Reds Rush to Close Trap On Retreating Allied Army

Military Leaders Arrive for Crisis Talk

Top U. S. military leaders arrive at the White House in Washington to brief cabinet members at a meeting on the international crisis which high officials believe is of the gravest nature. They are (left to right): Gen. Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff; Adm. Forrest P. Sherman, chief of naval operations and Gen. J. Lawton Collins, army chief of staff.

Wrapping Parcel Post Is Poor Way To Show Off Artistry

If postal clerks seem to be a fraternity of long-faced no-men when you start to mail your Christmas packages in the new parcel post center at 1611 Twenty-fourth Street, don't blame them. They have more than their share of troubles during the Christmas rush season.

Postal clerks haven't any real intention of creating a lot of extra work for us patrons by insisting that packages be securely wrapped and tied. That just happens to be their job. People who want to be certain their packages arrive intact generally take their advice.

MUST BE STURDY

It really isn't very sensible to think that a package wrapped in flimsy Christmas paper and stuck with Christmas seals can travel far without being damaged in ordinary handling.

The myth that post offices hire a special crew to jump on defenseless packages has been disproved, but the effect of several hundred pounds of other packages lying on them through a rough trip by train or truck is about the same. Christmas paper was made for a purpose, but wrapping packages for mailing was not one of them.

DON'T TORTURE THE POSTMAN... Don't try to mail packages that are sloppy, insecurely wrapped or badly addressed. Postoffices won't take 'em.

Then there is the matter of addresses. If the address is illegible or incorrect, the postman may be too unimaginative to figure out what is really should be. Maybe he has delivered Aunt Susie's mail for years, but an address that resembles a cross between a first grader's letter to Santa and a bank president's signature are more than likely to leave him in the guessing stage.

NO FRILLS

Wrapping gifts in holiday frills is fine, if a sturdy wrapping is put on to protect it against mailing hazards. If the package has a long way to travel, it will be safer in a corrugated cardboard box well packed to hold it in place. Wrapping twine or strong cord is another precaution. Fourth class packages may be sealed if they bear the proper shipping label.

Under the head of tried-and-true statements comes the one that the sooner Christmas packages are mailed the less time it will take and the sooner they will reach their destinations. The hours from 2 to 4 o'clock are the least rushed at the Snyder post office now, although as the season progresses even those hours will probably be taken up. The opening of the substation on Dec. 1 will relieve some of the congestion at the main office.

Skelly Will Deepen Well North Of City

Skelly Oil Co. has filed application with the Railroad Commission of Texas requesting permission to deepen its No. 6-A Head exploration on the extreme west side of the Kelley-Snyder field eight miles northwest of Snyder.

Operator drilled through the Canyon Reef lime and found little or no porosity, and that the bottom section of the Canyon carried some water.

Tests of the Canyon failed to develop shows sufficient for the venture to make an oil well from the reef. Operators filed the application for permission to take the prospector on to the Strawn and Caddo limes and possibly into the Ellenburger.

The new contract depth is 8,100 feet.

Operator will test the Strawn and Caddo formations, and if no production is developed in either the exploration may be taken on to the Ellenburger.

Location of the Canyon failure is 1,667 feet from south and east lines of section 290, block 97, H&TC survey.

TERRY WILDCAT

Humble Oil & Refining Co. is to start operations immediately at its No. 1 G. F. Bell, which is to be a 10,000 foot wildcat in Central-South Terry County to try for production in the Wolfcamp Reef lime.

The project will be 1,980 feet from north and 660 feet from west lines of section 3, block C-37, psl survey.

That puts it two and one-half miles east of Amerada Petroleum Corp. No. 1 Willard, the discovery well of the Adair-Wolfcamp pool and four miles west of Tidewater Associated Oil Co. and Associates No. 1 Nystel, the opener of the Corrigan Fusselman field.

The Humble prospector is 14 miles south of Brownfield.

BURDELL WELL

Burdell Oil Co. No. 3 Keller Scurry County venture, was reported yesterday to be drilling ahead below 6,855 in lime.

Clary Granted Third Trial On Murder Charge

AUSTIN, Nov. 29. (AP) — T. Clifton Clary today gained a third trial for murder of his wife when the Court of Criminal Appeals threw out his second conviction.

Clary now has secured reverals of convictions which carried sentences of 9 years and life imprisonment, respectively, in connection with the death of his schoolteacher wife, Odilla Clary, in a burning ranch house near Ballinger Jan. 31, 1948.

Judge K. K. Woodley, writing the opinion on the second appeal, said the appeals court had no choice but to reverse the conviction and send the case back for new trial. He said this was so because the trial court had certified that the prosecution violated the law by referring to the defendant's failure to testify and by making prejudicial statements.

"Under the certification of the trial court that the argument and conduct (of the district attorney) did constitute a reference to the defendant's failure to testify, and was contrary to law highly prejudicial and inflammatory, our duty to order reversal of the judgment of conviction is clear," Judge Woodley wrote.

The trial court had certified that District Attorney, O'Neal Dendy "pointed directly at the defendant . . . thus emphasizing defendant's failure to testify in his own behalf."

Clary's first conviction was reversed because the trial court overruled his motion for a change of venue from Runnels County. The second trial was held in Mitchell County.

Judge A. S. Mauzey tried the case the second time in Colorado City. Dendy and Eldon Mahon were the prosecuting attorneys. Runge & Hardeman here have been defense counsel through the two trials.

Clary has been in jail at Ballinger since the conviction.

He will be subject to bail if a rehearing is not granted the state.

Skylight Broken In Attempted Robbery Of Department Store Here

An attempted burglary of Frank's Department Store on the west side of the Snyder square was reported to police last night about 7:15 p.m.

A call to the police headquarters from Snyder Drug reported that the burglar alarm at Franks Department Store was ringing.

Investigating officers found the skylight broken and evidence of an attempted entry.

They said that evidently the vandal had set off the burglar alarm when the skylight was opened, and that hearing the alarm he had fled.

Glass from the broken skylight was scattered over a wide area of the store, and blood was found on blankets below the opening indicating that the intruder had injured himself in the attempt.

A preliminary check failed to show anything missing.

Water on R, S, and T To Be Shut Off Sunday

Water will be cut off Sunday between Seventeenth and Twenty-fourth Streets on Avenues R, S and T so that three fireplugs can be moved back from the right-of-way on Avenue S, W. J. Ramsey city superintendent, said today.

Only the three avenues, between Seventeenth and Twenty-fourth Streets, will be affected by the shut-off.

Ramsey said that the water would be shut off about 9:30 Sunday morning, and would probably be turned on again about 3:30 in the afternoon.

Three fire plugs in the area along Avenue S must be moved back from the street to permit widening and repaving of the street.

Acheson Radio Address Tonight About Korea

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29. — Secretary of State Acheson will speak to the nation at 8 o'clock tonight (CST) on the crisis in Korea.

The State Department announced that the secretary's 30-minute address will be broadcast by the Mutual, ABC and CBS networks. Acheson will speak from his office in the State Department.

Senators Show Concern Over War Situation

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29. — Desperately worried lawmakers called today for a quick United Nations showdown on the critical Korean war situation.

Without much prospect they can act effectively themselves, senators asked Secretary of Defense Marshall-or some top aide, if he can't come-to tell the armed services committee about the military outlook as a result of Chinese Communist pressure.

Threats that four American divisions might be overwhelmed provoked a flood of proposals for dealing with the situation. Some suggested use of the atomic bomb.

Sen. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo) told the Senate yesterday that the United States should serve Russia with an ultimatum to get Chinese Communist troops out of Korea. He said the Chinese Reds were the "agents" of Russian masters and failure to issue an ultimatum would condemn this country for lack of courage.

Sen. Taft (R-Ohio) said on a broadcast last night that the danger of a new world war is greater now than it was two weeks ago but he still is hopeful it can be avoided.

Road Group Can Set Wages

AUSTIN, Nov. 29. (AP) — The highway commission's right to fix prevailing wage rates on road jobs without being subject to court review, was upheld today by the State Supreme Court.

It upheld a trial court judgment which had refused to grant an injunction asked by the El Paso Building and Construction Trades Council against the commission.

The unions contended that the prevailing minimum wage rates for highway work in El Paso County were the union scale of 95 cents to $2.50 per hour. The commission argued that its determination of 75 cents to $1.65 was the true scale.

Associate Justice Meade F. Griffin's opinion quoted the law which reads "The term general prevailing rate of per diem wages shall be the rate determined upon as such rate by the public body awarding the contract, or authorizing the work whose decision in the matter shall be final."

"We fail to see how more clear language showing the intention of the legislature could have been used," Justice Griffin wrote.

United States Is Pushing For Fast Action On China Question

By TOM OCHILTREE
(Associated Press Staff)

LAKE SUCCESS, Nov. 29. — The United States wants the UN Security Council to put on record the "conscience of the people of the world" in a showdown today on American charges of Chinese Communist aggression in Korea.

Making such a record is about all a majority of the council can hope to accomplish in view of the expressed attitudes of the Soviet and Chinese Red representatives. The Chinese Communists made it plain they had no intention of withdrawing from Korea.

SEES VETO

Chief U. S. Delegate Warren R. Austin, in his speech before the council yesterday, foresaw a probable Soviet veto of a six-power resolution demanding that the Red soldiers of Mao Tze-Tung get out of Korea.

A Soviet veto would clear the way for General Assembly consideration of the grave Korean problem. The veto does not apply in that 60-nation body, which recently armed itself with broad powers to discover and combat aggression when the Security Council is paralyzed.

MEET LATE

Austin first suggested that the council meet through the night in an effort to reach a vote. He did not press the point and, the council adjourned until late this afternoon.

Wu, seated a few places away from Austin at the horseshoe-shaped table, answered American charges that the Chinese Communists were openly committing aggression in Korea by claiming that the United States was the aggressor there and had invaded Formosa.

A western delegation source said Wu's speech, his first in the UN had created the worst possible impression among non-Communist representatives. The informant added that the speech had these two immediate results—It has drawn the western countries closer together on the whole problem and has shown that Wu is not at Lake Success for conciliation. Some observers thought Wu had outdone the Russians in blasting the United States.

Excess Profits Tax Making No Headway

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
(Associated Press Staff)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29. — A key portion of the administration's $4 billion excess profits tax proposal faced the threat today of a House Ways and Means Committee veto.

Split 12 to 12 on a test vote yesterday, the commitee sought agreement today on a definition of what are "excess" profits. At issue is whether to exempt corporations from such a tax on their entire on the first 75 per cent of the average average 1946-1949 earnings or only age.

The administration proposes to define excess profits as any earnings which exceed 75 per cent of the average of the best three years out of the four from 1946 through 1949. This initial three-fourths of the average would be taxed at present corporation income rates, ranging up to 45 per cent. Any profits above that would be taxed at the 75 per cent rate.

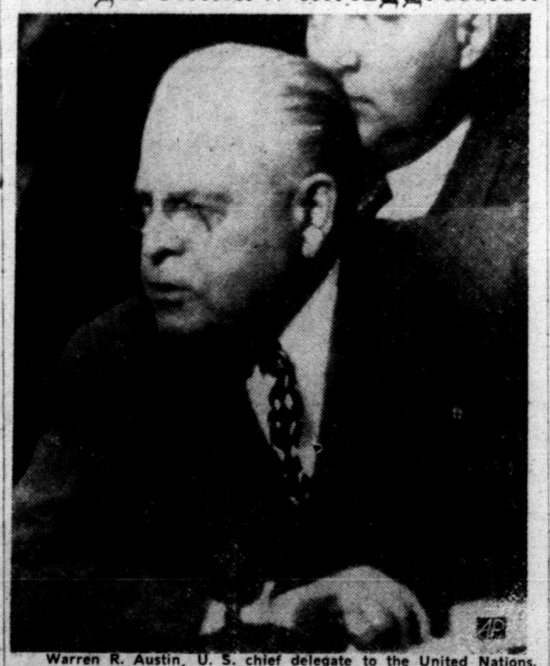

Yesterday's tie vote, slated for reconsideration today, demonstrated that Republicans have picked up at least two Democratic votes on the committee. It is made up of 15 Democrats and 10 Republicans. One Democrat was absent yesterday.

New Elementary School Site Not Yet Determined

Members of the school board met late yesterday afternoon and discussed whether to build an elementary school building on a site already owned by the school system southeast of the town or to choose another site in the east section of the city.

No action was taken, according to Lee Stinson, president of the board, who said the meeting was only that the members might discuss the possibilities and exchange views.

Charges China With Aggression

Warren R. Austin, U. S. chief delegate to the United Nations, leans on his elbow as he addresses the U. N. Security Council at Lake Success at one of the most critical meetings in the council's history. Austin charged the Chinese Communists with open and notorious aggression in Korea. He spoke directly to the representative of Red China, Wu Hsui-Chuan, who sat at the council table as an invited guest.

Korean War In Brief

(Associated Press Staff)

FIGHTING front — Badly mauled allied troops escape across icy Chongchon River under attack of 200,000 Chinese Communists. Reds pouring through broken allied lines in Tokchon sector menace Kunu escape route. Observers say there is hope of salvaging enough allied manpower and materiel to set up effective winter defense line somewhere in North Korea.

WASHINGTON — administration officials say Red Chinese offensive confronts the United States with the gravest decisions since the start of World War II.

UNITED NATIONS — United States calls for Security Council showdown on American charges of Chinese Communist aggression in Korea.

