Permian Basin OIL & GAS LOG

SW Martin Test Is Plugged Back To Pennsylvanian

Gulf Oil Corporation has run seven-inch casing to 10,500 feet and is now waiting on cement in its No. 1-E-B George W. Glass, wildcat in Southwest Martin County.

Hole was plugged back to 10,823 feet after operator drilled to 12,915 feet and found no shows of oil or gas.

Operator recovered 10,170 feet of salt water in the Ellenburger on a drillstem test at 12,770-815 feet.

The No. 1-E-B Glass was plugged back to test the Pennsylvanian from the bottom of the casing set at 10,500 feet to the total depth. That gives it an interval of 323 feet of open hole to be tested.

The No. 1-E-B Glass is 1,980 feet from north and east lines of section 13, block 39, T&P survey, T-1-N. This venture was originally scheduled to be drilled to 13,500 feet.

Drillsite is 12 miles north of the City of Midland and 18 miles west of Stanton.

SE Garza Wildcat Changes Operator

Tobe Foster of Lubbock has taken over operation of the Southeast Garza County wildcat formerly carried as R. L. York and Standard-Fryer Drilling Company No. 1 Justice.

This project found considerable free oil in the Strawn lime between 7,416 feet and 7,492 feet. The section at 7,460-92 feet also had some salt water.

It deepened to 7,685 feet and is now running a drillstem test on the interval at 7,650-85 feet. That section, which is in a lower Pennsylvanian lime, had logged some shows of oil and gas in the drilling samples.

The project was originally started under a permit from the Railroad Commission of Texas to drill to 7,500 feet to explore through the Pennsylvanian.

Foster has now made a deal to continue it to around 8,000 feet to test into the Mississippian. He has filed a supplemental application with the regulatory body requesting permission to continue to that depth.

A string of casing is on the location and the pipe will be run after the Mississippian is found and all shows which have been encountered will be thoroughly tested.

Location is 660 feet from south and west lines of section 19, block 6, H&GN survey.

Offset To Tex-Harvey In Midland Is Slated

Barnett & Rector will drill a one-half mile south offset to the Tex-Harvey Oil Company No. 1 L. B. Floyd discovery well of the Tex-Harvey field in Central-East Midland County. It will be the No. I-16 Floyd estate.

This venture, scheduled to be drilled to around 8,000 feet, will be spudded by September 15.

Drillsite will be 660 feet from east and south lines of section 16, block 37, T-3-S, T&P survey and 14 miles southeast of the City of Midland.

The discovery well was completed on a pumping potential for 135 barrels of 40.2-gravity oil plus 17 barrels of water daily from the Clear Fork through perforations at 7,865-75 feet.

C-W Scurry Wildcat Runs Pipe To Test

Delta Gulf Drilling Company and associates No. 1 H. H. Eiland, Central-West Scurry County wildcat, 14 miles west and two miles north of Snyder and one mile east of the Borden County line, has cemented 5 1/2-inch casing on bottom at 8,230 feet ,to test shows of oil which have been found in the top of the Ellenburger.

This prospector is located 660 feet from east and 616.7 feet from south lines of section 283, block 97, H&TC survey. It did not find any possibilities of production in the Pennsylvanian limes.

The project is four and one-half miles northwest of the Diamond M-Canyond field which produces from the Canyon reef.

Delta Gulf's No. 1 Eiland topped the Ellenburger at 8,180 feet on an elevation of 2,467 feet.

A drillstem test was run in that formation at 8,185-99 feet. The tester was open two and one-half hours.

The water cushion was flowed out in one hour and the project then flowed 60 barrels of fluid in the last 90 minutes of the test.

That fluid was estimated to have been 20 barrels of oil and 40 barrels of water.

Operators then deepened to 8,230 feet and had a repair job. That work is now completed and the pipe has been run. As soon as the plug cures it will be drilled out and

Battle Looms As Democrats Open Session

By DAVE CHEAVENS

MINERAL WELLS—(AP)—Gov. Allan Shivers' slate of temporary officers was approved quickly by the State Democratic Convention Tuesday, but the real test was yet to come.

Wardlow Lane of Center, president of the State Senate, was named temporary chairman and Wendell Mayes of Brownwood, secretary. Leroy Jeffers of Harris County was named keynoter.

The first test will come in a challenge to the seating of the conservative Houston delegation. Belligerent left and right wing Democrats challenged Shivers' party harmony.

All-night maneuvering by both factions sharpened the outlook for a convention showdown between liberals and conservatives. The conservatives held the edge.

Houston right-wingers Monday night offered Mrs. Sam Davis — who is not on Shivers' approved list—for state executive committeewoman from that congressional district.

Defiant Gesture

That was regarded as a challenge to Shivers' leadership in view of Mrs. Davis' past affiliations with the States' Rights faction. It also

Jan C. Smuts, 80, South African War, Peace Leader, Dies

JOHANNESBURG, SOUTH AFRICA —(AP)— Jan Christiaan Smuts, 80, spade-bearded South African leader in three wars and two world peace movements, died Monday night.

The end came as the cumulative result of pneumonia, influenza, and heart strain after a back ailment forced him to bed May 28, four days after his 80th birthday.

From around the world, expressions of sympathy poured in to the family of the field marshal—twice prime minister of the Union of South Africa, statesman, philosopher, counselor of kings, and an organizer of both the League of Nations and the United Nations.

The messages reflected the ironic contrast to Smuts' varied career, which started with his leading commando raids against the British in the Boer war and ended with his being a bulwark of the British Commonwealth of Nations. It was Smuts who in 1917 first suggested a British Commonwealth as apart from the empire.

Defeated At Home

This, and British honors, helped earn him the resentment of some of his embittered, die-hard countrymen. Shattering political defeats in the last two years left their physical mark on "the boss," as Smuts once was known at home.

After becoming a lieutenant-general in the British Army in World War I and campaigning against German East Africa forces, Smuts published a League of Nations plan. It led to his participation in the formation of that ill-fated organization. A generation later, Smuts again led South Africa to the Allied side, becoming a field marshal in the British Army in 1941. Following the German and Japanese surrenders, Smuts joined world leaders in San Francisco, where he was a spokesman for the smaller nations in forming the UN Charter.

War Pinch Soon To Hit Pocketbooks

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The first cautious steps to rearm America indicated Tuesday it may be months before consumers are hit anywhere but in the pocketbook.

Curbs on installment buying go into effect Monday. Higher income taxes probably will start taking a bigger bite out of pay checks October 1. There were signs the wartime lack of some goods would not be duplicated, at least not soon.

In the steel industry, which supplies material for cars, refrigerators, construction, television, etc., the initial government move was toward easing the pinch of President Truman's projected $30,000,000,000-a-year arms program.

The government asked the industry to figure out just how much it can expand production capacity, which has just passed the 100,000,000-ton-a-year mark and is at the highest point in history. Industry promised a prompt answer.

But the government is just getting organized for the big effort to build up muscle to hit back at Communist aggression in Korea or anywhere else it may break out.

And that means it might be months before new orders for war goods will take steel and other materials away from items ordinary people want to buy.

Arkansas Youth Escapes Serious Injury In Mishap

Mount Revels of Hope, Ark., narrowly escaped serious injury Monday afternoon when the pickup truck he was driving overturned on U. S. Highway 80 about three miles east of Midland.

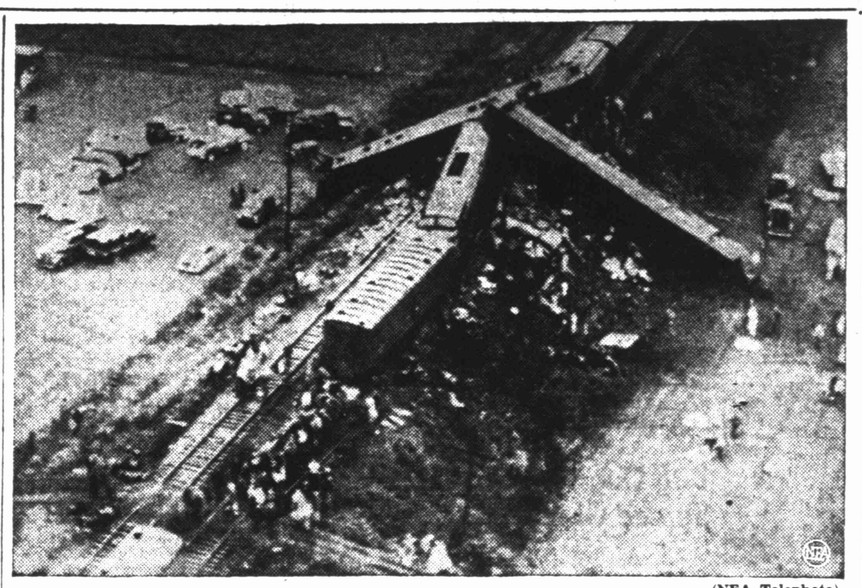

Revels was driving a pickup which was towing another truck when the connection rod snapped. The empty vehicle bucked and rolled, causing Revels to lose control of his vehicle. Both pickups were damaged, one heavily.

The pickup in which Revels was riding overturned, hitting a tree. The cab of the vehicle was crushed, almost pinning the driver to the steering wheel.

Revels was brought to a Midland hospital in a Newnie W. Ellis ambulance.

33 KILLED IN TROOP TRAIN ACCIDENT—Near New Lafayette, Ohio, a troop train carrying 500 Pennsylvania National Guardsmen and a Pennsylvania Railroad passenger train collided, injuring 50 persons and killing 33. The troop train was enroute from Philadelphia to Camp Atterbury, Ind., and all the victims were members of the National Guard unit who were going into federal service.

Community Chest Budget Is $45,386

Midland's Community Chest budget for 1951 was set at $45,386, an increase of $13,386 over 1950's $32,000 budget, at a meeting of chest officials, representatives of participating agencies and others Monday night. Carroll Thomas, Community Chest president, presided at the session.

The $45,386 figure will be the goal of the annual Community Chest finance campaign which will be conducted this Fall under the direction of Chairman Harry Lawson.

In addition to marked increases in activities and budgets of the several groups now participating in chest funds, Thomas said the most significant development is the admission as a participating agency for the first time of the Latin American Youth Club.

Agencies And Budgets

The participating agencies for 1951 and their respective budgets as approved by the chest are: Goodfellows, $600; Salvation Army, $2,000; Boy Scouts, $15,000; Girl Scouts, $11,500; Midland Youth Center, $9,786; Latin American Youth Club, $5,500. A $1,000 item for campaign expenses is included in the overall goal.

The Midland Service League has been working with the Latin American Youth Club the last year, furnishing volunteer helpers from its own group to keep the center open two nights a week. The league also has installed recreational facilities. Club sponsors said increased popularity of the center makes it advisable to keep it open five nights a week and to employ a full-time director who would be assisted by volunteer workers. They said the Rev. Edward Murray, pastor of the St. George's Catholic Church, has agreed to act as temporary director until chest funds are available.

The Latin American center is lo-

UN Security Council Report Approved As Malik Withholds Veto

LAKE SUCCESS —(AP)— The United Nations Security Council Tuesday approved its annual report to the General Assembly. A threatened Soviet veto failed to materialize.

Soviet Delegate Jakob A. Malik had opposed vigorously any reference to the Korean conflict in the report and had argued it was subject to the veto, but when the ballot came he abstained. The vote was 10 to 0.

The action was taken at a closed door meeting of the council, the 500th since the 11-nation body first met in London in January, 1946.

Stunned Relatives Prepare For Return Of Rail Crash Dead

WILKES-BARRE, PA. —(AP)— Stunned residents of the Wyoming Valley prepared Tuesday to receive the bodies of 33 soldier relatives killed in an Ohio troop train wreck.

In a region where death sometimes is as close as the nearest hard coal mine, no underground disaster —no, not even any of the major battles of World War II—cast a shadow over so many homes as Monday's crash of a troop-laden train and a Pennsylvania Railroad express.

Besides those killed, 50 or more were injured—all but a few from the Wilkes-Barre area.

The tragedy struck scant hours after parents, wives, brothers and sisters, sweethearts and children had bid goodbye to the citizen-soldiers boarding the train for active duty with the Army.

The wreck victims and their companions were members of Pennsylvania's 28th National Guard Division, recently inducted into federal service. They were bound for Camp Atterbury, Ind., to train and probable duty in Korea.

Although details for shipping the victims' bodies home were not completed, tentative plans called for a mass movement Tuesday or Wednesday.

Midlander Dies In Abilene Hospital Of Bulbar Polio

Jack Dawson West, 34, Midland electrician, died late Monday in an Abilene hospital of bulbar polio. He had been stricken Saturday.

West died shortly after his arrival in Abilene at 11:35 p.m. Monday. He was taken to Abilene in a Newnie W. Ellis ambulance in a portable iron lung owned by the Midland Fire Department.

His body was taken to Merkel, where funeral arrangements were incomplete shortly before noon Tuesday. He was born and reared in Merkel but for the last several months had been employed by the Texas Electric Service Company in Midland.

He is survived by the widow and one son, Sydney Jack West, of Midland; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. West of Merkel; three brothers, Weston H. West of Merkel, George West of Midland, and Dick West of Atlanta, Ga., and one sister, Mrs. Sydney Foy of Baird.

Officials of the Starbuck Funeral Home in Merkel, who are in charge of the body, said funeral services probably will be held there Wednesday with interment in a Merkel cemetery.

Fire Is Reported Raging Near Stanton

STANTON — A fire was reported raging in a ranch house and threatening to start a prairie fire on the old Tom Ranch four miles southeast of here at noon Tuesday. Informants were not certain whether or not the surrounding prairie was burning at that time.

Sheriff Kyle Shoemaker said he understood it was the ranch house. Glen Petree was reported to reside there now.

