Bingham accepts Malakoff job

Dr. Walter Bingham, assistant superintendent for the Colorado Independent School District, has resigned his position to become superintendent of schools in Malakoff.

During an emergency meeting of the board Wednesday, Superintendent Charlie Uselton read Bingham's letter of resignation.

"It is my desire to be released from my contract for 1985-86 to accept the superintendent's position of the Malakoff Schools, effective at the close of the day on December 6, 1985. I need to report to Malakoff for duty on December 9th," said Bingham.

"I want to express my deep appreciation to you (Uselton) and the board of trustees for the support you have afforded me, the valuable things I have learned from working with you and the board, and the tremendous opportunity to have worked with the very fine staff of the Colorado Independent School District," said Bingham.

The board accepted Bingham's resignation with regret with board president Eddie Piland noting that "Walter has done us an excellent job."

Uselton said Bingham's new position is a "real opportunity for him."

Malakoff is lcoated in East Texas near Athens. The class AA school has an enrollment of just over 1,000 students. Bingham was formerly superintendent of schools in Kemp, not far from Malakoff.

Bingham, in his third year with the local school system, was making $40,912 a year. His annual salary at Malakoff will be $48,000.

The board instructed Uselton to start looking for a replacement for Bingham. Uselton said the job description needs to be redefined because of the changes the job has undergone since Bingham was hired. Uselton said the job now has three main functions--curriculum, teacher appraisals and special programs such as gifted and talented, bilingual, tutorial, etc.

CHS students receive physical fitness awards

The Texas Physical Fitness–Motor Ability Test designed to improve the physical fitness of Texas school age children, was recently administered to Colorado High School physical education students and 16 of the female students fared well enough to receive awards.

The Fitness Program, part of the Governor's Commission on Physical Fitness, is a program of tests and awards to help teachers in grades 4-12 diagnose the physical weaknesses of students, identify students with acceptable levels of fitness and motivate all students to achieve excellence in physical fitness as they strive for self-improvement.

The program consists of two test batteries: one designed to evaluate physical fitness and another to evaluate motor ability. Awards are given only for demonstrated achievement on the physical fitness battery.

The three basic components evaluated on the physical fitness battery are: muscular endurance and strength of the arms and shoulder girdle, muscular endurance and strength of the abdominal region and cardio-respiratory endurance. The three basic components of the motor ability test are running speed, running agility and jumping ability or power.

Annual pecan show scheduled December 10-11

Reports of good pecan crops this year should result in a good pecan show.

The 10th Annual Mitchell County Pecan Show is scheduled December 10-11 at the C. C. Thompson Room.

The show is sponsored by the Horticulture Committee of the County Program Building Committee, Colorado City Chamber of Commerce and City National Bank.

All pecans entered must have been grown in 1985. Growers are limited to one entry of each improved or papershell variety. If only one entry is entered in any class, the entry will be judged with "open varieties." There is no limit on the number of seedling or native pecans. Nuts must have been grown by the person showing them. All entries become the property of the Mitchell County Pecan Show and they will be given to a charitable organization.

Each entry must consist of 43 nuts with the nuts to be displayed on a paper plate.

Entries will be taken between 1-3 p.m. December 10 at the C. C. Thompson Room. Pecans may also be left at either the County Extension Office or the Chamber of Commerce Office during the week of the show.

Entries should be marked with the owner's name, address, and variety of pecan.

Any alteration of pecan shells by marking, filing, or polishing will disqualify the entry so treated. However, exhibitors are encouraged to remove all traces of husks and foreign matter from the shells.

Classes and premiums include Apache, Barton, Brake, Burkett, Caddo, Cherokee, Cheyenne, Chickasaw, Choctaw, Comanche, DeLmas, Desirable, Halbert, John Garner, Kincaid, Mahan, McCulley, Mohawk, Onliwon, Peruque, Ranger, San Saba Improved, Schley, Shawnee, Shoshoni, Sioux, Squirrel's Delight, Stuart, Success, Tejas, Texas Prolific, Western, Wichita, in-shell known hybrids, in-shell variety seedlings, other in-shell varieties, shelling known hybrid, shelling variety seedlings, other shelling varieties, natives, smallest pecans and largest pecans.

The champion in-shell pecans, reserve champion in-shell pecans and champion native pecans will be awarded rosettes.