Britain Hopes For Peace In Korean Fight

LONDON Nov. 29. (AP) — Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin said today Britain still hopes a settlement on "political lines" will end the threat of a third world war over Korea.

"If the Chinese want to avoid general war and if they show the slightest signs of willingness to cooperate in exploring a solution by peaceful means," the foreign secretary said, "I am satisfied a solution can be found."

Bevin told the House of Commons at the beginning of a two-day debate on foreign affairs that the recent surge of Red Chinese forces into the Korean fighting "has not altered my opinion one bit."

"I have been in touch with the U. S. Government in the last 24 hours and the U. S. Government has reaffirmed that their purpose in Korea remains the same as our own. Namely to resist aggression, to localize hostilities and to settle the Korea problem on a basis satisfactory to the United Nations."

Bevin said he did not pretend to know the Communist Chinese motive in Korea—whether to safeguard their own interest or from some "imaginary fear," or for purposes "of a grand strategy for a bigger purpose."

Officers Investigate Train Derailment Try

An investigation of a near derailment of a Santa Fe train passing on the east siding switch over the week-end is being made today by E. A. Nelson, Slaton, Tex. special agent of the railroad, assisted by Homer Whisnand, deputy sheriff.

An engineer on one of the Santa Fe trains reported that his engine was nearly derailed last Sunday night when someone placed pieces of scrap metal at two places on the rails.

There have been several similar instances in recent months along the Santa Fe right-of-way in and near Snyder. A representative of the railroad recently came to Snyder to conduct a special safety appeal through the school system here.

So far, no serious accidents have resulted from the placing of metal and wooden blocks on the tracks, but officials point out that the consequences could be extremely serious.

Temperature Climbs To 80 Degrees, Low of 29

Clear skies and bright sunshine brought a maximum reading of 80 degrees in Snyder yesterday, following the trend of mild weather here.

The minimum recorded by Mrs. D. P. Strayhorn, weather observer, was 29 degrees, virtually the same as for the past three days.

Critical Injuries To Abilene Woman After Car Wreck Yesterday

A 25-year-old Abilene woman is in critical condition here this morning as the result of an automobile wreck near Inadale yesterday afternoon in which a 15-year-old Abilene girl, Marie Vaughn, also was injured.

B. F. Zimmerman, state highway patrolman here, said he identified the 25-year-old woman this morning as Mrs. Juanita Verlene Williams, an Abilene cafe waitress who gave her name last night as Miss Billie Province, of San Angelo. Zimmerman said. She and the young girl were taken to the Snyder Hospital after the car Mrs. Williams was driving overturned near Inadale about 4:45 o'clock. The girl was treated for slight injuries and dismissed today.

Also with her at the time of the accident was R. L. Van Zandt, a Snyder oil field worker and owner of the car, who escaped injury.

Zimmerman said he filed a county court charge of driving while intoxicated against Mrs. Williams.

Storm Sewer Is Being Laid Near High School

Work was started this morning on the laying of a storm sewer at the Twenty-sixth Street bridge near the high school, according to W. J Ramsey, city superintendent.

About three days will be required to complete the laying of the 24-inch sewer which will help drain water from heavy rains and flash floods off the low-lying area east of the school.

The street will not be closed to traffic except for a short time while the sewer line is being laid across the street. However, motorists are warned that they should use the road there as little as possible, and should exercise care when using it during the construction, Ramsey said.

Tanks and Men Roll South In Mass Attack

Chinese Breakthrough Would Seal Off More Than 100,000 Troops

(By The Associated Press)

SEOUL, Nov. 29. — Two American divisions escaped south across the icy Chongchon River in Northwest Korea today but Chinese Reds swarming through a wide gap threatened to trap a big allied force.

The Chinese offensive mass of more than 200,000 men was reported using tanks for the first time.

A spokesman at advanced U. S Eighth Army headquarters said one Communist column had cut within 30 miles of the former Red Korean capital of Pyongyang.

He said the Red Force was near Sinchang northeast of the old capital but did not disclose its size.

MORE POUR IN

At least three other Red Chinese columns were reported rolling down through the Tokchon gap in wide sweeps against the allies' exposed right flank.

This was where Communist attacks earlier had crumpled three South Korean divisions.

Another Chinese force was reported attacking for the first time on the extreme left flank, but the spokesman did not give the location.

A Chinese breakthrough in force to the Yellow Sea would seal off large elements of the 110,000-man force fighting for its life in the northwest.

The Chinese Red attack was mounted by 200,000 or more troops with more pouring in steadily from Manchuria.

SIX ARMIES

The spokesman said six Chinese armies now have been identified in Korea. Elements of one Chinese army known to have been in Central China a week ago, he said were attacking the Eighth Army's northern front.

The first observed Chinese Red tanks were reported across the Chongchon, rumbling from the west on Kunu, eastern anchor of the shrunken allied line.

Kunu was the escape gate through which U. S. 25th and Second Division troops poured after crossing the Chongchon. The Reds were attacking from three sides. Kunu's fate was in doubt.

The U. S. 24th Division last was reported in the Pakchon area north of the Chongchon, guarding an escape route over the Anju River bridge on the far west or left side of the allied line.

NO CONTACT

But the Eighth Army spokesman said no enemy contact was made Wednesday in the 24th Division sector.

This seemed to indicate that the "large enemy forces" reported hitting the extreme left flank might already be across the Chongchon somewhere near the Yellow Sea.

The spokesman described the situation along the Chongchon line as "extremely fluid" and "very obscure."

He said the allies were trying to stabilize their lines against a concerted enemy attack.

Allied warplanes, grounded Wednesday morning by bad weather, roared over the front throughout the afternoon in close support of desperate ground troops.

HEAVY HAZE

But a heavy smoke haze over the eastern flank hampered air activity.

Lt. Gen. Walton H. Walker, Eighth Army commander, said the allies "end-the-war" offensive, launched Friday, "probably saved our forces from a trap which might well have destroyed them."

He said that if the allies had waited, the Chinese Reds might have had 400,000 troops to throw against the Eighth Army.

The retreat across the Chongchon at Kunu was made under massive Red attacks.

Art Exhibit This Week At Country Club

The Country Club will house a one-man art exhibit tomorrow and Friday according to Mrs. Edith W. McKanna, who is sponsoring Ben Turner, a nationally-known artist, in the show. The exhibit will be open to the public between the hours of 11 o'clock in the morning and 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Turner, who has studios in Albuquerque and Taos, N. M., has exhibited his paintings in all of the principal galleries of the United States. He has held one-man shows in Washington, New York, and Chicago.

The New Mexico artist is noted for his mountain landscapes, of which this show contains several examples.

"In this exhibit, Mr. Turner has chosen [illegible] oil paintings of all sizes [illegible]scapes, western scenes, and still lifes, explained Mrs. McKanna.

Mr. Turner, educated at the Art School in Chicago and the Art Institute of New Mexico, has painted for 23 years and has sold 1,200 of his paintings to homes and galleries. The warm color and reality of his western scenes make his works popular with homemakers. All paintings at the Country Club show will be marked for sale.

Besides paintings, Mr. Turner has done intensive work in murals, one of his most noted works being the interior of the La Copita Cocktail Lounge in the Hilton Hotel in Albuquerque, N. M.

Three Conference Games This Week Predicted To Be Close

By HAROLD RATLIFF
(Associated Press Staff)

Three games this week will close out the Southwest Conference football campaign.

The race came in like a storm but goes out gently, like a breeze through the trees in the river bottoms.

There isn't much left to play for—just some deep bitter rivalries to be settled.

The deepest is that which goes on the line tomorrow at Austin where Texas and Texas A&M battle for the fifty-seventh time.

Only second place in the conference race is in the balance with five teams competing for it. Chances are it will end up in a tie, perhaps four-way.

Saturday Texas Christian and Southern Methodist put on their wild afternoon at Dallas while Baylor and Rice clash at Waco.

LONG DROUTH

Texas, already conference champion and looking toward the Cotton Bowl, will meet an Aggie team that would like to break the longest drouth in the ancient series. It has been 11 years since A&M won a game.

It has been five years since Baylor beat Rice and four since SMU could muster a victory over TCU although there have been some ties in both series.

The oddsmakers think all the games will be close. They are giving Texas seven points, Southern Methodist 6 1-2 and Baylor 7 1-2.

There'll be 66,000 at the Texas-A&M game tomorrow while Dallas looks for 50,000 to see SMU and TCU swap touchdowns. Baylor hopes for about 30,000.

ONE OF THREE

We got one out of three last week so presume that behooves us to miss some more this week and try to make a worse record. Here goes:

Thursday—

Texas-A&M at Austin (2 p.m.)—It'll be quite a ball game but Texas has too much all - around strength: Texas by a touchdown.

Saturday—

Southern Methodist-Texas Christian at Dallas (2 p.m.)—It ought to be a scoring game but TCU will score the most; Texas Christian by a touchdown.

Baylor-Rice at Waco (2 p.m.)—Anything can happen and probably will; Baylor by a touchdown in a low scorer.

Dressen Is To Work Pitchers

By JOE REICHLER
(Associated Press Staff)

BROOKLYN, Nov. 29. — Brooklyn's disappointing Dodgers of 1950, especially the collapsible pitching staff, will be put through the wringer in 1951.

This was promised yesterday by new Manager Charlie Dressen, who was named to succeed Burt Shotton in a move that surprised nobody. Salary terms were not disclosed, but it was reported the figure is $40,000 a year.

"I've read everywhere that Brooklyn should have won the pennant by 10 games last year," Chuck told newsmen. "I wouldn't know. But I can tell you this. I'm going to find out."

"You ask me about the pitching staff which was such a disappointment last season," the former Dodger coach went on. "That's something I can't answer right now. All I know is that when I left the club, we had a 20-game winner in Ralph Branca and another sure-fire 20-game winner in Rex Barney. Something happened to them since. I don't know what it is. I sure aim to find out."

Asked what he thinks of his team's chances for '51, Chuck laughed and replied:

"I see where Leo Durocher already has named us as the team to beat. Funny thing, all the Pacific Coast scouts have told me that the Giants will be the team to beat next year. However, I think we've got as good a chance as anybody else to win the pennant."

Hass Is Defending The Title At Miami Open

AUSTIN, Nov. 29. (AP) — A University of Texas official says that a successor to head Texas Coach Blair Cherry may be named this week.

Dr. Vernon T. Schuhardt Chairman of the Athletic Council, said last night the council would meet this week with the board of regents.

"We have made no offers," he said, "but we are studying the problem. We definitely will make no announcement until after Thanksgiving."

Dr. Schuhardt told the Dallas News that three outsiders are being considered for the job as well as members of the present coaching staff. He did not name them.

Miami Meets Arizona State In Bowl Game

PHOENIX, Nov. 29. (AP) — Miami University of Oxford, Ohio, will meet Arizona State College of Tempe in the Phoenix Salad Bowl Jan. 1.

Bill Ladow, chairman of the Phoenix Kiwanis Club Selection Committee, announced Miami has accepted a bid. Arizona State at Tempe was selected Monday.

Tempe finished the season with nine victories and one loss and Miami won eight while losing one.

The Kiwanis sponsor the annual game for the benefit of the state's crippled children.

More Contracts Signed For Paving of Streets

Nearly five units in Snyder's 200-block paving program have been signed up in contracts between the paving contractor and the property owners, Wier Washam, representative for Brown & Root, said yesterday.

None of the units have been signed "solid," Washam said, "but we are just about up to a point where pavement could be started if the machinery were available now."

Signing of contracts with property owners along the right-of-ways to be paved is a time-consuming operation, but one that is necessary before paving can start.

Property owners make a contract directly with Brown & Root for paying the owners' share of paving cost, which is one-third of the cost of paving the street in front of the property.

A number of prominent local citizens have aided in the contract signing, Washam said, by introducing the representative to Snyder residents.

Hospital Dedication

DALLAS, Nov. 29. (AP) — President W. R. White of Baylor University will preside tomorrow in a private dedication ceremony of the George W. Truett Memorial Hospital here. The new hospital is an eight-floor addition to Baylor Hospital.

Big Spring Entry Is Champion

Demos Accuse RepublicansOn Election Board

LANSING, Mich., Nov. 29. (AP)—After a more or less gentle time of it lately, Michigan's merry-go-round over its governor's election spun fast again today.

Democratic Gov. G. Mennen Williams accused the Republican-controlled board of canvassers of "shenanigans" and a power-grab in refusing to certify his re-election.

Immediately, Republican Secretary of State Fred M. Alger, Jr., chairman of the board, replied that Williams was being "terribly premature."

The three-man board, consisting entirely of Republicans, decided Monday to go to the Supreme Court on the question of certification. It refused the certification on its own.

A recount of the nearly 2 million votes in Michigan's "horse race" election of Nov. 7 is at the crux of all this. Williams defeated Republican Harry F. Kelly by a bare 1,154 votes.

The recount, soon to start, will have to be completed by inauguration day Jan. 1 or a scrap is dead certain over who's to be placed in the governor's chair then.

Abilene Field Worker Schedules Training Day For Brownies Thursday

The Brownie troop of the Snyder Girl Scouts will have a day of training and organization Thursday, according to Mrs. Lee Aiken troop leader.

Miss Virginia Burgess, Abilene area field director of Girl Scouts will meet with the group at 9 o'clock at the First Christian Church.

Everyone interested in Brownie work is cordially invited to join the group.

Settlement Appears Near In Bus Strike

BEAUMONT, Nov. 29. (AP)—Things are looking up in negotiations aimed at settling Beaumont's 32-day-old bus strike.

