Breaks Give Slaton Crown Over Wolves

The only team that defeated the Colorado City Wolves this year was Slaton and the Tigers did it again Saturday night as they won over the Wolves 33-21 in a bi-district play-off game in Snyder.

Some 3,500 to 4,000 Colorado City fans were on hand for the contest which was decided much like the first game which was played the first of the season.

The fate of the contest was decided by turnovers and "breaks."

As it turned out, Slaton got more of the breaks in both of the games than did Colorado City.

Both teams took advantage of the breaks and all the scores for both teams came as the result of breaks plus both teams each scored once on long runs.

As in the first game of the season, Slaton Quarterback Ricky Davis was a big deciding factor as the Wolves were unable to contain his option play.

The first play of the game seemed to set the tempo of the contest as Slaton won the toss and chose to receive. On the first play from scrimmage, Davis broke around his right end for 63 yards and scored. Jessie Titus added the extra point and the Tigers led 7-0 with the game only seconds old.

The Wolves had two fumbles and lost two interceptions and had a punt blocked, leading to four of Slaton's touchdowns. In turn, Slaton lost two fumbles and a punt snapped over the head of the Slaton punter set up the Wolves first score.

It seemed like the Wolves had poor field position for most of the game. The second half was much like the second half of the first game between the two teams as the Wolves marched up and down the field in the first half and then couldn't move the ball in the second half.

As the game ended up Slaton had 18 first downs, most of which came in the second half while the Wolves had 14 first downs, only getting three in the second half.

Part of the credit for that belongs to the Slaton punter who twice in the last quarter, put the ball inside the Wolves five yard line, putting the Wolves at a definite disadvantage.

After Slaton scored on their first possession, the Wolves were unable to move the ball and punted and on Slaton's second possession, they also were unable to move the ball but the snap from center to the punter went over the punter's head and the Wolves had the ball deep in Slaton territory.

The Wolves then drove in to score with Gary Hulme going the final yard and then Hulme added the extra point with the first quarter less than half gone, tieing up the contest.

On Slaton's next possession, the Wolves' Andy Swinney jumped on a Slaton fumble at the Tiger 20 and the Wolves went on to score with Quarterback Gene Carter going the final five yards around his left end and again Hulme added the extra point, making the score 14-7 with the first quarter still not over.

On the Wolves next possession, they drove down the field from deep in their own territory and got to the Slaton three yardline but failed to make a first down on fourth and one.

This was midway through the second quarter. However, the Wolves scoring threats were not over for the first half as on the Wolves next possession, Jay Feaster went back to punt on fourth down and then ran some 76 yards for an apparent score but it was called back on a clipping and the Wolves had to punt again.

Ricky Sanchez went in to punt to replace a winded Feaster but his punt was blocked, giving Slaton possession on the Wolves 20. From there, the Tigers drove in to score with Davis going the final five yards on a sweep on fourth down but Hulme came through to block the kick, giving the Wolves a 14-13 lead as the half ended.

In the third quarter, things started out as they did in the first game against Slaton as the Wolves fumbled at their own 37 and Slaton went on in to score with Davis going the final four yards with 8:59 left in the third stanza. Titus kicked the extra point, giving Slaton a 20-14 lead.

However, the Wolves came right back and after a face mask penalty gave the ball to the Wolves on their own 34, Ricky Sanchez bolted around his left end for 66 yards and Hulme added the extra point to give the Wolves the lead again with 7:59 left in the third quarter.

Then Slaton got the ball on their own 26 and drove in to score with Davis going the final yard on fourth down and the try for two points was no good, making the score 26-21 with 2:52 left in the third quarter.

The Wolves had another chance as Gary Hulme grabbed a Slaton fumble at the Slaton 32 but the Wolves were unable to move the ball. That was the last real threat of the game for the Wolves.

Slaton's final score came after a Wolves' pass was intercepted and ran back to Colorado City's 10. From that point, Titus ran around his left end for four yards and the final score of the game as he also added the extra point.

Slaton will now face Kermit in regional competition.

TWENTY-FOUR seniors comprise this year's Colorado City Wolves varsity football team.

