RECORD CROWD OF WEDNESDAY BRINGS ACTION

NEW BUILDINGS, BIGGER GROUNDS NEEDED SAY DIRECTORS TODAY

"Snowed under" by a record smashing attendance of 34,889 on Wednesday, "Children's Day" of the Fifteenth Annual Panhandle-South Plains fair, the directorate of the Fair association gathered in business session this morning, and discussed in detail a program of expansion, inaugurated this year and expected to be carried on with renewed vigor throughout the coming twelve months.

Headed by Dr. I. E. Barn, serving his second year as president, the fair officials were unanimous in the opinion that buildings, equipment and grounds as they now stand, are wholly inadequate and that the acquisition of additional acreage and at least six new buildings would be needed to care for the exposition next year and in the seasons to come.

Directors and officials include Doctor Barn, as president; J. J. Clements and M. B. Hylburn, vice-presidents; Smiley C. Wilson, treasurer; A. B. Davis, manager; Garnett Rogers, publicity manager; Mrs. Jewel Hall, secretary; N. L. Peters, A. W. May, Byron C. Dickinson, Alex. McDonald, and I. P. Holland, directors. The meeting was held at the city hall.

Estimating the needs of the fair hurriedly while in session, the directors concluded that between $100,000 and $150,000 would be needed for buildings alone while more extensive grounds for the fair proper, acreage for a race track and additional auto parking, and a new and larger grandstand should be obtained. Buildings needed include those for poultry, women's department, industrial exhibits, farm machinery and implements, livestock and a structure to house an automobile department, one of the new proposed features for the fair in future years.

Individuality Counts In Hair Styles, Expert Says

The blonde coiffure picture at the left has a front side part and a soft, wavy wave down over both ears, leaving the back longer to make a deep, little finger curl from the crown of the head to the nape of the neck. For the lovely car, the front is short and gently curls, as shown upper right. The longer back hair is held in curls at the nape of the neck by a little barette. The plaiting of a chignon to the chin, delicate but shown in giving it the proper, slender for evening.

The long, flowing lines and the rich fabrics in vogue now demand a very feminine coiffure," explained Charles Beck, the hair expert whom Mary Pickford chooses to copy her famous curls.

"A few curls or a little knot at the nape of the neck add the grace and dignity called for in new modes. A back bob is apt to be too abrupt looking with a sumptuous velvet evening gown, for instance."

But the winter's change in hair styles is not so radical as first glances seem to indicate.

"Only very young girls will really let their hair grow," Beck gave his opinion. "Other women will keep the bob but make it their own. They will either let the back hair grow long enough to turn the ends under, or else they will add one of the little artificial chignons that clip onto even the shortest bob, for evening."

Reinforcing and individuality—and by Beck as the criteria in both right now.

"Women should arrange their hair to suit their own features, not to follow any set style," he said. "If a woman has beautiful ears, she should show them. If her features are sharp or hard, a few waves of curls over the temples will do much to soften her expression."

Beck rarely cuts any two bobs the same way. But while each case demands individual attention, certain rules apply generally and should be helpful to all women.

"A woman should study her features and the shape of her head very well indeed before she directs a bob," he asserted. "Corks, locks, natural waves, blemishes, short necks, small heads and other individualities must be considered. Sometimes an oddity can be turned into an asset."

"No woman—except the perfect Madonna face—should try a straight, center part. This calls for a long, slender face and delicate, perfect features.

"Side parts are universally enhancing," he encouraged. "But the part should be on the perfect side of the face. Every woman has one side more perfect than the other. A parting on this side emphasizes the beauty. And, fully one or two inches longer on the other side gives a heavier frame and reduces the proportions of the features.

"Twenty-five per cent of women do not have a straight nose, but one that points very slightly to the right or the left. A part whichever side it is on, should run from the back of the neck to the front in line with the angle to which the nose leans. For the exactly-straight, from back to front, part is a hard line."

"If one has a high forehead she should bring the wave down onto it. Tall women, with turn necks, should let their hair grow one or two inches longer on the side. A one-sided hair arrangement, with the hair curled softly gives a youthful look."

Whether or not to show the ears, if they are not especially beautiful, seems to be a question of proportions, to Beck.

"Cut your hair short just to the tops of the ears, if your face is nice for miles chin to the ears. If you have a heavy jaw, let the hair come to the bottom of your ears as a softening frame."

"This is to be a season of soft, little curls. Some of Beck's coiffures, for instance, leave the back hair long and curl it in ringlets from the crown of the head to the nape of the neck. Others have the front parted on one side, with irregular curls on the short side. One features a little curly where straight little streamers used to be."

Season of Curls
But for all of this vogue for curls, Beck had this to say about when to curl and when not to curl:

"Blonde hair is almost always softer and more beautiful for a curly. But the dark-haired Italian or Spanish type looks ridiculous that way. This woman should wear a well-groomed, but straight. And the fascinating woman with irregular features often is much more interesting-looking with irregular uncoupled bangs. It should depend on the individual."

R. H. Cummings of Taft, premier Jersey breeder, Douglas Pounds, county department manager and Joe Lillard of Arlington made short talks. Mr. Lillard pointed out that there are more prize winning hogs than there will be at the State Fair at Dallas. Charlie Franz of Turkey, Ray Mowery, G. G. Bellier, of Krikorian, poultry exhibitor, W. J. Leggett of Merkel and D. L. Largent spoke. Mr. Largent talked on the advantage of having the high school in Lubbock in connection with the fair and said that the local fair was the best. All of the speakers were enthusiastic about the treatment of exhibitors here and promised to exhibit here next year.

Blackmail Charge Lands Two In Jail

ABILENE, La., Oct. 4 (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Oudt have furnished $2000 bond and have been released from the Terrell county jail where they were held in connection with a charge of blackmail and extortion following an alleged demand by them that Dr. A. Comaux, prominent local physician, pay them $20,000.

The money is declared to have been demanded as the result of an alleged insult suffered by Mrs. Oudt.

After a series of calls on the physician to obtain treatment for the wife the couple is alleged to have demanded $20,000 as hush money. The doctor is said to have told them to return later to collect the money.

Dr. Comaux offered them $4,000 at the meeting, it is alleged, and they accepted the sum. Immediately Sheriff Landry stepped from an adjoining room and placed them under arrest, he announced.

Autopsy Suggestion Livens "Dead Man"

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 4 (AP)—When Antonio Hernandez, posing as dead, heard the doctor give orders for an autopsy, he leaped to his feet in fright, he was told by the "dead" man, who had been picked up on a street corner with an ugly wound in his head, explaining that upon arriving at the hospital he "played possum" hoping to avoid giving testimony as to the origin of his wound. He said he was afraid the police would arrest him as an assassin and thus deprive him of the opportunity to wreak vengeance.

NORTHWEST IS BATTLE FIELD FOR CAMPAIGN

REPUBLICANS REALIZE
SITUATION TENSE IN FARMING STATES

By BYRON WEST
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
BISMARCK, N. D., Oct. 4.—The final month of the presidential campaign finds the accumulated grievances of agriculture still dragging very heavily on the wheels of the Hoover candidacy in the normally republican northwest.

Just as the democrats have awakened to the seriousness of the anti-Smith movement in the South, so the republicans here in the northwestern states no longer speak of the anti-Hoover farm movement as a myth. They realize that through Wisconsin, Minnesota and the Dakotas they must turn in and fight, and they are doing it.