Mayor Otho Plummer described yesterday's meeting between union and bus company officials as "most progressing."

Plummer said the schedule today includes only one major item, besides wages, to be settled.

Two Political Factions Open Starr Hearing

BROWNSVILLE, Nov. 29. (AP)—A hearing has been set Dec. 11 on the requested dismissal of a federal court $500,000 damage suit involving two Starr County political factions.

The county's New Party asked dismissal of the action filed against it by about 30 members of the Old Party on grounds that the plaintiffs "fail to state claims against the defendants upon which relief can be granted."

No New Clues Found In Harris Bombing

DALLAS, Nov. 29. (AP) — Fort Worth's chief of detectives failed to turn up any new clues in Dallas in the bombing deaths of Nelson Harris and his wife.

The Harris couple was killed Nov. 15 when a bomb exploded as Harris stepped on the starter of his car.

Louis Trying Comeback Once More Tonight

CHICAGO, Nov. 29. (AP) — Young Ceasar Brion, full of vim and confidence, predicts a kayo within seven rounds of aging Joe Louis, in their scheduled 10 rounder in Chicago Stadium tonight.

The 23-year-old Argentine heavyweight is at the short end of 4-1 odds to defeat Joe Louis, trying a second comeback at 36 after being decisively beaten in 15 rounds by Ezzard Charles last September, still thinks he packs enough dynamite to chill Brion.

Although not appearing impressive in training sessions, Louis says he will try to end the fight as soon as possible. He would not name the round.

Brion will weigh 194, spotting the exheavyweight champion some 21 pounds. Joe expects to be three pounds lighter than when he met Charles.

Pleven To Ask Assembly Vote Of Confidence

PARIS, Nov. 29. (AP) — Premier Rene Pleven decided today to ask for a vote of confidence in an effort to keep in office France's 16th post-liberation government, tottering from a Communist-brewed storm over Defense Minister Jules Moch.

The National Assembly vote, decided on at a cabinet meeting today, will take place Friday. Pleven submitted the cabinet's resignation last night after the national assembly voted disapproval of Moch, but President Vincent Auriol refused to accept the walkout because of the tense international situation.

AIM

By seeking a confidence vote Pleven will try to utilize the desire of most deputies to avoid new general elections, which a government defeat might bring on. Most deputies would rather delay the poll until the end of the assembly's regular term next fall.

The trouble centers over a scandal the French call the "affair of the generals." It involves the theft or sale of a secret military report on the Indochina war, black market money deals, the honor of a former army chief of staff and a mysterious agent named Roger Peyre who reportedly fled to Brazil last year while Moch, as interior minister, headed the police.

STORM BREAKS

The storm broke late yesterday when the assembly voted on a communist attempt to impeach Moch, a Socialist, for his part in the leakage of the Indochina report.

The count was 235 to 203 for impeachment, with 37 ballots void. Though Moch's opponents—who included about 80 non-Communists—did not get the 286 votes necessary for an impeachment trial, the result was interpreted as a vote of censure against the minister.

Storm Areas Moving Back To Normal Again; Death Toll 300

(By The Associated Press)

Big industrial centers in the storm-lashed eastern states appeared moving toward near normal operations today.

But a big cleanup job remained in many areas. It looked like a slow and tedious fight before resumption of normal activities in some of the hardest hit sections of the storm belt.

The death toll mounted to nearly 300 from the savage week-end storms which whipped over areas in 22 eastern and Midwest states. Damages continued to grow. Uncounted thousands suffered privations.

NO SNOW

There was no heavy snow or severe cold today to hamper the thousands of workers engaged in clearing huge piles of snow throughout Pennsylvania and Ohio and other areas.

Most of the metropolitan areas in snow-battered Ohio were heading back to near normalcy. The storm caused 64 deaths — tops among the 22 states in the storm belt.

Pittsburgh showed signs of breaking out of the storm-caused paralysis. Mid-town department stores opened for the first time since Saturday. Employes also were called back to work in the big steel mills and other industries.

The entire New England coast was declared a disaster area. This will enable the hard-hit fishing industry to apply for Reconstruction Finance Corp. loans to repair vessels and wharves and replace gear and tackle.

HEAVY TOLL

The east coast states counted 95 dead from the violent wind and rain storm. The toll included 36 in New York and 34 in New Jersey.

Storm deaths reported by other states included Michigan 22; Indiana 18; Kentucky 17; West Virginia 15; Alabama 13; Connecticut and Illinois, six each; Maryland, South Carolina, Tennessee and Georgia Delaware and North Carolina; two each and New Hampshire, Vermont, and Virginia, one

Vivien Kellems Hits Income Taxes in Dallas

DALLAS, Nov. 29. (AP) — An outspoken opponent of income taxes says that "every loss of individual rights in the history of this country can be blamed on the income tax."

"Without it, the government wouldn't have billions to spend as it now has," Miss Vivien Kellems, an industrialist from Connecticut, told the Dallas chapter of the Texas Manufacturers Assn. last night.

End Testimony In Suit Over City Property

Testimony in the district court suit of J. H. Mariner against Mrs. Ruby Lee Graham was concluded this morning, and the jury was expected to get the case this afternoon.

This is a legal action in which Mariner is seeking a 15-foot strip of land on Avenue O near Twenty-third Street, which figured in the purchase of some property in that area by Mrs. Graham from Mariner last December.

In rebuttal testimony this morning, Paul Graham, husband of Mrs. Graham, testified that he did know anything about the transaction until after it was consummated.

Graham told the jury that he is a school teacher and resides at San Angelo.

OWN MONEY

Graham testified that Mrs. Graham spent her own money in the Snyder deal and that she received the money from an estate.

W. E. Holcomb yesterday afternoon told the court that the reasonable value of a 60-foot lot in the vicinity of Avenue O and Twenty-third Street in 1949 was between $5,000 and $5,500, while a 135-foot lot fronting on the same avenue with improvements would cost about $10,000.

Another real estate dealer William L. Haney, said a 60-foot lot fronting on Avenue O at Twenty-third in 1949 was worth about $6,500, while a 135-foot frontage on the same avenue should have brought approximately $11,000.

Mrs. Graham had testified earlier that she was to pay $12,000 for a 135-front lot on the above described property, but later found out that she had a deed to only a 60-foot lot. She had paid $5,000 at the time of signing a sales contract, and later stopped payment on a $7,000 check. The transactions took place in December 1949.

Mrs. J. H. Mariner, one of the plaintiffs in the case, testified as a rebuttal witness, said Mrs. Graham came to her home to see them about buying some Snyder property, particularly the land on Avenue O, telling the Mariners that she would give $6,000, then $10,000 and later $12,000, which was the value the Mariners sought. She told the jury that Mrs. Graham looked the property over on Dec. 14 or 15.

Mariner who was also called as a rebuttal witness testified that he and Mrs. Graham inspected the property and that he showed her what she was going to get, which included some improvements, the latter being a concrete storm cellar, a small house, some fruit trees and a well.

"Did you step off the property line for Mrs. Graham?" Mariner was asked by his attorney.

"I did not, only showed her the property which I thought was mine," Mariner replied.

"Did you sell Mrs. Graham a 135-foot frontage on Avenue O at Twenty-third Street?" he was asked.

"No, I did not.

The defense asked Mariner if he showed her all the property that he thought he owned, including the improvements, and he answered in the affirmative.

"That included all the property which you pruchased from R. D. Johnson two years ago, wasn't it?"

"Yes," Mariner replied.

General Thompson To Be Speaker At Meeting Of Engineers Group

The annual meeting of the Texas Local Sections of the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers to be held Friday and Saturday at Texas Technological College in Lubbock, will be the most comprehensive yet scheduled.

Approximately 10 experienced men in the various phases of the oil industry and educators will lead the discussion periods of the two day meeting. All local sections of the institute in Texas are expected to be represented as well as several student chapters. The Texas Tech student chapter will be host.

A banquet to be held Friday night with Gen. Ernest O. Thompson, of the Texas Railroad Commission, making the principal address. A competition in the representation of technical papers by student representatives from the University of Texas, Texas A.&M. College, and Texas Tech, are included in the full schedule of events which have been planned for the meeting.

To Resume Curb Work On Avenue S Tomorrow

Curb and gutter work will probably be resumed on Avenue S tomorrow, W. J. Ramsey, city superintendent, said.

The city has just about completed the work of removing trees from the right-of-way.

It will be necessary to move three more fire plugs back from the street, but Ramsey said he thinks the city can stay ahead of the curb and gutter laying.

Lions Club Building Plans To Be Discussed At Committee Meeting

The Lions Club is expected to call a meeting of its building committee some time late this week to discuss plans for obtaining a new club building, Dr. John Blum committee member, said today.

No definite plans have been made toward securing a building yet, Dr. Blum said, but the committee has two buildings in mind which might be converted for club use if purchased.

The club recently voted to raise its membership dues from $6 to $7 a month, applying the additional dollar on a club building. This would amount to about $100 a month.

Scurry Reserves, Bottom Hole Pressure, Discussed at Meet

Lt. Gen Ernest O. Thompson railroad commissioner, warned Scurry County and West Texas oilmen yesterday that we must meet the challenge of the Persian Gulf in oil production.

Thompson's statement was made at a meeting of the West Central Texas Oil & Gas Association in Abilene, where he and other speakers emphasized the necessity of increasing oil production and decreasing production costs in order to compete with the Persian Gulf oil fields and meet increased domestic demand for crude oil next year.

Scurry County has a major role to play in such competition, according to William L. Horner of Tulsa, chairman of the Scurry County Engineering Committee and chief engineer for Sunray Oil Co.

"It will probably take 40 years to deplete our primary reserves in Scurry County," Horner estimated.

"In Scurry County, 11,000 core analysis have already been made," Horner stated, "and it is estimated there are 2,800,000,000 barrels of oil in the county's fields."

The importance of Scurry County to the oil business can readily be seen when it is realized that the county is a great contributor to the total 25 billion barrels in our known reserves.

"But 27 billion barrels of oil reserves have been discovered in the Persian Gulf already," Gen. Thompson said, "so we must recognize that we are no longer the controlling factor in world oil.

"One day you may see the price basing point for oil shift from the Gulf Coast of the United States to the Persian Gulf.

"The Russians are making an end run in Korea, their main objective is the Middle East," the general said, adding that "there is no question but what Russia could take all of the Persian Gulf territory in a very few days if she should decide to march that way."

In his speech on the Scurry oil picture, Horner explained that the Diamond M field has had a bottom hole pressure decline of 469 pounds and the Kelley-Snyder field, 313 pounds, compared to much smaller declines in fields of thicker pay.

In January this year, Horner said, there were 175 rigs running, in June there were 200, in September, there were 150, and now there are only 100. The number of wells has increased from 425 in January to an estimated 1,500 now. All except the Sharon Ridge Canyon are 90 per cent completed, the engineer said.

Thompson urged oilmen to keep up domestic production, stating that there would be a 7 per cent increase in crude demand in 1951.

East Vealmoor Well Scheduled by Standard

Standard Oil Co. of Texas has has spotted its No. 5 Frances Gunn as a new exploration in the East Vealmoor field of East- Central-North Howard County.

Location is 660 feet from south and west lines of southeast quarter of section 17, block 27, H&TC survey and eight miles southwest of Vincent.

Rotary tools will be used to drill to a projected depth of 7,500 feet, beginning immediately.

Man Reports Being Attacked and Robbed

Lucus told police that one Mexican held a knife to his throat and removed about $25 from his person.

A police check of the area failed to discover the men.

Snyder Group Attends Texas Electric Staff Party in Sweetwater

A large delegation of Texas Electric Service Co. members from Snyder attended the annual meeting of the company's Quarter Century Club last night at Sweetwater.

The dinner and entertainment, attended by more than 200 company members and guests from a three-county area, was in honor of the eight veterans of the company who have had 25 years or more of continuous service.

J. E. Blakey, manager of the company at Snyder, and Mrs. Ethel Eiland, of the company office here, are charter members of the Quarter Century Club.

J. B. Thomas, president and general manager of the electric company, was the principal speaker. He paid tribute to te men and women of the organization who have served more than 25 years and also to the younger people in the organization who are doing their part to see that electric power so essential to the growth of this area, is provided in the ample amounts needed for progress.

Piling up a series of blocks to symbolize the growth of the generating capacity of the company, Thomas pointed out that the capacity of the company's power plants has been increased three times what it was at the end of World War II and that by the end of 1952 it will be increased four and one-half times.

A colored motion picture, "West Texas at Work" was shown. It was made by the company to show the diversified agricultural, industrial, and commercial activities of the areas served by the Texas Electric. A dance followed.

Mrs. Emil Anderson, 3632 Wabash, Detroit, Mich., says she believes in folks being lucky and all that. . . but she says that people today are inclined to rely too much on just good luck. One thing Mrs. Anderson says, "is fact not fiction". . . she isn't going around saying she thanks her lucky stars for feeling so good — No Sir! not Mrs. Anderson — she says she feels so good now because she is taking HADACOL. She was suffering from a deficiency of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin, and Iron which HADACOL contains.

Here is Mrs. Anderson's own statement:

"I was nervous too — so nervous that I couldn't even darn socks and the worst thing was that I couldn't eat nor sleep properly. I would just eat this and that — never a full meal — and my stomach always felt bad. I was so tired all the time — seems like when I would go up two or three steps I would be completely worn out. I was just about at my wits end, not knowing what to do.

