Tevis Urges People To Call for Gas Books

R. C. Tevis announced this week that a number of people here had made application for new gasoline coupons and have failed to call for them. He urges all who made application for renewals to call for their coupons this week.

Thursday Deadline for Tire Inspection

Motorists who hold A gasoline ration books must have the second inspection of their tires made not later than Thursday, Sept. 30, it was stated Tuesday by Bob Tevis, local chairman of the Wichita County War Price and Ration Board.

Tevis said that no forms would have to be turned in to the ration board offices after the inspection and that the date applied only to motorists holding A books. Proper procedure calls for a tire inspector to make his inspection of the tires, and to enter his findings on form R-570, part B, the second tire inspection record form, Tevis said.

County's Funds Transferred

Jury, General Monies Aid Officers' Salaries

Surplus earnings of the county's jury fund for 1943 in the amount of $12,000 was transferred Monday by the county commissioners court to the general fund, after which $15,000 then was transferred from the general fund to the officers salary fund.

The officers salary fund, which carries the payrolls of the county's eight principal departments of government, was overdrawn about $40,000 at the first of September.

Employment of T. R. (Dan) Boone to represent the county in trial of E. W. Napier's water damage suit against Wichita County was authorized. Land north of the Ray-Massie addition is involved.

County Judge Guy McNeely displayed a letter from Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Perkins stating that a first payment of about $3,500 may be expected Oct. 13 on the $60,000 in royalties given several weeks ago by them to provide a city-county isolation hospital and unit at the Wichita General Hospital.

Payment of $600 annually towards the $1,800 salary for an office secretary for the county home demonstration agent, Miss Mary Louise Mason, was authorized by the court. The remaining $1,200 is to be paid by the Texas A&M College extension service. Miss Mary Lucyle Thomas assumed that position Monday.

Mrs. Helen Pharris, deputy in the county clerk's office, is assuming the position of clerk to the court, in addition to her regular duties, on the termination Oct. 1 of the employment of Mrs. Rose Cook, assistant delinquent tax collector and clerk to the court.

The court received a letter from the American Legion post at Burkburnett, recommending the appointment of Fred Brookman of that city as service officer for Wichita and Clay Counties for the new post authorized by the legislature to aid war veterans in their applications for war service-connected benefits. At the court's last session, similar recommendations for Brookman had been received from the legion post at Electra.

Singing Services At Nazarene Church Every Two Weeks

Good singers and those wanting to hear good singing are urged to attend the singing meet at the Nazarene church each 2nd and 4th Sundays of each month. The singing starts at 2 o'clock and lasts until 4 o'clock.

The district singing convention has been secured by Burkburnett and will be held the Second Sunday in December.

Typewriter Ribbons at Star.

Clarence Foster New Member Of Rotary Club

Clarence Foster, whose classification is motion picture manager, was introduced as a new member of the Rotary club Tuesday noon. He will be presented with his pin and Rotary obligation at the next meeting.

Jockey Armstrong had charge of the program and introduced Lt. McCosh, of Sheppard Field. Lt. McCosh is in the Medical Corps, and is in charge of the inspection of all foods that are served to Sheppard Field personnel. He told of the various inspections that all food and drink is subject to before it is allowed to be served. He also stressed the advantages of using pasteurized milk and hoped that Burkburnett would soon be able to secure a pasteurized milk depot here.

Ralph Davis, superintendent of the schools, announced the football game this Thursday (tonight) between the Holliday Eagles and the Bulldogs, to be played at Holliday. Fred Brookman called on volunteers to take the team to the game—but no takers.

Cap Boden will have charge of the program next week. Visitors from Wichita Falls were M. E. Conkling, Tom Edwards, S. M. Gose, C. J. Tucker, and Scotty Scott. Gose had as his guest, his son, Dick Gose.

Rules Changed On Tire Lists

Grade 1 Eligibility Is Restricted

Eligibility for grade 1 tires, after Oct. 1, will be restricted to persons who hold current, valid gasoline ration books for at least 601 miles per month, it was revealed Monday by members of the Wichita County War Price and Ration Board.

Secretary R. L. Neeley of the board, who made the announcement, said that in the past all motorists who hold B or C gasoline coupon books could qualify for grade 1 tires, which mean that 241 miles per month was all that was required to be eligible for grade 1 tires.

According to information from Washington there will be a shortage of approximately eight million passenger tires this year over the country, Neeley reported, and quotas set for October probably will not be supplemented.

Fair Crowds At Church Revival

A fair crowd greeted the Evangelist and singer Monday night. The messages have been ringing true each morning and evening. You are the loser if you miss these services.

The singing is superb—the preaching is excellent—the Holy Spirit leading with God's servants following.

Looking forward to Sunday: The Sunday School goal (Rally Day) has been set at 404. The Sermon subjects can be found on one of the cards.

Special Service: Monday night the evangelist will speak on "Remember Pearl Harbor". A service in which we are to honor all who have loved ones in service. Then, too, the evangelist will discuss such questions as: "How shall we avenge the blood of 3,077 who were killed in the Pearl Harbor attack?" "Why were we caught off guard at Pearl Harbor?" "Who were the Japs' secret agents in this attack?" "What secret weapon did the Japs use to humiliate such a great nation as America?" "Will America win the war?" "Shall America go the way of France?" "What internal enemies are seeking to defeat America?" and many other interesting subjects.

Be present—be patriotic to Church—Christ. A. E. Harrison, Pastor.

Rev. DeVore To Attend Evangelistic Meeting In Dallas

Bishop Ivan Lee Holt has called a meeting of the District Directors of Evangelism of his Jurisdiction to meet in Dallas Friday morning to discuss plans for a school of evangelism to be held early next year. Delegates are to be in attendance from North and West Texas and New Mexico. Rev. DeVore plans to go with a car load of preachers from this section. Mrs. DeVore plans to go to Dallas with them to visit her mother who is seriously ill; she has been bed-fast since early summer and is improving very slowly.

