You can make a difference Saturday!

This Saturday everyone in Mitchell County is encouraged to participate in Make A Difference Day, the nation's largest day of helping others.

This is the first year that Mitchell County will be participating as a community. Over a million people around the country are expected to be involved in large and small projects during Make A Difference Day October 26.

The city of Abilene got involved five years ago. Make A Difference Day has since become a tradition, with almost half the population of Abilene expected to participate this year. Abilene has earned top honors the last three years and was one of five cities spotlighted for their efforts in last Sunday's USA Weekend magazine.

This year 60 projects nationwide will be awarded $2,000 each. If Mitchell County were to be one of the winning communities, the award would be used for the community-wide Christmas In April project.

Projects can be as simple as reading to a child or as big as reclaiming a neighborhood. Many people's plans for Saturday may already include doing something good for someone else. Are you planning to visit a sick friend, bake something for someone else, help a friend with a household project?

Have you been planning to donate something or do something nice for a local agency? Saturday's the day to do it.

Call Jan Lemons, 728-3678, by Tuesday to let her know what you did on Make A Difference Day. Lemons, the coordinator for Mitchell County, is keeping records of our participation and will report the local efforts to the Make A Difference Headquarters.

Those who participate can leave a message on Lemons's answering machine; call 728-5158 on Sunday; or call the Chamber of Commerce, 728-3403, on Monday.

Wolf band receives superior rating

Few people thought the Colorado High band had much of a chance in competition this year.

After all, it's a young band. Most are freshmen and there are only eight seniors in the 70 member band.

Well, they're proving the doubting Thomases wrong.

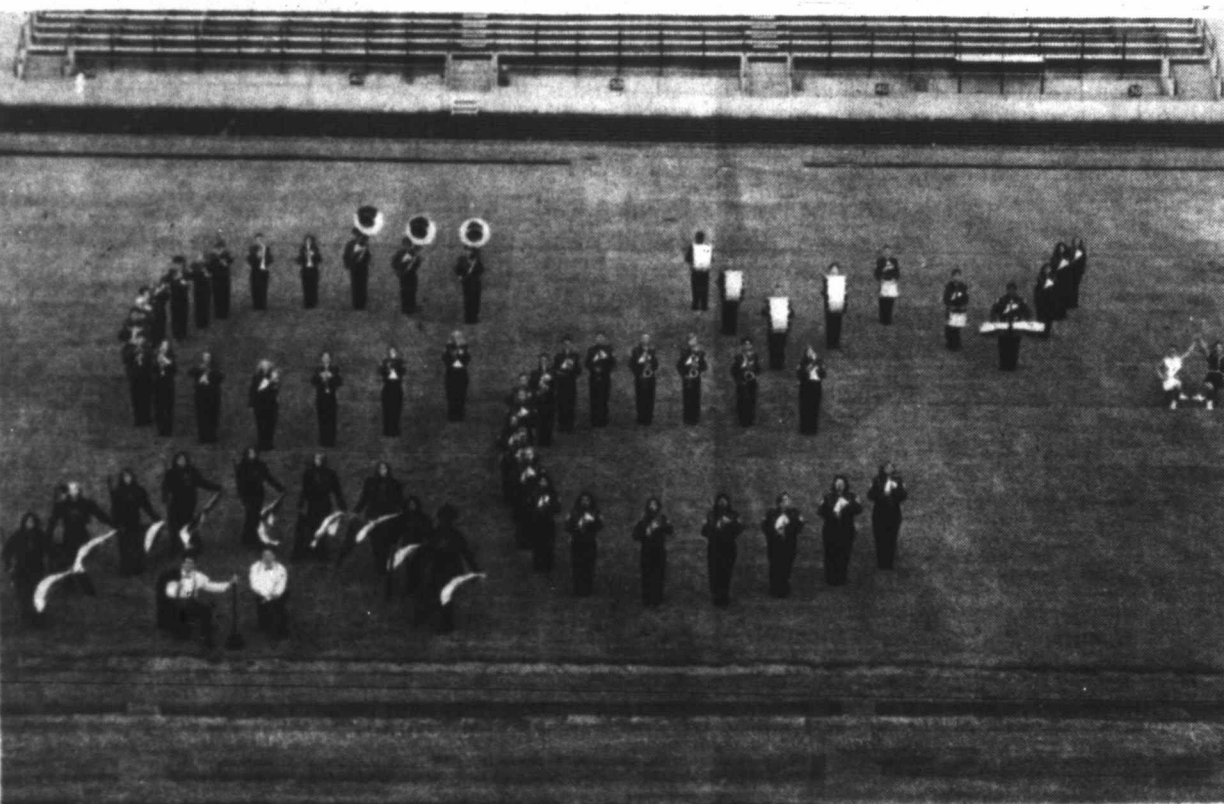

Last Saturday they received a superior rating in the regional University Interscholastic League marching contest at Wylie Stadium in Abilene. That competition qualified them to go to area competition this Saturday and state is well within their sights.

At the Region 2 South Zone contest, Colorado City, in Class 3A, advanced to area along with Merkel, Clyde, Breckenridge and Wylie.

There's a wide range of sizes of schools in this district, pointed out Band Booster President Roxie Strain.

"Bands like Wylie in Abilene have twice as many kids as we do," said Strain.

Because of an alternating plan used by the UIL, only Class 3A

THE WOLF BAND forms the letters representing Colorado City. The band qualified for area competition after UIL marching contest in Abilene Saturday and will travel to the Dallas area this weekend on their march toward possible state competition.

and 5A schools have the opportunity to go to area and then state this year.

The band and their outstanding performance during the competition Saturday was the topic of dinner conversation at one table at the 4-H banquet that evening.

"I was so proud of them! They really looked good," said Colorado High School principal Buddy Compton.

He and his wife, Carol told County Judge Ray Mayo and his wife, Janet, longtime band supporters, how the band hadn't let the strong winds in Abilene phase them or affect their concentration.

Some of the upperclass band members say that although the band might be young, they all have a drive to excel that's showing up in the competitions.

"Everybody's working real hard because they want to succeed and they know it takes a team effort," said Drum Major Ben Stedman, a senior.

Former citizen recuperating after attack

A former Loraine resident was brutally beaten and sexually assaulted in Odessa early Thursday morning.

The 39-year-old woman, a sales representative for a Snyder-based cellular phone company, was attacked after leaving the Permian Basin Oil Show where her company had set up a booth.

According to police reports, she was returning to her hotel when she was ambushed in the parking lot.

She suffered extensive facial injuries that required seven hours of surgery.

She was hospitalized in Odessa's Medical Center Hospital where she was reported in fair condition Tuesday and showing signs of improvement, according to a friend of the

Johnson receives stay of execution

Dorsie Lee Johnson, Jr. of Colorado City received a stay two days before his scheduled execution by lethal injection Wednesday, October 23.

Johnson has been on death row in the Huntsville prison for 10 years after being convicted of killing a Snyder convenience store clerk in 1986.

He was granted a stay by the Court of Criminal Appeals at 3 p.m. Monday. His execution had been scheduled for 6 p.m. Wednesday.

According to a spokesperson for the Court of Criminal Appeals, the stay was granted because the court is considering the constitutionality of a new law on death sentence court appeals.

A 1995 legislative amendment, intended to protect the rights of the accused and speed up the appeals process, has been hampered by

Citizens ready for clean-up finale

After visiting with some Colorado City people during an inspection of the old Col-Tex Refinery site last week, the chairman of the Texas Natural Resource Conservation Service said Friday he could see that the community was anxious for the cleanup to be completed.

"We want to move this along just as Rep. (Rob) Junell does. We know that the community has been patient about this process," said TNRCC Chairman Barry McBee.

McBee said Rep. Junell had asked him to visit the site. He was accompanied by representatives from the state attorney general's office, Fina, local officials and Texas Rep. Rob Junell of District 72.

"I was glad they could see the site first hand and felt like it was very productive," said Diane Perkins, Fina representative.

The Superfund site at the old refinery was called "the most polluted site in Texas" by the

Daylight Savings Time ends Sunday

Don't forget to turn all your clocks back one hour Saturday night!

"Spring forward, fall back" is the saying most of us rely on to remember what to do when Daylight Savings begins in April and ends in October.

Now it's time to "fall back." Daylight Savings Time ends Sunday, October 29, at 2 a.m. when most of the states in the U.S. return to standard time.

Abandoned houses are okayed for demolition

Plans are gearing up for the demolition of around 40 unsightly abandoned houses throughout the city. The required legal paperwork has been completed on many of the houses and those slated for demolition have been marked with an X, said Jan Lemons, project coordinator.

City crews and inmates from the "80" John Wallace Unit will be working together on the project. Materials from the torn-down houses are recycled and used to repair houses belonging to needy people or sold to buy supplies used for Christmas In April repairs.

City crews are currently focusing on street repairs but the demolition will be an ongoing project over the next year.

Call Jan Lemons, 728-3678, if you would like to bake a cake to help feed the inmates when they are working on the project. Lemons will call volunteer cooks when a workday is scheduled.

