AP Survey Shows Nixon Still Leading

By WALTER R. MEARS
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The final days of the 1968 presidential campaign are being played out, shadowed at its end as at the beginning by the war in Vietnam and the meaning of the latest polls and surveys about the outcome.

With the election only a day away, an Associated Press survey and the latest major public opinion polls show Republican Richard M. Nixon leading, but Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey slicing into his margin.

The AP survey showed Nixon ahead in 24 states with 216 electoral votes, Humphrey had the lead for 21 electoral votes and third party candidate George C. Wallace for 39.

But 20 states with 262 electoral votes were rated tossups, and Humphrey has been gaining ground in most of them.

The AP survey was based on data gathered prior to President Johnson's decision last Thursday to halt U.S. attacks against North Vietnam. It therefore does not reflect any shifts which might have been produced by that administration order.

Democratic National Chairman Lawrence F. O'Brien Sunday pointed to the results of the latest major public opinion polls, which show Nixon's lead at two points over Humphrey. Earlier, Humphrey trailed in some polls by as much as 15 per cent.

O'Brien said Nixon's slippage indicated a Democratic victory, a prediction challenged by Republican spokesman Herbert G. Klein, who said:

"Nixon is leading substantially in the states we need for the votes" and will capture at least 330 electoral votes, well over the 270 it will take to select a president.

Klein's view was bolstered by a New York Times survey of political opinion in all 50 states showing:

Nixon leading in 30 states with 299 electoral votes, Humphrey ahead in eight states and the District of Columbia with 77 electoral votes and George C. Wallace in front in five states with 45 electoral votes. Seven states with 117 electoral votes were said by the Times to be too close to call.

Compared to the Times survey of a month ago, Nixon has lost 81 electoral votes and Wallace 21. Humphrey has gained 49, while those considered too close to call have increased by 53 electoral votes.

Mainland Vote Vital

By R. GREGORY NOKES

SAN JUAN, P. R. (AP) — The votes of mainland Americans have suddenly become important in the five - party battle for control of Puerto Rico's executive mansion and San Juan's city hall.

For the first time, many major candidates are campaigning in English as well as Spanish.

The voting takes place Tuesday. Unlike the mainland, voters in Puerto Rico are locked in 12,000 polling places and everybody votes at the same time, at 2 p.m.

There are about 40,000 persons from the mainland, most of them here for retirement, for the climate or to work in the island's industry. The population is 2.8 million. Only 5,000 to 8,000 continentals are among the 1.1 million registered voters. But the election is shaping up as one of the closest in Puerto Rican history, and the political contenders think a few thousand votes might swing the results.

Most continentals live in the San Juan area where Dona Felisa Rincon de Gautier is leaving the city hall after 20 years as mayor. A hard fight to succeed her is on between Jorge Font Saldana of the Popular Democratic party and Carlos Romero Barcelo of the New Progressive party. There are also four other candidates.

Floods In Italy Take Heavy Toll

By DENNIS REDMONT
Associated Press Writer

ROME (AP) — Rescue teams battled mud and floods today to search for survivors of weekend floods and landslides that cut a path of death and destruction along the southern edge of the Italian Alps.

More than 100 dead were counted and officials feared the final toll may go much higher, exceeding the 113 who died in the floods in Florence and Venice two years ago today. That was the worst flood in modern Italian history.

The prefecture at Vercelli, at the apex of a tragic triangle formed by three overflowing rivers northeast of Turin, announced that 91 bodies had been found in that province, the worst hit area in the disaster zone.

At least 13 others were missing, and 10 other dead were reported in other sections of northern Italy.

Hundreds of army and civilian rescue workers struggled over muddy washed-out roadbeds to reach the disaster area in Vercelli province still being swept by heavy rains this morning.

"It looked like some giant steamroller had smashed through the valley," said one pilot who flew over the Mosso valley in the foothills of the Alps, where 64 persons were smothered in the rubble of their houses. The section is a wool-

Woman Heads Cong Envoys

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH

PARIS (AP) — A woman revolutionary led a Viet Cong delegation into Paris today to join the peace talks. She pledged that the war in South Vietnam will continue as long as the United States "props up the puppet administration of Saigon."

Mrs. Nguyen Thi Binh, a member of National Liberation Front's central committee, said on her arrival from Moscow: "The population of South Vietnam ardently wishes for peace, but this peace cannot be disassociated from independence and liberty.

"As long as the American government has not renounced its aggressive aims and . . . props up the puppet administration of Saigon . . . the Vietnamese people will continue their struggle until final victory."

Mrs. Binh, the chairman of the Women's Liberation Association, heads a team of six members.

The delegation was greeted by flag-waving Vietnamese and Soviet Ambassador Valerian Zorin. And Ambssador Xuan Thuy, who leds Hanoi's delegation to the peace talks with the United States which began on May 13.

A spokesman said the NLF "will be present" at the first meeting of the expanded talks Wednesday. They are attending as a result of the agreement betwen Hanoi and Washington under which President Johnson halted the bombing of North Vietnam last week.

South Vietnamese President Nguyen Van Thieu has announced that his government will not send a delegation to the talks because it will not negotiate with the NLF as a separate entity. He said the boycott would continue until Saigon is assured of direct, serious talks

Safeguards For Pond Are Under Study

Scurry County Commissioners this morning said they planned to look into the possibility of additional fencing or other safeguards at the pond in Towle Memorial Park.

The subject came up following the drowning there last Friday afternoon of Terri Lynn McLeod, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry McLeod who live near the park on Forty-second Street. The child, not quite two years old, apparently wandered from the back yard of the family home to the pond. Although there is a fence around most of the pond, the area where the drowning occurred is at the west end where run - off water from a large area runs into the pond. A fence had been maintained there at one time, but washed out often, commissioners noted.

However, they hoped that some plan could be worked out to keep smaller children from reaching the water. It would be impossible, all agreed, to keep the larger children out, but perhaps better protection for toddlers might be worked out.

Brazilians Suffer From Heat Wave

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) — The temperature got up as high as 104 degrees in Rio over the weekend and sent hundreds of thousands to beaches seeking relief. Three persons drowned and more than 200 were rescued by life guards. More than 500 children were sent to hospitals to be treated for dehydration and two of them died.

Polls Open At 8 A.M. Here

Scurry County voters may cast ballots between the hours of 8 a.m. and 7 p.m. tomorrow in the general election.

Voters in this county have been reminded that they will cast ballots in the same polling places as in previous elections. New line-ups of voting boxes approved several weeks ago by the commissioners court will not go into effect until Jan. 1, 1969.

Four Snyder boxes continue to vote at the county courthouse and one Snyder box is operated at the school administration building. Polling places in the rural communities where voting boxes are maintained will be at their usual sites.

Although there are no local contested races, Scurry County voters, along with other Texans, will face a lengthy ballot which includes 14 proposed amendments to the State Constitution.

There are contests, of course, for most state and national offices, although campaigning here has been limited mostly to the presidential race.

Absentee voting in Scurry County was rather heavy. A total of 193 voters cast absentee ballots in person at the County Clerk's office before the deadline. In addition, 120 ballots came in by mail, making a total of 313. Moreover, 35 mail ballots were still out, which meant an absentee potential total of 348. This compares with a total of 193 absentee ballots cast here in 1964, the last presidential election.

The total vote in the general election four years ago in Scurry County was 4,630.

San Juan Polling Marred By Violence

SAN JUAN, P.R. (AP) — Fires in polling places, an explosion at an American-owned oil refinery and the reported theft of 80 guns and hundreds of rounds of ammunition set police on the alert today, the eve of the island's election.

The arms and ammunition were stolen from a San Juan sporting goods store, police reported.

Earlier a terrorist bomb wounded four policemen at the Texaco oil refinery near Catano.

Underground Blast At Nevada Test Site

WASHINGTON (AP) — A nuclear test blast of low intermediate yield was set off underground today at the Atomic Energy Commission's Nevada test site.