A truck from the Midland Fire Department was dispatched to the scene of the fire shortly before noon when a call for help was sent out.

It was reported all available equipment here had been put into use to combat the blaze.

No injuries had been reported.

Secret Task Force Traps Reds In East

TOKYO—(AP)—American First Cavalrymen stormed uphill through a withering day-long barrage of Red Korean gunfire Tuesday and at dusk won a peak commanding a main northern approach to Taegu.

The troopers in battalion strength—1,000—won Hill 314, eight miles north of Taegu, at heavy cost.

They knew their job was to check what offficially was called "the main threat" to Taegu, northwest anchor of the Allied line.

The hill had been held by an outpost of some 40,000 Red Koreans, massed for a fresh assault upon the South Korean provisional capital. Another outpost remained on a nearby peak.

Allied big guns and warplanes hurled a curtain of steel at the Reds before the assault.

Then the troopers hit the slopes. They fought two-thirds of the distance in five bitter hours.

But the Reds, throwing a barrage of artillery, mortar and machine gun fire from the two peaks, stalled the drive at that point throughout most of Tuesday afternoon.

Their shells set fire to part of Chilgok town, five miles north of Taegu.

Strong Right Anchor

The troopers finally stormed the summit at nightfall—and took it.

AP Correspondent Jack Macbeth, who was pinned behind a brick wall by Red gunfire for more than one hour, said capture of Hill 314 gave the Allies a strong right anchor commanding the Taegu-Tabu road.

Inland from the east coast port of Pohang, a secret Allied task force struck swiftly westward seeking to trap 3,000 Communist troops blocked

Eight Killed In Powder Plant Blast

ELDRED, PA. —(AP)— A terrific explosion ripped apart a dynamite mix house at the National Powder Company Tuesday, killing eight men outright.

Five or six other employes were hurt slightly.

"At first I thought the whole town blew up," said one resident. "Windows broke everywhere."

The blast was heard 10 miles away and shattered windows of houses within a two-mile radius of the plant.

Company officials refused to admit newsmen or photographers to the plant grounds. Names of victims were withheld until relatives are notified.

National Powder is Eldred's largest industry. The plant is located two miles from the little community near the New York border.

"We have no idea what caused the explosion," officials said.

Lt. Akins Reported Killed In Action

Friends and relatives here have been notified that Lt. Joe Akins, former MHS football coach, was killed in action in Korea September 2.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Conant, 406 North Cowden Street, are grandparents.

The widow is the former Shirley Gardener of Sweetwater and Abilene. She also worked for an oil company in Midland before her marriage to Akins. She now resides in Abilene.

Lieutenant Akins left the Midland school system early this year to reenter military service. He served with the Marines in World War II.

Eight Troupers Hurt In Train Collision

GREEN RIVER, WYO. — (AP) — A switch engine collided with a Union Pacific passenger train shortly before midnight Monday, injuring at least 10 persons, including eight members of the traveling "South Pacific" show troupe.

Diosa Costello, who plays "Bloody Mary" in the musical, suffered broken ribs and possible internal injuries. Ray Walston, comedian, was bruised.

TAEGU FRONT, KOREA — (AP)— Lt. Gen. Walton H. Walker, commander of Allied ground forces in Korea, said Tuesday night:

"The worst is over."

In a brief statement the general added, however, that the Korean Reds still held the initiative and were "capable of hitting us anywhere on our 125-mile perimeter."

He concluded: "I am now sure we can stop him."

County Awards Odessa Club $30,000 For Right-Of-Way

Midland County Commissioners Monday awarded $30,000 to the Odessa Country Club for damages involved in the purchase of slightly more than eight acres of land for right-of-way on the new four-lane highway to Odessa, County Judge Clifford C. Keith announced Tuesday.

A county condemnation committee had recommended the Club be awarded $23,500 Judge Keith said, but the country club had filed a suit asking approximately $60,000 damages.

The country club's spokesman said the right-of-way will include four greens on the club's golf course.

Judge Keith said the $30,000 figure was adopted after a discussion between county representatives and representatives of the country club.

Stars Resemble Whistler's Ma, Not Whistle-Bait With Carey

By ERSKINE JOHNSON

HOLLYWOOD — MacDonald Carey, an actor who's never been mistaken for Montgomery Clift, Roddy McDowall or Bobby Driscoll, is downright wrought up.

Movie queens are nixing him as a co-star on the grounds that he hasn't what it takes in the face-wrinkle and chin-blubber line to make them look like Elizabeth Taylor in a clinch.

It's getting so that Mac is beginning to gaze at Charles Coburn with envy and complain about the gout around any doll older than Mary Jane Saunders. He scratched his head and told me:

"For some strange reason, the girls who've been around a long time complain that I look too young. I get my hair dusted with gray stuff, but I still lose out on important parts."

Mac's a gallant from away back and he'd sooner bite off his tongue than name the Bernhardts who get delusions of hagdom when his name is submitted on a list of possible co-stars.

Things have a way of blowing up just when he think's he's clinched the lover-boy role opposite a female powerhouse who was getting closeups around the time of "The Birth of a Nation."

He says that Gertrude Lawrence, who's no Ann Blyth in years, never once complained that he made her look like Mother Machree during the Broadway run of "Lady in the Dark."

"Oh, well," grins Mac, "at least, I'm not too old for the young ones."

He should worry, he should care if a Bernard Shaw type can do more to keep the eyes of moviegoers away from the corrugated neck of a glamor puss of long standing.

More Raves For Maureen

His stock's shot up like a movie spaceship bound for the moon since he co-starred with Maureen O'Hara in a box-office bonanza titled "Commanche Territory." If loping into the sunset on a horse is what it takes to make him a doll boy with the movie theater proprietors, he's going to give his dress suit a rest for a while.

"I think it was Maureen O'Hara more than I," Mac says. "After all, she's beautiful, acts, sings and she's got—er—well, other endowments."

A New York theater manager, beaming over the steady tinkle of silver on the box-office till when "Commanche Territory" played his house, arranged a special showing in Mac's honor.

"He even used the big screen that had been idle since Selznick's 'Portrait of Jenny.' Something went wrong, however, when he opened the enlarged screen on a closeup of me The audience howled. My nose kept getting larger and larger on the screen."

No rip-roaring rider until he was cast in "Streets of Laredo," Carey still gets hang-mouthed around the oat-crunchers from the Screen Horses Guild.

Take it from him, a Hollywood horse is nigh on to being a genius. He marvels:

"The horse in a western is the most important factor of all. I hadn't ridden since I was a boy, but on a Hollywood horse even I look good. You say 'camera' to one and he moves right into position. He gets his face in the camera and yours, too. You have to keep toning him down or he'll become a real ham."

Mac Spells Trouble

Mac's even getting his name spelled correctly these days and he wouldn't be a bit surprised if the four-footed Ballymores haven't turned that piece of luck for him, too.

For years, he shudders, the postman brought him letters, addressed to Donald McCarey, Cary McDonald and Cary McCary.

Even some missives intended for Director Leo McCarey popped up in his mail box.

Once a Boston newspaperwoman dashed off a piece about poor Macdonald Carey and the scrambled variations on his name.

"It was a fine article," groans Mac, "but she didn't spell my name correctly, either."

Lately he hasn't been sure whether he's Macdonald Carey or Wendell Corey.

He says that Paramount once sent him photographs of himself and Wendell, and identified Wendell as Macdonald Carey.

He's one star who isn't sketching a skull and cross-bones under pictures of TV sets. On his recent trip to New York, Mac says, he walked right past small armies of autograph hunters and didn't get a tumble. Then he appeared on six television programs in the space of a week.

"They mobbed me after that," he said. "As a Hollywood star I was nothing. As a Hollywood star on television, I was hotter than a two-dollar pistol."

Bird Quarantine Helps Prevent Spread Of Rare Disease Virus

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

In 1929 a small epidemic of a disease called psittacosis occurred. Although something about this disease was known previously, it had not received much attention until the outbreak in human beings which occurred that year. Since then several other outbreaks have occurred in various parts of the world.

Psittacosis probably would not concern us much if it were not for the fact that it can be spread to human beings from birds, or from other people, and cause serious symptoms. In human beings it produces a high fever with symptoms in the lung, similar to pneumonia. The virus can be obtained from the sputum of infected people and when injected into mice produces the disease in these animals.

The disease is primarily one of birds, such as parrots, parakeets and love-birds. It attacks these birds readily. In one shipment of 161 parrots, parakeets and conures from South America, only 16 were found be free of the virus which causes this disease.

In 1932, 76 cases of psittacosis were reported in the United States and seven died from the disease. During 1933, only 15 cases and four deaths were reported. The rapid improvement came from a quarantine which was imposed by the federal government on the shipping of parrots and similar birds between the state. Since that time our public health services have been engaged in a continuous battle to eliminate psittacosis in susceptible birds. The importation of infected birds has been prohibited.

Although the disease has not entirely died out among human beings, there is far less likelihood of contracting it now that the number of infected birds has been so strictly controlled. Those who work with the virus in the laboratory, however, are likely to become infected, and occasionally infected birds are still found. Careless handling of birds has been responsible for source of the infections in human beings.

Psittacosis in human beings resembles virus or a typical pneumonia. Fortunately there is a specific test available which can be used to make the diagnosis definite.

Could Have Been Worse

So far as treatment is concerned, either serum taken from a victim of the disease who is convalescing, or a goat serum which has been produced, seems to shorten the course of human psittacosis. Quite likely some antibiotic similar to penicillin will still further improve treatment.

If psittacosis had not been attacked promptly by preventive measures and if the custom of keeping love-birds, parrots and the like in the home were more general than it is, the problem would have been much worse. Even now, there is always the danger that the virus of psittacosis will become established in some bird or animal more closely and more commonly associated with human beings than parrots and love-birds.

"Yes," the other said eagerly.

"He left it all," the attorney replied.

P-TA City Council Adopts New Year's Plan Of Work

Approximately 44 persons attended a meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association City Council Monday afternoon in the high school.

Mrs. Stanley Erskine, president, introduced the council chairmen. District and state officers also were introduced. They are Frank Monroe, state chairman; Mrs. J. J. Black, district president, and Mrs. L. G. Byerley, district chairman of character and spiritual education.

The plan of work for the year was read and adopted. The program will start September 21 with a parliamentary course. The guest speaker will be Mrs. H. F. Goedeke of Lubbock. A P-TA procedure course will be given September 27. The Hallowe'en carnivals are scheduled October 31.

Other special events include American Education Week, November 5; state convention, November 8; district convention in April and the Summer Health Roundup in May.

Projects for the year include the graded movie listings, reading and library service, leadership training for parent education and the study groups.

Monroe, in addressing the council, stated there will be a number of state consultants available for the study group courses. He also said the schools will provide better reading and library services and will assist in the Summer health program.

The schools have purchased 50 sound films to be used in all grades. Monroe said the David Crockett School is functioning well. He expressed appreciation to the parents and citizens for their acceptance of the school's facilities.

Thirteen Girl Scout troops in Midland have leaders, with 24 others needing leaders and assistant leaders.

Sixteen Brownie troop leaders and 16 assistant leaders are needed. Also needed are program consultants and assistant troop committee members.

Attendance at the course does not mean that a person will be required to assume the leadership of a troop, sponsors said. They did, however, stress the urgent need for additional leaders in the overall Scout program.

Persons interested in taking the course may telephone No. 4183 for additional information.

Popularity Test: Do You Want Others To Be Really Happy?

By RUTH MILLETT
NEA Staff Writer

Want to know whether or not you are genuinely liked by those you live, work and share your leisure time with?

There's a very simple test, if you care to answer one question honestly.

Do you really want other people to be happy.

A lot of people don't, you know. They are the people who are always telling you something for your own good. Who like to put doubt into other's minds. Who love to relate sad news. Who like to talk about their troubles. Who can always find flaws in everything or point out the disadvantages in any situation.

Such people never are genuinely liked. How could they be? They always leave you feeling worse, instead of better; less pleased with yourself, instead of more so; less satisfied with what you have.

A Few Tests

If you habitually spring bad news on your husband the minute he walks through the door at night, you aren't the kind of person who really likes to make other people happy.

If you say "No" to your children when there is no good reason for not saying "Yes," if their high spirits annoy and irritate you, if you are constantly nagging them, then you don't really want to see them happy.

If the letters you write are full of gloom and bad news and complaints, then you aren't writing a letter to make another person happy.

The persons who are generally and genuinely well liked are those who like to see others happy and contribute what they can to that happiness.

Examine your own friends in the light of whether or not they seem to want to see you happy and pleased with life. You'll soon discover that the reason you always get a lift from seeing Sarah is that she never does anything or says anything to pull you down into the dumps. And that the reason you always leave Sue feeling a bit disgruntled is because Sue doesn't really want to see anyone too pleased with his lot in life.

ABSOLUTE PROOF HADACOL HELPS FOLKS SUFFERING STOMACH DISTURBANCES

when due to lack of Vitamins B_1, B_2, Iron and Niacin in the system!

Mrs. John W. Geary, attractive and charming woman of 840 Ursuline St., New Orleans, Louisiana: "I'd been sick quite some time and the doctors told me it was a nervous stomach. I couldn't eat regularly and lots of times I was unable to hold the food on my stomach. Then I heard about HADACOL. After the first few bottles I could tell a definite improvement. Now my stomach doesn't trouble me at all. I eat anything I want, and my nerves are fine." (Give HADACOL a chance to help you.)

Mr. John Cox is a retired gentleman who lives at 1224 Gonder Street, Springfield, Ohio: "I had nervous indigestion and suffered terribly from stomach bloat and gas. After taking HADACOL, I have no more stomach distress and sleep well." (Note: HADACOL gives such wonderful results because it actually relieves the REAL CAUSE of indigestion, gas pains, after-eating belching, heartburn, constipation due to such deficiencies. And continued use helps keep such stomach distress from coming back!)

