Three Are Dead In Pistol Duel

Just Aimee's Pet Poodle Was David

LOS ANGELES, July 18 (AP)—David L. Hutton, who has filed suit for divorce from Aimee Semple McPherson, coined his own phrase to describe his relationship to the evangelist.

"Pet poodle," he exclaimed, "I was just Aimee's pet poodle. I had plenty of affection—yes,—but no privileges."

In a direct message to the Examiner from the liner City of Havre, far out in the Atlantic en route to America from France, Mrs. Hutton today said "reports concerning divorce are preposterous."

To Hutton the evangelist sent this cable:

"Sweetheart: reassure me your confidence." It was signed, "wife."

Hutton did not reply.

YOUNG MOTHER, GIRL FATALLY WOUNDED; SLAYER SUICIDES

(By The Associated Press)

PONTIAC, Mich., July 18—A 22-year-old mother who engaged in a gun duel with an intruder in her home, and her four-year-old daughter were dead today, and the accused slayer was dead by his own hand.

The husband at work when the tragedy occurred, said Mrs. Rose Gaylock, the slain woman, had been subjected to the unwelcome attentions of Charles King, 32, the man police said killed her.

Police found Mrs. Gaylock dead of gunshot wounds last night shortly after neighbors had reported hearing shots, and the child, her skull crushed by a heavy blow, near death. She died later.

The husband, when police notified him at the factory where he worked, urged that King be sought. When a squad of policemen went to the house where King lived with his parents, there was a shot in an upstairs room and the fugitive was found dying of a bullet wound in his head.

King also bore wounds in the knee and hand and police said they were inflicted by Mrs. Gaylock as she fought for her life.

NINE STATES TO GET FORTY MILLION FOR HIGHWAY PROJECTS

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 18. — The expenditure of $40,000,000 more on roads in nine states was approved today by the public works administration in its job-giving drive.

This brought to $166,532,000 the total out of the $400,000,000 road fund already allocated to 24 states; other apportionments will follow.

At the same time the public works administration was trying to whittle down a $90,000,000 river and harbor and flood control program on orders from President Roosevelt to eliminate unworthy projects.

Report Await

Allocation of further money for federal projects was awaiting a report from the budget to which was assigned the task of cutting down a $750,000,000 program for federal buildings so as to take out any "pork barrel" structures. This is to be acted upon tomorrow by the cabinet board in charge of public works.

Under plans for spending road money approved today, the states and their allotments follow:

Idaho $4,486,249; North Dakota $5,804,448; Maine $3,369,917; West Virginia $4,474,324; Delaware $1,819,088; Louisiana $5,828,591; Florida $5,231,834; New Hampshire $1,909,839; Montana $7,439,748.

Sheriff Tom Abel and Deputy Sheriff Cap Moore followed suspects south and west of Lubbock until the trail was obliterated Monday. They went as far as Monahans, in Ward county. An investigation of a report the suspects had been seen in Plains was without encouraging results at noon today, the sheriff's department reported.

ATTORNEYS IN EAST TEXAS OIL AREA

INTERIOR DEPARTMENT SENDS TWO MEN TO ANSWER THREATS

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Secretary Ickes said today two attorneys of the interior department had been sent into East Texas in answer to threats from oil producers seeking an injunction against federal regulations to prevent movement of illegally produced oil.

Asked if the department intended to concentrate its efforts in the East Texas field, Ickes said "the chief offenders seem to be in that pool."

Threats Are Heard

He said so far as Washington was informed no suits had been filed to enjoin the government from enforcing its oil regulations, but that there were numerous threats and rumors of threats in oil circles that suits would be filed.

Norman L. Meyers and J. Howard Marshall, of the solicitors' office of the department, Ickes said, were in Tyler, Tex., today getting in touch with various interests in the oil area.

A. D. Ryan, special agent in charge of the investigating force of the department, left here yesterday by plane for Longview, Texas.

Preparations for attending the hearing Monday before Hugh S. Johnson, industrial administrator, on the oil industry code were begun by interior department, which plans to have representatives present from the bureau of mines, geological survey, and solicitors' office.

Ickes said he had been advised Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania personally would represent that state at the hearing and that Cicero Murray would represent Governor Murray of Oklahoma. No word has been received from Governor Ferguson of Texas.

AWAIT RETURN OF YOUNG O'CONNELL

ALBANY, N. Y., July 18 (AP)—An air of expectancy spread over Albany today as rumors flew thick and fast that Lieut. John J. O'Connell, jr., was about to be returned by his kidnapers. Some of the rumors apparently had their source close to the family.

The Putnam street neighborhood furnished a report which indicated that the 24-year-old scion of the politically powerful O'Connell family actually might have been returned late last night. No newspaper men saw an automobile which neighbors said drove up to the O'Connell house after midnight, but numerous persons declared such a machine arrived, and that a few minutes later the O'Connell house was bright with lights and noisy with laughter.

CHICAGO, July 18 (AP)—Divorced in Nevada, Elliott Roosevelt, second son of the president, was reported en route today from Nevada to Chicago, where he may meet Miss Ruth Googins of Fort Worth, Tex., with whom his name has been linked in a new romance.

Both young Roosevelt and the Texas girl, who is visiting Chicago's Century of Progress, however, have denied any matrimonial intentions.

Miss Googins could not be located at the hotel where she and her mother have been staying since July 9, but she was quoted in the Herald and Examiner as having said yesterday to attaches of the place:

"We won't be back tonight for we're going to meet Mr. Elliott in the morning."

"I am a prisoner in a car, license No. 240,723, a Buick sedan. The guys are holding me for money. Somebody please notify police. My name is John Waldo from Texas. We will be in front of 461 Milwaukee Ave., at 11 p. m. July 18."

On the other side, also in red pencil; "Please pick me up."

TEXAS AIRMAN IS OVERDUE

MATTERN'S JINX — TOP OF WORLD COUNTRY— AGAIN HIDES HIM

(By The Associated Press)

SEATTLE, July 18—Jimmie Mattern's jinx—the "top of the world country"—hid him again today.

Puzzled watchers wondered whether he was again in the air attempting to be the first man to fly around the world alone, still nursing a broken ankle in Siberia or down in the sea or ice lands.

Out of the north last night came a sketchy wireless message saying Mattern had taken off from Anadyr with a Russian pilot in a Soviet plane.

Levanovsky, crack Russian flier, had been detailed by his government to fly a seaplane from Khabarovsk to Anadyr to take Mattern to Nome to continue his globe-circling flight.

The unofficial and unconfirmed report of the takeoff said Mattern was expected to land in Nome at 6 p. m. Nome time (9 p. m. Pacific Standard time.)

His backers and members of the relief group, all equally certain Mattern wanted to continue his flight as soon as possible, were left in doubt as to whether he had started or was still grounded in Siberia. William Alexander, head of the relief expedition, only a few days ago was advised by the Texan that the Russians were treating him "like a prince" but that he wanted "action."

PERRY, Okla., July 18 (AP)—As the result of a pistol duel last night, Charles Larimer is dead and John Alcorn, 55 year-old neighbor rancher, is in the Noble county jail here facing murder charges.

ARKANSAS AND ALABAMA TO CAST VOTE

TWO MORE STATES TO DECIDE THIS WEEK ON PROHIBITION

(By The Associated Press)

Repeal forces racing to reach their goal before Christmas strove to round the half-way post in the south today while prohibitionists sought to send them sprawling.

Arkansas and Alabama threw open voting booths today to decide their stand on the proposal to blot the 18th amendment from the constitution.

Thirty-Six Necessary

Tonight the foes of national prohibition will know whether they have garnered half the states necessary for repeal. Sixteen states had voted to ratify repeal up to today. Thirty-six are necessary to change the constitution.

Before the week is over 20 states, containing 49 per cent of the population of the United States will have recorded their will on the problem. Tennessee votes Thursday and Oregon Friday.

Arkansas and Alabama were the first strictly southern states to ballot on prohibition and both sides felt the result was fraught with much significance for their causes. Prohibition forces expressed confidence that if some of the southern states held fast to prohibition, they could put the final test over until next year and thus better their chances of preserving the 18th amendment.

Appeal Made By FDR

The contests in the south drew heightened interest as a result of a public appeal from President Roosevelt for ratification. In a telegram to a Democratic national committeeman in Alabama, he said the platform of the Democratic party "should be carried out insofar as it lies in our power." The platform pledged for appeal.

Prohibition leaders hit the president's statement as "executive dictation." Dr. A. J. Barton, prohibition leader, appealing to Alabama and Arkansas, asked them to uphold the traditional dry stand of the south. He spoke last night in the same Memphis auditorium in which Postmaster General Farley had urged repeal Saturday night.

PLAN ALLOWING FARMERS TO PLOW UP PART OF COTTON NOW IS ANNOUNCED

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 18.— Farm administrators today made public a plan under which cotton farmers who signed agreements to curtail their output this year will be permitted to plow up portions of their fields without having to wait for formal acceptance of their offers.

