COVERS BURKBURNETT LIKE A MARCH SANDSTORM

BURKBURNETT, WICHITA COUNTY, TEXAS, TUESDAY, APRIL 10, 1962

NUMBER 31

Among those I envy are people who seem to make big money effortlessly.

You expect your intimates to come to your rescue, when ailing or in trouble, but your unrecognized friends are the first to come to your help, usually.

JIM HARWELL

Jim Harwell Resigns as Mgr. of Burk C of C

Jim Harwell, manager of the Chamber of Commerce here for the past two years, has resigned, effective April 10th.

Harwell came here from Grand Saline, Texas. He will go to Paris, Texas, to become manager of the Lamar County Chamber of Commerce.

Col. Wm. M. Hendrix New Personnel Director at SAFB

Col. William M. Hendrix assumed duties as personnel officer at Sheppard Air Force Base the last of July 1961.

He came to Sheppard AFB from London, England, where he served as chief of the United States Air Force-Royal Air Force Exchange Program and air attaché officer. He was in England for three years.

Colonel Hendrix entered military service from his hometown of Cookeville, Tennessee, in 1937. During World War II, he flew B-24s in Italy, serving in the European Theater of Operations for 14 months.

A command pilot, Colonel Hendrix holds, among his other decorations the Silver Star, Air Medal and Purple Heart.

In addition to his recent assignment in England and his service in Europe during the war, Colonel Hendrix has also served overseas in Japan for three years.

Most of his assignments have been in personnel. He served a tour as chief of personnel for Flying Training Air Force in Waco. Other stateside bases where he has been assigned since the war have been at March AFB, Calif.; Wright-Patterson AFB, Ohio; and Mather AFB, Calif.

While in military service he has graduated from the Command and Staff School and was in the second command class at Ft. Leavenworth in 1946. The colonel also has attended Duke University.

Colonel Hendrix and his wife, Rosemary, and their two children, Linda, 13; and William II, 11, reside at 227 Polaris St., in Capehart Housing at Sheppard.

Colonel Hendrix has been made an honorary director of the Burk Burnett Chamber of Commerce to represent SAFB.

Mrs. Joan Yeko Wins Ad-Rime $10.00 Award

Mrs. Joan Yeko, housewife residing at 1214 Bishop Road, followed all the contest rules last week and came up with the winning jingle. She had several dozen good entries against her.

Hidden Slogan: Local merchants' experience can benefit you.

Ad-Rime: Ask your dealer for advice.

Winning jingle: Helpful, enlightening, and precise!

Mrs. Alice Burns turned in the following good rhymes:

It's gladly given free of price.

On service, or repair of any device.

Help make Burk a shoppers' paradise.

FFA NEWS

Look out rats and mice! The Burk Burnett FFA Chapter of Burk Burnett High School has just launched their Vo-Ag Rat and Mice control program.

Vo-Ag, the bait being used by the Chapter was developed by Harry Luck a Wisconsin dairy farmer. Mr. Luck learned that any rat bait will kill rats if you can get them to eat the bait.

Most methods of baiting give no credit to the rat for being smart. Mr. Luck discovered from his experiments that in self preservation and food selection rats are smarter than humans. He devised a bait that out-smarts the rat.

The Burk Burnett FFA Chapter is selling Vo-Ag Rat Bait as a fund raising project. The bait is packed in 4-oz. cellophane bags. There are four of these little bags in a one pound sack. Rats are thieves by nature so they "steal" the little bags and take them to their dens.

The whole rat colony is destroyed. The cellophane bags keep the bait fresh also. This allows continuous control for months. Other bait put in open bait pans becomes rancid and stale. No messy bait pans are needed with Vo-Ag Bait. The bait contains a mixture that attracts the rats and mice.

FFA Chapters all over the nation sell Vo-Ag Bait. The Burk Burnett Chapter has been trained to apply the bait. If you would like an FFA member to come to your home or farm and put out Vo-Ag Bait, call the Chapter advisor, B. H. Farris at 569-3131 during school hours and 569-3240 at night.

