SHANGHAI, Oct. 31. — American troops in Shanghai admit defeat. The Russians have beaten them. The Americans fought manfully against heavy odds, they counterattacked whenever possible, they fought strong delaying actions. But the issue no longer is in doubt.

"Let's face it," said a GI. "We're licked and we might as well admit it. These Russians can drink vodka all day long and all night long. They can toast every politician from Gandhi and the grand llama of Tibet to the governor of Idaho, and where do we wind up?"

Wind Up Under Table

"Under the table," answered the corporal. "Remember?"

Night after night Russian families invite two or three Americans to dinner. The GIs, expecting a quiet, simple meal, find themselves gaily squeezed into places at a long table. A dozen varieties of food and great pitchers full of vodka grace the table. Half the Russians on the block are grinning happily at the Americans and proposing toast after toast.

Many of these Russians came here years ago, some more recently, but all appear to support the Soviet government enthusiastically.

Everybody Is Toasted

At one of these parties the other night toasts were drunk to President Truman, the late President Roosevelt, "Papa" Stalin, General Eisenhower, the American Army, the British Army, the Russian Army and the Chinese Army.

Then one of the Russians proposed a toast to the meat course—beef stroganoff.

A GI declined because "if I drink any more toasts to anybody or anything I won't be in shape to go home."

"So," said the Russian, "you no like my home, yes? You no like my wife. You no like the biff stroganoff. You no like my kvartera or the obstanovka or the serverovka — you no like those either."

"Look," said the American. "I do like your home. Your wife is a very nice lady. The beef stroganoff is swell. I don't know what your kvartera is, or the obstanovka, or the serverovka, but they're swell too. Only I can't drink any more vodka."

"Is insult!" cried the Russian. "You haf insult my home. You haf insult my wife. You haf insult Papa Stalin . . ."

And They Did

"OK," said the American. "We'll drink a toast to the beef stroganoff."

After one or two visits to a Russian home a GI is sometimes able to convince his host that no offense is intended if he declines the fourth or fifth toast.

Witness the case of Mr. Prosenko, a Russian grocer who loves to give parties for Americans.

No Toasts—Just Get Drunk

"Tonight," said Mr. Prosenko, "tonight we haf not one seengle toast. Nobody must propose toast. Nobody. I haf only von little re-

Rebellion In Germany Is Feared

Yankee Forces Are Resented

Some Outbreaks Already Noted

By JOHN B. McDERMOTT
United Press Staff Writer

FRANKFURT, Germany, Oct. 31.—Gen. Dwiight D. Eisenhower reported to Washington today that increasing discontent among German youths and former soldiers shows signs of developing into an organized uprising against American occupation forces.

German resentment against American fraternization with German girls and general inactivity

DATE FOR TRANSFER SET

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31 (AP) — President Truman today set next June 1 as a goal for transferring German government from military to civilian hands.

The president did so in expressing his approval of a letter from General Dwight D. Eisenhower advocating such a course through agreement with the other three powers participating in the occupation of Germany. Eisenhower, commanding general of American occupation forces recommended — and the president agreed — that military occupation, as distinguished from military government should be continued as long as it is necessary.

already has led to sporadic outbreaks of violence, Eisenhower said in his formal report for September.

Criticism Growing Bolder

"If widespread unemployment persists," he said, "sentiments behind them may provide rallying points for activities which might grow into organized resistance directed against the occupation forces."

Criticism by German adults against policies of the American military government also are growing bolder, Eisenhower said. He said "extreme leftists" were exerting pressure for more severe punishment of former Nazis than mere removal from office.

Supervised political activities are rapidly increasing and were "comparatively" great during September although the German population as a whole remained politically dormant, he said.

No Mass Movement

He said no mass political movement of any sort had developed. Rather, he explained, such increased activity as there was had been divided among several budding parties.

Eisenhower said his program of denazification was levelling off—an indication that it was nearing completion.

By Sept. 15, he said, approximately 100,000 Nazis and former soldiers had been removed or denied employment in public offices in the American occupation zone.

20,000 other Nazis were removed from supervisory positions in private business and industry and

Victims In Rape Of Manila Paint Lurid Word Pictures Of "A Jap At Play"—

Baby Impaled On Bayonet---Pleading School Girl Decapitated

By WILLIAM C. WILSON
United Press Staff Writer

MANILA, Oct. 31.—A parade of witnesses told a military tribunal today that they saw Japanese soldiers gleefully toss a baby onto a bayonet, decapitate a pleading schoolgirl and brutally slay thousands of other civilians during the rape of Manila last February.

Three hundred and seventy three persons died in one massacre alone, witnesses said. The Japanese herded some 800 civilians into the dining hall of St. Paul's Catholic college, then blew off the roof and bayonetted and shot down survivors who tried to escape through windows.

Buried 8,000 Bodies

Mariano Del Dosario, Manila undertaker, testified that he buried 8,000 bodies in two months, most of them civilians bayonetted, shot, raped or otherwise tortured by the Japanese in a final orgy of destruction as American liberation forces stormed into the city.

Charged with responsibility for al lthe crimes—and many more yet to be recounted—was Gen. Tomoyuki Yamashita, Japanese commander in chief in the Philippines during 1944 and 1945. He is on trial before the tribunal for his life.

Women To Tell Stories

The court disclosed that it will meet behind closed doors tomorrow to hear some of Manila's most prominent women tell in their own words how they were raped by Japanese soldiers at the Bayview hotel during the horrible days of early February.

Altogether 40 women and girls were raped at the hotel, the court said. The Japanese cruelly mistreate dand abused 400 others, including 36 victims of attempted rape.

The court said it would meet in star chamber to protect the women's reputations. Highlights of the testimony will be made available later by the prosecution, however.

Four Separate Massacres

Witnesses at today's session told of four separate massacres carried out by Japanese serving under Yamashita. Shocked spectators gasped as the frightful tales of wanton atrocities and slaughter unfolded.

Dr. Luis Vasquez testified that

Boys Confess To Burglaries

Seven daylight house burglaries here have been cleared through confessions of two boys of 13 and 14 years of age, the sheriff and juvenile departments announced this morning.

Additional offenses may be uncovered before investigation is completed, officers indicated. Charges have not yet been filed against the pair.

Admit Taking Loot

The boys admitted taking a German-made gun from 1211-A Fifteenth; a watch from 1509-A Broadway; a fountain pen and $2 in money from 2418 Ave. K; two cartons of cigarets and a watch from 1308 Twenty-third; nine packs of cigarets and field glasses from 1707 Sixteenth; a watch from 1505 Broadway and a fountain pen from 1402 Ave. M.

Practically all the property has been recovered, officers said.

All burglaries occurred at residences where the occupants had left without locking the doors. The boys related that they would first take the precaution of knocking, then if no one answered, they would walk in.

The 14-year-old is on parole for similar offenses.

Truman Too Busy To Plan Second Term

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31. (AP) — President Truman said today he has given no thought to a possible campaign for a second term.

Asked at a news conference whether he will run again, Mr. Truman replied he did not have to testify against hmiself at this time. His response brought laughter from reporters.

The president, more serious, said that the matter of a possible second term had not entered his thoughts — that he had been too busy on other things.

A reporter suggested that Postmaster General Hannegan, Democratic national chairman, has been busy.

The president said he thought Hannegan had been working for the Democratic party and he didn't think he had been working on anything like a second term.

Labor Is Warned Against Excessive Demands; Prices To Be Held In Line

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31. — President Truman, who last night advocated reasonable wage increases without major price changes, declined today to suggest a percentage by which he thought wages should be boosted.

He told a news conference that the amount of increases would have to be determined in each individual case.

That is why it has to be done by collective bargaining, the president told reporters who questioned him about his radio address last night in which he laid down his postwar wage-price policy. It calls for two things:

A. Approval of reasonable wage increases to avoid deflation and unemployment.

To Hold Line On Prices

B. A hold-the-line attitude on prices, with increases to be allowed only where necessary.

The president told labor last night it can't have the same take-home pay it got during the war. There will have to be a drop, he said, and he warned workers against making too great demands upon employers.

But he said industry generally could stand some pay increases out of profits.

Price Increases Soon

To those employers wanting higher prices before giving workers more pay for shorter hours—to make up for loss in wartime earnings—Mr. Truman said price increases might be entertained in six months.

And industries essential to conversion could ask price increases now if they must have them to pay better wages to recruit necessary manpower.

In a vigorous broadcast appeal for industrial peace and prosperity, Mr. Truman said labor needs higher pay rates with the changeover from a 48 to a 40-hour work week, and industry can afford to go part way in making up this loss.

But he also amended his August 18 order relaxing controls on wage increases to add three

Youth Rallies Planned Here

Aimed at a city-wide "better youth" movement a series of youth rallies will be held on four consecutive Sunday afternoons, beginning Sunday, Nov. 4, under the direction of Rev. Jimmy Bell, youth speaker from Clovis, N. M., with the sponsorship of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

In an adopted resolution the Jaycees have outlined a program for the "underprivileged and unchurch youth of Lubbock," at the same time setting forth a statement declaring they are interested in the welfare of the community and the youth, not "holding forth as a religious organization."

Ministers To Cooperate

The meetings will be inter-denominational and will be held at a public meeting house or church, to be announced upon completion of arrangements. The cooperation and aid of Lubbock ministers has been asked and received by the civic club.

At each of the rallies, according to the club resolution, a religious message will be brought by Bell to the attending youth "touching on major fundamental Biblical principles and omitting controversial religious interpretations.

The importance of youth taking a more dynamic part in church activities and civic projects and "bringing about a closer unity and understanding of the various denominations" will be emphasized in the meetings, according to the Jaycee statement.

Drop In Farm Income Looms

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31. (AP) — A decline of as much as 15 per cent in the net income of farmers in 1946 was forecast today by the agriculture department.

The department said cash receipts from marketings probably would not drop quite that much. The net decline estimate however was based on the theory that some prices farmers pay for what they buy will increase.

Demand Remains High

A 15 per cent decline in real farm income still would leave it more than double the pre-war average, including the peak years following the first world war, the department said.

In its 1946 outlook issue of the demand and price situation, the department predicted that total demand for farm products would remain high through the year.

"The curtailment of military purchases of most products will be offset largely, if not entirely, by expanding civilian requirements and increased purchases for relief and export," the department said.

Wages To Keep Place

The prices of fruits, vegetables, truck crops, and eggs "may decline somewhat more than those of other farm products," it added.

Farm wages, which have risen to almost three times their prewar level, are likely to remain relatively high although some declines are expectable in the second half of 1946, the report said.

Indications are that cash receipts from crops will be about 5 per cent above last year, receipts from livestock and livestock products only slightly higher.

Dog Fights Coyotes To Save Lost Boy

BISBEE, Ariz., Oct. 31. (AP)—Two-year-old Mike McDonald, lost yesterday in the wild country-side of Sulphur Springs valley, was found unharmed early today in a dirt shelter apparently dug by his dog who had spent the night fighting off coyotes.

The boy and the dog disappeared Tuesday morning and became the objects of a search by a posse on foot and horseback.

They were found 15 miles from home at a point near McNeal where the terrain is rough with mesquite, cactus and ironwood. Although barefoot the boy was in good condition except for a toe cut and hunger.

Hopes For 25-Cent Nylons Are Blasted

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 31. (AP)—Nylon hose at 25 cents or less a pair? No, ma'am, says Gustave Frankel, president of the Holeproof Hosiery Co.

Frankel said it wasn't possible since the labor cost alone was more than 25 cents a pair. He said that Dr. Hilton I. Jones, president of the Chicago section of the American institute of chemists, was in error in predicting 25 cent nylons at a recent meeting in Kalamazoo, Mich.

"When nylons are on the market in quantity, they'll sell for $1.65 a pair to $2.50, Frankel said.

Russia To Take Hand In Japan

Joint Occupation Is Indicated

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31 —President Truman said today he expects Russia to participate soon in the far eastern advisory commission meeting here to consider Japanese control policy.

The president told a news conference he also had received a very satisfactory reply from Generalissimo Stalin to the letter which American Ambassador Harriman recently delivered to Stalin at his vacation retreat in the Crimea.

Contents Not Disclosed

He did not disclose the contents of the reply.

Failure of Russia so far to send a representative to the far eastern meeting here had constituted a stumbling block in American-Soviet relations. The participating governments met for the first time yesterday, but adjourned immediately for a week evidently to give Russia further opportunity to come in on the sessions.

Russian, Chinese and British empire troops soon may take their place alongside American forces in the occupation of Japan.

American officials have been discussing for some weeks the best way to arrange for joint occupation and it is understood that General MacArthur has been kept informed and his views taken into account.

Assign Separate Zones

Some authorities here say the solution may be to assign the forces separate zones, possibly giving the Russians, at least, a separate island in the home group.

The biggest immediate need is an acceptable compromise on joint control machinery. The United States, Britain and China are reported near agreement with Russia on this.

Nothing has been settled, however, and the next move probably will be by Moscow.

Speculation here runs to the idea that a four-power council may be set up at Tokyo with General

Survivors are the wife, six children, five brothers and two sisters.

Jones lived for many years in the Plainview community east of Snyder.

Allied Powers Are To Divide 38 Destroyers

Larger Ships And 51 Submarines To Face Scuttling

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31 —Secretary of State Byrnes announced today that Russia, Britain and China would share equally with the United States in a division of that part of the Japanese fleet which is not destroyed.

The vessels to be divided include 38 destroyers and an undisclosed number of small, coastal defense ships of 800 to 900 tons.

51 Subs To Be Scuttled

Those to be destroyed — Byrnes spoke of scuttling them — are a battleship, four aircraft carriers of which three are damaged; four cruisers of which three are damaged; and 51 submarines.

Asked at a news conference whether the method of scuttling would allow a test to determine the effectiveness of atomic bombs on naval units, Byrnes said that he did not know the method to be employed. However, naval sources have indicated such an experiment might be made.

Byrnes said that the Navy had wanted to destroy most of what was left of the Japanese fleet and put the matter up to the other three powers. They agreed to the arrangements for destroying all the major vessels and dividing the destroyers and lesser ships except for the submarines.

Undecided On Nazi Fleet

Disposition of the German fleet, the secretary declared, has not yet been finally decided, evidently because of the breakdown of the foreign ministers' meeting at London last month.

The much older question of the final disposition of the Italian fleet, Byrnes said, must depend on the outcome of the peace treaty with Italy.