The action was taken to permit farmers in some of the cotton producing areas where climatic conditions are favorable immediately to plant feed crops for home consumption.

This telegram was sent to county agents notifying them of the new plan:

"The secretary of agriculture has authorized acceptance and approval of all producer contracts where same are approved by county agent and county committee.

"Printed instructions and emergency permit blanks are on the way to be used by farmers to secure permits from county agents to destroy immediately cotton without having to await arrival of formal acceptance blanks.

"Instructions and emergency permit blanks should reach you Friday.

"In no event shall producers begin the destruction of his cotton crop until his application has been approved and a permit issued by the county agent."

The application for a permit to take land out of production does not relieve the producer of the requirement of executing the formal acceptance which will be sent out to individual producers.

The application also gives the secretary of agriculture the right to correct "all irregularities, imperfec-

SEARCH ENDED IN CAPTURE

ONE MAN SOUGHT FOR TEXAS SLAYINGS IS SHOT TO DEATH

(By The Associated Press)

CARRIZOZO, N. M., July 18—The search for the slayers of three Texas peace officers was over today with the arrest of Ed (Perchmouth) Stanton and the death of Glenn Hunsucker.

Stanton was arrested with his brother, Will, yesterday, between Corona, and Ramon, N. M., and were held in jail pending arrival of Tulia, Tex., officers. Stanton escaped after officers had shot and killed Hunsucker when the pair shot it out with officers near Ramon Sunday. In the battle Tom Jones, deputy sheriff, was shot and killed.

Hunsucker and Stanton had been sought since the pistol slayings of Joe Brown, Wise county deputy sheriff, at Rhome, Tex., and J. C. Moseley, sheriff of Swisher county, at Tulia, Tex., last January. They also were wanted for the slaying of Harve Bolin, an officer at Olton, Tex.

Four officers from Tulia left for Carrizozo yesterday to definitely identify Hunsucker's body. The description they sent of him was said here to tally exactly with the man killed.

Harriman, the banker who disappeared yesterday from a nursing home, had been at liberty pending trial on charges he falsified the books of the Harriman National Bank and Trust company.

SALARY HIKES ARE SOUGHT

RECOVERY COUNCIL TO STUDY VOLUNTARY COVENANT PLAN

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 18—Industrial recovery plans for quickly boosting national buying power through voluntary covenants to raise pay and shorten work hours were presented for a preview by the White House executive council today prior to public application.

Mapped carefully was the idea of unifying public opinion behind the administration. But Hugh S. Johnson regarded the job as so complex he wanted to be "sure" before starting out.

Held Time Saver

This voluntary method of immediately getting more money into more pay envelopes was regarded as a time-saver in bringing purchasing power, production and prices into line. More carefully drawn and detailed codes carrying out this program would come along later.

At the heart of the plan were campaigns reminiscent of World war days for bringing home the government's purposes to the average citizen. State organizations, "minute men" speakers and advertising of the poster, button and slogan type all had places in the decisions for massing citizens enthusiasm.

Meanwhile, Secretary Roper said a blanket presidential order to force shorter working hours and better pay was not now necessary.

American Writer Is Offered Protection

PALMA, Mallorca, July 18 (AP) — Theodor Pratt, American writer against whom residents of Mallorca have organized demonstrations because of a critical article he wrote about them, has received the promise of the authorities that he will be protected.

The newspaper Ultima Hora last Saturday republished an article which it said Pratt wrote for an American magazine and in which Mallorcans were accused of blinding canaries because they believed that made the birds sing better.

About 300 persons paraded in front of Pratt's house in protest against the article and someone exploded a small bomb.

FLIER SIXTEEN HOURS AHEAD OF RECORD

PLANS TO HOP AGAIN SOON ON NEXT LEG OF WORLD FLIGHT

(Special To The Avalanche)

IRKUTSK, Siberia, July 18—Wiley Post, American round the world flier, landed here at 3:35 p. m. Moscow time today (7:35 a. m. E.S.T.). He planned to take off again at 11 o'clock this evening (3 p. m., E.S.T.).

Post's arrival in Irkutsk put him 16 hours 34 minutes ahead of the time made by Harold Gatty and himself in their round-the-world trip. Together they reached Irkutsk 91 hours 59 minutes out of New York. His arrival was 75 hours 25 minutes out of New York.

REFUSES TO REST AT NOVOSIBIRSK

NOVOSIBIRSK, Siberia, July 18 (AP)—Well ahead of the time he made for a similar distance in 1931, Wiley Post streaked for Irkutsk, Siberia, today, two hours and 35 minutes after finishing an 1,818-mile flight from Moscow.

The doughty American round-the-world flier swooped down on the Novosibirsk field at 6:27 a. m. (10:27 p. m. Monday, E. S. T.), and then, tired almost to the point of exhaustion, took off again at 9:02 a. m. (1:02 a. m., E. S. T. with the intention of getting some badly-needed rest at Irkutsk.

Was Lost Twice

Post was lost twice on the way here from Moscow, and only his sense of direction, his automatic pilot having failed, enabled him to conquer fog and rain and to land safely here.

At one time he had to fly at an altitude of 21,000 feet, so bad was the fog. Once he landed in a field—he did not know where. Again he landed near Tartarsk, 250 miles west of Novosibirsk, and once more, by sheer luck, he admitted, he found his direction.

WASHINGTON, July 18 (AP)—Secretary Wallace said today that he will proceed with plans for reducing the output of American wheat next year and that assumptions that the program is no longer necessary because of his year's short crop are "short-sighted and erroneous."

Despite serious weather damage to this year's crop bringing the prospective harvest to the smallest figure since 1893, Wallace said, this country will have a wheat surplus on hand this fall and "curtailment of acreage is vital to assure better prices in the future."

FORMER CHAMPION ON WAY TO RENO WITH HANNAH WILLIAMS

RENO, Nevada, July 18 (AP)—Jack Dempsey's wedding, if and when he arrives with his intended bride for the announced ceremony, was the "talk of the town" here today.

The talk started last night after the former heavyweight champion announced in Salt Lake City he was on his way to Reno again, this time with Hannah Williams, the actress, and that the ceremony probably will be tonight.

At Oakland, Calif., Max Baer, whose recent fight with Max Schmeling in New York was promoted by the former champion, said the Dempseys and Baers will make a honeymoon foursome at a Roseville, Calif., ranch. Tech Second Term Enrollment Is 563

Dr. Bradford Knapp, president, last night announced enrollment for the second summer term at Texas Technological college totaled 563.

Additional students will be enrolled through three more days, and the college president anticipates a final registration of "considerably more than 600 students."

Reduction in attendance for both summer terms will approximate 23 to 25 per cent. Doctor Knapp said he believed the reduction here was less than in other state schools, but that he had had no opportunity to compare the totals.

The reduction was attributed by President Knapp to the fact that many school teachers still held uncashable warrants, an unusually late decision by the legislature to appropriate funds for summer schools, the general economic condition, and increased fees.

COTTON TOTAL MOUNTS HERE

ACREAGE OFFERED TO GOVERNMENT PASSES 98,000 ACRES

Lubbock county's total of cotton acreage offered for destruction had passed the 98,000-acre mark, O. G. Tumlinson, county agent, said last night as he reminded that Wednesday night is the last for mailing cotton reduction contracts to Washington, D. C. Total acreage offered the plowshare in this county is 98,321.26 acres of 236,948 acres in cotton. Anticipated cash payments slightly exceed a million dollars.

Mr. Tumlinson continued:

To Mail Notices

"I want to point out that no farmer should plow up any of his cotton until he has been advised to do so, from this office. Notices of plowing up are to be mailed from Washington, beginning Wednesday. As soon as I get a batch of bulk notices, I will begin sending them out.

"Any farmer whose name is not on the list I receive should not plow up his cotton until his name is sent me. He will not be allowed to plow up his cotton until his contract has been accepted by Secretary Wallace."

Expects Information

The county agent expects further information on handling of the work to be sent from Washington Wednesday. Local committees are to be used in inspecting the work to see that all cotton has been plowed up as per instructions.

Twenty additional contracts were tabulated and mailed Monday. An additional 14 were being tabulated late yesterday and were to be reported today. Total of cash payments is $1,002,520.32.

Figures for 2,457 contracts are: acres in cotton, 236,948; acres under contract, 98,321.26; cash payments, $765,913.32; option payments, $236,607; bales optioned, 9,201.11-20ths.

Monday's contracts were: 1,596 acres in cotton; 645.5 acres offered government; $4,727.50 cash payments; $1,932 cash on optioned acreage with 76 194-250th bales option-

Mollisons Set For Round Trip Ocean Flight

Britain's noted flying couple, Capt. and Mrs. A. J. Mollison, who cracked up at Croydon, England, at the start of their projected round trip ocean flight, will try again, taking off this time at Carmarthen, Wales. They plan to fly nonstop to New York, overhaul their plane, and then strike eastward for Baghdad. They hope to make the first Britain to New York flight, the first two way crossing of the Atlantic and break the nonstop long distance flight record. BALBO CLAIMS MASS FLIGHT PROVED HEAVIER-THAN-AIR SHIPS ARE BETTER

(Copyright, 1933, by The Associated Press)

BY RAY BRENNAN

CHICAGO, July 18 (AP)—Perils that at times caused him to doubt whether his mass flight of 24 seaplanes over the Atlantic ever would be completed were recited by General Italo Balbo in an exclusive interview.

