Chaves Wildcat Gets Gas, Distillate Shows

A Northeast Chaves County, New Mexico wildcat has shown interesting signs of gas and distillate, and is to be drilled deeper.

Apache Oil Corporation of Houston, and others, No. 1 Nobles Trust, 40 miles northeast of Roswell, had the signs of petroleum in a drill-stem test in a lime at 6,205-99 feet.

The tool was open two hours. Gas, of a volume of 3,750,000 cubic feet per day, showed at the surface in three minutes.

Mud Flows At Top

Drilling mud came to the surface 20 minutes after the tester was opened. Recovery was 30 feet of free distillate, plus 30 feet of distillate cut drilling mud. There were no indications of formation water.

Open flowing pressure during the test ranged from 300 pounds to 735 pounds.

This prospector is 1,980 feet from south and 2,180 feet from west lines of section 18-44-27E. The well is being supported by several oil companies and independent operators, including Los Nietos Company, and B. H. Grube of Midland.

The zone which developed the gas and distillate is understood to be in a lower Pennsylvanian lime.

C-N Lubbock Venture Is Swabbing To Test

Shick-Moorman Oil Company and C. W. Chancellor No. 1 C and D, Central-North Lubbock County semi-wildcat, had washed the open hole section at 6,100-44 feet, with 500 gallons of mud acid and had then treated with 2,000 gallons of regular acid.

Operators were swabbing to clean out and test at last report.

The section which has been treated had shown a little free oil and some oil and gas cut drilling mud on a drill-stem test.

After casing had been cemented at 6,100 feet the zone between that point and the total depth at 6,144 feet, swabbed dry, on a natural test.

Interested observers expected the acid to cause the well to show oil in commercial quantities.

It is three-quarters of a mile southwest of the discovery well for production from the lower Permian made more than a year ago by Seaboard Oil Company. The participating nations were a Standard Oil & Gas Company, No. 1 Cravens, to open the Cravens field.

The No. 1 C and D is 1,980 feet from south and 660 feet from east lines of section 22, block D, T. 25V, S. 34E.

That puts it 10 miles north and two miles west of the city of Lubbock.

Scurry Deep Project Has Slight O&G Signs

Standard Oil Company of Texas No. 2-5 Brown, deep wildcat on the north side of the North-Snyder-Canyon field, in North-Central Scurry County, had reached 7,996 feet in the upper Ellenburger, and had shown only slight signs of oil and gas on two drill-stem tests since entering that formation at 7,934 feet.

On that marker the venture had a datum of minus 5,494 feet. The latest test was at 7,933-84 feet. The tool was open two and one half hours.

There was a blow of air at the surface for a part of the period. Recovery was 35 feet of slightly oil and gas cut drilling mud. No formation water appeared.

A previous test at 7,930-59 feet, with the tool open two hours, had a blow of air for a part of the test. Recovery was 120 feet of oil and gas cut drilling mud.

This project has already shown for commercial production from the Canyon lime, above 6,900 feet, and if it fails to make a well in the Ellenburger it will be plugged back and completed in the Canyon.

It is 467 feet from north and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 440, block 97, H&TC survey, and 10 miles north of the town of Snyder.

Sunray Finals Scurry Well; Slates Ancoy

Sunray Oil Corporation has completed its No. 2-B R. B. Brown as a natural flowing producer from the Canyon reef line in the North-Snyder field of Central-North Scurry County for an initial daily potential of 1,127.85 barrels of 44.2-gravity oil.

Flow of the new oil was through a 32/64th-inch choke and the gas-oil ratio was 842-1. Flowing tubing pressure was 450 pounds, and the flowing casing pressure was 500 pounds. There was no formation water.

The production came from open hole between five and one-half inch casing cemented at 6,800 feet and the total depth at 6,805 feet. Top of the pay was 6,580 feet.

This new source of oil is 660 feet from north and 2,061 feet from west lines of section 26, tract 13, J. P. Smith survey.

Sunray has staked location for its No. 4-B R. B. Brown, as a 6,900-foot rotary exploration on the south side of the North-Snyder field, and 660 feet from north and west lines of section 21, block 1, J. P. Smith survey.

Drilling is to begin immediately on this venture which will test into the Canyon lime zone. Rotary tools will be used.

It is six miles north of Snyder.

House Does About Face In Approving New Housing Bill

WASHINGTON—(P)—The House reversed itself Thursday to strike down a civil rights amendment previously written into a housing bill. Then the chamber shouted approval of the measure providing about $3,750,000,000 in mortgage insurance to help people with modest incomes build homes.

The House approved, with only a scattering of no votes, a substitute bill that eliminated any reference to the race issue.

Chairman Spence (D-Ky) of the Banking Committee offered the substitute when the House became snarled over the civil rights question and provisions for $300,000,000 in direct housing loans to veterans.

At one time it looked like the argument might sidetrack the bill completely, also eliminating the direct loans, got a tentative vote of 142 to 39 before the House later shouted its final approval by voice vote.

The House Wednesday, by a 77 to 57 tally, wrote a civil rights amendment into the bill, making it unlawful to segregate white and colored persons in housing aided by the legislation. The amendment was offered by Representative Marcantonio (Amr Labor-NY).

The House also had approved Wednesday an amendment providing $300,000,000 in direct loans to veterans.

Spence offered the substitute, eliminating both controversial provisions, when it appeared the snarl might wreck the bill.

European Recovery Rate Slowing Down, ECA Report Declares

WASHINGTON—(P)—The Economic Cooperation Administration (ECA) Thursday reported a slackening in the rate of European recovery.

In a sober report on its first year's operations, the agency said the dollars earned by the nations of Europe during the period were enough to pay for only one-fifth of their imports from the Western Hemisphere.

"This was the critical problem which the participating nations faced as the European Recovery Program (ERP) entered its second year," the ECA said.

However, the report added, the program's "ultimate objective of a healthy economy independent of extraordinary outside assistance" remains as a difficult but attainable goal.

The report noted Congress had set up three aims when it authorized the European recovery project: boosting production, stabilizing currencies and stimulating trade among the participating nations.

Substantial Progress

"In each of these fields," ECA said, "the nations of Europe made substantial progress in the first 12 months of the European Recovery Program."

"As the year drew to a close, however, there were indications of a slackening in the rate of progress, particularly in the export trade, which gave warning of the difficult problems that must be solved before the goal of economic independence can be attained."

The agency noted that Western Europe boosted its exports during the 12-month period, through April 2, 1949, until they were about equal to the prewar volume.

"But the persistent difficulties in earning dollars have posed a continuing problem of sustaining the high level of trade which is of paramount importance both to Europe and the United States."

Labor Day Will Be Holiday In Midland

Labor Day, Monday, September 5, again this year will be observed as an official holiday in Midland, with most business establishments and offices to be closed that day, Henry Murphey, chairman of the Retailers Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, announced Thursday.

The Labor Day holiday, he said, is one of six agreed upon by the retailers group for observance this year.

North Atlantic Treaty Becomes Reality

President Truman signs a proclamation stating the North Atlantic Treaty now is an operating actuality. The President signed the proclamation at the White House in the presence of representatives of many of the participating nations. Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson, fourth from left, and Secretary of State Dean Acheson, third from right, also attended.

'Righters' Ousted From Democratic Committee

Five Southerners were removed from the committee rolls because they supported the States' Rights ticket against President Truman in the 1948 campaign.

Dollar Shortage May Scuttle Free Medical Program In Britain

LONDON—(P)—The British Treasury has asked all government departments to cut down spending. It hopes to save at least $600,000,000—or five per cent of the nation's budget—in the next year.

A government source, reporting this Thursday, said the Treasury action was prompted by Britain's financial crisis. The Treasury controls government spending.

Disclosure of the move follows widespread American criticism of the Labor government's home spending. The informant stressed that it was not a result of any United States government suggestions.

Another informant, close to the Labor government, said Britain may have to limit her social services and drop the tax-supported medical program if monetary talks in Washington next month end in failure.

20 Cents Per Call

Britain's social services, together with food subsidies, cost one quarter of the country's whole annual budget of $12,000,000,000.

Britons now can call on doctors without paying fees under the 13-month-old National Health Service, though each pays up to six shillings, eight pence weekly ($1.33) to help support it.

If the Washington parity fails, the informant said, British leaders may have to consider having each person pay a shilling (20 cents) for each visit.

He explained that the calls on the service have far exceeded advance estimates and Britain cannot go on spending so much on the service out of general taxation.

Chiang Announces Canton No Longer Is Refugee Capital

CANTON—(P)—Chiang Kai-Shek appealed to Nationalist China Thursday for a finish fight against the "aggression" of the "Communist International." The Reds answered with a new push on uneasy Canton.

The Chinese Reds have "unmasked themselves as an international agency," the Nationalist generalissimo declared. He saw their power waning as a "strong arrow reaching the end of its flight."

But he also seemed to see the end of Canton as his government's refugee capital. For he said, "Today Chungking will again become the center for the fight against aggression."

While a number of them are not giving the President solid support, Boyle said it is up to the people to elect the right kind of men to Congress.

"I certainly don't intend to enter any primary fights in any states," he said.

Mexico Flooded By Counterfeit $10 Bills

MEXICO CITY—(P)—Police said Thursday Mexico is being "flooded with counterfeit U. S. $10 bills."

They said the excellent imitations apparently are coming from Europe on tramp steamers. The method of passing them in tourist centers, which are accustomed to taking U. S. money, shows an experienced and large gang is at work, the police said.

Military Cuts Put Solons On Hot Seat

WASHINGTON—(P)—Members of Congress found themselves squeezed Thursday between a military economy drive many of them had demanded and the outraged cries of constituents affected by the proposed cuts.

A typical example was offered by a Western House member. He said he has been deluged up to now with letters urging him to vote for cuts in appropriations.

Now, he said, the same people are complaining bitterly against military cutbacks in his district.

The predicament resulted from Secretary of Defense Johnson's announcement Wednesday that the armed forces plan to fire 135,000 of their 900,000 civilian employees, while returning 12,000 reserve officers from active to inactive status.

That program aims at a $200,000,000 saving during the fiscal year which started July 1 and savings of $500,000,000 a year thereafter. It would help bring next year's military budget down to $13,400,000,000. The 1949 budget totals $14,900,000,000.

Johnson said the cuts are those proposed by the three armed services themselves. They will result in the closing of about 50 defense installations and the slimming down of others.

South Florida Is Alerted For New Atlantic Hurricane

MIAMI, FLA.—(P)—South Florida Thursday was put on the alert for a hurricane, forecasters at Miami, chief storm forecaster at Miami, to inform the Northern Bahamas Islands to take hurricane precautions and Southern Florida to stand by on the alert.

The storm at 10 a.m. CST was 480 miles east-southeast of Miami, moving at 15 miles an hour.

"This storm is playing a few tricks," said Norton. "It has developed an elongated center and isn't following a true course. We are watching it like a hawk."

Meantime Harry's Hurricane, so named because its brief threat to Florida coincided with President Truman's visit to Miami Monday, was traveling due east.

"We can write that one off," said Norton. "All threat to land has ended as far as it is concerned."

★ LATE NEWS FLASHES ★

DALLAS—(AP)—Area rent control offices in Texas all will be closed by September 1, and some already are about to quit, Director Russell Stephens said Thursday.

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Two Senate committees voted Thursday to put a $450,000,000 limit on the amount of "excess" arms that may be sent to "friendly nations" under President Truman's military aid program.

AUSTIN—(AP)—The State Highway Commission warned Thursday that farm-to-market roads will be delayed in counties where right-of-way acquisition for other highway projects is lagging.

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator Lucas (D-Ill) predicted Thursday that a compromise farm-price-support measure will be ready for Senate action within a week.

Suspended Naval Official Talks Up In Bomber Probe

WASHINGTON—(P)—The suspended Navy official who wrote the anonymous memo that touched off the B-36 investigation acknowledged Thursday he put "confidential data" into it.

Cedric Worth also told the House Armed Services Committee he had given a copy of the document to Plane Manufacturer Glenn Martin without knowing whether Martin was entitled to secret information.

The document now has reached many hands.

Committee Counsel Joseph B. Keenan suggested that parts of it relating performance figures of the giant, six-engine intercontinental bomber, "might help an enemy or potential enemy."

"I don't doubt that they had it," Worth said.

The exchange of confidential material came shortly after Worth had backed down on part of Wednesday's testimony.

At that time he told the House committee making the investigation that he told his boss, Navy Undersecretary Dan Kimball, four or five days ago that he wrote the memo.

Thursday Worth said what he actually told Kimball was that Chairman Vinson of the committee was saying Worth was the writer.

In sharp questioning Keenan prodded Worth to name the "unscrupulous men" Worth mentioned in the memo. Worth finally produced only the name of Floyd Odlum, head of The Atlas Corporation, which controls Consolidated-Vultee Aircraft Company, makers of the B-36.

The memo linked Odlum to charges of politics connected with the Air Force B-36 program.

Keenan conducted Worth down through the anonymous document, asking pointed questions about paragraphs and phrases.

Oil Industry Throws Weight Behind State Control Of Tidelands

WASHINGTON—(P)—The petroleum industry threw its weight Thursday behind state control of oil-rich Tidelands.