The best show and reserve best of show will each be awarded banners.

Classes will be judged on size, color, and appearance, shell thickness, cracking quality, kernel quality, attractiveness, and other factors, said Mauldin.

New voting location OK'd

Thanks to the Mitchell County Hospital District board of directors, Colorado City voters will have an easier time of casting their ballots in upcoming elections.

The board, during its regular meeting Tuesday night, voted to change its voting place to the Civic Center where city elections are currently held so that voters will not have to continue to go separate polling places for each election.

Previously, Colorado City voters went to the courthouse to vote in the hospital board election, to the Civic Center for city council elections and to the school administration building for school board elections.

In approving the new voting place for Colorado City voters only, the board noted that the Civic Center has adequate parking space and will be easier for the handicapped.

Root Memorial Hospital administrator Ray Mason said the Civic Center is large enough for two polling places and even large enough for three if the school district decides to change its polling place.

In other business, the board authorized Mason to investigate the possibility of acquiring a code-finder system for the medical records department and to advertise for bids for such a system.

Mason explained that many hospitals, including Snyder and Sweetwater, have purchased such a system which has helped the hospitals obtain a greater percentage of Medicare reimbursements. He estimated the cost of a system to be between $5,000-$7,000.

Mason said that the mini-computer system should more than pay for itself if the board approves the purchase once bids are taken.

Mason reported that Raymond Webb, the central supply clerk for the hospital, has resigned to enter into private business. Dorothy Starr, who had previously worked in the hospital's insurance department and who has 19 years experience in the health field, has been named to replace Webb. Mrs. Starr's job in the insurance department will be eliminated, said Mason.

Assistant hospital administrator and controller Richard Murphy presented the financial reports for the hospital and Root Valley Fair Lodge for the month of October.

Murphy noted that the hospital had an operating loss of $66,614 for the month and a net loss of $82,707.

He said that total inpatient revenues for October exceeded budget by $4,259 or three percent.

"This appears to be a good start for the (fiscal) year," he said. "Also, notice that the non-Medicare patient revenue is up sharply for October. Outpatient revenues increased sharply for October–$10,711 over budget–that is 65.2 percent excess. Total patient revenues therefore reflect a gain over budget of $14,592 or 9.6 percent."

He said total operating revenues exceeded budget by $24,467 which was $45,541 over last year. "That's a pleasant turn over what we reported last year," he noted.

He explained that admissions and days of care fell just short of the target by three admissions and only four days of care, averaging about 12 patients per day.

He said October expenses exceeded budget by $10,787 with labor 15.6 percent under, supplies 9.5 percent over, other expense 45.2 percent over, for an overall 4.9 percent over budget. He explained that some of the other expenses which caused the excess will be adjusted in November, "which should reduce the budget excess."

He said the lodge started the new year with an operating gain, "but is not expected to continue past the first month."

Briefly

Retirement party

A retirement reception for Paris Yarbrough and Holly Howell will be held Sunday, December 1 from 2-5:30 p.m. in the C. C. Thompson Room.

The event will be hosted by Mr. and Mrs. George Billingsly and children of San Diego, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Joe A. Clark and children of Big Spring.

All friends are invited to attend.

Christmas parade

Anyone interested in participating in the Christmas parade on Saturday, December 14 at 7 p.m. should contact the Chamber of Commerce (728-3403) for details.

Prizes will be awarded to first, second and third place floats.

Loraine bazaar

The Loraine B&PW Club will have a bazaar, a baked goods sale and garage sale on Saturday, December 7 from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Lions Club Building.

Proceeds will be used for the club's scholarship program as well as for playground equipment and community improvement.

Christmas bazaar

The Wallace Center is sponsoring a Christmas bazaar beginning at 1 p.m. Friday, December 6, and continuing through Saturday, December 7 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The sale will be held at Sears.

There will be homemade crafts, homebaked items, Christmas decorations, ceramics and other gifts.

Proceeds from the sale will go toward the Senior Citizens Meal Program and other Wallace Center projects.

Chamber meeting

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce will meet Monday at 7 p.m.

Items on the agenda include committee updates on the cultural award, Christmas parade and banquet.

Chinese Auction

The Colorado City Business and Professional Women's Club, Inc. will hold its annual Chinese Auction in the C. C. Thompson Room beginning at 7 p.m. Tuesday, December 3.