Wolf game receipts up

Community support for the Colorado High School Wolves football team is showing up in larger than ever gate receipts and concession sales this year.

Last year's game attendance was good as the Wolves had their first winning season in several years, but this year is even better, according to the latest Colorado Independent School District financial reports. Ticket sales, which include both gate receipts and season ticket sales, have increased 35 percent over last year, said CISD Business Manager Geneva

Findley.

Gate receipts for the Stanton game were $4,340; for the Stamford game $4,801 and the Ballinger homecoming game brought in $6,481, according to Findley.

"It's been a long time since we've had gate receipts like this," she said.

She reported to the trustees at the school board meeting last week that concession sales were also up significantly. Sales were $1,925; $2,118 and $3,925 for the three games.

Businesses goblin up chance to g-host annual event

Around Town Trick or Treating will be held in Colorado City this Halloween, Thursday, October 31 from 3-6 p.m.

The third annual Around Town Trick or Treating is hosted by local businesses, which will be handing out treats to local children. More than 100 businesses have already registered to participate this year.

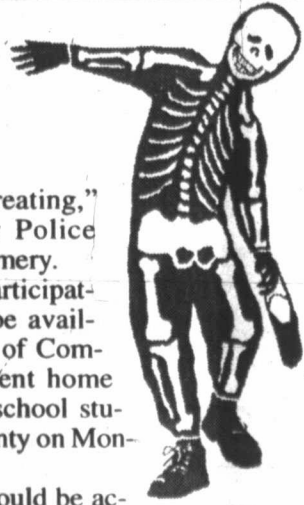

"Parents seem to appreciate the merchants' efforts to provide local children with an opportunity to safely enjoy the fun of old fashioned trick or treating," said Colorado City Police Chief David Montgomery.

A complete list of participating businesses will be available at the Chamber of Commerce and will be sent home with all elementary school students in Mitchell County on Monday, October 28.

Trick or treaters should be accompanied by an adult.

For more information, call the chamber at (915) 728-3403.

Greetings to everyone!

This Saturday can be a fun day in Colorado City—it's "Make a Difference Day" and everyone is encouraged to get involved by doing some little something for someone else to make this a better place to live. It doesn't have to be anything big—visit a shut-in, donate items to a family or organization that could use them, fix a meal for the elderly, pick up trash on your street—etc.

One other thing...after you do your good deed, contact Jan Lemons at 728-3678 and let her know what you have done. She will in turn submit the information to the national organization so that Colorado City and Mitchell County will be eligible for national cash donations.

Remember—do your part!

Congratulations to the Wolf Band on their superior rating last weekend! Good job and keep up the good work! Good luck at area competition this Saturday in Eules.

The annual 4-H banquet was held recently and the Wallace Unit was honored as Friend of 4-H. The staff and inmates were recognized for all the help they have given 4-H, such as renovating the county barns and cleaning up before and after various 4-H events.

Wilma and Jerry Reynolds have been busy the past couple of weekends babysitting their grandchildren in San Angelo.

The First United Methodist Church is holding a "Banquet for the Lord" on Saturday, Nov. 9 at the Colorado Middle School Cafeteria. A dinner of steak and all the trimmings will be served. Dinner reservations must be made by Sat., Nov. 2.

Entertainment will be provided during the dinner by folks from the church.

A silent auction will be held at 3 p.m. that afternoon at the cafeteria. If you would like to donate an item for the auction—craft item, baked goods, etc.—contact Rachel Swann at 728-8342.

Don't forget to take your kids trick-or-treating to area businesses next Thursday afternoon from 3-6 p.m. The annual event is hosted by local businesses—over 100 have signed up for this year's "party".

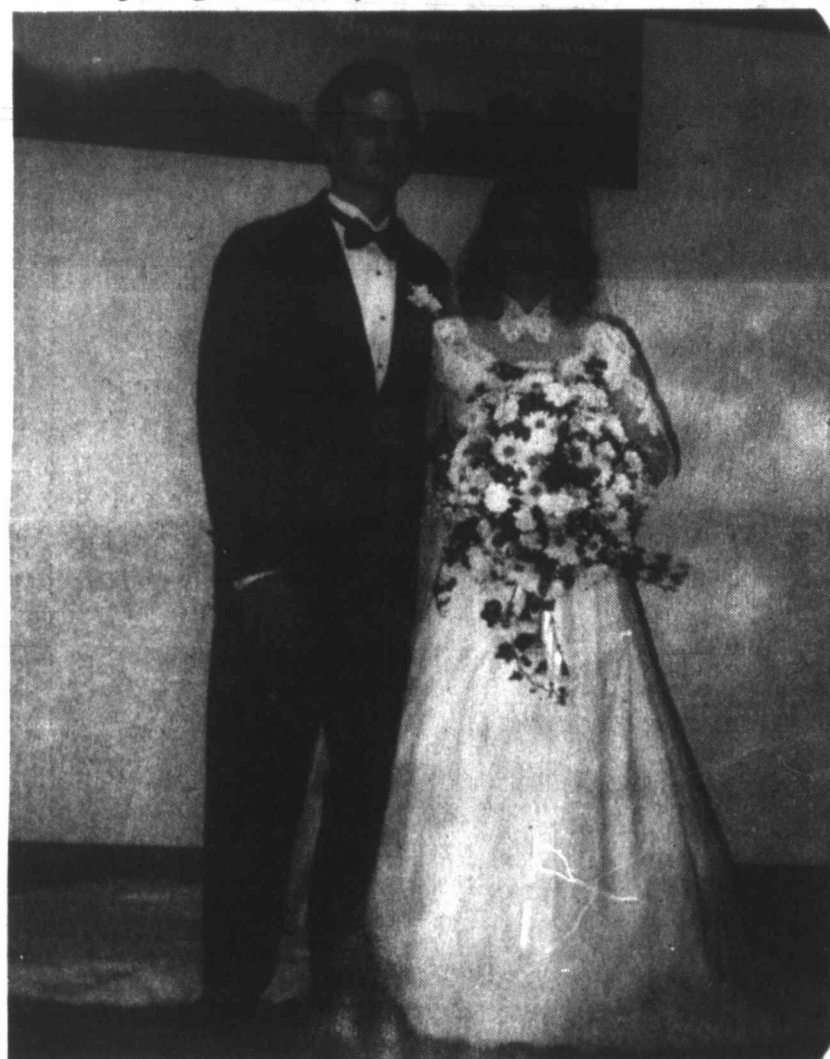

Parents, please note that several businesses will close at their normal closing time of 5 or 5:30 p.m.

From the pages of the Record, 30 years ago...

COOK'S CORNER

Come Oct. 31, witches, goblins, ghouls and vampires will be roaming the streets, knocking on doors, looking for a trick or treat. Trick-or-treating is fun for children and their parents, who, in recent years, have started to go door to door asking for goodies alongside their children.

While trick-or-treating is one way to celebrate, throwing a Halloween party is quickly becoming a popular way to entertain children on this holiday. Costume contests, pumpkin carving, dancing, games and bobbing for apples are just a few of the activities that children attending these parties enjoy.

Giving out homemade treats, in addition to packaged candy, is another way to make the party special. Making sweet snacks is guaranteed to delight all of the costumed children and adults attending any Halloween party.

The following recipes are sure to be favorite treats of all partygoers this Halloween.

Ghosts in the Graveyard

- 2 packages chocolate flavored instant pudding mix
- 3 1/2 cups milk
- 1 12 oz. tub Cool Whip®, thawed
- 1 16 oz. package chocolate sandwich cookies, crushed

Prepare pudding as directed on package using 3 1/2 cups milk; let stand 5 minutes. Stir in 3 cups whipped topping and 1/2 of the crushed cookies. Spoon into 9x13 inch baking dish. Sprinkle with remaining crushed cookies. Refrigerate 1 hour. Decorate with candy, rectangular sandwich cookies (tombstones) and spoonfuls of whipped topping (ghosts). Makes 15 servings. Helpful hint: crush cookies in zipper-style plastic bag with rolling pin or in food processor.

Per serving: 127 Calories; 4g Fat (28% calories from fat); 2g Protein; 21g Carbohydrate; 10mg Cholesterol; 283mg Sodium

Easy Rich and Chewy Halloween Cookies

- 1 1/2 cups brown sugar, packed
- 1 cup peanut butter
- 6 tablespoons margarine, softened
- 3 eggs, slightly beaten
- 1 3/4 teaspoons baking soda
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 3 3/4 cups old fashioned oatmeal

Assorted mix-ins, optional

Preheat oven to 350°. Beat sugar, peanut butter and margarine until creamy. Add eggs, baking soda and vanilla; mixing well. Blend in oats and mix-ins. Drop by 1/4 cup measure several inches apart onto ungreased cookie sheet. Bake 10 to 12 minutes. Let stand 5 minutes before removing to racks to cool. Mix-ins (choose one): 1/2 cup peanuts and 1/2 cup semi-sweet chocolate chips; 1 cup raisins; 1 cup candy coated chocolate pieces; 1/2 cup raisins and 1/2 cup chopped pecans; 1 cup chocolate chips. Makes 2 dozen 4-inch cookies.