"Then while visiting my son and his wife in Marton-Gay, Ky., he told me how his mother-in-law had been helped so much by HADACOL. I brought HADACOL all the home to Detroit with me. I could tell a big difference after the second bottle. So far I have taken 6 or 7 bottles of HADACOL. What a wonderful change has taken place — there is hardly an ache or pain in my whole body. I eat well and thoroughly enjoy my food and sleep — why I can't even stay up late enough to watch all of the television — I just drop off to sleep. I have lots of energy too — now I can even get out in the yard and do the yard work. Yes, HADACOL is wonderful — and you can bet your life I will never stop taking HADACOL."

Folks All Over The Country whose systems were deficient in Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin, and Iron, have been helped by HADACOL and HADACOL can help you, too, if you suffer from stomach distress, certain nervous disturbances, insomnia caused by upset stomach, aches and pains, or a general run-down condition, caused by such deficiencies.

That's the kind of product you want — that's the kind you should buy and that's the kind you should start taking NOW!

Give remarkable HADACOL a chance to benefit you. Remember, you have nothing to lose. HADACOL will make you feel better after the first few bottles you take, or your money will be refunded. Only $1.25 for Trial size; Large family or Hospital Size, $3.50. If your druggist does not have HADACOL, order it direct from The LeBlanc Corporation, Lafayette, Louisiana.

Christmas Shopping Edition

VOL. I—No. 174 SNYDER, TEXAS, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1950 SECTION TWO—EIGHT PAGES

Santa Claus HAS COME TO TOWN

Yes, Old St. Nick comes to Snyder December 1 . . . his gift bag overflowing with wonderful mid-century surprises . . . his eyes twinkling with a cheery invitation for you to come down town and see what he has in store for every member of the family . . . Santa is here early to help you make this Christmas the most joyous ever . . . and with the aid of his home town deputies, he brings you, in this special section, a preview of the cheer you can choose for everyone you hold dear . . .

SHOP EARLY

Here's How to Make It Perfect Christmas For Whole Family

Do you want to make this coming Christmas the best and happiest that you have ever experienced. Then you'll take Santa's advice.

Don't lose a single moment. Don't be lulled into careless thinking by a glance at the calendar. We know Christmas is several weeks away yet.

Better start your Christmas shopping early! Start now.

Don't lose any time.

As a matter of fact you can art immediately, while you are holding this special section of your favorite newspaper in your hands.

To help you start your Christmas Gift planning list without delay, is why this Gift Guide is being brought to you early by Santa with the cooperation of his enthusiastic corps of home town aides.

Pore over its pages. Study the many fascinating gift suggestions you'll find in it, with thought of your friends and loved ones in mind.

Read the announcements of our leading stores as published in this section. They are all ready with their preparations to help you start your Christmas Shopping early.

We're all going to need more time this year to complete our Christmas Gift Giving lists, if we want to make sure that no one is forgotten.

Most families are bigger this year than ever before. Remember the bumper crops of babies, the greater number of marriages that have taken place during the past several years.

Many of the babies of yesteryear are grown children now and you won't want to forget them. More marriages have expanded our circles of both relatives and warm friends.

We don't want to forget any of them.

And very, very important indeed are the gifts we must choose for our men in the armed services. Some are in foreign lands, some in combat, some closer home in camps, many are on ships and in the air.

No matter where they are we do not want them to be without a gift from us for Christmas. That means especially early shopping. The expansion in our gift lists is going to put an extra heavy burden on our stores this year. The supply of some eagerly wanted gifts may be exhausted before the late shoppers can get around to them.

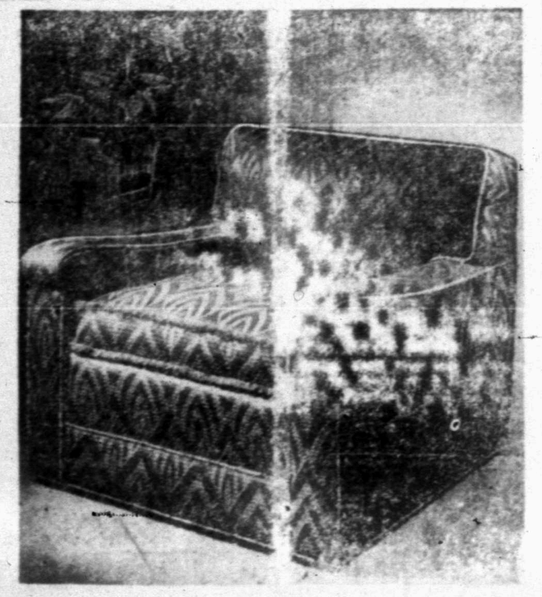

Those who shop early will find fresh, unbroken assortments of gifts from which to make their selections.

Those who shop early will find clerks less harried and less hurried and therefore better able to help you in choosing the gifts you want to buy.

Wise Christmas shoppers will make it a point to be in the stores tomorrow to look over the wonderful collection of gifts Santa has brought to town.

Wise Christmas shoppers will make it a point to select at least one gift a day—maybe more—and tuck them away for giving on Christmas day.

This is the way to make sure that for your friends and loved ones, that Christmas 1950 will be right and gay.

SURE WINNER FOR MOTHER OR DAD is the gift with a promise of happy relaxation the year 'round. A lounge chair, such as the one shown, or a wing, club or channel-back chair, so long as it offers deep, soft, seating comfort, can be chosen to fit into any room in the house and is a gift either mom or dad will welcome with lasting pleasure.

DOUBLE TALK ON THE CEDAR CHEST. A gift delight for the bride-to-be, because she'll want to use it for storage of her precious linens. A gift delight for every home, because today's cedar chest is more than a handy storage center. Newer designs are decorative also. The chest shown is a console type with a lift top lid and two separate cedar lined drawers. By Cavalier.

A FURNITURE GIFT IS A PERSONAL GIFT when the gift is a desk, selected to meet the needs and tastes of the member of the family for whom you're choosing it. Newest designs are smartly functional with bookcase sections and all-around finish to permit double-duty use as attractive room dividers. If they already have a desk, remember them with bookshelves or a desk set or lamp. The desk shown is by Heywood-Wakefield.

Key Itself Is Key To Giving Away New Car

Key to the most exciting way to give a new automobile to someone for Christmas is the car key itself. Put it in a little jewel box. Wrap it as carefully as you would a fine watch. Put it under the tree.

Then, when the surprised recipient opens the box, make sure there is a little message, in addition to your love, that tells him or her that "this little key will really take you places, if you'll just step outside the house and find the door it opens."

MEMORABLE GIFT—the cocktail table is as beautiful a gift, and decorative as it is practical. One of many smart choices is the blond mahogany oval model shown here. Designed by Davidson.

Say Merry Christmas With Gift on Which They'll Write Thanks

Stationery for Christmas giving to fit the gifts into the Yuletide affords an exceptional opportunity budget as neatly as one fits gloves on hands, and at the same time make a present that will indeed be a clear indication of the giver's personal interest.

The variety of gift packaged stationery is so great both with respect to design and appropriateness and price, that selections can be made at from twenty-five cents up to $5 and more.

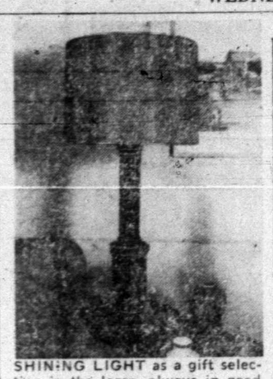

The usefulness of stationery for children or adults is of course, beyond question for it will be useful until the last sheet of paper and sumed.

the last envelope have been con- In any event, certainly the first sheet to be used from a gift of stationery will be for a note of thanks to the one who gave it.

The variety of designs, textures and packaging is almost limitless, from the classic to the informal.

USEFUL AND DECORATIVE for many a year to come, is the gift of a card table and chair set that blends best with their decor and serves equally well for informal dining or party serving as it does for Canasta playing.

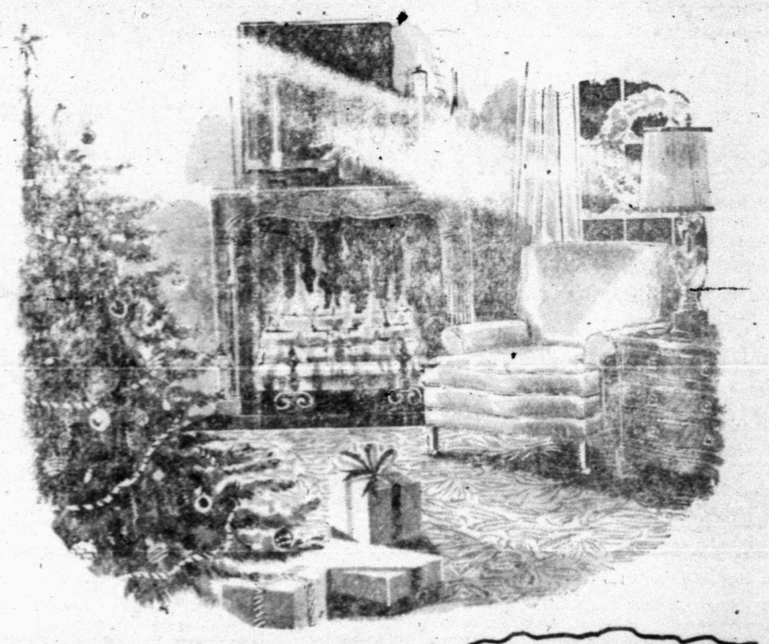

SHINING LIGHT as a gift selection is the lamp, always in good taste. Shown, is one of the many distinctive styles now available, this one, a spatter dash shaft on a highly mounted wooden base touched with gold.

TELEVIEWER'S TREAT! Assure him (or her) Christmas joy always with a comfortable chair that rotates to provide perfect viewing from any point in the room. Harvey Probber design.

Easy To Shop For Boys And Men In Snyder

Christmas comes but once a year, but for those who have trouble selecting a gift which is suitable and also fits the pocketbook, Christmas shopping comes once too often each year.

Many who are seeking a nice gift for the man or boy have probably never thought of sporting goods, and the stores in Snyder have some fair goods at fair prices for the buyer.

A husband or father who enjoys fishing could be well satisfied with a new rod and reel, and a good variety of both is offered here. Rods are sold in several stores in Snyder, and they can be had, some of them on special sales, for any price from $3.50 to $35.00. Reels come from the low $2.95 to $17.50.

If he's the hunter, there are several good lines of rifles in everything from a .22 caliber to a .12 gauge shot gun in a price range of $12.95 to $109.95.

Golfing equipment is hard to stock in the stores in good lines, but several have it at a variety of prices. It would make a nice gift for the man who likes to spend his Sunday afternoons on the golf course.

While the men are hunting or ishing, a handy thing to have along is something to keep cold drinks in. That comes in the Snyder stores in anything from the thermos jug at $3.29 to $6.98 to the larger refrigerated box at $18.95 to $24.95.

Boys like most of these things just the same as their dads do, but while they're younger, many of their interests are toward the more active sports like football, basketball, baseball, or boxing.

Practically any store in town which handles a large line of Christmas goods will have something in these lines. More football equipment will be stocked than for any other sport. Mom or Dad can buy Junior a football at any price from 98 cents to $8 and more and keep him happy. With that he could use a helmet which comes priced $4.98 to $5.95 or shoulder pads at $1.69 to $5.95.

Basketball is in season now, and a boy might be glad to get a ball to bounce around, and they can be bought at about $3.95 to $5.75.

Softballs and hardballs, both handy toys for the boy, come in the price range of 89 cents to $3.29. Bats are priced around $1.39 to $2.95, while gloves come higher at $6.25 to $14.75.

If the boy is a boxer, he would be proud of a good set of gloves. A good pair of 12 ounce gloves, the ones which can't easily injure a person, comes at around $6.00. Punching bags come in several different types, to be set on the floor, wall, or ceiling. They cost from $3.95 to $6.95. For the smaller boy, a nice junior set of gloves and trunks comes at about $3.69.

It's A Record Yule for All

For music lovers at Christmas time there is a limitless number of gifts to choose from in the form of records, and albums of records. Whether tastes run to classical or popular music, you can't go wrong. Similarly there are special records and albums for giving to children.

Since classical music lovers usually lavish their affection on a single composer or school, be sure to sneak a peak at the collection before you make your gift choice. If you see a lot of Brahams, you'l be on the beam if you choose more Brahams.

Lovers of lighter music often devote themselves to schools of arrangement or execution of their favorite type of music. Thus, you may find a lot of Eddie Condon in the Dixie-land-enthusiast record library. More of the same type is the rule here.

In choosing dance records, also consider the tastes of the individual, though here, almost everything is welcome.

The field of recorded music for children is specially noteworthy for two facts. Most of it is done on unbreakable plastics. R.C.A. has a wide selection also in colorful plastics making them especially good Yule gifts. Some other companies are making children's records exclusively, they are now so popular.

Finally, be sure to find out what type of record player your gift prospect has. If his or hers plays 33 r.p.m. or 45 r.p.m. records, be sure to choose these and your gift will be distinguished for tone and ease of handling.

JUST WHAT THEY NEED to rack up a Merry Christmas! And a useful accessory in every home is the magazine rack.

SHEER DELIGHT! An entire wardrobe or a pair of her favorite nylon hose, to complement her costumes in fashion's newest shades and heel styles. Van Raalte hose shown above.

