Compact To Plead For Import Cuts

By MAX B. SKELTON

BILLINGS, Mont. (AP)—The Interstate Oil Compact Commission was expected today to ask the Interior Department to reduce oil imports substantially.

The commission also was expected to withdraw its endorsement of the Federal Power Commission's area formula for controlling wellhead prices of natural gas sold into interstate commerce.

Formal action on the proposed imports and gas resolutions was the major item of business on the agenda of the final session of the midyear meeting of the 33-state body that serves as a forum on oil and gas conservation.

Stronger language was added to the imports resolution after a special hearing Tuesday.

The gas resolution said legislation exempting wellhead prices from federal control is needed in that three years of effort by the FPC to develop its area formula have been a failure.

The resolutions committee called the special hearing on imports after Gov. John B. Connally, D-Tex., and J. A. Mull Jr., a Wichita, Kan., independent, had told the commission many independent oil operators are being forced out of business by an oversupply of oil resulting from imports and booming production from federal leases off the Louisiana coast.

In its original form, the imports resolution merely called upon member states of the compact to take whatever action deemed necessary to prevent foreign oil from supplanting domestic production.

After the special hearing, the committee tacked on four new paragraphs saying seriously depressed and increasingly demoralized conditions within the industry call for a substantial reduction in the total level of oil imports.

The gas resolution said the commission had endorsed the area formula thinking it might solve a problem that has existed since a 1954 Supreme Court ruling saying the FPC should control wellhead prices.

After three years of hearings, however, it seems the area pricing system is not the answer," the resolution said. "Appropriate legislation by Congress should be enacted so the production and gathering of natural gas should be under the jurisdiction of the state regulatory agencies."

The area formula setting prices for each of 23 major gas producing areas was adopted by the FPC in 1960 when it abandoned six years of effort to control prices with a cost-rate formula under which each producer's case was handled individually.

FPC hearings on the first area case began in early 1961 and still are under way.

Two trade groups which serve as advisory committees to the compact filed special reports on the imports problem today.

The Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association said eroding markets and prices and declining activity are reducing the number of independents through sellouts, mergers and bankruptcy.

Like Connally and Mull, the Texas independents placed the blame on imports and offshore federal lease production.

"Thus the issue has taken on the character of a contest between state regulated sources and federally supervised oil sources with federal sources currently absorbing almost all of the nation's market growth," the Texas report said.

Court Won't Review Rule For Re-Trial

AUSTIN (AP)—The Supreme Court refused today to review its decision that a suit involving the question of whether a newspaper carrier is an employe of the paper must be tried again.

The court ordered the new trial March 4 on an appeal by Newspapers Inc., publisher of the Austin American and Statesman, from a district court judgment of $99,165.

The suit is an outgrowth of an auto collision April 11, 1959, in which five members of a Corpus Christi family were injured and a small boy killed. The jury award was in favor of Gerald Love and his family. The Austin Court of Civil Appeals upheld the verdict.

Court records indicate C. E. Cargile, a route carrier, was driving in the right hand lane of a three-lane highway and turned into the center lane to make an upcoming left turn. A car driven by Otis Franklin went around the right side of Cargile, hit muddy shoulders and a bridge, then skidded into the Love vehicle, records show.

Lawyers for the newspaper contended the lower courts erred in holding against the firm because, they said, Cargile was an independent contractor, not an employe of the newspaper. The argument was supported in briefs filed with the court by lawyers for several other Texas papers.

The Love family argued that Cargile was an employe of the newspaper.

The Supreme Court's March 4 decision held "the independent contractor or servant issue was improperly submitted to the jury. Accordingly, the judgment against Newspapers Inc., must be reversed and a new trial held."

Youths Are Found Guilty

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three youths were found guilty Tuesday of murdering and robbing a 27-year-old Yale University graduate student as he walked his dog.

The victim, Newell W. Ellison Jr., son of a Washington attorney, was slain and robbed last Aug. 25 around the corner from his northwest Washington home.

The federal court jury of nine women and three men recommended life imprisonment for the three defendants, James C. Long, 19; Robree C. Earle, 19, and William E. Huff, 20, all Negroes.

All juveniles arrested in connection with the slaying pleaded involvement and were sent last September to National Training School.

Smoke Ads Must Warn Of Danger

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Trade Commission issued a rule today requiring that by next year all cigarette labels and advertising inform the public "that cigarette smoking is dangerous to health and may cause death from cancer and other diseases."

The commission rule says that it is an unfair or deceptive practice for a manufacturer "to fail to disclose, clearly and prominently, in all advertising and on every pack, box, carton or other container in which cigarettes are sold" that smoking is a health hazard.

The commission ruled that the cigarette package labels should have this warning by Jan. 1, 1965 and that advertising should include the warning by July 1, 1965.

The commission, however, did not state the exact language that cigarette manufacturers would have to use in their advertising and labeling warnings.

In a 153-page statement that accompanied the ruling, the commission said it was leaving the individual cigarette companies and advertisers "free to formulate the required disclosure in any manner that intelligently conveys the sense of the required disclosure in a fully conspicuous fashion."

The announcement of the FTC rule came during the testimony of Chairman Paul Rand Dixon before the House Commerce Committee, which is conducting a broad investigation into smoking and health.

The tobacco industry strongly opposes any such action, and the head of the Public Health Service questioned on Tuesday whether the FTC now has sufficient authority to act.

In testimony before the committee, Surgeon General Luther L. Terry told the committee that the Department of Health, Education and Welfare believes that more legislation would be required before any federal rules could be issued.

The FTC recently completed a series of hearings started last March on its proposal to issue rules on labeling and advertising of cigarettes.

Dixon urged the committee to withhold action on all bills before it until the FTC report can be studied.

Swamps Combed For 3 Workers

By MICHAEL SMITH

PHILADELPHIA, Miss. (AP) — Federal and state agents resumed and intensified door-to-door and gully-to-gully search at daybreak here today for three missing civil rights workers.

A posse of lawmen combed the swampy area in this east central Mississippi section.

Allen W. Dulles, former chief of the Central Intelligence Agency, expects to leave for Mississippi this afternoon on a White House mission to look into the mysterious disappearance of the young trio.

The charred hulk of the station wagon used by the trio was found by FBI agents late Tuesday at the edge of a swamp off a lonely road northeast of this central Mississippi town.

Philadelphia is the seat of justice for Neshoba County, called "Bloody Neshoba" by Mississippians for its history of settling feuds by gunfire.

The FBI clamped a lid on most of its investigation.

A Mississippi highway patrolman told a newsman: "The FBI has taken over entirely."

Highway patrol units conducted a house-to-house search late into the night. More patrolmen were expected today.

Missing are Andy Goodman, 20, and Michael Schwerner, 24, both of New York City, and James Cheney, 22, Negro from nearby Meridian.

They were last seen Sunday night in Philadelphia after Cheney paid a $20 fine for speeding.

The White House announced that President Johnson had ordered Dulles to the state to coordinate the probe.

Dulles will confer with Gov. Paul B. Johnson, other top state officials and the FBI on the progress of the investigation.

Gen. Taylor Arrival Due Soon

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, who has never known defeat flies to war-torn South Viet Nam soon to take over as U.S. ambassador. He is expected to provide a single tight and unified command over U.S. civilian and military efforts.

The soldier-diplomat was named to the Saigon post Tuesday by President Johnson after the resignation of Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge. Taylor plans to leave for his new post in 10 days or two weeks.

Lodge said he was coming home to help Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton try to win the GOP presidential nomination.

In Saigon Tuesday night, Lodge declared: "I am not a candidate at all and I am not going back at all in order to connive at anything for myself. I cannot be drafted and there are no hidden meanings."

Scranton said he was delighted at Lodge's decision and added, "This is another big boost for this rapidly expanding campaign."

Johnson's selection of Taylor for the hot spot assignment won strong approval on Capitol Hill. Democrats and Republicans joined in predicting overwhelming Senate confirmation.

In South Viet Nam, Taylor will have under him two old friends in key spots—Lt. Gen. William C. Westmoreland as U.S. military commander and veteran diplomat U. Alexis Johnson as his political deputy.

Westmoreland, one of the most promising of the Army's younger generals, has been considered a "Taylor man" for about a decade. Westmoreland served on Taylor's staff when the new ambassador was the Army's chief in the mid-1950s.

