Country Club Opens for Play Sept. 30

Wellington Country Club's new golf course and pro shop will open for play Saturday, September 30, club directors announced at the annual meeting Monday, Sept. 11.

The facilities will be open for members only until it has been determined how well the young fairway bermuda and bent grass on the greens stands up to play, the directors said.

Also at the annual meeting two new directors, Howard Holton and Weldon Cleveland, were elected to the board to replace Henry Wells and C.T. Hubbard. Other directors who were returned to the board are Louise Mabery, Lyna Hurst, Wayne Martin, Bill Long and

Skyrockets to Meet Strong Elk City Team Here Friday

The Skyrockets meet a new opponent Friday night, Sept. 22, the Elk City Elks, and again they will be at home in Powell Field. Game time is 8:00 p.m.

The Elks opened their season Friday night with a 3-0 victory over Oklahoma Class A state champion Watonga. This came on a field goal in the second overtime period, which is allowed in Oklahoma football.

Adding prestige to the Elk's victory was Watonga's roster of 23 seniors off of last year's state championship team.

This is the team, fresh from such a victory, that the Rockets face Friday night.

But Wellington also has a 35-0 victory over another Oklahoma team, Hollis to their credit. "We're looking for a real tough game," said head coach James Williams.

Elk City has a lot of size. They are about the same size we are in the backfield, but they are heavier in the line. They are also coming off an 8-2 season last year."

Elk City is a AA school, almost up to AAA size, said Williams.

"They play a real tough defensive game. They are strong, and for us to play with them, we're going to have to play a good game and cut down a lot of mistakes. It's going to be four quarters of hard-nose football.

"I feel our kids will be ready by Friday. In the two scrimmages and the Hollis game, they did a pretty good job."

Williams reminded that for the present season, Wellington dropped games with Quanah, Canadian and Tulia, but picked up Electra and Floydada. For the third open date, there was a choice of Spearman, Perryton or Elk City, and Wellington coaches elected to play the Oklahoma team.

"This year we have the toughest non-district schedule since I've been here," the head coach declared, reminding that Class AA Childress, Floydada and Elk City are all picked to win their districts, and Electra is a stronger team and just off a big win over

Quail School Will Be Accredited This Year

Quail School will remain accredited for the 1978-79 school year, the Texas State Board of Education ruled Saturday, September 9.

A group of taxpayers had petitioned the Board to override Commissioner of Education M.L. Brockette's decision to keep Quail on "accredited warned" status for this school year, and place the school on "non-accredited" status which would have cut off state funds.

But the board agreed with its Priorities Accountability and Accreditation Committee that the staff recommendation of accreditation should remain in effect this year.

The taxpayer group and representatives of the school district appeared before the committee Friday, Sept. 8, in Austin to present their arguments. Mary Ann Leve-ridge of East Bernard, Texas is chairman of the committee.

Walter Howard, director of the Texas Education Agency's division of school accreditation, told The Wellington Leader that he and other TEA staff members urged both sides to prevent personal animosity of adults involved from taking precedence over the best interest of the school's children.

Howard also said that TEA will be visiting the school during the school year to see if progress is being made in areas that the TEA had noted were deficient when they first put Quail on accredited warned status.

He said he did not know when TEA would make a recommendation on accreditation for the 1979-80 school year, but he said that he hoped it would be much earlier than this year's recommendation which was not made until August.

Littlefield attorney Jerome Kirby presented the taxpayer group's position and Quail school board president Donald Langley represented the school.

Attending from Collingsworth County were Langley, and board members Lonnie Needham, Dan Guthrie, and John Farris, and superintendent Wilford Arthur.

Attending for the taxpayer group were Dudley Phipps, Carl Wischkaemper, Roy Canada, Leon Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Bouchelle, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Allred and Wayne Cudd.

Woman Sought on Swindling Charge

A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Betty Winingham, 32, on a complaint of swindling, Sheriff John Rainey said Tuesday, Sept. 12.

He said that the woman, along with her husband, Sharlene Winingham, 34, and their 5 children had lived in a farm house a mile north and one-half west of Samnorwood for about two months.

The children were enrolled in Samnorwood School and were described by the sheriff as "about 8 years and up."

Sheriff Rainey said the woman is alleged to have borrowed $2,500 from City State Bank and gave as collateral 15 head of cattle which the sheriff said were non-existent.

The children were not in school Friday or Monday, and when officers checked the house where the family lived, they had moved. The sheriff said they also left with $98 in school books.

Mrs. Winingham is also wanted at Mendenhall, Simpson county, Miss., on charges of jumping bond and for theft of a radio, TV and weapons, according to Rainey. Wellington officers are checking to determine if any charges have been filed against Winingham in Mississippi or any other state.

The woman also bought a motorcycle from Jake's Cycle Shop, paying part down and promising to pay the remainder, Sheriff Rainey reported.

Board Reviews School's Five-Year Self Study Program Now in Effect

Wellington School Board members had their first look at the proposed self-study program of the entire system, in view of upgrading both the plant and the quality of the curriculum. It goes into effect this school year.

Some things called for are already being done.

Supt. E.W. Clement emphasized to the board that when an item is included in the self-study program, it must be carried out.

The board approved insurance covering the new elementary building in the amount of $400,000 at a cost of $4,962. This will be carried jointly by Wells and Wells and 1st Wellington Agency.

This is a three-year policy. Currently the school carries $117,000 coverage on the old elementary school building and $60,000 on the cafeteria. This is in addition to the new $400,000 policy needed to give total coverage.

The school also carries a $25,000 policy with Wells and Wells on the athletic office and dressing room, including contents. The premium is $77.00.

Supt. Clement told the board that on that day, Monday, an even 800 students were enrolled including head start students. The average attendance at the end of the 1977-78 school year was 789.

Permission was given the mothers of a Girl Scout troop to use one room of the west wing for meetings.

Members voted to sell a school bus which is not being used, and also to sell stoves that came out of the old elementary building.

Cafeteria help was put on an 8-hour day rather than 7 since breakfast is being served this year.

The board also agreed to have Dwane Scott build cabinets in several of the new elementary rooms at a cost of $55 per running foot. This was the cheapest offer he has received, Clement told the board.

Plans were made for several board members to go to Amarillo to look at furniture for several of the new offices, and Carroll Nunnelley will

Hospital Board to Study $150,000 Bond

Collingsworth General Hospital board will meet with bond attorney Bob Davis of Amarillo Thursday, Sept. 14, to discuss the possibility of floating a $150,000 bond to pay off improvements in the hospital's physical plant.

The bond has been suggested as a method of alleviating the hospital's current financial crisis. The hospital district has already spent about $45,000 on physical plant improvements required by federal Medicare regulations, and expects to have to spend approximately $50,000 more in the next year to replace equipment and meet Medicare requirements.

The board voted unanimously at a special meeting Monday, Sept. 11 to contact Davis and discuss bond options with him.

represent the school at the State School Board Association meeting in San Antonio later in the month.