Everyone in the community is invited to attend the auction and do a little Christmas shopping among the hand-crafted items. There will also be a White Elephant table.

Door prizes will be awarded every 15 minutes, according to finance chairman Molly Bruce.

Chili anyone?

Chili and all the trimmings as well as pies and cakes will be on the menu when the Noon Lions Club sponsors the annual event on Saturday, December 14. Hours will be between 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. and from 4 p.m. until after the Christmas parade at the Civic Center.

Revival set

The Central Baptist Church will host a revival December 1-6.

Services will start each night at 7 and will be led by Kenneth Walker, former missionary to Korea.

The public is invited.

Program set for farmers, ranchers

SWEETWATER–Area farmers and ranchers, beset by economic crisis, can find help in facing many of these problems by attending a program December 4 at the Texas State Technical Institute campus here.

The all-day program will feature leading authorities on agricultural finance, farm policy, tax and estate planning, commodity outlooks and a profile of today's unfortunate farmer. It is sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the Sweetwater Production Credit Association.

Theme for the program is "Adjusting for Profit," said Kirk Lewis, Nolan County Extension agent for agriculture. Jim Hulse, president of the Sweetwater Production Credit Association, will serve as moderator.

The latest developments in the formulation of a federal farm bill will be reported by Dr. Ron Knutson, Extension marketing and policy economist, College Station.

The production and marketing outlook for cotton and cattle will be presented by Dr. Ed Smith, Extension economist, College Station.

Conditions affecting local, state and national credit will be discussed by Hulse.

Items farmers should consider in tax planning will be explained by Dr. Wayne Hayenga, Extension management economist, College Station.

An economist's profile of farmers who are going broke will be sketched by Dr. Danny Klinefelter, Extension economist.

The program will conclude with a period for questions and answers, Lewis said.

Additional information about the program may be obtained from the Nolan County Extension office.

Students

The test at CHS included sit-ups in two minutes for abdominal strength, flexed arm hang for upper arm and shoulder strength and a 12 minute run for distance for cardio-respiratory systems.

A row score is compared with an individual achieved score. The difference is taken, then a percentage is given. A student then receives a T-score in each area. Each of the T-scores are added together to determine the individual achieved level.

Students scoring 90 percent or better are awarded a gold tone and enamel medallion, students scoring 75 percent receive patches and those scoring 50 percent are awarded certificates.

Michelle Martin was the lone student scoring 90 percent and scoring 75 percent were Cheryl Bentley and Kelly Abbott.

Scoring 50 percent were Theresa Gonzales, Marie Linn, Eva DelReal, Latish Dockrey, Laura Aguilar, Delia Aguilar, Missi Johns, Sharon Elder, Mary Pineda, Gloria Gonzales, Vickie Gonzales, Emma Santana and Renee Weightman.

Suspect arrested

Thaon D. Brown, 17, of Lamesa is in Mitchell County Jail after he was arrested Tuesday in Lamesa on burglary and theft warrants from Colorado City.

Police Chief Bobby Sparks said Brown was charged with burglary of two residences and theft of a third residence which occurred last Saturday.

Two of the houses burglarized were on 21st Street and the third house was located on Pine Street.

Also charged in the burglaries is 17-year-old David Birmingham of Colorado City.

Council selling flags

A new shipment of American and Texas flags has been ordered and are for sale by members of the Wallace Center Advisory Council, with Lee Woods as chairman.

The flags are 3' by 5', made of 100 percent polyester, and come boxed with pole and hardware for installation. The flag cost of $16 can be considered a donation to the Wallace Community Education Center.

Proceeds will go toward community projects through the Center.

Reserve your flags early at Wallace Center, 728-2392, to assure receiving one from this shipment. Only 100 flags have been ordered.

Bell manager transferred

Roy Rogers, District Manager for Installation and Maintenance at Southwestern Bell Telephone, has been transferred to a similar position in San Antonio.

Rogers is to move December 1, according to Jim West, Community Relations Manager for the telephone company here.

West said that while Rogers' group will be reporting in to Lubbock starting December 1, there will be no changes in operations or customer service in Colorado City.