It should be noted that Vo-Ag Bait is 100% guaranteed. Also it is harmless to pets and children if properly put out. The Burk Burnett FFA Chapter needs your support on this project. Call them and you will be more than pleased.

BURKBURNETT RIDING CLUB

A playday will be held at 1:00 p. m. on Sunday afternoon April 15th, 1962 at the Smith Arena, 7 miles northwest of Burk Burnett.

Competition will be for ribbons with a 25c entry fee for each event entered by members of the National Association of Sheriffs Posse and Riding Clubs. Non-members may compete upon payment of the entry fee but will not be eligible to receive ribbons. Events to be run are Keyhole Race, Ring Race, Barrel Race, Baton Race Pole Bending, Potato Race, Flag Race and Wagon Race.

There is no admission charge and the public is invited, free, to watch these fine sportmanship games for horse lovers young and old.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Henson of Burk Burnett and Mr. J. E. Griffin of Cookietown, Oklahoma, attended funeral services in Dallas Saturday for Mrs. Dora Houser. Mrs. Houser was a sister of Mrs. Henson and Mr. Griffin.

We do not want to go to the moon. Why do we hunt for new problems when we have solved so very few of our problems right here on earth?

Nix, Mitchell and Veach Returned to School Board

Three incumbents were reelected to the school board in last Saturday's balloting.

Nine candidates were on the ballot. The winners were Weldon Nix with 351 votes; J. L. Mitchell polling 237 for second high and Hugh Veach retaining his position with 208 votes.

A total of 543 votes were cast in the election, which was 'way below expected turn-out.

Ministerial Alliance To Sponsor Good Friday Service

The Ministerial Alliance of Burk Burnett will sponsor a special Good Friday Service on April 20 at 7:30 p. m. The service will be held in First Methodist Church with the combined choirs of the participating churches under the direction of Mr. Roy Harris, minister of Music and Education at First Baptist Church furnishing the special music. Mr. P. K. Wiley will lead the congregational hymns. The service will be based on the seven last sayings of Jesus that were uttered from the cross. The ministers from the churches of our city will give a short interpretation of each saying.

The Burk Burnett Ministerial Alliance extends a cordial invitation to everyone in Burk Burnett and surrounding area to come and be a part of this inspiring service. A nursery will be provided at First Methodist Church.

Perhaps the longest quarter hours are those spent waiting for tardy dinner guests.

One of the many Garden Clubs in Burk Burnett is the Burk Burnett Garden Club. This club has had a big part in the various projects toward beautifying the city, and has recently won the District 2 Governor's citation for meritorious service in the field of gardening.

Mrs. Sara Leith Funeral Was Wednesday

Funeral services for Mrs. Sara Elizabeth Leith, 70, were conducted from the Owens-Brumley Funeral Home chapel in Wichita Falls, Wednesday at 4 p. m.

Mrs. Leith, a long time native of Burk Burnett died Sunday in Jack County Hospital. She was born August 6, 1891 at Sandoval, Illinois, and married John B. Leith on March 10, 1909 in Salem, Illinois.

She had resided in Burk Burnett for 42 years and was active in civic and church work.

Officiating the funeral service was Rev. Kenneth Bradshaw, pastor of the Central Baptist Church of Burk Burnett.

Mrs. Gad Garland Hostess March 26th Modern Study Club

The Modern Study Club held its March 26th meeting in the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Gad Garland.

The president called the meeting to order. We read the club collect. Roll call was answered with household hints. Many useful hints were given. The minutes were then read. The financial report was made.

We then had the modeling and judging of the dresses made for the Vogue Sewing contest. Dixie Dillard, Francis Smith and Hellen Reasoner entered. Hellen Reasoner won the contest. Mrs. Archie Faulks and Mrs. Bill Hutchison were the contest judges. All the dresses were beautiful. Dixie Dillard made a white dress and jacket of linen. Francis Smith's creation was a green two piece silk and dacron. Hellen Reasoner had a two piece shocking pink wool.