Other delegates attending from this district are: Dr. E. A. Hunter, District Superintendent; Rev. W. R. Houston, Rev. W. O. Bucy and Merle T. Waggoner.

Brotherhood Meets At Calvary Baptist

The men of Calvary Baptist Church met last Tuesday night and reorganized their Brotherhood. Officers were elected and a good program was enjoyed by all. O. D. Wortham was elected chairman, J. L. Barnett, secretary and Rufus Welborn, treasurer. The group plans to meet every Tuesday night at the Church, except the second Tuesday night of each month, which will be given over to visitation. Varied and interesting programs are planned for each Tuesday night, with a special invitation to every man in and around Burkburnett to be present, regardless of Church affiliations.

Demonstration On Vegetables Given To Clara Club

The Clara Demonstration club met in regular session Monday afternoon, in the home of Mrs. H. M. Sutterfield.

Miss Louise Mason gave an interesting demonstration on preparing vegetables, which had been canned. After a short recreation period refreshments were served to Mesdames J. L. Pearson, R. B. Chambers, S. M. Butts, M. C. Chapman, Miss Mason and Mrs. T. L. Leland of the Hill Crest Club.

Now that they have picked a MRS. America, there is a chance for lots of grandmothers who wear their swimming suits well!

Bible Schools Show Marked Increase In Attendance

Last Sunday completed the year for most of the Local Bible Schools. Attendance in most of the churches is below last year's average for the Bible School hour but considered remarkably good for conditions that prevail generally.

It is hoped that many will avail themselves of the fine services open to them in the local churches and that attendance will increase beginning the new year next Sunday.

Music will be sung in unison, soprano, alto, tenor and bass. Music has been ordered for solo, duet, trio, and quartet for both boys and girls.

Barbour of Iowa Park, member of the state board of directors who is to preside.

Farmers of the 17 counties comprising district three are invited to attend next Tuesday's meeting here, Barbour said. Te Pace bill would include farm labor costs in calculation of parity prices of farm products. This measure passed the house but failed of passage in the senate. It is expected that it will be introduced again soon.

Discussion also will be had on farm labor, machinery and supplies, price ceilings, subsidies and rollbacks, it was said.

Fire Dept. Answers Call to Old Mill

The fire department was called out Monday morning about 3:30 in answer to a call from the old mill building. When they arrived they found a fire in the middle of the floor, which looked like it had been built by a bunch of kids. The fireman succeeded in cutting a hole in the floor and extinguishing the blaze without much damage.

Only six firemen out of a membership of 22 answered the alarm.

Burkburnett To Play Holliday Eagles Tonight

The Burkburnett Bulldogs, with one practice game under their belt, have been working hard this week and polishing up on some of their plays, an dare readying for their game with the Holliday Eagles Thursday (tonight) at the Holliday stadium. The Eagles are coached by a former Burkburnett coach, Jim Eddleman, and the Bulldogs are out to take this team.

Burkburnett will play their first conference game at Vernon Friday, October 9th, when they tangle with the Vernon Lions. The first home game will be Friday, October 15, when the local club will play Olney.

BULLDOGS AND NOCONA BATTLE TO 0-0 TIE

The Nocona Indians and the Burkburnett Bulldogs battled to a 0-0 tie at Nocona Friday night, after the Indians' threat from the two and one-half yard line in the last two minutes of play failed to materialize.

Play raged back and forth up and down the field in the first half. Nocona's threat failed to hold good when the Bulldog's line stood firm on the two and one-half yard line despite attempts of Russell to crash through to pay dirt in the last two minutes of play.

Burk's threat to score came in the first half when they penetrated to the 15 where the Indians' line held, and Nocona took over on downs.

Preston and Gregg led the visitors' attack. Nocona's stars were Russell and Wayland in the backfield and Crenshaw, a backfield man on the offensive and lineman on the defensive.

This same date last year 1162 bales had been ginned and it was bringing 14½ to 17c and seed selling for $48 per ton.

BURKBURNETT STAR, THURSDAY, SEPT. 30, 1943

Newspaper Week

The fourth annual National Newspaper Week is observed from Oct. 1 to 8 and finds groups and organizations, both inside and outside the Fourth Estate, celebrating the occasion. The slogan adopted is a tried and true statement of fact and stands for the weeks through the past years and for years to come: "A Free Press And A Free People—An Unbeatable Team!"

The idea, back four years ago when this week was first named, hoped to promote the relationship between the publishers and the public, for since the newspaper profession is probably more concerned in the affairs of the nation's people than any other privately owned business, it follows that the people should understand it's press. We are more influenced and concerned about the freedom of our press during wartime than at any other, but a free press must be promoted AT ALL TIMES or we are apt to live in a constant state of battle. To maintain a democracy, freedom from fear, from want, freedom of religion, of speech and by jury, these essentials must be publicized to keep people free to choose. Wherever is brought up the topic of human liberties, first we think upon what force does all of this freedom hinge. The press is part of all the freedoms we seek to maintain and is even more than that. It is so powerful in its printing, that facts, thinking and leadership are so effectuated to such an extent by it that, we might say the other freedoms DEPEND upon this one in order to maintain the democracy. The newspapers, in order to give the people those facts that will enable them to work for their best interest, must consider the trust and confidence placed in the press and never violate it. The press in Burk Burnett hopes to serve its readers faithfully.

How He'll Love It!

