HEAD OF LEGION RECALLS NATION TO DAY'S IDEAL

Urges Faith Be Kept in Lofty Purposes Inspiring American Arms in War.

Pledges Legion to Keep Alive Spirit of Fighting Days for All Time.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Calling for acclamation of Armistice day, in the "spirit that made it," F. W. Galbraith, Jr., national commander of the American Legion, tonight issued an open message to the nation.

"The swift triumph of our arms and those of our gallant armies, which two years ago gave us the victory, the anniversary of which we celebrate tomorrow, marks the high lights of the present century in American affairs," he said.

"Victories such as Armistice Day commemorates are not the issues solely of clashes and steel. They are of a finer quality than that

They are triumphs as well of an unconquerable spirit.

Cannot Survive Spirit.

"No victory, however complete, long can survive the spirit that conceived it. The annals of mankind are replete with examples splendid triumphs in behalf of splendid causes, that have gone for naught because the spirit that made them ceased to endure.

"This is only the second anniversary of Armistice Day—a day destined, if we will, to keep company with the immortals of the calendar that make great moments of history that never shall die. Succeeding generation will acclaim Armistice Day. God grant they always shall acclaim it in the spirit that made it; and that this spirit, like the day, shall be impedishable.

"With this prayer in our hearts, let us renew each year our vows of fealty, repledge and keep unshakable our faith in the high ideals, the lofty purposes, the unselfish aspirations and exalted holy hopes that fired the hearts of Americans in 1918 and made ours a land from whence crusaders came, with souls aflame, worthy of their victory.

Celebration of Armistice Day will mark New York's observance of the anniversary tomorrow in all parts of the greater city.

Chief among the exercises will be the award of honors to 13 officers and men of American naval forces at the New York navy yard for distinguished war service. Decorations of soldier and sailor graves and Armistice Day oration have been scheduled by hundreds through out the metropolis.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Joining in the national observance of the second anniversary of the signing of the armistice, heads of the nation's military and naval forces today issued messages to the personnel of the

GENEVA READY FOR SESSION OF LEAGUE HEADS

Forty-One Nations Will Be Represented in the First Meeting of Council.

French May Be Given Same Colony Votes as Pact Gave to England.

By Associated Press.

GENEVA, Nov. 10.—Geneva is beginning to feel its honor as the headquarters of the world, and its residents are being violently elbowed to make room for the League of Nations with all its appurtenances.

The secretariat of the league, 300 strong, is occupying the largest hotel for its offices. The delegations to the assembly of the league meet November 15.

About 80 Japanese delegates already are here and headquarters have been reserved for 100 in all. Dr. Gastoa Da Cunha, Brazilian ambassador to France, and one of the most active members of the league council, was the first delegate to arrive.

Forty-one Nations Expected.

Delegates are expected from at least 41 of the 45 members of the league. The new kingdom of Hedjaz has not yet announced the appointment of a delegate, but has asked press facilities for a Hedjaz correspondent. Among the delegations already here are two former premiers, two presidents of senates, one president of a house of representatives, nine cabinet ministers—mostly ministers of foreign affairs—seven former cabinet ministers, four ambassadors and 20 ministers.

The distinguished orators include Rene Viviani, Dr. Da Cunha and Dr. Rafael Martinez y Ortize, Cuban minister to France.

Final preparations for the assembly will be completed Sunday by the league council which will meet at the old National hotel, which, since it was bought by the league, has been rechristened "The Palace of Nations."

The first important subject coming up, according to the program as it now stands, is an amendment to the league covenant. This discussion, it the delegates so wish, may be preceded by the question of the voting strength of the delegations.

It is recalled that Leon Bougeois, French representative at the time of adopition of the covenant, expressed hope that the assembly would accord the French colonies the same right of representation as accorded the British dominions.

SILK MILLS MAKE 15 PCT. WAGE CUT

SUNBURY, Pa., Nov. 10.—The Susquehenna Silk mills corporation with main offices in New York, today announced a fifteen percent reduction in pay through the discontinuance of a ten percent bonus for regular attendane at work and a five percent "dividend." Approximately 3,500 workers in Pennsylvania are affeted.

BODY OF DEAD WACO OFFICER SENT HOME

JUNCTION CITY, Kan., Nov. 10.—The body of Captain John Tull of the United States army, who died here last night during an operation following an accidental shooting, was sent to his home in Waco, Texas, today. Captain Tull was shot while returning a service revolver to its holster.

Denies Causing Woman's Death

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—Testifying at the inquest here today over the body of Miss Theodore Sanders, of Laredo, Texas, who yesterday plunged a dagger into her heart in logue room of a local hotel while talking to Harry H. Garver, her former fiance, Garver declared that he was not in any way responsible for Miss Sanders' death.

He repeated his statement to the police last night that Miss Sanders stabbed herself as he turned away.

"She always carried that little dagger in her hand bag," he said, "so I do not think it possible any one else could have thrown it at her, and killed her that way. She killed herself, I think, because she was jealous and temperamental."

Garver was released by the police on his own recognition, and the inquiry was indefinitely postponed pending the arrival of some of Miss Sanders' relatives.

CIGARETTES FROM AMERICA SUBDUE THESE HUSKY NEAR EAST BANDITS

Robber bands of Chotes are making the roads unsafe for travelers in the near east. The photograph shows an automobile full of workers of the near east relief enroute for Moorish Cilicia, to Aleppo, Syria, who were held up by one of these robber bands. They secured safe passage by distributing American cigarettes to the bandits. The results are shown in the happy, smiling faces of the subdued thugs in their picturesque dress and caps.

HELD BONDLESS IN GIRL'S DEATH

Affronti, Second Taken in Mystery, Kept in Prison.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 10.—After Lonnie Affronti, arrested early today in connection with the killing of Miss Florence Barton, a society leader here, by highwaymen the night of October 2 last, had been arraigned in justice court late today and released on $20,000 bond, he was taken into criminal court where he was denied bond and sent to jail to await trial December 6.

At his arrignment in the justice court, Affronti pleaded not guilty and his preliminary hearing was set for November 27. His bond was signed by his parents.

Affronti's arrest is the second this week in connection with the killing, which has attracted wide attention. Dennis Chester of Kansas City was arrested in Great Falls, Montana, Monday, on a charge of murder in connection with the case after private detectives had conducted a search for him that became virtually nation-wide.

A third suspect now is in jail in St. Joseph, Mo., awaiting trial on a charge of robbing an interurban station.

Miss Barton was killed and Howard Winter, her finance, wounded, by one of three men in a motor car while the couple were riding on a suburban road.

BANKER DEAD FROM 6 PISTOL WOUNDS

DECATUR, Ill., Nov. 10.—H. R. Woodcock, banker of Macon, Ill., who was found with six bullet wounds in his breast this morning, died at 1:45 o'clock this afternoon in Macon. Mr. Woodcock, who was a private banker, made an agreement at 8 o'clock Tuesday night for the consolidation of his bank with the Farmers Bank of Macon, and the legal details were to have been decided today. No difficulties in the bank consolidation are known.

U. S. DOLLAR MAKES NEW HIGH RECORD

By Associated Press

BUENOS AIRES, Nov. 10.—There has been a further advance in the price of the American dollar in the past few days to 133, a new high record, and it is said there are no prospects of an abatement in the rise.

One bankruptcy which was reported today is attributed to the rise in the price of the dollar.

The accumulation of rejected American merchandise in the customs house is estimated to have reached the value of 10,000,000 pesos. The dollar also is said to have reached a high record of 131 in Uruguay.

BOY EMPLOYED TO KILL FAMILY

Shoots Through Window, Hit Daughter and Aged Grandmother.

By Associated Press

NORTON, Kan., Nov. 10.—Norton county authorities announced today that Carl Johnson, 17 years old, had confessed he was employed by Elmer Heiserman, 18, to kill members of the Heiserman family in their home, near Almena, Kan.

The Heiserman family was attacked several days ago while at dinner. Shots fired through a window struck Faye, one of the daughters, and the grandmother of the family. Neither was seriously injured.

The man who did the shooting fled after firing six shots. Johnson later was captured in a corn field by Jacob Heiserman, the father, and turned over to the authorities.

Both Johnson and Heiserman are being held in the county jail here on charges of assault with intent to kill.

According to Johnson's statement, Elmer Heiserman told him he was in need of money and that if his family were dead he would inherit the estate. Heiserman, Johnson said, promised him $200 if the attempt was successful. Consequently, Johnson said, he procured a small rifle and fired the shots through the window.

Heiserman, the authorities said, has refused to confirm or deny Johnson's statement. The Heisermans and Johnsons are farmers.

PALMER MAY REPLY TO COURT'S REMARKS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Attorney General Palmer intimated tonight he might make reply tomorrow to statements made by Federal Judge Anderson at Indianapolis this week in regard to Mr. Palmer's connection with the soft coal conspiracy. A transcript of Judge Anderson's remarks reached the department of justice today.

Mr. Palmer was in conference with a number of his aides during the day.

FIFTH OF WORLD'S OIL IS MEXICAN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Mexico's 1920 production of petroleum will amount to 140,000,000 barrels, or one-fifth of the world's total, according to official estimates given out today by the Mexican embassy here. This compares with a production of 88,000,000 barrels in 1919 and is more than twice as much as was taken from the fields in 1918 and 1917, the statement said.

IRISH THREATEN BRITONS IN U. S.

Assert Reprisals Will Be Met With Same Tactics.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The British embassy announced today it had taken steps to call the attention of the state department to a message recently received by the British chief secretary for Ireland, dated New York and threatening reprisals against Englishmen residing in the United States "if there are any more reprisals in Ireland on and after the 14th day of November." The New York message was sent in the name of the Amalgamated Irish Societies of America and bore the signature of "J. V. O'Connor, president."

At the state department it was said nothing had been received tonight from the embassy in relation to the message. No comment as to the course the Washington government might pursue was available.

BRITISH CAPTURE CHIEF OF REBELS

LONDON, Nov. 10.—Abdul Wahad, reputed leader of the Mesopotamian insurgents, has surrendered unconditionally and is under British guard at Kufa, 100 miles south of Bagdad, according to a Bagdad dispatch to the Evening News today.

TEXAS SENATOR NAMED IN PROBE OF SHIP BOARD

Witness Says Shipbuilders "Threatened" Appeal to Solon to Rush Payment.

Congressional Committtee Is Told of Alleged Negligence in Handling Affair.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Additional evidence of alleged irregularities and mismanagement of the affairs of the United States shipping board, was introduced here today before the congressional committee investigating the affairs of the board by J. F. Richardson, assistant secretary and statistician of the committee, in concluding his direct testimony.

The investigation is based largely upon a report submitted by Mr. Richardson and A. M. Fisher, secretary and statistician of the committee, after a year's work.

At the conclusion of today's session, Chairman Walsh announced that Commander A. B. Clements, executive assistant to Admiral Benson, chairman of the shipping board, would be a witness tomorrow morning. Chairman Walsh read a telegram from Admiral Benson, which stated that the board would not object to Commander Clements testifying and "that the records, officers and employes of the board were at the disposal of the committee, at any time or place the committee desired."

Schwab To Appear

Chairman Walsh said Admiral Benson and other officials of the board as well as Charles M. Schwab and Charles P. Peiz, former head of the Emergency Fleet Corporation, may be asked to appear before the committee.

Cross examination by Representative Henry J. Steele of Mr. Richardson took up a considerable part of the afternoon session. Characterizing the witness' previous testimony as a "general indictment." Mr. Steele, sought to bring out specific instances of alleged "political influence" favoritism, etc.

Answering questions as to specific instances of alleged political influence, he recited that he had been informed a ship building firm in Texas had "threatened" to appeal to a senator from that state to bring about what was claimed by the company to be a delay in a settlement of an account. He added that he had no knowledge as to what, if anything, the senator did.

He added that he had no knowledge of any shipyard or contracting firm in which a member of congress was interested. He also said that he did not criticise all of the allocation contracts entered into by the board.

