

RAILROAD STRIKE ENDS; LABOR BILL PASSES

House Passes Labor Bill--Now in Senate

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The house, by the overwhelming vote of 306 to 13, passed tonight legislation which would empower President Truman to draft men for industry in emergencies and penalize strikers against the government.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE
The measure, personally requested by the President in a message to a joint session of the two branches of congress, also provides for fines and imprisonment of labor leaders who refuse to call off a strike against a government-seized facility.

The measure now goes to the senate.

That branch received the bill embodying the president's proposals at the same time as the house, but moved more slowly with it, referring it to the interstate commerce committee.

LEGISLATION ADOPTED
The legislation was adopted by the house under virtually unprecedented procedure whereby regular rules were suspended for the day.

Prior to the action the legislators had heard Mr. Truman make an impassioned plea for speedy acceptance of his plan.

The President had asserted that action was imperative to prevent thousands of workers from being harmed by the actions of their leaders.

The measure, at Mr. Truman's own suggestion, is effective only for six months after the "cessation of hostilities" as proclaimed by the President.

The bill does this:
1. Specifies that the chief executive may proclaim a national emergency at any time that an interruption occurs in operation of any facility he deems "vital to the maintenance of the national economy."

2. Gives the President power to see LABOR BILL, Page 8

Reds and Poland Join in Protest Of U. N. Action

NEW YORK—(AP)—Soviet Russia joined Poland yesterday in a sharp protest against the action of J. B. Hutson, assistant secretary general of the United Nations, in welcoming Lt. Gen. Traudenz (Bor) Komorowski to New York City on behalf of the United Nations.

Andre A. Gromyko, Soviet delegate to the United Nations Security Council, issued a statement yesterday on Friday's luncheon given Komorowski at which Hutson greeted the general by saying "On behalf of the United Nations I welcome you to this city."

Gromyko's statement follows:
"The remark of welcome delivered by Mr. J. B. Hutson, assistant secretary general of the United Nations, yesterday at the Waldorf Astoria for the notorious fugitive Pole, enemy of the Polish people, can not be regarded but as an inadmissible one."

Mr. Hutson, as it was found out, did not have an authority of the secretary general to welcome a fugitive guest on behalf of the United Nations.

Dr. Oscar Lange, Polish delegate to the United Nations Security Council, earlier protested against the remarks of Hutson in a letter to Secretary General Trygve Lie.

Lie's department of public information said that the secretary general had said that whatever Hutson "may have said was said without any authority to speak for the United Nations." It was added that Lie had no prior knowledge of the matter.

Pampa Daily News Being Forced to Conserve Newsprint

Both the railroad strike and the recent tie-up of the soft coal mines had reached the Pampa Daily News today. The paper mills in Eastern Canada, from which the News receives its supply, though not on strike, were seriously affected by the lack of coal.

The News' inventory of newsprint already at a dangerously low point because of wartime governmental inventory controls, was further endangered by the present strikes.

Therefore, The News is forced to adopt at once the most drastic paper saving measures in its history. These conservations are necessary to insure continuous publication throughout the emergency.

Consequently, several changes can be seen in today's issue of The News. These modifications, definitely not made by choice, are being made in order that the same news content can be put into each issue. Headlines in many cases are smaller, and some of the "body" type is smaller. Stories are being pared, but the main news value is preserved.

Advertisers have been asked for leeway in insertion dates of their advertisements. Some advertising will not be accepted.

Some of The News' features which come by mail may not arrive in time for future issues of the paper, because the mails have been disrupted. Readers are asked to understand this crisis, knowing that present measures are not of The News' making or liking, and being assured that they will receive customary editions as soon as possible.

Report Made On Situation Of World Food

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The agriculture department reported last night that a spring survey indicates the famine-plagued world will produce more food this year than last but that total supplies will be below pre-war levels and short of requirements.

EFFECTIVE CONSERVATION
Hence, it said, effective conservation and distribution of supplies, internationally and within deficit producing countries, will be necessary throughout the 1947 season of another critical food shortage is to be avoided next spring.

Reports from this country's agricultural attaches abroad show that, as of mid-May, crop conditions in nearly all parts of the northern hemisphere thus far have been more favorable than a year earlier. A significant increase in acreage is expected and yields should be better than in 1945.

ACREAGE BELOW NORMAL
The department said, however, that acreages in most of the war-torn areas are considerably below normal and improvement of yields is limited by shortage of fertilizers and the shortage and poor quality of seed, work stock and equipment.

While the production season in the southern hemisphere is six months later than that of the northern hemisphere, some expansion in food output was reported likely.

PROSPECTIVE TOTAL
The department said the prospective total food output in continental Europe for the consumption of 1946-47 may now be estimated at between 88 and 90 per cent of pre-war. Output in 1945-46 was said to have been probably only 80 per cent.

Europe's prospective increase will be confined, the department said, largely to grains and sugar, with possibly a slight increase in fats. Over-all prospects in the far east also favor some expansion.

Early spring rains in India, which suffered from adverse weather conditions last year, were said to be enabling farmers there to get their crops in early and under favorable conditions.

Conditions for the wheat crop of China also are described as favorable, but prospects for the early rice crops in southern China were said to have deteriorated due to drought.

Amarillo Field Is Seeking Housing

The Amarillo army air field staff is combing the area within a 100-mile radius of Amarillo in an effort to find living quarters for field personnel.

Second Lieutenant Charles Corbin, who was checking on housing conditions in Pampa yesterday, said he had been notified of four sleeping rooms available in Pampa.

After a survey of Amarillo housing conditions last week, Corbin said there were 25 vacancies in Amarillo at the time the survey was made. Largest quarters included in the 25 was a three-room apartment. There were several two-room apartments, the remainder mostly sleeping rooms. No houses available.

An example of housing conditions for army men was given by Corbin, saying that many of the families of men stationed at the field were living in auto courts. One master sergeant with a family of five pays five dollars a day for two rooms at one of the courts.

Results in Two Performances of Successful McLean Rodeo Listed

According to a great number of persons who attended the McLean rodeo, including some from Texas, Oklahoma, and New Mexico, the whole affair from the start of the parade on Friday until the last event of the rodeo yesterday, was a big success. Every event brought new excitement to thrill the crowds, and no amount of thrills and spills could daunt the bull doggers and bronc riders.

One spectator stated that the broncs seemed to turn every way except the right one and that the Ernhama Bull went into the air, facing north and came down facing the south.

Entries in the parade and rodeo were from Amarillo, Pampa, Shamrock, Wellington, and even some from Oklahoma and New Mexico.