There is much inside that five-pound, measured to specifications Christmas box that you are mailing your boy over seas each week until Oct. 15. You tuck in socks, hankies, a money belt and a pipe, chewing gum and candy, labeling the box as a Christmas gift and adding the final touch of stickers and seals of holly and a fat, jolly Santa Claus.
This will carry that spirit from Burk Burnett to that boy overseas. In every part of the war theatre memory will travel the miles to back home as the boy dreams of those Christmas holidays of the past. He sees again the glistening tinsel and shining bright-colored balls and again helps locate that burned out bulb on the string of tree lights. He smells distinctly the odor of cedar and pine and even fastens securely the tree on the side of his car to bring it home from the store. Maybe he is fortunate enough to remember having cut it down himself. He plainly sees the holly wreath hanging on the front door and how could he forget all of those delicious odors that come from kitchenward as Mom busily bustles around in that typical Mom-apron.
That box from you holds more than a cigarette lighter and a sewing kit. It holds pictures of bob-sledding and ice skating and holiday dances and Christmas carols by the church choir with the family alongside of you and peace and good will just filling the place! Sure, tears will come but he won't let the fellows see that he isn't such a tough fellow after all. He's a soldier and who to say nay! He is going to be homesick when he opens those boxes, but he wouldn't be without that feeling, it's what is keeping him going and making him fight so that he can come back to all of these things that he remembers as he unwraps your Christmas box.

An Equal Income?

Here are a few facts to think about when you hear someone speak of equalizing the income of the whole world, in the peace that is to come. The American people might well bear in mind that the income of this country is 36 per cent of the TOTAL income of the entire world. Although we have only six per cent of the population of the world, we have 30 per cent of all the nation's wealth. Now let us
would distribute to the world 30 per cent of her income, retaining six per cent. It would reduce the individual to 5-6 of the family income. But there will be such a tremendous cost for rehabilitation for so many of the nations of the world, there has been so much of lend-lease, that the billions of dollars that have been spent, that will be spent, are the best answers to equalization of income.

Now is the time to pass the ammunition, Buy War Bonds!

Burkburnett History

in storage for the first half of the month, and the connecting up of a number of leases, the pipe line urday, Sept. 22, shows an average approximately 1,300 barrels daily over the figures of last week.

Is Abolishment Of The Fee System A Myth

The Wichita Falls Record News calls attention to the passing of State Senator George Purl of Dallas, Texas. It will be remembered that it was the Senator's bill which was adopted by a Constitutional Amendment to the State of Texas Constitution by the voters of Texas several years ago in which the fee system of Texas was supposed to be abolished.
The Record News goes somewhat in detail in describing the evils of the fee system and harks back to the days when the Constables and speed traps devised by him were used in an effort to apprehend the speed hounds. An indictment is also made against the Justice of the Peace, if the transgressor of the law was found guilty and required to pay the penalty assessed for such crimes.

Now, just what did the fee system accomplish after its passage and becoming a law of the State of Texas. For one thing, it has very nearly abolished the offices of Constables and Justices of the Peace in a great number of the smaller communities of Texas.
These officials were not put on a salary basis, as we believe was the intention of the law. But, on the other hand, some Commissioner's Courts have allowed the sheriff of their counties to appoint Deputy Sheriff's whose duties duplicate those of the duly elected Constables, and thereby reduce his fees to a minimum, and th fund from which these salaries are paid remain many thousands of dollars in the red.

Navy blimps, on the lookout for enemy submarines and surface craft in northwestern waters, also are helping the war food program. Under an agreement worked out between the office of the Coordinator of Fisheries and Vice Admiral Frank Jack Fletcher, Navy Commandant in the Seattle area, blimp which sight schools of fish will communicate the news by short wave to fishing vessels.
The patrolling blimp scan easily spot schools of fish which might take fishermen hours to locate.

We've got plenty to pay back! In only one kind of coin—AMMUNITION that will shoot the Axis right into a State of unconditional surrender! Each one of us has to make up that paycheck—in WAR BONDS.

Shown scanning skies for re-appearance of strafing Messerschmitts, the American anti-aircraft crew aided in valiant defense of beachhead established by U. S. troops at Salerno in bloody fighting.

ITALY:
Troops on Offense

Their bases firmly established on the beaches of Salerno after eight days of bloody battle, Lieut. Gen. Mark Clark's Fifth Army went onto the offensive and drove Nazi panzer units back into the hills rising inland. As the Germans retreated, General Clark's Doughboys made contact with Gen. Bernard Montgomery's British Eighth army, charging northward from the toe of the Italian boot. Together, the two armies prepared to swing against the series of mountainous defenses erected by the Nazis to wear down the Allies before they reach the main enemy lines in the Po valley.

Although the Allies were first repulsed by 88-mm. guns when they landed on the sandy beach, and harassed by German armored units before they could organize strongly for attack, their position was gradually strengthened by a constant stream of reinforcements. Clouds of Allied planes roared overhead to break German battle formations, and 16-inch naval guns poured explosives into the hills from which enemy batteries caused such havoc on the beaches earlier.

Losses in Sicily

Despite the Allies' whirlwind 38-day campaign in Sicily, they suffered material losses ranging up to 10 per cent, Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau declared in support of the current 15 billion dollar bond drive. According to Morgenthau, operations in Sicily cost 13 per cent of all 155-mm. howitzers landed; 46 per cent of all 57-mm. guns; 13 per cent of all medium tanks and 7 per cent of all light tanks; 54 per cent of the carriers for the 37-mm. guns; 36 per cent of the carriers for the 75-mm. guns, and 22 per cent of the carriers for the 105-mm. guns.

"In Sicily we met only a small fraction of the opposition we are getting from the Germans now in Italy," he said.

SOUTHWEST PACIFIC:
Jap Base Encircled

With Allied troops in command of the Solomons and firmly closing their grip on New Guinea, the great Japanese naval and air base of Rabaul has been encircled and neutralized as an advance post for action in the Southwest Pacific. Hardly had General MacArthur's troops closed the noose before a big naval battle was reported in the area between New Guinea and the Solomons, thus indicating that the Allies were moving swiftly to capitalize on their position.