"Twice when we were flying through thick fog," Balbo said, "I was discouraged. Once was near Reykjavik, Iceland, the other time was as we were nearing Labrador."

Only One Mishap

It was the perfection of the huge six and one-half ton flying boats, the excellent training of his men, and the complete organization of the flight along scientific lines, General Balbo said, that enabled the flight to reach Chicago—6,100 miles from the starting point at Orbetello, Italy—with only one mishap.

Balbo, muscular, black-bearded stalwart follower of Benito Mussolini, received the Associated Press reporter in his hotel suite. He had just been made a chieftain at the Indian village of the World's fair and was preparing to dress for a formal dinner.

Striding up and down the room and puffing vigorously at a cigaret, he told of what he believed was accomplished by the flight, started June 30 and completed Saturday on Lake Michigan in Chicago's front yard.

"Of this much I am certain," he said, "this flight has proved that heavier-than-air ships are the only practical means of long-distance flying. I was convinced of it seven years ago shortly after becoming Italian minister of aviation.

No Dirigibles Built

"Italy has built no dirigibles since that time. Now, I have ample proof of my belief."

Balbo speaks no English, and dis replies were translated by Augusto Rosso, Italian ambassador at Washington.

Of his 96 companions on the greatest mass flight ever completed, General Balbo declared himself justly proud. However, the 36-year-old commander holds no belief in "babying" or cajoling his men. His system in conducting the flight rested in one word—discipline—absolute and final.

Balbo talked of his ambitions for the return flight to Italy, via the Azores on the southern Atlantic route. On that flight, he plans to collect meteorological charts and records for comparison with the observations made on the Atlantic crossong via the northern route.

"We will start Wednesday morning from Chicago and arrive in New York in the afternoon," he said. "At New York there will be a stop, probably of three days. During that time myself and my 24 officers will travel to Washington, arriving there probably on Thursday by American planes.

"On the day of my arrival, myself and my officers will have luncheon with President Roosevelt, a man whom I very much admire. There will be a banquet and reception in the evening, I understand. Any visit to America, I believe, would have been incomplete without a trip to the capital of the United States."

The flight to New York will be direct to Niagara Falls and then down the Hudson to the nation's largest city.

RALPH MORRISON ONCE VICTIM OF KIDNAPING PLOT

BY MELVIN E. COLEMAN
Associated Press Staff Writer

Ralph W. Morrison of San Antonio, American delegate to the world economic conference, probably is sympathizing with victims of the kidnaping wave back home.

The big Texan was himself caught up by the "snatch racket" three years ago. He gave up $75,000 for his freedom, but got much of it back and had the satisfaction of seeing two of his abductors sent to cells.

Morrison hasn't figured so much in public reports of the conference as some of his colleagues, but he has been busy. It was noted early in the proceedings that he was among the most faithful in attending plenary sessions.

Although he puffed away on his large stogies in the conference halls he gave up his usual gray-toned sack suits to don silk hat, frock coat and striped trousers demanded by the usages of diplomacy.

At that he thought diplomacy could be improved by the use of "common sense, like we use in a good cattle deal."

He is a 50-year-old six footer, broad shouldered, deep chested with a square, heavy jaw, round head and straight gazing eyes. His career ranged from wiping engines in a St. Louis round house, to selling adding machines in South America, helping build a railroad in Argentina and gaining a fortune operating utilities in Mexico and Texas.

He has this to say about the present world status of private debts:

"Internal necessities for correcting debt structures require the devaluation of currencies in most countries."

SHROPSHIRE RITES SCHEDULED TODAY

Last rites for John William Shropshire, 16, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Louie Shropshire, 2415 Thirteenth street, who died at 1:30 p. m. Monday in a sanitarium here of a cerebral ailment, were to be read at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon at Sanders Funeral home.

Rev. O. W. Carter and Rev. J. O. Haymes, pastor of Asbury and the First Methodist Episcopal church, respectively, were to officiate. Burial wa sto be in Lubbock cemetery. Boy Scouts were to be pallbearers.

Young Shropshire became ill about three weeks ago. Last week he underwent an operation for removal of an abscess on the brain. Previously he had lost his faculties of speech, and the operation was deemed his only chance for recovery. Although the abscess was located, his condition became worse.

Besides the parents, immediate survivors are a sister, Mary Louie; one brother, Otha Harral, and his grandfather, D. W. Puckett. Mr. and Mrs. Shropshire have lived here about 24 years.

But... what of the Telephone?

The newspaper... brings to us the happenings from all the world, helps shape the actions and opinions of men, tells us what we should eat and what to wear. Our world without the newspaper would be smaller and less enjoyable. But, what of the telephone?

The radio... One turn of the dial and music comes to our living rooms, a comedian causes us to laugh, the President reports to the nation. Radio is a marvel of the age. But, what of the telephone?

The family car... takes us out of sweltering cities into the country in the evening, carries us to the homes of friends, goes shopping with the housewife, takes men to work and brings them home when day is done. The family car has added much to your life and mine. But, what of the telephone?

In 350,000 Texas homes, the telephone stands like a sentinel in the night. It tells the doctor that Bobby's fever has risen. In the morning it calls a jobless man back to work. In the afternoon it brings the message that husband will be late to dinner. It helps keep lasting friendships welded, adding to human happiness. The telephone has come to mean so much that few American families feel they can afford to be without one.

You can have a telephone for less than a dime a day. If you haven't one already, call the Business Office. Say... "I need a telephone."

I learned about "Toasting" from my husband

I used to think that "Toasting" was just an advertising phrase. But one day my husband explained to me what "Toasting" is—and what it does. Where he learned it all, I don't know, but I began to understand the difference in cigarettes. Now I find myself enjoying Luckies' mildness and fine taste with a new respect. But even more—since I am a woman quite sensitive to personal daintiness—and since my cigarette and my lips are so intimately related, I especially appreciate the comforting purity of "Toasting". Naturally, with me it's always "Luckies Please!"

SPORTS

Tournament Set To Open Friday

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

Jesse Harper, administrator of athletics at Notre Dame, has promised to attend the third annual Texas Tech coaching school. The successor to one of Knute Rockne's jobs, and inventor of the popular Notre Dame "system," is to accompany Noble Kizer, one of the headliners on the coaching school faculty, to Lubbock the last of this month.

It is the second time Harper has promised to come. He was to be here last year with Hunk Anderson, but something came up just before the school opened which kept him on his Kansas ranch. This time he'll be here, or it will be a big disappointment to Messrs. P. W. Cawthon and R. T. Smith. The latter said yesterday he was sure of it, and Mr. Harper will be invited to make a short talk or two in connection with various sides of the school.

A compliment this afternoon to Byron Terrell, Lubbock youth and Texas Tech athlete who is doing a good job managing the City Open tennis tournament. The entries fell considerably short of the anticipated number, but there is, and has been since Sunday, some nice racqueteering done on local courts as a field of nearly 30 men and boys battle to the final rounds tomorrow.

Tennis is having some difficulty in taking a foothold here as one of the town's leading summer sports. One reason may be the intensity of our summers, the weather at the tennis season being more adapted to drinking iced lemonade or playing baseball or golf, which does not call for such fast physical exercise. But they are playing in other localities where the temperature is lower. Another reason might be the absence of an individual or group of individuals sufficiently interested to push the sport and put it up on a quantity plane. Terrell is doing his best to arouse tennis interest this season.

The chief reason for the lack of interest in tennis here, particularly in tournament tennis, is the lack of suitable and sufficient courts. We hope to be here long enough to see a flock of municipally owned and operated tennis courts, and enough of them to take care of the city's needs. The idea is not new, but it is something for our city fathers to think about when they start civic projects in the future. Nothing would increase tennis interest more than a few public courts.

An amusing little incident happened out at the tennis tournament the other day. A fellow who introduced himself to Manager Terrell as Chester Walthall from Santa Anna, Texas, wanted to enter the tournament. He is reported to have said he was the Texas state high school champion, having won the singles championship at the interscholastic league meet at Austin in May. Terrell was somewhat excited, although a trifle wary. Walthall entered too late for the first round pairings, but was promised a match provided there was a default or a bye. Then Terrell hiked down to the office to look up the records. He was informed that the state high school tennis champion was one Paschal Walthall, who attended Thomas Jefferson High school at San Antonio.

Terrell did not divulge his findings to the self-styled champion, but paired him with Gordon May, Texas Tech netter of considerable ability, and the result was a fairly easy straight set victory for May. Walthall faded from the tournament ranks and has not been seen since. His last name corresponds with the real Texas champion, and Santa Anna sounds a trifle like San Antonio, but not much.