The board hired Gwen Barber as a kindergarten aide, and Lucinda Cantu as Title 1 Aide. Miss Barber has 60 hours of college work.

In reply to a question by a board member, Clement said it costs $1,000 per student per year to educate a child in the Wellington School, and in reply to another question, he said it costs $3,000 each in the Quail district.

Several surprises were in store when the teachers made the self-study and followed it with recommendations.

"We found some kids who read below their own grade level," said Clement.

To remedy this, in the 1978-79 year, the school will implement individualized reading levels in grades two through five, and additional reading classes are scheduled at the 7th and 8th grade level.

The plan calls for completion of the Elementary School complex. This is almost realized as is air conditioning and heating in the auditorium.

Also nearly completed are

County Hub of the Panhandle Dove Hunting As Season Opens

Collingsworth was the dove hunting hub of the Panhandle during the first two days of the 1978 season, with out-of-county residents far outnumbering those living here.

Dennis Thomas, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department game warden, brought in two other wardens to help him check hunters in this county, while one warden was able to work Wheeler county and other near-by counties needed only one each, he said.

Of 80 hunters whom he checked during the first two days, only three lived here, according to Thomas. Others were from as far as Amarillo, Dallas and Tyler.

The daily bag limit is 10 birds with shooting hours 30 minutes before sunrise to sunset daily.

Thomas again reminded hunters that shotguns must be plugged to a three shell capacity, including both chamber and magazine.

He also reminded that hunters who will not be on their own land should check with the landowner before beginning to hunt on his premises.

The game warden issued five citations for violations during that period. Three for shooting from the road and two for using unplugged shotguns.

These were to appear before Mrs. Beatrice McKinney, justice of the peace.

Birds are plentiful, Thomas said. All hunters he talked with late in the day had or nearly had their bag. The doves are also fat and well matured.

Only a few of the birds appeared to be immature, and all of these were from the Rolla area. Thomas said he could not account for this.

The dove season in the north Zone, which includes all of Northwest Texas, is set with a split season, running from September 1 to October 21, 1978, and January 6 through 14, 1979.

new storage and painting in the cafeteria; repair of junior high and high school rest rooms. The school will be hiring a maintenance supervisor.

A fine arts show for all grades is planned.

Looking toward 1979-80, the faculty ferreted out student weakness in reading maps, graphs and charts at all levels. "Our kids are weak, we found," said Clement. Curriculum guides will be worked out. A remedial math program is already begun in grades 2 through 5.

Machines in the business office will be updated.

Next year also, remodeling of the small gymnasium is due, as well as repair of the west dressing rooms at the stadium, used by junior high teams.

Addition shelving is scheduled in the high school library, a spring talent show will be held, and at least one assembly is planned for each class. The third year of the proposed program calls for more teaching of maps, charts and graphs on all levels. Four elementary classrooms in the north wing will be remodeled. Periodicals received by the library will be bound for permanent use. Administrative offices, scheduled for remodeling in 1980-81, are already undergoing updating.

In the fourth year, 1981-82, a parking area for high school is planned, new cafeteria equipment is due. The junior high principal will move into a program that calls for minimum teaching duties.

Each year, a follow-up study will determine progress of each item listed in the plan.

This is all that is planned for the fifth year, 1982-83.

School Opening Makes Driver Caution Vital

Major C.W. Bell, Regional Commander of the Texas Department of Public Safety at Lubbock, said today, "There are hundreds of thousands of good reasons why Texas motorists should use extra caution while driving near schools this month.

"Many of our youngsters will be going to school for the first time and will not be aware of the many hazards existing on Texas' busy streets and highways.

"Precautionary measures, such as traffic signs and signals, safety zones and pedestrian crosswalks, are virtually useless if your children have not acquired good pedestrian safety habits."

Children's responsibilities to and from school include: observing all traffic signs and signals, walking against the flow of traffic when no sidewalk is present, crossing streets at designated crosswalks, and maintaining orderly conduct while enroute to and from school.

"As parents, we must be absolutely sure our children

Mrs. Sims Delegate To Library Meet

Mrs. B.M. Sims has been named as one of six delegates who will attend a State Conference on Libraries and Information Services this fall.

Prior to that, the delegates will attend town hall meetings which Governor Dolph Briscoe has called in every Texas community. Mrs. Sims attended the recent meeting sponsored here by Friends of the Library on August 31, to hear how Childress library supporters funded their new building.

Grassroots opinions are sought on how libraries can best provide the information services citizens want and need. Comments at local meetings will be listed and forwarded to the Austin meeting.

Other delegates representing the Panhandle are

President Max Sherman, WTSU, Canyon; the Reverend Jacinto Alderete, Amarillo; Alice Green, Amarillo; Brick Autry, Dimmitt and Don Williams, Dalhart.

The state conference planning group has invited Wales Madden, Jr., Amarillo, to represent the Texas Panhandle as a special guest of honor.

The state meeting sponsored by the development division of the Texas State Library, will be held in Austin November 16 through 18.

Two hundred delegates will come from over Texas, chosen from among 1100 nominees, including both lay persons and those with technical skills.

This will be followed in 1979 by the national conference of Library Delegates, who will be selected.

Probation Program To Seek CJC Funds

County Commissioners approved a resolution Monday, Sept. 11, by which the commissioners court will participate in making an application to the Criminal Justice Department of the Governor's office for funds to operate the Juvenile Probation program during the coming year.

It was brought out in the resolution that no funds are provided locally for either the adult or juvenile probation program, which serves the 100th judicial district. The adult probation is financially self sustaining, however, the juvenile program is not.

Bob Watson, 100th judicial district juvenile probation officer made the presentation to the court.

The commissioners also agreed to sell a lot in the southeast part of town to Robert Owens.

Also, a door was approved for the Welfare Department office.

Election judges were re-appointed to serve in the November 7 general election.

Otis Emmert, and Tom Cunningham represented the Collingsworth County Hospital Board to update the commissioners on the hospital's financial situation.

O.V. Johnson, resident highway engineer, explained the work which would be necessary and the amount of dirt that would have to be moved on a road to the new country club.

Traffic Flow Changed on FM

The direction of the flow of traffic has been changed at the intersection of FM Highway 1056 and FM 1547, three miles south of Quail, according to O.V. Johnson.

The State Department of Highways and Public Transportation has redesigned this intersection to make it more safe for the traveling public.

"Traffic traveling south from Quail, turning east to Wellington, should make a square turn and not follow the curve as in the past, as it is now one-way going toward Quail," said Johnson.

Complaints have been received by the Department of near accidents at each end of the curve because of traffic having to cross, under certain conditions. The new signing allows traffic to merge in every instance, he continued.

A Fire is Where You Locate It

Wellington's Volunteer Firemen take care of it wherever they find it. Last week they answered a call for a trucker whose brakes were on fire on the highway between Canyon and Amarillo.

Several volunteers were returning from classes at Canyon Fire Control School when they heard the radio call for help and determined they were about one mile from the trucker.