The club has a petition for better movies on Saturday afternoon to be sent to the Palace Theatre.

Our Rummage Sale will be held Sat., April 7th at the Culligan Building behind Boyd's.

We had a discussion about the Miss Burk Burnett Pageant. The meeting was adjourned.

Delicious refreshments were served to 15 attending members and two guests, Evelyn Maxwell and Kay Henson.

Kay Henson won the door prize.

Mission Circle Met Thurs., April 5 With Mrs. Myrtle Steine

The Mission Circle met in the home of Mrs. Myrtle Steine, 303 W. 5th street, with Mrs. Bernice Johnson as co-hostess.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Johnson. After a song, a wonderful prayer was led by Mrs. Ruthie Lee Ayers. An inspiring lesson was brought by Mrs. Alberta Reed, entitled Following Jesus Methods in Soul Winning, Mrs. Ruthie Ayers closed the meeting.

Lovely refreshments were served to the following, Mesdames Betty Freeman, Myrtle Steine, Ruthie Ayers, Edith Ayers, Alberta Reed, Florence Ayers, and the hostess, Bernice Johnson, and special guests, Mrs. Evra Mae Anzley, Francis White of Los Angeles, Calif.

The door prize was won by Florence Ayers. Next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Juanita Broadnax.

Treat Water With Bluestone

When water in stock troughs, reservoirs or ponds is exposed to sunlight, it may become covered with algae, commonly called green scum or slime. One way to remove the algae is to treat the water with copper sulfate (bluestone), says B. T. Haws, county agent.

Care must be taken when using bluestone, because too much is injurious to livestock, humans and fish, explains the county agent. Safe dosage is 8 pounds of bluestone per million gallons of water, 1 ounce per 8,000 gallons, or 1 level teaspoon per 1,500 gallons of water. Livestock or humans should not drink water receiving more than the above dosage.

If a pond containing fish is treated, only one-fourth to one-third of the pond should be treated per application. Then wait several days before treating the next section, advises Haws. This procedure enables fish to move away from the treated area.

Grace Lutheran Women's League April 3rd

Members of Grace Lutheran Women's Missionary League met in the Parish Hall on April 3rd for their monthly meeting.

They joined in singing the hymn "Nearer My God to Thee" and were led in an opening prayer by the president, Mrs. C. Koenig.

During the business meeting reports were discussed for a bake sale to be held the first Saturday in May. Announcement was made of an all day workshop for League members to be held on April 10th, at which Mrs. Otten, pastor of Grace Church will be guest speaker.

Mrs. H. Mills requested permission to improve the church's nursery room.

Mrs. D. Roark gave an inspiring message entitled "Christian Love Brings a Life of Worship." Prayers were Mrs. C. Koenig.

Refreshments to Mesdames V. Mills, T. Mills, G. Koenig and son, P. Schroeder, L. O. Leifer and children, D. Roark, H. Mills, P. Schroeder, A. Everett, J. Koenig and children, C. Lasley, H. Zwieler and Pastor and Mrs. Koenig.

Newcomers Welcomed to Burk Burnett

The Burk Burnett Chamber of Commerce and the Greeters Service wish to welcome the following newcomers to our city.

Dopson, C. R. Newman, R. W. Baker, W. L. Crowner, Frederic Stewart, Velma Bowman, Kenneth Lindsey, Raymond Jeffers, Jack Jones, Fred Taylor, Jimmy

If you are a newcomer to Burk Burnett and have not been contacted, please call Mrs. Savage, 569-2180, or the Chamber of Commerce Office, 569-3393.

Note of Appreciation

I wish to thank the citizens of Burk Burnett for their loyal support in the recent city council election. I appreciate your confidence and will endeavor, along with my fellow councilmen, to give Burk Burnett citizens the type of city government they so earnestly need and deserve.

JIM FRYE

THE OTHER SIDE

Washington correspondents tell us that this Administration will use all of its formidable resources in attempting to persuade Congress to pass the bill which would provide medical services to everyone drawing social security benefits.

