

Centurettes--

MARCHING ALONG TOGETHER— And looking "all smiles" about their assignment as Centurettes are the girls above: Rita Wright, Peggy Carter, Martha Ann Johnson, Beverly Jones and Jackie Marchant. Members of the organization will be recognized by the special bands which these girls are wearing.

HARD AT WORK— But finding it fun, are Joy Williams and Delores Franklin, pictured above. They represent the organization's corps of office workers who will help out with some of the detail work during Centennial week.

ENTERTAINERS — Latin American dances and songs will be an entertaining part of Centennial week provided by Big Spring's teen-age Latin American population. Margie Roman and Mary Lou Chavarria above are wearing colorful costumes which will be typical of the group during the big celebration.

ALL ROADS LEAD — To Big Spring and the Centennial celebration on October 2-8. That's the story which Centurettes (above) are telling Johnnie Griffin, service station owner. It's Johnnie's job to re-tell that tale to his out-of-town customers. Centurettes, left to right, are: Kitty Roberts, Susan Houser and Wanda Petty.

This week, 62 teen aged girls met for the formation of a Centennial publicity organization to be known as Centurettes. Representatives from seven girls' clubs and a number not affiliated with any organization have joined the activities of Centurettes. Clubs represented are: the Latin American group, Rainbow Girls, an Ensemble group, High Heel Slipper Club, High School Council, Sub-Deb, Allied Youth Council and Tri-Hy-Y Club. Mrs. Willard Hendricks, sponsor of the Sub-Debs, and Mrs. W. C. McNair, high school student council and Allied Youth council sponsor, will act in an advisory capacity to the organization.

One division of the Centurettes will be devoted to entertainment and will appear on various service club and other types of programs, locally and out-of-town. There will be soloists, ensembles and other groups. Novel dances will be provided by the Latin Americans. Other Centurettes will devote time to the distribution of literature concerning the Centennial to service stations, hotels and other businesses which take care of the local tourist trade. The group will urge these business men to use every opportunity to make visitors want to come back to Big Spring for the October 2-8 celebration. Centurettes will be on hand at train and plane terminals during Centennial week to welcome out-of-town visitors. They will serve as official hostesses for various events and will be busy with special office work. Members of the organization have voted to adopt a pioneer costume to wear on duty during Centennial week. They will act in the Centurama, historical spectacle to be given three nights during the 100th anniversary celebration.

SONGS OF THE CENTURY — Will be presented by members of the Centurettes' entertainment corps. In the picture below are: Peggy Lamb, Sue Nell Nell and Joyce Wood. They'll do their part for special service club programs.

LOOKING FOR SOMEONE — Waiting for that train to come in will be various members of the hospitality committee. It will be a hardy Texas "Howdy" when out-of-town visitors are met by local Centurettes. Pictured at right are: Shirley Riddle, Mona Lue Walker and Luan Creighton.

Norma Lou Rose Becomes The Bride Of James Choate In Informal Rites

The First Baptist church was the setting for the informal wedding of Norma Lou Rose and James F. Choate Friday evening at 8 p.m. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Rose, 701 E. 17th, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. S. E. Fallon of Seymour. Double ring nuptial vows were solemnized by Dr. P. D. O'Brien, pastor, before an altar scene banked with greenery. Lighted cathedral tapers formed an archway across the sanctuary which was flanked with arrangements of white gladioli and maroon daisies. J. L. Fargason, Jr. served as organist. Prior to the ceremony he played a quarter hour prelude of love songs and accompanied J. B. Langston, soloist, as he sang "O Promise Me," by DeKoven and

"Because," by d'Hardelot. During the service, Fargason played the traditional nuptial marches including "The Bridal Chorus," from Lohengrin by Wagner and "The Wedding March," by Mendelssohn as the processional and recessional respectively. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a deep brown tailored suit and blue silk blouse. She wore a brown felt, off-the-face hat and brown accessories. Her bridal bouquet was placed on a white Bible and included an arrangement of tuberose centered with a deep orchid corsage. In carrying out the wedding tradition, the bride wore a ruby ring belonging to her mother, Mrs. Rose, since her childhood. Something borrowed was a white Bible, belonging to Jonel Neel. Her wedding attire was something new and she wore a blue garter.

Jonel Neel was maid of honor. Miss Neel chose a light-weight beige suit of wool. Her accessories were brown and she wore a beige and brown hat. Her corsage was of red carnations. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Fallon, was attired in a white printed silk ensemble with black accessories. She wore a shoulder corsage of white carnations. Out of town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. D. D. See WEDDING, Pg. 7, Col 6

Early Morning Vows Are Read For LaVerne Hampton And John W. Gary

MRS. JOHN WILLIAM GARY

HI-TALK

By Dolores Franklin

Seems as if nearly everyone is getting ready to go back to school or college now. Here's a list of some of the '49 Seniors and where they plan to attend college: Billy Satterwhite, A&M; Kelley Lawrence, Texas University; Doyle Jenkins, NTAC; Jerry Williams, Texas Tech; Cula Grisham, Baylor; Marilyn Martin, TCU; Kenneth Curry, Bob Jones University; Mary Gerald Robbins, TCU; Richard Deata, Texas Tech; Jane Stripling, TCU; Ann Currie, Stevens; Betty Lou Hewett, Stevens; John Richard Coffee, Baylor; Charles Creighton, Hardin-Simmons; Beverly Campbell, Loyola University; Chubby Jones, Schneider Institute; Charles Rainwater, Texas Tech; Fred Harrington, TCU; Wilmon White, McMurry; Jimmie Jennings, HCJC; Floyce Brown, NTSC; Neta Underwood, Texas Tech; Sue Nell Hall, HCJC; Nancy Lovelace, HCJC; Vevagene Apple, NTSC; Billie Jean O'Neal, NTSC; Jean Robinson, HCJC; Jack Ewing, TCU; and Charlotte Williams, HCJC. Transcripts have already been sent for these seniors.

The High Heel Slipper Club had a dinner Friday night in the Douglas Hotel for the seniors leaving the club. They were presented with gifts from the club and from the sponsor, Mrs. Tom Harris. Attending were: Nancy Lovelace, Billie Jean O'Neal, Jean Robinson, Rebecca Rogers, Ellen McLaughlin, Nancy Whitney, Patsy Young Mary Felts, Rita Faye Wright, Janelle Boone, Judy Beane, Peggy Carter, Gayla Mosier, Mary Jane Collins, Curtiss McCauley, Betty Jo Haley, Lou Ann Hall, Jo Blodson, Beverly Jones, Dolores Franklin, and sponsor, Mrs. Tom Harris.

Couples in the show lately are: Jerry Houser and Jane Stripling, Paul Shaffer and Rose Neil Parks, Ike Robb and Jo Cole, Kyle Miller and Lois Reagan, Jimmy Edith Laverne Hampton and John William Gary will be united in marriage in an informal service at the First Baptist church at 9 o'clock this morning.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hampton of Houston. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. L. M. Gary, Sr., 400 Goliad.

Dr. P. D. O'Brien will serve as officiant. Double ring vows will be exchanged by the couple before an improvised altar banked with huckleberry foliage and lemon greenery. The all-white altar will be interspersed with arrangements of maroon daisies, white carnations and gladioli. Two large baskets filled with white gladioli and huckleberry foliage entwined with green satin streamers will complete the nuptial bower decor.

Mrs. C. W. Norman will serve as organist. Mrs. Norman will play a medley of love songs prior to the ceremony and the selection "O Perfect Love," by Barnaby during the service. For the nuptial music, she will play "The Wedding March," from Lohengrin by Wagner as the professional and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," from Midsummer Nights Dream as the recessional. Mrs. Norman will be dressed in a toast-colored suit of fallie crepe. Her accessories will be of green and she will wear a white carnation corsage.

J. B. Langston, soloist, will sing the special selections, "O Promise Me," by DeKoven and "Because," by d'Hardelot.

The bride will be given in marriage by her father. For her wedding, she will be attired in an ankle length white lace dress, fashioned with princess lines and featuring miniature covered buttons to the basque waistline. The bodice of the ensemble is detailed with a Peter Pan collar and cap sleeves. The skirt is full and flaring. She will wear long, lace mitts with seed pearl design which will be repeated in the trim of her Puritan style headpiece. Her bridal veil is shoulder length and she will carry a prayer book arrangement of gardenias and feathered carnations tied with white satin streamers.

The bride will carry out the wedding tradition. For something old, she will carry a handkerchief belonging to Mrs. W. R. Douglass. The handkerchief has been in the Douglass family for approximately 100 years. Her wedding ensemble will be something new. Something borrowed will be the prayer book from Mrs. Paul E. Kaach and something blue is a garter, a gift to the bride from her aunt, Mrs. H. D. Stewart.

Hope Bogle of Houston will serve her sister as matron of honor. Mrs. Bogle will be attired in a pale green ankle length swiss organdy dress. Her accessories will be white and she will wear a corsage of white carnations.

L. M. Gary, Jr. of Breckenridge, brother of the bridegroom, will be best man. Ushers will include John Nobles and C. G. Griffin.

Mrs. Hampton, mother of the bride will wear a navy suit with navy accessories and a white carnation corsage. Mrs. Gary, mother of the bridegroom, will be attired in a grey suit and black accessories. She will wear a white carnation corsage.

Out of town guests who will attend the wedding are Mr. and Mrs. Leo Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Leveille of Odessa; Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hampton and Betty Jane Hartnett of Houston, Hope Bogle of Houston, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Gary, Jr. and daughters, Sharon Ann and Mary Margaret of Breckenridge.

The bride is a graduate of San Jacinto high school in Houston and has been employed with Owens-Corning Fiberglas company in that city. Gary is a graduate of the Big Spring schools and of Howard County Junior college. He spent three years in the Army Air Forces during World War II and he is employed with the local Puckett and French Architectural company. He is a senior student at Texas A&M college.

For traveling, Mrs. Gary will wear a pale blue tailored suit with navy accessories. Her hat will be of navy and she will wear a shoulder corsage of white gardenias.

Following a short wedding trip to Ruidoso, N.M., the couple will be at home in College Station.

Members of the wedding party were honored with a rehearsal dinner on the terrace at the home of Mrs. L. M. Gary, 400 Goliad, Saturday evening. Mrs. Tom Cantrell served as co-hostess to the affair.

The bride's chosen colors of pink and green predominated in the decorative theme. Other arrangements were of bright Mexican colors and multi-colored flowers in Mexican straw baskets.

Those attending the affair were Mrs. H. D. Stewart, Dr. and Mrs. P. D. O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Langston, Mrs. C. W. Norman and Mary Frances, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Gary, Jr. and children of Breckenridge, Mr. and Mrs. John Nobles, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Griffin, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Alvis Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. MRS. DON LEE HENRY

Patsy Tompkins Weds Don Lee Henry Friday

Nuptial rites were solemnized for Patsy Tompkins and Don Lee Henry in the First Baptist church Friday evening.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Tompkins, 2907 Runnels. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Henry of Chillicothe.

Dr. P. D. O'Brien, pastor, officiated at the informal service. Double ring vows were exchanged by the couple before an altar scene banked with greenery and fernery. Large floral arrangements of cream and pink gladioli flanked the altar. An arway of lighted cathedral tapers interspersed with greenery completed the decor for the sanctuary.

Jean Ellen Chown, organist, played a medley of love songs prior to the ceremony. During the ceremony, she softly played "O Promise Me," by DeKoven. She played the traditional wedding marches from Lohengrin by Wagner as the processional and by Mendelssohn as the recessional. Miss Chown wore a rose crepe dress with white satin corsage.

Helen Blount sang the special selections, "I Love You Truly," and "Because," by d'Hardelot immediately preceding the ceremony. Miss Blount was attired in a gold dress with gladioli corsage.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose an ankle-length dress of white Skinner silk. The dress was fashioned with a fitted bodice, high round neckline and cap sleeves. An inset lace yoke was scalloped onto the bodice and was repeated at the fitted midriff. The skirt was gathered in full, soft folds. The bride wore a fresh flower hat, with cascading shoulder-length veil and matching lace mitts. Her all white bouquet was centered with a corsage of white carnations and showered with feathered maroon daisies.

In carrying out the bridal tradition, she wore a ring belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. C. H. McDaniel, as something old. Something new was her wedding ensemble. For something borrowed, she chose a handkerchief belonging to Mary Ellis. Something blue was a garter, and she wore a penny in her shoe for luck.

Patsy Sue McDaniel, cousin of the bride of Abilene, served as maid of honor. Miss McDaniel was attired in a dress of aqua crepe. The dress was designed with a sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice and full, flaring skirt. She wore a fresh flower hat and black accessories. She carried a crescent shaped bouquet of Amaryllis lilies and white asters.

Other attendants of the bride were Dorothy Satterwhite and Mrs. Ladd Smith. They wore identical dresses of lavender pink, fashioned as the maid-of-honor's. Their bouquets were of Amaryllis lilies and white asters.

Candlelighters were Beverly Stulting and Joelle Wheat, sister of the bride. Their dresses were identical to the other attendants and they wore wristlet corsages of pink carnations.

Bill Higginbotham of Chillicothe was best man. Also attending the bridegroom were A. J. Cain and Dan Lewis. Ladd Smith, Pete Cash and Earl Lusk acted as ushers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Tompkins chose a dress of spruce blue satin and black accessories. Her corsage was of marconi daisies. Mrs. R. C. Henry of Chillicothe, mother of the bridegroom, was attired in a black crepe dress.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Richard King and Harriet of Lubbock, Mrs. B. J. McDaniel of Abilene, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Lowrey of Iraan and Mrs. Claude Higginbotham of Chillicothe.

The bride graduated from the Big Spring schools and attended Howard County Junior college. While in high school, she was a member of the Sub-Deb club. She has been employed at the State National Bank.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Chillicothe high school. He served approximately two years with the United States Navy and is a graduate of Howard County Junior college. He attended Texas Technological college, Lubbock, and will enter NTSC in Denton during the fall term. He has been employed with a Sheet Metal company in Lubbock during the summer.

For travelling, Mrs. Henry wore a two-piece satin dress of French crepe. Her accessories were black and she wore a white carnation corsage.

Following a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home in Denton.

Employees Make Contributions To Polio Fund

The maintenance workers in the refinery contributed an hour's work overtime to the local Polio fund. Other contributions by employees who were unable to work that hour are being added to the fund to fight this disease.

R. L. Tollett returned to the office Tuesday after a vacation and business trip which kept him away for fifteen days.

Cornelia Frazier who has been studying voice in New York was a visitor in the office Tuesday. Cornelia is a former Cosden employee, and we enjoyed hearing of the tour she will make over the country singing the role of the Princess in "The Student Prince". Helon Blount, a former Cosden employee, who is attending Texas University in Austin, visited in the office.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hutchison visited with Mrs. E. E. Roberts, former Big Spring resident in Greeley, Colo., while on their vacation. The D. T. Evanses attended the wedding of Mr. Evans' nephew, Richard Evans to Bonnie Neider in Odessa Saturday afternoon. The Ralph Starks plan to spend the weekend in Abilene at Fort Phantom Hill. J. A. Coffey and son, Robert, are visiting in Fort Worth and Sulphur Springs this weekend. Mrs. Alma Golinick is spending a few days in Fort Worth.

Our student laborers are returning to school after spending the summer working in the refinery. Grady Tindol will be leaving to attend Southeastern State College in Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Nagorsky, now in Gary, Penn., announced the birth of a son, John Kenneth, on August 16.

The Glenn Browns have Mr. Brown, mother and sister, Mrs. R. W. Brown and Floyce of Denton, as guests. Mrs. Imogene Rozell has as her guests Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Fincher from Quanah. Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Horan and sons, Johnnie and Mac, from Fort Worth are visiting the Sam Heisters. Mamie Mayfield went to Gatesville last weekend to see her new grandson, Dan Dickie. Marguerite Cooper spent the weekend in Meridian visiting relatives.

Roy L. Wyrick, H. D. Drake, Freeman J. Moore, Billy Logsdon, J. B. Lealle, W. A. Henderson, J. M. Jordan, and J. W. Wood are taking their vacations.

H. G. Johnson's baby son, Albert Don, is at the Hendrick Memorial Hospital in Abilene with polio. J. C. Tonn entered the hospital last Wednesday for a physical check-up. Mrs. C. J. Miller is home recovering satisfactorily after being in the hospital. Mrs. J. R. Pike underwent surgery in the hospital recently. Jim Dalton's daughter, Alta Joyce, broke her leg the latter part of the week. R. L. Tollett and M. M. Miller spent Thursday in Fort Worth and Friday in Houston on company business and returned home yesterday.

Mrs. Finis Bryan of San Angelo is visiting in the home of her sister, Mrs. Elmo Ellis and in the home of her niece, Jean Phillips.

TEL Class Has 'School' Party

Mrs. Beatrice Mittle was hostess at a party for the TEL Class of the First Baptist church in the home of Mrs. W. E. Mann, 704 E. 14th, Friday night.

The setting for the party was "back to school" and guests came dressed as children. Mrs. G. W. Martin and Mrs. A. H. Baker gave readings and Mrs. C. E. Richardson sang a song. Examination questions on literature, history and music were given each "pupil". Diplomas tied with white ribbons were presented to the graduating class.

The lawn was lighted with lights of various colors. An old well covered with ivy served as the punch bowl.

Attending were Mrs. C. E. Richardson, Mrs. G. W. Martin, Mrs. Eula Lea, Mrs. Viba Cormas, Mrs. Velma Cain, Mary Bates, Mrs. Eda Evans of St. Bernardino, Calif., Mrs. D. C. Maupin, Mrs. A. H. RIBBON RAMBLINGS By Mildred Young

There's a lot of interesting facts and people around our town which most of us overlook until they are brought to our attention. For the past few weeks, Herald staff members have spent most of their time doing research for the special Centennial edition to be issued on October 2. We have been rather amazed at some of the inside stories we have found concerning businesses and people that we've taken for granted up to now. Centennial time is probably a good time for all of us to get better acquainted with our town.

Saturday found a touch of Fall in the air. Certainly was a welcome relief, too. Most of us go for that in-between weather, even if we don't care much about the extremes.

We hear so many discussions and read so many articles concerning the possibility of the impossibility of creating a lasting peace. Our observations sometimes tell us that we don't seem to be making a bit of progress in that direction. But we do think that one point is generally overlooked. It may seem like a very trite accomplishment, but the actual truth is that if individuals the world over could learn to live together in peace and harmony that it would follow true that nations would have to fit the same pattern. A small, but sure way to better understanding is to start with the settling of back fence arguments in our own neighborhood. After all, that's about all the average citizen can do about the world situation anyway.