With Allied bombers faced with shorter runs and therefore enabled to carry heavier loads to the big base, and with the U. S. fleet ready to spring into action from neighboring waters, the encirclement of Rabaul removes the Japs' immediate threat to Australasia. At one time the Japs threatened to overrun the entire region.

HIGHLIGHTS . . . in the week's news

ITALIAN CROPS: Italy is believed to have harvested more wheat this year than she ever did, even before the war, but most of it will probably fall to the German army, say department of agriculture spokesmen. They think the crop may have amounted to 280 million bushels. Indicating that looting of food supplies is taking place, is a report by way of Stockholm.

SUBSIDIES:

Farm Groups Dissent

Declaring that maximum production was the best guarantee against inflation, leaders from national farm organizations met with President Roosevelt to protest against general food subsidies to consumers.

To assure highest production, the organization spokesmen suggested the government support "floor" prices for farm commodities at levels assuring fair returns. In the case of meat and butter, it was said, subsidies failed to halt price reactions to supply and demand at the markets.

Bucking the subsidy idea on which organized labor has pressed the government to spend two billion dollars, were Albert S. Goss of the National Grange; Edward A. O'Neal, American Farm Bureau federation; and Ezra T. Benson, National Council of Farm Co-operatives. Representing the National Farmers Union, James G. Patton differed with the majority, favoring subsidies.

See Large Crops

Despite an unfavorable combination of low rainfall and high temperatures in a huge irregular area extending from southern New England to central North Carolina, from northern Georgia to central New Mexico, from central Illinois to southwestern Mississippi, and from central South Dakota to the Rio Grande, crop production was expected to be 4 per cent above any previous year, excepting 1942.

Estimating a yield of 31.7 bushels per acre, the department of agriculture forecast a corn crop of 2,985,267,000 bushels. At 16.7 bushels per acre, 834,957,000 bushels of wheat were expected. And at 30.2 bushels per acre, 1,145,090,000 bushels of oats were anticipated.

Yielding 668 pounds per acre, the peanut crop was set at 2,801,515,000 pounds. On 136.9 bushels per acre, 460,512,000 bushels of potatoes were expected. At 46.9 bushels per acre, 71,217,000 bushels of rice were forecast.

Combined with meat and poultry production, the crops were expected to boost food supplies over present levels.

DADS' DRAFT:

Army Insists

Pointing to the army's admission that 2,700,000 troops will still be in the U. S. at the end of 1944, Senator Burton K. Wheeler pressed for congressional consideration of his bill for the deferment of fathers.

Insisting that the army's program require the induction of 700,000 men of WACs by the end of this year, Lieut. Gen. Joseph T. McNarney assailed the proposed deferment of dads. The general said that each month 75,000 men are needed to replace casualties or discharges.

Declaring that voluntary methods for bringing men into war industries have not filled needs, Undersecretary of War Robert Patterson favored a labor draft, to give an effect, as he said, to an obligation on everyone of working age to render necessary national service.

"PAY DAY": Farm soils working overtime to meet the war's vast production quotas can be restored if farmers will earmark part of their present war bond purchases for peacetime soil rebuilding projects, including the use of nitrogen, phosphorus and potash, according to a statement by the Middle West Soil Improvement committee made recently.

Finale of Italian-Allied Fighting

Gen. G. Castellano, chief of staff to General Ambrosio of Italy, is pictured as he signed the military armistice between Italian and Allied forces at advance headquarters of the Allied forces in Sicily. Witnessing the historic signing are Italian Foreign Minister Montanari, and Maj. Gen. W. B. Smith of the United States. Brig. Gen. W. D. Strong, representing England, was also present but out of range of the camera.—Telephoto.

Congress Hard at Work Again

Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn is shown, at left, just before he reconvened the house for the present session of the 78th congress. Right: Rep. Andrew J. May of New York, chairman of the house military affairs committee, who was expected to introduce a bill to ban the draft of fathers and to bring about the discharge of fathers already drafted.

Getting Ready for Trips to Battlefronts

Santa Claus is shown in Chicago's Merchandise Mart, as he packs up for his coming visit to American battlefronts of the world. Many of his gifts are now on the way to soldiers stationed overseas. November 1 is the deadline for mailing presents to overseas sailors, coastguardsmen and marines.

'One-Trip' World Series

Plans for a one-trip World Series were decided upon as final arrangements were made for the 1945 baseball classic. Pictured at the meeting are, left to right, standing, Charles McManus, secretary of the New York Yankees; Ford Frick, president of the National league; Sam Breadon, owner of the St. Louis Cardinals; and Baseball Commissioner K. M. Landis, seated.

Knock Out 5 Zeros

Gunner Charles Patton is congratulated by Gunner Marino Galluzzo (right) after they had downed five Jap Zero planes during a raid on Hankow. Galluzzo, who was on his first combat mission, accounted for two of the enemy planes.

Records on Wire

Marvin Camras, 27, of Chicago, with his device which records sound on steel wires as thin as human hairs. An eight-hour continuous program can be wound on a spool five inches in diameter and two inches wide. The device is already on naval ships and will soon be in mass production.

Queens of 1942-43

Jean Bartel, 19, of California, named "Miss America of 1943" is pictured in foreground with Joe Carroll Dennison, also of California, who received the title in 1942.

Demoted

Col. William T. Colman, as he testified during court martial proceedings against him. He was accused of shooting a Negro private, drunkenness, fraudulent transfers of enlisted men, and misappropriating government property. He was reduced to the rank of captain.

Notes of a City Slicker:

When Alexander Woolcott graduated from Hamilton College he never stopped talking about his alma mater.

So when the dramatic critic passed on, it was natural that his ashes be interred at Hamilton College Cemetery—with a few intimate friends and associates attending the services . . . It rained hard for a whole day and night before the urn containing his ashes was lowered into the ground . . . However, someone miscalculated . . . The ribbons by which the urn was lowered proved two feet short . . . And so the urn had to be dropped (into the hole partly filled with mud and water) and when it fell—all the mourners standing around the grave were splashed.