Pecan Show Opens Friday

Mitchell County's third annual pecan show will be Friday and Saturday.

Bob Benson, Mitchell County extension agent, noted that the show will be held in the C. C. Thompson Room of City National Bank.

The contest will begin at 9 a.m. Friday and will consist of the regular pecan entries and a baking division.

In the regular pecan division there will be ribbons given for the champion in shell entry, the champion reserve shell pecan entry, the champion native pecan entry, the best of show entry and the reserve best of show entry.

All regular pecan entries will consist of 43 nuts and must have been grown in Mitchell County during 1978. After the show, all entries will become the property of the Mitchell County Pecan Show and donated to charity.

The classes--adult and junior--will comprise the baking division. The junior class is for those ages 9-19. Ribbons will be awarded in each class.

There will also be ribbons given in a pecan centerpiece arrangement division and this will be divided into adult and junior classes.

Benson said that the entries will be judged on Friday afternoon and will be on display after the judging Friday and also Saturday morning.

Tom Goss had the best of show entry in last year's pecan contest with a Comanche variety pecan. Reserve best of show went to Effie Wheeler for her Western Schley pecan.

There is no entry fee for the competition.

Benson noted that if people want to leave their entries early, they may drop them off at either the Chamber of Commerce office or at the county extension agent's office.

Deadline for entries is Friday at 9 a.m.

The event is jointly sponsored by the Colorado City Chamber of Commerce, City National Bank and the Mitchell County program building committee.

Loraine Meets To Ponder Proposals

There will be a town meeting Tuesday evening at 7:30 p.m. in the Senior Citizens Center in the County Agricultural Building in Loraine.

Purpose of the meeting is discussion on the proposed program for the city of Loraine.

There are eight proposals in the presentation made by Rev. Fred Witta at the last city council meeting.

Briefly these are:

--Adopt a mobile home code that is simple.

--Adopt an agency to be a clearing house for all lots that are for sale in Loraine.

--Pursue the opportunity to get a write up in the magazine Modern Maturity as a follow-up to their article on retirement.

--Apply for the community block type grant/discretionary grants through HVO on a joint funding basis.

--Apply for assistance and a loan on Housing for the Elderly and Handicapped over 62.

--Apply for low income housing assistance, low income rentals and 10 one bedroom apartments.

--Special program for aging, Title III-OAA Model Projects on aging for the development of areas on which retirement homes for sale could be bought on the cluster group plan.

--Monies are available to expand the Senior Citizens Services to include transportation, health, home nursing, home repair service and care for the in-home handicapped.

Everyone in the community--whether living in the city limits or beyond--are urged to attend. This is a very important meeting, it was noted.

Two representatives from the West Central Texas Council of Governments will be at the meeting to discuss the proposed program and answer any questions.

Council To Meet Tuesday

The appointment of an acting city manager to replace James Campbell will be the main item on the agenda of a called meeting of the City Council of Colorado City at 7 p.m. Tuesday.

Campbell has announced his resignation from the city manager position to take a similar post in Corsicana. He will be leaving this week.

There will also be discussion of the rates to be established for the hangar ground lease agreements for the jetstrip airport.

Weather Limits Activity At Gins

[illegible] damp weather near the end of the week brought [illegible]ell County's 1978 cotton harvest to a near standstill.

A call Friday afternoon to area gins could find only three of the eight with offices open.