Results of the two performances are as follows: Friday: Bull riding, 1st, 14.4 seconds; 2nd, 14.4 seconds; 3rd, 14.4 seconds; 4th, 14.4 seconds; 5th, 14.4 seconds; 6th, 14.4 seconds; 7th, 14.4 seconds; 8th, 14.4 seconds; 9th, 14.4 seconds; 10th, 14.4 seconds.

Coal Situation Is Reported Same

Free Enterprise Is Discussed at Kiwanis Meeting

"America will be the greatest of all nations, or she will collapse and disappear," Ed Weiss, local business man, told Kiwanians in an address at the club's luncheon Friday.

"It is up to us to make our choice," he said. "Today is the day to start our labor. Let us stir ourselves and decide what we want in the American tomorrow and let nothing stop us short of our goal."

Assailing America's steps toward a "politically planned economy," Weiss told the group that:

"The trouble is, if we are going to have a politically planned economy, we have to go the whole way to make it work—compulsion, concentration camps for the dissenters, censorship of press and speech and even firing squads for those who do not see the light."

Fortunely, we will not stand for all of that. So what is happening to us? Shortages, John L. Lewis, strikes, confusion, high prices—all of these we are learning that a politically dominated economy ultimately delivers any people into the same kind of trouble we are having today."

Weiss added that the pocketbooks of the people are being robbed every day by a growing group of politicians who deliver the people into the hands of the black marketeers, who thrive in any politically dominated economy.

"Like the bootlegger during prohibition, these economic scavengers grow richer every day. They pay no taxes. They fatten on the spoils of the land, and while we redouble our efforts to produce under the political setup, they flash their bankrolls at race tracks x x x getting bolder all the time."

Weiss said that congress must pick up courage from the ordinary people of the land and wash out the pressure group favoritism written into legislation, and at the same time deliver the people into the hands of the black marketeers, who thrive in any politically dominated economy.

"It's time to be at work. Let's set our goal and work until we reach it. What will you have for your fellow Americans?"

Amarillo Field Sets Surplus Property Sale

Surplus property at the Amarillo army air field will be on sale tomorrow through Friday.

Primary articles to be sold are electrical equipment, including motors and drills, gas stoves, tool kits, tables and office furniture.

The sale is open to the public. Property will probably be sold, it was reported, in lots of $300 and less in value, and to the highest bidder. No deposit will be required. Highest bidders will be notified by Monday, June 3.

Property is on display for inspection from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. during the week of May 27 through June 3. Information may be gained by contacting Capt. Rhyon, extension 607, at the field.

Building Mounting In Cities of Texas

(By The Associated Press)
Despite increasing shortages of material, building mounted in Texas steadily during the past week, permits from 23 Texas cities showed.

The pace was not as fast compared with previous records, however, although some cities reported record-breaking increases.

Austin reported the largest increase this week, boosting that city among the state big three, alongside Houston and Dallas. Permits in Austin doubled last week's figures.

U. S. Support Is Pledged to U. N. Council

NEW YORK—(AP)—President Truman yesterday pledged the full support of the United States to the United Nations economic and social council in its struggle to "make peace a reality" and "advance fundamental rights of man through the causes of war."

MESSAGE OF WELCOME
The President's declaration was made in a message of welcome read to the council by U. S. Delegate John G. Winant as the economic and social agency opened its first New York meeting to tackle the long-range problem of removing the causes of war.

Mr. Truman pointed out that the council had the heavy task of mobilizing "the constructive forces of mankind for the victories of peace" just as the security council had the responsibility for removing the causes of war.

'FREEDOM FROM WANT'
"Your task," his message said, "is to achieve freedom from want, to encourage production, help to open up transport and clear communications, and to assure higher standards of living."

"It is for you to promote a fuller recognition of the dignity and worth of the human person, and to advance fundamental rights of man through the causes of war."

"To this great task the United States pledges its full support."

Today's session was confined largely to opening formalities, including addresses by Sir Ramaswami Mudaliar of India, president of the council, and Trygve Lie, secretary-general of the United Nations.

Lie told the 18 delegates that the world looked to the council and to the United Nations "for effective leadership in solving a thousand and one social and economic troubles which mankind has never been able to solve by individual, community or national effort."

4 Cities Report Six New Cases Of Poliomyelitis

Six new cases of infantile paralysis were reported yesterday (Saturday) in four Texas cities while one of the cities planned a health committee to aid study and control of poliomyelitis and epidemic encephalitis.

Parkland hospital in Dallas admitted two Dallas county polio patients yesterday. Deborah Ann Holland, 7, of Irving and Julia Howard, 16, Dallas, several other patients from north Texas also are under treatment at Dallas.

Tarrant county's first two positive polio cases were diagnosed at Fort Worth city-county hospital. They are nine-year-old Bobby Price Neaves and nine-year-old Rebecca Hernandez. Two others were being treated as possible polio victims.

San Antonio, hardest hit in the current outbreak, reported its thirty-third patient, Pvt. Paul Even, 18. He is under treatment at Brooke army medical center. The outbreak has claimed four lives in Bexar county.

The seventh polio case in Corpus Christi, Steven Colema, 15, entered the hospital Friday night one hour after a 12-day ban on public gatherings was lifted. One death has occurred at Corpus Christi and a sailor is in a hospital station at the naval air station hospital.

Dallas City Health Director J. W. Bass announced creation of a health committee to study and control the diseases there.

Soil Conservation District Organized

Organization of a Gray county soil conservation district was completed yesterday with the election of officers from the five supervisors of the county.

Foreman Stubbs, Alanreed, was elected chairman; H. H. Kealey, White Deer, vice-chairman; Edwin Nelson, McLean, secretary.

The other two supervisors are Clyde Carruth, Pampa, and Arlie Carpenter, Lefors. Carpenter was not present at the meeting. Ralph Thomas, county agent, attended the session.

The district organization will function with the cooperation of the state soil conservation department and the Texas A. & M. Extension service.

Joint Session Hears President's Request

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The railroad strike ended suddenly yesterday only a few minutes before President Truman asked, and got, action on legislation to permit drafting of men for industrial emergencies and penalizing strikers against government-seized properties.

The measure, Mr. Truman told the lawmakers, is "necessary for the preservation of our government."

The house responded with an exceptional burst of speed, passing and sending to the senate exactly what the President asked.

So far as the real walkout was concerned the legislation was no longer needed. Representatives of the carriers and two striking unions—engineers and trainmen—signed at a down town hotel an agreement halting the strike. Then they went on a hand-shaking spree.

Another ODT spokesman noted that restrictions resulting from the coal strike will remain in effect.