The management of the second Avalanche-Journal invitation baseball tournament is doing a bit of missionary work over the South Plains today and tomorrow, making personal contact with prospective entries in the tournament which starts here Friday afternoon. It is hoped that the management meets with success, as a determined effort is being made to give impetus to the newspaper joust and build it up into one of the state's big tournaments.

Managers of baseball teams anywhere who are not visited by the missionaries are requested to mail their entries before Thursday and on that day to appear here for drawing for first round games. It promises to be a good tournament, with a double header every day and a big purse to the winner. We don't know of a ball club anywhere in this section who would turn down a sum of cash, and it waits for the winner of the tournament. Second and third place winners also will be remembered.

INVITATION BASEBALL MEET TO DRAW MAIN TEAMS OF SECTION

Baseball enthusiasm over the South Plains appears to have increased by several percentage points since announcement early this week of the opening of the second annual Avalanche-Journal invitation baseball tournament here Friday.

Teams from all points on the South Plains and in West Texas are invited to compete here for the big first place purse which will be awarded at the conclusion of the tournament about a week from Sunday. The tournament looms as the largest and fastest ever staged in this section.

At least eight strong clubs have signified their intentions of entering. The list may grow to ten or twelve before the entries close at noon on Thursday.

Two-Game Eliminations

The tournament will be regulated according to the two-defeat elimination process, every club staying in with a chance at first money until it has been defeated twice.

The purse promises to be larger than that offered last year. An entry fee of $10 will be required of each club. Prize money will be awarded winner, second place and third place winners.

Tournament officials began a tour of West Texas today in an effort to bring a large field of entries to the play. Managers of various clubs on the South Plains will be visited and invited to the joust.

All Teams Invited

Managers of all teams not visited by the delegates are requested to mail in their entries and entry fee before Thursday, in order that drawings for first round games on Friday may be made and announced.

Squads will be limited to 15 players, exclusive of manager.

Managers of all teams entering the tournament are to meet here Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock for the drawings. In the event a manager is not present, he is requested to have a representative at the meeting, or to signify a representative by proxy.

Two games will be played daily and the tournament will last as long as the entry list justifies. At least two Sundays will be included. Capable umpires have been procured to officiate the tournament games.

CITY OPEN NET SEMI-FINALS SET TODAY

FINALS TO BE PLAYED TOMORROW IN BOTH SINGLES, DOUBLES

Semi-final matches in the annual City Open tennis tournament are scheduled today with four strong singles players and four doubles teams ready to bring the four-day meet to a rousing climax.

Finals in both divisions are scheduled for tomorrow.

One important singles match and a doubles match were postponed yesterday, Thomas Becket, Fort Worth player who is a favorite, requesting that his second round singles match with C. G. Farr be postponed. He was scheduled to pair with Smith in a doubles encounter yesterday.

Taylor Is Beaten

In the tournament's first major upset, Renford Taylor, former T. I. A. A. champ, lost a single match to James Cullar of Slaton, former No. 1 player for Abilene Christian college. The scores were 6-8, 6-4, and 6-3. It was a battle all the way, will Cullar having better control of his shots in the last two sets.

Cullar paired with Aver Payne and defeated Jimmie Whiteside and Bruce Bozeman in a doubles match, then lost to the W. B. Rushing-Pay duo, 6-0, 6-3. They defeated Whiteside and Bozeman, 6-4, 4-6, 6-3.

In another second round match, Gordon May, Texas Tech ace, defeated J. G. Allen, 6-3, 6-2. Rushing advanced to the quarter-finals when Whitesides defaulted. Renford Taylor paired with his brother, Larry Taylor, to defeat Knickerbocker and Allen, 6-3, 6-3, and advanced to the semi-finals. They meet the winner of the Beckett and Smith-McCrummen and Farr match today.

DAVIS CUP TEAM IS WORRIED OVER DROP IN DOLLAR

AUTEUIL, France, July 18 (AP)—America's Davis cup tennis team is worrying more about finances, it seems, than about the inter-zone finals with England in Roland Garros stadium Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Although the appropriation for 1933 was the same as for last year, Bernon S. Prentice, captain of the team, is alarmed because bills are running 30 per cent higher, reflecting the decreased value of the dollar.

He took some comfort, however, over the fact that the advance sale has been so brisk as to indicate a sell-out. The rival teams will share equally in the net profits.

The team planned no workout today. Ellsworth Vines, Wilmer Allison, George Lott and John Van Ryn are in prime condition and confident of over-powering the English and gaining the right to face France in the challenge round next week.

Henry W. (Bunny) Austin, H. G. N. Lee and George Patrick Hughes arrived from England yesterday but Fred Perry, ace of the squad, remained behind for a day to undergo treatment for an injured shoulder.

Women's Open Golf Tourney Scheduled

Women golfers of the city are polishing their clubs and their games this week in preparation for the annual Women's City Open golf tournament which starts Monday at the Meadowbrook.

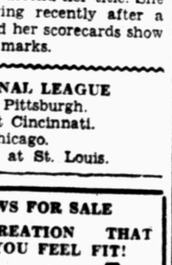

W. G. "Bill" McMillan, Meadowbrook manager, has announced that all women golfers who pay their entry fees early may have recourse to the links for practice any time this week without paying green fees.

Qualifying for the tournament will begin Monday and continue through Tuesday, July 24 and 25. Qualifying round will be played at the Meadowbrook, after which the field will move over to the Country club links for early elimination rounds. Play will revert to the Meadowbrook for semi-finals and back to the Country club for the finals on June 30.

Mrs. Rhea Vernon, the champion, has served warning that she will be back to defend her title. She has been playing recently after a long lay off and her scorecards show unusually low marks.

The Tulsa Oilers made a gallant effort Monday night to take the Houston Buffaloes down a few pennant notches. The Oilers started well with a 2 to 0 decision in the first game. They did not end so good, allowing the Buffaloes to win the nightcap, 3 to 2.

Both were splendid hurling duels. In the first game, the ageworn Lefty Johns twirled three-hit baseball to beat Oscar Fuhr, who was recently relased by Dallas. It was a heart-smasher for Fuhr because he lost on George Binder's wild heeve that gave Tulsa two unearned runs.

Cvengros Gets Breaks

Mike Cvengros and Frank Barnes turned on the pitching heat in the second encounter. Cvengros got the breaks and the decision. It was the third round battle Cvengros has won this season over Barnes. Erratic support paver the way to Barnes' downfall.

The San Antonio Missions scored in the ninth to beat Dallas 3 to 1. Abe Miller turned in an excellent six-hit game while his mates pounded Ralph Erickson, portsider, for nine wallops.

Oklahoma City and Beaumont split a doubleheader. Booting the ball around, the Exporters handed the Indians the first melee, 3 to 1. In the second game, Elden Auker won his 14th game this season for Beaumont by stopping the Indians, 1 to 0. He allowed only two hits.

Getting brilliant suport. Hank Thormahlen held Fort Worth to five hits to give Galveston a 4 to 1 viltory. Thormahlen not only pitched well but hit a triple to help his mates. Ray Ater, Fort Worth shortstop, was injured in a collision with Molesworth of Galveston and had to leave the game.

BAER AND SPOUSE ARE RECONCILED

OAKLAND, Calif., July 18 (AP) — Max Baer came home here yesterday from his heavyweight war with Max Schmeling in New York and with him was "the girl he left behind"—his wife, Mrs. Dorothy Dunbar Wells Baer.

At their Piedmont home, gift of Baer to his bride of 1931, whom he married in Reno, Nev., after a ring engagement with Paulino Uzcudun, the couple joined in declaring they were definitely reunited.

Mrs. Baer, who recently filed suit for divorce in Sacramento, joined Baer on his arrival at the California capital earlier in the day. Baer and his wife declared the divorce was "off" and that they were completely reconciled.

Concerning reports from New York linking his name with that of June Knight, actress, Baer tersely declared: "Just a friend of mine."

In Hollywood, Miss Knight said she was happy that Baer and his wife were reconciled. "We have known each other since childhood," she said, explaining her friendship with the curly-haired pugilist.

Al Simmons Picks Yanks To Win Flag

NEW YORK, July 18 (AP)—Al Simmons picks the New York Yankees, Washington Senators and his own Chicago White Sox to finish one-two-three in the American league race.

"The Yanks have the best team in the league," the clouting Sox outfielder declared. "If they don't repeat they will have only themselves to blame. They dislike the Senators so heartily they've been pressing themselves out of a lot of games with them."

THE opportunities, to which we refer, are the daily bargains to be found in every shopping area. Some people find them quite by chance . . . stumble over them blindly . . . and acquire them with astonishment. Others never seem to be in the right store at the right time: If there's a 25% marked-down sale of shoes at Smith's, they are buying at Brown & Co. . . . If a grocer three blocks away is clearing out his canned goods at half-price, they are at the corner store making routine purchases.

But—there are some people who always find these opportunities. Their money buys them more—and better—merchandise than their neighbors'. Why? Not through good luck, you may be sure; but simply because these people read the advertisements in their daily newspapers.