The classes were held September 6 and 7 in Canyon. Classes consist of seven projects in the field plus classroom lectures. Projects include pit fires, ladder training, electrical fires, house fires, butane fires and a breathing apparatus review. The annual school is under the direction of Texas A&M Extension Service.

Three Wellington volunteers were instructors in parts of the school: Jim Sikes, Danny Gray and Buster Hughes.

Attending from Wellington were Darrell Colson, Robert Norris, Elmer Green, Jeff Langford, Doc Turner, Jim Larned, Eddie Davis and Emmet Skelton.

Michael Returns to Marine Duty in Calif.

Lance Cpl. Charles D. Michael, Jr., U.S. Marine Corps, has returned to duty in San Diego, Ca., after a 30 day leave here. He had served in Japan one year when he arrived to visit his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Charles D. Michael and Kathy, and his grand mother, Mrs. J.F. Michael.

"I loved it," he declared, and besides visiting in several parts of Japan, he went to South Korea, the Republic of the Philippines and Okinawa.

A sharp observer, Michael noted that the value of the American dollar was 279 yen when he arrived in Japan, but it had dropped to 183 a year later. His own major purchases included a stereo set, camera, watch and calculator.

He had the unique experience of teaching English to three classes of Japanese nationals. With those who spoke no English, Michael worked in a team with a Japanese teacher. First of these was in a classroom situation, then he was invited to teach a high school class and still later was an instructor at a Protestant Church class.

Michael was stationed at Iwakuni, 529 miles south of Tokyo, near Hiroshima. He visited several times in that city where the first atomic bomb was dropped. He visited it several times, especially to see the Peace Park, where the bomb hit.

"I found the people don't like the Marines in Hiroshima but on the other side of the island, they invited us into their homes. We took off our shoes on entering and sat on the floor," he explained.

Michael visited Seoul and Inchon, Korea, where the Marines landed during the Korean War under General MacArthur.

"Most of the people seem satisfied with the way they are living, but to me and you, it's unbelievable," the young Marine said.

Okinawa, about 50 miles from Japan, was owned by Japan prior to World War II. It was then administered by the United States until three years ago, when it was returned to the Japanese.

Most of the people, Michael found, are of Chinese descent. The island is covered by military bases, and the U.S. still has an Air Force, Army and several Marine Corps bases. Language is not a barrier, as most of the Okinawans speak enough english to get by.

Yet, Michael believes the people of that island resent America being on Okinawa at all.

At his new assignment, Michael will be an administrative clerk at Marine Corps headquarters.

And finally, thanks to the large number of spectators who made it worthwhile to put on the fair.

Improvements Made At County Museum

An addition to Collingsworth County Historical Museum is the new sliding glass doors installed over open shelves, Mrs. Clyde Drake, director, has announced.

Locks were installed on doors in the bottom section of the cases.

The museum furnished the material and Lynn Carter did the work without cost to the museum.

One of the popular spots in Bura Handley Community Center during the fair was the museum's booth. Available at that time were large prints of the original drawing of the Collingsworth County court house, "Court Day," by the late Paule Laune.

Popular also were scrapbooks continuing all of the pioneer pictures which are a weekly feature in The Wellington Leader. Mrs. Drake said that plans are to compile the stories around these at a later date.

Six members of the 1954 Study Club, who are in charge of docent tours throughout the year, were at the booth: Mrs. Cal Hurst, Mrs. Leon Hartman, Mrs. Lynn Wright, Mrs. Bill Hatch, Mrs. Jerry Nix, Mrs. Johnny Nash, Mrs. Wilbur Depauw, a board member, and Mrs. R.R. Mrs. Pat Shields Observes 90th Birthday on September 9

A Wellington woman who was born in Dodge City, Kansas, while it was still in its hey day and who moved to Oklahoma City while it was still a tent town, celebrated her 90th birthday Saturday, Sept. 9.

Mrs. Pat Shields had all of her seven children, and all but two of her 14 grandchildren with her for the celebration, which was held at the home of her youngest daughter, Mrs. Yvonne Brewer.

Saturday evening, the family and a few friends again gathered for a back-yard party in Mrs. Brewer's home.

Hosting the birthday party were her children and grandchildren, Mrs. Margaret Bearden, Mrs. Louie (Marcella) Helbert of Pampa, Joe Shields of Amarillo, Earl Shields of Stinnet, Mrs. Marlin (Cecilia) Craven and Mrs. T.J. (Mariana) Walter of Amarillo, and Mrs. Brewer.

Guests were served from a table covered with a white lace cloth and appointed in crystal. The birthday cake was the centerpiece.

Mrs. Brewer poured and Mrs. Craven served the cake. The former Theresa Eliza-

MRS. SHIELDS

Marx, she was born Sept. 10, 1888, in Dodge City, the daughter of Joseph Jerry and Catherine Hochderfer Marx. She was 10 months old when the family traveled by covered wagon to Yukon, Oklahoma, just outside Oklahoma City, arriving about the time of the famous Oklahoma Run. This was the biggest land run in the history of the U.S.

Her father filed on land and her mother worked as a seamstress. By the time she was in her mid-teens, both parents were dead. A great lover of music through her life, she taught piano as a young woman.

She was married to Pat Shields May 15, 1907, in Yukon. They came to Wellington in 1910, and Mr. Shields was associated in the Shields Grain and Coal business for some years.

Mrs. Shields is a member of Our Mother of Mercy Catholic Church, and throughout her life here she has devoted her life to it and to her family. For nearly 20 years after the family moved here, mass was said in the homes of the members by priests who came from near-by towns. She was one of those who worked diligently to secure the present church building.

She has belonged to the altar society throughout its existence here.

Mr. Shields died a number of years ago.

For many years, Mrs. Shields' hobby has been crocheting, and she still fills her time in this way. She remains alert, active and youthful in her thinking.

Relatives attending the birthday celebration were: Mrs. Margaret Bearden, Wellington; Mrs. Yvonne Brewer, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Brewer, Elizabeth Brewer of Wellington, George Brewer of Canyon and Mr. and Mrs. Doug Chauveaux, Mark and Amy of Hewitt;

Mr. and Mrs. Louie Helbert of Pampa, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Frost, Craig and Cindy of Amarillo.

Craven, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Craven, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Craven, David and Steven, all of Amarillo and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Polakowski and Renee of Borger;

Mr. and Mrs. T.J. Walters and Theresa and Mr. and Mrs. L.V. Perkins of Amarillo.

Unable to attend but making telephone calls were Mrs. Mary Margaret Carter, Kristi and Dan of Santa Cruz, California, and Tommy Walters of Bryan.

A Few Welcome Backs

News events of the week just past indicate the need for a few well-intentioned welcomes. So:

To Leif Erickson, a big "welcome back" to the ranks of man-kind after suspension in ungendered limbo for a year. Only a year ago Pres. Jimmy Carter proclaimed the Viking explorer a "courageous Norseperson" in an order setting aside another Leif Erickson Day. This year, though, the president cleared up the sex of the alleged real discoverer of America when he said "we honor such men long after the memories of their adventures have been dimmed by time."