"This is the latest of several consolidations throughout our company to improve efficiency and reduce costs," West said. "The ever-changing telecommunications industry, along with lingering effects of the Bell System breakup, compel us to look constantly at our operatins with an eye to improving service for our customers and reducing costs to minimize our need for rate relief."

Dunn enjoys cooking for husband

Earline Dunn has been around cooking most of her life. "I learned what I know about cooking from my experience in working in the school lunchroom for six years and working in a fast food restaurant for a long time.

"I learned to read recipes when I was working in the lunchroom and how to prepare alot of different foods such as desserts and rolls.

"I haven't worked in the last five years so I have enjoyed staying home and trying alot of new recipes and different types of foods. I enjoy cooking for my husband, Charles, because he is not hard to please and likes anything I prepare. His favorites are desserts so I prepare alot of those.

"I have served on the hostess food committee for the First Baptist Church for the last two years and I have enjoyed doing that.

"I am always trying new dessert recipes so I tried a new pound cake recipe that called for creme of coconut. When I placed it on a wire rack to cool, it stood really tall and looked so pretty. When I returned to the kitchen, the cake looked like someone had sat on it. I don't know what caused it to fall, but we tasted it and it was good so we ate it anyway!"

She is sharing some of her recipes with RECORD readers today.

Earline Dunn

A.1. MEATLOAF

2 pounds ground beef
2 tablespoons A.1. steak sauce
2 teaspoons salt
1 cup dry bread crumbs
2 eggs
¾ cup milk
3 tablespoons parsley flakes
1 small onion, minced
¼ cup shredded carrots

SAUCE

Mix 2 tablespoons A.1. Sauce, 1 can (8 oz.) tomato sauce. Mix all meatloaf ingredients together with one-half sauce mixture. Blend well. Pat meatloaf into 9x5x3 loaf pan or shape into loaf in shallow baking pan. Spread remaining sauce mixture over top of meat loaf. Bake in 400 degree oven for one hour. I make two loaves and freeze one very good.

SWEET POTATOES–APRICOT BAKE

3 small sweet potatoes (about 1½ pounds), peeled and havled lengthwise
1½ tablespoon cornstarch
¾ cup firmly packed brown sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
One-eighth teaspoon grown cinnamon
1 teaspoon grated orange rind
1 (16 ounce) can apricot halves
2 tablespoons butter or oleo margarine
½ cup pecan halves

Place sweet potato halves in a lightly greased 10x6x2 inch baking dish, set aside. Combine next five ingredients in a heavy saucepan. Mix well, drain apricots, reserving liquid and set aside. Add enough water to apricot liquid to make 1 cup. Gradually stir into dry mixture. Cook over medium heat stirring constantly until smooth and thickened. Remove from heat. Add butter, stir until butter melts. Add apricots and pecans, stir gently. Pour over sweet potatoes, cover and bake at 375 degrees for 50-55 minutes or until potatoes are tender. Yield 6 servings.

PINEAPPLE OR APRICOT CARROTS

(I like the pineapple best)
2½ cups scraped, sliced carrots, about one pound
¼ cup either pineapple or apricot preserves
1½ tablespoons butter or margarine
1 teaspoon lemon juice
¼ teaspoon grated orange rind
One-eighth teaspoon ground nutmeg

Cook carrots covered in a medium saucepan in a small amount of boiling water 8-10 minutes or until crisp-tender, drain. Combine remaining ingredients in a saucepan. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly until preserves melt. Stir in carrots. Cook until thoroughly heated. Yield 4 servings.

PEAR STREUSEL PIE

½ cup flour, all purpose
¾ cup firmly packed brown sugar
¾ cup flaked coconut
One-third cup butter, melted
4 large pears, peeled and cubed
1 unbaked 9-inch pastry shell

Combine flour, brown sugar and coconut, gradually add butter, stirring with a fork, set aside. Place 1 cup pears in pastry shells, top with half of coconut mixture. Repeat layers with remaining coconut mixture, cover pie with foil and bake at 450 degrees for 10 minutes. Remove foil. Reduce oven to 350 degrees and bake an additional 30 minutes or until pears are tender. Yield 1-9 inch pie.

Make writing easier for children

(Fifth in a Series)

HELPING YOUR CHILD

In helping your child to learn to write well, remember that your goal is to make writing easier and more enjoyable.

Provide a place. It's important for a child to have a good place to write–a desk or table with a smooth, flat surface and good lighting.