This advertising is NEWS. It tells WHAT. . . . It shows WHERE. Those who read it every day are informed. They save themselves time, trouble, and DOLLARS. . . . PIRATES BACK IN RUNNING

RECOVER FROM SLUMP TO PLUNGE INTO THICK OF RACE

BY HERBERT W. BARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Recovered from a batting and pitching slump that threatened for a time to plunge them into the second division, the Pittsburgh Pirates were back in the thick of the National league pennant fight today.

Their pitchers clicking again and their highly-touted outfield, especially Paul Waner and Freddie Lindstrom, beginning to wallop the ball, the Pirates have won eight games of the 12 they've played since the home stand began and now trail the second place Chicago Cubs by only half a game and the pace-setting New York Giants by four. Moreover, in the vital matter of games lost the Corsairs show a two-game edge over the Cubs who owe their grip on second place to the fact that they've won three more games than the Pirates.

Win Twin Bill

Taking full advantage of the fact that they had the major league stage all to themselves yesterday, George Gibson's hopefuls battered Brooklyn pitching for 32 hits, good for 44 bases, and trounced the Dodgers in both ends of a double-header, 14-2 and 7-0.

Brooklyn's ace twirlers, Owen Carroll and Ray Benge, officially were charged with the defeats, but Fred Heimach, making his first appearance since June 24, when the Pirates slugged him for nine hits and seven runs in one inning, was the chief sufferer. Heimach was called to the mound at the start of the eighth inning of the first game with Pittsburgh leading, 5-1, and before he could be removed the Corsairs had pounced on him for seven hits and eight runs with only one put out. Paul Waner's triple with the bases loaded sent Fred to the showers and Rosy Ryan came in to end the rally after one more run scored.

Benge Pounded Hard

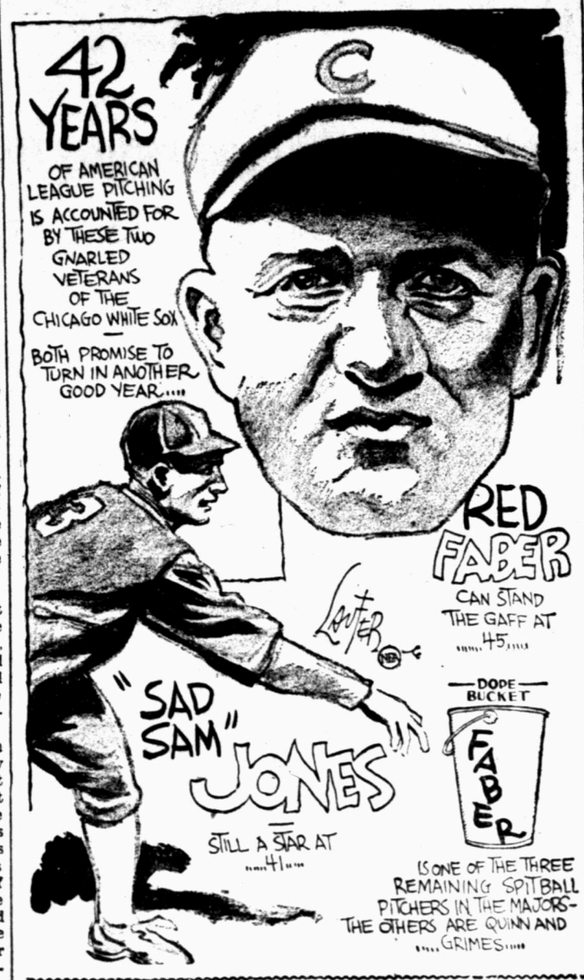

Pittsburgh pounded Benge hard in the second game and finally drove him to cover with a four-run surge in the fifth, Steve Swetonic's third hit of the game, a triple, driving in two of them. Swetonic, allowing the Dodgers only seven scattered hits, never was in trouble.

Bill Swift likewise pitched seven-hit ball in the opener and only one of Brooklyn's two runs was earned. Pie Traynor, with six hits, and Lindstrom with five, were the afternoon's outstanding sluggers.

The defeat left the Dodgers only a half game ahead of the seventh place Phillies and only 2 1-2 games out of the cellar.

All other major league clubs were idle.

Lubbock Compress Beaten By Federals

The Postoffice club of the American soft ball league came within a run of duplicating the shutout victory socred last week when the Federals defeated the Lubbock Compress team, 3 to 1, yesterday in one of the closest games played this season.

Pitcher Johnson for the Federals was almost invincible, allowing but few safe hits while his mates played fine ball in the field to prevent scoring. Robertson pitched a close game for the Compress team.

In today's games, Huie-Ribble meets Dee's Coffee Shop team to feature the American league, while Meinecke Bros. Hardware company tangles with the West Texas Gas company. The latter game will be played at the Fair Park field, the American league setto at the 22nd street field. Both games are scheduled to start at 6:15 o'clock.

The lineups yesterday:

NEW YORK, July 18. (AP)—Given proper conditions, Daniel J. Ferris, secretary-treasurer of the National A. A. U. is convinced a four-minute mile is entirely possible.

"It may seem fantastic," he says, "but under proper conditions, and particularly if it were possible to bring together the three greatest milers in the world today — Jack Lovelock, Bill Bonthron and Glenn Cunningham—I think we might see the mile run in four minutes flat."

Lovelock smashed all world records for the distance at Princeton last Saturday when he beat Bonthron by seven yards in 4:07.6 Bonthron himself was timed in 4:08.7. Cunningham, Kansas flier, has been clocked in 4:09 4-5.

WHAT WORLD NEEDS IS MORE WOMEN RUNNING THINGS, SPEAKER DECLARES

CHICAGO, July 18 (AP)—What this world needs is more Queen Elizabeths and Queen Victorias—women running things, in other words.

Thus spoke Mrs. Thit Jensen of Copenhagen, Denmark, traveler and social worker, addressing the international congress of women, history's first women's economic conference on what ails the world.

Mrs. Jensen shook her auburn curls vivaciously and said:

"In Denmark I'm regarded as a 'man-hater.' Bosh, I don't hate men. I like men as individuals. But I'm not bowing down in adoration of man's superiority, for he hasn't got it.

"Women, the housekeepers of the nations, understand money and its handling better than men, but men won't give them a chance."

Mrs. Jensen's special interest lies in promotion of birth control, and she is president of the birth control committee of Scandinavia.

"If women want world peace, let them advocate international birth control as a way of preventing wars of the future," she said.

When countries get overpopulated they have to expand, and when two or more expanding countries bump—bang, goes war, she said.

Laxatives not needed since cow discovery

Most people know that constipation is generally due to nothing but sluggish liver. The liver manufactures a liquid called the bile, which is Nature's own purgative. When not enough bile flows into your bowels, you are constipated.

Yet ordinary physics and laxatives never touch the liver. So scientists have studied to find a natural, non-irritating liver aid.

Now the cow has given them what is needed. They have taken natural bile from the livers of healthy cattle. It quickly starts your own liver working right, banishing constipation.

This natural bile is now put up in convenient little tablets called Kompo and Bile Salts Tablets, and if you want to end constipation and quit taking habit-forming physics and laxatives, get Kompo Tablets from your druggist today. Results guaranteed, or every cent back.

SPECIAL FREE OFFER: Clip out this offer and mail it to us with your name and address and a small trial package of Kompo Tablets will be sent you absolutely FREE. Kompo Company, Dept. R26, Atlanta, Georgia.

In the common experience of men who are our customers, saving does not become any easier as time goes on. As income mounts, expenses are apt to mount too. Human judgment is finite, and it ought always to be charitable. —William Winter.

Breadwinners

The silly notion that in hard times married women ought to be deprived of their jobs so that fathers of families could get work is a long time dying. Perhaps a recent study of the situation, printed in Harper's Magazine, will help to kill it.

This article quotes a survey made in a New England factory to see whether displacing the married women employes would be socially desirable. It was found that 40 per cent of the married women were the sole breadwinners in their families. Their husbands were out of work, or sick, or dead; their earnings were all their families had to live on.

Similarly, a study of 34,000 Pennsylvania families in which married women had full or part-time jobs showed that 28 per cent depended on the woman for support. And in fully 50 per cent of the 34,000 families the wife's salary was an indispensable part of the family income.

The married woman usually works because she must and not because she likes to. It's time we recognized the fact.

THERE is patently something wrong with a race of men who can overcome the hazards of land, sky, sea and under water, who will turn out by the tens of thousands to see a prize fight, a baseball game or a football tilt, who can, in the shortest length of time on record build the world's greatest nation—but who either cannot or will not stop kidnaping and kindred racketeering.

Make the comparison from business, finance, the professions—any way you like—and the American record will stand up against all comers.

That is, until you get to law enforcement.

Then compared even with the onetime "terrible Turk" we look like a bunch of bush leaguers.

Compared with Great Britain, our mother country, we make a sorry, sorry spectacle, indeed.