To those who make fashion fashionable in this country, a giant "welcome back" to the sweater girl who, according to the Dallas Morning News, is "playing the new knits long and loose or short and seductive." Fall fashions will feature sweaters, the News reports, and the sweaters will feature the girls.

To the leaders of a half-billion separate but equal Chinese, a tentative "welcome back" to a smidgen of sanity in connection with the decision announced last week to gingerly play down Mao Tsetung's little red book of quotations. China's leading newspaper, according to a report, says real students of Mao's thought now must study his whole philosophy, not scattered quips, a surprising suggestion considering that study of his whole philosophy is more likely to lead to disenchantment than nirvana.

The High Cost of Bad Roads

There's an old saying among transportation officials that you pay for good roads whether you have them or not — but you pay more if you don't have them. The truth of this old saw is now coming home to roost.

Generations of Americans have willingly paid considerably higher taxes on gasoline, tires, oil and auto parts than on other consumer products for one reason: they have had the best road system in the world at their behest, and those taxes pay for it. A demand-responsive system in the truest sense, our auto-highway system takes you where you want to go, when you want to go, fairly comfortably and in a reasonable time. Americans know this and have been willing to pay for it.

The assertion that road use taxes are high is not rhetoric. In most states, gasoline taxes — the chief source of highway funds — amount to 20 to 30 percent of the cost of the product. This tax has no regard for ability to pay. If you use the roads, you pay the taxes. Just try a 25 percent sales tax on food, clothing or any other product and see how popular it is.

But whether or not we are getting the roads we pay for has recently become a question. Bad roads of all kinds add more than $90 a year to the typical motorist's car costs, the Protect America's Roads (PAR) information program estimates. This year car repair bills caused by potholes alone are expected to exceed $250 million in tire, brake and steering and suspension damage, plus approximately $626 million for more than one billion gallons of wasted fuel from stop-and-start driving.

The cost of bad roads goes beyond these figures. The cost of food and other products increases as roads wear out. Our nation's farmer's complain that poor condition of rural roads are shooting up the cost of food. About 10 percent of the total cost represents transportation expense.

The same holds true in getting energy products to the public. One study showed that Kentucky would have great difficulty doubling its coal production to meet national energy needs unless an estimated 4,228 miles of coal-haul roads were upgraded. In New Mexico the story was the same for those prospecting, drilling, producing and processing petroleum products. Again, the cost of bad roads are passed on.

It costs far more to rebuild a road than it does to maintain one properly. With continued traffic growth, slowdowns in repair work, and the ravages of bad weather, our roads are wearing out faster than they are being rebuilt.

Can we afford bad roads? No. The cost...in high automobile repair bills, in higher petroleum bills and wasted energy, and in traffic accidents. The cost of bad roads literally is a killer. Protect America's roads.

Letters from the People

Dear Editor:

I oppose the Quail Rights Amendment because:

1. Homosexuality could not legally be denied any person or any rights pertaining to those persons.

2. Women will be treated, by law, exactly as men, in every way.

3. Its (ERA) intentions are Socialistic (Communist) and Humanistic in nature, undermining the home and the laws of God.

These facts are documented.

The ERA comes before the Senate this week. Write Lloyd Bentsen and John Tower, c/c Senate Office Building Washington, D.C. Ask them to:

1. Vote against the time extension or

2. Include the Fair-Play Rescission Clause for states which have already ratified, and

3. Respect the 2/3 majority rule.

Thank you,

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Taxable wealth of Texas has increased from $232 billion to $464 billion since 1975, according to a new report of the School Tax Assessment Practices Board.

The figure (unlike the 1975 compilation of the Governor's Office of Educational Resources) includes intangible property like bank accounts, stocks and bonds which are seldom taxed.

About a third of the total is made up of intangibles, two-thirds of real property, School Tax Assessment Practices Board Executive Director Walt Parker estimated.

School districts get state aid on the basis of their taxable wealth. In effect, poor districts get more aid from the state, and rich districts get less.

The STAPB report calculates 82 per cent of intangible property is located in 52 major counties. Houston has $44 billion or 28 per cent of the total. Six Standard Metropolitan Statistical Areas have 62 per cent of the intangible wealth.

Under a 1977 act, the legislature directed Texas Education Agency to use STAPB figures in distributing state aid to school districts.

Parker said he expects a third of the more than 1,000 school districts to appeal board values. If the figures stand, many large school districts would lose a substantial amount of state aid.

The state now pays about 85 per cent of school operating costs. A constitutional amendment to be voted on in November would allow the legislature to remove intangible property from the tax base.

Deadline Passed

City governments which will repeal the one per cent city sales tax on residential gas and electric bills October 1 were given until early this week to notify the state comptroller.

Comptroller Bob Bullock said it is absolutely essential his office be provided the information immediately.

October 1 is the earliest date for repeal of the local levy under a new law passed in special session last month.

Cities which repeal the tax after that date must wait a full calendar quarter.

The four per cent state tax on residential utility bills was repealed automatically October 1. The local levy also will be repealed October 1, 1979, unless city governments vote to continue it. Cities whose governing bodies wish to can, by majority vote of their councils, repeal the local tax effective October 1, 1978, when the state tax break begins.

Bullock said 39 cities had informed his office by September 1 they intend to repeal the city tax, while 45 others said they will keep it.

Bids Taken

The State Department of Highways and Public Transportation accepted bids this week on 55 highway construction contracts.

Work to be undertaken through the regular monthly letting totals approximately $55 million.

About $15 million of the total goes for construction of Interstate Highway 27 in Lubbock from 0.2 mile south of Loop 289 to 1.3 mile north of the Monroe over-

Hill Sues

Hill went to court last week to force the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission to set new interstate natural gas prices.

FERC hasn't fixed prices for two years.

Hill said he lost patience, because the commission's postponement means out-of-state consumers will keep getting Texas gas for less than Texans pay. He accused the federal agency of dragging its feet, out of fear evidence would require higher rates and embarrass the Carter administration in dealing with Congress.

Texas, meanwhile, according to Hill, is losing severance tax revenues due to the delays, since higher interstate prices would generate more tax revenue on the gas. The attorney general asks Federal District Judge Jack Roberts to enjoin the commission from failing to set rates speedily and to order it to fix a framework for the proceeding.

bonds would be payable solely from the revenue from the sale or lease of these facilities. The building or acquisition of such facilities must be determined by the local government to be necessary to develop employment opportunities.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to provide that the legislature may permit political subdivisions to issue revenue bonds to develop employment opportunities for its citizens."