AFTER WIDESPREAD SHOOTING

Jordan Says Civil Strife Stilled

AMMAN, Jordan (AP) — The Jordanian government announced it had put down an attempt today by a group of Palestinian commandos to foment civil strife in the kingdom.

In a broadcast King Hussein told his people guerrilla action against Israel would continue "purified from these stealthy treacherous elements."

The king's emotional speech over Amman Radio was the first official explanation of widespread shooting and demonstrations that swept Amman this morning.

A later communique from the interior ministry indicates the trouble was over—at least for the moment—but gave no word on casualties.

The king said the commando group which he accused of being behind the trouble was concentrating all its efforts against his.

The Interior Ministry communique identified the commando group as the "Victory Phalanges" and said its leader was Taher Dablan.

The "Victory Phalanges" was one of three organizations which claimed to have been responsible for the giant fire at Israel's Lod Airport near Tel Aviv Oct. 24.

The communique said fighting began when a group of commandos attacked a police patrol car and held the occupants.

When police reinforcements arrived, it said, the guerrillas dispersed into the crowded refugee districts of Amman.

Later the guerrillas opened "heavy fire" from the areas where they had holed up, and exhorted women and children to come out and demonstrate for their cause, the communique added.

The government accused the group of having extorted money from the people to finance its activities and said "the citizens have been complaining of this for the past several months."

Hussein said the group's goal is to undermine Jordan's steadfastness against Israel and to foment trouble with other Arab countries.

Near Lull In Viet Ground Fighting

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — Ground fighting in Vietnam tapered off to its lowest level since last summer, but allied communiques today reported at least 164 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese soldiers killed by planes, artillery, infantrymen and patrol boats in a number of small scattered actions.

U.S. and allied forces reported only light contacts with North Vietnamese army and Viet Cong units throughout South Vietnam Sunday, the U.S. Command said.

Two communiques from the command today did not report a single major ground action. Military sources said all the enemy casualties reported occurred in small actions and none of them were initiated by the enemy.

The U.S. Command reported no significant actions along the Demilitarized Zone for the third consecutive day since President Johnson's order halting the bombing of North Vietnam Friday.

No shelling of major cities was reported since My Tho, in the Mekong Delta, was hit with 38 mortar rounds shortly before 1 a.m. Sunday, 28 hours after Johnson's order went into effect.

South Vietnamese headquarters, however, reported two light shellings of military installations where soldiers live with their families. A spokesman said two soldiers and four civilians were wounded and three houses were destroyed.

The U.S. Command's morning communique did not report a single ground action. South Vietnamese headquarters reported two skirmishes in which 16 enemy were killed and 12 taken prisoner. Government casualties were put at six wounded.

YOUTHS INJURED — Eloy Benitez, 17, 505 Fifteenth Street, sustained a fractured leg and Abelino Lopez Valadez, 17, 508 Fourteenth Street, suffered facial cuts when this 1960 Model Chevrolet struck a utility pole in the 3100 block of Avenue E at 11:20 p.m. Saturday. The youths were taken to Cogdell Memorial Hospital by Snyder Ambulance Service. Damage to the car, driven by Valadez, was estimated at $1,500. Benitez was a passenger in the vehicle. Another passenger, Jimmy Orosco, 18, 1711 Avenue T, escaped injury. City Police, who investigated the mishap, said the boys were traveling south on E prior to the crash. Damage to the pole was placed at $40.

Sen. Tower Agrees With Protest

A group of Snyder citizens who sent a telegram late last week to legislators opposing the halt of bombing in North Viet Nam received a friendly reply from Sen. John Tower.

"Please be advised and advise the other Texans who signed the telegram to me that I share your dissatisfaction with the unilateral ending of air cover for our troops in a manner which not even our South Vietnamese allies could agree to. It appears here today that the whole U. S. position which was hastily pieced together for whatever reasons may be falling apart. If so, nothing has been gained for the cause of peace and a dangerous gamble has been taken with the lives of our men," Sen. Tower wired.

The telegram was addressed to Gene L. Dulaney, who, along with Harry Reed and S. P. Hulen, circulated the telegram of protest which had some 30 signatures.

Airliner Hijacked, In Havana

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — An armed hijacker identified by the pilot as a "black nationalist freedom fighter" seized control of a National Air Lines jet with 57 persons aboard today and diverted the craft toward Cuba.

The plane landed in Havana at 11:11 a.m. EST.

Thirteen minutes after the plane with 50 passengers and a crew of seven took off from New Orleans for Miami, Capt. Antone Hunter radioed the Houston control tower that he was being hijacked.

Later, the Federal Aviation Administration said, he made a second call to the Jacksonville FAA control center to report that the skyjacker was a black nationalist.

The plane took off at 10:02 a.m. EST and was 60 miles southeast of New Orleans at the time of the first call.

Other members of the crew, all Miami-based, were Grayson Buckner Jr., copilot; Angus White, engineer, and stewardesses Sandra O'Brien, Linda Bollman, Regina Tisikker and Barbara Bingle.

The incident marked the 13th time this year a commercial airline had been forced to fly to Cuba. And it was the third time a National plane had been hijacked to the Caribbean island this year.

Leftists Battle Berlin Policemen

By GEORGE THOMSON

BERLIN (AP) — About 1,500 young leftists, employing guerrilla-like tactics, fought a pitched two-hour battle today with police that left more than 100 injured and led to scores of arrests.

The battle was joined as helmeted demonstrators, armed with cobble stones, paint and poles, attempted to break through police barricades and to storm a district courthouse to stop debarment proceedings against Berlin's "student attorney," Horst Mahler.

They were met by 1,000 club-wielding police supported by mounted reinforcements, water cannon and tear gas.

The demonstrators caused a heavy toll of police casualties with their guerrilla style of battle: thrusting at police, withdrawing, consolidating and then thrusting again from another angle.

At one stage, they managed to beat back a 300-man police force a distance of 150 yards before the demonstrators moved off in the direction of the Congress Hall where Chancellor Kurt Georg Kiesinger's Christian Democratic party was holding its annual convention.

But, instead of marching on the hall, the demonstrators reassembled at their headquarters in West Berlin's Technical University.

After the smoke cleared, it was announced that a Lawyer's Court of Honor had rejected the city prosecutor's application to debar Mahler, who has supported leftist student causes in and out of court.

Police counted 120 injured in their own ranks. Ten of them had to be treated at a hospital. A police spokesman said seven of 21 injured demonstrators were taken to a hospital. The number of arrests was placed at 46.

The clash occurred in the Charlottenburg district of the British sector of the divided city.

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Our son, who is 25, has been going with a young lady of 24 for the last 2 years. They seem to get along very well (same religion), and he asked her to marry him. She accepted, but here's the problem. Our son wants his girl friend to be examined by a doctor to find out if she is a virgin. He says he wants to be sure she is before the wedding because if he finds out she isn't after the wedding, he will leave her at once.

The girl refuses to submit to this kind of examination, and our son says if she will not do so within the next 30 days he will drop her. All wedding plans are at a standstill now, and we don't know what to do. Is our son out of line, or is the girl?

MOTHER OF THE MAN

DEAR MOTHER: I would say your son is out of line. Like way out! His request is insulting, and if I were the girl I would have dropped him in 30 seconds.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I am 21 and have always had a very good mother - daughter relationship, but we are now having our differences over a young man I have started dating and like very, very much.

First, let me explain that he is a very nice person, polite and all. I think I am lucky to be dating him. Well, last night my mother said, "How can you stand 'J' — his hands and fingernails are always filthy?"

Abby, "J" is mechanically inclined and he works on his car a lot, so naturally his hands and fingernails are going to get dirty and greasy. But my mother refuses to accept that.

I don't think a fellow's fingernails are all that important, and I don't think it is my place to tell a 23-year-old man that his fingernails are dirty, do you? Please help me, I think a whole lot of this guy.