Rooming House Fire Blamed On Pet Crow

LIBERAL, Kan. (AP) — Fire broke out above the ceiling of a porch at Mrs. J. M. Ragland's rooming house.

Blacky, a big crow that is a neighborhood pet, perched on the roof and watched firemen put out the blaze.

Firemen could find no reasonable cause of the fire, so they arrived at this guess:

Blacky had picked up a lighted cigarette or cigar and dropped it into a crack of the porch roof.

Committee Drops Plan For Aged

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's proposal for health care of the aged was dropped today by the House Ways and Means Committee, which thus dealt a heavy blow at any chance of enactment this year.

The committee went on to try to fashion a bill to increase the cash payments to persons retired under Social Security, but deadlocked. More sessions were scheduled later today.

Proponents of the health care measure themselves moved to drop it from committee consideration, thus avoiding a certain vote against it.

The motion by Rep. Cecil R. King, D-Calif., co-author of the bill to provide health care under Social Security, also ruled out consideration of any alternate plan or any improvements to the existing system of state-federal health care for the indigent.

The committee adopted it by voice vote, it was reported. The effect was to narrow committee consideration to changes in the retirement system.

Premier Khanh Makes Address

By PETER ARNETT

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Premier Nguyen Khanh told his people today: "The free world countries are right at our side and if necessary will tackle the problem of communism right at its roots."

His statement coincided with a declaration from Peking that "the situation in Indochina has become increasingly grave in the past few days." Japanese papers were expressing concern over U.S. policy.

Khanh said appointment of Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor as the new U.S. ambassador to Saigon "is proof of the U.S. administration's determination to continue exterminating communism to preserve freedom."

Khanh spoke at the Gulf of Thailand town of Rach Gia, at the end of a two-day tour of the southern Mekong River Delta.

Henry Cabot Lodge, who is retiring as ambassador, said he does not see how the war here can be an issue in the U.S. presidential campaign. "It involves the Eisenhower administration and the Kennedy and Johnson administrations, and the Truman administration," he said.

A Red Chinese broadcast from Peking said the Communist vice premier, Chen Yi, spoke of U.S. preparations "for new military adventures."

"The situation in Indochina has become increasingly grave in the past few days," he said. "In disregard of the serious protests of the Laotian and Chinese people, the United States is continuing its wanton bombing in Laos and stepping up its preparations for new military ventures in southern Viet Nam."

Following Taylor's appointment, editorial writers in Tokyo were taking a close look at Indochina — which Japan ruled in World War II.

The paper Asahi said the United States seemed to be adopting a policy of force in order to improve its position for a presumed political situation after U.S. elections. The Daily Yomiuri said there is the possibility that Chinese "volunteers," in the style of the Korean War, will go to North Viet Nam if the United States bombs its capital, Hanoi.

The Japan Times spoke hopefully of a policy that will not result in expansion of the area of conflict.

Both Communist and non-Communist papers in Hong Kong predicted the United States will step up its military activities in Southeast Asia.

The possible political aspects of the Viet Nam war were discussed by Lodge in one of his farewell appearances here.

2 Righters Arrested For Vagrancy

MOSS POINT, Miss. (AP)—Jackson County Constable Hobert W. Alford said today two civil rights workers were arrested for vagrancy and for investigation.

Alford said Ronald Ridenour, 24, of Venice, Calif., and Howard Kirchenbaum, 19, of Long Beach, L.I., New York are held in this Gulf Coast county seat.

Alford said the two, dressed in white T-shirts, dungarees and tennis shoes, were picked up in the Jackson Park subdivision, a Negro settlement just south of the Moss Point city limits. Alford said Kirchenbaum was arrested first, and Ridenour after a short chase.

They told him, Alford said, they were among five civil rights workers who have been in this area since Sunday. Alford quoted them that they were "canvassing homes in the Negro section."

The other three were two Negro men and a white woman. They had not been arrested.

Earlier, at Jackson, Miss., Bob Byers of the Council of Federated Organizations said Ridenour and Kirchenbaum had been arrested by sheriff's deputies.

Byers, whose organization coordinates activities of all major civil rights groups in the state, said three attorneys were en route to Moss Point to represent the pair.

Fireworks Barge Explodes, Kills 2

By RICHARD F. WHALEN

NEW YORK (AP) — A fireworks-laden barge exploded in a fury of rockets, flares and bombs on the Hudson River Tuesday night, killing two men. Thousands of spectators cheered. They thought it was part of the show.

Half a million persons lined the riverbanks in Manhattan and New Jersey for the fireworks spectacle, produced since 1957 by Macy's department store.

Two other barges, whose crews apparently were unaware of the fatal accident, continued firing rockets into the sky.

At the finale, 20 minutes later, spectators some distance from the blast, off 96th Street, still were cheering. A hush fell on thousands of others as news of the blast spread.

John Serpico, president of International Fireworks Co. of North Bergen, N.J., said "a low burst that apparently ignited shells on the deck of the barge" caused the explosion.

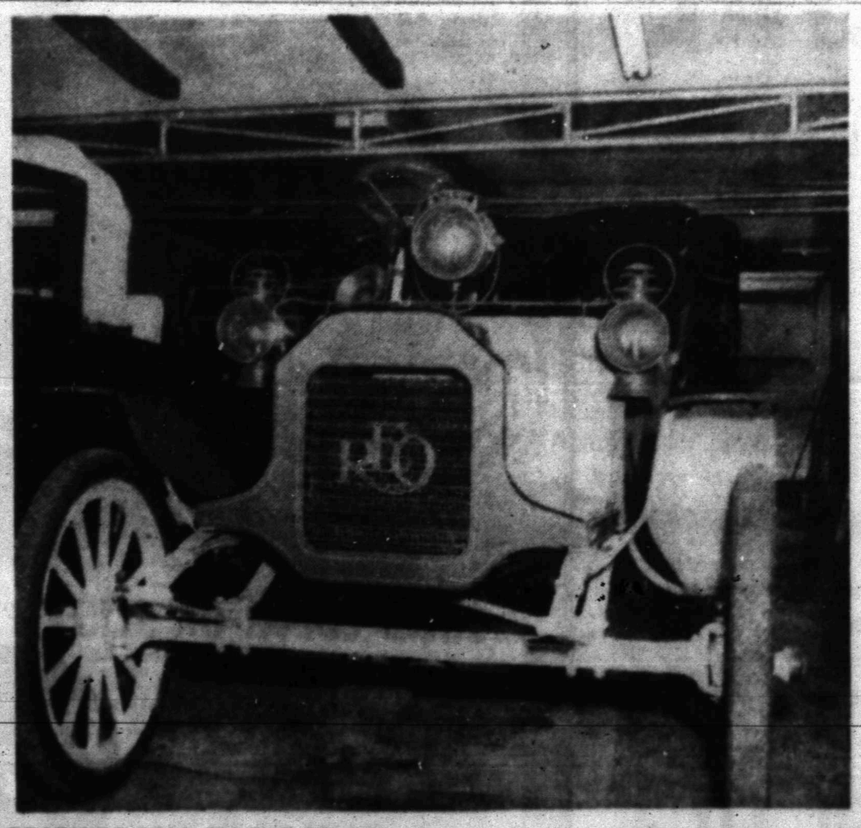

Killed were Anthony Amato, 60, of Secaucus, N.J., and Anthony De Francisco, 40, of Sparkill, N.Y.

Four other men on the barge were rescued by the tug which was towing it. One was treated at a hospital for burns and released.

Less than an hour earlier, an explosion destroyed an ammunition room in the sub-basement of a Manhattan armory where about 385 National Guard reservists were attending a weekly drill.

Nineteen were injured. All but four were released after hospital treatment. Two of the four were in serious condition.

Cause of the blast, which knocked out heavy concrete walls and blew off the steel doors to the room, has not been determined.