BUT there is hope for us. In the mixture of American blood there is that infinite something that makes us go "whole hog or none."

We do nothing by halves. We are extremists. We "shoot the works."

That's the hope for us.

For some reason or another we have fallen into a coma in the matter of making sensible laws—and then enforcing them.

We're like the negro's mule that was always running into the fence—we're not blind; we just don't give a darn.

But sooner or later the pendulum will swing back to the other end of its arc and we'll again become thoroughly and entirely intolerant of every infraction of the statutes.

It'll be remarkable if we don't go back to burning witches at the stake and putting men in stocks for kissing their wives on Sunday.

NEED a man—or ten men—to tackle a world flight in six days? We can furnish him or them. Need the world's oil business placed under American domination? Need a greater part of the world's wealth piled up in one new country? Need new schools, fine churches, the best scale of living known?

America can and does supply all these things.

But if you need a man punished for crime the chances are there's nobody who can make it stick.

If he's caught he probably won't be convicted—and if he's convicted he can't be kept behind the bars.

We can do everything, it seems, but safeguard ourselves, our families and our friends from the onslaughts of the lawless.

Gentlemen of the dubious talents of Mr. Charles Floyd, of Oklahoma, can make monkeys out of the 90 million or so of our law-abiding folks—and frequently do.

It's a funny world, in many respects, that we're living in and it's going to be funnier still when the public attitude undergoes a thorough change.

ON May 16 The Plainsman reported as follows: "Senator Walter Woodul, of Houston, Sterling leader in the upper house during the previous administration, does not admit he is running for lieutenant-governor but neither does he deny it."

Yesterday's mail brought the following letter from the Senator:

"It is too early to start an active campaign but I am laying my wires and will run for lieutenant-governor next year. I believe being early and doing some advance organizing will make the race easier."

Then there were several other paragraphs about his plans.

Does the Woodul announcement mean for sure that Lieutenant-Governor Edgar Witt has finally cast the die, crossed the river and will run for governor next summer?

Maybe not, but probably so.

Those close to the Wacoan know he's had an extreme case of "ants" as far as running for governor is concerned.

SENATOR TOM CONNALLY, who hasn't entirely thrown in with the Roosevelt administration without some backing against the traces, has also cast a die of his own.

He has stated publicly (and more power to any politician who states any stand publicly) that he will vote against beer and repeal on August 26th.

That means he's more than likely to have stiff wet competition when he runs again — probably from Joseph Weldon Bailey, Jr., who dropped a hint in Lubbock recently that "Tom might be slipping some."

Couple that with Bailey's previous statement that he would not run for Congress again against Sumners of Dallas, and there's room for plenty of speculation.

Dollar Based On Price Level Is Pres. Roosevelt's Idea; Value In Gold Would Rise Or Fall According To Market

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
Evening Journal Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Perhaps we're going to have a "rubber dollar" and perhaps not.

That's what Roosevelt has been talking about lately, beginning with his assertion that the United States sought "the kind of dollar which a generation hence will have the same purchasing and debt-paying power as the dollar value we hope to attain in the near future."

Butcher

Such a dollar—often called a "commodity dollar" or "compensatory dollar"—might not buy the same amount of bread or shoes in 1945 as in 1935, but it would have the same purchasing power when applied to a general list of commodities.

Some economists and currency experts here think the "rubber dollar" is just somthing Roosevelt happens to be dwelling on at the moment—that we probably will never have one. They think it's highly impractical unless other countries become willing to operate on the same basis, which is doubtful.

Professor Is Advisor

Nevertheless, the man to whom Roosevelt is supposed to have listened most intently of late in his money deliberations is Prof. G. F. Warren of Cornell, the foremost present-day advocate of a dollar whose gold value would be based on the prevailing price level.

Professor Warren is considered radical by many economists, but the record shows that Roosevelt's various recent currency moves at home and abroad have closely paralleled the professor's theories. Other of the president's ideas, such as the keeping of all the country's gold in vaults as bullion, to be used only as collateral for currency, have previously been advanced by Warren.

Professor Warren's theory consequently becomes of much current interest. He contends price levels can't be raised except as money's value declines, that prices as a whole may be freed from great fluctuations as a mass due to the world gold supply of changes in demand for it and that you can't materially change relative values of gold and commodities by printing paper money.

Explains Basic Plan

Professor Warren has this to say about the "rubber dollar":

"The compensated dollar is a proposal to establish by law a currency redeemable in gold, but the weight of gold for which the dollar would exchange would vary with the index number of wholesale prices of all commodities; that is, if prices rose one per cent, the weight of gold for which the dollar would exchange would rise one per cent. If prices fell one per cent, the dollar would exchange for one per cent less gold.

"The dollar has to be rubber either as to weight or as to value. It cannot have a fixed value. This proposal would give it a fixed value and a rubber weight. It raises the fundamental question as to whether a medium of exchange should be fixed in weight or fixed in value.

"A scientific money is one with a constant buying power for all commodities rather than a fixed weight of one commodity. Our whole tax and debt structure rests on commodity prices. If this structure is to be kept sound either for the creditor or the debtor, it is commodity prices that need to be kept stable, not the weight of gold for which a dollar will exchange."

With 'Whir' BARRY Under The Capitol Dome

AUSTIN, July 18. (AP)—"It is an ill wind that blows no one good"—James Shaw, Texas state banking commissioner for the past six years, was soon to retire from office to make room for appointment of a uccessor to be designated by an administratin with which he was not in sympathy.

Named Loan Director

He was appointed Texas director of the Home Owners' Loan association with headquarters at Dallas. His tenure as banking commissioner had until September to go, but he found himself in a position of turning back a couple of months to the governor for her choice of a commissioner.

Shaw stepped into the federal appointment from his state office. That's an unusual experience in politics. Usually one who goes out because of his political "leanings" has to look around a bit before he finds another place to land.

It is understood appointment of Shaw to the federal place was without the approval of Governor Miriam A. Ferguson. It is not likely she did anything to keep Shaw from the federal assognment, but at the same time she doubtless would have used her influence to have some political friend rewarded instead of one who always opposed her and her husband, former Governor James E. Ferguson.

Drafted By Moody

Shaw never has been active in politics. He was a country banker at Taylor when Governor Dan Moody brought him to Austin to administer the state banking department. Shaw was Moody's banker. The impression around the capitol is that Moody had much to do with btaining the federal appointment for Shaw.

This revives some gossip that has been going the rounds to the effect former State Senator Tom Love of Dallas may be offered a place in the federal government through influence of his friend, United States Senator William Gibbs McAdoo of California.

Moody also was given credit for getting W. A. Tarver of Corsicana, until recently chairman of the state board of insurance commissioners, assigned to the prohibition enforcement branch of the United States attorney general's department. Tarver always has been an ardent prohibitionist and an unswerving anti-Ferguson man.

Oklahoman had planned to tly to Khabarovsk, Siberia, duled jumping-off place for ns-oceanic jaunt, but bad which had dogged him the way from the Ural to Novosibirsk and causland twice before reachthe latter point, forced him to ide to spend the night in Irkutsk, her than try to go on to Khaovsk.

e was 16 hours and 57 minutes d of the time he and Harold ty took for a like distance when left, for the pair stayed here hours and 13 minutes on their d flight two years ago.

this point he had completed t half of his world journey. tsk is about 890 miles farther The estimated distance from tsk to Khabarvosk is 1,300 miles. Post faced a loss of several dred miles, for Irkutsk is south the direct line between here and abarovsk.

Ivan Roncharoff, chief of the ovosibirsk airport, was talking to Associated Press correspondent Moscow when Post arrived. At time some concern was felt for safety.

Averages Over 100

Post's average speed across the lantic to Berlin was about 150 an hour. From Moscow here was about 138 miles.

At this rate, he declared confidently, "I'll be back in New York s than three full days."

en he arrived in Moscow from igsberg he was four hours, 24 tes ahead of the previous mark, in the same plane.

iving him on was his self-imd schedule because of which he he was not proud of his time Germany to Moscow.

"I hoped to be at Irkutsk by this ," he said. "But I still have got chance to beat our record; and I out to do it."

Soviet mechanics were interested Post's automatic pilot, which of them saw for the first time. They asked about it.

"That is a mechanical mike," he plied, through an interpreter. hen they asked what a "mike" as, he explained.

Robot Disappointing

The robot, he said, had been a isappointment and had caused such ifficulties that he had to steer the lane manually all the way.

The Oklahoman took on 178 gallons of gasoline here, and 12 gallons oil, but he refused to listen to treaties that he snatch a little eep. He rested for a short while, owever, on a couch in the airport ilding.

Miss Fay Gillis, an American atrix who has served as his repentative, greeted Post on his arval, along with Roncharoff and a ator.

he fed him as he lay on the h—fruit and bouillon. They talkbout American aviation and e they knew in New York.

s Gillis gave this account, afalking with Post:

ey landed twice before arrivre, because he lost the way, most missed Novosibirsk be- he was still floundering about dy and rainy weaher when here.