Carelessness Charged

The witness also brought out in his testimony incidents of what he termed carelessness in the handling and preserving of shipping board records. In one of the southern districts, he said, desks and file cabinets were disposed of without the contents being removed and that these records were scattered and many of them destroyed. In one case, he testified, where filing cases

'THE CITY THAT FAITH BUILT'

Cashier Locked In Vault, Calls Yeggs to Rescue

By Associated Press

OTTAWA, Ills., Nov. 10—Electric torches, dynamite and safe blowers from the Joliet penitentiary tonight were called on in efforts to free Francis Carey, bank teller, from a time vault in the National City Bank in which he was locked early in the evening by a bandit who took $50,000 from a safe, but dropped it when frightened away. Late tonight Carey had not been freed and it was feared he would suffocate before the vault could be opened.

The time lock was set for 9 a. m., Friday.

After attempts to loosen the door with electric torches and small charges of dynamite had failed, a call was sent to the Joliet penitentiary for expert safeblowers, believed to be in prison, there, and arrangements were made for a special train from Chicago to bring them here. The warden reported, however, that he had only a few "old-fashioned safecrackers, who would be of no use on a modern time, vault."

FLAMING SHIP RACES TO LAND

Freighter Is Dragged by Tugs From New York Channel.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—After a spectacular race against time down the Hudson river, surrounded by tugs and fireboats, and flames licking about her forward decks, the burning Morgan line freighter Elmundo tonight lay beached on the flats near Ellis Island, out of the way of harbor traffic.

Thousands of spectators lined the shores and watched the heroic fight of the tiny tugs to drag the freighter out of the river, as she was threatening to sink and block the shipping channel. The ship, a craft of 10,000 tons, is almost a complete wreck, with her side torn by blasts and her forward superstructure carried away by the fire.

Crew Accounted For.

All members of the crew of the ill-fated vessel, which arrived here from Galveston Monday with a general cargo, have been accounted for, police officials said tonight. Eight of the deck hands were reported seriously burned, one probably fatally.

Longshoremen and members of the crew were unloading the vessel at the Southern Pacific line pier, when the fuel tank, containing several thousand gallons of oil, blew up without warning, hurling men in all directions and carrying away a section of the deck. Plates on the port side also were torn out and the ship immediately began to list.

Several tugs were pulling the steamer into the middle of the river when another explosion occured, and flames leaped up the forward mast, sweeping the superstructure of the deck.

Lists Again.

She gave another heavy list and threatened to sink in mid-channel. More than a dozen tugs came to the rescue and after a valiant fight succeeded in dragging the burning ship two miles downstream.

A short distance north of Ellis island the freighter began to sink rapidly and it was found advisable to drag her on the mud flats off the Jersey shore.

Police officials said tonight that the origin of the explosion had not been learned. The ship was in command of Captain H. E. Parker of Jersey City and carried a crew of 48 men. The greater part of her cargo of fruit and rice had been unloaded.

LOOT OF LOUVAIN STILL IN GERMANY

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Germany has not yet restored a single book or manuscript of the collection carried off or burned during the sack of the historic library of Louvain, the rector, P. Ladenuze, today informed the national committee of the United States for the restoration of the University of Louvain. The value of the stolen treasures, whose return was pledged by the treaty of Versailles, "may be fixed by the Germans at 5,000,000 francs," the said in a letter.

CITY TO PAUSE IN REVERANCE OF HEROIC DEAD

Public Function Planned at Kemp on Hour When Hostilities Ceased.

Banks and Schools Will Be Closed; Heally Tells of American Martyrs.

Wichita Falls will celebrate Armistice Day Thursday with a big public function at the Kemp Hotel at 11 a. m., with numerous minor functions and with an array of sports and other amusements for the holiday pleasure seeker.

Frank Kell, the people who claim to know insist, will make an address at a big gathering in the Kemp Hotel at 11 a. m. He is scheduled to speak in honor of the American soldiers, living and deceased, who made victory possible overseas.

Mr. Kell denied that he would make an "address." He would admit nothing but that he would "join the boys" in honoring American soldiers today when the United States gives thanks for victory and shows respect for her soldiers. Intimate friends of the financier declare that modesty is preventing him from making any announcement that he will speak. Then they will bet you a hundred to one that he will accede because of his desire to pay all possible honor to the heroes of the war.

Everything to Stop

At 11 o'clock for five minutes every bit of work will stop in the Kemp Hotel. This is the only announced feature here of observance of the national custom of holding silent prayer at a certain hour in connection with Armistice Day.

Schools to Close

The schools and banks are closed today. The stores, with a few exceptions, will be open as usual.

Observance of the holiday, in the public schools took place in advance Wednesday. Programs were held in many school auditoriums and class rooms.

Featuring the school observance was an address to high school students by Captain R. S. Healy, hero of the Australian Expeditionary forces during the war. Captain Healy made such a favorable impression when he spoke at high school recently on the Dardanelles expedition, that he was urged to speak again Wednesday.

Captain Healy declared that American and Australian soldiers became "blood brothers" early after the American entry into the war, when the Yankees disguised themselfes as Australians to get into battle.

The bodies of American soldiers were identified among the Australian dead after the battle by their army identification tags, in spite of the Australian uniforms that they wore.

There will be some form of sports for the Wichita Falls fan in afternoon and at night.

Burkburnett and Wichita Falls high school will clash on the junior high gridiron at 3:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

The Wichita Falls Gun Club will meet all-comers in an open shoot defending the Victory Cup, which it won last year against contestants from other cities. Teams from Fort Worth and Dallas are expected to compete. This will take place back of the baseball park in the afternoon. Twelve pairs of doubles and seventy-five singles will be shot.

At night Billy Kleck will meet Danny Sheehan at the Sportsmen's Athletic Club, Tenth street, near Scott, in a lightweight contest which is expected to have considerable bearing on Kleck's claims to the amateur lightweight honors of the southwest.

SIBERIAN REPUBLIC HAS BEEN FORMED

TOKIO, Nov. 10.—The provisional commission which has been conferring at Chita, Siberia, with the view of establishing a Siberian state, has issued a proclamation declaring the formation of an independent Far Eastern Siberian republic controlling the whole territory from the Baikal region eastward.

NEWSPRINT PRICES TO REMAIN HIGH

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—Prices on paper are not likely to recede for some time, President George W. Sisson of Potsdam, N. Y., told the American Paper and Pulp Association convention today. He said the industry was in better condition financially than many other industries, but lack of surplus stock would make price reductions impossible.

OPPOSE OUTSIDE ADVERTISING OF CITY AT PRESENT

The endorsement of the report of the publicity committee of the Chamber of Commerce, which recommended that no large expenditures be made at this time for outside advertising at this time, according to report, is based on the fact that as yet the program for internal improvements along industrial lines is not completed. The present financial stringency was also held to be unfavorable for the branching out into new industries.

The report recommended that efforts be made to better acquaint those already in the city with its present industrial advantages and needs. The publicitys committee announced it intention of continuing its inspection trips to local industrial plants with a view of later making recommendations as to new industries needed and aid required by those already established.

The report was signed by Tom Bergin, chairman; D. C. McCaleb, F. L. McCoy, John W. Thomas, C. F. Carter, Bert Bean, C. G. Manuel, J. H. Murphy, and W. S. Curlee.

Urges Fair Association

J. B. Marlow, in behalf of the committee recently appointed by the Business Man's Council reported to the directors recommending that 150 acres of land lying east of the ball park be purchased with a view of organizing a fair association. The owners of the land, according to Mr. Marlow, have agreed to take part of the purchase price in stock in the fair association. Action on the part of the board of directors will await the decision of the business council to which the committee will report at the luncheon Friday.

A committee consisting of N. H. Austin, Hubert Harrison, G. C. Wood, S. M. McFall and C. W. Reid was appointed with authority to obtain new quarters for the Chamber of Commerce. The lease on the present quarters expires the first day of January.

The complete report of the publicity committee is as follows:

Okey Present Policy

"We approve the present policy of the secretary and staff of devoting most of the time and money of the publicity department to internal propaganda to encourage the community in a forward-looking policy of local improvements.

"We do not believe that Wichita Falls would find it advisable at this time to spend any considerable amount of money for outside publicity.

"First—Because we have yet considerable work to do completing our internal program of improvements.

"Second—Because the present financial stringency is national and few concerns expect to branch out in the immediate future.

"With the sincere confidence in the future of Wichita Falls as the coming metropolis of this section of Texas, with a realization of what the development of the legitimate oil business, wholesale jobbing and manufacturing will do for us as a city, and the well-founded dream that at no distant date the great irrigation project will make Wichita Falls the center of a densely populated and prosperous farming section, we still believe that our avowed policy of economy in publicity at this time is correct until we shall have brought our local projects nearer to completion.

Real News Helps Town

"We believe, that the constant daily publication of real news about what a city is doing gradually through the years produces an idea about the town. We do not believe that the purchase of display advertising broadcast would produce any immediate results in proportion to its cost.

"With the approval of the board we propose to make the publicity committee a service committee, to make personal visits of inspection to the various institutions. If their product is standard, we expect to encourage its further use in this territory. If it is not standard, we expect to find out why, and render such assistance as is practical.

"We believe that the trade development dinner planned for December 2, at which 150 traveling men who make headquarters in Wichita Falls will be guests, will do more in practical publicity lines than many ads.

"After a complete survey of the local situation is finished, we expect to make a direct campaign for the specific institutions which we need and which we think will do well in this locality."

CLAIM RUSSEL CONFESSES HE TOOK LOST CAR

Confronted with a telegram from the chief of police of Tulsa, stating that the automobile which he was driving when arrested here Sunday had been stolen in that city on October 31, Roy Russell confessed, the police say, Wednesday to Police Chief Huff that he had stolen the machine at that time. The reported confession of Russell followed a silence since his arrest Sunday, at which time he had denied that the Cadillac machine in his possession had been stolen.

Russell, who is 21 years old, was employed during the summer by local drug stores as a soda fountain clerk. He left here two months ago and has not been in the city until last Sunday. He was arrested by the police Sunday when he tried to dispose of a Cadillac automobile.

Russell denied that he had stolen the automobile, but refused, according to the police, to say where he had obtained the machine. Efforts on the part of the police Monday and Tuesday to locate the owner were futile.

Tuesday night Chief Huff was notified by the Cadillac manufacturers that the machine had been shipped to an agency in Tulsa. The police there said that the machine had been stolen on the night of October 31.

Russell, according to his story to the police, drove to Oklahoma City, Ardmore and then to this city, after taking the machine. He was unable to sell the machine at any of the places, he told the police.

Officers from Tulsa were on their way here Wednesday night to take Russell back to that city. He waived requisition papers, Russell, before coming here, lived in Greenville, Texas.

SOUND ADVICE ABOUT EATING

Alabama Lady Says We Impose on Nature by Over-eating, but Thedford's Black-Draught will Make You Feel Better

Paint Rock, Ala.—Recommending Thedford's Black-Draught to her friends and neighbors, Mrs. Mary Manning, of this place, says: "I never have and never expect to find a better medicine than Black-Draught. When I've had a cold and needed a laxative, I used Black-Draught. I use it for sour stomach, headche and indigestion, and it does the work.

"I believe most ills we have are caused from inactive liver. We impose on nature by over-eating, and then the liver don't act. We get lazy and no-account. It is hard for us to do our work, and we'd get real sick if we didn't take something. The best remedy I have found yet is Black-Draught. It doesn't leave you constipated, and I feel better after taking a round of it."

Made from purely vegetable ingredients, Black-Draught acts in a natural way, and is free from the bad after-effects of so many mineral drugs.

Bread Custard Pudding—Place three cups of milk in a bowl and add two eggs, two-thirds cup of sugar, one-half teaspoon nutmeg. Beat to mix and then add two and one-half cups bread, cut in one-half inch pieces. Place on the top shelf in a moderate oven and bake for thirty-five minutes.