COLORADO CITY, Aug. 27. — (Sp.)—A coffee honoring the committee women for the annual Pioneer Association reunion, was given in the home of Mrs. Oscar Majors, Mrs. E. A. Bercroft and Mrs. Byron Byrne were co-hostesses.

The entertaining rooms were decorated with various kinds of yellow flowers. Baskets of yellow gladioli decorated the piano and mantel and an arrangement of yellow dahlias were on the registry table.

The serving table was laid with a cloth of Normandy lace and held a centerpiece of yellow chrysanthemums, gladioli and clusters of white grapes arranged in a low silver container. The silver coffee service and appointments of silver completed the table setting.

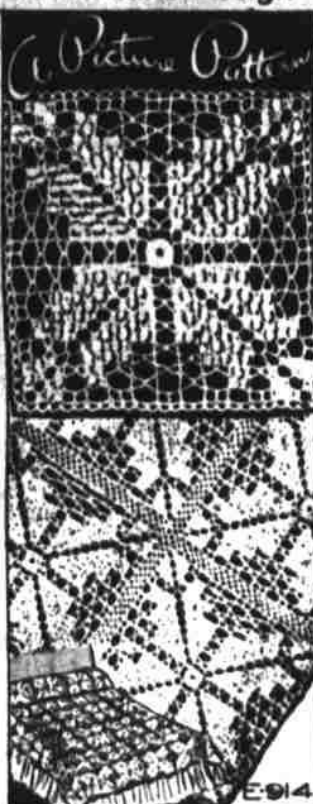

Favors were yellow rosebuds presented to the guests from white baskets by Mrs. Douglas Richardson and Mrs. Marvin Majors.

Piano music was played by Frankie Lee Dearen and Adele Hutchinson and accordion music was played by Mrs. James Payne. Mrs. Edgar Majors greeted guests at the door. Mrs. Majors wore a black crepe dress with accents of yellow. The hostesses Mrs. Bercroft and Mrs. Byrne, wore black lace and black crepe, respectively.

Mrs. Sam Majors, Jr. presided at the guest book, which was decorated with a hand painted scene of a covered wagon done by Mrs. John Majors of Sweetwater.

Mrs. Sam Majors, Sr. presided at the coffee service. Other members of the house party were Mrs. Oscar Price, Mrs. H. C. Landers, and a group of Pioneer granddaughters which included Gillian McEntire, Dorothy Cooper, Betty Hardison, Leita Dobbs, Jane Donaldson of Ft. Worth; Faynell and Sylvia Boney and Mrs. Harold Bennett. Eighty-five guests called during the evening.

Mrs. Jack Taylor Is Named Honoree At Tea

Mrs. Jack Taylor, the former LaVerne Robertson, was complimented with a bridal tea in the J. A. Thurman home, 607 Goliad Thursday. Hostesses were Mrs. W. H. Sides and Mrs. Arthur W. Franklin.

In the receiving line were Mrs. W. H. Sides, Mrs. Jack Taylor, the honoree, and Mrs. J. A. Thurman, mother of the bride.

Mrs. W. A. Underwood presided at the guest register and Mrs. Arthur W. Franklin displayed the gifts.

Varied arrangements of pink and red roses were placed at vantage points throughout the reception rooms. The serving table was laid with white hand-crocheted table cloth over pink. The table was centered with an arrangement of pink gladioli floating in a crystal tray filled with green water. Candelabra with lighted white tapers were on either end of the table. Appointments were of crystal and silver. The bride's chosen colors of green and pink were carried out throughout the decorations.

Mrs. Lula Mae Watts presided at the punch service. Favors, were pink and green napkins transcribed with the names "Jack and LaVerne, August 16".

The honoree wore a forest green alpaca dress fashioned with a drape skirt and the wore a corsage of pink rosebuds tied with pale green and pink lace netting.

All members of the house party were dressed in navy blue and wore white carnation corsages tied with pink and green satin ribbon. Gifts from the honoree. Approximately 65 guests attended the tea.

We say FREEZING is the modern way to preserve

It's easier! It's cooler! It's quicker!

NO hot-water baths!

NO arduous boiling for hours!

NO sealing of jars, rubbers and lids!

NO cooling jars to watch and turn!

Some day you'll wonder why you ever stood over a hot stove for hours to preserve, when it's so easy with a home freezer.

Just picture yourself preserving this modern, easier way:

1. You seal your vegetables.
2. Pack and seal them in sanitary, airtight containers.

3. Put them in your home freezer! And that's all!

We have the General Electric Home Freezer that's roomy enough to hold 200 pounds of food. There's also a smaller model—4-cu-ft—that holds 140 pounds. You can preserve foods the year round—and keep them delicious and fresh up to a year.

General Electric Home Freezers are available in 4- and 8-cu-ft models. Immediate delivery.

General Electric Home Freezer

The G-E Home Freezer is, we think, the finest home freezer you can buy. We say this after making comparisons throughout the field.

For one thing, it's dependable. In the General Electric Home Freezer is the very same type refrigerating system used in the General Electric Refrigerator. And, more than 1,700,000 of these systems have been in use ten years or longer.

The General Electric cabinet is called the "Perfect Seal." Repeated laboratory tests have proved that the cabinet keeps food frozen for several days after the current has been shut off.

After all, we don't have to tell you on the General Electric name. You probably have as much faith in this great electrical organization as we have.

With the General Electric Home Freezer, you get a written five-year protection plan, consisting of a one-year warranty against defective material or workmanship—plus an additional four-year protection on the sealed-in refrigerating system.

Remember, when you're buying a home freezer you're making a long-term investment. So invest in the best. Invest in a dependable, proved General Electric Home Freezer.

You may use our CONVENIENT PAYMENT PLAN to purchase your new G-E Home Freezer.

Betty Sloneker To Be Married

BETTY SLONEKER

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest T. Sloneker of 3534 West Alameda St. of Phoenix, Ariz., have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Betty to Thomas H. Amerson, Jr.

Amerson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Amerson of the Mesa Addition, Big Spring.

The couple will be united in marriage in an informal ceremony at the Westcraft Baptist church in Phoenix.

Following their wedding, the couple will be at home in Phoenix, where Amerson is employed as a plasterer.

Hobbs-Lea Vows Are Solemnized

Double ring wedding vows were repeated by Mildred Hobbs and Richard Lea in the Wesley Methodist church Wednesday, The Rev. C. R. Hardaway, pastor, officiated at the informal service.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Jewel Hobbs, 504 11th Place, and the bridegroom is the son of J. W. Lea of Abilene.

Given in marriage by her brother, Johnny Hobbs, the bride chose a white Botany suit and navy accessories. She wore a red rose corsage and a halo of white carnations in her hair. In carrying out the bridal tradition, she wore a ring belonging to her mother as something old. Something borrowed was pearls belonging to Mrs. R. B. Hughes and something new was her wedding ensemble. Her accessories were blue. She wore a penny in her shoe for luck.

Mary Hobbs, sister of the bride, served as bridesmaid.

Edward McConnelly, cousin of the bride, was best man.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Aigie Smith attended the punch service and Mrs. Leon Cole cut the tiered wedding cake.

The couple will be at home in Norfolk, Va.

Bobbie Mercies of McComb, Miss., has returned home after visiting her sister, Mrs. Don Yates.

Don't Jump To The Conclusion Santa Will Bring Us A Lake

The announcement that federal assistance is being solicited for further surveys of the Colorado river water project should lead no one to the conclusion that Uncle Sam is going to build a lake for us.

The proposition is much more complicated than that, and the thinking citizen will explore the many angles before building up expectations of "something for nothing."

In the first place, there's no such thing. If federal funds were eventually to come into the picture, these funds have to be replaced by one fashion or another: either through continued payment of the water bill or through federal taxes, of which there seems to be no end.

What has happened is that the Federal Bureau of Reclamation has been invited to use its facilities toward further exploration of Colorado possibilities. This is expected by the board of directors of the Colorado River Municipal Water District to be supplemental to the exhaustive surveys that already have been done. The board reserves the right to determine, after such Bureau studies are submitted, what course should be pursued toward getting a larger water supply. While it is true the Bureau of Reclamation has vast resources to carry on such a project, it is also true that the way is opened to throw the project into the den of bureaucracy, from which extrication would be well-nigh impossible.

That the Colorado project could get bogged down in red tape that would be binding for years and years, is a possibility. First must come an "authorization" by Congress, which is comparatively easy to get; and then must come an appropriation, which is much more difficult. Then arises the principle of whether or not the federal government should broaden its power a step further by owning, operating, and dictating the use of our water supply.

This is not to condemn the idea of Bureau cooperation in this project. Findings may show that a Bureau-sponsored project would be the best route to go. But simply the dream of letting Washington play Santa Claus is not enough to proceed on at this time. The district board is to be commended for its sound approach to the problem—admittedly a very difficult one to solve.

Marshall Plan Not Designed To Meet Total European Bill

THE ECONOMIC POSITION OF WESTERN Europe has reached an unhappy stage which is causing much concern.

A grim picture was conjured up during the debate in the consultative assembly of the 12-nation council of Europe just terminated in Strasbourg, France. The consensus was that Marshall Plan aid is producing little permanent effect on recovery and Europe is in for economic chaos if she can't achieve economic unity before the program ends in 1952.

The more gloomy prophets foresee social upheavals and even wars if economic unity isn't achieved. Nobody contradicted statements that little long-range constructive work is being done under the Marshall Plan.

SPEAKERS IN THE ASSEMBLY hammered on this question of economic unity. America's aid was praised as generous and wise and criticism was leveled at the Marshall Plan countries themselves. They were charged with not having submerged national interests in the interest of Europe.

The economic co-operation administration in Washington also reports a slackening in the rate of European recovery. It ends up by saying that the program's ultimate objective of a healthy recovery, independent of extraordinary outside assistance, remains a "difficult but attainable goal."

The Strasbourg conclusions leave one with the uncomfortable impression of some Marshall Plan countries which up to this juncture have overlooked the cardinal fact that the well-being of the individual state is dependent on the strength of all the states. They have missed the point in their anxiety to overcome their personal difficulties.

WE CAN GO A BIT FURTHER BY running the risk of seeming ungracious. There are some (though not all) of the Marshall Plan countries which have given signs of regarding Uncle Sam as a wealthy sign-guy who would pay the bill to put them on their feet. Their responsibility in the program ended when they accepted Sam's largesse.

The Marshall Plan never envisaged any such project as footing all the cost for European recovery. Its idea was to help the needy states to help themselves—to construct a "healthy economy independent of extraordinary outside assistance."

One of the prime essentials of success for this program was unity of effort.

Here's Something To Work On: Paternity Leaves For Men

By ED CREAUGH (Subbing for Hal Boyle)
NEW YORK (U) — MATERNITY leaves? Sure. But why not get really practical about this business of having babies? Why not time off for fathers, too?

This almost became a burning issue the other day. A newspaper in Kentucky heard that a union in New England was demanding paternity leaves for workers—male workers, of course—and the news wires quivered with anxiety while New Haven checked.

But before long the report came back: Nothing to the story. No break in progress for the old man. Another golden opportunity gone glimmering down the drain.

THAT'S THE WAY IT IS NOWADAYS. Things that shouldn't happen to a dog are always happening to people. And things that should happen to people, especially men, don't happen at all.

If Phil Murray, John L. Lewis, and the boys want my advice (and you should see them jamming the anteroom beginning) they will put paid pre-natal preparedness periods for pepas at the top of their 1950 want list.

And big business (you think babies are not big business?) will stall just long enough to make it convincing, and then will give in with a secret sigh of relief. The truth is that a man who's expecting a baby isn't worth the powder (the baby powder, that is) to blow him to work.

His company loses a couple of hundred dollars every time he shows up at the office.

HE'S A DEAD WEIGHT ON THE PAYROLL. He does nothing but burn cigarettes and sneez out to the telephone. If he does force himself to turn out a little work he creates such a snarl that two other fellows have to spend a week untangling it. Heaven help the stockholders if one of those other two men should also be an expectant father.

You may know more about this than I do, since I've only been through the mill once. And I didn't get jittery. Not at all. The show must go on, you know.

O, there was that time when I wrote something like:

WASHINGTON, July 14 (U) — The National Labor Board ruled today, etc. Of course I meant the National Labor Relations Board. Perfectly natural mistake. Could happen to anyone.

Dancing Assignment Comes Naturally For Miss Delaney

NEW YORK—Doing what comes naturally is the task now of petite, brunette Geraldine Delaney, a dancer now playing opposite Ray Bolger in the musical hit, "Where's Charley?" Variety vaudeville was her primer; theatrical green rooms her kindergartens. Miss Delaney is the daughter of Jerry Delaney and Mary O'Moore, vaudeville headliners of the 'Twenties, and they started her on the stage when she was five years old.

Playgoers with pleasant memories will remember Mary O'Moore as the Alice-Blue-Gowned girl who charmed them with her singing and dancing in the title role of the musical "Irene."

Miss Delaney said: "I had been living with my grandmother in Boston while my parents trouped in vaudeville, and then daddy came back from a tour and said I would be a valuable addition to their act. He said I would be a perfect ventriloquist's dummy and taught me to move my lips while he did the talking. Since seeing Charlie McCarthy I don't know whether I should be mad at dad or forget the whole thing. I remember that at the end of the act I always got final curtain applause because I stood up and took a bow and the audience had been under the impression that I was a wooden dummy."

From her appearances with Delaney and O'Moore the pert Geraldine went to school and then took a wartime job with the American Overseas Airlines. "My parents wanted me to continue in such jobs as the airlines post after the war," she said, "because they thought I should stick with some sort of business career and forget show business. But I had been in show business too long since those early years."

Returning to show business, Geraldine found the only role open on short notice was in the chorus of "Blossom Time," a hardy musical which has been on tour since father was a boy. It was only a minor part, but Geraldine consoled herself with the fact that at last she would play a grown-up role in a first rate attraction.

Present Senate Marked By Unusual Number Of Distinguished Freshmen

WASHINGTON. — Old-timers cannot recall a Senate with as many outstanding newcomers as the present one.

One distinguished freshman is a notable event in the chamber. The current body is unique in that it has four rookies of this calibre as well as a number of others above average.

Also remarkable is the fact that the group made its appearance in a session of otherwise little note.

This is not their fault. As newcomers, they have had no voice in directing the affairs of the chamber. That influence will come later as they gain seniority. But through their quality and breadth they have already markedly elevated the tone and stature of the Senate's legislative deliberations.

This, in itself, is a great contribution. In recent years, Senate debate had sunk pretty low. The chamber sorely needed a strong infusion of high ability and character.

Topping this group of distinguished freshmen are the following: Paul H. Douglas (D., Ill.) former professor of economics, battle-decorated Marine veteran, and gentlemanly but indomitable liberal whom Sen. Ed Johnson, three-term Coloradoan, rates the "rookie of the year." Douglas won his seat against apparent heavy odds and has displayed the same qualities and independence in the Senate. His debate against the strongly supported bill to circumvent the Supreme Court's rejection of the busing-point price system was the most impressive of the session.

Estes Kefauver (D., Tenn.) who also won in a seemingly hopeless race and has been uncompromising in making good his campaign promises. Kefauver is the only Southern freshman who has gone 100 per cent down the line for the fair deal program, including civil rights. He stands out among his southern colleagues like the Washington monument does in the Capital-Kefauver is a good winter-book bet for a place on the 1952 Democratic presidential ticket.

Hubert H. Humphrey (D., Minn.) former college professor, mayor of Minneapolis, and militant New Dealer, who battles for the things he believes in as resolutely as he talks fluently about them. He is outstandingly the most eloquent champion in Congress of Agriculture Secretary Brannan's farm-price-support plan. The fact that the proposal has been cold-shouldered has only intensified Humphrey's fervor. Only 38 years old, he is sure to be heard from in the national political arena.

Frank Porter Graham (D., N. C.) eminent former president of the University of North Carolina and an equally eminent Senator. Although he has held his seat only a few months and is one of the mildest-mannered members of the chamber, he has already made an outstanding mark as a statesman of high stature, character and integrity. Striking evidence of this is that some of Graham's warmest admirers are old guard colleagues whom he has staunchly opposed on issues. Other notable freshmen are: Mrs. Margaret Chase Smith (R., Me.) who was against three powerful, masculine opponents and has repeatedly broken with her Republican colleagues on major measures. She voted for the administration's public housing, aid to education, and civil rights bills. Clinton P. Anderson (D., N.

M.) former secretary of agriculture and one of the smartest strategists in the Democratic Party. He has ably backed every phase of the fair deal program with the exception of the Brannan Plan. Sen. Joe O'Mahoney, four-term former from Wyoming, characterizes Anderson as "one of two freshmen whose work is distinctive for intelligence, conscientiousness and effectiveness."

Robert S. Kerr, Oklahoma ex-governor and millionaire oilman, whose liberal record is distinctive on public power, labor, housing, education, social security, and farm legislation. His big deviation has been on the bill he is aggressively pushing to strip the Federal Power Commission of control over a major segment of the natural gas industry and open the way for a $75 million hike in consumer rates. Kerr is the second of the two freshmen lauded by Sen. O'Mahoney.

Robert C. Hendrickson, New Jersey Republican and Army veteran who has done yeoman service in fighting for civil rights and to liberalize the "anti-semitic and anti-Catholic" displaced persons law.

Russell B. Long, 31-year-old "baby" of the senate, who fought shoulder-to-shoulder with Douglas against the busing-point restoration bill. Unlike his late father, Long makes few speeches and is very popular in the Senate. He faces a tough re-election fight next year and is treading a way course on issues that affect Louisiana, particularly oil and civil rights.

J. Allen Frear, Delaware war veteran, who has an excellent liberal voting record except on public power. Elected with strong labor backing, Frear has gone down the line on labor measures.

Lyndon B. Johnson, likeable lanky Texan, who gave up a seat in the House to serve in the Navy, is able, hard-working and a skilled legislator. His previous liberal record has been dimmed somewhat by deviations on civil rights, labor and oil legislation. Johnson is working closely with Kerr to put over the natural gas "ripper" bill. On the other hand, like Kerr, Johnson has given outstanding support to President Truman's public power program.

Lester C. Hunt, former Wyoming governor and dentist, who has backed the President on everything except his national health insurance program. Hunt has particularly distinguished himself in his fair conduct of the investigation of the trial of the Nazi perpetrators of the Malmedy massacre.