Per cookie (without mix-ins): 195 Calories; 10g Fat (42% calories from fat); 5g Protein; 24g Carbohydrate; 23mg Cholesterol; 316mg Sodium

Pumpkin Scotchies

- 1 1/2 cups canned pumpkin
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 2 cups all-purpose flour
- 1 teaspoon baking soda
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1 cup butterscotch chips
- 1 cup pecans, chopped

Preheat oven to 350°. In large bowl, combine the pumpkin, sugar and vanilla; add the remaining ingredients and mix well. Drop by teaspoonfuls on greased cookie sheets. Bake for 12 to 15 minutes or until golden brown. Note: Try adding some coconut, raisins or candied fruit.

Per serving: 60 Calories; 1g Fat (15% calories from fat); 1g Protein; 12g Carbohydrate; 0mg Cholesterol; 36mg Sodium

Halloween Bars

- 1/2 cup butter
- 1 1/2 cups graham cracker crumbs
- 1 can sweetened condensed milk (14 oz.)
- 2 cups semisweet chocolate chips
- 1 cup peanut butter chips
- 1/2 cup candy corn

Preheat the oven to 325°. Place butter in a 9x13 inch baking dish and melt in oven. Remove the dish from the oven and distributed the melted butter evenly over the bottom. Sprinkle the graham cracker crumbs evenly over butter, pour the sweetened condensed milk evenly over crumbs. Top with chocolate chips and peanut butter chips; press down firmly. Bake for 25 to 30 minutes, until golden brown. Sprinkle with candy corn and gently press candies into uncut bars. Cool, then cut into bars. Makes 24 bars.

CHIEF LONE WOLF

They come in all sizes and descriptions. They are coveted and yet feared. Many oldtimers remember the first one they ever saw...or owned. Today they're as common as stop signs. They're automobiles.

Mrs. Fred Acuff, who was born in 1896, once told about the first time she ever saw a car. Raised in East Texas, she recalled as a little girl her family had a horse and buggy. One day a car pulled up to their house and "it just simply scared us to death."

She says, "We grabbed the baby and went to running to daddy out in the field and told him there was a buggy that had come up and it didn't have a horse to it."

"That was the first car we'd ever seen." That was also in 1902.

In time, children and adults learned they had nothing to fear from the newfangled 'horseless carriages.' But horses never did get the message. Myrtle Womack moved to Mitchell County in 1906 and she said her family "almost never saw an automobile, but when we did, it scared the teams to death."

She remembered after her son was grown, her family was staying with a sister for awhile. "They would go to school in the buggy and the horse they drove, ol' Prince, would hear a car coming and they'd get out and tie him up. Then they'd go under the fence into the pasture because they knew he would run away with 'em."

For those brave enough to ride in one of those noisy contraptions, it was an event to remember. Mrs. T.G. Sweatt was born back in 1890 and by 1901 her family had moved to Iatan. She told about a time her brother had come home from school and with nothing to do, decided to walk up the railroad track.

"A car came along," she continued, "a Model T of course, and he came in just a slappin' himself and a hollerin' and goin' on. I said, 'What on earth's the matter with you?'"

"Oh," the brother replied, "I rode in a car. I rode in a car!"

"I said, 'What kind of car?'" Mrs. Sweatt recalled.

"The only kind there is," was the boy's reply.

The first car the Sweatts ever owned, they traded a cow and a calf for it.

The late Lewis Claxton once talked about growing up in East Texas where his family was amongst the first to own a car in their county. "We'd go down the road and people would see us coming and they'd pull way off to the side to keep us from scaring their horses."

The Claxtons' first car was a Saxton. When they moved to Mitchell County, they swapped it for a Maxwell.

Course, back in those days, driver's education classes hadn't been invented. So youngsters started driving earlier than (most of them) do today. Luke Harrison was a case in point.

"I started driving a car by myself at the age of 12," he stated. "Just got in it and drove it." He recalled a time in the third grade when a classmate got sick.

"J.B. Holt [another classmate] went across the street from school and got his folks' car, then took the sick boy home. That was in the third grade!"

Of course, back in those days, roads weren't highways. In fact, roads weren't even good roads. Burt Haggerton recalled a time he was driving in Oklahoma and he and another motorist were the only two on the road.

"The old Model Ts had dug a trail down through the middle of the road," he stated. That meant deep ruts had been created on the ground.

"You couldn't get out of the road," Haggerton continued. "You could see a car coming and you started looking for a place to get out of the ruts."

On this particular day he saw a car coming in the distance and started looking for a place to pull out of the ruts. It's safe to assume the other driver did the same. The two vehicles continued on their collision course. Still no pullin' off place.

(Maybe it's not safe to assume the other driver was searching for a place to pull out of the ruts.) Still, the two cars stayed their course! The real life drama continued until the last possible second. Apparently both cars coming to a halt was never an option.

There was no getting out of the ruts. "We went together," Haggerton told us. Which was a polite way of saying they wrecked.

Come to think about it, that may have been the origin of the game "chicken."

(Next week, some local residents remember their first cars, and a select club with members who suffered broken arms starting their cars.)

McCollum named to TMCN committee

More than 150 community leaders from throughout the region gathered last week at the Abilene Civic Center for the third annual membership meeting of Texas Midwest Community Network (TMCN). Officers for 1997 were formally announced at the annual event. Jones County Tax Assessor Tom Isbell of Anson will serve as president; Rotan Mayor Jerry Marshall will serve as vice president and Comanche Chamber of Commerce Executive Darlene Causey will serve as secretary.

The executive director for the organization is Nicki Harle of Baird. Executive committee members named include Abe Turner of Haskell, Jay McCollum of Colorado City, Rick Rhodes of Sweetwater, Charlie Dromgoole of Abilene, Steve Mack of Cross Plains and Tim Powers of Clyde.

TMCN, a regional organization founded in 1994, covers a 20-county area surrounding Abilene. The focus of the organization is to find ways the 34 member cities can work together, pool resources, share information and organize mutually beneficial projects that one town could not accomplish alone.

Projects sponsored by the organization include tourism marketing, legislative issues for rural Texas, economic development and leadership training.

A highlight of the annual meeting was a series of round table information sessions concerning the film industry in rural Texas, developing nature and heritage tourism, tips from a panel of media representatives, and anticipated economic development issues for the 1997 state legislature.

TIPS ON STAYING SAFE AND SOUND WITH NATURAL GAS.

For more than 80 years, Lone Star Gas has been providing safe, dependable energy to its customers. By following a few simple rules, you can help make sure you and your family stay safe and sound with natural gas:

- Always have qualified service people install, regularly check and maintain all gas heaters and appliances, following the manufacturer's instructions for installation, ventilation, and operation.
- Always use a gas appliance only for its intended purpose. An oven, for example, should not be used to heat a room.
- Always keep flammable materials and substances away from gas heaters and appliances. Remember, a pilot light is constantly burning.

IF YOU SMELL GAS

in your home, or know you have a gas leak, follow these rules:

- 1 Everyone should leave the house immediately, leaving the doors open for ventilation.
- 2 Do not switch anything electrical on or off.

- 3 Do not use your telephone (telephones use small amounts of electricity).
- 4 Do not strike a match or do anything else that might cause a spark.
- 5 Go to the nearest telephone and call Lone Star Gas Company. Wait until we have found the cause of the gas leak before returning to your home.

If you smell gas while you're outside, contact Lone Star Gas immediately.

CONTRACTORS, BEFORE YOU DIG, call for pipeline locations to avoid any potential problems: 1-800-344-8377 (1-800-DIG-TESS).

Goodyear recognizes Mitchell SWCD

The Mitchell Soil and Water Conservation District with headquarters in Colorado City was named an honor district in the 49th annual Goodyear Conservation Awards Program. The award was presented to the SWCD as a result of nationwide competition sponsored by the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company in cooperation with the National Association of Conservation Districts (NACD).

"We at Goodyear have spent the past 49 years cultivating a partnership with NACD, and the Natural Resources Conservation Service in sponsoring our annual recognition program for conservation districts and their co-operating landowners and operators," said Don Kutz, Goodyear Farm Tire Sales Manager.

"Through our combined efforts, your district in co-operation with other districts across the country, thousands of acres of this country's soil, water forests and wildlife have been saved for future generations," Kutz added.

"Honor district awards are presented to those SWCDs that were top award winners during the previous five years only if

CIA gearing up for applications

Applications are now being taken at the Chamber of Commerce to have houses repaired during next year's Christmas In April.

The 1997 Christmas In April project will be limited to repairing 20 houses, said Jan Lemons, chairman. Houses that were repaired last year are not eligible this year unless work was not finished.

those districts ranked among the leaders in the current program. The award was created to recognize continuing excellence by those districts," said Kutz.

The SWCD received the award at the 56th annual meeting of Soil and Water Conservation District Directors, held September 16-18 in Ft. Worth.

FSA accepts emergency loan applications

Mitchell County was declared eligible for Farm Service Agency (FSA) disaster emergency loans on October 3, 1996.