Walnut Chocolate Pudding—Place in a saucepan two cups milk, four level tablespoons cornstarch, five level tablespoons cocoa, pinch of salt. Stir to dissolve the starch, bring to boil and cook, then add two cups crushed peaches, one cup sugar. Stir to blend and then cook slowly for five minutes. Cool and then four into tall glasses and sprinkle the top with pieces of broken walnuts and then top with fruit whip.

Peach Tapioca—Wash one cup of pearl topioca in plenty of water and let soak over night in just water enough to cover. In the morning add one and one-half cups water and cook until tapioca is clear and transparent, using double boiler. Now add one-half cup of sugar, one-quarter cup of finely chopped walnuts. Cook for a few minutes longer, then let cool and fill into sherbet cups. Garnish with hard sauce and a thin slice of peach.

Cream Lemon Pudding—Place in a saucepan three tablespoons butter, seven tabelspoons sugar, yolks of two eggs. Cream until light and fluffy and then gradually beat in five level tablespoons flour, grated rind of three-quarters lemon, three tablespoons lemon juice, pinch of salt. Beat to thoroughly mix and then pour on slowly and beat hard to blend one and one-half cups of scalding milk. Cook for five minutes and then remove from the fire and set the saucepan in a pan of cold water to chill. When cold fold in the stiffly beaten whites of the two eggs and pour into buttered custard cups. Set the cups in a pan of water and bake in a moderate oven for twenty minutes. Remove, cool and then chill. Turn from the cups on a thin slice of cake and use lemon sauce for serving.

RECIPES FOR A DAY

Glazed Sweet Potatoes—Boil large sweet potatoes of even size and remove skin. When cool, slice in thick slices and arrange in layers in buttered dish, sprinkling generously between layers with brown sugar, butter, and seasoning with salt and pepper. Pour a little water over all and bake in moderate oven three-quarters of an hour. Strips of bacon may be placed over top instead of butter.

Vegetable Soup—A knuckle bone is very inexpensive and gives a very good flavor to the soup. Boil steadily, but not vigorously, for an hour; season with salt, pepper, lots of paprika (for color), add diced carrots, parsnips, onion; and later diced celery. When vegetables are tender, but not mashed, add a little macaroni or home-made noodles. When done, remove bone and serve. Care must be taken not to over-crowd soup with vegetables.

HARDING ACCEPTS NEW ORLEANS BID

By Associated Press

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 10.—President-elect Harding will be a guest of the New Orleans Association of Commerce at a luncheon November 18, a few hours before he sails for Panama, it was announced today.

Senator Harding's party will sail on the Parismina for Panama during the afternoon of November 18.

Considerable interest is attached to the visit here, as the republican party polled more than half the number of votes secured by the democratic candidates in New Orleans, a condition unheard of since reconstruction days.

GOMPERS GREATLY DISTRESSED OVER AMERICA'S FUTURE

We have learned from press sources that Gompers is working on another plan to rid the United States of undesirable elements agitating the working class. He is preparing a memorandum which is to be submitted to congress invoking that a law be passed whereby immigration be suspended for at least four years, thus crippling and disabling the flow of radical immigration which is expected in the near future.

Regardless of the fact that the American capitalists dread radicalism more than combustion, and are putting forth even more effort for its suppression than the reactionary Gompers, still it is doubtful whether congress will pass such a law or not. Prohibiting immigration will create a greater panic here in the United States than is expected. With emigration still on such a large scale as it is today, and then no immigration, soon there will be a vast labor shortage. This will greatly conflict with the wishes and ways of the capitalists, for they always favored larger masses of the working class than there were jobs available, and they always gloried in vast armies of the unemployed. Only with such conditions did they have the advantage of the working class in cases of strikes or other resistance. Will they support this cause whereby labor-shortage will decrease so readily?

By suspending immigration and deporting aliens, neither the United States nor Gompers' Federation of Labor can protect themselves against radicalism, for it is being well nursed even by the Americans here, present labor and living conditions being the main factors in forcing radicalism on the working class.

If up to present time aliens were more revolutionary and the Americans more conservative, existing conditions have brought on a decided change, and, undoubtedly, in the future we are to witness a complete reversal.—Laisve (Lithuanian) Brooklyn, N. Y.

PRESIDENT WILSON, THE IDEALIST

The opponents of the democratic party blame President Wilson for all the shortcomings of the democratic administration. He is looked upon as the incarnation of the democratic party, who is to pay the price for all its sins and follies.

Many actions of the democrats were regrettable. But it is unjust to identify President Wilson with every wrong done by the democratic party.

President Wilson is an idealist. He is convinced that everybody else is just as sincere and honest as he himself is. He does not seem to realize that diplomacy knows no charity, that it has no human considerations. And so Wilson easily becomes a victim of those who are seeking their personal aims.

His idealistic view made him a weapon in the hands of the British premier. Striking at his idealism, Lloyd George got everything from Wilson he wanted.

So is the case with the League of Nations. The president is even now convinced that the league, this product of his sleepless nights, can save the world from terrible military conflagrations, while those who accepted his views thought only of how to use the league for their own aggrandizement. There lies the tragedy of the whole situation.

But it is unjust to blame him. He remains, as he always was, the learned idealist who fell a victim to his political supporters and to cunning European diplomats. No one can accuse him of bad faith. —Pravda (Russian, Ind.) Olyphant, Pa.

WAR MACHINES OF TOMORROW

Of immediate interest in connection with the theory of the French General Duval that nations will depend for preparedness rather on mechanical equipment than on large standing armies, is an article by Colonel Croft of the British army in the journal of the Royal United Service Institution. "We are only at the beginnig of the machine age," declares Colonel Croft, "and the possibilities are such as to inspire the greatest enthusiasm as well as the greatest alarm."

A synopsis and commentary by Jean Fabray, member of the French chamber of deputies, is published by the Intransigeant, Paris:

"In reading Colonel Croft's article," M. Fabry says, "you might think you were reading one of Well's fantastic novels, except that during the late war we got some idea of what a war of tanks will be like. The first German soldiers who saw the 'killing machines' emerge from the fog on the Somme, were seized with a wild terror.

"But since then marvelous progress has been made. The genius of man has already created a machine having radius of action of not less than 250 miles, and which travels cross-country at the astounding rate of 18 miles an hour. On the road it can make 30. It leaps ditches twelve feet wide and climbs 45-degree hills.

"Already this machine is freed from slavery to roads by special devices and tomorrow it will be rendered amphibious and then nothing can stop it. There is as wide a difference between this new tank and the first experiment in the Somme four years ago as there is between the modern railway express locomotive and its ancestor of fifty years since.

"The next development will be to equip it with silent, smokeless cannon. It will carry generators giving off the most noxious gases. It will have an airtight compartment to protect its personnel from the gases of the enemy. Already it is able to surround itself with smoke, rendering itself invisible and therefore invulnerable.

"It is wonderful—and terrifying!

"And other phenomenal war machines are being brought forth—or are about to be. A tractor is being tried out, based on the principle of the 'rolling spring road;' despite its great weight, it leaves hardly a track on the ground where a man would sink to the knees in mire. Mud, the great enemy of the tractor and the tank, will be overcome, and roads—believed indispensible until now—will be needless tomorrow.

"Moreover, in time of war roads will be rendered useless by new developments in aviation, using methods as yet unguessed. In the domain of the air, even more than in the matter of tanks, invention will progress with disconcerting variety.

"Thus it will be a reality of tomorrow that machine guns and cannon, silent, smokeless, mounted on airplanes, tanks and tractors, will be able to keep up a steady fire even while advancing.

"One hardly knows whether the wonder or the terror of all this is the greater.

"Just imagine the marvelous spectacle, and also the horror of this great steel army, which alas! is no vision, but which would already be in action if the war had continued.

"Against tanks there is but one defense—mines. Against airplances and boms? Nothing much as yet.

"One hope remains—that petroleum supplies will be insfficient for such tremendous requirements, and that nothing will be discovered to take their place.

"It would be folly not to fix attention on such prospects. In comparison with manpower, material has taken an increasing part in the fear of war and the preparation for it.

"In the old days, one man served one rifle. Lately, 50 men were required for a '75' (200 men per battery of four cannon). Tomorrow, a smaller number of men will make use of means that will be greater and greater.

"One may consider what a field of action this opens up to the diabolical inventive genius of Germany.

"I have previously pointed out that in order to attack us Germany must, by means of wealth, ingenuity or surprise-effect of offensive material, make up for the initial disadvantage that she is under (from the point of view of utilization of manpower) by reason of our military establishment on the Rhine, her lack of sea power and the difficulty of mobilizing on the Elbe.

"That is the danger for us in the future. This danger must be avoided by seeking the correct balance between the manpower factor and the material factor, by keeping watch over the German factories and laboratories, and by developing French factories and laboratories."

CRUSHING DEFEAT OF GERMANY BROUGHT PEACE 2 YEARS AGO

The Armistice, its causes, terms and effects; a review by Julia Evans Cope:

The Armistice, a word familiar to every nation, yet one whose true significance is understood and appreciated by only those who value diplomacy, political and social economic or modern history in its relations to the periods that preceded the late war.

To the masses, the armistice simply meant cessations of hostilities that had been sapping the life of all the nation of Europe for four years, and of America for two years; and as a time for hilarious rejoicing, and unrestrained demonstrations.

The great war, which began July 28, 1914, with the Austrian attack on Serbia, and continued through the following four years, until every nation became involved, either in active service or were affected politically and economically, ended very abruptly on November 11, 1918 when the German envoys accepted the terms of an armistice, drawn up by the Allied Powers.

There was no alternative for Germany at this time, for the drive of the Allies, which had begun some three months previous, had opened up a direct entrance into Germany and were advancing steadily. Her principal ally, the Hapsburg Empire had already surrendered, the spirit of mutiny was growing hourly among the ranks of the army and navy, and some of the high officers were inciting to revolution.

The Chancellor, Prince Maximilian, had already pleaded with the president of the United States for an armistice.

On November 5, the president informed the German government that terms of the armistice had previously been drafted by the Allies and that all plans for presenting them to the German government had been arranged and that peace could be effected, very promptly, by the acceptance of the document by the Imperial government.

Erzberger Meets Foch

A German commission was appointed, headed by Matthias Erzberger, to meet Marshal Foch, the commander-in-chief of the victorious Allied forces and learn the terms.

At Rethondes, a point six miles from Compiegne, on November 8, Marshal Foch presented the terms that had been so carefully drawn up to the defiant, but helpless, and silent envoys of the conquered nation, and gave them 72 hours in which to attach their signatures.

The terms, while very bitter to the losers of the war, meant only the disarming and disabling of the nation to the extent that future aggression would be impossible. The armistice was the ultimatum and no reservations would be considered. The signatures that made the pact binding were attached at 5 a. m., November 11, 1918, and went into immediate effect, although actual fighting did not cease until 10 o'clock.

At the end of two weeks, the German troops had evacuated all the invaded territory, which meant Belgium, Alsace-Lorraine, northern France and Luxemburg.

Within a month, they had passed west of the Rhine for thirty kilometers and the army of occupation had taken possession of this area; the American branch occupying the Coblenz section, The French, the Mainz section and the British, the Cologne section.

The Treaties of Brest-Litovsk and of Bucharest, annulled by the armistice, caused the removal also of German troops from Russia, Austria-Hungary, Rumania and Turkey.

Navy Surrenders

The navy with its submarines and warships was transferring its powers also to the victors. Five thousand locomotives, 150,000 railroad and 5,000 motor-lorries all in good condition, were turned over to the allies. The economic blockade was to continue.

These terms were to be in force for thirty days, and then minor reservations would be permissible from time to time until a formal treaty of peace could be completed, at Versailles, June 29, 1919.

The surrender of the German empire was complete, but the wholesome influence of the armistice was quickly testified to by each German states setting up independently a republican form of government.

Likewise, the same relief was extended to former German dominions beyond the seas.

Seventeen days after the armistice had been effected, Emperor William the Second, formerly abdocated his crown as King of Prussia and Emperor of Germany.