Skating Queen Nearing Contract For Pictures

HOLLYWOOD. — (U) — Hollywood may win Barbara Ann Scott because the ice skating queen doesn't like the cold.

Of course, that's just one reason. But it's a big one. The Olympic champion, who has spent a large slice of her 21 years on the ice, testifies that, "baby, it's cold out there."

"Mmmmm, I love this sunshine," she sighed as she relaxed from the movie-lined whirl in her $35-a-day hotel suite. "And I like having the ocean nearby. I'm very fond of the water—the non-frozen kind I'd love to live here."

The way things are shaping up, she may well get her wish. Her agents have been introducing her around at the studios, and the pert and personable blonde makes quite an impression. Some ink may flow before the Canadian gal leaves town next week.

Barbara herself is all hepped up about a movie career. "I think it would be like living in a make-believe world," she enthused.

She remarked that she had VENTURA, Calif., Aug. 27 (U) — Several months ago Dianna Cyrus Bixby had to give up her plan to fly solo around the world. The reason is now apparent.

Petite Mrs. Bixby, 26, gave birth to a five-pound, 13 ounce girl at Ventura County Hospital Friday. It was the first child for her and husband Bob Bixby, 32, cargo line pilot.

Her manager, Ed Kittinger, says Mrs. Bixby still has a hankering to try the flight—maybe in about three months or so.

seen all the Sonja Henie pictures. "I loved the way she sailed over the black ice covered with water," she said.

"But I'd rather have pictures with more emphasis on story, and less on skating."

Among the film deals mentioned for her is co-starring with U.S. Skating Champion Dick Button in "Hans Brinker" for Walt Disney. "It sounds very interesting," she commented.

"But I don't know if Dick would do it. His family wants him to finish Harvard."

Here's One Newspaper Crusade That Ended Up On Home Roof

A little self-inspection doesn't hurt, so let's consider the case of the newspapers which are always up and doing something for the uplift of the community. The great journals almost without exception look upon themselves, with some pompousness, as the guardian of the people, and set for themselves the task of bettering the lot of its clientele.

This, in principle, is a fine thing. The trouble is that some of us would-be uplifters ride off in directions that can't be traced on a compass. But when that happens, trust the good judgement of somebody to call the turn.

And even the best of intentioned crusades kick back some times. Take the case of the Daily Bladder which promotes the milk fund; somebody likely will abscond with the money; or of the Morning Monarch which sponsors the marble tourney; the winner turns up as a ringer who had three terms in reform school and got special training from a professional.

These are fictional but I take for the gospel truth the situation in which one Georgia paper found itself not long ago.

This publication conducted a vigorous war on outside comfort stations. Now this is meritorious, and undoubtedly was done in the cause of sanitation. But the whole program prompted somebody to unexpected action, because the crusade reached a climax when one of the hateful edifices was found on the roof of the newspaper building.

Discovery was made by the paper's outdoor sports editor, who, of all those on the staff, was deemed most qualified to carry on the war on outhouses. It seems he went up to the building roof to take a sunbath, and, no doubt to cogitate on the line of attack his campaign should pursue in the next edition. I have been unable to find out the outdoor sportsman's immediate reaction to his discovery, but the record has it that he applied for an immediate vacation, with this note:

"This is too much. When the paper started me on my campaign, I welcomed the chance to do research in this little known field of typical early American architecture. But enough is enough. My studies have affected me to the point where I abhor the sight of gleaming white porcelain and find solace only in gazing at the grain of fine old weather-polished wood. I am infested with termites. This is the end."

The offending building was sturdily built of knotty pine, its architecture in traditional American style. Inside were accommodations for two and built-in book cases. The last, of course, constituted a flagrant violation of all rules of original design, as such luxuries were none in keeping with the first conceptions of functionalism. What is not made clear is whether the upper ventilating system followed the diamond, the star, or the crescent pattern. One outstanding fact remains that a newspaper's crusade came home to roost.—BOB WHIPKEY.

U.S. Influence Must Be Wedded To Nationalist Forces In Asia

A great effort by the United States is required to prevent Asia succumbing to Soviet power, which would certainly be the prelude of a third world war. But no effort will be enough unless we know, not only that we do not want a Communist Asia, but what kind of Asia we do want.

In considering this question, it is useful to recall what has happened in Indonesia. Last summer, after years of backing and filling between the Dutch and the Indonesian Nationalists, the State Department made up its mind. The United States would bet on the Indonesians. This decision was the right decision, if only for the wholly practical reason that the Dutch clearly could not in the long run hold Indonesia by military means.

Consider the consequences of this decision. The Indonesian Nationalist leadership originally had a strong pro-Communist leaning—indeed, a number of the leaders had attended the Kremlin's schools in Moscow. But as soon as it was made clear that the United States was willing to bet on the Indonesians, the Indonesians promptly bet on the United States.

Even while they were fighting the Dutch, the Indonesian Nationalists crushed a Communist bid for power in their own ranks. They stood the Communist leaders, including two newly arrived from Moscow, up against a wall and shot them. From so violent a demonstration of anti-Communism there is no turning back. Moreover, the Indonesian Nationalists committed themselves to an ti-Communism while American policy in China was crumbling in ghastly failure, and while Communism clearly seemed to be riding the wave of the future all over Asia. In short, they bet on the United States when the United States looked like a very bad bet. And the situation in Indonesia is now the most hopeful in all Southeast Asia.

This suggests the almost magic power which the United States, for all its failure in China, is still capable of exercising in Asia. But American power has magic only when, as in Indonesia, it is married to what is certainly the basic political force in Asia today—Asiatic nationalism.

The British have long recognized that an alliance with Asiatic nationalism is the only practical course—they have freed India and Burma, and allied themselves with the native Malays in Malaya. The experience of the French and Dutch since the war proves conclusively that no military effort is sufficient permanently to suppress a fierce and universally supported nationalism. Moreover, French and Dutch policy is now based on a recognition of this fact.

Thus the way is now open for a firm agreement with the British, Dutch, and French on our objective in Asia. This objective is clear: a grouping of sovereign Asiatic states, controlled neither by the Kremlin nor by any great power, but backed by the absolute assurance of American and European economic and military support, and thus strong enough to stand up against Communist pressure.

Recent Military Expense Cut Planned By Johnson As Starter

WASHINGTON. — (U) — HOWLS OF pain came from congressmen this week over the economy stroke of the armed forces, but more cuts of some kind are still to come.

Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson invited a battalion of congressmen to his office Wednesday and there broke to them news some of them did not like to hear even though they've been preaching economy themselves.

He told them the armed forces were going to chop 135,000 civilian employees off the payroll and shut down about 50 military installations at home and abroad to save about $500 million a year.

THE REASON THE CONGRESSMEN suffered anguish over the news was this: They've preached economy in the abstract but this economy struck home, at their own states, where layoffs and shutdowns meant lost income.

At his news conference late Thursday President Truman said he had ordered Johnson to make the cuts to economize government spending.

That happened some time ago, for the secretaries of the Army, Navy, and Air Force had to work out a way to make the cuts. But—more of the same, in some way, now lies ahead for the armed forces. Johnson figures that the layoff of 135,000 civilian employees and shutting down 54 installations will save the government about $500 million a year.

Yet, on several occasions in recent months he has said he wants to cut down the armed forces spending by $1 billion to $1.5 billion.

Therefore, he has another $1 billion or so in cuts to make before his wishes are fulfilled. Efforts to do that are now under way.

SEVERAL WEEKS AGO CONGRESS passed a bill to unify the armed forces, strengthening Johnson's hand over all three services: Army, Navy, and Air Force.

Almost at once he set up a National Defense Management Committee, headed by Lt. Gen. Joseph T. McNarney. On the committee are top officials of the three services.

The committee's job: to find ways of cutting down the armed forces' expenses. They're working on that now and will make their suggestions later. Whether that will involve cuts in people or weapons is not known now.

For that reason, the cut announced by Johnson on Wednesday was only a start.

AT THIS MOMENT THE ARMED forces have a total of about 1,615,000 people in uniform and, in addition, about 900,000 civilian employees. The cut of 135,000 will reduce the civilian total to 765,000.

The high point in number of civilians employed by the armed forces—2,634,000—was reached during the war.

After the war the number was steadily reduced until it reached a post-war low point of 828,000 in December, 1947, just before the trouble with Russia began and this country started to rearm.

So the new cut of 135,000 civilians—reducing the total to 765,000—will be the new low point for civilians employed by the armed forces since the war.

Peck And Gardner Co-Star At Ritz

The Ritz theatre today and Monday offers "The Great Sinner," a story of love and adventure and the thrill of the gambling tables, set against a glamorous Continental background.

Gregory Peck, as the central male figure, is seen as a man of ideals whose love for Ava Gardner leads him into the temptation of gambling, a lure which proves stronger than his will to write or his love for the girl. It takes the miracle of faith to break the spell. Miss Gardner, wearing the beautiful costumes of the 1890's, designed for her by Irene, has a role which carries her farther up the Hollywood ladder.

The colorful role of General Ostrovsky, the heroine's father, is enacted by Walter Huston. He is the aristocratic and inveterate gambler who is so possessed by the thrill of gambling that he pledges his daughter as a pawn. Equally colorful is the characterization portrayed by Ethel Barrymore. As the General's rich mother, she rules her family with an iron hand. Her surrender to the lure of the roulette wheel causes her to throw away a fortune on the last spin, an act which spells the end of her life.

Melvyn Douglas as a suave, sophisticated and evil genius, Frank Morgan as the poignant professor, and Agnes Moorehead as the treacherous pawnbroker add to the characters of a story brimming with excitement and suspense. Directed by Robert Siodmak, who held audiences spellbound with "The Killers" and "The Spiral Staircase," the new offering was produced by Gottfried Reinhardt, co-producer of "Command Decision."

M-G-M has backed its production with sets of elaborate beauty and authenticity. Among twenty-five sets are those of a gambling casino, a luxury hotel, a cathedral and a railroad station of the middle 1890's.

Wives' Fears Dramatized In State Picture

A picture widely regarded as a serious contender for the year's Academy Award is "Letter To Three Wives," at the State theatre today and Monday.

A smart comedy with a novel plot twist, it features Jeanne Crain, Linda Darnell and Ann Southern in the title roles. They appear as the wives, respectively, of Jeffrey Lynn, Paul Douglas and Kirk Douglas.

The immediate action of the intricate, yet wholly entertaining story of "A Letter To Three Wives," takes place in a single day, when the three girls leave on a picnic excursion with the unsettling news that "Addie," their town's most attractive unmarried female, has left town with one of their husbands. Though "Addie" is never shown in the picture, her taunting voice rings in the ears of each wife as she searches her marriage, convinced that her own husband has good reason to leave her.

Suspense and sympathy for the romantic problems in marriage builds to the picture's many laugh-packed surprises as the story unfolds. It isn't until the last 60 seconds of the picture that the answer is revealed.

Filed in both Hollywood and New York, Director Joseph L. Mankiewicz, who also did the sparkling screen play, used such eastern locales as Mahopac, historic Cold Spring and Hook Mountain so that all outdoor scenes would be faithful reproductions of the actual suburban setting of the unusual story, is told through flashbacks.

IN RITZ DRAMA—Gregory Peck, Ava Gardner and Melvyn Douglas share stellar honors in the Ritz theatre's featured offering for today and Monday. It's "The Great Sinner," a dramatic romance set against a background of Continental gambling casinos.

ABOUT TEXAS—Anne Gwynne and Robert Stack minister over Janet Beecher in this scene from "Men Of Texas." This melodrama of action with the Lone Star state as the setting is at the Lyric theatre today and Monday.

Hitchcock's 'Rope' Plays At Terrace

Standout on the Terrace Drive-In theatre's calendar for the week is the super-thriller, "Rope," the Alfred Hitchcock production. "Rope" is billed for Tuesday and Wednesday.

The picture is in Technicolor, the first such made by the noted British director. If this venture is revolutionary, so is the story development, termed one of the most unusual of recent years.

James Stewart is starred, with a group of rising stage stars in prominent supporting roles.

The lucky young players concerned are John Dall, Farley Granger, Joan Chandler, Douglas Dick and Dick Hogan. They have come to be known as Hitchcock's Younger Generation. Their average age is 22, far below the normal for the celebrated director who usually assigns stellar names to top roles.

Not only does Hitchcock believe he has a terrific quintet of camera — the film itself is such a milestone in movie making with its revolutionary camera treatment, that these lads and this lass cannot escape international attention. Best known of the younger generation is John Dall, who plays a

Two prominent representatives of the Egyptian government and two university presidents will discuss the question, "Does The Arab World Need A Marshall Plan?" on the eighth world tour broadcast of America's Town Meeting.

Broadcast from Ewart Hall at Cairo's American University, the program will be heard in the U.S. on Tuesday Aug. 30 at 7:30 p.m., over ABC-KBST.

Egyptian speakers will be Saba Habashy Pasha, former minister of commerce and industry, member of the Egyptian Senate and legal advisor to Egyptian and American business firms, and Hussein Kamel Sella Bey, dean of the Faculty of Commerce, Fustat University.

Dr. John S. Badeau, president of Calros American University and member of the Near East Christian Councils Executive Committee, and Dr. Clarence Decker, president, University of Kansas City, are the American speakers on the panel.

"COUNTER-SPY"
By cleverly employing a base-ball code on a shortwave radio set, David Harding is able to keep his assistant, Peters notified concerning his investigations in uncovering an illegal Mexican poppy field. How the field is discovered and a gang of dope smugglers rounded up will be related in the broadcast of "The Case of the Recondite Rancher," the Counter-Spy episode to be aired over ABC and KBST Tuesday, Aug. 30, at 8:30 p.m.

LOUELLA PARSONS
It's moviedom's latest success story, Paul Douglas, who steps in as guest when he is heard in a previously transcribed interview with Louella O. Parsons on this evening's broadcast of Louella O. Parsons' program at 8:15 p. m. over KBST.

Lamesa Plans Rodeo Renewal

LAMESA, Aug. 27—Stock for Lamesa's revitalized rodeo, scheduled Sept. 1-3 after a nine-year layoff, has arrived here.

Buck and Tommy Steiner, Austin, rodeo producers, are furnishing the rodeo animals for the show which is shaping up as one of the biggest ever attempted in Lamesa. The rodeo is RCA approved and thus comes in the world championship class. Purses amount to $1,650 plus entry fees. An additional prize of an $185 saddle is being posted in the cutting horse contest.

Events will include bareback bronc, saddle bronc and Brahma bull riding, steer wrestling, calf roping.

Invitations have gone out to some 247 of the top rodeo performers of the Southwest and to points in Arizona and California. Headquarters have been established in the Dal Paso hotel. A big parade at 5 p. m. Thursday will usher in the rodeo festivities.

LEARNING!

Good habits are usually easier to start when young—but it is never too late. You can start one right now.

If the high cost of living in recent years has made it difficult for you to save, why not try the plan many others have used successfully? From each paycheck pay yourself first—yes, take a certain amount and deposit to your First National checking account before other expenses accumulate.

A habit such as this will help you build a substantial reserve that can be used to take care of unforeseen emergencies.

Hurricane Roars On Into South Georgia

TAMPA, Fla., Aug. 27. (AP)—The powerful remnants of a one-time super-hurricane, worn by the fury of its assault on Florida, drove toward South Georgia Saturday night.

Still packing punishing winds of near-hurricane force — 70 miles per hour—the dying storm raked through North Central Florida after sweeping in from the wave tossed gulf at the mouth of the storied Suwannee River.

The area immediately ahead of the flailing winds was sparsely settled, but outriding winds hammered heavily at north Florida—between Jacksonville and Tallahassee.

The weather bureau warned that

South Georgia between Waycross and Moultrie could expect "dangerous gales of near-hurricane force until the center passes."

Hurricane warnings still were up southeast of Valdosta, Ga.

The center was reported 25 miles from Carrabelle to Cedar Keys while storm warnings stood stiff in the wind elsewhere between Fort Myers and Panama City.

Twice in its brief career, the storm lashed at Florida like some vengeful demon.

After brewing winds of 125 miles to 162 miles per hour in the wastelands of the Atlantic, the mighty force struck inland Friday.

Shortly after striking the 162-mile mark at the Jupiter Light-house north of West Palm Beach, the 5th Coast Guard's anemometer failed. The previous sustained reading was 150 miles.

Savagely it raked 250 miles of beach playground along the Atlantic coast.

The storm left behind one dead, nearly three score injured, and a damage toll which already had passed the $10 million mark.

The Miami Herald estimated that the final cost would be around $40 million and declared that the damage in the Lake Okechobee area dollar-wise would be greater than the mighty blow of 1925 in which 1,800 persons died.

Water Source Study Slated For Monday

Many Cities Are Involved In Planning Deal

Discussions on multi-city water sources are to be held in Abilene Monday.

The sessions will be held at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce offices in Abilene and Harry P. Burleigh, Austin, Bureau of Reclamation planning officer for Texas, will attend.

Burleigh has held several conferences with city and area officials recently. Saturday the bureau announced that it had concluded that it would not be economical to build a water supply dam for each. Locally this was viewed as hardly startling since five cities—Big Spring, Snyder, Colorado City, Midland and Odessa—had reached a similar conclusion three years ago.

Announcement of the meeting, however, occasioned a plug for the Robert Lee dam above Bronte by L. J. Youngblood, Bronte, chairman of the Upper Colorado River Authority.

Last week the Colorado River Municipal Water District, composed of Big Spring and Odessa, asked the bureau to have a look at its proposal to dam the Colorado 25 miles northeast of here. At the same time, the district reserved the right to proceed on its own initiative.

It was not known if the district would be represented at the Abilene parley. R. T. Piner, president of the district, was out of town.

A Washington Associated Press dispatch said that Abilene, Stamford, Haskell and Seymour are other major towns participating in the multi-city water source search.

Rep. George Mahon said that no sites, except the Bob Baskin Dam site in Haskell County, were discussed in a report he had received from Michael W. Straus, reclamation commissioner. Four or five will be studied.

The Baskin site is to be restudied. In 1948 the Bureau had concluded that a $19 million dam there would cost more than the benefits could justify.

The Bureau can make preliminary studies and report by June 30 next year.

Then if the cities desire, extensive surveys could be made and the most feasible plan presented to Congress.