"Just like Alec!" said a bespattered pal. "To the last—a critic!"

You can't get a work of art out of Italy if you are not an Italian citizen, according to Billy Rose, an art collector himself . . . A pal of his in Italy not long ago offered $100,000 for a Rembrandt and was informed that he could take it with him by having a likeness of Mussolini painted over it . . . The paint, it was explained, could easily be washed off without damaging the Rembrandt . . . "If they see you with a picture of Il Duce," said the dealer, "they will not stop you."

And so the art lover paid the $100,000 and had no trouble bringing the picture into the United States . . . Where he easily washed away the painting of Mussolini to discover it was an oil of Mussolini!

We asked a movie director how some of them acquired great reputations . . . He offered this example . . . A famous character actor, in one of his early films, was doing a desert scene in which he was to portray a man dying of thirst . . . The director tried to get the actor to register the proper emotion, but the terrible ham only managed to look farcical . . . Finally, after repeated failure, the director gave up . . . To get the idea across, however, he decided to photograph the actor's feet throughout the scene—showing him staggering along the desert—dropping one of his possessions after the other: First he dropped his pack, then his gun, and finally his canteen . . . The critics voted that scene the outstanding one in the film!

Hecklers of the administration are having a field day with this one . . . In Sicily, they'd have you believe, a peasant invited a comrade to his home for a feast . . . After two bowls of soup, double offerings of entree and a three-inch American sirloin steak plus several ears of Indiana corn on the cob (loaded with Maryland butter), Idaho potatoes (with more butter) and Georgia watermelon and oodles of New York cream for their delicious Yankee Doodle coffee, the guest beamed his appreciation.

"Not yet!" interrupted the host. "Now comes dessert!"
"What kinda dessert? How can we eat any more?"
"Now comes Tootsie Rolls!" said the host.
"Tootsie Rolls?" asked the guest. "What's Tootsie Rolls?"
"Who knows?" shrugged the host. "Lend-Lease!"

The Magazines: Liberty scoops the field with a report alleging that New York school children find their lessons so exciting they hate going home when the bell rings . . . I don't believe it . . . Newsweek states that the 4th year of the war produced only one great Allied general—Sir Harold Alexander . . . Zato? How about Gen. Eisenhower, who may be FDR's running mate in the 1944 Presidential race? . . . Summer Welles' typewriter ran away from him, judging by his text in Coronet. Diplomatic jobs, he noted, are non-political and bring success if worked at hard enough . . . In the SEP there is a nice, warm tale of the newspaper men covering the South Pacific. The biggest peril of the job, warns the author, is capital "I" poisoning . . . H. Brubaker's best item in his New Yorker kidding: "The housing crisis in Washington is evidently worse than ever. Drew Pearson has had to move into the doghouse."

Lieut. Col. Elliott Roosevelt, enjoying a well-deserved furlough in the Stork Club the other night, was being congratulated by intimates. "You are thinner in the face," said a newspaper man, and then pointing to his ribbons, added, "but a lot heavier across the chest."
"The only decoration that really counts," was the reply, "is the Purple Heart Medal, which I wish I had!"
The Purple Heart is awarded only to the wounded . . . Elliott's adventures cost him 43 pounds.

Fifty-three per cent of the cars on highways continue to waste rubber, for officials report that that number continue to be driven over 35 mph. A year ago 91 per cent of the cars traveled faster than the rubber conservation limit.

Christian Science Services Sunday

"Unreality" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 31. The Golden Text is: "If God be for us, who can be against us?" (Romans 8:31).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heaven by his understanding" (Jeremiah 51:15).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Good cannot result in evil. As God Himself is good and is Spirit, goodness and spirituality must be immortal. Their opposites, evil and matter, are mortal error, and error has no creator" (page 277).

The General Church of the Nazarene has designated, the month of October as Personal Contact month, setting a goal of one million contacts to be made in this month. Its doctrine teaches a well rounded life of symmetrical development, and that Christianity practiced solves all problems.

The local church here is co-operating and desires to help all people of Burkburnett find a place of worship and service. Life will be happy only as it is peaceful and useful. Our workers want to visit you if you are not regularly enrolled in some church.

Methodist Churches Closing Out A Year's Work In October

The Annual Conference of the Methodist Church in the North Texas Conference will convene in Dallas October 26-29 at the First Methodist Church. There are some 444 churches in the conference comprising 8 districts and about 216 pastors. Each pastoral charge will be represented by a lay delegate.

The local church will hold its closing conference on October 24 and elect a lay delegate at that time. Rev. L. F. Jones, a superannate member of the conference will plan to attend. There are about 30 local preachers serving as accepted supplies, about 190 active members of the Conference and 60 superannuated members of the conference.

Contrary to public opinion in many sections there is no limit on the number of years a pastor can serve a local congregation.

Methodism has two pastors who are serving their 48th year in the same pastorate and more than a dozen others who have served the same church more than 40 years, and all members of the conference may Superannuate at any time after they are 65 and have to Superannuate at 72. Bishops Superannuate at 72 also.

A number of moves are expected in the conference this year, because of the particular appointments that are to be filled. The past two years there has been very little moving at Conference, but an increasing amount of moving between Conferences. The Superintendency of the Dallas Methodist Hospital is to be filled, First Church, Sulphur Springs and the Paris and Greenville Districts are to be filled, as well as a number of other appointments which are vacant because of some 22 men going into the Chaplaincy during this Conference year. This will be a very colorful Conference for at this time laymen will elect 3 lay delegates to the General Conference of the Conference who are ministerial delegates to the General Conference which meets in April, for its quadrennial meeting. 8 lay delegates and 8 ministerial delegates will also be elected to the Jurisdictional meeting of the South Central Jurisdictional Conference which meets each quadrennium following the meeting of the General Conference. At this Jurisdictional Conference it is expected that additional Bishops will be elected for this Jurisdiction.