Mrs. Hilton Shuff, a loving mother of Rt. 1, Box 42, Ville Platte, Louisiana: "My son Mark Wendell has been sick for some time. A lot of the time he couldn't hold anything on his stomach. He was very weak and pale. Then I started giving him HADACOL, and he improved in just a short time. He's gained weight and has more energy than a dozen wild Indians." (HADACOL is great for puny, nervous kiddies with easily upset stomachs due to lack of important Vitamins B_1, B_2, Iron and Niacin.)

Mrs. Alma Kincaid, 2125 E. Adelaide, St. Louis, Missouri: "I've been taking HADACOL for over a year. Before taking it, I had stomach distress for some time. Nothing seemed to help me. Then I took my husband's advice and took HADACOL. A good friend of his told him of the wonderful results he had from HADACOL. Now that I'm taking HADACOL I eat anything. I recommend HADACOL to all my friends." (A big improvement is often noticed within a few days.)

WHY CONTINUE TO DOUBT These are just a few of thousands upon thousands of letters that constantly pour in telling of the wonderful results the great new HADACOL is giving. It's only a very foolish person who would continue to 'doubt' HADACOL's effectiveness and continue to suffer in view of such overwhelming evidence.

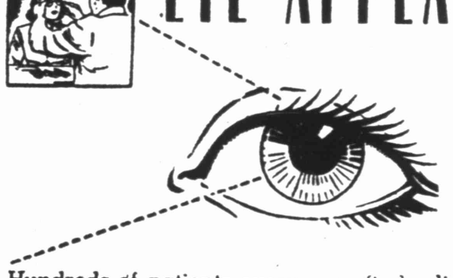

Relieves the Cause of Stomach Distress Due to Such Deficiencies

So if you are suffering from stomach disturbances (gas pains, indigestion, heartburn), if the food you eat disagrees with you because your system is lacking Vitamins B_1, B_2, Iron and Niacin—don't delay—start taking HADACOL today. HADACOL is not a quick-acting antacid which gives symptomatic relief—instead, HADACOL actually relieves the REAL CAUSE of such stomach misery due to such deficiencies. And continued use helps prevent such painful distress from coming back.

Hundreds of Doctors Recommend It

Hundreds upon hundreds of doctors recommend HADACOL. It not only supplies weak, deficient systems with extra quantities of important Vitamins B_1, B_2, Iron and Niacin but also beneficial amounts of precious Calcium, Phosphorus and Manganese—elements so vital to help maintain glorious health and guard against such deficiency ailments. And so inexpensive. Costs only a small amount a day. Trial-size bottle, $1.25. Large family or hospital size, $3.50. ©1950, The LaMotte Corporation

Who Owns Formosa?

All kinds of people have been telling America for months to get up on her haunches and holler back at Russia. We've been doing more of it lately, but far from enough.

Formosa is a good example. Russia and Red China scream that we're "invading" Chinese territory by having our Seventh Fleet patrol the waters between the island and the mainland.

We say we're not invading, but we allow the most important fact in the whole situation to get buried under a lot of confusing blather. The fact is this:

Under international law Formosa doesn't belong to China at all—either to the Communist government or to Chiang Kai-shek. In 1895, after the Sino-Japanese war, the island was ceded by a defeated China to Japan, which held it continuously until the end of World War II.

From the moment of Japan's surrender, Formosa became conquered enemy territory. Since it had been formally yielded by China in the 1895 treaty, it did not automatically revert to the control of China as would land gained during war by force of arms.

The final status of conquered enemy soil is settled only in peace treaties or by general international agreement. Since there is as yet no Japanese peace treaty and no step has been taken to have the United Nations handle the issue, Formosa legally still belongs to Japan. And Japan is a nation occupied by the victorious Allies.

There's one complication. In wartime conferences at Cairo and Yalta, the U. S. promised Chiang Kai-shek he could have Formosa back when Japan was licked. On the strength of that, he moved in without waiting for a peace treaty. But that doesn't alter the fact that his control has no real status under international law.

If we choose to modify or repudiate our pledge to Chiang, he may complain but he has no basis for appeal. By ordering our fleet to police the seas off Formosa, this is in effect exactly what we've done. As the chief occupying power in Japan, we could go further (though we don't intend to) and move land forces onto Formosa. We'd be infringing nobody's legal rights.

Those are the cold facts, the true answer to Moscow's frenzied shouts that we're violating Chinese "sovereignty" in Formosa. China has no sovereignty there. She hasn't had since 1895.

How Formosa shall be disposed of ultimately is something else. If resistance by Russia and Red China makes a fair peace treaty settlement impossible, the question should fall to the UN. Who knows? Formosa might even be given to the Formosans.

The fault with a lot of people is that they're always finding fault with a lot of people.

There are times when we'd welcome an epidemic of gout. It would keep people from kicking.

Birds Of A Feather

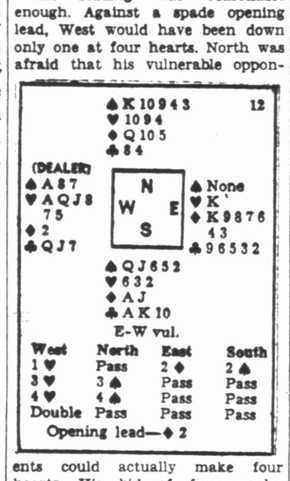

• JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD PACOBY
Written for NEA Service

Most good players can read the meaning of the plays made by their opponents. The real expert goes one step farther. He reads the meaning of the plays that his opponents fail to make!

This is a difficult point to explain, but one example is worth a hundred explanations. Let us examine a hand recently played by Larceny Lou.

The bidding was reasonable enough. Against a spade opening lead, West would have been down only one at four hearts. North was afraid that his vulnerable opponents could actually make four hearts. His bid of four spades (which he knew could not be badly beaten) was in the nature of an insurance policy. He preferred to take a small loss rather than risk a big one.

West	North	East	South
1 ♥	Pass	2 ♦	2 ♠
3 ♥	3 ♠	Pass	Pass
4 ♥	4 ♠	Pass	Pass
Double	Pass	Pass	Pass

Opening lead—♦ 2

West opened the deuce of diamonds, and Larceny Lou put up dummy's queen without hesitation. East very nearly made the mistake of playing the king of diamonds. He caught himself just in time and played a low diamond.

His first trap having failed, Lou led a trump from dummy while cooking up his next little plot. West took the ace of spades and returned a trump.

At that point Lou realized that East had the singleton king of hearts!

West's bidding made it clear that he had either six or seven hearts. Why had he not led the suit? His opening lead had obviously been a singleton, and it was possible that he had opened the singleton diamond even though he held a leadable heart suit. However, after he won with the ace of spades, West would not return a trump if he held a heart combination from which a lead seemed desirable.

If West held all of the seven missing hearts, he would surely hold a leadable combination. If he held only six hearts, which one could be missing? Only if West lacked the king would the suit appear unleadable to him.

In other words, Lou read the meaning of West's failure to lead hearts. Having found out that East held the singleton king of hearts, Lou was now able to plan a new swindle.

Lou drew the rest of West's trumps, cashed the ace of diamonds and the top clubs, ruffed a club in dummy, and ruffed dummy's last diamond in his own hand. The stage was now set, and Lou nonchalantly led a low heart from his own hand.

By this time West was down to four cards, all of them hearts. Seeing a low heart led from the South hand towards dummy's ten, West played the jack. As Lou had foreseen, this trick was won by East's blank king.

Now East had to return a suit that allowed dummy to ruff while South discarded a heart loser. Since this held the loss in hearts to only two tricks, Lou succeeded in making the contract.

It is important to note that Lou had to lead the hearts eventually from his own hand. If hearts were led from the dummy, East would play his king, and West would have a chance to overtake with his ace. West would then cash the queen and jack of hearts, setting the contract.

DREW PEARSON ON The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

(Copyright, 1950, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Drew Pearson says: China still aloof from Korean war; Mystery witness Grunewald is undercover lobbyist; Senator Schoeppel continues to be errand-boy for utilities.

WASHINGTON — A significant intelligence report on China's negotiations with Russia on the vital question of coming in or staying out of the Korean war has just been received in Washington.

Obviously it is impossible to know how accurate these reports are regarding such important figures as Molotov and Mao Tse-Tung. However, here is what they are supposed to have talked about in their recent Peiping meeting.

Molotov, who is Stalin's Far East manager, was unable to budge Mao, China's Communist boss, on the Korean war. Mao is reported to have refused point-blank to intervene in the Korean war or to set a date for the invasion of Formosa, or to attack British Hong Kong or Portuguese Macao.

Finally, after much wrangling, a five-point program was agreed to:

1. Russia will outfit 15 Chinese divisions, or a total of about 225,000 men.

2. Mao will send limited troops as "volunteers" to Korea north of the 38th parallel. This, of course, would relieve North Korean troops to fight south of the 38th parallel.

3. China will patrol the Manchurian-Korean border.

4. Molotov and Mao will meet again this month to reach an agreement on the invasion of Formosa. All Summer the Russians have been demanding the Communist make an amphibious attack on Formosa, but Mao has been putting them off week after week. This was one reason why President Truman cracked down on MacArthur when he shot off his uncleared statement on Formosa.

5. Mao's government will help reequip Viet Minh forces in Indo-China for a new, all-out offensive.

Note — The above intelligence report chiefly is based on British information, the British having much better sources than we do in the Orient.

There is something awfully peculiar about the way the Justice Department claimed it couldn't locate the mysterious missing witness in the wire-tapping case, Henry Grunewald, then suddenly produced him in another case after the statute of limitations had run out on Senator Brewster's wire-tappings.

Grunewald, who worked for Pan American World Airways at the time of the wire-tapping, and was intimate with chief wire-tapper Lt. Joe Shimon, is a well-known person about town. But for some strange reason he evaporated into thin air.

Grunewald has a $75,000 home in Valharbour, Miami Beach; and $85,000 home at Spring Lake, N. J., and owns considerable property in the District of Columbia, including a five-acre tract in the fashionable suburbs. He owns three automobiles, including a limousine, which frequently is seen parked outside the Senate. Inside, he is chiefly in the offices of Senators Brewster of Maine and Bridges of New Hampshire.

He also has an apartment at the swank Westchester; has maintained an office in the Munsey Building and a suite in the Washington Hotel which he shares with the former Secretary of War and ex-governor of Kansas Harry Woodring. Lieutenant Shimon, the wire-tapping cop, also occupied this suite as a guest of Woodring's and Grunewald's; and the other night when a Senate investigator called, who should poke his bald head out of the suite but William Power Maloney, close friend of Senator Brewster's and attorney for Lieutenant Shimon.

Grunewald also has been seen frequently in the company of War Assets Administrator Jesse Larson, and is so often in Senator Brewster's office that he is treated as if he were a member of the office force.

Senator Bridges also seems solicitous about Grunewald. When a representative of this column called at Grunewald's Munsey Building office, its occupants professed complete amazement that Grunewald had ever been in the office. Yet, in the next room, someone hastily and surreptitiously phoned Senator Bridges to warn: "They're trying to find Henry."

How Grunewald, an immigrant from Europe, made all this money, remains a mystery. But he is reported to be one of the most highly paid undercover lobbyists in Washington.

"Phonograph-Needle" Schoeppel

The backstage decision to have mousy Senator Schoeppel of Kansas sling Communist mud at Secretary of the Interior Oscar Chapman was made at a meeting of Republican senators in the office of Senator Ken Wherry of Nebraska, who recently played into the hands of the racketeers by slicing the Senate crime probe appropriations by one-half.

Wherry remarked that Chapman was winning too many battles against the public utilities. So Frank Bow, former axeman for the GOP harness committee in the Republican 80th Congress and now aide to Schoeppel, worked up a mud-slinging attack for the senator.

The fact that the speech was ghostwritten was why Schoeppel asked for a delay of Secretary Chapman's reply. For Bow, the ghost writer was out of town and the senator himself knew no more about the facts in the case than a phonograph needle knows about the record it is playing.

Though Schoeppel didn't prepare the tirade against Chapman, he was delighted to spearhead the attack, because it dovetailed with the interests of his law firm and the big gas and oil company clients it serves.

Unlike conscientious Senator Brien McMahon of Connecticut, Schoeppel did not divorce himself from his law firm when he came to Washington. And the Martindale-Hubbell law directory lists Schoeppel as representing five oil companies, two gas companies and 20 insurance companies, including Republic Natural Gas, Colorado Interstate Gas, Texaco, Sinclair, Phillips Petroleum, Gulf, and Lion Oil.

No wonder Alf Landon once described Schoeppel as the "errand boy of the utilities." No wonder also that he was delighted to use the Senate floor to castigate the Cabinet member who had opposed his law clients.

He was delighted that is until Secretary Chapman came back with his scathing reply. After that, the senator decided that Congress and a Kansas farm are absolutely alike when it comes to sticking your fingers in a buzz saw.

PETER EDSON'S Washington News Notebook

Chinese Reds On Manchurian Border Have Capital Puzzled

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — The movement of two Chinese Red armies to the Manchurian border may be a bluff, but also may mean the shifting of Korean incident from mere police action to status of major war. Chinese Communist propaganda blast that U. S. planes bombed Manchurian cities may be tipoff. Accusing their opponents of aggression they themselves are about to commit is an old Commie trick.

The general attitude in Washington up to now has been that the Korean affair was a side show. Revised thinking takes the line that the North Koreans' attack was deliberately planned for major stakes.

From the Russian viewpoint, South Korea was becoming too strong, economically. Russians always have been extremely suspicious of strong neighbors. For instance, fear of Finns near Leningrad; fear of Iran, Turkey and Greece near Russia's Baku oil fields.

A strong, independent, united, democratic Korea would have been a threat to Russia's eastern maritime provinces and to Vladivostok.