READY TO ROLL ON THE FOURTH—This ancient automobile is one of several vintage machines which will be seen in the July 4th Parade in Towle Memorial Park. The aged Reo is owned by Dr. Sherman Merritt. The parade will be one of the feature events at the community Independence Celebration arranged by the Snyder Chamber of Commerce.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: We live on a farm and my sister, who is in her 40's, does the farm work. She wears jeans and a blouse and goes out in the field with the tractor to work. When it gets hot, she sheds her blouse and works in her bra. She is of a slight build, and has little for anyone to see, but all the same, when my parents, and brothers and sisters-in-law meet her out-of-doors dressed like that they blow their stacks. She says it's no different than being on the beach in a swim suit. Lots of strangers come by our place, but she says it's our property and if they don't like what they see they don't have to look. Who is right? And how do you handle a situation like this?

SLIPPERY ROCK

DEAR SLIPPERY: A "bra" is an undergarment and should not be worn as an outer garment. There are halters for that purpose. In my opinion, your sister should wear halters. However a 40-year-old woman who drives a tractor is not interested in a lecture from me (OR from you) on propriety and fashion. Be realistic and give up.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I just read the letter from the 12-year-old girl who resented being an UNPAID BABY - SITTER for her parents. I am 16 and have two younger sisters and a baby brother. My father works from seven A. M. until six P.M., six days a week, and my mother is tied down to her housework and the children all day. I've been baby-sitting for four years. I like to earn money, too, but I would give up a date or a baby-sitting job at the slightest hint that my parents wanted to go out for an evening. They deserve it! Who needs to be paid? Their love and appreciation are all the pay I want. "Unpaid" is only 12. She had better overcome her selfishness and be grateful that she can do something for her parents.

RUTH B. In Erie, Pa.

DEAR RUTH: It's a joy to print your letter. I wish my readers knew how many WHOLESOME, GENEROUS and CONSIDERATE teenagers there are. Unfortunately, the only ones they read about are those who get into trouble.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: Please don't think I am stupid, but I don't know where else to get this information: When living in a rented house, who is supposed to take down the storm windows and put up the screens? The tenant or the owner?

INTERESTED PARTY

DEAR INTERESTED: Unless it is specifically stated in the contract, the owner assumes that responsibility. (Are you trying to pass the buck or save one?)

Says Teddy Almost Died

NORTHAMPTON, Mass. (AP) —An aide to Sen. Edward M. Kennedy said Tuesday night that Kennedy had no pulse and his blood pressure "was almost nonexistent" when he was brought into Cooley Dickinson Hospital early Saturday after a plane crash.

"We almost lost him," press secretary Edward Martin said.

Martin credited Dr. Thomas F. Corriden with saving the life of Kennedy, 32-year-old Massachusetts Democrat and brother of the late President John F. Kennedy.

Sen. Kennedy's administrative aide, Edward S. Moss, and the pilot, Edwin T. Zimny, were killed in the crash. Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., and the latter's wife, Marvella, were injured.

Kennedy is immobilized in an orthopedic bed to permit his injured back to heal. His press secretary said he will be kept in this apparatus until about July 6.

Jury Rules Lawyer Took Stolen Loot

DALLAS (AP) — A federal grand jury charged here Tuesday that a Fort Worth lawyer received $3,000 taken in an Arizona bank robbery.

Grand jurors submitted an indictment against the lawyer, Irvin Shelman, to U.S. Dist. Judge Joe Estes. The indictment alleged that Shelman knew the money was stolen when he accepted it.

Shelman, 38, ran unsuccessfully for Tarrant County district attorney two years ago.

Shelman also represented another Fort Worth lawyer, Jack Mackin, when Mackin tried without success to get the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals to set aside his 7-year prison sentence on a murder charge. Mackin is now in the state penitentiary.

The grand jury said Shelman received the $3,000 here "on or about March 25, 1964," after it had been taken in a robbery of the First National Bank of Arizona at Tempe.

Two Fort Worth brothers, Richard Melton Davis and Michael William Davis, have been charged with the robbery.

Grand Jury To Meet

The Scurry County Grand Jury will meet at the court house Thursday. There are 18 cases on docket to be considered.

Robert Kennedy Keeps Door Ajar

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy begins a sentimental missoin to Germany tonight on the heels of his announcement that he will not seek the Democratic senatorial nomination in New York.

Kennedy's brief statement Tuesday on the Senate race shed no further light on his future. But it left open the door to any invitation from President Johnson to join him as vice-presidential nominee on the Democratic ticket.

Thus ended long weeks of speculation whether Kennedy would accede to the urgings of New York friends and Democratic leaders, move to the Empire State and seek the nomination to run against Republican Sen. Kenneth B. Keating.

"I deeply appreciate the loyalty and friendship of those who have urged me to run and who believe I could perform a service for the people of New York," Kennedy said in a statement handed out at the Justice Department.

"However, in fairness to them and to end speculation, I wish to state that I will not be a candidate for United States senator from New York," he said.

There was little elaboration on Kennedy's statement from the Justice Department. But two key factors emerged as most influential.

One is the civil rights picture. Final passage of the rights bill, with all of its enforcement problems, is imminent. The beginnings of the "long, hot summer" in race relations already are evident. The attorney general is the nation's top civil rights strategist. He has committed himself to staying on the job through Johnson's present term. And his hands will be full of civil rights chores.

The second factor is his brother, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., whose back was broken in a plane crash last week.

Tuesday's decision threw into sharper focus Robert Kennedy's role as head of the Kennedy family since the assassination last November of his brother, President John F. Kennedy. His injured younger brother —up for re-election this fall — will add to the demands on Robert Kennedy's time. And to run in New York, he feels, would require an immediate campaign.

The attorney general will speak this Friday on the first anniversary of John F. Kennedy's stirring speech to Berliners, when he proclaimed himself one of them in spirit. Robert Kennedy will speak from the identical spot in the John F. Kennedy Square in West Berlin.

No-top Dress First Began As A Joke

LONDON (AP)—The makers of Britain's first bare-bosomed cocktail dresses said today they have had second thoughts about their shock-frocks.

"We made them as a joke," said a spokesman for the manufacturers, "but now that they're being taken so seriously, we're having second thoughts."

The spokesman said that since last Friday — when the dresses went on show in a London shop window — their telephones have rung incessantly.

"We've had calls from all over the country," said the spokesman. "Foreign fashion magazines have called us and demanded photographs of the frocks. The question thousands of lips — or so it seems — is 'Where can we buy them?'"

The designers have decided, for the present, to make no more of the dresses which expose the wearer's chest from waist to chin.

"We are thinking of adding a flesh-colored lace bib to make it more conventional," said the spokesman.

He admitted, however, that if his company stopped making the shock - frocks, some other manufacturer or manufacturers probably would fill the demand.

The controversy over the bare - breasted dresses continued.

Margaret Griffith, 25, a mother and a nurse, said she liked her shock frock. Her husband, John, a fireman, said he liked it on his wife.

Burnett Child's Rites In Abilene

The funeral service was to be conducted at the Minter Lane Church of Christ in Abilene, with Richard Williams, minister of the Birdwell Lane Church of Christ in Big Spring, officiating.

COMPARING NOTES—Mrs. Jack McCulley, Mrs. J. Mark McLaughlin and Mrs. David Adams compare notes on the new Carden Language Program to be used this year when St. John's Episcopal Day School opens in September. The ladies feel the new program will greatly benefit children at an early age in developing language habits.

directly with children in the classroom to discover at what age each phase of the work can be well learned. Each element of the program is taught as soon as children are ready for it so the correct skill will become part of their language equipment, thereby overcoming any tendency to develop bad language habits.

Word, sentence, paragraph, and story structure are mastered much earlier than in other language programs. Children understand and enjoy the terminology used and each language rule is given continued practical application. Academic and artistic subject matter are blended into the program for enrichment. Careful attention is given to character training, good manners, and in developing a sense of satisfaction in learning.

"Beginning in the kindergarten, children are trained to order their thinking and build an understanding of many words around a single idea," said Mrs. Adams. "Imaginative thinking is developed." Nursery Rhyme recordings are used to teach proper speech rhythms. Careful attention is given to pronunciation. In addition to conversation, children begin work with numbers, letters, and a few words. "Although the Carden Program is set up for the first eight grades, those receiving only the kindergarten courses are well prepared to benefit fully from another first grade curriculum," Mrs. Adams said.

The Carden Program has been used with great success and enthusiasm in public and private schools in the East for 20 years and is spreading to other parts of the country. Miss Carden personally trains all the teachers using her course, and returns to each school repeatedly. "She insists that her program be used correctly in its entirety," said Mrs. Adams.