NEEDS HELP

DEAR NEEDS: If you "think a whole lot of this guy," tell him that there are soaps on the market that will dissolve grease and grime from hands and fingernails. If he's the right kind of fellow, he'll appreciate it.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I know you've heard about people who have lied about their ages because they wanted to be "younger," but how about those who lied about their ages because they wanted to be OLDER?

It all started when I lied about my age to get a job. I was 14 and said I was 18. Now it's on all kinds of records that I am 4 years older than I really am.

I didn't mind so much when I was younger, but now I'd like to get straightened out. I would hate to tell you how many places and records have the wrong year of my brith on them. It's sure a mess. How do I get things back to normal?

LIAR

DEAR LIAR: The ONE document that bears your accurate birth date is your birth certificate. Get a copy from the bureau of vital statistics in the city of your birth. Then send copies to those "places" where you'd like the date corrected.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: Boy, did you ever give ST. LOUIS the right answer about twin beds! No man knows how rough it is to have seven kids in 9 years. I am ready for twin BEDROOMS — never mind twin beds.

I love my husband, but enough is enough.

U.S. officials privately feel Thieu's boycott will not wreck the peace discussion. Secretary of State Dean Rusk said he expects South Vietnam to join the talks sooner or later.

Saigon newspapers on Sunday lauded Thieu's boycott and charged that Johnson, when he decided to quit bombing the North, broke promises made at his Honolulu meeting with the South Vietnamese president.

"His action tarnished his country's image," said the Vietnam Guardian. "The brutal decision taken by Johnson, no doubt pressed by the deadline of the U.S. presidential election, will not help in any way to bring the Vietnam conflict to an honorable end."

producing region.

Dozens of factories, farm buildings, houses and cars were lost in the landslides which rainstorm sent rumbling down north of Turin.

Venice had its fourth highest water in 40 years. The lagoon waters surged over the banks of the canals and sent inhabitants into their boots and boats.

The seas pounded both Italian coasts, doing damage all along the shores and tearing boats from their moorings, even in-n from their moorings, even inside the port of Geno.

About 2,000 army troops were dispatched to the landslide area with supplies and amphibious rescue equipment.

Premier Giovanni Leone interrupted a tour of World War I battlefields to fly to Novara, where eight persons were crushed to death in a mountainside house.

The weather bureau forecast clouds and more rain for today and Tuesday. Officials said the major rivers of the north—the Po, the Adige, and the Ticino—were still on the rise.

The Biella area, 36 miles north of Turin, was a region of desolation and chaos.

More than 15 bridges were swept away by mountain torrents. Railroads were cut, and snowstorms closed several mountain passes to France and Switzerland.

Most highways were clogged with cars rerouted from secondary roads which were buried under landslides.

"We have nothing left," said Giovanni Ferrarone, 44, who was rescued with his wife and two sons before his farmhouse in the Pavia area collapsed under flood waters.

Hundreds of cattle drowned or were crushed by the landslides.

Chili Dish Costs So Little, But Goes Over Big

To make the food budget "balance out," every smart housewife has to have a few recipes that are relatively inexpensive to make, but still score big with the family.

Here's one that you can add to your collection of economy dishes — a chili meatball and bean dinner that can be cooked and served from an electric casserole.

CHILI MEATBALLS & BEANS
(Serves 6)

1 pound ground beef
2 eggs slightly beaten
¼ cup bread crumbs
2 tablespoons minced onion
2 teaspoons chili powder
1 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons shortening
1 1 - pound (12 oz. can) pork and beans with tomato sauce

Combine beef, eggs, crumbs, onion, 1 teaspoon chili powder and salt. Shape into 24 meatballs.

In the kettle, preheated at 325 degrees, brown meatballs in shortening. Reduce heat to 200 degrees. Cook, covered, for 10 minutes. Pour off excess drippings.

Stir in beans and remaining chili powder. Continue cooking for 15 minutes, or until heated thoroughly. Stir occasionally.

For variation, add 1 cup diced apple and - or 1-3 cup raisins to mixture when adding pork and beans. Heat thoroughly.

34 LADIES IN THE RUNNING

Women Seek Congressional Seats

By FRANCES LEWINE
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate could get its second lady member and the House its first Negro congresswoman in congressional elections Tuesday that have 34 women in the running.

Of the 10 women incumbents, Rep. Frances P. Bolton, D-Ohio, faces the toughest election of her 28-year congressional career, and freshman Rep. Margaret Heckler, R-Mass., is in a close race.

The other eight incumbent congresswomen are expected to be back for the session starting Jan. 3.

Radio station owner Katherine Peden of Hopkinsville, Ky., is given a fighting chance to join Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, R-Maine, in the Senate.

But Mrs. Peden's Republican opponent, former Jefferson County judge Marlow W. Cook, is favored to win the race for retiring GOP Sen. Thruston B. Morton's seat.

Of just two Negro women candidates for Congress, a good chance is given 46-year-old Democrat Shirley Chisholm. The first Negro woman member of the New York State Assembly. She is running in the new 12th district of Manhattan that includes Bedford - Stuyvesant, one of the country's largest Negro slum areas.

Her opponents in the three-way race are well-known civil rights leader James Farmer, one of the founders of the Congress of Racial Equality running on the Liberal-Republican ticket, and Conservative Ralph L. Carrano, a 45-year-old public relations man.

Political observers give only a slim chance to Republican Janet Robert Jennings, the second Negro woman candidate, running in Illinois.

Mrs. Jennings, 35, a Chicago schoolteacher and former campaign secretary for Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., is challenging Democratic incumbent Rep. William L. Dawson, who has represented Illinois' first district since 1942. Dawson is a Negro.

Mrs. Bolton—In Congress since 1940 and the ranking GOP member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee—is getting the first serious competition in her 22nd Ohio district from a redistricted fellow Congressman, Rep. Charles Vanik, a Democrat.

Age is a major issue in their nip-and-tuck battle. Vanik, 55, has a liberal record. Mrs. Bolton, the oldest member of Congress seeking re-election, has a conservative record.

Mrs. Heckler, a 37-year-old petite brunette lawyer, is challenged by Democrat Edmund Dinis, 44, of Fall River, a Bristol County district attorney in the reapportioned 10th district of Massachusetts.

Women are running for Congress in 19 states but many of the lady candidates are from minor parties and stand little chance of election.

These races, however, are attracting interest:

Nebraska—A former first lady of Nebraska, Mrs. Frank Morrison of Omaha, seeks to unseat Republican incumbent Rep. Glenn Cunningham, 55-year-old former Omaha mayor, who is seeking his seventh term in the House.

Massachusetts—The youngest of the lady challengers, Deirdre Henderson, 34, a Smith College graduate from Salem, Mass., is trying to unseat Republican Rep. William H. Bates.

New Jersey—Republican Rep. Florence P. Dwyer of Elizabeth, a liberal Republican in Congress 12 years, is seeking re-election over 37-year-old John B. Duff, associate professor of history at Seton Hall University.

Another Mrs. Dwyer is Marion D. Dwyer, real estate broker in Elizabeth, who is trying to unseat incumbent Democrat Cornelius Gallagher, a Bayonne lawyer seeking his sixth term.

Ohio—A Ford plant worker, Marie Baker, 43, a Democrat from Fosteria, Ohio, is running against Republican Rep. Jackson E. Betts in Ohio's eighth district, which he has represented since 1950.

Wyoming—Former Washington head of the VISTA antipoverty program, Miss Vilma Linford, a Democrat, has returned home to run against former Republican state legislator John Wold who defeted GOP Rep. William H. Harrison, in the primary.

Recipients Doing Well

MONTREAL (AP) — One heart and two kidney transplant patients were reported in satisfactory condition at Montreal's Royal Victoria Hospital following surgery Sunday night.

The heart transplant operation was Canada's 10th and the world's 74th. Forty-three of the patients are still living.