On other questions, Byrnes said: Nothing has been done to speed up a final peace treaty with Italy or to revise the Italian armistice

Black Market Ring Smashed

TOKYO, Oct. 31 (AP) — A black market operation said to involve at least $500,000 worth of stolen Army rations and clothing has been smashed with the arrest of four American soldiers, two Italian middlemen and three Japanese distributors.

American authorities said the ring had been in operation about three weeks, pouring into black markets ten-in-one rations, sugar and woolen underwear—articles readily usable by Japanese civilians without detection of the source.

Hotel Rooms Raided

Raiding rooms in Marunouchi hotel, one of the best in Tokyo, provost marshal officers arrested Pvts. Robert E. Tucker, Louisville, Ky., and Frank S. While the raid was on, Maj. Gen. C. A. Willoughby, head of General MacArthur's intelligence section, was attending an Italian embassy banquet in the hotel, but he said his presence had no connection with the arrests.

Source Undetermined

Source of the ring's supply was undetermined, but officers said they were investigating the possibility of bribery of guards and drivers of the 71st quartermaster depot, which once was stationed at Marseilles, France.

The officers said the Americans, who were carrying about 70,000 yen ($4,666) when arrested, receiv-

Vivid Story Of Bombing Told

TOKYO, Oct. 31. (AP)—Whimpering people stumbling up roads to the mountains . . . their faces black . . . skin hanging like torn sleeves from their arms . . . bare bones . . . people clamping their rent flesh with their own hands—people crawling on broken legs . . .

These are memories of Kaleria Palchikoff, an eye-witness to the atomic bombing of Hirochima and the days that followed.

Two Miles From Center

The 21-year-old Russian, now a typist for the American armed forces here, was sitting with her parents and one of her two younger brothers in their Japanese-style house about two miles from the bomb blast center.

The Palchikoff family and other white aliens in Hiroshima weren't burned, she said, but thousands of Japanese were scorched "jet black."

Many were burned fatally though their clothes did not catch fire, the young woman recalled, and others had their clothes burned off but escaped death.

Brother Escaped Injury

Miss Palchikoff said her 12-year-old brother, playing in front of the house when the bomb exploded, escaped injury by falling on the ground but his playmates remained standing and were burned fatally.

While the family was walking up the mountains, she related, bushes frequently erupted into flame without warning.

"When the bomb exploded," she said, "I saw a brilliant white flare, and suddenly the air seemed to be unusually hot but I heard no explosion."

Most Of Children Killed

"The Japanese believe the Americans had fixed the bomb so only Japanese would be burned and had chosen early-morning for the attack in order to kill all the children then out in the open," said Miss Palchikoff. "I believe

Corned Beef, Cabbage King Faces Arrest

NEW YORK, Oct. 31. (AP)—The Office of Price administration says $2.25 is too much for a corned beef and cabbage dinner.

So a warrant was out today for the arrest of James (Dinty) Moore, corned beef and cabbage king.

Court action was taken after Restaurateur Moore failed to appear to answer OPA charges of violating price ceilings. The government agency charged that Moore's restaurant, located just off Times Square, has boosted prices of 272 items in violation of ceilings.

Corned beef and cabbage, OPA said, went from $1.72 to $2.25. Among other items clam broth was alleged to have advanced from 50 to 75 cents and chicken fricassee from $2.50 to $3.

Police Believe Woman Slain By Lunatic; Many Wounds On Body

PONTIAC, Mich., Oct. 31. (AP)—Investigation of the mutilation murder of attractive Mrs. Lydia Thompson, wife of a wealthy Detroit auto dealer, was spurred today by a police theory that the woman was slain "either by a madman or someone who hated her intensely."

State Police Captain Donald S. Leonard, who assumed charge of the case Tuesday, disclosed that new importance has been attached to the numerous knife and hatchet or axe wounds inflicted on the body, which was found Oct. 13 in a lover's lane near here.

Tried To Hack Head

"We're convinced that an attempt was made to hack the woman's head off and her slayer must have been either crazy or awful mad to do a thing like that," Leonard said.

Leonard indicated that William Jantilo, 49, a Detroit barber, who was detained Saturday for questioning "probably would be released Wednesday."

Jantilo and Mrs. Marie Dodenhoft, 38, a beauty parlor operator, were interrogated by police Saturday after an anonymous note writer reported overhearing the couple discussing the slaying.

Eugene Suragen, 52, a barber employed by Jantilo, subsequently was identified by police as the note writer and is held in protective custody according to Leonard.

Is Telling The Truth

"We're satisfied that Jantilo is telling us the truth when he says he knows nothing of this murder and he most likely will be freed today. We haven't had much of a chance to quiz Mrs. Dodenhoft as yet and will do so Wednesday or Thursday to see if she can furnish us with a lead," Leonard added.

Police emphasized that no charges have been filed against the barber or the woman.

Mrs. Thompson, who separated from her husband Louis V. Thompson, several months before her death, lived in a luxurious summer home at Orchard lake, near the spot where her body was found. Autopsy reports indicated she was slain elsewhere and her body dumped into the underbrush where it was found by a party of hunters.

Seizure Usually Serves Only To Postpone Labor Crisis

By STERLING F. GREEN
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31—Which side—labor or management—benefits when the government takes over a strikebound plant or property?

The answer probably depends on the viewpoint. The government's aim has been—simply to restore vital production and services for the purpose of winning the war and—now—insuring the peace.

The public benefits through the restoration of employment, the avoidance of picket line violence and continued contribution to the industrial machine.

Doesn't Settle Dispute

But seizure in itself neither settles the labor dispute nor is meant to give either party advantage which it did not enjoy before—although in some cases settlement has been reached by negotiation while the plant was in government hands.

Under the law the government must operate the properties it takes over under the "terms and conditions" which were in effect when the seizure was ordered.

In cases where defiance of a War Labor board (WLB) order is involved, the wage increases or other adjustments ordered by WLB are put into effect by the Army, Navy or other operating agency.

May Enforce WLB Orders

Or if the WLB orders a change in the "terms and conditions" after the seizure has taken place, they are enforced. But they last only while the government has control.

In many cases, seizure just postpones the crisis.

Early in the war labor unions generally welcomed federal seizure on the theory that it put pressure on employers by depriving them of the right to run their properties.

By the time the war was over many unions had changed their view. They got few concessions from the Army or Navy, and their progress toward better pay or greater security was stalled while the government was in charge. In some cases they lost ground, in solidarity or membership.

Eisenhower To Ban Films In Reich

FRANKFURT, Germany, Oct. 31. (AP) — The movie version of "My Sister Eilsen" has been banned for exhibition in German film theaters in the American zone of occupation, along with "Watch On The Rhine" and "Air Force."

Gen. Eisenhower's third monthly report as military Governor listed the three films as among recent rejections, and said "by no means are all American films accepted for showing in Germany."

No reason for the ban was given.

"Little Miss Butterfly" Hopes To Again See American Prisoner Of War That She Called Friend

BY HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

TOKYO, (AP) — "Little Miss Butterfly" knows that if she faithfully carries out his wishes she will somehow, sometime see again the American prisoner of war who was her friend.

So she is turning down a job with the American Army and going back to school to prepare herself for that happy day of reunion.

She was one of 400 Japanese girls who stood in line last week for hours before the Hattori building, waiting to be interviewed for a job as salesgirl in an Army post exchange.

Girls Of All Kinds

There were girls of all kinds in that long line. Bold girls, shy girls, quiet girls, waitresses, factory workers, stenographers, home girls and young widows who had lost husbands and parents in American bombings.

There were school-girls in that line, too, and one of them was "Little Miss Butterfly." When she came to be interviewed by Lieut. A. Joel rossbart, Newark, N. J., he looked at her keenly.

He noticed that her amber glowed from scrubbing. He saw that her fingernails were clean, and that her worn clothes were neat. She looked modest and intelligent.

Did Not Try To Bluff

When he asked her if she spoke English she did not reply as many Japanese girls do who tried to bluff a way past the language barrier — "yes, preese. I speak English little." She said simply, "yes, sir."

"All right, you'll do," said Grossbart; "please report back to me tomorrow."

She bowed and left. But "Little Miss Butterfly" did not show up. Instead Grossbart received this quaint letter of explanation from her:

"Lieutenant I make bold to write to you. Yesterday I had the honor of seeing you. To tell the truth I ate humble pie for a living and responded to the advertisement. But you deigned to say 'come again on Thursday morning' to me.

Tells Of Her Dream

"After I came home I thought seriously of the matter and had a dream last night.

"In the dream he appeared and rebuked me: 'You must not leave school half way. You must have a lofty ideal,' and vanished.

"He, who is my most reliable and respectable friend in my life. He was a prisoner in war, but as a humam being he was a great man. We were good friends. But after the end of the war he must come back to the United States. At parting gripping my hand he said: 'After your graduation you must complete your education in America. I shall look upon you from the opposite coast of the Pacific ocean.' So he said, and left Japan.

"I became aware of my mistake, his voice still rings in my ears. I am sorry I am against his wishes. I come back to school and, I hope, can get over the difficult days with a great bravery which he had. Never, please, do not take it amiss."

New Oil Labor Union Seeks New Charter

BEAUMONT, Oct. 31 (AP)—The Magnolia Refinery Independent federation, a new labor union being organized among workers here will apply for a charter immediately, it was decided at a meeting last night.

About 100 men attended the meeting. Melzo Burge, jr., temporary secretary of the organization announced that more than enough names had been secured on the petition for a charter.

Officials of the independent union at the Baytown plant of the Humble Oil company spoke at last night's session.

Farm Leaders Will Gather In Memphis

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31 (AP) — Secretary of Agriculture Anderson will meet with southern farm leaders at Memphis, Tenn., on Nov. 12 and 13.

Lieut. Col. Burris Jackson, member of the Texas state wide cotton committee, announced this today, disclosing that the cabinet member will address a gathering of state commissioners of agriculture and other farm officials on Nov. 12 and confer with the post-war planning committee of the American Cotton Shippers association the following day.

The Texan, who extended the invitation for Anderson to meet with the cotton shippers, said the discussions will center around the future of the basic southern crop.

Labor Hails Wage Speech By Truman

(By The Associated Press)

Labor leaders today hailed President Truman's wage-policy address as a "light of hope" for workers and as setting "a plain and simple course for us to follow," for workers and as setting "a plain and simple course for us to follow," while industry leaders generally were non-committal and congressional comment divided mostly along partisan lines.

The president in his speech last night had proposed that workers be given higher wages.

Said Victory A. Olander, Chicago, secretary-treasurer of the Illinois Federation of Labor: "The speech will be very helpful in solving strikes."

No Comment Given

The National Association of Manufacturers in New York and C. E. Wilson, Detroit, president of General Motors, said they had no comment on the speech. Typical of the position of most industrial leaders was that of Henry Kaiser, San Francisco, who declared:

"I consider it a serious subject which I want to study thoroughly before making any statements."

R. J. Thomas, Detroit, president of CIO United Automobile Workers union, said:

"He removed the last excuse of the automobile companies to refuse our proposed 30 per cent payroll increase when he offered relief on prices after a reasonable period of production at ceiling levels if fair profit cannot be earned."

Paul Shoup, president of the Los Angeles Merchants and Manufacturers association:

"Factual and individual application is necessary to make adequate comment."

Statements Sound

Dave Beck, Seattle, vice-president of the AFL teamsters union: "The president emphasized collective bargaining and over the long run his statements were very sound."

House Democratic Leader McCormack of Massachusetts: "It was a very powerful, logical, sound, fighting message."

Sen. Taft (R-Ohio): "The new so-called wage-price policy can only discourage business expansion and kill increased employment but ultimately it can only mean increased prices and inflation."

N. B. Ford, executive vice-president of the Manufacturers association of Connecticut:

"If both management and labor will translate his recommendations for mutual cooperation into sincere efforts at conformance, I have every confidence that national productivity upon which all purchasing power is based can be skyrocketed to an all time record."

Labor Party Under Wallace Predicted

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 31. (AP)—Lieut. Gov. Joe R. Hanley in an interview today with the Syracuse Herald-Journal predicted the organization of a national labor party under the leadership of Secretary of Commerce Henry A. Wallace.

Hanley said he believed labor "is pretty tired of acting as a pawn, turning in votes and then having to go begging for what it can get."

He forecast the gradual defection of "radical" and southern conservative groups from the Democratic party and said he believed that President Harry S. Truman "will not be able to hold the discordant Democratic factions together, as Franklin Roosevelt did."

Supplies Of Liquor Better At Year End

NEW YORK, Oct. 31 (AP)—Supplies of whisky, wine, gin and other alcoholic beverages will be better this year-end than last but it will be two to three years before stocks approach normal, trade sources said today.

Biggest shortages will be in Scotches, bonded bourbons, ryes or other straight whiskies. Cordials and liqueurs will be scarce because of a lack of sugar. Imported and American champagnes will not be plentiful.

Cromwell And Doris Duke Are Divorced

ELIZABETH, N. J., Oct. 31 (AP)—James H. R. Cromwell, 47, today won a New Jersey limited decree divorcing him and tobacco heiress Doris Duke Cromwell, 33, "forever," and declaring "it to be the duty of both parties to live chastely during the operation of the decree."

Mrs. Cromwell, now in Europe doing newspaper work, already holds an absolute divorce awarded in default in Reno, Nev., Dec. 22, 1943, on charges of cruelty.

Cromwell's decree allows the tall, former U. S. minister to Canada "curtesy rights" to the heiress' realty holdings in New Jersey, estimated at $5,000,000 and including the lavish 2,300-acre Duke farms in Hillsborough township.

"Remarriage of either party in the lifetime of the other," said the decree, awarded at a 20-minute hearing concluding two years of proceedings by Cromwell in New Jersey chancery court, "will be criminal and an act void in law."

Party Honors Mrs. Vernon

Mrs. Conrad Vernon the former Miss Emily Jane Cowan, was honored at a china and pottery shower given recently in the Chimayo room of the Hilton hotel. Hostesses were Miss Sue Cocke, Miss Marjorie Oliver and Mrs. Gerald McCarty.

Guests were greeted by Miss Cocke, Mrs. Lucy Cowan, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Vernon.

The honoree wore a nile green wool dress with gold trim and a corsage of scarlet roses.

Mrs. McCarty registered guests and Mrs. Joyce Andrews of Plainview served.

Dahlias and fern were decorations.

Thirty-five called.