Episcopal Schools in this area who are using the Carden Program successfully are Big Spring, Midland, and Pampa. Amarillo and Odessa are inaugurating the program this fall as well as Snyder.

Mrs. McCulley will receive further training in Big Spring in August, and in Midland this November.

"We are very proud and very enthusiastic in being able to offer this new course in our Day School this coming year," said Mrs. Adams, "and we are sure our students will enjoy the many benefits to be derived from it."

St. John's Day School To Start Language Program

St. John's Episcopal Day School will inaugurate the Carden Language Program in the Kindergarten for the 1964-1965 term. The school is chartered by the State of Texas and is a member of the Texas Episcopal School Association. The Rev. Truman E. Bennett, vicar, is the principal, and Mrs. Jack McCulley is the kindergarten teacher.

In preparation for the new program, Mrs. McCulley and Mrs. David Adams, Day School board member, attended a seminar at St. Matthews' Day School in Pampa last week.

Miss Mae Carden, one of the outstanding educators of the East and author of the program, was director. Always a lover of the English language, Miss Carden became distrubed over American diction and pronunciation. She determined to develop a language course to help children master and love their language. "Miss Carden believes English is rich, powerful, and beautiful, and feels our children should have absolute command of it," said Mrs. Adams.

The power of the Carden Program is in the sequence. Miss Carden has analyzed the English language and literature to determine the training children need for a thorough mastery of the language. She has worked

Green mayonnaise is often called for in old-fashioned cook books. To prepare it, simmer water cress sprigs, with leaves of spinach and fresh tarragon in a little boiling unsalted water for a couple of minutes. Drain, pressing out the liquid; chop and add to mayonnaise with lemon juice to taste.

When you bake a butter-type cake, place the hot baked cake in the pans on wire racks to cool for five to ten minutes before removing them. This cooling period "stiffens" the baked batter and makes turning out easiest.

Huxley Sees Man In Evolution

ESSAYS OF A HUMANIST. By Julian Huxley.

The chief interest in this collection of recent essays, lectures and articles by Sir Julian lies in its exposition of his idea-system, which he calls Evolutionary Humanism.

As a philosopher by way of the biological sciences, he is an intellectual who looks out from the mountain to see the major patterns of modern thought. It takes intelligent application to follow him. But the application is rewarding.

The first five essays are on this main theme. Because they were prepared for differing uses, they contain a certain amount of repetition, but for the lay reader this is an advantage to understanding, rather than a handicap.

At the core of his thinking is the concept that we are in a revolutinary age resulting from accelerated evolution, having reached the point at which mankind is beginning to take charge of its own evolution and that of the whole world.

If you thought Chevy II was thrifty before, you should see your Chevrolet dealer now

You couldn't pick a better time to buy one! Wagons. Sedans. Sporty Sport Coupes. Take your pick. They're all tightwads.

The Nova wagon for instance, like all the Chevy II's, adjusts its own brakes. It's got a Delcotron generator to lengthen a battery's life. The engines are real gas scrooges. And the rocker panels take in rain water to flush themselves free of rust-causing elements.

CHEVROLET TRADE 'N' TRAVEL TIME FOR THE GREAT HIGHWAY PERFORMERS

Inside the Nova wagon, where you can seat six anglers with tackle boxes, there's deep-twist carpeting surrounded by vinyl that's as washable as tile. Behind that, a storage area with as much room as the insides of seven good-sized refrigerators.

Your Chevrolet dealer has many more details that may interest you. Why don't you two get together and make some vacation plans.

LBJ Tempers Viet Policy With Eye Toward Election

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Aalyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson tough talk about stiff-arming the Communists in Viet Nam and his appointment of Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor as ambassador there is doubly useful to him.

But what the rest of the country doesn't know—and perhaps the Johnson administration cannot tell, either—is what the United States is heading into in Southeast Asia.

If this country gets directly into the fighting there—with a presidential campaign coming up—there's no way to predict what this will mean to Johnson's chances for election.

But the tough talk and the Taylor appointment will keep the Communists guessing, if it doesn't discourage them, and both will be talking points for Johnson if the Republicans complain he isn't showing enough muscle.

Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and this country's top-ranking military officer, is credited with being a tough and brilliant officer.

He succeeds Henry Cabot Lodge who resigned to come home and help Pennsylvania's Gov. William W. Scranton try to win the Republican presidential nomination against Sen. Barry Goldwater.

Goldwater has been acutely critical of the way the administrations of both President John F. Kennedy and Johnson have handled Viet Nam. He has suggested pretty drastic action, more than Kennedy or Johnson were willing to take yet.

If Goldwater wins the nomination over the efforts of Lodge and Scranton, he won't have to soft-pedal his criticism.

But if Scranton gets the nomination, the Republican party in general will be in poor position to make Viet Nam an issue, and for this reason: Lodge in his letter of resignation to Johnson highly praised his Vietnamese policy.

In that letter Lodge said among other things:

"My thanks to you for your unfailing devotion to problems connected with American policy in Viet Nam, for your guidance, courtesy . . . although in a dangerous position, the republic of Viet Nam is on the right track . . . .

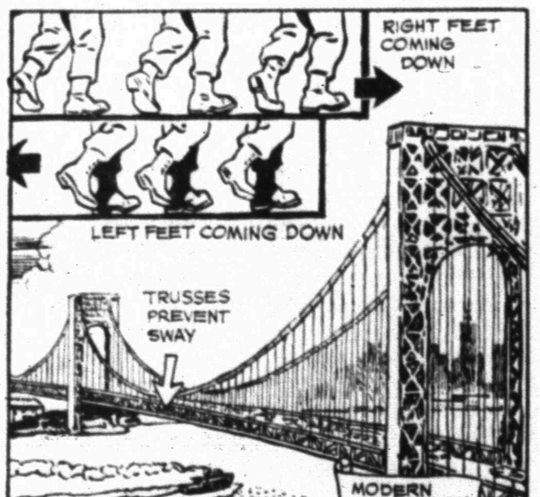

"Persistent and patient execution of existing civil and military plans will bring victory."

American talk about stopping the Reds from taking over Southeast Asia has become increasingly tough although how far the administration is actually willing to go has never been clear.

Johnson told a news conference Tuesday: "The United States itends no rashness and seeks no wider war. But the United States is determined to use its strength to help those who are defending themselves against terror and aggression."

The Reds could read what they wanted to in that statement but Johnson seemed to assume they understood he meant business for he told newsmen: "I think they are aware of our attitude and that they have no doubt about our policy or our position.

Junior Editors Quiz on BRIDGES

QUESTION: Why do soldiers cross foot bridges out of step?

• • •

ANSWER: When a large body of soldiers is marching and all the men put their right feet down at the same time, it creates a vibration or pull on what they are walking over. When their left feet are put down, a pull is exerted in a different direction. Between the two, a swaying motion may be set up if the structure they are walking over is capable of swaying. In the case of a small bridge this may become amplified or enlarged to dangerous proportions. When the command "Route Step!" is given the soldiers break step, each walking differently, removing the danger of swaying.

Suspension bridges have a particular tendency to sway—think of how easily a hammock sways—since they are suspended at both ends. A suspension bridge built in 1940 over the Tacoma Narrows began to sway in a storm and the central span collapsed. But modern engineers overcome sway by using powerful "trusses"—structures of metal arms placed along the sides in zig-zag shapes. Unequal distribution of weight causes a bridge to sway, but the trusses distribute the weight of the load evenly on the supporting cables, making the bridge perfectly safe.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: Look in newspapers and magazines and you will find many pictures showing truss work, not only in bridges but in cranes and in the construction of buildings. These trusses are all doing the same thing: making the structures rigid by distributing the weight.

Remarks Father Could Do Without

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Remarks that fathers get tired of hearing:

"Don't take off your shoes. Don't you remember — we're going out tonight."

"Well, the cat finally had her kittens today. What are you going to do about them?"

"That's your father coming in now, young man. Just wait until I tell him what you've been up to all day."

"You can spank me if you want to, Dad. But if you do—don't expect any present from me next Fathers Day."

"No, I'm not going to cut the roast. You slice it. After all, that's man's work."

"I don't understand why you don't want to talk to me about your office. Other husbands I know love to discuss their jobs with their wives. They even ask for their advice."