Gifts, Small in Size, Make Biggest Hit With Servicemen

With one out of every thirty-five of our menfolk in the armed services this year nearly everyone is going to be concerned about Christmas "Gifts for Servicemen."

And since some of them are in far off Korea and Japan and others on the continent of Europe, it is essential that shopping for them start immediately.

There is the matter of packaging their gifts properly for safe travel over long distances. There is above all the matter of getting their packages into the mails a good deal before Christmas.

And finally there is the problem of choosing the appropriate gift. This means above all that the place where the servicemen is stationed is very important to the proper selection of the gift to be sent to him.

If he's in a Florida training camp, a heavy woolen sweater would be of little use. If he is a combat man in Korea a bathing suit would be so much deadweight.

It should also be remembered that no matter whether your man is stationed in Continental United States or is aboard a swift moving battle cruiser, gifts for him should be small, light and sturdy. Service men are almost always on the move.

For those who have access to electrical power a small and preferably portable radio is good, as are electrical shavers for freshening up. Think also of the trouser pressers that are compact. They keep uniforms trim and neat and tuck away in a foot locker.

Pen and pencil sets are always welcome. Ball point pens help avoid the need for carrying ink bottles. Stiff backed portfolios of stationery are also wanted. Be sure to include several books of stamps.

Wallets with clear view envelopes for pictures, cigarette lighters featuring wind shields overnight bags for use on furloughs, pocket-sized games to help while away free time are all good gifts. Depending on where he is, a small camera is welcome.

Ranking high of course is a good wrist watch, but it should be shock resistant and water proof and of a standard make to insure easy repair.

Reading matter is always welcome. And, don't overlook a pocket-size Bible. And as for food it's doubly welcome anywhere, especially when it's a delicacy preferably in cans. Be sure to pack in a sturdy container.

And when you send your package of gifts to the service man don't forget to include snapshots. The homier the picture the better he'll like it.

Start her off on the road to a valued collection, this Christmas with two or three unusual gift plates, an antique pitcher or several pieces of early American milk glass.

Make Certain Presents Will Arrive in Time

First on every Christmas Gift Shopping list this year should be the gifts that you are going to have to entrust to Uncle Sam for delivery.

If you want to make sure that they reach their destination before Christmas Day, then don't wait until the last minute. Everything now points to the heaviest burden of Christmas mail in history.

One cardinal rule to remember is that the further the gift has to travel the more time should be allowed for the postman to make the delivery.

The other important rule is that care be taken in packaging the gift for mailing.

Best plan is to double wrap the gift. Do it first in gay gift wrapping, after making sure that the gift will not rattle around in its box.

Then put the "gift wrapped" package into a corrugated container of sufficient strength and securely enough bound for you to be sure that the package will not be damaged en-route.

And finally, have the package weighed carefully and be sure you have enough postage on it.

Chart Will Aid Choice

Know the month of birth of the one for whom you are planning a gift of jewelry and the giving can be made more personal. Use this table as your guide to the proper birthstone if the gift is to have a precious or semi-precious stone:

Jan. — Garnet
Feb. — Amethyst
Mar. — Bloodstone or Aquamarine
Apr. — Diamond
May — Emerald
June — Pearl or Moonstone
July — Ruby
Aug. — Sardonyx or Peridot
Sept. — Sapphire
Oct. — Opal or Tourmaline
Nov. — Topaz
Dec. — Turquoise or Lapis Lazuli

This table of birthstones has been compiled and authenticated by the Jewelry Industry Council after long research.

Make Your Dates For Yule Beauty Treatment

Tip for young ladies who want to look their best for Christmas eve festivities and all parties during the coming Holiday Season: Make your beauty shop appointments early.

And here, too, is a gift idea for many beauty salons offer gift certificates good for as many visits and treatments as the gift giver cares to give.

Put Personal Touch on Gift

Monogramming and engraving, so essential to many gifts which gain in sentiment when these personalized touches are added, take time. This should be carefully considered in working out your gift list, and should guide you in making your gift shopping schedule.

If it is linens or stationery or similar gifts you have in mind, frequently handsomely monogrammed items, with a single initial, are to be found in the fresh Christmas stocks. This is indeed a time saver.

But if you want a combination or initials in a special design to distingush your gift as for the giver alone, give the people from whom you buy it a reasonable amount of time before Christmas in which to do the monogram.

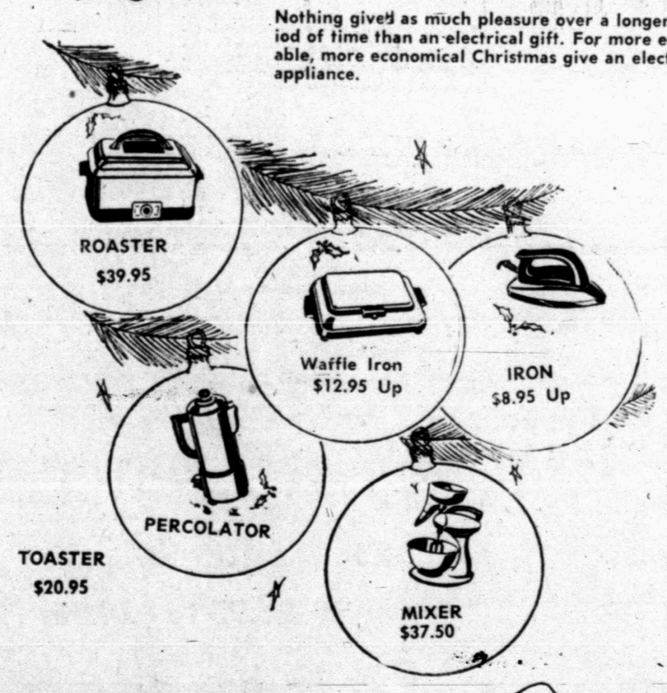

Similarly with inscriptions that are so much desired on jewelry, watches and silverware. These will take even more time in anticipation of the holiday season, for many people will want to take advantage of the service to personalize their gifts and the work the engraver will have to do will be in a "first come first served" basis.

It's best to keep inscriptions simple such as "with love from J.G.—Christmas 1950."

She'll love you more every day of the year when she receives your gift group of scarfs. Select them in a variety of sizes and patterns as well as colors, so they'll be sure to add just the right accent to her every ensemble.

Clothes Are Favorite Gift Among Males

As varied as the snowflakes on a ski run are the gift possibilities for men this year, with wearables ranking foremost as desirable in the practical minds of most of the masculine gender.

There is probably only one other classification of gifts that might conceivably outrank the man's interest in practical clothes. It is the all embraceable gadgetry group which may include everything from a new fangled tie clip to a 1950 model electric shaver.

To help make selections for the men in your life, try to recall the things they have mentioned that they have wanted so badly, but never got around to buying for themselves. It's the nature of the male, you know, to talk freely and do little for himself.

This therefore is your chance to to play the type of Santa who knows that while men are growing more and more fashion conscious, whatever they want, and especially as a gift, must also have long usefulness.

And this combination of fashion and utility is very strongly reflected in everything men wear from pajamas to raincoats.

Take lounging robes, for example something a man rarely buys for himself. They are featured in a wide range indeed this year with a robe available to suit every purse, purpose and personality. Yes, television has had a lot of influence on the variety available this year, and so has the great increase in travel.

Therefore we have the flowing lounge robe in the rage-of-the-season patterns and the terry cloth towelling models that clips around the waist, the robe that folds into its own small bag for easy packing and the distinguished robes to be worn at the home-television party.

YES, TOP COATS, TOO!

A surprising trend noted from last year, is the idea of giving a top coat as a Christmas gift. Here again the range in wide including tweedy models, gabardines and reversibles, and there are of course the increasingly popular Storm Coats. These deserve special consideration this year.

Does he have enough shirts, pajamas, handkerchiefs, sox and ties? What man ever has? Or what about the mufflers he needs, the belts, link sets? And when considering these things as accessory gifts, remember to choose them early so you may plan to have them monogrammed.

Cosmetics for men have long ceased to have any feminine connotation. They are really shaving accessories anyway, with special attention to the needs of the fastidious man, and they come handsomely packaged.

Which reminds us all that the electric shaver or the fine razor always make excellent gifts. So do magnifying mirrors.

THEY LOVE LEATHER

Browse through leather goods departments. Men love leather. New wallets, key cases, portfolios, brief cases, and new travelling bags. Just so they are made of fine leather and handsomely styled.

And finally, in this brief resume we come to the sports and hobbies of the male which offer in themselves a limitless opportunity for much appreciated gift giving.

Here the jackets, shirts and sweaters for the sportsman for wear at play, in the field, or at the club are top favorites, and fashion plays a most important part. Choose with care because chances are your man knows what's right.

Is he a fisherman? Then tackle is his bait. Is he a golfer? Any thing from a dozen balls to a new bag is par for Christmas. Maybe he relaxes by working with wood. The hardware store is a good place to shop for tool kits. Some men make miniature trains their hobby. Others are amateur photographers. Nearly all play cards.

Know your man and choosing gifts for this Christmas will be easy.

MOST PRECIOUS OF ALL GIFTS, the Diamond, plays an important role at Christmas time. Three times as many engagement rings are now purchased in December than in the next highest month of April, giving eloquent testimony of the growing popularity of the Yuletide betrothal. The sparkling diamond, above, is a brilliant cut stone in a prong setting and is today's most popular type of betrothal ring. Diamonds also are much favored as luxury Christmas gifts from husband to wife in many interesting settings, cocktail rings, brooches, bracelets and necklaces.

Cater to Women's Whims In Gifts of Luxury and Glamor

BY ROBERTA WILLIAMS

Every woman, whether she's young in years or wonderfully young in spirit— whether she spends her hours homemaking or at a typewriter—loves an aura of exciting glamour and glitter 'round her Yuletide gifts. And this year, gifts are more exactly what she wants than ever before.

They're luxurious, ready to scintilate with the stamp of her own personality and designed to flatter her every mood.

For instance, if m'lady spends her hours at home, there are dramatically simple, yet elegantly accented ensembles to make her role as hostess of the television or canasta party on of unforgetable loveliness.

To go with her at-home costumes and peep out from beneath her very best negligees, there are gay, but oh so comfortable slippers.

For shopping sprees and warm comfort too, a storm coat is sure to be a fashion-pride with its handsome tailoring and snug mouton or alpaca collar.

And to accessorize it and other coats exactly right, there are a wealth of striking shoulder-strap handbags in bright plaids and fine leathers as well as smaller size bags personalized with her own initials.

For the gal who makes a career her 9 to 5 activity, there are gifts that are glamorous and smart as they are useful. Gaily patterned little scarfs in a variety of sizes will lend striking accent to her every costume.

A golden circlet to keep her gloves from straying from her bag will appeal to her appreciation of the novel. Envelope her in the soft, warm folds of a new fur coat, cape or scarf and wear a never-vanishing halo of mistletoe. (Remember, too, that precious gift fur is just as prized be it muskrat or mouton instead of mink or sable).

FOR DATE MAKERS

Gift buying for a busy young date-maker? What better than to surprise her with one of the many joyous, memory-making gifts.

A compact encrusted with sparkling jewels will put gay glitter at her finger-tips. Costume jewelry to bring sparkle and joy to her every day. Choose it beguiling and lovely, be it a rhinestone encrusted necklace or lustrous pearl earrings.

Fine luggage, feminine as can be in a bright color or pattern, will prove prideful accompaniment traveling to busy dance-at-a-distance week-ends or on romance-laden journeys. The tiniest pieces of precious furs—a set of ermine tails, a diminutive mink ascot—will add luxurious appeal to every costume.

And what lady who rates top-place honors on a Christmas gift list wouldn't adore an aura created to be hers and hers alone with perfumes and colognes and sweet-scented bath salts, all selected with a vision of her personality her own way, then surely exciitng and right.

And surely she'll adore to have her beauty pampered with little "aids." Lipsticks and powders nail polish and accessories, compact in a kit or individually tempting and gala in wrappings, bright as the Christmas Tree itself, and so becharmingly packaged they're sure to win "first opened" privileges.

She'll love too, to be wrapped in glamous in a flimy negligee, midnight black or angelic white, that promises to fill each evening with romance, each morning she wears it, with bright sunshine.

MAKE IT GLAMOROUS

Assure her sweet dreams the year around with nighties and pajamas carefully culled to bring the stars right out of the heavens and into her eyes. Or treat her with a good looking billfold that holds her spending money secretly safe and still leaves ample room for a picture of "that wonderful guy," a pair of gloves, pert and short or handsomely long or hose with glittering sequin or exquisitely embroidered clocks.

Just choose her glamour gift with her personality and her favorite activities in mond and be assured that it will be the perfect gift for 'neath the tree and the 365 days of the year to come.

For The Hands

Warm her heart and her hands with a fur muff, selected in the fur of her coat or the fur she loves best to go with her Sunday best" cloth coat fashion.

For Busy Executive

For that busy executive . . . Christmas — give him a convenient leather pocket memo book with perforated pages. Will help him keep track of his doings and dates; tear out memos as they become obsolete. Available in many sizes, styles and prices.

TIE UP HIS CHRISTMAS WITH PLEASURE and we do mean "tie." Figures show that 85 per cent of the ties sold throughout the year are bought by women which means that no matter what else, that man of yours will be getting from you this Yuletide, his Christmas will be incomplete without some ties. With a hundred thousand color combinations and forty thousand different patterns available, of which the above are representative, being "tied by you" this Yule will give him sure satisfaction.