This was followed on December the First, by the Crown Prince renouncing his rights to royalty.

Under Chancellor Ebert, a republican form, decreeing to elect by secret ballot of all adults—male and female—a National Assembly to determine the future political interests of their country.

MEXICO, REFORMED, GOES A-WOOING

Editorial Digest

VARIETY IS THE MAIN ISSUE

With but few exceptions, editorial writers who analyze the reasons for the overwhelming republican victory, arrive at the same conclusion. As viewed by writers of both parties, the great underlying cause is "the desire of the American people for a change." But radical differences of opinion develop when this "desire for change" itself is analyzed. It is denounced as forcibly as it is justified, but it is admitted to be the determining factor.

"This blind desire for a change for change's sake," as the Richmond (Va.) News-Leader (Ind. Dem.) expresses it, is, the Times Dispatch (Dem.) of the same city believes, "a psychological condition that was natural following the termination of the great war," but it is "unreasoning and illogical." The American people, as the New York World (Dem.) sees it, "did not know what kind of a change they wanted, and they do not know what kind of a change they voted for. All of the restlessness and discontent bred of the war has finally found expression in the ballot box, and the result is Warren G. Harding."

"Resentment both against the treaty and against the delay in the treaty, resentment both against the high prices that were here until the other day and against falling prices today; resentment against the 'exactions' of labor up to the other day and against the industrial decline and rising unemployment today—all these opposites combined in one great weariness into one mighty desire for change."

The same baffling, "diverse and conflicting feelings" that the Post finds are brought out as well in the Baltimore Sun (Ind. Dem.) which adds more specific criticism of the administration. "Friends of free speech denounced it because of Palmer and Burleson and enemies of free speech because of Louis Post and Fred Howe. . . . In addition there was justifiable criticism of the administration at Washington because of extravagance and inefficiency. So all of these groups voted pell-mell for Harding."

Whether justified or not, the "referendum," the Indianapolis News (Ind.) believes, has "beyond question spoken in favor of a change, because "men have felt that there has been an undemocratic tendency." Of this accumulated and widespread feeling of animosity toward the present administration, "the republicans," says the New York Times (Ind. Dem.) "made the utmost use." They stirred up new and special hatred of the administration. With all the resources of exaggeration they laid upon it faults of which it had been guilty and invented new ones with which it could not honestly be charged." And, the Birmingham Age-Herald (Dem.) adds, they led the people "to believe that a vote for Cox was a vote for Wilson and a vindication of all his policies," and they succeeded "because the public was in a frame of mind to believe it." This organized resentment against the administration proved a handicap against which Cox "fought a gallant fight," but which he "could not overcome." The democratic candidate, the Johnstown Democrat (Dem.) agrees, "elected to saddle himself with the accumulated grievances against the administration, and these have borne him down to a wholly undeserved defeat." the "crashing preponderance of which, the Detroit News (Ind.) adds, is not directed at him; he "merely served as the vehicle of the repudiation."

The republican press agrees entirely that the basic reason was the "desire for change," but it denies that this was either "baseless or illogical." "No room is left for doubt as to the will o' the American people," the Manchester Union (Rep.) declares. "It has lost its faith in democratic leadership." Reaction against "Wilsonism and all that the term implies," accounts, in the opinion of the Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph (Rep.) for "so nearly a unanimous verdict. . . . For this was the outstanding issue." This verdict, the paper continues, "writes 'finis' to the era of incompetency and extravagance, of one-man rule, or dangerous invasions and undermining of the constitutional powers of our government."

The Worcester Telegram (Rep.) feels that "candor compels the admission that Mr. Harding's election seems due no more to popular enthusiasm for the candidate's personality than to violent distrust of the existing administration. "From the same viewpoint the Utica Press (Ind.) regards the vote as being cast "against Wilson, Wilsonism and one-man government" rather than "for any particular candidate." The Indianapolis Star (Ind. Rep.) states frankly that "Mr. Harding owes his election to the demand of the people for a change in parties and in men in Washington;" or, as the Boston Globe (Ind.) puts it, not only for a change of faces at the window, but for new men to adopt new policies."

Secondary causes for the "landslide" are numerous, no one of them, except the league issue, standing out with any definiteness. As to the part the league played in the final decision, that must be reviewed more fully later. Present estimates of its importance var yfrom that of the New York World (Ind.) which says that the "League of Nations went by the boards" in the "crushing, humiliating answer" given its advocates, to that of the New York Times (Ind. Dem.) which sees in the result "anything and everything but a decision" on the league issue.

ELECT SMOCK COUNTY CHIEF OF RED CROSS

T. B. Smock was made chairman of the Wichita county branch of the American Red Cross at the annual meeting of the executive board in the Chamber of Commerce board room Wednesday afternoon. I. H. Roberts was elected vice-chairman, Mrs. C. E. Ousley, secretary and W. W. Gardner was re-elected treasurer.

Mrs. M. H. Glover was re-elected chairman of the nursing service, Mrs. T. B. Smith of the home service department, Mrs. M. M. Addickes made publicity chairman, and W. M. McGregor, retiring county chairman, put at the head of the finance committee, which includes John O'Donohue, Lester Jones and R. E. Shepherd.

Directors elected for the coming year, besides the officers and the chairmen of the various committees, are Mayor Cline and C. Y. Tully, for Wichita Falls; W. R. Arnold for Iowa Park; A. T. Boyce for Electra and W. B. Utts for Burkburnett.

Reporting on her work as executive secretary of the Welfare Council during her stay here, Mrs. C. E. Ousley told of the handling of 210 cases, making 190 visits over the county, 20 of them to Burkburnett, four to Electra, three to Iowa Park and one to Kemp City. The council has assisted 10 ex-soldiers in securing war risk insurance and 24 ex-soldiers in receiving delayed allotments, two of these cases coming outside of the county.

W. W. Gardner, treasurer, read his annual report, an expenditure during the year of more than $9,800 and a balance of $9,900, a sum declared very inadequate to handle the needs of the coming year without material reinforcements.

The expenditures were divided between nine departments, $471.20 going for home service work, $2,318.43 for public health nursing salaries, $2,410.67 for public health nursing and miscellaneous expense, $456 for office salaries, $76.68 for miscellaneous office expense, $31.20 for postage, printing and stationery, $27.10 for other miscellaneous expenditures, $131.32 as the pro rata remittance to headquarters on the $15,000,000 drive, and $35.34 as the pro rata to division headquarters for memberships.

Red Cross nurses have made 846 visits to patients suffering from 36 different illnesses, ranging from enlarged tonsils to paralysis, typhoid fever and pneumonia. Patients visited ranged in age from 2 months to 76 years, the report shows.

During the year, 5,642 school children in the county have been examined, involving 990 follow-up visits in homes, according to the statement. Establishment of a child health center with a free clinic twice a week is among the accomplishments reported for the year, with plans for similar clinics in Electra, Iowa Park and Burkburnett ready for the coming year. After Thursday the county will be divided into districts, the nurse assigned covering each district at least every other day.

COURT ACQUITS FAGGART; SOLD GAMING HOUSE

W. F. Faggart, charged with permitting gaming to proceed on his premises, whose trial began Wednesday morning before Judge Edgar Scurry in Seventy-eighth district court, was found not guilty late Wednesday. The jury deliberated more than three hours.

A true bill of indictment was returned against Gaggart at a special session of the grand jury as the result of investigations of alleged open gambling in the oil field districts. It was charged that he owned the house in Kemp City in which two men of this city were slain while aiding authorities in a raid on the place.

Gaggart testified that he had sold the house where the gambling was alleged to have been in progress to a man named "Brown" some two weeks before the raid took place.

HARDING CALLS ON AMERICA TO AID RED CROSS

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—On the eve of the opening of the fourth annual rollcall of the American Red Cross, an appeal from President-elect Harding was issued today from the national headquarters here.

It read:

"Noting that your membership rollcall for this season is impending, I have wanted to express my very earnest sympathy for your cause and my hopes that it may be forwarded by the coming campaign.

"If in all the world there is an organization more entitled to be regarded as doing good universally and doing nothing else at any time or any place, I do not know what it may be.

"It would be peculiarly a misfortune if the Red Cross, with its magnificent organization and splendid purpose of useful achievement, should lose any measure of its efficiency because the special interest and enthusiasm of war time has ceased. Your organization has been built to serve humanity, and humanity needs its services in peace just as it did in war. My wishes for all success go out to you."

An appeal from Vice President-elect Calvin Coolidge also was made public, as follows:

"There are no large results without organized effort. In no other way can the mercy of mankind be pressed. To that end the Red Cross, the greatest expression of the compassion of mankind, should have its organization maintained and supported."

WAR CLOUDS IN MAJORS LIFTING FROM HORIZON

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 10.—War clouds tonight are vanishing from the major league baseball horizon, with indications favoring an amicable settlement when the belligerent major leaguers meet in a joint session in Chicago Friday to affect a peace pact. The National Association of Minor Leagues, after listening to both sides in the controversy, voted to help avert a war by agreeing to appoint a committee to act with the major leagues in devising a plan for baseball re-organization.

The sixteen club owners of the two warring leagues agreed to meet in the same room in Chicago and attempt to adjust their differences without the aid of any outsiders. It was agreed that only the club owners shall attend this meeting and that both President Johnson of the American League and President Heydler of the National League, as well as lawyers, stenographers and others who have participated in recent sessions, shall remain away.

Major league leaders pointed out that if lawyers are excluded from the meeting so that no "technical questions" could be raised, the threatened war could be quickly settled.

The agreement to make a desperate last minute attempts to avert a baseball war was reached at a meeting of the directors of the American League at noon today and was one of the results of conferences between the owners of the rival major league factions. The peace news was announced in dramatic fashion in the middle of an address Garry Herrman, owner of the Cincinnati Nations, was delivering to the minor league meeting.

Mr. Herrman, former chairman of the National Commission was interrupted by a messenger who handed him a note which he opened and read slowly. Then he made the announcement that the joint conference of the club owners had been agreed upon for Friday.

President Ban Johnson of the American League in commenting on the joint meeting issued the following statement:

"The American league has been for the principle that a reorganization of baseball should be worked out primarily by a committee composed of representatives from the National League, the American League and the national association. It seems now that such a committee is to be created to consider and work out a plan for reorganization. There have been certain points of defense between the two major leagues which thus far they have not been able to agree upon. It has now been arranged that an informal conference of major league club owners shall take place—this conference to be limited to club owners and to be purely informal. The purpose of the conference is to see if the two major leagues may not in some way iron out their points of difference."

While the National League club owners issued no formal statement, most of them take the stand that what already has been done in the advancement of baseball reorganization can not be changed at the conference Friday. This was taken to mean that the selection of Federal Judge Landis of Chicago, as chairman of the new board of control at a salary of $50,000 a year must be accepted by the merican League club owners.

The National leaguers frankly admit they do not want a 12-club league unless it is forced upon them to organize it and that it would be a "joke."

Mr. Herriman made a statement that it would be ridiculous to form a league with two clubs in three cities. Before leaving for Chicago tonight he declared that he was confident the situation could be adjusted to the satisfaction of all.

WEST POINT OKEYS WICHITA HI WORK

Recognition by West Point of the educational rating of the Southern Association of Schools has put Wichita Falls High school, which is a member of the association, on the accredited list of the national military academy, it was announced Wednesday by Lee Clark, local superintendent.

Entrance examinations still will be required, but in addition to entrance examinations further poor of educational credits will not be required than a certificate of graduation from any high school belonging to the Southern Association of Schools.

EDMUND ANDERSON, ONCE WICHITA RESIDENT, DIES

News of the death of Edmund D. Anderson, until a month ago a resident of Wichita Falls, in Los Angeles on November 3 was received here Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson left their home at 1005 Sixteenth street to go to Los Angeles for the benefit of Mr. Anderson's health.

Besides his widow, the deceased is survived by two children, Gertrude and John. Burial was in Englewood cemetery at Los Angeles.