Furthermore, from the Russian viewpoint, they have had the short end of the stick in Japan, the only country in Asia with an industrial potential and an ability to wage war. If the United States should make peace with Japan and permit the build-up of Japanese armed forces, it would spell trouble for Russian ambition to dominate the Far East.

Presence of two Chinese Red armies at the North Korean boundary puts the Manchurian situation in new light. Under 30-year pact signed at Moscow earlier this year, the Russians are obligated to get out of Manchuria, turning Port Arthur, Dairen, the railroad and all other seized Manchurian property over to the Chinese at the end of 1952. But getting the Russians out will be difficult unless Red China is willing and able to use force.

Marihuana, pulverized and compressed in bricks the size of masonry blocks, has been seized at the Mexican border. This is the latest smuggling dodge discovered by Treasury narcotics and customs agents charged with breaking up U. S. illicit drug traffic. In his annual report, just released, Bureau of Narcotics Commissioner Harry J. Anslinger accounts for 5,800 arrests for attempted violations of U. S. narcotics and marihuana laws, for the year ending June 30. This is an increase of 1,000 arrests over the year before. Drug and marihuana seizures were down, however, from 55,000 to 49,400 ounces.

First Bird And Flying Fish

Smithsonian Institution's National Air Museum wants to cull its flock of famous airplanes down to 125. It has many more than that now, exhibited and stored in various places. And more are being offered to it all the time. Newest addition of the Bell X-1, first plane to fly faster than sound, means that another once-famous plane may have to be put in storage.

Among the famous planes now in the collection are the Wright Brothers' first plane to fly and first military aircraft sold to the U. S., Lindebergh's "Spirit of St. Louis," Wiley Post's "Winnie Mae," Lincoln Ellsworth's "Polar Star," the hull of the NC-4, first transoceanic plane, and the "Enola Gay," first A-bomb plane, now in Chicago, along with a number of others. The plan eventually is to house them all in one Air Museum building. But a site hasn't been selected and Congress hasn't authorized or appropriated any money for it.

Red 'Collectivism'

The idea that East-West trade had to be revived for European recovery now is considered less important than formerly. Western European nations have found they can get from other parts of the world the food and raw materials they used to import from Eastern Europe. In the second place, Soviet Russia has so systematically bled the Eastern European satellite countries that they now have nothing to export, and they have no money with which to buy manufactured goods from Western Europe.

Remember This

Young Assistant Secretary Edward W. Barrett, in charge of the State Department's public information program, says he first learned about shaping public opinion from his father and from a family elephant named "Miss Fancy." His father, Edward Ware Barrett, was for many years editor of the Birmingham Age-Herald. He used to entertain celebrities who came to town, and one of his visitors was one of the Ringling brothers, of circus fame.

Barrett entertained Ringling at his club by playing dominoes, for keeps. At about 2 a.m., Barrett had all of Ringling's money. So Ringling bet an elephant against his losses on a final game. And Barrett won the elephant.

Ringling, at 5 a.m., insisted on paying off. So Miss Fancy, the elephant, was delivered at the Barrett home, complete with mahout. It went great with the Barrett children and the kids of the neighborhood. But Mrs. Barrett and the family cook took a dim view of the situation.

Barrett finally gave in. But how was he going to get rid of Miss Fancy? At last he had it. He decided Birmingham needed a zoo. He wrote an editorial for the Age-Herald. He started a campaign. School children were solicited to donate dimes. He put it over. That's how public opinion got formed.

Three Kinds Of Lettuce

The South Korean government has done at lot of fast work in handling its currency problems during the Communist invasion. It hadn't been publicized, but prior to June 25, all arrangements had been made to revalue Republic of Korea currency. New bills had been printed in the United States. Some time this Fall it had been planned to exchange these new bills for the old.

When the North Korean Commies drove the ROK government out of its capital at Seoul, however, so great was the haste that the plates for printing the old money were left behind. That was too much of a gift to the invaders. So the South Korean government made arrangements to have a new currency series printed in Japan. New plates had to be designed. But so great was the need that the job was done in little more than a week and the new currency was flown back to Korea.

When the war is over, this Japanese-printed money and the old Korean money will be exchanged for the U. S. printed series, at rates to be announced, and the currency will be stabilized in that way.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

The FORMER MISS FREY

By Edwin Rutt

Copyright 1950 by NEA Service, Inc.

THE STORY: Although Cornelius Frey never forgave his daughter Ede for eloping with fortune hunting Peter Flood, he tells her on his deathbed that she alone of his four children, "has brains enough" to carry on his prosperous advertising business, which he wishes to remain in the family. He admonishes her to hang onto the stock, because it will take care of them all: Ede, Jeffrey, Myron and Jean. Ede is to have 51 per cent of the stock, Jeff 25 per cent and Myron 24. Jean is taken care of through a trust fund. Of the group, only Jeff shows any resentment of Ede. He apparently believes that, as oldest son, the business should be in his charge. Ede has told Jean that Peter Flood will have to come to New York for awhile. Peter now is in Bermuda.

JENN FREY drew up her knees on the chaise and clasped her hands around them. "I wonder how Peter will like your asking him to come to New York? He's very temperamental, isn't he?"

"His bark's worse than his bite," Ede said offhandedly. "Now if you've got all of the questions off your chest, what about that crack of Jeff's? About your running around with an older man?"

Jenn colored slightly. "Oh, Ede. Don't you be stupid, too. Jeff's just a nosy old woman."

"Far be it from me to butt in," Ede said carefully. "But, after all, I'm your sister. I'd naturally take an interest."

"Well, I've nothing to hide," Jenn said, a little defensively. "It's Hamilton Grieve, if you've got to know."

Ede started. Hamilton Grieve had been at least 30, a hanger-on on the social fringe, before she herself had come out.

"He is a bit ancient, isn't he?" she said, trying to sound casual.

"So what? He's got a lot more on the ball than these college infants. He isn't," Jenn hesitated, seeking the right word, "well, callow."

"No," Ede agreed. "Ham wouldn't be callow. Only I should think you'd feel like his daughter. What about that good-looking boy who was so nice to you at the funeral?"

"Tommy Melbourne?" Jenn's voice was shrill with derision. "He's got the mind of a halfback."

"And the shoulders of one, too."

"Well, he did play football at Yale." Jenn's boredom was just a shade too obvious. "But he doesn't know from nothing."

Jenn got up and came over to her. She put a bare warm arm around Ede's shoulders.

"Don't worry about me, Ede," she said. "I know what I'm doing."

"I hope you do, dear," Ede said. "Because, frankly, I'm not going to have time to worry about you."

And that was a lie, she knew. She was worrying already. Hamilton Grieve had been trying to make an advantageous marriage for years and years.

JEFFREY FREY'S function at Frey & Company was to contact the account of Loman & Smith, makers of Morn-Glo Soap. It so happened that, when they arrived at the agency on the following morning, he found an urgent message from his client. The Morn-Glo advertising manager wished to see him immediately. Without even removing his hat, Jeff dashed away.

Ede was secretly pleased. It gave her a chance to talk with Reagan alone. They would get farther, she thought, without Jeff fuming and fussing at the conference.

Her first impression of Dan Reagan was almost frightening. The man affected her with a sense of vast power. His shoulders were incredibly broad, his neck short and thick. He had a large not too homely face, liberally freckled, that ended in a slab of a jaw. Reddish hair and the lightest, most penetrating blue eyes that Ede had ever seen. It was the eyes that softened the rock-like aspect Reagan presented. A little twinkle kept sliding in and out of them, constantly relieving the hard blue glitter. He looks, Ede thought, like a mastodon with a sense of humor.

"Well, Mr. Reagan," she said, by way of opening the discussion, "this is a strange situation, isn't it?"

"Yes." The twinkle was out of Reagan's eyes now. They stared at Ede like blue searchlights. He seemed to be taking in every detail of her tall trim figure, the little black hat and dotted veil, the smartly cut black crepe dress touched with white, the black suede shoes open at the toes. "It is indeed," he added.

"You know all about—about everything?" asked Ede.

"Yes. Your father told me what he had in mind."

Ede felt that he was waiting for her to play to him. She said, "And how do you think you're going to like it, Mr. Reagan?"

He looked her straight in the face. "I haven't made up my mind yet."

THERE was an awkward pause. Ede grew a little desperate. He was giving her no help, just sitting there staring at her with his challenging blue eyes.

Her mouth firmed. Don Reagan must not see that he had her slightly ill-at-ease. "Keep control," Old Cornelius had said. "If you don't, you're licked."

"Look here, Mr. Reagan," she said, in a steady voice, "I'm going to lay my cards on the table. I need you and I need you badly. At the same time, I understand your position. You were Father's righthand man and you didn't mind being that, I suppose. But now things are different. You may have to take orders from a woman. And you may not like it."

"And if I don't?" Reagan's strong hard jaw was jutting out. His eyes were like blue fire.

"In that case," Ede nerved herself to it, "you'll just have to get out, that's all. There can't be two bosses."

DADDY RINGTAIL

By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And The Straw Hat

The Huffen Puffen, the friendly wolf, came walking along the Elephant Path. He stopped beneath the very tall tree where Daddy Ringtail lives in the top. The Huffen called out: "Daddy Ringtail! It is I, your old friend, the Huffen Puffen."

Daddy Ringtail slid down to the ground. He listened while the Huffen explained that he was looking for Senator Alygnon. The Senator had a straw hat to sell, and Huffen was going to buy it.

"But Huffen Puffen," said Daddy Ringtail, "The Summer is almost gone. Soon will come the day when people don't wear straw hats any more, except for people who wear them after the Summer is finished."

Oh, but the Huffen knew all about it, he did. He knew that most people wear straw hats only in the Summer. He knew that the hot Summer days soon would be gone, and that the cool days of Autumn soon would be there The Huffen laughed. He explained that the Senator would sell the straw hat for hardly any money at all, because people soon would not be wearing them any more.

"But Huffen—"and again Daddy Ringtail was telling the Huffen the things the Huffen ought to remember. Soon would come THE DAY when everyone would put away his straw hat until another Summer had come. Why, if the Huffen wanted to do what others would do, he simply couldn't buy a straw hat now.

But the Huffen said he knew it, he did. Soon indeed would come THE DAY when everyone together would put away their hats of straw. Oh, yes, and yes indeed, but how could the Huffen put a straw hat away—if he didn't have a hat of straw to do it with? He couldn't. No indeed. And so he was going to buy a straw hat, he was. He was determined to do the thing he wanted to do. Yes, and when a someone is determined to do a something, the someone will do it, I guess, don't you? Yes sir and yes indeed, except the someone always ought to be sure he is determined to do the thing that is right.

Happy day, today and tomorrow and always, both to you and all the folks at your house, and to the folks who live next door.

Abundant Living

By E. STANLEY JONES

Matt. 12:46—50; 10:37—39.

THE KINGDOM AND THE FAMILY AND THE SELF

The Kingdom of the Family must be surrendered to the Kingdom of God if it is to find itself. But the family often becomes an end in itself. Family interests decide the issues. Such a family is bound to deteriorate. A family that lives in a state of self-reverence will live in a state of self-frustration. Unless the family is dedicated to something beyond itself from which it receives goal, inspiration, and guidance, it will deteriorate into a self-centered, self-seeking unit. The probabilities are that, being self-centered, it will be self-disruptive—the units, not being held together by lofty purposes, will fall apart. It is interesting to note that while divorces are one in six throughout our nation, among church people they are only one in fifty. That means, if it means anything, that to have something beyond the family, to which the family is devoted and loyal, will make that family hold together. The beyond-itself loyalty will be the cement which holds it together. A family that loses its life will save it.

And now we come to the final unit that must be surrendered—the Kingdom of the Self. We have stressed this so much that we need only mention it here. This losing of the individual in something beyond itself in order to find itself is no mere suppressing imposition laid upon life; it is the law of life running from the lowest to the highest. You have to die on one level to live on another. That is the law God has written into the constitution of things. The Mineral Kingdom surrenders itself to the Kingdom above—the Vegetable Kingdom—and is taken hold of by that kingdom and is transformed from dead matter into living forms. The Vegetable Kingdom surrenders to the Animal Kingdom, and is lifted into thinking feeling forms. The Animal Kingdom surrenders to the Kingdom of Man and becomes assimilated into the higher life of man. The Kingdom of Man surrenders to the Kingdom of God and shares a higher life. The law of life is: Lose your life to find it.

We close this discussion with the word of Robert Browning: "Who keeps one end in view makes all things serve."

O God, we have found the Way! Thy Way is written in the ways of life from the Kingdom of Matter to the Kingdom of God. It is our Way, our life. If we miss Thy way, we miss our way, and we miss our life. Help us this day to accept Thy way, surrender to it, live according to it, and thus Live! In Jesus' name. Amen.

Maine Remains In GOP Fold As Seven Other States Ballot

By The Associated Press

Seven scattered states held primary elections Tuesday, but chief national interest remained centered on New England, where Maine voters ran true to form Monday and kept Republicans in all major offices.

The Maine voting, always first in the nation, was the initial statewide election since the war broke out in Korea. Democrats, despite their traditional decided minority, put up an unusually stiff campaign.

But the voters returned to office Republican Governor Frederick G. Payne and three sitting GOP House members, Reps. Robert Hale, Charles P. Nelson and Frank Fellows. It was the state's eighth straight Republican sweep.

The GOP, in fact, polled a higher percentage of votes than it did in 1946, also a non-presidential year. Incomplete figures gave Payne about 67 per cent of the votes, compared with 61 per cent in 1946.

Tobey Under Fire

Attracting most interest in Tuesday's primary voting was New Hampshire. Republican Senator Charles W. Tobey was opposed for nomination for a third term by Wesley Powell, an attorney and former administrative assistant to Tobey's colleague, GOP Senator Styles Bridges.