North Dakota is one of the states which both parties are claiming just now with a reminder that much work remains to be done before election day, and there are leaders among the republicans who candidly, when they speak privately, when the election were held today it might very well turn out a horse race.

Was All for Coolidge
Thus far tradition has been disturbed in a state which four years ago stood by Coolidge in the face of the LaFollette crusade and gave Davis only 13,000 votes out of a total of nearly 300,000.

Governor Smith recently has traversed the state, and his western fling at the republican farm party was broadcast over the northwest. On his trail have come a swarm of republican spinners, including Senators Brookhart and Borah, preaching Hoover.

Control Board Has Say In Purchases

AUSTIN, Oct. 4 (AP)—Attorney General Claude Pollock ruled in an opinion received today by the state board of control that the board has the authority to determine the brand of machinery to be bought for use of the state highway department.

The ruling upholds the control board in its long drawn out dispute with the highway department over purchase of a $200,000 portion of the $400,000 worth of new machinery, in which the board has insisted on its own choice of equipment over that requested by the highway department.

ENDS SEARCH Jobin Locates Daughter Lost Since 1917

KANSAS CITY, Kas., Oct. 4 (AP).—For nine years Charles L. Hobin searched for a daughter he left behind to answer his country's call for soldiers in 1917 and two weeks ago he found her.

A habeas corpus petition which Hobin filed yesterday in Wyandotte county district court told of his search. The action was taken by the father in an effort to gain possession of his daughter. The application will be heard Saturday.

Hobin, now of Evanston, Ill., enlisted in the Navy May 3, 1917. The daughter, Virginia Irene, then was two years old. Her mother died Oct. 6, 1918, nine days after her birth.

With no relatives to care for the child, Hobin left her in custody of Ernie Harden, a friend. When Hobin was discharged from the Navy in 1919, he returned to Kansas City but was unable to find Harden or his daughter. Two weeks ago he learned that Mrs. Harden had left his daughter with a sister, Mrs. Mike Metaxas here, Joseph H. Brady, attorney for Hobin said.

ROOSEVELT IS OLD WARHORSE HAS BEEN A FIGHTER EVER SINCE DAYS IN UNIVERSITY

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Franklin Delano Roosevelt, nominated for Governor of New York by the democratic party, coined the phrase "The Happy Warrior" to describe his old friend Governor Smith, but his friends say it applies as well to himself.

From the time, as editor of the Crimmon, Harvard's student newspaper, he fought for and obtained adequate fire escapes for the Harvard dormitories, he has always been fighting, general for some one else.

He first became prominent nationally in 1912 when he took up the fight in New York for Woodrow Wilson, defying the Tammany leaders who did not look kindly on the then New Jersey governor for president. He led the Wilson delegates from New York in the fight for Wilson's nomination at Baltimore.

As a state senator in 1916, he first came to grips with Tammany Hall and its then leader, Charles F. Murphy. The issue was the election of a United States Senator. Tammany was for William F. Sheehan, Roosevelt was for James A. O'Gorman. O'Gorman was elected.

While he was in the senate the friendship between himself, the rich well-educated lawyer, and Alfred E. Smith the poor, self-educated young man from East Side, New York, was sealed, a friendship which led Roosevelt three times to propose the governor as the presidential nominee of the democratic party, the last time successfully. Long they have been "Frank" and "Al" to each other.

Roosevelt's fight for Wilson at Baltimore in 1912 attracted the notice of the wartime president who named him assistant secretary of the navy, the youngest man ever to hold that post.

Nominated for vice-president in 1920, Franklin Roosevelt spent the campaign boosting the head of the ticket, Governor James M. Cox of Ohio—again fighting not so much for himself as some one else. He was buried under the Harding landslide and retired from public life.

Continue Search For Missing Girl

The indictment is in connection with an affidavit concerning the girl's age, given when the couple were married here in August.

Several messages have been received by the girl's parents, assuring them that she was "all right."

Sees No Harm From Gold Reserve Loss

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 4 (AP).—Roy A. Young, governor of the Federal Reserve board, Washington, sees no harm in the loss of $500,000,000 from the United States' gold reserves.

He told the 54th annual convention of the American Bankers association today that the loss of gold during the last year to the rest of the world has removed from foreign trade the risks of arising from an unstable exchange and disorganized conditions among its foreign customers.

Although he said it is not known yet whether the United States will lose additional gold to the world, the gold reserves of the country at the present time are a billion dollars in excess of the legal requirements.

NEW YORK BECOMES "HOME TEAM" TOWN FOR SERIES

Every World Series Has Its Hero

By ALLAN J. GOULD
(Associated Press Sports Editor)
NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—No World Series is complete without its hero—or its goat. The wreaths of wild admiration is bestowed, a glove over baseball's main champions reveals, as impartially as the crown of laurel.

Seldom has a World Series offered as much opportunity for heroic stuff as does the current tussle between the Yankees and Cardinals. Will one of the stars of other years repeat or will some obscure performer leap into the glare with a great catch, home run, daring play or starting pitching feat?

Babe Ruth can testify as to how it feels to have been the goat or a hero. The Bambino was a "bust" in 1912 when his batting mark fell to a miserable .118 but four years later, in St. Louis, the big fellow was acclaimed as the seldom has ever been who has laced out three home runs in one afternoon in the enemy stronghold.

Alexander Sells "Great" Old Pete Alexander, 41 year old pitcher, probably wouldn't make a Creek state even but the veteran was cast in heroic mold in the great Cardinal victory two years ago. Two years have exacted some toll from this remarkable Nebraska but he is still one of the greatest "money pitchers" of them all and may still have the Indian sign on the Yankees.

Of the Cardinal clan there will be the picturesque little Rabbit Marvian, back in the World's Series 14 years after he helped the Braves upset the Athletics. It would be a dramatic touch for the Rabbit to come through. If not, there's FREDERICK PETERSON, capable of superb stuff around second base, or Jim Bottomley and Chick Hafey, of the big guns at bat.

Here are a few of the World's Series heroes of the past ten years, additions to a previous roll that includes Mathewson, Coombs, Baker and Gowdy:

1918—George Whitehead, outfielder; Boston Red Sox.
1919—Dickie Kerr, pitcher, Chicago White Sox.
1920—Stanley Coveleski, pitcher, Cleveland Indians.
1921—Walt Hoyt, pitcher, New York Yankees, and Johnny Rawlings, infielder, New York Giants.
1922—Heinie Groh, third baseman, New York Yankees.
1923—Herb Pennock, pitcher, Yankees, and Casey Stengel, outfielder, Giants.
1924—Bucky Harris, second baseman, and Walter Johnson, pitcher, Washington Senators.
1925—Kiki Cuyler, outfielder, Pittsburgh Pirates.
1926—Grover Alexander, pitcher, and Tommy Thoenes, shortstop, Cardinals; Babe Ruth, Yankees.
1927—Mark Koenig, shortstop, Yankees.

RECORD WORLD SERIES CROWD LOOMS LIKELY

75,000 FANS EXPECTED TO THROG YANKEE STADIUM FOR TILT

BY WILLIAM J. CHIPMAN
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
NEW YORK, Oct. 4 (AP)—For once in its baseball life, New York became a "home team" town today as the embattled Yankees plucked crovies in their Harlem river citadel against an expected onslaught by the St. Louis Cardinals. Father Knickerbocker was in the first stage of his fifteenth modern World Series, but it might well have been mistaken for his first, with 75,000 fans marching upon Ruppert Stadium eager to yell the home forces on to victory.