Generally, that means that farmers who have lost at least 30 percent of their production due to the damages caused by freezing temperatures, sleet and snow that occurred on April 5, 1996 are eligible for FSA (EM) physical loss loans. Proceeds from crop insurance and the PIK program are taken into account when determining eligibility.

Farmers who are interested in receiving an emergency loan are urged to get their applications into FSA as soon as possible. The deadline for applications for physical losses is June 3, 1997. In order to avoid backlogs or delays, farmers should apply as soon as possible.

The FSA office is at 103 W. Florida, Sweetwater, Texas. The telephone number is (915) 236-6337.

Local SWCD to initiate a resource needs assessment

"As a result of the 1996 Farm Bill, the Mitchell Soil and Water Conservation District (SWCD), along with 3,000 other SWCDs in the nation, has been given the charge to lead the way in developing programs and initiatives to improve soil and water resources at the local level," said Jimmy Harrison, chairman of the Mitchell SWCD.

"After years of applying top-down program management approaches in federal conservation programs, the new 1996 Farm Bill establishes a locally driven process co-ordinated by conservation districts to guide the state and nation's agricultural conservation efforts. It provides tremendous opportunities for local people to become involved in assessing local resource needs, setting priorities, developing conservation policy, providing technical support, accepting program applications and approving conservation plans upon which cost-sharing will be based," Harrison added.

According to Harrison, the process deals with developing a list of priority areas and concerns for the long range Farm Bill program for Fiscal year 1998 and beyond.

To enact the Farm Bill on the local level, the Mitchell SWCD, in partnership with the USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service, will conduct a work group meeting with its conservation partners and interested persons or organizations on October 29 at 7 p.m. in the C.C. Thompson Room Annex of The City National Bank in Colorado City.

The purpose of the meeting is to conduct a local conservation needs assessment, establish local priorities and make program recommendations on what problems the SWCD should address in future years. Local recommendations will then flow to the state level where the district's various technical issues, resource priority areas and program policies will be reviewed and integrated into a state, regional and national program.

"We are really excited about the opportunities the new Farm Bill offers because Congress is seeking our leadership to assist our community in carrying out a cooperative, locally driven, incentive-based conservation program that wisely invests public resources to protect local natural resources," said Harrison.

Westbrook Baptist Church honors Acteens

Westbrook Baptist Church held an Acteen recognition service Sunday, October 13 with the theme of "Let Your Light So Shine." The service was to affirm the work the girls had done and encourage them to continue in their growth as mission-minded young women.

Six young women were crowned as queen for completing the steps required by StudiAct, Acteen Guidelines. StudiAct is an individual achievement plan for Acteens through which they can develop deeper understanding of missions and participate in personal witnessing.

Frances Ranne and Clola Whitesides, church pianist and organist, played the prelude, processional and recessional. Bro. Jim Mosley gave the invocation and welcome. Christine Chambers announced the Acteens, Kristen Moody, Kirby Bisnette, Rachel Parham, Allison Barbosa, April Chambers, Bessie Roe and Priscilla Duran.

Prayer Calendar explanation and presentation were given by Kristin Moody and Priscilla Duran. Robert Chambers said the prayer for missionaries. Jaci Hill sang "So Shine on Us" as special music carrying out the theme for the service.

Kirby Bisnette and Rachel Parham presented the StudiAct plan. Blanche Bell, WMU representative, gave the Theme Interpretation. Joyce Chambers gave the Challenge to the Queens. Jimmie Sue Mosley, SMU director, presented the queens for crowning by Joyce Chambers, leader and Christine Chambers presented certificates of accomplishment to Jaci Hill, Andrea Moore, Lori Bennett, Della Roe, Regena Roe and Connie Koch.

April Chambers led the queens in a choral reading. Allison Barbosa and Bessie Roe presented a challenge to the congregation.

An Odessa man was charged Thursday with the attack. A person in a crowd that had formed outside the hotel identified a man who was seen running as her attacker. Shortly afterward, an Odessa police officer spotted a man who matched a description of the attacker. The officer apprehended the suspect after a short foot chase.

James Paul Pace, 30, of Odessa was charged with sexual assault of the local woman and also an attempted assault of an Odessa woman that had occurred 40 minutes earlier.

According to reports, Pace lived within walking distance of where the attack on the Mitchell County woman took place.

Pace is in custody in the Ector County Jail. Bond was set at $152,926.

In accordance with Record policy—unless circumstances warrant disclosure, the victim is not identified due to the nature of the crime.

inadequate funds to find and appoint the number of lawyers needed to represent those with death sentences, said John Boston, executive director of the Texas Criminal Defense Lawyers Association.

While the court debates the constitutionality of the law, executions in Texas have almost come to a standstill this year. While there were 19 executions in Texas last year, there have been only three executions this year. Two of those three were voluntary, requested by the death row inmate, according to Larry Fitzgerald, spokesperson for the Texas Department of Criminal Justice.

"We expect the representation issue will be resolved soon," said Richard Wetzel, executive administrator for the Court of Criminal Appeals.

TNRCC in 1993. At that time, cleanup of the site was estimated to be completed within two years; however, work has been slowed as TNRCC and Fina have disagreed on the extent of testing necessary for safety.

"Much of that has been resolved and we're now down to the details," said McBee.

No date has been set for the cleanup, according to Perkins. Fina submitted a correction action plan on the recovery wells following last week's site visit and will respond this week to TNRCC's technical work plans. By the end of the year, TNRCC is scheduled to respond to the land use issue.

"Every year since I've been in band, we've gotten better and better and we seem to progress further and further," said Drum Major Perry Noblett.

Hours and hours of practice and hard work by the Colorado High Band have gone into preparing them for the competitions.

Every Monday night for the last six weeks, they've had three hour practices. Additional practices are scheduled this week. They come to school early to practice and the different sections of the band have their separate practice sessions.

Monday night's thunderstorm didn't keep the band from three hours of hard practice. Since they couldn't practice marching at Wolf Stadium as usual, they practiced inside the band hall.

Middle School Band Director and Assistant High School Band Director Joe Harper and Assistant Linda Clay work with students individually while the entire band practices.

While many of the bands rely on popular music selections, the Colorado High Band plays the more intricate and difficult classical music, which Band Director Aaron Lewis says is preferred by competition judges.

"Sit up straight now!" Lewis demands during the practice. "Mark time the way you were taught!" Lewis tells the entire band.

Even during practice, the band is not allowed to deviate from excellence. After concentrating on the pieces that gave them problems in Abilene, they march in place as they play with the erect posture they'd use on the field.

"He has high expectations of them and they've proved they're capable of meeting those expectations," says Strain. "They know now they can do it."

Besides hard work and motivation, Noblett said that there is a lot of talent in this year's band.

"By the time they're juniors and seniors, they'll be unstoppable," said Noblett.

Area competition this Saturday will be at HEB Stadium at Pennington Field in the Hurst, E. Bedford area, northeast of Ft. Worth. The competition will begin at 2:30 p.m. Two of the competing bands will advance to state competition.

Small group attends Ag Appreciation Day

A low turnout for the Ag Appreciation Day event at the Civic Center was probably a reflection of this year's poor cotton crop, sponsors were saying last week.

However, the 38 who attended found that there was a positive side to the low attendance. Almost everyone took home one of the prizes. Local merchants had donated $600 worth of prizes for the event.

The traditional farm tour was

Early voters turnout

By 5 p.m. Tuesday, 289 residents of Mitchell County had voted during the early voting period that began October 16.

According to Debby Carlock, county clerk, 267 had voted in person and 22 had voted by mail.

Early voting for the general election is being held in the County Clerk's office and continues until November 1.

The County Clerk's office, located in the Mitchell County Courthouse, is open from 8 a.m. until noon and from 1 p.m. until 5 p.m.

Booth rentals full for November Trade Days

Six weeks prior to the November Railroad Trade Days, all the inside booth spaces have been rented.

Booth spaces at the July Railroad were filled two weeks before the event.

The food vendors have also already reserved their spots for the Nov. 16 and 17 Railroad Trade Days.

"It's very exciting," said Windi Fuller, chamber of commerce director. "The Railroad is starting to catch on. "The vendors are passing the word around about our Trade Days. The vendors are doing well and they're finding that it's a good atmosphere. The vendors and the shoppers like being inside," said Fuller.

Additional entertainment has already been booked for the upcoming Trade Days. Fitting the theme of the Railroad, there will be a children's train ride. Horse and buggy rides that were available during the March Trade Days will also be part of the November Trade Days.

contract with CISD

The Texas Department of Health extended Colorado Independent School District's contract for the medical transportation program at the Wallace Center, it was announced at the October CISD board of trustees meeting.

The program is growing, Superintendent Russell Merket informed the board. A substitute driver was employed last year because of the increased number of scheduled trips.

CISD is paid a 20 percent administration fee and reimbursed by the health agency for cash advancements to transport financially needy children to the doctor.

The self-supporting program has a $46,000 budget and a contract period from Sept. 1, 1996 to Aug. 31, 1997.

Vote For

OVER 16 YEARS JUDICIAL EXPERIENCE

JUDGE JIM R.