Witnesses for companies now exploring submerged coastal areas for oil and gas told a House Judiciary subcommittee that "every equity" calls for control to rest with the states instead of the federal government.

The industry witnesses backed a compromise bill to give the states inland waters, recognize their right to manage the marginal belt within their boundaries, and allow them 62 1/2 per cent of the royalties from mineral leases in the marginal belt or 50 per cent of such revenues produced from mineral extractions on the continental shelf.

They said regardless of how Congress finally settles the issue, however, it should do nothing to imperil the millions of dollars invested by oil companies in exploring and producing on submerged areas.

Baker Cites Lease Rights

Elihu H. Baker, president of the Humble Oil and Refining Company, said that in the cases of Texas and Louisiana, lease rights that may have been obtained since the Supreme Court ruled in the California case should be held "in abeyance."

Those two states were not involved in the California suit, Baker said, and each has "special defenses" which it would present in court.

For Congress to enact a law jeopardizing those leases would amount to "prejudging their special defenses," Baker contended.

Also favoring the compromise states rights bill were: H. H. Kavelier, Phillips Petroleum Company, Bartlesville, Okla.; E. F. Bullard, president of the Stanolind Oil and Gas Company, and Ernie Pyles, general manager of the Jer-jens Oil Company, Long Beach, Calif.

House Defies Senate To Halt Adjournment

WASHINGTON—(P)—Speaker Sam Rayburn said Thursday the House will adjourn Friday until September 21 regardless of the Senate's refusal to approve an adjournment resolution.

"We are going away anyhow," Rayburn told his news conference. "The House adjournment, he said, will be accomplished by passage of a simple resolution by which a few members of the House will agree to meet twice weekly until September 21 with the understanding that no business will be transacted. Such a resolution does not require Senate approval."

The Senate Wednesday refused to concur in a resolution calling for a 25-day House adjournment.

Expulsion Prescribed For Participation In Secret School Clubs AUSTIN.—(P)—Expulsion or suspension of pupils found taking part in secret societies, fraternities or fraternities in public schools is mandatory for school authorities, the attorney general held Wednesday. The ruling, requested by State Superintendent L. A. Woods, applies only to the high school and lower levels, not junior or senior colleges or universities. The law passed by the 51st Legislature banning secret or social groups does not affect welfare agencies such as Boy Scouts, Hi-Y, Girl Reserves, DeMolay, Rainbow Girls, Pan-American Clubs, scholarship societies, and other similar groups sponsored by the state or national education authorities.

Doris Schauer Becomes Bride Of Norman Hoback In Church Married In Candlelight Ceremony

In a candlelight ceremony on the wedding anniversary of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herb B. Schauer, Doris Eleanor Schauer became the bride of Norman Haskell Hoback in the Grace Lutheran Church Wednesday night.

Hoback is the son of Mrs. D. H. Davis of Colorado City and R. J. Hoback of Loveland.

The Rev. Gilbert C. Becker read the double ring ceremony before an altar with fan shaped arrangements of white gladiolus and Marconi daisies on either side. Woodwardia trees flanked the altar floral arrangements. Candelabra with white tapers lighted the sanctuary. White satin marked the family pew and Marconi daisies composed the pew bouquets.

Sister And Brother Attend

Mrs. H. C. Bozarth of Austin, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and R. J. Hoback, Jr., of Colorado City attended his brother as best man.

Betty Harrelson of Shreveport, La., Charlotte Franke of Austin and Mrs. Ammon Bradshaw were bridesmaids. Ushers were H. C. Bozarth of Austin, Bill Murfee of Lubbock and Norbert F. Harms of Andrews.

Sammie Norris of Houston, cousin of the bride, was flower girl and Jimmy Bozarth of Austin, nephew of the bride, the ring bearer.

The organist, Mrs. G. C. Kollmeyer of Odessa, played "I Love Thee," Greig, and Tschalkowski's "Love Song" from Symphony Number Five preceding the ceremony and "Liebestraum," Liszt, during the ceremony. She also sang "Wedding Song," Polack, Norbert Harms of Andrews sang "The Lord's Prayer," Malotte.

Bride's Gown Of Lace

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace over satin, with a yoke of illusion and long sleeves coming to a point over the wrist. The long waisted tight fitting bodice came to a point in the center front and back with the lace skirt falling in folds to the floor. Her double tiered fingertip veil of imported illusion edged in lace was caught with a coronet of seed pearls.

She wore a diamond and pearl necklace which her father gave her mother as a wedding gift. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis centered with a white orchid and showered with narrow ribbon tied in lovers' knots.

The matron of honor and bridesmaids were dressed in bud pink faille crepe gowns fashioned with gathered skirts and fitted bodices. A bertha collar of soft folds in the front came to a point in the back to give a sleeve effect. They carried colonial bouquets of dusty pink carnations with ribbon showers.

Bearer Carries Rings

The flower girl, wearing a pink taffeta dress, carried a satin basket of flowers and the ring bearer wore a white linen suit and carried the rings on a white and pink satin pillow.

The mother of the bride wore a cocoa color gown of silk and lace and the bridegroom's mother, an aqua crepe. Both wore light tender cattleya orchid corsages.

The reception was held in the home of the bride's parents, 1608 West Tennessee Street, after the ceremony. The bridal party and the mothers of the bride and bridegroom received the guests.

The house party included Ruth Ann Fehr of Tulsa, Mrs. W. C. Norris of Houston, aunt of the bride, Mary Ann Goddard, and Mrs. Beulah Taylor.

Table All In White

The bouquet for the bride's table was of white gladiolus and Marconi daisies. The serving table was centered with an all white arrangement of carnations and Marconi daisies. The table was covered with

Girl Scout Troop Receives 'Thank You' Note For CARE Gift To Italian Family

On July 26, Giovanni Testolin in Calvene (Vicenza), Italy, received a CARE package of vegetable seeds. The return address on the receipt slip of the parcel was that of Troop 16 of the Midland Girl Scouts.

In return for the package, the Girl Scouts this week received a letter from Testolin which, translated literally by Mrs. Malcolm Breneman, a native of Italy, read as follows:

"Dear Generous Ladies, I received your package with many things inside. I don't know how to tell you thank you for that. I know personally the Americans have very good hearts because when I was young I lived over there. I worked in a Pullman factory in Wisconsin.

Remember Americans

"After six years I go back to Italy because my parents want me there, but I hope all the time to go back to the States some day, but after World War I I cannot emigrate to America under the quota. But never do I forget the dear and good American friends. Everyone loves the Americans.

"I am very sorry that I cannot write in your beautiful language. I learned a few words when I was there in Oakfield, Wis. For all the good American friends best regards from me and my family. Yours gratefully,

"G. Testolin."

Earned Money For Gift

Troop 16 is a group of Intermediate Girl Scouts. By selling Christmas Cards last year the members raised money, part of which bought the package of vegetable seeds that went to Italy. Sent in April, this gift was part of the work toward Class II tests for the group.

Leader of the troop is Mrs. R. F. Carroll and members are Mary Jane Cox, Roberta Donnell, Vickie Hill-pold, Luwertha Hiett, Connie Kitley, Sharon Fink, Shannon McEachern, Mary Belle Ten Eyck, Nancy Mayfield, Janice Roberson, Jonanna Sewell, Marie Spiars, Beulah Pittman, Mae Whitson, Patsy Guyton and Gail Peters.

C. S. Hess And Bride At Home Near Pecos

PECOS—Billie Marie Saxon of McAllen became the bride of Craig S. Hess, Jr., of Pecos in a single ring ceremony Sunday afternoon in the Ervay Methodist Church in Dallas. The couple is at home at the Pecos Air Base.

The ceremony was read by Rev. Roy Patton, pastor, before an altar banked with white asters, lilies and palms. Tall white tapers were lighted by the bride's uncle, Bob Saxon of Dallas.

Mrs. Bob Saxon of Dallas was matron of honor and David Hess, brother of the bridegroom, served as his best man. Mrs. Saxon wore a frock of dusty rose crepe, with a corsage of white gardenias.

The bride entered with her father, Roy Saxon of McAllen, who gave her in marriage. Her wedding dress of white silk marquisette was worn over white taffeta. It was made princess style, with lace insets in the sweetheart neckline and puffed sleeves. Her fingertip veil was caught with a halo of orange blossoms and seed pearls.

She carried a white Bible topped with orchids.

A reception was held at the Baker Hotel, after which the couple left for a wedding trip to Santa Fe and Ruidoso, N. M. For traveling the bride wore a dark linen tailoree suit with accessories in harmony and a corsage of orchids.

Mrs. Hess attended McAllen schools and Sul Ross College at Alpine. Hess, son of Mr. and Mrs. Craig Hess of Pecos, was graduated from the Eden schools and attended Bakersfield Junior College at Bakersfield, Calif., and Sul Ross at Alpine. He now is associated with his father in the farming business.

Lustron Goes Into Red

Senator Flanders of Vermont told a reporter recently that "if Lustron fails, let us forever quit talking about mass-produced houses." He was referring to the Lustron Corporation of Columbus, Ohio, the government-financed venture into production of factory-built homes.

Lustron currently is losing $500,000 a month. It is starting to cut back output from its present 27 houses a day when it needs to step it up to 35 or 40 to break even. In the next two or three months the RFC must decide whether to advance further funds to Lustron in the hope that keeping it going a little while longer may put it over the hump.

This is a matter of considerable importance to the country. For years many critics of the housing industry have argued that the only way out of the low-cost house problem is mass production on the automobile pattern.

Lustron's steel house with the enamel finish represents the most striking attempt to put houses on a factory basis. Considerable engineering and architectural skill seem to have been applied in its design.

Loans to finance dealers until sales are made have been slow in coming. Also dealers have their own labor problems with erection crews who are handling an unfamiliar product.

The credit and the labor problems possibly can be licked in time. But meanwhile Lustron is going deeper into the red every day.

Should it be extended further government credit? With so much money and effort already tied up in the venture it seems wise to keep the company afloat at least a little longer to see if it can get to the break-even point.

There seems to be an attitude in government that this is a prime test of the factory house idea. If it is, let's make sure it's a good, thorough test that answers fairly the question whether the idea has any merit.

More Bumper Crop

DREW PEARSON ON 'The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND' (Copyright, 1949, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.) Robert S. Allen says: CIO's "lefties" plan to beat Phil Murray to punch with walkout of their own from parent organization; Bridges and his longshoremen not among them; Representative Thomas observes tipping tradition—after a fashion.

WASHINGTON—An extraordinary backstage scramble is taking place within the Congress of Industrial Organizations. While the anti-Communist Phil Murray leadership is preparing to boot out the leftist unions at the CIO's Cleveland convention, the latter are racing to beat this move to the punch with a walkout of their own.

The "lefties" have called a meeting in New York August 30. Inside word is they will stage a bolt and proclaim the establishment of a national labor organization of their own. Informed sources say this is the new Communist Party line.

Call for this powwow was issued by the following: United Electrical Workers; Food, Tobacco and Agricultural Workers; United Public Workers; United Furniture Workers; United Packinghouse Workers; United Fur Workers.

Significantly not in this list is the International Longshoremen's Union headed by Harry Bridges. Although the leading CIO leftist, Bridges can not take his union out of the CIO. An attempt would split it wide open.

However, it is reliably reported that Bridges had a leading hand in the decision that convened the left list meeting. If he doesn't show up personally, he is certain to play a decisive role behind-the-scenes.

McKenney on Bridge

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY America's Card Authority Written for NEA Service For our lesson on the play of the hand I have selected a hand from an article in the Bridge World written by Alfred P. Sheinwald. It was played by Harry Fishbein in the Master's Individual in 1948.

In addition to the Thursday lesson hand each week I am also giving you a lesson hand on bidding each Saturday, so do not miss the bidding given in today's hand.

Fishbein is one of the most colorful players in the country. He says you cannot win tournaments if you play always according to the book. Naturally if you asked him what you should bid with the South cards today, he would say, "One heart." But he just felt this was the time to be different. He bid one no trump. When his partner bid two no trump, he then bid three no trump.

On the opening lead of the ten of spades, Fishbein played the jack from dummy. When it held he knew he was on a spot as there were 11 tricks at hearts, but only 10 at no trump, and absolutely no way to deliver any more.

I have often said, do not be afraid to make a mistake as a declarer. There is only one of you and two opponents. Maybe they also will make a mistake, and sure enough West failed to return a diamond. He returned a spade.

U. S.-Made Drives For a Free Market In Gold Are Irrational

By PETER EDSON NEA Washington Correspondent WASHINGTON—At the same time the British are trying to get the United States to increase the price of gold, there are several American-made drives to revise U. S. monetary policy.

A school of economists headed by Dr. Walter E. Spahr of New York University and his National Committee on Monetary Policy have for some years been advocating a return to the gold standard.

So this year, Democratic senator Pat McCarran of Nevada introduced a bill aiming to remove the government fixed price of $35 a fine ounce, and let gold find its natural level on a free world market.

The McCarran bill anticipated, somewhat, the present European drive to get the U. S. Treasury to up the price of gold. It assumed that if the U. S. ceiling price were removed, the free market price would go up.

Advocates of the free market for gold argue that this would be a remedy for not only what ails the United States today, but the rest of the world as well. They say that a free market in gold would increase world trade and speed recovery.