The Conference is not being held over a Sunday, as is the peace-time custom, because crowded travel and hotel accommodations over the week-ends. Appointments will be read on Friday afternoon and these ministers who are moving will preach their former pulpits on October 31 and then move to the new appointment during the following week.

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 5:17-20; 19:16-22; John 5:39, 40.

GOLDEN TEXT—Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill.—Matthew 5:17.

With this lesson we begin a series of studies which should be of unusual value, a consideration of the Ten Commandments in the light of the teachings of Jesus, and other related New Testament passages.

It is appropriate to point out that, far from being outmoded, the Ten Commandments are really the basis of all moral law. They need a diligent restudy and re-emphasis in our day of disregard of moral standards.

As interpreted by the Lord Jesus and applied to our daily living, the truth of these commandments should be brought home to every boy and girl, man and woman in our Bible schools.

We learn here that our Lord did not come to set aside or destroy the law, but to fulfill it in the most complete way. But the gospel takes us a step beyond the law, and it is a great step, for we follow the One who is greater than the law.

I. Built on the Law (Matt. 5:17-20).

The law of God is eternal, never to be abrogated, never set aside. Christ Himself, although we might properly say that He was in reality the Lawgiver and thus had power and authority over the law, indicated His purpose in coming to be that of giving the law its full meaning, not of destroying it. One could wish that those who profess to be His servants might have the same measure of regard for God's law. If they did, they obviously would not be so ready to ignore it, so quick to change it or explain it away, and far more ready to accept with their Master every "lot and tittle," that is, even the minutest detail of His Word.

Recognizing Christ as the fulfillment of the law should prepare one to manifest obedience to every moral precept through His grace.

II. More Than the Law (Matt. 19:16-22).

Obedience to the commandments brings a man up to the very entrance upon life, but to enter in, he must have more than the "things" of the law; he must have the Person who is "the Door" to eternal life.

The young man who came to Christ was rich. His mind was obsessed with things. He had made it his business to observe the law, and had done well (v. 20), but his soul was not satisfied. He thought one more "thing" to do would accomplish his purpose.

The general attitude of the man was commendable. He sensed his lack of the vital something which would remake his life. He came to the right one—the Lord Jesus—with his question.

His failure to go beyond the things of the law to a faith in Christ, however, showed that he loved his possessions more than he desired to follow the Lord.

Those in our day who are trying to please God and gain eternal blessedness by works, by doing things and keeping commandments, need to recognize that in Christianity we have the One who is more than the law. They need to look away from things to be done, to the great thing that was done once and for all on Calvary.

III. Greater Than the Law (John 5:39, 40).

The Scriptures are great because they bear witness to the Christ who can give life. But obviously the One to whom they bear witness is greater than they are.

Paul speaks of the law as a "schoolmaster to bring us to Christ" (Gal. 3:24). The picture is literally of a servant charged with bringing the child to school where he may learn the truth. So the law convicts man of sin, makes him conscious of his own utter inability to meet God's requirements, and makes him ready to turn to Christ in faith and repentance (Rom. 3:20).

These men of our Lord's time were very religious. They spent much of their time searching the Scriptures that they might find eternal life. But most of them failed to understand that the life they sought was in the One who stood before them—Jesus of Nazareth—and not in the letter of the law.

This has a vital bearing on the proper study of the lessons of this quarter. "The time has passed when men might seek life in the Scriptures apart from Jesus. Now that Jesus has come, life can be found only if the Scriptures lead one to Jesus."

"If our study of the Scriptures does not bring us to Christ, then it is vain indeed. For that reason we cannot study the Ten Commandments without turning constantly to Jesus as the One greater than the law" (Lesson Commentary).

Kathleen Norris Says:

The Despairing Bride

Bell Syndicate.—WNU Features.

He went off to camp and Louis came home. When we met again it was to have the knowledge that my marriage was a mistake grow daily stronger.

By KATHLEEN NORRIS

"YOU have never received a letter from me," writes Marie Porter, from a great war industries center in Michigan. "I have so completely wrecked my life, and my chances of happiness in life, that if we were face to face I could not tell you my story. But I can write it, and ask for advice, and I know you will save me if you can. Many times I have thought of ending it all, but although I have not prayed for years, I was raised in an atmosphere of strict religious belief and I hesitate to kill myself—it seems to me a grave sin. And I have not actually sinned, foolish and weak as I certainly am. I was 18 in June."

"Seven months ago, working as a riveter, I met a young man who was destined to leave for the army last July. We fell in love and were married. I have no family, and his is in Oregon, where they have asked me to come and stay. Louis is a fine man, quiet, and without any educational or cultural advantages; his first letters were somewhat of a shock to me, for although he is 28, he writes like a boy of ten. But we thought ourselves in love and would not wait to try our affection by delay or absence."

"After he left I met another man, a different type. This man is vital, amusing, successful and popular. He is far better educated than Louis. When I met him I did not tell him I was married; it seemed a joke then. It was at a service dance; he supposed me to be even younger than I am, and as the few girls I knew didn't know anything of my private life, he suspected nothing. We went about together after that, always, may I say, with strict propriety, and presently discovered ourselves to be really in love. This was quite different from the first affair; it caused me as much misery as joy, and I knew no one ever would mean to me what Jack did. He went off to camp and Louis came home. When we met again it was to have the knowledge that my marriage was a mistake grow daily stronger. The frantic distress this caused me, you may imagine; Louis suspected nothing and was completely happy; we spent every hour of his leave together. He was being sent to Africa immediately afterward. I did not have the courage to tell him of my feeling for Jack, but when Jack in turn came home he persuaded me to write the absolute truth to Louis; that I had been foolish to marry so young and so hastily, and that I wanted him to set me free. I wrote quite a long letter, making it as gentle and affectionate as I could, and Jack and I began to plan our marriage."