"What's this blonde hair doing on your coat? We are getting real chummy with our new secretary, aren't we?"

"What do you mean you need lunch money? What did you do with the $3 I gave you yesterday?"

"No, I'm not going to another P-TA meeting alone. It's your duty to go just as much as it is mine."

"Daddy, it's not fair for you to hog the television set. Who wants to listen to another old political speech? We want to watch that new program, 'Ratfinks in Space.' It's real cool."

"I spoke to the orthodontist today about Danny's teeth. He says that to straighten them it'll take about two years and $750. Do you think we ought to go ahead now — or wait until the doctor takes Danny's tonsils out?"

"I thought you said your old man was such an old grouch, Judy? Why, I think he's real human—considering that he's a parent."

"You're tired? What about me? If you think slaving all day for a husband and three kids is any bed of roses, let me tell you that—."

"No, I don't approve of your running off to play golf with those lockerroom idiot friends of yours. This is the weekend you promised me faithfully you'd stay home and dig out the crabgrass."

"What did I do with your bowling trophy? I threw it down the incinerator last fall. You can't have an atrocious looking thing like that cluttering up the house for years and years and years."

"Aw, gee, Dad, don't you ever remember what it was like to be a kid yourself?"

Mexico-W. German Trade Drops Slightly

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Mexico's trade with West Germany has dropped slightly according to figures released by the West German-Mexican Chamber of Commerce.

The chamber said that Mexico's purchases declined 13.3 per cent during 1963. It said imports from West Germany, mostly industrial machinery, chemicals and automobiles, totaled $84.6 million compared with $95.1 million in 1962.

Spanish missionaries who followed the conquistadors into Latin America helped spread the ancient Inca language of Quechua. The missionaries learned the language, then imposed it on tribes that had never spoken it.

Scranton Insists South Viet Nam Is Still An Issue

NEWARK, N.J. (AP)—Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania flew to Charleston, W.Va., today to bid for Southern Republican support in his drive for the presidential nomination.

As Scranton's plane took off from Newark, sources close to the governor said that the entry of Henry Cabot Lodge into the political fight on Scranton's side would not eliminate South Viet Nam as an issue in the campaign.

Lodge resigned his ambassadorship to Viet Nam to return to the United States and work for Scranton.

The sources, who declined to be quoted directly, said Scranton has not changed his position that foreign affairs—particularly the Southeast Asia situation—are the No. 1 line of attack against the Johnson administration.

Scranton has said that in the post of ambassador, Lodge merely was an agent of the President. As such, he said, Lodge's position could not be construed as neutralizing Republicans on policy in that area.

The 46-year-old governor, seeking to overtake the front-running Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, set his sights today on West Virginia's 14 convention delegates and the 34-vote bloc of Florida.

Scranton's aides said today's trip was aimed mainly at shoring up the uncommitted ranks in the two delegations. The secondary aim was conversion of delegates to the Scranton cause—particularly those now backing Goldwater.

Goldwater leads The Associated Press poll with 694 delegates, more than enough for nomination if he can hold them.

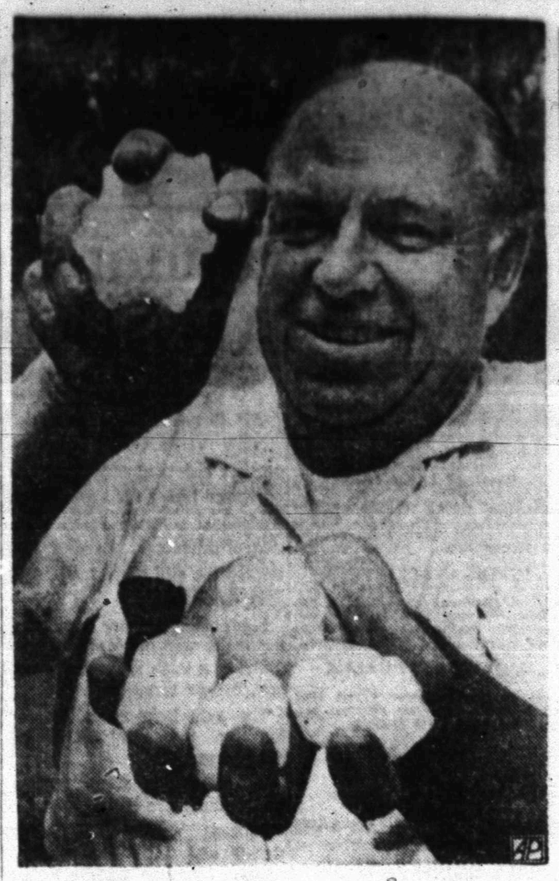

In West Virginia, the Arizona senator has four delegates, Scranton has two and eight are uncommitted. In Florida Goldwater has 22; 11 are uncommitted, and one stands opposed to Goldwater.

Scranton was enthusiastic about the results of his delegate hunt in Delaware and New Jersey.

He claimed "far more than a majority" of the 12-vote Delaware delegation. Sen. Clifford P. Case of New Jersey told newsmen Scranton could expect a "big majority" of the 40-vote New Jersey delegation.

The Delaware delegation pledged itself officially to favorite on Sen. John J. Williams for the first ballot. New Jersey delegates decided to remain uncommitted, at least until after they meet with Goldwater in Trenton Monday.

Scranton met privately with the New Jersey delegates before addressing a $100-a-plate Republican fund-raising dinner.

LIGHTEST MEXICO

BY JOHN ABNEY

MEXICO CITY — All this time you've been sneering at me when I said things about my witch and her chrome-plated broom with eight carburators. But we now have famous parapsychologists coming down to look into such things.

A parapsychologist is a person who investigates psychological aspects of supernatural phenomena like telepathy, clairvoyance, spooks and conjuring up spells, so don't say you already knew.

Now this fellow, Dr. William G. Roll, came down with a fleet of aides and conducted studies all over Mexico. At a number of witching sessions, around mountain villages where the Indians hold rites and places like that.

And since he is project director of the Physical Research Foundation of Durham, North Carolina, the doctor is tremendously interested in many things that go on in Mexico.

What Dr. Roll and his institution are checking into is Psi. And naturally you thought Psi was some kind of Italian sandwich.

Psi is a tag the researchers have hung on the World Beyond. And according to some of the scientists there are persons known as "sensitives" who have special talents for extrasensory perception, precognition, telepathy, psychokinesis and communication with the hypothetical Theta Particles.

Now you want to know what are Theta Particles. They are something (these researchers say) of the human personality that may survive after death. Kind of spooky, huh?

Well right now there are half a dozen U. S universities investigating Psi and taking another look at spooks. And Dr. Roll and his group are working to separate the weeds from the flowers in this industry.

To give you an idea how it might work, let us go beyond the Five Senses with a fellow who is sitting in a park with his lady friend, commenting on the moonlight and stars and other subjects.

About the time the lady begins thinking he is handsome and has nice, husky shoulders the fellow suddenly stands up and says, "Emmy!"

And his lady friend strokes his hand gently and says, "I'm not Emmy, dear, I'm Matilde."

So he says, "I know, I know. Emmy is my wife."

Matilde leaps up and shouts, "Your wife? You told me she passed away several years ago, you bum!"

And this fellow says, "She did. But her Theta Particles are back."

The lady puts her hands on her hips and asks, 'What's this all about anyhow? Is she or ain't she?"

So the fellow says, "Aw, she comes back from Psi alla time and her particles keep on me constantly."

The lady takes off her shoes and runs all the way to the nearest gin mill where she gets rid of the shakes and the fellow moans, "Gee, Emmy, I can't never have no fun account of you're always watching."

At any rate, Dr. Roll feels there is enough Other World business in Mexico to merit the establishment of a research center here. He wants to get down to some serious studies of Psi and find out who is just over the hill.

If they do, me and my witch will enroll for the course. And ride to school every day on her chrome-plated broom just like a Stutz Bearcat.

Exiles Report Executions

MEXICO CITY (AP) — An exiled Cuban student organization said Tuesday three persons were executed in San Jose de las Lajas, near Havana, for having more clothing articles than authorized by the Castro regime.

The Cuban Student Revolutionary Directorate said exiles arriving here reported the Cuban government had imposed the death penalty for those acquiring more clothing and shoes than listed in the rationing cards.