It is a little difficult to see how. If a free market in gold were established in the U. S., people from all over the world, besides those in their own currencies, might start a rush to buy gold for hoarding.

Arguments in favor of a return to the gold standard run the complete scale of economic reasoning. Simplicity of argument is one thing; soundness is another matter.

Conversion of this paper currency into gold is possible in a roundabout way through the Federal Reserve banks to the U. S. Treasury holdings of gold bullion.

Opponents of the gold standard

This week your traveling teenager went up to Fond du Lac, Wis. to visit another Youth Center. On our way up (we went by car) we passed through Madill, Okla., Max Schaffer's old home. After that we came to the Roosevelt Memorial Bridge, which is over Lake Texoma. Fishing from the bridge seems to be a favorite pastime for many of the teenagers.

Lippe-Teinert Vows Exchanged Recently

After a church wedding at Miles and a short trip, Emil B. Teinert brought his bride to a home near Midland where they now are residing. She is the former Magdalene Lippe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Lippe of Miles.

They were married on August 16 in the Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church at Miles. The Rev. E. Rowoldt, pastor, officiated for the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Werner Harsch, accompanied by Mrs. Rowoldt, sang "Jesus, Still Lead On," a song which had been used at the wedding of the bride's parents.

The bride, who wore a grey gabardine suit with white and black accessories, had as her maid of honor Katie Lippe of San Angelo. Edgar Teinert of Austin was the best man and Martin Lippe of Miles the usher.

A reception in the church parish hall followed the ceremony. Pink gladioli and carnations decorated the room where the wedding cake and punch were served.

Mrs. Teinert attended the Pottsville and Verbest High Schools. Teinert, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Teinert of Copperton, was educated in the schools there. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kreigel and sons and Lillie Rose Melisser of Midland were guests at the wedding, and other out-of-town guests were Frits and Ben Lippe of Odessa, as well as the bridegroom's parents.

Crane Eastern Star Plans Family Picnic Monday At Gulf Park

CRANE—A family night picnic is scheduled for the Eastern Star Chapter, beginning at 6:30 p.m. Monday at the Gulf Park Grounds. Ethel Owen, worthy matron, is in charge of drinks to be served with the picnic supper. All members of the chapter and their families are invited.

The birthday of the founder of the Order of Eastern Star was honored at the last chapter meeting, when Gertrude Parrot gave address with the assistance of a group of officers. The charter was draped in memory of A. E. Shirley, past grand patron.

Leslie Mae Moore and Bernice Couling served refreshments in the social period after the program. Invitations to Friendship Night programs of the Big Spring and Iraan chapters were read, and several Crane members plan to go for these events.

TECH EXES TO MEET
Ex-Students of Texas Technological College will meet at 7 p.m. Friday in Cloverdale Park for a watermelon feed. All former students of the college residing in this area are invited. A Tech film, "Futures Unlimited," will be shown.

Waiting Up For Daughters Is Safer—Even If 'Outdated'

By RUTH MILLETT
NEA Staff Writer

Should the mother of a teen-age daughter wait up for her when the girl is out on a date? The mother of a 16-year-old high school junior wants the answer to that question. A lot of modern mothers will disagree with me, I'm sure, but I think the answer is an emphatic "Yes."

Why? Because a girl is likely to be a little more responsible, if she knows her mother will be waiting up for her, than if she feels she is strictly "on her own."

She's more likely to get home on time if she knows that by staying out later than she is supposed to, she'll be keeping her mother up. And a girl can be pretty indefinite about the time she got in, if no one heard her when she came home.

Then, too, there's the matter of drinking. Every mother wants to feel she can trust her daughter implicitly. But the sad truth is that a girl who knows she doesn't have to face a parent when she gets home is more likely to be persuaded to take a drink than the one who knows she can't get by with it.

And it doesn't hurt the young man to know that he is out with a girl whose mother is concerned enough about her welfare so that she makes it a rule not to go to bed until her daughter is safely home.

Waiting up for daughters is somewhat out of style these days. So much so that a daughter may even protest that none of the other girls' mothers wait up for them.

But it's just as good an idea as it ever was—old-fashioned though it may be.

And a daughter won't really object if her mother doesn't make any of the following mistakes. If she doesn't:

Meet the girl at the door in a frumpy-looking housecoat.

Complain about how late it is, instead of greeting her with a smile.

Let her get the idea that she waits up for her because she doesn't trust her, rather than because she likes to have her children safely under their own roof before she goes to sleep.

Painting Group To Gather In Studio

The contemporary painting group of the Midland Art Center will meet in the Palette Club Studio, 604 North Colorado Street, at 8 p.m. Thursday.

All persons who are interested in painting are invited to join this group and use the studio's facilities at the weekly sessions. Not only those who have studied or are studying painting, but amateurs who enjoy dabbling in colors as a hobby are urged to paint with the group.

Speaking for the group, Mrs. R. L. Clarke quoted Alexander Liverman, artist, critic and author of "Primer for Amateur Painters," in his encouragement to amateurs.

"Painting requires only enough initiative to start, enough humility to see the beauty of a blade of grass. It is a form of meditation; it is also great fun. . . . You don't have to wait for an inspiration."

Liverman says that some 300,000 Americans have taken up painting for the first time in the last five years and many famous persons, including Winston Churchill, find recreation in the hobby of painting.

Congratulations To

Pecos City Council Lets Contracts For Water, Paving Jobs

PECOS—Contracts for construction and materials for water distribution improvements and replacements were awarded at a recent meeting of the City Council.

Seventeen bids were received on the construction project. The contract was awarded to the Erik Construction Company of Amarillo for $17,983.75. The next lowest bid was $21,938.

A contract for materials was let separately to the Viking Supply Company of Dallas.

Other business of the meeting was to award an extension of the previous paving contract held by Brown and Root for 21 units of paving in the city.

The council authorized Monroe and Lecht, El Paso architects, to draw up plans and specifications for proposed City Hall and Fire Station expansion and improvements.

Members of the City Council present at the meeting were: Mayor Stafford, City Secretary Bob L. Davis and Councilmen Charles Hurley, Raymond Touncey and C. D. "Andy" Anderson.

Two Persons Admit Houston Shooting

HOUSTON—(AP)—A few hours after a Houston cafe operator was shot to death Thursday, the man's sister-in-law and brother-in-law both were claiming they did it.

W. L. Baker, cafe man known as "Buck," was shot to death at his home about 1 a.m.

Willis C. Brown, 34, and his sister, Mrs. Idel Burningham, 32, both admitted the slaying. Their sister, Ethel, was Baker's wife.

But murder charges were filed against Brown, who said in a written statement that Baker had threatened to "kill the whole damn family."

Police Captain Loyd Frazier said paraffin tests indicated Mrs. Burningham had not fired a gun. Brown said he was released conditionally June 29 from the Federal Penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., where he was serving a year and a day sentence for "splitting a $20 bill and passing each side a $20."

Couple Is At Home After Wedding Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Auddie E. Richards, Jr. are at home in Midland following their wedding Friday and a short wedding trip to New Mexico.

Mr. Richards is the former Maxine Barbara Eckert. The wedding was solemnized in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Fritz Eckert, on the Garden City Highway, in an early morning ceremony. The Rev. A. L. Taff, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, performed the double ring ceremony with only the family and close friends attending.

The bride wore a dress of navy blue with matching gloves and shoes and with a white hat trimmed in navy. She carried a white prayer book topped with white carnations with satin streamers.

Mrs. Eckert chose for her daughter's wedding a brown and white suit and wore a corsage of white carnations.

A reception was held in the home after the ceremony. The table was centered with the traditional wedding cake with bride and groom figurines topping it. Arrangements of wine asters decorated the house.

The bride is a graduate of Midland High School and is employed by the Forest Oil Corporation. Richards, the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Richards, Sr., of West Point, Miss., attended schools in West Point and has spent two and a half years in the Air Force. He is employed by a contracting company in Midland.

Dusters Take Finale 4 To 1

The Midland Indians face the Big Spring Broncs in the first of a two-game series in Steer Park at Big Spring Thursday night. Ralph Blair is due to start for Midland. Game time will be 8:15 p.m.

VERNON—The Vernon Dusters built up an early lead here Wednesday night and protected it all the way to take the final game of the series 4 to 1 over the Midland Indians.

The Indians scored first counting one in the first inning on doubles by Stanley Hughes and Lou Dawson, but Carl Carter blanked them the remainder of the game with his knuckleball.

SPORTS SLANTS

by SHORTY SHELburnE

The Rev. Vernon Yearby, genial pastor of the First Baptist Church here, has revealed he will officiate at the home plate wedding of Gus Pena and Betty Priantas in Indian Park September 3.

Mr. Yearby, a staunch backer of the Indians and a rabid baseball fan, is just the man for the job. We know for sure when he gets through tying the knot—it'll be there for keeps.

Each season—especially in the early part and toward the end—we have numerous requests for the district number certain schools play in. In order to give football fans a complete outlay of the Class AA division before the season starts, we are passing on this complete list as released by the Interscholastic League.

The Class AA district number precedes the list of teams in that district.

1. Amarillo, Borger, Pampa, Plainview.
2. Childress, Electra, Graham, Quanah, Vernon, Wichita Falls.
3. Brownfield, Lamesa, Lubbock, Midland, Odessa.
4. Austin (El Paso), Bowie (El Paso), El Paso, Ysleta.
5. Abilene, Big Spring, Brownwood, San Angelo, Sweetwater.
6. Breckenridge, Cisco, Mineral Wells, Stephenville, Weatherford.
7. Bonham, Denison, Gainesville, Greenville, Paris, Sherman.
8. Denton, Grand Prairie, Highland Park (Dallas), McKinney, Sulphur Springs.
9. Gladewater, Henderson, Kilgore, Longview, Marshall, Texarkana, Tyler.
10. Bryan, Conroe, Jacksonville, Lufkin, Nacogdoches, Palestine.
11. Beaumont, Orange, Port Arthur, Port Neches, South Park (Beaumont).
12. Freeport, Galena Park, Galveston, Robert E. Lee (Baytown), Pasadena, Texas City.
13. Cleburne, Corsicana, Ennis, Hillsboro, Temple, Waco, Waxahachie.
14. Austin, Corpus Christi, Kerrville, Victoria.
15. Alice, Kingsville, Laredo, Robstown.
16. Brownsville, Edinburg, Harlingen, McAllen, San Benito.

Jack Burrus, a rangy young fellow with a crew cut, is burning up the field at Memorial Stadium in football practice. We don't mean he is burning it up with excess speed. He is burning it up with his fight and hustle.

Burrus fast is shaping up as one of the starters for the Bulldog backfield. He is one of the fastest men on the squad and is a fair passer.

His southpaw forwards will mean a lot in the Bulldogs' offensive game when he gets a little more polish.

The season reserved seat ticket sale met with much success during the first day here last week but it bogged down a day or two later.

That's a poor attitude for a city like Midland to take toward its football team.

All that ever is asked of a football fan is that he support the Bulldogs with his presence at their home games. Season reserved seat tickets are just about all the school has to sell. The proceeds from those tickets and game tickets go to defray expenses of the ball club.

The more tickets sold, the more money in the athletic fund. The more money, the better the team can be cared for.

It's strictly up to the fans to get behind the Bulldogs and buy these reserved seat tickets for the six home games. They must have your support.

The Bulldog Booster Club is making plans to launch the final pre-season drive for the sale of the tickets. When the drive is announced, buy a ticket.

You are assured of one of the best seats in the stadium for every home game. What more could you ask?

Every year football fans try all kinds of deals to get tickets to out of town games.

Let's try just walking up and buying a full season's lease on a seat here in Memorial Stadium without having to cut any corners. They'll be available soon.

North Carolina State will play 15 home basketball games next season in the new William Neil Reynolds Coliseum at Raleigh, N. C. It seats 12,000 persons.

Leading Hitters
Hughes, Dawson and Gus Pena were the only Indians able to collect two hits off Carter.

The tilt was the last of the season for Midland in the Vernon park. The loss drops Midland another full game behind the second-place Dusters. However, the San Angelo Colts lost to the Sweetwater Swatters to stay two and one-half games back of the Indians.

Officials Scotch Reports Of Game-Fixing Attempts

NEW YORK—(AP)—If there have been large scale attempts recently to "fix" baseball games, the higher-ups of the sport say they don't know about it.

As for reports that there have been hundreds of tampering efforts in the last few years and even implied threats of violence, Secretary Walter Mulbry of the commissioners office said Wednesday they had "no substance."

He acknowledged there had been a couple of letters addressed to baseball men which aroused suspicion. When they were properly investigated, he said, they were found to be of a crackpot nature.

The New York Post reported Wednesday there had been hundreds of attempts to fix games in recent years with "sums up to $10,000 offered to players."

The article was one of a series dealing with what the paper calls a five-billion-dollar-a-year betting racket controlled by gambling mobs.

The paper specifically cited a tampering letter sent to a Brooklyn player and an apparent effort to get to Eddie Dyer, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Mulbry said these cases had been called to the attention of Commissioner A. B. Chandler's office and investigated.