NUMBER THREE (S.J.R. 44)

S.J.R. 44 proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution which would allow the legislature to authorize cities and towns to issue tax increment bonds to finance the redevelopment of blighted areas. The bonds are to be paid solely from revenue from municipal tax increments. Payment cannot be made from the revenue of municipal taxes, utilities, or other services.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to give the legislature the power to authorize cities and towns to issue bonds to finance the redevelopment of blighted areas and prohibiting any city or town from granting its money or lending its credit for such purposes."

NUMBER FOUR (S.J.R. 53)

S.J.R. 53 proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution to allow the legislature to exempt from taxation solar or wind-powered energy devices.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to exempt from taxation solar and wind-powered energy devices."

NUMBER FIVE (H.J.R. 37)

H.J.R. 37 proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution to grant exclusive jurisdiction to justices of the peace in civil cases where the amount in controversy does not exceed $200, except where the legislature gives exclusive jurisdiction to another court.

The amendment grants justices of the peace concurrent jurisdiction with county courts where the amount in controversy is between $200 and $500, except where the legislature gives the county court exclusive jurisdiction.

The amendment also grants justices of the peace concurrent jurisdiction with both county and district courts where the amount in controversy is between $500 and $1,000, except where the legislature gives the county or district court exclusive jurisdiction.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to extend the jurisdiction of justices of the peace in civil cases."

NUMBER SIX (S.J.R. 45)

S.J.R. 45 proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution to allow the legislature to expand the number of judges on any court of civil appeals. Presently courts of civil appeals are limited to a chief justice and two associate justices. The amendment also would allow the courts to sit in sections, with the concurrence of a majority of the judges sitting in the section necessary to decide a case.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment permitting the legislature to increase the number of justices on a court of civil appeals, permitting a court of civil appeals to sit in sections, and requiring a concurrence of a majority of justices to decide a case."

NUMBER SEVEN (S.J.R. 48)

S.J.R. 48 proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution eliminating the State Building Commission and the State Building Fund. The authority of the State Building Commission has been transferred by law to the State Board of Control.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to repeal the constitutional authority for the State Building Commission and the State Building Fund."

NUMBER EIGHT (H.J.R. 42)

H.J.R. 42 proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution allowing certain political subdivisions or districts in the state that can presently issue bonds or otherwise lend its credit to engage in fire-fighting activities and to issue bonds or otherwise lend its credit to support such activities.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendments authorizing certain districts to engage in fire-fighting activities and to issue bonds or otherwise lend their credit for fire-fighting purposes."

PUBLIC NOTICE SUMMARY OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS GENERAL ELECTION NOV. 7, 1978

"The Tax Relief Amendment" (H.J.R. 1)

H.J.R. 1 proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution allowing the legislature to exempt intangible personal property, requiring the legislature to exempt certain household goods and personal effects, and allowing the legislature to exempt all or part of the personal property homestead from state and local property taxation.

The amendment requires the legislature to provide for the taxation of farm and ranch land on the basis of its productive capacity instead of its market value and allows the legislature to provide for the taxation of timber land on its productive capacity.

The amendment permits local governments to extend the present exemption of not less than $3,000 of the residence homestead of persons 65 and older to include certain disabled persons.

The amendment grants an exemption from public school property taxes of $5,000 of the market value of the residence homestead. It authorizes the legislature to grant an additional exemption from public school property taxes of an amount not to exceed $10,000 of the market value of the residence homesteads of persons 65 years of age or older and certain disabled persons. If a person 65 years of age or older qualifies for this exemption, the total amount of public school taxes imposed on that person's homestead may not be increased.

The amendment prevents local governments from increasing property taxes unless the governing body provides public notice and conducts a public hearing. The amendment requires the legislature to provide by law for each property owner to receive notice of the revaluation of his property and the amount taxes will be increased.

The amendment limits appropriations from state tax revenue to an amount not to exceed Texas' estimated economic growth rate, with the legislature authorized to make exceptions for emergencies.

The amendment prohibits the statewide appraisal of real property for property tax purposes. Enforcement of uniform standards and procedures for appraisal of property for property tax purposes is required to originate in the taxing authority where the proposed tax is imposed.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment providing for tax relief for residential homesteads, elderly persons, disabled persons, and agricultural land; for personal property exemptions; for truth in taxation procedures, including citizen involvement; for a redefinition of the tax base; for limitations on state spending; and for property tax administration."

NUMBER ONE (S.J.R. 50)