The Administration is entitled to this welfare state idea, but the arguments against it are many and compelling. For instance:

It is based on the principal of compulsion. All concerned would have to pay whether they wanted to or not—and the already high social security tax would rise sharply.

It pays small attention to the vital element of need. While people of wealth can, and do, draw social security payments it would leave out in the cold the millions of elderly people who are not within the social security system, and many of whom are genuinely needy.

Other, and more sound tools, have been provided to deal with the problem of medical aid to the elderly. The Kerr-Mills bill—which establishes a state-federal system of help for the needy, with strong emphasis on local administration where administration belongs—is one. And now, a jointly sponsored plan by the American Medical Association and the Blue Shield organizations, soon to come into effect, will provide the low-income elderly with a wide range of medical services at extremely moderate cost.

Finally—and perhaps most important—if the government is to provide, on a compulsory tax basis, medical services for one age group, why shouldn't it do the same for other groups? The end of this road is clear as crystal—socialized medicine. This has cost Britain and other countries heavily, and has inevitably reduced standards of medical care.

Let us then direct as much attention as possible to the perfection in this great land of our 'of a government of the people, by the people and for the people.' ## WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS" BY C. WILSON HARDER

On several occasions, the nation's independent business and professional people, voting through the National Federation of Independent Business, have asked that labor unions be made subject to the anti-trust laws.

On the big newspapers, the mechanical unions have a strange ruling. Most national advertising in newspapers, such as that done by autos, soap companies, others, have their complete ads set in type in union shops, usually by expensive methods, have plates and electrotypes made in union shops, and then have either plates, or mats to cast from, made in union shops. These are then sent to the newspaper in order to assure the ad will be exactly as desired.

Basically, anti-trust laws prohibit actions that result in restraint of trade which in turn leads to controls of business.

Recently, in Los Angeles, C. W. Harder, the nation's third largest city, there occurred the death of two daily newspapers. It is true that the newspaper situation was somewhat of a monopoly with the Hearst organization having a morning and evening paper, and the vast Chandler interests having the same. Now Hearst has an evening paper, Chandler a morning paper. Only two metropolitan newspapers now serve this big market.

But the fact remains that the closing of the two newspapers was a financial necessity. Theoretically, both should have been operating in the black.

Traditionally, circulation is an indication of a newspaper's health. Over the years there have been many jokes on the theme of the doctor telling a publisher he had poor circulation, with the publisher saying something to the effect that is the trouble with his paper, too.

But these two deceased newspapers, between them had a circulation of over 800,000. Still they could not survive.

The newspaper prints the ad from the plate, or makes a cast of the mat. This, then, should be quite simple.

But it is not that simple.

The union requires that printers be hired to set up a duplicate of the ad as shown on the plate or mat. The work when finished, is never used, but thrown into the "hell box" to be melted down again.

And as printers are among the highest paid of the crafts, it is quite simple to recognize that on a large newspaper, thousands and thousands of dollars of expensive labor is thrown away. In many cases, this "feather-bedding" cost can mean the difference between operating in red or black.

In the Los Angeles situation, at least 2,000 jobs including newsboys disappeared in thin air. So who has gained?

The public has not gained.

Neither has the American principle of a free press gained. A free press does not necessarily have to be killed by government edict. Unions, unrestricted by anti-trust laws, can accomplish the same thing. Congress must face fact a day of reckoning draws nigh.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

HAMPTON, N. H., GAZETTE: "During the past three decades, a one-time obedient servant of the American people, the Federal government, has grown into a giant. This giant is fast becoming the master of its creators and whether we admit it or not, it was created thru our own selfishness, greed, and ignorance. Like the tentacles of a giant octopus, bureaus, departments, agencies and commissions are slowly but surely imprisoning the American people."

Colleges and universities hold more stock in oil companies than in any other American industry. Market value of these investments is in excess of $93 million.

Tax Foundation, Inc., says that the federal government's world-wide real and personal property assets rose to a record $276 billion in fiscal 1960, and Uncle Sam paid a rental charge of $174.3 million in that year.