Dyer received a telegram from Dallas which said: "Just bet $5,000 on tomorrow's game." There was no request made in the telegram," Mulbry said. "A fictitious address had been given in the telegram."

"There was a letter from a person dealing with gambling which we investigated. It came from an asylum."

A full day of entertainment has been planned. A "Blind Bogey Tournament for members and their guests is first on the list of activities. Golfers will tee off at 8 a. m. It is expected most of the morning will be required to complete the tournament.

Bulldogs Polishing Offense, Defense

With only 12 more training days left before the opening game of the season, the Midland Bulldogs are turning to the more serious business of smoothing out both their offensive and defensive game in daily workouts at Memorial Stadium.

Coach Tubgot Jones continued to spend a lot of time drilling the backs and ends on passing in Wednesday's workout. Jack Burrus is showing improvement in finding his target with the pigskin and ends are shaping up better every day.

Linemen and backs are getting plenty of schooling in down-field blocking on passes, punt returns and kickoffs.

Scrimmage sessions are being held during part of each workout to sharpen up on executing the proper blocks on various plays.

The entire coaching staff is well pleased with the overall improvement being shown.

MAJOR LEAGUES—

Bums Whittle Cardinal Lead

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The spirited stretch battle between Brooklyn and St. Louis may develop into a personal feud between the rival managers.

Thus far, Eddie Dyer, Redbird boss, has kept his peace. But not old Burt Shotton. The 64-year-old firebrand is simply spoiling for a fight.

Almost back to his normal cocky self following a couple of smashing victories over the Cardinals, the silver-haired pilot of the Brooks disdainfully referred to the Redbirds as "just a so-so ball club."

"They're not much," Shotton dismissed the Cards Thursday. "And here's how. We've never felt worse, played worse nor looked worse than we have during the last week. And yet those guys could build up only a one-game lead on us. In my book that makes the Cards not so hot."

Informed of Shotton's remarks, Dyer had this to say: "Lucky, eh? Yeah, we're lucky to have old pros like Mustil, Slaughter, Marion and Schoendienst on our side. Let's see, now. How have we fared against those dangerous Dodgers? I think we've beaten them 11 out of 19. Yeah, pard, I guess we are lucky at that."

Shotton had reason to gloat at that. His Dodgers never looked better than they did Wednesday. They were smooth, aggressive and positively spectacular in their 6-0 triumph over the Redbirds.

Yanks Slip Again
The American League race tightened, too, when the pace-setting New York Yankees, playing without their ace, Joe DiMaggio, took a terrific 13-2 lacing from the Tigers. Thus, the idle Boston Red Sox moved up to within two games of the Yanks.

The third-place Cleveland Indians failed to take advantage of the Yankee defeat when they bowed to Washington 3-2.

The Philadelphia Athletics retained their fourth-place hold over the Tigers by the slimmest of margins—one percentage point—by conquering the Chicago White Sox 5-0.

Boston's third-place Braves in the National League eked out a 6-5 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates. Wes Westrum, rookie catcher, slammed two home runs to lead the New York Giants to a 4-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

Boston and St. Louis in the American, and Philadelphia and Cincinnati in the National were idle.

Cats Bounce Broncs Again; Swatters, Oilers, Dusters Win
By The Associated Press
The league-leading Big Spring Broncs lead the Longhorn League by 13 1/2 games, but they don't see the fifth-place Ballinger Cats.

The Cats made it three in a row over the Broncs Wednesday night by winning a 12-8 decision. Ballinger tallied six runs to lead the two in the fourth and four in the fifth for the win.

Vernon's Carl Carter hurled the Dusters to a 4-1 decision over Midland. Lou Dawson doubled in the only Midland tally in the first inning.

Odessa's Jess Grimes held Roswell to seven hits as the Oilers decided the Rockets 9-2.

Dick Butcher's home run highlighted a six-run Sweetwater surge in the third and the Swatters walloped San Angelo 14-3.

Pampa's Parker Is First Loop Hurler To Notch 20 Wins
By The Associated Press
Lamesa's D. C. Miller swatted his forty-third home run of the year Wednesday night as the Lobos blanked the Lubbock Hubbers 12-0 in the feature game of the West Texas-New Mexico League.

League-leading Albuquerque preserved its six and a half game lead by downing Amarillo 9-8. Don Ferrarese hurled his ninth straight victory.

Pitcher Elton Davis poled a three-run homer, doubled in two other runs and hurled Berger to an 18-9 victory over Clovis.

Roy Parker became the first hurler in the circuit to win 20 games as he pitched Pampa to a 7-4 win over Abilene.

Girl Against the Channel—

Shirley Watches English Lad's Successful Journey
By SHIRLEY MAY FRANCE
Copyright by NEA Service, Inc. (Copyright © 1949)

DOVER ENGLAND —(NEA)—I am now convinced that ever that I can swim the channel, because I spent the entire night on the tug which accompanied courageous Phil Mickman on his successful crossing.

My presence in the party that went with Phil—his head only reaches my chin—just sort of happened. I was sitting in my hotel room looking out the window when I saw NEA Photographer Jim Gaiger hurrying toward a power boat.

I guessed he was going to look for Phil and chased after him. About a half-hour after we left the dock we sighted the pilot boat low on the horizon, and through my binoculars I could see the rowboat nearby.

We headed to the spot and I could not help screaming encouragement when I saw Phil's arms slowly and steadily cutting through the water. After Gaiger took his pictures, he wanted to turn back but I persuaded him to leave me on the pilot boat with my coach, Harry Boudakian, who went along to get some pointers.

Sugar Ray Belts Belloise, Covets 160-Pound Toga

By MURRAY ROSE
NEW YORK —(P)—"I want a shot at the middleweight title. I think I've earned it."

Welterweight Champion Ray Robinson made the statement Wednesday night. It was probably the greatest understatement made in sports all year.

Off his performance, he certainly deserves the chance. Whether he'll get it is something else again.

After he cut down Socking Steve Belloise in seven rounds at Yankee Stadium Wednesday night, some 28,812 fans were ready to concede him to be the No. 1 middleweight, Champion Jake Lamotta or not.

Iron-chinned Jake and Marcel Cerdan, the former 160-pound boss, who fought in a return clash for the crown here September 28, were among the bumper throng which saw the massacre. It wasn't too pleasant for them.

They saw a great fighter in every round. Robinson hit Belloise with action Steve at the end of the seventh and flattened him with as perfect a left hook as you'll ever see in the ring or movies.

It caught Belloise on the chin and the New Yorker collapsed. Referee Eddie Joseph counted to five when the bell changed. Belloise's seconds hauled the inert gladiator to his corner. But Steve was out cold.

Manager Eddie Walker didn't waste any time. He signalled to Joseph that it was all over. Under New York rules it goes in the book as a seven-round kayo.

Weeks before the fight, Lamotta and Cerdan said that the victor of their September set-to would meet Wednesday night's conqueror. Nothing is in writing.

Uncrowned Champion
It took Robinson years to gain the welterweight diadem. None of the champions would fight him. They called him the "uncrowned champion of the welterweights."

It's possible the same fate may befall him among the 160-pounders. Robinson, who weighed 153 1/2 to Belloise's 158, looked fast despite the added poundage.

He said "I'd be glad to give up the welterweight crown if I get a shot at the middleweight championship. If the commission thinks any one else is more deserving of a shot at the title then let them name him and I'll fight him."

Longhorn Attendance Soars High

ABILENE —(P)—The Longhorn League is well on its way to drawing a half million fans this year, Hal Sayles, league president, reported Thursday.

The circuit, in its third year of operation, already has drawn 336,722 paid admissions—$2,704 more than at the same date last year.

Sayles figures the eight clubs are going to attract 460,000 over the regular campaign and at least another 40,000 in the playoffs.

San Angelo still is topping the league in attendance with a total of 70,636 for 55 home games. Odessa is next with 50,916 in 54 contests.

Attendance figures for the other clubs are: Big Spring 47,610 (56 games); Vernon 42,255 (59 games); Midland 43,280 (50 games); Roswell 38,301 (49 games); Ballinger 34,905 (54 games); and Sweetwater 27,830 (53 games).

The only clubs not ahead of last year's figure at this time are Big Spring and Vernon, first and second place clubs in the pennant race.

New Voting Boxes Will Aid Voters, Election Workers

Two additional voting boxes will accommodate Midlanders when they cast ballots November 8 in the special election called by the state, County Judge Clifford C. Keith said Thursday.

The two new voting precincts were created by the Commissioners Court Monday by re-defining voting precincts one and five. The action provides seven boxes in the county, instead of five.

Roughly, the new voting precincts were defined by fixing Big Spring Street as the east-west division line. The Wall Street division line remains as the north-south line.

The designation of polling places for persons voting in precincts six and seven has not been made, but will be announced in sufficient time before the November 8 election, Keith said.

Voting still will be done at the courthouse and City-County Auditorium.

To Ease Burden

The creation of the additional boxes not only will be a convenience to the voting public but will ease the burden of election workers, the county judge stated.

Election officials at various times have requested the creation of additional boxes, due to the congestion at the polls caused by the large population gains.

In the last general election here, some workers did not complete their tabulations until the afternoon following the day of the election.

Many persons were standing in line to cast their votes when closing time came in the general election, Keith said.

State Land Office Executive To Speak At JayCee Meeting

Alvis Vandyriff, chief administrative officer of the General Land Office of Texas, will be the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Midland Junior Chamber of Commerce in Hotel Scharbauer Friday noon.

Vandyriff will cover the veterans Land Bill of Texas in his address.

JayCee President Irby Dyer Thursday extended a special invitation to all veterans and others interested in the bill to attend the Friday meeting.

Paving—

The same basis as the Group A paving. The bid acceptance motion was made by S. M. Erskine and seconded by W. P. Hill. The vote was unanimous. All members of the council except Frank Shriver were present.

Joe Corwin of Austin, a representative of Brown and Root, Inc., explained to the council why the firm's Group B bid exceeded the Group A bid which was submitted last February. Increased freight rates and increased cost of excavating were cited as the major reasons for the hike. He said, however, his firm definitely wanted to continue its paving work here, and was willing to amend its bid to match the unit price of Group A paving.

The work of signing up property owners in the Group B program will be started soon and there will be no delay in the construction work as the Group A job is completed.

B. G. Grafa, Midland realtor, Thursday awarded a contract to Brown and Root, Inc., for the paving of certain streets in Grafaland Addition. Bids on the special paving job, to be financed by Grafa, were submitted by Hill, Erskine and the Collins Construction Company. The bid of the latter concern was contingent upon whether it obtained the contract for the city's Group B paving project.

The unit cost of the Grafaland paving is understood to be the same as the city's Groups A and B jobs.

Military—

Johnson Wednesday. Many of them complained bitterly. Others approved.

"It depends," said the Western lawmaker wryly, "on whose ox is being gored."

Representative Taber (R-NY), a leader of the House economy bloc, said his only complaint is that the cuts aren't large.

Representative Rankin (D-Miss) called Air Force reductions "absolutely unjustified" and said the military is following the pre-Pearl Harbor policy of too much cutting-down.

Some critics said the program outlined by Johnson was false economy. Senator Knowland (R-Calif) asserted that closing of the Long Beach, Calif., Naval Shipyard actually would cost money because of the expense of mothballing it and reactivating it later.

Senator Tobey (R-NH) said the proposed saving of $1,000,000 a day by disposing of 135,000 jobs would create "commiseration and misery in that number of homes in the country."

Parents Urged To Inoculate Children Before School Opens

Dr. F. E. Sadler, director of the Midland - Ector - Howard County Health Unit, pointed out Thursday the necessity of parents seeing that their children are properly inoculated against diseases before beginning the new school year.

"This is a most important detail for parents to consider," he asserted. "The close contact between students in crowded classrooms lend an easy avenue for the spreading of contagious germs."

Sadler urges all parents to contact their family physician for advice on this subject before school opens.

Rotarians Entertain Competitors At Meet In Hotel Scharbauer

Midland Rotarians entertained their competitors at their regular meeting Thursday noon in the Scharbauer Hotel.

Frank True, chairman of the Vocational Service Committee of the club, declared in a brief address, "Successful businessmen can stand competition."

"Know your competitors," he added. "All are good persons."

True discussed the value of competition.

Hilton Kaderil, president, presided at the practice session and Floyd C. Boles was in charge of the program.

High School Band To Practice Thursday And Friday Nights

High school band practice has started under the direction of Jerry Hoffman. He is in his office from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday for conferences with interested students.

Any high school student interested in trying out for the band is urged to contact Hoffman so details may be worked out.

Some school instruments are available for those who do not have their own equipment.

A practice session is scheduled from 7:30 to 9 p.m. Thursday and from 6:30 to 8 p.m. Friday. Practice will be conducted in the old high school gymnasium.

Oil And Gas Log—

The North Snyder field in North-Central Scurry County has been completed for a calculated 24-hour potential of 1,231 barrels of oil, flowing natural through a one-half-inch tubing choke.

The producing formation made no water. The daily initial production figure was computed from an actual flow of 408 barrels of oil in six hours.

The production is from open hole between 6,533 feet and the total depth of 6,843 feet. This well topped the Canyon lime reef at 6,340 feet, which made that point 3,909 feet below sea level. That made it 131 feet high to Sunray Oil Corporation No. 1 Brown, the first producer completed in the south extension to the North Snyder field.