Wilma Jeane Wells And Andrew J. McBrayer Wed

In a double ring ceremony read last Saturday evening at 7:45 o'clock at the home of Rev. Dean Brookshire of the Church of Christ, Miss Wilma Jeanne Wells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wells of 600 South 3rd, Slaton, became the bride of Andrew Joe McBrayer, recently discharged from the 8th Air Force. A former master sergeant, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McBrayer of Carrizozo, N. M.

The bride wore a sky blue wool suit with black accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations. The matron of honor, Mrs. W. E. Stringer, wore a white wool suit, with brown accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations. Bobby Hoover, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man.

Mr. McBrayer is with the South Plains Army Air field. The bride has been employed at the Citizens State Bank, Slaton, for the past three years.

The couple will be at home in Slaton.

Miss Annie Lee Cone Is To Marry W. T. (Bill) Cooke

The engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Annie Lee Cone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Cone, 2324 Seventeenth, and W. T. (Bill) Cooke, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cooke of McLean, was announced Tuesday at a twilight tea the bride-elect's mother gave at her home.

Mrs. S. E. Cone, aunt of the honoree, greeted guests and presented them to the bride-elect's mother, the bride-elect and Mrs. Cooke, mother of the prospective bridegroom.

Miss Imogene Boyd presided at the register. Members of the house-party included Mrs. Roy Leasure, Mrs. Albert Fortenberry, Miss Carlyne York, Miss Lucille Hall, Mrs. H. M. Gibson, aunt of the bride-elect, and her two sisters, Misses Lois Alyne and Betty Lou Cone.

Miis Garnett Heggen, cousin of the honoree, played piano selections during the receiving hours.

Mrs. Alex McDonald and Mrs. Walter T. Clark presided at the tea table which was covered with an attractive white organdy cloth appliqued in blue. The centerpiece featured a large wedding ring covered with yellow carnations and placed on a base of yellow roses. A ribbon across the ring bore the legend, "Annie Lee and Bill, Nov. 11."

A repetition of the yellow roses and carnations was used in floral arrangements throughout the house.

One hundred guests called between the hours of five and seven o'clock.

Veterans' Return Bringing Joy To Many Homes In City

Arrivals of discharged service men and their families is bringing joy to many Lubbock relatives but soon after greetings and the customary "Why you haven't changed a bit" and "You're looking well, yourself," comes the wail of "Where are we going to find a place to live?" It's safe to advance by way of suggestion that there has not been a time when as many families were looking for housing facilities as at present.

Tom Murphey, who served in the Army Air Corps for three and one-half years, has been released and has joined his wife here. He is to be associated with his father-in-law, Hub Jones, in the Hub Motor company.

Capt. Harris Underwood telephoned his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arch S. Underwood, from the West Coast where he landed after three years service in the South Pacific as supply officer in the Army Air Corps. He is to be in San Antonio for his separation. Capt. Underwood will go to Dallas to join his wife and young daughter and they will spend some time there and in Athens. After the first of the new year they will be at home here and he will be associated with his father.

Fred Underwood, recently discharged from the service, is in Tyler at present. He and his wife and their infant son, Fred Arch, will be at home in Quanah later in the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Boren have gone to Amarillo to make their home. Mr. Beran, at present employed at Amarillo Army Air field, will be associated in business with his uncle, Velton Spikes.

Gardenias Are Party Favors

Table favors and cut prizes at the Idle Hour Bridge club party Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. D. Phillips were gardenias. Mesdames Justin Neathery, T. C. Root and R. S. Rodgers cut high. Mrs. Rodgers also was high in the games and the bingo prize went to Mrs. C. C. Crenshaw.

Mesdames Thomas L. Gilbert, W. W. Rix and W. O. Stevens were special guests.

Huckabays Are Hosts To Auxiliary And Husbands

Mr. and Mrs. U. L. Huckabay, 3015 Avenue N, were hosts to members of auxiliary to IBEW 850 Tuesday night at their home.

After games of forty-two had been played, refreshments of pumpkin pie topped with whipped cream, cocoa and coffee were served to Messrs. and Mesdames Fred Holloman, Jack Veazey, Jack Melton, Earl Bloodworth, Paul Williams, Jack Bryant, H. D. Reid, W. S. Pool, Mesdames Martha Hazelwood and Jim Pruitt.

Mrs. Veazey will be hostess to the club Nov. 1 at 7 p. m. at her home, 1316 Twenty-seventh.

Hallowe'en

law prohibits the wearing of masks by adults at any time — Hallowe'en or no Hallowe'en. The law was passed following an epidemic of Hallowe'en holdups in years gone by.

Car owners everywhere are warned to, if possible, hide their vehicles.

Garbage cans, fences, loose furniture, street lights — they're all ghost bait.

Find Use For Cans

Some department stores, unable to get enough costumes and noisemakers, have somehow produced their own. One Dallas store made noisemakers out of tin cans, painted red and with a few marbles inside. Stuck on a stick, they get the job done.

Churches in many sections are holding Hallowe'en parties. Service clubs plan dinners. U.S.O. centers are giving dances. The girls service organization gave a pre-Hallowe'en dance at Borger.

And a headline in the Waco paper said: "Witches, wizards, will walk Waco ways Wednesday." Then the linotype operator gave out of W's.

It won't be another V-J day, but it'll be a reasonably accurate facsimile.

Rape Of Manila

a Japanese soldier scattered candy on the floor of the dining room of St. Paul's college to entice hungry Filipinos inside.

Once the people had crowded into the room, he said, the Japanese blew it up. Survivors who attempted to jump from windows were mowed down by rifles, grenades and machine guns. He was one of the few inside the building to escape with his life.

Laughed Like Fools

Pretty Angeles Borahana, 28, another survivor said Japanese soldiers stood in the hallway after the explosion and "laughed like fools." She looked directly at Yamashita as she testified.

Miss Borahana testified she saw one Japanese throw a baby toward the ceiling and a second catch it with his bayonet, impaling the infant through its stomach.

"I saw the baby dangling from the bayonet," she said.

She said she saw other Japanese looting Filipino dead.

Adortor Herminio Velarde told the tribunal that he saw a Japanese grab a 15 year old girl by her hair, then slice off her head with a saber while she tearfully pleaded for mercy.

Rehearing Overruled In Allen Libel Case

AUSTIN, Oct. 31. (AP) — The court of criminal appeals today overruled motions for rehearing in the case of William Prescott Allen and left standing a previous ruling which reversed the criminal libel conviction and six-month jail sentence assessed the publisher of the Laredo Times.

Both Allen and the state had sought a rehearing of the case.

Allen's indictment grew out of publication of an article which was critical of the Laredo Rotary club board of directors' administration of a student loan fund. Although the case was reversed on a trial technicality the criminal appeals court said the article attributed to the board of directors a libelous "act" in "hounding" members of the armed forces for repayment of loan funds owned by the club.

REMOVE RENT CONTROLS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31 (AP) — The OPA today announced removal of rent controls in Kinney and Val Verde counties in Texas. The agency said closing of Fort Clark and Laughlin Army Air field in that area caused a drop in housing demands to an extent that tenants and landlords can bargain in a normal manner.

An army of 10,000 soldiers and 6,000 civilian workmen succeeded in slightly more than six months in laying the Alcan highway—a double-lane highway of 1,671 miles between Fairbanks, Alaska and Dawson Creek, British Columbia.

Now It's Atomic Beer; And It Has Whale Of Wallop

AMARILLO, Oct. 31 (U.P.)—The word "atomic" has been used rather loosely since Hiroshima was hit. Now comes atomic beer.

Investigating a small explosion, officers arrested Joe Palacio for making home brew.

"My brew is atomic beer," Palacio told the judge. "It sure blows up."

The judge fined him $100 and suggested he leave atomic matters to the scientists.

Recruiting Officer To Make Tour Here

Col. John R. Lanigan, officer in charge of the southern procurement division of the U. S. Marines with headquarters in Dallas, is due to arrive in Lubbock Thursday for a tour of inspection of the local recruiting station.

Capt. John F. Gheen, officer in charge of El Paso district recruiting, will arrive tonight for a three-day stay here. Gheen will be accompanied by Sgt. Ralph Kaffka.

Col. Lanigan, of Washington, D. C., has recently succeeded Lt. Col. Louis G. Monville as head of the Dallas headquarters. The change was announced Oct. 6.

Veteran Of Pacific

The new commanding officer is a veteran of campaigns in Nicaragua and China and action in the Marianas and Iwo Jima. He wears the Navy Cross, Legion of Merit and the Purple Heart, the latter for wounds received in action against the enemy in the Marine conquest of Saipan.

Col. Lanigan will arrive by Marine corps plane, accompanied by a pilot and a crew sergeant.

S/Sgt. D. N. Pope, in charge of the local recruiting sub-station located on the second floor of the post office building, also announced the quota of 30 recruits for November and the names of 12 South Plains men who enlisted during the past month.

Marine recruits in October included John D. Brophy, Harry LeMaire, Harold Harry Anderson, Floyd Dudley Hustead, Gilly Gene Petree and William Bruce LeMaire, all of Lubbock; Elmer C. Adkins, Littlefield; Bruce Dayton Strickland, Muleshoe; Dan Max Florence, Seminole; Barney L Stence, Idalou; Robert L. McCauley, Plainview; and Henry M. Stephens, Melrose, N. M.

way across the canyon. It will feature everything that is available at the No. 1 station plus the sale of butane gas.

Both stations will maintain 24-hour service. As an added feature both stations will maintain a tire repair service and the sale of new Champlin tires.

Equipment Is Ordered

Station No. 2, which will include special equipment for storage and transportation of butane gas, will cost an estimated $25,000. Construction will get underway as soon as materials are available. Ince stated that equipment for the new unit had been ordered.

Addition to the original station is expected to be completed by Nov. 15.

The company serves as dealer for Champlin products for 15 South Plains counties. Ince, who has been in the oil business here 10 years, will operate three gasoline trucks and at least two butane trucks.

Condition Of Wreck Victim Satisfactory

LEVELLAND, Oct. 31 (Special)—The condition of Sam McInturff, 56, of Pettit community, who suffered several broken ribs and a possibie punctured lung about 7 o'clock Tuesday night when the coupe in which he was riding sideswiped a tanker truck, was said to be satisfactory by attendants at the Levelland hospital today.

The mishap occurred five miles west of here on the Levelland-Morton highway.

R. C. Davis, 29, also of Pettit, was injured slighly. Dee McInturff, 30, driver and owner of the coupe, of Pettit, was uninjured.

Sam McInturff had a broken rib in addition to other serious injuries, it was reported.

Dee, a second cousin of Sam, said he was driving toward Levelland, and was meeting a car going west. The truck was standing by another tanker truck which had been turned over, and McInturff said he had to choose between meeting the other car headon or sideswiping the truck. No one was about the trucks at the time of the accident, he said.

The Lubbock Highway patrol reported that R. M. Mason, driver of a truck loaded with oil, apparently went to sleep and the truck overturned in a field off the highway about 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. A second truck, driven by Cecil Gray, was sent out to pick up the load of the first truck. The oil was transferred and as Gray was backing on to the highway, an axle on the truck broke.

While Gray was gone to a nearby farm home to get a tractor to pull his truck to town, the McInturff car came along and sideswiped the truck.

Jews Protest Denazification

BY CARL D. GROAT
United Press Staff Writer

FRANKFORT, Germany, Oct. 31 —Some Jews here are protesting the speed and extent of the denazification program.

The basis to these paradoxical objections from the people who suffered from Hitler's anti-Semitic persecutions is the disturbance to the community's normal life by the sudden and complete removal of Nazi executives and supervisors from even such places as food stores.

Consequently queues grow long and so does the waiting when executive direction formerly in Nazi hands is delegated to less experienced people.

Efficiency Not Aim

The military government officers reply that efficiency isn't our aim. They intend to root out the Nazis.

First word of Jewish protests originated in official circles, but release was permitted only if cerification was obtained from Frankfort people themselves.

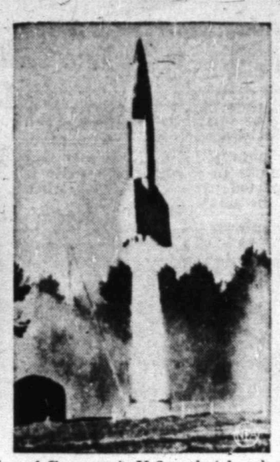

I talked with a woman well acquainted with Jewish community problems here and she confirmed the reports. She said that some Jews were protesting that our military government should proceed slower, as their actions are complicating the already confused daily life of the people.

I asked whether there existed among the Jewish community any fear of reprisals because the Jews now, for instance, are officially given preference in renting Nazi apartments. She said that in her personal view the protests were solely due to the disturbances described above.

When asked about the feeling toward the American occupation troops she replied:

"We find your soldiers entirely correct in their conduct. They treat the little children nice and friendly-like. They dance with our girls but pay little attention to our adults. Likewise, our adults pay little attention to them."

Goblins And Witches Will Be Out In Full Glory Tonight For Big Hallowe'en Parade

Old or young, tonight's the night to drag out the noise maker, dress as weird as possible and join the witches and spooks at the city hall for Lubbock's second annual Hallowe'en parade, to begin its march at 7 o'clock.

That's the word from the city recreation department, A. C. Hamilton, director, who also announced that a total of $125 in cash awards would be made to 38 different individuals on funniest and most original costumes. The Rotary, Lions, American Business, Optimist, Junior Chamber of Commerce, and Kiwanis organizations, and the recreation department are furnishing the money.

The parade will start in front of the city hall, move down Texas to Main, west to Ave. L, south to Broadway, and north to Ninth, meanwhile passing the judges' stand again and disband.

Judges are Mrs. Johnnye Langford, dean of women at Texas Tech; Mrs. W. B. Price, Mrs. Ivy Savage, principal of Roscoe Wilson school; and Rev. John A. Winslow of St. Paul's on the Plains Episcopal church.

Awards include $25 for first, two for $15 each,, three for $10 each, four for $5 each, eight for $3 each, eight for $2 each, and 15 for $1 each.

Police will escort the parade, and the Jaycees will have a safety float. Otherwise, paraders will be on foot.

Sanders school in the northeast part of the city, Boys' club, 2323 Ave. K; and the teen age center, Sixteenth and Ave. J, also plan Hallowe'en celebrations.

