Democratic Runoff Election Slated This Saturday

In statewide elections, runoffs are being held for the offices of U.S. Representative District One, Railroad Commissioner, and judge to the Court of Criminal Appeals (Unexpired Term).

In the race for the office of U.S. Representative District

One, Sam B. Hall, Jr., an attorney in Marshall, faces Dr. Glen Jones, professor at Jacksonville college.

Early tabulations in the May 1 primary left doubt as to whether the runoff position would go to Jones or Welby Parish of Gilmer. However, final tabulation by the Texas Election Bureau gave Hall the lead with 27,460 votes in the district; Dr. Jones, second with 24,761 votes; and Parish 22,887.

A short time ago the untimely death of U.S. Representative Wright Patman, who had served District One voters since 1928, made it necessary to call a special election to fill the position until after the November General Election.

The ballot for the election, set for June 19, includes the names of Fred Hudson, Jr., Glen Jones, Sam B. Hall and a Republican opponent James Hogan, M.D. of Atlanta, who carried the district in the First Republican Primary with 3,576 votes to his opponents 638.

Veteran politician of 40 years, Jerry Sadler, will meet legislative-attorney Jon Newton in the bid for the office of Railroad Commissioner. Sadler lead the race during the First Democratic primary with 342,375 votes over Newton's 30,108.

Vying for the position as judge to the Court of Criminal Appeals (Unexpired Term) is W.T. Phillips, and Carl Dally. The first lap of the race was led by Phillips with 478,538, while Dally held 305,365 votes.

Facing each other in the Second "Runoff" Democratic Primary in the race for the office of State Representative District Nine are L.P. "Pete" Patterson, who held 7,849 votes in the May 1 election, and Brady Fisher with 7,588 votes in the previous election.

Grandmothers With Spunk Needed For Frontier Days

"We're looking for some grandmothers who enjoy a good, clean scrap," Mrs. Robert W. Wright, chairman of the Bogata Area Chamber of Commerce Frontier Queen contest, said Tuesday.

"The Frontier Day Queen in Bogata is going to be a grandmother who has a lot of support from her family and friends, and can turn in the highest number of advance ticket sales to the Bogata Rodeo to prove that support," Mrs. Wright added.

This is strictly a "fun" contest, Mrs. Wright said, with simple rules that involve no value judgements. The winner will be the grandmother with the largest number of advance tickets to the Bogata Rodeo sold in her behalf. The ticket sales aspect has been removed from the contest for Rodeo Queen, with the hope that as many or more advance sales will be generated by the contest to find the most popular grandmother in the Bogata area.

"It will be a definite advantage, however, if you have a large family to sell tickets for you, like the Belchers in Cuthand or the Pirtles in Johtown, or the Allens in Rugby," Mrs. Wright said.

Tickets for the Bogata Rodeo may be picked up for advance sale at Buckman Drug Store Inc., in Bogata, and you may enter the grandmother of your choice when you pick up your tickets to sell, or you may enter at the Bogata News office.

Mrs. Vera Grogan, the sole entry at this point, has indicated that some of the members of the spit and whittle club who roost in front of the News office may find the rent of their space has gone up from nothing to the price of a rodeo ticket.

The Frontier Day Queen will be honored at Frontier Day and in the Frontier Day parade on Saturday afternoon.

Midway Church To Be Torn Down

By Joyce Alexander
"The old church must come down" was the decision made during the business session when the Midway Cemetery Decoration was held recently.

The building was new when moved there in the late forties and should still be in fair condition, but the ravages of time, weather and vandals (mostly vandals) ran their course and left the old church without windows, a piano and only a few pews. Midway is five miles southwest of Talco on a county road in Franklin County.

A new pipe, tin and concrete tabernacle will replace the old church. Plans are to have the tabernacle ready when Decoration Day is held the third Saturday in May, 1977.