WRIGHT

Judge Jim R. Wright, is currently serving as Justice, 11th Court of Appeals. Jim is seeking to continue to serve in that position and is on the ballot for the November election. Before Judge Wright began serving on the Court of Appeals, he served in the trial court for over 15 continuous years as District Judge. Judge Wright graduated from Eastland High School, earned his undergraduate degree from North Texas in Denton and graduated with high honors from Texas Tech University School of Law in 1971. The 11th Court of Appeals covers this area and is very important to the 23 counties it serves. "I began serving as Judge of the 91st District Court in December 1979. I served in that capacity continuously until April 1995 when I was appointed to fill an unexpired term on the 11th Court of Appeals. I continue to serve as Justice on the 11th Court. I am asking for the opportunity to continue to serve you on the Appeals Court. I make no promises other than to continue to uphold the laws of this great Nation and State in a fair, equitable and efficient manner. Thank you very much for your consideration and continued support."

David Small

Small takes 9th chair in choir

Colorado High School student David Small won ninth chair out of 16 when he auditioned for the Region II Choir in Abilene October 12. He is the son of Charles and Sharon Small and the grandson of Louis Small of Colorado City.

David advanced to regional competition after winning a place in the all district choir September 14. The musical selections included pieces in French and Italian, as well as English. Sightreading was included in the auditions.

The next level of competition is the pre-area audition, to be held in Wichita Falls next month. The Region II clinic and concert will also take place then.

David's goal is to make the all-state choir.

Red Ribbon Week will be Oct. 28-Nov. 1 at W'brook

Red balloons will once again fill the sky in Mitchell County. Red Ribbon Week was observed in several community schools last week and Westbrook ISD will promote Red Ribbon Week October 28-November 1.

The Texas Red Ribbon campaign is to unify parents, students, schools and communities in the war against drugs. Westbrook School invites everyone to take part in the kickoff ceremony beginning at 11:30 a.m. Monday, October 28 at the football field. Frank Conard, Mitchell County District Attorney, will be the featured speaker.

W'brook festival planned

The Westbrook School will hold its annual Fall Festival Saturday, October 26 from 5:30-8:30 p.m. The coronation ceremony will be held at 9 p.m. Everyone is invited.

Booth activities are sponsored by the classes in Westbrook ISD. A headin' contest, the popular jail, junior class auction and senior class concessions are just a few of the events taking place.

Following the carnival, a coronation ceremony to crown the king and queen and winners of each division will be held in the auditorium.

Representing each class will be:

Crown bearers, kindergarten: Bailey Whitesides, Wesley Goswick.

Division I—First grade: Emerald Snowden, Drake Thurman. Second grade: Lisa Dykstra, Brandon Mounts. Third grade: Hannah Stowers, Joseph Barboza.

Division II—Fourth grade: Alicia Midwell, Shaun Foy. Fifth grade: Stefanie Hemphill, Zack Whitesides. Sixth grade: Monica Barboza, Landon Graham.

Division III—Seventh grade: Brynn Rich, Cody Reynolds. Eighth grade: Brandi Foy, Mario Gonzales.

Division IV—Ninth grade: Brook Dawson, Justin Bolt. Tenth grade: Isabel Soliz, Jason Smith. Eleventh grade: Toni Perales, Tony Alaniz. Twelfth grade: Krisha Castillo, Casey Hill.

ning at 11:30 a.m. Monday, October 28 at the football field. Frank Conard, Mitchell County District Attorney, will be the featured speaker.

At the end of the assembly, students, faculty and community members will release hundreds of red balloons to show their support in the war against drugs.

During the week, the focus in classrooms and in extra activities planned for the students will be the promotion of drug awareness and drug prevention.

Westbrook School is asking parents, students, schools and all Mitchell County residents to join in pulling together to prevent drug use in our communities. Please continue to wear red clothes and/or red ribbons to symbolize your stand against drugs.

National Business Women's Week October 20-26

National Business Women's Week, October 20-26, honors all working women in our community, state and nation. This week, the Colorado City Business and Professional Women's Club is spotlighting 10 working women who have made an impact in their chosen professions.

Club members have cited the accomplishments of the women they are honoring as follows:

Billie Woods, a teacher and nutritionist turned caterer, has turned her love of cooking into a profitable business.

Claudine Chaney is a minister who has let her love of God and her fellow man become a fulltime career.

Lillian Collum, restaurant owner and operator, was in business in Coleman before moving to Colorado City.

Judy Merrell is a teacher who knows no regular working hours, but opens her life to her students 24 hours a day.

Denise Crawford, a dedicated registered nurse, started with Mitchell County Hospital as a nurses' aide, worked her way through school and is now a home health and hospice nurse with the Heart of West Texas Home Care.

Jean Hardee, secretary at First Baptist Church, serves faithfully despite physical difficulties, and like most church secretaries, is unofficial assistant to the pastor and active in prison ministry.

Connie Ponko, currently serving as the City of Colorado City Financial Manager, has worked her way up to that position.

Fleta Lewis, one of the first women to go into real estate on her own in Colorado City, also manages an insurance agency and rental property.

Glenda Stinson lost her Sears catalog store when Sears phased out all small offices, but came right back with an antiques mini-mall and Penney's catalog store.

Kathy Riggs, a homemaker, mother and home teacher, chose those professions over salaried positions away from home.

National Business Women's Week has been celebrated since 1928, when President Hoover issued the first proclamation. Each year BPW local organizations recognize working women and businesses who promote those women and support BPW objectives.

1996 certificates of appreciation were presented to the Colorado City Record, The City National Bank, First National Bank, Radio KVMC-KAUM, Eddie's, Lone Wolf Furniture, Corky's, CableComm and Perkin's Apothecary. These businesses have assisted with projects, supported all working women and recognized achievements of women in our community.

Colorado City Wolves fall to Crane

By CASEY EAGAN

The Colorado City Wolves squandered a 10-0 lead and committed two crucial turnovers in the second half, allowing Crane to pull out a 14-10 win over the Wolves Friday night at Wolf Stadium.

It was a disappointing loss to Wolves fans, despite the fact that Crane entered the game with the same record as Colorado City. The Golden Cranes are now atop the District 4-3A standings while the Wolves' title hopes took a severe blow as they fell to 5-2, 1-1.

"We made about two or three costly mistakes and that is what lost it," said Wolves Head Coach Bill Grissom. "Otherwise, I think we dominated the game."

Everything that could have gone wrong for the Wolves did, as they turned the ball over four times and failed to capitalize on their many scoring opportunities. Offensively, the Wolves outgained the Golden Cranes by over 100 yards, but the big plays went to Crane.

The Wolves opened the game as if they were ready to steamroll their opponents, as Wolves runningback #20 Arian Emerson and his offensive line dominated the opening drive. Emerson ran for 41 yards on nine carries on the six-minute drive, and scored from three yards out to give the Wolves the early lead. Wolves kicker Chris Ramirez booted the extra point to give the Wolves a 7-0 advantage with 5:51 to play in the first quarter.

Crane moved the ball well on its first possession, but was stopped on fourth down at the Wolves' 36 yard line, two yards shy of the first down. The Wolves' defense made big plays in the first half, including a fumble recovery by linebacker Chris Fambro, but the Wolves could not take advantage of the turnover.

The Wolves had another opportunity early in the second quarter. After a short Crane punt that gave the Wolves good field position at the Crane 47 yard line, Emerson coughed up the ball, with the Golden Cranes recovering at their own 36.

After another Crane punt, the Wolves looked ready to take a commanding halftime lead as they moved the ball downfield, taking up the last six minutes of the first half. Wolves' quarterback Lance Dockrey hit Fambro and tight end Brett Hoyle with passes to put the Wolves at the Crane four yard line with 30 seconds left in the half.

Emerson seemed to score the touchdown on the next play, but the officials disagreed and spotted the ball at the one foot line on the left hash mark as time was running down. The officials, for no apparent reason, decided to spot the ball again in the center of the field, taking at least another eight seconds off the clock.

Clearly there was enough time to run two plays and call timeout, but poor mechanics by the officiating crew cost the Wolves an opportunity to kill the clock. Dockrey rolled out quickly on the next play but was tackled for a loss as time expired. Coach Grissom immediately took responsibility for the failure to call a timeout, but film of the game clearly showed the officials' error in taking too much time in spotting the ball.

In the second half, the Wolves' defense, led by John Erwin and Jeremiah Munoz, kept the pressure and forced the Golden Cranes to punt. Dockrey immediately hit wide receiver Jaime Gutierrez with a 33-yard pass to the Golden Cranes' 30 yard line.

The Wolves moved the ball to the 10 yard line but were forced to attempt a 27-yard field goal. Ramirez nailed it through the uprights to give the Wolves what seemed to be a comfortable 10-0 lead with eight minutes and nine seconds left in the third quarter.

On the Wolves' next possession, disaster struck. The Wolves were punting on fourth down when Crane cornerback Jose Rizo raced past the Wolves line and blocked the punt, recovering at the Wolves' 31 yard line.