Accident Fatal To Lamesa Man

LAMESA, Aug. 27. (AP)—George Tom McAllister, 23, Lamesa meat

wholesaler, was killed early today in a downtown accident.

His car and the rear of a truck loaded with oil well pipe collided. O. V. Gentry of Eunice, N. M., said he was backing into the street and that McAllister apparently failed to see a signal from a flash light being waved at the rear of the truck by A. V. Oliver, Gentry's helper.

Funeral services will be held Sunday in Eden. Survivors include his mother, Mrs. F. H. McAllister, and a brother, James McAllister of Eden.

WARNINGS ON GARBAGE CANS

Warning cards will be attached to all garbage cans not meeting requirements of the uniform garbage container ordinance, City Manager H. W. Whitney said Saturday.

The tags will be marked to indicate wherein the garbage can fails to meet requirements of the new law which goes into effect Sept. 1. They are printed in both Spanish and English and will be attached by garbage collectors, Whitney stated.

Cans which fail to meet size and sanitation limitations of the ordinance will not be emptied after Sept. 1, according to the city manager.

DENIES 'INFLUENCE' STATEMENT

Football Tickets Only Thing Asked Of Vaughan, Says Hunt

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27. (AP)—

James V. Hunt, a key figure in the five percent inquiry said Saturday night he never has asked Maj. Gen. Harry H. Vaughan for anything more important than tickets to an Army-Notre Dame football game.

And Hunt flatly denied that he ever made the statement: "All I have to sell is influence." A witness at the investigation testified under oath that Hunt said that.

Hunt, self-described Washington management counselor, said it seems to him the Senate inquiry has produced "conclusive evidence of the absence of any improper influence" on his part.

Hunt made his statements in an affidavit to a special Senate subcommittee checking on whether the handling of government business such influence has figured in.

The committee has received testimony that Hunt collected fees for help in getting government contracts for others, and that he boasted of an inside track to the White House through Vaughan.

Vaughan, who is President Truman's military aide, is scheduled to testify at the inquiry Tuesday.

Robeson Date Ends In Fierce Rioting

WOODEN NICKELS AS GOOD CASH FOR CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION

Wooden nickels valued at $900 will be distributed to Big Spring retailers Monday, Oscar Glickman, committee chairman, announced Saturday.

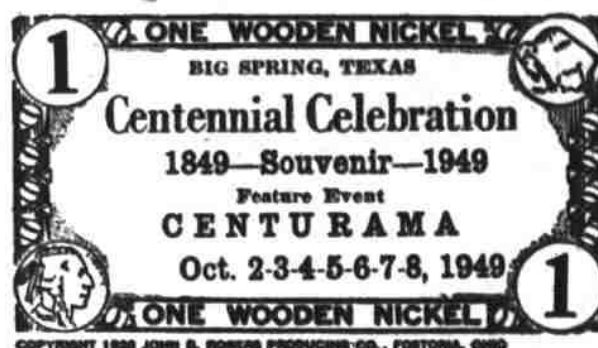

The junior chamber of commerce is to pass out the money to retailers who will distribute it in the form of change to customers. The nickels will be redeemable at full face value at any store or bank in town, Glickman said.

Circulation of the novel money is being made to publicize the Big Spring Centennial celebration Oct. 2-4. It can be used in making purchases at any of the retail stores participating in the publicity program.

Letters have been mailed to some 80 firms outlining the particulars of the project, Centennial association officials stated. Retailers not receiving letters were requested to call at the association offices in the Settles for information and a supply of the wooden money.

The money is in one, two, and five nickel denominations. One-nickel chips are printed red, twos are blue, and fives are green.

TO CHECK DOLLAR DRAIN

Parleys Started On British Crisis

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27. (AP)—The United States, Britain, and Canada, opened negotiations Saturday on the British economic crisis. Top American officials regard it as a serious threat to the power of the West in the cold war.

The immediate object of the talks, expected to result in important decisions next month, is to try to check the drain on Britain's gold and dollar reserves to keep them from falling below $1 billion before Jan. 1.

British and American officials alike appeared fairly confident this first goal of saving Britain from a kind of national bankruptcy would be accomplished. American authorities said the British, by ordering cutbacks in spending of dollars, already have taken one important step.

There is a good deal less confidence that the long-range British economic problem can be solved agreeably to both governments.

Top officials on both sides say that the essence of the solution, over a long pull, is for Britain to sell a lot more goods in the United States. There is no certainty that this can be brought about.

Some British authorities are reported thinking of proposing the creation of a light and largely self-sufficient "sterling bloc." That would mean the division of the world economy into three areas—Russian, British, and American.

State Department officials fear such a move would tend to break down western political co-operation and split western unity in the cold war.

Undersecretary of State James E. Webb, chief of the American delegation was chosen chairman for the 10 days of preliminary talks.

The British group was headed by Sir Henry Wilson Smith, second secretary of the British treasury. The Canadians are headed by Norman Robertson, secretary of the Canadian cabinet.

Negro Slain, Another Held

A single 22 rifle shot that caused two wounds resulted in the death of Freddie White, 22-year-old Negro, here late Friday night.

Willie Nolan, 40, surrendered to police shortly after the killing, which took place at the entrance of the Dreamland cafe about 11 p. m. He was named in a murder charge.

Authorities doubted Nolan's story that he fired but once into White's body, after doctors examined the body and found two bullet holes. However, his claims were later proved out when it was discovered the slug had been shaved in two by the wire of a heavy screen which partially barred Nolan's vision when he opened fire.

One of the lead deposits remained near the surface of White's body but the other penetrated the heart, causing almost instantaneous death.

Nolan insisted White had earlier slapped his step-daughter and was in the act of coming toward Willie himself when the shooting took place.

Nolan's bond was set at $5,000 by the county Saturday morning but he had not made it late in the day.

The accused came here from Oklahoma about nine years ago.

Insurance Blanks Available Monday

Blanks for refunds on GI insurance premiums will be available for distribution here Monday.

These may be secured from the Veterans Administration, postoffice, Red Cross, or the service organizations. Ray Boren, head of the Big Spring office for the VA, said that 5,000 blanks had been received.

The applications for a veteran's pro rata share, based on premiums paid of a surplus accumulated in the GI insurance reserve. Actuary tables on which rates were charged overestimated mortality. Hence a surplus has accrued. It is to be divided among participants who apply.

Deathless Days In Big Spring Traffic 617

As for whether Vaughan ever sought favors from him, Hunt said: "I have no recollection of his ever asking me to do anything more important than to get a supply of matches for Ambassador Pauline or for a fresh supply for the White House."

Many Injured As Thousands Fight

PEEKSKILL, N. Y., August 27. (AP)—Fierce rioting among thousands of persons broke out tonight at a scheduled picnic grove concert by Paul Robeson and at least 11 persons were reported stabbed or clubbed.

The rioting broke out as marching veterans organizations and concert-goers clashed head-on in a dirt country road near the grove.

The veterans had gathered to protest the concert. Their leaders had announced they would use brass bands to drown out Robeson's singing.

After two and a half hours the fighting still had not been completely quelled.

At least 11 persons were taken to the hospital, police reported, and the hospital said "they come in like flies—we can't keep count of them."

The crowd of thousands, on-the-scene newsmen reported, contained a large number of Negroes, but most persons were white.

The hospital said the injured apparently were beaten with "rocks, clubs, anything they could get their hands on."

Robeson did not appear on the scene.

The Negro singer was reported tied up in the huge traffic jam that the riot caused on nearby roads. His concert appearance had been scheduled by the Peoples Artists Committee for the benefit of the Harlem branch of the Civil Rights Congress.

The Congress has been labeled subversive by the U. S. Justice department.

Newsmen on the scene reported the bitter rioting broke out when thousands of paraders marching under veterans' groups colors met head-on with thousands of persons gathering for the concert.

In the fighting that followed, at least seven automobiles were turned upside down, and one was tossed off an embankment into a stream.

A crowd was seen to be looting a hill above the picnic grove. Several local veteran organizations announced earlier today that they were staging a "patriotic" parade around the picnic grove.

They said four brass bands would blaze forth during Robeson's concert.

At 5:30 p. m. the parade started past the grove, located in the nearby town of Cortland.

The paraders shouted slogans while their bands blared out patriotic march tunes.

The parade turned into a dirt road leading to the concert bowl, where 2,000 camp chairs had been set up.

Concert goers formed a line across the road and then moved a huge truck across it as a road-block.

Men and women on both sides were pushed back as the two bodies of persons met, and the concert forces started to sing a Negro spiritual "We Shall Not Be Moved."

Members of the veterans' parade broke through the woods, overran the concert bowl, and started to rip apart the stage where Robeson was to sing.

They tossed camp chairs through the air and set fire to a pile of them.

Meanwhile, road blocks of stone, wood and wire were thrown up on roads leading out of the picnic area.

WOULD PERMIT 70 GROUPS

Air Force Expansion Gets Unanimous Senate Approval

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2. (AP)—Authority for a big expansion of the Air Force won Senate approval by unanimous consent Saturday after brief discussion.

It passed the 70-group Air Force bill previously approved by the House after striking out a section that spelled out the 70 combat groups and other units.

Retained in the bill, however, was the House-approved authority for "24,000 serviceable aircraft or 224,000 air frame tons aggregate."

This would authorize the Air Force to buy—if Congress provides funds later—all the airplanes regarded as necessary for an expansion to 70 groups.

Sensors said the House language spelling out the 70 groups, 22 separate squadrons, and 61 air reserve groups was meaningless because a group of squadron varies widely.

The Senate also struck from the House-passed bill authority for both the Army and Air Forces to develop and buy guided missiles. These are the push-button type, long range weapons of the future wars of which the German buzz bombs and rockets were a forerunner toward the end of World War II.

The Senate action apparently would leave up to the secretary of defense an undercover dispute among the Air Force, Navy, and Army as to which arm should handle guided missiles.

The Senate bill must go back to the House for action on numerous changes. These probably will be adjusted by a Senate-House conference committee.

Rubber Union Goes On Strike

AKRON, O., Aug. 27. (AP)—Union labor's first major strike for a fourth round of postwar wage increases was launched Saturday.

The CIO struck B. F. Goodrich, one of the rubber industry's big four.

Ordering some 17,000 Goodrich workers in seven states to strike, President H. R. Lloyd of the CIO-United Rubber Workers justified the move in these words:

"Unfortunately, the company showed not the slightest interest in reaching an amicable settlement. We were compelled to take this action to protect the interest of our membership."

Lloyd made this statement in Dayton, O., where negotiations on a new contract broke down Friday night just before the old one expired. As authorized by the union membership, the strike started at 12:01 a. m. Saturday.

FDR, Jr., Obtains Marriage License

NEW YORK, Aug. 27. (AP)—Rep. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr. (D-N.Y.)

York Suzanne Perrin, blonde New York socialite, obtained a marriage license Friday. No wedding date has been made public.

Roosevelt, 35-year-old son of the late President and Miss Perrin, 28, previously have said the ceremony was expected to be some time late this month. Their engagement was announced July 29.

Roosevelt and the former Ethel Du Pont were divorced last May.

No New Leads In Payroll Burglary

No leads had been uncovered Saturday in the burglary of approximately $1,400 in payroll funds here Friday night.

Burglars took $1,332 in checks and 40 in cash after smashing a window, leaving a night latch and prizing open a wooden drawer.

There had been no report of any of the checks being passed here Saturday. Two suspects escaped a net Friday. They were traced as far east as Sweetwater

Reviewing The Big Spring Week

With Joe Pickle

The male population was never unpretentious. Beards, still in the stubble stage, are sprouting every where. It is rumored that the fairer sex is unconvinced as to the propriety of this Centennial promotion. At least when it comes to bristles, milady has learned that it is indeed more blessed to give than to receive.

Big Spring will be alive with motorcyclists a week from today. The southwestern and Rocky Mountain (AMA) tourist trophy races are slated on the local track. Riders are expected from Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Colorado as well as Texas. It will be the biggest show the Big Spring Motorcycle club has yet attempted.

Mrs. William Reidy suggests that as a Centennial gesture a city-wide clean-up campaign be attempted. It would be nice if the entire town was given a brush-up clean-up and scrub-up for the occasion. Mrs. Reidy is especially interested in seeing the Birdwell tract fronting on Eleventh Place (owned by the school district) cleaned. "I came here in 1910 and it has never been cleaned since," she observes.

MOVING TO CLYDE—A residence span of 20 years in Big Spring is being concluded by Mr. and Mrs. Troy Gifford (above), who next weekend will complete a move to a ranch four miles northwest of Clyde, which they recently purchased. They are to raise Herefords on the 1487-acre place. The Giffords came here in 1929, and until May operated the Goodyear Tire Service bearing their name. They are disposing of all their holdings here.

FOR LAKEVIEW UNIT

To Start Moving School Building

First moving of a classroom structure from the airport area to the Lakeview school property will get underway Monday. Foundations for the building have been poured at Lakeview. It is estimated that it will require about a month to move, reinstall and renovate the structure at its new location. A. E. Suggs holds the general contract for the job. The building formerly in use by Negro students has been moved to the back of the lot and will be utilized until the program can be completed. Possibly part of the new building may be pressed in use before all of it is complete. When finished, the new plant will provide about 8,500 square feet of floor space for Lakeview students.

Dillon first came to Big Spring in 1942 as a technical instructor at the Bombardier school. In 1945 he was assigned to the army's education and training program, and served overseas in both the

Annual Party Is Held By TESCO

Food and fun were turned up for the annual party of employees of the Big Spring district of Texas Electric Service company here Friday. The affair was held at the Country club. Barbecued chicken, ham and beef, together with salads and the trimmings, were served at 6:30 p. m. There followed about an hour of square dance instruction. Employees polished off the evening with a conventional dance. Fritz Weber, in charge of the arrangements, said that approximately 125 attended. There were 30, headed by Howard Maddox, who came from Lamear. Two employees from O'Donnell were on hand.

Asks For Support Of Football Club

Emphasizing the local high school football team's need for encouragement and support, Carl Coleman, head coach, spoke at a luncheon meeting of the American Business Club held Friday. Speaking at the Settles Hotel, Coleman stated that last year's season ticket sales totaled 120. He added that the team would probably play some bad games, but that they could not be expected to develop into a good ball club without the support of a large number of local citizens. Jimmie Lee Pitts, Negro vocalist, accompanied by Mrs. George O'Brien, sang two numbers, "Sometimes I Feel Like A Motherless Child" and "Nobody Knows The Trouble I've Seen." Mrs. E. V. Swift spoke briefly concerning the vocalist's scholarship to Westminster College in Princeton, N. J. Wanda Richardson, the club's candidate for Centennial Queen was introduced. Resignation of Mrs. Helen Green as club sweetheart and pianist was announced.

Commodity Price Index Takes Jump

NEW YORK, Aug. 27. (U. P.)—The Associated Press index of 35 important wholesale commodity prices this week made its sharpest week end to week advance since June of 1948. The index climbed to 155.21 from 153.14 the previous week, but was still well below the 160.00 of a year ago. The base year 1925 equals 100.

BIGGEST JOB ON NORTH SIDE

Start Ditching Work For Sewer Lines

Ditching work is to start Sept. 1 for 13,000 feet of sewer extensions in Big Spring. City Manager H. W. Whitney announced Saturday. Majority of the work is to be done on the north side of town, the city manager said. Extensions there will amount to 11,500 feet. South side extensions include a block up the alley between Donley and Young from 4th to 5th streets, and a block between 15th and 16th streets from Donley to Young. The line between Main and Scurry will be lengthened from 23rd to 24th street. The line between 15th and 16th streets will be extended from Pennsylvania to the Mountain Park addition. The Cedar street sewer will be extended 150 feet west from Pennsylvania. On the north side, lines will be run from 7th to 8th on N. Bell street, and the present sewer will be extended from N. W. 5th to the labor camp, a distance of about 1,000 feet. A 1,000 foot addition will be made to northside sewers to serve the Moore Heights addition, and a 100 foot extension will be made in the 200 block of N. Main. The line in the alley between N. Main and N. Scurry will be extended a distance of 2370 feet from N. 6th to N. 12th street. The sewer now ending at the Lamesa highway will be extended between N. 10th and N. 11th streets to N. Lancaster, a distance of 800 feet. No finishing date has been set for the projects, the city manager stated.

Detectives Hunt Counterfeit Plant

LONDON, Aug. 27. (U. P.)—Detectives combed London today for a counterfeiting plant which has turned out hundreds of fake U. S. $50 bills. The Scotland Yard forgery squad apparently was acting on a tip from U. S. military police.

DOG AND CATS INHERIT HOME

SANTA ROSA, Calif., Aug. 27. (AP)—A dog and five cats have inherited two houses, furniture and an income for the rest of their lives.

The will of Mrs. Catherine Olberg, prominent Petaluma, Calif., newspaper woman who died earlier this month at 74, was filed Friday. It left these for her pets:

Her home and its furniture as long as they live, the revenue from another house, benefits from her social security and a savings account.

The will specified for the pets a diet twice daily of "fresh boiled meat fixed in a stew with carrots flavored with onions and garlic."

Denied New Trial

SILSBEE, Aug. 27. (AP)—District Judge Clyde E. Smith has overruled a motion for a new trial for Robert LeViness.

A district court jury at Koutze sentenced LeViness July 25 to death in the electric chair in the slaying of Mrs. Eloise Twitchell.

Notice of appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals at Austin was filed.

DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION

Conferences Set On New Courses

Big Spring High school students interested in distributive education courses during the next school term are being asked to confer with Ruby Powers, instructor at the High school.

Miss Powers is available for conferences with prospective students between the hours of 9 a. m. and 12 noon. Afternoon hours are devoted to conferences with merchants and store managers who are participating in the DE program. Distributive education is one of two vocational programs to be offered by Big Spring High school this year. The DE course involves training in selling and merchandising. Places for students are now open in several types of business, including women's ready-to-wear shops, men's clothing stores, furniture, hardware, grocery stores, drugstores, department stores and variety stores. Such establishments are interested in training boys and girls for responsible positions in full-time jobs, Miss Powers said.

Students who enroll in the DE program will take two regular high school courses and receive classroom instruction in DE during the morning hours, and then devote afternoon hours to training on the job.

Texas, with 92 schools offering such programs, leads the nation in distributive education, Miss Powers said. Last year over 2,800 boys and girls took DE courses in

RUBY POWERS

Texas schools and over 40,000 adults took special DE courses. Miss Powers, a graduate of Abilene Christian College, was DE instructor at McAllen last year.