WHOOPIING CONGRESS
Mr. Truman announced to a wild whooping congress that the strike was over. Grim, unsmiling, he interrupted an address to a joint senate-house session at the point where he said:

"I request the congress immediately to authorize the President to draft into the armed forces of the United States all workers who are on strike against their government."

While legislators howled their approval for that, Senate Secretary Leslie Biddle leaned over and whispered to the Chief Executive:

"Word has just been received," he said, "that the rail strike has been settled on terms proposed by the government."

That produced another tremendous outburst.

The basis of agreement was a compromise plan Mr. Truman himself had offered. It provides for a pay raise of 16 cents an hour retroactive to Jan. 1, an added boost.

Normal Railway, Mail Service Is Expected Today

Today at 7:15 a. m. Santa Fe train schedules were expected to be resumed if possible, the ticket agent reported last night.

Whether trains will run on normal schedules was not known. The agent said the usual number of trains will pass through Pampa as nearly on schedule as possible.

Mail service will be continued on a normal basis Monday, according to the Associated Press. F. C. Rupp, Pampa, assistant postmaster, said last night that at that time the office was handling only first class mail under the 16 ounce weight limitation, except for that delivered on star routes.

In the meantime Pampa missed the circus which was to give a performance here last night. O. T. Hendricks, Santa Fe freight agent, said railroad agents and circus officials tried all yesterday morning to arrange for train services for the circus. They were not completed. The circus was marooned in Amarillo.

Tydings Says President Hit 'A Bullseye'

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Congress responded immediately and with universal approval yesterday to President Truman's request for unprecedented powers to deal with the labor situation.

Senator Tydings declared his address before a joint session of congress that the target was a "bullseye."

Senator McClellan (D-Ark.) said the President "accepted a challenge on behalf of the American people and should have the support of congress in his recommendations."

Senator Byrd (D-Wyo.) told reporters he approved of the emergency recommendations "very much," while Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.) said Mr. Truman's speech reminded him of Andrew Jackson's declaration that the federal union must be preserved.

Senator Hawkes (R-N.J.) commented that no group of people should be allowed to defy the government.

The Western Pacific railroad said it would attempt to get its equipment moving against as quickly as possible. It immediately issued a call for a crew to take out the disposition. The road also planned to start moving freight trains as quickly as they could be reassembled and crews obtained.

Senator O'Daniel (D-Texas), however, said that the President's appearance was "a beautiful farce, well timed and well played."

Petoit Beheaded By Guillotine For 27 Murders

PARIS—(AP)—Dr. Marcel Petoit, convicted of slaying 27 persons in the sensational "Murders of the Rue La Suer" during the German occupation, was beheaded by guillotine at La Sante prison early yesterday.

The slight, 55-year-old physician, who allegedly collected money from his victims by promising to help them, was beheaded at his trial.

His lawyer, Rene Floriot, said Petoit was smiling as he approached the guillotine.

At the foot of the block, he received religious rites: "To please my wife."

Floriot said Petoit was awakened shortly before 3 a. m. by his bailer and said: "I know what this is."

He smoked a cigarette, scribbled letters to his wife and son, and then went coolly to the prison courtyard.

Only a small group of official witnesses saw the guillotine since public executions were banned in France in 1939.

At 5 a. m. a lorry backed into the prison and an armed guard of 10 minutes later beheaded Petoit's body. An official notice then was posted saying that he was executed at 5:05.

Thus ended one of the strangest criminal cases in France's history. Petoit had maintained at his trial that he was a leader of a mysterious resistance movement known as the "Fly Fox Gang," which executed collaborators.

He denied that he murdered 27 persons in the Rue La Suer, which was a notorious slum where Jews and others seeking to flee from the Germans.

The physician's house in the Rue La Suer contained a lime pit and a furnace, a box of weapons and other parts of human bodies. Police also charged that several bundles of exhumed dismembered human limbs, which were found in the seine and various public parks, were left there by Petoit.

His trial last March attracted huge crowds and Petoit kept the courtroom in an almost constant turmoil by claiming that he had murdered 27 persons in the Rue La Suer, which was a notorious slum where Jews and others seeking to flee from the Germans.

Grocers Seek Way Of Importing Food

NEW ORLEANS, (AP)—Retail and wholesale grocers planned a meeting Monday to seek ways of bringing in an adequate food supply to the city as other parts of Louisiana and Mississippi anxiously canvassed the food situation as a result of the railroad strike.

Jackson and Meridian, Miss., were among points reporting a short supply of food, but officials of both cities planned to utilize truck and motor lines to bring in essential supplies.

In New Orleans thousands of additional workers both in manufacturing and railroads, were threatened with layoffs.

Actively at the busy port already has slowed to a crawl, and port officials reported that there was just enough work for two more days.

All major oil refineries and gasoline distributors in Louisiana are authorized by the state public service commission to use every reasonable means to keep enough fuel distributed to insure operation of motor transportation during the rail strike.

The commission also began extending its rule-lifting on load limits, licenses and other regulations to other truckers handling food, medicine, passengers and other items considered essential to public welfare.

3-Day Governors' Conference Opens

OKLAHOMA CITY, (AP)—Conservation of natural resources, the problem which brought the first national conference of governors 38 years ago, will be high on the agenda of the 1945 governors' conference scheduled to open here Monday.

Other major subjects due for discussion at the 3-day session are veterans' aid, emergency Houston, rebuilding of the National Guard, educational matters, and other pressing problems arising from the postwar era. It will be the first party of the states' chief executives since the end of World War II.

The transportation crisis brought about the cancellation of some of the program's highlights, including the scheduled address of President Truman. Other speakers unable to come include Governors Thomas E. Dewey of New York, Dwight H. Green of Illinois and Earl Warren of California.

Transfer of Planes Held Up by Strikes

WICHITA FALLS, (AP)—The transfer of nineteen helicopters from Cheyenne field to San Marcos, Texas, has been postponed because of flying restrictions imposed in an effort to conserve gasoline in short supply since the railway strike began Friday.

The planes were to fly in mass formation tomorrow to the new helicopter pilot training school location via Fort Worth army air field and Waco army air field, the public relations officer at Sheppard field said in announcing the postponement today.

Norwegian Woman Writes Letter Of Thanks for Clothing Received

"Sending greetings and many thanks for the letter and package I have received from you," wrote Mrs. Mathilde Bygstad of Bergen, Norway, to Mrs. Klenker of Friona, thanking her for sending clothing and food in the last clothing drive.

"It arrived in good condition. The dried fruit and candy were very nice upon arrival and no damage had occurred on the journey, and we have divided it the best we could.