The Golden Cranes had no success putting the ball in the end zone until a trick play put them back in the game. Crane quarterback Jamin Phipps handed the ball to tight end Scott Slagle, who hurled the ball into the end zone. Wolves defensive back Terry Green had perfect position on the receive but mis-timed his jump a half-second and the ball wobbled into the hands of the Crane receiver for the touchdown that closed the gap to 10-7 Wolves with 3:24 left in the third period.

Things continued to go downhill for the Wolves. Another fumble on a Wolves punt return gave Crane the ball at midfield near the end of the third quarter. The Golden Cranes slowly moved into scoring position, converting another fourth down play in the process. Crane runningback Alfonso Garcia ran it in from five yards out and gave Crane their first lead of the game. The extra point was good and Crane led 14-10 with 8:25 left in the game.

The Wolves started their next possession in good field position. Emerson broke a 15-yard run, his longest of the game, and Dockrey hit Hoyle with a 15-yard pass to the Crane 15 yard line. The Golden Cranes bottled up Emerson on the next two plays and Dockrey threw an incomplete pass on third down. On fourth down, Dockrey rolled to his right, attempting to hit his receiver but Crane cornerback Chris Rodriguez intercepted with 4:07 left in the game.

Crane was unable to muster a first down off the turnover, thanks to fine tackles from Fambro and Green, and punted the ball back to the Wolves.

Colorado City would start their final drive at the Crane 34 yard line with 2:37 left in the game.

Dockrey went right to work, hitting runningback Tony Walthall for a 10-yard pass, and Emerson ran for nine more, getting flipped over in the process. The Wolves went to Emerson the next two plays, but Crane plugged the holes, forcing another fourth down at the Crane 16 yard line. Dockrey rolled out again and threw only to have it picked off once again, this time by Crane linebacker Mark Cavazos. Crane then ran out the clock for the 14-10 victory.

Arian Emerson led the Wolves with 140 yards rushing on a season-high 37 carries. Lance Dockrey threw for 86 yards, 38 of them to Junior Molina. The Wolves' defense was led by Chris Fambro, Zack Love and Blake Oden.

The Wolves need to rebound strong to contend for the playoffs. They travel to Reagan County this Friday night at 7:30 p.m. in what has become a must win for the Wolves.

"We just need to go to work and think about winning these next three ballgames and convince our kids we still have a shot at the playoffs," said Coach Grissom. "That was our goal from the start."

Wildcats reign over Bulldogs

By CARL GRAHAM

The Westbrook Wildcats kept their record untarnished Friday night when they spoiled Loraine's homecoming with a 52-7 thumping before a packed house. Loraine appeared to have upset on their mind in the first quarter, as both teams had a hard time getting their offense, untracked.

Westbrook drew first blood when Justin Hill hit brother Casey Hill with a touchdown pass. The point after kick by Randy Byington was good, putting Westbrook up 8-0.

Minutes later, Loraine came back with a touchdown of their own. They elected to go for the point after on the ground, which was successful, putting them within one point at 8-7. That would be as close as Loraine would come, as Westbrook rode the arm of sophomore quarterback Justin Hill to 44 unanswered points while the swarming Wildcat defense kept Loraine's offense at bay, allowing them only 64 yards rushing and 18 yards through the air.

Westbrook, on the other hand, had 253 yards through the air, which included four touchdown passes, and had 14 rushes for 102 yards on the ground.

In the junior high game on Thursday, Loraine clobbered Westbrook 33-0, giving the Bulldogs some hope to turn this rivalry around in a few years.

During halftime, senior Eliza DeLoera was crowned Homecoming Queen. She was escorted by senior Homecoming King Raymond Limones. This year's Coming Home Queen was Beverly Doyle Collier from the class of 1966. Escorting her was Loraine Mayor Catarino Martinez, who is also a 1966 graduate.

Loraine (2-5, 0-2) will take on the sixth-ranked Highland Hornets this Friday night in Highland beginning at 7:30 p.m. Loraine Head Coach Rick Cooper said, "We will definitely have to step up our play with a little more intensity. If we play like we are capable, we can be competitive."

Westbrook (7-0, 2-0), ranked number five in the state, will take on Borden County this Friday night at 7:30 p.m. in Westbrook.

"We have to be focused and play well to beat them," said Westbrook Head Coach Jim Hill. "They are the best ballclub we've played all year."

Westbrook quarterback Justin Hill (No. 7) and (No. 30) Richard White look on as Wildcat End Casey Hill (No. 20) breaks into the open field, with assistance from No. 74 George Rincones. Loraine's Mike Rico (No. 21) and (No. 22) Greg Limones attempt to give chase in Westbrook's 52-7 victory over Loraine last Friday night in the Bulldogs' homecoming game.

UIL tiebreaker rules apply to 4-3A

Of the 160 football districts statewide, 151, including District 4-3A, Colorado City's district, are using the new University Interscholastic League (UIL) tiebreaker rules that settle games ending in ties.

The first-year NCAA rule allows games in district and post-district play to settle ties with an overtime period, with each team alternating possessions starting at the opponent's 25-yard line. UIL football schools play under NCAA playing rules and not National Federation.

Non-district games will still end in ties, while in district play, schools as a group have the option of using the new rule. In the playoffs, all games will be played with the new NCAA rule.

In overtime, the possession continues until a team scores or loses a possession by a turnover or on downs. If the teams remain tied at the end of the first alternating possession, another overtime ensues and the process is repeated until there is a winner.

Since 1928, the UIL has used a system of penetrations inside an opponent's 20-yard line, first downs and total yardage to determine which team might advance for playoff purposes or to help determine district wins or losses.

"The early responses from teams playing overtime games has been positive," UIL Athletic Director Charles Breithaupt said. "Coaches and fans have been pleased with the excitement generated in the overtime games."

Booster Club holds regular meeting

The Wolves Booster Club held its weekly meeting on Thursday at Collum's Restaurant and received reports on Wolves athletic teams as they battle through district.

Wolves Head Football Coach Bill Grissom, whose Wolves are 5-2, gave a report on his team's progress and their win over Greenwood.

Lady Wolves Head Volleyball Coach Jessica Lacy was on hand to report on her team's fight for the district title. The Lady Wolves are 17-10 going into this week.

Booster Club Treasurer Joe Morren reported a total of $10,000 in the club's account.

Club President Randy Erwin also reported that the club is looking into buying travel bags for the Wolves basketball teams.

The next Booster Club meeting is scheduled for this Thursday at noon at Collum's Restaurant. For more information please call Randy Erwin at 728-3408.

7th and 8th grade Wolves soar over Golden Cranes

The seventh grade Wolves finally got on the scoreboard this week, and it turned out to be all that they needed in a 6-0 victory over Crane last Thursday night at Wolf Stadium.

The Wolves, 2-4 for the season, have kept themselves in most of the games with a tough defense, but have struggled offensively. The Wolves had gone three consecutive games without scoring before last week's game.

The eighth grade Wolves have exploded after a slow start this season, picking up their third straight win by defeating Crane 50-16 last Thursday following the seventh grade game.

The Wolves have a potent running attack and its defense has picked up the intensity, leading them to a 4-2 record this season.

Both teams will try to continue their winning ways this Thursday night at Reagan County. The seventh grade will begin their game at 5 p.m., followed by the eighth grade game at 6:30 p.m.

JV Lady Wolves finish volleyball season

The junior high Lady Wolves lost their final four games of the year last week, but the girls volleyball team made great strides over the long season.

The Lady Wolves seventh grade A and B teams took on Goliad on Monday with both teams falling in close games.

The B team, behind a huge effort from Rita Luera, gave Goliad's B team all it could handle before falling 5-15, 15-11, 9-15. The A team got a good first game from Kandon McGuffin, but fell 13-15, 7-15.

The Lady Wolves eighth grade B team received a fine effort from Kayla Kemp, only to fall 8-15, 6-15 against Big Spring Monday night in Colorado City. The A team fell to Big Spring 11-15, 4-15 despite a solid match from Callie Bolin.

The Lady Wolves finished one season in a bit of a slump, but Coach Linda Mathis feels her team played at a higher level this season.

"We played every game working on our technique," she said. "It may have hurt us in the short term, but it made the girls better players. All of the girls played hard and made lots of improvements for a successful season."

SPORTS NOTES

Offensive Player of the Week

Senior offensive tackle Marcus Sanchez was named Wolves Offensive Player of the Week in Colorado City's 14-10 loss to Crane. "Sanchez did a super job of blocking, probably the best he's blocked all season," said Wolves Head Coach Bill Grissom.

Defensive Player of the Week

Senior defensive tackle Zack Love and senior defensive end Blake Oden were named Co-defensive Players of the Week. Love had seven tackles, assisted on five others and caused a fumble. Oden also had seven tackles, five assists and had two quarterback pressures.

Varsity Lady Wolves still battling for playoff spot

The Lady Wolves varsity volleyball team closes its regular season this week with two games that will decide the district championship.

Going into last week, the Lady Wolves were 1-1 in district and knew they would have to win their final four games of the season to take the title after a tough loss to rival Greenwood.