MOUND OPPONENTS IN OPENER

Waite Hoyt, ace of the Yankee staff and World's Series veteran was called upon by Manager Huggins today to oppose Wee Willie Sherdel, star in the 1926 World's Series and mainstay of the Cardinal staff this year, for the opening game of the 1928 World Series.

WESTERNERS IN HARD WORKOUT SHOW UP GOOD

INDIANS POSSESS NEW MENTOR, OUT FOR GOOD SHOWING

News from the training camp of the Quannah Chiefs indicates the Indian warriors' "Big Horn" team are coming to Lubbock with blood in their respective eyes to down the Westerners Saturday afternoon in the first conference clash of the season. Always considered the underdog in the district race, the hard-hitting Indians have started off the grid season in an impressive fashion.

Although the team is built almost entirely upon new material, Coach Jim Bradford, former Green Hills high mester and Burdison college coach, has put a new fighting spirit into the Indian camp. Bradford is determined to raise the standard of athletics in Quannah and intends to start right by giving the Lubbock eleven a sound thrubbing. He was on hand for the Lamesa tilt here last Friday and spent the last week working his charges to cope with the Westerner offense.

The Indians have a light but speedy team which disposed of the Crowell aggregation handily last week. A fast backfield and a dangerous aerial attack are the strong points of the offense to be met in the best of the season.

Coach Bradford having watched both teams in action, predicts that the game will be a great battle from whistle to whistle. Both teams are training hard for the tussle and expect to show their best.

The Westerners have worked until dark every day this week and will round off training tomorrow afternoon into what will likely be the best condition the squad has been in this season. Extremely pleased over the showing made by their charges in the Lamesa tilt, the coaches are working a number of reserves in the places of the first stringers and the starting lineup against the Chiefs will be somewhat different from that of the previous game.

Argentine Polo Team Even Series

NEW YORK, Oct. 4 (AP)—Threatened with displacement from the Argentine team after its defeat in the first game of the series for the championship of the Americas, Arturo Kenny, young South American number 1, has earned for himself a prize on the honor roll of international polo.

Kenny seemed to be the weak link in the Argentine four when it lost the opener, but when the four horsemen of the Pampas came back yesterday to ride rough shod over the United States to win 10 to 7 and even the series, Kenny was, perhaps, the most brilliant of the four stars.

EL PASO WILL MEET LOBOES

CISCO GAME FEATURES WEEK-END AFFAIRS OF HIGH SCHOOL

(Special To The Journal)
CISCO, Oct. 4.—The faraway banks of the Rio Grande "out where West Texas ends," will come the powerful El Paso eleven to challenge the proud Lobos of Cisco Friday afternoon on the Cisco field in a struggle heralded as the outstanding high school game of the entire state this week. An attendance of 6,000 has been forecast.

The El Paso team is built around Little, in size all that the name indicates. But he is being hailed as one of the most spectacular running backs in the history of Texas high school football. He dashes around end, cuts through tackle grabs passes, sits through a higher field, darts, ducks, spins, whips changes pace and alters direction with grace and skill that must be seen to be realized.

The El Paso team is rated as heavy, experienced, powerful and smart. Fourteen letter men and a mighty halfback weighing 220 pounds, a newcomer, are the basis on which rest the hopes of El Paso to even matters for the 13-6 defeat received last year at the hands of the Lobos.

While the game is not a conference struggle, it is believed that it is the opening wedge that will result eventually in El Paso entering the Texas Interscholastic League football race, thereby giving West Texas another powerful contender for the state title. Most of El Paso's games are played against New Mexico cities.

Lobos Outstanding Team
The Lobos will be fighting Friday to demonstrate their right to be regarded as the foremost team of the oil belt district. While the once great Abilene Eagles were winning their first two games, 7-6 and 13-6, Cisco in three games piled up more than 150 points. A victory for the Lobos would add prestige to the oil belt, already increased by the triumph last week of the Ranger Bulldogs over the strong Fort Worth Central Panthers.

Cisco's offense is built around Little, in size all that the name indicates. But he is being hailed as one of the most spectacular running backs in the history of Texas high school football. He dashes around end, cuts through tackle grabs passes, sits through a higher field, darts, ducks, spins, whips changes pace and alters direction with grace and skill that must be seen to be realized.

Robinson Asserts Republicans Wet

ROBINSON SPECIAL CAR EN ROUTE TO CHICKASAW, Okla., Oct. 4 (AP)—Campaigning in Oklahoma, Senator Joe Robinson, the democratic vice presidential nominee, declared that if anybody believes the republican party was reformed on the question of prohibition, that person should head immediately for the lunatic asylum.

Moving on today to Chickasaw for his concluding speech in the state, he said at Muskogee last night the republicans had used the word "observe" in the prohibition plank of their platform to make good women and ministers believe the republican party is ready to abandon the drink habit and declare for tolerance.

In referring to the committee which drafted the plank, he declared half of them probably were half intoxicated when they wrote it, and urged his audience to go home and read the democratic and republican platforms, and see if they could ascertain any material difference on the prohibition question.

He said both platforms declared enforcement of the prohibition law; that he and Senator Curtis, the republican vice presidential nominee, were dry and that Governor Smith, the democratic standard bearer, had stated his position. He argued, however, that Mr. Hoover had failed to make his position clear.

Albanians Kill Eight Jugoslavs

BEograd, Jugoslavia, Oct. 4 (AP)—It was feared today that the killing of eight Jugoslav soldiers by Albanian troops would aggravate the already strained relations between Jugoslavia and the newly established kingdom of Zogu I.

Albanian troops were understood to have pursued a countryman accused of murder across the border into Jugoslav territory after the Jugoslav guards had ordered them not to cross the frontier. The Jugoslavs tried to disarm the Albanians. The pursuing forces then turned their attention from the lone fugitive to the Jugoslav forces, killing eight and wounding several.

Man Held In Lynching Case Given Freedom

HOUSTON, Oct. 4.—A murder charge against T. J. "Tack" Reese, first of seven men scheduled to face trial in the lynching of Robert Powell, negro, here just before the Democratic National convention, was dismissed today.

The charge was dismissed on motion of the assistant district attorney, who stated that evidence was weakest against Reese and that his trial would weaken the state's case. Reese was the only one of the alleged lynchings arrested who did not make a statement, officers said.

W. J. Barnes, assistant district attorney, said the only state's witness against Reese was James McCarthy, negro orderly at Jefferson Davis Hospital, and McCarthy, is under grand jury indictment for burglary. Motion for dismissal was granted by District Judge Whit Boyd, who is hearing the case.

The six men who still faced charges of murder in the lynching were Howard Minton, 20; A. E. Wheeler, 26; J. E. Kent, 27; Charlie Oldham, 24; Clyde Shuck, 32, and Hubber Kent, who remained unapprehended.

The state alleged these men went to the hospital where Powell lay seriously wounded, dragged him from a bridge near here early July 29. The negro was charged with murder in the slaying of City Detective A. W. Davis in a gun battle.

Defense attorneys named Charlie Oldham as the man to go to trial first in place of Reese.

A new venire of 300 prospective jurors appeared in court as well as the 118 talesmen who were not disqualified when a panel of 300 was summoned Monday.