Have the materials. Provide plenty of paper–lined and unlined–and things to write with, including pencils, pens, and crayons.

Allow time. Help your child spend time thinking about a writing project or exercise. Good writers do a great deal of thinking. Your child may dawdle, sharpen a pencil, get papers ready, or look up the spelling of a word. Be patient–your child may be thinking.

Respond. Do respond to the ideas your child expresses verbally or in writing. Make it clear that you are interested in the true function of writing which is to convey ideas. This means focusing on what the child has written, not how it was written. It's usually wise to ignore minor errors, particularly at the stage when your child is just getting ideas together.

Don't you write it! Don't write a paper for your child that will be turned in as his-her work. Never rewrite a child's work. Meeting a writing deadline, taking responsibility for the finished product, and feeling ownership of it are important parts of writing well.

Praise. Take a positive approach and say something good about your child's writing. Is it accurate? Descriptive? Thoughtful? Interesting? Does it say something?

Make it real. Your child needs to do real writing. It's more important for the child to write a letter to a relative than it is to write a one-line note on a greeting card. Encourage the child to write to relatives and friends. Perhaps your child would enjoy corresponding with a pen pal.

Suggest note-taking. Encourage your child to take notes on trips or outings and to describe what (s)he saw. This could include a description of nature walks, a boat ride, a car trip, or other events that lend themselves to note-taking.

Brainstorm. Talk with your child as much as possible about his-her impressions and encourage the child to describe people and events to you. If the child's description is especially accurate and colorful, say so.

Encourage keeping a journal. This is excellent writing practice as well as a good outlet for venting feelings. Encourage your child to write about things that happen at home and school, about people (s)he likes or dislikes and why, things to remember or things the child wants to do. Especially encourge your child to write about personal feelings–pleasures as well as disappointments. If the child wants to share the journal with you, read the entries and discuss them–especially the child's ideas and perceptions.

Write together. Have your child help you with letters, even such routine ones as ordering items from an advertisement or writing to a business firm. This helps the child to see firsthand that writing is important to adults and truly useful.

Use games. There are numerous games and puzzles that help a child to increase vocabulary and make the child more fluent in speaking and writing. Remember, building a vocabulary builds confidence. Try crosswords puzzles, word games, anagrams and cryptograms designed especially for children. Flash cards are good, too, and they're easy to make at home.

Suggest making lists. Most children like to make lists just as they like to count. Encourage this. Making lists is good practice and helps a child to become more organized. Boys and girls might make lists of their records, tapes, baseball cards, dolls, furniture in a room, etc. They could include items they want. It's also good practice to make lists of things to do, schoolwork, dates for tests, social events, and other reminders.

Encourage copying. If a child likes a particular song, suggest learning the words by writing them down–replaying the song on your stereor-tape player or jotting down the words whenever the song is played on a radio program. Also encourage copying favorite poems or quotations from books and plays.

JESUS

John Taylor - Pastor — Plainview Baptist Church

And she shall bring forth a Son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins. Matt 1:22.

In this blessed announcement of the name of the Messiah we have the most beautiful name in the world. At this time of festive occassion where men say they celebrate the birth of Christ, is your vocabulary filled with praises and acknowledgement of our Saviour? Or do we walk around with our heads down in despair about how much Christmas is going to cost us this year? Some of the older more wiser citizens of our community remember when Christmas wasn't so commercial and the joy of living was worth a lot more than it is now. Let us remember the name of our Lord as we go into the stores to remember our loved ones and praise the name of JESUS for allowing us to have so much that we have to think so hard about what to buy our loved ones.

Wallace skating continues

Skating will continue every Saturday night in the Wallace Gym from 6-8:30 p.m., at the Wallace Center. All ages are welcome. Children under 6 years must be accompanied by an adult.

Bring your own skates, if possible. Only 45 pair are available to rent. Skating fee will be $1 and 50 cents for skate rental. A drawing for door prizes will take place each Saturday night in December. Prizes to be given away this Saturday night include $2 cash, two monogrammed T-shirts, and two free skating passes for four Saturdays. Grades kindergarten through 12 are eligible for prizes. Children should be picked up promptly at 8:30 p.m.

Volunteers are invited to help sonsor the skating nights. Proceeds from skating will go to help Wallace youth activities, and with the purchase of new skates.