Write Husband About Plans.

Go on to say that everything is changed now. A new responsibility—a new prospect has come. There is going to be a child. And for that child's sake you are never going to see Jack again, you are going to live quietly, planning for the baby in the spring, and waiting for Louis to come home. Say that you are sorry, and hope he will destroy your letter and forget it; remind him that you are very young, and confused by the exciting conditions in which you are living in war time.

He will write you forgivingly, I'm sure. If you can possibly go to his parents early in the new year, I would do so. And if you do to the farm, and it sounds a comfortable place, make them love you; set yourself to winning them, and to being a good wife and mother. As for loving Jack; you are no more sure of that than you were of loving Louis only a few months ago. At 18 you are hardly sure of any emotional reaction, let alone two love affairs. You have plunged much too young into the realities of life, and life revenges itself upon you by presenting you with its most poignant reality; that of motherhood. Nothing matters now except that you fit yourself to meet this challenge as worthily, cheerfully, normally as you can. You are making a high salary, put aside something every week for your expenses when the baby comes: look about you for some place where you can board, and perhaps board the baby, too, and go on working afterward.

Girl Must Grow Up.

If Louis writes you coldly, indignant at your vacillations, as well he may, face that situation, too. In other words, try to grow up and be a woman, rather than a bewildered child stumbling from one mistake to another. Don't say anything more about a divorce, should Louis angrily agree to one. Instead write him cheerful letters about yourself, about his parents and his home, and eventually about the baby, and let all serious decisions wait until he comes home again.

WARTIME DILEMMA

She is married to a soldier with very little educational background. During his absence she met another young man whom she felt was more her type. She wrote to her husband asking him to set her free. But soon afterward she discovered she was going to be a mother. The second man has gone to camp disgusted that she did not break from her husband sooner. Her letter is on the way, and so is the baby. At 18 the girl is so upset she feels on the verge of suicide. She asks Kathleen Norris' advice and gets it.

said that I should have told Louis the minute he got home, and all this could not have happened. Please advise me and save me from despair."

Poor little 18-year-old, you have certainly made a sad mess of your life so far! But 18 is not very old, in fact, twice 18 is not very old, and you have time ahead to grow wiser and build up to happiness and self-respect again out of this wreckage.

The first consideration now is your baby, and if you don't realize that today I can assure you that you will realize it in March, when you have the little creature in your arms. Since Louis is the father, and Louis loves you, the best first step is to write Louis the truth. That you met Jack, liked Jack, liked him even to the point of considering marrying him, and that it was under that particular emotional stress that you wrote Louis to ask a divorce.

The strong man rode out on horseback to challenge a farmer whose great strength had gained him a reputation. He entered the farmyard, tied up his horse, and approached the farmer. "Hey," he said, "I've heard a lot about you, and I've come a long way to see which is the better man."

Without answering, the farmer seized the intruder, hurled him bodily into the road. When the loser had somewhat recovered his breath, the farmer growled, "Anything more?" "Perhaps you'll be good enough to throw me my horse," was the reply.

To Prosper and Live

To live, to work, to help and to be helped, to learn sympathy through suffering, to learn faith by perplexity, to reach truth through wonder,—behold; this is what it is to prosper, this is what it is to live!—Phillips Brooks.

Household Hints

A cloth dampened with vinegar or coal oil and rubbed over the windows before washing, will remove the smoky look.

Store berries, grapes and other delicate fruits unwashed in a cold place.

Common table salt is the best cleanser for a milk strainer. Rub both sides of the strainer vigorously with the salt.

Handle fruits and vegetables gently. Do not bruise.

Soft water, or rain water, should be used in the cooling system of a tractor if possible, say agricultural engineers. Hard water will cause lime deposits on the walls of the water jackets and in the cylinder head, and also in the radiator. These deposits hinder the transfer of heat and may cause serious overheating of the engine.

A bit of wax rubbed on the bottoms of rockers, will prevent them marking even the glossiest of floors.

After butchering and cooking all the bone meat, there is always much greasy broth left. This can be canned. It is fine for seasoning beans, greens, cabbage or other foods. Save the broth for a day or two, then put in pint jars in a hot-water bath. Boil for 20 or 30 minutes.

Clara Luth. Church Announcements

Paul Kaiser, Pastor
The Christian faith is the best morale. We have God's assurance that He will help those who repent and turn to Him in faith.

Ours is, generally speaking, a Christian land in spite of much that is evil. For the sake of the many who in our country sincerely believe everywhere and of our fellow citizens as well.

The Church has a very definite and exceedingly important mission in the world today. Church people who fully realize their responsibilities in a sorrowing world can turn many to the God of all comfort and strength.

You are invited to attend the service at the Clara Church next Sunday and hear a timely, faith-strengthening message.

The morning service begins at 11:00 A. M.
The subject of the sermon will be, "How God Cares for His People."

Since the pastor is scheduled to speak at the annual mission day services, held at Lawton next Sunday afternoon, the night service will be cancelled at the Clara Church.

The Ladies' Aid will meet on Thursday afternoon at the home of Misses Lina and Frieda Goetze.

There will be no Children's Class on Saturday morning.
All other week-day activities as scheduled.

Hardin Grade School News

I. C. IVANS, Principal

We enrolled another new pupil this week, Barbara Jean Grimmitt, and we also lost another one, Nancy Ann Addikson.

We had the fun of watching the choo-choo train come in at the station Wednesday. The walk there and back was rather hot. We have learned a train song and it is really fun to act it out. We have a story on the train and are going to draw pictures of the train.

We were proud of our two mothers, Mrs. R. B. Layne and L. H. Gilbert, that came to the Parent-Teacher Association and were very disappointed in not having any more present. We all enjoyed the coffee and cookies.

Mrs. Pauline Evans, L 1-2.