A hospital spokesman said the unidentified recipient's new heart "started spontaneously" and the patient now was "going on his own," meaning that he no longer needed a heart pump.

The spokesman said the patient was a 58-year-old man and the donor was a 28-year-old woman.

The kidney recipients were a 29-year-old man and a 9-year-old girl.

Highest first round by a 1967 PGA golf tour winner was the 76 by Tom Nieporte in the Bob Hope Classic.

Euless Fire Is Costly

FORT WORTH (AP)—It took a 90-minute battle by firemen from six cities to quell flames causing loss estimated at $300,000 Sunday night in the Medical and Dental Arts Center at suburban Euless.

There were 10 offices and a laboratory in the one-story building at U.S. 183 and FM 157 about halfway between Fort Worth and Dallas.

Dr. Ralph Roberts, a dentist and co-owner of the structure, placed the value of the building alone at more than $300,000. He said the loss of equipment also would be heavy.

Firemen saved only the northwest part of the center. Sections of roof collapsed at other points.

Witnesses reported the blaze appared to start in an incinerator.

One Killed, 1 Hurt In Burkburnett Crash

BURKBURNETT, Tex. (AP) — A car-truck crash half a mile south of the Red River bridge near Burkburnett, north of Wichita Falls, killed one motorist and injured another gravely about 1 a.m. today.

Mrs. Nintha Davis, 32, of Wichita Falls died two hours after the accident.

Her husband, H. Raymond Davis, 45, was taken to a Wichita Falls hospital. He is a representative of the Western Horseman magazine.

State police said the Davis car and a truck driven by Ben Gassoway, 51, of Jasper collided nearly head-on. They reported the truck was on the wrong side of the divided freeway.

Disneyland Mishap

ANAHEIM, Calif. (AP) — Several slow-moving cars of the People-Mover, an elevated train at Disneyland, rammed together Sunday night. Twenty-five persons were injured but apparently none seriously.

Casper Sacks Up His 6th Tournament

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Billy Casper chipped in from off the green for birdies on the first and second holes in the final round of the $100,000 Lucky International Open Golf Tournament Sunday, and went on to his sixth tournament victory of the year. His winning 72-hole score was 269, 15 under par.

The victory gave the 37-year-old Bonita, Calif. pro $20,000 in prize money and a total for the year of $203,389. Only Jack Nicklaus, who carted home $211,000 last year, has ever won more money playing golf.

Casper finished four strokes ahead of the next closest finishers, Ray Floyd and Don Massengale.

Casper carded a final-round 66 for 269. Floyd shot a 68 Sunday and Massengale fired a 69 for their 273s.

Young Bob Murphy, Ken Still of Stockton and Miller Barber tied for fourth at 274.

Murphy and Still shot 69s Sunday and Barber had a 68. One stroke farther behind at 274 was Tommy Aaron, who followed his course record 63 of Saturday with a one-over-par 72.

Cowboy Defenders Win 17-3

By BEN THOMAS
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Who can lose the ball five times on fumbles plus two other occasions on interceptions and still win? The Dallas Cowboys, that's who!

Of course, it helps if the other team's starting quarterback is injured and his replacement throws four interceptions.

"We just stopped ourselves cold," said New Orleans tight end Monty Stickles Sunday after the Cowboys had beaten the Saints 17 - 3 on a pair of Don Meredity-to-Bob Hayes touchdown passes.

"I'll tell you something about our defense," said Stickles, the nine-year pro veteran from Notre Dame acquired from the Forty-niners last summer. "It's nothing short of a fantastic... the best I've ever played with.

"They get the ball for us and stop the other team cold week after week. And one of these weeks we'll win one for 'em."

"The Saints defense can be pretty confusing," said Meredith. "We didn't execute as well as we hoped and we just made so many mistakes it's hard to figure out."

Atkins' Army, the New Orleans defense led by 16-year veteran Doug Atkins, the 6 - foot-8 defensive end, smashed Meredith to the turf six times-much to the delight of the 84,728 spectators, the largest crowd of 1968 for the National Football League.

It could have been a 3-3 stand off if the fleet-footed Hayes hadn't made a couple of amazing catches. He snatched a pass from the hands of New Orleans defensive back Dave Whitsell and got away from Whitsell and Gene Howard for a 54 - yard scoring play. Later Hayes got the ball after it was tipped by Howard and skirted on a toss thrown from the New Orleans nine.

Cowboy Coach Tom Landry made no bones about his team being flatter than a Texas prairie. "It's tough to keep up momentum," he said.

"We had a lot of momentum going for six straight games and when you do that you just have to slump off a little and we did that Monday night losing to Green Bay and we did it today."

Landry said Kilmer's injury was a break for the Cowboys. "The Saints count on Kilmer because he's such a leader and losing him would be just like losing Meredith or Bart Starr."

Kilmer received a hair-line fracture of an ankle bone and will be out of action for about four weeks, Coach Tom Fears reported late Sunday night. He said he'd activate rookie Ronnie South, a fifth round draft choice from Arkansas, now on the New Orleans taxi squad, to play behind Karl Sweetan.

Sweetan, obtained from Detroit in a pre-season trade, had not seen any action since an exhibition contest with Atlanta. He was crushed by his inept performance as Kilmer's replacement and sent questioning sports writers away after the game with the comment, "What can I say after the way I played."

Charlie Durkee's 38-yard field goal kept New Orleans from suffering its first shutout since the Saints entered the NFL in 1967. As it was, it marked the first time in New Orleans' 22 games that the team did not score a touchdown.

An 84-yard punt by Ron Widby, signed by Dallas last year as a free agent after being dropped by the Saints, was the turning point. New Orleans had just gotten its field goal and then held the Cowboys at the Dallas 10-yard line. Widby's punt was the longest this season in the NFL.

Kilmer wasn't the only casualty. Movie star Charlton Heston suffered a fractured rib Saturday night, scrimmaging against the Saints during the filming of the United Artists picture "Pro."

Nevertheless, Heston was taped up and in uniform—wearing Kilmer's number 17—for more filming Sunday and late in the fourth quarter there were chants from the stands of "We want Heston."

Tiger Booster Club To Meet

The Tiger Booster Club will meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the high school cafeteria to see films of last week's football clash with Lubbock Estacado and to hear scouting reports on Levelland, this week's Tiger foe, according to an announcement by Vonnie Black, president.

Toros Are 10-0

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

San Antonio might rack up the Western Division championship of the Texas Football League this week without turning a hand.

The Toros, leading with a 10-0 record, do not play Saturday but Fort Worth, the second division outfit, does. And a loss by Fort Worth could put San Antonio into the driver's seat.

San Antonio whammed Odessa 40-17 Sunday to take a 2½-game lead over second place Fort Worth. The Toros have two games to play while Fort Worth has three. That means Fort Worth must win all its remaining games while San Antonio drops its two for the teams to tie for the title.

Meanwhile, Texarkana rolls on at the top of the Eastern Division, gaining a 1½-game lead by beating El Paso 35-20. Tulsa is in second place. Both Texarkana and Tulsa are idle Saturday along with Dallas and San Antonio.

Fort Worth was surprised by the new-found strength of the Tulsa outfit, having to score on a 71-yard pass from Donnie Gibbs to Bobby McGlaun and then hang on for a 7-3 decision. Tulsa finally scored on a 37-yard field goal by Pete Poesila. A crowd announced as 3,128 looked on.

San Antonio scored four touchdowns in the last half to thrash Odessa, which was behind by only four points at ntermission. Les Obie pitched touchdown passes of 50 and 50 yards to keep the West Texans in the game for a half. A crowd of 2,858 turned out.

The longest run of the weekend came as Dallas was beating Beaumont 31-7. Ural White ran back a kickoff 98 yards for Beaumont's touchdown.

Fort Worth will be at El Paso and Odessa at Beaumont Saturday night.