Yugoslavia Alleges Romanian 'Grab'

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, Aug. 27. (AP)—Yugoslavia charged Saturday that Romania is scheming to carve up this country and annex parts of it to their own territory. The charges were aired in the newspaper Borba, Communist mouthpiece of Premier Marshal Tito's government. It said Romania is trying to grab the rich wheat and corn district of Banat.

Lewis Douglas' Sight Returning

SOUTHAMPTON, Eng., Aug. 27. (AP)—U. S. Ambassador Lewis Douglas got good news about his injured left eye today: Its sight is returning.

Dr. E. C. Zorah took a bandage and dressing off the eye and tested it just before Douglas boarded the Queen Mary to attend the U. S. British dollar talks in Washington Sept. 7.

Zorah said the eye is "doing very well" and that Douglas could see a little with it.

Douglas snagged the eye with a fishhook while flycasting April 4.

Harry Dorman, Ex-Resident, Succumbs

Harry L. Dorman, former resident of Big Spring and one-time member of the police department, died Friday in Fort Worth of heart attack.

Funeral will be Monday at 2 p. m. at Shannon Funeral home in Fort Worth.

Dorman came to Big Spring in 1905 with his grandfather, the late G. D. Griffice. He served in World War I overseas. On his return he worked on a ranch near Ozone for George Caudle for several years. In 1938 he served as a member of the police department here. Dorman was police chief for the building of Camp Bowie and later for the Consolidated plant at Fort Worth.

Surviving are his wife, the former Sarah Johnson, to whom he was married in Chattanooga, Tenn.; three sons, Harry Dorman, Jr., Johnnie Dorman and Richard Dorman, all of Fort Worth; his daughter in law, Mrs. Harry Dorman, Jr., the former Glenda Josey of Big Spring; Mrs. Eugene Thomas, Mrs. Logan Frider, Grover Griffice and Dee Griffice are aunts and uncles in Big Spring surviving. He also leaves a number of cousins and friends in this area.

Center Point Girl Wins 4-H Honors

Billie Jean Walker, a member of the 4-H club in Center Point, received special honors at the Conservation camp at Trinidad beginning Monday, Aug. 22 and continuing through Friday, Aug. 26.

Miss Walker was a member of the Do-Si-Do camp, Unit Two. There were eight units at the camp composed of ten boys and girls in each camp. Two leaders were assigned to each unit.

Billie Jean was elected reporter from her unit. She will report news to the Trinidad Tall-Talk, a camp paper. Billie Jean named the paper herself. She was also chosen out of a group of 75 girls to play the part of Cinderella in the water pageant. She was elected director of the Talent show program and a unit committee member to help plan the programs for the 1950 camp meeting.

Programs at the camp include instruction in life saving and first aid, rowing a canoe, nature study and camp cooking.

Fights Presidential Power Over Funds

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27. (U.S.)—Senate Democratic leader, Lucas Saturday said "dangerous authority" lurks in the proposal to give President Truman power to slash up to $3 billion in congressional appropriations.

The Illinois senator lashed out at the powerful coalition of Democrats and Republicans backing the proposal as it headed for a vote Monday in the Senate.

Although a majority of 63 has demanded the right to ballot on the idea, the parliamentary situation may require suspension of the rules to vote on it. This would call for a two-thirds majority—or 64 senators if all 96 vote. The Lucas camp claims not all the 63 will support it.

Lucas told a reporter the proposal would give Mr. Truman authority he does not want and involves purse-string controls that Congress "should be unwilling to surrender."

It would order the president to save not less than 5 per cent nor more than 10 per cent of the funds allowed by Congress in the various appropriations.

Heading the drive for the measure is Senator McClellan (D-Ark) who, with his backers, has been pressing Lucas for weeks to bring it to a vote.

McClellan and other supporters of the measure contend the President and Congress must share responsibility for budgetary problems and that the chief executive—as well as the lawmakers—should have the opportunity to pare spending.

Lucas resisted all appeals for a vote even after the economy group signed up 26 Democrats and 37 Republicans—far more than the 49 majority of the Senate—to a petition asking consideration.

Lucas said the economy rider amounts to Congress admitting its inability to handle controls over the nation's pursestrings.

"I condemn it as an act of political cowardice," the Senate leader said. "Members of Congress do not seem to realize that this is one of the most dangerous proposals ever advocated."

Lucas said that any President, under this authority, could cut off all federal funds and projects in the state or district of a member of Congress he opposed.

Charm Saxophone To Accompany Miss Texas To Atlantic City

AUSTIN, Aug. 27. (U.S.)—The hysteria of the gold saxophone will go with Miss Texas to the Atlantic City Miss America contest.

For you the saxophone is just a tiny trinket that doesn't sound a note, but for 15-year-old vivacious Yuleta Lefauver of Fort Worth it plays beautiful music.

It was with her—though no one saw it—when she became aqua carnival queen this Spring at the University of Texas where she is now a psychology-majoring senior, when she was crowned Miss Austin Aug. 1, and again when she was titled Miss Texas at Fort Arthur five days later.

The pert, blue-green-eyed blonde won't predict the charm's future power but is mighty happy over its past record.

"I've won it every time I've won but nobody knows where. You can't see it," she beamed.

"It's a gift from—well, just a gift," she explained, eyes sparkling.

Yuleta leaves Texas next week on her East Coast trip—Wednesday by train or Thursday if by plane. She hasn't decided which.

Mother, Mrs. F. F. Lessner of Fort Worth, will go along.

Yuleta's 5 feet 4 inches have been outfitted in all the latest fashions by Austin merchants—including the all-important bathing suit that tells better than figures of 110 well-placed pounds and 24-23-34 inches at the bust, waist, and hips, respectively.

For Yuleta the bathing suit—

NEW MINISTER—Lloyd Connel, above, has arrived to assume his duties as minister of the Church of Christ. He comes here from Stamford, having held pastorates in Douglas, Ariz., Denver City, Clyde and Blair, Tex. He will be at Ackerly while revival services at the B. I. Spring church, which continue through Wednesday, are in progress. He fills the local pulpit for the first time next Sunday. Connel is married and he and Mrs. Connel have two children, Dennis, Lloyd, 8, and Narcissa Ann, 5. One of the first tasks in his new ministry will be the building of a new church auditorium.

Ballinger Roper Takes Top Money At Colorado City

COLORADO CITY, Aug. 27. (U.S.)—Doyle Riley of Ballinger won the calf roping championship at Colorado City's 14th Annual Frontier Round-Up and Rodeo here Saturday night.

Riley tied his calf in 14.5 seconds, the best time of the four-performance show.

The Ballinger calf roper, on the basis of his Saturday night performance, won top second go-round money and finished first in the averages. He also placed second in the first go-round.

Saturday night results: Professional calf roping, second go-round winners: 1—Riley, 14.5; 2 and 3 split—Herman Virden, Ballinger, and Rufus Hart, Snyder, 15.3; 4—Jack Strickland, Abilene, 16.6.

Professional calf roping, two-calf average winners: 1—Doyle Riley, 31.7; 2—Rex Beck, Coleman, 37.6; 3—Clay Mann Smith, Colorado City, 38; 4—Jack Strickland, 38.5.

Bareback bronc riding: Second go-round winners: 1—Bill Walker, Weatherford, 284 points; 2 and 3 split—Neal Gay, Dallas, and Harold Watson, Belton, 283 points; 4—Buster Lindley, Alpine, 278 points.

Bareback bronc riding, two-bronc average, winners: 1—Neal Gay, 565 points; 2—Lawrence Carey, Mineral Wells, 549 points; and Bill Proctor, Belton, 547 points; and Paul Gould, Sweetwater, 530 points.

Truman Names Three Men For Defense Staff

PAUL H. GRIFFITH

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27. (U.S.)—President Truman Saturday nominated Paul H. Griffith, Marx Leva, and Wilfred J. McNeil to be assistant secretaries of defense. He sent their names to the Senate for confirmation.

Griffith, like Secretary of Defense Johnson, is a past commander of the American Legion. He has been personal assistant to Johnson since last March, when Johnson took office. A native of Uniontown, Pa., he is 52 years of age and a veteran of both world wars.

McNeil, 48, is a native of Boone, Ia. In his new post he is expected to serve as comptroller and fiscal matters.

Leva, 34, is a native of Selma, La. An assistant secretary, he is expected to handle legal matters and serve as counsel. Leva served in the Navy in World War II. He also served as a special assistant to Forrestal in the Navy Department.

Airlines Case Is Set For Monday

A request by American Airlines to drop Abilene and Big Spring from its service will be opposed by representatives from both cities at a hearing Monday in Washington, D. C.

J. H. Greene, chairman of commerce manager, left Friday by plane for the hearing site to represent Big Spring.

Greene planned to join the Abilene delegation at the nation's capitol over the weekend. Abilene representatives at the hearing are to be Mayor Hudson Smart, Chamber of Commerce Manager John Womble and W. P. Wright.

The hearing will be conducted Monday before the Civil Aeronautics Board.

Physical Checkup Recommended For School Children

A thorough physical examination for all children entering school next month has been recommended by Dr. P. E. Sadler, director of the Midland-Howard-Ector County health department.

A child's health has a direct bearing on his progress in school, Dr. Sadler declared. Check-ups should be made several days before school starts so that minor ailments may be corrected.

Dental and visual checks should be included in the examination, the physician station immunization against communicable diseases should be made before school starts, as the student spends most of his time indoors with potential disease carriers.

VEGA NEEDS A POSTOFFICE

AMARILLO, Aug. 27. (U.S.)—Cliff Wimberly of Vega (Oldham County), west of Amarillo, said here he may lead a movement to get a new post office for his town.

"The one we have now is so rickety," he complained, "that when it rains, the mail gets wet."

FARMER RECEIVES OVER $2,800 FOR 'FIRST BALE' AT LUBBOCK

LUBBOCK, Aug. 27. (U.S.)—Weldon Boyd of Lubbock County Saturday received what is believed to be the highest price ever paid for a single bale of cotton in the nation here when his first bale was auctioned off for $3.20 a pound. Boyd's bale weighed 408 pounds.

The bid, by Bob Womble, Lubbock new car dealer, brought Boyd $1,344.40 cash for the bale. That plus $1,500 in premiums given by Lubbock merchants boosted Boyd's

"take" for the first bale to a grand total of $2,844.40. Both the auction price and premium are tops according to all available records here.

The previous such high is believed to be the $2,528.20 paid by Anderson Clayton and Co., to Joe Acosta of Hidalgo County, in an auction on the Houston exchange floor June 15 of this year. Of this $1,200.30 represented $235 per pound for Acosta's 512 pound bale.

IN COUNTY ELECTIONS

Districts Approve Taxes And Bonds

At least two out of five school districts voting on tax rates and bond assumptions carried their elections Saturday.

Midway consolidated common school district got overwhelming approval on its $1.50 rate. The vote was 23 favoring and five against. This was the only issue involved for the Midway district.

Knott Independent School district got thumping confirmation on its tax and assumption. The $1.50 tax rate was confirmed 29-2. Assumption of bonds for the enlarged district was favored 30-1.

Knott's territory has been increased by seven sections, five from the dormant Fairview district and two from the dormant Richmond district. This necessitated a referendum on the tax. Otherwise the district would have been without any local maintenance levy.

The assumption issue was for spread of the Knott indebtedness (principally for its new plant) over the new district. Outstanding is approximately $107,500.

No reports were heard Saturday night from Center Point, Gay Hill and Vealmoor common school districts, which also balloted Saturday.

SURVIVORS IN NORWAY

Submarine Rescue Termed Great Feat

HAMMERFEST, Norway, Aug. 27. (U.S.)—The rescue of 84 men from explosion-riven U. S. submarine Cochino was hailed by veteran Norwegian sailors Saturday as a masterful feat of seamanship.

Most of the 3,000 citizens of this north cape town, seafarers among them, turned out in rain and wind to welcome the survivors and the men of the submarine Tusk, who saved them from death when the Cochino went down Friday in rough Arctic seas.

Seven men were lost. These were a civilian technician aboard the Cochino and six of the Tusk's complement.

Norwegian sailors know the power of those winds and waters.

They praised Cmdr. Robert L. Worthington of Oakmont, Pa., skipper of the Tusk, for his skill in maneuvering that craft alongside when a second blast aboard the Cochino made it evident she was doomed. They talked too of the handling of the rubber boats, dispatched one by one from the Tusk in the heavy seas and darkness with medical supplies at the first sign of the Cochino's distress.

Despite the danger of buckled plates, informed sources said Worthington moved in close enough for the Cochino's men to jump for the Tusk's narrow deck. Minutes later, the Cochino went down.

Col. Kai Rasmussen, U. S. military attache in Norway, said the two explosions on the Cochino occurred 10 minutes apart. They were believed to be in the battery room.

DALLAS, Aug. 27. (U.S.)—A Texan aboard the U. S. submarine Cochino when it exploded and sank off Norway is safe, his father said Saturday.

J. M. Shelton of Dallas said he was told his son, Ensign J. P. Shelton, 28, former of Port Arthur, was rescued unscathed.

The Dallas man said his son's wife, who lives near Ensign Shelton's New London, Conn., base, notified him the ensign was unhurt.

To Distribute Rat Poison; Pet Warning Issued

Poison will be distributed Monday to combat an infestation of rats in the northwestern section of town, C. W. Mason, sanitarian for the Big Spring Howard County Health unit, reported Friday.

Mason warned that all pet owners should keep animals tied or penned until late Wednesday. A deadly poison, sodium fluoroacetate will be put in the area west of the Lamesa highway and north of N. W. 12th streets.

A heavy infestation of rats has appeared in that section within the past few days, Mason stated. Prompt action is being taken to prevent the spread of the rodents.

Jap War Warnings Started In 1933

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27. (U.S.)—Warnings of war with Japan began reaching the State Department as early as 1933. This was disclosed Saturday in secret state papers made public by the department.

The warnings came from a variety of sources as Japan pushed her Far Eastern conquest. Looking back, they may appear Saturday to have more significance than they did at the time. Qualified observers also were sending in speculation that the outcome might be a war by Japan with Russia rather than with America.

NEW MARK IN BULLDOGGING

PUEBLO, Colo., Aug. 27. (U.S.)—Officials of the Leo Cramer Fair said Friday night that Dub Phillips' bulldogging time of three seconds is the fastest they know. Phillips of San Angelo, turned it in Friday.

NEGROES JOIN BUSH LEAGUE

The "Bush Growers" law has expanded again.

Ray Snyder, chief bush inspector, announced Saturday Charlie Johnson had been appointed to serve as Negro deputy inspector.

"Many of our Negro citizens are planning to turn their whiskers loose until the Centennial celebration is concluded, and their cooperation in the bush growing program deserves some recognition," Snyder declared.

League Begins Play Thursday

Play will get underway in the Women's Classic Bowling league here Thursday night, extending for 33 weeks.

Lola Eason has been named president of the organization. Other officers include Winnie Wood, vice-president; Ruth O'Connor, secretary; Dot Caudle, treasurer; and Margaret Warner Sergeant - at - arms.

The circuit will be composed of Zack's, Leonard's, Clark Motor company, Nathan's Jewelry; Douglas, and a team which does not yet have a sponsor.

Olivia Caudle will captain the Zack aggregation. Mary Fields will act in that capacity for Leonard's. Cozette Shields will lead the Clark aggregation. Jessie Pearl Watson Nathan's, Jinx Doster Douglas and Jane Burnette the sixth team.

Zack's was declared the winner in the women's summer league, which ended play Aug. 18 after 12 weeks of activity. Zack's won 26 and lost nine games. Leonard's, Douglas and Cornelson's followed in that order.

Zack's held high team series at 2283 and high high game average, 872, for the 12 weeks. Dot Caudle, Zack's set the individual game scoring record with a 255 while Mary Robertson, Douglas, held high individual series with 583.

Olivia Caudle, Zack's, maintained an average of 163, tops for the circuit.

Only A Shower Results From Wind Storm

Clouds that appeared potent enough to spill a man-sized down-pour threatened briefly and then moved on over Howard county Friday night.

Big Spring was in the path of strong northwesterly winds that kept the air filled with dust for almost a half hour, but little moisture resulted. A shower of short duration came down immediately west and southwest of the city. The Western Bureau gauged .16 of an inch at the airport. Only a sprinkle fell in Big Spring, and a baseball game at Steer park was resumed after a temporary suspension caused by blowing sand.

Light showers were reported in the eastern part of the county. Thad Hale reported a quarter of an inch at his farm north of Coahoma. No appreciable moisture was reported elsewhere in the county.

Showers peppered down on a hit-and-miss pattern in other parts of Texas. Amarillo reported the heaviest rainfall, 1.91 inches, while Brownsville had 1.24. Lubbock had only .06, while Corpus Christi reported .12 and Ozona had .03.

Amarillo reported some damage from lightning and high winds Friday night.

Red Leaders Keep Up March Against Trial

NEW YORK, Aug. 27. (AP)—A slowly moving, sometimes noisy line of marchers has become almost a regular fixture outside the federal courthouse where 11 top Communist leaders are on trial.

The marchers don't like the trial and want it stopped.

They staged one of their loudest and bitterest demonstrations Friday just one day after Federal Judge Harold R. Medina had denounced attempts to pressure the court.

About 100 men and women, most of them young, were in the line that moved back and forth. They carried signs and chanted and sang their protests.

While a score of police watched silently, the pickets yelled such slogans as:

"Hey Medina, why the delay! Grant a mistrial today!"

"Come on, Medina, get on the ball, free Winston, Green, and Hall."

Defendants Henry Winston, Gus Hall, and Gilbert Green are held in jail on contempt sentences, except when the trial is in session.

Klan Successor To Green Named

ATLANTA, Aug. 27. (AP)—Samuel W. Roper, 54, a former head of the Georgia Bureau of Investigation, announced Saturday he has been elected imperial wizard of the Georgia Association of Klans.

He succeeds Dr. Samuel Green, who died recently.

Roper said he first joined the Klan in 1921 but "fell out" until the association of Georgia Klans was formed after World War II by Green.

ADMITS SLAYING — Sandra Peterson, 23, (above), former Massachusetts reform school inmate, has been charged with murder in the Aug. 25 slaying at Brady, Tex., of Lewis Patterson, Brady real estate man. She is shown after her arrest at San Angelo. She admitted in a signed statement to District Attorney Ralph Logan that she shot Patterson and left him in a ditch to die after the Brady man gave her and a girl companion a ride. (AP Photo)

4-H COMPETITION

Fairview Pair Win In Cotton Contest

Jerry Rogers and Doyle Rallsback, Fairview, paced scoring in the county 4-H cotton growing demonstration graded Friday by Fred C. Elliott, Texas A. & M. extension service specialist.