VITAMINS & MINERALS

Vitamins, unlike drugs, are a necessary and vital part of the body, and when taken properly, greatly increase the body's resistance. They also promote healing, improve joint movement, reduce infection, promote proper nerve function and improve many other vital body processes. Therefore, current information concerning vitamins and minerals demonstrates the need to be aware of supplements in addition to good dietary practices.

If you have any questions about your nutritional needs, consult your Chiropractor for more specific information and advice.

Audio-visual films available to clubs

In a continuing effort to make Colorado City a better, safer place to live, the Colorado City Police Department has purchased two new audio-visual films. These award-winning films were developed for the Department in its fight against drug abuse and crime. The programs may be obtained through the Department's Community Relations Office and are available for showing, free of charge, to schools, civic clubs, churches, and parent groups.

Criminals often use everyday activities to conceal their purpose. On the Lookout teaches how to recognize suspicious situations as well as ways to protect oneself from "con men."

With look-alike and designer drugs and wide-spread use of cocaine, the drug abuse problem is increasingly complex. Drugs in the Eighties is a "state of the art" look at today's drug scene.

For additional information, or to schedule a free showing of any of these films, contact, Chief Bobby Sparks, Colorado City Police Department, 915 728-5294

Loraine Baptist Women meet in Holman home

Loraine Baptist Women met with Mrs. T. L. Holman at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday for their mission and Bible Study.

Mrs. Holman led the opening prayer. Mrs. Frances Porter led in the Mission lesson entitled "Teach Me How to Die." Scripture was from John 12:24. She gave the introduction and others took part in discussing the subject.

Mrs. Lynn Compton led in the Bible study from Acts.

During the business meeting, members discussed plans for the Foreign Mission program which will be the first week in December.

Jeannine Rundell gave the closing prayer.

Present were: Bernice Hallmark, Charlie Harris, Lynn Compton, Pauline Smiley, Clara Butler, Ida Baird, Mrs. Rundell and Mrs. Holman.

Sr. citizens hold program

The Senior Citizens of Loraine had a special program Monday in memory of all the members who have passed away.

Music was provided by the quartet and the band.

The program was also in honor of special guests, Fred and Adeline Witta of Benton Harbor, Michigan. The Wittas will be visiting until sometime next month.

National Rodeo Finals set Dec. 15

HESSTON, Kan.–A special two-hour, prime-time telecast of the 1985 National Finals Rodeo from Las Vegas, Nev., will be sponsored locally by Costin Implement co., Colorado City. The telecast will air on: KTAB (32), Abilene, Sunday, December 15, 8-10 p.m.

More than 200 stations across North America will participate in this special Hesston Rodeo TV Network broadcast.

For the first time, the NFR–the "Super Bowl" of ProRodeo–will be held in Las Vegas at the Thomas and Mack Center sports arena. The telecast will feature top Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (P.R.C.A.) contestants vying for world champion titles in six standard rodeo events, plus Women's Professional Rodeo Association (W.P.R.A.) barrel racing. The 1985 NFR purse exceeds $1,800,000, the largest in rodeo history.

This year's NFR telecast will offer "same day" coverage of the final world championship performance, Sunday, December 15, via a special live tape delay on most U.S. stations. Canadian stations will air the special on a delayed basis, Saturday, December 21.

This 27th annual NFR will feature the season's top money winners in calf roping, steer wrestling, saddle bronc riding, bareback bronc riding, bull riding, women's barrel racing and the world's top team roping duos.

This is the 12th consecutive year that Hesston Corporation and nearly 1,000 participating Hesston Farm equipment dealers across the United States and Canada have sponsored coverage of the NFR final championship round.

Tree selection important

By Debbie Christian
County Extension Agent

The lasting beauty of a Christmas tree depends on careful selection and pre-holiday treatment. Choose a full, dense tree, one that is evenly branched. The branches should be firm and flexible. Shake the branches when selecting to see if the needles fall. Fresh, healthy yule trees do not drop their needles. Select a tree with a fresh, green color, which indicates that the choice is fresh, has good needle retention, fragrance, fire resistance and longer holiday beauty.

Once the tree is selected, remove the bottom of the trunk. Cut away an inch above the original cut, or severely hack the end of the trunk so as to open the wood tissues. This helps the tree to absorb water which will insure freshness and lasting qualities.