LIGHT WEIGHT WHO BOXES HERE TODAY

BILLY KLECK

KLECK-SHEEHAN BOUT WILL SEE BARNES IN RING

BY BOB.

A squabbel between the managers of both Billy Kleeck and Danny Sheehan as to who would referee the contest between the two lightweights Thursday night at the Sportsmen's Athletic club was peacefully settled Wednesday on the eve of the contest with the agreement that Jack Barnes, manager of the club, should hold the job.

Al Vent of Fort Worth, who is known to local boxing fans as the only "leap frog" referee in this section, and Patsey Corrigan of Tulsa were suggested, but Kleeck did not want either. Barnes was agreeable to both men.

The exhibition will be the first given by the new club—an organization which Barnes declares will be a permanent one, devoted to fostering of all kinds of good sport here. Barnes, according to reports here, was successful in conducting sporting contests in New Orleans at Tortorich's famous old banging-out place of ringside devotees in the Crescent City.

The new organization has nothing to do with the old Camel Athletic club. Barnes asks for the frank opinions of the fans tonight on the exhibition of the new club strictly on its merits and dampened by no taint of hangovers for which he is not responsible.

Kleck claims the light and welter championship of the A. E. F. He is a fast boxer and a hard hitter. He is reputed to have the edge on Sheehan slightly when it comes to science. But Sheehan is declared to have a wallop which is at all times liable to upset things.

WICHITA HIGH TO MEET BURK ELEVEN TODAY

Wichita High school will play Burkburnett High school football Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock on the junior high field, Thirteenth and Broad streets. This was decided Wednesday at the request of the Burk eleven. Recently the upstate team lost to the locals by a disastrous score.

It is believed here that Burk High has considerably strengthened her gridiron hopeful since the early season game, and a closer contest than the first is expected.

PLAN WESTERN STATE LEAGUE

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 10.—A Western state league, to be made up of teams in Kansas and Oklahoma towns, will be formed at a meeting here tomorrow of representatives of eight towns in the two states, it became known today.

The cities bidding for franchises are: Independence, Coffeyville, Parsons and Pittsburgh, Kan.; Bartlesville, Muskogee, Shawnee and McAlester, Okla.

Don't stick with the prunes

MY DAD'S favorite yarn.
WAS THE one about.
THE OLD storekeeper.
WHO WAS playing checkers.
IN THE back of the store.
AMONG THE coal oil.
AND THE prunes.
WHEN THE sheriff.
WHO HAD just jumped his kind.
SAID "SI there's a customer.
WAITIN' OUT front."
AND SI said "Sh-h-h!
IF YOU'LL keep quiet.
MEBBE HE'LL go away."
NOW HERE'S the big idea.
WHEN A good thing.
HAPPENS ALONG.
DON'T LEAVE it to George.
TO GRAB the gravy.
F'RINSTANCE IF.
YOU HEAR of a smoke.
OR READ about a smoke.
THAT REALLY does more.
THAN PLEASE the taste.
THERE ARE no hooks on you.
THERE'S NO law against.
YOUR STEPPING up.
WITH THE other live ones.
AND SAYING right out.
IN A loud, clear voice.
"GIMME A pack of.
THOSE CIGARETTES.
THAT SATISFY."

JUST plank down twenty cents on any cigar counter and get twenty portions of the real "satisfy-smoke." You'll say you never tasted such flavor, such mild but full-bodied tobacco goodness. You're right, too, because they don't make other cigarettes like Chesterfields. The Chesterfield blend can't be copied.

TWO 400-BARREL WELLS STAND OUT AS HIGH LIGHTS OF WEEK IN WICHITA OIL COMPLETIONS

Two 400-barrel wells, the Art, Haynes & Cranfill No. 5 Munger, block 30, Kemp-Munger-Allen pool, and the Gladiolus Oil company's No. 9 Burnett & Lloyd, Electra pool, both previously reported, constitute the high lights of the completed operations of the district for the week just ended. The Electra well is from the 1,400-foot sand, and is an unusually good well for this depth. The Art, Haynes & Cranfill well is the best completion in the Kemp-Munger-Allen pool for weeks.

The Electra district produced another good well from this 1,400-foot sand, the Planet Petroleum company's No. 5 Burnett & Lloyd making 125 barrels.

The south Kemp-Munger-Allen pool has a slight extension effected by the Walker Consolidated Petroleum company's No. 3 Kemp & Kempner in block 17, a 150-barrel well. This well, like the company's first producer in this block, is in Archer county, close to the county line.

Cline Test Runs 100 Barrels.

The Cline Oil company's No. 1 Munger, offsetting the Occidental Oil company's first producer, east part of block 30, is being completed today. Wednesday's estimates were for a hundred-barrel producer at the lease.

The shallow pools which dot the Iowa Park district continue to be the scene of active operations, and a large number of new wells from the 780-foot sand in several different leases are reported. Among the completions, some of which were made several weeks ago, are 11 wells for the Rumsey Oil company, three on the Lee farm, in one of the oldest shallow pools o fthe district, and eight on the Blagg farm.

These wells are producing from the 780-foot sand and have an average flush production reported of 25 barrels. The Arkansas-Texas company is reported to have recently completed a total of eight shallow wells on the T. F. Mitchell lease, C. T. R. R. survey. The sand depth averages 780 feet, with production ranging from 15 to 30 barrels.

Iowa Park Burnett.

On the Iowa Park Burnett the Burkburnett Junior Oil company's No. 6 is reported a 25-barrel well from the 780-foot sand, but with some water trouble. This well may be driller for a deeper sand.

Burton et al. Nos. 2, 3 and 4 Blagg are reported recent completions from the 780-foot sand, with a flush production averaging around 40 barrels. On the Denny tract the McClain Oil company's Nos. 2 and 3 are reported 25-barrel wells from the 780-foot sand.

Other new wells in the Electra district, not mentioned above, include the Barr Davis Oil company's No. 5 Burnett, making 80 barrels from 970 feet; the Magnolia Petroleum company's No. 10 Burnett, 40 barrels from 950 feet, and the No. 11 Burnett of Roy B. Jones, trustee, 50 barrels from the deep sand, 1,950 feet.

Two holes were abandoned as dry in Wilbarger county, the Mid-Kansas Oil company's No. 1 Paul Waggoner, 2,500 feet, and the Magnolia Petroleum company's No. 39 Piper, 2,300 feet.

Sure Pop Reported Junked.

The Sure Pop Oil company's test on the Scott, which had a good oil sand, and was considered as potentially a good producer, has been abandoned because of a junked hole, it is reported. A second test will be put down here to the 1,850-foot sand, it is understood. The Sigler Oil company's No. 2 Wharton also is a junked hole, according to reports from the field.

In block 834 the United Drilling and Development company had pulled casing and plugged its No. 1 Hirschi at a depth of 2,000 feet, before the reports that the Spur Oil company's test had a deeper sand. This hole has been abandoned by nuecessity, since the casing was out of the hole, but it is understood that a second hole will be put down as soon as the status of the Spur is definitely understood.

Waggoner Completions.

A number of completions are reported from the Waggoner pool and the old Burkburnett district, including the following: Oklahoma Petroleum and Gasoline company, Nos. 8 and 9 Taylor, block 97, 35 barrels; Caaldwell Oil company, No. 3 Elsea, block 88, 20 barrels; R. O. Harvey, No. 4 Elsea, block 88, 20 barrels; Chesapeake Oil and Gas company, No. 3 Schmissus, block 73, 20 barrels; Waseca Oil company, No. 2 Taylor, block 97, 25 barrels; Aetna Petroleum company, No. 5 Taylor, block 98, 30 barrels; Dalsa Oil company, No. 6 and No. 7 Brannon, 30 barrels each; Humble Oil and Refining company, No. 28 Serien, 40 barrels; Magnolia Petroleum company, No. 6 Anderson, 40 barrels.

The Shamrock Oil company, of which C. H. Clark, local oil operator is president and operating head, has taken over the Wichita Valley Development company's lease on the Herbert Griffin ranch on a 50-50 basis and is preparing to complete the No. 3, which was reported on the oil sand a couple of weeks ago, and is drilling a fourth well, according to information from the local offices of the Shamrock.

This property is also known as the Dundee Oil and Gas company, this being the name of the drilling company which brought in the discovery well early in the spring. This well has never been operated full time, because of lack of pipeline connections, but has been pumped at intervals to secure fuel oil for the drilling of other tests, and is rated as approximately a 50-barrel well.

The No. 1 was the first test to get oil west of the Kemp-Munger-Allen pool, and the first of several tests drilled in this general vicinity during a space of several years to meet with any success. A further test of this portion of the Griffin ranch will be followed with interest, both by Wichita Falls operators and by the adjacent land owners, and also by the town of Dundee, a short distance to the southwest.

HOLD C. ROBERTS IN FEDERAL CASE

C. Roberts was arrested early Wednesday by Sheriff Bob McFall and federal agents and was confined to the county jail pending examining trial before United States Commissioner J. A. Lantz on a charge of violating the national prohibition act.

According to reports from the sheriff, Roberts was arrested in a house on Ninth street while alleged to have had one gallon of whiskey in his possession.

He will probably be arraigned for hearing Thursday.

12,000 BUILDERS WON'T TAKE RAISE

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 10.—Twelve thousand workmen, members of building trades in Baltimore, have declined to accept an increase in wages. At a meeting today of representatives of the workers a motion to accept a wage advance from 90 cents to $1 an hour was tabled by an overwhelming vote.

LUDWIG OF BAVARIA IS DEAD AT BASLE

STOLEN DIAMONDS RETURN—MYSTERY

Special to The Record News.

DALLAS, Nov. 10.—Diamonds valued at $2,000, which were stolen last week from Mrs. J. A. Ferris, 612 East Eleventh street, were mysteriously returned to their owner.

Mrs. Ferris reported the loss to officers and detectives who chased a man to Oak Cliff Sunday night who they thought might know something of the theft. Several shots were fired at the suspect.

Accepts Bribe to Prevent Strike

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Robert P. Brindell, president of the building trades council, who is alleged to have received payments for calling off building strikes, "expected one-half of 1 per cent" on city pier construction contracts totaling $3,250,000, testimony in Commissioner of Accounts Hirschfield's inquiry into ramifications o fthe "trust" revealed today.

Howard H. Sherwin, vice president and general manager of Terry & Tench company, contractors for Staten Island piers, declared that of this one-half of 1 per cent—$16,250—Brindell actually had been paid $7,500.

He said his firm had not taken such a fee into consideration in calculating its bid, and never before had paid labor leaders to prevent strikes.

SPAIN SOON WILL RECOGNIZE MEXICO

By Associated Press

MADRID, Nov. 10.—The Spanish government, it is reported, intends shortly to announce its recognition of the governments of Mexico and Bolivia.

A Madrid dispatch of November 8 reported that the Spanish government had officially recognized the government of Bolivia, but from the foregoing it would appear that the announcement was premature.

MOTORISTS BATTLE OVER MAN'S HEAD

DALLAS, Nov. 10.—D. P. Jones, employee of the city pumping station, narrowly escaped death while on his way to work.

He was riding a bicycle along the Cedar Springs road when a man in a Ford automobile fired three shots at a man and woman in a big Cadillac car.

The first shot passed through his hat. He fell from the bicycle and lay in the gutter until the fusillade ended.

COURT CLEARS DEPUTY PEACE OFFICER HERE

The case against John Canada, deputy sheriff, who was recently indicted by a special session of the grand jury on a charge of subornation of perjury, was dismissed Wednesday by Judge P. A. Martin in Eighty-Ninth district court.

According to officials of the court, it was found as the result of investigations that Canada had not told several witnesses that they should not tell what they knew to the grand jury, as was set out in the bill of indictment against him, but that he had told several people that they were not obliged to give testimony to anyone until they had been subpoenaed by the sheriff.

Persons who signed Canada's bond for appearance of $3,000 were automatically released upon dismissal of the case.