Questioning of the veniremen was begun this morning and was expected to last most of the day.

HAGEN FACES HARD BATTLE

GREAT 'HAIG' MAY BE PITTED WITH THREE HARDEST GOLFERS

BY F. G. VOSEBUGH
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 4 (AP)—Walter Hagen, defending title holder, got a bad start in his quarter final match with Leo Diegel, Gene Sarazen and Al Bepko on successive days.

Unless Hagen plays considerably better than he did in winning from Blanton 2 up yesterday, he is apt to find himself in considerable trouble against any of the three veterans.

That the champion is in for a real battle in the quarter finals, was indicated in the manner in which the flashy Leo Diegel polished off George Christ of Rochester, 6 and 4.

Having downed Jim Barnes yesterday by 3 and 2 and beaten Bill Melhorn the previous day, Gene Sarazen now draws a less widely known antagonist in Fred Dudley of Los Angeles. It was Dudley who yesterday eliminated Al Watrous, 3 and 2.

Explosive, the medalist who has been figured as about the best man in the upper half of the draw and a likely finalist suffered a bad slump yesterday, winning from Bob McDonald, a fellow Chicago pro, by the narrow margin of 1 up in 37 holes.

Of what some power the glibbie plebe to be sure as there see us when he bunk our home in the Sunday parade.

FROGS GRIND FOR COWBOYS

BRIDGES EXPECTED TO MAKE GOING TOUGH FOR CHRISTIANS

(Special To The Journal)
FORT WORTH, Oct. 4.—Hard scrapping was on the program for the Texas Christian University Frogs the first part of this week. Coach Mester Bell is driving his charges through long hours of practice, whipping his team into shape for their game Saturday with the Simons Cowboys at Breckwidge.

Reports from the Abilene camp show that the West Texas team will have one of the strongest combinations in years and with Coach Frank Bridget former Texas major, distating piase and defenses, it is certain that the Purple face a merry battle.

Emerging from their 21-0 victory over the strong Daniel Baker Hill Blues, the Frogs are anything but overconfident. The first quarter play of the Christians last Saturday was disquieting to Frog fans, and Coaches Matty Bell and Ed Kubale will put in some hard licks during the practice periods this week to iron out some of the difficulties.

There is still a great indecision as to who will start for the Frogs. Matty has several men for each position, and in most cases it is a toss-up as to which one will get the first call. It is probable that he will start his "best" backfield, sacrificing some weights to speed and passing ability.

It makes Gene Tunney uncomfortable to hear profanity. What miserable days he must spend on the golf courses!

Speaker Says No Universal Remedy

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 4 (AP)—There is no universal panacea to remedy agricultural troubles, Harry L. Russell, dean of the college of agriculture at the University of Wisconsin, told members of the American Bankers' association.

"The future success of the farmer lies in improving his labor income rather than through the unearned increment due to advance in price of his farm," he said.

Agricultural deflation has run its course, the dean believes, so with reasonably cheap money, an adjustment of taxes and a structure that reflects earning power rather than inflated and unearned increments in property values, the farmer will be able to enjoy the "fruits of his labor on the basis of a better labor income."

To Raise $1000 For Wayland Aid

PLAINVIEW, Oct. 4.—The executive board of the Plainview district, in session at Lubbock, agreed to raise $1000 for Wayland college during the coming year. The amount will be prorated among the Lubbock, Floyd, Brownfield, Dickinson, Shackelford and West Plains associations. President McDonald was authorized to use the money in anyway he thought best and will probably be used in the improvement of the college building. With an enrollment of 218 the college is practically self-supporting. This year, a donation of $25 was received from an Oilton friend of the college the past week. New chairs for the class rooms have been ordered and the college is continually making improvements in keeping with the growth of the school.

Man Held In Lynching Case Given Freedom

HOUSTON, Oct. 4.—A murder charge against T. J. "Tack" Reese, first of seven men scheduled to face trial in the lynching of Robert Powell, negro, here just before the Democratic National convention, was dismissed today.

The charge was dismissed on motion of the assistant district attorney, who stated that evidence was weakest against Reese and that his trial would weaken the state's case. Reese was the only one of the alleged lynchings arrested who did not make a statement, officers said.

W. J. Barnes, assistant district attorney, said the only state's witness against Reese was James McCarthy, negro orderly at Jefferson Davis Hospital, and McCarthy, is under grand jury indictment for burglary. Motion for dismissal was granted by District Judge Whit Boyd, who is hearing the case.

The six men who still faced charges of murder in the lynching were Howard Minton, 20; A. E. Wheeler, 26; J. E. Kent, 27; Charlie Oldham, 24; Clyde Shuck, 32, and Hubber Kent, who remained unapprehended.

The state alleged these men went to the hospital where Powell lay seriously wounded, dragged him from a bridge near here early July 29. The negro was charged with murder in the slaying of City Detective A. W. Davis in a gun battle.

Defense attorneys named Charlie Oldham as the man to go to trial first in place of Reese.

A new venire of 300 prospective jurors appeared in court as well as the 118 talesmen who were not disqualified when a panel of 300 was summoned Monday.

Questioning of the veniremen was begun this morning and was expected to last most of the day.

"Chesterfield—that's it!"

Mild enough for anybody... and yet THEY SATISFY*

THINK what that means: "Mild enough for anybody... and yet they satisfy!" Mild—yes. But something more—a quality of leaf, a skill of blending, that brings out the natural taste and goodness of the tobacco themselves.

Tobacco goodness, and without over-sweetening; mildness with character—that's the Chesterfield difference. And it's the most important difference any cigarette could offer!

Lightly by the tobacco

LUBBOCK EXHIBIT

Not only the agricultural development of the section but to show the other concrete offers that the county has to give the prospective settler. The center of the back wall of the exhibit booth will be covered by a Map of Texas with the South Plains colored in a different color. Lubbock will be branded as the "Hub of the Plains" with arrows pointing out to the South Plains sections in every direction. Reeves Accompanies Exhibit

Garnett Reeves, publicity manager of the Board of City Development, left this morning for Dallas to arrange the exhibit. He will remain for several days of the fair. One million attendance is expected at the state fair this year.

Spaced around the Texas map will be placards telling a story concerning the number of interesting facts concerning Lubbock and the surrounding territory. Back of the model of Tech will be placed a description of the history and present condition of the school. Behind this there will be a revolving wheel six feet in diameter, containing eight agricultural products and the use and average production of each. Eight highways and railways will be pictured on the map as Lubbock's outlets.

The committee in charge of the exhibit is composed of William McKinley, Dean A. H. Leidig, Don L. Jones, Edgar Shelton, L. E. Hunt, Copas Bowen and H. H. Jons.

ANNUAL FAIR

Barr and Manager Davis stated, "that the equipment and grounds as they now stand are inadequate and that it lies entirely with the citizenship of Lubbock whether or not the exposition will be permitted to grow and prosper. We need new buildings, we need more grounds, we need more of everything as yesterday's attendance, and the patronage of Monday and Tuesday indicate beyond a shadow of a doubt. The fair directors can not work alone. They must have the support of the public. The crowds of yesterday, although many persons failed to see the various exhibits due to the large attendance, was good humored and here with us in the emergency but they can not be expected to continue to be cooperative unless we show them that we intend to expand the fair to meet their needs." Official attendance figures reached by accurate checks at the various gates and as near mathematically correct as can be were announced for the first three days as 66,887, distributed as follows: Monday, 14,447; Tuesday, 17,549; Wednesday, 34,890. Officials believed that the attendance for the week would set a new record by a large margin and estimated that the total figures would range between 150,000 to 200,000. The fair this year has been patronized better than ever before, they said.