Brush Hif Off

Handy shower accessories assure him a Merry Christmas. Little gifts but important-to-good-living gifts, they may include a long handled brush, his favorite scent in soap attached to a cord that hangs conveniently around his neck and perhaps an extra-large-size bath towel.

LATEST IN BOX CAMARAS features smart styling, ease of picture making, provision for making flash pictures.

GLAMOUR AT HER FINGERTIPS makes for a truly perfect Christmas. Suggested gloves to match her every mood and every-occasion need, shorties, above, by Kislav.

Gifts To Help Hostess Get Out of Kitchen

Old St. Nick has conspired with the gift makers to keep your hostess out of the kitchen this year and to give her more time to spend with the guests she entertains.

The variety of handsomely designed lazy susans, the devices for keeping hot dishes warm, the rolling trays on which to bring in everything one needs to serve that informal dinner, is legion.

What better way to express your own appreciation of the hospitality you have enjoyed at her home than joining Santa's conspiracy by sending her a gift that says it better than can any words you might utter.

Some of the rolling tables, for example, are designed so that they may be folded and stowed away in practically no space at all when not in use. When being used, they help eliminate many of the hazards that accompany the delicate balancing act so frequently associated with buffet dinners.

There are sectional dishes that come with matching cups and in addition to room for a sandwich or cake some have tiny compartments for forks, spoons or what have you.

The lazy susans come in really large sizes as well as the smal ones customarily associated with the condiments. Many of the larger ones are specially designed to keep food good and hot. These can add a most festive informal air to any party and makes "reaching" quite correct. As a matter of fact it promotes the friendly idea of "helping yourself."

The alchohol burner is a revival of the spirit that used to prevail when chafing dishes were the vogue. They are again. And the hostess who delights in gourmet recipes can make her sauces—her shrimp saute, her cherries flambe and her crepe suzettes right at the table.

The Buddhist church owns nearly all the farm land in Tibet, with farmers operating as share-croppers.

AND 'ROUND HER NECK she'll wear a pretty scarf you so thoughtfully give her for Christmas. Wide or narrow, long or short, a scarf is always a prized gift. The rose printed satin scarf above is by Glentex.

Wrap Your Gifts to Say That This One Is "Just For You"

It's not the gift but the wrappings that often make the most important impression of all as to whether the holiday token was selected "especially for you" or hurriedly chosen with nary a feeling for the recipients tastes and personality.

With the many new papers, ribbons, stickers and tages in evidence this year, gift wrapping can and should be a happier, more personalized experience for all — giver and receiver alike—than ever before.

FOR MEN FOLKS

For instance, if you've the men folks' gifts on hand, keynote their pipe-and-slipper masculinity with simple dramatic wrappings that feature broad, yet Christmas-colorful stripes or monotone scrollwork motifs of green, gold or red all sturdily, in a holiday-mood, tied with wide red or green ribbons.

Then, for the ladies bring their femininity to the fore with tinselly papers of silver, gold or multi-hued bubbly prints that have delicate ribbons tied round about with a multitude of bows. Or play up to their appreciation of whimsy with little pine cone corsages or tiny dolls you've made yourself, clipped onto their gift packages.

The joy of receiving will be twofold for the kiddies when their gifts are wrapped with their happy interests in mind. Ribbons that say "Merry Christmas," overlays of crisp cellophane, papers with Santas and reindeers prancing about, all of them can express your loving thoughts of them and insure the younger set a truly joyous Yule.

COORDINATE WRAPPINGS

If you'd like to personalize your gifts with patterns identical to those of your Christmas cards, there are coordinated wrappings, stickers, tags and Christmas cards keyed to most every mood of every member of the family. And this includes everything from jolly snowmen scampering about a sign reading "from both of us" to youngset themed motifs that feature Charles Dickens' Tiny Tim.

Above all, let your choice of wrappings this Yule make that little sticker reading "Don't Open Until Christmas" and tabbed onto every gift package, a harder to keep rule for every recipient than ever before.

SPARKLE IN HER STOCKING for a sparkle in her eye and a sparkle sure to be there with a gift of glittering, colorful costume jewelry. Trifari's "eweled Symphony" is shown.

Double Up On Holiday Gifts

With so many wedding anniversaries being celebrated during the month of December, what better way to commemorate this happy event than with a combination Anniversary and Christmas gift of rare value and beauty.

From a wife to a husband, a husband to a wife or friends to friends there are many exciting gifts that hold sentiments of double importance. A beautiful clock for their mantel, a memory making jewelry accessory, fine silverflatware or precious holloware, sparkling crystal that takes graceful shape as a punch bowl set or stemware are only a few of the many promising gifts that make for long proud possession and are worthy of a two-in-one celebration.

For The Hostess

There's a Merrier Christmas awaiting the hostess who makes entertaining a year 'round habit with gift guest-accessories such as a box of delicately scented paste colored soap, pretty paper guest towels or coasters, napkins and match covers imprinted with the host and hostess' name.

Ample Choice In Gifts For Men of Family

Christmas ties have become a standing joke in the United States, and tie manufacturers are really going all out to keep the joke alive this season.

Consider a color combination of red, yellow, green, blue and gray, for example. Combine these colors in a pattern which closely resembles an explosion in a paint factory against a midnight blue background and you have the masterpiece.

There are all sorts of off-center geometric designs too, which come up with a result describably only as shocking.

All this isn't to say that there aren't some really quite conservative ties, done in solid colors or in muted shades with brighter patterns. Some have painted designs of leaves or animals or even scenes, just colorful enough to set off a dark suit or to blend with brighter sports clothes.

Shirt manufacturers, not to be outdone, have introduced a leopard skin fabric. These shirts cost usually less than $12, and the novel effect they give is calculated to be worth the price. Even more recent than leopard skin is a reptile skin fabric, which looks a great deal like the skin used in women's shoes.

Jewelry for the men often provides an inexpensive gift. Cuff links, tie clasps or studs may be purchased for as little as two dollars in the costume jewelry lines. Sterling silver or gold filled items can go the limit, of course, and will last to become heirloom objects.

Luggage is another popular item for Christmas giving. It may be just the thing for that person who has everything else, and can be personalized with initials.

The influence of the Tebetan brand of Lamaistic Buddhism extends to some other parts of Asia.

THE TELEVISION GOWN STARS at Christmas and at every television party at which she serves as gracious hostess. The white quilted rayon jersey gown with gold belt and braid trim, above, is by Raymode.

THE LOVELIEST DAY DREAM OF ALL COMES TRUE with gifts of a warm, cute-as-a-wink quilted shortie robe that's just right for opening gifts on Christmas A. M., later gives comfort at leisurely brunches; and pajamas, luxurious to see as they are luxurious to wear, holding a promise, of course, for sweet dreams always. The 3-piece Tommy set, shown, by Harry Berger.

PRE-FURRED GIFT and a most precious gift always for any woman. The fur coat—or any other fur fashion—of her dreams on Christmas morn a wonderful reality for the years to come. The thrre-quarter coat of silvery muskrat designed by Carolyn.

A Hundred Thousand New Ties Assure the Right One for All

Neckties are one of the safest bets for Christmas gifts. There is no size to consider. There are 100,000 color combinations and 40,000 different patterns now on the market to choose from. The chances of going wrong are slim.

Women buy 85 per cent of the ties sold throughout the year, according to the Men's Tie Foundation, but during Christmas holidays the figure hovers close to 100 per cent.

The holiday collections highlight a new note in ties that have a "Touch of Fame" and "Picture-writing." Among the famous who are now designing men's tie fabrics are Schiaparelli, Jacques Fath, Molyneux, Tina Leser and Salvador Dali the surrealist. Well known American artists including Adolf Dehn Edward Millman, Joe Jones and Edward Chavez also are designing new ties.

Necktie designers have also revived the ancient art of picture writing on tie fabrics. Picturewriting was the first used by cave dwellers to convey messages to their tribesmen.

These "conversation" ties are colorful, witty and provocative. They literally sing, dance, talk read, write and even "make dates."

The Tie Foundation's tips to the woman tie shopper are basically the ones she uses in guiding her purchases of her own fashion items.

First, be sure to pick colors that will point up his suits—greens and clear reds and yellow tones with brown shades, some of the higher pastels for dark suits.

Second, relate the pattern in the tie to the pattern in his suits. Planned bold patterns go better nounced suit patterns. Panel designs are especially good with any type of suit pattern. Dark double breasted suits, or suits worn with a vest call for bold sharp pattern.

Be sure his gift tie is of the right tie length. Ties run from 47-54 inches long. If he is tall or wears a large neck size, get him a tie that is long enough. If he wears single breasted suits without the vest, as most men do, he will look best in a longer tie.

The Foundation suggests matching gift tie colors to his complexion tones and hair coloring. Good clear sharp colors will lighten a dark complexion; muted colors and designs will tone down the coloring of a light complexioned red head.

For Little Girls

Christmas gifts for little girls get that much more attention when they're tied with gay silk ribbons that can be used for the hair after Santa's long gone.

NEW FOLDING CAMERA, the "Tourist," combines beauty with functional design. This camera available with a variety of lenses and shutters.

Ice Buckets Useful For Entertainment

There are the handsome new ice buckets to think of as a gift to help make entertaining easier for your hostess. They eliminate the need for dashing back and forth from the refrigerator in the kitchen for always needed extra cubes of ice. And they are very decorative.

And of course there is also the silent butler, a blessing at every party which keeps both hostess and maid free for their respective duties, and at the same time insures clean ash trays.

To eliminate post party drudgery, plastic manufacturers have come up with inexpensive and gaily colored sets of forks and spoons that can be tossed away after using. Similarly brightly patterned napkins that feel like real cloth but aren't, are work and time savers and add gay notes to any party.

These are but a few of the many things from which you can choose to show your appreciation of the hospitality you have enjoyed at the home of a friend.

And remember that mother, the inveterate hostess to every member of the family is as much a candidate for the gift that speaks appreciation of hospitality as is any other woman.

Approximately one million cattle and an even larger number of sheep graze the ranges of New Mexico.

New Gift Banks Spur Youngsters to Thrift

The coming year will be a thrifty one for youngsters if the novel new toy banks that are featured for Christmas giving are put into the right hands by considerate gift givers.

Many new ones are a far cry from the old piggy bank. Some are modeled after office files. Another has slotted drawers with markings to indicate what junior is saving for. Still another is designed like a mail box.

For Writing Home

For men in the service, packaged stationery is a welcome gift indeed.

Specially thoughtful givers will include a book of stamps in most of the stationery gifts they give.

Christmas Shopping Edition

VOL. I—No. 174 SNYDER, TEXAS, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1950 SECTION THREE—SIX PAGES

For The All-Important Gift Jewelry Will Be The Answer

One of the most exciting ways to show your love and thoughtfulness at Christmastime is with a gift of fine jewelry.

For jewelry is truly one of the most precious gifts of all and can be a fitting and flattering gift for any member of the family, offering great sentimental worth as well as untold importance as a thrilling accessory to be valued for many, many years.

Remember, too, that jewelry is a most effective expression of whichever sentiment you want your gift to convey, be it functionalism combined with beauty, romance, personalized thoughtfulness or classic beauty.

Consider Giving Watch

So, if the all-important gift you have in mind is one that will combine functionalism with beauty, consider giving a watch.

To a man, it will mean the pleasure of owning and wearing a handsome accessory as well as a prized precision time-keeper.

To a woman, it is a gift to be treasured long for its rich beauty as well as for its more practical aspect of time-keeping.

And to the younger members of the family, the watch is a gift which will at once make them feel that this is truly a "grown up" presentation to be valued for many a year to come.

Wonderfully, watches are to be had in styles to please all. There are simply styled watches for the sports-minded, diamond-and-ruby studded watches that provide luxurious appeal and novelty types set right into handbags. Fob watches that can be pinned onto suits and dresses and tiny watches set into rings and bracelets are also available.

ROMANCE IN JEWELRY

Romance is expressed by jewelry in many an exciting way. For instance, for a beloved wife, nothing can compare in romantic appeal to the gift of a new wedding band, sparkling gaily with a row or rows of diamond chips. And what woman won't revel in the lasting beauty and love expressed by a diamond brooch, bracelet or necklace.

If your engagement announcement is still a matter for the future, set the date for Christmas Eve. For when you give this thrilling symbol of love and romance—a diamond engagement ring—to her on Christmas Eve you also give her the proud thrill of being able to twinkle her new lifetime possession pridefully before all at holiday parties.

A truly thoughtful and personalized choice is the selection of a favored piece of jewelry encrusted with his or her birthstone. His birthstone might be set as a ring, a tie or stick pin or cuff links. Hers will delight her in numerous settings—from bracelets and earrings to rings and brooches.

PEARLS AT A PRICE

Ever the classic favorite with women from ages 10 to 100 are cultured pearls. And choosing a gift of these lustrous gems need not mean a great expenditure. For, although thousands of dollars can be spent for fine cultured pearls, they are also available at prices below twenty-five dollars.

Above all, remember that this precious gift deserves all the care and patience in selection you can give it. So plan to choose his or her important gift of jewelry early.

St. Nick Goes Wild West In Garb and Toys

With the playtime thinking of youngsters so predominately influenced by the West this year Old St. Nick hooked a trailer to his traditional sleigh on order to bring an extra bag full of rodeo equipment to town with which to make both boys and girls extra happy this Christmas.

Yes, the "western" gifts for Sister are just as plentiful as those for Brother because she has made it quite clear that there are no seconds in this matter of rooting for Roy and Gene and Hoppy and all the others from the plains.

