GETS DIPLOMA - James McLain, left, seed dealer from Olton was presented his diploma by Lee Jordan, Western Area Director of Operations, Pfizer Genetics Inc., upon completion of the Pfizer Genetics School of Seedsmanship in Dallas. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cleve McLain of Hart and is employed at High Plains Fertilizer, Olton.

James McLain Completes Seedsmanship School

James McLain, local seed dealer, recently completed Pfizer Genetics' School of Seedsmanship in Dallas. The week-long school provides participants with the most up-to-date agricultural and technological knowledge in the seed industry.

Among the subjects McLain covered were seed varieties, crop management practices, disease and weed problems in corn, soybeans and sorghum. Information on farm financing, the U.S. role in world food production and hedging of commodities were also included.

According to McLain, "the course work was complete and thorough. Studies of modern corn, sorghum and soybean production, as well as new crop management techniques for top yields, will enable me to better serve farmers in my area."

The School of Seedsmanship, now in its second year, has graduated more than 500 Pfizer Genetics dealers. The company markets Trojan brand hybrid seed corn, Pfizer Genetics' sorghum seed and Clemens brand soybean seed.

PIONEER[®]

NEW 3541

More Income Per Acre

In 61 field comparisons during 1977, 3541 recorded an average income advantage of more than $25* an acre over competitive hybrids and averaged 2.7 points drier at harvest. This new medium-maturity hybrid dries faster and stands better than competitive full-season corns. But 3541 yields more than others of similar maturity, so it gives you a greater potential for profit. 3541 has the performance characteristics you need.

*Based on corn price of $3.70/100 lbs.

- Excellent head smut tolerance
- Excellent standability
- Outstanding yields
- Good ear retention
- Fast drydown

THE SORGHUM FARMER'S CORN

PIONEER[®]

3780

- Harvests earlier than sorghum
- Yields more than sorghum for greater income potential under similar field management
- Excellent standability

Pioneer brand 3780 is like no other corn hybrid you've ever planted. It yields well on land where other corns can't. How is this possible? 3780 has a water use pattern that reaches peak demand very early... long before sorghum needs its water. Also 3780 grows and matures much faster than sorghum or other corns, so it's ready for harvest earlier. Its fertilizer requirements are lower than most full-season corns, and it won't normally need the insecticide treatments most fuller season crops require late in the growing season.

If you're looking for a good-yielding corn hybrid that performs well under management similar to sorghum's, consider "the other crop"... Pioneer brand 3780. The sorghum farmer's corn.

An Invitation From Your Administrators

We would like to take this opportunity to invite all Hart parents and patrons to visit the Hart Schools during Texas Public School week from March 6-10. We would be happy to have the parents and patrons to eat in the school cafeteria any day next week. The price for an adult lunch is 75 cents.

The purpose of Texas Public School Week is to give Texas citizens a special invitation to visit their schools, see the colorful classrooms, observe the students at work and at play, check the facilities, and perhaps join their children for lunch in the school cafeteria.

We want parents to have the opportunity to see first-hand for themselves, some of the problems, challenges and accomplishments of Hart schools, students and teachers. We want them to know Hart educators care about their children and need parental support in the vital work of teaching children and young people.