Each year children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren of those buried in the old cemetery gather to decorate the graves of loved ones and to see if the graves have been worked. Contributions are vital to the upkeep of the cemetery. For the most part it's a homecoming, where people come from far and near. You hear bits of conversation, "Well what have you been doing with yourself?" From the women it's, "My goodness doesn't she look good?" Grandmothers and aunts embrace the children, who are trying to remember who it is hugging them. Orbin Harper, retired minister, a former Midway pastor and native from Mesquite is the favorite 11:00 a.m. speaker. He has missed only a few times during the past 20 or 30 years.

No one seems to know just when the first decoration was held at Midway. As far back as the homecomers can remember there has been a decoration day at Midway. Time passes and things will change and surely they must. But not on the third Saturday in May.

Others attending were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Woods and Bradley, Judy Easley and Mary Lou Hall.

Queen Entries Needed

Plans are in the making for one of the biggest rodeos ever to be staged in Bogata, according to Bill Buckman, chairman of the Bogata Rodeo Association Queen Committee. The rodeo is set for June 22, 23, 24.

A big feature of the rodeo again this year will be the selection of a Rodeo Queen, who will be a young woman from this area who is 14 through 18 years of age. The queen contestants will compete on the basis of horsemanship, personality and appearance. No ticket sales will be required.

This year's queen, Cora Greger, will present the trophy to the 1977 queen. Those wanting to enter the competition are asked to complete the entry form in this week's paper and mail to Bill Buckman, Bogata Rodeo Association.

In the class, Miss Blizard will give individual instruction as the children play keyboard sets, designed to allow the instructor to hear through an earphone set. The instructor may listen or speak with individuals without disturbing other class members. Classes are limited to 12, as the laboratory contains 12 keyboard sets. Students will learn sight-reading, technique, duet and ensemble playing and ear-training in the course. The course will end August 16.

Miss Blizard, who studied piano with Miss Jennie Smith at PJC, is studying with Dr. John Harris at ETSU. She taught the Beginners Piano during the spring semester and plans to continue with an intermediate course this summer also.

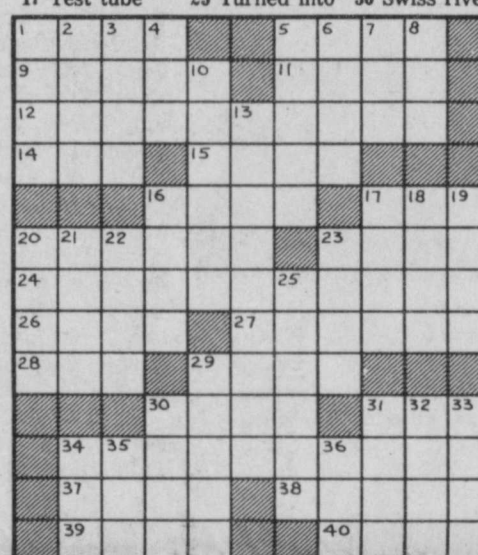

Persons interested in enrolling should mail a check to the PJC Continuing Education Office, Paris Junior College, or come by the office in the Administration Building.

TODAY'S ANSWER

JON NEWTON

Texas Railroad Commission

The Railroad Commission is one of the most powerful regulatory and conservation agencies in America. Two candidates are in the June 5th Democratic runoff election:

JERRY SADLER, 68, who entered politics in the 1930's, was defeated as Land Commissioner in 1970 after an official reprimand from the Texas House for refusal to cooperate in an investigation . . . bad absentee record in public office . . . investigated by a grand jury for using a state employee to run his private motel . . . sued for civil tax fraud by the IRS . . . in 1969 the Dallas Times Herald declared "Sadler has made Texas government a universal target of ridicule and derision," and in 1976 the San Angelo Standard echoed, "Under Sadler, the Railroad Commission just might become the laughing stock he once made of the General Land Office."