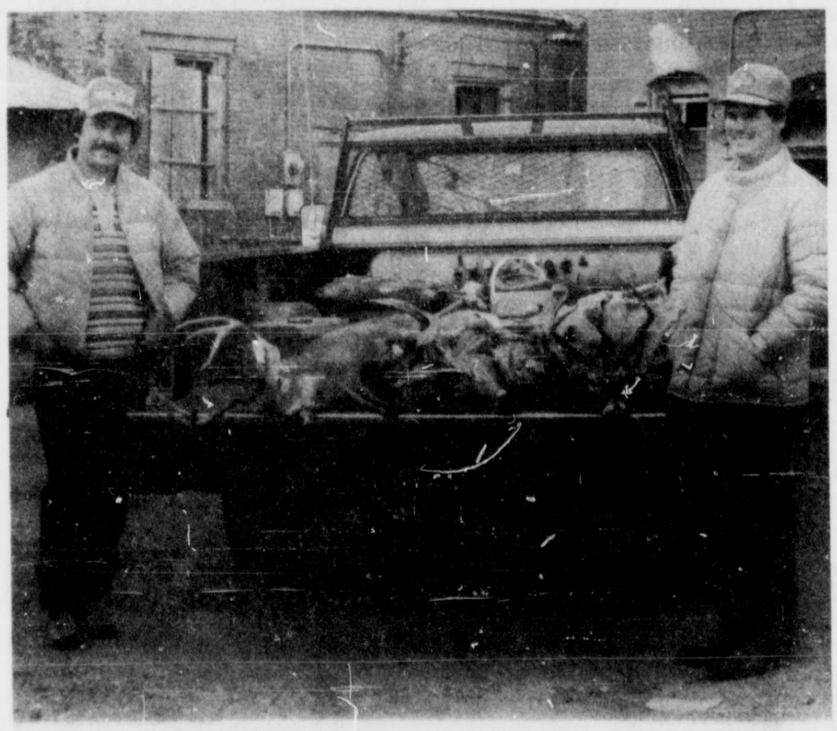

Buford Gin reported 10 bales ginned with none on the yard, the same figure as the previous week while China Grove Gin reported 32 bales ginned and Colorado Gin Company reported 76 bales ginned. Neither had any cotton out on the yard. One gin spokesman said that it was simply too wet to strip cotton.

Concerning the quality of the cotton crop thus far, David Marion of the Farmers Home Administration said that there hadn't been enough of the crop come in yet to tell.

Marion stated that he didn't think that the crop had been affected yet by the damp weather but that the cotton would begin to be affected soon if the weather didn't dry up.

Marion stated that he was staying with an earlier prediction that there would be around 40,000 bales ginned in the county this year.

If Marion is correct, this year's crop would be below the 1977 figure of 71,963, the best cotton crop ever for Mitchell County, but it would compare with the 1976 crop of 43,062 bales and the 1975 crop of 42,038 bales.

JOHNNY BAUMANN (left) and Bobby Nobles bagged three bucks Wednesday and Thursday. One buck was a six pointer, one 10 points and one 15 points. The bucks were killed south of Colorado City.

REHEARSALS are underway in preparation for Spoon River Anthology to be presented in a reader's theatre format by Colorado City Playhouse Dec. 7, 8 & 9. Those making the presentation will be, left to right, Scott Dennis, Ann Nobles, Bob Ford, Marian Craddock, Carl Beery Moore, Bobbie Steakley and Gary Dennis. Narrator for the anthology will be Pete McKinney. The play is directed by Montie Foster.

Chamber Of Commerce By Larry Winders

I like Texas, West Texas and Colorado City. Not necessarily in that order. In fact I like most things about Texas. But there is one thing in Texas that I hate.

The object of my unceasing hatred is a small object with a solid center and many spikes protruding in all directions. Each spike has a needle point when penetrating your skin and is barbed like a fish hook when you try to remove it. This insidious and tortuous by-product of a seriously intentioned type of grass was, in my opinion, spewed from the environs of Hades to become a plague against an unsuspecting human race.

Having at various times come in violent contact with a "grass bur" I have found the experience to be one of total agony. My immediate reaction is always a cry of pain similar to the mating call of a schizophrenic pterodactyl, accompanied by a seizure of ague appearing to be in terminal scope.

Now you must understand that I am a devout coward where pain is concerned, especially when I am undergoing the pain. At this point the pain is horrible, I have just been punctured by a grass burr. But knowing that it will hurt even worse when I try to remove it only compounds the whole tragic experience. Not being overly intelligent I always try to pull the burr out of my skin with my bare fingers.

Thereby accomplishing the transfer of this loathsome object from where ever it was stuck in my body so that it now has two fingers most painfully joined. At this point it becomes necessary to seek assistance from my wife. Besides this request being absolutely humiliating she aggravates the situation with a complete lack of sympathy.