Wildcats Test Rebs

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Abilene Christian College will try to pull back into a tie with Arkansas State for the Southland football lead this week.

The wildcats enter Saturday's conference game against the University of Texas at Arlington with a 1-0-1 league record. Arkansas State, now leading the league with 2-0-1, plays Southwestern Louisiana in a non-conference game.

Lamar Tech will play Trinity in the other SC game this week.

Arkansas State took sole possession of the lead Saturday when it thumped winless Lamar Tech 48-17. Abilene Christian lost to Eastern New Mexico 26-14 in a non-league contest and Southeastern Louisiana defeated Trinity 7-3.

ACC quarterback Jim Lindsey and Bill Lockey teams up for two of the Wildcats scores. Lindsey threw touchdown passes of 14 and 68 yards to Lockey.

Southeastern Louisiana ended a five-game losing streak by defeating Trinity. Trinity's only points were a 42-yard field goal by Tommy Chenault.

Billy Haughton of Brookville, N. Y., led harness drivers in money won in 1967 with $1,305,773 in purses. Stanley Dancer and Del Insko also passed the $1 million mark.

Elsewhere in District 3-AAA, Sweetwater visits Littlefield, Slaton hosts Brownfield and Dunbar invades Lamesa in Friday night affrays while Colorado City will be at Slaton for a Saturday game.

Bengals Bow To Oilers 27-17

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

CINCINNATI (AP) — Paul Brown continues to be a gracious but disappointed loser.

"I die about two inches every game," Brown conceded Sunday after his Cincinnati Bengals bowed to the Houston Oilers 27-17.

It was the sixth straight setback for the American Football League expansion team and sent the last-place Bengals skidding to a 2-7 record.

"This reminds me of the Baby Bucks of 1943. They try very hard but keep losing," Brown said. He was referring to his last year as head coach at Ohio State when the Buckeyes finished with a 3-6 record.

On a cheerful note, Brown was more than satisfied with the performances of halfback Paul Robinson and rookie quarterback Sam Wyche.

He said, "Robinson is a fine football player who gets better every day. He's a bubbly, enthusiastic competitor."

Robinson, a swift, hard runner, ripped Houston's defense for 156 yards in 21 carries and scored two touchdowns.

His most sensational run came on the last play of the game, when the former Arizona flash gathered in Wyche's screen pass, raced down the sidelines and cut back to the middle on the way to a 68-yard touchdown scamper.

Wyche, promoted from the taxi squad last week to replace injured Dewey Warren, was thrown five times for losses totaling 33 yards. But the rookie from Furman completed 20 of 25 passes for 195 yards, and directed the attack impressively.

"Sam's quite a man," Brown said. "He stood in there like a soldier."

Houston, now 4-5, jumped off to a 10 - 0 first quarter advantage when Wayne Walker booted a 27-yard field goal and Don Trull guided the Oilers 90 yards in 16 plays with the payoff a four-yard toss to Al Reed.

Dale Livingston's 28 - yard field goal early in the second period cut the Oiler lead to 10-3. And Wyche sparked a Bengal march minutes later to the Houston six. But the Oiler defense stiffened and Livingston missed a key 16-yard field goal try.

Trull, completing two passes to Jim Beirne for 55 yards, promptly steered the Oilers 80 yards in eight plays, with Hoyle Granger crashing over from the one for a 17-3 halftime lead.

Cincinnati bounced back in the third period when Wyche completed eight straight passes for 64 yards and Robinson ran the final four to cut the deficit to 17-10.

But Trull, who finished with 13 of 20 aerials for 181 yards, connected four times in an eight-play, 69-yard drive culminated by a 10 - yard touchdown strike to Mac Haik.

Walker's 41 - yard field goal with 9:44 remaining closed out Houston's scoring and the Bengals couldn't reach paydirt again until Wyche and Robinson teamed up on the 68-yard TD that gave the partisan crowd of 24,012 a final thrill.

Wind Helps McMurry

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

If you've never seen the wind blow in West Texas, ask Southwest Texas State punter Bill Soyars. He could write a book.

The Southwest Texas State footballers were nursing a 17-14 lead over McMurry in a Lone Star Conference game at Abilene Saturday.

SWTS was backed into its own end of the field in the waning minutes and Soyars kept trying to kick out of trouble—into a 25 mile an hour wind.

Soyars punted twice during those crucial last minutes. The first boot went for a minus six yards. The second covered only 13 yards and set up McMurry for a one-yard touchdown plunge by Archie Smith and a 21-17 victory.

The victory gave McMurry a 2-1 league standard and kept alive hopes of a LSC title. The Indians now are third behind East Texas State, 3-0-1 and Texas A&I, 3-1.

In other games Saturday, East Texas State whipped Howard Payne 24-14, Texas A&I trounced Sul Ross 43-0, Tarleton State defeated Angelo State 24-10 and Sam Houston State nipped S. F. Austin 30-28.

East Texas State will try to protect its conference lead this week against Sam Houston. Texas A&I is at Howard Payne, Tarleton State goes to Southwestern Oklahoma, S. F. Austin is at Southwest Texas, McMurry is at Sul Ross and Angelo State hosts Northwood Institute.

Youngest PGA tour winner in 1967 was Marty Fleckman, 23, who won the Cajun Classic.

Lakers Sink Phoenix Suns

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The expansion Phoenix Suns don't figure to win many games against the Los Angeles Lakers and Wilt Chamberlain, Elgin Baylor and Jerry West, and now it turns out they can't beat the Lakers with Chamberlain and West gone.

That's the disappointment that confronted the Suns Sunday night when Chamberlain left to attend his father's funeral and West was out with a leg injury. The Lakers still bombed the Suns 127-109 in their National Basketball Association game.

In other games, Boston held off Atlanta 123-103, the New York Knicks crushed Seattle 122-108 and San Diego topped Chicago 121-107.

In the only American Basketball Association contest the New York Mets beat Kentucky 112-103.

Baylor took up the scoring slack and everything else for the Lakers by scoring 40 points, pulling in 14 rebounds and passing for 12 assists.

Dick Van Arsdale had a career high 38 points for Phoenix.

John Havlicek came off the bench and scored 28 points for Boston, which jumped to a 20-point first quarter lead and led 62-54 at the half. Zelmo Beaty had 27 points for the Hawks.

San Diego turned a 58-48 halftime lead into a 17-point spread early in the third quarter and never was threatened as Elvin Hayes scored 30 points.

The Knicks jumped to an 8-0 lead and never trailed, although Seattle did pull even once at 59, before falling behind by 19. Cazzie Russell led the Knicks with 35 points.

Dan Anderson's basket put the Mets ahead 78-77 and they followed with six more points for an 84-77 spread. Kentucky never got closer than two again. Layern Tart had 36 points for the Nets and Darel Carrier 33 for the Colonels.

In the NBA Saturday night, Detroit overcame New York 112-104, Milwaukee edged San Francisco 102-101, Cincinnati turned back Philadelphia 119-113 and Seattle upended Chicago 101-95. Boston at Baltimore was rescheduled for a later date.

In Saturday night's ABA action, Minnesota whipped New York 130-114, Oakland downed Denver 120-106, Houston outlasted Indiana 102-100, Los Angeles beat New Orleans 108-104 and Miami defeated Kentucky 92-85.

Poker-Faced Limey Triumphs

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Poker-faced Graham Hill of England sailed serenely to a second world championship Sunday as he won the seventh Mexican Grand Prix, setting a record on the five-kilometer course of one hour, 56:43.95.

Bruce McLaren of New Zealand was second and Jackie Oliver of England earned third place, giving England two top places in this race for the first time.

Defending world champion Denis Hulme's McLaren Ford burst into flames while he was running third on the 11th lap.

The fire was caused by the collapse of a shock absorber which made one side of the car drop down. Hulme escaped unharmed.

Bears Nip Green Bay With Late Field Goal

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Mac Percival booted a 43-yard field goal on a rarely-invoked free kick with 26 seconds to play Sunday, giving the Chicago Bears a 13-10 victory over the struggling Green Bay Packers.