Diamond-M Outpost Is Scheduled By Lion

Lion Oil Company has staked its No. 20 C. T. McLaughlin as a step-out on the northeast side of the Diamond-M field in southwest Scurry County, about 12 miles southwest of Snyder.

Projected depth of the venture, located 1,969.2 feet from north and 1,988.61 feet from east lines of section 14, block 29, H&TC survey, is to 7,000 feet to try for Canyon lime reef production.

Operator is now moving on location and drilling is to get under way soon at this exploration.

Ector Exploration Is Planned By Stanolind

Stanolind Oil & Gas Company will start drilling soon on its No. 3-R(A)B C. H. C. Anderson, a scheduled 11,200-foot rotary exploration in the Yarbrough & Allen field in Southwest Ector County.

Drill site of the project is 1,980 feet from north and 860 feet from west lines of section 20, block B-14, pd survey, about 10 miles south of Penwell.

Operations are to get under way soon.

Humble Spots Outpost To Rannels Discovery

Humble Oil & Refining Company has staked location for its No. 1-Ballie Odum, as a 2,000-foot south flanker to the same concern's No. 1 Odum, recently completed flowing discovery from the Strawn lime of the Pennsylvanian, to open the Fort Chabourne field, in north-west Rannels County.

The new venture will be 810 feet from northwest and 960 feet from southwest lines of the Elbert Smith survey No. 51 1/2.

Drilling to 5,500 feet, using rotary equipment, will be started at once.

Wildcat Near Winters Is To Start Drilling

Woods Drilling Company of Wichita Falls plans to drill a 4,500-foot rotary wildcat six miles southeast of Winters in North-Central Rannels County.

No. 1 Vogler will be 330 feet from south and east lines of the east 100-acre of Carl Vogler 200-acre lease in J. C. McKean survey.

Shallow Exploration Is Due In McCulloch

Application has been filed by O. M. Yeoder and A. V. Taylor of Houston, to drill a 2,000-foot wildcat in McCulloch County, 24 miles north of Brady.

The cable tool venture will be No. 1 V. R. Lehn. Location is 2,040 feet from north and 378 feet from east lines of the 233-acre lease in section 98 1/2, H&TC survey.

Operations will begin September 1.

Registration For High School Reaches 568; More Expected

The first scheduled registration of Midland High School students was completed this week with a total of 568 registered, Principal Charles F. Matthews announced. Tuesday of next week has been designated for the registration of some 150 high school students who failed to register during the regular time.

Of the total number registered, 111 are seniors, 123 juniors, 144 sophomores and 191 freshmen.

Seniors and juniors will register from 8 a.m. to 12 noon and sophomores and freshmen will register from 1 to 5 p.m. Registration will be held in the principal's office in the southwest wing of the new high school building.

Matthews urges all high school students who have not registered to do so Tuesday to avoid delay in registering after school starts.

New Studebakers On Display Friday At Broadway Motors

Midlanders Friday will get a look at the new 1950 Studebaker automobiles, acclaimed by many as the most distinctive looking car on the road.

The new Studebakers will be on display Friday in the showrooms of Broadway Motors, 125 West Missouri Street. Broadway officials invited all Midland and area citizens to see and inspect the new cars which they said "have done it again in setting the pace for the automobile industry."

In these new cars the company's designers, Raymond Lowey Associates, have achieved an automotive style pattern as revolutionary today as were the first Studebakers of postwar design three years ago. A complete change in frontal appearance and fender treatment gives the 1950 models sleek, new lines which make them appear in motion even when they're standing still.

Both ride and handling ease have been considerably bettered by engineering innovations complementing the use of an improved self-stabilizing coil spring suspension.

The front of the 1950 Studebaker is particularly striking. It embodies an airplane fuselage-type hood, flanked by air-folli front fenders and set off by a chrome "spinner". In addition to providing an ornamental touch, the "spinner" augments four frontal openings which direct air to the engine for maximum cooling.

In harmony with a styling that expresses power, speed and sleekness are the heavy wrap-around bumpers.

In keeping with the new speed lines are the redesigned rear fenders, also air-folli type, and the large vertical tail lights which fit into the trailing edge of the fenders.

The wheel bases of all 1950 Studebaker models have been increased by one inch: Commander, 113 inches; Commander, 120 inches; Land Cruiser, 124 inches. Overall lengths of the cars are: Commander, 197-1/4 inches; Commander 207-7/8 inches; and Land Cruiser, 211-7/8 inches.

Ector Exploration Is Planned By Stanolind

Stanolind Oil & Gas Company will start drilling soon on its No. 3-R(A)B C. H. C. Anderson, a scheduled 11,200-foot rotary exploration in the Yarbrough & Allen field in Southwest Ector County.

Drill site of the project is 1,980 feet from north and 860 feet from west lines of section 20, block B-14, pd survey, about 10 miles south of Penwell.

Operations are to get under way soon.

Humble Spots Outpost To Rannels Discovery

Humble Oil & Refining Company has staked location for its No. 1-Ballie Odum, as a 2,000-foot south flanker to the same concern's No. 1 Odum, recently completed flowing discovery from the Strawn lime of the Pennsylvanian, to open the Fort Chabourne field, in north-west Rannels County.

The new venture will be 810 feet from northwest and 960 feet from southwest lines of the Elbert Smith survey No. 51 1/2.

Drilling to 5,500 feet, using rotary equipment, will be started at once.

Wildcat Near Winters Is To Start Drilling

Woods Drilling Company of Wichita Falls plans to drill a 4,500-foot rotary wildcat six miles southeast of Winters in North-Central Rannels County.

No. 1 Vogler will be 330 feet from south and east lines of the east 100-acre of Carl Vogler 200-acre lease in J. C. McKean survey.

Shallow Exploration Is Due In McCulloch

Application has been filed by O. M. Yeoder and A. V. Taylor of Houston, to drill a 2,000-foot wildcat in McCulloch County, 24 miles north of Brady.

The cable tool venture will be No. 1 V. R. Lehn. Location is 2,040 feet from north and 378 feet from east lines of the 233-acre lease in section 98 1/2, H&TC survey.

Operations will begin September 1.

Registration For High School Reaches 568; More Expected

The first scheduled registration of Midland High School students was completed this week with a total of 568 registered, Principal Charles F. Matthews announced. Tuesday of next week has been designated for the registration of some 150 high school students who failed to register during the regular time.

Of the total number registered, 111 are seniors, 123 juniors, 144 sophomores and 191 freshmen.

Seniors and juniors will register from 8 a.m. to 12 noon and sophomores and freshmen will register from 1 to 5 p.m. Registration will be held in the principal's office in the southwest wing of the new high school building.

Matthews urges all high school students who have not registered to do so Tuesday to avoid delay in registering after school starts.

Rotarians Entertain Competitors At Meet In Hotel Scharbauer

Midland Rotarians entertained their competitors at their regular meeting Thursday noon in the Scharbauer Hotel.

Frank True, chairman of the Vocational Service Committee of the club, declared in a brief address, "Successful businessmen can stand competition."

"Know your competitors," he added. "All are good persons."

True discussed the value of competition.

Hilton Kaderil, president, presided at the practice session and Floyd C. Boles was in charge of the program.

High School Band To Practice Thursday And Friday Nights

High school band practice has started under the direction of Jerry Hoffman. He is in his office from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday for conferences with interested students.

Any high school student interested in trying out for the band is urged to contact Hoffman so details may be worked out.

Some school instruments are available for those who do not have their own equipment.

A practice session is scheduled from 7:30 to 9 p.m. Thursday and from 6:30 to 8 p.m. Friday. Practice will be conducted in the old high school gymnasium.

Oil And Gas Log—

The North Snyder field in North-Central Scurry County has been completed for a calculated 24-hour potential of 1,231 barrels of oil, flowing natural through a one-half-inch tubing choke.

The producing formation made no water. The daily initial production figure was computed from an actual flow of 408 barrels of oil in six hours.

The production is from open hole between 6,533 feet and the total depth of 6,843 feet. This well topped the Canyon lime reef at 6,340 feet, which made that point 3,909 feet below sea level. That made it 131 feet high to Sunray Oil Corporation No. 1 Brown, the first producer completed in the south extension to the North Snyder field.

Diamond-M Outpost Is Scheduled By Lion

Lion Oil Company has staked its No. 20 C. T. McLaughlin as a step-out on the northeast side of the Diamond-M field in southwest Scurry County, about 12 miles southwest of Snyder.

Projected depth of the venture, located 1,969.2 feet from north and 1,988.61 feet from east lines of section 14, block 29, H&TC survey, is to 7,000 feet to try for Canyon lime reef production.

Operator is now moving on location and drilling is to get under way soon at this exploration.

Guest Ministers To Be At Crane Church

CRANE—The Rev. Jack Ramsey, Jr. of Laredo will bring the message at the morning services of the First Presbyterian Church in the County Courthouse Sunday. He has just returned from a year of graduate theological study in Edinburgh, Scotland, after graduating from the Union Theological Seminary at Richmond, Va., and having served for a year as pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Roscoe.

His sister, Elizabeth Ramsey, is director of religious education in the First Presbyterian Church at Durant, Okla. His father is an evangelist for the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the South.

Sunday evening services will be conducted by the Rev. Walter Guin of Odessa, and following the message he will lead the service of ordaining and installing the elders and deacons of the newly organized church. Mr. Guin is chairman of the Presbytery's Committee on Stewardship and in this official capacity has called a meeting of the elders and deacons on the matter of setting up a budget for this church.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

If They're Wild, They Belong To Tiki

Saw Tiki Anderson last week and was reminded of the first time I ever spoke to him. The misadventure took me out one Saturday afternoon to hunt for some blackberries.

I took a long hike and couldn't find any. Finally, I came to Tiki's house along that low stretch east of the fork on River Road. "Hi there," I says, "any blackberries around here?"

Tiki says, "There used to be—but I don't know much about things that grow wild." Later, I found how Tiki supports his family by picking berries. Ever since, I've been like the rest of folks in town—respectful of his right not to tell where "his" berries grow.

From where I sit, respecting other folks' rights comes natural in our town... in America for that matter! Whether it's a person's right to enjoy a temperate glass of beer or ale, or whether it's Tiki Anderson's right to keep secret where his berries are, it's all a big part of a real democracy!

Cellulose Plant To Be Built In Texas

KINGSFORD, TENN.—(AP)—The Tennessee Eastman Corporation, one of the world's largest manufacturers of cellulose products, announced Wednesday plans for building a new plant near Longview, Texas.

President James C. White said the new plant will manufacture basic raw materials needed for use in the Kingsport operation.

Construction of the first manufacturing unit at Longview will start as soon as engineering designs are completed, White said, with initial operations expected to start in late 1950.

An all church family night supper will be staged Tuesday evening at the Community Hall by the First Presbyterian Church. In charge of

Crane News

CRANE—Linda Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Conaway, was born August 18 in a Crane hospital. She weighed six pounds, 10 1/2 ounces at birth.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Maynard have returned from a vacation spent visiting friends and relatives in Coolidge, Ariz., Delhart, Pampa, McClain, Groom and Ranger.

Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Hughes and son, Paul, of Burk Burnett spent Monday in Crane visiting with the R. B. Wilsons. They formerly lived in the Gulf Camp.

An all church family night supper will be staged Tuesday evening at the Community Hall by the First Presbyterian Church. In charge of arrangements are Mrs. H. J. Ritt, Mrs. J. R. Frazier and Mrs. C. D. Birdsong.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Karr have announced the birth of a daughter, Kay Elaine, August 21 in the Crane hospital. She weighed six pounds, one and three-fourth ounces.

Mrs. L. L. Presley, assistant postmaster, and her daughter, Louanne, have returned from a visit in Hooker, Okla. While there they visited Mrs. Presley's sister, Miss Faye Clark.

Tommy Parritt attended the graduation exercises at the San Marcos Baptist Academy this week and will return in time to leave for El Paso, where he will enter Texas Western College for the fall term.

Col. S. J. McKee To Address Air Force Reservists

Col. S. J. McKee of Brooks Field in San Antonio will address members of the 8616th Voluntary Air Force Reserve Unit at a meeting at Midland Air Terminal at 8 p. m. Thursday.

Colonel McKee will outline the reserve training program in detail. All reservists and others interested in the program have been urged to attend the meeting.

Excitement, fright, and anger all came chameleons to change color, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

McCamey News

MCCAMEY—Mrs. A. F. McNamara returned recently from Leuders, where she attended a family reunion last weekend. This event is an annual affair which is held at the encampment grounds near Leuders.

Miss Mary Ross Eagleton of Sherman is visiting her sister, Miss N. Ethel Eagleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey E. Gammons are the parents of a girl born August 18 at the Cooper Hospital. The baby, Malinda Carol, weighed eight pounds at birth.

Mrs. Bennie Rockett has returned to her McCamey home after spending two weeks in a San Angelo hospital.

Jim and Fran Slaughter of Dallas were visitors in the home of Dr. and Mrs. James Slaughter last week.