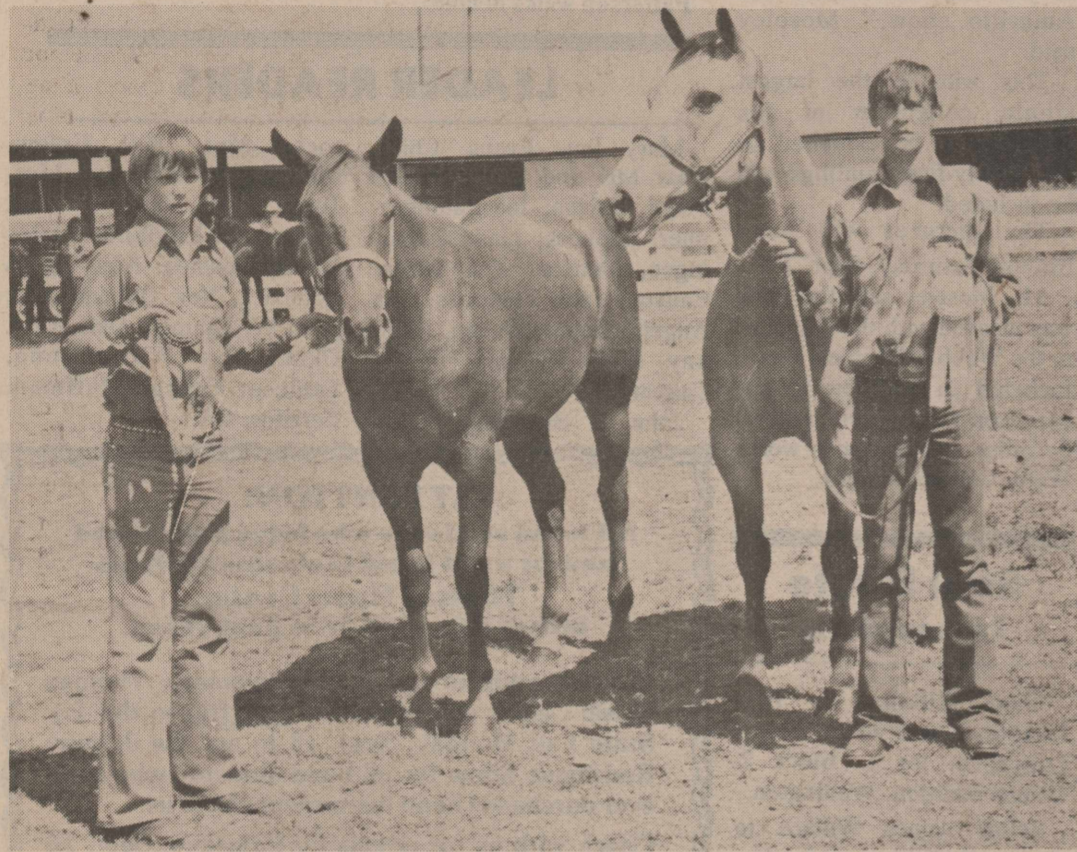

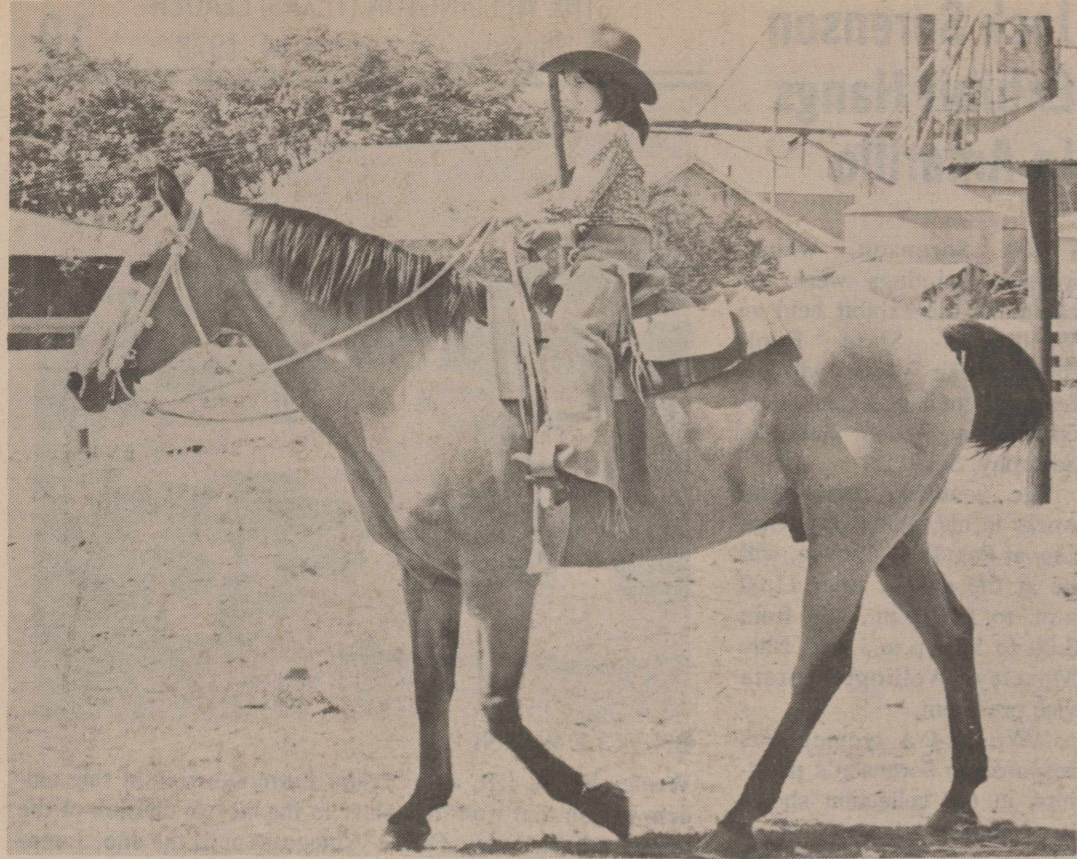

S.J.R. 50 proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution to delete an archaic reference to the "Deaf and Dumb Asylum." The amendment would allow the State of Texas to purchase products and services done by handicapped individuals in nonprofit rehabilitation facilities without complying with bid requirements applicable to other state contracts. The amendment also would eliminate the formality of the approval of certain state contracts by the Governor, the Secretary of State and the Comptroller of Public Accounts.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment deleting the archaic reference to the 'Deaf and Dumb Asylum,' allowing certain products and services of handicapped individuals to be used by agencies and departments of state government, requiring the procurement of other products and services required in the operation of state government to be made under bids awarded to the lowest responsible bidder, making all such procurement processes subject to laws enacted by the legislature, and eliminating the requirement that the Governor, the Secretary of State, and the Comptroller of Public Accounts of Texas be personally involved with such transactions."

NUMBER TWO (S.J.R. 55)

S.J.R. 55 proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution to permit local governments to issue bonds for the reconstruction or acquisition of facilities (land, equipment and improvements) designed to develop employment opportunities. These

Outstanding Quality Found In Home Textiles Division

The growing interest of county women in hand made household linens and other items was in evidence with the larger number of entries in the Collingsworth County Fair.

Mrs. David Caison received the grand champion's award, and tying for the reserve champion were Mrs. Kirby Campbell and Mrs. Otis Emmert of Quail.

To be noted this year was the high quality of the entries and the larger than usual number of young women who brought entries. Much of their work was oriented toward children's items and their work was of higher quality and as original in design as that found in speciality stores.

These winners were announced by the division chairman, Mrs. Bill Beall.

Proclamation

The Constitution of the United States of America was adopted September 17, 1787, ratified June 21, 1788, in effect March 4, 1789.

On January 5, 1956, Senator William F. Knowland introduced the following Senate Joint Resolution 105:

"Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress Assembled, That the President of the United States is authorized and requested to designate the period beginning September 17 and ending September 23 of each year as Constitution Week, and to issue annually a proclamation inviting the people of the United States to observe such week in schools, churches and other suitable places with appropriate ceremonies and activities."

This resolution was adopted July 23, 1956, and signed into law (Public Law No. 915), August 2, 1956.

Morris Heads St. Jude's Hospital Drive

Lynn Morris has been named to head the 1978 door-to-door march for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, October 15 to 28 in Wellington.

William J. Kirwen, St. Jude's Development Director, made the announcement and said other key positions for the march will soon be filled.

St. Jude Children's Research Hospital is the only research center dedicated exclusively to the study and conquest of catastrophic diseases of children. Its work, particularly in leukemia and other childhood cancers, has been internationally acclaimed and cited as a leading example for basic and clinical research.

Pioneer Park Vandals Sought

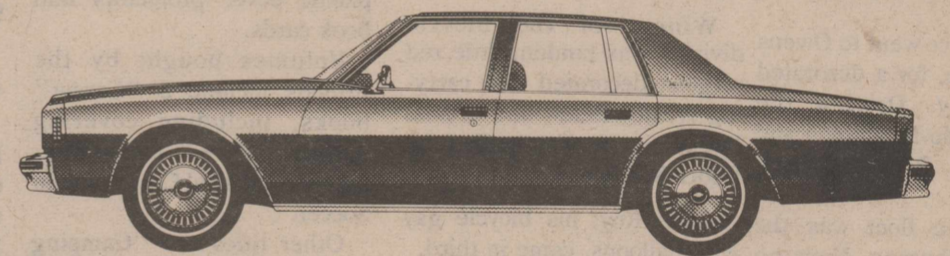

Vandalism of Pioneer Park occurred late last week, when lights in the rest rooms were broken and walls were decorated with graffiti, according to County Judge Zook Thomas and the sheriff's department.

