—Larry Marshall—

WE TRAVELED OVER to Albany and enjoyed the barbecue and the Fort Griffin Fandangle. This was our first time to attend the event, the barbecue was a catered affair and served on the courthouse lawn.

AFTER THE MEAL we went out to the Prairie Theater where the Fandangle was held. From the big parking lot one must walk up a hill to get to the seats. These seats are on the top of the hill and the performance goes on in a low place in front of them.

IN A PAPER we picked up we learned that the annual event was held in the high school stadium from 1938 until 1965. From the paper we also learned the Fandangle leases the 30 acres for one dollar a year from the J. A. Matthews family.

The Fandangle has Indian villages, settlers' homes, authentic buggies, buckboard, and prairie schooner with the reproduction of the Butterfield stagecoach and train. The Fandangle has a steam driven callopie. This is an amusing article. It has a boiler that makes steam and this steam is used to make music when the air goes through a pipe. The instrument has a series of pipes and a person that knows how to play it, as did the one playing it Thursday night, can make beautiful music.

THE PEOPLE OF Albany are the actors. They do this without pay. The people there have different talents as do people anywhere and they fall in where they best fit and put together a fine show. The play was written by the late Robert Nail. One person we saw in the cast was a telephone operator here Midge Rogers.

THE PAPER THAT we mentioned earlier is called the Fort Griffin Fandangle. Looking over the front page we see many little stories that were published in a paper back in the late 1800's. Some of these are:

"George Puckett, using profane and vociferous language, fine, $15.25 . . . Nick Jones, rudely displaying a pistol in a public place, plead guilty. Fine — $11.75. These items were dated February 2, 1881.

"If the fleas would leave the hogs and attach themselves to our city dads, the latter might be induced to prevent the former from running at large. June 14, 1878.

"Ice in Collins creek was four inches thick this week. January 11, 1879."

THE SHOW WILL be produced again this coming weekend, June 24, 25 and 26. Is it worth driving to Albany to see? It is our opinion that the show is well worth the time and effort.

Baird Beta Sigma Phi To Hold Bridge Luncheon July 10

The Beta Sigma Phi Club of Baird will have a partnership bridge tournament luncheon Saturday, July 10 at the school cafeteria. Registration will be at 9 a. m., and fee is $3.00 per person.

The club requests reservation be made by Thursday, July 7, call Mrs. James Paul Shanks, at Baird 854-1288 or write Mrs. Alvin Bates, Shalimar, Clyde.

FULLEN MOTOR Co. PRESENTS LAUGH-A-DAY

George Bernard Shaw was being lionized at a party in his honor. All he heard was yackety, yackety, yackety. Finally the hostess said to Shaw, "Are you enjoying yourself, Mr. Shaw?"

And he replied, "Yes, and that is all I am enjoying."

NATURAL—The exuberant personality which helps make Midge Rogers' singing such a popular feature of the Albany Fandangle is "standard equipment." Here is how she looks to customers of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company while at her desk in the business office in Cisco.

Singing Star Who "Grew Up" With Fandangle Serves Family Tradition

Weatherford has Mary Martin and Fort Worth has Martha Hyer, but most of West Texas can claim Midge Rogers.

What Broadway did for Miss Martin, and Hollywood did for Miss Hyer, the Fort Griffin Fandangle at Albany has done for Midge Rogers. She's a star in her own right.

In fact, Midge has been a star since she was 11 years old, when she made her debut as a performer in Albany's annual tribute to the pioneering spirit. She even does "road shows"—most recently singing for the Cisco Credit Club.

"I'm just like most of the people who live in Albany," she says. "I grew up with the Fandangle. . . it's part of my life."

Her loyalty and enthusiasm for Albany and the Fandangle are based solidly on tradition. And tradition is the reason Midge works for the telephone company. She's from a real phone family.

For almost 50 years, her father, J. C. Jones Sr., worked for Southwestern Bell as combinationman in Albany. He retired four years ago. Her mother was working as an operator for the phone company in Abilene when she met and married Jones. Her brother, Johnny Jones Jr., is a chief switchman for Southwestern Bell in Mineral Wells, and her sister, Mrs. Catherine Smith, was a telephone woman in Albany and Dallas before "retiring" to home-making in Mineola in East Texas.

Midge herself is a service representative for Southwestern Bell in Cisco, an easy daily drive from her home in Albany. She's been with the company for 18 years and certainly qualifies as following in the family tradition. Her job, however, isn't confined to Cisco since she fills in for vacationing telephone employees in Breckenridge and Albany. In fact, her telephone career has taken her to Monahans, Odessa, Lubbock and even Corpus Christi, as well as her native Albany.