"My eldest brother was in Bergen the day after I received the package and he got the clothes with him to the land (farm) for they fit him and his wife, and his son got the shoes."

The letter was written to Mrs. Klenker in Norwegian and translated by Miss Marie Stedje, Pampa, who is of Norwegian descent.

"So I must greet you from them and thank you so much. You asked me to write if there was something special we needed and you would send more; but it would not be the thing to do to send something now for clothing and shoes come in off and on now so we can buy what we need the best. The food situation is also good now."

Mrs. Bygstad enclosed two photographs in her letter. Of them she writes:

"Sending a picture of my younger brother when he was a bridegroom. Standing on his right side is my eldest brother, Magnus, and sister, Olga. I am standing behind the bride couple. . . . To the right with an 'x' mark over her stands a sister, Borghild, and her husband.

"The picture with one person on it is of my sister, Pernille. I have no other pictures, but I would gladly send letters when it is possible. A

Class Valedictorian Is Shamrock Resident

SHAMROCK, (Special) — Royce Lewis, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Lewis of this city and a graduate of the Shamrock high school, was valedictorian of a class of 128 graduates from Tulane Medical school, Tulane university.

In addition to the honor of being the student with the highest grade average over a four-year period, young Lewis received the Isadore Dyer Medal from the school for outstanding scholarship and was presented the C. J. & H. Miller award from the Phi Chi Medical Fraternity for the highest scholastic rating in the fraternity.

Awards were presented at the traditional Ivy Day Ceremonies two days preceding graduation.

Royce was elected last January into membership of the A. O. A. national honorary medical scholastic society.

Shooting Starts in Two-Gun Texas Political Campaign

Officials Should Vote on Amendment

AUSTIN. — Attorney General Grover Sellers held in an opinion yesterday that it is mandatory for county officials to hold an election Thursday, Nov. 7, on the proposed constitutional amendment providing for purchase of public lands by war veterans.

The amendment would provide for a bond to issue $25,000,000 in bonds to finance such purchases.

Through a legislative error, the date of the vote was set on Thursday, Nov. 7, instead of Tuesday, Nov. 5, the date of the general election when other constitutional amendments will be voted on.

NO MORE SWEARING. — SEUL, Korea. — (AP) — A monument in Seoul bearing a 1938 inscription, all Koreans were required to read as an oath of allegiance to Japan soon will be removed, according to the office of provincial affairs.

By DAVE CHEAVENS

Associated Press Staff

The shooting has started in what many have predicted will be as rough a political campaign as two-gun Texas has ever seen.

Beauford H. Jester of Corsicana followed Dr. Homer P. Rainey's announcement of his candidacy with a broadside at Rainey delivered at a meeting of the Travis County Jester-for-Governor club. Said Jester:

"Having stated in my opening speech that I would lead the fight in Texas against the CIO's political action committee, I am accepting the challenge of the ousted president of the University of Texas, Dr. Homer P. Rainey, whose political theories are mysteriously akin to those which have been 'cleared with Sidney'."

Recalling that he said in his opening speech that he would combat the "dragging of the University of Texas" and other institutions into the governor's race, Jester said Dr. Rainey's announcement "throws the University of Texas into politics since he apparently desires to conduct the university and other state institutions of learning from the governor's office."

Announcement by Dr. Rainey that he would run and Sen. W. Lee O'Daniel's declaration that he would not clarified the political atmosphere, but the voters still did not know whether Gov. Coke R. Stevenson would stand for reelection. Stevenson promised to say by Tuesday or Wednesday, and meanwhile odds against his candidacy were increasing. Many of his close friends still professed they did not know what his decision would be, however.

Other campaign developments included these:

Grover Sellers, candidate for governor, announced Chief Justice Reuben Hall of the Texas court of civil appeals and Miss Margie Neal of Carthage, former state senator, would speak at his opening rally June 8 at Sulphur Springs.

Jerry Sadler will open his gubernatorial campaign June 15 at a place yet to be designated. Dr. Rainey will open his June 4 at a baseball park between Sherman and Denison.

Caso March, candidate for governor, spoke Saturday at Marshall and Gilmer and campaigned during the week in North and East Texas.

Drew C. Nichols, self-styled "atomic age" candidate for lieutenant governor, withdrew from the race explaining lack of material support made it impossible for him to conduct a statewide campaign.

Jo Ed Winfree, seeking the lieutenant governorship, will campaign in East Texas next week, starting May 29 at Nacogdoches and Lufkin. Thursday he will be at Livingston, Terrell, Tyler and Arp; Friday, New London.

Judge Tom L. Beauchamp of the court of criminal appeals announced he would be a candidate for reelection.

Pat M. Neff, Jr., candidate for attorney general, employed Weldon Hart of Austin, former sports and political writer as his campaign manager. Neff is making an organization swing through East and Central Texas and into the Rio Grande valley.

Price Daniel, candidate for attorney general, made speaking appearances in East Texas during the week.

Shamrock Freshmen Visit Plains Museum

A picnic dinner was spread in an Amarillo park and the group visited the Museum before going to the Palo Duro canyon for an outing.

Statement Issued To Moslem Parties

NEW DELHI. — (AP) — The British cabinet's delegation replied yesterday to the Moslem league and congress party criticisms of their plan for Indian independence by declaring that the "scheme stands as a failure of recent negotiations in whole and can only succeed if it is accepted and worked in a spirit of cooperation."

The statement was issued after Mahomed Ali Jinnah, president of the Moslem league, and the congress party's working committee had found many flaws with the proposal advanced by the British after the failure of recent negotiations in Simla.

Bill Is Submitted to Rewrite Constitution

BATON ROUGE, La.—(AP)—A bill already pending before the state legislature is the first step in a project to rewrite completely Louisiana's much-patched constitution.

Sen. Gilbert F. Hennigan of Fields, author of the bill, thinks the rewriting job could be done in two years without calling a constitutional convention—the usual method of bringing out a new constitution, but an elaborate and expensive one.

If the legislature adopts Sen. Hennigan's bill, or a similar one pending in the house of representatives, the Louisiana law institute would be directed to prepare a proposed new constitution.

Merchants Refuse Sales to Strikers

PERRY, Fla.—(AP)—Merchants here refused to sell food, gasoline or other commodities to railroad employees unless they could prove they were not on strike. President Joe H. Scales of the Taylor county chamber of commerce said.

It was unanimously agreed among merchant's here to discourage sales to striking railway employees.

"These merchants feel that those strikers who are contributing to the already-serious food shortage are not themselves entitled to portions of the small remaining supply," Scales said.