Reports from London say production of the fabulous Rolls-Royce car may cease. Reason: A heavy slash in the amount of income tax deduction for automobiles allowed British company executives.

ANAHEIM, CALIF., BULLETIN: "Our government based on the Constitution of the United States must be preserved. We are the enemy of every nation in the world, and the Nation most desirable to be conquered since we are in this position. No other form of government can present this way of life nor the opportunities guaranteed by our Constitution."

GRANTS, N. M., BEACON: "The inclusive character of IRS tax collecting operations brought a cynical comment from a taxpayer who was called in to account for some items of his income. 'I don't know who will be our first man on the moon,' he observed ironically, 'but I do know who will be the second. He will be an IRS income tax collector.'"

Have Car Safety Inspected for '62 By April 15th

Less than thirty per cent of the registered vehicles in this area have been safety inspected for 1962, according to Patrolman Harlan Eades, Motor Vehicle Inspection Service of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

With the April 15 deadline, for having the vehicles checked, rapidly approaching, this means there are approximately 37,900 vehicles in Wichita County remaining to be inspected by the 53 approved inspection stations available.

Many motorists are going to find long lines awaiting them as the deadline draws nearer, due to the inspection stations not being able to cope with this large number.

The patrolman urged drivers to have their vehicles inspected as soon as possible to avoid this last minute rush. In addition, he reminded drivers that this time of the year is noted for adverse weather conditions which prevent the inspection stations from checking the vehicles.

"Passenger cars are inspected for brakes, lights, reflectors, horn and windshield wipers; while commercial vehicles are inspected for the above plus additional items required by law," Patrolman Eades said. "All motorists not displaying a valid 1962 inspection sticker by April 15 will be in violation of state law."

Beef Tarts Quick 'n Hearty Winter Fare

Blustery winter winds increase that yearning for real stick-to-the-ribs beef and liberal helpings of cooked garden vegetables. That adds up to beef stew, acknowledged the favorite main dish of American men. The busy homemaker's challenge is how to make beef stew quickly with eye-catching variations that enhance taste appeal.

Individual beef tarts for a winter meal take less than 1/2 hour to prepare and serve. Made with quality canned beef stew, they are an elegant variation on this menu mainstay. Topped with rich stew gravy and accompanied by a fresh fruit salad of pears, dark grapes and apple slices, it is a meal of solid appetite satisfaction.

Beef Tarts
(makes six servings)

Tart shells:
2 cups unsifted flour 2/3 cup lard
1 teaspoon salt 1/4 cup water

Sift together the flour and salt. Using a pastry blender, cut lard into flour until mixture resembles coarse meal. Sprinkle water over the mixture and blend with a knife until the dough just holds together. Divide dough into 6 portions and roll each ball out on a lightly-floured pastry cloth. Fit circles of dough into 6 tart pans, crimp edges and prick shells liberally to prevent blistering. Bake in 425° F. oven for 12 to 15 minutes, or until lightly browned.

Beef filling: Heat 2 cans of Armour Star Beef Stew in a covered sauce pan. Drain off gravy into a sauce boat to serve separately. Fill the baked tart shells with the meat and vegetables.

The RESPECTED WORD

The bible is a book translated into every known language. It is the word that men have died for, in order that it may be available to all men. It is the textbook for God's people.

The bible, itself, is not worshipped, but is respected, for it is the story of God and his relationship to man. It is man's guide for worship and daily living.

Attend church regularly, study, and seek God's will in your life.

"I wait for the Lord, my soul doth wait, and in his word do I hope."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Sharon Ann Boyle Is Member of NTSU Concert Band

Sharon Ann Boyle of Burk-burnett is a member of the North Texas State University Concert Band, which completed its 15th annual spring tour
March 31.

The 87-piece band, directed by Maurice McAdow of the NTSU School of Music, appeared in 11 cities in seven days.