The Rev. and Mrs. C. J. Mann and family have returned to their home here after an absence of two months. Charles Wayne, Clifford and Margaret spent the Summer with their grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Conley of Raymondville, and the Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Mann of Wardo, Ark. Mr. and Mrs. Mann drove to Washington, D. C., where they visited his sister, Miss Lenora Mann. "GENERAL OF FOOD"—Meet Gaston Magrin, 306-pound chief chef of the new Ile de France luxury liner.

By GAYNOR MADDOX (NEA Staff Writer)
Gaston Magrin weighs over 300 pounds, wears a tall white hat and both a small French mustache and a little tuft just below the lower lip. He's one of the world's most redoubtable chefs. He is chief chef of the new French luxury liner, Ile de France, and is a chevalier of both the Legion d'Honneur and Merite Maritime.

"One of the reasons for my success," he explains, "is that I cook for women rather than for men. Women want to keep their figures so I prepare dishes that are not too rich."
Rich or otherwise, the dishes the fabulous Magrin prepares for passengers aboard the Ile de France are something to dream about. His skill with fish and fish service is famous round the world. So let's learn his secret.

TO POACH FISH: To poach fish means to simmer fish, preferably in vegetable stock, to bring out the best flavor of the fish. French cooks take equal quantity of fresh water and white wine, enough so the fish will be entirely covered when put in the pan. Into this liquid, they add salt, pepper, some parsley, laurel leaves, one clove, one or two carrots and a large onion. If no white wine can be had, then use one or two table-spoonsful of vinegar, depending on the size of the fish.

Boil this mixture for one hour. When ready, place the fish in it, and allow to simmer over a very slow fire, or on the back of a coal range, until tender. If the fish is boiled rapidly, it will all break up in pieces and lose its shape. Leave in the liquid until ready to serve.

This poaching method can be used for Filets de Sole Marguery, Bass a la Paysanne, and Filets de Soles Surprises.

FILETS DE SOLE MARGUERY: Prepare the sole by removing the black skin, inserting the point of a knife under the skin near the tail; and holding the piece of skin thus lifted with a cloth so it may not slip from the grasp, and lifting the skin up as far as the head, and cutting it then. This will prob-

Rouge Is Flattering Only If Well Blended

By ALICIA HART (NEA Staff Writer)
The old-hat but still-clung-to idea that the more rouge a woman uses the younger she will look, needs to be soundly debunked. The heavy-handed use of rouge is apt to have just the opposite effect. Rouge serves its function best when it evens skin color and is so discreetly used that the onlooker is not aware whether subtle rosiness is concentrated on cheeks or glows almost undetectably from the entire face.

For rouge to merely puzzle and please the onlooker—not to make him see red—it must be used sparingly. It must also be blended into a make-up foundation, which is as important as the help-meet rouge for tinting a skin.

When it comes to the blending, the more finger-work a woman is willing to do, the better will be the fade-out of rouge into foundation.

The idea that the more rouge used, the more youthful the effect, is just as faulty as the notion that a rosy tinting of eyelids and earlobes makes a face look younger. These color dodges look just as unnatural as bright patches on cheeks and are just as defeating to a woman's hopes of hiding the years under her make-up.

Teapot Dome was the name of a United States naval oil reservation in Central Wyoming.

Foreigners Quick To Learn English

ANN ARBOR—(AP)—A sort of linguistic miracle is being accomplished here. Young foreign students, with little or no background in English, are achieving a fluency in eight weeks that might take as long as two years elsewhere. This is being accomplished by the University of Michigan's English Language Institute.

"There's been as much advance in linguistic science in the last 10-20 years," Dr. Charles C. Fries, director, says, "as there has been in the field of physics and atomic research."

Dr. Fries says the whole program rests on determination of the differences between the foreign language and English. Different sentence structure, different pronunciation of the same letter and different meanings of the same word provide the working area. Intense effort is then applied to eliminate "trouble spots."

Proof of the system is that about two-thirds of the students are all ready to hold their own in the English-speaking world after eight weeks. Each has a working vocabulary of about 1,800 words of usable English.

Dr. Fries looks forward now to the 39th institute session this fall. With it is almost sure to come again the student who learns "room and board," then tries to justify "eat our education" for "board of education."

QUICK DESSERT

Make a fruit whip for a quick dessert. Just beat the egg white until stiff with a few tablespoons of sugar and fold in the pureed dried or cooked fresh fruit. Serve over lady fingers in sherbet glasses if you like, and garnish with a cherry.

SIDE GLANCES

"I thought we solved that kitchen warfare when we bought the electric dishwasher, but now they're fighting to see who starts it!"

The Chicago area, including the suburbs, is as big as the whole state of Rhode Island, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