To cook green peas and help keep the natural color start in just enough briskly boiling water to cover. Salt may be added at the start or end of the cooking.

A lucky group of businessmen—15 of them—were given the first opportunity to really meet the Pampa Oilers at a banquet held Thursday night's game and your writer was really impressed with the appearance, manners and friendliness of Grover Seitz' boys.

They were a little shy at first, but got loosened up and there was a lot of good-natured kidding, discussion of baseball and baseball players and the good food served at the meal, which was held at Six's out on South Cuyler.

Grover introduced each player and had him give his home town and his army service record (13 of the 15 served in the armed forces). They all had high praise for Warren Hacker's shutout victory over the Amarillo Gold Sox that night. Hacker is a big, blond Nebraska boy who is really going to go places in baseball.

There were no speeches, thank goodness. Speeches would have cluttered the thing up. Everyone just concentrated on eating a good, chicken dinner.

Finally, we'd like to compliment Seitz on picking a clean-cut group of players. They're a real credit to any town.

F. S. Speaking of baseball, Jack Southwick, brother of Norma June, who won Friday's bathing beauty contest, has joined the Santa Barbara team of the California State League. A Lefors boy, he was spotted by a Brooklyn Dodger scout while in service and was sent to pitch for the Brooklyn farm club at Santa Barbara. Hope we'll be hearing more of him.

AWARDED BRONZE STAR
Headquarters, United States forces, Shanghai, China has announced the awarding of the bronze star medal to S. Sgt. Edgar A. Myatt, of 601, North Nels, Pampa.

The citation issued in conjunction with this award reads in part, "During the period of February 22, 1945 to September 2, Sgt. Myatt was responsible for the efficient and continuous operation of eleven air-to-ground positions, so vital to the tactical and operational missions of the various flying agencies in the China and India-Burma theatres. Each of these positions guarded frequencies assigned the numerous 'hump' and intra-China airways."

OUT OF SERVICE
The war department personnel separation center at Camp Chaffee, Ark., announced the discharge of two Pampa men. They are S. 2/c Raymond Edward Gates of 112 North Ward and AOM 3/c Wesley Coleman Hanley of Route 2.

Gates served in the Pacific theatre for 20 months and was stationed at Green Cove Springs, Fla., while in the states.

Hanley served in the Pacific theatre for 17 1/2 months, and received a letter of commendation from his commanding officer.

AMARILLO—Amarillo's Gold Sox had a big inning in each game of a doubleheader Friday night as they beat the Pampa Oilers 8-3 and 3-1 in two, seven-inning games.

The Sox scored six runs in the third frame of the first tussle and all three of their runs in the second inning of the night game as Bill Evans and Jim Devine turned in masterful pitching performances.

In the first game, Devine tangled with Foster White and Andy Giles in pitching duel that saw the Sox get a total of seven hits while Pampa was getting six, two of them by Jack Riley, who drove in two runs. White was the loser.

Giles, an Amarillo boy, obtained his release from the Oilers after the game. Manager Grover Seitz signed Tony Range, who has been on five-day trial as third baseman, and made Al Johnston a pitcher.

Ed Leiker started on the mound for the Oilers in the second game. He struck out two in the first and had two strikeouts in the second when the Sox jumped on him for the fifth when he was relieved by Johnston. Johnston struck out two and held the Gold Sox hitless in his stint.

Ben Hogan Must Defeat Ferrier And 'Influenza'
ST. LOUIS—(AP)—William Benjamin Hogan, golf's magic money maker, had a case of "self diagnosed" influenza to whip before continuing his battle tomorrow with Jim Ferrier for the biggest piece of cash in the $10,000 western open golf tournament.

The courageous little Dallas caddy went to bed immediately following his 6-under-par 66 in second round competition today which pulled him into a tie with the weight Ferrier at 10-under-par 134 for 36 holes.

Ferrier, a 220-pound Chicagoan, couldn't duplicate his 8-under-par-64 of yesterday, a record for the unusually easy 6,270-yard Sunset Country club course, but did manage to beat par 72 by two strokes.

Two strokes off the pace at the tournament's midway mark were Stewart (Skip) Alexander, Lexington, N. C., Chick Harbert, Detroit, and Vic Ghezzi, Knoxville, Tenn., each with a 136.

The ever dangerous Byron Nelson, of Toledo, second only to Hogan in the money collecting department this year, took a bogie-6 on the 515-yard sixteenth green and finished with a 137. He got around on 68 strokes.

Jimmy Hines, Chicago, got 69 and watched Nelson's 137.

The veteran Lawson Little, of Del Monte, Calif., handicapped by a lame back, duplicated his first round 69 and was 138 with Bob Hamilton, Chicago.

Boston Spoils Dickey's Debut As Yank Pilot

By BILL KING
BOSTON—(AP)—Bill Dickey's managerial debut was made strictly on the down beat yesterday as the top game lead over his New York Yankees with a 7-4 victory in the opener of their crucial series before a 30,851 crowd.

The Yankees' veteran catcher, who last night stepped into the 15-year-old pitching shoes vacated by the ailing Joe McCarthy, launched his player-manager career by backstopping for Spud Chandler, his pitching ace.

But the Red Sox trumped Chandler, who was seeking his seventh win, by breaking a 2-2 tie with a five-run blast in the fifth inning. Spud was yanked after Rip Russell belted a two-on homer into the left field screen to complete the Boston tallying.

The going-on 39 Dickey then pulled out Randle Gumpert from the bullpen. Dickey remained in the lineup only long enough to go to bat in the sixth and, with two out, reached first on Rudy York's error.

Dickey benched himself for Bill Dresher in the last of the sixth and relieved Gumpert with Frank Hiller in the seventh.

Ferris, still undefeated to date, managed to limp into his seventh straight win, for the Yankees gave him their customary harsh treatment.

Max Lanier, Two Others, Leaving
ST. LOUIS—(AP)—Max Lanier never was one to talk much. And the guitar-strumming southpaw who might have been the St. Louis Cardinals' No. 1 hurler had very little to say today en route to join the Mexican baseball league for a reputed $200,000 for five years.

"We ain't mad at no one," he told reporters at the hotel where he and Freddy Marica were settled for the week-end. "We just don't want to talk now."

St. Max's six-game winning streak without a loss this year has come to an end with the Cardinals.

"I've pitched my last game for them," he told fellow players Thursday night in New York. As to his sudden departure from the Cardinal squad, Max said he and Martin and Lou Klein were "not bluffing" about accepting the offers from Mexican baseball.