Scores were close for the 31 cotton fields judged, Elliott stated. Highest score possible was 60. All the entries judged ranged between 49 and 58.

Cotton patches were judged on the basis of land preparation, seed treatment, cultivation, weed control, insect control, and record book. Final scoring, to be held after cotton is harvested, will determine the highest ranking 4-H cotton growers in the county.

The last scoring will cover seed and lint yield, grade, staple, and records.

Scores for the various club members, according to home communities, were: Knott, Woody Caffrey, 49 points; Jim T. Erwin, 52; Lloyd Robinson, 56; and Darrel Jackson, 52. Fairview, Jerry Rogers, 58; and Doyle Rallsback, 58.

Highway, Billy Fryar, 55; and Martin Fryar, 55. Elbow, James Cauble, 53; and Marie Petty, 52. Vealmoor, Jimmy Merrick, 51. Coahoma, Wayne White, 48; and Boy Layfield, 48. Lomax, Bennie Joe Blissard, 57.

Vincent, Jack Wolfe, 55; and Vernon Wolfe, 55. Luther, William Crow 51; Connie Crow, 52; Billy Hanson, 52; Lloyd Underwood, 54; and Quentin Stanley, 51. Big Spring, Barbara Lewter, 6 points.

Centerpoint, Pat Lamb, 56; Donald Denton, 57; Donald Nichols, 49; Loy Rice, 54; Delbert Davidson, 57; Ronnie Davidson, 57; and Donald Fuller, 53. R-Bar, Mack Robinson, 51; and Darrell Robinson, 51.

Monahans Child Is Treated For Polio

A case of polio from Monahans has been diagnosed in a local hospital. Big Spring-Howard County Health unit officials reported Saturday.

Cheryl Anne Dove, 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Dove is receiving treatment for the disease here.

Other communicable diseases reported by the city-county health unit were diarrhea, 12, and whooping cough and diphtheria, one each.

HIKE IN TEACHER SALARIES

School Budget Up $156,000; Hearing Set Tuesday Night

Public hearing of a proposed $651,730 budget for the Big Spring Independent School district, the first under the state foundation program (Gilder-Aiken), will be held Tuesday evening.

The over-all figure compares with $495,285 for the current revised budget, a gain of approximately $156,000.

Of the increase, $120,000 is in salaries, providing the budget amount is used. Usually there is an under-run. Total salary requirements in the budget is $512,731, compared with $392,203 under the revised budget for the year ending Aug. 31, 1949.

Vast bulk of the increase is in teacher salaries. This figure is a proposed $432,404, compared with $324,211 included, however, is a portion of the principal salaries as reflected in the appropriation of $13,894 as against $23,912 in the budget this year. This reallocation was made in conformity to state budgetary forms.

Receipts are anticipated in the following amounts from the following sources: Federal, $5,400; state $341,726; county available $504; local taxes $285,000 ($270,000 current and $15,000 delinquent); other local (mostly revolving items) $18,100; sale of frame building $900.

Disbursements, by divisions and compared with the current budget (in parentheses) are:

Administrative $37,937 ($21,240); instruction, white $460,288 ($366,254); instruction, colored $16,637 ($10,920); operation of plant, $45,750 ($27,120); maintenance of plant $10,000 ($7,500); auxiliary service such as health, transportation, etc. $21,751 ($1,500); fixed charges $2,800 ($12,750); equipment $14,950 ($8,450); debt service $60,089 ($50,183).

Under administrative, the positions of business manager and assistant tax collector are added. The big jump in auxiliary service is occasioned by inclusion of the school lunchroom program in the budget. Heretofore it has been budgeted separately since tax funds are not used toward its support. Fixed charges declined due to prepayment of insurance.

Debt service increased due to voting of $200,000 in bonds for elementary classroom additions. The proposed budget includes $20,461 as the final repayment for over-assessment of taxes two years ago.

In addition to the budgetary provisions, there is a capital outlay item of 182,555, but this is financed out of the proceeds of the bond issue. Hence, if it is added to the budget disbursements for the new year, the $300,000 bond issue proceeds would be added to receipts. In reality, they are not normal budget items and thus are not included in the $651,000 quoted as the total.

Cash at the end of this fiscal year is estimated at $29,000; at the end of the next fiscal year at $43,000.

Comparisons on salary provisions under the proposed budget show: Administrative $26,912 (as compared to $14,960 this year); teacher salaries $432,404 ($324,211); principal salaries $13,894 ($23,912); high school clerical 2,470 ($3,000); janitorial $32,000 ($28,100); health $3,051 (none last year); transportation $2,000 ($900).

Of the total state support indicated, state apportionment (4,205 scholastics at a net of $47.20 each) $198,476, as compared to $213,300 (3,967 scholastics at a net of $53.40); plus $132,790 from the state foundation program, an allocation new under the state program. Tax collections are computed currently on an estimated $20 million roll with 50 per cent collection. The delinquent figure is pegged at about half of the outstanding amount owed on real property.

The Big Spring chamber of commerce is proceeding with arrangements to establish a "planning room" service here for the benefit of local building contractors.

The service, which was authorized by chamber directors recently, will provide a central collecting point for plans and specifications of proposed buildings in West Texas. Local contractors will be invited to keep in contact with the planning room where they may obtain detailed information on construction projects in the area.

The chamber of commerce plans to make arrangements with all area architects to send copies of plans and specifications to the planning room here whenever a project develops. Such materials will be assembled in the rear of the chamber office in the Settles hotel.

Nine Entries In 4-H Queen Event

Nine entries had been listed Saturday afternoon for the Howard County Farm Bureau's annual queen's contest scheduled for Tuesday night, Dale Puckett, county bureau president, announced.

The contest is set for 8 p. m. Tuesday at the county 4-H club building, located at the former Army Air Field.

At the same time an important meeting of all members of the county Farm Bureau will be held, Puckett said. Principal speaker will be Sam Allen, president of the Dawson County Farm Bureau.

Among the topics to be discussed by local bureau members are general agriculture problems, prices for cotton harvest laborers, organization drives for new members and the Blue Cross and Blue Shield hospital and medical programs, plans for the annual Howard County Fair and the Big Spring Centennial.

Entries listed Saturday for the queen's contest were Wanda Brannan, Vincent; Luan Creighton, Big Spring; Sue Wise, R-Bar; Helen Engle, Coahoma; Mary Ruth Holley, Coahoma; Joyce Choate, Big Spring; Mildred Brown, Big Spring; Joan Fuller, Luther; and Jane Echols, Coahoma.

Contestants are to assemble at the 4-H club building at 7 p. m. Tuesday. The Farm Bureau organization will furnish corsages for the occasion, and refreshments will be served.

Contestants will be judged on general appearance, poise and personality.

"This is not a bathing revue," Puckett emphasized. "We are simply interested in determining the most representative farm girl among the families who are affiliated with the Farm Bureau."

Winner of the county contest will receive prizes in addition to representing Howard county at the district contest. Prizes for the Howard county queen will be material for an evening dress, furnished by Hemphill-Wells, and costume jewelry from Walts Jewelry store.

The district contest is scheduled for Sept. 15 in Big Spring. The district queen will receive other prizes and will automatically qualify as an entry in the state contest which will be held during the State Farm Bureau Convention in Dallas, Nov. 21-23.

Sue Wise was named Howard county and district queen during last year's contest.

OPENING ON SEPT. 6

Faculty Complete For Forsan School

FORSAN, Aug. 27.—With the faculty complete and extensive improvements in the home-stretch, Forsan schools are set for the formal opening at 9 a. m. on Sept. 6.

G. D. Kennedy, superintendent, has called a general faculty meeting for 1 p. m. on Sept. 5. The cafeteria will begin service on Sept. 7.

Four new members have been added to the faculty. They are Wayne Coffman, Fort Worth, graduate of TCU; Treva Keeton, Ivanhoe, graduate of Texas Tech; Harriette Margo, Havana, Cuba, graduate of TCU; Mrs. P. H. Coates, Big Lake, graduate of Sul Ross.

A new teacherage is due for completion by Sept. 5. It is a duplex with four rooms and bath on each side. The home has been converted from a barracks structure acquired by the system.

Kennedy estimated that the new gymnasium would be completed by Oct. 1.

During the summer, the cafeteria has received additional equipment including a stove, potato peeler and other items.

Bus schedules, said the superintendent, will be operated on the same basis as last year.

Faculty includes Mrs. P. H. Coates III, first grade; Mrs. J. T. Holladay, second; Mrs. Glen Whittemburg, third; Mrs. Bleese Cathcart, fourth; Mrs. Frank P. Honeycutt, Jr., fifth; Mrs. Muri Bailey, sixth.

Mrs. G. D. Kennedy will teach sixth, seventh and eighth grade science and health. Mrs. Boll Conner will teach seventh and eighth grade language and arts, and Wayne Coffman will teach math and history on the same level. Miss Deryl Joyce Miller is public school music director.

The high school faculty includes Frank P. Honeycutt, boys physical education and history; Glen Whittemburg, industrial arts and mathematics; Betty Joe Rose, English and speech; Harriette Margo, Spanish and home economics; Treva Keeton, commercial; Joe T. Holladay is principal.

Mrs. G. G. Greene, Mrs. M. M. Fairchild and Mrs. Mamie Gandy are on the cafeteria staff. W. E. Wadsworth is custodian. Glen Whittemburg, Frank Honeycutt, Wayne Coffman and Stuart Henderson are bus drivers. Members of the Forsan board of trustees are J. E. Chanslor, president, C. V. Wash, secretary, E. N. Baker, J. R. Overton, G. L. Monrooney, H. H. Story and E. A. Grisom.

Clipp Mapes, Yankee outfielder, pitched three innings for Flint in the Michigan State League in 1941. He also played first base and caught.

New Hearing Device Has No Receiver Button In Ear

Chicago, Ill.—Deafened people are hailing a new device that gives them clear hearing without making them wear a receiver button in the ear. They now enjoy songs, sermons, friendly companionship and business success with no self-conscious feeling that people are looking at any button hanging on their ear. With the new invisible Phantomol you may free yourself not only from deafness, but from even the appearance of deafness. The makers of Beltone, Dept. 40 1450 W. 19th St., Chicago 8, Ill., are so proud of their achievement they will gladly send you their free brochure (in plain wrapper) and explain how you can test this amazing invisible device in the privacy of your own home without risking a penny. NOTICE: DELINQUENT TAXES

A number of people, not owning any real estate, do have assessed to them taxes on personal property.

Quite a bit of back taxes are owing the City and School on personal property, and should be paid before any suit is filed for collection.

Many of the letters sent out, heretofore, were not given proper attention, and suit had necessarily to be entered.

We hope that suit will not be necessary to collect the taxes on personal property, and we will use every effort to reach each tax payer to notify as to delinquent taxes, but proper addresses are not always available.

So, please, if in doubt, on your own initiative, look into the matter as to whether you have paid off your taxes on your personal property, check for your tax receipts.

Any assistance given the School Board and the City in trying to clean up all past due taxes, and start anew with a clean slate will be appreciated by them.

Thanks for the wonderful response so far given. In nearly every instance, delinquent taxpayers have been courteous and willing to do their part, and have paid promptly. We appreciate this attitude of assistance and cooperation with us and the School and City.

Stories of Famous Hymns

by HORACE B. POWELL

Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah

Guide me, O Thou great Jehovah,
Pilgrim thro' this barren land;
I am weak, but Thou art mighty;
Hold me with Thy powerful hand;
Bread of Heaven, Bread of Heaven,
Feed me now and evermore.

Open now the crystal fountain,
Whence the healing streams do flow;
Let the fiery, cloudy pillar
Lead me all my journey through;
Strong Deliver, Strong Deliver,
Be Thou still my strength and shield.

When I tread the verge of Jordan,
Bid my anxious fears subside;
Death of death and hell's destruction,
Land me safe on Canaan's side;
Songs of praises, Songs of praises,
I will ever give to Thee.

In eighteenth century Wales, there was a great gospel preacher by the name of William Williams. When he decided to study for the ministry, he was a member of the Church of England but later he became a Methodist and he was a member of this faith when he wrote his popular hymn, "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah."

The hymn was written in Welsh and was translated into English in 1771 by another Welsh minister—the Rev. Peter Williams. Three years later it was given a place in song collections and bore the title: "Christ A Sure Guide".

WINGS OVER BIG SPRING

Blazing Plane Report May Have Resulted From Meteor

What was thought to have been a blazing plane may have been a brilliant meteor. Planes from Big Spring put out Thursday for Westbrook after R. E. Whitley, oil well driller, reported a flaming aircraft had passed over about 1000 feet high, going in an easterly direction. No trace was found. At the same time, reports from several points in Texas told of an exceptionally bright and deceptive meteor.

Jack Cook, Muni airport manager, and Whitley flew in one plane and J. R. Smith flew another, accompanied by Cedric Webb as an observer. They scanned the area south of Westbrook.

Cotton Dusting Still Going On

Scattered dusting operations are still being carried on against the bollworm infestation in the Howard county, County Agent Durward Lewter, said Saturday.

Farmers in the Lomax, Vincent, and Highway communities reported that bollworms were still hatching in those areas. Recent rains in those sections may have lengthened the hatching season for the insect, the county agent stated.

Rains fell in the eastern part of the county Friday night. Up to one and a half inches was reported south of Coahoma, Lewter said, while rainfall north of there ranged up to 4 of an inch.

Hobbs Promoted To Corporal Rating

Clifford J. Hobbs, Big Spring, has been promoted to rank of corporal.

Word of his promotion was received from the GHQ news service at Tokyo, Japan. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hobbs, 703 E. 15th, and is serving in the mess hall in downtown Tokyo. Cpl. Hobbs has been in the Japanese capital since November 1944. He entered service in July 1948 following graduation from Big Spring high school. His promotion to his new rank came only three months after attaining the private first class rating.

Four Enlistments In The Air Force

Four Howard county men enlisted in the Air Force Saturday. Capt. Harold Sandford, commander of the Big Spring Recruiting Main station, said.

Cecil L. Murphy, Big Spring, a veteran with six years service, re-enlisted in the grade of corporal. Billy J. Minchew, Sand Springs, Leney L. Tyler, Vincent, and J. L. Davis Jr., Big Spring, enlisted as privates.

The enlistees will take basic training at Lackland Air Force base, San Antonio, Capt. Sandford said.

Maurice McDermott, young southpaw with the Boston Red Sox, struck out 20 St. Paul batters while hurling for Louisville on May 24 for an American Association record.

Ben Funk has returned from a two-week vacation at St. Louis, Mo. He lost no time in resuming his plane trading. He sold an Ercoupe to C. L. Carpenter, Iran, and his J-3 Cub to C. N. Addison, McCamey. Funk flies the pipeline patrol for Shell over West Texas and southern Oklahoma.

Bollworm infestation continues spotted, but the Farm Air Service fleet was busy last week dusting fields at Lomax, Hartwells and Vincent. Several contracts for spraying to defoliate cotton for early harvest have been made, according to Bill Edwards, head of Farm Air.

Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Ward, Clyde Thomas and Cecil Hamilton left Thursday for Denver, Colo. to attend the national convention of the Flying Farmers of America. Some 200 planes were expected for the fly-in there.

Friday an AF helicopter—HOBS—enroute from the East to West Coast, put down at the Muni port. The pilot spent the night here.

at a brisk pace during the past week, said Cook. He is taking off Monday for his vacation.

J. H. Greene, chamber of commerce manager, left Thursday aboard American Airlines for Washington. He will participate in the CAB hearing Monday on American's application to suspend operations at Big Spring and Abilene.

ONE GOOD TURN DESERVES THIS?

BAITIMORE, Aug. 27. (U.S.)—Like most filling station attendants, Larry Adney was only too glad to help when a distressed motorist approached him Friday night.
Battery trouble.
Adney investigated, decided a push was in order and supplied it.
His car back in service, the motorist got out, poked a gun into Adney's ribs and fraternally suggested:
"Give me all you've got, brother."
Adney later told police all he had was $30, which the befriended driver took, then drove away his engine purring like new.

A HOME IN A HURRY — Workers unloaded the first Lustron house (top picture) at the corner of Bluebonnet and State streets a few days ago, where the Strom-Talbot Development Co. had a foundation prepared in advance. The house, complete with built-in features, was transported by a truck. As various parts were unloaded they were assembled rapidly and within a few hours a full-sized dwelling (bottom picture) was completed. Visitors have been invited to inspect the steel porcelain-enamel structure today between the hours of 1 p.m. and 8 p.m. (Jack M. Haynes Photo)

BLUEBONNET AND STATE STS.

First Porcelain Enamel Home Open For Public View Today

Residents of the Big Spring area are invited today to inspect the first all-steel porcelain enamel dwelling ever erected here.

The invitation has been extended by the Strom-Talbot Development Co., one of the first agencies in Texas to be appointed as representative for the new Lustron house.

Howard C. Shireman, Southwest District Manager for the Lustron Corp., will be here today to assist the local agents in conducting their open-house event.

The local agency has erected one of the Lustron creations at the corner of Bluebonnet and State streets, where the formal opening is scheduled between the hours of 1 p.m. and 8 p.m. today.

The Lustron house is completely prefabricated, and is designed to provide a spacious and distinctive living unit via mass production. Relatively few Lustron houses have been produced to date, but the company expects to turn out something like 100 per day at its Columbus, Ohio, factory in the near future.

The unit erected by the Strom-Talbot Development Co. here is the first to reach this section of the country.

It embraces over 1,000 square feet of floor space, including two bedrooms, living room, dining room and kitchen. All built-in features are included with the house, as well as the water heater, automatic heating system and a combination dish washer-clothes washer.

Several local business firms have installed furnishings for the formal opening today.

An extensive renovation and addition program to Big Spring school plant facilities is nearing completion.

All structures have been involved in some degree or other. Pat Murphy, business manager, estimated that the cost of the program would approximate $5,100 when finished.

Two buildings, 25x64, have been moved near the stadium. One will be used for a bus garage, the other for general storage. The garage building lacks only the hardware for hanging the doors.

All the hall walls of Central Ward school have been refinished. Floors of the gymnasium and stage have been refinished along with the foyer and seats.