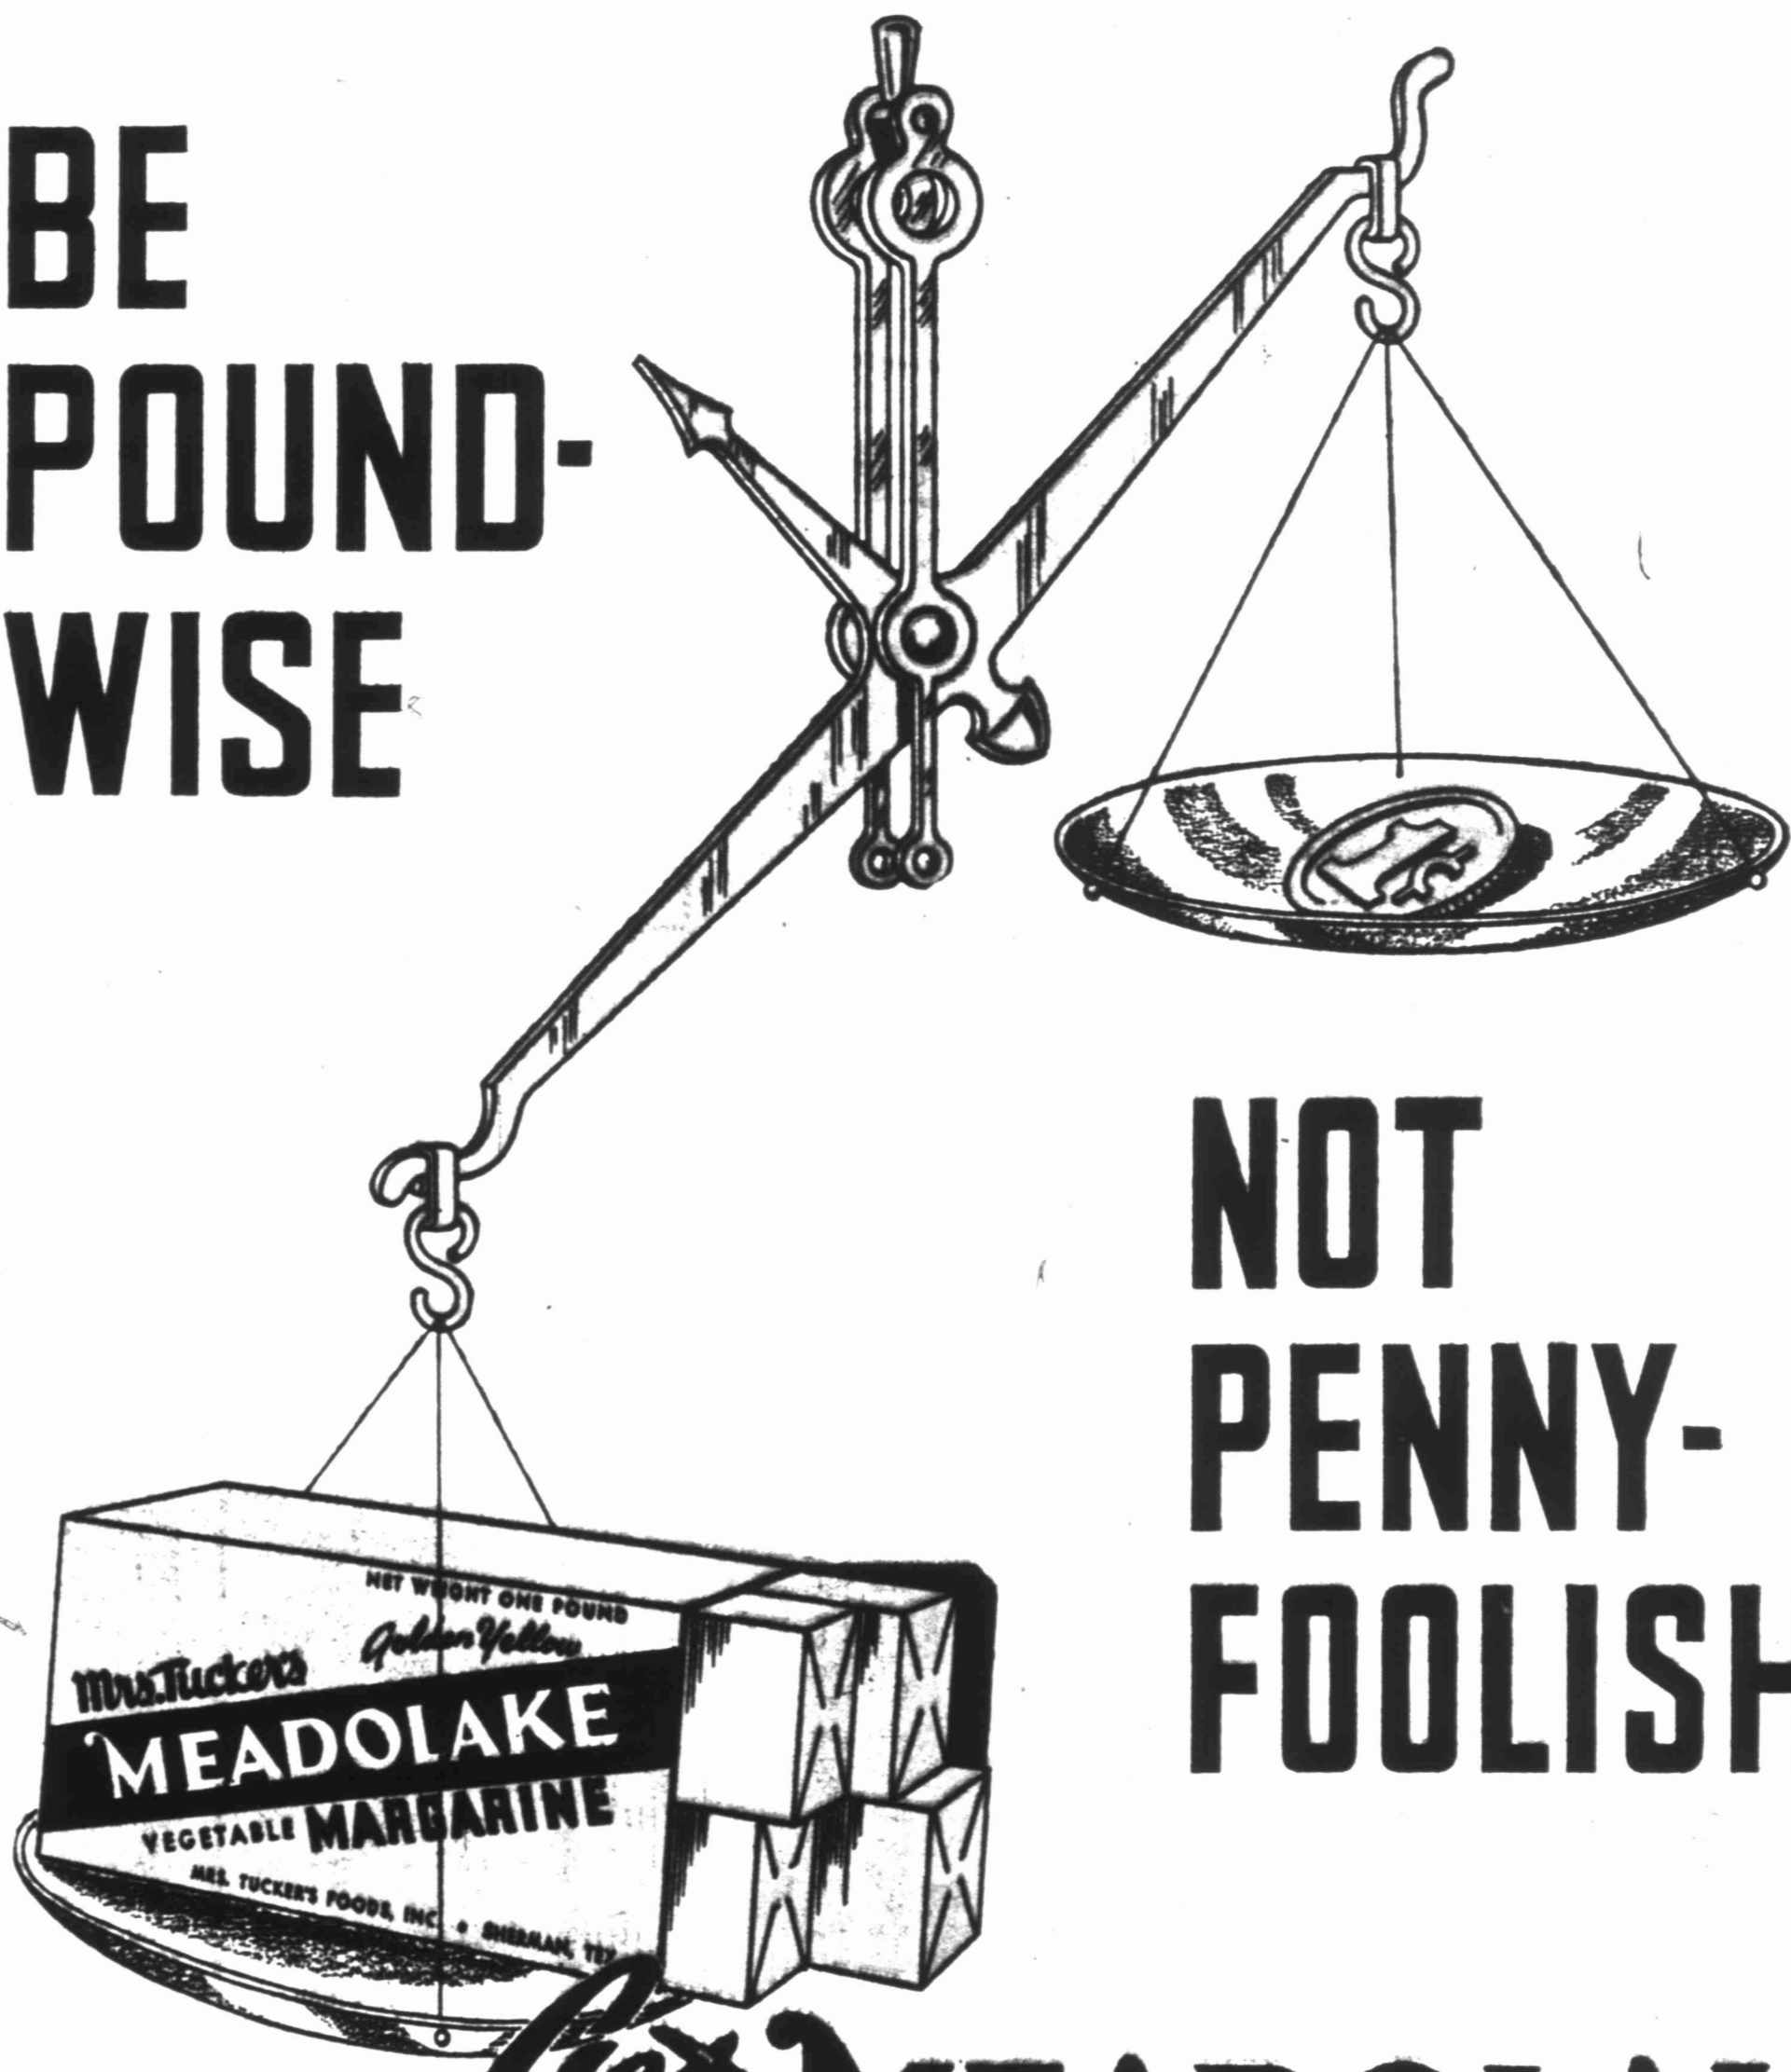

Strikes Are Hailed By Paper In Russia

MOSCOW—(AP)—The newspaper "Trud" said that the increasing wave of strikes in the capitalist world testifies to the militant activity of the working class. "A characteristic feature of many of the strikes," said the paper, "is not only their bitterness and stubbornness but also the spirit of brotherly international solidarity by which they are permeated."

The paper said the recent strike of the London dockers serves as a "remarkable example" of this. "Trud" said the strike of 24,000 Australian miners was among the larger strikes of recent weeks. "It would be necessary," it said, "to enumerate almost the majority of the countries of the capitalist world in order to give an exhaustive list of the strikes which have been taking place in recent weeks."

WTCC Has New Plan To Bring Water To West Texas Cities

ABILENE—Thirsty West Texas has a new hope for water in a program which may make the entire area a network of pipe lines, supplying water from a half-dozen multi-city dams on the major waterheds.

This prospect is seen in a letter from President John D. Mitchell of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce to Manager D. A. Bandeen, in which he pledges the organization's support of multi-city surveys.

"From our study of and activities on development of our municipal water supply, it appears that the solution is beyond the capacity of the individual cities and that the total solution of the problem must come from complete river basin development and the building of large dams serving several cities," Mitchell wrote.

"The fact is that dam sites are not available for each of our cities and that there are only a few dam sites with ample watersheds and sites with ample water on each of our main streams."

"These few main dams must be developed promptly if West Texas is to have the water originating in our territory and meet the critical water shortages now existing in all of our cities."

Area Association
Immediately Bandeen set about a study of the formation of a West Texas water association with its main purpose of "extracting the optimum values of water originating in the common interest of the area."

This association would cooperate with existing authorities and might even assist in the formation of others, according to plan.

It was Bandeen who recently proposed a new formula for federal aid in dam building, which would make it possible for the Corps of Army Engineers and the Bureau of Reclamation to build dams for municipal water as well as flood control.

In a study of the Hoover Commission's report, the WTCC recommended that economic loss from lack of water be made criteria for multi-city dam building, as well as flood control.

Bandeen pointed out that much of the money spent on multi-city dam building, where municipal water would be the principal product, would be reimbursable to the government, but at the same time communities would receive federal aid to which they are not now entitled. This is because of inability to show damage on West Texas streams in the 20-inch rain belt.

At the same time the WTCC went on record as approving the Hoover recommendation that municipal water be given the highest priority in multi-city dam building, and that hydro-electricity by considered only after all other uses had been provided for.

Already the Bureau of Reclamation is beginning its study of dam building in West Texas with a view to supplying municipalities with water.

No Use Dodging, Bub, You've Gotta Learn To Play Canasta

By ED CREAGH

NEW YORK—If I was going to tell you about how to play canasta, a card game that is having a great vogue among canasta players, but something came up and—

Well, why be coy about it? What came up is that my brand new canasta rule book, which I had picked up with a sick headache, the Larsens don't love us any more, and I've got to buy a television set.

This sorry sequence began at breakfast last Friday.

My wife looked at me over the top of her newspaper, waited for permission to speak, and inquired: "Why don't we learn to play canasta?"

"Why should we?" I asked jovially. My mouth, however, was filled at the time with yogurt (a milk food favored by yogurt eaters) and my wife understood me to say: "Why, certainly."

So Friday night found me opening the canasta rule book with all the enthusiasm of a boy confronted by "Elementary Algebra" on the first day of school.

My wife finds A Way

Two seconds later I clapped the book shut.

"We can't do it," I said, grinning. "Canasta takes two decks and we've only got that old one we keep around in case a Gypsy fortune-teller should drop in."

My wife took it very well. Too well.

"All right," she said. "Cards can wait. We'll drop in on the Larsens instead."

Bill and Edith Larsen practically kissed us.

"Goody," Edith said, "now we can play that new game everybody's talking about—canasta. And we did—for one solid hour and 42 minutes. That is, the other tried to teach me the game.

They told me about melding. And about wild deuces and jokers, and about "going out" and "going out concealed." It seems there is a difference.

"You've got the fidgets, pal?" Bill asked finally. "You act even stupider than usual tonight."

Television Compromise

I was about to reply cuttingly when I noticed that my fistful of cards included some matching kings, queens and nines.

"Hey," I said, "I can what-dya-call-it. I can meld."

Edith glared. "It's a rule of this game," she informed me chillingly. "that you say, 'partner, may I go out?'"

I looked at my wife. Something inside me snapped.

"Partner," I said, rising, "may I go."

And I made the door before she could answer.

Well, the rule book was torn in half when I got home, rather late. And the bottle of headache tablets was missing from the medicine chest. I slept on the studio couch.

"I was thinking," I said at breakfast, "that you're right about our needing a television set. I could order it through Bill's firm as a part of peace offering."

She smiled and then started to laugh and everything was all right. Except that I can't, as I had planned, tell you all about how to play canasta.

Latin American Oil Hopes Are Discussed

LONDON—(AP)—The Petroleum Information Bureau, in a memorandum issued in London said there is a vast area of potentially oil bearing lands in Latin America still to be explored. One of the most promising regions, now being explored, is the Montana Zone, which includes parts of Peru, Ecuador and Colombia, at the foothills of the Andes.

But the memorandum warned that only if sufficiently large resources were discovered there would the world oil deficit benefit from it. With enough production, the construction of a pipeline across the Andes to the Pacific Ocean would be justified, it said. Private companies are reluctant to engage the heavy expenses needed for wide exploration work in view of "restrictive oil legislation" by some countries.

Plank Dinner Can Be Labor Day Treat

ALL-IN-ONE PLATTER—Or plank dinner, combining dairy foods with meat and vegetables, is ideal for Labor Day appetites.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

Here's one for your "What Shall I Serve the Crowd Over Labor Day" note book. It's a practical all-in-one platter or plank that combines dairy foods with meat and vegetables. And it's de luxe to look at, easy to prepare.

So serve hamburger dinner on a plank, set out bottles of milk for young and old alike, add crisp rolls and lots of butter and watch the food disappear.

Planked Hamburger Dinner (Serves 4)
To prepare the plank: Butter the plank and heat for 15 to 20 minutes in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) while cooking the meat and vegetables.

To cook: Place the filled plank in a hot oven (450 degrees F.) and cook for eight to 10 minutes, or until the potatoes are delicately browned. Have ready hot, cooked peas and fill the space in between the meat and the tomatoes. Dot with 2 pats of butter and serve as soon as possible.

Stuffed Tomatoes
Four firm, ripe tomatoes, 1 cup fine, soft bread crumbs, 2 tablespoons melted butter, 1/4 cup chopped stuffed olives, 1/4 cup thinly sliced celery, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon sugar.

Cut a slice from the top of each tomato and remove the pulp with a spoon. Turn the tomatoes upside down to drain for a few minutes. Sprinkle lightly on the inside with salt and sugar. Mix bread crumbs, melted butter, olives and celery with remaining salt and enough of the tomato pulp to make a moist filling.

Stuff the tomatoes, dot with a small piece of butter and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 25 minutes. Place at one end of the plank.

Hamburger De Luxe
One pound finely ground lean beef, 3/4 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon dried basil, 2 teaspoons grated onion, 2 tablespoons heavy cream, 1/4 teaspoon pepper.

Have the meat ground twice. Mix lightly with all the ingredients and shape into four even-sized patties about 3/4 inch thick. Brown quickly on both sides in a very hot, lightly greased frying pan, reduce heat and cook until almost done. Place the meat on the other end of the hot plank.

Dutchess Potatoes
Four cups hot mashed potatoes, 2 tablespoons heavy cream, salt and pepper to season, 1 beaten egg, 1/4 cup melted butter.

Whip the potatoes with the cream, salt and pepper, then beat in the egg and half the butter. With two spoons, arrange the potatoes in a border around the edge of the plank, and brush with the remaining butter.

+ Crane News +

CRANE—Miss Virginia Clark, librarian in the demonstration school of North Texas State College in Denton, was a weekend visitor with Mrs. Hugh Strickland.

Mrs. T. L. Wetsel left Saturday for San Angelo, where she is visiting her brother, Bobby and Jackie Meeks, nephews of Mrs. Wetsel, accompanied her to their San Angelo home. They have been visiting in Crane two weeks.

Winifred Williams of Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, arrived this week to spend the winter with his sister, Mrs. Gayle Young.

Several teachers from the Crane public schools attended the Reading Conference held at Sul Ross College last week. They were Mrs. Oleane Crane, Virgil Keyes, Miss Cole, Mrs. L. L. Martin, Mrs. Dorothy Strickland and Mrs. Susan Evans.

Plans were discussed Friday night at a meeting of the VFW for the location of the service organization in a permanent home. A location must be obtained and a building provided. J. B. Clark, vice commander, presided in the absence of Commander Ken Spencer. Other officers present were Thomas C. Hogan, Jr., quartermaster, and L. H. Tanner, adjutant.

Youth Center Chatter

By JUNE HAZLIP-JOYCE HOWELL
Don't read this! Didn't we say not to? You'll be bored. OK, don't say we didn't warn you. Just be stubborn!

Hi, Fellows and Gals, Men and Women, and anyone else who might be reading this column. How about sticking around and seeing just what's happening around our Youth Center this week.

We had several visitors this week and we had nice talks with them, so we can tell you all about them. Charles Munde and Jerry Stratler are visiting here from Alpine. We couldn't find out much about these girls but they're worth looking at. Felias! Charles Davidson, a Junior from Grandfalls, Texas, was in, too! Charles is quite a celebrity; it seems. He was captain of the All-District football team and was also on the All-State Basketball team! (This information should be of particular interest to you girls!) We also have two new members. They are Kitty Lou Anderson and Yvonne Shane, both Freshman this year.

"Curiosity killed the cat," or so they say. So of course we couldn't resist taking a look at the postcard on the bulletin board. It is addressed to the Boys of the Midland Youth Center and reads like this: "One Long Guess." It was post-marked Missouri. Does anyone know who "One Long Guess" is? Formal Dance

Be sure and don't forget about the big formal dance at the Center Saturday night! Jimmy Furman's orchestra will do the musical honors and it's all in honor of the Seniors of '49, who will go away to college this year. Thanks to the French Heels Club for furnishing this fine orchestra.