Last Tuesday night, the Lady Wolves got a scare but clawed their way to a 15-6, 10-15, 15-5 victory over Kermit in Colorado City. The JV Lady Wolves picked up their first district victory, an 8-15, 15-0, 15-6 comeback over Kermit. The freshman team dropped to 0-3 with a 7-15, 15-13, 6-15 loss.

On Saturday night, the Lady Wolves edged Crane for the second straight match, winning 11-15, 15-6, 15-4 in Colorado City. In both wins against Crane this season the Lady Wolves had to come from behind. The JV and freshman Lady Wolves both lost tight matches to Crane, each falling in three tight games.

The varsity Lady Wolves (17-6, 3-1) faced Greenwood on Tuesday night in what should be a showdown for the district championship.

Greenwood handed the varsity team their lone district loss, but Lady Wolves Head Coach Jessica Lacy expects a different result this week.

"We could have won that first match," said Coach Lacy. "We watched the tape of the Greenwood match and the girls could kick themselves for not winning."

The Lady Wolves varsity JV and freshman final district matches of the season will be at Kermit on Saturday. If the varsity team defeats Greenwood, they will clinch the district title with a win over Kermit. If the Lady Wolves fall to Greenwood, they will place second and still qualify for the playoffs with a win over Kermit.

"We've improved so much since district started," said Coach Lacy. "I'm confident in our team."

JV Wolves fall to Crane after two-game winning streak

The Wolves JV football team ended a two-game winning streak last Thursday night, falling to Crane 49-0 in Crane.

The JV Wolves, who fell to 2-5 with one loss, had played inspired football the previous two weeks, but Crane wiped out that enthusiasm early.

The ninth grade Wolves didn't fare any better last week, as they fell 49-0 to the Golden Cranes. The 3-4

Wolves have made progress as the year has gone along, but have been blown out on a few occasions.

The ninth grade Wolves look to get back on the right track this Tuesday night as they take on Snyder at 5:30 p.m. at Wolf Stadium. The JV Wolves will follow with a 7 p.m. matchup against district rival Reagan County.

Pee Wee Super Bowl this Saturday

The Jaguars defeated the Panthers and the Cougars beat the Tigers 30-0 in the last week of the regular season in Pee Wee football last Saturday at Wolf Stadium.

The Jaguars finished the season 6-0 to top the league standings. The Panthers and the Cougars finished 2-2-2 while the Tigers finished 0-6.

The Pee Wee Super Bowl will be played this Saturday at Wolf Stadium, with the Jaguars taking the Cougars for the title at 3 p.m. The game will be preceded by the consolation game, which will pit the Tigers versus the Panthers at 1 p.m.

There will be a $1 admission charge. The concession stand will be open and run by the Wolves Band Booster Club. All spectators must use the northwest gate to enter the stadium.

All players need to stay at the stadium after the game to discuss a game featuring the Colorado City Pee Wee football players competing against the All-Star Pee Wee team from Snyder, to be held Saturday, November 9 at Wolf Stadium. The fifth graders will battle it out at 1 p.m., followed by the sixth grade teams at 3 p.m. Admission will be $1.

A drawing will be held at halftime at the all-star game for an all-expenses-paid weekend for two to see the Dallas Cowboys vs. the New England Patriots on the 14th and 15th of December. The winners will tour Texas Stadium and Valley Ranch with accommodations at the Marriott Hotel in Dallas.

Donations will benefit the Scurry County Boys and Girls clubs and the Mitchell County Pee Wee Football League.

For more information, please call Mike Ratliff at 728-5371.

Loraine News

By BESSIE ANN VAUGHN

Greetings from Loraine. Speaking of telephones....

Don't you just hate to try to respond to a taped message instead of a live being?

For instance, you dial the appropriate phone number and before you can say hello the recording tells you all lines are busy but you may hold. After what seems like hours a voice come on.

"If you are calling from a real phone, press 4.... If you are calling from a Mickey Mouse phone, press 5.... If you are using a touch tone phone, press 3.... If your phone is red press 2 and hang in there. If you're sorry you dialed, press 1.

Finally, a live person answers with "Hello, how may I direct your call?"

By this time I have forgotten what I wanted in the first place, so I tell her, "She can press her lips together and go whistle "Dixie." I will just write a letter and press on a stamp!

Over homecoming weekend, Charlene Walker's sisters visited with her, their mother, in the nursing home and made the school anniversary.

Charlene's sisters are Delma Robison-Bowie and Lavern Sawyer of Abilene.

Kenneth Brame, Nashville, Tenn. came home for his school's 30-year reunion and also visited with his mother, Margaret Brame.

Rue Reeves from Deming, N.M., was in town Friday visiting with Juanice Butler. Rue is cousin to Juanice.

Jean Johnson from Spur, Texas came to Loraine to visit her mother, Bea Lee, last Friday and stayed to go to the homecoming at school.

Matt Preston visited with Iris

Preston this past weekend.

I'm sorry in being so slow to welcome the Ron Garners to Loraine. They live across the street from the August Armstrongs. Now that we are fast approaching All Hallow's Eve, I wouldn't recommend hanging around the Garner residence, especially after dark.

It seems that Mrs. Spook lives in that house and this information was verified by a nice lady, Lucy Magill, from Colorado City. Lucy is Mrs. Spook's mother, so she knows! Anita Garner, our new neighbor, was born on October 31. I wonder if she has a black cat?

All kidding aside, welcome to Loraine, Ron and Anita Garner.

Greg, Bruce and daughter Meagan came to the Loraine Bulldogs game, last Friday night's homecoming game.

They visited and spent the night with Ralston Bruce.

Zelma Crenshaw, accompanied by Bobby and Wanza Graham, attended the wedding of her grandson, Jeff Crenshaw to Kristi Lynn Fulton of Odessa Saturday evening at 7 o'clock.

They spent Saturday night and Sunday with Zelma's son Bobby and his wife, Sandra Crenshaw of Gardendale, Texas. They returned home Sunday afternoon.

Amy McKee's cousin, Edwin Hallmark from Austin, came to Loraine to visit and for his 60-year homecoming anniversary.

Mary Lee Nichols visited with her mother, Mary Coffee, at Loraine Manor last weekend, also visiting with Bea Looney and Doris Henderson.

Tony and Marla Davis, Ashley and Aaron of Albuquerque were here to visit Hubert and Nina Meadows for homecoming. They all spent Sunday in Abilene with Tony's parents, Curtis and Sarah Davis and James and Carla Meadows and family.

Pat and Steve Berry from Lubbock were in town last weekend to visit with Bea Looney.

Steve, Debbie and Joshua Zabica from San Angelo came to visit Margaret Brame last Saturday.

The class of 1936 attended the Loraine homecoming and after the business meeting the classmates all met at the home of Kenneth and Juanice Butler's home.

Celebrating and coming together for their 60-year anniversary were Rue McCauley Reeves, Deming, N.M.; Lula Mae Roberts Hart and husband T.A., Midland; Irwin Jarrat and wife Ruby Fae, Midland; Garland Land, Big Spring; Nova Lee Groom Mahan and husband Eldon, Ft. Worth; Edwin Hallmark, Austin; LaVelle Jones Montgomery, Gorman; Evelyn Land Stanley, Sweetwater; Top Lucas, and the hostess, Juanice Butler of Loraine.

Chris Hall from Brownwood visited Chrystene Hall last week and helped with some farm chores.

Royce and Neysa Beights arrived home just in time for homecoming after a two-week visit with their daughter Renee and husband Joe, sons Justin and Zachary, in Ambler, Pa.

While there, they celebrated both grandsons' birthdays and took a day-long trip to an Amish community. The trees were all in their fall colors and beautiful, Neysa reported.

The Beights came home via Lubbock to celebrate their youngest granddaughter, Morgan Biles', fourth birthday. They saw several states and enjoyed learning about their history.

Friends having birthdays in October are Oma Herm, Edgar Herm, Adele Cranfill, Izora Millican, Ray Harris, Louella Hall, Sue Barnett, Rosa Dawson, Mary Helen Price, Leora Spann, Virgie Merket, Debby Carlock, Ron Garner, Gus Armstrong, Thera Henderson, Trula Richardson, Christine Farmstead, Ida Chitsey, Billie Sheffield, Billie Powell and Gwen Wistrand.

Party day is Wednesday the 30th with turkey, dressing and all the trimmings.

Senior Center News Black cats, ghosts and goblins are hanging out down at the center now (on the walls), just waiting for the right time to party and trick or treat.

Speaking of treats, we had the Aubrey Wilson Western Band playing for us last Friday. We always enjoy them. Mr. Joe Vincent brought his wife Muriel along as did Carl Stokes. His wife's name is Dot. Maybe next time Mrs. Wilson came over.

Next week I will list the names and events of 1966, the 30-year class.

Take care and see you about town.

Loraine class of '66 holds reunion

By CARL GRAHAM

The Loraine class of 1966 held their 30th reunion last weekend in the Medallion Room at Caprock Electric in Colorado City. Eleven of the 18 members gathered to reminisce about old times, share their favorite stories and generally catch up on what has happened to each one over the years.