Tobey is one of the self-styled Republican liberals in the Senate. Powell argued that his position amounted to "Trumanism." Tobey pointed to his experience in Washington.

The race was regarded as close.

Tobey was one of only two senators who faced opposition in Tuesday's primaries. The other is Senator Carl Hayden, Arizona Democrat, who had two opponents for his party's nomination.

Without opposition in their states were Senators Eugene D. Millikin (R-Colo), George D. Aiken (R-Vt) and Warren G. Magnuson (D-Wash). No senatorial seats were at stake in Michigan and Minnesota, which had gubernatorial and house races.

ATTORNEY TO DISMISS SUITS ON 'STROMBOLI'

SAN ANGELO —(AP)— The Tom Green County attorney planned Tuesday to ask for dismissal of two cases caused by the showing of the movie, "Stromboli," here last March.

The cases were expected to be called in county court. They were appealed from corporation court.

St. Louis Attorney Hints He'll Decline Party Finance Post

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Morris A. Shenker, St. Louis attorney for persons involved in a Senate gambling investigation, indicated Tuesday he may take a senator's suggestion to stay clear of a Democratic committee post to avoid embarrassing the party.

The invitation to Shenker to resign as a member of the Democratic National Finance Committee came from Chairman Kefauver (D-Tenn) of the Senate Crime Investigating Committee.

"How can I resign from something I never accepted?" Shenker replied from Jefferson City, Mo.

He declined further comment, but said he would have a statement later. There were indications he would turn down the position, to which he was named last Friday by Democratic National Chairman William M. Boyle, Jr.

Denying any connection with gamblers, Shenker said he never associated political activities with the practice of law and "never solicited or accepted a political contribution from any of my clients."

Kefauver said in a statement Monday night, "It will not set well with the public and certainly may be embarrassing to the Democratic Party for the attorney for principals whom the Senate Interstate Crime Committee is investigating in St. Louis to be represented by an official of the finance committee of the party."

Husband Says Wife Takes Lodge Title Much Too Seriously

LOS ANGELES —(AP)— A divorce-seeking husband says his wife, elected "queen" of a lodge in fun, took her association with the lodge "king" much too seriously.

The husband, Maurice N. Meyenberg, 43, aircraft engineer, sued Mrs. Marcella Q. Meyenberg, 37, and named Theodore A. Baker, 45, aeronautical engineer, as the lodge "king."

The complaint said Mrs. Meyenberg and Baker were elected to their royal posts in the Santa Monica Lodge last March, began associating secretly and then spending nights together. The complaint added that the affair disturbed other lodge members so much they declared the offices of "king" and "queen" vacant September 1. Meyenberg said Baker's wife, Muriel, 38, also has sued for divorce.

In 1927, Frank Frisch accepted 1,037 chances at second base for the Cardinals, a major league record.

Here are the high spots of a busy week in the lives of Mr. and Mrs. John Bowman of Independence, Missouri—the week that young Linda Marie joined the Bowman family of four.

It was a busy week, too, for their telephone. As Mrs. Bowman reports, "We use the telephone every day to run errands and deliver messages for us, but we never stopped to think about how useful and helpful it is—until we kept a record of our calls. And when we checked that record against our monthly bill, we were even more surprised at the low cost—about 2¢ a local call!"

Through the years telephone service has grown steadily in the part it plays in our daily lives—and the value it delivers. Today most folks will agree with the Bowmans that telephone service is one of the best buys in their family budget. Southwestern Bell Telephone Company.

John White Attends First Demo Conclave, Admits 'He's Green'

MINERAL WELLS —(AP)— John C. White attended his first State Democratic Convention Tuesday. He said "I'm green as a gourd."

It's all new to the 25-year-old Wichita Falls redhead who brought joy to many members of his party in the August 26 second primary by defeating J. E. McDonald for agriculture commissioner.

"Like I said in my campaign, I'm not a politician," White said in an interview. "I've always been a Democratic voter. But this is my baptism so far as politics is concerned."

He was enjoying it.

"It's lots of fun, but it's serious business, too. The maneuvering gets pretty intricate sometimes. I'm not always sure exactly what is going on. It's like in a chess game—you sidle off in one direction when you're really intending to go another."

The big, stocky North Texan was something of an oddity at the assemblage of old-timers versed in the ways of politics.

Termed Giant Killer

State Chairman John C. Calhoun interrupted Monday's meeting of the State Executive Committee to announce "we have in our midst a young giant killer I want you all to know."

White blushed.

And everyone looked at the uncomfortable young man who removed what loyalist Democrats considered a big thorn from the side of the Texas Democratic Party.

The thorn, of course, was McDonald, an almost-legendary Texas political figure who held office 20 years while voting independently.

"I'm glad now that I didn't say anything in my campaign about McDonald voting Republican," White said. "I'm glad I campaigned on the pertinent issues—how the office of agriculture commissioner was being administered.

Office In Good Hands

"And no one asked me, while I was campaigning, how I felt about Governor Shivers. I was for Shivers. The governor's office is in good hands. If anyone had asked me, I would have told them. No one asked me."

White still counts himself a political novice. But he's learning fast.

"I'm getting a tremendous amount of advice. And I really appreciate it. We should all be in politics. That's where we make our opinions effective. I think a lot of those people who are criticizing should be in here having their say."

Copy Of Sunday's Reporter-Telegram In 'Time Capsule'

A copy of the front page of Sunday's issue of The Reporter-Telegram will be enclosed with other newspapers and documents in the Time Capsule to be interred in an impressive ceremony in Dallas October 22, final day of the 1950 State Fair of Texas, with instructions not to open until 2050 A. D.

The State Fair Mid-Century Capsule plan is an attempt by fair officials to preserve a permanent record of life in Texas in 1950 for the benefit of Texans 100 years from now.

Thus, when the capsule is opened in 2050, the Texans of that time will read about Midland voters approving the issuance of $4,500,000 in bonds for public improvements, along with news concerning Midland building permits passed the $7,000,000 mark for the year, record school enrollment, September Dolla Day, and other news of local, state and national interest. They also will read about the Permian Basin District meeting of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association held in Midland.

Japanese Typhoon Will Not Hit Tokyo

TOKYO —(AP)— Tokyo will not be affected by a typhoon which will cross Western Honshu Island Wednesday, U. S. weather observers said Tuesday.

The forecast indicated the typhoon will skirt the eastern coast of Kyushu Island, cross Western Honshu and dissipate into the Sea of Japan on Thursday.

Red-Faced Posse Loses Prisoner, Tree, Handcuffs

MORRISTOWN, N. J. —(AP)—Five red-faced officers of the law would appreciate reports of the whereabouts of an escaped prisoner handcuffed to an uprooted tree.

Walbridge Vanderhoof, 25, charged with burglary and larceny, was taken from the county jail here Monday to point out the location of a still.

Sheriff Arnold Ladd, two officers of the State Alcoholic Beverage Commission, and the police chiefs of Rockaway and Randolph Townships accompanied the prisoner to Boonton Township. There he pointed out a barn, and said it contained a still and possibly some stolen loot.

But he feared to go inside, he said, because members of his former gang might be in the barn, ready to ambush him.

So the five peace officers handcuffed Vanderhoof to a small tree, and stealthily entered the barn.

They found nothing inside.

When they came out, Vanderhoof was gone. So were the handcuffs and the tree.

Captured Mexican Battle Flags Go Back Home Tuesday

MEXICO CITY —(AP)— Mexican battle flags captured by the United States in the war of 1847 come back home Tuesday — evidence of the present good relations between the U. S. and her neighbor to the south.

The formal return of the 69 flags will be one of the chief events of the Mexican Independence celebration. Mexico has 11 U. S. flags captured at various times and there has been talk about returning them, but no definite steps to that end have been announced yet.

Officials of the U. S. Army, Navy and Air Force named 18 cadets from West Point, Annapolis and Randolph Field to accompany the flags here. The delegation is commanded by Gen. Wade H. Haslip, Army vice chief of staff. Three U. S. Air Force planes bearing the flags and the military group were due to land at noon Tuesday.

Return of the flags to Mexico will be made Wednesday, the 103rd anniversary of the date on which six heroic young Mexican cadets plunged off a cliff at Chapultepec rather than be captured by U. S. troops.

The ceremony will be held near the monuments to the cadets, at the foot of the bluff which supports Chapultepec Castle.

Oklahoma Solon Asks Draft Freeze In Sooner State

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Representative Steed of Oklahoma doesn't think anyone else from Oklahoma should be drafted until the state receives credit for men already taken into military service.

Steed told National Selective Service officials Monday Oklahoma has been asked to "provide approximately eight times as many men on a per capita basis as the national average."

He bases his statement on figures showing the mobilization of National Guard units, the call to active duty of reservists and acceptance of volunteers.

Steed said that unless Oklahoma's draft quotas are frozen, it will mean the state will be "providing men to the extent of about 14,000 over and beyond its fair share."

Korean Reds Chant Drunkenly As They Await Yank Attack

WITH U. S. FIRST CAVALRY DIVISION IN KOREA—(AP)—Some 300 trapped North Koreans chanted drunkenly Monday night as they waited for the American attack they knew was coming.

Surrounded in a gully north of Taegu they already were getting mortar and machinegun fire from doughboys high on the ridges on either side of them. Throughout the night the chanting could be heard whenever firing died down.

Lt. George W. Petersburs of Milwaukee told the story.

Sunday night his company assaulted and secured a high ridge. Between it and the next ridge, also held by Americans, the 300 North Koreans were cut off by fire.

Comes From Gully

Soon after nightfall the weird music could be heard coming from the gully.

It got louder and louder.

"Where they got that music," said Lieutenant Petersburs, "I don't know. It was the darndest thing I have ever heard. They had some kind of phonograph. It sounded like one of our American records played about 10 times as slowly as it should be."

About midnight the chanting got still louder. The Americans dropped more mortar shells into the gulley "to shut them up." The Reds kept on singing.

"They must have been having one last big sake (rice beer) party," said the lieutenant. "They kept that noise up until daybreak. I guess we will be going in after them soon."

Petersburs said the Americans would not have minded the singing so much but "they just sang the one piece over and over again. I'll remember it a long time."

Playwright Resting After Leg Operation

LUTON, ENGLAND—(AP)—George Bernard Shaw was reported "fairly comfortable" Tuesday after an operation to pin together his fractured left thigh bone.

The 94-year-old Irish playwright and wit awoke early at Luton and Dunstable Hospital. After a light breakfast, he listened to a news broadcast, noting with obvious satisfaction the brief announcement of his operation late Monday.

LAMESA TRAFFIC CRASH CLAIMS SECOND VICTIM

LAMESA —(AP)— An auto wreck August 31 claimed its second victim Monday. Otto Nolan Hopwood, 36, of Athens died. Mrs. Ouida Lee Feris, 39, of Lawton, Okla., was killed in the wreck.

Final Plans Set For Martin Fair October 6 And 7

STANTON — Final plans and preparations are being mapped for the annual Martin County Fair, scheduled here October 6-7, and indications are the Lions Club-sponsored show will be the biggest and best ever.

Martin County Agent Ralph Jones, who currently is listing the exhibits and prize awards to be offered this year, says a record number of entries are expected in all departments.

Exhibits will be accepted in the homemaking, food, vocational, livestock and farm products fields.

The homemaking department will contain more than 50 items of handiwork made by women, including needle work, crocheting, knitting, embroidery and children's wearing apparel. The food department will contain various canned products from the orchard, garden and field, and frozen foods.

Flowers, educational exhibits, antiques, and the work of the vocational club and 4-H Girls Club, also will be on display.

The livestock department will show, hogs, capons and beef and dairy cows. Farm and field crop displays are expected to top those of any previous year.

The fair will be held in the County Barn where the annual Junior Livestock Show is held each Spring.

Texas Polio Victim Flies From Germany

HOUSTON —(AP)— A Texas polio victim was expected to arrive here some time Tuesday by plane from Germany.

He is Edward H. Rosenwasser, 22, Fort Worth medical student, stricken in Vienna while touring Europe.

He was encased in an iron lung flown from New York and started the trip home Monday on a special U. S. Air Force flight.

Officials of the Harris County Emergency Corps said they expected the plane to land at Ellington Air Force Base at mid-afternoon or later.

Bucky Harris made 479 putouts at second base for Washington in 1922, to set a record which still stands.

The Midland City Council will meet in regular semi-monthly session Tuesday night in the council chamber.

Council members will meet at 7 p.m., one-half hour earlier than usual, so they can inspect the new identification and records section of the Police Department.

A public hearing on several zoning changes in the city will be held during the regular meeting. The zoning areas include blocks in Kelview Heights, Cowden and Brunson Place additions.

The councilmen also will canvass returns of last week's city bond election and discuss procedures to be used in issuing $3,500,000 in revenue and tax bonds.

Final passage of a military leave policy for city employes and a discussion of a .ity claim for repairs at Midland Airpark also will be on the council's agenda.

IPAA Committee Has Plan To Get Steel Equipment

FORT WORTH —(AP)— A committee of the Independent Petroleum Association of America believes it has figured out a way to assure enough steel equipment to build up reserves of oil and natural gas.

The IPAA's Oil and Gas Field Committee worked out the plan Monday and will present it at the annual meeting of the association in St. Louis next month.

"In view of the serious situation that faces both the petroleum industry and the steel industry, it is necessary that the following basic principles be considered at this time," the committee report said.

Its principles are:

1. Enough steel must be allotted to makers of oil field pipe and other equipment to allow needed expansion in oil exploration and development.

On Fair Basis

2. Tubular goods and other oil field equipment should be distributed on a fair basis to the petroleum industry only for current use.

3. Fair distribution to small operators should be provided. Legitimate needs of operators should be recognized without the need for established customer relationship. Distribution should be flexible enough to provide for unforeseen drilling activities.