Press Is Thanked
President Barr and Manager Davis, immediately following the business session this morning, announced that the officials unanimously passed a resolution of thanks to the Morning Avalanche and Daily Journal, specifically, the press of the South Plains and of the state in general, for the aid rendered in giving due publicity to the fair before it opened and since it has been running. They also wished to thank the crowds for cooperating with the fair officials in every detail, despite the fact that the attendance has been so large and the grounds and equipment so inadequate, as to make cooperation exceedingly hard. The daily rabbit races, beginning with this afternoon, will be free to the patrons of the fair, they said, and no charge will be made at the race track gate. Another Crowd Gathers
Crowds began trickling into the grounds about ten this morning and there was every indication that another large attendance would swell the figures thus far compiled. Bright skies added zest to the occasion and with two more days to run the fair has already established a new peak, both in patronage and offerings. Judging was practically complete in all departments today, with additional official awards in some sections of the women's department yet to be announced. The usual program will be followed tonight, with fireworks and free attractions beginning promptly at 8 o'clock.

Mellon May Still Be Treasury Head

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4 (AP)—Andrew W. Mellon is well satisfied with his present work and has given no thought to changing, he said today in discussing reports that he had been selected to retain his post as secretary of the treasury in case Herbert Hoover is elected president. "At my age I might as well work here as anywhere else," he said.

SCOUTS PLAN BIGGER WORK

Routine business of the organization was gone into and future plans made. This was the regular monthly meeting of the council. It was held this morning so that the officials attending would have an opportunity of attending the fair this afternoon. The meeting began at 11 o'clock this morning and lasted until shortly after noon. Those attending went in a body to the fair this afternoon. Members of the council at the meeting were Rev. L. G. H. ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 4 (AP)—G. F. Replying to a statement made last Saturday by Samuel H. Venable, one of the owners of the mountain, Mr. Willis said that "if it be true, as he (Mr. Venable) claims, that the association has forfeited its title, the place for him to establish his claim is in the court house. The association's attorneys who are among the ablest in Georgia, have analyzed thoroughly the association's title and are prepared to defend it, which they are quite confident they will be able to do successfully."

Baptists To Make Special Offering

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 4 (AP)—Southern Baptist churches today were in receipt of a request that a special offering be taken Sunday, Nov. 11, to cover the shortage of $983,000 in the accounts of Clinton S. Carnes, former treasurer of the home mission board. In making public the request last night, the executive committee of the Southern Baptist convention revealed that an audit of the books showed the building fund had lost $200,000 during Carnes' tenure in office, and that the rest of the money had been obtained on secretly placed notes, which have not yet been paid. The building program of the church is demoralized because of the shortage.

ATLANTA, Oct. 4 (AP)—The Fulton county grand jury will be asked to indict Clinton S. PLEASURE MAN IS ABANDONED

WAE WEST DEFEATED AS POLICE MAKE A SECOND ATTACK

(By Associated Press) NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Indications today were that "Pleasure Man," Wae West's latest play, had finished its run on Broadway after two and two-thirds performances. Its cast arrested for the second time in three days, the doors of the Biltmore Theatre locked against it. Its author arrested and Mayor James J. Walker and other city officials insisting that the play be removed for all time, counsel for Miss West and the actors admitted defeat. "It would be foolhardy to continue," said Nathan Burkan, Miss West's lawyer. A temporary injunction to prevent police from entering the production issued Tuesday by Supreme Court Justice Valente, was dissolved yesterday by Presiding Justice Dowling of the appellate division of the Supreme Court and the machine was stopped during the second day of police. Officials of the Biltmore Theatre then announced money was being refunded those who had purchased seats for last night's performance and those still holding their stubs for the matinee.

ASK ABOUT SNOW ON GULF

Some one with distorted ideas either to Corpus Christi's local or South Texas' winter climate sent City Engineer H. L. Shaw the Gulf Coast town a questionnaire asking the method used clearing snow from streets. She answered the question in a manner which will, perhaps, indicate Corpus Christi's snowless state. "The city engineer puts all the snow removed from the streets of this town in his eye," was Shaw's reply.

Republicans Call On 200 Stations Every Day

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—Just as charts and maps visualize the trends of world commerce for Herbert Hoover as commerce secretary, they keep him in touch with the progress of the campaign as presidential nominee. The charting of radio-hook-ups is an illustration. The nominee has available a map of the country showing all the broadcasting stations used for every major address of the campaign, not only his own, but those of his running mate, Senator Curtis. Senator Borah, and a dozen others. From these he can at a glance visualize the section of the country and the audience reached by each speaker. Paul Gascoigne, head of the radio division of the national committee, explains that the radio organization of the campaign has been worked out with the same detail as any big engineering problem. Each of the 783 registered broadcasting stations in the country is listed on the charts and more than 200 of them are used every day by the committee, either for local broadcasting or on big hook-ups.

Salutations Sent Gil Insufficient

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 4.—Salutations sent in the first international air mail by District Attorney John A. Valle of Laredo, Texas, to President-elect Emilio Portes Gil today were declared "insufficient" by the latter. Valle recently charged President Calles and the late General Obregon on charges with connection in the murder of two Mexican army officers in Laredo several years ago. He declared that if either entered his territory he would bring him to trial. Portes Gil, who will become provisional president Dec. 1, said he desired friendship for the whole Mexican people and not protestations of personal friendship for himself alone. Valle had sent him a photograph in which both appeared. It was taken several years ago.

HARDIN DROPS GARNER SUIT

ELECTION CONTEST AT BROWNVILLE IS AGREED ON

(By Associated Press) BROWNVILLE, Oct. 4.—Representative John N. Garner today apparently was free to continue his duties in the national house of representatives unhampered by an election contest that had been filed against his recent re-nomination in this congressional district. The contest, filed by Sid Hardin of Mission, was withdrawn yesterday by the contestant, who charged irregularity in the democratic state primary election in which Garner won by a majority of more than 8,000 votes. Hardin also said he would withdraw a request for a congressional investigation. "I am now convinced that while there were possibly illegal votes cast in some of the counties of the district, a great majority thereof were legal, and that a trial of the contest would be a waste of time and the state's money," Hardin said in a statement. In his suit, Hardin had charged that 10,000 ballots were cast illegally, and that $100,000 had been spent in the primary. Definite announcement of the schedule for the next stumping tour will be made by the governor himself in a few days. Meanwhile he intends to get as much rest as possible and to limber up on the golf links. He is making no political engagements.

Woman Attacked Smith As Catholic

ROANOKE, Va., Oct. 4.—Democratic county headquarters here made public last night an affidavit in which it was charged that Mrs. Willie W. Caldwell, republican national committeewoman for Virginia, in a speech last April, made a direct attack against Governor Alfred E. Smith, democratic nominee, because of his membership in the Roman Catholic church. Mrs. Caldwell was quoted as saying: "Don't let Al Smith, shun born, rum-raiser, a wet Irish Catholic, get to the White House." The affidavit was made by George V. Kelly, Taxwell county cattle grazer and said Mrs. Caldwell's speech was delivered at Roanoke, Va., April 21, 1928. Another affidavit made by W. B. Leslie, publisher of the Clinch Valley News said that he had read Kelly's affidavit and that he believed "the same to be substantially correct."

