajo superstitition came back to haunt them. They refused to go near their son's body.

Indian police also refused to touch the corpse.

"They built a fire about 50 yards from the body that night," Hukriede recalled Sunday, "but they wouldn't go near it. Next day they asked me to help."

Hukriede transported the body to the mission.

"They wanted a Christian burial for the boy," he replied, "but the missionary, Glen Davis, wasn't due back until the next day. It was pretty hot, so I sent a couple of the boy's relatives over to Holbrook to get some block ice so I could cool the body."

On July 17, Davis conducted the services at an Indian burial ground beside the mission. Hukriede dropped young Joe's saddle, his lariat, a few pieces of cheap jewelry and an empty suitcase into the grave.

From a hillside a quarter mile away the dead boy's family watched the ceremony. Superstition prevented them from going any closer.

"They think they'll go blind or something if they touch anything that has been hit by lightning," Hukriede explained. "They won't even touch a stone or stick that's been struck."

Hukriede's award — for public service above and beyond the call of duty—will be presented by Asst. Postmaster General Eugene Lyons in a ceremony at Indian Wells.

Auto Chase Leads To Death Scene

RALEIGH, N.C., (AP) — Lloyd Burton Walker, 25, of Granville, Tex., was charged with reckless driving, speeding and failing to heed a siren in a chase here Sunday that led to the discovery of the death of a wealthy Raleigh merchant.

Officers traced the ownership of the Cadillac Walker was driving to William Trent Ragland, Sr., 64. They later found Ragland's body in a cabin. He had been shot through the neck with a .22 rifle.

A few hours before his arrest, Walker was released from a prison camp near Ragland's summer camp after serving a 60-day sentence for vagrancy.

Texan Is Held In Death Of Three

RENO, Nev. (AP) — A Texan faced an investigation of manslaughter today after his car struck and killed three teen-age boys at Stead AFB Saturday.

T. Sgt. Alvaro R. Hernon, 36, San Antonio, was released under bond to air police at Stead.

The victims—Lee Orr, 14, son of civilian parents in Reno; and Walters, 14, sons of military personnel on the base—were walking home from a party.

Crafty Cop Gets His Man

BURLINGAME, Calif. (AP) — The speeder was crafty, but the policeman was craftier.

Patrolman Robert Quinn cited William J. McDonald, 20, for driving 45 miles an hour in a 25-mile zone. McDonald went speeding off.

Quinn, annoyed at the fast departure, pursued. McDonald pulled into a quiet residential area, parked and turned off his lights.

The officer located the car, found McDonald gone, and removed the cap from the distributor.

The driver reappeared and was trying vainly to start his car when the officer showed himself, ticket book in hand. Policeman Quinn said motorist McDonald reacted violently.

In addition to the speeding citation, McDonald was charged with: Reckless driving, running a stop sign, ignoring a police siren and red light, evading and resisting arrest and assault and battery.

Setting Hen Makes Trip On Her Nest

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Ruffles didn't take kindly to having her nest moved, so she and her five eggs got a free trip to Oklahoma and back.

L. H. McDonald, Dallas truck driver, discovered the setting hen in her nest atop the gas tank of his truck.

When McDonald tried to move the nest, Ruffles pecked his hand, so he left hen, nest and eggs where he found them and headed for Oklahoma.

Back in Dallas, McDonald looked at the gas tank. Ruffles and the eggs survived the trip.

A Junior Editors Quiz About GAMES

QUESTION: Where did the game of jacks originate and how did they get their shape?

• • •

ANSWER: Jacks is a game usually played with a rubber ball and several small six-pointed metal objects called jacks. The object of the game is to toss the ball in the air and pick up as many jacks as possible before catching the ball again.

The first jacks were the bones of animals, particularly the knobby knuckle bones of the sheep. It is believed that the shape of the metal jacks used today developed from the shape of the sheep's knuckle bones.

An old game called pebble jackstones still is played in the rural sections of many European countries. It is probably the game from which our game of jacks originated.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: Most games are not invented but are developed from older ones. See if you can find out what popular modern game developed from a one called "rounders."

SNYDER BUSINESS NEWS

HUNDREDS of notebooks from two-ring binders to fine zipper type, some of them guaranteed for five years, are included in the back-to-school stock at Bennett Office Supply. Two employes of the store, Charlsey Lingle, left, and Mrs. Ruth Hicks, right, show the notebooks to Meta Bowen, second from left, and Rita Johnston, second from right.

Bennett's Ready With Big Stock Of School Supplies

Hundreds of Snyder and area school children will need notebooks in only a few days, as well as other school supplies, and in anticipation of the need Bennett Office Supply, 1819 Twenty-fifth Street, has just set up its display hundreds of notebooks and supplies.