The most simple dessert

—if you make it with Libby's Evaporated Milk, has a delicacy of flavor—a "creaminess"—you will notice immediately! Just fine, pure, fresh milk—with more than half the water removed, nothing added—it improves everything in which you use it. Order a supply from your grocer today.

Libby, McNeill & Libby, Chicago

Try this Tapioca Cream

Cook 1 cupful Libby's Evaporated Milk, 1 cupful water, ½ cupful sugar and 2 heaping tablespoonfuls tapioca in double boiler until tapioca is clear. Then stir in yolks of 2 eggs beaten with tablespoonful water till light. Cook 5 minutes longer, then pour over stiffly beaten whites of the eggs. Add 1 teaspoonful lemon extract and grating of nutmeg and pour into individual molds. Serve cold with cream or any fresh or preserved fruit

BLUE Karo

The standard of all table syrups. Also for cooking, baking and candy-making. Light brown color, delicious flavor—a heavy bodied syrup.

Notice to the Public!

Among the twenty odd million American Homes there is probably not a single one where Karo is not served in some manner—for breakfast, for dinner or for supper.

Over two hundred million cans of the three different kinds of Karo were sold last year.

During these days of high prices, Karo has become another word for economy. Thousands of thoughtful housewives have learned that Karo is not only a delicious spread for pancakes, but answers every purpose where a sweet is needed.

For Your Protection

So that you will not be deceived by cans containing syrup that look like Karo in color and appearance every housewife is cautioned to look for this mark: Karo

It is found only on original Karo—and guarantees you full weight cans and highest quality.

Serve Karo on sliced bread, toast, pancakes or waffles.

Do as the wise cooks are now doing: Use Karo to stew dried fruit, prunes; use it for candied sweet potatoes, brown bread, muffins, coffee cake and puddings.

Karo Home-made Candy is the best for children. It is wholesome, easy to make, costs much less than store candy.

Mothers give children Karo and sliced bread because it satisfies Nature's craving for sweets and takes the place of candy.

For those who appreciate the tempting flavor of real maple sugar syrup. Very moderate in price—absolutely pure. The makers of Karo Maple are the world's largest users of the highest grade maple sugar. Over a thousand tons used annually.

BETTER THAN WHISKEY FOR COLDS AND FLU

New Elixir, Called Aspironal, Medicated With Latest Scientific Remedies, Used and Endorsed by European and American Army Surgeons to Cut Short a Cold and Prevent Complications

Every Druggist in U. S. Instructed to Refund Price While You Wait at Counter If Relief Does Not Come Within Two Minutes.

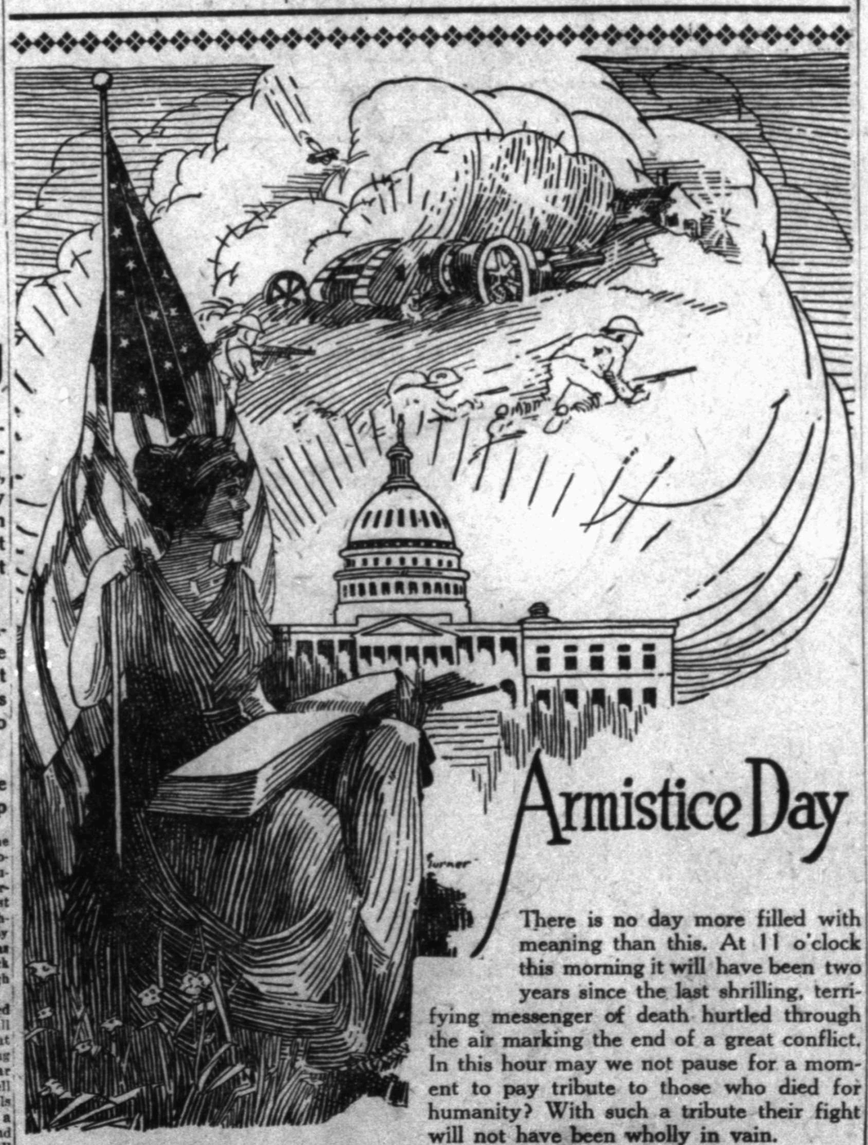

Delightful Taste, Immediate Relief, Quick Warm-Up

The sensation of the year in the drug trade is Aspironal, the two-minute cold and cough reliever, authoritatively guaranteed by the laboratories; tested, approved and most enthusiastically endorsed by the highest authorities, and proclaimed by the common people as ten times as quick and effective as whiskey, rock and rye, or any other cold and cough remedy they have ever tried.

All drug stores are now supplied with the wonderful new elixir, so all you have to do to get rid of that cold is to step into the nearest drug store, hand the clerk half a dollar for a bottle o f Aspironal and tell him to serve you two teaspoonfuls with four teaspoonfuls of water in a glass. With your watch in your hand take the drink at one swallow and call for your money back in two minutes if you cannot feel your cold fading away like a dream within the time limit. Don't b e bashful, for all druggists invite you and expect you to try it. Everybody's doing it.

When your cold or cough is relieved, take the remainder of the bottle home to your wife and babies, for Aspironal is by far the safest and most effective, the easiest to take and the most agreeable cold and cough remedy for infants and children.—

Armistice Day

There is no day more filled with meaning than this. At 11 o'clock this morning it will have been two years since the last shrilling, terrifying messenger of death hurtled through the air marking the end of a great conflict. In this hour may we not pause for a moment to pay tribute to those who died for humanity? With such a tribute their fight will not have been wholly in vain.

DAILY FINANCIAL, OIL AND MARKET NEWS

GRAIN COTTON

COTTON CLOSES STEADY AFTER ACTIVE SESSION

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 10.—An active market and wide fluctuations to both net gains and net losses prevailed in cotton today with the steadied period toward the close when a general demand for profits arose on the short side. Last prices were at net advances of 21 to 30 points.

The trading of the early session was at the advance, the market reacting from the declines of yesterday in a decided manner. Buyers for long accounts appeared confident and the rise continued.

The middle part of the session was featured by the receipt of a great deal of unfavorable news, which was acted on all at once. The drop in sugar, the unfavorable steel trade reports, many accounts of mills going on further short time, price cutting in various lines of goods and the British board of trade returns for October, showing exports of 10,400,000 pounds of yarns against 14,300,000 in October of last yearand exports of 304,900,000 yards of cloths against 393,200,000 all helped to create the most pronounced movement of the session.

NEW YORK DOWN

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Early advances in the cotton market were followed by a break which carried all active months into new low ground for the movement, but there was a sharp rally in the late trading and the close was steady at a net advance of 24 to 50 points.

The market weakened early in the afternoon on reports of increased spot offerings in the eastern belt and rumors that some of the eatsern belt banks were calling loans on cotton. There was very little southern hedge selling and the market firmed up again late in the day on renewed covering and reports that a better trade demand had been on the decline. Closing price rallies of 40 to 50 points from the lowest.

RAW SUGAR QUIETER

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Raw sugar was quieter today and prices were unchanged at 6 1-4c for Cubas, cost and freight, equal to 7.27 for centrifugal.

Refined prices were reduced half a cent a pound by some of the leading refiners, with all refiners now said to be accepting business at this level. The demand was light, as further declines are expected.

There was little activity in the future market closing at declines of 20 to 22 points.

COFFEE FUTURES CLOSE

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Coffee futures just about lost the rallies of yesterday afternoon selling back to within a point or two of yesterday's low levels. The market was unsettled.

December 7.00; January 7.23.

Spot coffee dull; Rio 7s, 7 3-8 to 1/2; Santos 4s, 10 3-4 to 11½.

Hogs—Receipts, 1,000; market steady. Light, $13.00@13.25; heavy, $12.75@13.00; medium, $12.25@12.75; mixed, $11.75@12.25; common, $11.00@11.75; pigs, $7.00@12.25.

Sheep—Receipts, 250; market unchanged. Lambs, $6.50@11.25; yearlings, $7.50@8.50; wethers, $6.50@8.25; ewes, $3.00@7.00; culls, $1.00@3.00; goats, $3.00@4.00.

NOTICE

Rotary Men

About 7500 acres in Coke county on good structure, located by Hugh Tucker and two other good geologists. Can furnish good geological reports.

We have a good strong derrick, a heavy Rotary machine; everything in first class condition. Hole down between 1700 and 1800 feet and some casing. Will give one-half interest in all acreage and well, also if we get a well give one-half interest in Rotary machine, and will give $2,000 or $3,000 in cash to any one who will go 3,500 feet or until oil or gas is found in paying quantities.

This is a real oil man's proposition and if interested will have to act quickly.

FARMER BODIES MERGE TO AID COTTON TRADE

DALLAS, Texas, Nov. 10.—At a meeting of the officials of the two organizations held here today, the decision was reached to consolidate the Texas Farm Bureau Federation and the Texas Division of the American Cotton Association.

This decision was the result of negotiations which have been pending for sometime and is in response to the general sentiment favoring consolidation of effort, on the part of various organizations seeking to serve the interests of the farmers. The terms of the merger provide:

That the Texas division of the American Cotton Association shall become the cotton division of the Texas Farm Bureau. The consolidated organization will continue the organization work and carry out the plans and purposes of the arm Bureau, as heretofore announced, under direction of its board of directors.

The Cotton Association under this arrangement, will continue its campaign for acreage reduction, building of warehouses, gradual marketing and discouraging the gathering of low grade and "bolly" cotton, as agreed on at the Cotton Conference held in Dallas September 1st, and October 21st. The campaign for farmer memberships will be continued by the Farm Bureau.

A general feeling of optimism prevailed at the meeting and several present enthusiastically predicted that the consolidation would result in an organization movement among the farmers which would sweep the entire state, with a membership of 100,000 within a year.

D. E. Lyday, vice president and general manager, Texas Division American Cotton Association said:

"Working single handed, each of these organizations is accomplishing great things and has already been of great value to the farmers; united they should become an irresistable force in the agricultural life of Texas, which should overcome every obstacle, sweep away every difficulty and bring to the farmers of Texas the full fruition of their labors and the permanent prosperity they so richly deserve."

C. O. Moser, secretary-manager of the Texas arm Bureau Federation, said:

"We are much pleased with the consummation of the merger of these two organizations, and this policy is a part of the plans of the Farm Bureau movement throughout the United States, to bring about harmony of organization, concentration of effort, unity of sentiment and economy of operation in the conduct of an organized movemet among farmers to secure economic justice."

The boards of directors of both these organizations have ratified the merger.