4. Stockpiling or unneeded inventory accumulation of steel equipment by oil operators should be avoided to keep as much as possible available for current use.

5. The petroleum industry should study and use ways to insure the most efficient use of available materials.

Bryan W. Payne of Tyler is chairman of the committee.

Troop Train Crash Fatal To 33; Three Probes Instigated

COSHOCTON, OHIO—(AP)—Three separate agencies Tuesday launched investigations into a tragic troop train wreck that claimed the lives of 33 persons—most believed to be soldiers.

And, less than 24 hours after the crash, a United States senator demanded a nationwide inquiry into railroad safety practices.

Investigations were begun by the Pennsylvania Railroad, whose streamlined "Spirit of St. Louis" crashed into a troop train at nearby West Lafayette; the Ohio Military District, and the National Guard.

The investigators want to know why the streamliner passed flares and crashed into the stalled troop train.

Two National Guard officers from Washington—Col. C. F. Sawyer and Lt. Col. H. J. Bersace—arrived Monday night to conduct the guard's investigation. The dead soldiers were all guardsmen.

The Counter Intelligence Division of the Ohio Military District began its investigation earlier, as did the railroad.

As the investigations proceeded, the Army still was struggling to complete identification of 11 of the 33 dead, also believed to be Pennsylvania National Guardsmen.

500 Guardsmen Aboard

Their train, carrying 500 guardsmen to Camp Atterbury, Ind., stalled with a broken air hose on a foggy stretch of the Pennsylvania Railroad near this Eastern Ohio town at 4:10 a. m. Monday.

Five minutes later, despite red flares placed on the track, the Pennsylvania's streamlined "Spirt of St. Louis" crashed into the rear of the disabled train.

Tuesday, 17 of the seriously injured had been flown to Wright-Patterson Air Force Base Hospital near Dayton. Ten others were at Coshocton Memorial Hospital.

The dead were to be removed in one group to the armory at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., accompanied by an honor guard for each victim. Most lived in the vicinity or near Carbondale, Pa.

The uninjured guardsmen were taken on to Camp Atterbury Monday night to begin training for active service with the Army. They are members of Pennsylvania's 28th Infantry Guard Division.

Senator Francis Myers (D-Pa) Monday proposed a nationwide investigation of railroad safety practices as an outgrowth of the wreck.

Week Of Mourning

In Wilkes-Barre, Mayor Luther W. Kniffen proclaimed a week of mourning for casualties of the wartime tragedy who died without firing a shot.

The National Guard in Pennsylvania said, meanwhile, that only one of the dead had National Service Life Insurance, the government policy for members of the armed forces. Most had planned to apply for the policies when they reached Camp Atterbury.

While the separate investigations of the disaster continued, the Pennsylvania Railroad declined comment on the cause. Several officials, who declined to be quoted, theorized that the engineer of the "Spirit of St. Louis" could not see the troop train's signal flares in the early morning fog.

W. E. Eller, engineer of the "Spirit of St. Louis," who was reported injured in the crash, could not be located by newsmen.

D. S. Hasbrouck, Coshocton, junior engineer on the troop train, said the streamliner was traveling at a "normal rate of speed" when it hit.

"It hit hard," he declared. "There was a grinding and tearing in the darkness. There wasn't much yelling from the men—just groans. They all seemed dazed, and the ones who weren't hurt were calm and got organized quickly."

Oil Production Sets New Record

TULSA —(AP)— The nation's crude oil production, for the second straight week, reached a new all-time record during the week ended September 9, the Oil and Gas Journal reported Tuesday.

The Journal said the daily average production for the week was 5,826,025 barrels, 144,100 barrels over the previous week.

Eight states, with Texas showing the way, recorded 1950 records.

Texas, the country's No. 1 producing state, soared 142,275 barrels to 2,663,550 barrels. Other record-breakers included:

Arkansas, up 150 barrels to 82,550 barrels; Louisiana, 3,800 to 579,800; New Mexico, 750 to 136,625, and Oklahoma, 200 to 470,350.

The 1950 football meeting between Villanova and Louisiana State is the first ever scheduled between the two schools.

Huks Raid Village Near Clark Air Base

MANILA —(AP)— Communist-led Hukbalahap guerrillas raided a town about 10 miles from the U. S. Clark Field Air Base Tuesday.

Two members of the new Filipinio civilian guard were killed and four wounded. The raid, on Arayat in Pampanga Province, was the first by the Huks in daylight in many months.

Fighting was reported continuing. A dispatch to the Manila Times said about 150 Huks were in the raiding party.

Hurricane Isolates Tiny Barbuda Island

ST. JOHN'S, ANTIGUA, LEEWARD ISLANDS—(AP)—Relief supplies were rushed Tuesday to the tiny island of Barbuda, where a fierce August 31 hurricane left more than one-third of the 1,000 residents shelterless.

The storm wrecked the radio station on the island, 40 miles north of here, cutting off communication until Monday. Only one schooner was left fit for use.

No deaths were reported.

We're Breaking Ground for Another 75 Years!

In 1875, a short sixteen years after the first discovery of oil in America, Continental was marketing petroleum products on the Western Frontier, supplying kerosene for lamps of the pioneers.

Throughout the intervening years—while oil has set the pace for American progress—Continental, too, has grown. Today it ranks among the first dozen of the many thousands of American oil companies.

Today Continental celebrates its 75th anniversary by breaking ground for a new research center.

This building—and the investment it will represent in equipment and the time of men of specialized skills—is a symbol of our faith in the future of our company, our industry and our country.

Through continuous research, we move toward ever-advancing goals in the quality and economy of Continental products.

To our employees, our jobbers, our dealers and our customers, the spade that today bites into Western soil is evidence that this industry is young and dynamic . . . that its future will present continued opportunity for progress . . . and that the products of petroleum will be of ever-increasing usefulness to man.

MAJOR LEAGUES—

Yankees Cop Two From Washington To Regain First

By The Associated Press

The see-saw American League pennant race roars into the West Tuesday with the pressure heavier on the invading New York Yankees and Boston Red Sox than on the Detroit Tigers.

Casey Stengel's Yankees, leading by a half-game, begin a nine-game tour of the West with a two-game series in Cleveland. The third-place Red Sox, a game and a half out, open an eight-game road trip in Chicago. The second-place Tigers begin a 10-game home stand with the Washington Senators.

The Yanks, who forged to the front Monday by sweeping a doubleheader from Washington 5-1 and 6-2, face no easy task.

The Indians, virtually knocked out of contention over the weekend when they dropped four straight games to the lowly St. Louis Browns, are out for blood. They are smarting under a spanking by their General Manager Hank Greenberg, who blasted them for "not hustling and playing stupid ball."

Besides, the Yanks' top Indian killer, Eddie Lopat, probably will not be available for duty. Lopat, who holds a 27-6 lifetime record over the Indians and a 5-0 record against them this year, worked almost five innings in relief Monday.

Reynolds Vs. Wynn

Allie Reynolds (13-11) is slated to oppose the Indians' Early Wynn (18-7) Tuesday night. Wynn has beaten the Yanks three times.

The Red Sox, installed by New York odd-makers at 7 1/2 or 8 1/2 to five favorite to win the pennant, are the hottest team in the race at the moment. The Sox have won 23 of their last 26 games but are known as a poor road club.

Boston's record in the West this year is a so-so 19-17 and was built up primarily at the expense of the St. Louis Browns. The Sox have knocked off the Browns eight straight in St. Louis but elsewhere they have not fared so well. Their record at Chicago is 5-5, at Cleveland 2-7 and at Detroit 4-5.

The Tigers have a schedule advantage over the Yanks and Red Sox. They have 17 games remaining at home, where they have won 44 and lost 19 for an impressive .698 pace.

The cruical games of the Western trek begin on Thursday when the Yanks invade Detroit for three games. The Red Sox follow the Bronx Bombers with a two-game series beginning on Sunday.

Lopat and Young Ed Ford were the winning pitchers for the Yanks Monday in the rain-swept doubleheader at Washington, only activity in either league.

Ford Chunks Beauty

Ford pitched a brilliant three-hitter in the opener to post his sixth victory without a setback. The young lefty held the Senators hitless over the last five innings.

The game was a nip and tuck affair until the eighth inning, when the Yanks hopped on Al Sima for three runs to take a 5-1 lead. Rookie Jackie Jensen led the Yanks' 10-hit attack with three safeties including his first major league home run.

Lopat relieved erratic Tommy Burne in the fifth inning of the second game and allowed only two hits the rest of the way to gain his sixteenth victory.

In the National League, the question appears to be not so much who will win the pennant but when will the Philadelphia Phillies clinch it?

The Phils, leading the runner-up Brooklyn Dodgers by six and one-half games, begin a 10-game home stand Tuesday night with the stumbling St. Louis Cardinals as the opposition. The Dodgers engage the revived Cincinnati Reds at Ebbets Field.

Philadelphia has 19 games left to play and if the Phils win only 10 of these games the Dodgers have to win 20 out of their 24 to come out on top. Boston would have to win 20 out of 23 and New York 21 out of 22 to bag the pennant.

The only scheduled game in the National League Monday, a night affair between Brooklyn and New York was rained out.

Texas League—

Beaumont, Fort Worth Sites Of Playoff Openers

By The Associated Press

Playoffs to determine the Texas League pennant-winner and representative in the Dixie Series open Tuesday night at Beaumont and Fort Worth.

The staggering Fort Worth Cats meet Tulsa's rushing Oilers and Beaumont's embattled Roughnecks take on the slugging San Antonio Missions.

Tulsa and San Antonio rate light favorites to win the first round and meet in the battle for the pennant. Fort Worth has been in an eclipse for more than a month, playing slightly over .500 ball. Tulsa, on the other hand, has been doing .660.

Beaumont and San Antonio have just wound up meeting each other six times in eight days with some very poor results on Beaumont's side. San Antonio won five games.

Manager Rogers Hornsby of the Roughnecks said he probably would throw his best hitters against San Antonio even if he had to sacrifice some on defense. He wants to counter attack the long-distance Mission slugging.

Nevel To Hurl Opener

Hornsby will use his 21-game winner, big Ernie Nevel, in the opener. San Antonio will depend on left-hander Lou Sleater (12-5).

Manager Al Vincent, who has had clubs in seven playoffs in the past and piloted three champions in 10 years, nominated his 21-game hurler, Jim Blackburn, who beat the Cats three out of four times during the regular season. Fort Worth will use Pat McGlothin, a right-hander who has a 6-3 record for 12 games started since joining the club in mid-season, one a no-hitter.

Tulsa is the defending champion of the league, licking Fort Worth last year in the finals but losing in the Dixie Series.

The clubs play twice at Fort Worth and Beaumont, then move to Tulsa and San Antonio for three games, returning to Fort Worth and Beaumont for two more if that many are needed to determine the playoffs.

Goodman Leads AL Batting With .361

CHICAGO —(AP)— Two Detroit Tigers, one of them really snarling, are chasing pace-setter Billy Goodman of the Boston Red Sox in the American League batting race.

Goodman's mark through last Sunday's games was .361, sixteen points ahead of runner-up George Kell of Detroit, who had .345.

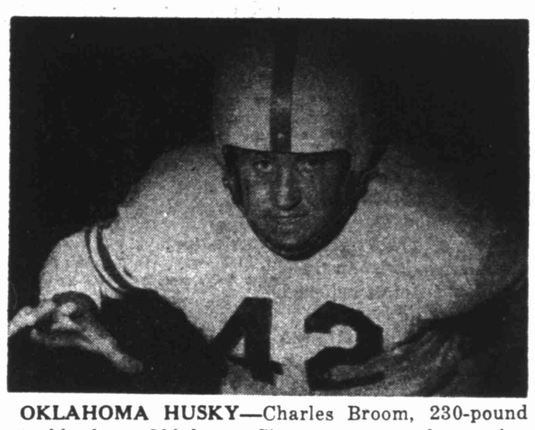

But the man Goodman well might fear is Kell's Tiger teammate, Hoot Evers, who zoomed an amazing 22 points last week, from .318 to a third-spot .340.

Midland Colts Cop 6-5 Tilt Over Sox

The Midland Colts won their third straight game Sunday, whipping the Lamesa Red Sox 6 to 5 at Colts Park.

The Colts have a big three-game series coming up this weekend. Juarez, Mexico, and Monahans will oppose the Colts Friday and Saturday at Indian Park.

Sunday it will be the Colts and the Black Indians in an afternoon tilt at Indian Park.

OKLAHOMA HUSKY—Charles Broom, 230-pound tackle from Oklahoma City, appears to be coming around to what Abilene Christian College coaches have been hoping he'd do for two seasons. A senior, he won his first letter last season. He'll be called upon for heavy duty this Fall if he performs as expected. Broom did a hitch in the Marines in and around Tientsin, China, after playing with Classen (Oklahoma City) High School's 1944 state championship team.

Sul Ross College Training For ACC Tilt Slated Here

ALPINE—Since September 1, Head Coach Paul E. (Red) Pierce of Sul Ross State College, along with his assistants William H. (Jack) Perryman and Richard (Bull) Johnson, have been putting their 1950 football prospects, the Lobos, through drills on Jackson Field preparing for the game with Abilene Christian College September 23 in Midland's Memorial Stadium.

The Lobo squad of 45 men soon will be cut to about 30 for the season.

A game with Sam Houston September 16 at Huntsville will be the first of this year, and also the first game for the Lobos as a member of the Lone Star Conference. The Lone Star Conference is the second oldest athletic conference in Texas. It was organized 18 years ago and has gained wide recognition in the field of college sports, having produced many outstanding athletic teams during this period of time. As the "baby" of the conference, the Lobos will be facing much stronger competition than in last year. Sul Ross has been a member of the New Mexico Conference for the last three years, and it has been the champion of that conference each year. However, the Lone Star Conference is a much stronger conference in every respect. Individual college enrollments are greater than the New Mexico Conference schools, and the athletic program in general is on a very much higher level. How the Lobos will fare is very much a question in everyone's mind.