Members present were Kenneth Brame, Nashville, Tenn.; Francis Munoz, Grand

The following parents and former room mothers were present: Nell Doyle, Margaret Brame, Winnie Coffee, Mildred and Ace Lee, Eloise and Delmar McDaniel, Paula Munoz, Marilyn and Howard Tartt and Dena Fay Troutt. Several other friends and relatives visited during the evening hours.

The group decided to meet again in five years on a date to be determined later. A semi-annual newsletter will be started by Carl Graham to update ex-classmates on special events.

Loraine homecoming activities end

By CARL GRAHAM

Loraine High School began the final day of its week-long homecoming activities last Saturday at the school cafeteria with registration of ex-students at 10 a.m.

At noon, lunch was served to more than 200 exes and was followed by the annual business meeting.

Rick Lucas, president of the ex-student association, opened the meeting by introducing the principal, Mr. Scott Patterson, and superintendent, Mr. Kenneth Kendall. Mr. Kendall gave the invocation, the status of the school, and named various future projects.

Gloria Lucas, secretary of the ex-student association, read the minutes of the last meeting. They were approved as read.

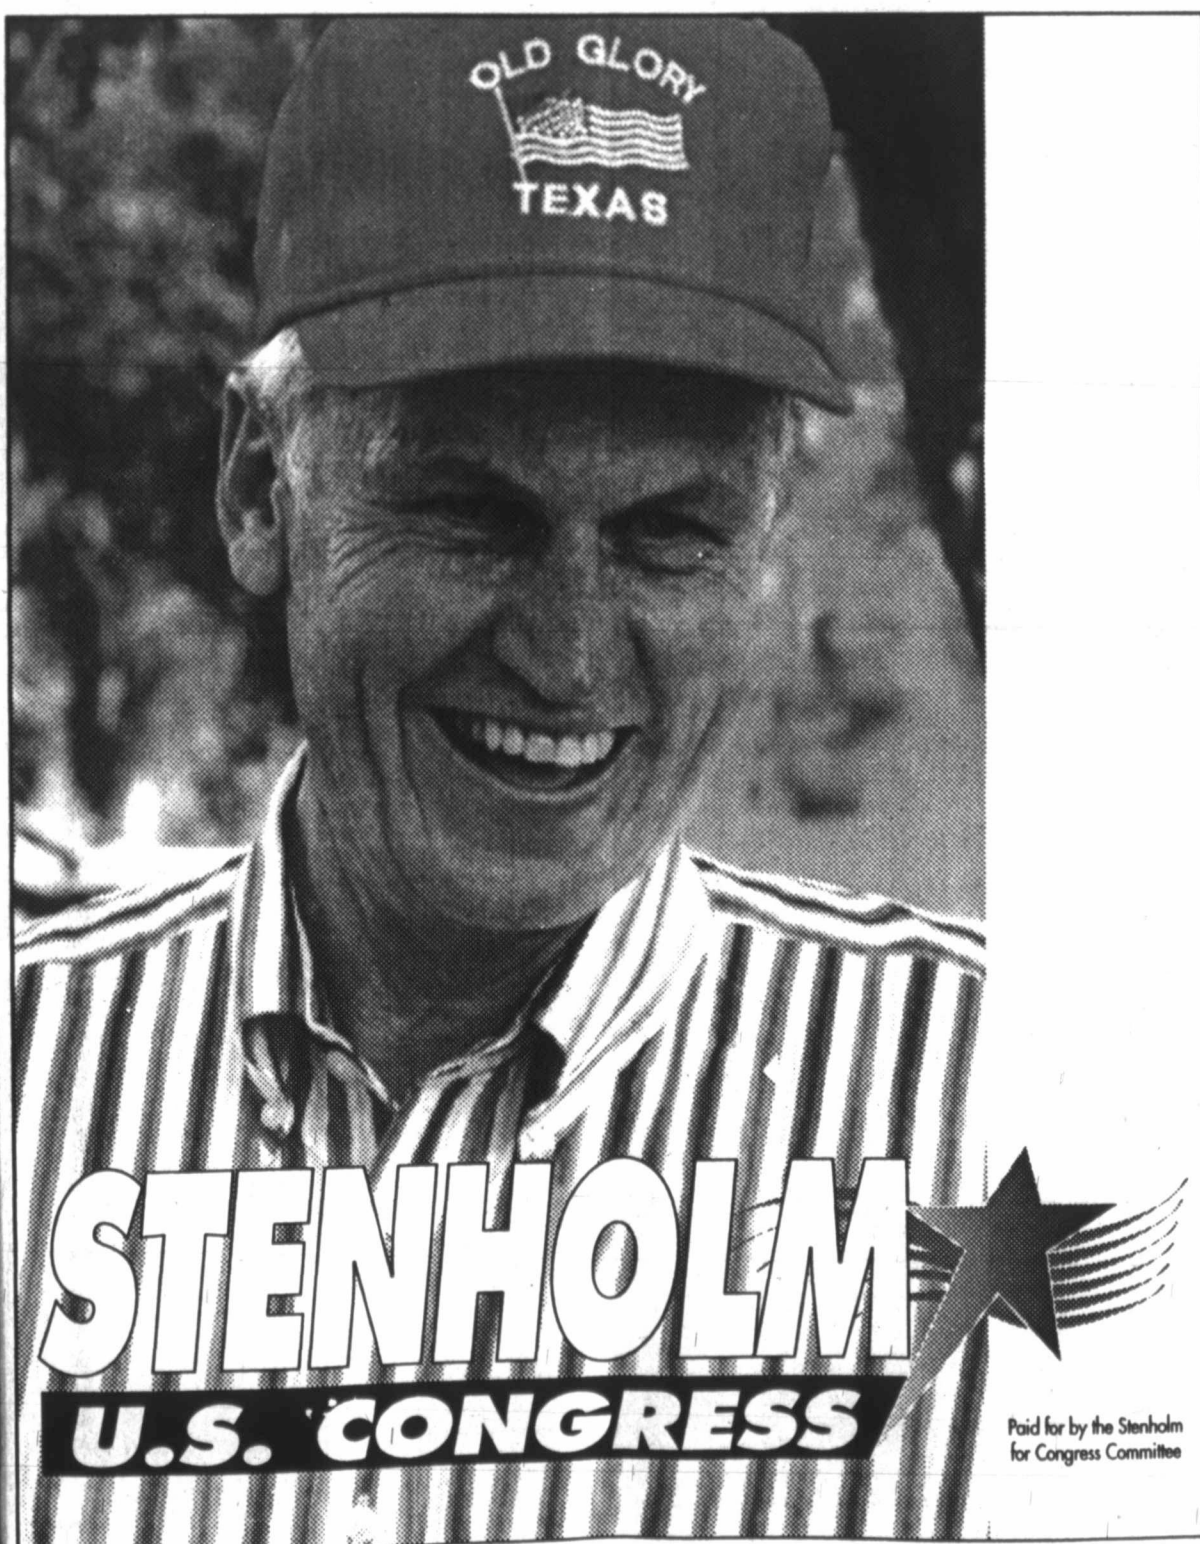

The classes of 1936, 1946 and 1966 were recognized and members were asked to stand, introduce themselves and name where they were from.

The class of '46 presented several skits and recitations before the program was turned over to the class of '66.

Rick Lucas introduced the mayor of Loraine, who was a member of the class. He welcomed all ex-students before introducing this year's Coming Home Queen, Mrs. Beverly Doyle Collier. Mrs. Collier recited a humorous poem, "Down Memory Lane," which carried listeners from first grade through their senior year.

The highlight of the meeting was when the class all stood to recite a poem, "I heard the Wild Geese Flying," which they memorized for former teacher Billie Ruth Abernathy. They ended the poem with a tribute to classmate Kenneth "Buzzard" Brame by singing their favorite song, "Happy Birthday, Dear Buzzard."

Rick Lucas closed by thanking everyone for coming and making a successful program.

A DETERIORATING ROUNDTOP, with most of the back side of the structure missing, sits behind the city barn. Kiwanians hope to interest local residents in a Save The Roundtop effort.

Kiwanians determined to save Round Top building

Local Kiwanians have renewed their determination to save the Round Top.

Members were so discouraged by lack of interest from other organizations in joining them in saving the Round Top that they were almost ready to drop the idea and use the $1,000 they had set aside for the project for something else.

However, members attending the October luncheon-meeting said they weren't yet ready to give up.

The Kiwanians are now asking local citizens if they would be willing to make a donation to the project.

People would not have to make a donation right now, just make a pledge by calling the chamber of commerce.

"We know we can't do it by ourselves," said Joy Morris, Kiwanian co-chairman. "We need to know if there's anyone else interested."

If there is not enough interest, the Kiwanians have said they will drop the project the first of the year.

The Round Top, a former business with an unusually shaped round roof, holds fond memories for many native residents.

"I've drunk a few soda pops in there," said Walter Mitchell, city parks director, as he pointed to the deteriorating structure now stored behind the city barn.

The Kiwanians are considering two options for saving the Round Top. One is to restore the building to the way it was originally—complete with turning top and red, white and blue neon lights down the ribs. The other, less expensive and considered by many to be a more viable option, is to simply preserve it using inmate labor.

Operations and hospital rooms cost more year after year.