"This is ridiculous. We fixed it (the park) up for everyone to use. I just don't understand it," Judge Thomas said.

He indicated the commissioners court will discuss the matter further.

"No one has ever been charged for the benefits provided by St. Jude Hospital," Kirwen said. "And that includes the extremely expensive total medical care provided to children enrolled in its research studies."

Skyrockets Take 35-0 Victory Over Hollis in Season Opener Here Fri.

The Wellington Skyrockets made it look easy Friday, Sept. 8, as they rolled over an outgunned Hollis Tiger team 35-0 in the season opener on Powell Field.

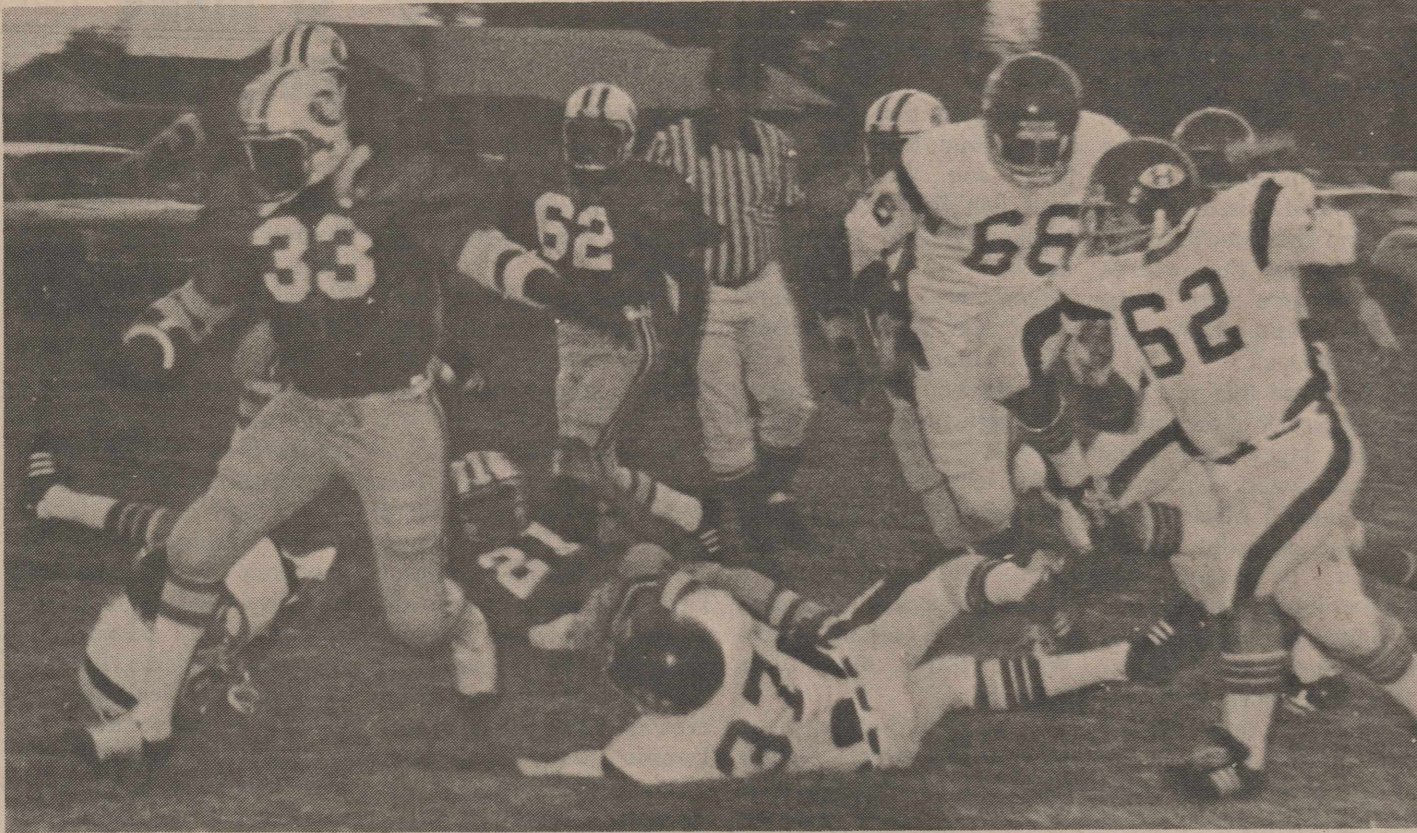

With only a minute and a half gone in the game, Kevin Hall hauled in a Carl Taylor pass from the Hollis 44, eluded one defender and took the ball in for the first Skyrocket score. Quarterback Taylor completed a pass to David Baumgardner for two extra points, and the Rockets were on their way with an 8-0 lead.

The Rockets recovered the following kickoff and on the first play from scrimmage on the Hollis 32, linemen opened a gaping hole for fullback Ricky Jones who took the ball in for the TD. Taylor's kick was good for an extra point to make the score 15-0.

Charles McIntosh keyed a Wellington defensive effort with a stop 6 yards behind scrimmage that forced Hollis to punt. The Rockets moved the ball from their own 24 to the Hollis 34 before Tiger Brad Cunningham intercepted a Carl Taylor pass on the Hollis one-yard line.

Joe Thomas, Richard Garcia and McIntosh ripped through the Hollis offensive line to force another punt without a first down.

In the next series, two Ricky Jones efforts and a Taylor pass to Baumgardner brought the Rockets to the Hollis 25 where Taylor kept over right end down the 3 yard line. Taylor kept the ball for the touchdown and passed to Jon Sessions for two extra points to make the score 23-0.

On Hollis' next possession Chris Watts, Alvin Pennon and Kevin Hall caught the Tiger ball carrier behind scrimmage on three successive tries to force yet another Hollis punt before they could make a first down.

Brad Cunningham intercepted another Taylor pass to end the Rockets' next possession, but Skyrocket Erminio Nevarez returned the favor by recovering a Hollis fumble on the Rocket 39.

Taylor kept the ball once, and lofted a pass to Ricky Jones to bring the ball to the Hollis 33. From there Taylor threw to Baumgardner on the 2 yard line and with 28 seconds remaining in the first half Jones followed left side blocking in to make the score 29-0. Taylor's kick failed.

On Hollis' first play after kickoff, Kevin Hall recovered a fumble to set the Rockets up on their own 42. Tim Anderson grabbed a pass and dashed down the sideline to the 10 yard line as the clock ran out on the first half.

The Rockets moved easily on the ground in their first possession after kickoff with a drive keyed by James Thomas'

25 yard run to the 8. From there Jones scored, and Taylor's extra point kick failed to complete the evening's scoring at 35-0.

It wasn't until the clock showed 5:10 in the third quarter that Stacy Urban was called on to punt for the first time in the game.