Dolls have discarded fluffy skirts for fringed trimmed chaps and cow girl skirts, just as new playtogs for sister have done in many instances. No doubt some of the younger boys will cast a wistful eye at them while others will want the lifelike replicas of their favorite Television characters.

Yes the bad men had better lay low beginning Christmas for glittering six shooters in handsomely studded holsters are ready to go into the eager hands of the children. Some of the guns eject smoke for realism.

The smart looking new chaps, authentic in detail and brilliant with decorations will thrill the youngsters when they see them Christmas morning.

You can choose complete equipment for either boy or girl or buy pieces separately.

The western influence is carried beyond clothes and "equipment," and dolls. Among gifts inspired by the cowboys are western coloring books with crayons, cowboy boot banks and even tricycles tricked up in western style.

Send Flowers For Yuletide

Say "Merry Christmas" the loveliest way of all this Yule. Send flowers to your loved ones and friends. And let flowers and gay greenery add glad cheer to your home through the holiday season.

A corsage for a "special someone" takes loving shape when it's Christmas-traditional poinsettias or a gay cluster of acorns tinted white and all dressed up for the holiday with red berries, some Christmas fern and a pert little red bow. Or an ever welcome corsage of warm-hued chrysanthemums, might be the corsage she will love best.

Perfect surprise for a proud homemaker is the potted plant. Send her Santa Claus red poinsettias, lovely Calla Lilies, fulsome azaleas, fragrant roses or gardenias. Each one of these will pay a lasting tribute to your thoughtfulness.

To carry the spirit of Christmas right into your home, adorn your front door with a welcoming wreath or a gay ribbon-tied cluster of hemlock, pine or spruce. Inside festoon loops of hemlock, ground pine or laurel about the rooms and drape it gracefully too above the hanging stockings on your mantelpiece.

Santa Claus Comes To Snyder Friday, December 1st

Santa will arrive by plane and will fly around over town and then land at Winston Field. He will then proceed to the downtown district where he will join the parade and from there greet the children. The Christmas program is being planned by the committees from the Lions, Rotary, Kiwanis, Junior Chamber of Commerce and from the Scurry County Chamber of Commerce.

The parade will begin at 4:30 P. M. and will be lead by the Snyder High School band. The route of the parade is as follows: From the place of origin North on Ave. R, turn left on 25th, left on Ave. S, left on 26th and right to place of origin. There will be several floats in the parade sponsored by the various merchants, civic and study clubs.

Santa will distribute candy, which has been furnished by the local Lions Club to the kiddies.

The local merchants are having a Christmas Treasure Hunt which will work as follows:

The participating merchants will have prizes located in their windows—inside the store will be a number which will be placed in view of all. The lucky person holding that number will win the prize. The treasure hunt will be from Dec. 1 through Dec. 23rd. Therefore, if you hold tickets you will have the opportunity to go in any store that is participating in the treasure hunt during those days. Tickets will be given away by the participating merchants beginning Friday, December 1st, and will be given away until all tickets are exhausted. You do not have to purchase any merchandise to receive the ticket—but is yours for the asking. Tickets will also be distributed during the time of the parade. The Junior Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a home decorating contest and offer the following cash prizes: First $25; Second $15; Third $10; and Fourth $5. Only residences located in Snyder are eligible. To enter the contest a person should file their name and address with either station KSNY or The Snyder Daily News before 5 P. M. December 22nd.

Toy Shops Full Of Dolls That Look, Act Real

A peek into Santa's 1950 workshop reveals an exciting new generation of dolls so lifelike and tailored that they are sure to delight every little girl. From top to bottom and in every corner stores are brimming to bursting with a wide and wonderful doll selection for this Christmas.

Though there is a doll to please every little miss in America, the toy makers' special dolls are expected to be snapped up fastest. Here's one of the wisest things Santa or dad or Aunty Mary could do is to take mother out to take a delightful little girl for a stroll through the toy departments and watch her reactions.

The one she sighs for most longingly is the doll to "adopt" quickly.

Toy makers have completely upstaged a little girl's dream and interpreted it with the aid of amazing new materials. Toy shelves are peopled with mend-to-real infant dolls who look for all the world like baby sister when she's up first week at the nursery window.

There's a captivating Li'l Darling who is attractively sealed to your fact old [illegible] in all creepers on her face to her curling toes.

And there's cheerful Blessed Event which faithfully reproduces the facial movements of a three-weeks old baby. She puckers her lips in a kiss, nibbles, whimpers, pouts and even throws her tongue.

No picture of the layette set would be complete without "Little Chuckles," fetchingly dressed in a [illegible] embroidered christening [illegible].

Another Weeps Tears

[illegible] are adorable wetting dolls [illegible] talents that should [illegible] to tiny mothers. News [illegible] Baby Do-Doo doll [illegible] willing her [illegible] Do-Doo fashion, [illegible] and from a [illegible] any Texas [illegible] Chatterbox [illegible] sweeps [illegible] tears.

Dolls are more lovable and queezable because of the new coverings and built rubber which make them as soft and resilient as the babies. There are companions who make doll's [illegible] ing, trampling and other nursery activities. The current harvest of dolls make sanitary playmates because they are easy to clean and keep clean. Just a brief soaping restores their shiny looks.

Nylon hair, another exciting innovation, is used in popular sub deb dolls. Their hair can be shampooed and set into elaborate arrangements, a feature which should delight little girls.

The latest news and television is reflected in the new crop of dolls. Moving along the shelves, the eye spots Howdy Doody, complete from his sprinkling of freckles to his shiny boots.

Triplets always make the front pages and the news of triplet dolls in the house should win the admiration of the neighborhood youngster set. These dolls come as another and sister or three-of-a-kind dressed alike, and often housed in the same cradle.

Revived interest in the ballet limits its way into ballet movies, ballet type street shoes and of course ballet dolls. One of the prettiest wears a whirly net skirt [illegible] satin ballet slippers.

Boy Dolls Popular

[illegible] always been a plump little [illegible] that sits under the tree. But Christmas 1950 brings a change. Notable in the doll displays are [illegible] numbers of masculine [illegible] baby dolls round and [illegible] in their small new suits.

One little boy doll comes dressed in traditional Christmas weather in a tinseled snow suit and warm [illegible] cap.

The new Christmas selection of dolls includes scientific advancements with an insight to what little girls have always wanted in dolls. [illegible] interest of doll is sure to [illegible] there's that shiny kiss, [illegible] curl a horde of pleasures.

KITTY PEEPERS are slipper gifts, of course, and just perfect to team with her most glamorous negligee and at-home ensembles. Washable nylon faced satin Dombies, above.

'50 Toy Crop Puts Accent On The Realistic

The world of toys — Christmas 1950 follows young America's active interest in the arts, sciences and industries. New playthings are offered that help reveal aptitudes and foster natural leanings toward careers.

Though the new crop of toys and games is instructive, the main function is to provide an entertaining pastime.

Toys who might shatter a toy before the close of Christmas day find that fun plastic toys are near [illegible] indestructable.

Older children, who often tire of games that offer no challenge to the imagination, find this Christmas choice of games engrossing. They give the child an opportunity for creative expression and avoid a liking-down a feature children can always spot.

Old favorite games and toys are polished up and expanded. New ones, made possible by new materials, show exciting features never before included in toys. Play things makers show that they are in pace with science and industry's striking new advancements.

A peek around the Christmas toy world leaves the onlooker amazed and delighted. What ideas are chucked into these new items! But a word of caution, shortages in favorites are anticipated because of the huge increase in children of toy age.

Accent on Realism

The accent in toys is realism. The world faithfully simulated de tail for detail is brought to children.

There are four burner toy electric ranges that really cook and flat irons that heat sufficiently to iron doll clothes. And when a doll has a new bathinette, it must include a safety strap. There is an electrically operated pop corn machine that makes tasty pop corn.

The last word in realism is reached in a miniature doll's feeding set which includes a sterilizer, rack of bottles and bottle washers.

Pop as well as Junior, is going to get a heap of fun from the new true-to-life toys. There's a tiny [illegible] press that really prints. It's swell for school newspapers and small printing assignments.

A small town shopping center is amazingly duplicated in plastic. And there is a freight station with [illegible] cases and a tiny fleet of trucks and a super service station.

Junior's scientific lab in the cellar is equipped for tracking down atoms this Christmas. A new atomic energy lab set includes a workable Geiger counter. Like many others, this set emphasizes the use of science for peace.

And that very important young man has new means of transportation and communication. There are telephone sets that carry voices and electric trains that start with realistic slowness and demonstrate spectacular climbing ability.

Tricycle That Grows

There is a tricycle that expands as the child grows and finally discards the third wheel. A miniature carpet sweeper actually draws up dust.

Games Grandpa played as a boy are stepped up to 1950 versions. Three dimensional stereoscope sets come with travel and fairy tale slides. And hoop rolling is back. The new hoops are constructed to perform acrobatic tricks.

Little girls' interests in home decorating are recognized and fostered with miniature plastic furniture. And this furniture has all up-to-date additions. There are Hollywood bathrooms with built-in tubs and television sets with movable screens, refrigerators with deep freeze units. Faucets turn and drawers swing out.

When Junior wants to zoom around he can have a station wagon, police car or fire engine to pedal. And for defending the backyard from snipers there are anti tank guns that shoot ping pong balls, water pistols with visible reservoirs, pistols with suction-tipped darts.

Toys and games offered this Christmas are so exciting and durable that they hold a child's interest and hold up for Christmases to come.

Nursery Set Considered In Playthings

For the nursery set this Christmas, Santa has toys that will bring cheers from parents and plenty of happiness to all of the little ones from the gurgling six months old baby on up.

Perhaps the most exciting fact about the new playthings for babies concerns sensible materials of which they are being made. Plastics are helping to make toys for the younger ones almost impervious to lusty bangings. They are tasteless and they are sanitary and easily cleaned, which is very important.

Soft rubber insides of many make them good "bites" for the teethers.

Practically all of them are designed for careful concern for baby's mental capacity. For instance, there is an adjustable corduroy bootee with tin plastic dog attached so that a six month child may play with the toy as he does with his toes.

For an eight month old member of the crib set there is a plastic gym for attachment to the crib with a ring pull that makes a plastic clown caper.

There are toys that adjust as the child matures. One is a roller toy light enough to double as a rattle. Later it can be transformed into a push-pull toy.

For the play yard contingent there are new rubber animals that hold their shapes and are easily cleaned with a damp cloth. And there are clever music boxes.

To help those youngsters just beginning to learn to walk there are a great [illegible] of attractive toys. One of the [illegible] is a miniature lawn mower. [illegible] are designed to represent animals. All are colorful and will lend great cheer to Christmas for the very young you hold dear.

NO DARKROOM NECESSARY, for making snapshot prints with this new kit. Includes everything necessary for print making in regular room light. Extra easy for beginners to learn printing technique. An instructive package for youngster eager to learn photography.

The invertierate golfer never has enough balls, always wants new ones in his bag. What better Christmas gift for him than a dozen appropriated boxed. Better be sure they are famous name brand to please him.

The really serious amateur photographer would appreciate the thoughtfulness of his hobby indicated by the gift of a set of fine camels hair brushes to use in cleaning his camera lenses and his negatives. At any camera store.

Miniatures Will Help You Give Funiture Too Big For Surprise

Are you going to have trouble getting the big piece of furniture—a new bedroom or dining room suite that you are planning as a gift for mother this Christmas—into the house as a surprise.

Or are you a bit squeamish about selecting it on your own without giving her an opportunity to do the choosing—and you still want to keep it a secret until Christmas Day?

Think nothing of it. You can make it a really exciting surprise by using the same kind of imagination your hat store uses when someone chooses to buy you a hat but doesn't know your size.

Remember, they have little miniature gift hats with cards and purchase certificate attached.

In the case of furniture, take your dealer into your confidence. Buy a comparable gift in miniature from the toy department.

Put the miniature furniture in a gay Christmas box and be sure to enclose a card with your sentiments and an order at your dealer for the furniture of her choice.

When mother opens this package and finds your symbolic gift inside—giving her the opportunity to choose at leisure just what she wants—you can be sure it will be an exciting, delightful Christmas for her.

It works as well for major electrical appliances also.

And chances are she'll cherish the miniatures as long as she will the real thing.

Here's How to Make It A Super Christmas

Here's a super-collossal gift idea for the man of the house to give the whole family and especially mother. It has overtones of thrift for the family budget that will more than justify the original investment and the time it takes for Dad to get it all worked out.

It is a home food freezer unit that's being suggested. But that's not all.

Make it a home freezer unit completely stocked with fresh frozen meats and vegetables and fruit juices and what not.

Of course it will take a little planning to have it stocked and delivered for Christmas day. So if you like the idea, start planning immediately to make it a reality for mother.

FASHIONABLE INDEED will day be on Christmas morning if among his gifts is one of the new robes. This one is a lightweight virgin wool in smart and popular Scotch Tartan pattern.

Smog Is Described As California Killer

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 29. (AP) — Acrid Smog, which scientists now describe as a killer, is worse in Southern California this year than last, says one of the nation's top meteorologists.

Dr. Irving Krick told a state assembly air and water pollution committee hearing yesterday that the air pollution control district here "has got a bull by the tail and industrial expansion is accelerating more rapidly than the pollution control program."

He declared it should be determined what air pollutants are detrimental to health and efforts should be concentrated on controlling them.