Then he and Martin drove in Martin's car, the one in which they will leave Monday morning for Mexico City.

nouncement of the end of the railroad strike, the Reading railroad reported yesterday.

A Reading spokesman said the number represented the "tops in the nation" to go back to their jobs.

DENISON—(AP)—The Missouri-Kansas and Texas railroad resumed passenger trains operations on all lines except two last night, Jack H. Little, MKT transportation superintendent, said.

Little said crews of striking locomotive engineers and trainmen returned to their jobs. Normal schedules will be resumed Sunday night, he added. Trains operating last night did not run on usual schedules.

DALLAS—(AP)—The Texas and Pacific railroad announced the resumption yesterday of normal passenger service with departure from New Orleans at 4:10 p. m. of train 23 for Dallas and Fort Worth.

Regular employees manned the train and all are flocking back to work, the announcement said.

All passenger trains are expected to be back on normal schedule today.

CLEVELAND—(AP)—Headquarters of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers said yesterday telegrams ordering strikers back to their jobs had been sent out to the brotherhood lodges.

The engineers' headquarters said it could speak only for that organization, and did not know whether trainmen had sent out similar word.

A moment before the announcement by the engineers' offices, a spokesman for the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen said there had been no work notices sent out from its headquarters.

Ten-Day Steamship Service Will Open

EROWNSVILLE—(AP)—Ten-day steamship service from the lower Rio Grande valley and Houston to New York will be inaugurated about June 15, Gilbert Philen, jr., vice president of the Newtex Steamship corporation, has announced.

Change of Venue Is Granted on Motion

DALLAS—(AP)—Judge Henry King yesterday granted a change of venue on the court's motion for the trial of J. A. (Baldy) Butler, charged with murder in connection with the death of Mrs. Rose Sugar, after five days had been spent in an unsuccessful effort to obtain a jury.

Johnson Caught Flat-Footed

Erskine Johnson, noted NEA Hollywood columnist, is supposed to be on his toes during working hours—especially when the work includes initiation into the mysteries of classic ballet by so beautiful a teacher as Russian ballerina Tamara Tumanova. But the camera caught him flat-footed, as the photo above shows. He was told that ballerinas suffer, suffer, during their arduous practice. Mr. Johnson is feeling no pain.

of 2 1/2 cents effective May 22—two days ago, when the strike began—and no change in working rules for a year.

PRIOR TO DEADLINE
The settlement was completed three minutes before the 4 p. m. EST deadline the President had set for strikers to give in. Otherwise, he said, he would use troops to run and protect trains.

Soldiers were standing by at railroad centers to do just that. Government and railroad officials predicted rail service would be nearly back to normal today. How long the government would continue to operate the lines it took over last Wednesday remained uncertain.

A. F. Whitney, president of the trainmen, glumly declared "we lost our case." In San Francisco, P. O. Peterson, general chairman of the engineers on the Southern Pacific railroad told a reporter:

"Our position still is that the President has just betrayed American labor—and the American public, as well."

The striking brotherhoods had offered to go back to work if they got the 16-cent raise and seven changes in working rules recommended by a federal fact-finding board, along with assurances they could negotiate with the President for more.

Mr. Truman would not meet them on those terms. Instead, he went up to Capitol Hill and walked down the aisle of the house chamber without so much as nod to an old enemy or a flickering of a smile in acknowledgement of the applause that greeted him.

And when he mentioned the names of Whitney and Alvanley Johnson, president of the engineers, he spat them out as if they were distasteful.

He said a crisis had been brought about by the "obstinate arrogance" of those two men. The long rail dispute that "can never be tolerated."

To deal with such strikes he asked for emergency legislation to last only six months beyond the time he or congress officially proclaims the war ended. He said it should be applicable only to those few industries in which the chief executive has proclaimed the existence of an emergency affecting the nation's entire economy.

He said it should apply in situations where the government has seized an industry.

Finally, he said, it should provide for the drafting of those on strike against the government.

He suggested adoption of a "comprehensive labor policy which will tend to reduce the number of work stoppages and other acts which injure labor, capital, and the whole population."

Painter Named TU President

AUSTIN—(AP)—Dr. T. S. Painter yesterday accepted the presidency of the University of Texas with a plea that students, faculty and administration "pull together with the single objective of making this a greater institution."

Dr. Painter, 56-year-old zoologist and member of the University faculty for 30 years, informed the board of regents which Friday unanimously elected him president that he had reached the conclusion his greatest opportunity for service with the university would result from his acceptance.

He elaborated on this in a later statement in which he said he fully realized the difficulties that would confront him.

To the board of regents he pledged "every effort to administer the affairs of this institution in the best tradition of American universities."

To the faculty he pledged "complete cooperation in establishing the fullest measure of security and opportunity for scholarly progress in both teaching and research."

To the students, Dr. Painter pledged his "best efforts in providing the finest instructional talent that can be obtained as well as a renewed and expanding interest in student affairs."

To the former students, he pledged his cooperation in "building a great university." He concluded his statement with these words:

"Above all, to the people of Texas who by their continued support are making it possible for Texas to have one of the really great American universities, I pledge on behalf of the university administration, the staff and the students our best efforts in rendering this institution increasingly useful to the citizens of the state and nation."

Dr. Painter succeeds Dr. Homer P. Rainey, ousted as president in 1944, and becomes the 14th administrative head of the $10,000,000 institution founded in 1883.

His acceptance apparently halted a flurry of student opposition voiced in a letter from the student assembly yesterday saying in effect that the body representing the 12,500 students would prefer to see another type of educator in the president's office.

James Smith of Houston, president of the student body, said today the assembly would take no further action "until it finds out what the faculty does, if anything."

3. Takes away the seniority and reemployment rights of any workers refusing to work for the government under such a proclamation.

4. Makes both management and labor officials subject to fine and imprisonment if they do anything to prevent resumption of work at government-operated plants during the emergency.

5. Gives the federal courts authority to allow injunctive relief to prohibit interference with the federal operation.

It was clear from the moment the President outlined his program that it would roll through the house easily.

Both republicans and democrats chimed in frequently with cries of "vote, vote" as the members debated the proposal for the 40-minute period allowed under the extra-parliamentary rules adopted for the day.

Republican leader Martin of Massachusetts called on members of his party to support the President because "we face an economic crisis."

The section of the measure taking away the seniority and reemployment rights of those striking against the government is one of the most stringent.

It specifies that any employee who does not return to work "shall not be regarded as an employee of the owners or operators" unless he is subsequently reemployed by them.

And then, even if he is reemployed, the measure declared the individual "shall be deemed a new employee for purpose of seniority rights."