Petroleum Event Is Planned For Tulsa

TULSA, Oct. 31. (AP) — The first international petroleum exposition since before the war will be held here May 17 to 24, 1947, William G. Skelly, chairman of the executive committee and president of the event, announced today.

The springtime date was selected for the benefit of oil men who buy latest models of equipment, so they may use such purchases during the heavy drilling season of the year.

Texans Not To Use Out Of State Tags

AUSTIN, Tex., Oct. 31 (AP) — Texans operating automobiles with cut-rate out-of-state licenses are liable to have to explain it to a judge.

The Department of Public Safety announced it will begin an intensive check-up to halt the practice, for example, of living in Texas and operating your car with a $3 Louisiana license. This is far below the graduated Texas rate.

Texas has reciprocal agreements with other states under which bona fide violators may operate cars without taking out new permits. But for persons who move here permanently, the law says they must obtain Texas plates. There is an 120-day leeway in enforcement of this provision.

Strikes Threaten To Hit Key Industries

(By The Associated Press)

The nation's postwar labor troubles, which threaten to expand to key industries if approved strike votes scheduled are carried out, kept about 261,000 persons away from their jobs today as labor and management studied President Truman's appeal for industrial peace and prosperity.

Many labor leaders hailed the address as "a light of hope" for workers. Industry spokesmen generally withheld immediate comment while congressional reaction was divided mostly along party lines.

The President's address came a few hours after the House military committee had recommended abolition of government strike vote procedure and urged that unions be penalized for violating no-strike contracts.

Strike Votes Asked

Strike votes have been asked or approved in the automobile, steel, electrical and packing industries, with wages the major issue. The CIO United Automobile Workers asked a 30 per cent increase in wages for the automotive industry, affecting about a half million workers.

The CIO Steel Workers also have petitioned for a strike vote after rejection of demands for $2 a day pay raises for some 600,000 employes in mills. A CIO union also has authorized filing a strike vote petition which would affect 102,000 employes of Westinghouse Electric Corp. plants in 25 cities.

Yesterday the CIO Packinghouse Workers union asked for a strike vote among 200,000 production workers seeking a 25 cents an hour wage hike. A majority of the current labor disputes are over wages.

Machinists On Strike

In the San Francisco bay area today, the strike of some 10,000 AFL and CIO machinists for the second day kept idle about 40,000 other workers in 200 industrial plants. An AFL spokesman expressed hope for a "break" in the stoppage today as federal conciliators met with management and labor in an effort to end the walkout.

Shutdown of the American Can company plant, which manufactures all paper milk cartons in the San Francisco bay region, was expected to cut milk deliveries from 40 to 60 per cent within the next two days. Mayor Roger Lapham of San Francisco said he was unsuccessful in an attempt to have strike leaders insure milk deliveries. The striking machinists are seeking 30 per cent wage increases.

Movie Strike Ends

Meanwhile, the major development along the labor front was the ending of the 34-weeks old strike of 7,000 employes of Hollywood movie studios. The workers were ordered back to their jobs today by Strike Leader Herbert Sorrell who told them last night that AFL officials in Washington had authorized their return. The walkout, costing workers and studios millions of dollars in wages and revenue, was the film industry's longest and bloodiest labor dispute.

Shipping operations in Galveston, Tex., were back near normal today as a four day old strike of AFL clerks and checkers was ended and a wage dispute settled.

A tie up of virtually all over-the-road bus transportation east of the Mississippi at midnight tonight was threatened by a strike of 4,000 employes of Central and Pennsylvania Greyhound lines and affiliates. Federal conciliators met with union and company representatives in an effort to settle the dispute over a contract and wages youth spiritually and we are only trying to strengthen their efforts and solicit their cooperation in a city-wide 'beter youth' movement," the statement said.

Youth Rallies

The program outlined by the Jaycees includes the forming of a "stronger inter-city youth council that shall meet periodically to discuss and outline projects for the alleviation of juvenile delinquency and at the same time set up a code of religious ethics to abide by through being a member of the organization." Meetings of this council will be held after each rally with the representatives from various sections of the city having voice in all matters having to do with the welfare of the youth.

An adult council will be set up to aid and advise the youth group to "bring about 'closer cooperation of youth and adults, going back into the home to give another curb to juvenile delinquency."

Recreational Group Suggested

A recreational council has also been suggested by the Jaycees for the youth to study their needs and present them to an adult group, including the Ministerial alliance of the city, to impress upon the public "the importance of proper supervised recreational facilities . . . for progress in this respect and a closer unity with the recreational department of Lubbock."

One youth organization, the student religious group at Texas Tech, has already endorsed the program through its president, Miss Norma Cleavenger, and has pledged cooperation. A like statement is expected from the high school organizaion.

Rev. Bell will speak to the college group Thursday night at the First Presbyterian church and arrangements are being made for him to appear before all civic and church groups of the city.

Rev. Bell, a graduate of the Arkansas Law School with theological training received at Southern Methodist university at Dallas, has received the endorsement of the state Jaycee group and has headed a move of this type for the Chicago, Ill., Junior Chamber in the past. His work in Chicago was endorsed by over 15 ministerial alliances and the Chicago Federation of Churches.

Teague Rites Pending Arrival Of Relatives

Funeral arrangements for Mrs. E. B. Teague, 45, of Shallowater, who died of tetanus Tuesday afternoon in West Texas hospital, are pending arrival of relatives, Rix Funeral home reported this afternoon.

A cut on Mrs. Teague's hand became infected about four weeks ago. She had been in the hospital the last two weeks.

Mrs. Teague had lived at Shallowater about 20 years.

She is survived by her husband, two sons, Lowell and Norman Teague, both in the U. S. Navy; two daughters, Mrs. Raymond Hunter and Miss Marda Teague, both of Shallowater; a sister, Mrs. Homer Townsend of Idalou, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Williams of Idalou.

Atomic Bomb Talks Planned

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31. (AP)—Great Britain and Canada, as well as the United States, have the "know-how" to produce the atomic bomb, President Truman told his news conference today.

The information was given in response to a reporter's inquiry.

But he said in answering another question, that he did not believe it was true that the late President Roosevelt and former Prime Minister Churchill reached a secret agreement at Quebec for the peacetime use of the atomic discovery.

Atomic Energy Main Topic

Regarding the coming meeting between the president and Prime minister Attlee of Great Britain and Prime Minister MacKenzie King of Canada, the president said Attlee can talk about anything he chooses (when he gets here) but he is coming to talk about atomic energy.

The next step, after a three-power agreement on international policy with respect to the atom bomb has been reached, the president added, will be discussion with other governments of Europe.

Asked whether he had received an answer from Attlee on his proposal for additional Jewish immigration into Palestine, Mr. Truman said he had two or three messages from the British prime minister, but these could not be made public because the matter is still under discussion.

quest to make of my guests. Von little favor. Tonight eeeeverybody get dronk!"

Despite the fact that an American GI can't consume great quantities of the Russian national beverage, which is mass produced in Shanghai, a new chapter in international relations is being written here.

At one of those little family dinners recently a young American sailor joined in the usual toast to the leaders of the United Nations. Then he said:

"Listen, everybody. I've got something to say and I would like to say it before we have a lot more toasts." The room was quiet.

Can Live Together

"Pretty soon," said the sailor, "we're going home. I'm going back to America and a lot of you are going back to Russia. There are a lot of people in your country who do not like my country. And there are a lot of people in my country who do not like your country. I think it's mostly because we are so far apart and our language and customs are different.

"But when we get home and when we hear people saying bad things about the other countries let's try to remember that we can live together as nations just as we can meet here and have dinner together and be friends tonight."

There was silence for a moment. The whole table burst into ringing applause. Applause that spilled out into the corridors and through the apartment building and into the ears of Russians, Chinese, British and Americans.

Driver Fined After Car Strikes Truck

A truck loaded with about 20 bales of cotton was sideswiped by a car between 8 and 9 o'clock Tuesday night 1½ miles west of Ralls, scattering cotton for 150 yards down the highway, Lubbock Highway patrol reported.

Patrolmen reported that Neal Boggs, 37, of Dumas, driver of the car, paid a fine for drunk driving and was released by Roy Hillin, sheriff of Crosby county, this morning.

Jesse Lyndon Jones, 17, of route 2, Petersburg, driver of the truck, was going east when struck by the car coming from the opposite direction. Neither of the men was injured.

GIs Sending Home $250,000 A Day

U. S. Soldiers Finding Bonanza In Berlin's Black Markets

By RICHARD KASISCHKE
Associated Press Staff Writer

BERLIN, Oct. 31 — American soldiers in Berlin are sending cash home at the rate of about $250,000 a day in a rush to beat impending restrictions on money transfers, expected about Nov. 10.

Dozens of them sleep in front of Army postoffice money order windows in order to be first in line in the morning.

Each musette bag, cigar box or paper sack which the GI's dump on the counter, crammed full of occupation marks, adds to the headache building up for U. S. military authorities.

Russians Print Most Marks

Most of the occupation marks originate on a Russian printing press. And in Berlin's black markets, the Russians—and Germans—are paying fantastic prices for American cigarets, soap and chocolate bars.

All four powers print occupation marks, but the last official report showed the Russians were printing more than the other three combined.

A good portion of the amount sent home actually is accumulated GI pay. Up to September soldiers were permitted to send home only 10 per cent more than their pay and allowances. The ruling was relaxed because it worked a hardship on the thrifty.

Army authorities are cautious about giving out figures, but there is no indication of a change in the trend reported in August, when American soldiers sent home $3,458,937—half a million dollars more than records show they received in pay.

The War department let American commanders in Berlin know this week that it lacked appropriations to pay off occupation marks in excess of amounts authorized as soldiers' pay and allowances.

Houston Port Is Still Idle

(By The United Press)

Galveston port was back to normal today after a strike settlement but Port Houston went into its 12th day of idleness due to a walkout.

The Galveston strikers, clerks and shippers of the International Longshoremen's association (AFL) reached an agreement with management Tuesday and removed their pickets in mid-afternoon.

Only about 50 men had struck at Galveston but their extended picket lines, which longshoremen, warehousemen and city employes refused to cross, had made the port strike-bound.

Agreement Reached

Galveston checkers and tallymen were reported to have agreed to $1.25 an hour; extra wharf clerks $1.35 an hour; and clerks on regular monthly salary, $211.75. All wages were on the basis of a Monday-through-Friday work week. Other conditions of the contract were being ironed out as the men returned to their jobs.

At Houston federal conciliators expressed hope that labor, management and municipal authorities could get together soon for another "peace meeting" and reach an agreement.

After Tuesday's conference the union and company representatives returned to their respective camps to mull over the situation.

"Both sides came in smiling and left smiling," said Joseph S. Myers, conciliator.

However, he pointed out, there were "too many angles" in the case to expect an immediate settlement.

News Briefs

Lubbock police were advised last night that a blue Mercury, owned by Mrs. Florence Bingham of Dallas, and stolen here Sept. 30, has been recovered by the sheriff of Wood county at Quitman. The 1945 license plate issued to Mrs. Bingham was not on the car when it was recovered.

Cotton bales were strewn over the highway about one mile west of Ralls when a loaded cotton truck coming from Estacado to Lubbock and a car going west were in collision about 9 p. m. Tuesday, but no one was reported injured.

A class in beginning shorthand has been organized at Texas Technological college under the sponsorship of the extension department, according to J. H. Millikin, director of the extension division. Open to the public, the next meeting will be held at 7:30 o'clock Monday morning in room 316 of the Administration building. Classes probably will be held twice weekly on Monday and Thursday nights. The instructor is Mrs. Ethel K. Terrell, head of the department of secretarial studies.

Revival Of Coastal Shipping Is Urged

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31 (AP)— Rep. West (D-Tex) suggested today that Texas congressmen "get together" and speed up the revival of coastwise shipping into Texas gulf ports.

West today conferred with Chairman Emory S. Land of the War Shipping administration and urged that the government expedite return of ships to coastwise trade routes.

He said he had received no assurance of immediate action from Admiral Land and said it might be necessary for all Texas coastal district congressmen to get together to see if they can't speed things up.

West represents the Brownsville and valley area. The others representing such districts are Congressmen Lyle of Corpus Christi, Mansfield of Galveston, Thomas of Houston, and Combs of Beaumont.

New Tax Valuation Program Approved

A new valuation on taxable properties within the Lubbock Independent School district, to be made by G. C. McKinney and company, of Fort Worth, was approved Tuesday night by the Board of Trustees who voted unanimously to join the City of Lubbock in contracting the company to check the 100 square-mile district.

Under the terms of the contract, McKinney and Co. will be paid a total of $6,750 for its survey inside the city limits, that figure to be paid jointly by the City of Lubbock and the school district at the rate of $3,375 each. For the work in the school district outside the city limits, the firm will be paid an extra $750 by the school district.

McKinney and Co. has posted a $6,750 performance bond in connection with the contract and a partner of the firm, G. B. Whitney, already is in Lubbock preparing to start the work. He will be assisted by a staff of from five to seven persons.

No tax valuation survey has been made here in recent years and old valuations are almost 100 per cent outmoded. McKinney and Co. is a nationally known firm which specializes upon evaluating properties for tax purposes.

Building Starts Soon

In last night's regular monthly business session, held in school business offices, 1007 Texas avenue, it also was voted to take bids on the first two projects of a system wide building program at 7:30 p. m. on November 15, in the business offices. At that time, bids will be received on the construction of a 12-room ward school to be located a half mile south and a half mile east of the "Y" in the Slaton-Tahoka highway on South Avenue H; and on an 8-room addition to McWhorter ward school in Arnett-Benson addition. The latest addition will make of McWhorter, opened last spring, an 18-room school, including workroom, cafeteria and kitchen. Interested contractors may secure copies of plans from the arcihtects, Haynes and Strange, of Lubbock.

The board gave considerable time to plans for a system-wide cafeteria service. Equipment, frozen during the war, is now beginning to become available, and Business Manager A. C. Jackson was directed to begin purchase negotiations. Some cafeterias will be in operation with the opening of school next Fall and the board is proceeding on the plan of getting all schools thus equipped as quickly as possible.

New Post Created

At the recommendation of Supt. R. W. Matthews, Carl Bailey was appointed as principal of Central ward school, to take the place of Ishmael Hill at midterm. Mr. Hill will spend the second semester of this year, and next summer, working on his doctorate at Peabody College, Nashville, Tenn., and at the beginning of the 1946-47 school year will become director of elementary education in the Lubbock system. He will co-ordinate all programs, activities and curricula in the word schools of the city.