Made Lucky Guess

a lucky guess on his part, which helped him come down at the local airport, saved him, for the fog was pretty bad.

"En route here, he flew at an altitude of 21,000 feet for two hours because of the adverse conditions, and nearly passed out.

"He lost the railway somewhere—even he does not know where—and he decided the only thing to do was to come down.

"He landed on a field beside a road, and he wasn't long there before two peasants came by in a horse-driven cart. He could not understand them and they couldn't understand him, but he finally made them understand that he wanted to go to Novosibirsk.

"Thereupon one said Novosibirsk was 300 kilometers westward, and the other maintained positively that Novosibirsk was 1,400 kilometers east.

"They finally agreed that Novosibirsk was east and not west, but they did not reconcile their difference as to distance.

Learned Directions

"His second landing was near Tartarsk—Wiley has no idea as to the time—and he was vague about that part of the trip, except that he found his proper direction to Novosibirsk.

"If he hadn't been a pretty good judge of distance he would have passed over this place, despite the lights on the field and other preparations we had made for him, because the fog was thick, and close to the ground."

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, July 18. (AP)—Cotton opened firm, 8 to 21 points advance in response to higher cables and on commission house buying. July 11.59; Oct. 11.95; Dec. 12.17; Jan. 12.23; Mar. 12.38; May 12.50.

The opening advance met considerable realizing and there was some selling after the call on private reports of rains in Texas, but offerings were absorbed on slight setbacks and the market soon showed renewed strength. There were evidences of an increased trade demand. December, after selling off from 12.18 to 12.07, advanced to 12.20, making a new high record for the movement, with the general market showing net advances of about 19 to 23 points around 10:40 o'clock.

There were reactions later. Demand tapered off after the early advance while considerable realizing developed and there was probably some selling on further private reports of rain or showers in the western belt.

December sold back to 12.00, or about 20 points from the best, and the market at midday was quiet and steady with that delivery selling at 12.04 and the general list ruling 3 to 9 points net higher.

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, July 18. —(AP)—Cotton today had an active opening. First trades showed gains of 14 points.

Prices eased three points after the start on a little realizing but soon rallied again on large buying orders, October advancing to 11.93 and December to 12.14, or 18 to 19 points above yesterday's close.

Later in the first hour the market was steady and within two points of the top.

Announcement that more than 10,000,000 acres had been marked for abandonment was a stimulating factor.

The market continued to advance near the end of the first hour. October advanced to 11.98, duplicating its previous high for the season, while December rose to 12.18, a new high one point above the previous top. At these levels, both months showed gains of 23 points over yesterday's close. Months beyond December also made new season highs.

Later in the morning the market eased rather sharply on liquidation due to reactions in grains and stocks, and on reports of rains in Texas. October declined to 11.78 and December to 11.99, down 19 to 20 points from the highs.

Towards mid-session the market rallied again in sympathy with stocks and wheat, October recovering to 11.88 and December to 12.08, up 9 to 10 points from the lows and 13 points above yesterday's close.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, July 18. (AP)—Financial markets roared up the ascending price trail today but were forced to hurdle huge profit-taking barriers as they reached the highest levels for the past two years or more.

Stock trading, during the early hours, was at about the fastest pace of the recent upswing and blocks of 5,000 to 30,000 shares of several of the favorites changed hands shortly after the opening. Gains of 1 to 4 or more points, however ,were shaded substantially around noon and some of the alcohols even showed losses of 8 points before supporting orders enabled them to climb back.

With many of the more buoyant stocks turning irregular, the rails were taken up for advances of 1 to 3 or more. Cotton was firm, but wheat, corn and rye were a trifle nervous after initial gains of 2 or more cents a bushel. Barley soared 17 cents a bushel at one time. The dollar dropped to a new low in foreign exchange markets. Bonds were fairly firm.

The best advances in rail shares were registered by Union Pacific Delaware & Hudson, Southern Pacific, Lackawanna and N. Y. Central. Canada Dry, Standard Brands and Crown Cork were heavily traded for gains of 1 to as much as 5. Du Pont, U. S. Steel, American Telephone, Allied Chemical, Libbey-Owens, Hershey, Alaska Juneau, McIntyre Porcupine, Dome, Western Union and U. S. Rubber were up 1 to 2 or more. There were a number of declines of fractions to around a point.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, July 18 (AP) — A big shock to friends of higher prices came today from reprots that Argentina was offering to ship wheat to New York and undersell domestic grain.

Despite assertions that the United States government would likely intervene with measures to prevent wheat imports into this country, prices turned sharply downward from new record high quotations including sales of wheat as high as $1.28 1-8 a bushel. Throughout the rest of the day wheat and other grains fluctuated wildly, with lowest levels reached in the late dealings.

Sensational gyrations of the barley market over a range of 19 cents were associated in some quarters with prohibition repeal elections in Alabama and Arkansas, but appeared more nearly related to an accumulation of buying orders for barley in the hands of a single broker and to a simultaneous temporary dearth of offerings.

Wheat closed nervous, 3-4@1 1-2 cents under yesterday's finish, corn 1 1-4@2 1-4 down, oats 1-4@7-8 off, rye and barley showing gains respectively of 1 1-2@2 3-8 and 7 3-8 @7 3-4 cents, and provisions unchanged to 15 cents higher.

Heat And Chinch Bugs Damage Midwest Corn

In some places 100-degree heat has been causing heavy damage to corn that was planted late, but in other areas there is also the problem of chinch bugs. Here in the foreground is shown a sample of how young corn has wilted and is dying near Lamoni, Ia., as a result of chinch bug attacks. Oil is poured between rows of corn in attempts to discourage the bugs. (Associated Press Photo)

Final approval of the sale of the Harvest Queen Mill and Elevator company property at Plainview and other towns to Stanard-Tilton company, Dallas, has not been made by the receiver, H. G. Stinnett, jr., according to George Roach, local grain man.

At Abilene last week tentative approval of a bid that approximated the court's estimate was given. No figures were announced.

FLIERS START FINAL LEG

VICTIMS OF CRACKUP WILL BE RETURNED TO LITHUANIA

SOLDIN, Pomerania, Germany, July 18 (AP)—The bodies of Capt. Stephen Darius and Stanley Thomas Girenas of Chicago, who proved in death their right to be classed among the great aviators, were to start on the last leg of their flight from New York to Lithuania today.

The two were killed here yesterday, only 400 miles from their goal, after flying 4,500 miles, in about 38 hours without a stop. Police, investigating the wreckage of the plane, the Lithuanica, said the gasoline tank was empty and the fliers evidently had piloted their ship into the treetops of a woods, mistaking it for a grassy field.

All last night the fliers' bodies were guarded by six Nazi storm troopers standing rigidly at attention. Their bier was covered by a Nazi flag and by garden flowers. Four Lithuanian army officers are to come today to accompany the bodies to Settin and thence, by airplane, to Kaunas, the Lithuanian capital, for burial.

The Lithuanian government has declared a period of national mourning for Darius and Girenas, for whose arrival thousands had waited all Sunday night at Kaunas.

Meanwhile, tabulators continued with the task of checking contracts received from nearly 1,000,000 farmers in which they have offered to destroy approximately 10,500,00 acres of the growing crop which is expected to reduce the output this year by at least 3,500,000 bales.

The semi-final match was to be played this afternoon, beginning at 1:30 o'clock, by W. B. Rushing, No. 1 performer at the college in 1931-32, and G. C. Farr.

Churchgoers Given Free Bus Service

MARION, Ohio, July 18 (AP)—A new service to church goers is being tried out here by an open air church begun this year in Marion's parks by the Marion federation of labor.

It is free bus service to the church-goers. The city's bus lines have agreed to run buses which will pick up the outdoor worshippers in four sections of the city and take them to the services free of charge.

The church was begun by the labor federation, local merchants and city officials for those whose lack of "Sunday clothes" had been keeping them away from church.

OHIO PLAN PUTS JOBLESS ON THREE-ACRE "FARMS"; THEY BUILD OWN HOMES, HAVE FIFTEEN YEARS IN WHICH TO PAY

DAYTON, Ohio, July 18 (AP)—A new experiment in housing now under way here entails a marked transformation in the economic and social life of home-seekers engaged in it.

Salient features of the plan, which already has placed 35 families on a rural tract five miles from Dayton, with crops and garden planted for the summed harvest, are these:

Build Own Homes

The people build their own homes, thereby eliminating a major item in the cost of housing.

Each family is lent funds to cover the cost of land, buildings, seed, livestock, tools and equipment, repaying the principal and interest in small weekly installments spread over a period of years.

The funds used to finance the first homestead unit, as it is called, and to start 35 families on their self-supporting way came from the sale locally of $37,000 in 15-year, 4 1-2 per cent "independence bonds."

Some families already on relief rolls are to be taken off as the result of the development.

Plan Enlargement Sought

The unit committee of the Council of Social Agencies, which is directing the experiment, has applied to the federal public works administration for a loan of $2,500,000 with which to buy 50 farms of about 160 acres each and establish 49 more units within a year, each unit taking care of 35 to 40 families.