GOVERNOR SMITH MAY TAKE DIP INTO 'SOLID SOUTH' ON NEXT TOUR TO BE MADE BEGINNING WITH NEXT WEEK

BY D. HAROLD OLIVER Associated Press Staff Writer ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 4.—Governor Smith is proceeding with the mapping out of his future campaign plans along lines he believes most effective in the light of experience gained from his first two weeks' invasion of the West. While keeping silent on the number of speeches he expects to deliver on his second swing beginning next week, and where they will take him, the democratic presidential nominee is expected to chart his course around the eastern half of the country, probably taking a dip into the "Solid South" before touching several border states, and then complete the circle with speeches in the more northern states. How long this trip will take and what subjects the nominee will discuss are not known definitely, but it is certain he will reserve the final week of the campaign for a whirlwind finish in the Atlantic seaboard states. His speeches then will be in more rapid order and probably will be confined to the strip between Boston and Baltimore, as well as those cities, with New York getting the final address on the Saturday night before election. Definite announcement of the schedule for the next stumping tour will be made by the governor himself in a few days. Meanwhile he intends to get as much rest as possible and to limber up on the golf links. He is making no political engagements.

COOLIDGE TO MAKE TALKS

PLANS ADDRESSES FOR PERIOD PRIOR TO ELECTION DAY

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—Herbert Hoover today paid another visit to the White House to discuss the general political situation with President Coolidge and disclosed that the chief executive planned to deliver some addresses before election day.

The republican presidential nominee declared he did not know whether the speeches of Mr. Coolidge would be political. He would not reveal the subject of their conversation beyond declaring that it was on various matters pertaining to the campaign and the general progress of his presidential fight.

Well-wishers of Hoover welcomed today a group of first voters from the home town of Governor Smith, his democratic opponent, with a brief address in which he emphasized that the vigor and idealism of the younger generation were essential to carry on the republican party.

The candidate also learned from Representative Hamilton Fish, New York, a new angle on the political situation in that state.

Nomination of Ambassador A. B. Houghton to Great Britain as a republican senatorial candidate, Fish declared, together with the vigorous fight of the democratic forces under Governor Smith, had thrown that state into the doubtful column. Selection of Houghton had alienated the world war veterans from the republican party.

Demops Gain in East

Later Fish said he had informed Dr. Hubert Work, chairman of the republican national committee, that unless the circulation of religious literature was stopped, the democrats would make sweeping gains in the east. He added that he also had urged Work to summon Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt back to her duties in the department of justice.

In greeting the delegation which represented the New York Young Republican club, Hoover said that the aim of the party was to meet the problems with a policy that comes of open mindedness and human sympathy, a policy that can be stated so that intelligent people can understand.

During the day the republican national committee made public a message from Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, who announced his intention to support Hoover.

A brighter report on the Massachusetts situation was brought to the national committee during the day by Representative Allen T. Treadway who declared that not only the Bay State but Rhode Island and the other New England states, looked safe for republicans.

Remnants Of Once Confederate Army Hold Convention

TYLER, Oct. 4 (AP)—Love for the South, "and loyalty to a cause we know to be right still burns with a steady flame," in the hearts of the veterans of the Confederate army in spite of failing eyesight and hearing, and the other marks which time has stamped on their figures, Lon A. Smith, past-commander of the veterans declared in his annual message to the state convention here yesterday.

"You are a remnant of the proud army that followed the wise statesman, your president, Jefferson Davis; the brave chieftan, my father's general, Albert Sydney Johnson; the courageous Stonewall Jackson; the gallant Beauregard; the brave John B. Hood; the daring and fearless Joseph E. Johnston; the courageous Pickett and the peerless and immortal Robert E. Lee."

Business sessions of the reunion are being held at the Smith county court house while the Sons of Confederate Veterans are holding their convention at the First Baptist church.

BANDIT ESCAPE TO BRING QUIZ

INVESTIGATION WILL BE MADE INTO FLIGHT OF ROY DICKERSON

(By Associated Press)

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Oct. 4.—The latest escape of Roy Dickerson, Alabama's notorious holdup man, in which he scaled the walls of Kilby prison, state penitentiary, Tuesday night with two fellow prisoners, has brought about a tense situation which state officials declare will remain so until a thorough investigation of prison affairs lasting probably for several weeks, is completed.

Dismissal of a number of prison guards for "inefficiency and negligence," likely will result from the investigation, Hamp Draper, associate member of the state board of administration in charge of convicts, announced today after a conference with Governor Graves.

A. G. Richards, guard, who claimed he was bound and his eyes and mouth plastered over with adhesive tape, was dismissed summarily by the prison head.

The present enrollment of the Lubbock city schools is 4,218. It was announced here yesterday by W. H. Duncan, superintendent of the city schools.

HOOVER FINAL PLAN NOT MADE

LEAVES PROGRAM FOR CLOSING DAYS TILL TIME ARRIVES

BY JAMES L. WEST (Associated Press Staff Writer)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—His attention centered now upon present exigencies of the campaign, Herbert Hoover is leaving to the future his precise program for the closing days of the presidential contest.

His chief concern for the time being is the eastern sector of the country from which he receives varying reports as to the outlook. Some of these are of a very pessimistic nature while others are less gloomy.

The situation in the South also is one to which Hoover is directing some of his energies and his personal bid for support in that section will be made Saturday in his visits to Elizabethton and Johnson City, Tenn., in both of which towns he will make addresses.

While this is largely republican territory, it is well into the South and Hoover's messages will be directed in part at least to all of the country South of the Mason and Dixon line.

On his trip to Elizabethton, upon which he sets out tomorrow night, Hoover will be accompanied by Mrs. Hoover, their son, Herbert, Jr., and George Akerson, his personal assistant.

There will be a rear platform talk at Bristol, Va., first stopping place. The candidate will be presented by C. Bascom Slemm, national committeeman for Virginia, who will join the party there.

Entraining again at Elizabethton at 3:15 Eastern Standard Time, the Hoover party will proceed to Johnson City, arriving there at the same hour, Central Standard Time. He will depart at 7:15 p. m. Central Standard Time, arriving in Washington at 11 A. M. Sunday, after an absence of exactly 33 hours.

Five Year 'Honor' Quest Is Rewarded

TAMPA, Fla., Oct. 3 (AP)—A five year search for a suspected murderer to vindicate the honor of the heads of their families whom he had accused, has been brought to a successful end here by two Cubans with the arrest of Zolio Rodriguez, wanted on a charge of slaying an aged woman resident of Havana suburbs, for her money.

Persistent efforts of Manuel Ardisano and his cousin, Maria Suarez, whose fathers Rodriguez had sought to implicate in the crime, rewarded yesterday when Ardisano recognized the suspect on the street here and held him until police arrived. Miss Suarez completed the identification.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Oct. 4 (AP)—James MacGuckin, 24, United States customs guard, who on July 24 shot and killed Leo Boice, stevedore, and who was indicted for murder yesterday, committed suicide at his home here. His body was found in a gas filled room today.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action: it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germs growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

Open Mindedness Held G. O. P. Object

THE PLAINSMAN

Says
 That Girl on Broadway says a lot of qualified women voters will not vote because they have nothing to wear to the polls.