Stand the tree in water in a cool location out-of-doors overnight or for several days. When it's time to trim the tree, place it in a tree stand that holds water and keep it filled during the long holiday.

Place the tree in the coolest location possible indoors, away from the open fireplace, radiators and heaters.

For a unique and lasting tree, one may wish to choose a living tree with roots intact. By placing the nursery plant in a pot or container, the permanent plant may be later planted in the landscape to provide continual memories and beauty for many years.

The plant should be well watered before bringing indoors and should not be sprayed with harmful paints and snow. Handsome nursery plants which make excellent yule trees include: Japanese Yew, Red Cedar, Upright Junipers, American Holly, Cassine Holly, Foster Holly, Tree Yaupon, Norfolk Island Pine, Magnolia, Deodara Cedar, Cherry Laurel, Cleyera Japonica, and Japanese Black Pine.

Many Texas plants lend themselves to use in holiday decorations and if properly treated, will hold their beauty out of water for a long time. Greenery should be treated immediately after cutting and prior to bringing indoors. The woody stem should be split with shears, or crushed with a hammer and placed in a deep pail of water for several days.

Decorative holiday greens may include: Magnolia, Pine, Cedar, Junipers, Hollies, Aspidistra, Mistletoe, Loquat, Deodara Cedar, Wax Myrtle and Evergreen Similax (greenbriar).

The winter season brings with it many dried plant materials for easy and inexpensive indoor Christmas decorations. Common seedpods and grasses, such as pine cones, okra pods, sweetgum balls, cotton bolls, dried hydrangea blooms, crape myrtle seedpods, and sumac seed heads make interesting arrangements and have lasting quality painted or sprayed for decorative use.

Many seasonal decorations are right at our back door. The fun and joy of collecting and using our native plants cannot be duplicated or obtained in department stores.

Basketball teams looking for 1st win

Colorado City varsity Wolves basketball teams are still searching for win number one of the young 1985 season after three opening losses–the latest, a pair of setbacks at the hands of the neighboring Snyder Tigers here at "The Pit" Tuesday night.

The Ragin' Tigers beat the varsity girls 66-58 and posted a 67-33 whallop in the boys contest. Both Colorado City clubs were to have been at a San Angelo Lakeview tournament over the weekend and host Lakeview for regular season games Tuesday.

In the girls contest against Snyder, the final eight point margin came after the Tigers had held as much as a 16 point lead.

Early in the second period, Snyder led by 15 before the Wolves outscored them the rest of the period to make the halftime score 35-34 in Snyder's favor.

It took the Wolves just half that long to again fall behind as the Tigers scored the first 11 points of the second half to pull away 46-34. The Wolves turned the ball over seven times in that stretch and didn't break the Snyder run until Diane Gregory stole the ball and passed to Denise Jackson for the Wolves first second half points midway through the third quarter.

Colorado City went on to get goals from Sherry Fite and Jennifer Monroe and two free throws from Jody Huff, but Snyder still led 56-42 after three periods.

The Wolves made one more run at the Tigers behind the fourth quarter shooting of Monroe and defensive play and rebounding by Jackson and Fite. The Wolves outscored the Tigers 14-6 early in the final period to pull within 62-58, but couldn't manage another score with 1:30 remaining in the game while Snyder scored seven points to again pull away.

A Monroe set shot from far out after a Fite blocked shot, began the run-making it 56-44. An offensive rebound and a basket by Fite made it 56-46. Two more long range shots by Monroe and two free throws by Fite made it 60-52, then Jackson connected on three consecutive shots for Colorado City's last scores and the 62-58 Snyder lead.

Jackson made three steals and blocked a shot in the final period, but it was Colorado City's inability to stop Snyder's penetration that led to the Tiger victory.

Jackson finished as high point for the Wolves with 23 points. Also scoring were Fite 17; Monroe 10 and Huff 8. Fite led in rebounding with nine offensive and six defensive rebounds while Jackson added 13. Holly Tarter added seven rebounds.

Jackson finished with five blocked shots for the Wolves, who committed 45 turnovers, made 25 of 41 shots and eight of 11 free throws.

In the boys game, the Wolves played a good defensive game–as good as could be played against the much bigger Tigers.

"They're very big, as big as we'll see this year," said coach Mike Hart.