It reported that executions have been carried out also at Las Villas and Oriente provinces.

The directorate added that the garment and shoe industry is going through a critical period because of the government's inability to increase production.

Maryland Atheist Flees For Hawaiian Refuge

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Madalyn Murray, the Maryland atheist who took her family and hastily left Baltimore—"I'm convinced they're going to do me in here"—changed planes in San Francisco and left Tuesday night for Hawaii.

"I will ask the governor of Hawaii for religious asylum," the 44-year-old woman had said before she left Baltimore with her family, a dog, a cat, and one suitcase.

Traveling under an assumed name, the woman whose suit brought a U.S. Supreme Court ban on compulsory school prayer, managed the San Francisco stopover without public notice.

An airline spokesman said today the party included Mrs. Murray, her mother, brother, two sons and a daughter-in-law.

The Baltimore departure of the Murrays stemmed from a weekend fracas which followed the marriage of her son, William, 18, to Susan Abramavitz, 17. Susan's parents accused Mrs. Murray of inducing the girl to move to the Murray home and abandon her Jewish religion.

A melee broke out after police went to the Murray home to serve a contempt citation on the bride. She was accused of violating a judicial order to remain in custody of an aunt and uncle.

Mrs. Murray said police beat her up while a crowd shouted "Kill her!" and "Hit her harder!"

Except for the brother and younger son, all of the Murray family was out of jail on bond, charged among other things with assaulting police officers.

Prosecutors and bail bondsmen moved today to get them back to Maryland, with FBI help if necessary.

Robert London, an official of the firm which put bonds totaling $8,750 to get them out of jail Sunday, said the FBI would be asked to help return them to Baltimore.

6-Day Work Week

GOPs Unhappy About Schedule

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's call to Congress to go on a six-day work week until next month's Republican national Convention brought angry protests today from GOP House leaders.

"It just isn't fair play," said Republican Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana.

"This looks like an attempt by the President of the United States to sabotage the Republican convention," commented Rep. Melvin R. Laird of Wisconsin, chairman of the GOP Platform Committee.

The committee starts its sessions in San Francisco July 6, one week before the convention opens. Many members of Congress are on the committee. Many others want to air their views before it.

Republicans had counted on the House being in recess the entire week starting July 6, with the Senate holding only token sessions.

The recess outlook has dimmed because of Johnson's reported insistence that Congress enact the civil rights bill and start action on his antipoverty program before the convention.

The President said at a news conference Tuesday he wants Congress to work longer and act on about 30 "desirable" proposals before adjournment.

He prodded the legislators to give his proposals their "full attention six days a week until the Republican convention" and then return to work after the convention.

Leaders had planned to seek final adjournment before the Democratic convention opens in Atlantic City Aug. 24.

Johnson listed these matters as among those he wants Congress to act on:

Mass transportation, wilderness preservation, area redevelopment, education assistance, Securities Act amendments, water pollution control, foreign aid, federal aid for hospital construction, extension of the food stamp program, pay increases for government officials and employes;

Extension of the debt limit and emergency excise taxes, the international coffee agreement, aid for highway construction, interest equalization taxes on foreign investments, the antipoverty program, medical assistance for the elderly, rehabilitation of the Appalachian region, housing, nurse training assistance, immigration law revisions, land conservation, juvenile delinquency, sales of surplus food abroad and water resources research.

Madam Nhu Makes Appeal To Johnson

PARIS (AP)—Mrs. Ngo Dinh Nhu appealed today to President Johnson to overrule the State Department and allow her to enter the United States as a visitor.

The outspoken former First Lady of South Viet Nam wrote to the President after announcement Tuesday that her request for a visa had been refusd.

Mrs. Nhu, sister-in-law of the late President Ngo Dinh Diem and widow of Saigon's onetime chief of internal security, sought the visa to speak July 7 at a "truth rally" of the Conservative Party Club of Flushing, N.Y.

Embassy officials disclosed Mrs. Nhu's application for a visa had been rejected on instructions from the State Department under a section of the immigration and nationality law which bars visas for persons whose activities are considered likely to prejudice public interest or endanger the welfare safety or security of the United States.

Summer Finds Most Stock At Near Record Prices

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock market chartists are eying every price flurry for signs of the traditional summer rally.

Steel production is sliding fast toward the still more traditional July doldrums.

Many factories are preparing for the newer but growing tradition of a vacation shutdown of one, two or three weeks.

The auto industry is preparing for the summer model changeover.

Hot weather sport and recreational items are selling fast.

Tourists jam New York streets and scramble for hotel rooms. Summer camps shore themselves up for the annual rush of school-free youngsters.

Highways to beaches and mountains are even more jammed than ever.

Summer is coming in just like always — almost. There are some differences this time.

Stock prices already are around record highs — if you measure them by the popular averages. But many shares are far below their highs. It's the blue chip type, favored by the popular index and by many institutional buyers, that has attracted most buying interest this year.

Steel's output slide — already some 6.5 per cent from its year's high of late May—seems sure to go on into July. But this summer the steelmen think the dip, however steep it seems now, may prove to be comparatively shallow and short-lived. Optimism, born of a good cushion of orders, is strong for a big fall upturn.

The factory shutdowns for vacations are taking a new look also. The trend toward longer vacations continues, and so does the practice of closing down so that everyone takes them all at once. The total of idle production days may be greater. But because of the business upswing some companies are trying divided vacations — a week in July, another at Christmas, or at some date when the backlog of unfilled orders is less impressive.

The auto changeovers this summer are complicated by reports that models revisions will be more extensive than in many years. But even more unsettling is the labor negotiations soon to start. Because of this, production right now is probably higher than it would otherwise be, and the chances of a strike cloud the late summer prospects.

E. Mayfield Dies Tuesday In Tyler

TYLER (AP)—Earle B. Mayfield, a political figure of Texas' yesteryears, died at his home Tuesday at the age of 83.

Funeral services for the former U.S. senator are scheduled Thursday at 2:30 p.m. in the Marvin Methodist Church of Tyler.

A Democrat, Mayfield was elected to the U.S. Senate in 1928 after serving 10 years as a Texas Railroad Commissioner. In 1906, he was elected to the Texas Senate as the youngest man ever to serve in that body.

He served only one term in the U.S. Senate and was defeated for re-election by the late Tom Connally.

A native of Overton, Mayfield went to East Texas schools and then attended Southwestern University at Georgetown before entering the University of Texas Law School whre he was graduated with a law degree in 1904.

He practiced law in Meridian, Tex., before entering the State Senate and resumed his practice in Tyler after leaving the U.S. Senate.

For many years he was president of the Mayfield Co., a wholesale grocery firm, with offices in Tyler and Terrell.

Survivors include his widow and two sons, Earle B. Mayfield Jr. of Dallas and John Mayfield of Syracuse, N.Y.

Indians, Giants Win In LL Play

The Giants edged the Braves 2-1 and the Indians toppled the White Sox 7-2 in Little League activity Tuesday night.

The Giants scored their two runs in the 4th when they put together 3 singles and a double by Randy Gay. This was the only extra-base blow of the contest. The Braves tallied their one run in the 5th on a single and 3 walks. With the bases loaded and nobody out, Jim Gardner, who had replaced Billy Bowden on the mound, bore down and struck out the next 3 batters to end the threat.

All runs in the Indian - White Sox contest were scored in the first inning. The Indians got their 7 runs off 2 walks, 2 singles, a double by Merce Hernandez, and 2 errors.

Wesley Bishop went all the way on the mound for the Indians to pick up the win. He gave up only 3 singles and 3 walks.

Buff, Dodgers Win PL Games

Low scoring pitchers' duels were seen in the Pony League Tuesday night as the Buffs defeated the Braves 4-1 and the Dodgers edged the Sports 2-1.

It was a real pitching contest in the Dodger-Sport affair between Steve Holder the winner, and Ted Winters, the loser. Each one gave up only two hits. Winters struck out 16 and Holder 13. The Dodgers scored two runs in the top of the first and made them stand up for the win. Jerry Hardwick hit a double for the winners.

The Braves managed 10 hits off of Robert Hobbs and Tony Suttle, but could only get one runner around the bases. Mitch Rambin hit a double and two singles for the Braves.