The NFL champs, who had spent most of the afternoon chasing Gale Sayers up and down Lambeau Field, stood by helplessly as Percival kicked the winning three-pointer after Chicago Coach Vince Dooley went for the free kick option.

An NFL rule permits a free kick, punt or placement, without opposition after one team makes a fair catch of a punt. So, when Cecil Turner fielded Donny Anderson's short punt on the Green Bay 43, Dooley called the shot—and Percival delivered.

"It's my second biggest thrill," said Percival, whose toe has helped the Bears reel off three straight victories and climb back into contention for the Central Division title. "Last week was the biggest."

The 28-year-old kicking specialist booted a 47-yard field goal with three seconds remaining the previous Sunday to beat Minnesota 26-24. 'That was the first time I had ever won a game for the Bears," he said.

Chicago, 4-4, is tied for the Central lead with the Vikings, who whipped Washington 27-14 Sunday. The Packers and the Detroit Lions, who bowed to Los Angeles 10-7, are one half game back at 3-4-1.

Baltimore battered the New York Giants 26-0, Dallas trimmed New Orleans 17-3, Cleveland topped San Francisco 33-21, St. Louis trounced Philadelphia 45-17 and Pittsburgh drubbed Atlanta 41-21 in other games.

In the American League, the New York Jets downed Buffalo 25-21, San Diego edged Miami 34-28, Houston beat Cincinnati 27-17, Denver slammed Boston 35-14 and Oakland pasted Kansas City 38-14.

Sayers ran through the Packers for 205 yards—his biggest ground-gaining binge as a pro, but he almost wore goat horns after fumbling on the Chicago 39 midway in the final quarter with the game tied 10-10.

Packer defensive back Herb Adderley grabbed the ball and raced to the 14, but the Bears held and Chuck Mercein's field goal attempt sailed wide.

Minutes later, Percival was on target with his 11th field goal in 12 attempts in the Bears' last three games. He kicked a 10-yarder in the second period for a string of 10 without a miss, but had another three-point bid blocked by Lee Roy Caffey early in the fourth period.

Rookie Charlie West returned a punt 98 yards for a touchdown—tying the 35-year-old NFL record set by Gil LeFevre of Cincinnati—and Joe Kapp tossed two scoring passes to Gene Washington, leading Minnesota past the Redskins.

The Rams, stunned by Lem Barney's 98-yard touchdown bolt with the opening kickoff, blanked Detroit the rest of the way while Roman Gabriel passed 36 yards to Willie Ellison for the go-ahead score and Bruce Gossett kicked a 37-yard field goal.

The victory kept Los Angeles, 6-1, in a tie for the Coastal Division lead with the Colts, who handed New York its first shutout loss in 76 games. Earl Morrall fired a pair of touchdown passes against his former Giant teammates and Lou Michaels kicked two field gols.

Don Meredith and Bob Hayes clicked for two Dallas touchdown strikes before a Sugar Bowl crowd of 84,728—largest in the NFL this season. Bill Kilmer, New Orleans' quarterback, suffered a fractured right ankle early in the game and will be out at least four weeks.

Dallas' Ron Widby got off an 84-yard punt, breaking Billy Lothridge's league record by 14 yards.

LeRoy Kelly rambled for 174 rushing yards, Bill Nelsen threw two scoring passes to Milt Moron, and Dan Cockroft kicked three field goals as the Browns stomped San Francisco.

Roy Shivers ran for two touchdowns and grabbed a 40-yard scoring pass from Jim Hart, pacing a St. Louis attack.

Pittsburgh's Roy Jefferson became the first NFL player in five years to catch four touchdown passes in one game, scoring on plays covering 27, 61, 9 and 38 yards, to flatten Atlanta. The Steeler end finished with 11 receptions for 199 yards.

IF PEACE COMES—

What About US Economy?

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The Vietnam bombing cessation brings to the forefront an important domestic question: What would the end of the war mean for the nation's economy?

In strictly financial terms, it is clear that in spite of the deep divisions created by disagreement over the war most Americans have greatly improved their standard of living in the past few years—some because of war-related jobs.

It is also clear that the energies required to stop the Communists in Vietnam at least indirectly diverted some resources from domestic projects such as housing, pollution control and education.

If the Vietnam war is ended, these projects are expected to fill the slack in economic demand and to be the spur to more jobs and further expansion of the economy.

Those who have long studied these problems but without the means to do all they wished to resolve them, regard a real improvement in living conditions as a key to more amicable, less tense human relatons to a more spiritually solvent America.

The ending of the war would, in itself, be a spur to some segments of business. Thousands of young men released to civilian life with bank accounts could help push automobile sales to an alltime high.

It could also mean lower taxes, an opportunity to balance spending with income, reduce inflation. It could mean the opportunity for the federal government to share revenues with hard-pressed states. It could provide the opportunity to begin in earnest the exploration of the oceans, and to spur space studies.

It is partly for these reasons that some businessmen are among the most enthusiastic supporters of a de-escalation. In fact, the literature of business—the magazines, investment letters, economic advisories—is full of the subject.

As do supporters of political candidates, many in the investment community attest to this desire for peace by rallying behind a slogan, this one being "Peace is bullish."

And, like followers of a candidate, their enthusiasm tends to obscure the blemishes. Although peace may be bullish, the bull, so to speak, has warts. There are those who might not share in the good times. And adjustments lie ahead also.

First, the peace dividend, the money that is expected to be saved by an end to the war. Some put this figure at $30 billion a year, the very amount which it costs now to prosecute the war. But Charles Schultze, former budget director, feels the amount might be only half that. Some might be retained by the military.

Another blemish is jobs. A study by the Chamber of Commerce, released earlier this year, estimates that between 1 million and 1.4 millions jobs have resulted from the war buildup. So there would be adjustment problems in this area if the war ends.

The study found that serious employment problems could result from a big military spending cutback, especially in California, Connecticut, Illinois, Maryland, Missouri, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Texas and Virginia.

It also reached the conclusion that blue collar workers would be hurt the most, partly because they are "less mobile, geographically and occupationally than higher skilled workers."

The truth is that dangers as well as opportunities lie in the adjustment period. A subtle mix of government spending, taxes, interest rates and incentives to business is needed to avoid the extremes of inflation or necession.

Junior Editors Quiz on CACTUS

ANSWER: A desert is an area where less than 10 inches of rain fall every year. If there were no rain whatever in a desert area, one would find no plants and animals there, except such animals as used by travelers. But in many deserts, such as the American one shown in the picture, a certain amount of rain does fall. The plants and animals living there are those which have means of retaining this moisture and making it go a long way. Desert plants have several ways of getting water. Plants such as yuccas and mesquite send down very long tap roots which can penetrate to some underground water source. Others of the cactus family, such as the giant saguaros we show, spread out a wide fan of roots just under the surface to gather the last drop when the rains do fall. Desert flowers grow furiously during a damp spell, flower and come to seed in a month. The seed, with its spark of life, will survive long dry periods. Reptiles flourish in deserts because their scaly skins keep moisture from evaporating.

Plum Movie Role For Jane Merrow

By NORMAN GOLDSTEIN
(For Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP) — Jane Merrow makes a marvelous mistress in "Lion in Winter."

It would be impossible to blame the aging King Henry II for choosing the young French Princess Alais as his mistress 800 years ago, if she looked anything like this ingenue actress.

Those grand green eyes—"sometimes they're green; sometimes they're grayish-green; anyway, they're not emerald"—that long-flowing light brown hair, and a lissome figure shown to much more advantage in 20th century short skirt than in the cumbersome costumes of the 12th century.

But green eyes do not an actress make.

Miss Merrow, an English lass born in Great Gaddesden, loved acting since she was a child. But she feared she wouldn't be able to remember lines, so she sought a teaching education—with a push from her mother, who wanted her to have "something to fall back on" during the out-of-acting-work periods.