Thirty-four thousand, eight hundred eighty-nine persons—almost 25,000—crowded through the turnstiles at the Fifteenth Annual Panhandle-South Plains fair yesterday. SOME crowd for SOME fair. No wonder officials of the organization are planning an expansion.

The record smashing through which packed the fair park yesterday from 10 in the morning until midnight has placed before Lubbock a serious problem. What we must decide is: shall we help the fair grow as it is growing naturally, or shall we sit back and leave it like it is?

Watch the crowds out at the exposition, look at the automobiles with plates on them showing that people are coming for a radius of more than 100 miles, and you'll realize that the people of this section want real fair and that they are going to have one. Crowds are growing every year. More space, more and better buildings are needed if the fair itself is to keep pace with the demand for it.

The Fair association should make a good profit this year—enough to put up at least one new building and enough to improve the grounds. That much should be done—and then a lot more things. Automobile parking is a problem. Last night thousands of cars sat in the parking lanes for hours while the grounds were being emptied of thousands of automobiles, one outlet being entirely too small to care for the task. More sidewalks connecting the business part of the city with the fair grounds thousands of people would walk from the city to the exposition and thus help eliminate the parking problem.

The Plainsman believes that the fair is able to care for itself financially. But it does need the moral support and the labor of citizens here if it is to expand as it should. Already definitely established as the greatest sectional fair in this part of the country, it must be allowed to grow to increase its scope and public support is essential.

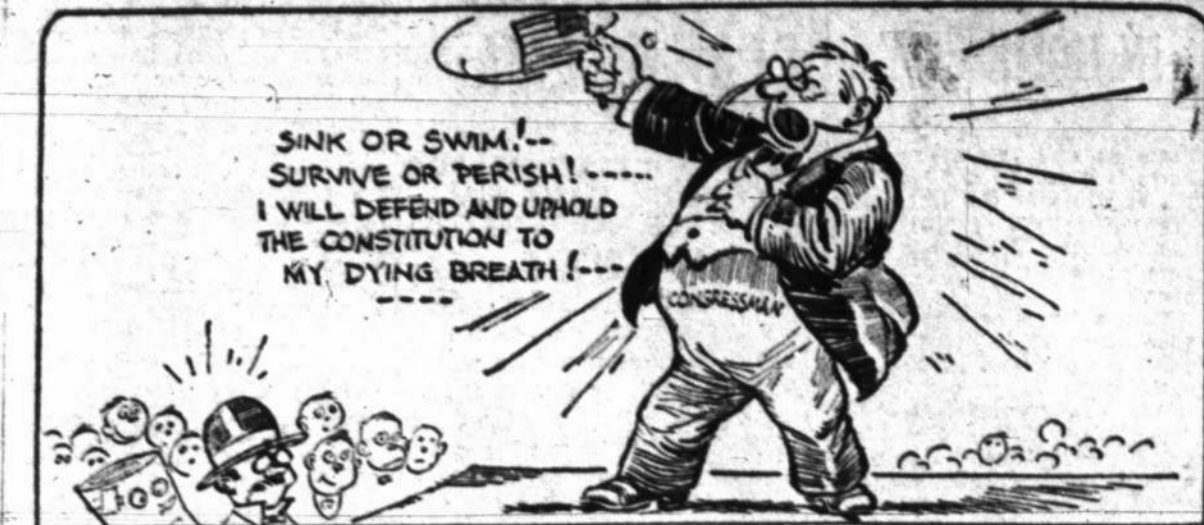

That Man on Avenue Q says it may be hot at the World Series but a fellow can't cool himself off with baseball fans!

TODAY'S FOM: 'AVERSE'
 To-gubishers I sent one day
 A little verse—a summer lay—
 'Twas just a verse—
 But so were they!

The Plainsman suggests to the fair association that one day during the next fair be set aside for mothers and children and that some arrangements be made to furnish resting places for them. Hundreds of mothers and small children were mashed into the crowds yesterday and it would tear your heart strings to see some of the little fellows all bedraggled and worn, sitting about on the ground, too tired to move.

If one afternoon, or morning perhaps, could be set aside for mothers and small children it surely would help matters. Let the attractions open early, contract with the free acts and the carnival for special showings and turn over part of a day to mothers and kiddies. That would be an act of kindness and a consideration which would not soon be forgotten.

Congress Loses A Few Zealous Reformers, Barrage For Smith Begun, Vice-Presidency Soft Job, Dutcher Says

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
 WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—For a few blissful days the good people of Washington, who are forever at the mercy of crusading congress-men, went happily about in the belief that they had been definitely relieved of four of the most ambitious reformers in congress.

Final returns from Georgia, however, showed that Congressman William C. Lanford of Douglas had narrowly nosed through in the primaries, after appearing to have been beaten. Lanford is the author of the Blue Sunday bill, which would close up everything in the District of Columbia except the chimneys and which causes an annual row at committee hearings.

Nevertheless, it is certain that Congressman T. Webster Wilson of Mississippi and former Congressman William D. Upham of Georgia will not be among the members of the Seventy-first Congress. Wilson, a handsome, pleasant young man, is the author of a bill providing a federal magazine censorship board, which would penalize and drastic restrictions. He ran for the democratic senatorial nomination against Senator Stephens this year and was licked. Upham is the famous dry crusader, who was regarded by both sides as days as the outstanding fanatic of the prohibition cause until the voters unseated him two years ago. He went back after his old job this year and was again defeated in the primaries.

Congressman Tom Blanton, defeated previously in the Texas senatorial race, is also a crusading reformer in Washington's local affairs. He is a supporter of Lanford's bill, but has generally confined himself to raising rumpuses in connection with the district government and its police.

One hears many strange things over the radio these nights. For instance, there is Congressman Fred Funnell of Attica, Ind., who says: "Herbert Hoover knows more about more things than any other living man."
 Well, how about Gene Tunney?
 When a man gets to be vice president he has earned it. The vice presidency is the softest job in the world. There are no conditions, no constant fears about re-election to worry a fellow and there are always plenty of senators who can sub in the chair to preside over the senate. The job is unquestionably an honor and there is always a chance that something will happen to the president.—Both Charlie Curtis and Joe Robinson were tickled silly to get their nominations. Curtis has been grinning his pleasure ever since because he thinks he is as good as elected.
 But how those boys do have to work! One finds that the Curtis speaking program gives him 13 speeches in 13 states in 13 days. Robinson has been plugging away with equal vigor.
 The parties always make their second-place candidates work like that, giving the two leaders plenty of rest between speeches. Roosevelt sold himself to the country while plugging for McKinley in 1900. Senator Wheeler of Montana, La. Follette's running mate in 1924, had to carry a great burden alone when La Follette's health broke down.
 The vice presidential candidate's hope of reward is a four-year-old rest in the senate, but he needs it.