On his second year as principal at Central ward, Mr. Hill holds a bachelor's degree from West Texas State Teachers college, Canyon; a master's from University of Colorado, Boulder. Prior to coming here he had wide experience in classroom teaching.

Mr. Bailey holds bachelor and master degrees from Texas Technological college. He has had three years in armed service during the war, previously was on the Junior High faculty here, and prior to that time was a principal at Estelline.

The board also accepted the recommendation of the superintendent to place Mrs. Josephine Ballenger in charge of the school for physically handicapped children. The school, just getting underway, has seven pupils meeting daily in Mrs. Ballenger's home and she instructs others in their own homes.

A suitable building to house those students has not yet been found, but will be contracted for and equipped as soon as available. Mrs. Ballenger is a veteran of Lubbock classrooms and was described by Matthews as being "admirably fitted" for the post. The board accepted, with thanks, a gift of $100 from the City P-TA, the money to be spent on the special school.

Since remodeling of the present Junior High school will begin about January 1, Supt. Matthews advised the board that two sessions daily will be held there during the second semester of this year and continue until the first of the two new Junior High buildings can be completed on South Avenues R-Q at Twenty-ninth street. One session will meet between 8 a. m. and 12:30 p. m. daily; the other from 12:30 until 5 p. m.

Matthews announced the enrollment in the system thus far as 7,953, a daily attendance increase of about 500 over the same time last year.

Bonds Are Retired

Business Manager Jackson announced that the board's direction regarding the retirement of $75,000 in 5 per cent bonds held by the State Department of Education had been negotiated through use of monies secured by sale of the major portion of the Central ward property to Sears, Roebuck and Co. The bonds were the remainder of a $100,000 issue on January 1, 1933, and the sale made the average age of the bonds 14 years, instead of 30. Saving in interest aggregates $40,000, Jackson said.

Employment of the following teachers was approved:

Misses Lorene Silman and Bonnie Faye Cogburn, both of Dupre; Norman Heath and Mrs. Sadie M. Throop, both of Hunt; Miss Mary McNeil, Junior High; Miss Amy Gladys Wilhelm, Wilson, and Mrs Musette Turnbow, K. Carter.

Resignations accepted included those of:

Miss Mary Mathis, Senior High; Miss Dorothy Jennings, McWhorter; Mrs. H. W. Thomas, Hunt, and Mrs. Nina Greenlee, Dupre.

Matthews also announced the return to the Senior Hifh faculty of D. M. Howell, after more than three years of service with the Navy.

Dr. J. T. Hutchinson, chairman, presided at the meeting. Trustees present included H. L. Allen, R. F. Bayless, Paul Hardwick and Chas. A. Guy.

Changes In Veterans Loan Plan Proposed

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31 (AP) — A Senate subcommittee recommended today that veterans be allowed loans under the G. I. bill of rights based on a "reasonable" rather than the 'normal" value of the propefty they wish to buy.

Today's recommendation, made by a veterans subcommitte, is subject to approval first by the entire Senate finance committee and later by Congress.

The subcommittee recommended several changes in the educational features of the veterans law. If the recommendations are adopted, a veteran who was over 25 when he entered service will not have to prove that his education was interrupted in order to be eligible for a basic year's training, plus a year of schooling for each year he spent in the service.

His subsistence allowance while receiving educational training would be increased from $50 a month for a single man to $65. Those with dependents would get $90 a month instead of $75.

Two Convicts Caught After Brief Freedom

TYLER, Oct. 31 (AP)—Two convicts who escaped from the Harlem prison farm Friday night were captured 21 miles south of Tyler on the Tyler-Jacksonville highway Tuesday at 7:30 a. m. by Sheriff Frank Brunt, Rusk, Cherokee county.

The men were Virgil D. McElroy, 23, of Jacksonville, and Leslie Eldred, 21, of Dallas.

Bloodhounds belonging to Sheriff Jess Sweeten, Henderson county, took up the trail of the fugitives late last night after an automobile believed stolen by the pair was found abandoned near Mt. Selman.

Brunt, driving along the highway, spotted the men as they came out of a brush area, and made the capture without resistance.

All highways in the Tyler-Jacksonville area had been blockaded the past two days as officers and highway patrolmen searched for the two men.

Yanks In Northern Japan Wishing They Had Brought Skis Along As They Look Forward To Long Winter Near Noted Sport Center

By HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

SAPPORO, Hokkaido — American troops policing this most northerly of the main Japanese islands are wishing they had brought their skis along, as they looked forward to a long, shivvery winter.

For Hokkaido, mountainous island about the size of Indiana, is in peacetime one of the Orient's most frequented winter sports centers. Near Sapporo itself is the "Okura Schanze," an internationally known ski jump.

Are Making Their Own

Some of the boys already are trying to manufacture some homemade skis, and others are bartering with Japanese natives. The only ones who don't look forward with anticipation to the ski-jumping season are medical officers, who see in it for themselves only a long siege of treating broken bones.

Sapporo is a city of 200,000 people and is laid out along American lines. Its population has been completely tractable, and occupying troops of the Ninth corps and the 77th "statue of Liberty" division have met no trouble of any kind.

Citizens Are Friendly

The citizens even advertise their friendly desire to please American soldiers. In one of the main theaters this sign is prominently posted in English: "We hope that you will be very comfortable and receive the utmost enjoyment from these shows. It is our sincerest hope that we can in some way contribute to giving you a favorable impression of Sapporo."

The Japanese also have set up an outdoor information center at one main intersection as a service for troops in town for holiday and shopping expeditions.

Reconversion from war to peacetime occupation has given big, gruff Maj. Gen. A. D. Bruce of Temple, Texas, commander of the 77th division, the nickname: "Old Leggins, Liner and Landscape." It tickles him.

Result Of His Order

"The boys called me that after I put out an order for them to wear leggins and helmet liners and to clean up their camp areas," he laughed. He and his men find Hokkaido's chill more bracing than the terrible rains of Okinawa where the 77th division took some of the heaviest losses in the Pacific campaign in cleaning out Japanese defenders.

One regiment, billeted in the old Japanese North Army headquarters outside Sapporo, found the task of restoring and making habitable these ancient wooden barracks akin to Hercules' assignment to clean the Augean stables.

"They were the filthiest quarters I've ever seen anywhere," said Maj. Warren K. Bennett, Springfield, Mo., "and they smelled as if they'd never been washed before."

Japanese officers had assigned 500 of their troops to each barracks and they slept huddled together on the bare floor.

"In the same space we put only 180 men on cots," said Bennett.

Snow Piles High

Soldiers are busy repairing antiquated stoves in the barracks against the days when they will be snowbound. Snow piles ten feet deep in this area, from five to six months of each year.

Extensive entertainment facilities are being organized but so far the most popular spot in town is the new beer parlor, opened in a former Japanese teahouse. Beer is produced in the local brewery, and each enlisted man is entitled to two pitchers daily. It is tasty but weak in alcoholic content.

Men stand in line for hours to get into this unusual "grog shop" where they are served by giggling Japanese girls in native dress at lacquered black tables inlaid with mother-of-pearl. The walls are decorated with Japanese prints. One shows a fat, elderly man with a wine cup in his hand being carried out by two boys. I asked the gold-toothed, middle-aged woman proprietor if this represented the Japanese god of wine, and she said with a smirk:

"No—that is just a drunken old Chinaman."

She said American troops behaved very well, and remarked that some boys were so young she felt like a second mother to them. Overhearing the translation of her remark, one Yank turned to her with a big grin and said:

"Okay, mom, russtle up sonny-boy another pitcher of beer."

NOTED SCIENTIST DIES

OAKLAND, Calif., Oct. 31 (AP) — Dr. John Campbell Merriam, the noted palaeontologist who became a leading philosopher in interpreting science in human understanding, died today at the age of 76 years.

Tech Shapes Plans For Tilt With Rice

Several Raiders Still Crippled

Texas Tech's Red Raiders continued scrimmage sessions Tuesday afternoon, with cripples still in evidence, as they readied strategy for the surprising Rice Owls at Houston Saturday afternoon.

The Owls, who knocked over high riding Texas last week, will be the fourth Southwest Conference foe on the schedule of the Red Raiders, with the local club still seeking its first win over the vaunted conference teams of the state. The club's closest approach to a win is the 7-7 tie with the Baylor Bears.

RICE ADDS NEW MEN

HOUSTON, Oct. 31 (U.P.) — Jess Neely, named by United Press as "coach of the week," today worked out his Rice squad — which included a lot of new faces — for the Texas Tech game Saturday.

George Walmsley, last year's all-conference back, headed the list of new men which included three backs and six linemen, Charley Howard, 1944 tackle, also was back in uniform.

Two backs and five linemen, all naval trainees, showed up from Louisiana Tech after being transferred by the Navy.

Meanwhile, Neely was cheered by the news that Bob Nemir, who booted the winning point in the 7-6 victory over Texas, would remain at Rice. Nemir was commissioned Saturday in the Navy and Owl followers feared he would be immediately transferred.

The Rice team will be even tougher this week, and stronger by the addition of George Walmsley, the All-Conference back from Goose Creek, who returns to the club this week after a sojourn with the mighty Navy club.

Most of the scrimmage was confined to the reserves Tuesday, with a few regulars mixed into the action. One squad spent much of the session working on the timing of plays at one end of the field, under the watchful eye of Assistant Coach Polk Robison, while Coach Morgan conducted the scrimmage.

The lineup that worked on timing of plays, and could easily be the starting lineup, was composed of R. W. Moyers at left end, Clyde Black at left tackle, Floyd Lawhorn at left guard, Otis Turner at center, Russell Birdwell at right guard, Doug McSwane at right tackle and Billy Kelley at right end. In the backfield were Jack "Spider" Dillon at quarter, Cecil Norris at left half, Arthur Shahan at right half and Walt Schlinkman at fullback.

Several boys were showing up nicely during the scrimmage session, and the session was devoted to shaping an offense to be hurled at the Rice Owls Saturday.

Schlinkman Building Impressive Record Despite Injuries

Each play is a tough one for Walt Schlinkman—and vice versa.

His arm goes dead, his right shoulder is numb—but the mighty man of Texas Tech rolls on. From the wreckage of football hopes he emerges as one of the great backs of the country.

Opposing teams do not go out to stop Texas Tech — they concentrate on stopping Walt Schlinkman.

Tech has won only two games out of six this season but no team has been able to run over the Red Raiders with Schlinkman in there.

Here's His Record

Here's his record against the toughest competition the Southwest has to offer — Texas, Texas A. and M., Baylor, Tulsa, West Texas State Teachers college and Southwestern: 535 yards running with the ball (and he has carried 79 times), three intercepted passes for 49 yards, four kick-off returns for 119 yards, punted 32 times for an average of 33.7 (average cut down because he's always aiming at that coffin corner).

Injuries have failed to halt him and he's in the game every minute the coaches will permit.

Shoulder Badly Hurt

His right shoulder was badly hurt Oct. 13 against Tulsa, but he played 54 minutes. His right arm has been in a sling most of the time since. But he played three quarters and a half against Baylor and the last half against West Texas State Teachers. He kicked the extra point to tie Baylor, he scored two touchdowns to defeat West Texas State Teachers.

And he's the defensive stalwart of the team. Short and stocky, he has a trick of stooping to grasp runners by the ankles, sitting them backward solidly, then walking away without leaving his feet. And he's the fastest man on the squad.

Schlinkman will enter pro football next fall. He was No. 1 choice ofthe Green Bay Packers last spring but he plans to go with the all-America league, rival of the National, when that circuit opens in 1946.

Westerners In Rugged Drills

Locals Prep For Brownfield Game

The Lubbock Westerners have settled down to hard work in preparation for Friday night's conference battle with the Brownfield Cubs.

The Westerners reached a season's peak last week, and both White and Philbrick feel confident that the team is "up to stay" and started the week with the team in the best condition of several weeks.

George Brewer, ace ball carrier, and top scorer of the club, was well battered in the Plainview game, and was still limping Tuesday, but likely will be ready to "go the route" by Friday night.

Brewer was the only man not taking part in the scrimmage session Tuesday afternoon.

Lanham, Modawell Shine

John Lanham, who made a brief return to the lineup last week, was looking great in the scrimmage Tuesday, and was ripping off some nice gains. Lanham should be back to top condition by Friday.

The outstanding lineman for the Westerners was Ike Modawell, who started the season as a regular guard, then gave way to little L. D. Pierce in the last two games. Modawell seemed to be started a great comeback battle to regain his starting berth.

White indicated Tuesday night that there would be plenty of rough work during the week.

In conference games to date, Lubbock has been beaten by Borger and Plainview, while Brownfield has lost to Amarillo and Pampa.

Joe McCarthy Is To Stay In Baseball

NEW YORK, Oct. 31. (AP)—Joe McCarthy isn't ready to step out of baseball yet and is looking forward to the next spring training season as one of his most interesting adventures.

Marse Joe came out of a three-hour huddle with President Larry MacPhail yesterday to announce that the New York Yankees will have two conditioning camps at St. Petersburg and Bradenton, Fla., for the first time in history.

"I hope to manage the Yanks for the next 10 years if my health holds out" commented McCarthy who must make a flock of decisions before February.

Littlefield To Meet Ballinger Friday In Battle Of "Point A Minute" Class A Stalwarts

LITTLEFIELD, Oct. 31 (Special) —The "cat fight of the year" is in prospect Friday night at Ballinger, where the Littlefield Wildcats will tangle with the Ballinger Bearcats in a battle of Class A giants that all West Texas has clamored to see over a period of two great seasons for both clubs.

The fats of these two point-a-minute ball clubs have been writing gridiron history for two years over the West Texas country, and fans have clamored for a meeting of these teams with the legendary records that no other two schools in the state can match.

High Scoring Clubs

Both are high scoring ball clubs that don't believe in pulling their punches, and through seven games this year, Littlefield has scored 356 points to their opponents 18. Ballinger, in six games, has scored 309 points to 33 for their opponents. Littlefield is undefeated and untied in seven games, and Ballinger has lost one game, a 13-0 loss to Class AA Abilene. Ballinger has one victory over Class AA foes, a 20-7 win over Sweetwater.

The legend of the Ballinger club goes back beyond the Littlefield "glory days" and only one Class A team has beaten the Bearcats since 1940, this a stunning upset at the hands of the Seymour Panthers last year in the regional finals.