BRITISH BUYING, BETTER CREDIT, SEND WHEAT UP

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—Swift upturns in the price of wheat today followed word that for the first time in nearly two months Great Britain was buying on this side of the Atlantic. The markets was also bullishly affected by announcement that no general calling of rural loans in Kansas was looked for.

Prices closed strong, 5 3-4 to 9 3-4c net higher, with December 1.86 1-4 to 1.86 3-4 and March 1.81 to 1.81½. Corn gained 5-8 to 1 3-4c, oats 5-8c to 1½c.

In the provisions, the outcome varied from 25c decline to 15c advance.

From the outset, too, it was evident that traders had given special heed to denials that any radical curtailment of grain credit in Kansas was contemplated.

Corn sympathized with the strength of wheat, shorts in corn covering freely.

Production in the Wichita Falls district for the week just ended shows an increase of around 1,000 barrels more than the production for the previous week, as indicated by the pipeline runs, which have a daily average total of 86,000 barrels.

The production, by pools, follows:

Burkburnett, Northwest and townsite, 56,000 barrels.
Texhoma, 5,300 barrels.
Old Burkburnett, 6,700 barrels.
Electra, 10,600 barrels.
Kemp-Munger-Allen and Iowa Park, 6,000 barrels.
Petrolia, 400 barrels.
Holliday, 200 barrels.
Young county, 600 barrels.

MORE COFFEE DRUNK

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 10.—Sixteen billion more cups of coffee have been consumed so far in 1920 than in the entire year of 1919, according to Felix Coste of New York, secretary of the National Coffee Roasters' Association, which opened its tenth annual convention here today. The increased consumption is due principally to prohibition, Mr. Coste asserted.

AUTO KILLS ONE

TULSA, Okla., Nov. 10.—C. W. Swandell, of Cleburne, Texas, was killed here today in an automobile accident. He was riding on a truck with Roy Knotts when the accident occurred.

If your bowels do not act regularly, you feel uncomfortable, and the longer this condition exists the worse you feel. To put an end to the misery, take Herbine. It purifies the bowels, restores energy and cheerful spirits. Price, 60c. Sold by your druggist.—Adv.

FREAK BUBBLING AND BOILING OIL WELL DEVELOPS

White oil is bubbling and boiling up over the casing and the hole practically full of oil, preparations are under way to standardize the Universal Oil Company's No. 1, Lewis, in block 20, west part of the Kemp, Munger, Allen pool, according to reports from the field on Wednesday.

This test by its unusually freakish behavior has been the object of much interest since two weeks ago, when, as the casing was about abandoned seemingly dry at 2,000 feet, a flow of oil was made from 1500 feet, where the casing was separated. The well was swabbed, much oil showing, and the hole was plugged from 2,000 to 1500 feet. Now a standard is being rigged up to complete. While there is some gas in evidence, there is still not enough gas to make a flow, it is stated, as the well stands.

This Universal test is the first on record to get even an oil showing at 1500 feet in the Kemp, Munger, Allen district, though many of the tests, in all parts of the field show a stray sand, between 1600 and 1650 feet. None however, have yet been successful in attempts to make a producer in this sand.

CUCKOO BOOK IS LLOYD'S SMILE VAT

Harold Lloyd, the inimitable comedian, has what he calls a "Cuckoo Book" that plays an important part in the making of his Hal E. Roach comedies for Pathe.

Every time he or anyone connected with the making of his comedies thinks of a funny situation or piece of business, down it goes in his little red "Cuckoo Book." When a point is reached in a picture where an extra idea is needed, all they have to do is to look in the book and nine times out of ten just the right thing is found therein.

"Get Out and Get Under," Harold Lloyd's newest comedy, at the Olympic theater today, contains as many laughs per minute at Lloyd's "Cuckoo Book" per page.

"Eight Hundred and Thirteen" is a high-class gentleman crook melodrama, which holds the audience in suspense to the last minute. The principal character is that famous croo kof fiction, Arsne Lupin.

TREATY VIEWS OF U. S. CHANGE OVER ELECTION

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—As a result of the election and the impending change of administrations, the state department has begun to relax its attitude in some of the diplomatic problems with which it has been dealing.

This was made clear today with the statement by high officials that the question of Fiume and the Adriatic settlement, in which the United States has played a prominent part in the past, was likely to be relegated to the background of affairs in which the state department was disposed to concern itself.

The statement already has been made that in the case of the problem presented by the creation of spheres of influence in Turkey by the allied powers it was doubtful whether the United States would find it possible to arrive at a basis for objection because of the uncertainty as to what part American would play in world affairs under the new republican administration.

The impending change of administrations, however, will not have any effect on negotiations with Japan regarding the California alien land law. These negotiations now are nearing completion and a new treaty soon will be drawn.

As to the Adriatic question, it was understood that the state department, for the present at least, would be contented to rest its attitude on the last statement of President Wilson that the solution should be left to settlement between Italy and Jugo-Slavia, so long as that settlement did not contravene certain clearly established principles of the self-determination of peoples and so long as such a settlement took as its basis the allied memorandum to Italy of December 9, 1919.

ST. LOUIS ELECTION OFFICIALS INDICTED

By Associated Press.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 10.—Three republican and three democratic precinct election officials were indicted on charges of having made a false count and return in the state-wide primary election August 7, last. Three of the men were arrested and the other three surrendered.

MARKET VARIES IN STRENGTH AS DAY ADVANCES

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The stock market was firm at the active opening of today's session, becoming acutely weak at mid-day and rallying vigorously in the later dealings, when confident buying or rails, oils and equipments caused urgent short covering and effected pronounced readjustment of quoted values.

Sentimental reasons for the sharp reverse at noon were provided by the publication of the United States steel October tonnage report showing a very large decrease in unfilled orders from the preceding month and announcement of the suspension of the extra dividend on American sugar.

Call loans fell to nine percent after attaining their usual maximum of ten percent.

Bonds moved uncertain during the greater part of the day but came forward with the stock list towards the finish, mostly Liberty issues, for example, scoring net advances.

Total sales, par value, $15,875,000.

KANSAS CITY LIVE STOCK.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 10.—Cattle—Receipts, 13,000; market on canners weak; bulk, $3.50@3.75; other classes slow but generally steady; steer sales, $8.00@12.25; bul kshe stock, $6.50@7.50; few heifers, $9.50@11.00; best vealers, $13.00@13.50.

Hogs—Receipts, 12,000; market mostly steady; common grades weak to 15c lower; top, $13.25; bulk medium and heavy weight, $12.85@13.20; good and choice hogs, $12.85@13.25.

Sheep—Receipts, 7,000; market on fat lambs mostly 50c lower; top natives, $12.00; few sales sheep, 50c to 75c lower; some bids $1 lower.

KANSAS CITY GRAIN.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 10.—Cash wheat—No. 1 hard, $1.76@1.85; No. 2, $1.75@1.85; No. 1 red, $2.01@2.08; No. 2, $2.00@2.05.

Corn—No. 2 mixed, 91c; No. 2 white, 89c; No. 2 yellow, 96c.

Oats—No. 2 white, 52½c; No. 2 mixed, 53c.

Rye—$1.45@1.46.

If the bowels do not act regularly, assist them with an occasional dose of Herbine. It is a fine bowel tonic and laxative. Price, 60c. Sold by your druggist.—Adv.

HORSE SENSE in horse feeding.

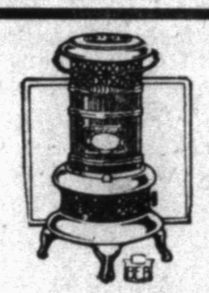

It is shrewd common sense to feed a horse a balanced feed, which will develop every part of its body. Analysis of Purina O-Molene Feed shows that it contains in proper proportion all the elements for muscle, blood, hair and hide making, as well as a large percentage of Nitrogen free extract, which supplies heat and energy. There is no 15 to 18 percent waste as in feeding the whole oats, due to swallowing whole.

Purina O-Molene Feed is highly digestible.

HARDING GAVE $2,500 TO FUND TO FEED HUNGRY

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—President-elect Harding, within 48 hours after election day, contributed $2,500 to the Literary Digest child feeding fund for the relief of 3,500,000 destitute and starving children in Europe.

His contribution was announced tonight as among the first in $163,000 collected to date which the Literary Digest started with its own subscription of $25,000, at the urgent appeal of Herbert Hoover.

From Marion, Ohio, on November 4, Mr. Harding forwarded his check, and telegraphed:

"I have just read your splendid appeal to the people of America in behalf of three and a half millions of unfortunate children in central and southeastern Europe who are the helpless victims of the great war. Because such a movement for relief reveals the true heart of America, because it speaks an American desire to play a great people's part in relieving and restoring God's own children, I want to commend and support you in your undertaking.

"In seeking God's blessing for ourselves, I am sure He will bless us the more abundantly if we share our good fortune in acts of sympathy and human fellowship. I wish you a success which will reveal anew the unselfishness of our great people. I am forwarding you my check for $2,500 by mail today."

WEATHER AIDS HARVESTING OF COTTON CROP

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—With favorable weather prevailing, harvesting of cotton generally made good progress throughout the belt and picking continued under equal favorable conditions in the northern districts east of the Mississippi river, said the national weather and crop bulletin issued today by the department of agriculture, covering conditions during the week ending November 9. Harvesting was further delayed in the northwestern portion of the belt by rain and wet soil, the bulletin said, adding:

"Very little damage has been done to the cotton crop by frost, while the mild fall has favored the development of the late plants in the northeastern portion of the belt. Picking has been about completed in Texas, except in the northwest portion of the state, while this work is completed or well along generally in Arkansas.

Cotton was practically "all housed" in Georgia during the week, while harvesting was about completed in South Carolina, the bulletin said.

Excursion to the Rio Grande Valley

We will run our next excursion to the Valley on Sunday, November 21st, and return Friday, November 26th.

If interested in seeing this wonderful valley, where they grow three crops a year on the same ground, and where the flowers bloom in winter the same as in the month of May we will be glad to meet you and talk the matter over.

We go in pullman cars and serve your meals on the train. We go by way of Galveston and spend most of the day Monday on the beach and give you a boat ride on the gulf; will arrive in the Rio Grande Valley Tuesday morning. There the party will take autos for inspection of the entire country.

You will be shown the richest farm lands in the world; lands that produce oranges, grape fruits and every other variety of citrus fruit, one to two bales of cotton per acre, 100 to 125 bushels of corn to the acre, 300 to 500 bushels of potatoes per acre, $1,000 to $1,500 an acre in tomatoes, cabbage, onions, etc.

This rich alluvial land is made to produce these tremendous crops by irrigation from the Rio Grande river and semi-tropical climate, a climate that excels southern California, cooler in summer and warmer in winter. We will spend three days in looking this valley over.

We will give a very low rate for the round trip. If interested, see me before the above date.

a short time later, at a "greatly increased price."

He also charged sales of materials had been made without proper inventory. Regarding advertising of plants, he said he had found instances where there were many thousands of dollars difference between accounts rendered to the shipping board and those rendered to private or municipal bodies of the same properties.

Liberty Bonds Mentioned

The sale of Liberty bonds also came into the testimony of Mr. Richardson. Bonds were bought, he said by some of the companies, with advance funds and a few sold at discounts.

Efforts on the part of these companies to be reimbursed by the board for the discount losses were not allowed and the claims withdrawn, as were charges of percentage in selling to cover cost of selling campaigns.

Operators who run their own vessels in addition to ships of the board, said Mr. Richardson, usually sent the government ships on the least favorable routes.

They feel confident, he added, that although the government shared in the profits, it was required to pay all the losses. No employes, he explained, were retained in foreign ports, with the result that there was a frequent return of ships in ballast from ports where cargoes were going begging.

DENIES GRAFT.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 10.—J. N. Barde, secretary-treasurer of the Barde Steel Products company, mentioned in the graft charges of A. M. Fisher and J. F. Richardson in their report on United States shipping board operations as trying to purchase, under a blanket contract, all supplies and stores of the emergency fleet corporation, today disclaimed any knowledge of irregularities in his concern's dealings with the shipping board.