Also on our calendar we have a movie which will come up the third of September. Not only will we get to see a movie but there will be two comedies! (Of course, no one is interested in comedies!) Several "injured" were in the Youth Center the other day. We noticed Mark McKinsey had his right eye bandaged up. It seems that Mark is the first football casualty of the year. Gatha Tabor was all painted up with purple. She told us it was medicine but we never did quite figure out what it was for!

Football training has started and quite a bunch of our regulars are so busy "working out" we don't see them around the Youth Center as much as usual.

Well, in just a few short days, school will be starting. Everyone is anxious to get back to dear old MHS. It should be something to see when everyone is trying to find their new lockers, rooms and teachers in the huge new building. At least it will be like trying to put together a big puzzle. "Did we say lockers? We meant 'bread-boxes'!"

Benefit Ball Game
The Police-Fire Department baseball game Tuesday night attracted quite a few Teeners. We saw Dicky Jackson, Charles Ruckman and Oscar Cooper yelling their lungs out! We never did figure out which team they were yelling for. David Angulsh, Wilma Like, Shirley Harrison, Sidney Smith and Suzie Young strolled in, strolled out, and later were seen looking over the fence! Question of the week: "Was David chauffeur or the escort?"

Another visitor this week was David Ree from California. David is 18 and now is working in and around Midland while waiting to start to school at Texas A&M. Ann White, a freshman from Crane also was a visitor.

Doyle Roberts was in the Youth Center the other night. It seems Doyle has done quite a bit of traveling since we saw him last. Houston, Austin, Abilene and Brownwood are a few of the places he has visited. He also enrolled in Texas University, where he will room with Moe Price.

More Visitors
Davis Sykes, Jacky Thomas, and Eddy Sharp from Odessa were in. We would call them visitors except that they have been in so often we consider them members. About John Flynn seemed to be doing a very good job of entertaining Peggy Simmons, Camilla Birkhead, Marion Sevier, Pat Boles and Jo Dean Downing. Max and Gene Schaefer were looking over his shoulder and adding comments from time to time. It seems that John and Peggy were not on speaking terms, so they were carrying on a conversation thru Marion. (We noticed that Marion looked a little lost at times!)

Mabe Clarke, Lyndy Moore, Jo Ann Boykin, and Lou Price were in for a visit the other night. Lou is a Midland "Ex." She now is living in Fort Worth.

Sidney Smith was sporting a very novel hat the other night. It was a straw which looked as if it needed the finishing touches put on it. Pinned on the front of it was a note which said: "Prevent Grass Fires. Watch those cigarette Butts."

Of course, to get the full effect of this rather "unusual" hat, you really should be around to see it! Wandering Thoughts:

Why is Howard Ischar so anxious to learn to speak French?

Bob Holt and Tom Sloan were dressed in "informal" attire. (Consisting of "Cowboy regalia").

Was that a Mexican Hat dance that Wayne Richardson and Harold Drew were trying to do?

Bunt Hightower brought in a "pint-sized" visitor. He was "Little Copper," Diane Daugherty's little, red-headed brother.

Well, as a final thought, here is something else for you to figure out. Here are some license numbers which are seen around the Youth Center quite often. LA7883, BC3507, BC 2046, BC1000, BC2349, BC871, BC 1296, JY7387, AL8715, LA8466, BC 216, BC4484, BC23, BC405 and BC 1239. Do you recognize any of these?

Well, it's "Adios" 'til next week... We'll be seeing you around!

DADDY RINGTAIL

Daddy Ringtail And How To Make A Door

The Huffen is a friendly wolf, but there he was in his hollow tree house, trembling with fright. It was only an accident that he had shot the lion with the arrow. It hadn't hurt the lion, but the lion was outside, trying to get in. "Ooooh!" said the Huffen. He stacked all the chairs and the bed and the table against the door.

Then the Huffen ran as fast as he could to get a hammer and nails. He nailed the back door together. Rappy-tap-tap! Rappy-tap-tap! said the hammer on the nails, one after the other until the door was nailed shut as shut could be.

No lion was going to get hold of a Huffen Puffen, the Huffen thought. There was only one thing wrong. If the lion did get in, the Huffen couldn't get out. The front and back doors were locked and nailed and crowded shut. "Ooooh!" said the Huffen when he thought of how he couldn't get out if the lion once managed to get himself in.

But the Huffen knew what to do. He got some chalk from out of his pocket. He drew a door on the wall where there had never been a door before. He chuckled and laughed while he drew. He would have a way to get out now—if the lion ever managed once to get in.

That silly rascal. That silly wolf. That silly Huffen Puffen. Imagine! Imagine his drawing a door on the wall with chalk, and thinking it would be a door to get out. If the lion ever got in to get him. These are the things Daddy Ringtail thought, but he was wise enough to wait and see what happened.

Then the lion did come in. He crawled through the window. "Ooooh!" said the Huffen. Away he ran through the door that was drawn of chalk. Crash and crackle and bump and splinter. There was now a sure enough door in the wall, a door where a door had never been before, for the Huffen had knocked it out of the wall as he ran through it away from the lion. The new door was right where the Huffen had wanted a door all along.

Well, the lion was really a friendly fellow. I am glad to say. He gave Daddy Ringtail the arrow and asked him please to tell the Huffen to be more careful where he shot it. Happy day for now!

When it's your turn to have the crowd for a Summer evening get-tion and also offer a number of possibilities for unique services. The "Soft Drink Julep" is just one.

Soft Drink Julep
Eight bottles (7-ounce size) lemon-lime soda, 2 lemons, 2 limes, fresh cherries, fresh mint sprigs.
Chill the bottles of lemon-lime carbonated beverage in the refrigerator. When very cold, pour the contents of 4 bottles into a freezing tray; add the juice of the lemons and limes, mix gently and freeze until almost solid. To serve, scoop generous portions of the frozen beverage into all glasses; garnish with a fresh cherry and a sprig of mint. With each glass, serve a bottle of chilled lemon-lime soda which is to be poured over the frozen mixture.

Apricot Punch
One can apricot nectar, 2 large bottles gingerale, fresh mint sprigs. Chill the gingerale and the apricot nectar. Pour contents of one bottle of gingerale into ice cube tray and freeze. To serve, fill tall glasses 1/4 full of the apricot nectar, add several cubes of frozen gingerale and fill the glasses with chilled gingerale. Mix lightly, add a sprig of fresh mint and serve at once.

New York Cooler
Peel rind of one large lemon in a long, thin strip and put it in a 2-quart pitcher with 12 cubes of kola carbonated beverage frozen in ice cube tray. Pour in one 12-ounce well-chilled bottle of kola carbonated beverage, 1 large bottle cherry soda, stir lightly and garnish with half slice of lemon.

Australian Reports Uranium Discovery

PERTH, AUSTRALIA.—A prospector claims he has found large deposits of uranium ore in Western Australia. W. D. Millar says his find is 80 miles west of Marble Bar—hottest town in Australia, 1240 miles northeast of Perth. Millar told a reporter a local assessor showed about 40 per cent uranium content, which would make it the richest known deposit in Australia. Millar has applied to the Mines Department, Perth, for a 45-acre prospecting area. The site is in rough country near large known deposits of the mineral tantalite.

Confessions Of Engel, The Romantic Swindler

By SIGMUND SAMUEL ENGEL
As Told To Elgar Brown
(Copyright, 1949, Chicago Herald-American)

I'm a cad or I'm a card. The angry roar from those who condemn me is matched only by the thunderous cheers of those who approve my adventurous career.

In a way I'm like the Brooklyn Bums, who inspire half the fans to rhapsodic bliss and evoke bitter maledictions from the other half. To most people I am all black or all white, and no fooling around in any middlefield gray.

Luckily for my peace of mind, only my supporters seem to take open in hand, jot down their views and mail them to me here in the Cook County Jail, where I'm dry-docked pending settlement of a couple of very offside raps indeed.

I'd like to pass on a sampling of this mail, but please don't accuse me of distorting the picture. I've always been able to take it as well as dish it out, but I can hardly be blamed for the fact that no adverse criticism has arrived here. My correspondents seem about evenly divided among men and women. Many are widows—a class of women I benefited or preyed upon, depending on whose yardstick one uses.

An Admirer wrote from Minneapolis June 29: "I have always contended women ask for just what they get. They are more guilty than you. Am watching your case with the utmost interest. I am a widow and I sure wouldn't fall for any swindler—but I'd enjoy your company." Elderly Citizen Writes

On the same day in Bethlehem, Pa., an elderly citizen named Ed took time to write "Dear Sig" as follows:

"I've been reading about your escapades with the fair sex and have spent many hours trying to figure out how you accomplished all that the authorities claim you succeeded in doing.

"I am nearing my 77th anniversary and am writing to thank you for furnishing the newspapers a full and frank statement of your modus operandi June 29. This is especially to the benefit of many of us oldsters who are too damned dumb to pursue such a profitable game. I honestly think a monument should be erected in honor of your accomplishment. Instead of thrusting you into durance vile.

"From what I can learn—and all I know is what I read in the papers—you did not steal any cash from the doctors. All you did was to barter love, of which you evidently had an over-abundance, for the filthy lucre of which your so-called victims had scads.

"More power to you! P. S.—I'm glad you aren't charged with being a member of Lonely Hearts, Inc. That cryptic crack about lonely hearts organizations brings up the interesting fact that I never understood those rackets, much less found occasion to use them. Surely no one needs help in locating marriage-minded women! "Poor Common People"

The theme of "get 'em before they get you" is strongly evident in many of my communications. George Miller, editor of something called "We, the Poor Common People," wired me on June 30:

"Congratulations, Sig! Our hat's off to you. It was either you or me. What about a good story for us? Good luck."

I'd give him a story if I had time. I'm one of the poor common people myself.

Almost every day's mail brings a more or less forthright offer of companionship from one of the very women I am accused of "defrauding." A Chicagoan signing herself "The Widow" Murdock, wrote me on July 5:

"You old rascal, I would have done the very things you did. You never killed anybody, did you? Well then. These women gave you their money; why don't they set you free and make room for the killers in jail?"

"I've got $10,000. I would never give it to you—but if you get out you sure can live in my home. I won't write my address, but I'll be seeing you."

Some of my male correspondents are obviously warriors in the Battle of the Sexes, and indulge in a bit of gloating. In Brooklyn on June 25 a man who candidly signed himself "Misogynist" paid for this telegram:

"Congratulations. Females have always bragged of their ability to make monkeys out of men. It is refreshing to see you reverse the process."

And "Another Casanova," writing me from San Francisco on June 26, revealed a powerful gift of prophecy in his final observation: "Hold away, Old Timer, your exploits keep people from thinking about things they don't understand. You are a card. There will probably be more claims on you than a gold strike."

Casanova, Jr., must have known from bitter experience about the greed that exists in the hearts of many women. In the last few weeks absurd claims have been filed against me from grasping females of whom I'd never heard.

Small-Time Operation
These began piling up as soon as word got round that I'd made an extremely generous $5,400 settlement on Mrs. Reseda Corrigan, of Chicago, whom I met only casually in an operation I rated as strictly small-time.

My lawyers warned me it was a mistake to set a dangerous precedent like that. They were right and I was wrong. Though I never received more than $5,000 from Mrs. Corrigan, she isn't satisfied and wants more.

And the swarm of strange leeches this gesture attracted has caused me no little bother. However, the law will put Mrs. C. in her place—and the others will soon be forgotten. . . . Back to my fan mail.

A sincere woman's viewpoint is aptly expressed in this note from "Jean, Irving, Texas," who writes: "Here's heartily hoping you go scot free—soon. I don't see how they have any case against you."

"Any woman who has to pay for attentions to the tune of moola in the thousands, when she is still in her 30's, should be used as you have been using these poor saps."

"If some women with money would use a little on some worthy cause, such as helping the needy, they'd be surprised how much more consolation they'd get, and also be in position to meet eligible men of their own age."

"Please don't misunderstand. I think it grand for a man of your age to be able to influence these younger women; and I don't see how anyone could be so dumb, then howl after she saw what a sucker she was."

Suggests Dames Be Visited
"I only wish some guy like you would get a hold of a couple of dames in this town who only go from store to store and yackety-yack-yack . . ."

"Don't see how any jury of men could convict you of any charge, and I know no woman jury would. Possibly they'll pat you on the back and wish you more success and bigger stakes. Hope they turn you loose; you have done no wrong." But the letter which probably best reflects my own justification for taking money from 1,001 women was written June 26 by "Mrs. D." in Rye, N. Y.:

"Of course you have been a little rough with the girls, but some of them probably had it coming. You gave them a whirlwind courtship and any woman past 40 should be willing to pay something for a thrill."

"It is indeed doubtful that any of them would have hesitated to sue you for all the alimony they could get if you had been the wealthy person you pretended to be."

"And it is a safe bet that the majority of your victims got their money from some man. I'm sure you have done wrong—but the nation is not one-sided."

From an old friend, Come Solly Pellegrin of Brooklyn, come a copy of his new "Rita," and a suggestion that jointly republish it under a title, "Polly," in honor of my and sweetheart, Pauline Lang.

The notion appeals to me. P. line is a different sort of woman and I intend to dedicate, not in a song, but the rest of my heart.

(In the next and closing chapter of his life story, Engel reveals his affair with the New York beauty who finally won his heart.)