But—and let's not overdo this "fate" scene—she couldn't get into the teaching school until she was 18. So, to "fill in the year," she attended the famous Royal Academy of Dramatic Art.

She cut her acting teeth on the stage, and her first film role was in "Don't Bother to Knock." She did some television work—she recalls with delightful exurberance that "marvelous comedy," "Just in Time," a British spoof of the James Bond milieu, "a 'send-up' we call it." Then the title role in BBC-TV's "Lorna Doone" series.

Now a plum movie role for a young actress: the "other woman" in "Lion in Winter," a superb film, produced by Martin Poll for Avco-Embassy Pictures, based on the story of King Henry II, played by Peter O'Toole, and Queen Eleanor of Aquitaino, played by Katharine Hepburn. O'Toole and Miss Hepburn offer their finest performances in this reserved seat attraction and in such quality acting company, Miss Merrow sports herself well.

She recalls being sent the script and deciding "I would throw myself out the window if I don't get the part." A clip of her role in the film, "Night of the Big Heat," was sent to O'Toole and director Anthony Harvey—"don't confuse it with 'In the Heat of the Night.' This was awful"—and then she was called in for a test.

The company, directed by Harvey, spent three weeks in rehearsal—"so we could get to know each other; it's such an intimate play"—before starting shooting last November. It was filmed mainly on locations in France, with some work in Ireland and Wales.

And a starlet was born.

Humphrey To Vote In Rural Area

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey will cast his paper ballot Tuesday in a small rural building heated by an old-fashioned wood-burning stove.

The Marysville Township Hall, about a mile from Humphrey's home on Lake Waverly, was built more than 60 years ago.

The record average crowd in harness racing — 26,042 per night — was set at Roosevelt Raceway during 1964.

Work Speeded On Robert Lee Dam

With the prospect that the City of San Angelo may enter into a contract with the Colorado River Municipal Water District for water from the new lake at Robert Lee, efforts toward starting a closure of the dam within about a month are being stepped up.

O. H. Ivie, CRMWD, general manager, said Friday that essential work on the spillway is due to be complete around Dec. 1. This is necessary before the general contractor, Clement Bros., can begin dumping earth into the channel gap.

Ivie conferred with San Angelo officials last week and the two were in substantive agreement on terms of a water sale contract. A proposed form of contract is now being drafted. Meanwhile, San Angelo is proceeding with plans to construct a pump station at the south end of the Robert Lee lake prior to the time that water would be impounded.

"If the San Angelo contract is executed," said Ivie, it is all the more imperative that the work be expedited so that there will be water available."

The district is asking bids on connections at the Big Spring reservoir with the new 33-in. line from that point to the Martin County station, and with the 42-in. line from the Big Spring station east to Moss Creek Lake and thence to Robert Lee. This is to be done during the winter months when demands will be light enough for the Big Spring reservoir to be drained. The city will be served by an auxiliary reservoir.

About six miles of the 27-in. line from the Sun Oil water line to storage reservoir above Colorado City is nearing completion. The slots for gates on the spillway at Robert Lee are being poured. Last of the original 65 cresment of oil with mastic has been completed.

Armstrong Rites Here

Allen M. Armstrong, 79, former Snyder resident, died at 9 p.m. Sunday in the Plains Convalescent Home at Plainview.

He had lived here from 1930 until 1963 when he moved to Kress.

Surviving are his wife of Kress, a daughter, Mrs. Thomas Brooks of Snyder, a son, James Armstrong of Kress, four grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Funeral arrangements were pending this morning at the Bell - Seale Funeral Home here.

The Turtle, a one-man submarine, in 1776 made an unsuccessful attempt to sink a British man of war in New York Harbor.

FUTURE RELATIVELY BRIGHT

Congo Finds Basic Peace

By MORT ROSENBLUM
Associated Press Writer

KINSHASA, the Cong (AP)—Near the post office a policeman stopped all traffic, left his platform and strode to the curb. Then he lightly took a stooped old woman by the arm and helped her cross the street.

It's a Boy Scout cliche, but it says a lot to anyone who knew the Congo in other days.

There is a basic peace over the Congo that is so strange to old-timers that some refuse to admits it exists. It has cost dearly, but after more than eight years of independence, the Congo has never had it so good.

This does not mean trouble free. One experienced diplomat, respected as a Central Africa expert puts it: "The Congo is no longer a disaster, it's just a terrible problem."

Some are much more enthusiastic, particularly members of President Joseph D. Mobutu's regime, which fetes its third anniversary Nov. 24.

Pierre Muelel, no threat in recent years but symbol of the holdout rebellion in the bush, is dead. The scenario of his execution brought a flurry of external reaction and unconfirmed grisly details, but there seemed nearly universal approval here.

There is no serious organized opposition to Mobutu. Economically, the future is relatively bright. Prices are 11 times what they were in June 1960, the index shows. But for the last few months, they have stabilized and in some cases even dropped a bit.

Hopefully, wages will ease upward toward a wage-price level that is reasonable on Africa's soaring scale. Now some households pay $23 a month just for water while many others' total incomes aren't that high.

In the interior, where most of the Congo's 15 million live, peace means planted fields can be harvested. Slowly markets and transportation are reaching areas stranded for years.

A successful monetary reform has whittled black-market exchange. A new diamond-buying office probably will stem the flow of smuggled wealth. The state-owned copper mines are well-run and productive.

Investors are starting to propose deals and sign papers. Britain's Leyland Motor Co. and Calico Printers Association are ready to build plants. The United States' Continental Grain Co. and Union Carbide are coming in.

Tourists are starting to come, too. Air Congo has package tours, and air-conditioned buses visit the nearby attractions.

Kisangani, once Stanleyville, and Bukavu, towns repeatedly ravaged by rebellion, are rising again as important provincial centers. Lubumbashi, once Elisabethville, has lost its frontier boom-town flavor of the Katanga secession and post-secession day.

Across the Congo, essential services suffer from unpaid personnel and bills. But somehow the most pressing bills get paid. The government has announced a sweeping program to straighten out public finance, although it is still in a suspended stage.

Corruption, one of the Congo's biggest enemies, is still rampant, but Mobutu is making inroads against it. The national police force has gotten a thorough shaking up by the new interior minister, Joseph Nsinga. Now, even if a policeman is looking for a bribe, he'll salute first.

The real test, of course, is whether the calm lasts. Until now, it hasn't. Temporary periods of well-being were shattered by rebellion and renewed bitterness. This time, many feel, could be different.

Mobutu at 38 is a much stronger man than he was at 30 when he climbed atop a table and announced the army had "Neutralized" the Congolese government. Mobutu took charge completely after five years of political and tribal jostling. Now there is only one party for the Congo's 400 Mobutu's figure tribes and eight provinces covering an area the size of the United States east of the Mississippi. Many argue that it is the only answer.

31 Violent Deaths Counted

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Texas counted 31 violent deaths during the weekend, including 24 in traffic accidents.

The toll was recorded between 6 p.m. Friday and midnight Sunday.

Two of the victims remained unidentified at a late hour. One was a woman whose body was found Saturday in Austin's Town Lake, where she apparently went for a swim. The other was a man found Sunday after he presumably fell off an overpass in Southeast Houston.

These also were among the dead:

Kenneth Rose, about 35, of Portland, Tex., stepped into a deep hole and drowned Sunday while fishing in Corpus Christi Bay.

Firemen found Louis W. Swindall, 64, suffocated in a bathroom after putting out a two-alarm fire in a Northeast Houston apartment.

Frank H. Williams, 26, was shot and killed in a lounge near downtown Fort Worth early Sunday. Police held a woman.

Margaret Wilkins, 20, died in an Abilene hospital Sunday of injuries suffered as two cars collided Saturday on U.S. 67 in Brownwood.