But after all her travels she has homed in for her true love—the Fandangle.

The Fandangle and the fine folks in Albany are what drew Midge and her husband, Buddy Rogers, back to their West Texas homeland. "It's true," she said, "you can take this girl out of this country, but you can't take this country out of this girl. We just had to come back."

Panthers Lose To Greenbacks

In baseball action Thursday night the Eastland Greenbacks defeated the Cisco Panthers 8 to 7. Kelly Kent was losing pitcher. Jimmy Clark did an excellent job as catcher. Jimmy Kanady played excellent short stop.

The Cisco Cats defeated the Panther Hawks 4 to 2 Thursday night at the Ranger field. Gerald Hunt was winning pitcher.

Campers and scouts of the Girl Scout Day Camp gathered each day to hold a general flag ceremony at the camp site.

She came back as a one-woman chamber of Commerce for the Fandangle.

SINGING UP A RAIN

"Some people in Albany say my singing brought on the four days of rain when the Fandangle tried to do the opening show at Palo Duro Canyon a few years back," Midge said with a laugh which might have rattled the windows in Ranger. "All I know is that I'm getting an awful lot of singing invitations these days. I guess everybody hopes I'm a rain-maker."

But singing before select crowds is nothing new to Midge. In 1967, she was part of the Fandangle "Sampler" group which performed at the LBJ Ranch for then-President Lyndon Johnson and a host of ambassadors from Latin America.

And, rain-making isn't new to the Fandangle, either. "In the past, our 'Samplers' for the Fandangle Association used to bring rain at Watt Matthew's Lambhead Ranch every April," Midge noted. Rain-making also is the theme of this year's show on June 17-19 and 24-26 at the Fandangle amphitheatre near Albany.

But the Fandangle also has a touch of romance for Midge and Buddy Rogers. In years past, they sang a song in the show entitled "Think Twice" to their daughter, Cathy. The song advised the girl to never marry a cowboy.

Did she listen? Today, Cathy is married to Larry Nail, a member of a prominent West Texas ranching family and a cowboy at heart, at least.

While featuring the past, the Fandangle is aimed at the future. "It's Albany's way of saying that a town this good just won't die off," Midge explained.

"The Fandangle itself is an example of the pioneer spirit—people pulling together to make a go of it in a hostile land," she said. "Everybody in Albany who can sit a saddle, sing or sell programs is in the Fandangle. Those who wander off to cities like Fort Worth and Dallas come back for the Fandangle. It's a community reunion."

But, most of all, it's fun. Fun without "parental guidance" or "not suitable for young persons" signs attached. It's rated "G" for great.

Second Rising Star Bank Case Due For Trial Monday, June 28

Several 91st Convictions Now On Appeal

The second in a series of bank robbery cases growing out of the holdup of the Rising Star First State Bank last September 24, is due to be called for trial in 91st District Court at Eastland Monday, June 28.

James Richard Sikes, one of four men indicted in connection with that robbery is then scheduled to face a jury in a companion case to that of Thomas Dwight Jenkins who is in Eastland County jail awaiting action by the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals on his appeal from a 50-year penitentiary sentence assessed by a 91st district court jury on Thursday, May 27.

Two other accused members of a bandit quartet which took about $9,000 from the bank, are also awaiting trial, but are not in Eastland county custody. District Attorney Emory Walton said, however, that he hopes to bring both Johnny Williams and Mearl De Wayne Sormrude, both under indictment in the robbery, to trial as soon as jurisdictions in which they are now being held are finished with them.

Williams is in Brown County jail at Brownwood and Sormrude is in federal custody. Their availability for trial is a matter of uncertainty, Walton said, but as soon as they can be brought to Eastland county, trials of their cases will be set.

Walton said that Sikes will be tried with the regular term jury panel of the court, as was Jenkins.

Meanwhile hearings on appeals from three other convictions in 91st district were being awaited, Walton said.

One is the appeal of William Smith, convicted on a charge of felony goat theft in a non-jury trial held before Judge Earl Conner, Jr., last August and assessed a five-year penitentiary sentence. A hearing has been set in the Court of Criminal Appeals at Austin for June 23.

Walton said that the state has filed a brief in the appeal and will not appear for the hearing.

Other convictions in which appeals are being awaited are: The State vs. Clifford I. Tarlton, convicted of cattle theft by baillee in a non-jury hearing before Judge Conner on April 18 and assessed a 10-year sentence in the penitentiary on May 18, and The State vs. John Thomas Allen, convicted in a non-jury trial on a charge of indecent exposure to a child at a Gorman school and sentenced on May 13 to a five-year term in the penitentiary.