All floors in all buildings have been scrubbed, cleaned, given two coats of floor seal and waxed. Murphy said that 105 classrooms were affected along with the cafeteria, handroom restrooms, etc. Minor portions have been installed in the administrative office along with other improvements.

During the summer the airport school has been given approximately 12,500 square feet of new roofing.

West Ward school has been repainted inside and out, had a retaining wall installed along with sidewalks, vents and bridge.

All the hall walls of Central Ward school have been refinished. Floors of the gymnasium and stage have been refinished along with the foyer and seats.

Talent For The Centurama Is Being Listed

Representatives of 23 organizations met with the talent committee of the Centennial association Friday Dorothy Sue Rowe, chairman, reported.

Each group agreed to furnish talent for scenes of Centurama historical pageant to be presented daily during the Oct. 28 Centennial. Miss Rowe said Representatives of the various clubs will meet with Sam Groge, pageant master, again next Friday.

Groge, Rogers Producing company director, will inform the organizations of the specific tasks to fill in staging the pageant. Around 500 actors will be used.

School Custodians Hold Conference

Custodial staff members of the Big Spring school system held a pre-session conference Saturday at the administrative offices.

Lustron Plans To Make 100 Houses A Day

Full-scale production at a rate of approximately 100 houses per day, has been virtually assured by the Lustron Corp., the Strom-Talbot Development Co., Big Spring representatives, have been informed.

The Lustron Corp., which operates a huge plant in Columbus, Ohio, recently completed arrangements for additional finances which company officials believe will be sufficient profitable operation at an early date.

In addition, the firm recently received an order for 7,000 houses to be delivered to a Chicago real estate developer. The large order for Lustron products came almost simultaneously with an announcement that an RFC loan of over fourteen million dollars had been approved.

Austin Official Resigns Post

AUSTIN, Aug. 27. (U.S.) — James E. Motheral, Austin public works director for 17 years, resigned Friday at the request of City Manager Guiton Morgan.

Motheral, whose resignation is effective Sept. 15, had been receiving an annual salary of $8,500.

In his letter of resignation to Morgan, Motheral said: "for some time I felt that I should resign my position as director of public works for the city of Austin so that I might enter private enterprise."

Termination of the public works director's services came after his name was linked with right-of-way purchases near location of an interregional highway passing through Austin.

Motheral was listed as owner of 5.537 acres of land which was needed by the State Highway Department for right-of-way.

The resigned official said he bought the property on last April 20 before a definite route for the highway in that area had been announced by the highway department.

From Australia To Visit Parents

Paul Reagan, mining engineer, has arrived in Sidney, Australia, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Reagan, have learned. Reagan visited here recently before flying to San Francisco, Calif. to get a trans-Pacific plane. His trip across, he notified his parents, required only 12 hours of flying. He will be in Australia about three months on mine inspections. Reagan has done extensive engineering in the states, Mexico, Central and South America.

Railroad Workers Joining The Parade To 5-Day Week

By MAX HALL
AP Labor Reporter
WASHINGTON, Aug. 27. (U.P.)—Henry Ford astonished the nation in 1926 when he put his workers on a five-day 40-hour week at the same weekly pay they had been getting for six days.

LEGION HAS STAFF TO ASSIST VETS WITH INSURANCE FORMS

Veterans will receive an assist from the American Legion, in making out application for dividends on G.I. life insurance. Applications will be taken over the nation beginning Monday, and forms are here for local veterans.

Frank Hardesty, local Legion commander, announced that the Legion would maintain a stenographic service free to veterans for three days beginning Monday. A staff of three girls will be stationed in the high school building (halfway, main floor) to fill out the forms, and all veterans are invited to take advantage of this service. Hours are from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. Hardesty pointed out that all applications have to be typewritten.

Distribution of the National Service Life Insurance fund is because of an accumulation of excess premium payments over mortality payouts.

Market Slips For First Time In Ten Weeks

NEW YORK, Aug. 27. (U.P.)—The stock market declined this week for the first time in 10 weeks.

Some claimed the setback marked the end of a summer rally. Others viewed it as temporary.

The advance that started in mid-June, after the market had plunged to a 4 1/2-year low, was stopped dead in its tracks.

Faint signs of trouble appeared toward the close of the preceding week. Then last Tuesday a three-day decline reached a climax when the market, in a quiet and orderly fashion, took the worst spill since June 13.

Wall Street wasn't too much concerned. The experts saw nothing in the news to account for the relapse, aside from a larger than usual batch of dividend reductions and commissions.

Mickey Butts is spending the week end in San Antonio where he is serving as an attendant in the wedding of Lola Mae Schultz and J. B. Ryan of Lubbock.

Nationalists, Communists Trade Gains

CANTON, China, Aug. 27. (U.P.)—The Chinese Nationalists and Communists traded pawns Saturday, the Nationalist defense scoring gains on the front nearest Canton while Red troops advanced in other sections.

Private reports said the Nationalists had counterattacked and recaptured all three of the "Nan" towns in a 35-mile-wide arc 140 miles northeast of Canton. The three places are Kienman, Lungnan and Tingnan.

At least temporarily this stalled the Reds' avowed aim of driving 60 miles west and cutting the Canton railway at Kuokong.

Farther north, the national defense ministry acknowledged Red recapture of Anhwa, 90 miles west of Changsha and 60 miles northwest of Canton.

The ministry also virtually admitted loss of Tsingkiang (Chuanchow) on the coastal highway 45 miles northeast of Amoy. Private reports said Tsingkiang had fallen, but the ministry said its situation was "obscured."

An armored division, presumably from the island of Formosa, is being sent to reinforce Amoy, the ministry reported.

Temporary loss of radio contact with Lanchow, capital of the distant northwest province of Kansu, also was acknowledged.

(The Communist radio in Peking announced capture of Lanchow, and private reports in Canton indicated this was probably correct.)

11 Families Are Welcomed As Newcomers

Eleven families were welcomed to Big Spring this week by Mrs. Jimmie Mason, City Hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert K. Brewer, 509 Virginia Ave. are from Goldthwaite. Brewer is the assistant football coach and track coach at the high school and Mrs. Brewer will teach the sixth grade at Central Ward.

From Brownfield are Mr. and Mrs. Lee Munshell. They reside at 407 Johnson. He is employed as a mechanic at Truman Jones Motor Co. and they have two children, Mary 4, and Robert Lee 3.

Mr. and Mrs. James K. Garvey, former residents of Gainesville, live at 505 Nolan. He is an observer on the seismograph of the Atlantic Oil Company. They have one daughter, Sherry, 20 months.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis E. Scott, 106 E. 11th Place are from Marathon. He is on the seismograph crew of the Atlantic Oil Company. Her brother, Joe Dawson of Marathon is visiting them.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Mead of Amarillo now live at 700 W. 16th. He is manager at Mead's Bakery. They have two children, Beth, 3 and Melinda, 6.

From Hobbs, N. M. are Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Moore. They live at 809 Ayford and have a daughter, Beverly Jo, 6. He is a tool pusher for the Rowan Drilling Co.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stevenson, 205 E. 21st are from Lubbock. He is employed at the Crawford hotel.

From Dallas come Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Aldredge to reside on Walnut S. He is in partnership with his brother-in-law A. McNary, in a tile contracting concern. They have one son, Bill, 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill S. Clark, 404 Virginia, are from Detroit, Mich. He is a junior observer on the seismograph crew of the Atlantic Oil Co. They have one son, Billy, Jr. 18 months.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles (Chuck) Wright are from Denver, Colo. and now live at Apt. 10, King Apartments. He is a staff announcer for KBST. They have one son, Charles III.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Perry, 307A West 8th, are from Snyder. He is a driller for Lottland Bros. Oil Co. They have two children, John Ed, die 8 and Priscilla Dean 2.

Lubbock Gaining AAF Training Unit

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27. (U.P.)—Texas was in the peculiar position today of gaining from an air force economy move.

Several Air Force groups were reduced to an inactive status Friday. Among them was the 47th Light Bomber Wing at Barksdale Air Force Base, Shreveport, La.

Texas gains because the 35th Pilot Training Wing made barracks at Shreveport will be transferred to Lubbock Air Force Base, Lubbock.

Altogether, six Air Force groups Johnson and the Senate, over the country were ordered inactivated and placed on a caretaker basis by Defense Secretary Johnson and the Senate.

Inactivation of these groups provide the Air Force with 48 groups as recommended by President Truman.

MORE NEW CAR SALES BEING MADE WITH USED-CAR TRADES

DETROIT, Aug. 27. (U.P.)—An increasing number of new car sales are being made with used vehicles as part payment.

Automotive sources report that more than 60 of every 100 new car sales now involve trade-ins. Last January the figure stood at 43 of every 100 new car sales.

If the trend continues the year's end is likely to find 85 of every 100 new car buyers offering used cars as part of the purchase price.

The figures show the auto industry is cutting more deeply into its replacement business to maintain the high level of sales that has prevailed during the last five or six months. Of course the figures don't show every instance where a used car had to be sold before a new one could be bought.

Thousands of car owners, still trying for top prices for their used vehicles, are selling them privately. Many others are taking them to the used car lots instead of to the new car retailers.

You can hear much about how used car prices are holding up well despite the heavy volume of new vehicle output. You can also hear that the prices probably won't decline much more during the remainder of 1940.

But you will learn on investigation that used car prices are well below those prevailing at this time last year. You will learn, too, that

Fog Forces Dutch Housewife To Abandon Channel Swim

DOVER, England, Aug. 27. (U.P.)—Blinding fog forced Mrs. Will Croes Van Rijn, 31, Dutch housewife, to abandon her bid to swim the English Channel today after 17 hours.

The plucky Amsterdam woman was less than two miles from her goal when she quit.

Ashore an hour later she smiled and said "I am going to try it again."

Mrs. Van Rijn slipped into the chilly waters off Cap Gris Nez, France, Friday (1:28 a.m. CST) she came out at 12:16 (6:16 p.m. Friday CST).

Those accompanying the swimmer said that by the time Mrs. Van Rijn reached a point about two miles off shore the fog was so thick they were no longer able to get their bearings.

"She was still swimming strongly," one aide said, "but there was danger we might lose her in the fog or that other boats groping for port might strike her."

"It was fog that beat her," Mrs. Van Rijn's trainer E. H. Temme, himself a two-time channel swimmer, said. "Visibility was so bad it would have been wicked to keep her in any longer even though I promised her at the start I wouldn't take her out unless she was drowning."

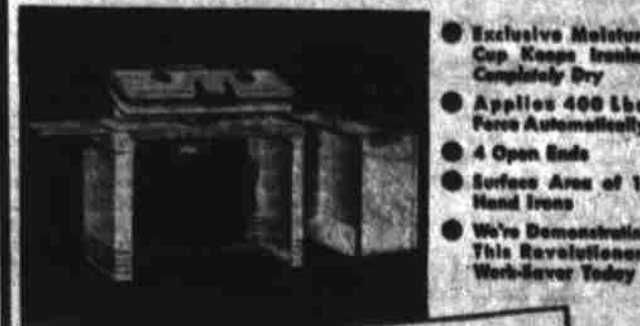

"Given a fair day Will will swim the channel in 15 and one half hours," Temme declared.

If you have a medium priced car to sell you probably will have to take up to $1,000 less than you paid for it a year ago.

At this time in 1940 you still could sell a year-old car at a profit. You won't be able to do that again for a long time.

Coleman & Company Bear Down In Grid Workouts

Score 8 TD's Against Pecos

It's a long and rocky road between now and the end of the football season but Big Spring high school followers can take heart. If the Cowboys' first two scrimmages of the year can be used as any measuring rod.

Last Wednesday, the Steers looked to advantage against Coahoma in a two hour 30 minutes workout. Friday, the Steers collided with the tough Pecos Eagles in another of those head-rocking scrimmages and the results were even better. There's still a lot of bugs in the Longhorn running apparatus, but it has already come a long way since Aug. 15, when workouts started.

The herd outscored Pecos, 55-19. About the only place the guests could advance was through the air. They did not use some yardage on the ground against the Steer reserves but the first string stood them cold.

Two Big Spring backs stopped out like sore thumbs. Carol Cannon and Ames Jones each broke free for four touchdowns. Bobby Jack Gross furthered his bid to become the regular goal kicker by booting seven of eight through the uprights. Billy Tubb impressed.

Each side was assigned the ball for 15 minutes at a time. Coaches Carl Coleman, Bert Brewer, and Conn Isaacs spent their time hovering near their boys, watching their mistakes and then setting about to correct them.

Several more scrimmages are in the making for the coming week. The Longhorns open their 1949 season in a non-conference game with Plainview in Plainview Sept. 9. They're still mountains to move but, obviously they've subscribed to the old adage which says "a journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step."

MONCHAK TOPS SLUGGERS

Stasey Creeping Up On Williams

Pai Stasey, Big Spring right fielder, is creeping up on Stu Williams in the race for Longhorn league batting laurels. In games through last Tuesday, Aug. 22, Williams, Ballinger first sacker, boasted a record of .381, compared to .378 for Stasey. In third place was Harry Bartolomei of Sweetwater with .368.

Frank Mormina, Odessa, has 116 runs batted in for the lead in that department. His team mate, Alex Monchak, has 31 home runs in the No. One man, Wayne Batson, Odessa, has socked the most doubles, 33, and Les Palmer, Odessa, the most triples with 15.

Monchak also leads in runs scored with 122. Despite the fact that he hasn't worked recently, Julio Ramos of Big Spring continues as the leading pitcher with a 20-4 won-lost record. He also leads in strikeouts with 247.

FANS INVITED

C of C Sports Group Will Meet Tuesday

All sports enthusiasts of the city are invited to sit in on a session at the Settles hotel Tuesday afternoon.

The community-wide meeting is being sponsored by the chamber of commerce sports committee, headed by John Dibrell.

Among the topics due for discussion are a baseball appreciation event, and full support for all High School and Howard County Junior college athletic teams.

The meeting is booked for 5:30 p.m. Tuesday on the Settles.

Written reminders have been mailed to committee members, but Dibrell said he wanted it understood that attendance was not restricted to persons affiliated with that group. It would be impossible to develop a mailing list of all sports fans in the city, and consequently the committee is asking that no one consider a written invitation necessary.

Several local fans already have indicated that a special event to honor Pai Stasey, co-owner and field manager of the Big Spring Bronco baseballers, would be to their liking. The committee hopes that definite steps toward that objective may develop at the Tuesday session.

Also, football teams representing Big Spring High School and Howard County Junior college will begin their respective seasons in September and full community support of both aggregations will be another goal.

The session should be of interest to fans of all sports, Dibrell said, and the chamber of commerce committee hopes that all fans in the Big Spring area will respond to the invitation.

WOLVES HOWL

Adair Resigns As Field Pilot Of Dallas Club

By WILBUR MARTIN

DALLAS, Aug. 27.—Jimmy Adair quit today as manager of the Dallas Baseball Club. He blamed grandstand "wolves."

"I've been told that this ball club would have been better off if I'd quit three months ago," he said.

Dick Burnett, owner of the Dallas Stars League club, named General Manager Bobby Goff as field manager of the fourth-place Eagles. He said Goff would take over the team tonight and that he would have a contract running through the 1951 season.

"The fans of Dallas seem to have forgotten that any manager is a human being," Adair said. "They hold him responsible for every loss. If they think the ball club is better off without me, I'll leave."

Burnett said Adair would stay with the Dallas organization in some capacity.

Adair said he would go to Chicago to scout some Chicago Cubs players in which Dallas is interested. When he returns, he said, he and Burnett would sit down and talk the situation over.

"If I'd had one or two good pitchers, I think the fans would have thought I was a pretty good manager."

"But I have no apologies. I gave the best I had. The players gave me the best they had. We did just like we planned—grabbed a big lead at the start and then tried to hang on. That's the only way an independent club can operate."

SEASON TICKETS HERE FOR STEER FOOTBALL GAMES

Big Spring High school is ready to proffer its annual bargain to local football fans.

Season tickets, good for admission to all home games, will be played this season by the Steers, have gone on sale at the school tax office.

The season pastebards not only entitle purchasers to witness all home games scheduled by the Longhorns, but they also insure holders a choice seat at all contests and they will be honored when the Steer reserves tangle with the Coahoma Bulldogs on Oct. 7.

For $5.70 each, local fans have the opportunity to reserve a seat and dispense with admission prices.

The Steers will meet two conference opponents and two outside foes on the local turf this fall.

Brownfield is due to put in here for a bout Sept. 23, while Lamesa will follow for a game Sept. 30. Conference games here will bring the Brownwood Lions to Steer stadium on Oct. 14, and the Sweetwater Mustangs on Nov. 24.

The Tigers have lost two decisions in 21 starts to date but Manager Ynez Yanez said the Bengals would have to be at their best if they hoped to win this one.

Isa Mendoza or Bobby Beall will probably hurl for the Big Springers.

Prepared for one of the toughest challenges of the year, the Big Spring Latin American Tigers move to Lamesa today where they oppose that city's powerful independent aggregation in a baseball engagement.

Angelo Colts Play Final Game Here

Locals Invade Vernon Monday

Big Spring and San Angelo have at it in their final meeting of the regular Longhorn baseball league at Steer Park today starting the fireworks at 3:30 p.m.

The Steers will be trying to nail down first place in the standings. The Angelos are going all-out to win a place in the playoffs.

They need to place them all close to their respective vests, what with Ballinger bearing down on them with the speed of a red-hot freight.

Julio Ramos, the Big Spring pitcher, has been out of action for ten days.

After today's game, the Cavuses move to Vernon for three games with the Dusters. They will be here Sept. 1, at which time they'll try to do something to cool the torrid Ballinger clan.

Ace Mendez's double that just eluded Left Fielder Chet Karger scored the two runs that enabled the Big Spring Broncs to come from behind and nudge the San Angelo Colts, 9-8, in an exciting ten-inning contest played before 1,300 fans here Saturday night.

Sam Harshaney, a thorn in the Hosse's side all night, had put the guests ahead with a double in the top half of the frame, the blow coming with Jake McClain on first base. McClain had walked Harshaney earlier but two home runs.

Just to prove again that he is the classiest ball player in the league, Harshaney's Carlos Pascual gained credit for the pitching victory after spelling Ernie Mayorquin in the sixth. Pascual richly deserved the win. He gave up only two hits and struck out five in the five frames he labored.

Lefty Shelton, once a nemesis of the Steers, started on the hill for Angelo but was chased to cover in the fourth. The wronghandier, favoring a bad arm, passed eight men in the short time he worked and was touched for a grand slam home run in the second by Felix Gomez, a torrid number with the stick all evening.