The group played concerts in six Texas cities—Burnet, Lampasas, Palestine, White Oak, Perryton and Vernon; two Arkansas cities — Texarkana and Fort Smith; and for Beaver, Sapula and Blackwell, Oklahoma.

The tour program featured several marches, new compositions for concert band and a number of semi-classical works.

Also featured on the program were a cornet trio, a clarinet solo and the entire flute section of the band.

Miss Boyle, a freshman music education major, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson E.
Boyle, 700 Meadow Drive, Burk-burnett.

Placing first in Trombone Quartet in the University Interscholastic League Saturday, March 17th at Midwestern University are Kenneth Siber, Eddie Gellner, Sam Gilbow and Charles Olson.

Dairy Cattle Need Salt in Their Food

Dairy cattle, like humans, need salt in their food. In fact,
they can develop a salt deficiency if they do not get enough in their ration, says B.
T. Haws, county agent.

Continuous use of a salt deficient dairy ration will cause loss of body weight, failure of appetite, decline in milk production and will eventually result in death of the animal.

Some cows will consume more salt than others, points out Haws. A cow producing fifty pounds of milk per day will need about two and one-fourth ounces of salt per day. This would require her to eat 14 pounds of a grain ration containing one percent salt to get her daily salt requirements.

Research shows that more salt is consumed when it is fed in a loose form, but adequate amounts will be eaten when it is provided in block form, he says.

A good rule of thumb for figuring salt for the dairy cow is 3/4-ounce for body maintenance and 1/4-ounce per gallon of milk produced.

MISCAST

"No man is as well known as he thinks he is," once said Enrico Caruso, the world-famed tenor. "While motoring in New York State," continued the great singer, "the automobile broke down and I sought refuge in a farmhouse while the car was being repaired. I became friendly with the farmer, who asked me my name and I told him it was Caruso.

"The farmer leaped to his feet and seized me by the hand.
"Did I think I would see a man like you in this here humble kitchen, sir," he exclaimed. "Caruso. The great traveler, Robinson Caruso."

Temporary Pastures

Need more forage for your milk or beef herd. You might do well to consider supplying this with summer temporary pastures.

Temporary pastures may be planted anytime after danger of frost is past, Haws says. He suggests planting in rows for mowing or grazing. For hay, the pastures may be broadcast or drilled. Crop should be close topped at time of planting and topped each time it is grazed down or cut. I would suggest a soil test to determine amounts of fertilizer.

As to what to plant, Haws suggests sudan, sudan-sorghum hybrids.

BIG HEART

A minister says that when a man is in love his heart swells and often moves him unusual acts of generosity. To illustrate he tells about the day he performed the marriage of a shy young farmer and a pretty country girl. When the ceremony was over, the farmer
drew four bright silver quarters from his pocket. Extending them toward the minister in his open palm, he said feelingly,
"There you are, sir. Just help yourself until you're satisfied."

A career woman will leave half of a $6 filet mignon on her plate, if a male is picking up the tab, and live for the rest of the week on sodas and thin cheese sandwiches with mustard.

Family FINANCIAL PROTECTION

Policyholder Questions Answered by the Institute of Life Insurance

Q. Can I do anything about having myself named beneficiary of a life insurance policy without possibility of having it changed? I am making a college loan to a young friend, which I am sure he will pay back after he finishes, but I would like repayment guaranteed if he dies. My concern is that the policy might later be made payable to some one else or even lapse without my knowledge.

A. Yes. This is routine. The buyer of a policy is asked if he wishes to retain the right to change a beneficiary or not. If the policyholder does not retain this right, he cannot change the beneficiary without the permission of that beneficiary and you,
the beneficiary, would be notified of any lapse.

Q. If I assign my policy as security for an educational loan for my daughter, do I have to notify the insurance company?

A. Yes, you must notify the company to have any policy assignment effective. The life insurance company has to make payment of proceeds in case of death precisely as stipulated in the contract and, unless the change of beneficiary is designated in their official records, they would not be able to make payment under the new plan to the institution or person loaning you the money. Incidentally, you might consider using a policy loan for this purpose. A great many parents do so each year. This gives a relatively low-interest loan, with no fixed repayment plan required, or a plan suited to your own wishes. This could only be done, of course, if your policy cash values are sufficiently large to cover the amount of loan needed. If so, however, you would have a sound loan plan right in your policy. Once borrowed, the amount of the loan would be a charge against your "estate."