★ The best advice is often more than we can bear. It takes courage to face the impact of truth, and firm resolution to form new habits to fit the facts.

Your doctor is sometimes confronted with the stern necessity of advising restrictions in your usual routine. Your favorite dessert or that comforting cigar may be denied you. There is a strong temptation to treat such advice lightly, to feel you know your needs better than your doctor.

Such self-delusion may be comforting, but it defeats the very ends you seek. Carefully follow your doctor's advice.

Tips for Teens

You'll be a more popular prom partner if you know the do's and don'ts—a few simple rules that are as important as your own do's and don'ts.

Are you a smooth dancer—honest, now? Practice does it. Your sister, cousin, the girl next door or your current date-dream will be glad to practice new steps with you until you gain the confidence that comes with know-how and smooth rhythm. Suggest a soda or a snack afterward to show your appreciation for her team-work.

Do you know how to ask for a dance? No, not "Is this one taken?" because girls don't like to admit that the dance isn't promised. "May I have this dance," and "How about the next one?" are correct.

At the end of each dance, deliver your girl partner to the side-lines, chat for a moment, then thank her for the dance and excuse yourself. When a good leave his partner standing on the dance floor, she gets to the side-lines as soon as possible to avoid embarrassment or heads for the powder room to repair her lipstick as if that's what she wanted to do, anyway.

Then there's the boy who takes a strange hold on his partner as soon as the music starts and the girl who clutches the boy as if she were before a movie camera. You'll dance better in a comfortable, loose grasp.

Humming or whistling in your partner's ear doesn't enhance your popularity. You can soon tell whether your partner wants to chat or concentrate on dancing and do likewise. If he talks, give him all your attention instead of keeping one eye on the stage as if you were more interested in the next dance than this one.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. John D. Henry.

The bridegroom is a veteran of World War II and is associated with the Farmington Mercantile company of Farmington, N. M., where the couple will make their home.

If women had an ounce of common sense in their heads they would never dress like they do. The older women follow like sheep whenever a dress designer or a milliner dreams up a new silly fashion to make money.

Equal Rights Are Sought by Women

By ADELAIDE KERR

AP Newsfeature Writer

A modern Danish clubwoman, who is her country's only woman film censor, leads the United Nations sub-committee now tackling the problem of getting equal rights for women all over the world.

She is Mrs. Bodil Begtrup, president of the National Council of Women in Denmark and now chairman of the United Nations Sub-Committee on the Status of Women. She is a tall young woman with clear amber eyes and hair, center-parted and dressed as the Duchess of Windsor used to dress. She is a fluent English speaker. She is at the council table and you will see an administrator who guards her words and steers her way through pitfalls. Question her and you will hear up-to-date postwar ideas on how to work for women's rights.

"After the First World War women felt they must fight for their rights," she said. "Today we feel that's a stupid, old-fashioned way to put it. You can't get young women into a movement working against men. Women proved themselves such a vital power in the last war that today many men—especially in Europe—favor giving them equal rights."

The fact that the United Nations Economic and Social Council composed of 18 men requested this study on the status of women indicates the interest and favorable attitude of men.

The body Mrs. Begtrup heads is made up of eight women members from as many different countries and three ex-officio members from the Commission on Human Rights, of which it is a sub-body. Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt is one of the ex-officio members.

The sub-committee is working in high gear on a three-fold job: (1) To survey the rights and privileges women have in United Nations countries, in some of which they still lack the right to work, vote and run for office. (2) Find means to better women's status where rights are lacking. (3) By May 14 make proposals to the Human Rights Commissions which it is hoped will be laid before the United Nations Assembly in September.

"I feel it is a very favorable sign that the Sub-Committee on the Status of Women was formed so early in the history of the United Nations and I feel we shall get something out of it," says its chairman.

Mrs. Begtrup seems to have been headed toward her present job ever since she was a schoolgirl. She had intended to study art, but a book on citizenship fell into her hands and changed her life. Instead of mixing paints, she studied at the University of Copenhagen and later joined the Students League of Nations Union and worked in its ranks.

After her marriage she joined the Danish National Council of Women. Since the war she has been particularly active in rounding up food supplies for Hungarian and French children. Last year she was appointed film censor. Besides her women's activities she has two big interests—working in her flower garden and embroidering cross-stitch. For fun, she goes to movies.

Gripes to Ike

On recent inspection tour in Tokyo, General Eisenhower asked Cpl. R. L. Dutton, above, of Griffin, Ga., if he was getting enough to eat. The soldier said he was, but "the cooking is no good." This, plus other GI gripes against the food, led General Eisenhower to order Dutton's colonel and company commander to improve the cooking. "And," Ike warned the latter, "I don't want anything to happen to this corporal."

Veterans of all wars are urged to attend the service with the Kit Carson post which will meet at the Legion hall at Panhandle at 10.30 and will go in a group to the church.

A hail storm that cut a 15-mile wide swath across the Farmer, Deaf Smith, and Garza county wheat belt last Sunday caused damage to crops estimated at a million dollars.

Estimates place the amount of wheat destroyed at a half a million bushels. Probably 40 to 50 thousand acres of wheat were destroyed. Only a small fraction of the wheat was injured and a check-up showed that most farmers reported their crops were a total loss.

The Wellington Rodeo association officially opens its roping season today, with the matched roping between Bill Bomar of Clovis, and Bill Towns of Wellington.

There is considerable enthusiasm over the lower Panhandle since these two ropes are two of the Plains' best, and the matched contest there will give spectators some roping as good as they can see in any rodeo.

The VFW of Canyon is sponsoring a dance at Buffalo Lake, Friday, May 31 beginning at 7.30 p. m. This is to be a western style dance with square dancing and other types of old-fashioned dances as well as the modern swing dances.

Everyone is invited to come, and are asked to wear their cowboy clothing, and help the veterans make this a worth while evening financially. Admission will be $4 plus tax, per person.

The St. Francis farmers union of Panhandle held its monthly meeting recently in Highland Park auditorium. Financial reports were given, and the organization voted to contribute $50 to the national budget fund and $50 to the state office.

The next regular meeting will be held sometime in the fall, but the date has not been set, as yet.

The summer session at West Texas State will begin June 4 and will be limited to single term of ten weeks and will feature one-hour classes and a five-day week.

The percentage of World War II veterans will likely rise, and for these the summer session will merely be a continuation of their work. Summer students will be permitted to earn credit amounting to twelve semester hours.

Two large fields of graduates study will be open to summer students. One of these leads to careers in education the other to careers in business and industry. Degrees offered are the Master of Arts and the Master of Business Administration.