Halliday Rites Held

DALLAS (AP)—Funeral Services were held today for Sid Halliday, 42, captain of the undefeated 1947 Southern Methodist football team.

Halliday died of a heart attack early Tuesday.

Since his graduation from Southern Methodist in 1948, Halliday had been a sales representative in the Southwest for the H. B. (Doc) Hughes Co., which represents a number of sporting goods manufacturers.

An outstanding athlete at Dallas Woodrow Wilson High School and Schreiner Institute, Halliday served two hitches in the Marine Corps, as a lieutenant during World War II and as a captain during the Korean conflict.

He played football at SMU in 1942 before his military service and was a star end on the 1947 SMU team that was unbeaten and won the Southwest Conference championship.

Miller In Bid For Olympic Trial Spot

ABILENE, Tex. (AP) — Bill Miller, whose name is synonymous with broad jumping, makes his last bid for the Olympics team this week.

Miller will be in New Brunswick, N.J., Friday and Saturday to try for one of the six places in the broad jump, thus entitling him to a spot in the Olympic trials a week hence.

Miller, the former McMurry star, couldn't try for a place in the NCAA because he is out of college.

At New Brunswick he will jump against the nation's best, including Ralph Boston, the world record holder at 27 feet 2 inches.

Abilene May Be Site Of Title Game

ABILENE (AP) — Abilene is expected to become the site of the 1964 and 1965 Midwest college division championship football games of the NCAA.

The NCAA has offered Abilene a contract for the games and Ham Middlebrooks, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce athletic committee, said he thought it would be accepted.

The games, to be televised nationally, would be played Dec. 12, 1964, and Dec. 11, 1965, and would be between the top two teams from 60 colleges in 14 states.

Springfield, Mo., was the site of last year's game.

Springfield is again under consideration as are San Antonio and Beaumont, Tex.

Pee Wee Athletics Win Over Giants

Angel Willie Smith Is Not Very Angelic When At Bat

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

When Hollywood made the movie, "Angels in the Outfield," they weren't talking about Willie Smith. All of the Angels, however, are talking about him now.

The movie was a story of the heavenly kind of angels in the outfield of the Pittsburgh Pirates. But Smith, a Los Angeles Angel, has been a devil at bat.

The pitcher turned outfielder lashed two singles and a two-run homer Tuesday night, sparking Los Angeles to a 2-0 triumph over Washington. The victory was the seventh straight for the Angels, equaling the longest winning streak in the majors this season.

It also marked the second consecutive night Smith won games with his bat. His pinch-hit single the night before drove in the tie-breaking run in a 5-2 victory over the Senators.

The 25-year-old lefty was a pitcher until Manager Bill Rigney decided Smith deserved a trial as a hitter. Rigney now believes there's never been anyone more deserving.

Smith reached the majors last year with Detroit. He pitched in 11 games, gaining a 1-0 record and a 4.50 earned run average. The Angels acquired him April 29 in a trade for Julio Navarro.

As a southpaw hurler this season, Smith has a poor 1-4 record in 14 relief appearances and one start but has a respectable 2.81 ERA.

When Smith was inserted into the line-up for his hitting, Rigney didn't fool around. The manager placed him in right field and made him the No. 4 hitter. Smith's performance Tuesday night rocketed his average 40 points to .319. He has two home runs and 10 runs batted in for 47 times at bat.

His pinch-hitting record is even more amazing. He has seven hits in 14 chances, with five of the hits coming in his last seven tries.

That's pretty heavenly in Rigney's book.

Elsewhere in the AL Tuesday night, Baltimore nipped New York 9-8, Chicago blanked Boston 2-0, Minnesota whipped Cleveland 6-2 and Detroit trampled Kansas City 9-3 after losing 2-1.

In the National League, Philadelphia lost to Chicago 2-0, then won 9-0; San Francisco stopped Cincinnati 4-0 before dropping a 5-4 decision in 11 innings; Milwaukee defeated Los Angeles 5-2, St. Louis edged Houston 5-4 and Pittsburgh defeated New York 5-1.

Smith's homer in the eighth inning broke up a scoreless pitching duel between the Angels' Dean Chance and Bennie Daniels. Chance wound up tossing a four-hitter for his fifth victory against three defeats. The shutout reduced his ERA to 1.91.

The Yankees appeared well on their way to an easy victory when the Orioles struck for seven runs after two were out in the eighth. Pinch hitter Charley Lau ignited the comeback with a single and climaxed it with a run-scoring double.

Brooks Robinson and Willie Kirkland each singled home two runs in the inning, when it was all over, Baltimore was in first place one-half game ahead of New York. Elston Howard, Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris homered for the losers.

Fred Talbot scattered eight hits for the White Sox. Pete Ward homered, and J. C. Martin knocked in Chicago's second run with a double in the sixth inning.

Harmon Killebrew smashed his 23rd homer in the Twins' triumph. Jim Kaat hurled a five-hitter, losing a shutout in the ninth on Bob Chance's two-run single. Kaat singled home one of Minnesota's three runs in the second.

The Tigers salvaged a split of their doubleheader with the Athletics behind the hitting of Dick McAuliffe and Al Kaline. McAuliffe connected for a grand-slam homer in the eighth while Kaline batted in three runs, two with a single in the second.

Rocky Colavito's two-run single in the fifth inning won the first game for Kansas City. His hit was only the second off Joe Sparma, who was making his first major league appearance.

Who Didn't Vote For Willie Mays?

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Will the culprit—beg pardon, ball player—who did not vote for Willie Mays please stand up?

Or is he too busy cutting out paper dolls? Maybe he has suddenl gone blind. Or could it be he just can't spell M-A-Y-S.

How any major league ball player, sound of mind, devoid of prejudice, either over or under 21, could pick any center fielder in the United States—or ir the world for that matter—over Mays is almost impossible to imagine.

Yet one did just that in the All-Star balloting conducted by Commissioner Ford Frick's office and announced Tuesday.

Actually, 30 players did not vote for Mays as the National League starting center fielder but 29 had a legitimate excuse. They were Willie's teammates and the rule says you cannot vote for a member of your team.

But what excuse did the other non-Mays voter have?

This guy voted for Curt Flood of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Now Flood is a capable center fielder but it's useless to even try to compare him with Mays. Or compare any other center fielder with Mays.

Willie is simply incomparable. He's a league all to himself. Whenever rival players or managers begin comparing stars, as they often do, they invariably place Mays in a category of his own. Then they begin evaluating the others.

Willie received 240 out of a possible 241 votes.

It would serve this lonesome guy right if the other 240 voted to have him appear at home plate before the All-Star game, July 7, and say out loud, a thousand times:

"Willie Mays. Willie Mays. Willie Mays."

White Sox, Braves Win FL Contests

The Farm League Braves defeated the Giants 18-4 Tuesday night and the White Sox romped over the Indians 24-1.

The White Sox scored in every inning in a contest called after 4 frames because of the 10-run lead rule. Rudy Hinois doubled for the Indians and Byrum doubled for the White Sox.

The Braves tallied 9 runs in the 1st to jump ahead of the Giants. This game was also called after 4 innings. Bill Evans and Ricky Freeman doubled for the winners. Gary Hicks did the pitching for the winning Braves.

Lodge's Return May Offer Wider Choice For GOPs

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Henry Cabot Lodge's return from South Viet Nam might offer Republicans a choice of candidates to oppose Sen. Barry Goldwater for the GOP presidential nomination.

Lodge announced in Saigon Tuesday he was quitting his ambassadorial post and coming home because he felt it was his "duty to do everything that I can to help Gov. Scranton to win for president."

Later, he said "there are no hidden meanings" in his decision to return to the United States and he is "not a candidate at all." He added, "I am not going back at all in order to connive at anything for myself. I cannot be drafted."

Lodge's decision to jump into presidential politics was widely heralded by the backers of Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton as a major development in his efforts to win delegates away from Goldwater.

Scranton said he was delighted by Lodge's decision to return and added, "This is another big boost for this rapidly expanding campaign." He said he hoped to have Lodge "go around and tell the people why they should be for me."

Supporters of Goldwater, who has more than enough publicy committed convention votes to win the nomination if his delegates stand pat, generally discounted Lodge's move.