The toughest fight that Ballinger has faced from a Class A team this year was a 39 to 13 win over McCamey. Since that time, the Bearcats have clawed Loraine, 100 to 0, Lakeview, 60 to 0, and last week won over Brady, 90 to 0. Abilene is the only team to hold the Bearcats scoreless in many moons.

Littlefield started last season with a coach, then J. Fikes moved to town, and took over the boys. The Wildcats started slow, but gained speed as the season went along, rolling into the finals of the regional playoff with Merkel with a record of ten straight wins, and rolling up 348 points to 64 over the ten game span.

Littlefield lost to Billy Wayne Frasier and company of Merkel, 2s to 14, in the finals. On the same day, Ballinger lost to Seymour, 13-7. Littlefield hasn't lost a game since, and Ballinger only one.

Littlefield's toughest test this year was two weeks ago with the Hereford club, a team unbeaten and unscored on, and came through with flying colors for a 13 to 6 vin.

Many local fans are expected to make the trek to Ballinger this week for the top Class A game of the state.

Bolivia is the fifth largest country of South America.

Layne Boosts Texas; Walker Back At SMU

DALLAS, Oct. 31 (U.P.) — Football stars together in high school, U. S. Maritime service veterans together in war, Bobby Layne and Doak Walker will be back together Saturday — but there will be a difference.

The situation now makes the two friends enemies, friendly enemies of two opposing football teams.

Layne will be in the backfield of the University of Texas team playing once again for the school he starred with as a freshman last year.

Walker will see gridiron service for Southern Methodist, the university less than a mile from Highland Park High school, where both he and Layne were triple threat backs.

Head Coach Matty Bell of the Methodists said he "definitely will use Walker against Texas." At Austin, Coach Dana X. Bible was "mighty glad Layne is back."

Layne, along with Ralph Ellsworth, who returned to Texas from the Naval academy at Annapolis, will be useful in the Longhorns' attempt to knock SMU from the top of the Southwest conference standings.

TWO GAMES ADDED

AUSTIN, Oct. 31. (U.P.) — Two games have been added to the First Troop Carrier command football schedule and two more are being arranged, it was announced at Bergstrom field today. The carriers will play South Camp Hood here the night of Nov. 3. On Nov. 12 the Carriers will go to Rockford, Ill., to play the Camp Grant eleven.

Wrestling Card Slated Tonight

Six Performers To Take Part

Promoter Pete Hallas has put the finishing touches to the new grunt and groan palace at the Lubbock Horse and Mule Auction arena on the Plainview highway cutoff, and announced everything was ready for the return of wrestling to Lubbock tonight at 8:30 o'clock.

Six of the top notch performers now working in the Southwest have been signed for the opening card here, with Babe Ritchie, well known Lubbock ring figure, scheduled as the third man in the ring.

The Hood, who keeps his identity a secret, has been lined up for the main event, a best two out of three fall match with a 90 minute time limit. He will be paired with Tony Ross, another well known performer in the Southwest.

The semi-final, a two out of three fall match with a 45 minute time limit, will pair two more well known ring masters in Milt Olsen, who has been performing for some time in the Midwest, and George Hackenschmidt, who recently came to this area from Milwaukee, where he has been a popular performer.

Starting off the grunt and groan program will be a one fall or 30 minute time limit battle between Jose Manuel and Ivan Jones, a battle that promises plenty of fast action.

PORCUPINES MOVE IN

RAWLINS, Wyo. (U.P.) — Porcupines have been invading the city of Rawlins. Four of the prickly animals have been found in the city within recent weeks. Accordingly, Rawlins police have given out with some instructions on how to trap the animals. It's a simple matter, they say. All that's necessary is to place a pasteboard box or carton in front of the porcupine and he will walk into it. Nothing is said as to what you do with the porcupine after trapping it. You have to figure that out yourself.

The gasoline used by one Superfort to travel from the Marianas to Tokyo and back would have kept an average motorist in fuel for ten years.

Louis-Conn Bout Has Fight Mob Guessing

NEW YORK, Oct. 31 (U.P.) — Comfortably shrouded in a heavy layer of smoke, the fight mob peered into the past and future of the Joe Louis-Billy Conn situation today and arrived eventually at two decisions.

The first was that the outcome of the June battle between the Brown Bomber and Pittsburgh Billy is one of the major mysteries of sports.

The second was that the most frequently asked question along Jacobs beach was how the champ and the challenger stood in the way of points when joltin' Joe put out the lights at 2:58 of the 13th round four years and four months ago.

To settle a storm of speechmaking which followed that statement, Tub Thumper Harry Markson dug into the files and pulled out the official score cards of Referee Eddie Joseph and Judges Mary Monroe and Bill Healy. They proved that Billy the kid was well on his way to the title when the roof fell in.

Joseph had Conn in front, seven rounds to five, and Monroe had him ahead, seven rounds to four with one even. Healy had it labeled even at six rounds each.

DOUBTFUL ON ROBINSON

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31. (AP) —"Rapid Robert" Feller, the fireball ace hurler of the Cleveland Indians, doesn't believe Jackie Robinson, negro star signed by Montreal, will ever make the grade in the big leagues. Feller, who has pitched against Robinson, put him in the "good field, no hit" sategory.

German photographic planes flew over London for six weeks before the concentrated air blitz on the British capital in 1940.

Main reason for the mounting divorce rate:
In too short a time, too many people who say "I do," don't.

IN employing Homer A. Hunter, assistant city manager of Dallas, to be city manager here, the Lubbock City commission undoubtedly chose the best prepared, most highly experienced man available for the post here.

On paper, at least, Mr. Hunter is the most widely experienced and best prepared man ever employed by the City of Lubbock to serve as municipality's full-time chief executive.

But in securing the services of Mr. Hunter, the City commission also went much higher, from a salary standpoint, than has ever been the case in the past. Mr. Hunter's $10,000 per year salary tops that of Marlin R. Smith, jr., outgoing manager, by $2,500 or more.

Thus, Mr. Hunter is going to have to be a bearcat of a city manager if the action of the commission in employing him is to be adjudged wise and satisfactory by the majority of the citizenship.

Mr. Hunter can be worth $10,000 per year to the City of Lubbock if his services prove to be as valuable as his record indicates they will be, AND providing the City commission will give him a free hand.

In his discussions with the commission, prior to his employment, Mr. Hunter flatly said that if he and the commission got together, and he took up the work in Lubbock, he expected to be city manager in fact, as well as in name.

Apparently, since he has been employed, the commission agreed to that sort of setup. But if the commission did so agree, that paves the way for a situation at City hall which never before has obtained.

Lubbock has had a city manager form of government in name for well over two decades. But, in fact, succeeding commissions have attended to a great deal of work—especially in minute policies and executive decisions—which, under a city management form of government, properly come under the direction of the city manager.

That has been one reason, if not the main one, that there has been so much lost motion and time in municipal affairs here.

IF Mr. Hunter is the man his record indicates he is, and IF the city commission turns him loose in keeping with the principles of the city manager form of government, he can be a bargain at $10,000 per year; he can be a much better investment than the average of city managers at half the salary.

The City of Lubbock is a big business and, as such, presents many opportunities for saving. A city manager of ability and experience—AND with a free hand—can not only cut enough corners to permit the city to profit in dollars and cents by virtue of his employment; he also can eliminate, by swift, sure executive action, much of the procrastination which eats at the vitals of any organization, public or private, by having too many cooks supervising the broth.

We hope Mr. Hunter will prove to be as good a city manager as his past record indicates that he will; we hope the City commission's action in employing him at a here-to-fore unapproached salary will be found to have been a good investment.

Time, and time alone, will bring in the verdict.

Meanwhile, Lubbock citizens should resolve to give the new city manager not only their full co-operation, but also every opportunity to prove his worth and the judgment of the commission.

The fact that $10,000 per year puts him in a very select salary bracket as far as private business in Lubbock is concerned, should not be held against him. While it is true that not over a half dozen—or a dozen at the most—Lubbock citizens have a guaranteed annual salary as large as the new city manager's—does not mean that Mr. Hunter isn't worth the money, or that the annual investment in him cannot pay real, dollars-and-cents dividends in operation of the city's business.

Mr. Hunter should be given every chance to prove his worth—every chance by the commission and by the people, as well.

Incidental testimony regarding Mr. Hunter should be of more than passing interest here.

R. L. Thomas, vice-president of Dallas National bank and a top-flight civic leader of the East Texas metropolis, was in Lubbock the other day and learned here of Mr. Hunter's employment by the City commission. "I'm sorry to hear it," Mr. Thomas said, because Mr. Hunter is a very able man and Dallas will miss him in its $40,000,000 postwar improvement program now shaping up. Not only does he know his business, but he also is a fine citizen, civic worker and good mixer. Lubbock is to be congratulated in securing his services."

Alec Acheson, for a quarter century a top reporter and editor in Dallas, called The Plainsman from the East Texas city to learn details concerning Mr. Hunter's employment here. The Dallas Times Herald, Mr. Acheson's paper, planned considerable of a story concerning the matter. We asked Alec for an "off-the-record" opinion of Mr. Hunter.

"On and off the record," Mr. Acheson said, "he's a good man. He has done a fine job here and Lubbock made a wise selection. Mr. Hunter is able in all phases of municipal work, but is especially strong in matters having to do with utilities. He'll do a grand job out there."

These statements from informed Dallasites are offered here purely for the information of readers. The Plainsman doesn't know Mr. Hunter. Has never seen him. Has no more interest in him than any other citizen interested in his community's welfare.

BEST news The Avalanche-Journal family had has in a long time is that Mr. and Mrs. Parker Prouty will leave this week-end for Minneapolis to return to Lubbock their 16-year-old daughter, Joan, who has been under treatment at Kenny Institute for poliomyelitis since last June 18.

Joan already has entirely recovered from that portion of her ailment which interfered with the normal use of one leg; and her right shoulder and upper arm are so nearly well that Sister Elizabeth Kenny and attending doctors say she'll entirely recover there, too, with a few months of exercise here at home.

At first it was feared she might have to undergo treatment for nine months, or longer. But she has shown such unexpected improvement and recovery that she's getting home in half the time originally estimated.

Down here at the office, those of us who work with Parker Prouty think this is something super-duper—as will all other friends of the family.

Feminine Viewpoint

BY RUTH MILLETT
(Copyright, 1945, For The Journal)

EVERY time you pick up a woman's magazine these days it seems you find an article about the returning serviceman—which dishes out advice to the little woman back home.

MILLETT

The gist of them all is that the girl who has waited out the war patiently must practice even more patience and understanding when her man comes home.

An article in the current issue of a national woman's magazine is fairly typical. Written by a returned serviceman it warns wives that their returned serviceman who found it almost intolerable to live apart from his wife may find it difficult to readjust himself to living with her again. "Patience and understanding" are suggested as the antidote.

According to this magazine version, the returned veteran may prove short-tempered and may have a tendency to say things he doesn't mean. He has been accustomed to little female society and may feel at first—according to the article—that there can be such thing as too much such association. He may have built up a sort of goddess-like ideal during his absence which the little woman back home may find it extremely difficult to live up to.

Well, is the writer is putting down facts—what does that make the returning serviceman? A guy who comes home so filled with his part in the war he doesn't even see what his wife has had to put up with during the long, lonely years. A man—who, though he expected his wife to be faithful—might be comparing her to "those other women he has known."

SHOULD "BE HIS AGE"

A MAN who, finding his adjustment to civilian life hard, will take it out on you and will be short-tempered and say things he doesn't mean.

Probably the article is exaggerated—and if so, it has no business being printed in a woman's magazine where it can scare a bunch of women who have already been scared enough during the war years.

If it isn't exaggerated, then it doesn't look as though you ought to go all out for patience and understanding. It looks as though you ought to tell that returning serviceman to be his age and quit being a returned hero. And the sooner the better—for you both.

"BIG JOE" IS STILL ON DECK

Now comes the report that Generalissimo Josef Stalin is "in good health" at a resort on the Black sea.

This is good news, if true.

The reports of Stalin's serious illness doubtless caused considerable concern in all capitals of the world. For big Joe is probably the most powerful single figure on the globe today, and upon him, to a large extent, depends the attainment, or breakdown, of peace.

No one can foresee what course Russia would take if the generalissimo passed from the scene. Should he die, there would be a rough and tumble fight for his mantle. His successor might possibly be a warmonger.

The United Nations organizations needs the support of Russia to succeed. Her enthusiasm for it, even under Stalin, has been lukewarm.

Of all top Russian leaders, Stalin is probably the most conservative. Mellowed by age and by the greatest burden of pulling Russia uphill to victory, he is not the rip-roaring "Red" of old. He, conceivably, would like for Russia, in the next decade or so, to build up domestically and consolidate her position as one of the world's dominant powers.

However, around Stalin must be young, fanatical Communists who would like to see Russia keep going while she has the momentum. They might view the chaotic Middle East and Asia as ripe for plunder.

If any one man in modern days can be credited with building the foundation for a great nation, Stalin is one. Russia's giant strides in industry and in military power of the last two decades have been due, almost entirely, to Stalin's leadership. Right now, he is the pivot man in global politics. His early death would almost certainly throw the world into confusion.

We should, indeed, feel relieved at the report that he is well.

Ford Says He Will Play Ball With Labor

Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON. — Labor Secretary Lewis Schwellenbach still is pinching himself to be sure that his recent conference with Henry Ford II, grandson of the octogenarian motor magnate and president of the Ford company, wasn't just a dream.

The labor secretary was goggle-eyed over young Ford's liberal views on labor questions and the current wage-price controversy.

Among other things, he gave Schwellenbach these assurances during their closed-door, man-to-man meeting:

He declared that a new deal had been undertaken in the Ford empire, with many organizational changes planned to make friends with union labor, definitely putting an end to the company's union-baiting of the past.

PEARSON

Ford went flatly on record in favor of collective bargaining, declaring he would do all in his power to protect this right of labor in future wage negotiations.

Most important of all, he confided to Schwellenbach that he was ready to agree to a 23 per cent increase in the wages of Ford auto workers, instead of the 15 per cent top increase he has been advocating.

"I want to meet labor half-way," the auto chief asserted, pointing out that the United Auto Workers' union has demanded a 30 per cent pay hike. He said he couldn't go the whole distance in accepting union demands, but was ready to accept a fair compromise and would play ball with the union leaders as far as he could.