In New York
 By Gilbert Swan

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—The East Side, as well as Broadway, bursts into a sudden shower of amusement activity. Its lights—particularly the lights of Second Avenue—seek to blaze as brightly as those of the "main stem." Its theaters impressively open their doors and its cafes grow gay with crowds and music.
 It is at Rosh Hashana, most important of the Jewish holidays, that Second Avenue sends up its curtains. Here, in the heart of what was called "the ghetto," million-dollar edifices rise to the drama, the films and the musical comedy. Here is a theater world which "slummers from up-town" just began to discover last season. Here are favorites with a following such as no Broadway star can claim. Here, season after season, Molly Pichon reigns queen. "The darling of the East Side," they call her. Mary Pickford was off next door to her particular audiences. She has but to hang out her sign and the crowds will flock in. Her husband, Jacob Kalich, bears the title of "The East Side Ziegfeld."
 It is there, too, that Maurice Schwartz clings to Art, with a capital "A." What is known today as "modernism" in stage settings and lightings were old to Schwartz when first they saw the light of Broadway. Dean of the art theaters Schwartz has been one of the drama's noblest defenders.
 And there is Ludwig Satz, who wandered long enough from the fold to do "Potash and Perlmutter" on the "big street."
 The Yiddish theaters in Manhattan boast 1600 artists. The East Side "Broadway" begins on the old Bowery, shunts suddenly off into Second Avenue and goes merrily on to Fourteenth street, studded with Russian cafes, where the balalaikas play long and late; Hungarian cafes where the zymbalons play long and late and quieter cafes where the neighbors gather over their coffee and chat.

Gotham glimpses... Those windows filled with Broadwayese yellow vests... Wonder who buys 'em?... Hope Hampton in town from Philadelphia where she'll go to grand opera... Did you know that she first came here as a prize beauty contest winner from Houston?... Mike Barody has a whole trunkload of decorations and medals earned when he was a major for the czar, but he's rehearsing in a Broadway chorus... The theater cigarette-girls now sell dolls in the theater lobbies... The dolls are dressed to resemble principals in the particular production and are bought as souvenirs... Tickets to Al Johnson's new picture, "The Singing Fool," were sold for $11 per each and scalpers got many times as much... Which is "top money" for a movie... And thousands were turned away... The same price was asked for Jack Dempsey's opening. Wax figures of the Edeu Huse type are the latest crowd catchers in some of the Broadway theaters... Signature hunters are now having their written on last summer's straw hats... Having heard that a load of hay on Broadway would remarks ex-Senator Bob Owens of Oklahoma here who had 'dishing' the strange part of it is that they're all sincere...

 The democrats finally got wise to the fact that there were two or three hundred hungry correspondents down here who had 'dishing' to feed on except the daily barrage of propaganda from Hoover headquarters. The Smith headquarters and the Smith publicity forces, as well as everyone worth buzzing for a little inside democratic dope, were all in New York, and nearly all the political writers were in Washington.
 So two veteran newspapermen, Charles S. Hayden and R. M. Gates were recently appointed to open up a publicity office at permanent democratic headquarters which now issues publicity material simultaneously with the New York offices and furnishes propaganda for southern weeklies and dailies. The result is that Smith is getting a better publicity break over the country, though Hoover is much more closely identified with Washington in the popular mind because he has made the capital his headquarters.

9,000 Gallons Gasoline In Blaze
 BEAUMONT, Oct. 4 (AP)—Nine thousand gallons of gasoline held in two oil tank cars in the railroad yards here burned last night. The blaze raged for three hours before firemen extinguished it. It is believed to have started from a gasoline leak onto a "hot box."
 A city fireman was overcome by gas.
 An old-fashioned couple moved into our neighborhood the other day. They have a six month old baby and haven't even got an automobile.

SUNFLOWER COMES INTO OWN, LAMESA EXPERIMENTS PROVING THEIR VALUE AS COMPARED TO COTTON OF PLAINS

Will South Plains farmers turn from raising cotton to raising sunflowers?

Starting as though it may sound some farmers have already done that very thing. One large land owner, J. R. Weaver, who has 18 sections of his lands now in cultivation near Lamesa, has told all the farmers on those acres that he would rather they would not raise a stalk of cotton on the land. He did not demand that they should not raise cotton, but expressed the desire they would not.

And another strange announcement—there will be about 10,000 acres of land near Lamesa planted to sunflowers next year, according to an estimate made by the Lamesa chamber of commerce.

The reason is that T. G. Waldrip of Lamesa, while in the Avalanche office today, explained that he has been experimenting with several varieties of sunflower for the past year or so, having experimented with four varieties this year on 1,000 acres.

Beals Carter in Lamesa said: "I find that the Manchurian sunflower is the best for this section."

Waldrip stated: "We raise sunflowers for commercial purposes and have discovered that they can be raised for about half the trouble about $10 an acre in returns. This is figuring cotton at a fourth of a dollar per acre at 20 cents per pound of sunflowers on my 1,600 acres this year, we will get 800 pounds to the acre and the present price bid on seed is 5 cents per pound, or $400 a ton. That figures $320 per acre. And the half crop is due to worms, same as short cotton and other crops have been damaged."

Waldrip explained that the seed of the sunflower is used by manufacturers of poultry and stock feed and that they are also crushed for the purpose of extracting oil, which is used for similar purposes as cotton seed oil.

Things favorable to the raising of sunflowers, as compared to raising cotton, Waldrip said, is that ordinary frost does not affect them, it taking a degree as low as 18 to injure the plants. Neither do sandstorms injure them, which is primarily a dry weather plant, as everyone knows.

"I don't intend to ever plant another stalk of cotton," Mr. Waldrip declared, "and there is not a man who has raised sunflowers this year who will ever raise another stalk of cotton." He told of the estimate of the Lamesa chamber of commerce and Mr. Weaver's request to others on his farm.

Plant in March and have the crop thrashed and through with by the middle of August," he said.

said, "this year we planted in May and are through thrashing all but about 200 acres. I planted some 60 acres on the fourth, fifth and sixth of July, as another experiment, and those six acres are almost ready for thrashing now."

The sunflower crop is planted with a corn planter, in rows similar to corn planting, about two pounds of seed to the acre being required. After the flower plant is up, it is ready for harvesting within 90 days.

Residents of the town of Batesville yesterday passed a resolution asking the former congressman to speak elsewhere. W. R. Roosevelt Sure South For Smith

WARM SPRINGS, Ga., Oct. 4 (AP)—On the eve of his departure today for Columbus, Ga., Cleveland, Ohio, and Boston to speak on behalf of the Democratic national ticket, Franklin D. Roosevelt said the southeastern states would give Governor Smith a large majority on election day.

The former assistant secretary of the navy who was nominated by New York Democrats this week as candidate for governor declared the "so-called Hoover Democrat" movement in South Carolina, Florida, Alabama and Georgia has all but collapsed.

Asserting that he also had favorable reports from North Carolina, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas and Alabama, the New York nominee leveled that "a flood of scurrilous and disgusting literature in the south will prove to be a blessing, because it had resulted for the first time in a generation in a definite democratic campaign organization to work for the national ticket."

broadsuit trimmed with black, flat fur and a wide red hat. She carried her bridal flowers. Tunney wore the blue sack suit in which he was carried. It was thought that as well as visiting Florence they would tour other romantic and historical places including Perugia, where Pope Leo XIII was bishop for 30 years before being called to the vatican, and Assisi, home of the Humble St. Francis.

Rheumatism is a serious disease and should have the attention of a good physician, but the patient should be made comfortable as suffering retards recovery. For this purpose nothing is safer or surer than Capudine. Being liquid, it acts almost instantly—much quicker than tablets and powders. Capudine does not upset the stomach and contains no habit-forming drugs, yet it is more effective in relieving pain and high nerve strain. At all drug stores. 30c and 60c sizes. (adv.)