A hearing date has not been set in either of these cases, Walton said, but his office is preparing briefs for submission.

Scheduled to come before the next grand jury session are charges of kidnapping filed against two Odessa men in connection with the abduction of a 10-year-old girl from before the Eastland Memorial Hospital at Eastland on Monday, June 14.

Charged were William Alex Cochran and his brother, Russell Lee Cochran. The complaint was sworn to by Mrs. Janet Cochran of Hobbs N. M., ex-wife of William Cochran. The woman told authorities that her 10 year old daughter, Sabrina, was seized by a man and forced into a car being driven by another man while the mother and daughter were at the hospital visiting Mrs. Cochran's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Houser of Sipe Springs.

The incident caused considerable excitement at the time and county authorities

PRINCESS and Runners-Up—Miss Kay Hoffmann, left, Eastland County Peanut Queen; Karen Hallmark, first runner-up and Sharon Steddum, second runner-up.

Eastland Girl Named County Peanut Princess

Princess Kay Hoffmann, 18 of Eastland was named Eastland County Peanut Princess in the 3rd annual county peanut pageant, held in the Gorman High School auditorium Thursday night.

Miss Hoffmann won the princess title in competition with eight other young girls from Eastland County.

George Warren of Gorman Area Farmer of the Year, crowned Miss Hoffmann. Gene Baker, mayor of Gorman, presented trophies to all nine contestants.

Cash awards were also made this year to the top three winners in the contest. These awards were made possible through the courtesy of Eastland County merchants.

Those winning the cash awards were Miss Hoffmann $200.00; 1st runner-up Karen Hallmark, $100; and 2nd runner-up, Sharon Steddum, $50.00.

Miss Hoffmann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hoffmann. She represented Zeta Pi Chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi, in the contest. She plans to attend Texas Tech in the fall, majoring in elementary education.

Her hobbies are swimming, skiing and horseback riding. In high school she was a cheerleader, football sweetheart, and FFA Sweetheart.

Her talent in the contest Thursday was a trombone act.

The new Eastland County Peanut Princess will now compete in the "Texas Peanut Queen Contest" to be held in Eastland, Aug. 14, where she will be in competition with about 15 other girls for the title of State Peanut Queen.

Lieutenant Gov. Ben Barnes, Senator Tom Crighton, and Congressman Joe Hanna, will attend the pageant.

Miss Hallmark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Hallmark of Gorman, represented the Gorman Lions Club. Miss Steddum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rabb Steddum of Eastland represented the Eastland Chamber of Commerce.

Some of the choir's selection were: "My God and I," "Amazing Grace," and "When I Prayed Through."

Of course they had a fine selection of many other songs that ranged from old tunes to the new Christian folk-type music.

Members of the choir from Eastland were: Marcia Griffin, Ricky Harrell, Lewis Stansell, Susie Miller, Jeff Jackson, Shirley Pyke, John Marshall, Charlie Marshall, Deborah Whaley, and Russell Smith.

Visiting in the Mr. and Mrs. Brashear home was their nephew, Roy O'Donovan of Levelland, Texas. Roy also visited in the home of the Garland Brashears.

Graham Film To Be Shown Here June 23

The latest Billy Graham film, LOST GENERATION, features special appearances by Art Linkletter and "Drag-Net" star Jack Webb.

Linkletter, whose daughter Diane died as the result of the use of drugs, discusses drug usage in America, and points to what is being done voluntarily by many teenagers to combat the problem.

Webb states his views on the role of the police officer and his relationship to the laws of our society.

LOST GENERATION, filmed in Eastmancolor by World Wide Pictures, is a probing documentary which takes a close look at the attitudes and morals of the Nation. Location filming was done in Alaska, the Southern states, on the farms and in the small towns of mid-America, and in the dying Haight-Ashbury hippie district of San Francisco.

LOST GENERATION will be shown on Wednesday June 23 at the First Baptist Church, Plummer at Lamar. There will be no admission charge for the 7:45 p.m. showing. The Reverend Hoston Brewer, pastor of the church, extends a cordial invitation to the public.

Your Problems are our Business—

... or at least some of them are. For example, we Americans can't get along without the automobile. As a consequence, we have problems some of which may be very grave and expensive. So we look to insurance—which is strictly American—for what relief it will afford. It can't solve all of our troubles, but over the years, it has saved our customers an untold amount of money by simply having the kind of insurance that paid off when needed. Are you adequately insured?