In 1949 the Lobos defeated the Bearkats at Sul Ross by 31 to 20, and in 1948 at Huntsville by 20 to 19.

Have 12 Lettermen

The Lobo squad will be made up of 12 lettermen and 18 new men. Last June 24 squadmen, of which 12 were lettermen, graduated or dropped out of school. Most of these men were veterans of World War II who started to school in 1946 and naturally graduated in 1950. Due to the limited number of athletic scholarships available at Sul Ross, it has been impossible to pick up very many new men during the last four years. In 1949 the Lobos would have done fairly well in the Lone Star Conference play, since they defeated Sam Houston and the University of Corpus Christi who defeated the East Texas State Teachers College. This year the prospects are not too bright.

Sul Ross State College is by far the smallest college in the Lone Star Conference. Its 1950-51 anticipated enrollment is about 1,000 students. Sam Houston's enrollment is almost three times as many.

At the end of the 1949 season, the Lobos had scored 318 points to their opponents 193, while winning seven games, losing three, and tying none. In total offense, they were seventh in the nation for small college teams, having rolled up 4,131 yards an average of 413.1 yards per game. Their rushing attack accounted for most of this yardage, 3,024 yards to be exact, which was good enough to rate them ninth in the nation.

Two individual Sul Ross players stood out statistically. End Bob Mathis, who graduated in May, was twenty-first in the nation on pass receiving, and Ted Scown, who will be back with the Lobos this year, was twelfth in the nation in rushing.

Polly Riley Meets Wall In Tourney

ATLANTA —(AP)— The first round of the Women's National Amateur Golf Tournament was a shakedown cruise in which no great favorites were shaken out but Tuesday's lineup looked like trouble for some of the best.

Polly Riley's job Tuesday was to whip Mary Agnes Wall, rough work for any golfer. Miss Riley, Fort Worth, Texas, is Southern and Western champion. Her Menominee, Mich., opponent is a veteran of the women's circuit.

Polly, who came to Crackerland's famed East Lake course hunting her first amateur title, had an easy first round victory over Allee Chatham of Greenwood, Miss, 8-7.

Mary Agnes defeated Atlanta's Anne Twilley 8-6.

'Secret Practice' In SWC

DALLAS —(AP)— The "Secret practice" sign was going up in Southwest Conference football Tuesday.

With opening games less than two weeks away, some of the schools were barring the public as the coaches got the boys down to brass tacks.

Coach Harry Stiteler of Texas A&M said his gridders would work in solitude beginning Tuesday.

Coach Jess Neely of Rice began practice in private Monday.

Stiteler's Aggies showed the railbirds some fine passing in the last public workout Monday with Dick Gardemal, Delmer Sikes, Darrow Hooper and Ray Graves all laying them down with gratifying regularity.

Rice takes off Tuesday for registration but the Owls will be at it hot and heavy again Wednesday—sans public. In an effort to strengthen the fullback post, Neely has brought sophomore Bill Frazier up from the fourth string to spell regular George Glauser.

Texas Coach Blair Cherry was disheartened by missed blocks, spotty tackling and faulty timing in Monday's practice. Ken Jackson, regular tackle, is favoring a twisted knee but will be ready for work again in a few days.

Meyer Shifts Flowers

Texas Christian Coach Dutch Meyer took steps to plug a weakness at tackle as he shifted Keith Flowers, big fullback, to the line post.

Southern Methodist tried its hand at coping with the Georgia Tech T. Tech is the team with which SMU opens the season next week. Coach Rusty Russell didn't have the Ragknots using the T against the regulars but had his top backs running the Tech formations.

Coach George Sauer of Baylor worked against Wyoming plays in Monday's drill and said his defensive team stopped them, as run by the B team, "very well." Baylor opens the season against Wyoming next week. Larry Isbell, a quarterback, had his first hard work. He has been favoring a shoulder injury received in baseball.

The Arkansas Razorbacks tuned up on field goal kicking and got in a lot of work on punting. Tommy Britt and Sammy Furo sparkled in kick returns.

Middleweight Title Mixup Due To Clear

DETROIT —(AP)— The middleweight muddle may be cleared Tuesday at the National Boxing Association convention if Champion Jake LaMotta and Laurent Dauthuille each post $10,000 to guarantee he will fight Ray Robinson in six months.

Dauthuille, underdog in Wednesday night's title bout at Detroit's Olympia, will put up the cash through Max Waxman. In case he wins he promises to give Sugar Ray, the welter champ, a title shot before March 13. But he will ask to be allowed to go through with a return bout with LaMotta before he meets Robinson.

LaMotta already has signed a contract to fight Robinson at Chicago Stadium in the second week of February if he successfully defends his crown. Truman Gibson, International Boxing Club secretary, disclosed that match Monday. However, Fred Saddy of Milwaukee, NBA president, wants to see a $10,000 forfeit posted by Jake—just in case. Jake says "I got enough worries with Dauthuille. I don't want to talk business."

BY SHORTY SHELBURNE

The saddest news of the Korean war for us reached Midland Monday. A fine coach and a fine man who once coached the boys who are the Midland Bulldogs now, has been killed in action.

Joe Akins, an assistant coach here until he enlisted in the Army early this year, has paid the supreme sacrifice for his country.

—SS—

After looking at the Midland Bulldogs in training for 10 days, we would say Larry Friday and Robert Keisling are the most promising of the young crop.

Friday was up with the A squad last season and Keisling did some duty with the varsity.

This year both of them are bound to see plenty of action.

—SS—

Friday is one of the best blocker and tackles on the squad even though he is only a sophomore. He is tough and gives his best all the time.

Keisling, gifted with some speed and a burning desire to make the grade, may develop into the best running back we have seen here in years.

—SS—

Over at Odessa, the Bronchos already have started taking "secret practice."

Joe Coleman's Red Shirts are picked to finish high in the state race. He probably has the top backfield in the state right now and his line will be big.

Midland fans will get a first-hand look at the Bronchos November 11 in Memorial Stadium.

—SS—

The Big Seven Conference is saying this may be the year the University of Oklahoma Sooners will meet their equal.

The Sooners still are the top rated team in the circuit but gone are all but one of last year's starters. Fullback Leon Heath is the only returnee.

Missouri and Kansas are picked as the biggest threats to overtake Oklahoma.

—SS—

Bill Secor, a former Midland High School gridder, is one of the top candidates for an end position at Austin College.

Coach Ray Morrison has found himself with some gaping holes at both ends and is sifting his material for some starters.

Purple Works On Kicking, Punting

The Midland Bulldogs Monday returned to workouts and Coach Tugboat Jones sent them through a general drill designed to bring out good form more than anything else.

Punts, kickoffs, passing and punt returns got a major part of the attention. The usual daily scrimmage was not held.

Reed Gilmore, one of the finest punters in the conference last season, will do most of the booting again this year. He got off some that covered good distance in Monday's drill.

Larry Friday and Charles Crowley are working on their punting form and may spell Gilmore in that department.

Crowley and Dwane Bush, end, handled the place kicking duties last season. Both were doing a nice job before the season was over and it is likely they will split the work again.

L. C. Thomas probably will be the kickoff specialist. He was kicking Monday and it appears he can take up right where he left off. A little added weight which the letterman fullback is carrying this year should help him get more distance.

Jack Burris, definitely the top ball carrier on the squad so far, looked good in Monday's workout. He returned some of the kicks nicely.

Burris has been showing up better than anyone else as a passer. He chunked a few last season but never really hit his stride. It looks as if he is coming around this year.

In the injury department, things are just about the same. Jimmy Linebarger is just about ready to rejoin the squad. His leg injury is healing fast.

Dan Black, backfield prospect who was injured last week, still is nursing a big knee.

Bill Grissett has his injured ankle in a "walking cast" now. He will be out several weeks.

Seamen Relate Weird Story Of Mystery Tow Ride

PORTLAND, MAINE. — (AP) — Crewmen of two Portland fishing draggers have returned from a mysterious ocean tow ride which, they say, scared them almost to death off Brier Island, Nova Scotia.

Skippers of the 110-foot Cherokee and the 86-foot Evzone told a strange story of how their vessels were towed helplessly last Wednesday night by an underwater object they could not see.

Was it a submarine? Probably, say skippers Arthur W. and Thomas Jordan. They told a newsman it might have been a Russian sub but added that their surmise was based only on their understanding that no American subs were in the area and that Canada had none.

Could it have been a whale? No, the skippers say, because whales can not stay submerged for such long periods.

The tow rides followed each other. The Evzone was towed an hour and a half, the Cherokee about 25 minutes. Both craft had their sterns dragged beneath the water by a terrific haul. They were freed when their cables, snapped from whatever was tugging them.

"It was a nightmare," said the skippers.

Army Officer Held For Questioning In $250,000 Shortage

RENO —(AP)— A handsome Army major—located at an isolated ranch—was jailed Tuesday for questioning about alleged misapplication of more than $250,000 in Germany.

The Army identified him as Maj. Harold Dean Banning, 39, a finance officer in a Berlin Army post. He is here on 60-day leave—and, he said, to divorce his wife, Willie Lee Ramsey Banning, formerly of Arkansas. She remained in Germany.

Dressed nattily in civilian clothes, Banning firmly denied he had "stolen anything or absconded with any funds." The Defense Department had broadcast a nationwide pickup order for him, saying he was wanted for investigation of "misapplication of public funds in excess of $250,000."

Banning told Army agents and sheriff's deputies he had $100,000 when he arrived in the U. S. by commercial plane August 25. He declared it was money he had saved —"my own personal fund and it has nothing to do with the Army."

Sports

Andrews-Pecos Game Tops 5-A

The climax game of the 1950 season in District 5-A may be unreeled as early as Friday night when the highly regarded Pecos Eagles visit Andrews for a clash with Coach Francis Tubbs' Mustangs.

The Eagles last week whipped a strong Levelland team 18 to 0 and Andrews pulled the surprise of the week with a 19-19 tie of favored Dalhart.

Probably the second rated conference clash this week will be McCamey and Kermit at McCamey. Both teams notched wins last week in non-conference play.

McCamey showed a brilliant offense and strong defense in clouting Colorado City 26 to 14. Coach Elmo McCook says his Badgers came through in fine shape and will be ready for the Kermit engagement.

Kermit sent Rink Spinks across the goal line four times and had him add four extra points as it smothered Merkel 28 to 0. Spinks will be the big gun for the Yellowjackets all season, judging from his fast start.

Fort Stockton and Crane tangle at Crane in another conference battle Friday night. Both lost last week but Stockton showed surprising strength, holding Wink to a 7-6 score.

Crane had a tough one for an opener in Seminole. The Indians took the measure of the Golden Cranes 27 to 7.

Wink and Denver City collide at Denver City. It will be the second conference tilt for the Wildcats and the opener for Denver City.

Seminole takes on Levelland in a non-conference go. The game should give some comparison between Seminole and Pecos.

Coach F. O. Scroggins and his Monahans Lobos will take a week off and prepare for their conference opener with McCamey next week.

College Grid Movie Showing Wednesday

"Highlights of 1949," a college football film, will be screened at 7:15 p.m. Wednesday in the Crystal Ballroom of Hotel Scharbauer. Coaches from through out this area have been invited to attend.

Musial Holds Long Lead In Bat Race

NEW YORK —(AP)— Stan Musial, the master hitter of the St. Louis Cardinals, is well on his way toward becoming the third batter in National League history to win more than three batting championships.

Musial is banging away at a .359 clip in his bid for his fourth batting crown. Honus Wagner and Rogers Hornsby are the only National Leaguers who ever won more than three batting titles. Wagner won eight and Hornsby seven.

The Cardinal star enjoys a commanding lead over his nearest rival, Jackie Robinson of the Brooklyn Dodgers, hitting at a .331 gait through games of Monday.

Bulldog Booster Club Meets Tuesday

The first meeting of the year for the Midland Bulldog Booster Club will be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the Junior High School Cafeteria.

An interesting program has been promised and important business will be handled.

Membership cards will be handed out, President Russell Cotton said.

Friday Is Last Day For Football Filing

AUSTIN —(AP)— Texas Schools have only three more days to qualify for Interscholastic League football competition this Fall.

Dr. Rhea H. Williams, the league's directors of athletics, cautioned coaches and school administrators Monday to file their football acceptance cards by the September 15 deadline.

Failure to file a card, he said, would disqualify a school from participating in football competition.

Hurricane Brushes New England Coast

BOSTON —(AP)— A powerful Atlantic hurricane whistled out to sea early Tuesday after brushing the New England coast with winds up to 70 miles an hour.

The blow smashed small boats at moorings, endangered coastal shipping, snapped power lines and toppled trees before it turned seaward 80 miles east of Nantucket Island, off the Massachusetts coast.

Mountainous seas battered beaches, smashing over seawalls in some sections. Property damage, however, was not extensive.

One fishing vessel was reported in trouble off the Massachusetts coast and another made port at Provincetown after sending out a distress call.

The Boston Weather Bureau said the storm—still holding 100-mile winds in its center—would move no closer to land and probably would pass Canada's maritime provinces.

Texas Druggist Released On Bond

CARRIZOZO, N. M. —(AP)—Leon Todd, Mineral Wells, Texas, druggist charged with murder in a 10-year-old slaying at Ruidoso, has been released under $4,000 bond.

Todd posted cash bond Monday after District Attorney Tom K. Campbell agreed to cut the bail from $10,000.

He left immediately for his home in Mineral Wells.

Todd was arrested last week after an Arizona prison inmate, Glen Thornton, said he (Thornton) had been hired to do away with William Henry Hewitt, 30.

Todd has said he did not recall ever meeting Thornton.