Find It is Cheaper Not To Do Business With The Government

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29. (AP)—The Oklahoma turnpike authority let the Reconstruction Finance Corp. know today that it holds no grudge because it failed to get an RFC loan.

The authority was set up to build an Oklahoma City-to-Tulsa road. It tried for months to borrow more than $30 million from RFC at 4 per cent interest. Failing in that, it got the money from private sources at 3.6 per cent.

Today Elmer Harber, chairman of the multi-billion dollar federal lending agency and an Oklahoman himself got this telegram from the turnpike authority:

A great corps of assistants is unloading the contents of his overflowing gift pack, spreading them on gaily bedecked counters and shelves in stores of our city, to await your admiring inspection.

Friday, show windows will scintillate with myriad suggestions for giving that you will find multiplied ten fold inside the stores themselves, when you go down town to see for yourself.

And this special supplement to the Snyder Daily News is brought to you with the cooperation of Old St. Nick and his assistants to give you a preview of his collection and to help you chart your course through the Christmas gift wonderland that awaits you.

There are several reasons, especially important this year, why Christmas gift shopping should be started without delay.

First is the fact that with one out of almost every thirty of our men folk in the armed forces this year, there is a heap of mailing that must be done early to make sure all get their gifts on time.

This means it's wise to shop early.

Second, while the vast productiveness of our nation has brought us an amazingly bountiful array of exciting, beautiful and practical gifts, there are many more people to give them to than ever before.

Interest in some of the newer and more exciting gifts is so high stocks may disappear quickly and those who delay their shopping may be unable to get delivery in time for Christmas day.

GIFT LISTS LONGER

Third, with almost everyone's gift giving list longer this year than ever before, everyone is going to need more time to shop for the perfect gift. And there is so much to do before Christmas day to prepare the home for the wonderful occasion.

Better start Christmas Gift Shopping immediately.

The ingenuity of Old St. Nick, aided and abetted by the resourcesfulness of American industry and 20th Century progress in the development of new materials and the application of traditional materials to new uses, has transformed what once were considered prosaic items, into glittering new gifts, and has brought into existence new devices for work saving and entertainment for the whole family.

These are extra special treats for all the youngsters in toyland this year where new plastics have made possible the production of sturdier, longer lasting toys that will mean longer lasting joys for the children.

Toyland is characterized this year by amazingly realistic reproductions in miniature of almost every device used in the practical world that excites the imagination of children. And they are working models which not only will delight but will instruct young girls and boys.

LIFE-LIKE DOLLS

Playland is peopled with dolls that act, talk and actually toddle like real live babies and many have soft-to-the-touch skin textures that will make little girls squeal with happiness. There are big dolls and little dolls and character dolls and of course western dolls too.

There is glamour in gifts for the girls—the older girls who prize glamour so much and the mature girls who look forward to Christmas as a glamorous occasion—that will make gifts of beauty as well as gifts that will be cherished for their usefulness.

This too is a year when gifts for the home will be high on the list because they can contribute so much the year 'round to make the occasion a memorable one.

This is the year when Santa has come to town early to help you make Christmas gay and happy and lasting for all of your friends and loved ones.

Santa Recommends Trip to Pet Shop for Real Live Gift Ideas

For this Christmas don't overlook the many gift-giving opportunities afforded by the local pet shops. For here you will find frisky young pups the children will love, brightly colored tropical fish that are fascinating to have around in their tanks, sweet singing canaries to brighten a room for mother.

The dog, first companion of man still maintains his favored position of course. Poodles are popular again this year, with all kinds of terriers rating high on the list as do spaniels and bulls and dachshunds. If its a sportsman to whom you want to give a live gift, consider setters and beagles.

The many-hued tropical fish are inexpensive, easy to maintain throughout the year and prove immensely educational for youngsters. Tanks of them need little care and soon become the center of interst in any room.

Guppies, black mollies and iridescent white clouds are recommended for their rich range of color.

And don't forget the cats when thinking in terms of pets. These independent souls bow to no one in beauty or favor.

Tan and brown Siamese, grey altese and long-haired Persians are popular. And as for just plain sweet playful kittens, any little girl would love one.

Gift Certificate May Save Day

Santa's greatest pre - Christmas Gift to the bewildered gift giver is, of course, the now well established Christmas Gift Certificate.

For here is a device, accompanied by a card expressing the sentiments of the giver, that can eliminate the veil of confusion in a jiffy.

Here is a device that comes to the rescue of the man of short memory, just before the deadline, to make it possible for him to remember someone he has forgotten until that very last moment.

And here also is a specially good device for assuring oneself that the person who is to receive the gift is able to make the choice that will suit her perfectly without the trouble of returning an unwanted gift already received.

Almost every store in the city has made plans for issuance of gift certificates entitling the one to whom they are given to choose something specific, or anything may hoose to indicate.

The Gift Giver has the solution for any difficult Gift Giving problem, in the Gift Certificate.

SHE'S TUNING IN ON CHRISTMAS in happy anticipation of all the wonderful things to come n the Great Day. Her Motorola "Radio-Larm" clock may very well have been an early gift arrival.

Really Unique For Christmas

Ever consider giving a blank check book to some one close to you, as a Christmas Gift? It's far from a giddy idea. As a matter of fact, it can well prove to be the most appreciated gift giving action of your entire Yuletide.

Consider for a moment, a son or daughter just out of school on his or her first job. Chances are neither has thought much about how to manage their own finances, yet they now have a regular income of their own.

So what better than to initiate them into the thrifty ranks of checking acount owners, by arranging with the bank to have the necessary cards for signature and a brand new blank check book, put into a neat little box with your card saying that you've made a first deposit for them.

The deposit can be as much or as little as you want to make it. Checking accounts can be started for people for as little as $1 in these efficient days of good banking. But better to be generous of course.

And why not think about this as a special gift for mother also, this Christmas.

ASCOT TIE GUARD

The old ascot tie guard of yesterday's fashionable gentleman is having a big revival this year, it is reported by Hickok who are offering a new collection in time for gift giving.

Junior Probably Thinking In Terms of New 1951 Bicycle

There's probably no question in junior's mind but that he's going to be able to discard that broken down old two-wheeled jalopy bike this Christmas and come up with a snappy new 1951 model.

And, parents willing, there's no reason why he shouldn't. Despite the war and threatening shortages, it is reported there will be a good supply of bikes for Christmas, as streamlined and shiny as Dad's new automibile.

There will be those sturdy balloon-tired deluxe jobs with all kinds of equipment on them. Kick stands lights, horns, speedometers, reflectors. There are also those smooth lightweight American biles with hand brakes and gear shifts for those who prefer that type.

For youngsters 4 to 6 years old just learning to ride there are the wheels that can be detached, so the bike becomes a regular two-wheeler after learning.

For sportsmen, junior and senior both, there are new folding bikes that can be packed in a car, boat or stored in an apartment closet.

Of importance in choosing a Christmas bicycle is the matter of fit and size. There is an easy way to determine the proper size without having the boy or girl present. Bikes are made for definite age groups.

For istance, the 16-inch junior size (16-inch wheel .... diameter is made expressly for youngsters 4 to 6 years old. The small 20-inch wheel, will be right for the average youngster 6 to 8 years old. Boys and girls from 8 to 10 will need a 24-incher, and those from 10 up should have 26-inch wheels. The 26-inch wheel is the largest American made bicycle today and will fit any adult.

All American bicycles have adjustable seats and handlebars to allow for growing and development within their respective age limits.

Map Case For Him

He'll fairly beam with fond approval when he opens his Christmas packages to find a leather bound case for his Summer-travel maps and a neat leather-covered notebook outlined and ready to hold a detailed record of his travels.

Favorite Delicacies

Plan a gift package of his favorite delicacies for that man in service. Canned lobster, crabmeat, caviar can all be included without fear of spoilage. And don't forget to include a can opener!

HOW WEEPING WILLOW BLUE PLATE SPECIALS AND CHINAWARE GOT THEIR NAME

THE BLUE WILLOW STORY

Once upon a time, a Chinese mandarin and Li Chi, his beautiful daughter, lived in a castle on an island. As a child, she played under a willow tree with a poor coolie boy, Chang, with whom she later fell in love.

When the mandarin forbade her to see her beloved, the willow tree sadly drooped its branches—and has since been known as a weeping willow. A faithful servant helped the lovers to escape over a bridge. They sailed away and built a home on a faraway island. When they died, they were changed into love birds.

In ancient days, the Chinese who depicted the story on dishes, could color them only in blue.

Marco Polo returning from China, brought with him this pattern, which was copied by makers of dishes everywhere. This Chinese pattern became known as "Blue Willow" and all dishes are called "Chinaware."

Today, restaurants serve their leading course on a blue willow plate and call it a "Blue Plate" special—in tribute to this legend.

Now look at the pattern. See the castle on the island enclosed by a fence; the gardener's cottage on the mainland and the weeping willow. Look for the bridge with the faithful servant helping the lovers to escape; the boat on which they sailed; their cottage on the faraway island, and the love birds into which the lovers turned.

Ideal's plastic toy dishes—now in the world famous Blue Willow pattern—with even the napkins and box depicting the story—will be as popular with children as their counterparts are with grownups.

A Gift For The Home Is One Which Comes From The Heart

The perfect recipe for making Christmas Gift Giving a most complete and heart - warming experience this year, calls for giving something for the home. For here is where everyone near and dear spends their happiest hours of relaxation in good, comfortable living.

And what better way to express an affectionate Yuletide sentiment than by making a gift of something that will add comfort and beauty to their surroundings—and will continue "giving" on through the years.

During this mid-point in the fabulous 20th Century, the opportunity to choose a gift for the home, whether for one or all the family to enjoy together, was never more opportune.

Think, for example, and just for a moment, of the modern miracle of television. Here's something that can bring a whole new era of entertainment and education into the living room.

Of course, television sets can be had in plenty of time for Christmas Giving but there is no need worrying if getting one to suit the budget becomes a problem. There are so many other gifts for the home.

For instance, if Dad is the kind of guy who likes his slippers, a pipe and a good, solid chair to relax in after a hard day at the office, then here's the cue for a deep, comfortable lounge chair. Choose it in an upholstery fabric that complements the living room decor and Mom will be as pleased with the gift as Dad.

TABLES FOR ALL

Tables, under the Christmas Tree, are welcome gifts for most members of the family. A card table and chair set for Mother who loves her Canasta would be exactly to her liking. A luxurious gold-tooled leather top table for the newly-weds just setting up house would pour sincere thanks upon the giver for many a year to come from the happy couple.

Even Dad can be tickled pink with a gift table if it's a handsome sturdy chairside style that will bear his current book or daily newspaper, a giant ashtray and a reading lamp close to his favorite chair.

Brother and Sister, busy with homework, will be thrilled with the thoughtfulness of gift desks of their very own. As well as for doing homework, Sister will use the desk's built-in bookshelves for her favorite books and Brother will use them to display his prized model airplanes.

Many of these desks are finished all-around and so can serve to divide Brother or Sister's rooms in to sleeping and study sections.

There's nothing like a lamp, or a pair of them, to keep the cheery glow of Christmas in the house the year 'round, not to forget to mention the glow of warm appreciation in Mother's eyes.

If Mother has modern ideas surprise her with one of the futuristic styles of ceramic or metal. If she's traditional-minded, she'll consider it a fine treat to receive a china, glass or brass design complete with pretty shade.

High in popularity on the home Christmas gift list is the cedar chest. So streamlined and smart this year, a gift of one will surely be the treasure spot in the bride-to-be's eyes. She'll use it as a traditional "Hope Chest" before the Great Day and after, she'll whisk it away to her own home or apartment where it will become an important functional and decorative piece in her living room for many years to come.

Gifts, smaller in size, but looming large in importance to the comfort of every home and the joy of package-unwrapping on Christmas morning, supply an almost endless variety of choice.

HASSOCKS TO MIRRORS

There are deeply-cushioned hassocks to give the younger members of the family so they too may have exclusive seating rights in the living room. And Mother will appreciate a hassock for seating extra guests.

There's the handsome magazine rack Dad will want to have conveniently near his "evening relaxation" chair. There are mirrors pictures and bric-a-brac shelves for every room in the house, styled to blend with most every decor imaginable.

In short, the stores are filled with desirable gifts for the home and all that is necessary to insure successful findings and a truly warm Merry Christmas is to get out and shop early while leisurely choosing is still possible and selections are at their peak.

FOR THE RECORD

Sure to get a welcome, welcome is a record album of their favorite symphony, dance band or play.

Milady Likes Perfume Gifts

How can the Christmas-shopping male be sure that his choice of ultra-feminine perfume will be something really special just for her? Well, here's an easy-to-follow guide to help overcome that "lost" feeling in the perfume department and help make the gift fragrance in her stocking rate first thanks.

First, by every means try to discover her favorite perfume. Husbands can check the dressing table; beaux can ask her friends.

Then, while shopping, describe the woman-to-receive-it, not in coloring but in personality or in mood. And don't be confused by pretty bottles. It's the stuff inside that counts!

Have the salesgirl put a bit of the perfume on a piece of cotton or blotter paper, wait until it dries so you get the true bouquet then smell it yourself and see if YOU like it.

Most people become confused after trying four scents, so take it easy! One at a time with a bit of conversation in between each "sniff" will keep the perfumes individualized.

Above all, stop worrying! Every woman has so many moods, likes variety in her life to such an extent that she'll probably like whatever perfume you give her, for most women wear different scents to accent different moods and different costumes.