JON NEWTON, 34, three-term House member with solid record of public service . . . authored the law regulating strip mining . . . fought for a Public Utility Commission . . . serves on Interstate Oil Compact Commission, Mining Council of Texas, Governor's Energy Advisory Council, House Energy Resources Committee (vice chairman) . . . endorsed by major newspapers throughout Texas . . . described by the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal as "the resident expert on energy matters in the State Legislature" . . . in the first Democratic primary his Bee County neighbors gave him an 85% majority over his seven opponents.

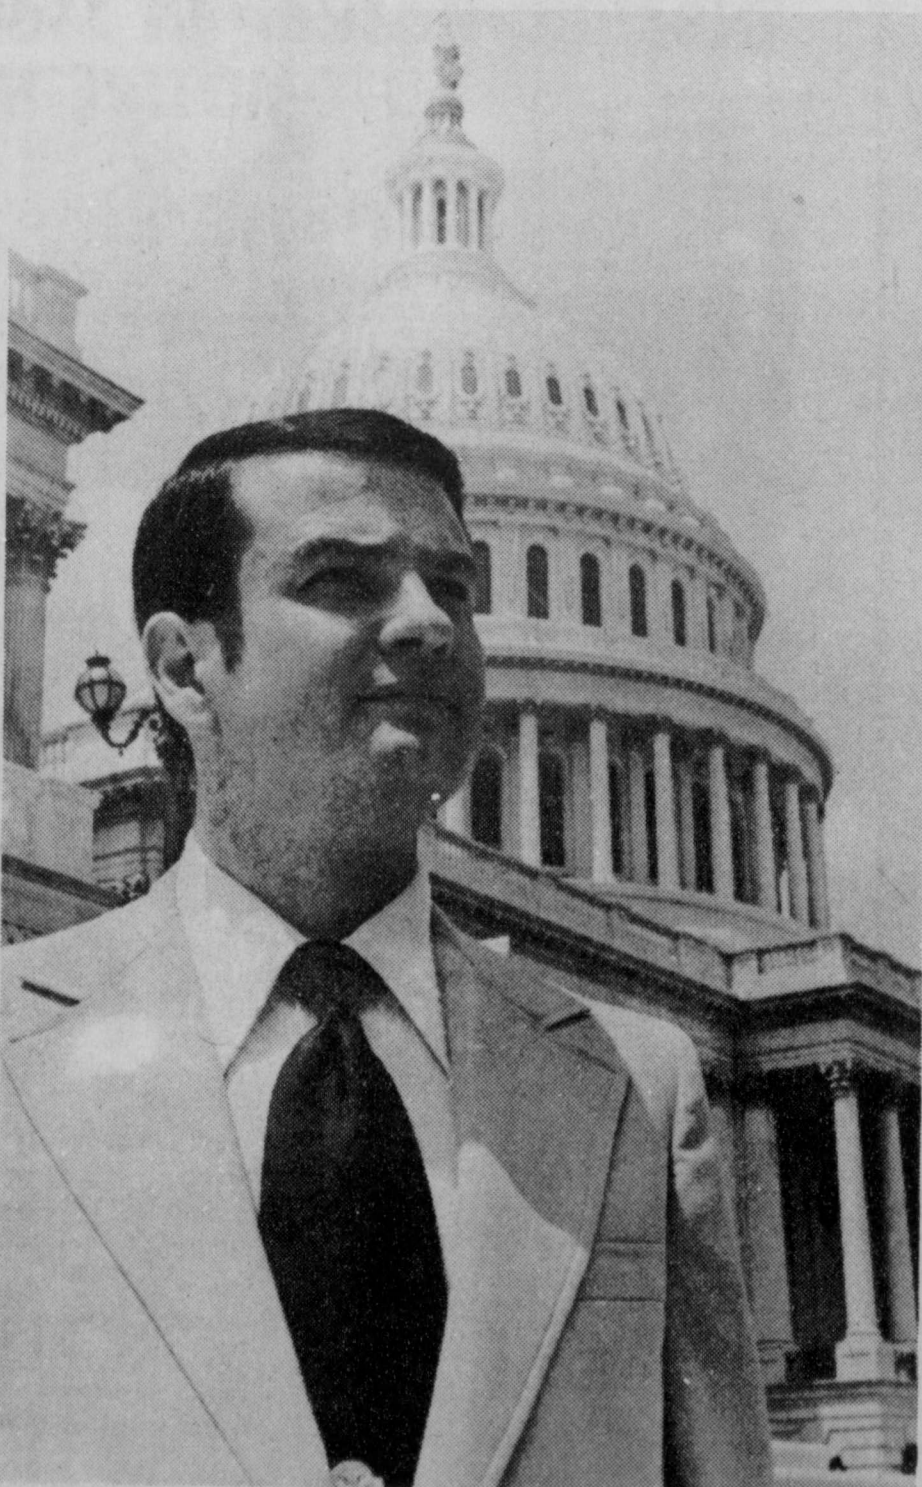

Texas' energy and utility rate problems can be solved only by vigorous, responsible leadership and fresh approaches.

Sam Hall proved to be first choice of the First District. Join us in supporting him June 5th.

Conner Patman,
Son of the late Congressman Wright Patman.
"Sam B. Hall, Jr. of Marshall is the man I shall support in the Democratic runoff election.
I don't agree with Mr. Hall on every issue. But overall I'm convinced that he'll be a good Congressman for this district—effective, fair, judicious, and compassionate. His opponent, Glen Jones, can't match Mr. Hall's accomplishments as a leader in this part of Texas. Mr. Hall is not only widely respected in his profession of law, but has also served effectively as a school board president and hospital board president—giving him a depth of experience in two highly important areas of public responsibility. Furthermore, Mr.
Hall has spoken out forthrightly on the issues which are crucial to our nation and its freedom. He has indicated his understanding of these issues and has not hesi-tated to express his viewpoint with clarity and candor. I urge his nomination in the June 5th primary and his election to Congress in November."

Abner V. McCall,
President, Baylor University.