Snyder's height not only provided a rebounding edge, but also made for numerous second and third shots.

The Wolves turned the ball over 37 times in the contest–10 times in the opening period in which a goal by Larry Mayes and a free throw by Terry Jackson was all the Wolves could muster while Snyder scored 14.

Snyder outscored the Wolves in every period–20-8 in the second, 20-12 in the third and 13-10 in the final period.

Jackson and Ruben Rivera led Colorado City's defensive efforts with 12 marks a piece.

The Wolves made 33 percent of their field goal attempts and three of seven free throws. Leading rebounders were Ken Woods and Jackson 7 and five rebounds and scoring were Jackson 10; Mayes and R. Rivera 6; Marty Cleckler and Wylie Dakan 4; Woods 2 and Mike Ligon 1.

"6'7" and 6'4" players from Lueders controlled" the contest played at Trent, said WHS coach Jim Hill. They made 27 and 18 points respectively for Avoca. "We missed some layups and easy shots because we let them intimidate us," said Hill. Edward Cannon led the Wildcats in the losing effort with 10 points and Frankie Fuentes added nine. Clayton Cannon, Ruben Cantu and Edward Cannon were leading rebounders with 7, 6 and 4 respectively.

"Crush test" checks trees for freshness

COLLEGE STATION–When you shop for a Christmas tree this year, make sure it's fresh by using the "crush test," say Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service forestry specialists.

Simply crush some of the pine tree's needles in your hand. The needles should be soft and resilient, almost returning to their original shape when you let go.

The needles on a dry tree will break or fall off.

Since trees imported from northern states must be cut and shipped weeks ahead of time, the forestry specialists say your best bet for a fresh tree is to choose a Texas-grown tree.

Fresh Texas trees are available at farms where you can choose and cut your own tree, or Christmas tree lots.

Look for trees marked with the Texas Christmas Tree Growers Association Texas-shaped tag, or for lots that advertise Texas trees.

For information on local "choose-and-cut" tree farms, write or call your county Extension agent.

Buckle up for safety-- start today!

Fines begin December 1, 1985

Law enforcement officials across the state are working with the Texas Coalition for Safety Belts in supporting the new mandatory safety belt law as the December 1 penalty enforcement phase approaches, according to coalition spokesperson George R. Gustafson, executive vice president, Texas Safety Association.

Law enforcement departments and associations working with the coalition include the Texas Department of Public Safety, the Texas Police Chiefs Association, the Department of Public Safety Officers Association, the Combined Law Enforcement Association of Texas, the State Troopers Association, and the Sheriffs Association of Texas.

Department of Public Safety Director Jim Adams had confirmed that the department will begin issuing citations on December 1.

"In conjunction with our efforts to reduce traffic fatalities and injuries through our enforcement activities, the Department of Public Safety will vigorously enforce the safety belt law to gain maximum usage of this proven lifesaving device," Adams said.

The recent decision for a rate reduction on automobile insurance based on an assumed 65 percent complaince is another signal from public officials that safety belts do save lives and money, according to Gustafson.

"We appreciate the public policy commitment made by Texas leaders to this lifesaving law. Members of the coalition will continue to work with law enforcement personnel and other local, county, and state officials to help citizens understand and comply with this new law, said Gustafson.

"We know that it is a law that will prove itself in terms of human and economic benefits," he said.

Safeway aiding food banks

Helping to feed the hungry during the holidays is a goal of Safeway Stores, Inc. Starting November 25 through December 9, all 149 stores in the North Texas area including three stores in Louisiana will be collection points for the public to drop off donated canned food to benefit local food banks or charities. Boxes will be placed in each Safeway Store to encourage public participation.

"Safeway has supported food banks and charities that feed the hungry for many years. Our participation in the Operation Care and Share Program is a way for Safeway to help others share with those less fortunate during this holiday season," said Burr Schinner, Safeway Vice President and Dallas Division Manager.

The Operation Care and Share Program is a public and private sector initiative that was started three years ago by President Reagan. It was formed to help feed the hungry in local communities.

Canned food collected by Safeway and received by Food Banks will be distributed to charitable groups that prepare meals for feeding programs and to agencies that supply emergency food to the needy.

In towns that are not served by area Food Banks a local charity will be the recipient of the food collected.