Danny W. Brummerhop, 18, of Seabrook died Sunday in a Galveston hospital of injuries he received Saturday night when his car left Farm Road 518 near Kemah and struck a culvert.

David Robert Belkin, 19, of Mesquite was killed Sunday when his car skidded into a telephone pole in East Dallas County.

George Munez, about 25, was killed when the car in which he was riding struck a parked car in Dallas. Munez was thrown from his vehicle and was then run over by another vehicle which did not stop.

Tony Sorole, 21, of Houston, died Sunday of bullet wounds he received Saturday while sitting in his car. Companions told police a carload of youths pulled alongside their car and began firing. Two 16-year-old youths in the car were also wounded.

Robert Owens Jr., 39, of Houston, was killed early Sunday when the truck in which he was riding spun out of control and hit a guard rail on U.S. 59 near Houston.

Belinda Ales, 19, of Houston, was shot to death in a Houston apartment Sunday. Police held a man.

C. H. Hormell, 78, of Dallas was killed Sunday night as two cars collided head-on on Texas 114 east of Rhome in Wise County. A companion, Earl Reeves, 31, of Dallas, was injured.

Transit System Seeks To Thwart Bandits

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — An exact-fare policy designed to thwart holdup men was put into effect Sunday by the Cleveland Transit System.

Drivers will carry no change and will accept nothing larger than a $1 bill. Riders with more than the 30-cent fare are given a receipt which can be redeemed at the CTS office downtown.

Saleslady Is Go-Go Gal At Age 90

By JOHN FOX
Associated Press Writer.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — If your image of a door-to-door salesman is a brash young man with his foot in the door, you obviously haven't met Mrs. M. N. Lallie Keele.

Mrs. Keele sells spices, tea and other household items in south Louisville.

She was 90 years old Sunday.

Mrs. Keel, has been at it, on her own, since her husband died 19 years ago. Before that, she helped him with his route.

"I don't do much soliciting anymore," she remarks. "But I still do all my own delivering. If you need anything, just call and I'll bring it over."

Her territory is more than one-half mile long and one-third mile wide. She covers it on foot several times a week—after she reaches it. She lives in another salesman's territory and walks to work.

"I never learned to drive a car," says Mrs. Keele.

Her husband was a Baptist preacher who did parttime jobs to make ends meet. They reared six children, and their offspring are now in the fourth generation.

Still ruler-straight at age 90, Mrs. Keele lives alone in a five-room home, asking for and receiving no help in keeping it up.

If the weekdays are for Mrs. Keele's business, Sundays are for God.

She has taught Sunday school for 37 years. Of her students, she says, with a twinkle in her eye:

"Sometimes they don't read their lessons."

Those in her class are all 65 years or older.

Young Eisenhower Opposes Protestors

IMPERIAL, Calif. (AP) — David Eisenhower, 20-year-old grandson of the former president, says student "protesters are wrong."

"This is the best time to be alive, and America is the best country to live in," young Eisenhower told 5,000 persons Sunday at a Republican rally.

With his fiance, Julie Nixon, David wound up two months of campaigning in 33 states in the presidential bid of Julie's father, Richard M. Nixon.

Nixon On Major Issues:

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

NEW YORK (AP) — Richard M. Nixon, Republican presidential nominee, says that any college student or faculty member who breaks the law and engages in violence should be expelled immediately.

"That would be my advice," he said. "That would be the national tone that I would set, and I would hope that some of the leaders of our colleges and universities would get the spine and the backbone to do exactly that."

Nixon made the statement in a question-and-answer interview with a team of Associated Press editors. Some of the questions, which dealt with domestic and foreign affairs, were similar to those asked in earlier interviews with Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, the Democratic candidate, and former Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama, candidate of the American Independent party.

On the matter of bombing in Vietnam, Nixon said, "I would not have used it at all unless I used it diplomatically."

"I would have gone to the North Vietnamese," he said, "and I would have clearly indicated that we did not want to bomb the North, but that we could not tolerate the infiltration from the North of forces that were killing our troops, and that unless this were discontinued that then we would have to use the bombing device in order to stop it. And then I would have used it had they not stopped it.

"I would have used it in a much more decisive way.

"The application of force gradually is a mistake. We have wasted our military advantage by applying it graduatlly."

Nixon said that students can make vigorous dissent so long as it is peaceful.

"But when they break the law, when they engage in conduct which, in effect, denies to others their rights to listen or their right to hear, or when they go much furher as some of the student groups have and occupy buildings and insist on their demands with illegal means, then out," he said. "They should be through. They should be out of the universities and colleges.

"This idea of sitting down and negotiating with the leaders of a mob and then buying them off in effect by new concessions, all that does is encourage this kind of stuff in the future."

On other matters, Nixon said:

If a confrontation occurred in the Mid-East between the United States and the Soviet Union, "the danger of world war is greater than it is in Vetnam."

He favors repeal of the 10 per cent federal income surtax "as soon as we can get out economy in shape" and a general over-all tax reform.

The questions and answers:

Q: Law and order has been described by all three candidates in the presidential election as one of the main issues of this campaign. All are for law and order, but few specifics have been advanced to deal with the problem. We would like to try to clarify this by suggesting we take law and order and break it down to specific problems and ask how you would deal with each.

First, how would you combat the growth of organized crime, which has increased steadily despite the efforts of the FBI and other police forces?

A: You start first with strengthening the organized crime division of the Department of Justice. It has been allowed to be greatly weakened during the administration of Ramsey Clark. It was strengthened, incidentally, during the administration of Attorney General Rogers, and also Robert Kennedy.

I would strengthen it in terms of personnel and in terms of the instructions to the top, that it is essental to wage an effective drive against organized crime. That would be in terms of men, money, and emphasis. And then the major differences I have with this administration, I would use the wiretapping power which has been given to the Justice Department by the Congress and which the attorney general has refused to use against organized crime because of his objections to that provision. . .

And then there are some peripheral areas which directly relate to organized crime. Organized crime makes an immense amount of its income from narcotics traffic. That is why the program I have advocated, with regard to greatly increasing the number of customs officials on our borders to stop the flow of narcotics into the United States, also increasing our diplomatic efforts with other countries from which those narcotics come, to see that we can cut them down, as well as a general program dealing with narcotics.

Q: Your comment on narcotics answers in part a second question. How would you deal with the widespread growth in recent years of petty crime, mainly committed by youth, which has infested every area in the country? Tied to this is the question of the growth of drug addiction, since much of the crime is committed to obtain funds for narcotics.

A: We have got to distinguish in the case of narcotics between the narcotics user and the narcotics pusher. As far as the narcotics users are concerned, particularly the juvenile who is off on a kick and tries pot, or any of the other various narcotics that are currently popular, we cannot treat them like an ordinary criminal. We have to treat them for the problem that they are. It is, basically, more a psychiatric problem than it is a legal problem, but at the heart of the narcotics problem is the pusher, the individual who sells them, the individual who profits from taking teen-agers, in effect, and making them addicts. And there I think, again first at the federal level where interstate traffic is involved the federal goernment should not only in terms of penalties but in terms of its activities to apprehend such individuals, should step them up very greatly, and then I would have the attorney general, as I have indicated, launch a new federal, state and local program, so that we can enlist local law enforcement officials in apprehending and punishing those who are involved in the traffic. . . .

Now as far as the users are concerned, that, basically, comes down to an educational program, and here I have suggested we launch from the federal level a national program of education and here we have to get the cooperation of the governors, the mayors, and local government officials around the country, a national program with regard to law enforcement and respect for law generally, and in the case of narcotics with regard to the specific dangers involved.

And here I would enlist what I think is the major weapon not only the case of crime but in the case of many of the other activities that plague our society, and that is the tremendous power that exists in the volunteer agencies around this nation. I, for example, found yesterday over in Kansas City that the National Junior Chamber of Commerce is taking as its project for the next year the project of respect for law in their programs of education in the schools and for their public meetings.