Finally, while making no definite commitment, he strongly indicated to Schwellenbach that if a compromise settlement could be reached between the 15 and 30 per cent wage increase, his company would not ask the OPA for a sales price increase for its automobiles.

In this connection, young Ford said he realized clearly his company's responsibility in holding down further inflationary price trends and, he added, he was ready to play ball on this as well as wage increases.

Henry II told the labor secretary that one of his biggest problems was labor shut-downs in "feeder" plants, such as the Kelsey-Hayes plant, which supplies the Ford company with most of its wheels.

He said that if his company was to continue operations, so as to provide jobs and decent wages for union employees, the UAW would have to see to it that production kept going in these parts' plants.

BATTLE OF ATOM

THE back-stage battle of the scientists over the atom bomb still rages. The scientists who worked on the bomb have pleaded with Maj. Gen. Leslie Groves and Dr. Vannevar Bush to revise the May-Johnson bill for control of atomic energy, but without success.

American science will suffer a serious blow, they claim, and will lose future world leadership, if it is placed under Army regulation. Furthermore, scientists will be unwilling to extend themselves in order to spur an arms race which can only end in world-wide disaster, the young atom scientists argue. The pending bill, they are convinced, can only end in an arms race.

One of the leading scientists on the project — Dr. Enrico Fermi — has recalled to General Groves that German scientists led the world on the development of atomic energy until ten years ago. At that time the Nazis moved in on science, with the result that German research lagged behind and we were able to forge ahead. The present bill, the scientists claim, calls for even greater control than that imposed by the Nazis.

SENATE ELDER STATESMEN

ALTHOUGHT many comparatively youngsters are taking Senate seats these days, there are still a dozen senators well over 70 years old. Some of these oldsters, like aristocratic Theodore Green of Rhode Island, sincere Jim Murray of Montana and sanctimonious Josiah Bailey of North Carolina, are as vigorous and active as any of the youngsters. Some of the others, however, are not.

Much-loved Carter Glass of Virginia has not been seen in the Senate in over two years. Another octogenarian, popular Arthur Capper of Kansas, has the gleam of youth in his eye and is regularly at his office. But he misses a great many committee meetings

That is why Senator Bob Taft, Ohio Republican, was so triumphant as he escorted Capper to the meeting of the Senate banking and currency committee at which the final vote was taken on the full employment bill. Taft's attempt to defeat the bill in committee finally lost out, but in Capper he had one more vote for his cause.

Chairman Bob Wagner of New York, himself a youngster of only 68 years, was stumped as Taft paraded by him with Capper.

"I've got Capper here," Taft said gaily. "Now let's see you get Glass."

Note — Here are the ages of the elder statesmen of the Senate: Bankhead of Alabama, 73; George of Georgia, 67; Thomas of Idaho, 71; Willis of Indiana, 70; Capper of Kansas, 80; Reed of Kansas, 74; Barkley of Kentucky, 68; White of Maine, 68; Walsh of Massachusetts, 73; Bilbo of Mississippi, 68; Murray of Montana, 69; McCarran of Nevada, 69; Bailey of North Carolina, 72; Moore of Oklahoma, 74; Green of Rhode Island, 78; Austin of Vermont, 68; McKellar of Tennessee, 76; Connally of Texas, 68; Glass of Virginia, 87.

TREASURY WATCH-DOGS

THEY received almost no publicity for their work, but Representatives Henry M. Jackson of Washington and Herbert Bonner of North Carolina this month saved the U. S. Treasury between $250,000,000 and $300,000,000. And they are ready to keep up their fight in order to make certain that the Senate doesn't give away the money they have saved.

By a series of three amendments to the ship sale bill, the two congressmen convinced their confused colleagues — most of whom were completely unaware of what the bill contained — to write in safeguards which will prevent oil companies and U. S. shipping lines from making additional millions from the sale of the U. S. Merchant fleet.

From $100,000,000 to $150,000,000 was saved by the Jackson amendment alone. It provides that the government sell its oil tankers at 100 per cent of cost — on the basis of pre-war construction costs —less yearly depreciation. The bill originally called for a price of 75 per cent of the pre-war cost—which would have meant the sale of hundreds of tankers to big oil companies at only about half what they cost to build during the expensive war years.

A second Jackson amendment is expected to save about $50,000,000 for the government. It affects ships sold during the war to private firms with a provision for price adjustment after the war. The Jackson amendment prevents a shipper from having his price adjusted downward from, for instance, $2,000,000 to $1,500,000 unless he returns to the government the $600,000 he received as rental from the government since he bought the boat. He is, however, permitted a 3½ per cent return on the annual cash he had laid out.

About $100,000,000 was saved by North Carolina's Bonner through an amendment limiting the trade-in allowance the government may give on an old vessel turned in as part payment for a newer ship. The government is taking many old hulls from the shippers and scrapping them. Without the Bonner amendment, ships worth only five dollars a ton might be accepted by the government on a trade-in at prices as high as $50 a ton. The amendment limits the trade-in allowance to 10 per cent of the original cost of the ship.

"Try And Stop Me"

DRAMA critics have to see so many horrible "turkeys" in the course of a season that they may be excused if they occasionally forget their manners in print. Brooks Atkinson wrote the shortest review on record. It read, "Such-and-such opened last night. Why?" Another critic declared that a musical "arrived in town after an insufficient number of postponements." "The picture version of Panama Hattie needs a certain something," wrote David Lardner, and added pensively, "Possibly burial."

Percy Hammond closed a review with "I have knocked everything except the knees of the chorus girls, and nature anticipated me there." A Detroit music reviewer contributed, "The Blank Quartet played Brahms last night. Brahms lost." Somebody met George Kaufman after a particularly gruesome opening. "What did you think of it?" ventured the stranger. "It's not quite fair for me to say," Kaufman assured him. "I saw it under peculiarly unfortunate circumstances. The curtain was up."

A woeful production of Macbeth in modern dress once came close to turning New York into a one-night stand. Harry Hershfield is credited with the muttered advice, "Lay on, Macduff; lay off, McBride."

Strength Of United States Is Essential To A Stable World

Universal Military Training Is Hot Problem

By MARQUIS CHILDS
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—President Truman in his message to Congress has made a forthright declaration for universal military training.

At one time, according to reliable reports, he contemplated a modified system which would allow for part time training during college years. But further study and the advice of military men convinced him that there could be no halfway measures.

CHILDS

The danger in any proposal for summer and evening training was that a weak compromise would merely result in time wasted all around. If we are to have universal training, and that is the difficult decision now up to Congress, we might as well face it outright.

Must Apply To All

The president is insistent, too, that training must apply to all youths, even those who are unfit for combat duty. The latter, he says, can be especially trained in industrial and other essential techniques so important to re-enforce the machine of modern war.

This suggests a contradiction that is likely to be aired during the debate in Congress on this far-reaching proposal —it represents a break with our past, and there is no concealing that fact. The president stresses the need for the kind of scientific training that will keep this country ahead of the world. But in the light of the long-and intensive study necessary for modern science, many will ask what a year's interruption is likely to mean at the critical age of 18.

Challenging those who say that universal training will undermine our democracy, President Truman is on sounder ground. There is good historical precedent for democracy that incorporates universal training for all male citizens.

SWEDEN has had such a system for many years and the Swedes have steadily moved toward a broader democratic base for their society. Moreover, the fact that Sweden had 600,000 trained reserves under arms through most of the war may have had something to do with keeping the Nazis from attacking that country at one or two critical moments.

The soundest argument the president makes is that next time we shall not have two years of grace in which to prepare. As General Marshall made clear in his report the other day, those years of grace, when we were altogether helpless, we owe to the courage and the stamina of the British and the Russians.

This argument the president buttresses with the plea that America must stand before the world strong and not weak. That is overwhelmingly true; so true, that surely no one can take issue with it. Our strength is essential to a stable world. The speed with which we have been taking apart our military power is dangerous and terribly ill-advised.

Question To Be Debated

The question, however, of what constitutes strength in the world of the atomic bomb and the radio-guided missile is one which is likely to be debated at length. The military men profess to know, just as they did after the last war. But the Germans forged new weapons and new uses for old weapons which swept away France's costly and antiquated defense system.

What is profoundly disturbing about the president's message is the almost defeatist tone with which he seems to accept a "next time." Discussing the atomic bomb, he accepts the easy platitude of the military that "every weapon will eventually bring some counter-defense against it."

THEORETICALLY, of course, this is true. There was a defense for the bomber plane. But, as has been said so often, between the defense and the offense we have destroyed most of Europe and a good bit of Asia. The experts who testified on the atomic bomb repeated over and over that even a near perfect defense would let in enough bombs to wipe out great industrial centers.

What is most disturbing is the president's half-hearted reassurance that the "better answers"—the kind of tried and tested world cooperation which will make for peace and harmony among all nations—are in the "better days to come." This country, says the president, will continue to strive to reach that period quickly. He adds that it has not yet arrived, and he seems to hold out little hope that it is even on the way.

Ruled By Militarist?

To speak frankly, it sounds almost as though President Truman had fallen under the influence of those military men who constantly air their conviction that another war in the near future is inevitable and we had best remain prepared to the hilt.

Where is the president who spoke in Kansas City with impromptu courage for a world state without sham or deception? Where is the president who spoke at San Francisco with vision and foresight?

It is hard to find any trace of that president in the message to Congress. Leadership, the kind of leadership the world so desperately needs, is not here.

CONGRESS has been delaying many vital decisions. There is a sense of drift in Washington.

Now here is a new decision that Congress should face up to as quickly as possible. Perhaps universal training is the answer to the military security of a great democracy. But as phrased in the Truman message, it seems a dusty answer that yields so little to the needs of this hour.

Two Whiteface Men Enlist In Air Corps

The Lubbock Army Recruiting station has enlisted Bobby D. Cook, 17-year-old son of W. C. Cook of Whiteface, and Laurence Fisher, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Fisher of Whiteface, in the Army Air forces.

Pvt. Cook attended and played basketball at Tatum, N. M., and Levelland, Texas, High schools. For his Army service, Cook requested his AAF assignment in the European theater.

Pvt. Fisher graduated from the Whiteface High school and had been working in the oil field prior to enlistment For his Army service Fisher also selected the AAF with assignment in the European theater.

Both enlistees had the written consent of their parents which is required for enlistment of seventeen year-olds. By voluntary enlistment they are assured of a promotion within six months, and become eligible for the G. I. Bill of Rights.

Men of 17 who choose to make the Army a career may retire after 20 years service or at the age of 37. Retiring at 37 he will receive retirement pay of $68 to $97 a month for the rest of his life. And if he stays in the Army 30 years, or until he is 47 years old he may retire with pay of $103 to $155 a month for life.

Missing Texas Girl Hunted

HOUSTON, Oct. 31 (UP) — A slender, blonde 12-year-old girl, who police said spent the weekend with two cab drivers and a sailor, today was the object of a city-wide search.

Wearing a black dress, blue sandals and red coat, the girl had not been home since Saturday, police said.

Fearing she may have met with foul play, juvenile authorities were combing the city.

On Way To Movie

Accompanied by two bobby-sox companions the schoolgirl was on her way to a movie Saturday when the trio became acquainted with a 35-year-old taxi driver. He returned and picked them up after the movie and they rode with him until 4 a. m. Sunday, police said.

Then, police explained, the missing girl and her companions, aged 14 and 15, went with the driver and sailor to another cab driver's apartment.

Police reported everyone stayed at the flat until Sunday afternoon when the 14-year-old girl and sailor left for a downtown hotel. House detectives reported her to police who launched an investigation.

The 15-year-old girl, questioned at her home, said she left the apartment Sunday night.

The driver who owned the apartment said the missing girl rode about with him Sunday night until 3 a. m. when he let her out of the taxi at a downtown intersection. He was held in jail while the other driver was out under $1,000 bond and the sailor was turned over to the shore patrol.

Truman's Pay Plan

classes of pay boosts for which compensating price increases could be approved by the stabilization administrator.

These were:

1. Cases where the percentage increase in average straight-time hourly earnings since January 1941 did not equal the percentage increase in the cost of living between January 1941 and September 1945.

2. Instances where increases were necessary to correct inequities in wage rates among plants in the same industry or locality, with due regard to normal competitive relationships.

3. Situations in which increases were necessary to insure full production in an industry designated by the stabiliziation administrator as essential to reconversion, and in which existing wage rates are inadequate to attract needed manpower.

Other Points Made

The president made these other points:

1. The labor-management conference convening next Monday is to recommend machinery for mediating or arbitrating differences whenever collective bargaining fails to work."

2. Recent labor difficulties "stand in the way of reconversion and reemployment of veterans and war workers. "We need more of the good sense, the reasonableness, the consideration for the position of the other fellow, the teamwork which we had during the war."

3. Congress has bottled up liberalized unemployment compensation and "full employment" legislation which Mr. Truman regards as vital.

4. To grant industry price relief to match every wage increase would bring on inflation. "While the positions of different industries vary greatly, there is room in the existing price structure for business as a whole to grant increases in wage rates."

Occupation Of Japan

MacArthur as chairman. He would have the deciding voice in case of disagreement.

To Work Out Policy

It is expected that the Far Eastern advisory commission, which had its initial session here yesterday with Russia absent, will work out top policy.

It also nwill give recognition to the views not only of the four big powers but of seven other nations which played active parts in bringing the Japanese to defeat.

The commission adjourned until next Monday in the hope that negotiations on the Allied council issue may end soon in a successful compromise.

The commission's charter excludes it from taking up military questions or trying to administer policy in Japan.

Some consideration has been given to enlarging its powers so that through a big four executive committee, for example, it might in effect take a hand in administration of Japan.

The result would be the same—the big four would function as an Allied council and the commission would continue to be a purely advisory body.

German Unrest

250,000 more were being screened.

Eisenhower said a paradoxical situation prevails in labor with almost 20 per cent of registered laborers out of work despite acute labor shortages in construction, coal mining and wood cutting industries.

To alleviate the shortages, priorities have been established among qualified laborers awaiting demobilization from the German Army and intensive training programs have been inaugurated.

FRENCH GET MORE FOOD

PARIS, Oct. 31 (AP) — Bread will be taken off the French ration list soon and there will be more meat, potatoes, sugar and chocolate available during the next few months, Food Minister Christian Pineau announced today. Beginning tomorrow a little more than a half-pound per person will be allowed and there will be a pound and a quarter of sugar and chocolate for each person per month.