In the fourth quarter, Kevin Hall intercepted a Hollis pass and took the ball in for a score, but the play was called back on a personal foul. Later Robert Chambers ran 75 yards from scrimmage to score, but that too was called back on a penalty.

Kevin Hall, Marty Warrick, Alvin Pennon and Harold McKinney each dropped Hollis carriers for losses in the closing stanza. And Warrick, Urban, and Anderson in the second unit backfield displayed enough razzle-dazzle to leave the Tigers wondering how much more the Rockets could throw at them.

Hollis' closest effort at scoring came in the closing moments, when they stalled on the Rocket 3 yard line. On fourth down from the 3, Hollis end Paul Almaguez caught a pass from quarterback Todd Taylor, but he had already stepped out of bounds, and the ball went over to give the Rockets the shutout.

Jack Sorenson Exhibit Hangs In Amarillo

Jack Sorenson, whose western paintings were included in the exhibit held at Wellington State Bank through Fair Week, will be featured in a one-man show opening at Webb Galleries Saturday, Sept. 16.

The youthful artist, who works in his family's Six Gun City at Palo Duro Canyon, will be at the gallery from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., and from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m., said Billy Moseley, Wellington State vice president.

"We had a tremendous response to Sorenson's paintings in the collection shown here, and we believe a number of you will like to see his Amarillo show," Moseley said.

This will be the largest single collection of his paintings to be exhibited so far. Thirty-five paintings will be included.

The pictures will hang through Saturday, Sept. 23.

Mr. Moseley said the bank was pleased with the response to the Webb exhibit last week. Included in addition to the Sorenson paintings were several by other artists whose works Webb Gallery handles.

Gifts Boost Ex-Students Memorial Fund

The Wellington High School class of 1947 has honored the memory of one of its members, Norma Joyce Brock Bonneau, by joining the class of 1948 in the memorial piano fund.

Those attending the 1948 class reunion set up the fund to honor the three deceased members. At the same time, they invited other classes and individuals in joining them to make memorial donations to the fund.

When enough money has been acquired, it will be used to buy a piano for the high school.

Mrs. Bura Handley, the daughter of Mrs. Bonneau, was living in Carrollton at the time of her death several years ago from a heart attack.

Another sizable donation in memory of all those deceased from the class of 1948 was made recently, according to Mrs. B.M. Sims.

"Memorial donations are acceptable and encouraged from any class or individual. They may be given to honor one person, or all those deceased from a designated class," said Mrs. Sims.

Memorial donations may be made to Mrs. Sims, V.K. Orr, Jr., Mrs. Don Van Pelt or Mrs. Tommie Watts, who is keeping the books.

Some say that sleeping with salt, bread, and a knife, all of which have been left inadvertently on the table after cleaning up under one's pillow brings a vision of one's wife-to-be.

Old Settlers Gather Saturday To Reminisce of Other Years

Old settlers of Collingsworth County, smaller in number this year, held their annual reunion Friday, Sept. 8, in the senior citizens center for lunch, reminiscing, and a program of gospel music.

During the business session, Hugh Bledsoe was re-elected president; Elmer Haralson was named vice president, and Mrs. Mack Horton secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Emma Lowe was honored as the oldest person present. She is 90 and has lived in the county 54 years.

Whaley Addresses Retired Teachers

Foster Whaley, Candidate for state representative, spoke to members of the Collingsworth County Retired Teachers Association on Tuesday, Sept. 12, in the Greenbelt Electric Co-operative Directors Room.

Mrs. Monty Mitchell, president, was in charge of this meeting, which opened this organization's year. Hostesses were Mrs. J.L. Joens, Mrs. Mitchell, and Mrs. Les White.

Whaley reviewed legislation that was passed during the special session of the State Legislature this summer.

"In addition to repealing the sales tax on utility bills, the inheritance tax was amended and the exemption raised to a substantially higher level," Whaley said.

An amendment was passed that will be on the ballot on November 7 which will make a host of beneficial changes in the state constitution, Whaley told the teachers.

Among them are:
-1. Removal of intangibles (stocks, bonds, and savings accounts) from the property tax base.

-2. Exemption of household goods.

-3. Mandate that farm and ranch land be taxed on productive value.

-4. Mandate a $5,000 homestead exemption by school districts for all

Sixth Grade Elects Officers

Mrs. Word's sixth grade class elected officers for the 1978-79 school year Wednesday, August 30.

They were president, Michael Souder; vice president, Dell Davis; secretary, Jay Anders; treasurer, Robert Owens and reporter, Tina Bawcom.

Frank Ford has as visitors Sunday a niece, Mrs. Thelma Tatum of Lubbock, and two great-nieces and their children, Mrs. Fredda Smith with D'Ann, Shaunda and Craig of Shamrock, and Mrs. Mayda King and son Gregory of Pampa.

Pet Show Winners For Fair Announced

DeAnn Williams twin black poodles, immaculately groomed with painted toe-nails and ribbons in their hair, were judged grand champions of the pet show, one of the popular attractions of the Collingsworth County Fair.

The reserve champion was bob cat-house cat cross belonging to Chris Hopper, showing for the first time.

Every entry was judged to receive a blue ribbon.

Winners, announced by fair chairman Billy Moseley, along with their young owners were:

Gregory Cozad, black and white cat and a gray cat; Bobby Lynch, black and white dog; Mindi Watts, black pekapoo dog (a recognized breed of pekinese and poodle ancestry); Suzanne and Brad Campbell, a cock-a-poo dog.

Al Forrester, white poodle; Wendy Riley, Siamese cat; Paula Neeley, registered cocker spaniel; Jana Pruitt, cock-a-poo dog; Patti Cunningham, gray cat; Kim Castleberry, miniature bearded collie;

Mark Myrick, brown and white puppy; Shannon Hill, angora cat; Kimmi Henard, brown goat with some black.

Former County Resident Here

Mrs. Hazel Pearson Hill and her son, Jerry Hill, of Springdale, Ark., visited over the weekend with a number of friends, including Mr. and Mrs. Ozro Bartlett, Mrs. Rufus Sweat, Mrs. Jack Lowry, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Farmer and Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Carson of Quail, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur DePauw.

Mrs. Pearson, whose family was among the early settlers in the west-central part of the county, lived at Lillie, Salt Fork and Marella. She moved to Lubbock in 1940 and to Springdale in 1954.

FEROCIOUS

Chris Hopper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Hopper, holds his reserve grand champion ribbon won on his "half-Bobcat" entry in the pet show at Collingsworth County Fair.

The Weapon: A Watermelon

A big, ripe Black Diamond watermelon was hurled through the windshield of a pickup at Dodson some time between midnight and 5:30 a.m. Tuesday, Sept. 12, Sheriff John Rainey reported.

The glass was broken on the 1978 vehicle, owned by Odell York of Pixley, Calif., according to Deputy Julian Torres, who investigated. He said the replacement cost will be $140.40.

Torres said he found trails of burst watermelons, 25 to 40 in all, leading from Dodson to the Oklahoma State line.