Child Who Fell Ten Stories Walks Out Of Gotham Hospital

NEW YORK —(AP)— Nine days after she fell out of a 10-story window, four-year-old Karen Weiler walked out of the hospital Monday, smiling and hugging a new doll.

The little girl plunged out of a small ventilating window in the big Stuyvesant Town Housing Project, landing on the grass.

Next day at the hospital she wanted to go home.

The doctors, who could find nothing wrong with her, kept her the rest of the time for observation.

JERNIGAN NOMINATED DEAN OF A&I COLLEGE

KINGSVILLE — Dr. J. C. Jernigan has been nominated as dean of Texas A&I College.

He is to succeed Dr. O. R. Neilsen, who will become executive vice president of Texas Christian University. Jernigan last year was director of student personnel and associate professor of education.

Sirenless Vehicles Have Difficulty In Bucking Traffic

NEW YORK —(AP)— Sirens no longer scream along New York City streets, as a result, police, firemen and ambulance are having trouble speeding through traffic.

The ban on their sirens, effective Monday, was imposed by civilian defenses officials, who ordered sirens used only as an air raid alert.

Police radio patrolmen reported they were slowed down in answering emergency calls.

The head of the hospital department's ambulance service said ambulances needed some kind of noise gadget to help them buck traffic, and the use of bells was being considered.

Fire trucks already have bells, but one officer complained:

"You almost have to stop for lights now. Drivers hear our bell for maybe a half block ahead. A siren is heard from two to three blocks. A siren commands respect. Bells don't mean anything to the public."

VA Seeks Jobs For Disabled Veterans

WASHINGTON —(AP)— The Veterans Administration appealed to defense industries Tuesday to hire disabled war veterans.

The agency said in a statement a federally-sponsored training program is at the disposal of the veterans "but they need a place to train."

"Survey after survey disclosed that these men, when properly placed, proved to be at least as good workers as their able-bodied fellow employes," the agency said.

"Yet today, five years after V-J Day, thousands of disabled World War II veterans everywhere still are looking just for an opportunity to prove themselves."

Filipino Now Heads UN Korea Commission

TOKYO —(AP)— The Philippines delegation Tuesday took over the rotating chairmanship of the United Nations Commission on Korea.

Maximino Bueno, the Philippines alternate delegate, will officiate at the next meeting of the commission.

Dr. Bernabe Africa, chief Philippines delegate, will take over upon his return from Manila.

The chairmanship last was held by India.

Light Up...

...FOR Better LIVING!

Now that students are starting another school term, it is vitally important that they have enough of the right kind of light for easy seeing.

All lamps used by students for home study should have at least a 100-watt bulb—150 watts in many cases—to provide good light to make their home-work easier and to prevent undue eyestrain. Lamp shades, too, are important—they should be wide enough to spread the light evenly and keep glaring, unshaded light from striking the eyes.

the exploration will be tested in the upper zone of the Ellenburger.

Sun Tests Strawn Zone In S-C Scurry

Sun Oil Company's No. 1-A G. H. Arledge, Ellenburger wildcat in South-Central Scurry County, recovered a fair show of oil on a drillstem test in the lower Strawn lime at 7,665-82 feet.

The lime was topped at 7,646 feet.

After tool was open two hours, recovery was 525 feet of oil and gas cut mud.

Operator is now running casing to 7,655 feet and will test the open hole zone. Total depth of the explorer is 7,682 feet.

The No. 1-A G. H. Arledge is one and one-eighth miles southwest of Sun's No. 2 Lemons which was completed as a Strawn discovery for 110 barrels of 39-gravity oil daily through a quarter-inch choke from open hole from 7,665 to 7,680 feet.

The No. 1-A G. H. Arledge is located 60 feet from south and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 193, block 97, H&TC survey and six miles southwest of Snyder.

Crosby Scheduled For Deep Explorer

Nine miles southwest of Crosbyton, in Central Crosby County, National Associated Petroleum Company will drill its No. 1 T. M. Abel as an 8,000-foot wildcat.

Exact location of the new explorer will be 660 feet from south and west lines of section 9, block 3, WC survey.

Nearest production to the proposed No. 1 T. M. Abel is in the Buenos field of Northwest Garza County.

Eskota Outpost In Fisher Is Spudded

Drilling has started at Stanolind Oil & Gas Company No. 1 W. L. Barbee, east outpost to the Eskota field in Southeast Fisher County about 17 miles southeast of Roby.

This explorer, projected to 5,600 feet with rotary, is 1,730 feet from west and 2,150 feet from north lines of the Barbee 280-acre lease in George Creath survey.

This prospector topped the reef at 6,860 feet, to give it a datum of minus 4,605 feet. It has not developed any possibilities of petroleum production since it found the reef lime.

It drillstem tested at 6,868-88 feet. The tool was open 45 minutes. Recovery was 140 feet of drilling mud.

Another test was run at 6,932-53 feet. Length of the investigation was not reported. Recovery was 500 feet of oil and gas cut muddy salt water.

Bumper Baby Crop Crowds Nursery

A bumper crop of babies continues to crowd the nursery at Midland Memorial Hospital.

Tuesday morning, nurses were scurrying busily to take care of 16 babies, arrivals of the last few days.

No shortage of nursery space is expected. An adjoining room still is available for the lusty newcomers.

Two of the occupants of the nursery are the Van Riper twin girls, born Saturday night. The double birth caused turmoil in the M. E. Van Riper family, as names were sought for the two girls. Finally Tuesday, the babies were named Kaye Bea and Faye Ann.

Another nursery resident is a long-term occupant of space in one corner. He is the tiny baby who weighed two pounds, two ounces at birth, and now tips the scales at a healthy three pounds, 12 ounces. He has been in an incubator since July 28, and is the "old settler" in the nursery.

Way Cleared For Congress To Rest

WASHINGTON —(AP)— President Truman Tuesday gave Democratic leaders his clearance for Congress to quit as soon as it has completed action on emergency matters now pending.

Speaker Rayburn of Texas announced after a White House conference that Truman said he has "nothing further to submit to Congress at this time."

Rayburn and the Senate Democratic leader, Lucas of Illinois, agreed that Truman left the decision up to Congress on whether to adjourn, recess or take a holiday under some other legislative agreement.

Neither Rayburn nor Lucas would say whether Congress will be able to quit by Saturday night, as some have hoped.

Big Three Start Talks On Defense Of Western Europe

NEW YORK —(AP)— The Big Three Western foreign ministers began a series of major strategy talks here Tuesday beamed at reinforcing the defenses of Western Europe against Russian and ironing out critically important problems of Germany's future.

British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, arriving Tuesday morning on the Queen Mary, told reporters Germany must be brought back as a great nation but that development of German military units is not the way to do it. He indicated, like French Foreign Minister Schuman, a sharp difference of opinion with Secretary of State Acheson over arming German divisions as part of a Europen defense force.

While the first formal session of the three was set for Tuesday afternoon, an American informant disclosed that discussions actually began when Acheson called on Schuman at 10 a.m., and then went around to Bevin's headquarters at 11. All three men and their principal advisers are in the Waldorf Astoria Hotel.

One authority said whatever subject may get initial attention, the plan for organizing Europe's defenses under the North Atlantic Treaty undoubtedly will have top priority.

Democrats—

was a defiant gesture toward the liberals.

The Houston caucus acted after the executive committee—with Shivers' approval—recommended that the conservative delegation be seated. Both Shivers' middle-of-the-roaders and the liberals are expected to fight the selection of Mrs. Davis on the floor.

Shivers has let it be known he wants the States' Righters back in the party if they will behave. He contemplated passing out no top party posts to either extreme faction. The States' Righters left the party in 1948 to support J. Strom Thurmond for President.

The Tarrant County delegation also offered a challenge to the Shivers pattern by nominating Neville Penrose and Mrs. Bennett Smith for executive committeeman and committeewoman. Both have been identified with right wing activities.

Shivers Wins First Round

The convention went formally into session at 11:07 a.m. when retiring Executive Committee Chairman John C. Calhoun of Corsicana rapped for order.

The Shivers plan, which leans toward the more conservative faction of Texas Democrats, won a desisive victory in preliminary convention action Monday night.

The outgoing State Democratic Executive Committee voted 45 to 14 to seat conservative delegations from Dallas, Tarrant, Harris and Brazoria Counties. It adopted the credentials committee's recommendation for a temporary roll that would open the convention doors to many Texans who led in the Dixiecrat bolt two years ago, and in the Texas Regular split four years ago.

Cloudy, Cool Weather Prevails Over Texas

By The Associated Press

Generally cloudy weather prevailed in Texas Tuesday, with the northern part of the state enjoying moderate temperatures.

Flood-threatened Wichita Falls hoped for clearing skies as the city's Lake Wichita and the troublesome Holliday Creek continued to rise following Monday's rains. The weatherman, however, offered slight encouragement, forecasting heavy rains.

Tuesday morning it was raining at Fort Worth and Lubbock reported a continuing drizzle. Exceptions to the widespread cloudiness were reported at Victoria, Austin and El Paso.

First GI Allowances Are Due In December

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The armed forces said Monday dependents of servicemen covered by the new allowance laws will start receiving payments early in December.

The new law provides for government allowances of $45 to $85 a month to dependents of enlisted personnel, who must sign over a part of their pay to their families.

The first Army checks will go out from the Army Finance Center at St. Louis, Mo., about December 5. They will cover allowances for November.

REP. KEN REGAN IS ON JOB IN WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Congressman Ken Regan of Midland was back on the job here Monday when Congress reconvened after a recess. The 16th District representative won the nomination for his second two-year term in Texas' recent second Democratic primary.

PAINT, TOOLS STOLEN

Midland police Tuesday received a report of the theft of 15 gallons of paint and some tools from the City Barn.

Allies Seize—

from retreat northward by a South Korean column.

The Reds were strung along a corridor between high peaks. The task force, led by a famous West Point football star whose name cannot be disclosed now for security reasons, fought to close the corridor's southern gate.

It inflicted heavy casualties on two Red battalions dug in on bare and rocky slopes.

United Nations forces, striking north in the same general sector, cut the Amgang-Pohang road.

This drive increased the already difficult supply and communication problems for Korean Reds.

Planes Have 'Field Day'

AP Correspondent Bem Price, with the South Korean First Corps, reported observation pilots had spotted "hundreds" of Reds fleeing toward Angang. Allied planes blasted the fleeing Reds. A U. S. pilot called the air strikes "a field day."

An Eighth Army spokesman said a partial withdrawal was indicated.

To the west, the South Korean Eighth Division drove within eight miles of Angang on the Yongchon-Angang road. Angang, nine miles southwest of Pohang, was seized by the Reds last week in their massive breakthrough.

The spokesman said the South Korean Eighth drove ahead nearly 10 miles in two days. He described the situation along this front as "tremendously improved."

The three-pronged drive on the northeast front menaced two large pockets of Red troops deep within Allied lines.

The South Korean Eighth Division seized huge quantities of Red supplies. In two days, American officers with the division reported, they grabbed 31 field guns and heavy mortars and one carload each of heavy and small arms ammunition.

On the U. S. Second Division front west of Changnyong, a U. S. company of a "flushing expedition" killed 72 Reds and captured two and one-half tons of small arms.

Masan Front Quiet

The action took place in the Communists' Naktong River bulge.

Allied warplanes, striking five miles west of the river, destroyed or damaged four of 11 Red tanks.

To the north near Hyonpung, the Reds continued to throw troops into their bridgehead 15 miles southwest of Taegu. They have been dug in there for weeks without attempting a drive.

The U. S. 25th Division front near Masan was quiet again Tuesday, giving the hard pressed "Lightning" Division another day of rest.

General MacArthur's headquarters said "all the high ground" commanding the Taegu-Tabu road on the northwest front was in Allied hands.

A spokesman said the South Korean First Division seized high ground west of the highway, linking firmly with the U. S. First Cavalry division's left flank.

Air Strip Threatened

North Korean prisoners told U. S. intelligence officers Red patrols had been ordered to take the Taegu airstrip north of the city Tuesday night.

Doughboys hastily dug foxholes on the air strip's north side as a precaution.

In Washington, the Air Force surgeon-general, Maj. Gen. Harry G. Armstrong, disclosed that air evacuation of the seriously wounded from Korea had been halted because of the Red threat to the Taegu field.

He said air evacuation of wounded would be resume from less dangerous rear areas. The Pusan field, in the southeast corner of Korea, was not practicable, Armstrong said, because the road to the field was too rough. It was being smoothed.

A U. S. C-47 transport plane landed, however, on the Pohang field Tuesday within range of Red mortar fire to evacuate American wounded. The Reds did not fire.

B-29 bombers roared out Tuesday in a heavy strike at the Kan town arsenal, 10 miles north of Pyongyang, Red Korean capital.

Bombs kicked off a series of explosions within the arsenal, part of which is underground. Sheets of flame rolled along the ground. Smoke columns shot 12,000 feet high.

The strike was made in clear weather.

Other B-29's hit rail lines, bridges and tunnels.

Fighter-bombers struck along the battlefront in a continuation of the Monday air blows when a record of 683 sorties were flown.

Attending the Monday night meeting were Thomas, Lawson, P. R. Hargrove, P. F. Standard Of Fire Protection Here To Be Improved

Plans are underway for raising the standards of proficiency of fire protection and control in Midland, W. H. Oswalt, city manager, announced Tuesday.

Fire prevention, more training of personnel, and the establishment of a new record system will be inaugurated soon.

According to Oswalt, future operations of the department will include systematic surveys, repairing and standardizing of fire hydrants, and regular inspections.

Record System

The record system will include the locations of fire hazards, the number of fire runs made by the department; apparatus and eqiupment used at various locations; condition of every piece of apparatus, and the type and cause of each fire. The loss and salvage of each fire also will be kept on record.