Java Rebels Given Warning By Allies

By JOHN S. BOWER
United Press Staff Writer

BATAVIA, Java, Oct. 31.—Lt. Gen. Sir Philip Christison, Allied commander in the Dutch East Indies, warned today that he will throw all his air, land and sea forces against Indonesian extremists in Java unless they surrender the assassins of British Brig. A. W. Mallaby.

Mallaby, British commander in Soerabaja, was slain by Indonesian extremists last night as he was leaving his brigade headquarters in that strife-torn naval base city.

Warning Is Broadcast

Christison's warning of quick retaliation if the Indonesians fail to surrender the slayers was broadcast repeatedly over Allied-controlled radio stations in Java.

The general threatened to "bring the whole weight of forces under my command and all weapons of modern war" into combat against the extremists "until they are crushed."

"If in this process innocent Indonesians should be killed or wounded," he said, "the sole responsibility will rest with those Indonesians who have committed the crimes mentioned.

Cooperation Is Urged

"I warn all Indonesians throughout Java that they should have nothing to do with extremist elements and should cooperate with British forces and live in peace and harmony with them.

"For if force is used against British troops, it will be met with force. I am determined to maintain law and order and I look to all good Indonesians to support me in this task."

Unconfirmed reports circulated that the British may fly a parachute brigate to Soerabaja from Singapore. All British naval units in Soerabaja were said to be standing by.

The assassination of Mallaby broke a truce between the British and Indonesians that had been arranged by Dr. I. R. Sukarno, president of the unrecognized Indonesian republic, on a flying visit to Soerabaja yesterday.

Republican circles in Batavia said the killing was "certainly not intentional," but offered no further explanation.

EFFICIENCY AMONG THIEVES

PHILADELPHIA. — Yeoman 3/c Earle C. Lenhart told police—

As a footpad dashed away with his wallet, a second man approached but disappeared when the fleeing thief yelled back:

"Don't bother him. I already got his money."

NOT WORTH IT

CHICAGO. — Margaret Noone wanted three passports to her native Ireland but she settled for one.

She had planned to take along Truman de Valera, her pet dog, and Smicki Smack, her cat, but she balked upon learning they would have to be inoculated.

"They wouldn't like that, 'tis sure," she said. "They'll be better off at home."

LURE

KANSAS CITY — Michael Bennett Lyons, 2½, and Kitty-Cat, his stuffed Panda, were having a wonderful time following the trash man until two women decided he was lost and called police.

At headquarters he tried in vain to explain that he and the Panda weren't lost. He just wanted to take Kitty-Cat for a ride and the truck kept leaving without them. Police, unconvinced, held him until his mother arrived.

INTERRUPTION

HAMILTON, Mont. — Five motorists had their enjoyment of Bitter Root valley scenic beauty rudely interrupted.

A belligerent deer charged, smashed a dor, bent a fender and fell dead.

WOMEN'S INGENUITY

HOLLYWOOD.—New ideas for the entertainment of returning servicemen are becoming a habit with the fairer sex.

The latest ingenious bit has been added to the list by Dinah Shore.

Dinah announces that when the next shipload of veterans arrives from overseas, she and a guitar player aboard a blimp will hover just above deck and welcome them home with song and music.

ELEGANCE

OLYMPIA, Wash. — President Truman paid Gov. Mon C. Wallgren of Washington $10 when he arrived. It wasn't board money though.

"When this visit was arranged," Sen. Magnuson (D-Wash) told reporters, "Mon bet $10 with the President that his governor's mansion quarters would be as nice as those assigned White House guests.

"Well, the President took one look and paid off."

Beggars Thoughtful; They Return Change

MONROE, Wis., Oct. 31. (AP)—Eight youngsters rapped on a Monroe door last night with the familiar beggar's night shout:

"Trick or treat."

The man of the house handed out 50 cents, and the youngsters headed for the nearest soda fountain.

A few minutes later came another rap. The householder answered with the expectation of handing out another half dollar.

"Here's your change," a youth said and handed back a dime.

Hirohito's Fortune To Pay Reparations

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31. (AP)—The bulk of Emperor Hirohito's personal fortune, estimated at $106,041,000, will be used in the payment of Japanese reparations obligations.

Edwin W. Pauley, American representative on the Allied reparations commission, made this clear today after a White House conference with President Truman.

Immediate Unification Of Services Urged

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31. (AP)—Josephus Daniels advised Congress today to brush aside details and immediately unify land, sea and air forces into a single national defense department.

"We are enabled to celebrate victory only because in the exigency of war all of our forces were obloged to become a mighty power working together as one," Daniels told the Senate military affairs committee.

Issues Still Open

The financial-trade talks with Britain have boiled down to four or five issues which are still open but Byrnes expressed himself as quite hopeful about a successful outcome.

The United States and other powers have agreed that France's proposal for internationalization of the Ruhr must be discussed but no decision can be made short of a peace conference.

In response to a question whether the foreign ministers council at London actually is dead, Byrnes said that the council hadn't been able to make much progress and he thought it wise to bring home his deputy, assistant Secretary of State James Dunn.

Byrnes said that the United States has now sent to Turkey a statement of its position about future controls of the Dardenelles. He would not disclose what this is. It has been understood, however, that this nation favors placing primary responsibility for use of the Dardenelles for military purposes in the United Nations security council and opposes a Russian request for bases on the straits.

most of the children were killed."

The typist said she saw two kinds of death. Some persons died in two or three days from severe burns. Others grew gradually weaker and died at the end of a week, and in some cases their heads became misshapen bulges within a few hours.

Still another kind of death occurred a month after the bomb struck, the young woman said. Many had recovered from their burns "when their hair started falling out, they ran a temperature, their bodies turned a pale green, then they died."

Those who died soon after the attack did so quietly with the belief they were "helping the country," she said, but those dying after surrender "cried at the end, and their relatives began saying: 'Why all this suffering?'"

Daily Markets

Stock Market

MOST STOCKS CLIMB

NEW YORK, Oct. 31 (AP) — Stocks climbed over a broad front in today's market as Wall Street generally — there were plenty of dissenters — read inflationary implications into the president's wage-price policy.

Steels, motors, rails and liquors were popular. Turnover of around 2,000,000 shares was one of the largest of the past four months.

In the "new high" division were Columbia Gas, United Corp., Electric Power & Light, Consolidated Edison, Public Service of N. J., American Power & Light, Standard Gas $4 preferred, Commonwealth & Southern, Schenley, National Distillers, International Hydro Electric and Eastman Kodak. Ahead were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Chrysler, General Motors, Dupont, Douglas Aircraft, N. Y. Central, Santa Fe, Southern Railway, Nickel Plate common and Distillers Corp.

Bonds were a trifle uneven.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Oct. 31 (AP) — After displaying early firmness today the cotton futures market turned weak on heavy commission house profit taking which met only scale-down trade buying. In late dealings the market recovered partially on covering operations.

Early gains of as much as 80 cents a bale had been chalked up on mill and outside buying influenced by the rise in the October cotton parity and the belief that the administration's new wage policy would increase the pressure for higher prices.

Futures closed 30 cents a bale lower to 10 cents higher.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Oct. 31 (AP) — Grain futures held fairly firm most of the time today but there was no pronounced strength after an early buying flurry attributed partly to bullish interpretation of President Truman's speech on wages and prices.

Profit-taking and liquidation influenced by weakness in the cotton market cut into the advances in all grains, particularly in oats.

Wheat closed ⅜ higher to ¼ lower than the previous finish, December $1.77⅝, corn was unchanged to ⅛ down, December $1.18¼, oats were off ⅛ to ⅜, December 64⅝-¾, rye was ½ up to 1⅛ cent down, December $1.61½-⅜, and barley was ahead ¾ to 1 cent, December $1.19⅝.

Cloer Funeral To Be Conducted At Tahoka

Funeral services for Thomas J. Cloer, 79, who died Tuesday at the home of a grandson five miles south of Tahoka, will be conducted at Tahoka but a definite time had not been set early this afternoon, Plains Funeral home reported.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Grace Jane Cloer, two sons, Cleveland Cloer of Tahoka, and Monroe Cloer of Arizona; four daughters, Mrs. Nancy Davis of Tahoka; Mrs. Pauline Khyler and Mrs. Stella Powers, both of Arizona, and Mrs. Jim McManes of California.

All Of Brazil Is Calm Today

RIO DE JANEIRO, Oct. 31 (AP)—All Brazil was calm today as a new government, headed by a civilian jurist and supported by the country's armed forces, began its first day in office following a bloodless coup which ended the 15-year-reign of President Getulio Vargas.

The new regime has pledged itself to step down after the Dec. 2 elections. Chief Justice Jose Linhares, who formally assumed the presidency yesterday afternoon, announced he would hand over his office to the chosen representative of the people.

The government began its task with a full cabinet which included only one holdover from the Vargas regime—veteran diplomat Pedro Leao Lelloso, who was acting foreign minister under Vargas and now becomes foreign minister.

The whereabouts of Vargas' brother, Benjamin, was not clear. President Vargas precipitated the movement which unseated him when he appointed his brother, known as his trouble-shooter, to the important post of chief of the federal police, forcing a showdown in the battle of nerves with the Army to assure national elections.

Higher Shoe Prices Asked

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31. (AP) — Higher prices for shoes became a warm issue today as rationing of all footwear ended.

Even as sales without coupons began, shoe manufacturers pressed with OPA officials a contention that rising production costs warrant a price increase.

Costs Going Up

Producers said costs are going up for two principal reasons:

1. Loss of large military contracts.

2. The end of rationing is expected to cut drastically the demand for types of shoes which did not require ration stamps.

Military and non-rationed shoes were profit makers, according to the manufacturers. They say they stand to lose money unless prices for other types are boosted.

To Match Demand

Price Administrator Chester Bowles said about 28,000,000 pairs of ration-type shoes will be made this month, as compared with 20,000,000 pairs in August. He predicted production would be up to 28 or 29 million pairs in November and December, and said this would match pre-war demand.

To discourage runs on stocks, some retailers were preparing appeals to the public to refrain from buying unless they actually are in need of shoes.

Bowles asked dealers to see that returning service men and women are given preference.

Three South Texans Face Charges Here

Three South Texas residents were named jointly in an automobile theft complaint prepared this morning by District Attorney Burton S. Burks.

The trio is accused of stealing a car here belonging to Florene Bingham of Dallas. They were charged as W. H. and Ordie Lee McClure and Marshall Parker.

The machine was taken on Sept. 30 from a parking place on Avenue H.

Sheriff Grady Harrist said the car and the three suspects were located Tuesday by the sheriff's department at Quitman, Tex.

The three will be returned to Lubbock probably late this week.

The complaint was filed in the court of Justice of Peace C. E. Lynn.

Fireman Saves Horse Stuck Between Trees

HOUSTON, Oct. 31. (UP)—When Fireman J. B. Clooney answered a call today he found it wasn't a fire at all—it was a horse stuck between two trees.

The owners admitted they'd called him because they just couldn't get the horse out.

Grabbing his ax, Clooney surveyed the horse from all angles. He decided it'd be murder to use the ax, however, as it might penetrate the animal instead of the tree.

So he climbed the tree, tied a rope to its branches and secured the other end to his truck.

Then he uprooted the tree while the horse eyed the whole affair without enthusiasm.

Dutch Face Colonial And Home Problems

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Holland, faced by a serious threat to her wealth in Indonesia, is caught between the devil and the deep blue sea in her efforts to rehabilitate an economy almost completely disrupted by war.

To the immediate problem of domestic existence has been added the probability that her long-range economy must be adjusted to a steady diminishing return from the rich colonies, and the possibility that some day she will lose them entirely.

What she can do to offset this is the problem. Already the suggestion has been made that Holland should have part of Germany to offset her war losses, especially the land despoiled by German flooding. Now there is talk of expanding this idea to give her a more self-contained economy.

Subject Treated Gingerly

The Dutch themselves have treated the subject gingerly. Their present border with Germany, for the most part, has stood since the 16th century. It was arbitrary then, but as time passed the peoples on either side became more and more distinct and the Dutch are wary of a "Sudetenland" which might plague them years from now, even though the example has been set by Poland in eastern Germany.

In considering a strip of Germany as replacement for flooded Polders, the discussion has centered principally around an area from 20 to 50 miles wide from Aachen to the sea at Wilhelmshaven.

This presumably would include some coal mines just north of Aachen, some textile and paper manufacturing centers west of the Rhine, but would skirt the northern edges of the Rhenish-Westphalian industrial concentrations in the Ruhr and along the Rhine-Ems canal, and would encompass principally agricultural lands.

Would Gain Industrial Area

A glance at the map, however, shows that by a slight extension of this previously discussed area, Holland would come into possession of a small but rich industrial area where lignite and coal mines, steel and chemical plants, await renovation.

But she would also come into possession of a great mass of ruins which have been German cities, and would have to displace hundreds of thousands, perhaps millions, of Germans whose counterparts, driven out of Silesia by the Poles, are producing a terrific headache for the occupying authorities in Germany. Either that or try to absorb them, a system which has proved fatal all over Europe. Also, there is a question whether Holland has the manpower to rebuild and operate any new important industrial area.

Of course there is the possibility that relaxation of the Dutch hold on the Indies may come so gradually, as in the case of Britain with some of her former colonies, that adjustments can be made as time goes along. But Holland, so badly off from the war, so much in the fix of Caesar when "everything had to be done at one time," can hardly hope for anything immediately except some guidance which will permit her to choose the lesser headaches.

Shoe Dealers Gloomy As Rationing Ends

DALLAS, Oct. 31. (U.P.) — The average citizsn would suppose that the happiest fellows in the world today would be—shoe dealers.

But shoe dealers' spirits have drooped as low as some of the heels they sell, believes Tom D. Collins, secretary-manager of the Southwestern Shoe Travelers association.

Commenting on the lifting of shoe rationing last midnight, he said definite shortages exist in both men's and women's shoes and that shoe dealers hoped that shoe rationing would be continued until enough shoes were stocked to meet demands.

He predicted that it would be six months before enough shoes were manufactured to meet demands.

Collins listed three reasons for the shoe shortage: Tanners are behind in leather production because the government had restricted most leathers to military and lend-lease purposes; labor shortage in shoe manufacturing plants; and an OPA price ceiling credited with removing the profit incentive of the manufacture of many shoe styles.

Among the thousands of new synthetic chemicals from patroleum is one that makes pineapples ripen faster.