Japan must have some food imports. Without them all Japan will go on a ration little better than that which the Germans gave the inmates of the Buchenwald and Belzen concentration camps.

Veterans Getting Most of New Jobs In Aviation Field

By JAMES J. STREIB
Associated Press Aviation Editor

Veterans are getting most of the new jobs in aviation, and are creating many for themselves, but thousands of wartime dream flights are certain to crash.

Government estimates indicate that even ten years from now the number of persons employed in the industry will not equal the number of men and women who, while in the services, were hopeful of making aviation a peacetime career.

A survey of army and navy air forces showed around 1,000,000 were interested in post-war occupations related to flying.

Just at the moment, reliable figures on aviation employment are unobtainable except for manufacturing and scheduled transport.

But manufacturing has not been hiring anyone. Instead, it has been engaged in readjustment from a giant wartime industry to a 15th or 16th place spot in peacetime.

The airlines have been hiring, however, and giving the jobs to veterans.

Non-scheduled air transport, such as contract carrier and charter flights, crop dusting and seeding, aerial photography, forest patrol, power and oil line inspection, hunting pests and giving flight instruction are among the ways veterans will fly for pay.

But more veterans are repairing airplanes and engines, operating airports and related services, selling planes or equipment.

Government and industry groups are interested in helping veterans avoid investing their GI Bill of Rights education privileges in aviation training courses which will not pay off.

Efforts are being made to assure: (1) That the veteran is properly advised of the opportunities in flying, (2) That if he decides to learn an aviation trade, or become a pilot, the school is qualified to teach him.

SS Private Makes Court Statement

DACHAU, Germany.—(AP)—An SS private on trial for the Malmady massacre said in a statement read to the military court yesterday that he "saw and heard about so many"

American prisoners of war being shot during the Ardennes offensive that "I cannot remember details" of the killings.

The statement came from Pfc. Siegfried Jaekel, one of 74 SS men accused in a trial which has disclosed the killing of more than 700 unarmed American captives.

Defendant Marcel Boltz said when he arrived at Malmady, Belgium crossroads where the massacre occurred, he saw about a hundred American soldiers lying on the ground. "I was ordered to shoot all those still alive," he said.

Boltz also admitted participating in the shooting of seven or eight Americans who were lined up against a wall after surrendering.

unarmed at nearby Buellingen. Jaekel's statement told of a German soldier who found two Americans lying in a roadside ditch, kicked them to their feet, and then shot them.

Twin bed sales are now 40 to 50 per cent greater than in prewar days.

Japanese Promised Large Pay Increase

TOKYO.—(AP)—Japanese government workers, traditionally underpaid, yesterday were promised pay increases of 30 to 100 per cent pay increases of 30 to 100 per cent, effective July 1. Living costs have risen 850 per cent during Allied occupation.

A new degreaser product will remove grease from almost anything and in particular broiler pans, frying pans and baking dishes. Just pour a few tablespoonfuls in the vessel to be cleaned and fill it up with hot water.

Market Briefs

WALL STREET
NEW YORK—(AP)—Despite the rail-way and coal strikes, threatening virtually all lines of industry, the stock market this week made generally good headway with buying credited to the idea that these major labor contro-versies soon would be settled.

The stock exchange, in the final hour Friday, announced the jumping of the gun on Saturday summer clos-ing. The market this week made gen-erally good headway with buying credited to the idea that these major labor contro-versies soon would be settled.

The concluding session of the week encountered light early selling which depressed leading issues fractions to 2 or more points. Hopes for a quick transportation peace, however, soon revived with the carriers in front. Initial declines were reduced or trans-formed into shakable plus marks at the close although casualties had a shade the best of proceedings.

On the week the Associated Press 60-stock composite showed a net gain of 1.4 points at 30.3. This figure at-tained Wednesday and carried over Thursday and Friday, was established last April 29 and was a peak since March 27, 1931. Volume for the five-day week amounted to 6,328,140 against 5,947,490 in the preceding six session stretch.

NEW ORLEANS FUTURES
NEW ORLEANS—(AP)—Cotton fu-tures were erratic here today, due to strikes and political news. The market closed steady, 42 cents a bale higher to 10 cents lower.

CHICAGO GRAIN
CHICAGO—(AP)—Pean prices ruled in the grain price today with trading at a very low ebb. Many traders were absent in view of the railroad strike and the closing down of security mar-kets. Activity was confined almost en-tirely to the oats pit.

A report from Oklahoma said that early wheat yields were as high as 47 bushels to an acre. However, this was running around 12 bushels in most counties. Late rains and cool weather were said to have increased yields considerably.

At the close new oats were un-changed, 5 1/2 higher, August 5 1/2-5 3/4, and old oats were unchanged to 3/4 higher, July 5 1/2. All other grains were unchanged with the only trade in march corn at 31.45.

Gracie Reports

By GRACIE ALLEN

Goodness, I see that a medical authority says that if you have ach-ing muscles and joints when you haven't any other trouble, it may be due to a gradage you're nursing against someone close to you. So when a soldier says, "Oh my ach-ing back!" I suppose it probably is caused by some little thing like a second lieutenant.

This theory explains quite a bit about George. I see that a medical authority says that if you have ach-ing muscles and joints when you haven't any other trouble, it may be due to a gradage you're nursing against someone close to you. So when a soldier says, "Oh my ach-ing back!" I suppose it probably is caused by some little thing like a second lieutenant.

Well, I can go along with medical science also. In the future when I bring home a new hat I'll bring along some liniment for George's mus-cles, too.

DISTILLERS BEAT DRUM FOR SCENTED RUM
LONDON—(AP)—Take away Ja-maica rum's rich, clinging odor, and what have you got? Jamaica rum distillers are getting ready to market the new "deodorized" bever-age and claim it's the answer to the world's whisky and gin shortage.

Major Ralph M. Milbank, Ja-maica sugar manufacturers' rep-resentative, says it's going to be a boon to the businessman.

"After all you can't slip out dur-ing the day for a drink of ordinary rum without coming up the whole office," he pointed out. "There's going to be a whisky shortage for a dozen years or more and a 'polite' rum is the answer."

PRESSMAN TO PAINTER IS ART SUCCESS STORY
YONKERS, N. Y.—(AP)—Emil P. Meske, Yonkers Herald Statesman pressman, started painting on a dare.

But he took it so seriously his "Morning Track" has won the $25 prize given for the most outstanding oil in the Yonkers Art association's annual exhibit.

His 12-by-16-inch picture is a composition in whites, yellows and purples showing tracks in snow in a village street.