"I've known Sam B. Hall, Jr. since he enrolled in the School of Law of Baylor University 30 years ago and was in my law classes. He's an intelligent, informed, active citizen with a proven record of public concern and service. He's been a credit to his profession, his church, his city and his state. He's a man of mature and responsible judgment, of sound and balanced political philosophy, and of unquestionable honor and integrity."

Dr. H. D. Bruce,
President Emeritus,
East Texas Baptist College.
"I think Sam Hall has the ability, personality and character to follow a great man in our Congress. He's a gentleman of the first order. I think he will do his best to represent not only his district but our country at a time when it needs great and honest men in its service. His character is above reproach. I think he'll serve with honor, strength and ability."

Kilgore News Herald.
"It seems to us that the First District would be fortunate indeed to have Sam Hall as its Congressman. He's a man of high integrity, outstanding ability and sound principles."

Marshall News Messenger.
"Only once in a very great while does a person come forth who is as fully qualified to serve as a U.S. Congressman as Sam B.
Hall, Jr. of Marshall... Hall's character is irreproachable. As one attorney, a frequent foe of Hall's in the courtroom, said, 'Sam Hall is so honest he could never be anyone's man but his own. No one nor any organization will ever control him.'"

Cass County Sun & Atlanta Times.
"Hall has shown considerable depth of understanding of the issues facing the country.
The stands he has taken have been accompanied with explanations of those issues and all the factors involved... He has displayed a sense of statesmanship as a candidate."

Athens Daily Review.
"(Hall) has demonstrated time and again his concern for his fellow man through the numerous, difficult jobs he has undertaken in service to his community and its people... Our district is fortunate that a man of his ability and wide range of interests is seeking this post."