The rows of notebooks at Bennett's includes zipper notebooks in all-leather, leather and plastic, and all-plastic in prices ranging from $1.98 to $7.50.

The $7.50 Tuffhide zipper notebooks are guaranteed for five years while all binders from $5.98 up are guaranteed for one year.

With the sale of each zipper binder, Bennett's is giving a free "Snyder Tiger" decal.

With the largest selection of binders in Snyder, Bennett's has then in all colors both in the zipper style and the two-ring binders, which are priced from 95 cents to $2.39.

Bennett's also has all the accessories necessary to go with the binders, and a special now is a 200-sheet package of filler paper for 69 cents.

The firm has assignment books, notebook index dividers, composition books, typing paper, stenographic books, pencils, reinforcements, and an endless list of needed school supplies, including a full line of needs for the beginning school child.

With a full line of Esterbrook, Sheaffer and Parker school pens and pencils, the firm has a special Sheaffer cartridge pen for $2.95 which is ideal for school use. Cartridges are 49 cents per box.

Long a headquarters here for school supplies, Bennett's also has the largest stock of home and office needs here for adults.

The school student and adult are both served with Bennett's line of Royal, Remington and Hermes portable typewriters and Smith-Corona electric and portable. Bennett's is also Snyder dealer for the Victor adding machine and versatile calculator.

General office supplies and other needs at Bennett's include a complete line of Hallmark cards for all occasions, Bibles, office furniture and numerous other lines.

The repair department handles office machine troubles and gives immediate service on emergencies.

Employes of the Bennett store, owned and managed by Harold Bennett, are Mrs. Ruth Hicks and Charlsey Lingle, a DE student, on sales; Bill Stephens on office supply and machine sales; Eloy Ortiz, head of the repair department, and Roy Sumruld, ICT student in the repair department.

'No Roach' Slays Crawling Insects

A local woman was having the neighborhood circle in to tea for the first time. Imagine her horror when a roach crawled across the coffee table. The unpleasant situation could have been avoided if she had known about No Roach.

Scientists have discovered a new roach control formula which is effective against all crawling insects, including the new resistant roaches; is easy to use, safe to use around children and pets; and stays effective for months with only one application.

It is called Johnston's No Roach. When you use No Roach, there's no need to move dishes, or to breathe harmful sprays. Just brush this odorless, colorless liquid on cabinets, baseboards, windowsills, doorsteps, cracks, drainpipes — wherever roaches and ants may enter.

It dries quickly to form an invisible "death zone" for all crawling insects. They walk across it — and die within minutes.

Brush on No Roach and forget it for months. It stays effective 25 hours a day.

No Roach works against roaches, ants, waterbugs, spiders, silverfish all crawling insects.

No Roach is available at D & H Super Market, Piggly Wiggly Super Market, Safeway, Sunbeam, B & B Parkways, Rainbow's and your other local food and drug stores.

NO ROACH EASY TO APPLY—The ease of application of No Roach is demonstrated by the pretty woman above. The odorless, colorless liquid is quickly brushed on, any surface where bugs appear, and its "death zone" remains effective for months. When bugs walk across it they die in minutes.

Architect Criticizes New Senate Building

WASHINGTON (AP)—The editor of the magazine Architectural Forum says the new, 25-million-dollar Senate Office Building looks tired, meager and rundown.

In an article in the current issue, editor Douglas Haskell wrote that the building, which opened this session, illustrates "a state of architectural illness attended by extreme mental confusion, threatening to become chronic in Washington."

Philip L. Roof, executive assistant to the Capitol architc, said Haskell was a little late with his criticism, since the designs had been available for years before construction started.

Dallas Man Slays Airman

IRVING, Tex. (AP)—A Dallas man, 29, pulled a pistol from a hollowed-out book and riddled Air Force Sgt. William Burkart with 12 bullets last night, police said.

Police termed the shooting "a thunderstorm of bullets."

Burkart, 34, stationed at Sheppared Air Force Base in Wichita Falls, died at the home of a woman reportedly "informally engaged to the man who did the shooting."

The book was used to conceal the weapon, according to a statement witnessed by newsmen. The man said he emptied the pistol at Burkart, reloaded and fired six more times. Then he calmly waited for police to arrive.

Mother 'Chickens Out' After Triplets Born

EAST ORANGE, N.J. (AP) — Mrs. Probyn Thompson Jr. always had her heart set on having five children. In eight years of marriage she had two.

Over the weekend she realized her ambition by having three at once.