Receiving a maximum loan of $1,071, each of the 1,750 or 2,000 families would settle upon a tract of about three acres in a house constructed by its members, work part-time or full-time in factories, tend garden and engage in home crafts and arts.

The homesteader occupies his land under a perpetual lease rather than by deed, a device intended to prevent speculation in land and to prevent withholding of allotted land from use. Taxes are levied upon the unit as a whole and apportioned among the leaseholders according to the value of each piece of land.

Electric Power Available

Electricity is available to run the looms, sewing machines and domestic machinery to eliminate drudgery.

Ralph Borsodi of New York is consulting economist for the project.

Describing it is an experiment to decentralize production, and give domestic machinery a chance to free the worker from evils of the machine age, Borsodi says the plan aims at attaining the "economic independence, security and self-sufficiency" of the early "American home" without "duplicating with false romanticism the clumsy appliances of pioneer days."

Dividing Loan As To Its Uses

Here's how a maximum loan to a family under the Dayton unit homestead plan would be divided:

Items	Loan	Periods: Years
1. Land and community property	$286.42	15
2. Housing materials	246.25	15
3. Well, pump, etc	125.00	15
4. Barn and equipment	140.00	15
5. Farming tools	17.50	3
6. Domestic machines and equipment	85.00	3
7. Livestock	58.50	2
8. Seeds, plants, trees	33.31	1
9. Groceries, feed	79.65	1
TOTAL	$1,071.63

Weekly intsallments on land and buildings, including interest, amortization of principal, taxes and maintenance of community property, $2.12. Installments on a maximum loan the first year are $6.16; second year, $3.74; third year, $3.06; next 12 years, $2.25.

A three-acre "farm" is the unit in the homestead plan being tested near Dayton, Ohio, with 35 families as a starter. The worthy unemployed are placed on farms, where they build their own homes, and repay the necessary loans over a 15-year period. The plan is based on a part-time program of employment in factories or elsewhere, supplemented by home crafts or arts.

BANKING ROUNDS HISTORIC TURN WITH ENACTMENT OF GLASS-STEGALL LAW

(EDITOR'S NOTE:—This is another of a series of stories by staff writers of the Associated Press explaining new laws).

BY NATHAN ROBERTSON

WASHINGTON, July 18. —(AP)—American banking rounds another historic turn with enactment of the branch banking section of the Glass-Stegall law.

Under it, national banks located in states which let their state banks have branches now can establish state-wide branch banking systems.

Argued For Months

Argued for months in congress, the issue involved has been a subject of dispute since early days of the republic.

It reaches to whether a country-wide chain system has more to offer in the public and national good than banking only by independent units.

Some banking authorities believe this new law is the first step toward a national system such as in Canada and England, where there are a few big chains instead of innumerable individual banks.

Indeed, there is talk already of the administration's planning even more absolute legislation toward that end for the congress to meet in January.

Opponents of branch banking have contended it would centralize the nation's banking power and drive individual small bankers out of business.

More Strength Seen

Friends of the proposal argue that it would strengthen the banking system to have small rural banks tied up to big city institutions, benefitting from their broader experience, greater resources and wider interests.

Branch banking beyond state lines is not permitted, however, in the Glass-Stegall law. A bank in San Francisco could establish branches in Los Angeles, Sacramento or San Diego but not in Portland, Oregon, or Denver, Colorado. What effect such branch banking will have on the average depositor or borrower is a matter of dispute.

Some hold it will be more difficult to obtain credit, because the businessman will deal with a branch manager responsible to a big out of town bank instead of with a local banker who knows his reputation and his ability.

Friends of branch banking say it will provide greater safety for the depositor.

Depends On Crop

They contend that at present, a bank in the wheat area is entirely dependent upon that crop and if that fails the bank is in trouble.

Under branch banking, they say, that bank will be supported temporarily by associates in other sections where wheat is not a dominant business, and then be ready to return the aid at some other time.

National banks will be permitted to have branches in about a dozen states. Which these will be is a matter of interpreting the law and must be finally determined by the comptroller of the currency.

It is now believed, however, that Arizona, California, Delaware, Maryland, North Carolina, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Vermont, Virginia, Oregon and Washington will be included.

Other states may change their laws later to qualify.

GARNER GIVEN LITTLE REST

AROUND 500 LETTERS AND MANY WIRES RECEIVED DAILY

UVALDE, July 18 (AP)—The vice president of the United States, John N. Garner, is said to be finding it difficult to obtain much rest during his vacation. His mail consists of about 500 letters daily; he receives dozens of telegrams each day at his home, 333 Park street.

Although he talks freely with friends, Mr. Garner is giving no interviews to the press these days.

Peter Walcott, one of Mr. Garner's best friends, Jake Schwartz, merchant, and Ross Brumfield, garage man, are among those who have received letters soliciting their influence in securing appointments through Mr. Garner.

Walcott says Mr. Garner has changed.

"I can't get an argument out of him these days," he says. "When he was speaker of the house, he was ready to take me on, but now that he is over in the senate he's different. He's peaceful."

No one in Uvalde has received a government job, but the federal building is getting a new roof.

The letters and telegrams which keep pouring in make it difficult for Mrs. Garner to obtain much rest or enjoy her vacation back home. She has had to hire a stenographer to help her.

Increase In Cotton Acreage Is Shown

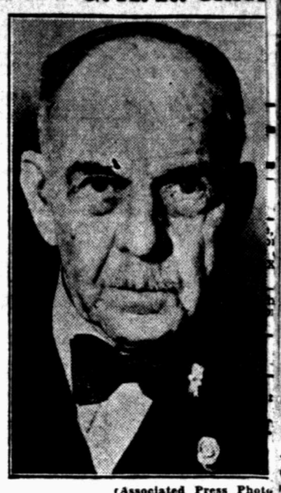

Cotton acreage on 100 farms, taken at random from all sections of Lubbock county, showed an increase of 28 per cent this year over last, according to O. G. Tumlinson, county agent.

Yesterday Mr. Tumlinson received a message from H. H. Williamson, state agent, asking for this information. He instructed O. E. O'neal to make the tabulation and the latter selected three contracts from each of the communities.

Tabulations were: acreage in 1933, 14,632; acreage in 1932 on same farms, 11,430; net gain, 3,202 acres.

Only four or five contracts showed decrease in acreage; the remainder showing gains of as high as 50 to 75 per cent.

WORK REQUISITE OF REWARD, FDR ADVISES WORKERS

WASHINGTON, July 18 (AP) — President Roosevelt hopes for a future America in which rewards may be achieved "only through honest work."

Consequently, he last night told the nearly 300,000 hard-workers in 1,400 conservation corps camps through the country that they are "a visible token of encouragement, the "vanguard" of the new spirit.

"You are evidence," he said, "that we are seeking to get away as fast as we possibly can from soup kitchens and free rations—because the government is paying you wages and maintaining you for actual work—work which is needed now and for the future and will bring a definite financial return to the people of the nation."

Too long, he said, have many people "sought out success as an opportunity to gain money with the least possible work." Others should look at the civilian conservation corps, he remarked, and "cast away self-destroying, nation-destroying efforts to get something for nothing."

PASSION PLAY WILL BE PRESENTED IN LUBBOCK ON AUGUST 4, IN ENGLISH

Schedule of presentation of the Passion play, in English, at Texas Technological college athletic field Friday night, August 4, under auspices of the Avalanche-Journal newspapers, was announced Monday.

Little changed in text from the play which was offered in Europe before discovery of America, the religious drama will be offered in English here.

In addition to the members of the Passion Play company, about 225 Lubbock persons will take part. Arrangements are being made to place the tickets on sale.

The Passion Play has been described as the forerunner of a revival of the drama. The crusades were not older. In the period when the Passion Play began the people were cramped between the vast power of ecclesiastical autocracy and the nobility, sunk in ignorance hardly understandable today.

They had few pleasures, few forms of entertainment. The people had nothing. The nobleman, walled within his castle, alone enjoyed the meager luxuries of the day, and because they had so little and their masters comparatively so much, it was the people who turned eagerly to such spectacles as the Passion Play. In Europe, in the middle ages, there was no entertainment to compare with it. With the purest form of the Passion Play in its day of full glory, history and legend credited it with being the outstanding example of medieval magnificence.

In the present production, no expense has been spared to make it the most beautiful and elaborate spectacle ever presented to an American audience. Hundreds of costumes are carried by the company, for the large extra list of people used. Among the ensemble of this spectacle there will be found young ladies as angels, while others appear as water carriers, with their jugs and gourds, many as virgins, and followers of the Master. A great nondescript crowd of men and women and children are dressed in the period of the time. The players convey the atmosphere of this sacred drama to the hearts of both portrayer and the hearer.

UNCOVERS BEGGING RACKET

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—Authorities warring on organized begging here uncovered an organization which hired men, women and children to beg at a daily wage plus a percentage of the "take." The ring's own detective force watched the hired beggars.