Gladewater Mirror.
"Hall's open-minded common sense political acumen perhaps best reflects the thinking in the First District. No professional politician, he is obligated to no special interest group. He speaks forthrightly, frankly and with a talent for reducing complex issues to simple, straightforward language... In our considered opinion he is the best qualified to represent and restore this key district to its former place of influence on the state and national scene."

Panola Watchman.
"We believe Sam B. Hall, Jr. will be the best man to carry the cause of East Texas to the Washington scene. We believe he will be the best man to work for the good of his East Texas home and for the good of our great country."

Greenville Herald Banner.

"Hall advocates a free society with less government interference in the daily lives of citizens.
He believes the federal government should become more responsive to the views and ideals of the people... Sam Hall's voice in Congress would be good representation for the whole state, as well as for District 1."

Mount Pleasant Tribune.
"Hall is a more mature man than Jones, yet fully as vigorous ... When Hall is elected we shall have a mature, forceful Congressman."

Jefferson Jimplecute.
"Mr. Hall's character is beyond reproach and his honesty and integrity make him that special kind of person which will be an asset to the people he might represent."

Longview Journal.
"... We endorse Sam Hall, Jr. of Marshall as the man we would like most to see elected in the First Congressional District."

CARL DALLY

Judge of the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals

"Carl Dally has been a commissioner-in-aid to the court of criminal appeals for half a decade. He has argued before the U.S. Supreme Court and has had extensive experience in both the criminal and civil branches of the law. His opponent is a man with no judicial or appellate experience in criminal cases. We urge Texas Democrats eligible to vote in the June 5 runoffs to inform themselves of the qualifications of the candidates in this and all races. We urge them not to vote for a vaguely familiar name, but to vote for the best man. In the case of the runoff for the criminal appeals court, the best candidate is clearly Carl Dally."

AUSTIN AMERICAN-STATESMAN

The Fort Worth Star-Telegram calls Carl Dally "eminently qualified" and the Houston Chronicle says he is "uniquely suited" to serve on the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals. Dally is also endorsed by newspapers in Dallas, Lubbock, Corpus Christi, San Angelo, Tyler, Bryan, Beaumont, Port Arthur, Victoria and Wichita Falls.

Ask your lawyer, your district attorney, any judge, or informed friend about the candidates in this important race.
Then vote for the best man.

VOTE ON JUNE 5 FOR CARL DALLY

Paid for by Campaign to Elect Carl Dally, Carl Dally, Treasurer, 1021 Commodore Perry Building, Austin, Texas 78701

Dear Citizens:

On Saturday, June 5th, we the voters of District 9 must make an important decision—that is, who will speak for us and our interest in Austin in the State Legislature. We, in this District, do not have the power base of a metropolitan area; therefore, WE MUST have an exceptionally strong voice and worker if our needs are to be met and our interests represented in Austin.

May we recommend to you Pete Patterson, our friend. We are among his most ardent critics, yet his most loyal supporters. We know he is capable, qualified and concerned! Having lost his father at a very early age, Pete has had to work to help support himself. He knows what work is.
He knows what it is to support a family.

Living with his family on their farm and ranch west of Paris, Pete knows "first hand" the problems facing agriculture today. He has worked several years as an industrial machinist making him aware of the problems and concerns of industries and the people working for them. He has also served as president of the West Lamar School Board making him knowledgeable of the education process and its administrative problems.
Pete is presently serving as County Commissioner in Lamar County. He knows what inflation is doing to the purchasing power of local government, and is dedicated to help preserve these local governments that are closest to the people.

Pete submitted himself as a candidate for the State Legislature because he is concerned with the quality of government we the people are entitled receive. He is obligated to no special interest group but is obligated to you the people of this district.

Won't you go to the polls June 5th and vote for a man most qualified and most able to serve your needs in Austin. VOTE FOR PETE PATTERSON, JUNE 5TH.

Sincerely yours,
Friends of L. P. (Pete) Patterson