Uttering remarks about "grown men that wail like a child," and "most men would be ashamed to cry like that," she proceeds, without any sign of mercy, to yank the offending sticker from my tender skin. I am never quite sure whether I would have been better off to have worn that grass burr for the rest of my life rather than subject myself to the inhuman and unsympathetic treatment available.

Just let that big fat old German Shepherd dog of hers get one in her foot and it becomes immediately apparent the position of esteem I enjoy in my home. Of course the dog screams as loud and as long as I do but "it hurts her." I like the dog and I'm very fond of my wife but somehow it seems that while I am being treated the gist of the conversation is "hold still it can't hurt that bad;" and while when the dog is being treated it is "Oh, I know that hurts real bad but it has to be done."

Oh well, as I said before about liking Texas and Colorado City, I mean that. But when we get a new City Manager I am going to try to get an ordinance forbidding the grass burr to grow in Colorado City, Texas.

State Comptroller Bob Bullock said gross sales in Texas in the second quarter of 1978 exceeded first quarter sales by $1.8 billion, climbing to $44.2 billion during the three-month period.

"Economic activity in Texas for the first six months of this year has been exceptionally strong," said Bullock.

Farmers Asked To Respond To Survey

Cotton farmers in Mitchell County are urged to respond immediately to a survey regarding the use of arsenic acid as a harvest-aid chemical, points out Bob Benson, county extension agent.

The survey is being conducted by the manufacturer for arsenic acid to obtain opinions from farmers regarding the benefits of the chemical for continued profitable cotton production.

Basis for the survey comes from an Oct. 18 decision by the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) to place all uses of inorganic arsenicals including arsenic acid on the Rebuttable Presumption Against Registration (RPAR) list.

This does not mean automatic removal of arsenic acid from the market, but EPA will now demand more evidence that benefits of this compound outweigh risks before further registration is permitted.

An assessment team has until Dec. 4 to respond with benefit comments concerning the value of arsenic acid to the cotton industry, explained Benson.

The EPA decision to require further evaluation of the benefits versus risks of arsenic acid as a cotton desiccant could have far-raching effects on cotton prdoucers, noted Benson.

More than two million acres of cotton in the Southwest are treated annually with arsenic acid to prepare the crop for stripper harvesting.

Some 30,000-50,000 acres are treated annually in Mitchell County. The chemical desiccates or dries the plant for stripper harvesting so that lint and seed quality can be preserved.

Loss of the chemical could be devastating to a large segment of the cotton industry.

First of all, it would cost producers millions of dollars in terms of lower lint and seed grade due to delayed harvest, Benson said. It would also prevent stalk destruction for insect and disease control and would mean higher ginning costs due to the reduced capacity and increased energy required for additional drying of cotton.

A change in cotton varieties and harvesting methods to circumvent the need for arsenic acid would cost additional millions and would disrupt the industry to the point that many producers would no longer grow cotton.

The months ahead will be critical for the producers of stripper cotton, emphasized Benson.

Therefore, everyone is urged to respond to the survey and to express his opinion on the use of arsenic acid and its benefits to the cotton industry.

Texans Need Booster For Tetanus

Texans need a "booster" in tetanus immunization.

For the last several years, reports reflect a drop in the incidence of tetanus nation-wide, reports a health education specialist.

However, Texas reports don't echo this drop, says Carla Shearer with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

In 1975, 102 cases of tetanus were reported in the United States; 16 of those were in Texas.

The reports for 1976 and 1977 show a nation-wide decrease to 75 and 77 cases respectively.

However, for these same years, Texas reported 12 and 16 cases respectively.

Tetanus, also known as lockjaw, can be fatal. It is caused by spores of bacteria which can enter the body through a wound, the specialist explains.

Because the tetanus germ cannot grow in the presence of air, deep puncture wounds or cuts are favorite growing environments for the germs.

There is no natural immunity to the tetanus toxin, therefore, immunization against this disease is needed regardless of age, she points out.

Tetanus immunization is recommended every 10 years for the general population.

However, persons constantly exposed to the possibility of getting tetanus may need more frequent boosters. Or, an accident may necessitate immediate tetanus immunization, Ms. Shearer suggests.

Children are usually protected against tetanus because they receive the immunization along with immunization for diphtheria and pertusis.