In the tenth, Jake McClain started the Angelos on the road to ruin when he failed to handle Lazarus Colo's ground ball. Gomez followed with his fourth hit of the contest to set the stage for Mendez's drive.

The Hosse's clinched first place with the victory, runnerup Vernon having been defeated. They now lead by 17 1/2 games, have but 16 to play. They also tied the league record for games won with the triumph. It was their 84th of the campaign. That was as many as the 1948 edition of the team won all year.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Some of the score keeping in the Longhorn baseball league continues on the ridiculous side. The ball players favored by the boys who keep the records hardly get a break, when it comes to gaining a promotion.

Bad scoring or no, it appears that about 25 players will hit 300 or better in the circuit this year. The total last year was 25, compared to 45 who topped that figure in the clout-crazy circuit back in 1947.

And, on the subject of hitting, it appears that Bobby Fernandez, the ex-Bronc now with Abilene, will succeed in bettering his 1948 average by at least 40 percentage points.

Last year with Big Spring, the lean outfielder massaged Longhorn league pitching for a .346 average. Hubert Kokernot, the Alpine baseball magnate, reportedly proffered his diamond hopefuls $1,000 each if they could win the National Semi-Pro meet at Wichita, Kansas, this year.

The Midland Indians haven't fared so well against either of the two top Longhorn league clubs, Big Spring or Vernon, in games at Midland this season. The Hosse's have won six of eight starts in the Wigwam to date while Vernon has made off with six decisions in seven appearances against Harold Webb's gang in Midland.

The Steers, despite that disastrous stay in Ballinger are still playing better than 500 ball on the road, having topped 33 of 63 starts. Twenty-five years ago this week, Babe Ruth was clouting American League pitching at a better than 400 clip.

Ernie Mayorquin, the Big Spring pitcher, has just been fined $25 by Longhorn League President Hal Sayles for that shoe-throwing incident at Ballinger last week. Mayorquin became enraged when he thought umpire A. B. Sykes missed a play at first base. The penalty is stiff, especially for a fellow who is supporting a wife and child back home. Arbiters who recommend such punishment should be consistent about such things. We've seen

Good Pool Gets New Location

Condor Petroleum company of Abilene has staked location in the Good field in Central-South Borden county for its No. 1 T. J. Good which is to be on location east of the discovery well in that field.

Projected depth of the venture is 2,200 feet to test the Pennsylvania line pay, the same producing horizon in the Good field.

Drilling is to start immediately with rotary tools.

It is 667.6 feet from north and 670.3 feet from west lines of the southeast quarter of section 37, block 33, T-4-N, TP survey and seven miles east of the town of Ackerly.

Seaboard Oil company of Delaware was drilling ahead in the Good field with its No. 3 Good, a west offset to its No. 3 Good, third producer in the field, and 660 feet from west and 660.5 feet from south line of the northwest quarter of section 37, block 33, T-4-N, TP survey.

It had progressed to below 7,804 feet in black shale and operator was making further hole. Projected depth of the exploration is 8,100 feet to test for Pennsylvania line pay.

The same company was drilling below 7,040 feet in shale with its No. 4 Good, a north offset to the discovery well.

Drillbits of this project is 700 feet from north and 1,968.1 feet from west lines of section 37, block 33, T-4-N, TP survey. It is to drill to 8,000 feet.

Seaboard Oil company of Delaware No. 1 Mart Barrow, north-east Dawson wildcat, took a drillstem test in the San Andres of the Permian at 4,270-4,380 feet.

The tester was open 45 minutes and the recovery was 35 feet of gas cut drilling mud, with no shows of oil or formation water.

Operator will drill deeper and test again if more signs of oil stain or of porosity are logged.

This prospect is 680 feet from south and 1,960 feet from east lines of section 8, block 35, TP survey, T-6-N, which makes it three and one-half miles north-east of Lamesa.

Operator had experienced a slight difficulty in getting the well to flow, following the pumping in of a large amount of drilling mud and water, to kill a flow which started while cement plug on 7-inch casing which had been set at 6,642 feet.

An acid wash was used to clean the mud out of the pay section. This development is 660 feet from north and east lines of the north half of the southeast quarter of section 122, block 25, H&TC survey. It is approximately 15 miles southwest of Snyder.

George P. Livermore, Inc., Lido Petroleum company, Milner Oil company, and others No. 1 Woodson, three quarters of a mile northeast of the nearest Canyon lime producers on the north side of the Kelly field in Central Scurry county, has shown for commercial production and probably will be completed and put on production soon.

This venture ran a drillstem test in the top of the Canyon formation at 6,716-44 feet. Gas showed at the surface in nine minutes. Oil flowed at the top in two hours and 31 minutes.

It was flowed to pits for 35 minutes to clean and was then turned to tanks. In the first 30 minutes of gauging the well made 8.12 barrels of pipe line oil, flowing through a five-eighth inch bottom hole choke. It was still flowing at last report.

The No. 1 Woodson is 680 feet from north and west lines of the northeast quarter of section 209, block 97, H&TC survey and four miles west of the town of Snyder.

Gene Coff of Midland, Grady Vaughn of Dallas, and associates No. 1 Ohlenbush, Central Scurry county wildcat, one and one-half miles southwest of Snyder, and one and one-quarter miles north of the closest completed oil wells in the Kelly-Canyon field, flowed an average of 16.5 barrels of clean oil per hour, through a 12-64th inch tubing choke, from open hole at 6,776-6,801 feet. In the Canyon reef lime.

Operators were preparing to take potential test and complete the well. It is 330 feet from north and west lines of tract 50, section 38, Kirland & Fields survey.

The flow was natural, and no formation water was developed. Top of the reef was at 6,767 feet. Top of the pay was at 6,782 feet. Elevation is 2,391 feet.

Both firms will continue to breed registered Polled Herefords on the Jack Johnson ranches.

The Johnson Ranch has had the world's largest registered Polled Hereford herd about 20 years. Cattle from it have sold to breeders in 28 states and foreign countries.

The partnership has been dissolved. One half of the livestock, range, farm, and other property goes to Lewis Johnson and his sons, Lewis Gray, and James L. Johnson. The other half goes to W. R. (Bill) Johnson.

Two Flankers In Pegagus Sector To Take Tests

In the Pegagus area of North-Central Upton County and South-Central Midland county two flankers to the discovery well of that region were taking drillstem tests in the Devonian.

Magnolia Petroleum company No. 2-30 Glass, northeast outpost to the field opener, and 1,980 feet from west and 660 feet from south lines of section 30, block 40, TP survey, T-4-S, was taking a drillstem test from 11,755 feet to 11,838 feet in the Devonian. It is in the Midland county side of the field.

In the Upton county side of the field, Magnolia No. 1-36 Glass, southwest extension try for the Pegagus field, and 1,980 feet from north and 660 feet from east lines of section 36, block 41, TP survey, T-4-S, was also drillstem testing in the Devonian at 11,631-711 feet.

Magnolia No. 1-B TXL, one-half mile south of the initial producer in the Pegagus region, and 660 feet from north and west lines of the southwest quarter of section 31, block 40, TP survey, T-4-S, had reached 4,288 feet in anhydrite and was drilling ahead.

Phillips Petroleum company No. 1-BB TXL, 664 feet from south and 660.5 feet from east lines of section 25, block 41, TP survey, T-4-S, was attempting to regain lost circulation at a total depth of 7,782 feet in lime and shale. When circulation is regained the project will drill deeper.

It is a northeast stepout to Magnolia No. 1-A TXL, the only completed producer in the Pegagus area up to now, and the only project which has drilled to the Ellenburger in that region so far.

Drilling was continuing in three deep tests in eastern Upton, outside the proven area of the Benedum multi-play field. Humble Oil No. 1 Pembroke, six miles north of Benedum pay, was at 11,830 feet. Humble No. 1 Mrs. Z. Oswalt, four and a half miles northeast of production, was at 9,190 feet. Humble No. 1 Parrott, half a mile north of the Pennsylvania pay, was below 10,994 feet in lime.

Borden Outposts Making Progress

Rapid progress on four northwest Borden county outposts is being made by Sinclair Oil & Gas company. All of the ventures are flankers to the same company's discovery well in that area and are scheduled to drill to the Ellenburger, 11 miles northwest of Gail.

Sinclair No. 1 Pratt, 660 feet from east and 1,980 feet from north lines of section 44, block 32, T-6-N, TP survey, was drilling under 8,062 feet in lime and shale.

Operator was continuing to deepen the exploration.

One and one-half miles west of the discovery well, Sinclair No. 1 Reynolds was making more hole below 7,963 feet in lime and sand.

This project is 660 feet from south and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 33, block 32, T-6-N, EL&RR survey.

One-quarter of a mile north of the discovery, Sinclair No. 1 W. H. Bryan was being deepened past 7,479 feet and drilling was in lime.

It is 660 feet from south and east lines of section 40, block 32, T-6-N, EL&RR survey, and 10 miles northwest of Gail.

Sinclair No. 1 T. P. Turner, an east offset to No. 1 Williams, and 660 feet from north and west lines of the north half of section 46, block 32, EL&RR survey, T-6-N, was drilling in lime below 7,613 feet.

AUSTIN, Aug. 27 (AP)—Completion of 161 oil wells this week was reported by the Texas Railroad Commission today.

This year's completions now total 5,718 compared with 4,768 a year ago.

Fifteen gas wells were completed, bringing the year's figure to 498 compared with the same period in 1948.

LAST CONVENTION OF THE G. A. R. ATTENDED BY FIVE CENTENARIANS

By WILLIAM L. MADIGAN
Associated Press Staff

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 27.—Five fragile centenarians assemble here on Sunday to sound taps for the Grand Army of the Republic. The aged survivors decided a year ago to hold their last encampment in the city which was host to their first convention 83 years ago. The encampment will be from Aug. 28 to 31.

Two hundred eighty-eight young delegates from 11 states were on hand for the initial meeting on Nov. 20, 1866. No formal minutes of the gathering were kept, says Miss Cora Gillis, G. A. R. secretary. She has arrived here from Washington to make arrangements for the 83rd annual meeting of the once-powerful organization.

The state of Indiana will be official host to the Civil War veterans and some 2,500 members of five affiliated groups: the National Woman's Relief Corps, Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, Daughters of the Union Veterans of the Civil War, sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War and their auxiliaries.

The five surviving members of the organization which in 1890 boasted a peak membership of 408,489, planning to attend are: Theodore Penland, 100, Portland, Ore., the national commander-in-chief; Albert Woolson, 102, Duluth, Minn., national chief of staff; Robert Barrett, 102, Princeton, Ky.; Joseph Clovese, 105, Pontiac, Mich., and James A. Hard, 108, Rochester, N. Y.

Clovese is the only living Negro member of the group. Hard, who is blind and deaf, is expected to be flown to the encampment. Still hoping to attend is Charles R. Chappel, 102, Long Beach, Cal.

who is reported recovering from injuries suffered in a fall from a peach tree. Miss Gillis says there are 16 surviving G. A. R. members throughout the country.

MAY BE LAST — Charles Chappel, 102, pictured as he presided at a recent G. A. R. meeting at Long Beach, Calif., may be named the last national commander of the Grand Army of the Republic when it meets for its final convention in a few days at Indianapolis. Chappel, now the G. A. R.'s senior vice commander, was an infantry private at Appomattox when Lee surrendered. (AP Wirephoto)

REMEMBER THESE GOOD OLD DAYS?

Britain's Biggest Sales Promotion Staged By Prince Of Wales In 1924

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—Monday might be called dollar day for England.

It will mark the silver jubilee of a most dramatic project to sell the British Empire. And it finds Britain still desperately seeking dollars in the trade of a drastically changed world.

Twenty-five years ago—on Aug. 2, 1924—a highly eligible English bachelor arrived in New York harbor on the big Cunarder, Berengaria, to launch his country's promotion project right in the heyday of the flapper era.

Harbor whistles tooted a welcome. A motor yacht, the Black Watch, pulled up alongside the liner. The young man going places bade farewell to his fellow passengers including more than 100 debutantes and society girls who had just happened to be on the same boat. He stepped aboard the yacht and sailed away to Glen Cove in Long Island Sound.

There, Edward, the Prince of Wales—nowadays known as the Duke of Windsor—was motored in land to the palatial country homes of James A. Burden at Syosset.

Thus began the American tour of Eddie, as some newspapers affectionately called him—the man who earned a reputation as England's greatest salesman.

Those were the days—1924—when flappers were running around with skirts above their knees, bootleggers were bombing churches and internal revenue agents had just shot a U. S. Senator in the head accidentally while they were chasing rum peddlers.

Wales found us in the midst of the Teapot Dome investigation and with a presidential campaign on our hands. The Democrats had just wound up a 15-day convention in Madison Square Garden, where after 102 ballots they decided on John W. Davis as their standard bearer. Sen. Robert M. La Follette was trying to split the Republican Party, but the country in general was keeping cool with Coolidge.

In Europe, Nikolai Lenin had been laid to rest in his marble tomb at the Kremlin wall. Adolf Hitler had just been tried for his Munich Beer Hall putsch. King Tut's tomb was opened in Egypt and Prime Minister MacDonald was trying to hold a labor government in power in London.

Wales was given a wonderful welcome. Americans—particularly the women—were dying for a glimpse of this world's most eligible bachelor. His blond good looks and love of gay parties made him the lion of the hour.

On the way over, his every activity on ship board was recorded for the benefit of a hero-worshipping public. He had a daily workout with a boxer. He attended a fancy dress ball in the costume of an Apache—and won a booby prize. He danced a couple of evenings with Miss Leonora Cahill of St. Louis—enough to require a formal denial of romance.

As soon as he was settled on Long Island his selling job began. His first trip was to Washington the day after arrival for a simple luncheon with Mrs. Coolidge and the President at the White House. Back the same evening, he got a bit of rest so he could practice polo the next day at Westbury. A motor boat ride on Long Island Sound polished off the afternoon.

Up betimes on Sept. 1, the Prince went to the races. He saw Wise Counselor beat the French horse Epinard at Belmont Park. With a daily round of outdoor recreations, he sold the British Empire on the golf courses. In the swimming pools and among the polo ponies Sept. 6 was a big day for Edward. After the races at Belmont again, he danced at Clarence H. Mackay's Roslyn Estate, met Gen. Pershing and made more headlines.

The U. S. Army round-the-world flyers were just completing their historic feat—began in March—and on Sept. 8 Wales went over to Mitchell Field to see them land. That didn't take long, so back to polo, where he got a black eye from a kid kicked up by a pony.

On the day Leopold and Loeb began their sentences for the kidnapping and murder of Bobby Frank in Chicago, the Prince joined in a fox hunt on Long Island. It happened to be the same day the French began their evacuation of the Ruhr.

Then salesmanship began in earnest. On Sept. 12 this drummer extraordinary went to work by riding in New York's crowded subway, amid an enthusiastic, cheering crowd. The subway took him downtown where he got a good view of the city from the world's tallest building—the Woolworth Building in those days.

The next day Salesman Eddie got his first setback. He had to watch the U. S. team beat the British at polo 16 to 15 in the first international polo match at Meadow Brook, L. I. That was the day Gen. Pershing retired from the Army.

Apparently Wales found out that selling the British Empire was no doorbell ringing job. He had to play squash at the racquet and tennis club, visit a girls' high school, newspaper plants, the telephone exchange, Wall Street, the ball games and back to the races at Belmont. The town turned out to cheer as he progressed from point to point.

On the day before he left for his ranch in Alberta—Sept. 20—he went calling on the widow of President Theodore Roosevelt at Oyster Bay.

Meantime, the labor government fell in London and Stanley Baldwin formed a new cabinet.

While the globe-trotting Prince was reported "pitching hay, hiking and fishing" at High River in the Canadian Rockies, a mathematically-minded newsman tallied up and found he had 61,120 separate clippings on Edward's visit to New York.

Less than two weeks of ranch life sufficed to refresh this super-salesman, and on Oct. 12 he was back in the U. S., visiting Duluth, Chicago and Detroit. Then Wales did his best trick. On a fox hunt near Toronto, he fell off his horse. He had done that twice before that year, once on Feb. 8 near Ascot, when his collar bone was broken, and again on March 15, in a steeplechase at Aldershot in England. But he could take it. As soon as he was back in the States again he was riding to the hounds at the Myopia Hunt Club, Hamilton, Mass.

The next day, Oct. 24, he sailed for home on the Olympic—a tired but happy—and still unmarried Prince. Another Prince had been him to the altar that year—Prince Regent Hirohito of Japan.

China Reds Plan Coalition Regime

SHANGHAI, Aug. 27.—Announcement of a coalition government which will be the permanent government of Communist China has been set for Oct. 1, it was reported Saturday.

The report came from a local source which appeared reliable. It could not be confirmed officially. The source said the Communist political consultative conference will convene at Peking (Peiping) Sept. 15-20 to set up the formal Red government.

One of the first questions after the Reds set up their government will be the matter of recognition by world powers. The Soviet Union is expected to recognize the regime immediately.

Queen Named For Rose Festival

TYLER, Aug. 27.—Miss Rose Marie Young, an attractive brunette with bright blue eyes, will be queen of the 12th annual Texas Rose Festival here, Sept. 29—Oct. 2.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Young of Tyler, Rose Marie is five feet seven inches tall and weighs 120 pounds.

A native of Smackover, Ark., she has been a resident of Tyler for five years.

Miss Young graduated from Tyler High School, attended Hockaday, and graduated last spring from Southern Methodist College with a B. S. degree in home economics.

The Queen's Coronation will be held the evenings of September 29-30 in the Civic Auditorium. Forty-five Duchesses from Texas Cities and from out of state will participate.

The Queen will be honored at a traditional tea, the annual Queen Ball given by the Order of the Rose, and various other social events. She will ride on a special float in the mammoth Rose Festival Parade October 1.

Queen Rose Marie will succeed Queen Mary Anne Menney, who resigned during the 1948 Rose Festival and who was married last month to James Thomas McCain of Tyler.

Corsicana Couple Indicted For Murder

CORSICANA, Aug. 27.—Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Fraley Friday were jointly indicted by the Navarro County grand jury for the fatal shooting of W. J. Hollifield at Blooming Grove, Aug. 8.

In another indictment for the same shooting, Fraley was charged with assault with intent to murder.

An argument over a property line was said to have been the cause of the shooting.