The value of this aid to educational costs has been demonstrated by one eminent business man who keeps, framed on his office wall by his desk, a life insurance policy, the loan on which put him through college. He credited his career to that aid.

A practical project for the handyman whose wife could use a compact wall rack for drying clothes, hanging towels or use in a closet, involves only an evening's attention.

The clothes rack utilizes 1-inch plywood and 1/4-inch dowels, and can be constructed to fit space available. Built in inverted pyramid fashion, the compact rack is 2 inches wide at bottom, 14 inches wide at the top, and 20 inches in over-all height. Suggested width is 30 inches, but can vary. Length of the dowels is determined by the width selected.

A compact wall rack for drying clothes, hanging towels or use in a closet.

inches away from either end. Three other dowels are similarly inserted at 4-inch intervals. Once the dowels have joined the sides, nail a piece of plywood 20 inches by 30 inches to the back of the side pieces, and another section 14x30 over the top.

If placed in a laundry room, this top serves as a handy shelf for bleaches, detergents and other packaged items which presently may be stored under the sink.

From the mailbox:
Q. Is there a secret to gluing two pieces of wood together? Every time I do, the glue invariably seeps up through the joint and spreads over my work.
A. Most errors in gluing wood can be avoided through moderation: Don't place more than a thin film of glue on the edges, and don't try to squeeze the sap from the wood with clamps. All that is necessary for a good bond is a firm meeting of both surfaces.

Send your do-it-yourself questions to The Thor Research Center, 175 N. State St., Aurora, Ill., and they will be answered in this column or by return mail.

BACK TALK
A motorcycle policeman was about to write up a ticket charging a motorist with speeding, when a woman in the back seat who could restrain herself no longer, began this tirade:
There. Didn't I tell you to watch out. But you kept right on speeding all morning, getting out of line, not blowing your horn, passing stop signs, and everything else. Didn't I tell you you'd get caught? Didn't I? Didn't I?
"Who is this woman?" asked the officer, with pencil poised.
"My wife," said the motorist grimly.
"Drive on, my friend!" exclaimed the officer, pityingly, as he proceeded to tear up the ticket. "Drive on—and may the Lord have mercy on you!"

Boys' Club Volunteers Help Build "Juvenile Decency"

Today, when many people solve problems simply by avoiding them, a progress report by the Boys' Clubs of America offers vivid proof of how responsible adult leadership can help halt juvenile delinquency.

A. L. Cole

In its annual "Juvenile Decency" review, the national youth-guidance organization reveals how 80,000 men and women helped more than 600,000 deserving members of some 600 Boys' Clubs in 400 cities and towns throughout the country. This represents a new peak in the number of Clubs in operation and the number of members being served.

These volunteers, who serve in an almost infinite variety of ways, are vital to the success of the Boys' Clubs movement. Each Boys' Club is staffed by full-time, paid, professional workers. But, the volunteers help by donating time, talent and energy to administration, fundraising, service as Club presidents and board members and to teaching everything from marbles to music. The success of this cooperation has brought the Boys' Clubs of America wide recognition as one of the nation's fastest-growing and most effective youth organizations. Each Club is the product of the city, or town in which it is located. Locally built, locally supported through United Fund, Community Chest and service, civic, fraternal, labor and other groups, the Boys' Clubs are a proven antidote to juvenile delinquency.

National leadership for the organization is provided by former president Herbert Hoover, who for 25 years has very actively served as its board chairman. Mr. Hoover, who says the Boys' Clubs are "after the home, church and school, the greatest character-building institutions in our country today," has gathered more than 100 nationally prominent men to work with him in expanding the organization. Working directly under Mr.