However, adults are often unprotected because they don't recognize tetanus as one immunization also needed by adults, the specialist says.

Personal Property Coverage. What Is it?

This is variously referred to as "personal property," "unscheduled property," "household goods," or simply "contents." It means the possessions in your home, with very specific coverage limits on furs, jewelry, etc. These personal items are insured both in your home and when you travel, with limitations. Your home can be burglarized or your suitcase can be stolen at the airport. In either case, a homeowner or tenants policy protects you and your family.

To determine the true value of personal property and to expedite payment of claims, you should make a complete inventory of personal property, including each item's cost and date of purchase. Color slides or photographs of the rooms and contents will also be helpful. Keep this inventory in a safe place along with other valuable documents. It will help validate your claim.

BEAUTY TIPS

By Janie Farda

You may or may not have ever heard of Cellulite, pronounced (cell-u-leet). However, it is a very common problem of both male and female. It may appear at any age. The tendency to have cellulite is hereditary. Because females have more fatty tissue cellulite is largely a feminine problem.

Cellulite may show itself as soft or solid unattractive masses of flab reminding you of cottage cheese. To determine whether you have cellulite, squeeze the skin together between thumb and fingers of both hands. Particularly around the hips, thighs and stomach.

Cellulite is not regular fat and is caused mainly by tension, fatigue, poor eating habits and insufficient water intake. Poor breathing and lack of exercise can also be contributors. All of which result in slow digestion, constipation and poor blood circulation.

Cellulite is a gell-like substance made up of fat, water and waste trapped in immovable pockets just under the skin. On a cellulite diet the body is purified of excess water and toxic waste without burning fat from unnecessary areas.

To learn more about cellulite, see, Cellulite, Micole Ronsard, $1.95 Bantam paperback.

Progressive exercises are Z stretch, sit with legs in Z position, arms behind the head, touch elbow to the back foot.

Elbow set ups lying flat but leaning up on elbows, hands cupped under buttocks, brings knees up to meet chest, bending legs, hands stay but arms straight.

Floor swim, on stomach, alternate raising one arm and opposite leg up off the floor.

Push and pull, set with legs straight out in front, with hands push toes out then hold and pull back keeping legs straight.

BPW Discusses Early Settlers

The Business Professional Women met in the Agriculture Building Monday night in their regular meeting. Four early settlers gave a round table discussion about what Loraine and this country was like when they came in 1905-1906.

President Doris Henderson's mother, Mrs. Pauline Smiley, member Juanice Butler's mother-in-law, Clara Butler and member Pam Butler's grandmother-in-law, member Blondie Hamilton's mother Nora Ritchey and member Mattie Taylor were the ladies who brought the discussion after president Doris Henderson told a brief history of Loraine.

She told that the railroad had come to Colorado City by 1881 and Loraine with two railroads had a depot in a box car. A few houses had been built at that time. By 1886 Loraine was spelled with one R. In 1892 the Baptist Church was organized. In 1893 a one room school was built.

In 1900 the Methodist Church was organized. In 1902 W. T. White who is considered the founder of Loraine came. In 1906 he bought land from the railroad and divided into town lots and held a sale. In 1907 the Church of Christ was organized, also Luteran, Catholic and Pentocostal Churches that same year.

In 1907 a row of buildings on old Highway 80 were built. In 1908 The First State Bank was organized. In 1906 Dr. Henthorne staged a pageant which was called "The Great Indian Fight and Sham Battle." There was a race track at Loraine where they had horse races. When the Loraine Bank needed some cash, Fred Brown would ride his bicycle to Colorado City to pick up thousands of dollars.

Mrs. Taylor told about the bank and showed very old pictures. Mrs. Smiley told about a two story hotel, the Delles Hotel, which was located where the Loraine domino's parlor is now. She remembered how everybody came to town on Saturdays and that if the girls did not have a date for that night they were pretty sad.

Mrs. Butler told about playing "snap" and other games at parties. Mrs. Richey's family came in three covered wagons. It took her father 21 days to come from Crockett. They lived in a "dug out" and a tent until there were some houses built.

She remembered ice skating out near Mrs. J. E. Price's. The ladies described the early days of Loraine in such a vivid way that the members could invision just how it was.