We are gaining new members every week in L 1-1. The latest to enter our class was Kenneth Day of Randlett, Okla. At present there are twenty-nine boys and girls in our room. We are learning to read charts, color, write, and sing many new songs.

We had a pleasant experience last week. All three sections of the first grade went to the station to see the train. After our return we composed and read a chart about the train.

Miss Billingslea.

Our third week of school has been a very pleasant one. One of our boys has been absent every day this week, though, and he will have a hard time catching up with us.

We went down to see the train come in and leave out. When we got back to the room, we made up a story about it. Now we are having a good old time reading our own story. We learned a song about the train, too, and all drew a picture of the train, and we used Jacqueline Partney's to illustrate our story.

Our room bought $6.30 worth of Savings Stamps this week. Those buying were Gad Garland, Richard VanLoh, Jo Beth Burnett and Eddie Vernon.

Wilma Douglas, L 1-3.

We have an enrollment of 32 pupils in our room now: Fay Frazier moved to Henrietta, Texas. Most of all these pictures representative of Mother Goose Characters are displayed on the bulletin board and we have learned some of rhymes and at the Music hour played the victrola, after which we learned some of the songs we liked best. On the sand table are miniature replicas of "Old King Cole", "Mistress Mary" and others.

This was the first week at school to buy Defense Stamps. We bought $6.60 worth, Donald Wortham buying the most.

We finished our new readers.

Vann, L 2-1.

We are glad to have for room mothers this year Mrs. Orris Bernethy, Mrs. Milledge Hall, and Mrs. Dave Cozby. They have surprised us with things for our room, a box of kleenex tissues, some mercurchrome for our First Aid Kit, and a book for our library.

Bobby Ray Boydston entered our class last week. He decided not to go to school in Amarillo, but rejoin his old friends in Burkburnett.

We have begun our morning inspection for clean hands and fingernails. Each row is trying to get a star, but some pupils will have to try harder if their row wins.

We were very glad to receive a new pupil this week: Don Hicks. We hope we made him feel welcome.

In art, this week we have been talking about health rules and drawing pictures to illustrate them.

Next week we plan to begin a review of the addition and subtraction facts already known, and to learn some new facts.

For language this week we have been studying stories to find out how to act these stories out. Friday we acted on the story of "Why the Evergreens Keep Their Leaves". Francis Dee Dorland brought some ants to school and we have been watching them and learning what we could about them.

We appreciate and enjoy the beautiful flowers that the children bring to school.

Mrs. Owens, L 2-3.

The third grade section 1 have been practicing their play all week. The play will be for Chapel October 15.

We have 10 new story books in our room. We hope to be able to read them by ourselves soon. We enjoyed listening to the story, "Dumbo" this week.

Nine children made the Honor Roll in Spelling. They are Shirley Berringer, Norman Dodson, Mozella Elliott, Louis Earl Gibbs, Kay Harris, Wanda Lue Peters, LaNelle Pitts, Billy Dee Suddeth and Kenneth Wise.

Roberts, L 3-1.

This week room L 3-2 has learned that a good citizen must be reliable. He must do things that he is supposed to do cheerfully, carefully and at the right time. He learns to be punctual and to work steadily at a job until it is finished.

Bettie Jean Harrison, Peggy Hothan, Jay Jean Jackson and Harry Hall were chosen best citizens in our room.

L. Major, L 3-2.

We have bought $30.60 in bonds and stamps from this section the first three weeks of school. We hope to more than double that amount by the end of the six weeks.

Absent this week were George Bell, Harry Payne, Billy Frank Dodd, Myrtle Hilbers and James Kasper. We hope these children return to school Monday.

Only one mother from this section was present at P-T. A. Tuesday. We hope that all of the mothers will come to our next P.T.A. meeting.

Adams, L 4-1.

Our section bought $34.55 worth of war stamps this week. Those who bought stamps are Irven DeVore, Sida Sue Douglas, Helen Kelley, James Roderick, Margie Baurhardt, Richard Pair and Barbara Ann Brooks.

Several students were absent during the week. They are Marion McDonald, Dale Yarbrough, Margie Baurhardt, Barbara Ann Brooks, Mildred Butler and Jo Ella Newton.

Elrod, L 5-1.

The L 5-1 section has 39 enrolled now. We have 19 boys and 20 girls. A few of this group are staying out of school to pick cotton but we hope they will all be back in school soon.

This is the first year that these boys and girls have ever had departmental work. The many changes during the day seemed to confuse them at first but they are adjusted to it now and seem to enjoy their work in different rooms with a different teacher for each subject.

Our class has become smaller since last week. We lost thirteen pupils to L 6-3. With a smaller group we can know each other better.

We are planning to beautify our room by bringing things of interest to school. Several of us have pot plants to bring.

So far our room has not bought stamps or bonds but we are planning to in the near future. Jack Cramer has charge of selling and keeping track of them.

Mrs. A. B. Cain, L 6-3.

We have a new home room this week. We have twenty-one enrolled. All of us are happily lo-

D. 1943 then and there to answer Plaintiff's Petition filed in said Court, on the 9th day of September A. D. 1943, in this cause, numbered 38451-B on the docket of said court and styled Laura Thorn, Plaintiff, vs. Sam K. Thorn, Defendant.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to-wit:

After alleging jurisdiction, Plaintiff further alleges that she and defendant were married on October 16, 1935 and lived together until on or about September 6, 1939 at which time they separated and have not since lived together as man and wife; that defendant is guilty of cruel, harsh and excessive treatment which renders their further living together insupportable; that her former name was Norwood; that there were no children born of this marriage and that no community property was accumulated.

Wherefore Plaintiff prays that Defendant be cited to appear and that on final hearing she have judgment for divorce, restoration of former name and for such other and further relief to which she may show herself justly entitled.

The officer executing this process shall promptly execute the same according to law, and make due return as the law directs.

Issued and given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Wichita Falls, Texas this 9th day of September A. D. 1943.