Goldwater, in a statement issued Tuesday, avoided any reference to Lodge's declaration that he would campaign for Scranton.

Instead, the Arizonan said, "Ambassador Lodge is to be congratulated for bearing up this long under such adverse conditions. The Johnson-McNamara program of indecision and vacillation has made it impossible for him to carry out his ambassadorial functions properly and undoubtedly motivated his resignation." Lodge gave no hint of such a factor in his letter of resignation.

While nobody questioned the sincerity of Lodge's commitment to back Scranton, some party strategists noted there were elements present that could lead to unpredictable developments.

This would be true particularly, they said, if there was a resurgence of Lodge's popularity in the national polls. These listed him as top choice of the rank and file for the nomination before he ran second to New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller in the May 15 Oregon primary. Some polls still give Lodge high ratings.

Scranton, whose name was on the Oregon ballot, got only 2 per cent of the vote. His meager total there and his low rating in the national polls were viewed by his friends as the natural result of his position then that he was not a candidate and that he would only accept a nomination tendered him as the result of a genuine draft he did not think would come about.

Subsequently Scranton announced he was an active candidate against Goldwater and most of Lodge's backers said they would support the Pennsylvania governor.

One of Scranton's principal problems in his belated scramble for the nomination has been that many Republicans just do not know much about him and haven't learned where he stands on the issues.

As the 1960 GOP vice-presidential nominee, Lodge has general recognition among the party organization workers whose voices will be heard in delegation caucuses and whose votes will be recorded in the convention balloting.

Whether a significant number of them might decide that Lodge rather than Scranton, was the nominee they wanted remains a question to be answered at the convention.

Mexicans Deny Being That Civilized

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Mexican officials believe the topless bathing suits won't get very far in their country. "We're not yet that civilized—give us until maybe around the year 2,000," one man jibed.

Women would be subject to severe sanctions if they wore the so-called shock frocks, lawyers say.

A woman with the attorney general's office, Carmen Baruch, said women wearing the bosomless bikini would be committing a moral offense and "I, as a lawyer, would not hesitate for one moment to apply the full force of the law."

When Mayor Roberto Morlett Sutter of Acapulco was asked about his action in case women appeared in topless suits, he said "I would go see them, naturally." In a more serious vein, he said he believed civil leaders would protest the suits, even if worn by foreigners.

Newspapers have given the suits wide coverage but some sources feel the topless suits might boomerang and cause a revival of strict chaperonage of daughters. In recent years, parents have eased up on the ancient custom of accompanying daughters on dates and keeping men at a safe distance.

Even the bathing suit dealers here were pessimistic.

"No future for this fashion in Mexico," said Morley Weiser, sales manager for Jantzen swim suits. "I rather think what is happening in the United States is just a publicity gimmick."

"We are not prepared for this," said Andres Valdivia of Peter Pan swim suits. "Our customs and morals would act as barriers. We haven't even considered making these suits here."

Eduardo Caire, sales manager for the large department store Palacio de Hierro, was noncommital: "Give the public what it wants."

First Bale Sells For $1.50 Pound

HARLINGEN (AP)—The nation's first bale of cotton sold Tuesday for $709.50, or $1.50 a pound for the 473-pound bale.

The bale was bought at auction by Walter Cummings of Harlingen, representing a fertilizer company (Best). It was produced by Oscar Mayfield and Sons on the 777 Ranch northeast of Rio Hondo. The land belongs to George Gibbons of Corpus Christi.

The growers actually will get $2,000 for the bale. The Harlingen Chamber of Commerce in addition to giving a $1,000 prize, guarantees a $1,000 auction price for the Rio Grande Valley's first bale.

Tuesday's price was the lowest since the chamber started its contest.

Hagans To Be Committed To Hospital

HUNTSVILLE (AP)—Edward Otho Hagans, 30, was scheduled to die in the electric chair July 28 for murdering an aunt, but a jury found him insane Tuesday and instead he will be confined to a state mental hospital.

A jury of 12 men deliberated 55 minutes and found that Hagans at present is insane. Judge Max Rogers was to prepare an order for Hagans' transfer from death row at state prison to the State Mental Hospital at Rusk.

Under Texas law, Hagans can be executed if and when he is ruled sane again.

Hagans and his wife were accused of slaying Mrs. Zoura Hagans, an aunt by marriage, and her sister, Mrs. Beulah Gibson. The elderly sisters were beaten to death in their Nacogdoches home Feb. 20, 1961.

Hagans was convicted in the death of Mrs. Haggans. His wife also was convicted and sentenced to life in prison.

Hagans was granted a sanity hearing after psychiatrists examined him in death row.

During a two-day sanity hearing, Hagans was rolled into the courtroom in a wheel chair. His lawyers contended he could neither walk nor talk.

One witness called by the defense, Dr. C. A. Dwyer, head psychiatrist for the Texas Prison System, testified that Hagans in his opinion could not distinguished between right and wrong at the time of the killings.

He added that under normal conditions, he would pronounce Hagans insane now.

Gas-Blend Cuts Smog

HOUSTON (AP) — Strenuous efforts are being made to find better ways to abate the smog-forming tendencies of motor vehicle emissions, air pollution experts said today.

These efforts are being made by government agencies, industries and research laboratories, delegates attending the Air Pollution Control Association's 57th annual meeting were told today.

Reports on recent developments in California's intensive anti-air pollution campaign were outlined.

Results of a preliminary study of ethanol - gasoline blends as automotive fuels were reported by H. C. McKee and G. C. Lawrason, Southwest Research Institute, San Antonio and Houston.

They said fuel evaluation programs conducted at the institute have demonstrated the blending of Ethyl alcohol with gasoline reduces the hydrocarbon content of exhaust fumes from the ordinary automobile engine.

Prince Edward Board Approves Operating Funds

FARMVILLE, Va. (AP)—One of the last barriers has been cleared away for reopening public schools in Prince Edward County, closed five years ago to avoid desegregation.

The County Board of Supervisors, acting under a federal court ordered voted 4-2 Tuesday to appropriate school operating funds for this fall.

U.S. Dist. Judge Oren R. Lewis, carrying out a mandate from the U.S. Supreme Court, had given the Board of Supervisors until Thursday to act.

The $189,000 county appropriation, plus state funds, will provide classes for about 1,600 pupils — the number of Negro school — age children in Prince Edward.

Public schools will be operated "without racial discrimination," said the board, but most white children are expected to continue classes in the private, segregated schools they have attended since 1959.

An appropriation of $375,000 was approved for tuition grants, which will go to white children attending private schools, if and when Judge Lewis lifts an injunction against continued use of the schools. The private schools had an enrollment of 1,242 for the term which began last September.

The supervisors raised personal and real property taxes from $1 per $100 to $2.50 and doubled the 30 cents per $100 merchants capital tax. Judge Lewis had ordered the supervisors to levy taxes if necessary to raise school funds.

The County School Board had asked for $339,000. The $189,000 is less than a third of the $739,000 in state and county funds appropriated for public schools the last year the county operated them.

County School Supt. T. J. McIlwaine, said he did not know if the $189,000 voted by the supervisors would be adequate.

One remaining obstacle to reopening the schools is the hiring of teachers. The term begins in less than three months.

Patman, Hays Swap Barbs Over Fed. Reserve System

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Wright Patman, D-Tex., and Rep. Wayne L. Hays, D-Ohio, took verbal punches at each other for an hour Tuesday on the House floor in a fuss over the Federal Reserve System.

Patman is chairman of the House Banking Committee while Hays heads a House administration subcommittee.

Their verbal fight delighted tourists in the gallery but brought a sharp admonition from Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass.

Hays told Patman, 70, "You're completely senile or you don't know what you are saying."

Patman retorted: "Some people get senile at 40." Hays is 53.

That's when the speaker stepped in.

Patman also had remarked Hays "wears two hats, a statesman's hat and a banker's hat." Hays is an official of the Citizen's National Bank of Flushing, Ohio, but he said he owns only a 4 per cent interest.

After gaveling the debaters to silence, McCormack said "The chair suggests there has been a close approach to violations of the rules of the House." He suggested that both contestants "proceed in order."

Hays' subcommittee disapproved several contracts Patman wanted to sign with economists and others for work in connection with a continuing investigation of the Federal Reserve System.