Gladys Hart, Christene Britton the hostesses had a Thanksgiving motiff for the refreshment table. The following members were present: Adeline Witta, Louise Holland, Louise Taylor, Margaret Brame, Pam Butler, Juanice Butler, Billie Ruth Tartt, Blondie Hamilton, Amanie Hall and Ruby Lee Small, hostesses guests (Christine Britton, Gladys Hart) and Doris Henderson.

ATTENTION HUNTERS AND TRAPPERS

We will be open for business beginning December 1st. Open hours will be 8 A.M. - 6 P.M. Monday through Saturday, and 1 P.M. - 6 P.M. on Sundays. However, you may bring furs down to sell anytime, day or night, by simply calling first.

The fur market looks very good again this year, possibly with higher prices than last year. All bobcats must be tagged this year before they can be sold. The closest tagging station are in Big Spring and Abilene. Come by the fur house to pick up a copy of these regulations.

Last year, we had problems with the hunters' parking area directly in front of Northwestern Fur Company. The yellow zone is provided for hunters selling fur to park in. People of Colorado City, if you do not have business with us, PLEASE do not park in the yellow zone, especially on Saturdays. And hunters, if the yellow zone parking spaces are taken and you have to park down the street somewhere, PLEASE do not carry raw furs or dead animals down the downtown sidewalk. Come on in first. Due to the location of our business, we need everyone's cooperation of this.

We are looking foward to seeing everyone again this year and wish you the best of luck hunting and trapping.

Cotton Yield Cards Mailed To Producers

All cotton producers have been mailed yield cards, according to Don Stewart, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service director.

Cards are also available at the gins, Stewart noted, and gin representatives will verify yield cards, as well as producers.

Regarding cotton loans, form A cotton loans will be available to producers at seven per cent interest for the 1978 crop.

Wheat deficiency payments will be made in mid-December, noted Stewart.

Time To Sample Fields ——

Cold Hinders Field Activity

The cold, wet weather during early November has hindered field activity in Mitchell County.

This first taste of winter has also prevented producers from soil sampling their fields and obtaining fertilizer recommendations from a soil test.

Now is the time to sample fields before other operations such as cotton harvesting and tillage keep you busy, said County Extension Agent Bob Benson.

"Four good reasons now exist that indicate a good crop fertility program for 1979 is important," Benson noted.

"First, our rainfall picture is more encouraging than last fall's," said Benson.

Comparing this September, October and November's rainfall against the long-term average and the rainfall received last year, suggests that a better soil profile moisture should exist. During the September, October and November period, enough rain has been received to help fill the soil profile for next year's crop.

"Secondly, due to the soil moisture prospect during 1977 many of our dryland producers did not fertilize," he noted. "The picture appears more favorable this year. If you are intending to fertilize, it makes sense to first determine what plant nutrients are available and what is needed.

"Third, nitrogen is one of the essential elements required throughout the Rolling Plains. A producer never knows what to expect with soil nitrogen," Benson stated. "He can have carryover if fertilizer was applied last year and none or little nitrogen will be needed. On the other-hand, on sandy soils, nitrogen may be lost due to the recent rains causing a need for nitrogen."

Fourth, a considerable savings in fertilizer can result from applying ferti lizer based upon soil test recommendations.

Better results from soil analysis can be obtained by following some tips, said Benson.

Prior to taking small samples scrape the litter from the surface, then use a spade, soil auger or soil sampling tube. To use a sharp shooter, dig a V-shaped hole and take a ½-inch slice of soil from the smooth side of the hole. Repeat in 10 to 15 different places.

Place subsamples in a clean container (plastic bucket, paper sack, etc.), mix thoroughly, and take out about one pint for the composite sample, Benson suggests.

"To aid in the interpretation of the soil test and in making recommendations, fill in Form D-575, 'Soil Sample Information Sheet for Field Crops', as completely as possible and submit with your samples," Benson emphasized.

"Each soil sample should be marked with your name and sample number, which should correspond with the information furnished on the information sheet. Mark the analysis desired and include the proper fee. The information sheets are at my office or the Soil Testing Laboratory in Lubbock," Benson said.