Mr. Barde, who came here to inspect, the Hog Island shipyard, said that his company a few days ago submitted a bid of $10,000,000 for the big plant and that he expected to leave within a day or two for Washington to discuss the bid with Admiral Benson. Should this company get the plant, he said, it probably would scrap part of it and put the trackage in such shape that the yard could be offered for sale as an ocean terminal.

"We would not operate Hog Island," he added, "as we are only brokers."

Referring to the graft report, Mr. Barde said:

"In all my dealings with the shipping board I know of nothing that is irregular. As a matter of fact, all my negotiations were carried on direct with Admiral Benson and Judge Payne, who headed the board before the admiral. It was because I feared something out of the ordinary would develop that I always refused to do business with anyone but the highest officials."

army and navy and to the veterans of the world war now in civil life.

"Today the army salutes its own—its fallen heroes," Secretary Baker said.

"It is for us to emblaze on their glory in imperishable memorials; to engrave their devotion in our hearts and to dedicate ourselves to a perpetuation of the principles for which they fell."

Declaring events for the two years since the signing of the armistice had "caused many of us to lose the holy joy that day," Secretary Daniels admonished the navy to dedicate itself to "the same ideals which gave immortal glory to our American youths of 1917-1918."

General Pershing characterized Armistice day as the "twentieth century independence day of the world." He charged the men who served under his command in the war to keep before them in peace the ideals for which they fought and declared the interests of the nation would be "well directed and fully safeguarded by this great citizen army of veterans."

Maj. Gen. Peyton C. March, chief of staff, said:

"On the second anniversary of Armistice day we turn our thoughts from the strife of politics, from the urge of business, to acclaim again our army in the world war."

BOOKLET SHOWS OIL AND GAS MEN INCOME TAX DATA

Local revenue collectors have been informed that the manual for oil and gas industries, dealing with the depreciation factors in tax assessment, which has been unavailable since early in the year, is now ready for distribution.

The booklet may be obtained for a charge of 25 cents from the public documents department, government printing house at Washington, D. C.

The manual covers the provisions of the revenue act of 1918 and is of importance to oil dealers all over the United States, according to collectors here. Only a limited number of copies were originally made and operators have been unsuccessful in efforts to obtain the information.

WASHINGTON SUICIDE HAS TEXAS RECORD

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—J. J. McDonald, alias E. J. Ward, who committed suicide in jail here yesterday, was under a ten-year sentence for swindling, imposed in a recent trial at Fort Worth, Texas, it was learned here tonight. McDonald, who was apprehended in California and taken to Fort Worth last summer, was out on bond following appeal from his sentence there when he was rearrested and brought here to be tried on charges of swindling a Washington furniture dealer out of $35,000. He was being held in jail here when he committed suicide by cutting his throat.

McDonald's alleged swindling operations here were said to have been committe before those in Fort Worth.

COMEDY-DRAMA AND SKIT SHARE HONORS OF BILL

Homer Miles and Company in a comedy drama, "The Rough Neck" and Harrison Greene and Katherine Parker in a black face skit "At the Depot," share honors as headliners in the week's vaudeville bill at the Wichita theater. Both teams have good material and the personality necessary to get the best across the footlights.

Homer Miles and Margaret O'Donnell, starring in the one act comedy "The Rough-Neck" are skillful, hard workers and present a simple doctrine of the man first and the gentleman later, that takes well with the audience. The smooth tongued villain, almost universally popular as such, is presented as sufficiently black and murderous by Frank Pierson.

The Green-Harrison team provided a continuous string of merriment, founded largely on real humor and original thrusts of wit. Without presuming to stick closely to the negro brogue, they give an interpretation of the characterics of the modern African that hit the truth often enough to keep the audience enthusiastic in its response.

Cummings and White, opening the bill with athletic feats, have both skill and strength, combined to make an original offering.

Elaborate costuming and scenic effects support Mario Lo and her company in a series of artistic tableax. the designs the creations of Mario Lo herself. Classic and popular art both have a place in the spectacular series.

Earle and Sunshine, in a comedy character presentation, "Yesterday and Today," bore the cruel brunt of the chilly night and its extension to an erratic audience Wednesday. They are offering some clever contrasts with burlesques extending from modern and old time dancing to the same periods in courtship and marriage.

MOTHERS URGE SCHOOLS' SOLE USE OF ENGLISH

DALLAS, Texas, Nov. 10.—At the closing session of the Texas Congress of Mothers this afternoon, Mrs. S. M. N. Marrs of Austin was elected president of the organization. Mrs. Edward Kneeland of Dallas was elected vice president at large. Other members elected to offices are:

Mrs. Noyes Smith of Austin, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Stephen Chamness of Heuderson, recording secretary; Mrs. Charles J. Chaisson of Beaumont, treasurer, and S. P. Waltrip of Houston, auditor. All officers were elected unanimously after the report of the nominating committee.

Following report of the resolutions committee on Wednesday afternoon, the congress adopted resolutions urging improvement in conditions surrounding children, the home and marital relations. It was decided to urge upon the next legislature certain measures for reaching the proposed goal of improvements.

Among the first measures endorsed by the assembly of mothers was an amendment to the state school laws, requiring all instruction in schools, whether public or private, to be given in English, and placing the enforcement of this law in the hands of the department of education.

DETECTIVE HELD PENDING INQUIRY

Detective Jay, Fort Worth, a detective who came to Wichita Falls to help H. W. Fulps of Fort Worth take back a stolen automobile found here Sunday by Detective Boone, was arrested and held for investigation by Deputy Sheriff H. H. Schwend at Henrietta. The mayor of Henrietta ordered the detective held pending a probe of how liquor came to be found in the auto.

Detective Schwend reported that the detective was under the influence of liquor. He said that Fulps had "evidently taken a drink or two." Fulps was held for a few hours until he established his identity and was released. Fulps told the Henrietta officers that Detective Jay had forced him to turn over the wheel and had then driven his car into the ditch. The car was also held.

Fulps telephoned for the police at Henrietta.

DRAGGED MILE BY MULES, MAN DIES

LOCKHART, Texas, Nov. 10.—Death of John G. Drake, for many years agricultural agent of Caldwell, Johnson and Hood counties, occurred here early this morning, resulting from injuries sustained when a pair of mules with which he was plowing became entangled in the reins. The animals took fright and dragged Mr. Drake more than a mile, injuring him to such an extent he died a few minutes after found.

Mr. Drake was one of the best known men in the state extension service. He formerly resided at Cleburne and owned a farm near that city. Recently he resigned from the extension department to become manager of a large farm here.

PRINTERS PICK WICHITA FALLS FOR MEETINGS

The Texas Typothetae Federation will hold its next annual meeting in Wichita Falls, according to announcement of T. R. T. Bohart, who has just returned from attendance upon this year's meeting at Waco, at the Wichita club meeting Wednesday.

More than two hundred master printers are members of the federation and its meeting here was voted after consistent efforts by local representatives.

President-Elect Harding has been wired an invitation to make Wichita Falls a part of his itinerary through Texas as the result of a motion made by N. H. Martin and passed by the club.

An appeal for trade with local merchants was made by John Bradley, representing the Retail Merchants' Association. C. C. McDonald asked for the support of the organization in the Red Cross membership drive which opens Thursday.

SUBURBS FAST GET 'CITIFIED', SAYS OFFICER

The subdivision taken into the city under the new charter are becoming more "citified," according to Pound Master Colvin of the police department. The pound officer's conclusion is based on the diminishing number of stray cows and dogs which he is compelled to escort to the city pound from the latest additions to the city.

When the sub-divisions were first taken into the city a number of the residents had family cows which were allowed to run wherever the cattle thought agreeable. Some were staked out without regard to the obstruction of the sidewalks, alleys or streets.

So many violations of the city ordinance regulating stray cows and dogs were made when the new additions were first taken into the city limits that Officer Colvin feared that the capacity of city pound would be overtaxed. In fact a tag system similar to that used in enforcing the one-hour parking law on Eighth street was utilized to relieve the congested situation.

The cows were tagged and the owners were requested to call at the police station to explain the wanderings of the family milk supply. Owners of cows threatened the supremacy of the owners of automobiles on the police docket for several weeks.

But the situation has been gradually improving, according to the city pound officer. Some of the newer residents have decided that it is impossible to enjoy the conveniences of a city and the advantages of farm life at the same time and have disposed of their bovines. The remainder are becoming better acquainted with the city regulations and are running their one-cow dairies according to police regulations.

Over $1,500 in fees and sales has been collected by the city since February 1, as revenue from the city pound, which is located in the 1500 block on Seventh street. Cattle and other animals which are taken to the pound are sold at public auction when owners fail to call for them and pay the pound fee. Two mules are the only inhabitants of the pound at the present time.

Peace Army Still Lacking 70,000 Of Full Strength

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The regular army is still nearly 70,000 short of the authorized strength of 280,000 officers and men. This is shown by a war department statement today.

Of the 213,067 officers and men enrolled, 162,918 are in the continental services and 14,306 in the army of occupation on the Rhine. There are 18,947 in the Philippines; 6,927 in Hawaii, 5,600 in Panama; 1,493 in Porto Rico; 1,406 in China, 867 in Alaska, 101 in France and five in England.

The department announced that during October the enlisted strength of the national guard was increased by 4,649, making a total November 1 of 67,552 men, as compared with an authorized strength of 182,830.

Texas has the second largest national guard organization, 8,000 men.

LIFT EMBARGO INCOMING COTTON

The embargo against in-coming cotton, in effect at the Northwestern compress since Thursday of last week was lifted Wednesday.

Congested conditions within the compress, necessitating the restrictions, had been relieved by orders for large out-going shipments.

Judge J. P. Jones announced at the conclusion of the meeting that the regular meeting next Monday.

Unbiased Experts Call Retreat of Wrangel Success

By Associated Press

PARIS, Nov. 10. —Reports from disinterested military observers at Sebastopol state that the recent retreat of General Wrangel's army into the Crimea was accomplished with notable success, it was said at the French foreign office today. The morale of the troops, the reports declared, remained extremely high, and General Wrangel was represented as confident that with proper material he could reorganize the forces and maintain his positions without great difficulty.

It was the overwhelming number of the soviet troops appearing on the South Russian front that precipitated General Wrangel's retreat, the general asserted.

Harding Lands Big Tarpon; To Speak on Peace

By Associated Press

POINT ISABEL, Texas, Nov. 10. —President-elect Harding landed his first tarpon today and came back from the Point Isabel fishing grounds looking prouder than he did when, just a week ago tonight, late election figures confirmed his overwhelming majority for the presidency.

The catch measured four feet and five inches, a fair-sized prize as tarpons go, and Mr. Harding handled the reel unassisted while the big fish raced back and forth through the water in its furious attempt to get away. It was pulled in just 15 minutes after it took the bait.

Mrs. Harding shared the honors of the day, for she also hooked a tarpon. It was almost a six-footer, however, and she did not try to land it. She passed the rod over to Senator Hale, a guest of the president-elect and his wife on their vacation trip here, and he brought it in after a struggle of more than a half hour.

Senator Harding again spent the whole day on the tarpon fields, three miles off shore, passing up an ideal golf day to devote himself to the sport to which he was introduced yesterday. His fishing will be interrupted tomorrow, however, when he goes to Brownsville, 20 miles away, to deliver an Armistice day speech.

He probably will give over the whole day to the trip, playing a game of golf at the Brownsville Country club before delivering the address.

HON. ROBERT D. CAREY,
Governor of the State of Wyoming says:

"While the cost of living is greater at the present time than at any time in our history, still many people are enjoying larger incomes than ever before, and in many instances have a better opportunity to save money—not only by starting bank accounts but buying homes.

"There is no question that if more Americans owned their own homes there would be less unrest in the country, as a man who owns his home feels that he is part of the community and is directly interested in its upbuilding."
